1937 Farm Program Set-Up To Be Perfected At Meets

Floyd Divided In 3 Districts For Farm Elections

Meet at Floydada Saturday, At Lockney Monday, at Cedar Tuesday

Explain Program

Several Changes Made in Regard to Soil Conserving Practices

In order to choose committeemen to administer the 1937 agricultural conservation program in Floyd County, three meetings will be held in different parts of the county Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. At each of these meetings the new 1937 program will be explained by County Agent D. F. Bredthauer, L. W. Chapman, the assistant county agent, and members of the county committee.

Communities included in the Floydada district will meet Saturday, March 6, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the district court room. Floydada district includes the school districts of Dougherty, Antelope, Baker, Pleasant Hill, Lakeview, Starkey McCoy, Allmon, Harmony, Sand Hill, Floydada, and Blanco.

Lockney district will meet at the city auditorium in Lockney Monday, March 8, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and will include the following school districts: Irick, Pleasant Valley, Muncy, Aiken, Lockney, Ramsey, Roseland, Sterley, Lone Star, Providence, Prairie Chapel.

Cedar district will convene at the Cedar school house Tuesday afternoon, March 9, at 2 o'clock and will include the following school districts: Edgin, Fairmount, Cedar, South Plains, Campbell, Center, Fairview, Hillcrest.

Each community will elect three community committeemen and one alternate. The county committee will be chosen from the community committeemen and the county board will be composed of the chairmen and vice chairmen from each of three districts. The board will meet at a later date and select its president, vice president, and treasurer. Mr. Bredthauer will act as secretary to the board and the county committee. After the community committeemen have been elected from each community these three men will meet and elect a member to the county committee.

$3,000 Bond Made By J. V. Baxter Tuesday

J. V. Baxter, who was being held in the county jail following his recent trial on a murder charge, was released Tuesday after he had made bond in the amount of $3,000.

Mr. Baxter, who received a three year sentence from a Floyd County jury during the January term of court for the murder of Donald Bennett, has appealed his case to the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin through his attorney.

Program Will Be Given At F. H. S. Tomorrow Night

With several outstanding numbers carded, a program will be given by members of the Plainview Band Parents organization, a few numbers of Harley Sadler's troupe, and one or more representatives of Brunk's Comedians, at the local high school Friday night beginning at 7:45 o'clock, Charles M. Kiker, bandmaster, has announced.

Admission prices of fifteen and twenty-five cents will be charged for the program, with one-third of the proceeds to go to the Plainview band, one-third to Sadler's players, and Brunk's comedians and one-third to the Floydada High School Band.

"From all appearances this show will be well worth the price asked," says Kiker.

MINSTREL AT DOUGHERTY
The Dougherty Community Club will sponsor a negro minstrel at the high school auditorium Friday night of next week, March 12. The show will consist of one-act plays, readings and songs. There will be no admission charge.

Beauty Queen

The crown worn by pretty Joyce Kerr, of the University of Minnesota, is well deserved, for Miss Kerr is really a queen of pulchritude. She was adjudged the most beautiful of beauty queens from seven of the Big Ten schools represented at the annual Northwestern University charity ball in Chicago.

60 Floyd County Ranchers Attend Saturday Meeting

Hear Details of Range Conservation Explained By Bredthauer

Approximately 60 Floyd County ranchers were present at the meeting Saturday afternoon at the court house when details of the range conservation program were outlined by County Agent D. F. Bredthauer. "At the Saturday meeting the question came up as to who would be eligible for the range program," Mr. Bredthauer said. A number present asked if a person with less than 100 acres would receive sufficient benefits under the program to pay them to participate.

"This question was explained thusly: 'We are unable to say just how many acres the state board will allow this county in terms of one cow, one horse, or five sheep but it is the opinion of a number attending the meeting that over a normal period of years it will take somewhere between 10 to 20 acres to carry one cow, one horse, or five sheep. In figuring on the 20 acres per animal basis, the rancher will have a five animal unit on a 100 acre pasture. Inasmuch as the range building allowance is $1.50 multiplied by the grazing capacity, the rancher would receive a range building allowance of $7.50 for the ranch or pasture.'

"In this case where acreage is less than 100 the parties may not be interested in going to all the necessary trouble for such a small payment. But where the range land consists of several 100 acres or more it is deemed by everybody concerned that the program is very simple in all of its forms and it is anticipated by the county office and the ranchers that a large majority of the range land of this county will be covered by the program.

"Another ruling that must be met in order to participate in this program is that range livestock for which this program was designed means beef cattle sheep, and horses, grazed on range land.

"The soil building allowance on ranch land can be earned by 13 different range building practices which adequately cover all range county agent finds that the practices listed have been used generally for a number of years by ranchmen in this county and in most cases it will vary little from the present ranch management.

"The office is this week mailing out cards for range men to sign. It is very essential that everyone interested in this program sign one of these cards and return it to this office at the earliest possible date.

SCHOOL OUT FRIDAY

Floydada public schools will have a holiday tomorrow, due to the fact that teachers are expected to attend a conference for West Texas teachers to be held at Lubbock.

Continuing Drills Puncture Earth as Wells Prove Good

New Patterson Well Near Floydada Thrills South-west Floyd County

Fever Grows

Drilling Rigs, Going For Months, Average Well Every 10 Days

Drilling rigs continue to puncture the earth in Floyd County and with every passing ten days five or more new wells start flowing under the pump.

The rising fever, spurred by the wonderful results of the past two years on irrigated farms in the county, this week was given another jolt upward in the southwest area, when the H. R. Patterson well was brought in Saturday as a fine well, throwing an estimated stream of a thousand gallons a minute from a water sand sixty feet thick. The well has been in nearly every conversation in the immediate area since. Distance by road to the well from Floydada, as measured by Chas. Newton of The Hesperian staff, is 2.7 miles, two miles of which is west. It is

WANT EAST TEST

A test well for irrigation in the south east part of the county may be made, it was indicated yesterday and a meeting will be held at Lakeview soon to discuss the matter. Lon M. Davis, Bert Battey, Glad Snodgrass, and Henry Bloodworth are members of the Chamber of Commerce committee which will help work on the matter.

cleaning out nicely and the owner is irrigating a fifty-acre field of wheat at this time.

The irrigation well fever hit first and hardest in the shallow water belt in the west and northwest part of the county, and around Petersburg, and scores of wells have been drilled in the past two years, with the area of operations spreading fast. Success in obtaining good wells in and around Harmony was the latest development in the south-west part of this county until the drilling of the Patterson well.

Five drill rigs, possibly more, are operating in the county at this time, and each is scheduled ahead for two to ten jobs. Wells are completed on an average in ten days to two weeks. Patterson's well was drilled with a rotary rig, an innovation in this area. Two of the five rigs in the county now are rotary outfits. C. Y. Gorman, of Wichita Falls, who drilled the Patterson well, bottomed it at 326 feet and a small gas-burning engine (Ford V-8) was installed for power. It is pulling the pump satisfactorily at the depth, the owner reported.

After completing the well for Patterson the rig was moved north—(See Irrigation, back page)

Only 717 Confederate Vets Left In Texas

The ranks of the southern Confederacy are rapidly thinning and at this time there remain living of that host of 600,000 men who fought under the Stars and Bars only 3,748, the youngest of whom is 88 years of age, his enlistment having occurred at age 15 in 1865. This statement is that of Major Edmond R. Wiles, past commander in chief, U. C. V., of Little Rock, Arkansas.

Of the number of confederate veterans now living, there are resident in Texas 717, only a few in each county in the state.

To Hold School Board Election Here April 3

Three vacancies on the Floydada Independent School Board caused by expiration of terms of three of its members will be filled in an election Saturday, April 3, it has been announced.

Members of the board whose terms expire are W. Ed Brown, J. C. Wester and Mal Jarboe. These members may be candidates for election again, if they so desire.

In the April 3 election those chosen will serve a term of 3 years on the board. Hold-over members this year are M. L. Probasco, Wilson Kimble, J. B. Turner, and Dr. C. M. Thacker.

Volley Ball Tournery Will Be Held 13th

Invitations Sent to 20 Rural Teams to Enter Boys And Girls Teams

To Give Trophies

Awards to be Made in Both Divisions of Tournament; Copeland in Charge

Invitations to enter a volley ball tournery to be held here Saturday March 13, have been sent to approximately 20 rural schools in the county, A. D. Cummings, superintendent of Floydada Public Schools has announced.

Miss Reba Copeland, who is coach of the F. H. S. girls volley ball team, will have charge of the meet and will award trophies to winners in both girls and boys divisions. All rural schools that have enough enrollment to have both senior boys and girls teams have been invited to enter. Invitations were mailed Wednesday.

Proceeds of the tournament will be utilized to purchase volley ball uniforms for the boys and girls teams of the local high school. An entry fee of $1 will be charged each participating team and a small admission charge will be made at the door to spectators.

Play is slated to get under way at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, March 13, with the finals scheduled to be held Saturday night.

Six Stop Signs To Be Installed At Highway Intersections On 28

Six metal stop signs for three intersections by Floydada streets of Highway 28 through the city have been purchased and will be installed some time this week, Mayor Glad Snodgrass has announced.

The signs, which are only two and one-half inches high, are equipped with cat's eye reflectors visible for a distance of 300 feet in either night or day. They are also 15 inches wide and 22 inches long and can be driven over easily without injury to the car.

Locations at which the signs are to be placed are as follows: two on the California street intersection; two on Missouri street intersection; two on Main street intersection.

Only six signs were purchased in order to give the new type a test. If these signs prove satisfactory, several others may be purchased, the mayor said.

Band-Parents Group To Be Formed Tonight

Parents of members of the Floydada High School Band and others interested in the band will meet at the high school tonight at 8 o'clock, Charles M. Kiker, bandmaster, has announced.

A program will be rendered by the band at the meeting, the purpose of which is to foster a close relationship between parents and the band work of their children, the bandmaster said. A band parents organization will be formed at the meeting.

Grand Jury Report Routs Rumors In Death Of Paul Sims Several Weeks Ago

Thorough Investigation Made By Grand Jury; Suicide Verdict

The grand jury report for the January term of District Court included reference to the investigation of the death of Paul Sims, who was a member of the grand jury at the beginning of the term. The report in its entirety, addressed to Judge Foley, follows.

"We, your grand jury for the January term, 1937, wish to express to you our appreciation for the courtesies of the court extended to us during our labors just concluded. We also express our appreciation for the promptness and dispatch with which the officers have served our papers in connection with our investigations and for the efficiency with which they have furnished us with witnesses. We are also appreciative of the advice and counsel of the attorneys of the court and for their continuous help during our deliberations and investigations.

