Alvin Howard Expired From Heart Attack Late Yesterday

New Orleans Man Expires at Plainview

Banker-Publisher's Trip Of Inspection to Howard Lands Fatal

Body Home Today
J. M. Massie and Hollis Bond To Accompany Remains To New Orleans

Alvin P. Howard, 48, a leading business spirit of New Orleans, banker, publisher, importer, with interests in a score or more of the south's business ventures, but known more widely in this area, as joint owner of the Howard Bros. lands, died yesterday afternoon at 6:30 in Plainview Sanitarium after an illness of two and a half hours.

J. M. Massie, of this city, was with the New Orleans man when he was stricken with a heart attack and remained with him until his death. Death halted a projected inspection of the Howard Bros. lands and a visit of several days in this section.

Following the death the body was taken to Lindsey Funeral Home in Plainview where it was prepared for burial, after Mr. Massie had conferred with members of Mr. Howard's family in New Orleans, and the remains will start the journey back home this afternoon at 4:40 over the Santa Fe. J. M. Massie and Hollis Bond will accompany the body to New Orleans where interment will be made.

J. M. Massie met Mr. Howard at the train in Plainview and they departed for Floydada about 4 o'clock. Mr. Howard apparently in excellent health and in good spirits. They had driven about a mile and a half out of Plainview when the fatal attack struck the New Orleans man.

"I've got a terrible pain in my left arm," Mr. Howard said, "and I noticed he was pale and perspiring unnaturally. I hurried him back to Plainview and he was under the care of Dr. Jones for perhaps an hour and a half before we took him. (See Alvin Howard, back page)

Floydada High FFA Display At Lubbock Wins Second Place

Floydada High School's Vocational Agriculture class display in the Panhandle-South Plains Fair at Lubbock was awarded second place in the judging there Tuesday of this week. Idolous winner first with a trench soil display. A $25 prize goes with the award to the local boys.

Clifford Daniel, Earl Beck and their teacher, W. A. King, put the exhibit in place after it had been prepared by members of the class.

Mr. King took 35 of his boys to the fair Wednesday where they saw the live stock judging. Hog raising is being stressed in FFA work this year in Floydada High.

The Floyd County agricultural display in the fair at Lubbock, made by R. W. Cothern, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, from the exhibit used at Amarillo, also is a creditable presentation of the county's resources. It is made up of the exhibit taken down at Amarillo, to which were added fresh products.

New Investigator Takes Up Old Age Work in This Area

Mrs. Josephine Piller, of Plainview, has succeeded J. E. Collier as Old Age Assistance Commission investigator in Floyd County, it was announced Monday by James B. Atlee, worker in charge, who said that Mr. Collier had been transferred to service in Hale County.

Mrs. Piller has been with the Old Age Assistance Commission for the past year and is thoroughly acquainted with her duties, Mr. Atlee said, announcing at the same time that her Floyd County office day would be Saturday, when she can be found in the court house at Floydada by any who wish to confer with her relative to any phases of her work.

In addition to Floyd County, Mrs. Piller will serve in the capacity of investigator in Swisher and Castro Counties. Her home is in Plainview.

Whirlwinds Meet First Conference Foe Friday Night

Estelline Cubs Will Open Seven-Game Conference Schedule

The Floydada Whirlwinds meet the Estelline Cubs on Wester Field under the floodlights tomorrow night to begin the battle for the District 4-B championship.

The Cubs will boast ten letter men returning for the 37 season and already claim a victory over the Quitaque eleven. The Cubs stand one-up in the conference race with the 6 to 0 victory.

Reports from the Estelline-Quitaque game indicates that the Cubs have a good defense but a poor offense. It is certain that Coach Eugene Sunderman has spent the past week on that weak offense and at the same time has brushed over the weak spots that appeared on the defense.

The Whirlwinds have played no conference foes to date and of the last three games have won only one. Plainview ripped the center of the Floydada line to pieces to score 26 points last Friday. Rainer, dependable Whirlwind tackle, was withheld from the Plainview game because of a head injury but it is almost certain that he will be ready to play in the Estelline game.

For the first time the Whirlwinds will have the weight advantage in the line and in the backfield. The line of the Cubs, according to starting line up figures, will average 146 pounds to the man, while the Whirlwind linemen will average 151 pounds.

The Cubs have a pony backfield with a man average of only 126 pounds against the Whirlwinds 146 pounds per man. The Cubs' backs are reputed to be fast and shifty. (See Whirlwinds, back page)

North Side Singers To Meet At Lockney Sunday, October 3

Attention to the meeting of the North Side Floyd County Singing Convention, to be held in Lockney on the first Sunday in October, is called this week by R. L. Knox, president of the convention.

Everybody is invited to attend the convention which will gather at the City Auditorium.

LOUIS-FARR TITLE FIGHT PICTURES TUESDAY-WED.

The Joe Louis-Tommy Farr title fight pictures will be a feature of Tuesday and Wednesday night's Palace Theatre show. It was announced this week by Jack Deakins, manager of the theatre.

The picture details the heavy-weight fistcuff in which the Welshman amazed many sports by standing up to all that Joe Louis could put in his powerful left.

Gins Over the County Are Speeding Up

Winners Say More Pickers Are Needed By The Cotton Farmers

450 Bales Ginned

Wheat Planting Gets Underway Over Most Of The County

The gins over Floyd County are beginning to be kept busy more each day. Floydada gins have baled since last Wednesday 82 bales. Wednesday of next week will probably find the gins running at full speed if pickers can be found.

It is estimated that approximately 450 bales have been ginned in Floyd County since the cotton season began. The peak of the crop is expected to be reached about October 15 if that bugaboo of the cotton farmer "lack of pickers," doesn't show up. Estimates of the crop still remain in the range of 22,000 to 35,000 bales.

Already the cotton producers are being held up because of a lack of cotton hands. One ginner remarked that he would have done a third more ginning if his customers had pickers to get it out of the field.

Cotton in the east, south and southeast part of the county is being picked and is in a better condition to pick than elsewhere. However the gins over the county are finding more work to do and are doing probably as much ginning as those in Floydada.

The damp rainy weather Thursday was only a temporary hindrance to the picking of the cotton. There was a heavy shower in the southwestern portion of the county but it was spotted and did no damage to the cotton crop.

Plainview Man Will Open Auto Store Here October Eighteenth

F. N. Joachim of Plainview has leased the property at 204 South Main, next door to the Triangle Garage where he will open a Western Auto Associate Store on or about October 18.

Mr. Joachim store will be affiliated with the Western Auto Supply Company of Kansas City, Missouri, and is one of the rapidly growing group of these home-owned, home-operated stores in the State of Texas.

Mr. Joachim goes to Dallas next week for a course of training at the district headquarters of the company, after which time he will return to Floydada to make his home and to push the installation of fixtures and merchandise for his store opening.

Liberty Second

FFA Boys and WPA Workers Aid With Good Non-Competitive Exhibits

Aiken won the first prize of $10.00 with Liberty a close second in an agricultural exhibit in the Floyd County Agricultural and Flower Show which closed here Saturday afternoon, after a two-day display. Five community exhibits and a booth from the F. A. Club of the Floydada High School and one from the W. P. A. project from Floydada and Lockney completed the exhibit.

Other prize winners in order were McCoy School, $5.00; Sand Hill, $5.00; Muncy, $5.00. The F. F. A. booth and the W. P. A. display were not in the competitive class.

Judges for the prizes were A. E. Miller, Extension Agronomist of College Station and F. E. Lichte, Extension Gin Specialist of Lubbock.

Booths were judged on three points, namely quantity, quality and neatness of arrangement.

Aiken Exhibit
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schacht, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen, F. L. Brown, A. A. Brock and the 4H boys are giving credit for collecting and arranging the Aiken booth.

Among the articles not found in the other booths were soy beans, velvet beans, proso millet, artichoke seeds, seed beets, casaba (winter cantaloupe), walnuts, Georgia sugar cane, yellow pepper, pie melon, cashew (soil builder), legume, wool, yellow dent corn and grapejuice.

Colors of red and white were used in the decoration scheme.

Liberty Exhibit
Red, white and blue intermingled in a pretty display of the Liberty booth arranged by Miss Mattie Taylor, Mrs. Sam Lester and Fess Whitfill.

Things not found in the other booths, that were found here were sugar cured bacon that had been canned two years, home-made soap, canned sour Kraut and canned blackberries.

McCoy Exhibit
McCoy school coils of orange and black were neatly arranged as a background for their display, by Miss Violet Pittman and Bruce Blackford and their assistants. Here, in connection with the general exhibit was found pecans, dipper gourds, collard greens, eggplant, blueberries, pomegranate and white carrots.

Sand Hill Exhibit
Sand Hill, although fourth in certificates awards, had a cleverly arranged booth. Glass jars of luscious fruit and vegetables were placed to form an "S" and "H." Colors of green and white were used in this display with Clarence Guffee in charge.

Sand Hill furnished another list not found in any of the other booths (See Aiken Honored, back page)

G. H. Holbrook, Deputy State Superintendent To Visit Here Oct. 11

Deputy State Superintendent G. H. Holbrook will visit in Floyd County the week of October 11, according to reports from the County Superintendent's office.

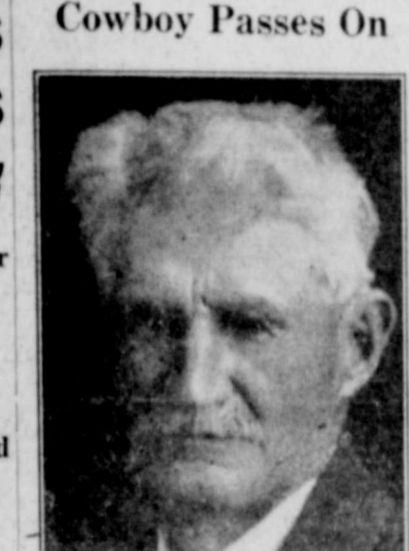

Holbrook's visit is to investigate and inspect the schools for rural and aid. Teachers and trustees of the various rural schools will be given notice before the inspection is made of their school, the county Superintendent said.

'Texas Dries' To Have Representative Here Wednesday, October 6

Jeff Davis, a representative of the Texas Dries, will make an address in Floydada on Wednesday, October 6, at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced this week. The speaking will be held in the District Court Room.

Mr. Davis in on a state-wide tour.

Cowboy Passes On

Funeral rites Saturday at Lockney marked the passing of another native Texas cowboy, H. C. Randolph, above, who at the age of 86, wrote fits to a career of a useful citizen whose life span covered the colorful era of the open range in West Texas and the development of the small ranch industry that has followed.

