Revise Farm Program For '38 Is Seen

After Many Conferences, Cites Farmer Re-Action Found

Many Opinions

Price for Foreign Consumed Product Must Be Competitive

FLORADO, Nov. 8.—Congressman George Mahon, prior to his departure for Washington to attend the special session which concludes Monday, November 15th, made the following statement concerning prospects for farm legislation:

"It is impossible to predict what kind of bill will be passed. The district has a strong preference for a compulsory control bill which has been expressed by a great majority of the farmers with whom I have been in contact in farm meetings elsewhere. Most cotton producers are adjusted to payments equivalent to 15 cents or above, on a portion of the crop produced for domestic consumption. They desire a moderate reduction in price which is necessary, but that adjustment will be required in order to get a price for cotton which is competitive with the American standard of living.

Twenty Blocks of Asphalt Gravel Preservative Going On Caliche Based Streets

Big Anniversary

It looks like a basket of flowers but it really is a cake that makes Eddie Cantor smile as he cuts the first piece, as shown above, at a Los Angeles party marking his 25th anniversary as an entertainer of stage and screen.

Lone Star Construction Company Laying Material For Citizens

By the week-end twenty-nine blocks of asphalt and gravel preservative will have been laid on streets in Floydada which had caliche treatment during the period of 1933 to 1935, with the possibility that other streets will be contracted.

Last week five blocks of the asphalt and gravel treatment had been applied and with the arrival Wednesday of additional material, work on the other twenty blocks, already approved for paving, got underway.

A loop of six blocks to aid traffic to the high school on south Fifth Street, Jeffie Avenue and South Main Street, and a five-block loop to Andrews Ward School are in the program, with three blocks completed on the last-named project.

Other work which is being done includes two blocks on Eighth Street, five blocks on West Mississippi Street, a three-block loop on Kentucky, Fifth and Tennessee Streets, three blocks on the west end of Kentucky, two blocks on West Virginia, and 3 blocks on E. California. First work done last week included a block each on south First street and west Georgia.

Several property owners have been working for additional strips of the preservative treatment on their blocks, but late yesterday the construction company told R. W. Cothorn, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, that no more contracts will be taken. The equipment will be moved to another contract.

A twenty-foot strip in the center of the street is being surfaced.

Grand Jury Urges Care By Haulers

Vehicles Without Lights Front And Rear Great Menace To Public

Safety Urged

Adjourning Body Also Explores Increased Drunken Driving In County

Dangers to the public from wagons, trailers and other vehicles without lights or reflectors during the fall harvest, and the damage and danger that results from drunken driving came in for the attention of the District court grand jury for Floyd county, fall term, in its final report Monday night when it asked Judge Alton B. Chapman for final dismissal.

Seven indictments were returned by the grand jury during their deliberations of the term, all on felony charges. Of these one was returned Monday and six the first week of court. Most of their deliberations were on matters of drunken driving. W. Edd Brown was foreman of the body. Officers of the county came in for commendation in the report for their diligent efforts in enforcing the law. Regarding the dangers of unlighted vehicles on the roads and the violations of the law against drunken driving, the report says:

Harvest Time Dangers

"We desire to call to the attention of the public generally that the farmers over the county are now in the midst of a heavy harvest and that there is a great deal of transportation of cotton and other crops over the roads and highways of Floyd County at night. And there are many farmers who transport their cotton to the gins at night in wagons and trailers without having any kind of light or reflector on the rear of such vehicles, making it almost impossible for anyone approaching from the rear to see such vehicles in time to avoid collision; that such vehicles without lights, in addition to being a violation of the law, are a great menace to the traveling public, and if not corrected will, in all probability result.

Driver Examinations Under New License Law Begin On November 16, Floyd County

Examiner to Spend Tuesday Morning of Each Week In Floydada

AUSTIN, Nov. 9.—Two driver's license examiners of the Department of Public Safety will be in Floydada on Tuesday of each week, to conduct tests for drivers applying for their first license, according to Col. H. H. Carmichael, director of the public safety department.

Establishing headquarters at the Court House the uniformed officers will give the examinations every Tuesday of each week from 8:30 A. M. to 12 noon. In applying for the driving tests the applicant must furnish his own vehicle or one he proposes to operate after he secures a license, the safety director pointed out.

After oral quizzes are completed each applicant will be required to drive his car or truck over a designated route under the supervision of one of the trained examiners. During the drive the operator must demonstrate the use of his foot and hand brakes, stop for signals and perform other acts necessitated in ordinary traffic situations. Before the actual driving test is made the examiners will quiz the license applicants on safety regulations and signals, highway laws and make tests of their eyesight and hearing. Any physical deformities will be recorded on a grade card.

Not only will driver's license applicants be examined as to their ability to handle a vehicle with safety, but the vehicle itself will be tested for defects in brakes, horn, lights, rear-view mirror, and windshield wiper.

If a driver prove his ability to operate his vehicle with care and safety he will immediately receive his license at the examination headquarters. If a passing grade is not made after the test is completed, an instruction permit card will be issued which requires the applicant to return at a later date for another examination. Examiners of the Safety Department estimate that a complete test can be given in 12 minutes.

Truck, bus, and other commercial vehicle drivers will be issued licenses divided into three classes, A, B, and C, according to the type of vehicle to be operated. Passenger and school bus drivers are issued a permit bearing a special endorsement of the Department.

Col. Carmichael urged that drivers seeking their licenses observe themselves in safety regulations, rules of the highway and the mechanical operations of their vehicles in preparations for the tests. Jack Reeves of Lubbock who has been in this district for the past 8 years as a Texas Highway Patrolman will give the examinations.

'Death Elixir' Found In This Health District

Fifteen Pints Of "Death" Found In Ten Texas Towns

One death in the Northwest Texas Health District has been attributed to the "Death Elixir" or elixir of sulfanilamide. Fifteen pints of the deadly fluid was found in 10 towns of the district.

Midland and Monahans led the parade with three pints each, Odessa was recorded with two, Wink, Kermit, Westbrook, Colorado, Snyder, Jayton and Spur had each bought a pint.

All of the drug stores, except two in Midland, had returned the bottles of medicine to the company in Kansas City. The two pints discovered in the drug store at Midland were confiscated by the United States Food and Drug inspector and destroyed. Dr. H. H. Puckett, director of the State Health Unit, No. 1, was notified by Inspector C. L. Sumner.

The lone death recorded in this district was that of a Mexican in the southern part of the area. Prescription records in the stores that had purchased a supply of the elixir were examined and the inspectors went to the homes of the purchasers and destroyed the supply which had been bought.

The inspectors found that in some cases the elixir caused illness and in one case death but in many other instances the persons were unharmed by its use. Just what claims have been set up for the sulfanilamide elixir is not known as the bottles bear no label containing a claim as patent medicines generally do.

The drug sulfanilamide was developed in Germany from the red azo dye by a research chemist. Miraculous cures were effected with the drug in Germany and finally in America. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., son of the president, was cured of a streptococcal infection by the use of the drug developed in Germany.

Why the sudden change in the effects in the drug? The current opinion announced by the American Medical Association and substantiated by results, is that the elixir of sulfanilamide, not the drug itself, produces fatal results.

Chemists and research laboratories say there is a chance that sulfanilamide may still be of good use to doctors but that it must not be compounded into an elixir and used until thorough tests have been made. The "death elixir" was credited with about 60 deaths over the United States before the supply was exhausted or returned.

BURCHFIELD RESIGNS

R. G. Burchfield, who has served Floydada Country Club as caretaker for the past eight years, has resigned and will make his home with his son, Alton, on Route 4. Falling health of his wife was assigned as the cause of his resignation. Appreciation of his work for the club was expressed by Charles Bedford, president, and other officials. His successor is due to be announced at an early date, possibly today.

Blanco Rim Oil Test To Start Today

Spudder Bit Goes To Work On Oil States Montgomery Number One

Work Speeded Up

Giant Machinery Set In Motion Ahead Of Lease Contract Date

Sometime today, probably before noon, the bit will bite the first chunk of earth out of the ground for the Oil States Exploration Company's test on the Montgomery land six miles south of Floydada.

Contracted for a drilling depth of 6,000 feet, a giant steel derrick and all the drilling equipment for a rotary rig have been put on the ground and made ready for work by Loffland Bros., the contractors, within the period of a week.

Should the well go to its full contracted depth it will require a period of some ninety days, more or less, depending on weather and other working conditions, it was conjectured by F. P. Merry, of the Oil States Exploration Company.

On Blanco Rim

The location on the F. J. Latham Homestead Pre-emption Survey is within a few yards of the rim of Blanco canyon. Its location is 450 feet from the north line of the survey and 450 feet from the east line, in the northeast corner of the tract. It lies immediately south of the Shipley Estate lands.

The location and beginning of the test follows an intensive campaign of seismograph tests which began in August and have been continued. The first 23,000-acre block of optional leasing contracts will mature on November 15, when owners are due to be paid 50 cents per acre for their leases. However, the company has continued its leasing campaign and several thousand additional acres have been leased down Blanco canyon and in the area southeast of Floydada.

District Court Settles Three Cases This Week

Three criminal cases were disposed of in this week of District Court. One criminal case remains for this week, which will be tried before a jury.

State of Texas vs Earl E. Stapp, charged with swindling property over value of $50, a felony, the court gave two years suspended sentence. The case was tried without a jury. State of Texas vs Frank Counts, charged with forgery was given a two years suspended sentence by the court. No jury was asked.

State of Texas vs Buford Loe, charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and sentenced to five days in jail. This case was tried before a jury.

The remaining case, State of Texas vs James McDaniel, will be tried Friday or Saturday. McDaniel is charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. The court decided in favor of H. R. Patterson, in Geo. Hulsey vs H. R. Patterson, by deciding that the highway accident in which the two were involved was an "unavoidable accident."

Light Rain Halts Picking But Gins Continue Runs

A light rain all-day Tuesday delayed the pickers almost a day and a half and allowed the gins to catch up with the cotton that had accumulated on their yards. Few of the gins were forced to cease work because of the rain, which amounted to 1.8 of an inch.

The gins over the county continued to eat heavily into the probable yield for the county as they turned out approximately 15,531 bales for the season.

