Agriculture To Have Better Place In National Picture

Committee Head Says New Law Step In Right Direction

Provision for Enlarging Foreign Markets Believed Important Feature

That the new Farm Bill passed last week by the congress and tentatively expected to have the president's signature is a step in the right direction to give agriculture a place of equality in the national picture is the belief of Marjorie Jones, congressman from the eleventh district of Texas, and chairman of the House Agriculture Committee in Congress.

Under the new legislation contains the following features: (1) It continues the soil conservation program, improved and simplified. Every man, woman and child in America is interested in the conservation of the soil.

(2) It provided a fund out of tariff collections to be used in the building up of our foreign markets for farm products as well as for widening the distribution of such products in the United States.

(3) It provides for loans on various farm commodities to prevent price collapse and to prevent scarcity.

(4) It authorizes the Security of Agriculture to apply for corrections in freight rate discriminations against farm products and to fight such applications through to a final decision.

(5) It makes provision for finding new uses and new outlets for farm commodities and the products thereof and for a research laboratory in each major region.

(6) It provides that the farmers, by a two-thirds vote, may establish marketing quotas on corn, cotton and rice, to be effective only when there are surpluses above what the market will absorb both here and in foreign countries. It provides that if more than one-third of the farmers oppose any quota, it shall be put into effect.

(7) It increases the share in conservation payments to small farmers and tenants and sets a limit. (See Agriculture, back page)

Cooper Cash Grocery Re-Arranges Store To Add Convenience

Re-arrangement of the store fixtures and stock to add more room and greater convenience for their customers was completed this week by the Cooper Cash Grocery.

C. P. Cooper, owner yesterday said it was expected the change would be a popular one with the trade. The feature is a small lobby in one of the front corners where tired mothers can rest for a time on their shopping rounds.

C. Of C. Meeting Wednesday Night Andrews Ward Gym

Annual meeting of members of Floydada Chamber of Commerce set for Wednesday night of next week at Andrews Ward Gymnasium, will be marked by report from President O. M. Watson and by the introduction of new officials of the organization.

Vote will be taken this week-end to name the new board of directors. R. W. Cothern, secretary, announced.

An attendance of at least 100 persons is expected at the meeting, but an attendance goal of 200 has been set by the committee composed of V. Williams, R. C. Wakefield and Walton Hale, who late yesterday were completing plans for the event.

Floydada High School Band, under the direction of Director Grumlish, will play, and the meal will be served by girls of the F. H. S. home economics foods classes.

West Point Boss

If that expression of purposeful determination on the face of Brig. Gen. J. L. Benedict, above, means anything, West Point cadets can expect no relaxation of iron-clad rules and regulations from their new superintendent. Benedict, at 55 the youngest superintendent in 16 years, succeeds Maj.-Gen. William D. Connor, now on leave awaiting retirement.

County Wide Meet To Be Held By The Teachers Saturday

Meeting To Be Held In District Court Room At 10 O'Clock

Teachers of Floyd County schools, both rural and city, will meet at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the District Court room to discuss the advisability of organizing a county organization of the State Teachers Association.

Other items will be discussed at the meeting but the main item will be planning and talking of a county organization and sending delegates to the district State Teachers Association meeting which will be staged March 11, 12 in Big Spring.

The State Teachers Association is conducting a reorganization program and this meeting will decide to a great extent the sentiment of the teachers in Floyd County.

A delegate for each 25 members of the association in a county is invited to attend the district meeting. It is believed that Floyd will be eligible to send two delegates to the meeting.

So far as it is known no officers will be elected at the meeting even though it is decided to organize a county branch of the association. It is known that the delegates to Big Spring will be selected by the teachers who attend the meeting.

The State Teachers Association is one of the fastest growing organizations in the state at this time and merits the attention of every person in the teaching profession.

HERBERT SIMS LEAVES FOR WILLIAMS, ARIZONA

MRS. BLOODWORTH IMPROVED

Mrs. Henry Bloodworth, who has been ill for several months, is much improved, her husband said yesterday. During a five week stay at Bellevue she has gained in weight and strength and is now believed on the road to complete recovery.