"We especially call the court's attention to the fact that we have thoroughly and conclusively investigated the untimely death of one of our esteemed fellow members, Mr. Paul Sims, whose demise followed our first week's work as your grand jury, and we are unanimously of the opinion that his death was caused by suicide. We extend to his wife and all members of his family our heartfelt sympathy for this most unfortunate passing of their beloved relative and our dear friend, and we deeply regret the rumors that were circulated over the county in which the name of one of the members of his family was used in connection with the cause of his death, because from a thorough investigation of the causes of his death we found no basis in fact for these insinuations and aspersions.

The grand jury has inspected the jail and wants to commend Sheriff Clark for the condition in which they found it.

We beg to advise your honor that we have now been in session 6 days, have thoroughly investigated all matters of violation that have been brought to our attention. We have returned 17 felony bills of indictment and having concluded our labors we beg now your permission to adjourn for the term."

The grand jury's report was signed by Arthur Barker, foreman. Other members of the jury were O. L. Allen, Claude Patton, O. M. Watson, F. M. Wiley, B. B. Wilkes, Geo. H. Pigg, D. S. Battey, Mal Jarboe, W. C. Cates, W. D. Colson.

Bailiffs for the term were N. E. Tyler, H. B. Alexander, Walter Hollums and R. L. Henry.

Included in the cases disposed of during the latter part of last week was the granting of a divorce in the case of Bernice Warren vs. Charlie Warren and the extending of the receivership of J. G. Wood in the case of Florence E. Edwards vs. Mozelle Edwards.

Quartet To Give Their Program At Pleasant Hill School Tonight

Warmed by a very cordial reception at Frick last week the Cowboy Quartette are expected to be in fine fettle when they reach Pleasant Hill tonight for their weekly program, auspices of more than a score of Floydada business firms.

Next week the quartette will go to Harmony, when their date also is on Thursday night.

An increasing number of local people are attending the weekly programs staged as a gesture of appreciation for friendship and neighborliness throughout many years of pleasant relations.

WEATHER AND CROPS

Low temperature for the week, Sunday morning, 14 degrees above zero;

High temperature for the week, 75 Wednesday afternoon;

Rain, trace this morning, with light norther and overhanging clouds, temperature 39 at 7 o'clock.

Wheat has shown satisfactory progress during the week. Row crop land preparation is further advanced than at same time in recent previous years. Little or no "blowing" during the week.

WEIGHER SHELTON STILL VERY ILL, REPORTS SAY

Reports from the bedside of A. E. Shelton at his home on Wet California Street, indicate he is still a very sick man. Although his condition was more satisfactory the first of the week, he suffered a relapse yesterday.

He has been sick for more than two weeks, influenza being followed by an attack of pneumonia.

Precious Animals

Unimportant looking little animals are those which Lloyd Prestwich, Ingewood, Calif., holds in his hands. But if you ask Mr. Prestwich, they're just about worth their weight in gold. They are chinchillas, raised at Ingewood on one of the most unusual fur farms in America.

800 Farmers Sign Up To Wire Homes For Electricity

Four Chairmen Active In Movement to Bring Electricity to Rural Homes

More than 800 Floyd County farmers have signed to take electrical service and wire their premises, if electricity is made available at reasonable rates, as a result of a rural electrification meeting held here Wednesday of last week.

Approximately 500 farmers have sent in their signed agreements to the county agent's office and approximately 300 have been received at Lockney.

Chairmen who are "carrying the load" of the movement to get electricity into Floyd County farm homes are George T. Meriwether, Lockney, Ed Whitfill, Lockney, Hal Scott, Harmony, and C. N. Battey, Lakeview.

Only Forty-One 1937 Car Licenses Bought

The usual last-minute rush for new car licenses is anticipated at the office of Frank L. Moore, tax collector and assessor, inasmuch as only 41 of the 1937 plates had been purchased up until Tuesday afternoon of this week.

To A. M. (Bert) Battey of the Lakeview community goes the distinction of being the first purchaser in the county of a 1937 passenger car license, having bought on February 1. His number is 392-551. Menard Fields of South Plains bought the first commercial car license and John Wilson of South Plains bought the first farm truck license. To date only 1 commercial license and 3 farm truck licenses have been issued.

A total of 2400 license plates for passenger cars were received some time ago at Mr. Moore's office, as well as 250 commercial licenses, and 350 farm truck licenses.

Passenger car licenses for this year have a black background with yellow letters, commercial car licenses have a red background with black letters, and farm truck licenses have a black background with red letters.

Deadline for purchasing the 1937 tags is midnight, April 1.

C. C. C. Enrollment Call To Be Made Soon

A call for C. C. enrollees will be made some time either in March or in April, Dot Slough, case worker for Floyd County, has announced.

Requirements for enrollment in these camps will be the same as last year, she said. Anyone wishing to see her regarding C. C. C. enrollment can do so on Monday or Thursday of each week.

'Texas Week' Program Set At 3 o'Clock

School Children to Parade Opening Down-Town Out-Door Program

Mass Singing

Mathews to be Featured in Patriotic Address Over Sound System

"Texas Week" in Floydada will be climaxed this afternoon at 3 o'clock in a down-town out-door program at 3 o'clock.

Floydada Public Schools, and all visiting schools that can be induced to join the program, will form a parade on West California Street at 2:50 o'clock, and led by the high school band, march to the scene of the mass demonstration when the fire siren is sounded at the appointed hour of 3 o'clock.

Business houses will be closed for the program hour, and mass singing of "The Eyes of Texas" and other patriotic songs will "take the echoes of a new era." G. C. Tubbs will direct the two thousand or more who are expected to join in the celebration.

Mathews to Speak

Mayor Glad Snodgrass will act as master of ceremonies for the occasion. It is anticipated he will introduce out-of-town visitors and recognize principals of all visiting schools from the rolling stage of Brown & Williams, over the microphone.

Special songs and other musical numbers will be given by local entertainers.

A general invitation was broadcast the first of the week by R. W. Cothern, secretary of Floydada Chamber of Commerce, and a special invitation to all rural and independent schools in the neighboring towns and communities to come early and get in the school parade Mr. Cothern's invitation urges:

"Come on and get in the crowd—it's once in a hundred years. You may not be here to celebrate the Independence of Texas at the opening of the next century.

If you are a Texan, if you are Texas-minded, if you have the big, broad Texas spirit—then let yourself out for the hour and help us all say so at one time, one place. (See Texas Week, back page)

To Draft Program For Old Settlers Meeting

A called meeting of the officers of the Floyd County Old Settlers Association will be held Saturday afternoon, March 13, in the county court room at 2 o'clock, according to Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan, president of the organization.

A program will be outlined for the 1937 get-together of the old timers here May 28 at the meeting. All officers and members of the association are asked to be present.

Food and Clothing For Relief Cases $13,900 In 1936

Commodities distributed to relief clients in the county during 1936 amounted to $13,900.92, according to a report made by Dot Slough, case worker in charge of relief work in this county.

Total retail value of the food distributed to relief clients was $8,151.92 while value of the food distributed to relief clients was $5,748.90.

Included in the report was the quantity of each commodity distributed during the year, as follows: 7,492 cans of meat; 17,376 pounds of fresh apples; 2,463 pounds of dried beans; 315 pounds of cauliflower; 19,837 pounds of flour; 1,193 cans of evaporated milk; 2,412 pounds of rolled oats; 1,500 pounds of Bermuda onions; 138 pounds of dried peas; 140 pounds of rice; 6,416 cans of vegetables; 2,086 pounds of dried prunes.

Clothing: 1,801 pieces of childrens clothing; 865 pieces of mens and young mens clothing; 1,823 pieces of womens and mens clothing; 26 mattresses; 196 pillow cases; 205 sheets; 164 comforts and quilts; 95 miscellaneous articles.

LACK OF FARM SECURITY

Out of the study of farm tenancy in America has come the knowledge that it is but one of the signs of general insecurity among certain groups of farmers, and that the problem is one of many angles, all of which are not known, some of them certainly only sensed in many important quarters.

For instance, it has not yet dawned upon many financial and industrial leaders that farm tenancy and other maladjustments in country America are directly responsible for their plight when the depression hit, in fact largely responsible for the depression itself.

One of the scourges of the farm, in broad terms, is speculation in farm lands, leading to excessive tenancy. Many solutions have been offered for this evil, some of them radical in the extreme, others apparently not meeting the need.

SAVING SOIL AND WATER

It is rather important to note that in the councils of legislators and conservationists, the terms soil conservation and flood control are beginning to mean approximately the same thing—that is they get the same result. Every farm that is terraced, every ranch that is ridged up to hold the moisture on the land, every tree planted, is a means toward curbing the floods that mean ruin to the valleys below.

Such men as Carl Blackwell of Oklahoma A. & M. College, who have been preaching the need for conservation of soil and water on the watersheds instead of dikes and levees on the lower reaches of the big rivers, are beginning to see recognition of their efforts. Without soil conservation in the highlands the floods below will get bigger and bigger and the rivers on higher and higher stilts. The big job is back where the waters first gather. Such eventually will be the national policy.

FOR HOME-WANTERS

An interesting item in the run of the news the past few days is the report that the Federal Housing Act will continue to function on a federal guarantee basis until 1939.

For the purpose of the home-builder or the person who would buy or modernize a home, the Federal Housing Act furnishes the best means of financing so far known in recent history of similar financing. Best because the rate of interest is low (not more than 6 per cent after all "trimmings" are added), and because it can be paid for by the salaried man out of his earnings monthly, and because all safeguards have been thrown

CONGRESSIONAL RECEPTION

Newton's Discoveries

By Charles Newton

I have found that it is not pleasant to be at odds with my fellow-men all the time. It is much more satisfying to be in accordance with his whims, eccentricities, and predilections. We should not quarrel always, although some men have made a name for themselves only through the medium of incessant argumentation.

In considering life as a whole, I should say that the period at which a person first enters upon a satisfying method of living is to him the most enjoyable of his earthly existence—the mature period at which, weary of floundering about in confused circles and chasing chimerical Baecchus, he moors himself to the lighthouse of faith that keeps him in the even tenor of existence.

We young people of the depression era have profited by the hardships through which we have trudged, and are still trudging. I hope, in a chaotic world (how sickening and trite an expression) we have been buffeted about, while overhead the dark clouds of despair have hung like Damocles' sword. When it is all over and the sun of peace and plenty shines again, I feel that the young people of today will be ready, with their economics test passed with flying colors, to build back on a more firm foundation the toppled towers of yesterday's debacle.