If the early estimates were near accurate that figure should be near the half-way mark of the cotton to be produced for this county. However the farmers say that half of the cotton has not been picked.

The new Whitfill gin at Aiken which was damaged by fire nearly two weeks ago has resumed operation. The gin began to turn at 5 o'clock Monday morning but was some 500 bales behind because of the delay. Mr. Whitfill said that all of the cotton brought in had been ginned and stored and would be ginned during lulls in the yard. Nearly $15,000 damage was done by the fire.

Really Old-Timers Guests Sunday At Unusual Assembly

Arizona Ranchers Hosts At Old Lisenby Ranch North Of Matador

A gathering of plains and panhandle old-timers whose residence in the area from Floydada east to Childress date back in some instances as far as the late seventies and the eighties, was held Sunday at the old Lisenby Ranch twelve miles north of Matador, when W. G. Bowman, of Nogales, Arizona, and F. M. Dougherty, of Dougherty, were hosts at a barbecue dinner.

A day replete with reminiscence, re-union of old friends, a delightful dinner, climaxed in the afternoon with droll stories from Judge A. J. Fires of Childress, Judge G. E. Hamilton, of Matador, and others, was reported by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, of Floydada, who had the good fortune to be present.

W. G. Bowman, one of the hosts, in an early day settled at Childress. Within a few years he moved on further west, but during an intervening period of forty years or more had kept in touch with the friends he knew in this section. Among those who attended were:

Harry H. Campbell (1881) and Mrs. Campbell, Matador; J. W. Whitehead (1882) and Mrs. Whitehead, Childress; Reed B. Scott (1890) and Mrs. Scott, Childress; Geo Taylor (1886) Childress; Jess Crenshaw (1899) Childress; R. C. Forbes (1891) and Mrs. Forbes, Spur; Elmer Stearns (1898) and Mrs. Stearns, Matador; W. M. Graham (1877) and Mrs. Graham, Matador; A. J. Fires, (1886) Childress; Billy Stafford (1883) and Mrs. Stafford, Spur; J. B. Jenkins (1894) and Mrs. Jenkins, Floydada; Dr. A. C. Tra-week (1897), and Mrs. Tra-week, Matador; Nellie T. Langford, (1895) Childress; W. C. Briggs (1891) Childress; C. W. Mitchell (1899) Matador; G. E. Hamilton (1873) Spur; W. L. Hyatt (1873) Spur;

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Phillips, of Paducah, Pa. St. Clair, of Childress, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mayo, of Dougherty.

SANTA FE OFFICIALS MAKE VISIT IN FLOYD COUNTY; CASSELL IS RELATIONS MAN

H. M. Bainer, agricultural agent for the Santa Fe Railway Company, here Tuesday on an inspection trip when he visited Floyd County experimental sugar beet plots accompanied by L. J. Cassell, new public relations man of the territory, recently in this section from California.

Cassell until recently was a reporter, having served time on several metropolitan newspapers, resigning recently to take his new type of work. He was much interested, he said, in activities of the plains area. Bainer took with him samples of sugar beets from three Floyd County farms which will go to Rocky Ford chemists for analysis of sugar content. The possibility of sugar beets as a new crop activity for irrigation farms of the area is being studied in Floyd, Hale, Swisher and Deaf Smith Counties under the supervision of D. F. Bredthauer, Floyd County agent, in co-operation with Mr. Bainer.

Two Narrowly Escape Injury When Truck Hits Loaded Wagon

A cottonseed truck, a cotton wagon, the two drivers, and the two mules pulling the wagon, were involved in a "near serious" accident before daylight Tuesday morning.

A cottonseed truck driven by Jack Barnett and Owned by C. B. Leatherwood was returning from a trip to Silberton about 6 o'clock in the morning when it met and was blinded by the lights of another automobile. Unable to see ahead the truck plowed into a loaded cotton wagon driven by O. R. Mooney.

The truck and wagon were badly damaged and the cotton on the wagon was scattered for 50 yards along the highway from the impact. Neither Mooney nor Barnett were injured. The mules were so badly hurt that it was believed necessary to shoot them. The accident happened near the Santa Fe stockyards. Sheriff Fred Clark repeated his warning to drivers of cotton wagons stating that the law "required reflectors or a light of some sort as a warning signal" on wagons or other vehicles on a highway. "Several accidents have been narrowly averted since the cotton season has opened and it is almost certain that someone will be seriously hurt or suffer heavy damage unless some precautions are taken for night driving with wagons. A reflector will cost but a few cents and might save a life," the sheriff stated.

CONSUMERS FUEL ASS'N ADDS TO CONVENIENCE OF SERVICE AT THE STATION

Several yards of concrete driveway, partially re-arranged pumps, raised culverts and levelled approaches are among improvements made at Consumers Fuel Association's East Missouri street station for the convenience of drive-in service.

Changes were made, C. C. Huckabee, manager, said, to make it easier for serving big trucks and other vehicles, with more speed.

HEALTH UNIT OFFICIALS ATTEND DALLAS MEETING

Dr. H. H. Puckett, Miss Nora Carlton, Mrs. Lily Egbert, Clayton Billings and Mrs. C. S. Sumner, all of the Health Unit, District 1, attended the State Public Health Association meeting at Dallas last week. The party left on Saturday, Oct. 30, and returned Thursday, Nov. 4.

Showers Tuesday Are Followed By Light Frost During Night

Light showers over Floyd and adjoining counties Tuesday, amounting to eighteen-hundredths of an inch at Floydada, was considered excellent for wheat recently replanted or harrowed to kill winter weeds, while slowing down the cotton harvest for a day and a half. The showers were followed by the light frost Wednesday morning, the first of the season, with a temperature low of 38 degrees.

HOPEFUL SIGNS FOR COTTON

Under the compelling force of necessity cotton raisers of Texas are beginning to look to the kind of seed they plant and the staple they produce.

Instances have occurred, too, where several farmers have pooled cotton in blocks of fifty or a hundred bales of one grade and staple length and sold it at a better price than the individual could have obtained for one or a few bales.

There is no instant panacea for the ailments of the cotton growing industry. They are many and diverse, but like any other sick industry, when study by many growers is put to the problems there will be gradual betterment, which is a hopeful sign for increased prosperity for the cotton growing areas.

MONEY FOUND FOR THE AGED

By maneuvering about and seeing what they could do about it the State Board of Control has found a way out to go ahead with the aged people and pay them their pensions until January or February and possibly not have to pare the payments in any months at all.

Thirty days ago it was a cinch that nothing could be done about it, that payments certainly would cease in November and on for awhile. At that time the drive was on for more tax levies.

It is just this sort of thing the "entrenched interests" want the state officials to do—to look around and get the job done without calling on the people for any more taxes for a while—and it can be done.

AN UNICAMERAL LEGISLATURE?

Possibly we are wrong—we hope we are not—when we say this last "do nothing" session of the legislature is the best argument we've seen against a unicameral body. It took both the senate and the house of representatives to beat fifteen million dollars worth of new levies. A single house would have been too complaint.

