Apartment Fire Takes Heavy Toll

Won't Run, Says Bush

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman George Bush announced today he won't run for governor of Texas next year.

"I have made that a final decision," he said in a statement. "I will remain as chairman of the Republican National Committee."

In a statement, Bush sought to counter speculation his decision was based in part on dim Republican prospects in Texas in the wake of the Watergate scandal.

"The Republicans can win that election in 1974," he said. "I am convinced a forward-looking Republican can do more for Texas than the incumbent status quo Democrat."

The current Texas governor, Democrat Dolph Briscoe, is expected to seek re-election to the four-year governor's term in 1974.

NO FUEL LIKE OLD FUEL, EH?

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — When Austin transportation director Joe Ternus heard that San Antonio bus drivers were on strike he thought he had a good idea.

Ternus picked up the telephone and called San Antonio transit officials and proposed that Austin buy some of San Antonio's diesel fuel which is needed for Austin buses.

The reaction he got from San Antonio was less than hospitable, Ternus said.

"They didn't think the idea was very funny," he said.

Austin got no bus fuel from San Antonio.

CANCER STRIKES KENNEDY'S SON

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 12-year-old son of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is suffering from bone cancer and will have his right leg amputated above the knee, the senator's office said today.

The son, Edward M. Kennedy Jr., was tentatively scheduled to undergo surgery on Saturday.

Young Kennedy was told of the cancer and pending surgery late this morning, according to a family friend.

According to Claude Hooton, a family friend and classmate of the senator, the family apparently told the child of his medical condition shortly before noon.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fire flashed through an apartment building early today, trapping some sleeping residents and forcing others to toss their children to rescuers and then leap for their lives. Fire Chief Raymond Hill said 24 persons died, nine of them children.

52 INJURED

An undetermined number of persons were missing and officials said at least 52 persons were injured in what they said was the worst fire in the city's history. An undetermined number of the injured were reported in critical condition in hospitals.

Hours after the fire was extinguished, some of the building's estimated 200 residents remained unaccounted for, officials said.

Sleeping residents of the 68-unit brick building in the city's Wilshire section were overwhelmed by the spiraling fire that broke out shortly before midnight PST, officials said. They said the fire licked up open stairwells to the upper floors of the U-shaped Stratford Apartments, which has wings of three and four stories.

"I woke up and the place was all aflame," said Clarence Glover, 66, a resident of the building which is situated in a poorer section of the city. "I went down the fire escape... I could hear everyone screaming."

Fire Capt. Walt Wilmington said by the time the first three fire companies arrived, the fire had spread to all floors. "And by the time our firemen got their hose lines up, the flames had shot through the roof," he said.

SCREAMING

The same jury convicted Cain Thursday in the boy's murder during a burglary investigation. Defense lawyer Phil Burleson of Dallas urged the jury to give Cain a probation sentence.

He said putting Cain in prison would amount to "a possible death penalty" because Cain would "be subject to abuses by people he helped put in prison during five and a half years of law enforcement."

TELLING THE WORLD

Dallas Asst. Dist. Atty. Jon Sparling pleaded with the jury to assess Cain "a substantial term of years" in the penitentiary.

Sparling said that to grant probation would be "telling the whole world that Santos Rodriguez was not important enough to punish the man who killed him."

WINDY

Windy and cool. High today and Saturday in the 70s. Low tonight, upper 30s. South to southeasterly winds of 12 to 24 miles per hour this afternoon decreasing to 8 to 18 miles per hour tonight.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department is holding talks with the steel industry on job opportunities for minority workers. Asst. Atty. Gen. J. Stanley Pottinger said a lawsuit is possible but that the government hopes for a negotiated settlement of the issue. Pottinger, who heads the department's civil rights division, said the department is taking a similar position with a number of other industries and unions.

NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street is feeling a chill from uncertainties surrounding the nation's energy supplies. The surfacing of immediate energy worries within the past three weeks has been accompanied by one of the sharpest drops in stock market prices in recent memory. Since Oct. 29, the paper value of all stocks held has dropped an estimated $100 billion, based on declines in the popular market indexes of between 9 and 12 per cent.

WASHINGTON (AP) The man who ran gasoline rationing during World War II says it will be needed again if the shortage approaches 20 per cent of demand. Chester Bowles said he opposes a stiff gasoline tax to dampen demand. A tax "would just soak the little guy," he said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President-designate Gerald R. Ford has denied he offered to help convicted stock swindler Louis Wolfson. The issue was raised by Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, D-Calif., at House Judiciary Committee hearings on the Ford nomination. "We never offered any such action," Ford said.

Rookies Rocket Away For 'Holiday Cruise'

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Three rookie American astronauts rocketed into orbit today to start man's longest planned space voyage, an 84-day "holiday cruise" aboard the Skylab space station.

GREAT WORLD

"You've got three happy rookies up here," commander Gerald P. Carr reported after the space newcomers became adjusted to the weightless world. "It's really neat. It's a great world."

"We can hardly keep our eyes away from the window," said solar physicist Dr. Edward G. Gibson. "There already are nose smears all over the window."

During the marathon flight, which will span Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's, Carr, Gibson and William R. Pogue are to conduct extensive studies of the sun, earth and life.

They'll also take an unprecedented look at the great comet Kohoutek, a visitor from outer space now streaking toward the sun.

Marine Lt. Col. Carr, 41; Air Force Lt. Col. Pogue, 43, and Gibson, 37, began the final Skylab trip on the power of a Saturn IB rocket that thundered into a clear sky right on schedule at 9:01 a.m. EST.

KICK IN PANTS

"It's as smooth as glass," Carr reported as the astronauts and their Apollo ferry ship darted into orbit more than 100 miles high 10 minutes after lift-off. They immediately began the 17,400 mile-an-hour chase to track down the 85-ton Skylab, which was several thousand miles ahead of them.

Slightly more than two hours after launch, the spacemen executed the first of five rocket firings intended to close the gap — a two-second burst from their big main engine.

"The burn was on time," Carr reported. "That was one heck of a kick in the pants."

The space travelers were to link up with the station at 5:25 p.m. EST.

As the astronauts departed, President Nixon sent them a message that said in part: "The final manned flight of the Skylab program will bring to a close the single most productive program in man's quest for knowledge about himself and his world."

The flight, which Carr has dubbed a "holiday cruise," will be the most rigorous test yet of man's ability to withstand the physical and psychological stresses of long space travel. The medical results will have a bearing on whether astronauts one day will embark for other planets.

HOPE TO LEARN

By studying the sun and earth, the astronauts hope to learn if space can be exploited for the benefit of mankind.

No one can predict the benefits. But the thousands of photos and miles of tape gathered by the first two Skylab crews and the data to be collected on this last mission could provide a valuable payoff in the years ahead.

The information will be studied to determine if a space science can be developed for locating hidden oil and mineral reserves; assessing agricultural potential, arable land and diseased and healthy crops; estimating timber volume; mapping snow cover and assessing water runoff; charting air and water pollution and their sources; forecasting weather, and locating fishing grounds.

MAGNETIC STORMS

The solar data will help scientists better understand the sun and how it affects the entire solar system. Solar flares spew large doses of radiation into space, influencing weather and disrupting communications on earth by creating magnetic storms.