Early Day Cowboy, Prominent Rancher Of Floyd is Dead

Funeral for H. C. Randolph, 86, Held Saturday Afternoon at Lockney

Funeral rites marking the close of an interesting and colorful career, were held Saturday afternoon at Lockney, when final tribute was paid H. C. Randolph, early-day Texas cowboy and Floyd County cattleman for 39 years. Mr. Randolph died on Thursday night after an illness of five weeks, at the age of 86.

Rev. C. A. Joiner, pastor of the South Plains Baptist Church and a friend of the deceased for many years, preached the funeral, held from the First Baptist Church in Lockney at 3 o'clock. Interment was made in Lockney Cemetery.

The funeral service was attended by the five sons and two daughters and his widow, who survive, as well as a number of grandchildren, and a sole surviving sister.

Grandsons served as pallbearers and granddaughters as flower attendants at the rites, attended not only by many old-time friends in this county but by others from various portions of Western Texas.

Surviving sons are Albert and Will of Lockney; Lawrence of Eagle Pass; Louis of Orlton; and Everett, of Abilene. The two daughters are Mrs. Clara Mine of Earth and Mrs. W. B. Wilson of Floydada. All of these were present for the funeral.

The surviving sister, Mrs. Aura Blanton, of Hamlin, also attended. Randolph, Walton and Woodrow Wilson, of Floydada; Fred Randolph of Eagle Pass; Maxon and Vance Randolph, of Abilene, were the grandsons who served as pallbearers. The granddaughters who served as flower attendants were Mrs. Edna Tye, Floydada; Mary Elizabeth Randolph and Mrs. Thelma Clifford, of Weslaco; Mrs. Era Teague, Hamlin; Mrs. Wynona Gilbreath, Ralls; and Miss Lula Randolph, Lockney.

A native Texan, born in Upshur County, February 18, 1851, Mr. Randolph's life span covered the colorful post-bellum days when the open cattle range industry saw its heyday and during which he served as a cowboy on many western ranges. On January 12, 1881 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, married to Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, the companion who survives him (See Early Day, back page).

C. M. (Curt) Muncy Fatally Injured In Gravel Pit Accident

C. M. (Curt) Muncy, 54, a resident of Tascosa, Oldham County, the past 23 years, but formerly of Floyd County, died in an ambulance enroute to Amarillo Tuesday, following injuries in a gravel pit accident.

His widow, three daughters, three brothers and three sisters survive.

Attractive Display Pressed Wild Flowers Makes Interesting Exhibit

Many hundred people visited the flower show sponsored by the Garden Club and held in connection with the Floyd County Agriculture Show Friday and Saturday at the new building. A large variety of flowers were displayed, considering the late season, with roses leading the number of entries and dahlias second. Mrs. B. K. Barker acted as chairman of the flower show committee.

Mrs. Loran Leibfried, Mrs. Fred Green and Mrs. J. D. McBrien tied for the largest number of blue ribbons each receiving three, and were the potted cyclamen as grand prize winners, one of which was donated by Mrs. W. S. Goen, of Park Flordia.

Judges for the show were Mrs. E. L. Tindall, Mrs. Looe Miller, and Lizzie Gregg all of Silverton. Mrs. Maud Hollums presented each of the judges with a pretty corsage. Miss Gregg is a pioneer of the county. She is given credit for the attractive lawn and the beautiful flowers and shrubs grown in the Briscoe court house lawn.

Mrs. George Hulsey, chairman of the division, arranged a very attractive display of pressed wild flowers. She was assisted by Mrs. B. Jenkins and Mrs. Bill Daily. Mrs. L. M. Davis furnished a large quantity of material for the pressed flower display.

Food sold to help defray the expenses of the prizes for the show was in charge of Mrs. John Maxwell, Mrs. Roy Snodgrass and Mrs. E. Guthrie.

Attractive commercial displays were made by City Park Florists and Billisms Floydada Florist.

Land Owners Form Motley Wild Game Protective Assn.

Floyd County land owners, including twenty-five or thirty ranches, owning a very large per cent of the ranch lands of Motley County, have formed a Game Protective Association, formed Tuesday afternoon of this week in an effort to conserve the wild game of their county.

W. E. Campbell, of Matador, was president of the association, and R. L. White is vice-president, and P. D. Burleson, R. E. Louis and C. P. Wayborn.

Through the efforts of the association it is hoped to keep hunting strictly within the limits of the game laws and save the diminishing supply of wild game. In particular, are being depleted by the annual "foreign" hunters who come from the county, and practically all wild turkeys have been left.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

October 3 to 9 is fire prevention week in Floydada. The mayor has proclaimed it in an announcement which calls on the citizenship to co-operate in the control of useless loss of property and life. If "every home, office, and place of business should be inspected carefully, including alleys, and all fire hazards removed," as suggested in the mayor's proclamation the saving in a year in a community the size of Floydada would easily be $15,000.

All of us think, "Aw, that's alright," when we do something that is against good judgment in preventing fires. As a matter of fact, it is not all right, and we pay the bill for fuddling along about it.

Rubbish, trash, dirt—accumulations of laziness bodily and mental spell danger. Danger to life and property from fire. Whereas health, happiness, life and safety, cleanliness, freshness and beauty, go along with the opposites of laziness and carelessness.

Observe fire prevention week, October 3 to 9, for your own good, the good of your neighbors, the welfare of your community.

UNDER THE MICROSCOPE

While we are talking about state affairs, we'd as well go a bit further and mention the public relations men the state now has on its pay roll, some of them at better salaries than others. The executive department—Governor Alfred's own—the health department, the department of agriculture, and others, have hired men and young men, of more or less talent, to get their respective services properly before the people, spending taxpayers' money to tell the taxpayers what they are doing.

The only trouble with this arrangement is that to hold their jobs, these men must present their respective departments only in a favorable light. They cannot do otherwise. Several of them have been before a senatorial quizzing body in the last week. We could not help sympathizing with them as they squirmed under the microscope. To prove to Farmer Jordan out in the country here that a young fellow who has recently been out of a job has a flair for words is worth $300 of tax money a month as a purveyor of favorable (only) news about a department of the state is difficult. Farmer Jordan, perhaps, digs his out of the ground and would be happy to know he would net a fourth of the $300 the smart young man gets.

Deep breathing does not only help every muscle in the body but is said to overcome many heart troubles. It certainly makes one feel better and is worth trying.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

EXPERTS DO NOT AGREE

One thing noticeable in connection with the stage-setting last week for the tax levying session of the legislature convened Monday, was that experts were unable to agree on how much is the state's present deficit, and how much the deficit will be two years hence. The governor has set up some figures which he believes are correct, the Senate investigating committee has set up others. Still other figures come from the treasury department and the comptroller's department respectively.

With no disparagement meant, we wonder how the governor and the legislature hope to balance the state's budget. Perhaps they do not know. One thing of which we believe they can be certain, however, and that is the state of mind of the people against any further levies until they know the mark at which they are shooting. Meanwhile, closing loopholes in present tax laws would be a good thing to do. About seventy per cent of the taxpayers are paying the bill for thirty per cent who are escaping.

DEMAND DILIGENCE OF THEM

We would not have you think your governor and your representative, your senator, are not doing their level best to give you a good administration of the state's affairs. We doubt very much that there is anything like "wanton waste" and "political extravagance" that has been charged. Always, where there are millions to spend there are hangers-on and grafters who get their bills in, we admit, and there is no reason to think that in Texas is the exception.

But for hard work, puredee patriotism in service, we commend the legislature to its home people, and high in the ranks our senator and our representative. When and if you write them, do so commendably but firmly insisting that they "have a looksee" before they vote for a single item of increased taxation in your state.

It is as much their duty to look at tax levies they have already made and are not collecting as it is theirs to look for more ways to take money off the taxpayers who are paying for those who are escaping.

LOTS OF LATE FEED

There is lots of late feed in Floyd County that will barely make it "under the wire" before frost, if the deadline is as near at hand as some forecasters think. Some "calendars," however, set the frost at a date in November which is ample time and will give late cotton bolls a chance to mature into good cotton, too. The "norther" last week-end was the kind that sometimes precedes an early frost or freeze. The early frost prognosticators may be right. It will be interesting to watch developments. Meanwhile remembering that "weather does as it pleases" in West Texas.

WHERE ARE THEY GOING?

A question that is insistent because it is personal and direct with many of our good citizens is, where are they going another year? Notified that landlords want their farms, they have no alternative but to seek other places to go. Some seem resigned to rent the houses in which they live and seek work by the day, others are scouring West Texas and New Mexico for places they may continue to follow the occupation they know, that of farming. Some, it seems, are going to drop back down-state and find abandoned farms on which they can "coast" until there is a change in the outlook.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

This bright sunshiney morning puts the farmer back in the fields. Fleecy white cotton is loaded into waiting wagons and trucks. Fine heads of maize are being thrown into the bins. Farmers are preparing land to sow wheat. Women are rushed getting children to school—meals for the working men and boys. Chow-chow and mince meat to make. Rush, hurry, the weather may turn bad again. The cool weather made us put our stoves up again. Soot was spilled on the floor as usual. Tempers were strained to the breaking point. Is there anything on earth as contrary as a stove pipe?

"And they wondered at the gracious words of the Master." Can't you see the poor people gathered around Jesus? The people who had known harsh, cruel words from the ones in power. Do the ones we meet wonder at the gracious words we speak? Or do they shrink at the unkind words that come to our tongues. Such a little thing—a word—but how it can turn the brightest day into one of dark misery. Let us bring out from their hiding places in our minds, bright, lovely words—loving and kind words, and use them. They grow sweeter with much use.

This is one of my favorite poems. To every man there openeth A way, and ways, and a way, And the high soul climbs the high way And the low soul gropes the low. And in between on the misty flats The rest drift to and fro. But to every man there openeth A high way and a low And every man decideth The way his soul shall go.

WASHINGTON LETTER BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON. — Farm economy for 1938 at this point resembles a motorist all set to go lickety split in an auto which has no fuel and no brakes.

Farm leaders meeting in Washington with agriculture officials have decided on a plan of soil building and soil depleting goals which in 1938 will reduce by some 30,000,000 acres the average of 305,000,000 acres planted in cash crops from 1928 up to this year.

It remains for Congress to make an appropriation for next year's farm program, and to pass legislation which will avoid surpluses or build them into an "ever normal granary" reserve.

Agriculture Secretary Henry A. Wallace says: "In the absence of other legislation, normal weather conditions over several seasons again will result in the accumulation of burdensome surpluses, but this fact does not preclude the use of the present program to further conservation and help maintain economic gains which agriculture has made since 1932."

The "present program" to which he refers is different from previous programs principally because it establishes a special base for the major soil depleting crops which, divided into producing areas, makes it possible to know in advance just how much corn, cotton, tobacco and rice we need to grow in each of the 48 states.