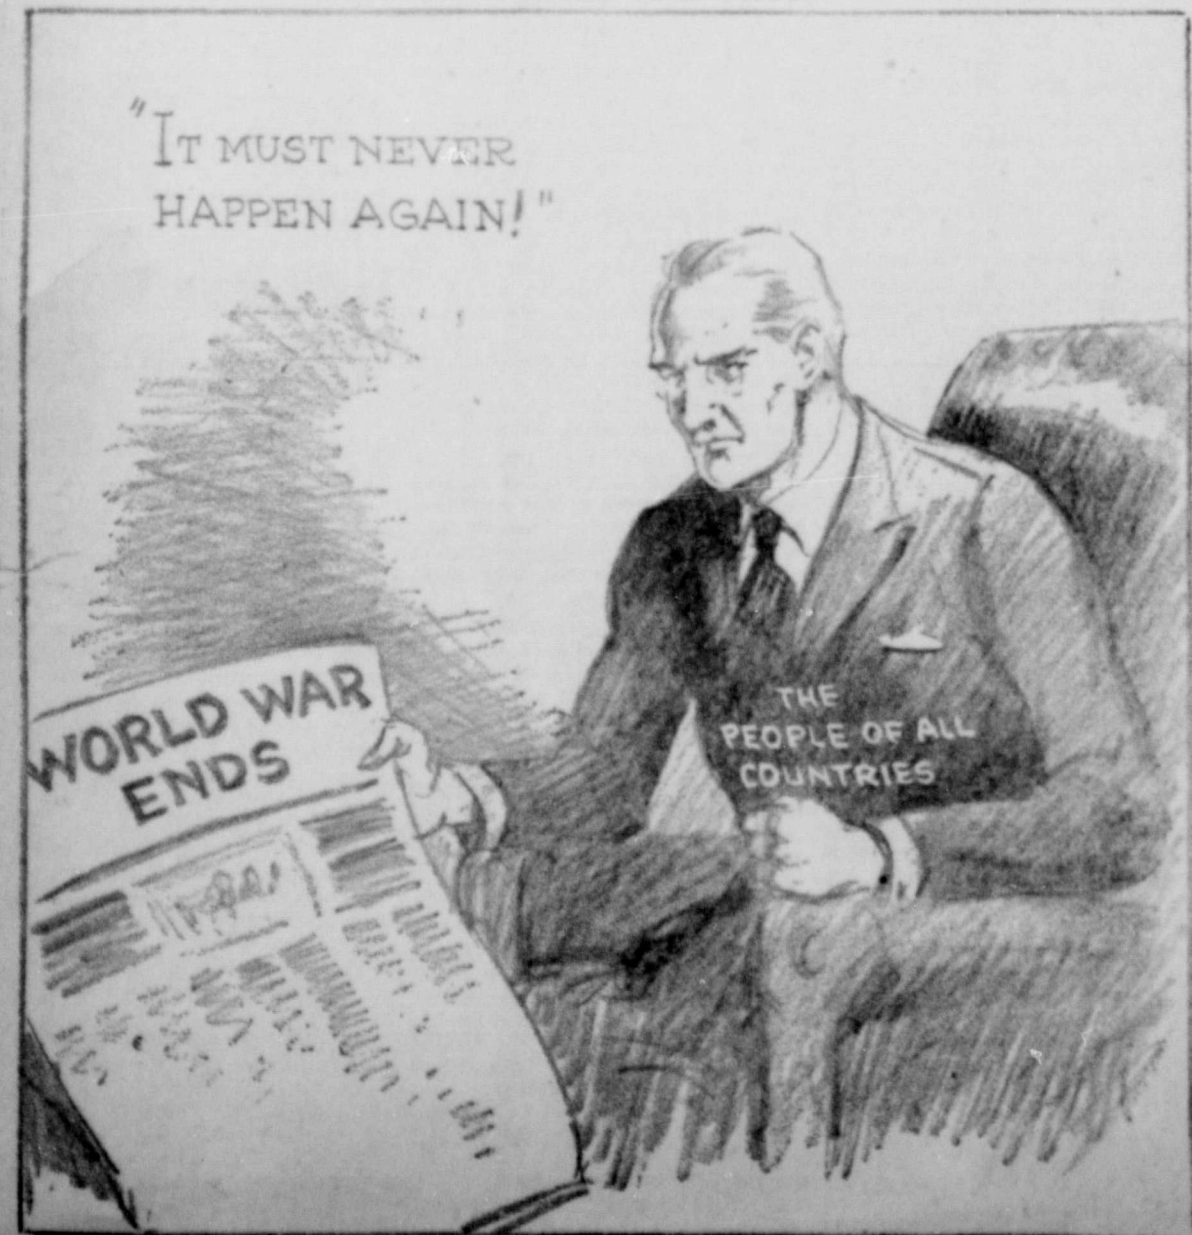

The harder it is to pass a law, to levy more taxes, to legislate on most any subject, the better for the people. Judgment has a better chance to take the place of hysteria.

TAILS FOR THEIR KITES

It is evident that much political medicine is going to be made of the doings or non-doings of the last legislature. Evidences of trial balloons sent up to see which way the wind of sentiment is blowing; scandalously hot blasts pro and con in which names are given, all of which is interesting enough.

The grave matters now before the people, and due to be decided one way or the other within a year or more, must be ridden by men who would hold office. The issues cannot be decided as issues. Probably the people would not take an interest in them in an impersonal form. There must be somebody to vote for or against. Which makes tails for the kites of those who would like to hold public office.

NINETEEN SHORT YEARS AGO

TEACHERS SHOULD BE PATIENT

Texas has never yet completely failed to carry out its promises and we believe there is no reason for the teachers of Texas to be downcast over the fact that the called session of the legislature did not pass a revenue bill to take care of the Teachers Retirement System set up by the legislature and approved by the people.

Teachers are reminded that our great state is now collecting one hundred and fifty million dollars a year in the form of taxes. A lot of people believe that this is a sufficient amount of money to do all the things that are now being done in our state, and do them efficiently, take care of the promise to the teachers, take care of the aged, provide for the blind and the orphan children, and cut the bill a few million on top of that.

The governor and the legislature and the heads of state departments may not get their house in order and do that, but many taxpayers believe they can and should.

And in the case of the teachers it is probably better that no provision at all is made now than that inadequate provision should have been made.

DIRTY STREETS—DIRTY ALLEYS

Several days ago The Hesperian made some comment on how nice it would be to have a street cleaning device that would clean the streets like neighboring cities have. We should know the city is doing the best it can, under the circumstances.

And it would be fine, if before we "ride" the city, we could be assured that every business in Floydada which ought not be violating the city ordinances is not doing so by allowing accumulation of rubbish in the back of their places of business.

Folks who have no money invested in Floydada say their stomachs almost are turned by some of the sights our alleys present. Perhaps we ought to be careful not to complain about the way the city handles its undoubted duty until we see what we do with our own duty,—meaning your own and our own back yards. How long since you cleaned up your back lot, your alley? This, of course, for business men in Floydada who think Floydada ought to be getting more business than it is now.

UNKINDEST CUT OF ALL!

Last week the writer took Nature at her word and announced there would be a freeze on Friday night following publication. We could have given the hour, but felt this unnecessary. Reports from over the area indicate that several farmers drained their tractor radiators, got out their long handled underwear and made other preparations for the cold spell, depending on the infallibility of this newspaper's weather prognostications. A lot of these infernal town fellows scoffed, of course.

To these believers we have to say that henceforth when we report on Nature's doings, we'll just have to tell you what she said she would do. This time we can only say that to him who in the love of nature holds communion with her visible forms, she speaks a varied language, and the old huzzy just naturally spoke a fib. We can't help that.

Education is the cheap defense of nations. —Burke.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

CHARTLESS

By Emilie Dickerson I never saw a moor. I never saw the sea; Yet know I how the heather looks, And what a wave must be.

I never spoke with God, Nor visited in heaven; Yet certain am I of the spot As if the chart were given.

I love poetry, love the rhythm, the thoughts expressed in rhythm. I have two new books of poetry, and thought I would share with you some of the things I like best.

Floydada was a busy place Saturday, and to me a place of unusual interest. I like to watch the people buying nice warm clothing—new shoes and boots—warm blankets—new stoves and good things to eat. I saw two young Indian boys, their straight black hair brushed back and oiled, wearing clothes like the well dressed man of today wears. I thought what a short time it had been since the forefathers had camped where so many people were trading, and the young men were in war paints with feathers in their hair.

A car loaded with trunks bore an Arkansas license. The canning kitchen was a busy place and I had a nice visit with the lady in charge, Mrs. Taylor. "Got a ketch in my gut along?" "What is the price of turkeys and when does the market open?" "I think boots are nice for school girls don't you?" "Yes we have out twenty bales." "Have you seen the oil derricks?" Snatches of conversation on the street. Spent a few minutes in Judge Deen's office. Enjoyed talking with the Judge. He has known us many years. Kind and friendly we always find him.

It looked good seeing the people buying fruit, yellow pears and bananas, red apples, and golden oranges. I remember when I was a child fruit was only to be had around Christmas, then it was lemons, oranges and apples. Bananas were almost unknown. Once when I went with my father to the Dallas Fair I bought two dozen bananas. As I remember now, I ate them all but surely I did not.

I remember Floydada when I went to town, a young woman then. Before cold weather, the country women would go to town. New hats for the women, new hats for the men, One nice dress (a Sunday dress then), yards of gingham, and percale, red flannel for underwear, a bolt of bleached domestic for petticoats and other unmentionable garments. Buttons, pins needles, ribbon—Nothing must be forgotten, there would not be another trip before Christmas. And whisper to the lady clerks about the corsets. Yards and yards of outing, cotton flannel, by the bolt. One woman spent a hundred dollars at one time for winter clothing, and it was the talk of the county. Maybe Ma would have enough money to get a set of dishes. Perhaps Pa would have enough to get him a new pair of pants. His old coat would do.

Times change, but we are glad that we can remember the days that were.

ISSUE OF NOVEMBER 8, 1923

A killing frost fell over Floyd County the morning of November 5, some ten to fifteen days later than usual. Farmers who had feared a hard freeze with the rain the latter part of October, are of the opinion that the frost coming first will have a tendency to season the feedstuff and keep it from falling.

W. B. Close had a good bale of cotton on the market Tuesday that brought him $32.75 per hundred. It was a middling bale or possibly better and likewise had the advantage of the good market that is being maintained by the buyers at Floydada.

Eight carloads of cattle and hogs were sent to market Saturday, out of Floydada, the Kansas City market getting six of the eight. N. A. and T. H. Armstrong were the shippers.

The fire department made a run Friday morning to the home of J. V. Daniel on West Missouri Street, where soot in a flue caught fire at the joint of the stove pipe. The fire was extinguished before the department reached the scene.

An apportionment of $2 per capita was made this week, based on a scholastic population of 2846 in Floyd County, and by E. C. Nelson, Jr., County Superintendent.

WASHINGTON LETTER BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON — At a reported rate of 50 cents a bushel, the government will make loans to farmers on corn, out of an $85,000,000 fund. This is the first step in the direction of a permanent crop loan system. Roosevelt hopes Congress will make it possible to finance future loans of this kind by authorizing Commodity Credit Corporation to raise the necessary money through the sale of its own obligations.

Help for distressed cotton farmers for whose benefit the spending of $130,000,000 has already been authorized, and the recently approved $85,000,000 corn loan, greatly increase the reported $695,000,000 Treasury deficit.

As a temporary measure the R. F. C. will give the Treasury its notes to raise the money for the corn loans, but the plan is to shift this responsibility to Commodity Credit Corporation as soon as Congress acts on farm legislation in special session.

In a letter to Jesse Jones, Chairman of the R. F. C., the President said, "There has been under consideration, as you know, Commodity Credit Corporation loans, including corn loans, aggregating approximately $85,000,000. I have decided to recommend to Congress, as soon as it meets, legislation which will provide the Commodity Credit Corporation with ample capital and with authority to raise the funds necessary for its operation through the sale of its own obligations.... when the legislation referred to has been enacted, the RFC will be relieved of this temporary commitment and reimbursed for any advances made thereunder."

The House Agriculture Committee, busy preparing a farm bill for the extra session, has agreed on voluntary control programs with payments to reward farmers who participate, for all the major crops except tobacco.

Relative to heavy federal spending to insure to the farmer a fair price for his product, it is discouraging to Agriculture officials to find they must revise their estimates of the 1937-38 cotton crop which they said in October would be near 17,400,000 bales. A more recent estimate is about 18,265,000 bales of American cotton for the current season, and the estimate for foreign cotton has been adjusted from 20,100,000 bales to 27,200,000 bales.

Foreign consumption of American cotton in 1936-37 fell off almost 15 per cent but consumption of American cotton in the United States increased to 7,800,000 bales, a new high. A bright spot in the outlook for the cotton situation is the confidence of Agriculture officials that big supplies of American cotton coupled with low prices will make the product of this country increasingly attractive in foreign markets next season.

Having found their former constituents in need of help it is expected that congressmen will return to Washington in sympathy with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace's proposal for an ever normal granary, and willing to create a revolving fund of as much as $800,000,000 to finance it.

New York Gangland Fears Thomas Dewey Who Earns Sobriquet of 'Racket-Buster'

THOMAS EDMUND DEWEY, slight, bristly-mustached 35-year-old lawyer, is New York's number one enemy of public enemies.