It's curious what reverses of opinion association will bring about. I have railed against the demeanor and customs of the young people of today at great length in former spasms, but after recent association with young people I am convinced that they are to be commended and not to be railed against. I doff my hat to you, young people, and ask you to accept my profound apologies for misrepresenting you. I made the mistake of getting old too quickly and had almost convinced myself that I was old when I was nothing but a whippersnapper myself. In fact, I wish I were several years younger.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON — The Senate Judiciary Committee is expected to have the supreme court reorganization bill ready for debate on the floor early in April. Those who oppose the president's plan to liberalize the court will try to build up enough pressure before that time to block the measure.

The opposition here is already reinforced by resolutions adopted in some state legislatures, and by the support of bar associations and other conservative groups. An overwhelmingly hostile press is supplemented by the work of Publisher Frank E. Gannett's National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government.

Telegrams and letters which congressmen have received are predominantly against the Roosevelt proposal. Picked men from both sides are broadcasting their sentiments by radio, and Roosevelt is holding conferences with members of Congress at night to equip them with verbal ammunition for the fight.

Administrationists feel they have a slight edge in the Senate and Roosevelt feels confident his court plan will become law. The chief reasons for confidence on the administration side are:

1—The demonstration of popular approval Roosevelt received in the November election.

2—The New Deal measures which the president feels sure the people want, and can have only under a changed supreme court.

3—Roosevelt's recognized effectiveness over the radio. He will utilize this as never before when he decides the time is ripe to appeal directly to the people. Probably he will pull this ace from his sleeve some time early in March before committee hearings on the bill begin.

4—Roosevelt can hold out patronage as an inducement to those congressmen who are reluctant to follow him in this move.

Some of the liberals and antagonistic Democrats whom Roosevelt has reached but has not quite persuaded to get in line, are holding out for a compromise. It is possible that the president may be reconciled to some changes in his bill before it is passed, but it isn't likely he will compromise on any basis that will not enable him to establish a liberal majority in the supreme court.

The separate bill permitting justices to retire on full pay ($30,000 a year) has administration backing. Roosevelt hopes by this to let the public know the aged justices he wants removed would be "taken care of." Also there is the possibility that two or three of the older justices will take advantage of this retirement privilege when the bill passes. Heretofore Congress has passed a special pension act when a justice retired.

Secretary Wallace's statement that the New Deal farm program could hardly be considered safe under recent supreme court rulings brought support for the court plan from organized farm owner groups. Labor's Non-Partisan Leagues (John L. Lewis) and the American Federation of Labor (William Green) are in the Roosevelt camp. Also it's reasonable to expect that Roosevelt's election support among Negroes may be behind this bill.

Editorial Briefs From Other Newspapers

A great many people in the United States felt that a mistake had been made in the acreage reclamation plan set up under Secretary Wallace's department of agriculture. They felt that it was unwise to sound and some even called it a sin, to fail to produce what the normal acreage of the nation could produce.

Be that as it may, nature has decided hand in the matter as the result that production of acreage left in cultivation fell short under the scourge of drought. Anyway, the country generally applauded when Secretary Wallace recently flagged the farmers ahead and said "let's fill up storage bins this year."—Claremont News.

Old age pensions have some people worried. They wonder who is going to pay them. They will be declining, more than one-third of our population will be over 65 years of age in less than fifty years.

It seems tough but, then, there are other statistics. One says that population of the United States begins to decline in the next five years. Fifty years from now, as we will have only one-third many children in the nation as now. So what? Merely, that if we have fewer children to support the nation may be able to care for its old people.—Community West Plainview.

There is no quarrel with people as men rush on to their conquest of joy and despair, though some journeys could wait until tomorrow but the intersections of roads hold only danger where each stop to meet and invite each other to visit when out their way.—Meador Tribune.

No greater individualist ever lived than the early American settler, single-handed waged war with the Indian, who lived in a community. And always the individual won out.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

Wolves are numerous in the county! A man says that there are more coyotes than cows here. And reports of some having killed thirty and fifty these varmints seems to corroborate this. Farmers say they have raising turkeys on account of wolves though this is one of the best turkey counties on earth. Of this leads us to believe that should call upon the government to send some trappers here to see if they can't exterminate the pests.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

President's All-Risk Crop Insurance Plan Looms as Ambitious Task for Uncle Sam

American agriculture begins another crop year. Will the land this man is turning over assure him a normal yield in 1937? Or does crop disaster lie ahead? To remove this specter of uncertainty hovering over the nation's farms, the government, through Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace, inset, proposes a national crop insurance plan.

WASHINGTON.—The government, in the event Congress approves a federal program of all-risk crop insurance, would face the greatest actuarial problem yet undertaken.

Starting with hundreds of thousands of wheat farmers, the program would eventually embrace corn, cotton, and other major crops. In time, it might conceivably include some 6,000,000 farmers whose farms, stretching from coast to coast, would represent every phase of American agriculture.

The government, moreover, would face a task in which at least four private companies have failed in the last 37 years. These companies met either bankruptcy or a lack of public confidence in the crop insurance field. So today the only protection available to the farmer is limited hail insurance and very few other specific risks. The all-risk indemnity, for private concerns, seems to be out of the question.

BUT the president's special crop insurance committee, which is headed by Secretary Henry Wallace, and has made a detailed study of the problem, maintains this sort of protection must be provided if American agriculture is to rest on a solid foundation. Moreover, the committee points out, the government alone is big enough to handle the problem, and to take some loss if necessary. In the aggregate, however, expense to federal, state and local governments from past crop losses, they contend, points very strongly to the desirability of crop insurance.

So Congress finds itself face to face with this gigantic problem. What are the points of the president's plan? Briefly, they are:

1—Insurance, beginning in 1938, to assure wheat farmers a "normal yield."

2—Collection of premiums in wheat or the cash equivalent.

3—Storage of wheat premiums in federal warehouses for release in years of low production.

4—A federal appropriation for financing administration of the program.

5—Eventual extension of crop insurance to corn, cotton, and the other major crops.

PARTICIPATION in the program would be voluntary, but it would be put into effect only in counties where a "reasonable percentage"—probably 50 per cent—of the wheat farmers agreed to insure. The amount of insurance on any farm would be determined by the average yield on that farm over a period of several years. The farmer would be assured a yield up to a predetermined percentage of his average production.

Premium rates, under this program, would be fixed by county committees and would vary according to risk. Rates on farms where short crops or failures have been frequent would be set at 50 per cent of the amount of insurance.

The government would insure yield, and not prices. Premium would be paid in wheat, or its cash equivalent and indemnities would be paid on the same basis without regard to variations in prices. In years when yields were below the predetermined "average," the government would pay indemnities sufficient to bring the yield to average. Thus, points out Mr. Wallace, consumers and farmers alike would be benefited, since price fluctuation would be checked and a steady supply maintained. It is this feature that has started Saskatchewan in Canada and the Union of South Africa on an extensive study of crop insurance.

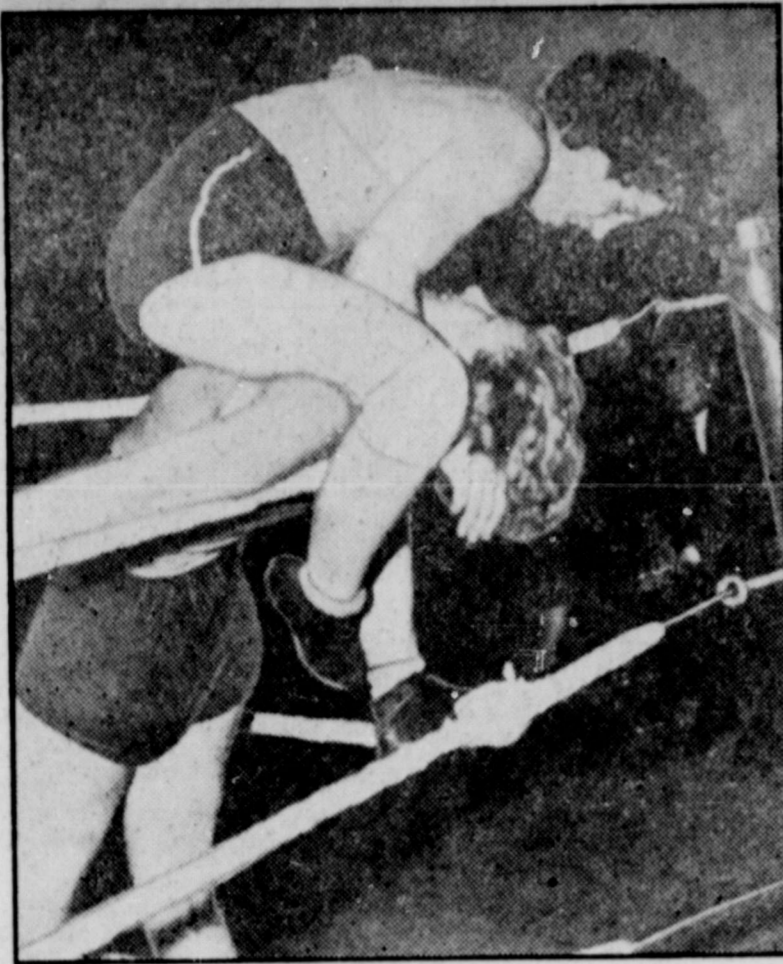

News For Home Builders In Floydada In Revised FHA Rule

Information from the Federal Housing Administration that the Congress has amended the Federal Housing Act to make debentures insured under the act fully guaranteed as to interest and principal, to make the expiration date for the guarantee July 1, 1939, instead of July 1, 1937, has been received by The First National Bank of this city.

The information given enables approved lending agencies to proceed with the secure knowledge that the guarantee in question will be in full force and effect for at least two and a fourth more years, and enables them to proceed more confidently with applications for loans.

The Federal Housing Act provides the best means for home-building, for remodeling and for refinancing, the average citizen has had in many years. J. V. Daniel, president of The First National Bank said the first of this week. "While this statement sounds like we are blowing our own horn in calling attention to the matter, we believe the statement will be borne out from most any source a person would like to get the information." One reason pointed out by Mr. Daniel the FHA plan is an excellent one for the home-builder with limited means is that the low rate of interest indicated is actually low, the rate being 5 per cent. After all trimmings are added, he pointed out, the rate still figures not over 6 per cent.

