VOLUME 44

FLOYDADA, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1937.

NUMBER 10

Excellent Rains Bring Good Row-Crop Planting Season

Will Mature Much Wheat In Territory

One to Two And a Half Inches Rainfall Reported General in Area

1.37 At Floydada

Minor Hail Reports From Big Crop Area on Southeast Plains

Excellent general rains over this section of the plains extending from Briscoe county on the northwest southward through this county and on through Crosby and Dickens counties as well as east through Motley has given the east plains area one of the best general row crop planting seasons of recent years.

Additionally the 160,000 acres of land seeded to winter wheat and several thousand more acres in barley and rye are given another extension of two to three weeks toward maturing a good crop of small grains.

This sums up reports from a wide area of Floyd and surrounding counties during a storm period beginning last Thursday, the peak of which was reached Monday afternoon and night to bring 1.37 inches of rain at Floydada, two and a half inches at Lockney and Sterley and a minimum of three-quarters of an inch in any section. One of the heavy rain reporting areas is that extending from Pleasant Hill southeast of Floydada southeastward through northeast Crosby and northwest Dickens counties, where the plains' best wheat crops are now beginning to make heads and will soon be in the boot.

From Petersburg and the area surrounding come good rain reports. Similarly Starkey and the area south had good rains, as did Dougherty and South Plains and Pleasant Valley in widely separated parts of the county. From all of these reports it appears without doubt that ample season for the beginning of the row crop planting season has fallen and it is anticipated the week-end will see many planters in the fields. Apparently feed crops will be the first to go into the ground, with sudan, maize and kafir heading the procession. A little cotton may be planted, but generally, it appears, cotton growers will wait for the ground to warm up somewhat.

Last week in the southeast part of this county and in Crosby and Dickens counties some hail damage was reported. A light hail fell in Floydada Thursday afternoon.

Net loss is 143 scholastics.

Figures for rural school districts show an enumeration of 1,545, for Floydada Independent Schools District 773 and for Lockney Independent School District 431.

How Floyd County New Irrigation Wells Look In Pictures

Three Types of Power Are Being Used on these Wells

Three of the wells shown above have been in the limelight in Floyd County during the past weeks. First above is the Chamber of Commerce—Lovell Jones test southeast of Floydada five and a half miles while it was being developed. This week it was found that 80 feet of the lower gray sand had been cut off from production and further cleaning out will be needed. Lovell Jones, owner of the farm is shown leaning against the power plant and with him R. W. Cothern secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Bert Battey, a neighbor of Jones and Jones himself were the prime movers in the test drilling which apparently has exploited the theory so long held that the area around it cannot be developed for irrigation. Jones has the water running on a 300-acre field of wheat. He is using a gasoline engine of 66 horse power.

In the second picture the flow of water is shown from the Harvey Handley well, one that has been operating for a year or more. It is electrically driven from a power line and is yielding around a thousand gallons of water per minute. It is in "proven" west Floyd County area. The owner is irrigating 170 acres of wheat with the water.

Lower left is shown the H. R. Patterson well two and a half miles southwest of Floydada that was the real pioneer in the unproven unirrigated section. Patterson here is using a gasoline driven motor for power and early in March watered his field of wheat with it. The Moore Well (Dr. R. W. Moore of Vernon) is located four and a half miles southeast of the Patterson well and is not shown in these pictures. It was watering a big field of wheat before the rains hit this week.

Lower right is the John Hodel well near Lockney, pumping 1100 gallons per minute, using a popular gasoline-type motor on which carburetor changes were made to use natural gas from a line near by. New wells are used in these pictures principally for the reason that on older wells machinery and pumping parts are hidden by well houses and the big piles of sand thrown out when a well "cleans itself out" are not in evidence after a few years. The first irrigation wells put in use in the county around Aiken are nearly twenty years old.

His Bicycle Home, Billie Jack Brags On Sheriff Clark

Billie Jack Parrish proudly rides his bicycle once more after he had given it up for lost. And does he think we have a good sheriff's department!

His bicycle, which his mother had given him two months before, was stolen on February 2, and search everywhere nearly had failed to locate it again. Several leads were followed without result until a stray conversation Sheriff Clark heard in Ft. Worth about a wholesale theft of bicycles on the plains resulted in its recovery, when the sheriff followed up the tip and visited the police station in Wichita Falls. Here he learned that a man, since sent to the penitentiary, had taken thirty-five machines from porches and yards in this section and had disposed of several of them down-state. Police in Wichita Falls, however, had recovered a few of the machines. Billy Jack's was the last one left.

And when he caught a ride with Arthur Stewart on an oil truck some ten days ago his key fitted and all descriptions, including a missing tail light, matched, and "Billy Jack is mighty proud to have the machine back that he never expected to see again," Mrs. Ita R. Parrish, his mother, said.

CHURCH HELP AND THE SALES TAX

Probably every effect of the sales tax on business has been studied and discussed pro and con with most of the legislators apparently in favor of the tax in one form or another, only business, especially retail business, being the strong hold-outs against it.

But a new angle is presented in a recent article by Rev. J. Ernest Stack of Houston, editor of Christian American, a Baptist minister who has made the public statement that burdensome and excessive taxes are hampering religious activities in Texas. He is quoted as saying:

"Any man or woman who ever served on a church finance committee knows only too well that 'high taxes' is too often given as the reason for failure to meet obligations to the church."

A two per cent sales tax would take an additional $60,500 per year from Floyd County, amounting to $4.86 per year for each resident of the county, the dispatch says.

What Rev. Stack may know about the taxation situation and how well grounded are his statistics, is not for us to say. His point of view is a new one to us and an interesting one.

CONSISTENCY NOT A JEWEL

Some fellow called consistency a jewel. "Thou art a jewel," he said, talking of that abstract it that is consistency.