$500 MILLION Connally Denies Dairy 'Kickback'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, the focus of a Senate Watergate committee probe into a controversial milk producers' campaign fund, denies he was aware of any political deal when he recommended that President Nixon increase milk price supports.

PRICE SUPPORTS

The former Texas governor was interrogated by committee lawyers for 2 1/2 hours Thursday evening and told a news conference afterward that dairy industry representatives contacted him about raising price supports in 1971.

His position coincided with theirs, Connally said, but added, "I had no knowledge of political commitments or contributions to the President's election campaign." Connally later headed Democrats for Nixon and switched his political affiliation from Democratic to Republican earlier this year.

In December 1971, an attorney for the Associated Milk Producers Inc. (AMPI), wrote Nixon that the Texas-based dairy cooperative was making arrangements to contribute $2 million to the re-election campaign and asked for quick action on cutting imports of ice cream and other dairy products.

SECRET LOST

The request was granted 15 days later, but three months later, on March 12, 1971, Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin rejected a proposal for a substantial increase in the government support price for milk.

On March 22, the first $10,000 installment of some $427,500 in secret contributions from the dairy industry began flowing into Nixon campaign coffers, and the next day Nixon met with Connally, Hardin, economic adviser George P. Shultz and 16 dairy industry representatives.

On March 25, Hardin reversed his decision and granted a price support increase estimated by the industry to be worth at least $500 million to the nation's dairymen.

DELIBERATING PUNISHMENT Former Dallas Policeman Found Guilty Of Murder

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A jury began deliberating at 10:47 a.m. today on the punishment it will assess former Dallas policeman Darrell L. Cain for the shooting death of Santos Rodriguez, 12, who was killed as he sat handcuffed in a police car.

The same jury convicted Cain Thursday in the boy's murder during a burglary investigation. Defense lawyer Phil Burleson of Dallas urged the jury to give Cain a probation sentence.

He said putting Cain in prison would amount to "a possible death penalty" because Cain would "be subject to abuses by people he helped put in prison during five and a half years of law enforcement."

KIDNAP CAPER NETS $50,000

DALLAS (AP) — A young man captured the president of the Northpark National Bank today and obtained $50,000 in ransom money, the FBI confirmed.

Officers said the abduction came after the car of the president, Marvin H. Hancock Jr., and an old pickup driven by the youth collided at a street intersection.

When Hancock got out of his car, the young man, wearing a khaki jacket and a hardtop construction hat, pulled a pistol and forced Hancock into the truck.

Earlier today, Mrs. Cain, fighting back tears, told the jury that Cain had been a good husband and loving father.

Mrs. Cain, wearing a brown miniskirt, white sweater and a silver cross, was the first of 17 character witnesses scheduled by defense lawyer Phil Burleson.

Burleson is trying to get Cain a light, probated sentence.

Stick-Up Man Selective In Liquor Store Heist

Albert Aguilar, 1603 W. 1st, is in county jail charged with armed robbery in lieu of a $10,000 bond set by Justice of the Peace Gus Ochotorena.

Aguilar was arrested Thursday night at 4th and Brown after he had allegedly robbed the J. B. Package store at 1602 W. 3rd around 7 p.m.

Jess Bedwell told officers that the man came into the store, wearing a dark toboggan pulled down over part of his face and held a pistol on him, stating, "I don't want to shoot you. I just want some money."

Bedwell said that he put all of the money on the counter and the robber took part of it, gave part of it back and reached around and took some dimes and quarters. The robber left with an estimated $50.

When the officers arrested Aguilar, he signed an agreement allowing them to search his home and a pistol was found at his residence.

$4.5 BILLION Alaska Pipeline Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon said today there is a "reasonable possibility" that Arab nations will increase their oil exports to the United States and Europe.

He made the comment in signing the Alaska pipeline bill, clearing the way for work to start next year on the $4.5 billion project to tap America's richest known oil field.

He said the administration is making sufficient progress in negotiations regarding the Middle East that there is a "reasonable possibility" the Arab nations will increase their exports.

"But even if it happened tomorrow we would still have an energy crisis for this year," he said.

In signing the bill, Nixon said: "About three years late but better late than never."

The President said he will ask Congress to consider separate legislation repealing provisions he objects to in the bill.

Construction of the pipeline, to run 759 miles from the Alaskan Arctic, had been stalled for three years by environmental lawsuits.

Dachshund Which Bit Boy Sought

Prentice Curry, 12-year-old son of Mrs. Patsy Curry, could hardly keep his voice from breaking when he telephoned a request to help him locate a long black dog that might be part dachshund.

Curry was bitten by the dog Wednesday while he was delivering papers in the block between E. 21st and E. 20th.

"Unless we find that dog, I am going to have to take rabies shots," he added.

He described the dog as "all black, with an injured right front foot, long and low like a wiener dog and acting like he was sick."

Anyone with any information may call the Currys at 267-8534.

'WE FREQUENTLY EAT FISH' People With Children Need Tax Break, Man Reasons

Although Social Security benefits have been increased, he noted Social Security limits the amount those receiving Social Security checks can earn.

"I think they ought to be able to do anything they can," the management representative said. "They pay that Social Security while they're working."

Likewise, the "white-collar worker felt income tax deductions allowed for dependents should be raised to levels closer to the costs of supporting children, sending them to college."

NOT A GARDENER

How has inflation affected him?

He, his wife, two boys and one girl don't eat the better cuts of meat as often and more frequently dine on fish. But he sees few ways of cutting back in this area with growing children, ranging from seven to 16 years of age.

Burglary Rash Breaks Out

A break-in and robbery at Montgomery Ward occurred sometime Thursday night. A number of rifles and ammunition were taken.

An inventory this morning showed three rifles, 40 boxes of ammunition, four sleeping bags, one metal detector, six radios, three stereos, one digital clock and one bedspread missing.

Entry was gained on the east end of the building where a window was broken out in a door and a panel removed.

Water District Income Down

Revenues of the Colorado River Municipal Water District are down $207,000 for the first 10 months of the year. Water deliveries, less by 184,000, are largely responsible, although last year's totals included $19,000 payment for a pipeline that has no comparable return this year.

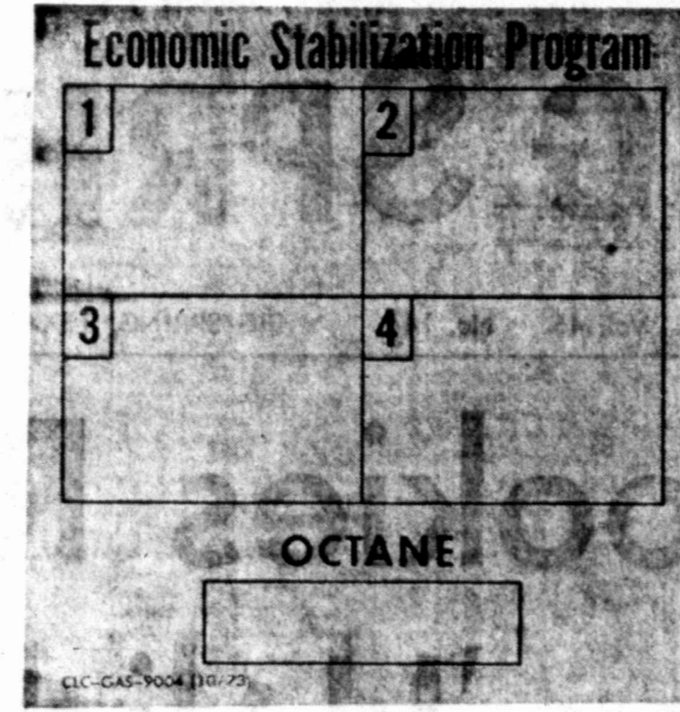

Bulk of the lower revenues occurs in that from the municipal customers who paid $2,692,000, or $127,000 less, Industries and oil companies paid in $157,732 in October, making $1,683,541 for the 10 months, or $74,000 less than the comparable period in 1972.