A farmer will know in advance precisely what he has to do and how much he will get for doing it, once soil depleting and soil building goals have been established for his farm.

Only one payment in full will be made. Previously, separate rates were set up for diversion from soil depleting to soil conserving crops, and it was only by applying these rates to each acre that a farmer at the end of the crop year could find out how much he had earned by his compliance.

The program depends entirely upon farmer co-operation. Wheat farmers, for example, were in the same happy situation this year as cotton farmers in 1936. They are getting high prices and have a good export market. Consequently they don't want a special base for wheat in the new production plan, and none will be imposed on them.

Every effort is being made to prevent the new farm economy in a way that will not arouse public sentiment which was quick to resent the slaughtering of "little pigs"

Betty Co-Ed's Hundredth Anniversary to Be Celebrated at Oberlin College

The changes which a century has brought to the life of an American college girl are shown in the two pictures above. Caroline Mary Rudd, left, one of the first four Oberlin College co-eds in 1837, wore choker collar, skirts that dragged the ground. Her shyness in scholastic competition with men made her a different girl from Janet Brown, right, 1937 president of Oberlin's Women's League. Janet chooses her clothes because they are practical as well as proper, is frank and competes with men in classes on their own plane.

OBERLIN, O.—Liberal Oberlin College, ivy-covered and shaded by giant elms, on Oct. 8 will celebrate the 100th birthday of Betty Co-ed.

It was just a century ago, in the fall of 1837, that four women matriculated at Oberlin, marking the beginning of actual college education for women as well as the start of co-education on the college level.

The century which has elapsed since then has brought many changes which have freed the 1937 Betty Co-ed from the Victorian traditions and prejudices hemming in the "young ladies" of 1837.

Sleeping through 8 o'clock classes and enjoying midnight bull sessions just wasn't done in those days. The earliest co-eds were up at 5 each morning and had their rooms in order by 8. Ten o'clock was the prescribed and enforced bedtime.

College life for them did not include fraternity and sorority dances, rumble seats, football games or complicated campus politics. Their dates with men students were limited and usually under the watchful eyes of chaperones.

OUTSIDE interests of the Oberlin College girl of 1837 were literary societies, the Musical Union, to which men also belonged, and the Female Moral Reform Society.

Perhaps as a warning to the men or as censure of the women students who were prone to ignore the conventions of the day, the Female Moral Society adopted a resolution "that the disgrace of the gentleman who takes improper liberties with a young lady shall be as great as that of the young lady who permits such liberties."

Once a week the co-eds of 1837 were given a lecture by the ladies' principal on engagement, marriage, hygiene, politeness, dress and the qualities of a minister's wife. Today many of those subjects are discussed in classes with men.

Charges of laxness in moral were heard then as well as now. A student who had been dismissed in 1837 wrote in a pamphlet that joint education was very similar to free love and that undue intimacy was common between the students of opposite sex.

OBERLIN'S first four co-eds were Caroline Mary Rudd, Mary Hosford, Elizabeth S. Pratt and Mary Fletcher Kellogg.

The college admitted them "bring within the reach of the misjudged and neglected sex of the instructive privileges which hitherto have unreasonably distinguished the leading sex."

Government Project Workman At Hereford Injured Last Week

John Lewis, member of a crew of men who have been plowing and planting on a Martin & Zimmerman 3900-acre wheat project in Deaf Smith County reaching home last week told details of the probable fatal injury of a 60-year-old man in the employ of the government. The man was cut to pieces by a plow on a soil conservation project on land adjacent to the Martin & Zimmerman property.

Lewis helped pull the man out of the plow, badly cut across the lower abdomen and back and also in other parts of the body. The injured man, whose name Lewis did not learn, was taken to a Hereford hospital.

The crew were plowing out a fence row, using borrowed plows from the Martin & Zimmerman land and a 100-horse Caterpillar tractor. Lewis had just driven up to find out when the plows would be returned, when the accident occurred.

The last of the Martin & Zimmerman crew returned home from Adrian, including S. H. Phillips, who has been superintending the operations. The planting was finished in a sprinkle of rain late Wednesday.

Malcom Lider Known As "Floydada Flyer" At Baylor In Soph Year

WACO, Sept. 29.—Malcom Lider, whose flying feet have earned him the title of "Floydada Flyer" will leave Thursday with the Baylor Bear football team on the first trip of the year. Lider, a sophomore student at Baylor, was an all-district player for Floydada Whirlwinds in 1934, playing in the quarterback slot, distinguished himself in the Southwestern University game here last Saturday and is one of the 33 players selected to go to Oklahoma City to do battle with the Oklahoma City Goldbugs.

"Floydada Flyer"

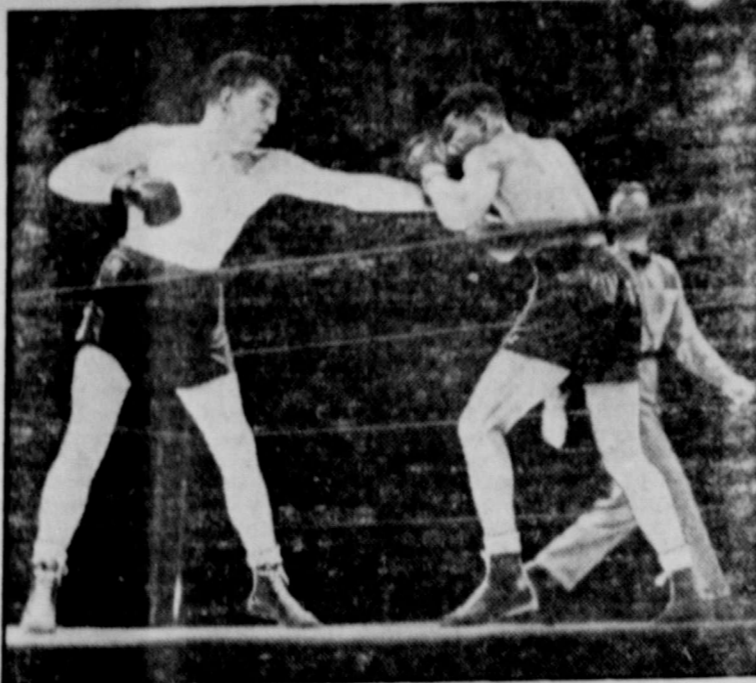

That Malcom Lider is making a success at Baylor as a football player is evidenced by the news recently hearing his name sent from Waco. Already known to Baylor football fans as the "Floydada Flyer", Malcom is expected to go places in his chosen sport. This is his second year in Baylor.

As Farr Went Limit With Joe Louis

Tommy Farr, Welsh heavyweight, above left, had just struck a straight left in Joe Louis' face, when the camera recorded this action shot in the ninth round of the battle in New York in which Louis retained his world championship. By forcing the fight and staying the limit with the Brown Bomber, the British challenger surprised most experts who had expected the champion to score an early knockout. The referee is Arthur Donovan.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for October 3, 1937. God's Way Of Dealing With Us. Golden Text—But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believed on his name. John 1:12.

mandment. 24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. Time and Place.—The first Epistle of John was written about A. D. 90; probably from Ephesus, where it is thought John lived for the greater part of his life after the ascension of Christ.

Various passages in the New Testament provide the basis for our coming three-month course of studies in the Christian life as we return from the far-off scene of the early life of Israel. We have seen how the great and basic moral and spiritual principles emphasized and illustrated in the early history of Israel and in the leadership of Moses have applied to our own time. But in this lesson on Christian sonship we have a striking illustration of the way in which the New Testament fulfills the Old and goes beyond its teaching in lifting us to a higher plane of vision and privilege.

We ought, of course, to remember always the words of Jesus, that he had come not to destroy, but to fulfill. In many respects, his teaching and his emphasis alike were new. Where moral leaders of early Israel had said, "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth," in itself some real progress in justice from the blind vengeance that would demand a life for a tooth, or a life for an eye, Jesus had said, "I say unto you that you resist not evil." He taught men to love their enemies, where in the ancient story enemies were only to be fought and cast out, or killed. But Jesus did not give this new emphasis and teaching as a fulfillment bringing up the ante; teaching to a higher plane and higher light. There is the just exactly according to the reward of evil done, but there is also justice that is patterned after mercy and grace of God. It is a higher element of mercy and forgiveness that we have brought light in the conception of Christian life.

Here we have not only a fine beautiful teaching concerning family life, but we have the revelation of the very highest ideal. The test of the reality of sonship of God is whether we are in ourselves toward others the that God has for us. The 10 commandments are not lost out of lives, nor are they weakened, they are lifted up into this positive higher commandment. We should believe in the name Jesus Christ, and love one another. This is God's commandment. It is first of all God's way of dealing with us.

Whirlwind-Bulldog Games Ends In Third Period Disagreement

Coach Winter Takes Boys From Field as Veterans Are Dismissed

The Floydada Whirlwinds lost to the Plainview Bulldogs by a forfeit in the third quarter after the Bulldogs had piled up a 26 to 6 lead behind the ballcarrying of James and Vaughn, the two Bulldog backfield hot-shots.

The first quarter of the game was played on fairly even terms although the ball was in Floydada territory the greater part of the time. Bulldog passes and end-arounds had stunted out in "no-gains" and losses. Several lateral flanking attacks blew up when Whirlwind terminals figured the plays out.

Floydada lost any advantages that might have materialized and Bulldog errors kept them in hot water. The climax was reached in the second quarter when Kemp blocked McClung's kick. A few plays and fumbles later Crossland heaved a pass to Kemp good for 25 yards. The next heave from Crossland was intercepted by Willson behind his own goal line where he was tackled for a touchdown. McClung kicked to his 45. Floydada drew a five yard penalty and then James scooted 15 yards for a first down. A pass from Crossland to Stovall was no good. Crossland kicked out on the Whirlwind 1 yard line. McClung booted to his 35 and James returned to the 23. James made 10 yards and a first down. Vaughn plumed across two plays later for the touchdown and James kicked goal. The scoring continued later when Beard fumbled but Willson recovered. McClung kicked out to his 36. James went off tackle for another touchdown. James kick was no good. On the kickoff McClung caught the ball on his own 25 and raced down the center of the field to the 50 cut to the east sideline, dodging Plainview tacklers, and went for a touchdown. Williams missed the boot for extra point. The fatal third began with as much excitement as seemed possible but ended up even wider. Stovall intercepted one of McClung's passes and ran nearly to the goal line before he was pulled down. Vaughn heaved up the Whirlwind line for another touchdown but James missed the kick for extra point. McClung kicked to James who fumbled and Smith recovered. McClung to Luder was good for 18 yards but was carried back and Floydada was penalized 5 yards. Willson carried the ball on a trick play for 12 yards but it was called back. A general discussion and commotion arose on the field and in the stands as to whether the play was legal or illegal. The judges decided it was illegal and charged Floydada 5 yards. McClung slipped and fell on an attempted pass. McClung kicked 35 yards to Plainview's 20. Crossland kicked to the Floydada 6 yard line and McClung kicked back to the 30. James fumbled but recovered. McClung was hustled from the field by the referee for rough tactics. Floydada penalized 15 yards. James went around end for another touchdown and kicked point. After the kickoff Hollingsworth was removed from the game for unsportsmanlike conduct and Floydada received a penalty of "half" the distance to their goal line.