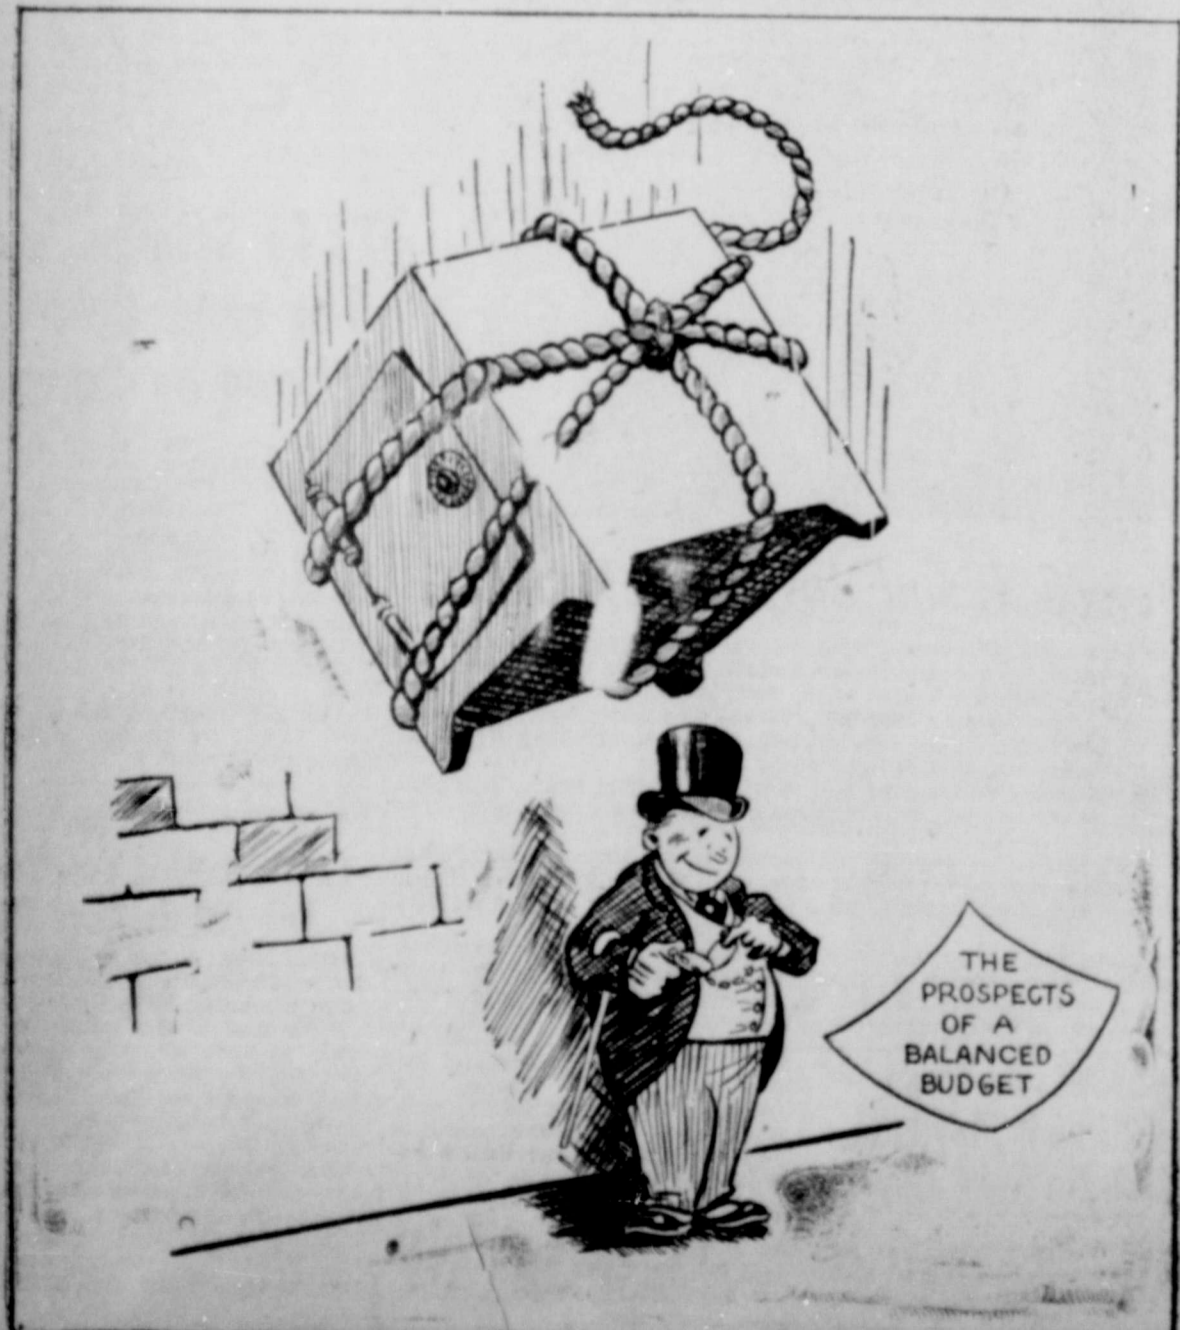

But in spite of precept and adage consistency is not a jewel. Consistency is a thing that binds one to the fossilized ideas of the past whether they be good or bad. There is plenty of bad in the past, so one may as well assume the phrase maker had in mind something that was all wrong as something that was all right. He had an infertile mind. He hoped none others would hatch anything new either.

LIVING OFF THE FAT

Accumulated wealth in the hands of individuals, communities, states or nations, is not a bad thing. It is good for us. When lean times come we live off of it. We have been so living for five years. The Fords, the Wall Streeters, while we cursed them for their many millions of accumulated wealth, have been furnished by fiat of the government the credit we have been using to finance sewing rooms, road building, street repairs, et cetera, et cetera.

The sick man lives, while his fever is high, off the accumulated fat he has between his ribs, around his stomach and behind the shoulder blades. We have been living off the fat these past few years. When the fever goes down we will have to hustle once more.

"U. S. TREASURY RECEIPTS FALL SHORT OF EXPECTATIONS"

IT AMOUNTS TO SOMETHING

If you think the added taxes of the past twelve months, state and national, "don't amount to anything particular" you are wrong. They do amount to something. If you are a seller of good, old home-made butter, just to illustrate, a little business in Floydada that has been patronizing the shop you have been furnishing, may find—will find—that more than a hundred dollars—maybe two hundred dollars—they have been spending with you and your neighbors for butter, will have to be spent for some kind of taxes. The only way, believe it or not, they can still buy butter is to raise the price of the things they sell.

To get away from butter, gasoline would be selling for seven cents a gallon, the "cheap" car you ride in would be $500 and not $800, after you add the trimmings, if it were not for taxes.

Whether taxes are proper or improper, good or bad, the bill must be paid. There is no such thing as "not amounting to much."

WHO WILL PAY FOR SHORT STAPLE?

Texas farmers are letting themselves be out many millions—or is it that they can't help it—on account of short staple cotton. While the short staple raiser gets the ginner between the devil and a deep sea—in a hot box for short—he costs himself and his neighbors a lot in the run of several seasons. Gingers are not making a lot of conversation about it—they are not in position to do so. But short staple has them looking for a way out. While their investments in a "field" and a plant are at stake, they can do nothing.

It must be the farmers themselves who solve this problem. They can insist "hat 'turn out' is what they're going to have. But they are going to have to accept responsibility sooner or later for growing short staple cotton in competition with Japs and Negroes and East Indians. The bill will be paid not alone in millions, but in lower living standards, poorer homes. You can make a ginner gin it and buy it too high but you can't make the mills take untenderable cotton and mill it without paying the price yourself.

Is that common sense or is it just another town Smart Alec making so-called bright remarks?

FORTHRIGHT FORESIGHT

What is a boy? Apt answer appeared not long ago in a quotation from the bulletin of the Rotary Club of Louisville, Ohio, published in an editorial in the Rotarian Magazine. It is especially appropriate as communities throughout the world prepare to celebrate Boys' and Girls' Week, April 24 to May 1.