They call him the "racket-buster" and for good reason. Gangland and organized crime have come to fear this young man who is making a gallant effort to stamp out the lawless element that has been exacting a terrific toll from the nation's largest city.

Dewey was appointed special prosecutor in 1925, when it became evident that something more than the normal channels of law enforcement were needed to cope with the situation.

Taking over the position when he was only 33, Dewey immediately laid the plans for his war against crime and the rackets.

He insisted on surrounding himself with assistants of his own choosing—for the most part young lawyers not long out of college, who were smart, eager, courageous and not tied up in political alliances.

And so Dewey went to work.

HE broke the famed restaurant racket which had cost New York restaurants millions of dollars. It was just one of the many which had cost employers and unions $100,000,000 in extortion money in some form.

He ferreted out the crooked lawyers, politicians and police. He broke the rackets which attacked the clothing and building trades and the theaters. He cracked down on the loan sharks, the murder merchants and the chiselers. It was a powerful tonic for New York business.

Born in Owosso, Mich., in 1902, Dewey graduated from the University of Michigan and then studied law at Columbia University. He entered a law firm in Manhattan in 1925, and in 1928, just a short while after he was out of school, was appointed chief assistant U. S. attorney in New York.

Dewey first served notice of his energy and ability when he investigated and brought to trial Irving (Waxy Gordon) Wexler, famed beer baron, who subsequently was fined $80,000 and sentenced to 10 years in prison for income tax evasion.

After serving brilliantly in the U. S. attorney's office for five years Dewey resigned to enter private practice.

But his was not to be a career of private endeavor. An illustrious cousin, Admiral George Dewey, was a fighter before him, and Thomas E. Dewey was of the same stock.

NEW YORK needed a fighting man with brains, to combat its criminal menace. Gov. Herbert Lehman called on the brilliant young lawyer and Dewey responded. Today he is a candidate for district attorney of New York.

Joint Hostesses Entertain Honoring Mrs. Russell King

Honoring Mrs. Russell King, a recent bride, Mrs. A. B. Keim, Mrs. Francis Wester, Mrs. Pete Shurbet and Mrs. Odell Winter entertained at the home of Mrs. Keim last Thursday evening with a miscellaneous shower.

On arriving the guests registered in a lovely bride's book and were then invited into the dining room where refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table laid with a lace cloth and centered with a large bouquet of orchid chrysanthemums. Lighted tapers cast a soft light over the room. Mrs. Wester poured tea. Mrs. Odell Winter gave a toast to the bride and Mrs. Shurbet, representing a laundress, in a comic skit guessed who his last package of laundry went to and delivered a basket of gifts to the honoree.

Guests registering in the bride's book were Mrs. Frank L. Moore, Mrs. N. W. Williams, Mrs. Bruce Frogge, Mrs. A. T. Hull, Mrs. E. C. King, Mrs. Noel Troutman, Mrs. Pierce King, Mrs. Jess Brown, Mrs. C. L. Minor, Mrs. Marvin English, Mrs. J. C. Gilliam, Mrs. J. B. Claiborne, Mrs. Greer Christian, Mrs. Layton Dorrell, Misses Inis Dee Fyffe, Blanche King and Louise Hyatt.

Friendship Bridge Club Play At Gilliam Home

Members of the Friendship Bridge Club played in their regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilliam Monday evening. Preceding the games of bridge dinner was served.

Miss Ruth Collins played as guest of the club. Members playing were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arwine, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Keim, Mrs. Walton Hale, Dr. A. E. Guthrie and J. C. Gilliam. Mrs. Bishop and Dr. Guthrie held high score. The club will meet Friday evening November 18. The meeting place to be announced later.

PLAINS MUSIC TEACHERS ASS'N HELD AT LUBBOCK

Several local music teachers attended the South Plains Music Teachers Association held at Lubbock last Saturday evening at the Hilton hotel. A business meeting was held at 5 o'clock followed by a dinner at the hotel at 6:30. Later in the evening pupils of the teachers appeared in a recital at the Senior High school auditorium.

W. B. Irvin, superintendent of Lubbock schools gave the principal address on "Music and Expanding National Life." A pamphlet dedicated to Dr. L. A. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, and Miss Nell Parmley, state director of music, was presented at the dinner by Miss Margaret Huff. Dr. Wood and Miss Parmley were guests at the meeting.

Mrs. E. C. Thomas presented Lajuana Liebried and Netha Denson in a duet, "In a Polish Garden." Mrs. Lorin Leibfried and Lajuana Jo Sharp accompanied Mrs. Thomas and her pupils. Mrs. Pearl Pagan also had two of her pupils entered.

Miss Muriel Pagan played a solo, "Serenade" (Verdi) and Miss Pagan and Thomas Cox played, "Airs from 'Il Trovatore'" (Verdi) in a duet.

GARDEN CLUB TO HOLD RUMMAGE SALE SATURDAY

Members of the Garden Club will hold a rummage sale Saturday at the Brown building to raise funds to carry on their beautification of the park on the Plainview highway. This is a project the club has been working on for some time and is of interest to the entire community.

Any articles that can be donated for sale will be appreciated by the club. If articles cannot be brought Mrs. Jack Henry, Mrs. Luther Fry or Mrs. E. L. Angus will call for them. The club has the picnic tables and benches ready for use and barbecue pits are being built as well as a number of other improvements being made. Due to the shortage of funds the club is asking the public to help.

Those having articles they can donate are asked to call before Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

BERT IONE SMITH PLEDGED TO COLLEGE LITERARY CLUB

Mrs. G. R. May recently received a letter from her daughter, Bert Ione Smith telling her she was pledged to the James H. Lowry Club at Texas State Women's College at Denton. This is a literary and social club of the college.

Mrs. Smith is a sophomore and a speech major this year.

David Luther Simpson, of Sparta Tennessee, is here for a three months visit with his uncle W. H. Simpson and family.

MRS. LIDER ENTERTAINS S. S. CLASS IN SOCIAL

The Amosa Sunday School class of the First Baptist Church was entertained by their teacher, Mrs. G. A. Lider, last Thursday evening in a social and business meeting. Miss Opal Patton, president, presided at the business meeting. Each member contributed a doll and a box was packed for Buckner Orphans Home. Twenty-one dolls were sent by the class.

A social hour followed when delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the class members. Those present were Misses Reba Copeland, Ina Sims, Helen Jones, Faye Newell, Eula Mae Cates, Alva Weatherford, Emma Rose Stewart, Agnes Porter, Opal and Bernice Patton, Lois Potts and Chloilda Abernathy, Mrs. Mildred Fuqua, Mrs. L. W. Chapman, Mrs. Harold Merrick, Mrs. Pauline Williams and Mrs. Mildred Finley, Mrs. Delbert Eubanks, Mrs. A. T. Hull, Mrs. Polk Goen and Miss Johnnie Johnson sent dolls.

FLOYDADA HIGH JUNIORS GIVE PLAY AT SAND HILL NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Junior Class of Floydada High School will present a play, "The Heart Exchange" at the Sand Hill auditorium Wednesday evening, November 17. Miss Reba Copeland sponsor of the Junior class said yesterday. There will be an admission charge of ten and twenty cents.

This play is a side spitting comedy with plenty of mistaken identity and loads of fun for all the spectators. Of course the hero has a beautiful girl who has an old maid aunt, there is a daisy English maid, a light weight prize fighter, a cook or two to season the dish and the results—"The Heart Exchange."

Buster and Virginia Simpson, students of Texas Tech. College, spent the week end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson.

On The Garden Path

A number of native shrubs have long been used to dress up Texas yards, and they are very successful. Among these may be mentioned yucca, which is one of the best broad-leaved evergreens available; bird-of-paradise, a brilliant flowering shrub; seneca, the gray-leaved flowering evergreen; century plant, Spanish dagger, redbud, desert-willow, which has both pink and yellow flowering forms; American holly, autumn sage, and live oak.

Many native plants deserve wider use. We suggest agave, an evergreen with intriguing foliage; huisache and other acacias, most of them fully as striking as golden bell of forsythia; mimosa, Anisacanthus wrightii, a low shrub with a salmon-colored flower; Apache plume, Aralia spinosa or Hercules-club, dusty-miller, coral berry, Spanish mulberry, hawthorn, dogwood, Texas ebony—the list might be continued almost indefinitely. Not all of these are adapted to all parts of the state or to all locations, but there are so many different kinds that something suitable can be found for any location.

Mrs. G. A. Lider Hostess To 1922 Study Club

Mrs. G. A. Lider was hostess to the 1922 Study Club in their regular meeting last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. O. P. Rutledge presided over the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. R. E. Fry.

An interesting peace program was given with Mrs. Glad Snodgrass as leader. J. C. Gilliam was introduced as guest speaker and talked on the American Peace policy and present peace negotiations; Mrs. L. G. Mathews gave a book review on the biography of Woodrow Wilson.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Snodgrass with Mrs. Mathews, Mrs. Lider, Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, Mrs. Lon M. Davis and Mrs. Kenneth Bain as assistant hostesses November 18 at 3:30. A Thanksgiving program will be given with Mrs. W. P. Jennings of Plainview to give a book review. Each member will invite a guest.

Wednesday Luncheon Club Met With Mrs. Reagan

Wednesday Luncheon Club members met yesterday with Mrs. John Reagan as hostess. Beautiful vases of chrysanthemums were placed about the rooms where two tables were laid for the luncheon and games of bridge. Mrs. Richard Stovall received high score.

Members playing were Mrs. J. A. Arwine, Mrs. L. T. Bishop, Mrs. P. Collins, Mrs. Walton Hale, Mrs. C. L. Minor, Mrs. W. L. Fry, Mrs. A. B. Keim and Mrs. Stovall. Mrs. Stovall will be hostess to the club November 24 at 12:30.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Smith

Members of the Garden Club met last Friday morning with Mrs. G. V. Smith as hostess.

In the business meeting reports were made on the improvement done at the park as tables and benches being completed, the ground prepared and ready for sodding and city water is being piped over the plot. About 100 feet of pipe has been donated by each lumber yard for the job.

Plans were discussed for the clean up and beautification of the park which the club will sponsor next spring. People living in rooms will be asked to join as well as the home owners as window boxes and door way contests will be included. In the down town district merchants will be eligible not only in the clean up program but very small plots be planted with flowers to add to the attractiveness of their places.