Mr. Bloodworth and son, Wayne, left yesterday afternoon for Bellevue to visit her.

Absolute Deadline On '37 Work Sheet Set As February 19

Work Sheets Needed For 1938 Goals, County Agent Says

100 Farms Not In

Farms May Be Handicapped Later Because Of No Work Sheet

The absolute deadline for the signing of late 1937 work sheets has been set as Saturday, February 19, the county agent's office announced today.

It is absolutely necessary that all cultivated land be covered by a 1937 work sheet whether or not the owner or renter desires to take advantage of the 1938 farm program, it was announced.

"We understand we will have a special wheat goal and for this reason we need the information on these 1937 work sheets so that county goals can be established." It is estimated that some 100 farms have not made work sheets.

The failure to execute a 1937 work sheet may prove to be embarrassing to both the producer and county committeemen, if at a certain date the land is not covered by worksheet the state board instructs the community and county committeemen to make a work sheet on the farm to obtain the necessary data from the best reliable source they can. Then later when the farm comes into the program it might be that the farm will be handicapped for lack of a proper 1937 work sheet.

It must be remembered that the new farm program is to be a long time program so that it becomes necessary that all irregularities be ironed out on the state so every one will have his equitable share of the benefits. In a few days Floyd county will be in line to receive 1937 benefit checks, and from the slowness of the signing of late work sheets it has become a serious work to community and county committeemen and the county agent as our checks may be held up until this matter is cleared up.

Since some producers do not realize the seriousness of this request as none of them would knowingly handicap their neighbors it is urged that this be attended to at once.

G. S. King Succumbs After Long Illness

Funeral Rites Said Tuesday Afternoon for Former Public Weigher and Deputy Sheriff

G. Scott King, former civic and political worker in Floydada for many years, succumbed Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home on West Tennessee following an illness of three years. He was 50 years old.

Funeral rites followed Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Rev. I. A. Smith, of Quanah, preached the funeral in a service at the First Methodist Church, with Rev. J. E. Eldridge, pastor of the church, and Rev. F. A. Bell, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, assisting. Interment was made at Floydada Cemetery with Masonic rites. Harmon Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Claud Patton, Earl Edwards, W. C. Cates, Henry Bloodworth, M. L. Probasco and Roe McCleskey. The flower attendants' list included Inis D. Pyffe, Bonnie Dale Pyffe, Edwina Christian, Mrs. V. C. Norman, Mertice Hadaway, Mrs. Dot Slough, Fern Fry, Dixie Henderson, Maxine Fry, Mrs. Russell King, Madelle King, Marilyn Fry, Blanche King, Evelyn Beck, Aura Faye Burgett, Mrs. Winifred Cooper, Irene Probasco.

Surviving the deceased are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Rolein Smith, and Miss Joyce King, and a son, Dale. A half sister, Mrs. Claude Williams residing at Mena, Arkansas, also survives, of his immediate family. A native of Oregon county, Missouri, where he was born in 1887, Mr. King moved to Floydada as a youth in 1906, and during a residence of thirty-one years here had (See Scott King, back page)

Com. Court Vote Favors Dem. Agent

Delegations of Women From Over County Urge Court To Adopt Plan

Session Brief

Re-Instatement of Work After Several Years Will Be Contracted

Floyd County farm women Monday afternoon were granted their request for the re-instatement of the services of a home demonstration agent when their appeal was put up to the Commissioners' Court.

The measure was under consideration officially for less than a half-hour before it was put to a vote. Members of the court voted two for and two against, Cummings and Harris favoring with Cyper and Bloodworth opposing. Judge Deen untied the vote in favor of the measure. Bloodworth said his adverse vote was based wholly on a matter of financial considerations. Payment for the services of a demonstration agent is made from the general fund of the county.

The home demonstration agent's work in this county was discontinued six years ago when depression conditions were declared by the court at that time to make support of the program impossible with the funds available. Several times delegations of women met with the court and pleaded that economics be effected in other ways and that the service of the demonstration agent be continued on a sacrifice.