October recreational revenue amounted to $1,494, making $37,758 for the year, or $13,000 more than a year ago. Total revenues for the month were $453,313, making $4,416,973 for the 10 months, or $207,000 less than in 1972.

Operational expenses of $1,061,195 in October made $1,119,723 for the year, or down $42,000 from the previous year. The excess of revenues over operating expenditures is $3,297,249, or $135,000 less than the same period a year ago. However, this year $3,594,819 has been transferred to the net revenue for debt service.

Water billings through the 10 month period showed 15,568,540 gallons, or 184 million less than the same period a year ago. Of the total water delivered, 4,658,067,000 gallons came from Lake Spence and 7,488,022,000 from Lake Thomas. The Martin County well field contributed 447 million gallons, city lakes and wells 842 million. Ward County well fields 659 million. Another 1,473 billion gallons was in unpotable brackish water produced for oil company use.

MUST BE POSTED — The gas pump sticker must be posted by all gasoline and diesel fuel retailers. Box 1 is for the November ceiling price while numbers 2, 3 and 4 are for December, January and February ceiling prices.

Stations Must Post New Ceiling Price Stickers

"Because of recent changes in the Phase IV petroleum regulations, all gasoline and diesel fuel retailers must obtain new ceiling price stickers for each pump or grade of petroleum sold," Gene McCleskey, Administrative Officer of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) office in Midland, said today. The new stickers are available now.

New pump stickers and instruction-computation forms will be picked up at the IRS office at 300 Oil and Gas Building, 105 West Wall Street, Midland, Tex. 79701.

Written requests for stickers and instructions may be made at the IRS office listed above. Retailers should specify the number of stickers they will need. "The new stickers should be posted on each pump in a prominent position to be easily seen by the customer. The old sticker should then be removed," McCleskey said. If more than one grade of gas is sold from a pump, a separate sticker must be posted for each grade. Stickers must contain the new ceiling price and the minimum octane of the gasoline. Anticipating additional changes, The Cost of Living Council (CLC) designed the stickers with four numbered blanks for inserting the ceiling prices for November 1973 through February 1974.

Under revised CLC Rules gasoline and diesel fuel retailers are permitted to increase their May 15, 1973 selling price to reflect, on a dollar for dollar pass-through basis, their increased petroleum costs. This can be done no more than once a month. Whenever an adjustment is made to the maximum permissible price, each retailer must adjust his posted price.

"On the reverse side of the posting instructions is a form which dealers must use to compute their ceiling price," Mr. McCleskey said. This sheet must be retained at the service station for IRS inspection to determine compliance with the new regulations.

'Unbought And Unbossed' Mrs. Chisholm In Trouble

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times reported today that Rep. Shirley Chisholm, the first black woman elected to Congress, is the focus of federal investigations into three areas of suspected wrongdoing.

Citing unnamed law enforcement sources, the newspaper said the central investigation concerned possible misuse of a $23,000 surplus from the Brooklyn Democrat's 1972 congressional campaign.

The newspaper, in a dispatch from Washington, did not indicate what the other two areas of investigation were but reported that an administrative agency and not the Justice Department was believed to be involved.

Mrs. Chisholm, who campaigned for the Democratic presidential nomination last year, was quoted by the Times as saying: "I don't want to talk about it."

Lanny Hamby, president; Lanny McMahon Sr., vice president; Mrs. Raymond Torp, secretary; and Max Green, treasurer.

Those with board terms expiring include Bob Brown, Mrs. Jack Irons, Harold Canning, Don Crockett, Mrs. Torp, Green and Jack Powell.

who might also be under investigation. The Times said that according to Mrs. Chisholm, the campaign surplus was discovered by federal auditors last July, eight months after she was elected to her third term.

Mrs. Chisholm told the newspaper that the campaign surplus was merely temporary and occurred because all bills had not been paid. She said it was later wiped out when more campaign bills came in.

Mrs. Chisholm, whose slogan during her presidential nomination bid was "Unbought and Unbossed," served four years in the state Assembly before being elected to Congress in 1968 from Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant district.

Jack Frost Is Not Far Away, Fryrear Reminds

Big Spring has passed the average date of its first frost, Nov. 8, and is looking at 35 degrees, recorded Wednesday night, as the autumn low.

"Actually, we can get some frost at 35 degrees down in the draw for example," said Donald W. (Bill) Fryrear, climate leader at the U.S. Big Spring Experiment Station.

The research station spokesman predicted a killing frost would come this weekend.

"We're kind of on borrowed time right now as far as not having a frost," he said. First frost last year was on Nov. 13.

"It's a lot cheaper to let Mother Nature do it for them," Fryrear explained.

WEATHER FORECAST

Mild weather is forecast today for most of the East. Colder weather is expected for the northern Plains and northern New England. Showers are forecast for most of the Pacific Coast and snowflurries are expected for the Dakotas and northern New England.

Pass Bill To Help Aged Deal With Rising Cost Of Living

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, rushing to its Thanksgiving recess, consumed just one minute registering enough votes to pass a Social Security bill to help aged beneficiaries deal with the rising cost of living.

After the full 15 minutes allowed for the electronic tally Thursday, the total was 391 to 20 as the House approved the bill giving $2.4 billion more to the 30 million Social Security recipients next year in a two-step, 11 per cent benefit increase.

BLIND, LAME

What little controversy that developed centered on an issue involving federal vs. state funds for a new welfare program for several million old, blind and crippled people.

The House voted, 246 to 163, against a so-called "hold harmless" provision. It would have meant $175 million in federal money to some big states — mainly New York, California, Michigan and New Jersey — that would provide supplemental benefits under the new welfare system.

Passage of the bill sent it to the Senate, where the Finance Committee already has agreed in principle to similar terms. The chief difference involves an earlier starting time for the first step in the Senate version.

Scout Drive On Target

J. Arnold Marshall was re-elected chairman of the Lone Star District for Scouts here at the district committee meeting Thursday at Coker's.

Returned to the post of vice chairman was Tom Locke, and Clem Jones was named district commissioner. They will take office for the 1974 term at the annual district recognition banquet set for the evening of Dec. 4 at HCJC cafeteria. Reeves Moren, David Jansch and Cal Lowery are handling tickets for this event to which all Scouters — committeemen and women, unit leaders, district committee members are invited.

Guy Griffith, district executive, said that the membership is on target at this stage. Most units have set membership enrollment goals for the remainder of the year.