Mrs. Roy Snodgrass will be hostess to the club in their meeting the first Friday in February.

Bridge Dinner Given Mrs. W. L. Murray

Miss Ruth Jenkins entertained Tuesday evening with a lovely appointed bridge dinner honoring Mrs. William L. Murray of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. A delectable three course dinner was served from tables with bouquets of chrysanthemums as table centers and vases of flowers in the rooms. Games of contract bridge were played following the dinner.

Those enjoying the lovely affair were Mrs. L. J. Welborn, Mrs. Terrell Loran, Mrs. Polk Goen, Mrs. Lucian Morehead of Plainview, Mrs. Clinton Fyffe, Mrs. J. B. Claiborne and the honoree, Mrs. Murray. Mrs. Goen held high score.

Robt. A. Sone, former Floyd County attorney, now at Corpus Christi, was in Floydada Tuesday and Wednesday visiting friends and attending to business. He is in this section this week to represent a client in the District Court of Hale County, now in session.

Jame Badgett, student of W. T. S. T. C. college at Canyon, has been home for the past two weeks on account of illness. He plans to return to school Monday if his condition continues to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swinson and daughter, Neil, left Sunday for Dallas where Mrs. Swinson goes for a check up following an operation several weeks ago. While gone they will visit relatives at Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sims city, and daughter, Mrs. Delbert Jones of Clovis, New Mexico left this morning for Arcadia, Louisiana, for a ten day visit with relatives. Miss Faye Newell accompanied them to Terrell where she will visit with her aunt, Mrs. L. H. Liston.

Mrs. B. O. Cloud, Mrs. R. C. Henry, Mrs. I. W. Hicks, Mrs. G. A. Lider and Mrs. W. H. Cline spent Tuesday afternoon in Plainview visiting with Mrs. J. H. Myers, who is convalescing in a hospital there following an operation last week end.

R. T. Stribling, former resident of the county for a number of years, is here this week, a witness in district court. His home now is at Fort Stockton where he is successfully operating an irrigated cotton farm.

Mrs. J. D. McBrien, Mrs. E. P. Nelson and Mrs. L. J. Welborn were in Plainview Tuesday. While there they visited with Mrs. J. H. Myers in the Plainview hospital.

Baptist Convention At El Paso Closes Today

Today brings to a close the Baptist State Convention in El Paso where members of the denomination from over the entire state had met for the past three days. Dr. George W. Trullitt, president of the World Baptist Alliance, presided over the meetings and Mrs. Trullitt was the principal speaker for the Woman's work. Rev. E. S. James, pastor of the First Baptist church at Vernon spoke Monday night on "The Church." Rev. James conducted a revival here in August.

Rev. Vernon Shaw, pastor of the local church, left for El Paso Monday morning. He was accompanied by his brother, Rev. A. A. Shaw of Lockney and several other pastors from neighboring towns. Mrs. Clarence Boothe went from Dimmitt with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boothe.

Rev. Tyler Returned To Floydada Nazarene Charge By Conference

Rev. N. E. Tyler has been returned to the Floydada charge of the Nazarene Church for another year of work, assignments having been made last week at the annual conference of the area held in Wichita Falls. Concerning his work here for the ensuing year, Rev. Tyler said yesterday:

"Having been assigned Floydada again at our conference in Wichita Falls we are here to serve Floydada if possible in a better way than ever before. We say to any and all, call on us any time day or night. We will do our best for you, striving to be a friend to all."

Texas Tech Exes At Home-Coming Today

Ex-students of Texas Tech are attending the annual home-coming celebration today at Lubbock. The celebration opened last night with a huge bonfire, the first in five years, an open air program and dance last night. The high lights of today's program will be a chuck wagon dinner and at noon the Tech-Duquesne university football game this afternoon.

According to Miss Maxine Fry, Student Council president the pep rally last evening was the greatest home coming event in the history of the college. Various campus clubs are sponsoring special entertainments for their former exes, among these being a breakfast given by the home economics seniors for their alumni this morning at 9 o'clock, and to which Miss Jean Bain, city, and Miss Mary Leda McAdams of Lockney, left early this morning to attend. Misses Bain and McAdams will remain over for a home economics conference of this district to be held there Friday.

A number of other ex-students from Floydada are in Lubbock today to attend the homecoming.

SECOND SUNDAY SINGING

The regular Second Sunday Singing will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Missionary Baptist Church located in the south part of Floydada on the highway.

A cordial invitation is extended to anyone that likes good singing to attend the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harmon and children spent the week end in Abilene at the homecoming of the McMurray College where their son, F. C. Jr., is in school.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stewart and children, H. B. Jr., and Billy Louise, from Pampa visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cowan and family and Troy Leonard and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Emmond of Plainview spent Wednesday as guest of Mrs. J. D. Sparks. Mrs. Emmond will be remembered as Miss Minnie Holt.

Mrs. L. G. Mathews returned home Monday night from Denver, Colorado where she had been since Friday with her daughter, Irene, a student in Colorado Woman's College.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Erb visited from last Thursday until Saturday with friends and relatives in Olson. L. C. McDonald and Lee Wilkinson made a business trip to Amarillo Monday.

Methodists Hold Fourth Quarterly Conference Tuesday Night With 200 Present

Quannah Is Host For Annual Methodist Conference November 17

Approximately 200 persons were present for the Fourth Quarterly Conference and Fellowship meeting at the First Methodist Church last night.

A regular supper was served by the women and later E. E. White, presiding elder, held conference. Mrs. A. D. Cummings presented a piano solo and Walter Norris spoke to the group on "Tithing."

Carl Minor was elected superintendent of the adult division, Lorin Leibfried, superintendent of the young people's division, and Mrs. Jno. E. Eldridge as superintendent of the children's division.

C. L. Travis was elected as superintendent of the intermediate department and Mrs. Lola Galloway as superintendent of the junior department.

Stewards for the coming year will be G. D. Dennison, R. A. Garrett, George Finkner, E. E. Hinson, W. L. Leibfried, John McKinley, L. G. Mathews, S. W. Ross, Dr. George V. Smith, C. L. Travis, N. W. Williams, and J. M. Willson.

Church In Good Condition
The laymen expressed themselves that the church was in a better condition than in a number of years. The whole church program has been carried out and prospects are fine for the payment of all salaries, benevolences, and indebtedness.

A large delegation from Floydada is expected to attend the annual conference at Quannah. The official representatives will be Rev. and Mrs. Jno. E. Eldridge and J. M. Willson who is a district delegate. The church has asked unanimously for the return of the Rev. Eldridge as pastor here.

Approximately 250 Methodist ministers and 100 laymen will meet in Quannah November 17 when the twenty-eighth annual session of the Northwest Texas Conference convenes for a five-day meet. Bishop Hiram A. Boaz will preside for his eighth consecutive time.

The assignment of ministers for the ensuing 12 months, the selection of three new presiding elders to succeed incumbents who have served their quadrenniums are the outstanding features of the session.

Incumbents who will retire from the eldership are Rev. C. A. Long Abilene district; W. M. Pearce, Lubbock district, and W. C. Hinds of the Perryton district.

Bishop Hiram A. Boaz, who will preside at the Quannah session, has served it as president eight years, but will be replaced after this session.

The bishop, with his nine presiding elders, comprises the cabinet which makes the appointment of ministers for the new year. Since its first session in 1910 at Clarendon, the Northwest Texas Conference has been held four times there, and at Abilene, three times at Plainview, twice at Vernon, Sweetwater, Lubbock, and Amarillo, and once at Big Springs, Childress, Stamford, Memphis, Quannah, Canyon, Pampa, and Houston.

The only extensive requests for the 1938 session have come from Memphis, however Lubbock will probably be a contender.

MRS. SWINSON HOSTESS TO ALATHEAN S. S. CLASS

Charley Jones, son of C. S. Jones a long-time resident of Floyd county, has entered the used furniture business here.

Jones has been actively engaged in the furniture business at Amarillo for the last five years and has brought his stock of used furniture from there to stock his building.

The new business is located in the building formerly occupied by the C. Suringer Hardware store on the north side of the square. The Suringer Hardware will be located one door east of its old location according to information.

Jones said that he intended to make his home here permanently if his business would warrant. "I buy, sell, or trade furniture," he stated and invited Floydada customers to visit him and inspect his stock of furniture.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander had as her guest Monday afternoon her son, E. G. Alexander of Plainview.

AIRLINE PASSENGERS SEE STRANGE LAND PATTERNS

Sky-travelers these days often see strange land patterns from the air. Ordinarily they look down on checkerboard fields with straight crop rows, but occasionally an un-geometrical design which curves and twists with no apparent rhyme or reason meets their gaze. These weird-looking areas, the Soil Conservation Service explains, are simply farms laid out on the contour with crop rows winding around the slope. Every furrow is on the level—to trap rainwater and prevent soil erosion.

Sunday School Lesson
International Sunday School Lesson For November 14, 1937.
Ideals For Christian Ministers.
Golden Text:—Neglect not the gift that is in thee. I Timothy 4:14.
Lesson Text:—I Timothy, Chapter 4: 11 Timothy 2: 1-4.
Printed Text:—I Timothy 4: 6-16; I Timothy 2: 1-4; I Timothy 4: 6-16.

6 If thou put the breathers in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that they profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself and them.

17 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

18 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

19 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

20 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

21 Time and Place.—I Timothy written A. D. 63 or 66; II Timothy A. D. 67, in Rome.

Of particular value not only for ministers but for all who will study it, is a lesson on the high ideas of Christian ministry.

In Paul's letter to Timothy, whom he regarded as his son in the faith and as man particularly called to the ministry of the Gospel, high standards are clearly set forth. It is appropriate and necessary that they be recalled at the present time.

He must be first of all, a man of godliness. That is, he must strive to have a character like that of the God whom he worships, and an attitude of love and graciousness toward his fellowmen in harmony with the Gospel of the love of God. A true minister of Jesus Christ must be an example to others "in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, and purity."

cher, instructing others that they may also become teachers. He must not look for a life of ease, but must think of himself as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, willing to suffer hardship, and keeping himself clear from entangling alliances that he may be free to serve.