Mrs. Ed Holmes, one of the leaders in the women's movement for a home demonstration agent, spoke briefly to the court, urging the farm home's need for the program and the good benefits it could give to the county. In particular, she stressed the belief that the program was an economy measure and would represent in its results a big saving to the people of the county.

Information as to the date when a contract would be signed with the Extension Service of A. & M. College and the service re-installed in the county was not available following the session at which the favorable vote was taken.

MRS. HEARD IN TEMPLE HOSPITAL THIS WEEK FOR APPENDICITIS OPERATION

Mrs. T. J. Heard is in the King's Daughters hospital at Temple this week, where she underwent an operation Wednesday morning for appendicitis.

Mr. Heard who made the trip to Temple with his wife, informed their son, Austin, yesterday that she stood the operation satisfactorily. Austin was making plans yesterday afternoon to visit his mother if road conditions permit.

The T. J. Heards had been visiting in Georgia at their former home with relatives, returning home the first of the week only to be informed that the operation for Mrs. Heard would be necessary. They immediately left for Temple, near which place they formerly made their home for many years.

Floydada Drivers Suffer As Boy Scouts Clamp Down On Traffic Violations Saturday

"Fines" Collected Donated To Boy Scout Athletic Fund

Law and order in the strongest form gripped Floydada Saturday as the Boy Scouts took control of the city and its law enforcing agencies. Mayor Tommy McIntosh gave firm and explicit orders that all traffic violators would be severely dealt with and appointed a number of deputies as well as Fire Chief Gene Loran and City Marshall James T. Bishop to round them up during the day.

The heaviness of the fines varied according to the severity of the offense. Parking in an alley was worth 15 cents to the Boy Scout treasury as a "fine" assessed. No fine could be collected however unless a city traffic law had been actually violated. The boys quickly digested a large cross section of city ordinances and began their patrol of the city thoroughfares with a keen eye open for traffic violators.

Running red lights, passing stop signs without stopping, parking in alleys, speeding, double parking, all traffic violations, rapidly built up the Boy Scout treasury to nearly five dollars as the official day ended.

Fines were assessed W. U. White, speeding; Rolen Smith, speeding; Claud Hammonds, double parking; Willie Holt, parking in alley; J. B. Bishop, parking in alley; Dee Johnson, double parking; Tink Carter, over parking; Mrs. F. P. Fuqua, over parking; J. R. Evers, ran stop sign; Homer Steen, ran stop sign; Conner Oden, ran stop sign; Ike Finley, making U turn, and L. V. Assiter, ran stop sign.

Four other Floydada citizens were apprehended violating traffic ordinances but refused to accompany the Boy Scouts to the station or pay "fines."

Just how many of the violations were "premeditated" cannot be determined but certainly the Boy Scout athletic fund was helped by the "fines," and many of Floydada's drivers were caught driving carelessly by the keen eye scouts.

County Judge Kenneth Bishop came in for his share of trials and tribulations soon after he took over the office. His first duty was to discharge a prisoner that "had served his time" but almost no sooner was this done than Floyd County's Youngest Judge was faced with the duty of performing a wedding, a serious and complicated procedure for one so recently sworn into office.

After much thought and many conferences the difficult ceremony was duly performed and the couple went merrily on their way, much to the gratification of the judge.

Food was distributed to a needy family through the welfare office. Judge Bishop then saw fit to buy for the county certain school bonds offered for sale by County Superintendent Walter Travis. Something like $1,750 of the county's money was invested in the bonds. (The Scouts might investigate this deal next year when they are in office.)

County Attorney Buddy Gound got in his "lick" on a prisoner who was caught rifling a cash drawer. Incidentally the culprit was lodged in the local "bustle" to await trial.

All the boys plan on a hard race for re-election next year and intend to enforce the laws of the land to the letter.