"The person who is going to carry on what you have started. He is to sit where you are sitting and attend to things which you think are so important, when you are gone. You may adopt all the policies you please, but how they will be carried out depends upon him. Even if you make leagues and treaties, he will have to manage them. He will take your seat in Congress, assume control of your cities, States, and empires. He is going to move in and take over your churches, schools, universities, corporations, councils, and prisons. All your work is going to be judged and praised and condemned by him. The future and destiny of humanity are in his hands, so it might be well to pay a little attention to him now."

The movement for better speech is most commendable. What we want is better speech and less of it.

You cannot judge an automobile by its honk.—Lockney Beacon.

After a great many months of study and discussion, Congress is at last about to settle down to a discussion of a new neutrality law. The best forecast now is that it will offer the country a straight cash-and-carry law, under which a wartime customer could get essential supplies only by laying the money on the barrel-head and coming across the ocean with his market basket in his hand.—Shamrock Texan.

Of course we don't want to appear dumb, but we just want to know if there is any country in this world besides right here in this section of West Texas that can have nearly an inch of rain one day and a first class dust storm the next—we're not complaining—just asking for information, that's all.—Quitaque Post.

A quarter of a century ago the expectation of life was figured by insurance companies at 46 1/2 years. And we don't know just why, but maybe it is spinach, citrus foods, the decline of the cracker barrel and the open oyster pail, and leashes on dogs, or one thing and another, the expectation is now above 60 years. Verily, Texas legislators—the majority, of course—like to punish the automobile owner. And, it might be added they are doing just that. They still adhere to the principle of "taxing heaviest those able to pay," revealed in the fact that the costlier the car, the greater is the cost for license plates.—Chillicothe Valley News.

When happiness and sorrow become chronic, then it becomes dangerous. Permanent sorrow is produced by the exaggerated pictures of our imagination; the longer we allow ourselves to dwell in that state the further we drift from reality. Permanent happiness tends to make most people selfish, oblivious of reality uninterested in anything but their own happiness.—Miami Chief.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

It begins to look like a two million bushel wheat crop in Floydada trades territory. Rains the past ten days have kept the wheat in exactly the right stage while the cool days and nights have kept the growth from becoming too spindly and rank.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Watson, left yesterday for Galveston where they will attend as delegates from the Floydada Lodge, the annual convention of the Modern Order of Praetorians.

Lightning did some small damage in Floydada Tuesday afternoon during the heavy downpour of rain. Several telephones were out of commission Wednesday morning and one house was struck. This was the residence of B. P. Woody on West California. The stroke tore a hole in the roof, none of the family being injured.

Aubrey Bishop, Duke Bassenger and Ike Sanders, former team mates of the Floydada Baseball Team are starting the season good this spring with the S. M. U. outfit at Dallas.

Mrs. T. R. Rose, of Tonkawa, Oklahoma, is here on a visit with her son, S. W. Rose and family, having arrived last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Price this week contracted for the sale of the Viles hotel, corner of Fourth and California streets, to A. E. Tinnin exchanging a quarter section land near Sand Hill in the deal to the Prices.

A ball game between the Fats and Leans of Floydada is a probability for next week. The idea has been suggested that the Fats and Leans should have their annual set-to early in the season, so the Fats will not be subjected to too great heat for their avotroipos.

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON — The farm tenancy bill which the House Agriculture committee sends to Congress after much pruning and many delays, has not been described as "paternalistic," as was the original Jones bill. Nor are there any hopes voiced that it will be as progressive.

The original bill would have safeguarded tenants who might become land owners. Under this plan, the tenant could purchase land which the government was authorized to buy for the purpose, and he would have been given from 20 to 40 years to amortize his indebtedness. Further, titles would not have passed in less than 20 years. In the meantime, a federal agency would have supervised the farming, as a protection to the farmer and the soil.

The committee has produced a "compromise" measure. It would provide loans out of a $50,000,000 fund for tenant farmers who want to become land owners. Attempts were made to whittle down this sum. As it is, the compromise bill is criticized most because it will place no restriction on tenants to prevent them from selling their equities, getting into other debt, neglecting their farms, and finally reverting back to tenancy.

The point was made by the President's Committee on Farm Tenancy that tenant farmers who had been given a purchase contract might easily be persuaded by land speculators to sell out. A raise in land values might induce them to pay off the loan, get a deed to the property, and sell all or part of the farm at a profit.

The President's committee reported: "The contract should require the purchaser to maintain buildings, fences, and other structures in good condition; to carry on a type of farming that will maintain the fertility of the soil and to avoid other forms of unnecessary wastage.... yet the purchaser is assured a right to use (but not abuse) the land at low annual cost, to make reasonable improvements, to accumulate an equity and dispose of it at current appraised value, subject to exercise by the government of its right to repurchase."

When the present bill reaches the House floor, and the floor of the Senate and its Agriculture Committee, an attempt will be made to restore it to its original form in line with the President's Tenancy Committee recommendations.

With facts and figures at hand to show the desperate economic condition of sharecropper communities, the House Agriculture Committee at first voted by a narrow margin to throw out the whole plan. Three members especially vehement in their opposition to the administration program, said they "didn't want the government in the real estate business."

The House committee approved Title II of the bill, which will give the Resettlement Administration

Want to Fly Around the World? Well, Your Aerial Ticket Is Ready for You!

THAT aerial ticket, good for one fast passage around the world, is waiting for you! It'll cost you $2255.66, but it provides a good ride for your money—21,000 miles. Aviation is no longer testing on these round-the-world flights; it's actually operating commercial service.

As a matter of fact, you can purchase your first globe-circling tour on a single ticket April 27. On that date United Airlines, in co-operation with affiliated lines, will start you off around the world from San Francisco, promptly at 3 p. m.