Obviously, the power of such a minister and the effect of his ministry depend upon those who are under his care. People have a right to expect great things of ministers, but only insofar as in their own hearts and lives they approve of the ideal that they set up for the minister. The worth, power, and effectiveness of the Christian minister in his church and community depend more than is commonly recognized upon the attitude of the laymen.

There is a story told of a church that had had for many years the ministry of a great and brilliant man. It is said that when the end of this man's ministry came and the responsible laymen of the church were looking for a successor, they said, "We shall not seek a man whose record and attainment are comparable to the great minister who has served us. We shall look, rather, for a young man of devotion and promise, and the church will make him."

The man whom they called became internationally known as a great preacher and leader. It was not quite true that the church made him, for he had the qualifications of greatness in him; but even this man of influence could not have wielded such power in pulpit and pastorate if he had not the strong support and confidence of the wise laymen of that church.

When later in his life this minister went to another distinguished church, his ministry lacked something of the power and effect that it formerly had, because he did not find the support of laymen of similar vision and devotion.

If there be a church suffering anywhere from an ineffective ministry, let the laymen take the situation to heart, not in narrow criticism, not in faultfinding, not in weakening the resources of the minister, but in giving him a new attitude of support in prayer, in encouragement, and if he be in critical suggestion, with kindness and constructive purpose.

The church needs today more than anything else intelligent co-operation and mutual understanding between laymen and ministers; and this can be developed by a careful study of such lessons as this.

MONOPLANE GLIDERS OFFERED TO BOYS AND GIRLS

Grocers Will Explain Full Details of This Offer

The Hesperian through the courtesy of The Quaker Oats Company is offering every child in this trade area the latest model Wright Dayton Monoplane. And what fun the kiddies will get out of this wood constructed glider. Launched with a rubber band it will fly far and high... loop-the-loop... bank... glide... and land like a big plane.

Furthermore, every boy and girl can be an ace pilot of this Monoplane Glider because of its self-operating feature. For example—in one of the stunt performances this feature permits the plane to automatically adjust itself from a straight-away-flight into a loop. Then it straightens out and glides to the ground.

But in addition to having loads of fun with this glider boys and girls can really learn the fundamental principles of the man-sized planes. For this glider was designed by one of the famous Wright Brothers.

Information on how to get the Monoplane Glider free with Quaker Oats trademarks is available at all grocers.

Classes Outline Plans For The Year; Juniors To Present Play Nov. 19

SENIOR CLASS
The seniors are harboring the idea of a class meeting once a week during the period between 8:30 and 9:00 o'clock. The meeting heretofore have been at check; this is not a very good time to have meetings because everyone is anxious to leave. Miss Cade and Mr. King agreed with us. Mr. King said he imagined we would be overly anxious to have meetings because we might accidentally miss part of the first period.

Another suggestion given by a member of the class was that the entire school should remain about five minutes after school on the days we have football games and give our boys a real send off. The class project is being mentioned by the students. It has not been discussed in a meeting yet. Some want a new curtain for the auditorium; some want a new piano; some don't know what they want now, but you may be sure we will have something good.

Junior Class
The Junior class is noted for its many activities this year. Although it has already set a rapid pace with class meetings and carnival, it is planning still more exciting festivals.

The Junior play, which is to be given November 19, is titled "Heart Exchange," and it is expected to be one of the best comedy attempts in the history of F. H. S. The plot deals with the romantic entanglements that can take place in a matrimonial agency when two financially embarrassed college students take charge of the "hearty" affairs. The play is hilarious from the beginning to the last curtain and is capably performed by Harold Cochran, Robert Scott, Gloria Hammonds, Judson Abernathy, Dorothy Dell Stovall, Sappho Ward, Mary Katherine Daniel, Olin Watson, Nell Patton, James Burrus, Jack McIntosh, and Ester Pinkner.

One of the junior high lights of the year will be the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. All the ingenious originality of the juniors will be directed into making the banquet one of the best ever given. The Junior class is proud to announce that it has a new member, Aileen Bussey.

Several junior class members were out of town over the week end. Those were Olin Watson, Dorothy Dell Stovall, Gloria Hammonds, and Josephine Troutman.

Sophomore Class
In the past two weeks two new members have been added to the sophomores. They are Alice Bell, who has been attending Groesmont High in California and La Verne Tansell from Quanah. This makes a total of eighty-two pupils in the 1937 class. The whole class is glad to have Alice and La Verne and hopes that they find this year in F. H. S. very pleasant.

The sophomore girls have some what of a record of being the second best in attendance. The seniors are the only ones who have surpassed them. Although the class has not had much activity, so far, they are looking forward to the rest of the year and the Freshman-Sophomore follies. The follies is to be the big event, showing the sophomores class is the best class in putting over those one act plays.

Freshman Class
The freshman class of 1937 is taking active part in all that goes on this year in school. As a matter of fact we don't believe they are left out of anything.

It is the second largest class in high school this year. However the boys outnumber the girls by 11. To begin with, we are very proud of our six freshman football players. In the pep squad you will find five freshman peppers. Ten freshmen make up almost half of the band. Over half in the class of freshman girls are new members of the Home Ec.

In addition to this the freshman class is not behind on talents. The freshman have an ear for music; we have quite a few pianists, two, the school has already discovered. The class is waiting for the time to come when the school calls for declaimers.

Green Peppers
The Green Peppers are full of spunk and spontaneous energy, and are behind those Whirlwinds in victory or defeat. They were boasting the Whirlwinds at the game Friday night and just to arouse pep they staged one of the most enthusiastic pep rallies ever known. Banners and flags of encouragement for the Whirlwinds were carried and thrown in the bonfire Friday night at the half, the pep squad gave a clever formation. They formed an "F" for Floydada and a "P" for Paducah. The lights were turned out and the letters were lit up by sparklers carried by each girl.

Despite the defeat of the Whirlwinds the Green Peppers are yelling for them. Yea team fight harder, yea team fight harder. Yea team fight, fight, fight. We like you, we love you. We'll stick to you tight. But oh you Whirlwinds. Fight, fight, fight.

One Minute Interviews

Question: Do you think a student Council would improve the high school system?
Louise Wilson: "I think it would be a swell idea and would be a lot of help."

James Gibbs: "It would be ok."
Mary Jo Horn: "I think a student council would promote the activities of Floydada High School."

Marjorie Kirk: "I think a student council would bring closer cooperation among the students."
La Nell Harmon: "I certainly think it would be an improvement to the school."

Olin Watson: "It wouldn't make any difference what I said anyway."
Ruth Kreis: "I think a student council would be very beneficial."
James Wilson: "I am in favor of it."

Legs: "It would be a good idea."
Reid: "I think it would bring a better understanding of school problems."
Mr. Davis principal: "I am not in favor of it."

Editors And Sponsors Leave Tomorrow For Texas Tech Press Meet

Editors of the Hesperian and Miss Rees will attend the West Texas Scholastic Press Club tomorrow, which was postponed from November 5.

Problems of the individual editors, reporters and sponsors will be discussed. Copies of the last edition of each school's paper will be on exhibit. Articles and form of the paper will be criticized and suggestions will be rendered. Speakers are to include Jimmie Gilentine, editor of the Hereford Brand; Forrest Weimhold, editor of the Sudan News; Charles A. Guy, editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal; Mrs. Louise C. Allen, journalism instructor from Texas Tech; Culver C. Hill, advertising instructor at Tech; Winston Reeves, photographer and engraver and R. C. Hankins, city editor of the Avalanche Journal.

Miss Eula McCarkle, sponsor of the All-American Cowboy World of Lubbock Junior High School, and Miss Addison have been invited to lead discussion groups Saturday morning.

The one social event is the informal banquet Friday evening in Doak Hall at Texas Tech, out of town delegates will be guests of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce at this banquet.

Give me your love and I can make
The most impossible dreams come true.
Blue shadows never,
Sunshine forever,
Roses in December for you.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

MEET TUESDAY AFTERNOON
The Foreign Language Club met Tuesday afternoon, November 9, at 3:15 o'clock.
After the business was discussed, the club was entertained by the visiting girls trio, Dorothy Dell Stovall, Sappho Ward, and Gloria Hammonds, who sang Spanish numbers. The rest of the time was spent learning group songs, consisting of Spanish and Latin songs.

The president appointed a new program committee, Jean Sims, Lela May Hicks, and King Puckett. The meeting adjourned.

HOME ECONOMICS TEACHERS ATTEND AMARILLO MEET

Miss Rees and Miss Fouts attended a district Home Economics meeting in Amarillo last Friday. Miss Esther Sorenson, district supervisor, presided at the meeting. She introduced various states and local officials who discussed Home Economics in relation to both civic and home activities.

Miss Sorenson presented and discussed the new course of study with the sixty-five Home Economics teachers who were present.

Kampus Kaypers

Alvis, better known as Punk, really believes that ducks look like a lid on lakes. Here, here, we just nearly have some alliteration!

What little girl was plenty angry when accused of two-timing? Just think nothing of it—we know you don't two-time; neither does he?

Ladies and gentlemen one of the best clubs you may join this year is the "Good Post Wrapping Club!" There is a happy group of old maids and do they blow and go when on top of the North Pole.

Somer, must you go down the pep squad row asking for Bates? Why does Leeman say, after he turns on the gas (Gee, I smell gas.) There were few survivors in the pep squad, after Floydada was defeated Friday night. Better luck next time boys. We know you still have that "Whirlwind spirit." No matter how many games we lose.

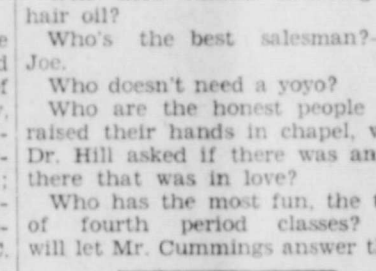

From what I hear, I think a few people would like to know just who wrote some certain articles that appeared in the "Kampus Kaypers," last week.

Boy, oh boy, was there ever any mud slinging in this column. Well I'm asking you. Don't we have fun. What was the matter pep girls? Wouldn't your sparklers light or did you need spontaneous combustion.

How come Paducah's pep squad to disappear Friday night. Sorry our grandstands won't hold up girls. Don't tell me those frolicing juniors and seniors are having another dance up at Bobby's tonight? Well so goes the world.