Griffith also reminded that the outdoor session of the Scout Cornerstone training project has been set for Saturday. Those needing more information should telephone him at 3-7032 or Bill Priebe at 3-2317.

The district is in urgent need of funds for a Cub Scout Cornerstone training kit (which has films, projector, booklets, other instructional aids which are used repeatedly by training teams. He asked that individuals or businesses who could provide one singularly or together please contact him.

Energy Crisis Is Discussion Topic

FORSAN — Trustees will discuss the energy crisis and ways the school district may save on fuel at the Forsan County Line Independent School Board meeting at 7 p.m. Monday.

The board will also appoint a textbook selection committee for 1974 and open bids on the sale of a 1963 Chevrolet pickup now owned by the district.

Other agenda items include discussion with school principals on the current district evaluation program, a report on enrollment, and discussion on using Southwestern Appraisal Co. for ad valorem tax purposes.

MATERNITY LEAVE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Yvonne Brathwaite Burke has become the first member of Congress to be granted a maternity leave.

House speaker Carl Albert, D-Okla., granted the 40-year-old California Democrat the leave which began Nov. 1.

Rep. Burke is at her Los Angeles home awaiting the birth of her first child. She plans to return to Congress when the second session convenes in January.

Official leave had been granted in the past to congressional members only for personal illness or illness of a family member.

Under the rules, a member of Congress must request the leave on behalf of his colleague. Rep. Augustus F. Hawkins, D-Calif., asked that Mrs. Burke be allowed the official leave.

The House-passed version calls for benefit boosts of 7 per cent beginning with next April's checks, followed by another 4 per cent increase starting in July's checks. Thereafter, cost-of-living raises in benefits would come automatically each June instead of in January, as they do under the current law.

$722 TAX

The benefit boosts would be financed by expanding the taxable wage base from $10,800 to $13,200 — meaning that a worker and his employer who each paid a maximum $631 in Social Security taxes this year would be paying $772 next year, a 22 per cent increase.

The benefit increase would mean the average old-age, single recipient who currently gets $167 a month would receive $178 in April and $186 in July, while an aged couple's amount would rise from the present $277 to $296 in April and $310 in July.

The legislation would replace a 5.9-per-cent benefit hike, approved last July and due to take effect from June through December next year.

The new measure also would speed and boost monthly welfare payments to the elderly poor, the blind and the disabled next year.

Bowling Party Set Saturday

A bowling party for Alpha Kappa Omicron Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, is slated Saturday, 7:30 p.m., at the Bowl-A-Rama. Members will meet afterwards at the home of Mrs. Gary Huckabay for refreshments. The party plans were made Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Michael Gallagher was hostess, and members brought gifts for patients at Big Spring State Hospital. The women will provide a Thanksgiving basket for a local family, with Mrs. Allen Carlile and Mrs. Rick McKinney making the arrangements.

In other philanthropic projects, the chapter donated $10 to the Junior Girl Scout Troop at Boydston School, and they will serve refreshments the first Saturday of each month at Veterans Administration Hospital.

A program, "All Together Now," was presented by Mrs. Clay LaRochelle who discussed how dress affects people. She said personality, cultural background and social status all blend together to make a person, and that fashions often reflect the type of person wearing them.

Noting that self-image usually decides what clothes a woman buys, Mrs. LaRochelle said pressures of society often dictate fashion trends.

The chapter will assist Monday with the multiple sclerosis fund drive. Future events include a wine and cheese tasting party to mark the chapter's first anniversary, Dec. 8 at the home of Mrs. Lois Pace. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 27 with Mrs. Pace and Mrs. Steve Broom as hostesses.

Concession Will Aid Scholarships

Scenic Chapter, American Business Women's Association, will operate a food concession from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday at May Belle's Flea Market, 1617 E. 3rd. All proceeds will be used for scholarships for local students.

Mrs. Clay LaRochelle, center, president of BSP City Council, finalizes details with Mrs. Wayne Stroup, left, and Mrs. Robert Wilson. The official "march" is Monday evening, but marchers will be working various areas of the city throughout the weekend.

Soil Films Seen By Club Group

Two films were shown Monday evening for Organic Soil Builders at the U.S. Experiment Station. The first, "The Living Rock," told about lime and phosphate deposits on rock. The second film, "100,000 to One," discussed various insects and how they can help or hinder gardens.

Dr. Paul T. Koshi presided. Guests were Mrs. Orene Thompson, Mrs. Lella Buchanan, Mrs. E. G. Hurdson and Mrs. Carol Hurdson. The group planned to meet for a covered-dish Christmas dinner Dec. 10, place to be announced.

Public Invited To Barbecue

Baker's Chapel will hold a barbecue Saturday at the church, NW 10th and Lancaster, with serving to begin at 11 a.m. The dinner, at $2 per plate includes beans, potato salad, onions, pickles and bread with a choice of one of the three meats, beef, chicken or ribs.

Dinners may be ordered for delivery by calling 267-2940. Sliced beef will be sold for $2.75 per pound. In conjunction with the barbecue, the Missionary Society will have a rummage sale and bake sale featuring pies and cakes. Someone attending the event will win a turkey Saturday evening.

Dear Abby
Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow with my hands full. Ralph, my 28-year-old son, recently divorced a no-good wife, so now he and their 4-year-old child are living with me. (His wife ran off with another man, but that's another letter.)

Now Ralph is mixed up with Rosetta, his 25-year-old first cousin who has had several affairs before. (I was told this by Rosetta's mother, who is my sister.) Rosetta's husband served papers on her last month, took her two children, and put her out. He charged her with prostitution, alcoholism, and drug addiction. Rosetta is now living with her mother right in my neighborhood, which makes it worse.

Abby, I can't make my son see that there is anything wrong with Rosetta. He says he loves her and wants to marry her. It is killing me. Help me.

DEAR TROUBLED: Love is blind. It's also deaf and dumb in most cases. If you put down Rosetta, your son will only become more determined to defend her. Some people have to learn the hard way, so quit fighting a situation that YOU can't change.

If Ralph is ever going to see the light, he'll have to discover it himself. Besides, not all states allow first-cousin marriages. Also, as bad as Rosetta's record is, she could reform.

DEAR ABBY: I play cards with a woman who is always bragging about her children. Several times lately she has said that her 21-year-old daughter, who is a junior at the University of Iowa, is the only virgin in her sorority. I think this is a terrible reflection on the rest of the girls in the sorority.

I am just dying to put this woman in her place. If she says it again, what should I say?

ANOTHER MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Ask her how she can be sure.

DESPITE NIXON'S BLUSTER 'Newsmen, I Say Keep On Calling It As You See It'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the House communications subcommittee said Thursday that despite "threats and bluster" by President Nixon against the TV networks they have not held back in reporting the news.

Rep. Torberg H. Macdonald, D-Mass., described his subcommittee as "defenders of the free press" and said "it's the Congress that stands between the broadcaster and the heavy hand of government."

Macdonald, in a speech prepared for a National Press Club luncheon, said:

"If I have a single message to send to the bosses of all the television and radio newsmen in the country, network and station alike, it's this: There's nothing the executive branch can do to or for you. Your job is to see to it that the news is reported accurately and fairly, by professional journalists, period."

"And, to the newsmen, I say keep on calling it as you see it."