Clamping Down For A Championship

The Old And the New

Sourdough Bread And Son Of A Gun

By Nellie Witt Spikes
"Chuck, come and git it or I'll throw it out." Welcome words from the autocrat of the cow country—the cook as they floated on the hot dusty air to the ears of the cowboys hot and tired from wrestling with dogs when they put the companies' brand on them. And when I say the cook was an Autocrat, I am simply stating the truth, for no one dared dispute his word or "belly-ache" about his cooking.

Hours ahead of the herd the cook had driven on, his chuckwagon loaded with the rolls of bedding and the "war-bags" of the cow boys. Camp was made near the round-up grounds and preparations for dinner begun. Some times the boss and horse-wrangler would be there to gather fuel, but if not, the cook took a gunny sack and gathered up the cow chips for his fire. On dry days, a wisp of dry prairie grass soon had the fire started, but in wet weather a little oil poured from the lantern or a meat rind was used to start the fire. A pit about four feet long was dug and a stob driven at either end. The cook took a rack and hung on the stobs. His skillet, coffee pot were brought from their place in the "Koonie" (a cow hide slung under the wagon) Beans were put in a big black pot with a chunk of "sow belly", salt and water and hung over the fire. Cores were cut from dried apples and the apples simmered in another black pot. Coffee was ground in the mill fastened to the chuck box and put to boil in a three gallon iron coffee pot. The chuck box was set in the back of the wagon and the door had a swinging leg, that when let down made a table. Flour, sugar, beans, bacon, also the beef was carried in the wagon. Tin plates, cups, iron handle knives and forks, and tin spoons in the chuck box also salt, lard and soda.

Some cooks rolled the sides of the flour sacks down, hollowed out a place in the flour, and made their bread, while others used a bread pan. When the cowboys got to the wagon each got his plate, cup, etc. and went to the fire and waited on himself. The cook was kept busy taking up bread and putting more on to cook. As each cowboy finished he started his empty dishes on the chuck box table or piled them under near.

What old ex-cow man of today would not like to go back to the days of yesterday and eat once more a dinner at a cow camp, consisting of red beans, fried steak with water gravy, sour dough bread, son of a gun stew, lick or sorghum, or some times dried fruit with sugar?

Here are some of the recipes used by an old time cook for a ranch outfit.

Sour Dough Bread
Start the dough by mixing water and flour into medium stiff dough batter and let sour. Round out a place in your flour, pour about a quart of this batter in. Add soda and salt and lard and make stiff dough. Squeeze off a piece about the size of a hen egg, shape into a biscuit with your hands. Have your bread oven over a bed of coals with grease in it, also have hot coals on the lid. Turn your biscuit over in the grease, put on the lid and bake brown, then see how many you can eat.

Son of a Gun
Take pieces of liver, heart, some tallow, good pieces of steak, and the marrow gut as it is taken from the beef. Cut these in small pieces and put in a pot with plenty of water. Add red pepper and start, (more pepper if any body complains) cook slowly till tender. Brown some flour in a hot skillet and add to the stew. After the first taste, then you

WITH YOUR ENGINE OIL-PLATED

OIL-PLATING differs widely from other forms of lubrication in this plain, understandable way: It remains lastingly fastened to the pistons, bearings and other engine parts, even when they are not in motion. This is made possible by the Germ Process—patented—which gives Conoco Germ Processed oil its strong attraction for metals, so that every working part becomes durably Oil-Plated.

So it's nothing to you, when engineers blame more than half of all engine wear on so-called "dry starting." Nor need you worry over all the rest of the annual Spring oil scare. Whether your car is new or old, you can make your longer runs . . . hit your higher speeds . . . enjoy your hotter sunshine. Oil-Plating can take it like the longest-lasting part of your engine. For Oil-Plating really becomes a long-lasting part of your engine, as you change to long-lasting Conoco Germ Processed oil. Continental Oil Company

Oil-Plating is not like any lubrication that merely goes on-and-off. Once Germ Processed oil covers the parts it never leaves them bare of Oil-Plating . . . Never when the pistons are racing thousands of strokes a minute . . . Never on any hills, despite any load . . . Never while you park at a dozen different stores.

FLOYD STUDENT IN IOWA STATE COLLEGE TO MAKE MICROSCOPIC SOIL STUDY

News that Rex Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Johnston, of Floydada, has received another rare opportunity for study in advanced agriculture, was carried last week in The Treador, student publication at Texas Technological College. Says The Treador: Rex Johnston, a 1936 graduate majoring in agronomy in the division of agriculture, Texas Technological college, and a graduate student in Iowa State college, Ames, has been given a signal honor by the school, Dr. A. W. Young, associate professor of agronomy, states. Mr. Johnston was selected from a group of 10 graduate students at Ames to work with a specialist in soil classification under Dr. Kubiana, of Vienna, Austria, who comes here April 1 for a six months' study. Dr. Kubiana, Mr. Johnston wrote Dr. Young, will use a new method of microscopic soil classification, which has been in use in Europe for some time. It is an entirely new method of soil classification for American soils. The Tech graduate received a teaching fellowship in Ames. He is working on his M. A. degree. The ten graduate students were selected by the Iowa school. The Vienna expert said he could only handle one professor or instructor and one graduate student at a time. "I consider this a very high honor for a Tech graduate and a distinct tribute to a school of agriculture as new as this one," said Dr. Young. "The opportunity for Johnston is an excellent one to open possibly a new field of agricultural research."

THE 'FAMOUS FIVE' HAVE FUN EATING THEIR OATMEAL

Little Marie Dionne, who has always been the slightest and tiniest of the Dionne Quins, has been slowly but surely asserting individuality. She has been trying to show the world that she is every bit as wide-awake and healthy as her four sisters. Marie was the first Quinn to venture into the Dionne swimming pool and it was Marie who lost no time in trying out the shiny slide as soon as she saw it. Although she frequently appears to be a dreamer, Marie has just as much initiative as her four sisters. All five of the Dionne two-year-olds have been in the care of a top-notch staff of child experts ever since their birth. And it was this staff of advisors who selected oatmeal for the Quins' cereal.

Oatmeal with milk is a very fine source of minerals for building strong, sturdy bodies, of protein for building muscles, and of carbohydrates for making energy. And it is in oatmeal that one finds a rich supply of Vitamin B, a vitamin which is so essential in everyone's diet. Vitamin B is the precious element which protects young and old against nervousness, constipation and poor appetite due to lack of sufficient Vitamin B. So every day the Quins have a good time eating a big bowlful of Quaker Oats. And every day when the Quins are weighed they are found to be just as healthy, and as happy as fine little playmates could ever hope to be.

CARD OF THANKS

May we thank each dear one, friend and neighbor, for the help you gave and for standing by us in our sorrow. May God keep you in a land where there will be friends to help should death come to yours. Leonard and Irene Pope And Family.

Recital Given at Club Party by Miss Salisbury

Guest day was observed Tuesday evening by the 1934 Study Club when Miss Wilmina Salisbury was presented in a recital, reading Eugene O'Neill's trilogy, "Mourning Becomes Electra."

The club met at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. B. Jenkins with Misses Bernice Patton, Jane Hughes and Kathleen Wade as hostesses.

Miss Salisbury, a major of the Speech Department at Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth, artistically gave the play, using two intermissions. The play was divided into three divisions, "The Homecoming," "The Hunted," and "The Haunted."

Refreshments of hot punch, tea sandwiches, and Brownies were served by the hostesses from the dining room table, during the second intermission. The table was laid with a cream colored lace cloth and a bowl of fruit was used as a centerpiece.

Members of the club who were present were Misses Eulalia Burrus, Edwina Christian, Agnes Porter, Ena Lea and Bonnie Pyffe, Annie Laurie Martin, Maurine Hay, Ruth Jenkins, Amy McRoberts, Mildred Olson, Fannie Mae Rees, Ruth Rutledge, Merle Scoggin, Adelaide Scott, Genevieve Stovall, and Miss Genevieve Wilhite, Mrs. Marvin Shurbet, Mrs. Virgie Shaw, and Mrs. Greer Christian.

Guests attending were Mrs. Dee Pyffe, Mrs. Wallace King, Mrs. Zela King, Mrs. Alva Hull, Mrs. O. P. Rutledge, Mrs. Bill Cauley, Mrs. E. F. Stovall, Mrs. Joe Browning, Mrs. J. B. Claiborne, Mrs. T. A. Norman, Mrs. Lola Galloway, Mrs. Verner Norman, Mrs. G. T. Young, Miss Lydia Belle Waiding, Miss Fannie Bolding, Miss Glenna Mae Shurbet and Miss Margaret Sims.

The club will meet with Mrs. Ruth Rutledge at her home, 302 South White Street, on Tuesday evening, March 16.

Mrs. J. C. Dickey Celebrates 75th Birthday Sunday

Mrs. J. C. Dickey celebrated her seventy-fifth birthday Sunday. All of her children, except two sons, and several of her grandchildren were present for the celebration. Many neighbors and friends called during the day to extend greetings. Mrs. Dickey said it was a happy day for her and she received many beautiful flowers, gifts and birthday greetings. A birthday dinner was served at the noon hour.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hatchett, of Clinton, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scoggin and daughters, Mary Lou and Charlotte Ray of Lubbock; Mrs. Cella Ross, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Horn, Mrs. A. J. Welch, all children.

The grandchildren present were Billy Joe Welch, of Tulla; Mrs. Wm. M. Cauley, Miss Jessie Merle Scoggin, of Floydada.

The sons not present were J. E. (Kight Dickey) of Phoenix, Arizona, and Ray Dickey, of Lubbock. Telegrams were received by Mrs. Dickey from both of them.

Three Sunday School Classes Hosts At Banquet Friday

The Sunday School Classes of Mrs. I. W. Hicks, Mrs. J. H. Myers and Mrs. Lon V. Smith were hosts to 125 guests at a banquet Friday evening at the Baptist Church. The decorations were in the colors of red, white and blue and the table was very attractive with tapers in the three colors. Small hatchets were given as favors.

A very delightful program was given by Mrs. Lon V. Smith as toastmaster. Rev. Vernon Shaw gave the principal address of the evening and used for his theme, "And I will Call This Place Bethel." J. H. Myers gave the invocation. A toast, "To our Wives," was given by C. T. Scott and a toast, "To our Husbands," was given by Mrs. L. J. Welborn.

A quartet, composed of Clifford Tubbs, Dr. I. W. Hicks, Mrs. Vernon Shaw and Mrs. H. C. Stanley, gave several selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. E. O. Thomas. Following this Mrs. L. W. Chapman gave a violin selection.

In a short talk Judge A. J. Foley paid tribute to Sunday Schools and Sunday School teachers.

Among the out of town guests was Rev. Shaw's father, F. E. Shaw, of Vernon.