Coach Odell Winters then removed his boys from the field and the fans took over. A forfeit makes the score for the game 1 to 0 for Plainview.

Winter Explains Forfeit
There has been a great deal of discussion why the Floydada Whirlwinds forfeited the Friday night game to the Plainview Bulldogs in the third period after the Bulldogs had piled up a 26 to 6 lead over the Whirlwinds, and effort was made to get to the bottom of the situation. "I thought it was unfair for the officials to remove McClung from the game in the third period for rough playing and allow the two Plainview players to remain on the field since the Plainview boys were as much at fault as mine," Coach Winter said Saturday morning. "That incident made both teams even more angry at each other and it is probably that some of my boys would have been clipped and had a leg broken, or would have received a broken jaw in some of the following scrimmages," Coach Winter con-

Relief Status Waived For CCC Enrollees As Enrollment Date Nears

Due to recent changes in eligibility requirements for CCC enrollment, applications are being made in fast increasing numbers daily.

The relief status requirement has been waived. A boy from a family whose income is not sufficient to provide a normal standard of living and also furnish training comparable to that received in the camps is now eligible. Also, in the past, a former enrollee must have served four months while in camp and must have been out of camp a full year before being allowed to re-enroll. The four month requirement has been waived and it is now only necessary that the applicant have been out of camp six months.

Boys interested in enrolling should do so at once as the quota allowed this district cannot be exceeded. The actual enrollment will take place some time in the first part of October but the quota may be filled before that time. Applications are being received by Mrs. Dot Slough, Welfare Worker, in the local County Welfare Office, located on the second floor of the County Court House. Hours—Monday and Thursdays 8 to 5, Saturdays—9 to 12 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stewart, who have made their home at Quail, Texas, the past few years, are moving to Sweetwater, where Mr. Stewart will be employed as clerk in the post office on exchange with an employe there. He has been a route carrier out of Quail.

Mrs. Earl Ivie and little son, Donald Earl, of Denison, came Sunday night for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Lou Gravatte, and her sister, Mrs. Burselon Holloday.

Miss Jimmie Poore, who is attending W. T. S. T. C., Canyon, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Poore, of the Lakeview community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sneed, of Westwood, visited Carlsbad Cavern last week, while Mr. and Mrs. Sneed were here on a visit.

Miss Ayres' Engagement Is Announced at Dinner Party

A wide circle of friends will be interested in the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Jean Ayres, of Lubbock, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Jeff D. Ayres of Floydada to Harmon Jenkins, of Clovis, New Mexico.

The wedding will take place Sunday morning, October 10, at the home of the bride elect's parents, 226 East Crockett street. Formal announcement was made Wednesday evening, September 22, at a lovely dinner party given by Mrs. Mary W. Doak, 2009 Broadway, Texas Technological College. Miss Ayres is secretary to Mrs. Doak.

Following the dinner given by Mrs. Doak a series of entertainments have been given at Lubbock in her honor. Sunday morning Mrs. J. N. Bryan and Misses Evelyn and Geraldine Clewell entertained with a breakfast in the Pioneer room of Hotel Lubbock. Maroon and white was the color scheme used.

Mrs. Harvey Turbough, 1919 Twenty-fifth street, entertained with a dinner Friday evening honoring Miss Ayres.

Allen, dean of men at Tech College. He also is administrative secretary of the Tech Alumni and student association and manager of the Texas Tech magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazlewood will make their home at Lubbock and continue their work at the college.

Among those from Floydada who attended the wedding Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. George V. Smith and Miss Reba Copeland.

Practical Home Economics Cookery

DENTON, Sept. 13.—With the time approaching when the hot kitchen will be the most popular spot in the house, a few recipes for hot breads should be a welcome addition to all cooking libraries. Various experiments have been made in quickening the bread-making process, and the following ideas have proved most successful.

Emergency Biscuits: 2 c. flour 4 t. baking powder, 2 t. salt, 2 t. fat, 1 c. milk. Sift dry ingredients. Cut in fat. Add milk to make drop batter. Instead of dough to be rolled out. Drop by spoonful into muffin pans. Bake in hot oven 12 to 13 minutes.

Nut Bread: 4 c. flour, 1 c. sugar, 1 t. salt, 4 t. baking powder, 2 c. milk, 1/2 c. walnuts, 1 egg. Sift all dry ingredients. Add chopped nuts. Beat egg and add to milk. Stir into dry ingredients. Pour into greased pans. Let stand 20 minutes. Bake in moderate oven for about 1 hour.

Whole Wheat Prune Bread: 1 c. prunes (wash, soak several hours, drain, stone and chop), 4 t. baking powder, 2 1/2 c. flour, 1/2 c. molasses, 1 t. melted fat, 1 t. salt, 1 1/2 c. milk. Sift dry ingredients together. Add molasses, melted fat, milk. Add prunes. Put into greased bread tins and allow to stand 30 minutes. Bake one hour in moderate oven.

Boston Brown Bread: 1 c. sour milk, 1/2 c. molasses, 2 T. melted fat, 1 egg, 1 c. white flour, 1 t. soda, 1 t. salt, 1/2 c. sugar, 2 c. Graham flour, Mix Graham and white flour and all other dry ingredients except soda. Add milk and then molasses. Into which soda has been put. Beat egg and add to mixture. Add melted fat. Put in greased baking dish in moderate oven for 2 hours.

On The Garden Path

Squills A carpet of these delicate blue blossoms is a welcome sight after the last snow melts. You may know them as Spanish Bluebells, Wood Hyacinths, or Scilla. Planting Hints: Set out the bulbs in September and October three or four inches apart. Cover with light, rich soil two and one-half times the depth of the bulb. They like partial shade.

Crocuses are white, yellow and purple, and are like bright nosegays on a spring lawn.

Planting Hints: Set out in early fall where they will get full sun. If planted in the lawn, lift the turf, enrich the soil 2 weeks before planting; cover with 3 inches of soil. Let foliage yellow before cutting it back.

Let's Talk About Clothes

DENTON, Sept. 14.—"Sunday-go-to-meetin'" dresses this fall rival formal evening gowns in the number of smart touches and flattering new lines they employ. A much sleeker silhouette is favored than the bouffants of last year would allow, but skirts are still full enough for easy walking.

Typical of the dresses which will be worn for dates, picture shows, informal parties and the like is a little black silk crepe with the skirt fitting like snake skin save for a bit of flared fullness in front. Long, clinging sleeves are tucked slightly at the shoulder, and the simple V-neckline is fashioned low.

Although Lady Style has turned her most approving smile upon black as high color this season, girls at Texas State College for Women with experimental ideas find that varied colors and materials can still be used advantageously. For instance, heliotrope-blue satin-back crepe forms a smart-looking draped number with the shapely new corset-fitting look around the waist.

Powdery blue velvet is used for another dress in the modern mode, with a shirred ring extending from the waist to the neckline, thus holding the fullness of the skirt into straight lines.

Daring color combinations carry on the fight with conservatism that they started several years ago, and one sees rust and lavender rust and turquoise blue and fuchsia, blue and brown and gray and beige.

Pink, so long in disfavor, is being reclaimed and put with certain tones of brown and gray.

As for materials, luxurious is the word. Those leading so far in Paris and other style centers are velveteen, satin-back crepe, shear wool, moire and the easily-drapable jersey.

Independent Seismograph Crew Here

M. Kennedy, Dallas, Party Chief, Says Work Not Assigned

15 In Crew

Transfer From Post to Floydada This Week For Two Months

A second seismograph crew to be sent to Floydada for the purpose of obtaining geological information on the underground formation of the area arriving in Floydada this week.

There are a 15-man crew of the Geological Service Corporation, of Dallas, Texas, under the direction of P. H. Kennedy, of Dallas, as party chief. They were finding of residence quarters late yesterday.

Mr. Kennedy said yesterday that an assignment of territory for the crew had not been made as yet.

The party was transferred from their present quarters here where they have been operating since September 15.

Seismograph tests conducted on the 23,000-acre block south of Floydada in Floyd and Garza counties, where The Seismograph Company of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is operating on operations for the Oil Exploration Company, under the tentative lease agreement.

Whether they will or will not be assigned territory for the purpose of testing some of the territory in the area is still to be determined.

Whether they will be determined by what their seismograph readings mean to the geologists of the company, it has been indicated by P. F. Merry, representative of the company, who reached an understanding with the landholders.

Turning out an average of 120 shots a day each, followed by "shooting" crew, were in the north of Blanco Canyon in the south of Floyd County the first of the week.

Cooperative Pepper Block Members Meet, Make Market Plans

Meeting to Produce Seed of High Germination Value for Distribution Next Spring is Aim

Members of the Floydada Cooperative Pepper Cotton Block met last night for the purpose of making plans for the handling of their seed so as to produce seed of high germination value so it can be distributed next spring to producers in the county.

It is agreed by all present that only open bolls will be harvested and will not only help the grade but will also insure high germination tests.

The group also discussed and plans to store their cotton as stored in the new cotton house which has just been completed by the Cooperative Gin Company so that one variety cotton can be stored in quantity lots thereby increasing the seed value for next year.

It was also decided that growers that they would pool their cotton of one inch staple bolls in 100 bale lots and their cotton on a cooperative plan.

W. Jennings of Aiken and Agent D. P. Bredthauer met with the group and discussed cooperative marketing features and the desirability of putting a good staple cotton on the market.

Members present were H. D. Jordan, W. B. Jordan, G. B. A. H. Matthews, R. B. Gary, A. Snodgrass, T. M. Goodman, Austin, Geo. McAllister, H. L. and Dorman Lewis and J. W.

Superintendent of Plainview School Sends Regrets Here

A letter was received yesterday from Superintendent A. D. Cummings of Plainview schools in regard to the death of the late...

Supr. A. D. Cummings, Floydada, Texas.

Mr. Cummings is indeed sorry of the incident that made it necessary to hold the school and wish to congratulate you on the course he followed in meeting the situation.

We appreciate your confidence in that school officials are maintaining our friendship.

Yours truly, O. J. Laas, Superintendent.

Answer to this letter Superintendent Cummings submitted the following letter for publication:

There is no feeling of animosity between the Plainview and Floydada school officials.