But Macdonald said, "I'm not being so naive as to believe that the attacks from the White House will stop. I'm afraid that Mr. Nixon's network neurosis is too far advanced for that."

Macdonald said he was particularly defending the TV networks because "this new journalistic giant seems to be the President's favorite lightning rod."

"I am not appearing here as a total defender of the television industry," he said, "for even though I approve so highly of the way TV news does its job, it doesn't mean that my approbation stretches over the whole spectrum of television programming. The medium's proclivity for exaggerated sex and violence is a source of concern to me, and I certainly am not alone in this feeling."

Opening lead: Queen of ♠

Bridge is often a race between declarer and the defenders to see who can get his tricks in first. To lose a tempo can mean the loss of a game.

After North had supported his suit, South's hand was almost the equivalent of an opening bid. Since the texture of his suit was good, he took the slightly aggressive course of jumping to game.

Declarer can make the hand by realizing that he is in a race and, since his weakness has not yet been attacked, he is one step ahead. He should win the opening heart lead in his hand and take the diamond finesse immediately. East can win and shift to a club, but he cannot make up lost ground. Declarer simply plays two more rounds of diamonds, discarding a club, before turning his attention to trumps. All he can lose is one trick in each suit except for hearts.

Sharing Vital Decision

Over the veto of President Nixon, the Congress has passed the war powers curb. The President claimed that it "seriously undermines this nation's ability to act decisively in times of international crisis." Having said it, he let the matter drop, so this can't be taken without question as a fair appraisal.

Indeed, the act permits the President to act instantly, to make war for 90 days of his own authority. But if he does not have a convincing enough case to convince the American people and the Congress on the wisdom or necessity of his course within that period of time, then the cause would hardly seem a sound one.

There is little to fear that the American people will not rally instinctively in times of real emergencies. Congress will be equally responsive.

What the new act will do is to restore the power to wage war to the constitutional framework that existed prior to the past three administrations. Under John F. Kennedy, U.S. troops were committed without prior announcement, in deed clandestinely. This established the base for the Southeast Asia adventure which was enlarged upon massively under President Johnson, and continued by President Nixon until finally — five years later — a disengagement was arranged. All of this prolonged record of waging war was achieved without congressional sanction except through the process of furnishing funds.

None will question the necessity of leaving the President — the Commander in Chief — free to respond to emergency situations. But emergencies should not be regarded as a continuous state. Surely after a 90-day period, the authority or responsibility for anything so utterly vital as committing lives and material to war should be shared by the Congress, the direct representatives of the people.

Straw In The Wind

Prosperity and gasoline shortages are pushing automobile buyers in two directions.

Prosperity has been responsible for the sale of more cars than ever before. The 1973 forecast is that sales will top last year's record 10.9 million cars by 800,000 to 900,000.

Contrary to popular belief even more standard and large cars are being sold — about 200,000 more than last year.

But the big increase is coming in small cars. Small cars this year are about 40 per cent of all sales — twice the percentage of four years ago.

It is believed in some quarters that 45 per cent of 1974 sales will be small cars. The percentage would be even higher if automobile manufacturers — both foreign and domestic — had been able to gear up to produce more small cars.

Under present circumstances, the trend to small cars may continue. There will be a savings in scarce materials it takes to produce automobiles and in fuel which seems sure to get in shorter supply.

A Darker Christmas

Around The Rim

By Ann Stevens

I saw the first Christmas tree of the year two weeks ago in a television commercial.

ALTHOUGH THE commercialism started this year as early as ever, this Christmas season promises to be a lot different from the average.

For one thing, it'll be darker.

In line with President Nixon's energy conservation recommendations, Chamber of Commerce officials may decide not to turn on the Christmas lights downtown until a week before the big day and to pull the plug on Dec. 26 instead of after New Year's.

This would cut out about a month from the usual length of time the Yule lights are lit.

There may not be as many electrically-sparking Christmas trees showing through front windows in the residential sections. Bulbs outlining bushes, trees and porches may disappear completely.

The old tradition of driving through town a few nights before Christmas to see all the pretty lights may become a thing of the past.

This Christmas may also be colder than usual.

THERMOSTATS IN many homes and public buildings will be in the 60s instead of the 70s.

Packages under the family tree may contain more warm, bulky sweaters, thermal blankets and other body warmers and fewer electric train sets, hair dryers, blenders and other energy-consuming appliances.

Families may begin to spend Christmas Day at home this season rather than traveling many miles to attend traditional Yuletide reunions.

Driving anywhere may become less frequent as gasoline and oil prices rise and as the threat of rationing looms ahead.

SHOPPERS MAY have to get into the habit of doing all their gift hunting during one trip rather than making a number of little trips, each to find the perfect present for a particular person.

Daytime workers may find their shopping time reduced as businesses begin closing earlier each day in an effort to cut down on lighting and heating.

More gifts may be "purchased" with trading stamps than ever before as paychecks become more and more devoted to the necessities of life — food, rent and transportation.

It may be darker when anxious children open their packages Christmas morn if year-round Daylight Savings Time is adopted as the President has suggested. And Santa may have to delay his sleigh ride an hour so as to be only heard and not seen.

Nuclear Morass

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — One of the casualties of the tragic Middle East war was the rift in the North Atlantic alliance growing out of the denial of the use of American bases on European soil for the Israeli airlift. This was, in fact, little more than an advertisement of the disarray so long evident in NATO.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE James Schlesinger has just been in Europe seeking to patch up or at least smooth over the outbreak over bases that the United States paid for, maintains and staffs. But an optimistic statement about this latest blowup cannot conceal the deep-rooted friction between Big Brother, with his all-powerful nuclear umbrella, and the Europeans, in their effort to achieve economic prosperity and independence.

Testimony before the Joint Atomic Energy Commission last April — the transcript just released in a highly censored version — shows two things: first, how little concern is paid to European sensitivities in stacking up U.S. nuclear weapons on European soil and, second, the way in which outworn assumptions about the use of tactical nuclear weapons in a prolonged war with the Soviet Union still prevail.

THE WITNESS was Air Force Maj. Gen. Edward B. Giller, assistant general manager for national security of the Atomic Energy Commission. He was being questioned about the use of nuclear shells replacing shells with conventional explosives deployed in Germany. Several thousand such shells are already stored and ready for use against advancing East European troops.

An interesting bit of arithmetic is involved. An eight-inch conventional shell costs about $45 for use in a field artillery piece. A nuclear shell costs $400,000. For a 155-millimeter weapon the conventional shell costs slightly more, about $55, while the nuclear shell adds up to $450,000. The field pieces have a range of about 10 miles.

A COMMITTEE member asked where these shells would be fired. The answer was in Germany, of course. Have the Germans agreed? Well, they haven't disagreed. This seemed to imply that they had not been asked.

WHILE THE exact volume stored in Europe is classified top secret, it constitutes the third great cache of the stuff of annihilation. A second, and perhaps the largest, is based in the United States to fuel the intercontinental ballistic missiles. The third serves the Poseidon and Polaris submarines, with a small portion at sea in aircraft based on carriers.

How this stuff proliferates week in and week out, year after year, reaching a total that is today mind-boggling is almost lost sight of. In World War II 2.5 million tons of explosives were dropped on every front. That explosive force that worked so much destruction is 1-26th of one per cent of the explosive force stored in American arsenals around the world today.