Floyd County Library Adds Bound Volumes Of Hesperian To Files

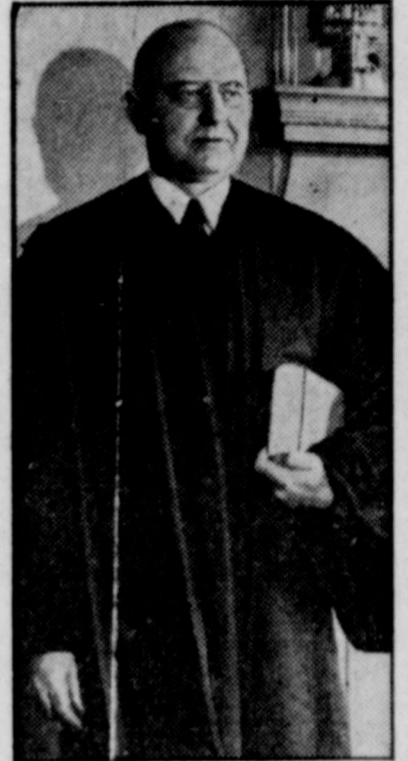

Seven complete bound volumes of The Hesperian dating from March 1, 1931 up to date have been added to the Floyd County Circulating Library by County Superintendent Walter Travis.

The reason for the paper files was to meet the demands for a cross sectional history of the county that could not otherwise be recorded. The copies are permanently bound in volumes and will be kept up to date, Travis said.

L. B. Martin Goes To Glove Final At Fort Worth Today

District Lightweight Champion Leaves With Seve From Lubbock

Fistic warfare will break tonight in Fort Worth when the Golden Gloves state final will begin. The bouts will begin at 7 o'clock tonight and will continue Friday and Monday night to weed out everyone but the champions. Final bouts will of course be held Monday night.

All bouts are to be held at the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum, which is considered one of the finest plants of its kind in the country. Customers will be allowed to smoke but huge air conditioners will prevent the smoke from interfering with the lungs of the contestants.

Eight district champions departed yesterday from Lubbock for the Cow Town where they will weigh in at 11 o'clock this morning.

Among the champions was L. B. Martin, Floydada high school junior and ace guard on the Whirlwind football squad, who only last week fought his way to the lightweight crown at Lubbock.

Martin was the only outsider to crash the ranks of the Lubbock City champions and earn a trip to the finals. The other seven divisions are held down by Lubbock High school or Texas Tech athletes who have excellent coaching behind them.

A special chapel program was held Tuesday morning at the high school at which time Martin was presented with a purple robe bearing his name in large letters on the back. He was awarded a gold belt buckle at Lubbock for his victories there.

MRS. VELMA RABB BELIEVED IMPROVED THIS MORNING

Mrs. Velma Rabb of Amarillo, who underwent an operation in a hospital there last Thursday, had rallied somewhat last night and is believed to be holding her own, her uncle, Glad Snodgrass, said this morning.

She was gravely ill during the early part of the week, and for a time it appeared she could not survive.

RURAL SCHOOLS RECEIVE ALMOST $3 PER CAPITA

County Superintendent Walter Travis announced Saturday that his office had received $3,143.80 on this year's school fund from the state. This sum amounts to something like $3 per capita, less 55 cents per capita for county administration.

Freeze Also Aid To Crop Of The Area

Practically All West Texas And Panhandle Embraced in Rain Area

Prospect For More

Floydada Continues In High Pressure Belt of Past Forty-Eight Hours

General rains, accompanied by freezing temperatures, blanketed Floyd County and the whole panhandle plains area yesterday and last night to materially brighten outlook for wheat and to make ideal ground conditions for early spring farm operations and assure good early range conditions.

With 65 of an inch of rainfall here at 7 o'clock this morning forecast is for more rain, snow or sleet during the day. A high pressure area continues to embrace the section and added moisture is promised by the weather man in some form.

Freezing temperatures, very generally welcomed by farmers, have prevailed since yesterday morning at 11 o'clock when the gauge at West Texas Gas Company's office showed 31 degrees. This morning at 7 o'clock the thermometer stood at 29 degrees with little variation during the period.