WHO?

Who can tell when the weather is going to change by his aching feet?
Who blushed so when she was called in in Civics class? Edna Mae what's wrong?
Who is prissy and even admits it? Who uses vanilla flavoring for hair oil?
Who's the best salesman?—Oh Joe.
Who doesn't need a yoyo?
Who are the honest people that raised their hands in chapel, when Dr. Hill asked if there was anyone there that was in love?
Who has the most fun, the third of fourth period classes? We will let Mr. Cummings answer that.

The formal initiation of Green Hands will be held Tuesday night. To become a Green Hand a boy must be enrolled in agriculture, have plans for a supervised project program, pay state and national dues and be able to recite the Future Farmer creed. Thirty-two boys can qualify for this degree.
As a means of identifying the homes of Future Farmers a project marker will be placed in front or near each boy's home. This marker is neatly made of metal, bearing the National F. F. A. emblem and will be mounted on painted support.
Several members of the F. F. A. have purchased coats or jackets with the Future Farmer national emblem on the back. Other members are setting the emblem and putting them on jackets they already have. Clifford Daniel was elected Farm Watch Dog of the Floydada F. F. A. at the last meeting. The duty of the watch dog is to attend the door and compares with a sergeant-of-arms in other organizations.

GRUMMISH ATTENDS BAND MEET AT TEXAS TECH

Carrol Grummish, band director at Floydada High School, attended the meeting of the Texas Band and Orchestra Directors' Association meeting which was held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week in Lubbock.

The meeting consisted of lectures and demonstrations of the problems that confront directors, such as: beginners; string, woodwind and brass players, balancing the band, class methods of instruction using the method adopted by the State department of education.

Several noted directors were present. The Texas Tech band held a concert Thursday night and a banquet was held in the Lubbock Hotel Friday night.

The Saturday meeting consisted of drum major beta drilling, marching formations, and field tactics.

SOCIETY

MISS MARY LOUISE MEDLIN ENTERTAINED SATURDAY
Mary Frances Williams of Paducah was the guest of Mary Louise Medlin, over the week-end.

Saturday night Miss Medlin was hostess to a group of friends. The party was given in honor of Miss Williams.

The evening was spent making candy, and popping pop corn. The following were present: Dorothy Dell Stovall, Nell Patton, Mary Katherine Daniels, Jane Clark, the honoree Mary Frances Williams, and the hostess Mary Louise Medlin.

Whirlwinds Meet Sixth Conference For Today In Last Home Game

The Floydada Whirlwinds will play the Matador Matadors this afternoon at 2:30 on Wester Field. It will be a grudge battle between the teams. The Matador coach is a former Whirlwind coach.

Floydada will go in to this game, as usual, the underdog. The Matador squad is a much heavier team than the Floydada Squad. The race as far as the district champion-Whirlwinds are out of the conference ship goes. Floydada has been defeated by Flomot and Paducah.

Flomot will win the district unless they are defeated by Estelline or Lockney otherwise they will repeat for the District 4-B champion ship.

The winner of this district will play Wellington or the winner of District 3-B. The Skyrockets are undoubtedly the strongest class B team in the Panhandle.

But nevertheless, come out and see Floydada and Matador get together on Wester Field.

PADUCAH DRAGONS STOP WHIRLWINDS FRIDAY 6 TO 0

The Floydada Whirlwinds were defeated by the Paducah Dragons on Wester Field last Friday Night 6 to 0.

In a game packed with thrills the hard working Whirlwinds nearly up-set the dope bucket. The Whirlwinds held the Dragons at bay until the last quarter, when the Dragons started a march down the field that netted them six points.

For Floydada McClung started, and for Paducah, Merrill and Hindman were standouts. With McClung's power, the Floydada team went down the field but failed to gain any dirt.

Merrill and Hindman did most of the ball carrying for Paducah and Merrill with his shifty feet did wonders for his team, and Hindman had the power. Floydada had to pass the last half when power failed to go. But these passes could not make enough yards.

The starting lineup for Floydada was Orman and Smith, ends; Williams and Rainer, tackles; Martin and Jarboe, guards, and Montgomery center; Smith and Willson, halves; McClung, fullback, and Lider, quarter.

Floydada Schools Get Holiday For Armistice

Superintendent A. D. Cummings announced that the Floydada Schools would be dismissed all day today, but that classes would be resumed tomorrow.

The Floydada-Matador fracas is scheduled to take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon on Wester Field. Since this is the last home game for the Whirlwinds the fans will have to see the boys this game or travel to Spur to see the final wind-up.

Writing fluids, Hesperian.

SENIORS EXPRESS THANKS FOR HELP ON RUMMAGE SALE

The Seniors like rummage sales, and, as a result, are planning another. The result was encouraging, but the students realize that their success is due to the help of everyone.

Especially are they grateful to the Brown and Williams' Sound System for their advertising the Brown Bros. for the use of their building, the Texas Utilities Company for the donations of lights, to Mr. Harmon for the stove, and everyone (stores, citizens, and students) who assisted in any way. The class wishes to express its kindest appreciation to its sponsors: Miss Cade and Mr. King.

Other people have promised to give things for our next sale which will be appreciated. Our second sale will be held November 20. This sale will be as good, if not better, than our first. To all of these people the class expresses its sincerest appreciation.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS PLAN MEETING WITH F. F. A. BOYS
The local club of the Future Homemakers of Texas met yesterday at noon in the study hall. Most of the time was spent in a business meeting. Plans for the district meeting were discussed.

Miss Fouts a short talk about the teacher's meeting in Amarillo last Friday. Miss Rees read the various ways of making points in the club. The three girls with the highest number of points will each be awarded a pen next spring.

One of the most interesting things discussed was the joint meeting with the Future Farmers of America, which will be the last of the month. Committees from both clubs have been appointed to work out details for the meeting.

MISS JEAN BAIN TO TEACH IN MEADOW HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Jean Bain will leave this week-end for Meadow where she will begin work as teacher of home economics in the Meadow high school effective November 15. She will succeed Miss Bettie Stuart who has resigned to begin work as superintendent of home management plan with headquarters at San Angelo.

Miss Bain, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Kenneth Bain, has been supervisor of the WPA sewing project in Floydada since receiving her degree from Texas Tech at the close of last school year.

Whirlwinds To Blow Against The Matadors In Conference Battle

The twice blanked and defeated Floydada Whirlwinds will make an effort to climb back nearer the conference lead this afternoon when they will try to blow the capes from the Matador Matadors on West Field.

The game is called for 3 o'clock. A good crowd is expected for the struggle since the students of the school will be given a holiday and some of the business houses will probably close for the event.

The Whirlwinds have buffed and puffed futilely against Flomot and Paducah, threatening in each game to blow a hurricane but each time dropping to a mere summer breeze in the last quarter.

Weather Man Odell Winter is expected to have a storm brewing for the Matadors and if the "long-looked-for" hurricane develops the Matadors will probably return home minus their back and red capes and a victory.

If the Whirlwinds can get a scoring combination going that will make touchdowns instead of first downs and penetrations there is a good chance that the fans will not return home disappointed.

Coach Winter's boys will be in better shape than against the Dragons, yet several were bruised and battered in that game and will not be in top form.

The Matadors have been an "up and down" ball club all season. They put the "bee" on Spur and scattered the Plainview Bulldogs almost out of his skin before the Bulldogs could come from behind to win.

Flomot won rather easily last Friday but the Matadors are going to be after a conference win to chalk up in the "won" column. The Floydada-Matador game should be a toss-up but upsets and reversals

PICK YOUR TEAM

With the football season drawing near a close and selection of all kinds being made, why not let the fans get in a punch.

Here it is. Get a post card (or write a letter) and put down your choices for an all-district team and also your choice for the most valuable player on the Floydada Whirlwind squad. Mail that card (or letter) to this department. All opinions will be kept confidential, but please sign your name.

No one is barred, and no eligible player on any team in this district is out. And while you are at it you might pick the coach to show them their tricks.

are too common to mention this season.

The Whirlwinds are due to hit the jack-pot, so it looks like a sad Armistice for Matador.

Football News In Other Camps

A 34-Minute Club?

During the last two games the Whirlwinds seem to be jinxed the last quarter of the game. Against Flomot the game was sewed up until the last two minutes, and against Paducah the fatal stroke fell the last six minutes.

The Whirlwinds travel like their namesake during the first half and make enough first downs to score a couple of touches and then bog down during that last quarter.

Well, your guess is as good as the next. The steady battering for three quarters takes the pep out of Coach Winter's youngsters quicker than from a more experienced and heavier ball club. In every game the Whirlwinds have been outweighed but not outfought.

It takes a lot of energy to keep blocking and tackling a "good" big man time after time even if you are his size but if he is bigger it takes a lot more.

That is this scribe's guess of "why the weakness during the last quarter."

Paducah Good Club

Paducah had a good club and they were out to knock the dope bucket over. Two straight defeats had "ripped" them up and Green and White didn't make them any happier, so they pulled the same stunt Texas U pulled on Baylor, they played "inspired" ball.

True the Dragons caught the Whirlwinds in a bad shape. Hollingsworth, shifty footed halfback and pass snatcher de-luxe, was dead on his feet from a two day sick spell. Orman, Whirlwind wingman, was "stove up" with a battered chest. Sprained wrists and sore feet were plentiful. The Flomot scrap left the Whirlwinds battered and bruised and about ready for the scrap heap, and then had to face a raging Dragon that wouldn't be whipped.

Flomot Comes Through

Flomot didn't come out of the Whirlwind-Lochhorn battle without some hard knocks either. Amorette was considerably banged around as was their right guard. Neither saw too much playing against Matador. Amorette saw just enough to sew up the game with a touchdown.

The Lochhorns look like district champions unless something happens, an "upset" is the only remedy to remove the Lochhorns and then they will have a mathematical chance.

Conference Hopes Of Floydada Whirlwinds Blasted By Paducah

The Paducah Dragons unleashed a brilliant passing attack mixed with some power plays and lateral passes that tied the Floydada Whirlwinds up the last two quarters Friday night and gave the Dragons an upset 6 to 0 victory.

Hindman, brilliant Dragon full-back, made the touchdown in the last six minutes of play from the six inch line on a fourth down, after the ball had been worked down field from the Floydada 40 yard line. Passes and laterals blasted the way and smashing running plays finished the job for the Paducah boys.