Miss Jean Ayres, of Lubbock, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff D. Ayres.

Wesley Carr, Miss Gertrude Bailey Are Married

Announcement was made Saturday of the marriage of Miss Gertrude Bailey to Wesley Carr on Saturday, January 16. The couple were married at Lubbock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Cecil R. Matthews. Rev. Matthews performed the simple ring ceremony. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chloia Williams, Miss Velma Heard, and Mr. Horace Carr.

Mrs. Carr is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bailey of Dumont, Texas. She is a graduate nurse of Lubbock Sanitarium, and did special work there until the announcement of her marriage. The bride was dressed in a blue wool suit with blue and gray accessories.

Mr. Carr is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mather Carr of the Harmony community. He formerly has been associated with his father in farming and mechanical work. He recently bought a farm.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple made a short trip to Amarillo, returning Sunday night. They will be at home in the Harmony community.

Mrs. C. L. Minor Luncheon Hostess For Club-Guests

Mrs. C. L. Minor entertained members of the Wednesday Luncheon Club and guests with a bridge-luncheon at the regular meeting Wednesday, February 24. Mrs. Homer Steen made high score for the visitors and Mrs. Richard Stovall got high score for the members.

The club will meet with Mrs. A. B. Keim Wednesday, March 10 at 12:30 o'clock.

On Friday, February 26, Mrs. Minor was again hostess at a bridge-luncheon for two tables of guests. Mrs. L. T. Bishop made high score. Guests were: Mrs. J. C. Gilliam, Mrs. L. T. Bishop, Mrs. Walter Hale, Mrs. A. B. Keim, Mrs. Conner Oden, Mrs. A. D. Cummings, Mrs. G. L. Kirk and Mrs. Richard Stovall.

Ruth Troutman Becomes Bride Of Greer Christian

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Troutman, two miles north of Floydada, when their daughter, Miss Ruth, became the bride of Mr. Greer Christian.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Mrs. G. E. May as the wedding guests arrived. Then as the bridal pair entered the living room she played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Also included in the pre-nuptial music was a vocal solo, "At Dawning by Cadman, sung by Mrs. Verner Norman.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John E. Eldridge, pastor of the First Methodist Church as the couple stood before an improvised altar, banked with flowers and ferns, arranged in the archway between the living room and dining room. Large wicker baskets filled with silver cake and honeysuckle were arranged on each side. During the ceremony Mrs. May played in subdued tones, "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell.

The bride was very attractive in a gray sheer alpaca crepe gown with gray accessories. She wore a corsage of deep pink carnations. For something old she wore her great grandmother's cameo locket.

After the ceremony a reception was held for the wedding party. The appointments were in pink and white, the bride's chosen color scheme. The table was covered with a lace cloth and pink flowers formed the centerpiece. Refreshments of cake and pink and white brick ice cream were served.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. L. Troutman, of Iowa Park; Miss Minnie Troutman, an aunt, of Iowa Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown, of Waxahachie, an uncle and aunt of the bride.

The immediate relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Noel Troutman parents of the bride and Miss Josephine Troutman, sister; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christian, parents of the groom; Miss Edwina Christian, sister of the groom; Mrs. S. D. Greer, grandmother of the groom; and several very close friends.

Mr. Christian graduated from Floydada High School with the class of '35 and attended Trinity University at Waxahachie last year.

Mr. Christian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christian, and was reared in this county. He attended High School in Floydada. He was engaged in farming with his father until the first of the year when he became associated with the Bishop Motor Company. Mr. and Mrs. Christian will make their home on West California Street.

Last Rites For Ralls Woman Held Wednesday

Mrs. C. W. Sargent, 73, mother of L. A. Sargent of the Starkey community, died Tuesday afternoon 4 o'clock at her home at Ralls, following an illness of two weeks. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Christian Church at Ralls, conducted by Rev. R. L. Travis, of Ralls, assisted by Rev. Hall, of Ralls.

Mrs. Sargent moved to Ralls two years ago from Cone, where she had been a resident for twenty-two years.

She is survived by her husband and seven children, three daughters, Mrs. Effie Draper, of Crowell, Mrs. Oscar Evans, of Portales, N. M., Mrs. Ed Corcoran, of Lubbock; and four sons, Carey Sargent, of Ralls; Clint Sargent, of Davidson, Okla.; Grover Sargent, of Rose, N. M.; and L. A. Sargent, of the Starkey community in Floyd County.

All of the children were present for the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gray and L. A. Sargent and the children were among those from Floyd County who attended the funeral.

FUNERAL AT WHITNEY FOR BROTHER OF J. E. EUBANK

Mrs. J. E. Eubank, in company with her son, Roy, and a niece Ma Monette Eubank, of Whitney, read home Saturday from Hill County where she had been for the funeral of V. E. Eubank, a brother of J. E. Eubank, held on Thursday afternoon at Whitney M. E. Church, following the brother's death on Wednesday previous. Rev. Jan O. Donelson was assisted in the funeral service by Dr. W. W. Shuler.

J. E. Eubank, who also went to Whitney following receipt of the news of his brother's death, remained there with relatives, planning to return home later.

The deceased brother was sixty-two years of age. He was born and reared at Whitney. Death came suddenly due to a heart attack while he was working in the field.

Two sons, Charlie Lon of Whitney, and Vernon, of Childress, and one daughter, Mrs. P. L. Shuler of Cross Plains, and nine grandchildren survive; also four brothers, John and Robert of Whitney, Cal of Dallas, Jim of Floydada, and three sisters, Mrs. A. M. Allen and Mrs. W. R. Johnson of Lubbock, and Mrs. Joe Hicks of Pettie. All of the above were present for the funeral except Mrs. Hicks.

Mrs. Eubank was preceded in death six years ago by his wife, the former Middle Cox, who was a sister of Mrs. J. E. Eubank of this city.

Good Time Reported At Cedar As Goodwillers Visit; Fairview Next

All hands had a good time, at least it appeared so to Floydada visitors, when the "Goodwillers" visited Cedar Monday night and joining forces with talent in that community, staged their program. Floydada High School Band and various members of it in musical duos, trios and quartettes, gave the major portion of the musical program. Judge Tom W. Deen spoke and G. N. Shirley acted as master of ceremonies.

A large crowd was present. The Floydada delegation was welcomed by Principal Fisher of Cedar School and the response given by C. L. Berry, local business man. Verna Lyles and Ella Mae Grigg proved popular in their duos. Among the number who responded to call were the three trustees of Cedar school, R. L. Lackey, T. F. Love and W. E. Brand.

Fairview Monday Night
G. N. Shirley, who has been major moving spirit in the visits to encourage better understanding among communities, said the trip next Monday night would be made to Fairview. Bandmaster Chas. Miller, of Floydada High School, is helping to arrange the programs.

Mrs. J. T. Avent and Mrs. J. T. Avent, Jr., of Tulsa were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Conner Oden Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Avent, Sr., is Mrs. Oden's mother.

Varied Program Marks Lions Club Meeting

A varied program, which included a talk by C. A. Shockey, presently a member of Cisco Lions Club, but a former resident of Floydada, made up last Thursday's program of Floydada Lions Club, held at the Christian Church Annex.

Mr. Shockey's talk was in remembrance of the club's first meeting from Floydada fourteen years ago, and was amazed and delighted, he said at the progress and development of the community in the elapsed time. "No need to apologize for the town you have here," he said. "Rather it is a town in which to be proud to live."

Ebert Norman and J. E. Newton presented the program. On it appeared Marguerite Leonard as accordionist, Floyd Jean Hale and Jo Dick Moore, juvenile dancers, the Cowboy Quartette in a purposed travesty on a popular ballad; and Paul Conner, local oil dealer, in a discussion of service club membership. "Service clubs," he said, "have no excuse for being just knife and fork clubs. Through them the members should live out their chances for the betterment of their communities." Conner holds Rotary membership. He expressed the fear that clubs often thoughtlessly waste golden opportunities for civic service.

Today's program will be presented by T. W. Quirk and Lewis Norman.

Miss Lola Mae Grundy and O. B. Hoyt of Lubbock, visited friends and relatives in Floydada Sunday.

Antelope News

O. W. Stewart has received his Delco-lighting plant and has installed lights in the school building and teacherage. The community congratulates Mr. Stewart and appreciates having a well-lighted school building again.

School is progressing very nicely and much enthusiasm is being shown by pupils and parents in the reading contests.

Parent-Teachers Meet
The Parent-Teachers met Tuesday afternoon in record attendance. The interesting program on "Time-Topics on Health" was led by Mrs. Tom J. Boyd.

Mrs. J. T. Poole read a paper on correctable defects, discussing the evils of diseased tonsils, decayed teeth, etc. Mrs. Claude Ring discussed scarlet fever, early symptoms treatment and effects. Mrs. Tom Jackson gave a paper on the importance of good nutrition. "A Child's Need of Sunshine and Open Air" was discussed by Mrs. Frank Reznicek.

During the business meeting, the members voted to take the school children to Floydada for the Texas Day parade Thursday.

At the close of the meeting, the hostesses, Mrs. Tom Jackson, Mrs. W. E. Rucker, Mrs. Frank Reznicek and Mrs. Tom Boyd served refreshments to the members, school children and a visitor, Mrs. J. W. Jackson.

The next meeting will be March 23, with Mrs. J. T. Poole in charge of the program and Mrs. Claude Ring, Mrs. R. H. Moore and Mrs. J. P. Bradford as hostesses.

Dramatics
"The Gentleman from Hong Kong," a three-act mystery comedy will be presented in the Antelope auditorium Wednesday evening, March 10 by the following cast:

Boyd Garner, an actor with a small income, by Mack Jackson; Sophia Shedd, housekeeper, by Mrs. Mack Jackson; June Montgomery, heiress to Montgomery formulas, by Mrs. Buck Hall; Andrew Tompkins, a government agent, by Conally Hammitter; Benita Byron, an agent of the Secret Service, by Mrs. W. O. Stewart; Ke Yung, a native of Hong Kong, by W. O. Stewart; Ricardo Revell, another agent, by Buck Hall; Cecily Saraja, a gypsy, by Mrs. Virginia Scott; Elin Joy, a "sob sister" for the Amalgamated Press, by Mrs. R. L. Audry; and John Henderson, of the Oswego Police Force, by Phillips.

Place: Oswego Hills, a small town near New York.
Time: Present.
Music for the play will be furnished by the Phillips string orchestra.