The whole panhandle and plains area is covered by the rain map, reports indicate. Amarillo reports over an inch up to last night, Quanah 2.46, Paducah 1.60, Hering Springs 1.5, Falls an inch, and Lubbock and Plainview about the same as at Floydada. Tula is in a belt of heavier precipitation. Reports from all over Floyd County indicate the fall in this county has been general. Southeast from Floydada more rain has fallen than at this point. Dougherty reports a gauge showing of 1 inch.

Last night's precipitation here was practically all in the form of rain. However, some sleet fell, and trees and shrubs were covered with a coat of ice, and several trees were damaged by the weight. Light and telephone lines gave some trouble during the early morning hours.

Traffic has been slowed since Tuesday when first fogs and low-lying clouds began to reduce visibility. Country roads up to late yesterday still were in fair condition.

Considerable Tree Damage

Noting the apparently heavy damage to trees this morning from the load of ice breaking limbs, County Agricultural Agent D. F. Bredthauer said that all broken limbs should be removed as soon as possible to stop splitting of limbs and further damage. He makes the following suggestion:

"In removing all damaged limbs the cut should be made close to the branch from which the limb is taken, leaving no stub. This will greatly facilitate the healing of the (See Rains, back page)

Oden To Represent Southwest Dealers In Detroit Monday

Conner Oden, manager of Oden Chevrolet Company, will represent dealers of the five southwest states of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, in a conference of Chevrolet Motor Company officials and dealers in Detroit Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Last week-end he was chairman of a conference in Dallas when some representatives of dealers gathered for a regional meeting to go over dealer sales, distribution and financing problems, and was chosen for the Detroit discussions.

Oden will represent the composite viewpoint of southwestern dealers on sales and service policies of the national organization. He expects to leave for Detroit Friday afternoon. Mrs. Oden accompany him.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

Boy Scout Week is a very pleasing gesture the elders make to the youth of the land. Recognition of the boy as the man of tomorrow is only fitting, for in truth the little lad who smiles up at you this morning will be the big fellow who administers affairs, public or private, within the year, as time goes for the elders.

LYNCHING BILL DEAD

There seems to be no doubt the anti-lynching bill is dead. Unfortunate pressure from a big-vote area caused this measure to take prominence in the early stages of the present congress and circumstances made it a sectional measure willy-nilly.

As a matter of fact, no section of the United States really needed such a law to be passed. On the contrary, every section needed for it not to become law. A vicious thing, it would have done irreparable damage to local self-government everywhere. Additionally, it would have been injurious to relations between the white and colored races. Tom Connally and those others who fought the bill should have the thanks of the republic.

INCREASING SCHOLASTIC PER CAPITA

A scholastic per capita in Texas that has increased from $5 in 1907 to $22 in 1937, gives an idea of the increased funds Texas people have been pouring into the maintenance of their schools. Many sources of revenue have been tapped for the purpose, including petroleum, which has yielded a huge sum of money.

At that, the probabilities are that per capita payments for scholastics will gradually increase for the next few years and it will not be surprising to school men to see the figures around $40 in the not too distant future.

TAX ON RETAILERS

Just how many retailers in the State of Texas have been violating the chain store tax law is not known. The probability is that many store owners who knew themselves not to be operating chains, read rather than the headlines when the law was passed two or three years ago.

But this somewhat disquieting information was given out last week in a statement by George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, who said:

"Every store of every character in Texas must pay a tax, regardless of whether it is a member of a chain, excepting only a limited few which are specifically exempt under the terms of the law."

Enforcement of the law has been tied up by court procedure until just recently and now three years of taxes are immediately due and payable, the comptroller says. Just on the face of the report of the comptroller's statement about the only places exempt under the law are lumber yards dealing exclusively in the sale of lumber and building materials and filling stations which sell only petroleum products and service automobiles. The minimum tax due is $4.50 for the three back years and $1.50 per year thereafter. A store has to display a merchantile establishment license under penalty. Any chain with as many as fifty-one stores now owes the State of Texas a tax of $41,572 for the three back years.

SAFETY HINT OF THE DAY

Don't pass cars on hill, what's your hurry?