The Whirlwinds opened up during the first half with a nice running attack and passing game that piled up seven first downs and in the second quarter carried to the Dragon 9 yard line before fizzling out. The Paducah line held for four downs then giving up only one yard.

Montgomery, fiery center of the Whirlwinds, squashed what looked like a Dragon scoring drive when he intercepted an aerial heave on his own 35. In the fourth quarter Floydada was on her own 20 yard line after a pass failed and on the next play fumbled with Paducah recovering. On the next play Paducah let the ball dribble around and Montgomery recovered the ball on the Floydada 40 to get them back out of the hole.

A line play picked up 7 yards and a first down and 11 yards was made on a forward to get the Whirlwinds into Paducah territory. On the next play an attempted forward pass hit an ineligible receiver and Paducah was given the ball on their own 40 yard line.

A combination forward-lateral netted the Dragons 20 yards and a first down on the Floydada 40. A line smash gained 4 and another forward collected 4 yards additional. A line play picked up 5 yards and a first down.

A Paducah pass fell incomplete but Floydada was assessed 5 yards for an offside. Two line plays gave a first down. The Dragons completed another forward for 9 yards with a line play giving them a first down on Floydada's 4 yard line. Three line plays made 3 and one-half yards. Hindman carried over on the last down.

The Dragons completely squashed the Whirlwinds desperate attack with a pass interception in the last minutes and then stalled out the last two minutes of playing time.

FLOYD COUNTY WOMAN WRITES TO HESPERIAN

Tallahassee, Florida, October 13, 1937.

Dear Hesperian:-
We left home Saturday morning and enjoyed our trip very much through our beautiful State. We spent our second night at New Iberia, La. The many different industries were very interesting. The rice harvest had just begun, making 150 to 175 bushels to the acre. Many fields were still in the shock and one field still uncut, as high as a fence and a beautiful straw color.

The sugar cane fields were something new to us and by October 15, the crop will begin to move. The well kept fields, the beautiful tall waving cane the high derricks were interesting indeed. We did not mind asking for information on any subject as everyone was so friendly and kind.

We spent about six hours in New Orleans and had a guide to show us the city which is a story in itself.

Best regards,
Mrs. S. L. Rushing,
Mrs. Felix Pearce,
Mrs. D. D. Spigley.

Mrs. Robert McGuire and sons, Bobby and Donald Bruce were in Lubbock on business Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. McGuire's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mitchell.

Mrs. J. M. Willson and son, David, spent Thursday of last week in Hale Center as guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Terry.

Business Activity Will Be Halted In Many Stores Today

Armistice Day Program This Morning Will Memorialize Deceased Buddies

With department stores, the bank and numerous other local retail establishments closed for the day, business this morning is going along at a slower tempo than usual, with indications that very few business establishments will be open during the football game this afternoon between Floydada and Matador High School football squads.

At 11 o'clock numerous stores which opened up this morning will close and at noon or shortly thereafter others will be closed for the remainder of the day, while some will re-open after the ball game.

Floydada post office will close at noon. Although most offices in the court house will close for the day, district court was scheduled to begin the trial of a case at 9 o'clock. Gins are expected to continue their operations through the day. It was said. Most of the groceries will remain open.

Legionnaires Visit School

Activities incident to American Legion week, which culminate today here, began Wednesday morning when members of McDermott Post and the auxiliary visited Floydada High School where they gave an hour and a half chapel program. The program there a highly patriotic ceremony, trumpets playing "To the Colors" the while, and a tableau "Reveille" was followed by group singing of wartime songs.

Vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. G. E. Bond and J. C. Gilliam, and Roy L. Snodgrass related some of his wartime experiences in camp and overseas. Mrs. A. D. Cummings gave two violin numbers. The finale was the singing of "America" by all.

Parade at 11 o'clock

The memorial service this morning at the Palace Theatre will have a patriotic motif, with Judge L. G. Mathews in the role of the memorial orator. Mrs. G. E. Bond and Mrs. A. D. Cummings will have charge of a program of musical numbers and a tableau in which will appear Beth Newton and the Smith twins.

The parade will precede the memorial service. It will be headed by the flag with a Boy Scout honor guard, followed by the high school band and the high school pep squad and members of local Boy Scout troops and others.

Grand Jury—

before the harvest season is over, in the death of several innocent people, and in great property damage. We, your grand jury, therefore recommend to the officers of this county, to the safety committees of the various organizations of the county, to the farmers, and to the public generally that every effort be put forth to have all vehicles traversing the roads at night properly lighted both in front and at the rear, as a safeguard against such calamities.

Drunken Driving

"We also respectfully call attention to the fact that a majority of the indictments returned by us have been for operating motor vehicles on the public roads of the county while intoxicated and while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. We respectfully direct the attention of the public to the fact that such a crime is one of the most dangerous to society that we have. That it endangers the lives of innocent women and children and of all who use the roads of the county, and an automobile in the hands of a drunken driver is potentially one of the most dangerous weapons that can be turned loose on the traveling public, and a person who will deliberately operate an automobile while in such a condition necessarily must be indifferent to the welfare of others and devoid of all sense of responsibility for the safety of his neighbors. We respectfully urge the citizens of our county to help curb this tendency and to do all in their power to prevent such occurrences."

Lions Club Luncheon Postponed To Friday

Because their regular luncheon meeting would conflict with Armistice Day activities in the community Floydada Lions Club will not hold its meeting today at noon, but instead will have its luncheon and program at noon tomorrow, it was announced yesterday by Frank L. Moore, president of the club.

H. M. McDonald is chairman of the committee which will present the program for the postponed meeting.

G. A. Linder, supervisor of the WPA projects works division for the panhandle, with headquarters in Amarillo, spent last week end here with his family.

Willie Duncan of Guyton, Oklahoma is visiting this week with his son, Edgar Duncan, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moore.

Mrs. Dave Standifer and children from Mulshoe spent Friday night and Saturday with her mother Mrs. E. C. Nelson.

Census Of Unemployed Will Get Under Way Tuesday, November 16

Census of the unemployed in the area served by Floydada Post Office, will get under way under the direction of Barbara H. Smith, postmaster, Tuesday morning of next week. She will be assisted by voluntary groups of workers named last week by Mayor Glad Snodgrass.

The area served is a large one, and every endeavor is being made to be sure that every unemployed person or part-time employed, will have the opportunity to register.

Details of Census

Factual information on the census has been given by Mrs. Smith as follows:

Registration of unemployed will be from November 16 to 20, inclusive. Unemployment report cards, known as URC Forms, will be delivered on every city and rural route, at general delivery window, and in every P. O. Box on November 16.

Who should fill URS Forms?
1. Persons who are totally unemployed, able to work and want work. Question 2 (a) and 3, URC Form.
2. Persons who are partly unemployed and want work. Question 2 (b), URC Form.
3. Persons who are working on a WPA or any other emergency-work project supported by public funds. Question 2 (c), URC Form.

The postmaster urges all who should fill out URC Forms to do so promptly and return to office by November 20.

URC Forms may be returned by the registrant, either by dropping in a mail box, handing to carrier, or mailing at post office. No postage is required.

The local postmaster and postal employees will be glad to help anyone needing assistance in filling out URC Forms. Additionally, Mrs. Smith urged that people who are employing transients be sure to give these an opportunity to sign cards. There are several hundred transient workers in the area at this time and Mrs. Smith pointed out that cards in any quantity needed will be available. Requests for cards may be made by telephone, by dropping a note in the post office or by making request of a carrier. In the case of these transients, if the county is given the registrant should name the county of his actual residence, which may not be this county.

Snodgrass Urges Aid

An appeal for support of the entire citizenship in the census was made this week in a statement issued by Mayor Snodgrass. "We are going to need your help and appeal for your support," he said, and continued:

"The number of unemployed will be determined from information secured by voluntary individual registration. A card to be filled in and returned to the Post Office will be delivered to every dwelling on November 16, 1937. If you are unemployed or partly unemployed and are able to work and are seeking work, please fill out this report card right away and mail it before midnight Saturday, November 20, (no postage needed). The President of the United States has stated to us under his signature as follows: "If you give me the facts, I will try to use them for the benefit of all who need work and do not have it now."

"Any one wishing information is requested to confer with the Post Office department, who will distribute the cards and furnish other helpful information to registrants.

"This is a very big job, and to be really valuable this voluntary registration of the unemployed must be honest and as nearly complete and accurate as humanly possible. With Franklin D. Roosevelt as President of the U. S. John D. Biggers, Administrator, Barbara Smith, Postmaster and the committee named, I again appeal for your support."

MRS. ROY NABORS INJURED IN WRECK THURSDAY EVENING

Miss Ruth Roddam, Mrs. Roy Nabors and small son Jimmie, were in a car wreck Thursday evening one mile northwest of Floydada on the Lockney highway, and all escaped without serious injury. Mrs. Nabors being the more painfully injured. She received deep cuts on her right arm and shoulder that will probably be several weeks healing. The other occupants were bruised and shaken up.

Miss Roddam, daughter of Ben Roddam, was driving. The car turned over once and a half. It was badly damaged.

TRICK SCHOOL CARNIVAL PRONOUNCED BIG SUCCESS

Billy Sammons, as "Jessie James" and Adrien Terrell as "Senorita" were pronounced the three prize winning costumes at the Halloween carnival held at the school building on the night of October 29.

Plenty of amusements and plenty to eat was the report of those attending. In addition to this were fortune telling, bingo stands, and other entertainment furnished by the P. T. A. organization.

The school and community express their appreciation for the cooperation of the students and patrons for a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Rosson and son, Barry, were guests over the week end of Mrs. Rosson's mother, Mrs. A. D. White and other relatives.

Sam McLean, of Fort Worth, has been here this week on business. He has owned property in the county for a number of years.

Martin E. Brown, of Brown's Household Supply, spent Monday in Amarillo on business.

Billie Joe Welch, teacher in Tullia high school, spent the past week end with his mother, Mrs. A. J. Welch.

Mrs. Buck Nelson of Wichita Falls is here on an indefinite visit with her sister, Mrs. D. H. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Horn, of Clayton, were in Floydada on business Tuesday.