THIS WAS to have been the Year of Europe. To have been really meaningful, the program should have surveyed with our European partners not only trade and economic relations but the military complex allowed to grow like a rank weed on European soil. It should mean, if it ever comes off, drastic revision of military planning for a long land war that would employ tactical nuclear weapons.

Gen. Giller suggested in the course of his testimony that the artillery pieces were dear to the Army. They wanted to get into the nuclear act. Everyone wanting to get into the act helps to explain the fantastic growth of the nuclear stockpile.

Jack Parr To 'Sneak Away'

Hal Boyle

By JAY SHARBUTT (Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Parr, the man who made late-hour laughter, outrage and insomnia a national habit, tonight makes what he says probably will be his last appearance on television.

"I've been in this business since I was 16 years old and I've worked awfully hard . . . and now I'm leaving with no regrets and no excuses," said the 55-year-old performer.

His "Jack Parr Tonight" on ABC, begun last January, is ending tonight, both at Parr's request and because it failed to dent the high ratings of NBC's "Tonight" show — ratings he first established as the outspoken, unpredictable star of that program from 1957 to 1962.

He said he won't make a big deal tonight about goodbyes. "No," he laughed, slipping into a stage whisper, "the quieter we go the better. Just sneak away."

He was in a cheerful, philosophical mood and didn't blame his show's failure on ratings. He blamed it on station ntimbers, noting that "Tonight" is on 220 stations and his show on only 162.

"It doesn't matter what you do, ABC cannot make it against that kind of lineup," he said. He said he has no plans to return to TV, but it isn't because his show didn't work out.

"I have absolutely no desire to be in television, and I didn't, for the last year, want to be in it," he said. "I got myself into it, but I wanted to leave after the first night."

"I could see what the situation was, but I kept my word because ABC has been very nice to me and spent a helluva lot of money in this whole new (late-evening) concept of theirs."

Asked if there's any chance he may return to TV for specials, Parr replied: "I think it's almost impossible, but I hate to be quoted as saying 'Never, never!' Because who knows?"

"But I would say, if we were like friends talking over a drink, I would say the chances are you'll not see me again on television in any kind of programming."

He said ABC executives persuaded him to do his show by telling him, (a) he'd only have to work one week a month, and (b) by doing that, he'd help keep the then-weekly "Dick Cavett" show going — the show had low ratings — by easing Cavett's workload.

"I never came back because I was bored or had to be a celebrity," said Parr. "None of those things mean anything to me, anymore."

What went wrong with his show? Was it the format?

"I don't know," he said wryly. "I don't know how you change a format that you began. It now looks like I'm imitating everybody, doesn't it?"

He gently laughed. "If I do a lot of little looks or 'takes' or gestures, I think the kids must think I steal from Johnny Carson or Cavett."

My Answer

BILLY GRAHAM

For twenty years I had a wonderful Christian husband. Then he met a beautiful young girl. He yielded to temptation, and yes, adultery was the result. It was the most devastating tragedy of my life. Thank God my husband repented. God has forgiven him and so have I, but I can't forget it. Why can't I push this out of my mind?

D.W. Dr. Paul Tournier, the Swiss psychiatrist, says marriage means "helping one another to reach the full status of being persons — responsible and autonomous beings who do not run away from life."

Your husband has made a mistake, and has acknowledged it to you and to God. If I read between the lines correctly, he has not repeated this error, and is trying to profit by his mistake.

The question for you now is — are you flexible enough to rebuild a relationship of trust and companionship? If you're not, your husband probably will fail in his efforts too. Part of a successful marriage is the ability to survive crises. Unless a couple learns to overcome traumatic experiences, some emotional impairment continues to fracture the marriage. Paul said that faith in Christ had given him this principle of flexibility when in Philippians 4 he wrote: "I know how to live when things are difficult, and I know how to live when things are prosperous."

God says He not only forgives but forgets (Isaiah 43:25). He'll help you do the same. Pray for it daily. Then occupy your mind with things that will strengthen your marital relationship.

The Gasoline Muddle

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Having been turned down by President Nixon five times earlier this year for a 10-cents-a-gallon federal gasoline tax to conserve fuel, the Treasury is pushing him hard now for an even bigger tax as an alternative to coupon rationing.

FACED WITH THE Hobson's choice of rationing or tax increases, Mr. Nixon may now reluctantly go along with the Treasury. But whereas Congress 10 months ago might have acquiesced, anti-gas tax sentiment today is deeply embedded among Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill. The problem: any impasse with Congress over how to cut gasoline consumption is intolerable in the face of the cut-off of Arab oil.

Thus, at the eleventh hour with the last tanker sailing soon from the Mideast, the Nixon administration still has not made basic policy decisions on conserving energy. What's worse, it has not yet even perfected decision-making machinery. Nobody is in charge of managing the energy crisis and the President remains characteristically aloof.

MR. NIXON was similarly aloof last winter when Wall Street investment banker William Simon, freshly installed as Deputy Secretary of the Treasury, proposed an extra 10-cents-a-gallon gasoline tax (in addition to the present 4-cent federal tax). Although Simon's primary intent was anti-inflationary, he also wanted to conserve fuel in the energy crisis which then seemed so distant to other administration officials.

GEORGE SHULTZ, Secretary of the Treasury, fully concurred. But not Richard M. Nixon, frozen to the doctrine that Americans have reached the upper limits of their tax-paying ability.

In the curiously detached manner of the Nixon White House, there was no personal confrontation between the President and gas-tax proponents. In February, Simon's memorandum for a tax increase went up to the White House. It came back with presidential disapproval. Simon repeated the exercise in March, April, May and June. Four more times Mr. Nixon said no. Finally, in June, Shultz advised his deputy to desist.

AT THAT POINT, John Love resigned as governor of Colorado to become Mr. Nixon's energy yecdar. But though the energy shortage was clearer and the danger of Arab reprisals more imminent, Love adopted no contingency plans. Only last Sunday did Love recognize the probability of coupon rationing. All in all, he still refuses to take command.

Meanwhile, the energy experts assembled at the Treasury by (who have declined to join Love's disjointed operation) have drafted a plan for conserving 2.7 million barrels of oil daily without coupon rationing. Everything from using cold-water detergents to mandatory 50-m.p.h. speed limits is included. But the Treasury's biggest single saving, 780,000 barrels a day, would result from pooling passenger cars.

HOW TO force car pools without gasoline rationing? A huge gasoline tax. So, the Treasury is now pressing for an extra tax between 20 cents and 30 cents a gallon. Added to price increases caused by short supplies, this would push a gallon of regular gasoline over one dollar this winter — steep enough to force car pools and discourage consumption.

TO SHULTZ and the Treasury's other laissez-faire advocates, this is vastly preferable to installing a semi-permanent rationing bureaucracy. The Treasury would compensate the impact on lower tax brackets by tinkering with other taxes — perhaps lowering the telephone excise, perhaps reducing income tax rates for those earning less than $15,000 a year. But Rep. Wilbur Mills, Ways and Means Chairman is back also. Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington, top Senate spokesman on energy questions, vigorously prefers rationing over taxes.