Thus it goes always when punitive laws are passed. The "little man" who wanted a "law passed" to keep the big man from gobbling him up has a law which, it surely can be assumed, will be unpopular with partially every type of retailer in the state, big, little and all, a source of worry and expense of which there is already plenty.

THE USELESS TUMBLEWEED

The useless tumbleweed, the Russian Thistle's sometimes common name, is being utilized for various necessitous purposes, showing how the mother of invention works out our destinies.

As for instance it has been found the tumbleweed makes an excellent paper when manufactured under certain conditions; also someone has found out that two or three of these weeds wired together ingeniously, and sprayed with silver and white paint, make a very satisfactory Christmas tree.

There may come a day when the tumbleweed's aimless wanderings, its life of leisure, will be over.

GOING MODERN IN A BIG WAY

How the railway companies which are able to do so are fighting to keep up with the times is illustrated by the fact that the Santa Fe now has on its transcontinental runs, of all things:

Cab windows of safety glass with "windshield" wipers, sun visors and hot air defrosters! The engineer, so simple have his essential controls of the monster train been made, sits in a deeply upholstered adjustable seat, that looks more like an office chair than a cab seat in a locomotive train. His instrument panel is indirectly lighted. Thus, and a lot more, goes the description of the modern stream-lined train power plant.

Everything you can think of is included and some of the things you would hardly imagine, one of them an automatic "dead man control." Seriously lacking, however, in the description is a cigar lighter. This is a serious matter which is called especially to the attention of the designers.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

Dear readers of this column: The time is Sunday morning 3.30. The place, a rock tourist cabin near Conway, Arkansas. In a few more hours I shall be in Memphis, Tennessee, with my loved ones there. I shall try to give you an impression of the country as it appeared to me, while passing through.

We left Floydada about 6 a. m. Friday afternoon, Mrs. Weempe and Miss Bettie Rucker came to the car just before we left and kindly wished us a pleasant trip. Near Hobert, Oklahoma we were generously welcomed with a night's rest by a cousin of James, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kimball. Large farm homes are in this part of the country and the home of our friends, situated right on the banks of Little Elk Creek, has thirteen large rooms. Sweet baby Wilma and bright eyed three year old Donald, paid me a nice compliment by sitting on my lap and making friends with me. This is the first time I have been in Oklahoma and I shall always feel that the welcome of this great State was extended to me by it's good citizens, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball.

Rolling country, red land showing under the green of the wheat fields. Queer sun, rising in the west and jumping back to its place in the east as a corner was turned. Thomas the yellow Persian cat, I am taking to my son, lay in the seat and slept.

Oklahoma City where our fat, saucy lambs; lazy, fat hogs and fat cows have been shipped to market. Tall buildings, making a deep canyon. Creeks began to appear.

A cemetery, a grave covered with sweet violets in bloom. Fragrant alfalfa, big barns, all of them wearing bills on one end of the roof-cottonwood trees looking like ghost trees. A house with a bandeaux on one side of the foundation. Good homes sitting on the top of red hills, with mist covered valleys nesting at the foot. Valleys in which grow elm trees of oxford grey now covered with rust colored blooms. Spicy smelling cedars of dark hunters green. Willows waving slender fingers of pale jade to us as we passed. On through the land made farms by the run for homes, the old Indian Territory. In fancy I could see my uncle Tom as he held his prancing race horse on the edge of the new land, and at the signal giving his horse the reign, and making a mad run for a home.

Each mile of our journey became a delight, every hill brought a new scene. Pecan trees, a sign, "Land For Sale," black dots on the map became pleasant towns, and bustling cities, the black crooked line turned into rivers, the red line into gleaming smooth highways. Triangles on the map now stood up as low mountains. Hills got longer and steeper.

"Escaping prisoners," the sign read. Oh what a tragedy the people

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

(Issue of February 21, 1934)

Improvement of the cemetery chapel, a home beautiful for Floydada, tree-planting and up-town telegraph office occupied the program of the Chamber of Commerce Friday night enthusiastically attended by seventy-five members of the organization.