McCoy Telephone Line
Aid brings thanks to C. of C. from patrons

Aid in needed repair and change of a mile in the route of the McCoy telephone line No. 906, given recently by Floydada Chamber of Commerce, brought a word of thanks from patrons of the line to Secretary R. W. Cothran, of the organization this week. Says the note of appreciation:

"We take this means of thanking you for material furnished us to repair McCoy telephone line No. 906, which was built into Floydada in 1914, and serves a large scope of country south of the canyon in your trade territory. We assure you that we shall continue to be boosters for Floydada." The letter is signed by B. C. Brown, Mrs. T. L. Brown, Wm. Snell, Robt. E. Smith, John R. Gray, Herman Millican, Robt. F. Day, and G. H. Day.

O. J. Haines is seriously ill with influenza at his home this week. He is 83 years old.
Mrs. Billy Grundy and baby, of Amarillo, came to Floydada Sunday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hilton. Mrs. Hilton who has been visiting in Amarillo with Mr. and Mrs. Grundy returned home with her.

Orville Harris returned Saturday from Temple where he went through a clinic last week.

WOMAN'S COUNCIL WILL PRESENT MRS. JENNINGS

Mrs. W. P. Jennings, of Plainview, will be presented in a book review as a feature for the fifth meeting of the Co-operative Missionary Society, which will be held Monday, March 29, at the First Christian Church, according to an announcement made by Mrs. J. B. Jenkins at the Woman's Council Meeting Monday afternoon.

"Texas and Virginia Schools of the American Negro" was the subject of the Woman's Council program Monday, led by Miss Myrtle Meador. Mrs. Harry Morckel, Mrs. E. C. Nelson, and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins discussed topics on the program.

Following the song service a short business session was held.

The Woman's Council will meet in regular session Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Church annex.

CITY PARK CHURCH

Sunday school attendance has been growing slowly of late and audiences for the preaching services have been reasonably large, but when we consider the number of people in our city and compare it with the number who attend services at our several churches we must admit that many remain at home. We are anxious to see every one attending Sunday School and church, and if any of you who read this fall into this class please consider this a special invitation to visit with us.

The hour of our meeting is that which is common to churches in this section of the country: 10 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. preaching, 6:30 p. m. Young people's meeting, and 7:30 p. m. preaching. Also we have preaching service on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. You are invited to attend any or all of these services. Sunday morning the subject of the sermon will be "The Neglected Soul." Sunday night, "Putting First Things First" and on Wednesday night, March 3, at 7:30 p. m. "Seek Ye The Old Paths."

For a time the young people of the City Park Church of Christ have been inactive, but recently they have resumed their work, and many interesting and valuable programs are planned. Come and work with us.

Flavil R. Yeakley.

TEACHING COURSE FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Mrs. J. E. Eldridge is in Pampa this week where she is teaching a study course for teachers and church workers in the children's division of the Church School. She will complete the work Friday and will return home Saturday.

She will go to Lubbock Sunday where she will conduct a training school in the Methodist Church there for a week.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. E. Eldridge, pastor of the First Methodist Church announced this week that the Leagues and Sunday Night Prayer service will be held at 6:30 o'clock, instead of 6, beginning Sunday. And the evening service will be at 7:30 instead of 7.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shaw, of Vernon, came Friday for a visit with their sons, Rev. Vernon Shaw, of Floydada, and Rev. A. L. Shaw, of Lockney. Rev. and Mrs. Shaw and their guests went to Lockney Monday where they spent the day with Mrs. Verdon Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Marr. Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Shaw remained at Lockney with their son until Wednesday when they returned here to spend another week before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shaw, of Vernon, who are here visiting their son, Rev. Vernon Shaw, and family, are also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker. The two families were childhood friends in Haskell County and had not seen each other in thirty years.

MARCH 2

Last Tuesday the greatest state in the entire United States celebrated its one-hundred and first birthday. Exactly at two o'clock on March 2, 1836 a small band of Americans declared the state of Texas to be a free and independent nation.

For a minute let us see what caused these people to make this declaration. For a number of years people from the United States had been moving into this new territory. By this time over twenty thousand of them had made happy homes in this great territory. The Mexican Government had forbade any more of these people to come into Texas. Because of unjust rulings and leaders these people decided to become an independent nation.

Just four days after the signing of this proclamation the Mexican leader, Santa Anna, led his large army against the small forces at San Antonio in the Alamo. Everyone knows of this terrible battle in which the Texas army was almost completely destroyed.

Following this battle came on April 21—the great battle of San Jacinto in which the Americans were victorious.

From that day until the present the State of Texas has grown to be one of the most powerful states in the World. It leads the entire United States in the growth of cotton. The sulphur and helium production in the state is much more than the rest of the world together. Last year as shown by the Texas Centennial this state has made more progress than most any place. The population has grown from these 20,000 people to over 6,000,000 people now.

The natives of Texas should be proud of such a record as this. A state that has put on the many things that the state of Texas has put on successfully in the last year should make its citizens work harder to make it grow as much in the next 101 years as in the past.

Junior News

"Oh, boy, have we got a sweetheart and a nice ugly man? I'll say we have. Beth Newton, our sweetheart, takes the cake for them all. She has lovely golden hair and eyes as blue as mountain springs (I should be a poet). She has a lovely, light complexion, the envy of every girl in the junior class. She's our sweetheart and if you're as wise as we think you are you'll be her choice."

Next, comes our ugly man. Honestly, he's uglier than E. Ray Smith, Billy Stanforth or Oscar Atkinson put together. He's very long and lanky, has red hair and blue eyes and the sweetest big freckles you ever saw. He has an A-1 personality and everyone likes him. Oh, words are quite inadequate to describe Gerry so vote him in as the ugliest boy and you shall have a great chance to give a perfect description.

Finals In School-Wide Beauty Contest To Be Held In Near Future

Classes Select Prettiest Girl And Ugliest Boy As Candidates In Run-Off

A beauty contest was the main attraction here Monday morning. Each class in school had a get-together and elected their prettiest girl and ugliest boy. The finals will be before long, and the rates are one cent per vote. (I guess you can vote a hundred times if you have that much filthy lucre.)

The Freshmen had a bang-up election and in the writers opinion it was perfectly O. K. Mary Frances McRoberts is the prettiest girl and Billie George Probasco the ugliest Freshman boy.

The Sophomores ran true to type of all outrages, electing a boy and girl who go together Josephine Troutman is prettiest girl and Jimmie Willison is the ugliest boy. How'er you doing, you two. And Jimmie, what did you say about a framed-up election?

The Juniors elected my Ideals—Beth Newton prettiest girl and Jerry Lackey the ugliest boy.

The Seniors of course took it all over; they are cinched. Imagine E. Ray Smith for the ugliest boy and beautiful Estelle Gary as prettiest girl.

So all youse guys and gals candidates, good luck and may the prettiest girl and ugliest boy win!

Kampus Kaypers

It seems Gerry is becoming quite set in her ways. Why she's even knitting nowadays.

Our editor declares he doesn't have a new girlfriend, but what do you bet he does? A hint about this is—

Billy and these parties are getting to be a habit.

What certain kids hiked down in a canyon (near South Plains) to a railroad at the striking hour of midnight. My, my, the younger age of today!

What certain drug store skeet, blushes when "oh boy" is mentioned? And it seems that another of these drug store guys just must use the expression "yoo-whoo", with a cute wave.

Could anybody tell me who this person is that they call "Knuckles Thomas"?

Lost: one clock from a certain Senior's car.

Here is ye ole reporters guess on the returns on the beauty contests.

With E. Ray Smith representing the Senior Class that would be a cinch. I believe that he could stop working on the contest and yet win by a larg margin. I don't think that our Sophomore candidate will stand a chance as he's rather good-looking—Not saying that your not, E. Ray.

Now the contest for the best looking young lady in high school will be hard to guess. I'll pick Miss Gary to win over Miss Newton by a small margin. The two other candidates will also be very close in the race.

One thing that will hold the Seniors back will be their president supporting the Freshman candidate. Remember these are only my guesses on the race—and I probably will be wrong!

Some of our Freshmen are still wondering where some of the things went last Friday night. As far as that is concerned, some of the Seniors did not quite understand all of the tricks.

Have all you girls noticed that Frederick Dillard is wearing a tie to school every day now? This is something to be noticed as the Junior-Senior banquet is not so far off.

Has 9:30 Tubbs decided to get in earlier?

Verda Frances Turner is still wondering how those men on the stage changed places when the magician was walking about the tent.

Athletic Night Held By Members Of Hi-Y

The Hi-Y club met on Tuesday night and discussed the programs for the following meetings and they decided on the athletic night once a month.

The athletic night for the month of February was held on Tuesday night of the first week in March which was March 2. Boxing, tennis, volleyball, basketball and wrestling was the entertainment for the night. Also the time for the meeting was changed to 7:30, except the athletic night which was held at 7:00. The meeting on March 2 was held at the Andrews Ward Gym. The meeting on March 2 was an interesting one. All the business was discussed, and an interesting program given by the following Paul Marshall gave an interesting talk on the Bible, and another talk was given by Kenneth Bain.

The Future Homemakers of Texas enjoyed a joint social with the Future Farmers of America, Monday evening in the R. C. A. Gym. The social committee composed of the president of each club: Ethel Westfall and J. S. Hale Jr. and their club committees, Estelle Gary, Ruth Tribble, Ruth Kreis and Dorothy Fuqua, Billy Tad Probasco, James Fry Gibbs and Percy Matthews had charge of the unusual and entertaining games.

To carry out the names of the club further the girls wore print dresses anklets and ribbons in their hair. The boys wore wash trousers and work shirts.

One of the high points of the evening were the boxing matches: The Honorable Harold Brown just ducked his head and went in for a few thumps on his cranium. It was fun to go horse backriding, so some say—Benja Johnston came through with high honors with her musical chair. That was one hard game to play with about a hundred scrambling for a chair.

We can't stop before the ball game is reported. Who won—no one knows, but it was a lot of fun to try to keep the ball over the rope.

Yes, sir, there were several honey moon trips made. These were comical especially when the groom didn't know much about the brides' apparel.

It seemed as if some of the girls enjoyed swinging on a rope too. You girls will have to try again sometime when there is less interference.

Billy Tad really strutted his stuff on this particular night, we think. He proved a great help to certain people in helping carry on the games.

The entire group enjoyed the evening very much. Even the teachers were furnished some enjoyment, weren't they, Miss Wilbanks?

The refreshments, which consisted of ice cream and cookies, were served to 99 boys and girls and the sponsors at a late hour.