Dilation And Dark Glasses

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had my eyes examined and the doctor put drops in my eyes. He fitted me with glasses as I am becoming increasingly near-sighted.

I did not realize that I had to wear dark glasses going home after the examination. My eyes hurt when I came out into the sunlight. I drove home, which took about 15 minutes, keeping my eyes as closed as possible.

Now friends tell me I should have asked for dark glasses and that my eyesight will suffer. As yet I am experiencing no difference in vision, and my new glasses are helping my near-sightedness.

Please tell me what happens when drops are put in your eyes and the result of being out in the sunlight, even for 15 minutes. — Mrs. G.H.

All the drops do is dilate the pupils of the eyes, so the doctor can see inside your eyes better. He doubtless used a little flashlight sort of thing while examining you, and since light causes the pupils to contract, the flashlight rays would have caused that to happen and it would have been much more difficult to examine you.

The drug wears off in a matter of three or four hours and your eyes return to normal. But until that happens, the pupils remain dilated and the eyes admit much more light — which is uncomfortable.

So many folks take a pair of dark glasses with them when they are going to have drops in the eyes, and I suggest that you do so next time.

Letters To Editor

Dear Editor:

When my pickup truck was put out of commission due to an accident, friends rallied by loaning me their pickups. Even an automobile sales company furnished me the use of a pickup from its lot, as well as loans from individuals. Only in Big Spring could so many people offer so much for nothing in return.

Keith Carey Gail Roney

Dear Sir:

In reference to the Alateen meeting held in Big Spring last July, your writer did an exemplary job of maintaining accuracy and objectivity, but what on earth happened to the headline? "Alateen Mull Woes"? Good grief! Please let me enlighten you a little so that you won't make the same mistake again.

My own two children have been in Alateen for eight and nine years, respectively. My son attended this anniversary celebration in Big Spring — Alcoholics Anonymous and the fellowship for the families, Al-Anon, and for the children. And I know with certainty that the last thing that goes on at a meeting of Alateens is the mulling over of woes! These young people state specifically in their preamble that they do not discuss their parents' drinking problems. They work on themselves. They are badly damaged kids who use the AA program for their own personal recovery as well as learning more about the disease of alcoholism. They are joyous, increasingly serene, deeply spiritual youngsters who live victoriously with a problem that is a crushing burden to those who try to carry it with no help.

Suppose there were a cure for cancer, and the people who were recovering met for a celebration. Would you headline that meeting . . . "Cancer Cured Mull Woes"?

There are parents who discourage their teenagers' attendance at Alateen because they are afraid their own drinking will be discussed. Headlines like this one do nothing to help the cause of Alateen. Listen — we appreciate the article, but the picture painted by this headline is totally inaccurate.

I am the delegate for West Texas Al-Anon and Alateen to the World Service Conference in New York, and have been active in AA associated affairs for 10 years.

Mormons Slate Meet, Other Churches Eye Special Thanksgiving Events

The Mormons have scheduled a big area meeting this weekend in Odessa.

Other churches throughout the city are eyeing special plans for Thanksgiving.

Elder A. Theodore Tuttle, a member of the First Council of Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, will speak at the Texas West Stake Conference Saturday and Sunday, November 17-18, in Odessa.

Elder Tuttle, an educator, has devoted most of his life to teaching youth. He was an administrator and instructor in the church school system prior to his present church position in 1958.

The visiting church authority will present a new film entitled "Meet the Mormons" which shows church members in the typical activities worldwide. The spokesman is expected to enlarge on the theme of what church teachings mean to those who accept and practice them, and the reasons for the unusual worldwide growth of the church.

A New York Times article of April 15, 1973, has cited the "Mormon" Church as one of the few major churches which continues to show substantial gain. Its 2.9 per cent increase in the United States to 2,133,172 members in 1970, makes it the fastest growing church among those with over a million members.

The conference session will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. in the Stake Center, 2015 North Washington, Odessa. Stake President Roland Lamar Hamblin, 2809 Spur, welcomes all visitors.

TRADITIONAL Thanksgiving service will be held at The Christian Science Church, 1209

Gregg Street Thursday November 22.

Testimonies of gratitude are featured at the public service. The time is 11 a.m.

MEMBERS of the First Assembly of God, 4th and Lancaster will participate in the "Revivaltime" World Prayermeeting, at 7 p.m. on Nov. 18, 1973.

According to the Rev. W. Randall Ball, pastor, over 100,000 persons in some 2,000 churches are expected to join in prayer in pre-Thanksgiving services.

The annual prayer effort is organized by "Revivaltime," international broadcast of the Assemblies of God, carried on approximately 620 radio stations. Listeners were recently invited to send in prayer requests. As a result, some 50,000 prayer needs have been received at the "Revivaltime" offices in Springfield, Missouri.

These needs have been compiled into lists and duplicated for distribution to the participants in 2,000 prayer groups. Every individual will be asked to pray for 15 to 25 specific needs. Such needs as physical healing, financial problems, and marital troubles are among the most frequent prayer requests.

The "Revivaltime" World Prayermeeting has grown to the largest prayer meeting of its kind in the world.

Trinity Lutheran Names New Fulltime Pastor Here

Trinity Lutheran Church announces that their new pastor, the Rev. Lester M. Utz, will arrive and take part in his first service at their church on Dec. 2. He will be installed on Dec. 16.

Services starting on Dec. 2 will be held at 11 a.m. rather than 9 a.m. which they had done for the convenience of the vicar or the Rev. Neal Jensen, who helped out in two towns.

He is coming to Big Spring from the Sherman's Lutheran Church in Hanover, Penn. which is where he was born.

In May of 1937, Pastor Utz graduated from the Lutheran Seminary at Gettysburg, Penn. and first served at York.

He has served in churches throughout the Pennsylvania area and also in Harlingen, Tex. He has been honored through the years with memberships in Alpha Kappa Alpha, honorary philosophical fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi, the Blue Crocodiles, past president of the Rotary Club, listed several times in Who's Who in the East, listed three times in the Dictionary of International Biography and in the book on Community Leaders in the United States.

Pastor and Mrs. Utz were the parents of a son, Paul who was killed in a fatal plane crash in Mass. in 1968 where he was stationed with the Air Force.

His widow, Jert Ann Boren and the three children reside at Waco. A daughter, Catherine L. married to Dr. Wesley Hand lives in Houston with her three children. A second daughter lives in Cambridge, Mass.

The Utz were wanting to return to Texas to be nearer their children and grandchildren.

Officers of Trinity Church expressed pleasure in obtaining a pastor of his calibre.

With nearly $20 million donated by American Catholics during the past three years, the Campaign for Human Development has funded over 500 self-help projects throughout the nation.

Nov. 18, the Sunday before Thanksgiving, is set aside for a special collection in all Catholic churches in the United States where the Catholics of our nation may contribute to the campaign which helps people to help themselves.

During the annual collection each November, one-fourth of the amount collected remains locally to provide seed money to projects of self-help within the diocese.