In the absence of R. E. Fry, president, the vice-president presided. J. Pat Horton discussed the condition of the chapel of the Floydada cemetery. T. R. Webb spoke on the necessity of tree planting. J. H. Reagan brought up for the attention of the Chamber of Commerce, the proposition of getting an up-town office for the Western Union Telegraph Company, and J. M. Willson spoke on the subject "A Home Beautiful For Floydada."

The basketball games Friday between the McCoy boys and girls and the Starkey boys and girls were both won by McCoy. The score of the girl's game was 23 to 26 and the boy's 9 to 10. The girls are looking forward to a game they expect to play against the Farmer girls of Crosby County on the McCoy court, Friday afternoon.

All the outside concrete foundations for the new church at Center is laid out in next week. The American Railway Express Office in Floydada was moved Friday from its former location at South Main Street to one of the buildings in the Childress block east of the Tourist garage. The new office will give the force more working space.

Carpenters and painters are at work this week on the store building on the east side of the Main Street, in Lockney, owned by W. C. Watson and formerly occupied by Crazer Furniture Company, overhauling the building and building shelving for the installation of a new grocery store, being established by Messrs. W. C. and Douglas Watson and H. P. Colman.

A patriotic program will be given by the pupils of the Lakeview school Friday night February 22. It is announced. After the program the parent teachers club will hold a business meeting. All members of the club are urged to be present.

The federation of Women's Clubs will meet in an all day session at the County Court Room next Saturday. An interesting program has been arranged and the local club will serve lunch to the visitors.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON — Washington echoes loudly to the almost deafening noise made by everyone marking time: Congress — Business — the President.

Roosevelt, having adopted and discarded any number of curealls for the current recession, at this point has no definite recovery program and is waiting to see what Business will do next.

Business stands still and complains that it cannot go anywhere while there is such uncertainty as to the next step government will take.

Congress refuses to budget an inch in any direction the President has pointed out. The conclusions most observers have reached is that the President is will not regard the rights of society and are forced to spend time as prisoners of the state.

Oil wells, a peach tree in full bloom. I always thought wood was cut and thrown helter skelter in a pile, but I see that most farmers cut it and stack it neatly in a pile. The famous S Ranch. Smaller houses, the oak trees. Wilda thought the farm were gardens. Redder land. A marker at the home of Carl Hubbell, the famous baseball pitcher. School houses every few miles. Dirt tanks, black cows and hound dogs. Henrietta Oklahoma, coal mines.

Deere wagon, negroes, proudly riding in it. Sumac berries glowing in red beauty among the trees wearing all shades of gray. Oklahoma, now to me is a living beautiful state and not just a blotch of color and dots on the map.

We neared the Arkansas river—the valley was covered by green alfalfa in bloom. We stopped to see big fields of spinach. We crossed the river into Fort Smith and was in Arkansas for the first time. A dream of years has been to see this beautiful country.

Little hills covered with timber. Saturday afternoon wagons loaded with people returning from town. People walking home—log houses. Flour, groceries and a new wash board. Oak and pine trees, higher hills, deeper valleys. A little town every few miles. Schools and churches how clean the buildings look.

Saturday night. Trucks so big they look like houses. Young people walking to parties. Horse back riders. I feel like a happy child at a Christmas tree. I am thrilled. I am delighted.

Goodbye for this week.

no longer strong enough to impose his will on Congress and that Congress is not strong enough to do anything to which the President strongly objects. Having reached this impasse it would seem that Roosevelt and Congress must reach some compromise before Business will have the confidence that comes of knowing what to expect next.

Congress certainly will pass a new farm bill, a new tax law and some wage-hour and reorganization legislation. But what these laws will be in their final form Congress doesn't know, the President doesn't know and Business doesn't know.

Roosevelt has been criticized bitterly for allegedly favoring and then deserting both sides of conflicting theories. But if he made up his mind, Congress would probably refuse to follow his leadership, so the instability of which the President is accused is not the beginning and his definite action would not be the end of the existing "uncertainty."

A possibility which seems remote, is that the President might encourage co-operation in Congress by capitulating to his conservative advisers, including southern members of Congress.