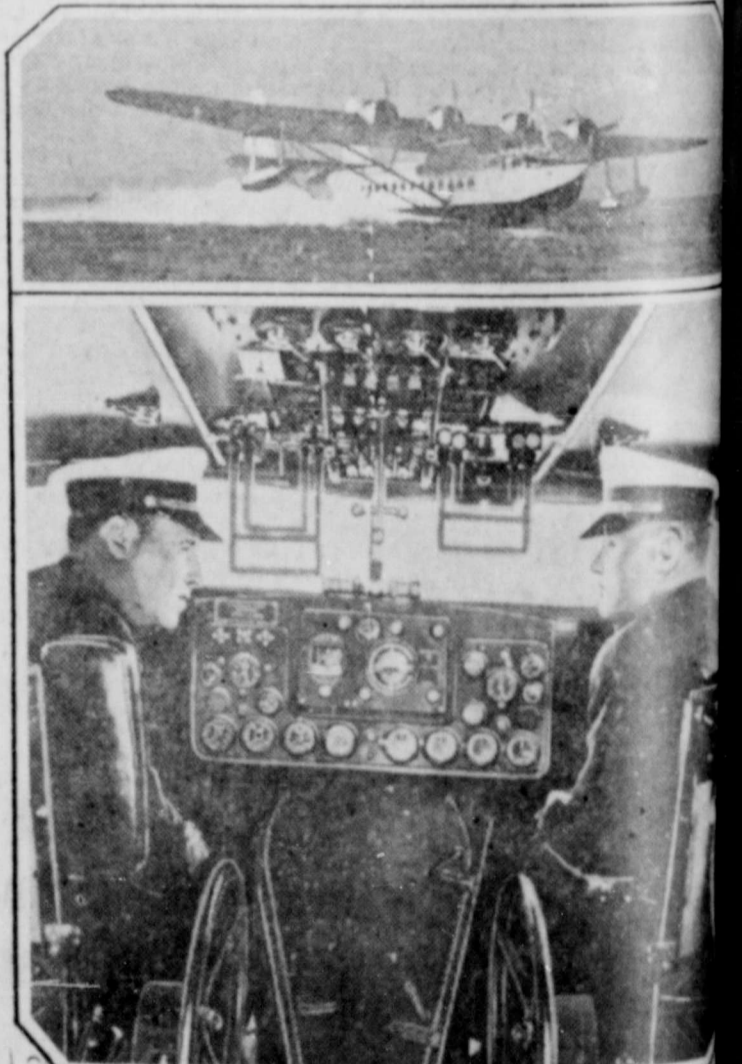

From the American mainland you would "Clipper" to Hawaii, Wake, Guam, and on to the Philippines. And then, for the first time via commercial plane, you would "Clipper" on to Macao and Hongkong. Thus, if originally you had started from New York, you would have traveled a distance of 11,500 miles under the American flag and by American transports.

ONCE in Hongkong you would board one of the giant Dutch KLM airliners to continue around the world. In swift succession you would cross to Singapore, Bangkok, Rangoon, and Calcutta. Ultra-modern airports today grace these ancient cities, linking the world in one vast network.

From Calcutta the route darts across the torrid east to Bagdad, storied city of antiquity; thence to Athens, Vienna, Milan, and finally Frankfurt. You would arrive there May 23, on the present schedule, assuming that you had left San Francisco April 27.

And from Frankfurt you would board the gigantic zeppelin Hindenburg for the final lap of your trip to America. On schedule, you would arrive at the zeppelin hangar at Lakehurst, N. J., May 25. A few hours more and your fare would have carried you to San Francisco. Thus, you would have circled the globe on a single ticket in less than a month's time.

Modern aviation is as breathtaking as that. Consider, for example, the current project of Pan-American Airways to launch a mail, passenger, and freight route from California to Australia and New Zealand.

Giant monarch of the waters is the Pan-American clipper shown above, one of the types in use today over the Pacific. Efficient, yet delicately sensitive, these huge ships speed across seas while the officers at their controls look calmly on. Here two men discuss the weather as the liner operates by automatic pilot.

Already a trial flight has been completed, a survey made of the route, and plans laid for eventual regularly scheduled service. With gigantic Sikorsky planes capable of 163 miles an hour, officials contemplate the same successful service across the southern Pacific that is now available across to Manila and Hongkong.

THESE new Sikorskys carry automatic pilots, three compasses, wing "air brakes," two radios. Two walls and the roof of the engineer's station studded with 81 gauges and tools. The ships have a radius of 3500 miles.

Such is the saga of the aviation. And the end is in sight. Confidently, officials predict that it's only a matter of time until you can fly around the world in 10 days, or two weeks. The whole thing's a matter of timing down with a complete traffic expert and figuring out the connections.

Of course, there's that price but that's the price of progress.

Pioneer Cowpuncher Succumbs At Matador

Said to be the oldest active cowboy in Texas, Claud Jeffers, 63, employed by the Matador Land and Cattle Co. for more than 30 years, died at his home in Matador Wednesday, April 14.

Mr. Jeffers had been wagon boss of the Matador Ranch for the past ten years but had been employed in the capacity of bronch-buster and horse trainer for many years. It is believed that Mr. Jeffers broke and trained more outlaw horses than any man in the world. He did his work with the broncos alone and never used spurs.

Born in Corsicana, Texas, June 6, 1873, Mr. Jeffers began early his career as a cowboy. He worked for the Pitchford, Swenson and other West Texas ranches before going to work for the Matador company in the spring of 1900.

He was married to Miss Betty Stephens in October, 1906, six boys being born to this union, five of whom survive their father. They are Elmo (Joe) Jeffers of Yuba City, California, George, Jim Ward, Kenneth and R. C., all of Matador. Besides his wife and sons, Mr. Jeffers is survived by one brother, Dee Jeffers, of Brady, Texas.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon of last week at the First Methodist Church at Matador, with interment in the East Mount Cemetery.

Obituary For Grand-Mother Carr Written By Former Resident

The following obituary for Grandmother Carr was written by Lee Mayhew, former Floydada resident and intimate friend of Mrs. Carr:

Miss Jane Maxwell was born November 11, 1843 near Bentonville, Arkansas. She was married to A. N. Baker in January 1859. To this union were born two sons, Daniel Boone Baker was born November 10, 1859 and died September 15, 1860. Another son, Larken L. was born August 16, 1861. He lived five days.

Only three months later on October 4, 1861, her husband (A. N. Baker) died and on June 19, 1864 she married William Hardy Carr. To this union were born eight children, three daughters and five sons, two sons dying in infancy. A daughter and a son died after they had passed middle life. There were 14 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

On January 13, 1917 Rev. W. H. Carr (her late husband), founder of Carr Chapel was laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the Carr Chapel churchyard. Others preceding Grandmother Carr in death are: one daughter, Mrs. Clemmie Haynes, September 27, 1935, and one son, J. W. M. Carr, August 20, 1936.

Surviving children are two sons, John D. and Mather and two daughters, Miss Anna Carr and Mrs. Mattie Heard, all living in the Carr Chapel community.

Tuesday morning, March 30, 1937, God called Grandmother Carr to her Heavenly home. Those of you who knew her know that words cannot express our love for a person, and life lived by our loved one, friend, and always helping servant of God.

It is such an honor to have been asked to write this obituary. I feel unworthy of the honor, yet, having known this dear, unselfish and loving person I am made a better man by having had this opportunity.

God in his mercy saw fit to give Grandmother Carr to her family, friends and neighbors for 83 short years. She has sown Christian life and influence among her fellow men and to me. I shall forever remember her and the Christ-like life she lived and stood for.

May God bless the memory of our loved one, friend and neighbor, Grandmother and Aunt Jane.

One who loved her,
Lee Mayhew

The following poem was selected by Mr. Mayhew in connection with the writing of the obituary. The poem is entitled "Beyond," and is written by Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Across to that strange country, the Beyond;
And yet not strange, for it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am most fond;

That makes it seem familiar, and most dear,
As journeying friends bring distant countries near.
So close it lies that when my sight is clear

I seem to see the beaming of that strand;
I know I feel those who have gone from here
Come even near enough to touch my hand.