Begun four years ago at the initiative of the American Catholic Bishops, the Campaign for Human Development is an effort in funding and education

HOROSCOPE

CARROL RIGTER
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1973

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have a big opportunity to use the energy you've generated to make some long-range plans and a chance to engineer them in such a way that they can put you in front of your present position. Be alert at all times.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You are tempted to make changes in plans, but this would not be wise. Engage in detailed work connected with it instead.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The morning can be slow but later you can accomplish a great deal of your favorite activities. Show more devotion to invited guests. Show that you have the one you love.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) If you are careful in making plans, you can be profitable. Show much hospitality to invited guests. Show that you have the one you love.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Don't invest in a worthless venture at this time. Arrange your budget so you can just where you stand now and in the future.

LEO (July 22 to Aug 21) You could be suffering from frustration but this is only negative thinking. Combine common sense with your intuitive faculties.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Ideal time to join with a partner at whatever improves (and interests) and forget dual routines for now. Long talks produce a worthwhile matter, and go out and meet interesting people. Improve your appearance and become a more efficient person.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) You must take care of routine duties if you are to expand as you desire. The evening can be a happy time with the one you love.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Provided you take no risks in business matters, the latter part of the day can be very fruitful in the company of good friends.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Expect good news if a project you have in mind. Bringing your talents to the attention of others opens new doors of opportunity.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Promise you have made but it is better for you to carry through or you could get into trouble.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Avoid an associate who can be very annoying. Listen to a new plan with interest which might help you and go along with it for best results.

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD WANT AD

1-IT'S ALWAYS BEST to start your advertisement with the name of the article or service you have to offer. If you have an apartment or room for rent or property for sale, start your advertisement with the location.
2-BE CLEAR. Readers respond more quickly and favorably when given complete or definite information. One of the very most important aspects of any advertisement is to include the price.
3-MAKE IT EASY for the reader-prospect to reach you. Always insert your telephone number or your name and address. If you do not have regular hours, give a preferred time to have prospects contact you.
4-THE GREATEST READER ATTENTION can be secured for your advertisement by using consecutive insertions. Play safe — a six-day order is best and costs less! There are also special monthly rates for those who are desirous of keeping their names and offers before the public every day. You can stop your ad in the event of recalls, and then you pay only for the days it is published.
5-PLACE YOURSELF in the reader's position and ask yourself what you would like to know (about your offer). The answer you give will make a good classified Ad.
6-CLASSIFIED readers are already interested in buying your used or new merchandise. These people have the money and are already in the market to buy. So give them every advantage you can with good ad copy.
7-WANT ADS THAT FAIL to bring satisfaction do so, not through any lack of readership, but because they are often carelessly worded and do not contain enough information to get prompt action.
8-TO PLACE YOUR ADVERTISEMENT in The Big Spring Herald, where you reach Howard County's greatest Classified Want Ad audience, call 263-7211. It's easy as calling a friend because our Ad-Takers are schooled to be helpful in such matters.

Several GOP Senators Claim Nixon Said Richardson Lied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several Republican senators claim President Nixon told them former Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson lied in sworn testimony about his role in the firing of special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox.

The White House promptly denied Nixon had called Richardson a liar and said the senators "obviously misunderstood" his comments.

CONTRADICTED
 But one of the Republican senators who met with Nixon at the White House Wednesday night, Sen. Charles McC. Mathias Jr., R-Md., said he thinks the Judiciary Committee should look into the matter.

Mathias indicated he wants member, to call Alexander M. Haig Jr., the White House chief of staff. Three senators said Haig had supported Nixon's contention about Richardson.

The Judiciary Committee is confronted with a serious problem in which sworn testimony before the committee is contradicted on the highest possible authority," Mathias told a reporter.

PERJURY
 In making the claim, several GOP senators said, Nixon also raised the question of whether the Judiciary Committee would seek perjury action against the former attorney general. The White House said it was untrue Nixon had called for a Senate probe of possible perjury.

Mathias declined to discuss directly what Nixon said. The senators who quoted Nixon as having said Richardson lied declined to be identified.

They said Nixon did not expand on his statement that the former attorney general had lied but turned the explanation of the contention over to Haig. According to three senators at the Wednesday night meeting, Haig disputed Richardson's testimony that he had opposed a White House order for Cox to cease efforts in federal court to obtain tapes and documents in Watergate-related probes.

Haig said that, in fact, Richardson had been an originator of the proposal to limit the Cox investigation.

'INACCURATE'
 Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Nebr., who also was at the Wednesday night meeting, told a reporter Nixon said Richardson had been "inaccurate" in his recollections.

The White House contention is that Richardson gave private support to both parts of a package proposed to resolve the controversy resulting from a federal court of appeals order to turn over nine subpoenaed Watergate tapes to U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica.

Richardson has acknowledged he believed the proposal to have Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., verify the nine tapes was a reasonable one, though Cox opposed it.

Norman A. Gound, of Dallas, formerly of Big Spring, has been named associate professional representative for Merck Sharp & Dohme, a suburban Philadelphia manufacturer of pharmaceuticals and biologicals.

Gound recently returned from a visit to the firm's home office and research laboratories at West Point, Penn., where he participated in a special orientation program.

A graduate of the University of Texas where he received a B.S. degree in Pharmacy, Gound is married to the former Nancy E. Tomlinson. They have two children.

'LET'S FACE IT' Astro To Take Reading Glasses Into Space

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — William R. Pogue will take reading glasses with him into space, but the Skylab 3 pilot is not in the least embarrassed.

"Let's face it," Pogue explains with a smile, "I'm 43 years old. When you hit 40, the old focusing acuity goes down the tube. If I'm going to do close work, I'm going to get my glasses out with no shame attached at all. Anything beyond 10 inches and I'm home free."

COMBAT VET
 He's taking a number of books on sociology, economics, psychology and politics with him on the mission.

Pogue will celebrate his 44th birthday on Jan. 23, a few days before the end of the planned 85-day Skylab mission. He is the oldest space rookie America has ever sent into space, but he's also one of the most experienced pilots anywhere.

Before he became an astronaut in 1966, Pogue was one of the top jet pilots in the country. He flew 43 combat missions in Korea, was a member of the Air Force Thunderbirds precision flying team, graduated from the Empire Test Pilots' School in England and was qualified to fly more than 50 types of American and British craft.

TAUGHT SCHOOL
 Pogue was born in Okemah, Okla. His father, Alex W. Pogue of Sand Springs, Okla., taught school in a small town nearby. Pogue earned a bachelor's degree in education from Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee in 1951 and joined the Air Force.

He earned a master's degree at Oklahoma State University and spent three years as a math instructor at the Air Force Academy.

He unsuccessfully applied for the astronaut corps in 1962 but earned the job four years later after duty as an instructor at the Air Force Aerospace Research Pilot School. He retains the rank of Air Force lieutenant colonel.

HANDWRITING PRO
 Pogue is married to the former Helen J. Dittmar of Shawnee. They met while students at Oklahoma Baptist.

They have three children: William, 20, a junior psychology major at the University of Texas; Layna, 18, a freshman at the University of Houston; and Thomas, 16. The family home is near the Space Center.

Pogue has studied handwriting analysis and became expert enough to use the skill in helping ministers with counseling.

Books that he's taking on his 85-day mission include texts on sociology, economics, psychology and politics.

Pogue works hard to stay in good physical condition, usually taking exercise instead of food for lunch.

"I run three to five miles," he said. "I found out if you exercise heavily it ruins your appetite."