It was necessary to hold the game as it was regretted, but there is no reason for this to lead to any feelings between the two schools.

The splendid attitude of Mr. Cummings and Superintendent is sincerely appreciated. I am confident the incident will not mar our relationship in the future.

A. D. Cummings, Superintendent.

County Agent Outlines Wheat Project, And 4-H Club Project

County Agent Discussed Problem Presented by Short Legume Growing Season

(By D. F. Bredthauer)

In the past two years the County Agricultural Agent has noticed in talking to wheat farmers who have been irrigating wheat over a period of years that they are beginning to complain in regard to their wheat yields that their acres are not as productive as they were when first starting irrigation. This is a problem that has come up in every irrigation section in the county and it calls for one thing which may be subdivided into two classes: First that the mere plowing under of the straw is not sufficient to replenish the soil from year to year with plant food to produce a large crop the next year.

Under this heading some kind of a nitrogen bearing plant should be planted after harvest and turned under before the seeding of another crop. In some cases this would be rather expensive, and almost impracticable in other cases as the growing season for legumes would be rather short for a wheat farmer who harvested his crop in July and reseeded his crop in September.

The second method would be the use of commercial fertilizer. Under this method it requires a great deal of study and it would be absolutely necessary that each field be tested for its nitrogen content so as the proper amount could be applied as this fertilizer is expensive. It would be a waste of time to put on too much or not enough. However if farmers are interested in this work a soil testing kit could be purchased for around $40.00 and the County Agricultural Agent would be glad to cooperate with the farmers in a movement of this kind.

The Denton Agricultural Experiment Station under the direction of D. P. Dunkle has just issued a bulletin in regard to commercial fertilizer tests on wheat and it shows that where a fertilizer high in nitrogen content which was 4-12-4 at the rate of 400 pounds per acre over a nine year period from 1928 to 1936 averaged 36.2 bushels per acre at the Denton Station. It is the opinion of the Agent from observation that the nitrogen content of our soil for the production of wheat on the irrigated farm is beginning to get exceedingly low.

In talking to Duke Thornton, Extension Chemist it was pointed out that his idea would be for the wheat farmers on irrigated farms to use ammonia sulphate at the rate of about 70 pounds per acre. This product has been found when carried into the soil as a result of proper application the nitrogen of the ammonia sulphate is changed to nitrates by the soil bacteria and in this form it immediately becomes available as plant food. A number of farmers have expressed their willingness to cooperate with one another and the Agricultural Agent in carrying on small tests on their farms for 1938 and it is hoped that some definite information can be collected before the condition becomes acute.

WIGGINS THE MAGICIAN AT CONE FRIDAY NIGHT

The Cone school will be entertained Friday night, October 1, with a comedy magician, J. W. Wiggins. He will be accompanied by Roy Burgess a clown, who has been recommended as good entertainment.

This is a Lyceum entertainment and will be held at the school auditorium. A small admission will be charged.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Burrows returned home Monday night from Waco, where they visited for a week with their daughter, Mrs. Ernest McNutt and family. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Slim Terrell had charge of the local office of Dalby Motor Freight.

R. C. Scott, in company with Robert Scott, Jack McIntosh and James Riley Burrows spent last weekend in Dallas and Fort Worth at the Pan-American Exposition and Frontier Fiesta.

Counts Jobless

A big job is being directed by John D. Biggers, above, appointed by President Roosevelt as administrator of the federal government's first attempt to count its unemployed, variously estimated at from 3,000,000 to 6,000,000. Biggers, a liberal Republican and president of a large Toledo, O., glass manufacturing company, said the count would be by voluntary registration.

It has been made available on printed Government forms, it will be necessary for the buyer to execute the Government form for cotton which is sold on and after the date on which such forms become available.

Producers should file buyer's receipts, or the Government form when it is available, in chronological order with respect to every sale made prior to July 1, 1938. This is necessary in order that evidence be available in excess of 65 percent of the producer's base production if it develops that funds are available to make payment on a percentage of such excess.

Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Greer and daughter Dorothy and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Knight and daughters James Opal and Geneviva, and Eldon Jones spent Saturday in Amarillo at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo.

Mrs. W. J. Klinger, of Plainview, was a guest of Mrs. M. F. Hampton, last week.

County Agent Outlines Wheat Project, And 4-H Club Project

County Agent Discussed Problem Presented by Short Legume Growing Season

(By D. F. Bredthauer)

In the past two years the County Agricultural Agent has noticed in talking to wheat farmers who have been irrigating wheat over a period of years that they are beginning to complain in regard to their wheat yields that their acres are not as productive as they were when first starting irrigation. This is a problem that has come up in every irrigation section in the county and it calls for one thing which may be subdivided into two classes: First that the mere plowing under of the straw is not sufficient to replenish the soil from year to year with plant food to produce a large crop the next year.

Under this heading some kind of a nitrogen bearing plant should be planted after harvest and turned under before the seeding of another crop. In some cases this would be rather expensive, and almost impracticable in other cases as the growing season for legumes would be rather short for a wheat farmer who harvested his crop in July and reseeded his crop in September.

The second method would be the use of commercial fertilizer. Under this method it requires a great deal of study and it would be absolutely necessary that each field be tested for its nitrogen content so as the proper amount could be applied as this fertilizer is expensive. It would be a waste of time to put on too much or not enough. However if farmers are interested in this work a soil testing kit could be purchased for around $40.00 and the County Agricultural Agent would be glad to cooperate with the farmers in a movement of this kind.

The Denton Agricultural Experiment Station under the direction of D. P. Dunkle has just issued a bulletin in regard to commercial fertilizer tests on wheat and it shows that where a fertilizer high in nitrogen content which was 4-12-4 at the rate of 400 pounds per acre over a nine year period from 1928 to 1936 averaged 36.2 bushels per acre at the Denton Station. It is the opinion of the Agent from observation that the nitrogen content of our soil for the production of wheat on the irrigated farm is beginning to get exceedingly low.

In talking to Duke Thornton, Extension Chemist it was pointed out that his idea would be for the wheat farmers on irrigated farms to use ammonia sulphate at the rate of about 70 pounds per acre. This product has been found when carried into the soil as a result of proper application the nitrogen of the ammonia sulphate is changed to nitrates by the soil bacteria and in this form it immediately becomes available as plant food. A number of farmers have expressed their willingness to cooperate with one another and the Agricultural Agent in carrying on small tests on their farms for 1938 and it is hoped that some definite information can be collected before the condition becomes acute.

F. A. Dickert Victim Of Gunshot Wound At Home Saturday Morn.

Prominent Farmer, Suffering From Ill Health, Dies of Self-Inflicted Wounds, Magistrate Verdict

Fred A. Dickert, 57, prominent farmer-stockman, living near Lakeview, eight miles southeast of Floydada, was found dead in his yard Saturday morning about 8 o'clock by his wife, a 25-20 rifle by his side, and in an inquest held by Justice B. P. Woody the same morning, he was declared the victim of gunshot wounds, self-inflicted.

The story of his death, as related by witnesses called by Justice Woody, was that he had helped his wife with the housework and at about 8 o'clock when he decided to remain at the house and rest after a bad night, his wife had gone out into the pasture to bring up the calves for the morning milking. After her departure he wrote a brief note of farewell and called a broker-in-law, C. Alexander, telling him to come over. Mr. Dickert was feeling worse than usual he told his brother-in-law over the telephone.

Shortly thereafter Mrs. Dickert heard the rifle shots and returned hastily to find Mr. Dickert lifeless in the yard. He had shot himself three times in the upper part of the chest.

For several years he had been ill and during the past twelve months had been under the care of a physician. He was suffering from diabetes, and had spent sometime in sanitariums in this section.

Funeral Held Sunday

Funeral rites for the deceased were held Sunday afternoon from the First Methodist Church in Floydada at 3 o'clock. Rev. Jno. E. Eldridge, pastor of that church, was assisted in the service by Minister F. R. Yeakley of the City Park Church of Christ. Interment was made the same afternoon in Lakeview Cemetery.

F. A. Dickert had been a resident of Floyd County for seventeen years, moving here from Hill County, Texas. He was a native of South Carolina, from which state he moved to Texas at the age of 13 with his parents. He was married to Miss Vira Alexander on April 28, 1907, at Penelope. They have no children. Three brothers and three sisters survive the deceased, besides the bereaved wife. The sisters are: Mrs. C. Alexander, Floydada; Mrs. C. L. Dorsey and Mrs. Lena Harrison, Palacios; Mrs. Wm. McKissick, Houston. Brothers surviving are John and Zimri Dickert, Palacios, and Ernest, of Old Mexico.

Deceased had been a member of the Methodist Church since early life. Harmon Funeral Home had charge of arrangements. The funeral service was marked by special numbers given by Floydada Quartette, composed of G. C. Tubbs, Earl Rainer, H. L. Sims and Garlan G. Glover.

Among the out-of-town relatives here for the funeral were Mrs. C. L. Dorsey and son, Donald, of Palacios; Mrs. D. H. McKissick, of Houston; Mrs. G. H. Harrison, of Austin; Mrs. Elmer Cogswell, of Dimmitt; Mrs. Nat McMinn, of Coahoma; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Blocker and Lynn Mosley of Rosco, and Claude Alexander, Borger.

Buster and Virginia Simpson who are attending Tech College at Lubbock, were home this week end for a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Owens and little daughter of Big Spring, were here last week end visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Archer and other relatives.

Only Fifty Complaints Behind Late Yesterday Gas Company's Report

When complaints began to come in they began to pour, following the introduction of a malodorant into the gas mains of the West Texas Gas Company last week. G. L. Kirk, manager of Floydada District for the company, said late yesterday.

"We're about fifty complaints behind and about worked down," Kirk said. "We're getting to the customers as fast as we can and hope they'll be patient," adding that when a gas user gets a whiff of the safety odorant introduced into the system, they don't fail to make it known. Leaks that cannot be discovered with a blaze from a match can be found by applying strong soapsuds to the joints. Where leaks occur the soapsuds will form bubbles, Kirk explained.

The odorant was put into the gas on order of the State Railroad Commission, pursuant to a law passed by the legislature as a safety provision for users of natural gas.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harmon and daughters visited the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo last week-end.

Miss Anne Brown, of Dallas, is here this week on a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Guthrie.

Operative Pepper Block Members Meet, Make Market Plans

Meeting to Produce Seed of High Germination Value for Distribution Next Spring is Aim

Members of the Floydada Cooperative Pepper Cotton Block met last night for the purpose of making plans for the handling of their seed so as to produce seed of high germination value so it can be distributed next spring to producers in the county.

It is agreed by all present that only open bolls will be harvested and will not only help the grade but will also insure high germination tests.