I often think but for our veiled eyes,
We would find heaven right round about us lies.
I cannot make it seem a day of dread

When from this dear earth I shall journey out,
I never stand above the bier and see
The seal of death set on some well-loved face

But what I think one more will welcome me
When I shall cross the intervening space
Between this land and that one Over There.

One more to make the strange Beyond seem fair,
And so to me there is no sting to death,
And so the grave has lost its victory.

It is but crossing, with suspended breath
And white, set face, a little strip of sea,
To find the loved one on the other shore.

More beautiful, more precious than before.

1937 Ford V-8

● If you think that "all low-price cars cost about the same" — forget it! They don't.

Ford makes a car — a 60-horsepower economy Ford V-8 — that sells from 30 to 60 dollars under the prices asked for any other car of comparable size. The lowest Ford prices in years!

Check delivered prices in your town and see for yourself.

● Of course, first cost doesn't prove "low cost" — you must consider operating cost also.

The "60" has definitely established itself as the most economical car in Ford history. Ford cars have been famous for economy for 34 years, so that means something!

Owners who have driven it thousands of miles report that the Ford "60" averages between 22 and 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline.

You can prove those figures — on the open road — in a car provided by the nearest Ford dealer.

● When you've finished your personal check-up, ask yourself:

"Do I want to save money the day I buy my car and every mile I drive it?"

"Do I want a safe, roomy, comfortable car of advanced design — created from the finest materials to the highest precision standards?"

There's only one answer, of course — the 1937 Ford V-8.

Ford V-8 $529 at Dealership Factory. Prices Transportation charges, State and Federal taxes extra

Sixty Nine Cases In City Court Dismissed by Mayor Snodgrass; Use new Method

City Criminal Cases to be Handled on Business Basis, Says Mayor

Sixty nine cases were dismissed from the criminal docket of the City Court Tuesday by Mayor Glad Snodgrass, who said that the method of arresting persons pleading guilty in city court, having a fine assessed, then walking out with a promise to pay would cease for the next two years.

These sixty-nine cases represent many hundreds of dollars that should have gone into the city cash box, Mayor Snodgrass said. "Yet through sympathy, courtesy and unsatisfactory bonds, these cases are more or less barred and uncollectable, unless with about as much expense to the city as the fines involved.

There are many more cases on the docket that will be reviewed and several more dismissals. But for the next two years in the city courts these matters will be handled on a business basis. If a person is not guilty, he will go free without any preliminaries. If he is guilty, he will pay off then and there as the city is not going to the expense to assess these fines and make necessary entries, etc. and then place them right back where they were in the beginning, all after the city has been to the expense of handling the case.

Hereafter all persons arrested by city officers and brought into city court will be treated the same. It isn't right to collect fines off some and then let others go.

Brice Wilson, of Tucson, Arizona, was in Floydada and Dougherty the first of this week on business.

Ocie Huskey, 32, of Kenedy, a former resident of Floyd County for twenty years and a grandson of J. H. Shurbet, died Monday morning in the Methodist Hospital at Fort Worth, following an illness of nearly a week with pneumonia. Funeral services were held at Kenedy Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

During the past several years Mr. Huskey has been associated with his brother, Dallas, in the business of raising and racing fine horses and he was at Arlington Downs with a string of horses when he became ill.

One of them, Runamuck ran and won—in the seventh race Tuesday of last week and when his owner did not show up and investigation was made and he was found in his hotel room at Arlington in a delirious condition. He was carried immediately to Fort Worth and placed in an oxygen tent and his relatives notified.

His parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Huskey, and his two surviving brothers, Dallas and R. V. went to his bedside and were with him when death came.

Mr. Shurbet, and his son, Jim, and E. E. Huskey, a brother of Dr. Huskey; and Mrs. E. R. Harris a sister of Mrs. Huskey left Floydada early Monday morning for Kenedy to attend the funeral service.

FOUR MORE WEEKS

School will be out in four more weeks! This is what the students of Floydada High are saying and thinking about. Within these four weeks many things will happen of importance to the students.

The Juniors and Seniors both have a good play to present to the town. The Junior-Senior banquet will be the major attraction for the upper classes. Then there is the Junior picnic and the Senior day to be spent. Also the other classes and clubs will be having their annual parties or picnics. For the Seniors there will be the final preparations for graduation, the sending of invitations and many other important events.

The above are just a few of the major events to be held in the next four weeks. Now is the time for the students to check over their grades and see just how they stand or how much they will have to make to be with their class next year. Especially should the Seniors work hard and try to graduate with their class of '37.

Many of the present Seniors will let this last six weeks or the last four weeks work decide whether or not they will be with the class of '37 or with the class of '38. All of them should work hard, even though they have so many social events, to graduate with this class. Even the three under-classes should work to keep up with the class they started with and graduate with them.

One word to the Seniors is that perhaps the last week will not be going to classes but taking examinations, review and practicing for the final exercises. This is another reason why they should work harder because they really have less time than the other classes.

Junior Class To Give Play In Near Future; Cast Already Chosen

"The Elopement of Ellen" Title of Play Sponsored by Juniors

Those peppy Juniors will present a play entitled "The Elopement of Ellen." The cast includes Beth Newton, who plays the part of Ellen; Charles Neil, known as Robert in the play, finally elopes with Ellen.

Wilson Womack plays the part of Richard Ford, a young married man; Frankie Sanders, as Molly Ford, his bride of two months; Dorothy Marsh, played by Lanell Shirey and Max Ten Eyche, played by Keith Tye, are visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford. Reid Strickland plays the part of a minister, known as the Rev. Hume.

Ellen, a young college co-ed, goes to the home on Mr. and Mrs. Ford as a maid. She is investigating the girl-servant problem. The comedy is furnished by the Rev. Hume. This is a highly interesting play.

Make your plans now to attend "The Elopement of Ellen" sponsored by the Junior Class.

Pep Leaders For Next Year's Season Named

Although the pep squad season was over last fall, it was officially closed last Wednesday, when the new pep leaders of next year were elected.

Through the election Marguerite Leonard will take Worth Shipley's place as president. Virginia Belle Womack will take Geraldine Hale's place as vice-president. Iva Moore will take Geraldine Gambin's place as secretary, and Margaret Hale will follow Joyce King as business manager.

GIVES DEMONSTRATION

Mr. King recently gave the biology class a demonstration in pruning. The rose bushes in front of the school building were sadly in need of care. Mr. King explained the various types of pruning: to have more flowers, for thicker foliage, and for beauty's sake. We enjoyed this lesson given by Mr. King and it helped us greatly. The class wishes to thank Mr. King for helping us.

The class members also wish to ask that all the students be careful so as not to step on the flowers that are just coming up. Also we wish to ask them not to pick the flowers which are in bloom.