The first meeting was held last Wednesday night at 7:30. This was an organization meeting in which Arlan Miller was elected chairman. This group plans to meet one night each week and have selected the following topics to be discussed:

Care of a brood sow, problems in Irrigation, soil Fertility, seed Germination tests, pruning trees, vaccination, feeding dairy cows, and terracing. Everyone interested is invited to attend these meetings.

The discussion will be led by Mr. King. Those present included Arlan Miller, Arthur Graham, Lynn Miller, John Duncan, Johnnie Gates, Woodrow Cates, James Gibbs, Dewitt Burke, and Erwin Graham.

Who?

Who holds the record for blushing?

To whom should we go to confer about big feet?

Who had the sweet smell of lime candy in Biology class Friday?

Who got so terribly tickled in the sixth period study hall Wednesday?

Who are those seniors so interested in autographs?

Who is rapidly coming to the "fore" in his class? You are doing fine Gerald Lackey, keep it up.

Who likes "Rainbow on the River"?

Who (a class) is putting on a big campaign for the coming beauty election?

Who couldn't see who over whose books when?

Who couldn't decide what senior girl to vote for?

Who wears a baby blue bow in her hair?

Who chooses delightful color combinations?

Who went with a sophomore boy?

Answer—A senior girl.

Who likes to go with Pat?

Who likes Frankie Jones? Mary Ruth.

Who delights in swiping pretty green toboggans? Trueman might know.

Who turns egg baskets over? Edna Mae (Smith) do you mind if we tell?

Who gets embarrassed at the thought of being elected the ugliest boy in his class?

Who (a dog) has to endure green nail polish?

Who confused the reporters by going with the wrong sophomore girl Friday night?

Who (a sophomore boy) said he had the election cinched in the beauty contest?

Who is the prettiest girl in school? A hint—Beth Newton.

Who puts everybody in a religious frame of mind by their sacred songs?

Who knows where to look for her locker key when it's missing?

Who thinks who's tired?

Who says "Pul—leeze don't put anything in the paper about Mary Frances and me?"

Who thinks scavenger parties will be a great fun? Who thinks plain parties would be more fun?

CHAPEL PROGRAM

Last Thursday we had one of the most interesting chapel programs of the year. As the student body and the faculty entered the auditorium the band played "On Wisconsin." After everyone had entered the auditorium the band played "Chapel in the Moonlight," "Old Folks at Home" and "One, Two, Button your Shoe." The assembly sang all three of these songs with the band.

The Junior declaimers of high school gave their declamations. The juniors who spoke were: W. A. Colston, Gloria Hammonds, Mary Frances McRoberts, and Bobby Atkinson.

The remainder of the program was given by the ninth grade algebra class under the direction of Mr. Williams. This program consisted of the following numbers: The Freshman Band played "Flag of True and Antrimton Schottische," Maurine Hart gave two piano solos—"One, Two Button your Shoe," and "Darktown Strutters Ball." For an encore number she gave the popular selection of "So Do I."

Next on the program Evelyn Groves read one of the English papers she was grading to Robertine McIntyre. Following this reading Dorothy Dell Stovall, Sappho Ward and Gloria Hammonds sang two songs. These songs were the popular song hits, "Who's that Knocking at my Heart," and "Hey Babe."

Ruth Kreis accompanied them at the piano. Continuing the program along the musical line Mary Frances McRoberts, accompanied at the piano by Maurine Hart, played an alto solo entitled "The Old Refrain."

The announcer, Robertyne McIntyre, called various upper-classmen from the audience to speak for two minutes on any subject that she might name. This was very amusing and also showed the extemporaneous speaking ability of these students. The unlucky ones were as follows:

E. Ray Smith, "Note Writing in One Lesson," Billy Stanforth, "The art of Raising Big Feet," Estel Baker, "The Correct Way to Give a Girl a Present," Trueman Kirk, "Blushing as a Pastime," Harold Brown, "The Correct Route to the McCoy Community."

The concluding number on the program was a piece played by the saxophone quartet—"Sweet and Low." Or at least they played until C. W. Denison got strangled!

After some announcement we returned to our classes. As we left the auditorium the band played "To the Front."

Guess Who?

A freshman boy with brown eyes and hair. He is short of stature. He makes good grades and is very popular. He is an officer in his class. "A hint to the wise is sufficient."

A junior girl who has light hair and blue eyes. She makes very good grades, is good-natured, and is very attractive. She is a co-editor of the Hesperette.

A sophomore boy who has black hair and dark eyes. He is a reporter on the staff for the Hesperette for the F. F. A. boys. From all evidence, he is very popular. It seems that he is fond of boots.

Volley Ball Tourney To Be Reeled Off At R. C. A. Gym March 13

Two Trophies to Be Awarded In County-Wide Volley Ball Tournament

On March 13 our volleyball team is really going to work and win. Volley ball teams from all over this county are coming to the gymnasium at Andrews Ward. Both boys and girls will play and play to win. The tournament is to begin at nine o'clock; this will afford plenty of time for all of the games. An entrance fee of one dollar is necessary, but the teams will not mind that.

No consolation prizes will be awarded this year. There are to be two trophies to the winners. One will be given to the team of girls that win and one to the boy's team.

This is enough for any team to work for and our girls really mean to try for one of the trophies. We have a good team and every one should support it and keep it going.

PRACTICE DEBATE

The Matador debate teams journeyed to Floydada last Wednesday afternoon to meet the Floydada High teams. These debates were just for practice and no decisions were rendered. Extra teachers took notes on the local teams and criticized their weaknesses.

The first debate was started at 2:30 before the entire commercial law class. The boys debate happened to be first and the Floydada team drew the affirmative side of the question. The question for debate this year is "Resolved, That the manufacture of munitions of war should be a government monopoly." The ones who debated for the boys were Alton Morse and Trueman Kirk. Both of these teams learned many new points about the question.

After this debate was finished the girls then debated on the same question. Again Floydada drew the affirmative. The girls debating were Evelyn Hicks and Jessie Lee Hodges.

The final try-outs for the teams to represent Floydada in the county meet will be held early next week. Between now and then the teams will probably debate some of the surrounding towns. Invitations have been sent out to Plainview, Falls, Crosbyton, Matador, and other towns in this district.

If the teams show enough improvement they will enter the state tournament held in Wichita Falls next Friday and Saturday. The teams entered this same tournament last year.

LATIN PROJECT

Rome and its attractions has its fascinations for Latin classes at least. Many years ago Roman emperors used to give contests in the Circus Maximus. Tickets were given to the slaves and peasants by the emperor and his assistants to secure votes in the elections.

An attractive project made by the entire Latin class tells of the story of the Circus Maximus. The Circus itself is made of plaster of Paris. Rows of seats have been carved out for the numerous spectators who are dressed in togas. These spectators are in this project celluloid dolls. Their hair has been painted black to create more fully a Roman atmosphere. Gladiators and charioteers (also dolls) take part in the contest. They ride in chariots made out of soap. In the center of the ring made by the seats is the spina, on which huge tapers (birthday candles) stand to light the arena if the events take place at night. Also on the spina stand statues of gods linked on them. The judge's stand is also located on the spina. If he turns his thumbs down, the contestant is killed. If he turns his thumbs up the life of the contestant is spared.

This is the whole story of an interesting day in the Circus Maximus pictured by this intensely interesting project.

The Latin class has good reason to be proud of such a complete project.

Everyday Manners

Taken From The Book of Good Manners

Following are a few courtesies to observe in playing card games: Never complain with regard to the cards dealt you.

Don't criticize your partner for errors but congratulate him on "good plays."

Never blame your "bad luck" when losing.

Don't make exultant exclamations, card-drumming, noises, etc.

Never should a player afflicted with a poor partner make him plainly aware that he is so regarded.

Make a close study of the rules of the game to avoid minor discourtesies.

NOTICE

All clubs and classes are requested to see Betty Newell or Virginia Simpson and turn in the articles wanted on their pages in the year book. The seniors will work on the books some Saturday after Mr. Potter has completed all of the stenilla.

YEARBOOKS

The majority of the pictures for the 1937 yearbook have been approved and are now being made for the final books. All of the pictures will be completed when the complete books and extra pages arrive. Five of the pictures were sent with the books and will be developed along with the rest of the books.

The advertising is now over and we will have to hand the flowers to Billy Stanforth and Irvin Allen for doing such a great job of getting these pages. They did a swell job of it and will make a great team in the business world—that of selling advertising.

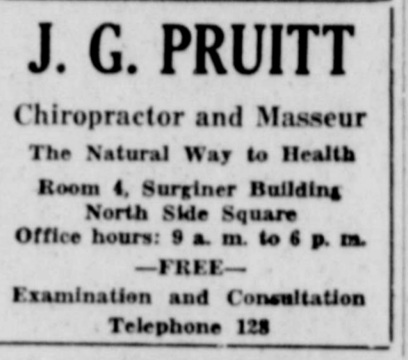

The editor of the books stated that they would probably be in by March 15. This is the date work on the books is supposed to start. The few books not sold when the first orders were taken are being sold rapidly. There is a great possibility that the entire amount of books ordered will be sold before the books are completed.

Funds to Aid Feeder Road Betterment

Secondary Highways Receive $25,000,000 Allotment For Construction

States Pay Half

State Must Select System Not Over 10 Per Cent Of Highway Mileage

State highway departments are to select a system of secondary or feeder roads for improvement with federal assistance, according to an announcement today by the Secretary of Agriculture. Rules and regulations were issued governing the expenditure of $25,000,000 of Federal aid for secondary roads apportioned last December to the various States, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

The Federal funds are to be administered by the Bureau of Public Roads in cooperation with the State highway departments. The Federal funds must be matched by equal amounts of State funds, and are for expenditure on secondary highway construction projects initiated by the various State highway departments and approved by the Secretary of Agriculture. The funds become available July 1 for payment to the States for completed work, and remain available for two years.

The regulations define secondary or feeder roads as including farm-to-market roads, mine-to-market roads, rural free delivery mail roads, public school bus routes, and other important secondary roads. To qualify for this assistance each State must select a system of important secondary highways not to exceed 10 percent of its highway mileage. The selection of roads to be included in this secondary highway system must be based on facts obtained from a highway planning survey in each State, and the Federal funds for secondary highways can be expended only on this system. Until such a system is designated, projects may be approved where they may reasonably be anticipated that the roads constructed will become part of the designated system.

The secondary highway systems will be essentially rural in character, the official statement says, although within municipalities sections linking important secondary highways with other main highways may be included. Highways now parts of the Federal-aid highway system or that are likely to be added to it cannot be included in the secondary system.