The group also discussed and plans to store their cotton as stored in the new cotton house which has just been completed by the Cooperative Gin Company so that one variety cotton can be stored in quantity lots thereby increasing the seed value for next year.

It was also decided that growers that they would pool their cotton of one inch staple bolls in 100 bale lots and their cotton on a cooperative plan.

W. Jennings of Aiken and Agent D. P. Bredthauer met with the group and discussed cooperative marketing features and the desirability of putting a good staple cotton on the market.

Members present were H. D. Jordan, W. B. Jordan, G. B. A. H. Matthews, R. B. Gary, A. Snodgrass, T. M. Goodman, Austin, Geo. McAllister, H. L. and Dorman Lewis and J. W.

THREE WEEKS EXAMS

We haven't had to dig much on lessons—yet, but some of us had a decided let-down when the returns of our three-weeks exam came in. If we failed, that just points out to us that we need to do more studying, more concentrating, and probably a little less talking and cutting up during class. But let's not be discouraged, let's not give up over one failure, but be more determined than ever to prove to ourselves (if no one else) that we can pass and by a wide margin, too. Let's realize that we won't get anywhere by just piddling along, and that real satisfaction comes only after we have done our best.

Then there are some of us who made good grades. Perhaps we are inclined to set back and take things easy now that we have made a good start. But a good start is only half a success, and we will have to keep working to really accomplish anything. Let's be careful, however, not to let grades rule us, but let the desire to know more urge us on to do well what we have started in our school work.

Presenting The New Seniors

Anito Jo Jenkins, not exactly a new student because she attended this school her freshman year, is a very popular senior. She is only four and one half feet tall. Her eyes are brown and her hair is nearly black. She makes good grades and is a "pep" girl. Her favorite study is Spanish; her favorite song is "Whispers In The Dark"; and her favorite food is angel food cake.

Press Club Elects

The Press club met Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock to elect officers and outline the year's activities.

After an interesting discussion the following officers were elected by acclamation.

President—Dorothy Dell Stovall.
 Vice president—Thomasine Cox.
 Secretary and treasury—Watson Jones, Reporter—Sappho Ward, Sergeant at Arms—Leeman Norman, Sponsor—Miss Rees.

Many exciting plans were laid for the year social as well as business. To start the social off with a bang the club will take a little jaunt to the seven mile canyon on a picnic next Monday night.

Library Lists a Group Of Books For Reading

Among the newer "old" books in the library are "The Man of Property" by John Galsworthy, "The Vicar of Wakefield" by Oliver Goldsmith, "Count Luckner, the Sea Devil" by Lowell Thomas, "Ariel Life of Shelley" by Andre Maurais, "Marie Antoinette" by Stefan Zweig. With the exception of Goldsmith, all of these authors are modern writers and their books are highly recommended. Read all of these books and you have read an American, English, and French author. Besides these books, a new order of widely known books is expected to arrive in a few weeks.

Whirlwinds To Play First Conference Game Friday Night

Those Floydada Whirlwinds are playing their first conference game against Estelline Friday night.

It will be the first conference game for Floydada and the second for Estelline. Estelline having defeated Quitaque 6-0 in their first game.

The Whirlwinds are all pepped up over their chances in their game with Estelline since they have a good chance to win the district this year.

Some new comers to this year's team are:

- Neal Bertrano—200 lb tackle.
 - R. E. Goltstelle—132 lb halfback.
 - James Johnston—118 lb center.
 - Nortraan Goen—120 lb lineman.
 - E. L. Tyler—135 lb tackle.
- Here's wishing these boys go far in the next few years.

Green Peppers

Our green peppers are still peppy and ready to go. There was a lot of disappointment gloating around last week because we couldn't get to the Stalon game—but that week's disappointment only tended to make the girls more peppy and enthusiastic at the Plainview game last Friday night. Of course, most of the girls were rather used to such occurrences but evidently that's what makes the world go round.

There was a very spicy and peppy rally in town last Thursday night. The only trouble was that Ye Olde Pep leader forgot to arrange for a bon-fire—but everything that has been done this year has been a little off form, so why not another novelty.

Here's just a little comment but it is mighty right. I think Captain McClung, you really make a run and we are mighty proud of you. And Captain Rainer, we missed your smiling face in the line-up, but you were very conspicuously present in the Pep Squad and we were very glad to have you. But really we hope you are out there playing next week at the Estelline bout.

Between our captain's seventy-five yard run, our team leaving the field, and our pep leader's broken glasses we don't know whether the game was a game or a riot, but to say the least—

We love you,
 We'll stick to you tight,
 But oh, you Whirlwinds,
 Fight, fight, fight.

Orchestra

The orchestra of Floydada High School was organized at 3:15 on Monday afternoon. The orchestra consists of trumpets, saxophones, trombones, violins, bass horn, drums, and clarinets. Those playing are: Leeman Norman, Joe Arwine, Harold Berry, T. W. Salisbury, Arline Rainer, Olin Watson, Billy Brown, Doris Collins, Frankie Sanders, Alice Rawlings, Muriel Fagan, Alene Warren, C. W. Denison, Evelyn Potter.

The orchestra practiced several pieces, but haven't fully decided on the books and music they are going to use. The orchestra intends to meet every day this week.

Alene Warren Hostess at Birthday Weiner Roast
 Alene Warren was hostess at a birthday weiner roast at 5:30 Tuesday evening, September 21, given in honor of Mary Jo Horn and Edna Mae Smith.

The roasting of weiners was the main entertainment of the evening. The guests present were: Edith Grimes, Mary Wilson Hicks, Thomasine Cox, Marjorie Kirk, Vera Nell Marshall, Mary Adair, the honorees, Mary Jo Horn and Edna Mae Smith, and the hostess, Alene Warren.

Sappy Sayings

The song, "You've Got to be a Football Hero" is typical of Floydada, school. Have you noticed how the football players go over in a big way? Well—anyway—they think so!

Last year a certain girl tried composing music for the band, and this year two of our very eligible Junior girls are starting on the road to fame by composing new words for songs of the pep squad.

Robert (Bobby) sure had a terrible time in third period typing for awhile, "cause every time he looked over anybody he made a mistake."

The members of the Senior class couldn't decide who would make the best president, but finally they decided.

Who ever heard of giving chalk as a present? Some teacher finds the nicest, longest piece on her desk every morning.

Assistant Coach Johnston just can't keep order in commercial geography class when Coach Winters is absent.

Overheard

In English class: "Miss Cade. Somer stayed in detention every day last year."

In upper hall: "Why don't you drop your books, Ruth?"

In typing: "I never did find the question mark! Or is there one?"

In second period study hall: "Oh listen, you'll cry in typing. (He hands your papers back!)"

In speech: "You old prevaricator."

In commercial geography: "I don't like to study about bananas. It makes me hungry."

In history: "Oh, I can't spell Darius, Miss Miller!"

In seventh period study hall: "Say, get me a pass to the game too!"

In library: "I can't study when you stand over there, Miss Wolfe."

In civics: "I have an excuse, but I'm not going to show it to anybody."

On campus: "Nice weather we're having isn't it? No?"

In foods: "Miss Rees, will you give us a permit to chew chewing gum?"

Hit Of The Week

The Loveliness Of You
 The touch of your hand
 The smile on your face
 The beam in your eyes
 The thrill of your embrace,
 Darling even in heaven, I never could replace
 The loveliness of you.

The warmth of your lips
 The way that they cling
 The sound of your voice,
 Is like the breath of spring.
 What is the theme of every song
 I'll ever sing
 The loveliness of you.

When we're cheek to cheeking,
 Words may fall me, it is true
 Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking,
 I'll tell the world, all about you.

Your charm and your grace
 You dance so divine,
 The joy that I know
 To know that you are mine
 'Twould take a million phrases
 To properly define.
 The heaven abovefulness,
 The loveliness of you.

Chapel

Thursday in chapel we were favored with a talk by Rev. Yeakley of the City Park Church of Christ. After an introduction by Mr. Cummings, he delivered a brief talk which was greatly enjoyed by the assembly. This was followed by announcements concerning school affairs by Mr. Cummings and Mr. Davis. Chapel was then dismissed.

"Slow but sure" might have been the subject of the announcements made in Chapel Thursday. Mr. Cummings asked that the students who drive their cars to school be very careful while driving during the noon hour. So many students are walking that, with fast driving, many lives are endangered. So do be careful who you walk and you who drive.

High School Students Marry At Lockney

Monday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock Rev. A. L. Shaw, pastor of the Baptist Church at Lockney, performed the marriage rites at his home in Lockney, for two Cedar Hill couples. It was a double ceremony.

Truman Dillard, a Junior in Floydada High School, and Hilary Lee Rafferty, a Senior in Lockney High School.

Lawrence Massengale and Maudine Pharis, who were not going to school at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard and Mr. and Mrs. Massengale are making their home in the Cedar Hill Community.

Robertine McIntyre Entertains Thursday Night

Robertine McIntyre entertained a group of her friends Thursday night September 23, after pep rally. The following were present: Evelyn Groves, Dorothy Dell Stovall, Josephine Troutman, Beth Newton, Virginia Bell, Womack, Alene McIntyre, Moody Williams, La Von Rainer, Charles Nickles, James Fry Gibbs, Jimmy Wilson, Gerald Lackey, and the hostess, Robertine McIntyre.

Dorothy Dell Stovall and Josephine Troutman spent the week end in Iowa Park.

Kampus Kaypers

Idol chatter: Doesn't Evelyn Fowler have beautiful raven hair. I wish it were mine. Our old Captain McClung really did blow and go last Friday night when he ran those 75 yards for the only counter made by the Whirlwinds. We are quite proud of the good man, these days.

The fifth period library is showing a nightmare at the present time because all the students seem very conversationally inclined during that period.

It has been said that when one hears a different word for the first time, they meet that same word again in the course of twenty-four hours. Well what do you think about looking after things? In other words scrutinizing? And the twenty-four hours?

Last year's current romance is up and going again—or so it seems. Anyway the backfield Captain and the Head Yell Leader really are conversing long and earnestly these days. Can it mean something, or is someone only trying to play a little trick on someone else?

Was there some heart interest in Dorothy Dell and Josephine going to Iowa Park or was it just a visit? We think everybody would like to know.

Coach, you were ten minutes early on your trip up to Bobbie's but still too late, cause everybody went home about nine. Hum.

Hawkeye are you getting absent minded or do you just not care. I don't think I'd appreciate your efforts if I were a certain little girl. Moody, you'd better hustle if you don't want to be whipped out because the little woman was awfully anxious to leave for Iowa Park the day after.

Robertyne, I think it would be a very wise idea for you to start hanging around the telephone on Thursday afternoons. Watch and something might come of it.

It looked like Old Home Week this week-end when Edwin blew back into town. I have suspicion that a little girl named Kay was very glad to see him.