Kampus Kaypers

Claudyne, I thought you could skate better than that. Did you make that large crack in the sidewalk?

Nell Shirey says that she is someone else. Well, we don't believe you. Edna Mae Griffen can skate if Viva Lais holds her.

Richard, you had better slow down when you turn a certain well-known corner because it is fenced in now. There are several students who like to walk around in the halls the fourth period.

Trueman has a Junior pen with the initials "M. A. F." on it. Can anyone tell us whose it is?

It looks as if we are going to have a Junior-Senior banquet after all. Anyway we sure hope so.

Brookwell, did you have a visitor from Vernon yesterday? You seemed to have a good time last night.

Last, one Senior flag. You freshmen please return it. The sponsors of the Senior class will take it if it is returned.

Oscar, couldn't you get a date Monday night. Oh, gee.

Who has Marie Finley been going with lately?

Elora Miller has been going with an "old grad" by the name of Cherry Top. You can guess the rest.

Where was Richard going Sunday night about nine o'clock? He was needed then to do a little class work. It seems that Alice Rawlings either got in at 6 o'clock in the morning or else got up at that time.

Nadyne, you shouldn't get locker keys like that.

It looks like Bobby Muncy's fancy turned toward Lockney Sunday afternoon—come on, now, we'd like to meet him—or is it?

Maybe two girls should stay in town or else miss the bus, well any way, that's far from my line of throwing flowers.

It seems that everybody is off skating these nights. Does anyone know where I can get a pair of skates—yeah, that's right, don't tell me, this is not a want-ad column, though I guess some wish it was.

Who likes eggs? Why? When? Where? Well, you tell me the answer and we'll both be smart.

All right, Allen, explain those phone calls before school. Ditto for Mr. Williams during the noon hour. Don't you're in the play cast stray too far. It is rumored that one of them (a girl) was delayed from the stage, because of a conversation with two Lubbock College freshmen.

We would like your personal opinion of who is the best maid in high school.

Emogene do you like the third period?

Edwin did you have hard luck Saturday? I only heard—

Hello Avon! Who's the blonde? But so much for that.

That's all right, Duchess Shipley, don't worry. We only wish we had a little nobility.

The Hesperette reporters felt like flat tires when they received the nickname of "scandal hounds."

It looks like some one was mistaken in their identification last Thursday night. Speak up, Louis and James. Well, we don't mind. Where were you, Nell and Frankie? Two girls were looking for you Thursday.

What, Mr. Potter eating candy in class? We don't believe it.

Oh, these sophomores, they'll be the death of me yet, says Liburn.

Well so long until the next time, which will be next week for it takes about a week to collect all this bunk.

District Meet Notes

Virginia Simpson plans to attend Tech next year. (This is very dramatic after her meeting with someone who looks just like Robert Taylor at district meet. So she says.)

Trueman Kirk has a dual personality, it seems. Friday he played tennis until he was red in the face then came rushing in to debate. He made a swell hand at it, though, my my, what a man.

Alton, was so nervous his teeth were playing a swing tune.

The play cast had some fun. Worth and Virginia are seriously contemplating Tech-scenes behind the curtain, no doubt. Olin Watson says, "The girls are kinda cute." Avon seems to voice the same opinion about the Tech coeds.

That district meet gave many a faint heart the ditters. Billy Stanforth looked as if he had just lost his last friend. No fooling, he looked pale around the gills. Anyway, Billy, you did swell.

Then one wonders why these contestants are anxious for the next district meet.

Senior Notes

Last week all the Seniors were measured to get the size of the caps and gowns for graduation. The caps and gowns have been ordered.

It won't be long now until the graduation exercises, so these last four weeks the Seniors are settling down to a last little bit of hard studying.

The order for the graduation invitations of the Seniors was taken last week. They will be here some time soon.

The yearbooks sponsored by the Seniors are nearly completed and will be ready by the first of May, we think.

Plans are going forward on the Senior project. Soon the Senior play will be presented at the High School auditorium. They play is a three act comedy entitled "Crashing Society." It has a cast of twelve characters, and the very best Senior actors will take part in it; don't fail to come.

Last Monday afternoon was set to decide on the date for the Senior play, the Senior picnic and other closing exercises of the school.

Floydada High Makes 25 Points To Tie For Third Place In Meet

Win Boys Tennis Doubles Title and Second Place in Boys Debates

Floydada High School was well represented in the district meet at Lubbock last Friday and Saturday, April 16 and 17, tying for third place.

The Floydada boys' double tennis team won the only first place that was won by Floydada. The players were Orba Miller and Trueman Kirk. In the first round of the tennis on Friday afternoon they had to play the defending champions—Petersburg. Floydada won this match by a score of 6-2; 6-1. In the second round they defeated the team from Plainview by a score of 6-1; 6-0. This put them into the semi-finals Saturday morning against Littlefield. Floydada, after a hard struggle won this match by a score of 5-7; 6-2; 6-3. In the other semi-finals match Wilson defeated Falls to enter the finals against Floydada. The finals were played off on the Tech varsity courts at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Floydada won this match by the score of 6-1; 6-1; 6-1. This gave Floydada ten points.

In the girls singles, Lyndell Mae Glyn defeated the singles player from Lynn county in the first round. Miss Glyn advanced into the semi-finals where she was defeated by a very narrow margin of 6-3; 6-4. This shows a good record because the girl who defeated Lyndell Mae won the match.

In the boys singles Irvin Allen had the hard luck of drawing the defending champion of this district. The boys who defeated Irvin again won the district without very much hard competition.

The play entered into the district meet by Floydada was entitled the "Red Lamp." This play was given Friday and was number three. The play did not win first but was considered one of the best in the district. Those in the play included James Roy, Olin Watson, Avon Powell, Worth Shipley, Evelyn Groves and Virginia Simpson. The play was coached by Miss Burrus.

Both of the county winners in extemporaneous speaking entered the district meet. They had to speak at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Marguerite Leonard the girls speaker from Floyd County, spoke on "Foreign Interference in Spain." Joe Smith the boys speaker, from Floyd County drew the same subject he spoke on in the county meet.

In the track and field events Floydada made some points but they did not count toward the total number to each school. Friday, Avon Powell and Billy Stanforth qualified in their heats of the 440 yard dash and the 100 yard dash. Avon won first in the 440 dash and Billy won first in both the 440 and 100 yard dashes. Albert Lyles failed to qualify in the high hurdles, and E. Ray Smith failed to qualify in the high jump or the shot put.

In the finals held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon Billy Stanforth won third place in both the 440 yard dash and the 100 yard dash. Avon placed fifth in the 880 yard dash in the finals.

Josephine Troutman entered the Spanish contest in Lubbock and won third. She gave a declamation in Spanish and other Spanish work.