A wide distribution of benefits in each State is desired. To accomplish this the Chief of the Bureau of Public Roads is authorized to determine the minimum percentage of counties in which the funds authorized for any one or more fiscal years shall be used. This percentage is to apply in each State. The regulations emphasize that all work done must be consistent with traffic needs. Grading and drainage as first stage construction will be acceptable providing the State agrees to place surfacing or to improve the roadbed later. Regulations specify that the States must maintain in satisfactory condition all roads improved with Federal funds.

Highway planning surveys that will supply all information needed in selecting secondary road systems are well under way in 40 States, and in many, field work is nearing completion. These surveys are being made cooperatively by the State highway department and the Bureau of Public Roads and are being financed largely with Federal funds.

Fairview News

A good bit of spring work is under way now, with prospects of much more to be done in the near future. With a good rain not too far off, prospects are excellent for a good crop this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burgett visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Croslin of Floydada last Sunday.

We are sorry to say that we are losing Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bullard and daughter, Charlotte Gayle, who are moving to Mountain Ark, New Mexico at an early date.

We rejoice at their good fortune in getting a better place, but we will be sorry indeed to see them leave us, and we wish them well in their new surroundings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Green and family of Floydada, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Fowler and family.

Rev. Johnston preached at the Baptist Church Sunday morning, giving a strong sermon on tithing. His evening sermon was on "A Conquering Faith" taken from the life of Moses. Both services were well attended. Rev. and Mrs. Johnston and their two boys took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Edell DuBois.

The W. M. U. met at the Baptist Church Monday for an all day quilting. A delicious covered dish luncheon was served at noon to a good crowd. In the afternoon reports were made out and plans completed for the Annie W. Armstrong program to be given on the night of March 21 immediately after B. A. U. A very pretty quilt was finished for Mrs. Audrey DuBois.

The Dramatic Club is to give their play, "Aaron Sisk from Pumpkin Creek," at the local theatre on Friday night in connection with the regular picture. One substitution was necessary, as a member of the cast, Miss Cleo Cozby, is away visiting. So Miss Edna Beth Wilson is taking that part, and practice has been under way this week again and the play is ready again for a good performance.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. W. E. Tasek and daughter, Aileen, spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy.

Miss Ruth Peagan attended church at Lockney Sunday morning and spent the rest of the day with Miss Lena Faye Wofford.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Graham and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Graham and family.

There will be singing here next Sunday night.

The Sterley junior boys and girls will play baseball with the junior teams here Friday, March 5, and will also play senior girls' volleyball.

The Cowboy Quartette of Floydada presented a varied and interesting program to an appreciative audience here Thursday night, February 25. Many people were unable to attend because of the severely cold weather, but the opinion of the well-sized crowd present was that it was a splendid and well-presented program. The program was as follows: Welcome remarks and introduction of Roy Snodgrass as master of ceremonies by Everett Wallace in accordion selections by Marguerite Leonard; "Let the Rest of World Go By"; "Down the River of Golden Dreams" and "Lights Out" by the Cowboy Quartette; song and dance numbers by Kenneth and Arla Vee Bishop, accompanied at the piano by Arla Vee Bishop; "Boots and Saddle" by the Quartette; reading by Kenneth Bishop; "Barefoot Days" by Garland Glover accompanied by Claude Hammonds; dance by Frances Keim, accompanied by Nelda Fagan; "Wagon Wheels" by Roy Holmes, accompanied by Claude Hammonds; dance numbers by Floy Jean Hale and Joe Dick Moore, accompanied by Nelda Fagan; "Rock of Ages," "Have Thine Own Way, Lord," and the closing number "Prairie Lullaby" by the Quartette.

Quite a large number of the citizens of Floydada and the sponsors of the program accompanied the entertainers, and we extend to them, as well as to the splendid group on the program, a hearty invitation to visit our community again. The P. T. A. served light refreshments.

Church News
There was preaching Sunday at the Baptist Church held by the former pastor, Rev. J. M. Harder, Rev. C. E. Roark the pastor, was also present. He made an interesting talk Sunday morning and preached Sunday night. B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School were well attended and everyone is invited to come next Sunday.

Cene Presented Play
Cene presented a play "The Girl From Out Yonder" here Friday night. A good crowd attended and every one enjoyed the performance.

The outsiders are going to take their play "Where's Grandma" to Sand Hill Wednesday evening, Lockney Thursday evening, and Starkey Friday evening.

Trophy Case
The Trustees presented a trophy case to the girls and boys for which we wish to thank them.

Locals
Mr. and Mrs. John Allen went to Stephenville, Texas to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Allen.

JOHN, YOUR HAIR IS A FRIGHT! HERE, USE MY FOM-OL!

Wives, mothers, sisters—they're often forced to point the way to hair health to their men folk! For women know that a healthy head produces handsome hair! And that's why women everywhere are pointing to Fom-ol, the remarkable foaming oil shampoo which first nourishes the scalp, then takes the dull, parched hair and brings it back to glowing health. Fom-ol is so economical; a little goes a long way. Ask your druggist for the regular 50c size. Or, write for a generous trial bottle, enclosing 10c to cover packing and postage.

Clean System Clear Skin
 You must be free from constipation to have a good, clear complexion. If not eliminated, the wastes of digestion produce poisons and the skin must do more than its share in helping to get rid of them.
 So for a clear, healthy skin, remember the importance of bowel regularity. At the first sign of constipation, take Black-Draught—the purely vegetable laxative. It brings such refreshing relief, and tends to leave the bowels acting regularly until some future disturbance interferes.

Lions Club Presents Program For Rotary

T. F. Huggins, principal of Andrews Ward school and the Floydada Cowboy Quartette, all members of the Lions Club, presented the program for the Rotary Club Wednesday noon.

Mr. Huggins spoke on "Why I Like An Intelligent Selfish Man" and the quartette, composed of Garland Glover, Woodie Guhrrie, Claud Hammonds and Roy Holmes, sang four numbers. The program was in charge of Richard Stovall, of the program committee.

Texas Week

(Continued from page 1) Texas Week was officially proclaimed by Governor Allred and by mayors of cities and towns all over the state last week. As a result the observance of the beginning of the second hundred years of the state's independence has been general. In Mayor Glad Snodgrass' proclamation last week he said:

"Texas Week in 1937 marks the beginning of the second century of Texas history, and I suggest that every home, church, school, civic organization, fraternal group, convention, court, patriotic society shall render suitable programs, in order that we may be inspired by the deeds of our forefathers to a new sense of loyalty, appreciation, and devotion to the romantic history of Texas and to help us take a long look as we plan for the next century."

The observance here is in response to the spirit indicated in the proclamation indicated in the mayor's and the governor's proclamations.

MRS. SARGENT RETURNS HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. L. A. Sargent, who underwent a sinus operation in a Lubbock hospital at Lubbock Tuesday of last week, was able to be moved to her home in the Starkey community Tuesday. She was accompanied home by Mr. Sargent, and by her two sisters, Mrs. Olin Bryant, of Lorenzo, and Mrs. Jno. Gray, of the McCoy community.

Her mother, Mrs. G. T. Assiter, of Floydada, said Wednesday night that her daughter was getting along as well as could be expected.

DUNCAN ANNOUNCES FOR SECRETARY, ASSESSOR, COLLECTOR OF THE CITY

S. E. Duncan this week announced that he would be a candidate for city secretary, assessor and collector of the City of Floydada to succeed himself in the municipal election scheduled for April 16.

I. R. Grundy and J. W. Lanier made a trip to Lubbock, Sunday.

Irrigation

(Continued from page 1) west to the Lankford place and when it completes that job will go to the J. A. Stegall farm across the fence. Similar stories might be told of the other rigs operating in the county, with two to ten jobs waiting for each.

Patterson Well Log
The patterson well struck the first water sand at 60 feet, another at 205 feet, and the heavy sand at 264 feet. The log of the well is as follows:

0-3 feet surface soil; 3-29 feet caliche; 29-40 feet rock, hard caliche rock; 40-60 feet caliche; 60-72 feet water sand; 72-108 feet sand and shale; 108-109 feet rock; 109-205 feet reddish shale; 205-212 feet water sand; 212-264 feet shale; 264-324 feet water sand; 324-326, red shale to bottom. The well pumped more sand than was anticipated. Sunday and on the days following scores of visitors from the surrounding area have visited the well, and it now seems probable that land owners further east in what has been termed the area of water stratas too deep for practical irrigation purposes, will undertake similar efforts.

The introduction and proof of practicability of small power plants, vastly less expensive to install, to operate and keep up, first brought the irrigation back with a bang three years ago, and now while legislators and water engineers and economists argue over the source of supply and the need for conservation legislation the landowners puncture the earth to bring to the surface the water that has been stored up, to pour on their crops.

FLOYDADA FAMILY ATTENDS RELATIVE'S FUNERAL RITES

Mrs. J. R. Teague and son Milton, Mrs. Paul Sims, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. E. L. Teague and daughter La Nell returned Tuesday from Fort Worth, where they attended funeral services for J. F. Hefflin, brother of Mrs. J. R. Teague.

Funeral services were in charge of an old friend of the family, Ray Secretes, with interment made in the Green Wood cemetery at Fort Worth.

Farm Program

(Continued from page 1) bulletin applying to the agricultural conservation program in this county. These bulletins will be distributed at each of the meetings, at which time the program will be explained in such a manner that farmers will be in a position to immediately plan their 1937 operations.

"It is very important that every farmer and rancher who intends to cooperate with this program in 1937 attend these meetings to hear the information and regulations which apply to this year's program," Mr. Brethauer said. "Quite a number of new changes have been made in regard to soil conserving crops and soil building practices. Most of the farmers have some idea about the agricultural conservation program and if they attend these meetings the new changes will be explained in such a way that it will be less confusing for them than it has been in the past.

"Last year producers had the idea that it was not necessary to take part in these meetings but had only to call at the county agent's office at a later date and ask certain questions in regard to their farm operations and in many cases the questions asked did not apply on their particular farm and the answers they received proved to be in error as far as their farm operations were concerned. It is almost necessary to hear the program explained as to how it will apply to the county and then later work out a program for your own individual farm.

"Farmers are not only urged to attend the educational meetings but are urged to be on hand to help select men who will be their committeemen for 1937. The success of this program lies strictly in the hands of the men who are elected to this important task of handling and administering the program in their community.

"In many cases men qualified to act and handle a committeeman's position are far too busy with their own farm operations to take part in this kind of work but it must be remembered that if the success of the program is to exist in this county farmers must select men who are solid in their judgment, who have made a success of their own operations and who can represent the own community fair and square. On the other hand the men must be able to come in and administer rulings applying to all farmers in the county. Many times these decisions are difficult to make."