Ham, why don't you and Moody get together? I imagine it is rather painful looking for a man half the night. Try to do better than that next week.

Legs are you and Beth back at it again? (Don't look now folks, but I really am having a time trying to keep up with who's going with who.) Anyway you two, good luck, and less fusses.

George Fry, what is this I hear about the twenty-eighth? Better be careful or something will getcha when you are bragging so. Besides all that I don't think you could make the grade if you tried.

Sandhill Flash, what's wrong. You know there's lots of little girls would like to go with you. Keep trying and maybe you'll find the right one after so many rallies.

Somer, you seem to get along with Plainview okay as long as the girls are around, especially when they're Plainview girls. Or the Plainview girl.

Iva you sorta twisted around Friday night. Every time I looked you were with a different fellow. Now are you just giving them all a good lesson? If you are I think I'll take lessons from you and improve on my technique.

Virginia Belle you certainly were in a hurry to get to Gerald Friday night. Is it love or just a momentary infatuation?

Teachers To Be Guests Of Rotary Club

This year the teachers are to be guests of the Rotary Club. This is something new and highly entertaining for the teachers as well as intellectual. September 22, Miss Weatherford, Mr. Myers, Miss Rees, and Mr. Davis were guests. September 15, Miss Pouts, Miss Copeland, and Mr. Stockard were guests. Each Wednesday several teachers will attend the luncheon. Each teacher is looking forward to his or her invitation.

Use the Want Ads. They pay.

Trenton T. Davis Is Named Head Of The Commercial Dept.

Mr. Trenton T. Davis, head of commercial department, is our new teacher. His home is in St. Joe, Texas and he graduated from the high school there. He graduated from Texas Tech in 1935. He played football, basketball, and was on the track team. He taught in the Quitaque high school and in the Friendship High School in Wolforth.

Mr. Davis hasn't moved his family here yet. He says he likes here very much and is very anxious to meet everyone.

His favorite food is chocolate pie and his favorite song is "The Waltz You Saved for Me."

Hi-Y Club

The Floydada Hi-Y club, which adjourned last May, met Tuesday night, September 21, for the beginning of a new year. The club elected the following officers: Judson Abernathy, president; Adolph Burgett, vice president; W. C. Boren, secretary; Paul Barnard, business manager and Watson Jones, reporter. For the next two weeks the club will be busy reorganizing and will not take in many new members.

The Club plans to meet each Tuesday night at seven thirty o'clock at the Floydada High School.

Home Economics

The local Homemakers of Texas had its first meeting Monday in the clothing lab.

Miss Rees, head of the Home Economics Department told us something about the club. Last year the club belonged to the American Home Economics Association. This is the highest organization of Home Economics in America. Belonging to this, gives the club a better rating.

Pins are awarded to three members of the club by the American Home Economics Association. Last year a point system was worked out by the sponsors. Work which is done in the club, such as being officers, serving on a committee, or working in the laboratories gives so many points to a member. The three girls receiving the largest number of points are awarded pins. The first pin is gold, the second one silver, and the third one bronze.

Plans were made for both the informal and formal initiations of new members. The informal will be Tuesday and the formal one will be Wednesday night in the department. The officers elected for the year were, Benja Jonston president, Claudine Carpenter vice-president, Verda Frances Turner secretary and Sappho Ward, treasurer. The sponsors are Miss Rees and Miss Pouts. The Club will meet every other Wednesday.

LUBBOCK BOOSTERS VISIT HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY

On Tuesday of last week there was a general stir and confusion at the end of the sixth period. Mr. Davis had just announced that the Lubbock boosters were here and would give a short program when the bell rang. Finally the bell did ring, and everyone rushed outside. Each student was met by some Lubbock representative and was given a ruler, advertising the South Plains Fair at Lubbock. The Lubbock Band played a few numbers after which Mr. Collins of Hemphill-Weiss Co. gave a pep talk inviting all to attend the South Plains Fair which began in Lubbock Monday, September 27. He also told us that the "school" day at the fair was Wednesday. The Lubbock band, led this time by Mr. Grummish, played one more number. Then our visitors boarded their bus, and left us to resume our studies as best we could.

WANTED Clean White Rags at Hesperian.

Biology Class

The Biology class has been making much progress since school started. Every member has found out a great deal about insects that he did not know before. For the past week the grasshopper has been the principal study. The class studied a live grass-hopper which some of the members furnished.

Last Friday the class attended the Flower Show for outside work and enjoyed it very much.

The Biology class is very active and intends to organize a club next week. Here's wishing them bigger and better bugs.

Locals

Joe Conway spent Saturday in Lubbock.

Frankie Sanders Harold Berry, Mrs. Sanders and Mr. Berry attended the Amarillo Fair Wednesday of last week.

Lellafaye and Mary Wilson Hicks spent Saturday in Lubbock.

Miss Rees and her mother, Mrs. Rees, spent the week-end with her brother, W. S. at Turkey.

Mr. Grummish spent the week-end in Dallas with Mr. Stockard.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Freeman and Wilma Jean of Lubbock spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Doris Jones.

Miss Copeland, and Dr. and Mrs. George Smith attended the wedding of Miss Mary Wilbanks of Spearman.

Outline 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program

The outline of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program, which follows national, state, county and farm goals for soil-depleting crops and for soil-building crops as a part of the effort to restore soil fertility and increase agricultural production, was announced today by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace.

The new program, Secretary Wallace said, "represents a progressive development from the program formulated under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act. It follows the outlines already established and sets up definite objectives for 1938. These include an increase in soil-conserving crops and soil-building practices to further the primary aim of soil improvement. Soil-depleting crops were listed as a conservation measure and to insure an ample and balanced supply of food, feed and fiber crops. Four years ago agriculture's immediate problems were one of acute surplus which had accentuated during the depression, the emergency lessened, the farmers began the task of working a long time and permanent farm program. Such a program must of necessity include soil conservation as a balanced production of food and feed supplies at prices fair to farmers and growers.

The Agricultural Conservation program, however, is not a production control program. In the absence of other legislation, normal conditions over several years again will result in the accumulation of burdensome surpluses. But this fact does not preclude the use of the present program to further conservation and to maintain economic gains which agriculture has made since 1932."

The 1938 program was drafted with the assistance of farmers and representatives from every state. Meetings were held in the field in Washington before the final provisions of the plan were agreed. Flexibility to allow the adaptation of details to the needs of the various regions and states is included in the plan.

Lion And Pup Are Cagemates

Inseparable playmates are Mutt, the full-grown male lion, and Jeff, the small female dog, shown above frolicking in their cage at the Manakato, Minn., zoo. The lion's mother refused to care for it after it was born five years ago, so Jeff's mother was drafted for the job. Jeff has refused to leave the cage ever since.

Extension Course To Be Offered In Plains History

Eighteen persons were present for an organization meeting held Tuesday night of last week at the senior high school in connection with an extension course to be offered out of Texas Technological College.

County Superintendent Walter Travis said that 16 had already signed for the course, which is "History of the Great Plains," and will be taught by Dr. W. C. Holden, head of the history department at Tech.

The course deals exclusively with the history of West Texas and eastern New Mexico and should be of particular interest to the people of this section, Travis said.

Anyone is eligible to take the course as auditor for a five dollar fee, but to receive three hours college credit the fee is $15 and the person taking it must have a junior college standing.

October 3 to 9 is National Fire Prevention Week in United States

Entire Nation Begins Observance Monday Lasts Until Saturday

Fire Prevention Week To Be Observed In Floydada With Drills And Themes

Over all the United States, from the Pacific Coast to the Atlantic Seaboard, from the Canadian border to the southernmost tip of Texas, towns and cities will observe the week of October 3 to 9 as Fire Prevention Week.

Schools over the nation will be doing as the Floydada schools are doing. The pupils will be required to study methods of preventing fires, write themes on fire prevention, and in the lower grades and in some cases the higher ones posters depicting the loss and horror of fire will be drawn and displayed.

Many cities offer prizes to the students that write the best theme or make the best poster dealing with Fire Prevention. Some of the better themes are printed in newspapers and magazines of the nation to help preach the gospel of fire prevention.

The appalling thing about the fire loss of the nation is the fact that 40 per cent of the fires that destroyed lives and property were preventable. Some minor precaution or forethought would have saved the nation a fire bill amounting to millions of dollars.

Fire prevention week and National Clean-Up Week should come at the same time. Rubbish that accumulates in corners and closets presents an ever present fire hazard. Greasy rags and cleaning clothes should not be tossed into a corner. Spontaneous combustion from those rags and rubbish will burn down a house or a business establishment as surely as burning match applied to pine shavings.

Recently the gas companies of Texas began to place in the gas mains a malodorant in order to warn persons of unsuspected gas leaks.

The requirement upon the companies was made a law by the legislature in order to protect the people of this state from leaky gas lines which are not only a fire hazard but if the gas accumulates an explosion may result destroying lives and property.

When dealing with gas "Remember New London" would be a good slogan, yet it is a good servant and will work well if the owner will treat it with due respect and report leaks to the company.

Every year, in an increasing number, homes are being destroyed by electric short circuits caused by fault ly wiring or pure carelessness. A competent electrician should be engaged to do the wiring of a house for a "jack-of-all-trades" may cost you the house by a simple mistake. The electric companies ask each year that good fuses be used in the fuse box, yet many persons put slugs, wire, or tin foil in the fuse socket in order to save a few cents and a short that would ordinarily blow the fuse occurs and since the wire or coin won't melt and break the circuit the house is set fire and destroyed or badly damaged.

The yearly fire loss should teach the people of the United States one great lesson, that is "Be Careful" and the other is "Insure". There are a multitude of good insurance companies that offer fire insurance policies that will protect you from total loss by fire. The next best thing to "not having a fire" is having "adequate insurance".

Mayor Proclaims October 3 To 9 As Fire Prevention Week for Floydada People

Mayor Glad Snodgrass, of Floydada, along with more than 400 other Texas mayors this week has proclaimed October 3 to 9 as Fire Prevention Week, urging that health, happiness, life and safety be promoted in this most useful observance. His formal proclamation is as follows:

A PROCLAMATION

KNOW ALL MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

By these presents:

That, WHEREAS the health, happiness, life and safety and general welfare of each citizen are dependent upon existing living conditions,

WHEREAS the lives and property of our people are endangered by fire caused by rubbish accumulations in homes, offices, stores, restaurants, alleys and streets, and

WHEREAS, a city is judged largely by its general appearance, of cleanliness, freshness and beauty, and

WHEREAS, fire to a very large degree is prevented by proper application of education in fire prevention and fire protection;

NOW, THEREFORE, I GLAD SNODGRASS, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF FLOYDADA do hereby proclaim the week of October 3 to 9 as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, during which time I most respectfully urge our civic and commercial organizations, our school officials and teachers, and our citizenship as a whole, to cooperate and work with the fire chief, fire marshal and city officials in an effort to control this useless loss of property and life by fire. Every home, office and place of business should be inspected carefully, including alleys, and all fire hazards removed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto sign my name and affix my seal of office on this 9th day of September, A. D. 1937.