Floydada made fifteen points by placing second in the boys debates. In the first round of debates Floydada drew a bye and was advanced into the second round to meet the winner of the Levelland-Crosbyton debate. Levelland, the favorite to win the district, defeated the Crosbyton team by a score of 3-0. In the second round the team from Floydada defeated Levelland by a score of 2-1. Floydada debated the negative side of the question "Resolved: That the Manufacture of Munitions of War Should be a Government Monopoly." This put them in the semi-finals against the strong team from Spur. In this debate Floydada had the affirmative and won by the score of 3-0, to advance into the finals against Lubbock—who had defeated Plainview 2-1. The finals were held Saturday at 10:15 with five judges. Floydada had the negative side of the question in this debate and lost by a score of 2-3. The Floydada debate team was Alton Morse and Trueman Kirk. Miss Burrus was the coach for the debaters.

Three members from Floydada are entitled to enter the Regional Meet held at Canyon next Saturday, April 24. They are Billy Stanforth, Orba Miller and Trueman Kirk.

Should any of these win their events they would be sent to Austin to represent this Region and District 3 in the state meet.

CHAPEL
 Wednesday afternoon at the seventh period general assembly was called.

First, Mr. Cummings introduced the students scheduled to take part in the district meet at Lubbock on Friday and Saturday. Immediately following his announcements the county meet play, "The Red Lamp" was given.

This comedy was a very entertaining story of several persons who were superstitious about a red lamp. The lamp was supposed to bring good luck, but personally I thought it brought rather bad luck.

Story Unfair To Attorney In Pair Case

Record Does Not Show He Asked for Death Penalty, Says Chapman

Newspaper accounts of his actions in the Phillips Pair murder case from McAadoo, tried last week in the District Court for Dickens County, were unfair to him and grossly untrue, District Attorney Alton B. Chapman says in a statement from his home at Spur.

Noting The Hesperian, among other newspapers reported he had demanded the death penalty in the case, Mr. Chapman in his statement declared:

"Because of the good reputation the defendant had borne all his life and because our proof on motive and malice was so slight I did not ask a jury to do a thing I would not do myself and I would not have given death in that case had I been on the jury."

A pair, a young Dickens county farmer, living near McAadoo, was charged with murder in the death of his 19-year-old wife, the mother of twins, who died of gunshot wounds in her home on October 3, 1936.

The only time he ever mentioned the death penalty in connection with

Seven CCC Enrollees From County Accepted

Seven Floyd County boys from relief families have been accepted in the citizens Conservation Corps out of ten sent to the examination office by Miss Dott Slough, county welfare agency worker, the three not accepted being offered as alternates for any of the others not physically able to meet requirements for the CCC service.

The least number of members in families represented in the latest quota was six, and the largest thirteen. Three youths were sent to camp on April 9 and four on April 14.

In the case, Mr. Chapman said, was in qualifying the jurors, and that was because he wanted a jury without scruples so if something new developed in the case as it was tried they could give such a penalty if they thought it was that type of case. His argument in the case is a matter of stenographic record taken by Court Reporter, R. F. Stovall. It was pointed out by the attorney.

The Jury's Verdict
The fifteen-year penalty arrived at by the jury was a compromise between two jurors who stood out for five and seven years respectively and the other members who voted from forty-five years to life, according to a report of their findings.

Old Clothing, Shoes Can Be Used For Needy In Large Quantities

Case Worker for County Family Welfare Agency Asks Help During Spring Cleaning Days

Old clothing of every description, shoes and hose, are needed in large quantities by relief roll families in this county, Miss Dott Slough, case worker of the Floyd County Family Welfare Agency, said Tuesday, and she is hopeful that spring house cleaning days will help bring to light many items of this kind which the housewives will turn over to her for distribution to the needy. Her active list of needy families ranges from 175 at the low point to around 225, varying from month to month, Miss Slough said. In many instances these families have need for items that cannot be furnished through the sewing room, as for instance where size cannot be found. And shoes are not available from this source, she said.

In the appeal for aid from the families who have discarded clothing or apparel of any kind they are discarding, Miss Slough asked that telephone calls be made to Judge Tom W. Deen's office, when the name and place of residence of the caller will be taken. Miss Slough will come or send for the clothing or other articles, she said. "In instances we have taken discarded mattresses," Miss Slough said, "and made them over to fit serious need, which illustrates the fact that we can use nearly anything and in almost any quantities."

If donations of apparel or shoes or other usable articles are in larger quantities than to meet the immediate demand at any time there are ample storage facilities and there can hardly be any possibility of waste. Not all of the 223 families on the rolls this week are in need of clothing at this time but many of them are, Miss Slough said.

Mrs. D. B. Sowell and son, Don, of Austin, came Wednesday of last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Bishop, and family; also with her brother, E. C. Caudle and Mrs. Caudle, of Dimmitt.

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Hammonds went to Mineral Wells Thursday for a vacation and rest of ten days.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for April 25. The Obedience of Noah.

Golden Text.—By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house.—Hebrews 11:7.

Printed Text.—Genesis 8:20-22; 9:8-17.

Genesis 8:20-22—
20 And Noah built an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

Genesis 9:8-17—
8 And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall any flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when

I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

Time and Place.—The flood took place somewhere between 2000 and 3000 B. C. Where Noah was when he built the ark is not known, but the ark rested on Mt. Ararat, almost directly opposite Babylon, when the water receded.

Lesson Comment

Dr. Carl S. Patton is among those Christian scholars who believe that the modern thoroughgoing study of the Bible has greatly enriched the Book as a source of spiritual truth and guidance. Dr. Patton is author of "The Use of the Bible in Preaching," and in this book he refers to the story of Noah as an example of his beliefs about the Bible.

He points out that the literalism with which readers have insisted upon reading stories from the early life of Israel, written years after the events, has not saved these stories from considerable degeneration in the popular mind.

He speaks of the Book of Jonah as representing the high water mark of the Old Testament in its message concerning the inclusive, love of God; yet he points out that in the popular mind this "truly wonderful book" has degenerated into a joke about Jonah and the whale.

It is Dr. Patton's purpose to save the glorious story of Jonah and the instructive story of Noah from such popular degradation; and it is the purpose of this lesson on Noah.

Anyone who senses with realism the problem of getting two animals of every kind into an ark would very readily conclude that it is a story with imaginative detail. This does not in any way affect the question of whether the world was ever really deluged; more important, it has no effect at all upon the spiritual lessons of the story of Noah.

Jefferson, in a sermon on Noah once pictured him after the flood, with his glorious opportunity to build anew in a world where old foundations had been swept away, wasting the supreme chance by going off and getting drunk.

But Noah, despite his weaknesses and his sins, had elements upon which society could be built. Above all things he was capable of a covenant with God; and the great teaching of this story of Noah is in this matter of the covenant—that man can build truly in life only as there is a covenant with the spiritual forces of the universe or, we should say, with God; and that this covenant brings man into right relationships with every living thing.

Suppose that, instead of a society in which each man and each class, in large measure is grasping for himself and his own interests, we had a race of men zealous first of all about their own uprightness, and then eager that this uprightness should be expressed in honesty toward one another, and in attitudes of consideration and mercy, where inequalities of strength and opportunity laid obligation upon the strong to serve the weak.

Here, in this conception of a covenant back in the dim areas of history, are the beginning of that sublime teaching concerning the Kingdom of God and its realization on earth, that came to its fullest exemplification and expression in the life and teaching of Jesus of Nazareth. It is the covenant that is the important thing in the story of Noah.

34 YEARS — of Strength and Service

As we complete our 34th year of service to this community, and look back for a moment, we find ourselves amazed at the tremendous changes which have taken place since our organization April 25, 1903.

In this 34 year interval, since the bank was organized, we have witnessed both the highest peak of the nation's prosperity and its deepest plunge into the worst depression the world has ever seen. In the span of this bank's existence there took place mankind's greatest war, followed by social and economic upheavals, which have changed the very character of our civilization.

But through it all, the service of this bank to its own community has gone faithfully on. That is the big fact in which we take most pride today. It has been a splendid privilege to have devoted 34 years to the service of a community like ours, and we look forward with pleasure and confidence to our second 34 years.

Upon this occasion, we wish to thank all of our friends, old and new, who have done business with this bank. Our best wishes and our best service will be yours in the years ahead.

Fairview News

All three rooms of the school went on their annual picnic Monday down in the brakes east of Fairview. The students had a hilariously good time climbing rocks and trees, playing outdoor games, and enjoying the beauties of nature in the woods. An abundant picnic lunch was spread at noon. They were driven home somewhat earlier than had been planned because of the rain, but everyone reported a grand outing. The children were accompanied by the teachers, Miss Louise Conner, Miss Van Cade, R. C. Bird, and by the following parents and friends: Mr. and Mrs. Edell DuBois, Mrs. E. W. Walls, Misses Cleo Cooby and Edith Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Perry, L. B. Cooby, Eldon Burgett, Wilson Perry and J. L. Baxter.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church gave a special missionary program at the Church Sunday night on "What Our Church has done in Foreign Lands." The ladies, dressed in suitable costumes, impersonated a native woman of each country, recounting their deeds and what had been done. Mrs. Clarence Jones represented Africa, Mrs. Elsie Rushing, China; Mrs. Carl Lyser, Brazil; Miss Jet Susan Menzo and Mrs. Olin Miller, Korea; Mrs. M. J. McNeill, announced each number. O. S. Miller read the scripture preceding the program, followed by prayer by Mrs. S. L. Rushing. Rev. O'Kelleys closed with an explanation of what the Bishop's Crusade is doing toward furthering missionary work. The program was enjoyed by a good crowd from both churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Stapleton had as Sunday guests his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Stapleton of Petersburg and his sister, Mrs. Milton Sanders and children of Lubbock.

HOW FLOYDADA'S NEW TELEPHONE SYSTEM WILL IMPROVE SERVICE

YOU WILL not have to "ring" the operator when your new telephone system is in service. The instant you lift your receiver, a light flashes on the switchboard and an operator answers. When you are through talking, merely replace the receiver and the light again comes on to signal the operator that your line is ready for another call. You will not have to "ring off."

The light signals will help make your service faster, more convenient, and more accurate. The central or "common" battery system eliminates the need for batteries in your telephone instrument and insures uniform power at all times.

To bring you this new service we will have a new switchboard manufactured

Floydada Loan Ass'n Asks For Continuance Of Present Low Rate

A telegram has been sent by the Floydada National Farm Loan Association to several members of Congress urging their support of the pending legislation to continue a low interest rate on farm loans.

The present rate of interest is three and one half percent, which represents a temporary reduction. The bill now pending before congress would continue the present low rate for two years. If the bill does not pass, loans will draw rates they were made for, between four and six percent. C. M. Meredith, secretary of the local association, said Wednesday.

Telegrams were sent to Senators Morris Sheppard and Tom Connally and Congressmen George Mahon and Marvin Jones, as follows: "It will be appreciated by Federal Land Bank borrowers in this territory if you will support pending legislation to continue a low interest rate on farm loans. An increase in the interest rate at this time will prove disastrous to most of our borrowers because of prolonged drought conditions." Answers were received Wednesday from both Senators Connally and Sheppard, stating that they are doing all they can to continue the three and one-half percent interest rate temporarily.

Mrs. deCordova Is Recovering From Accident Thursday

Mrs. G. W. deCordova is recuperating in a Lubbock hospital from injuries suffered Thursday evening when caught in the drive shaft of the engine used in pumping water for their new irrigation well on their farm 16 miles southwest of Floydada.

Mrs. deCordova had gone to the field with her family to see the new well which was put down about two weeks ago. Leaning too near the machinery her hair became entangled and her head was badly lacerated before she could be released. She was carried immediately to a Lubbock hospital where sixty-five stitches were made to close the scalp wounds. She is reported to be getting along as well as could be expected, as it will take some time for the wounds to heal.

Miss Virginia Stovall, student of Tech. College, Lubbock, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stovall. She had as her guests over the week-end Miss Emily Teeple, of Dallas and Miss Sue Cornwell, of Lubbock both students of Tech.

$28,069.57 More Soil Conservation Checks Arrive Here Recently

Approximately $28,069.57 has been received in soil conservation checks by Floyd County farmers since the last report of $200,000 was made several weeks ago.

A total of about $400,000 is expected to be received by Floyd producers for participation in the 1936 program.

State Criminal Court Affirms McArthur Case

The case of Everett McArthur, Dickens county youth, who was given a three year sentence here some time ago in the slaying of Ben Speegle, Matador tourist camp operator, was affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin April 7.

Further appeal is not likely after the decision of the high court last week, according to press notices. The trial, which lasted several days here, attracted wide-spread attention in West Texas.

Montgomery Yearlings To Kansas Flint Hills

Five carloads of Col. Tom Montgomery's yearlings, approximately 280 head, will be shipped out sometime soon, probably this week to Kansas Flint Hills grass, sale of the cattle having been made by Mr. Montgomery to Walter Jones and L. P. Humphreys of Lebo and Osaage, Kansas, respectively, who are dealers, feeders and breeders of Herefords.

"Colonel Montgomery's cattle are the money-making kind, the kind to put on the Flint Hills grass," the buyers commented.

Co. Agent Cautions About Interplanting Peas, Grain Sorghum

"Farmers are cautioned about interplanting peas and grain sorghums with the expectation that one half will count as soil conserving acreage," D. F. Bredthauer, county agent, said Tuesday.

"This is true only after the entire acreage has been counted as soil depleting. It is suggested that any producer wishing to carry out this practice consult the county agent's office for the conditions under which interplanting methods can be used.

"Every producer should know the program as it applies to his farm as it may be entirely different to that of his neighbors."

Choice of the Floyd County Plainsman as the official newspaper of the city was made by the city council at a special meeting of the body held Tuesday night of this week.