(SEAL) GLAD SNODGRASS, Mayor of City of Floydada.

Safeguard Your City

STOP FIRE!
STOP LOSS OF LIFE!

The wail of a siren . . . it arouses you . . . a few minutes at the window and you return to bed satisfied that it does not concern you.

But It Was Your Fire

Look at the actual figures. Did you know that in 1933 the fire loss amounted to $269,778,000? The loss per capita was $2.15. That is not as bad as a few years back; but 40% of the conflagrations last year were preventable.

To Guard Against Fires Don't Be Careless

1. Don't allow children to play with matches.
2. Don't discard burning cigarettes.
3. Don't clean your clothes with gasoline.
4. Don't build fires with kerosene.
5. Don't allow rubbish to accumulate.
6. Don't forget to turn off your electrical appliances.
7. Don't place coins or copper wire in your fuse box.
8. Don't forget to extinguish rubbish fires.
9. Don't forget to check electric wiring.
10. Don't be cheap—fires are costly.

W. H. Gore Succeeds To FSA Office Here, Succeeding J. C. Bell

W. H. Gore, former district supervisor of the Amarillo district for the Resettlement Administration, now known as the Farm Security Administration, has succeeded Jess C. Bell as supervisor of Floyd and Motley Counties, Bell having been transferred to Lamesa in similar capacity.

The Farm Security Administration has offices in the Farris & Surginer Building on West California Street.

Aiken Meet

For an hour or more after lunch the farmers and visitors to the meet chatted and visited and caught up on the local news and exchanged opinions on weather, politics, and cotton.

Miller and Lichte Speak

At 2 o'clock everyone gathered in the Aiken church to hear Miller and F. E. Lichte, gin specialists connected with the extension service explain the cotton loan and subsidy plan, and the value of raising a good cotton, and everyone raising "one variety" cotton.

Miller explained that European countries bought cotton from the United States brokers with the understanding that "no cotton from Texas" was to be included.

"That is because the spinners of cotton can't use short staple, low grade cotton in their machinery and make a profit," Miller said. "Texas once led the world in cotton exports and spinners desired it because it was the best cotton but as the years went by the cotton raisers allowed their cotton to become low grade and short staple and the importing nations went elsewhere to seek a market."

The importing countries knew cotton from the communities of Texas as "Texas Cotton" and when they received false packed bales and bales with six shotters, scale weights, and junk iron in it they turned against "Texas Cotton." That injured the few communities that were trying to raise good long staple cotton with a grade of middling or better because their cotton too was known as Texas Cotton. However, buyers are looking for good cotton and communities that are going one variety are getting a premium that the "half and half" boys are missing," Miller added.

"When Texas returns to raising good cotton the importing nations will welcome it and Texas cotton exports will climb. The "one variety" cotton communities are leading the way," Miller concluded.

Whirlwinds

The Whirlwinds had little chance to open up with their bag of offensive tricks against Plainview because of fumbles, and the fact that they were on the defensive the greater part of the time.

This game is expected to show the fans just exactly what the Floydada team does have for an offense and how strong they are on the defense.

The probable starting line up for Estelline is:

Player	Po.	Wt.	No.
W. Adams	LE	130	66
E. Bourland	LT	140	50
H. Spradlin	LG	150	44
B. Wise	C	135	65
B. Hinton	RG	155	68
B. Ewen	RT	155	25
H. Hood	Capt. RE	155	99
R. Baccus	QB	125	45
Q. Adams	HB	120	11
D. Cook	HB	120	77
R. Leatherwood	PB	140	35

The probable starting line up for Floydada will be Orman and Hollingsworth, ends; Rainer and Williams, tackles; Tyler and Martin, guards; Montgomery, center; Linder, quarter; McClung, fullback; Willson and Smith, halves.

Officials will be Crawford, Tech. referee; Ezell, ACC. umpire, and Bryan, ACC. headlinesman.

Alvin Howard

They carried on a very earnest conversation for, perhaps fifteen minutes, his wife insisting that she be permitted to come out to him.

"Aside from the fact that he was our friend and client, Mr. Howard was undoubtedly one of the leading bankers and business men of the south," Mr. Massie said.

Surviving Mr. Howard are his wife, a son of college age, a daughter, and one brother, Edgar B. Howard, the latter of Philadelphia, and joint owner of the Howard lands in Floyd, Motley, Briscoe and Hall Counties, which the brothers inherited from their father, comprising of the P Ranch lands purchased many years ago from the father of Geo. T. Moore. W. M. Massie &

Early Day

(Continued from page 1) after fifty-seven years of life together. Following his marriage in Callahan County he ranched in Jones County for many years before moving to the present cities which dot that area were created. Later he moved further west, and thirty-nine years ago took up residence here. All the years he was actively associated with the cattle business and was until two years ago, when he gave up some of the responsibilities incident to his ranching here and in New Mexico. As late as March of this year, however, he still rode horseback and gave his attention to his cattle. The hard-boiled which stood early Texans in hand so readily was still his this spring when he was thrown from his horse on a cattle trail leading down the caprock in northeast Floyd County, and recovering consciousness, was found by a son at their ranch camp. He had made his way to the camp and was carrying out routine duties there. He refused to be carried in an ambulance to a hospital, pointing out that he could make the trip to the doctor just as well.

In recent years Mr. Randolph's chuck wagon has been featured at pioneer meetings in this section. The chuck wagon is one he brought to this section from the Sweetwater country forty years ago.

FOREST FIRE FIGHTERS GET SUPPLIES IN PARACHUTES

Emergency parachutes made from pieces of burlap about 6 feet square have been used successfully by the United States Forest Service to drop food and other supplies from airplanes for men on remote fire fighting lines in the national forests.

Large burlap sacks, used in bagging wool, generally are used to make the parachute.

In one experiment 9 dozen eggs were dropped 500 feet in one of the homemade parachutes and only two eggs were broken. Food in glass jars, canned milk water, and even tools, have been dropped to aid the fire fighters. Such delivery saves much needed time in emergencies.

Loyce Turner, student of Texas Tech spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner.

Bro. have been agents for the properties in this section for thirty years or more.

Mr. Howard was a vice-president of the Hibernia National Bank and one of its active managers. He was an official and large stockholder in the Times-Picayune, New Orleans newspaper of wide prestige, and was interested in importing, exporting, and a score of other enterprises in his state and over the south.

He had suffered a slight heart attack about a year previous to his death yesterday, but was believed to be recovered. He was a native of New Orleans.

O. W. Harris Receives Dealership For De Soto And Plymouth Autos

The Harris Day and Night Garage, managed by O. W. Harris, is now dealer for the De Soto-Plymouth automobiles at his garage.

"I would appreciate my friends and others interested in Plymouth-DeSoto automobiles to call on me," Harris said. He has a four door Plymouth sedan on display.

Harris became a dealer for the automobile some two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wakefield and son returned the latter part of last week from Midway, where they had been on a visit with relatives.

Cannery Moves To New Location Mon.

The Floydada cannery under the direction of Mrs. Fred Taylor, will move to their new location next Monday in the Barrow building at the Northwest corner of the square. They will be in the back of the building and will have a side entrance on the west. The sewing room will be located in the front of the building.

Mrs. Taylor suggests that you get your appointment with her before bringing your vegetables and that those who have canned goods at the cannery will please get them not later than Saturday as there is danger of having some of it misplaced in moving. She will not be responsible for it.

Mrs. Taylor thinks the public has been somewhat mistaken about the cannery as it is not a relief project but is open to anyone who cares to have canning done. She uses from ten to twenty workers each day and they are paid in canned goods to the equivalent of $1.50 per day.

Two shifts are now being used from 7:30 a. m. until 5 p. m. and from 5 p. m. until 10 p. m. The on-duty requirements are that you book your canning order and be there to help with the work.

Gins Speed Up

Some of the wheat farmers are finding it too dry to put in wheat but the greater majority plant whenever they get around it, one wheat farmer said.

The wheat farmers could more rain before they put in their crop but the cotton men are waiting for hot dry weather for their cotton crop is gathered.

The wheat acreage in Floyd is expected to be increased by 20,000 acres over the 1937 acreage according to the opinion of grain buyers.

The majority of wheat raisers have evidently learned a lesson and treated against it if amount of planting seed brought to the treating means a thing.

It will be several weeks before the wheat planting in Floyd is completed. Several plots of wheat will be put in after the dry has generally finished planting.

Waldo Houghton left last week, Dallas, where he matriculated in a study in the medical college for University.

these being Coocelle squash, Swiss chard, German millet grown by Fred Taylor some of which won first prize at the Amarillo Fair last year, and Indian peaches.

Muncy exhibit with its green background was prepared by Jess Sanduskey, Elbert Harris and J. P. Biggs. They had still another list of items to add to the list not found in any other booth. They were poke, red June Corn, garden huckleberries, 14 inch soil beans, kohlrabi, and Oklahoma white window Corn.

W. A. King, Vocational Agricultural teacher in the Floydada High school and the P. F. A. boys had an educational booth which was a two-fold exhibit. One was a rope making machine, a device introduced here two years ago by Mr. King in the Agriculture class, showing the actual making of rope from discarded binder twine.

In the background of the booth was displayed the Future Farmers of America insignia in blue and yellow and under this was the old and the new ways of "Growing and fattening pigs" displaying a dirty trough and lot on one side and a clean lot and miniature self feeder on the other. A large self feeder was on display in another part of the building.

The Works Progress Administration work project No. 2589 of Floydada and Lockney had a display of children's clothes, quilts, nightgowns and ladies dresses.

"I sure enjoyed these two days show and everything just went off perfect," was the expression of George Skiles, who superintended the agricultural show. He said he was well pleased with the exhibits and the way the different communities co-operated in the preparation of the booths.

F. E. Lichte, one of the judges said, "As a whole for variety the exhibit was 100 per cent."

WEST CALIFORNIA CAFE WILL BE KNOWN AS PALACE LANIER MANAGER

The Palace Cafe is what B. C. Lanier is re-naming the White Kitchen in the Boothe Building on West California. He will have the establishment re-opened and ready for business this week-end, he said.

Some changes have been made on the interior to make the cafe more efficient in serving the public. Lanier said, in announcing his plans.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stuart, of Dallas, were in Floyd County for a few days the first of the week. Mrs. Stuart, the former Edna Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parsons, pioneer residents of the county, is still interested in land in this county, the old home near Trick of the Parsons family.