But Roosevelt's intimates keep insisting that his "waiting game" is the only way, and that Congress and Business are not yet ready for such decisive action as the President is prepared to propose.

They think the sensible thing is to wait until the public demands that Roosevelt take such action.

'Orphans of the Soil' Watch Workings of First U. S. Loan to Tenant Farmer

ON the side of a muddy road in Alabama, six miles from the nearest town and five miles from the closest telephone, in a crude, unpainted, dilapidated frame house live Wiley Jackson Langley, tenant farmer, and his family of nine.

Farmer Langley, now 57, has been trying for years to save enough money to make the down payment on the land he now rents. He has always hoped to have a little more food and clothing for his family, to make a few repairs on the house. But crops would come and crops would go and somehow he would never be much better off than he was at the same time the year before.

Now stepping into the picture is a rich relation: Uncle Sam. Uncle Sam is lending Langley $3800. With the money Langley is buying his farm—out-right, putting up a seven-room house to replace his present sagging shelter, fencing his pasture and buying food, clothes and fuel for the year.

LANGLEY is the first tenant farmer in the United States to be given government aid in the sweeping federal program intended to put worthy tenant share-croppers and farm laborers back on their own feet.

Langley will repay Uncle Sam, with 3 per cent interest, over a period of 40 years. He may not finish the payments himself, but his sons, who inherit the farm, will.

The loan will enable the tenant farmer to purchase not only his farm and home, but his self-respect and independence as well. Langley represents a class of more than 10,000,000 people who are virtually bound to the soil. In times of lean crops they fall behind in their rent. In debt to the landowner, they must stay on and on, hoping to catch up with their payments. Few do.

Many of them operate their farms on a share-cropping basis. Reliable figures show that many of these families live on as little as $100 a year in actual money.

POLITICIANS, social workers, union organizers and economists for years have talked of doing something. But little progress has been made. Now the federal government is stepping into the picture. Langley is the first tenant farmer of 2100 who will be aided the same way before June 30, with loans totaling $10,000,000. Next year $25,000,000 will be distributed among these orphans of the soil, concentrated in the south, but spread all over the west and riddle west as well. In 1940, loans will reach a total of $50,000,000. Ultimately, it is hoped that annual appropriations capable of getting 15,000 farmers a year off to a new start will be made.

In the weather-beaten house shown in the top photo, Wiley Jackson Langley, tenant farmer, lives with his wife, brother-in-law and seven children. The home he will build with a government loan will be larger, sturdier, more comfortable. Langley, lower left, handles Kit with a gentle hand, because Kit is his tractor and without her he could do little. Mrs. Langley, lower right, peels many potatoes because she knows supper time will bring nine hungry mouths to the table.

Before long Langley will be in his own right. The eyes of millions of others, still in the condition from which he is escaping, are on him. They, too, see the coming of a new independence. They know now what hope means.

of war or the possibility of war.

Battle Still On
AUSTIN — Governor James V. Allred directed another blast today at Land Commissioner William H. McDonald before leaving the state for the rest of the week. He urged Attorney General William McCraw to file suit to cancel nine Jefferson county leases awarded by McDonald.

HERE — The Whirlwinds evened the Lockney-Floydada basketball series with a convincing 44 to 35 victory over the taller Longhorns before a packed gymnasium. The victory was featured by the nifty shooting of Patterson, Floydada, who took high-point honors with 16 points.

HERE — Aiken won the invitation junior basketball tournament which was held here Saturday under the direction of Pleasant Hill. Providence garnered the consolation prize. Silver trophies were given winner and consolation.

HERE — The Whirlwinds continued their winning ways by submerging Cedar Hill 33 to 15 Saturday night to almost clinch the county championship and head for the district tourney at Lubbock.

LUBBOCK — L. B. Martin, Floydada football linesman de-luxe and mitt slinger, sunk two opponents in the semi-finals here to win the District lightweight golden glove crown. Martin will journey to Fort Worth for bouts.

Wednesday, Feb. 9
WASHINGTON — An additional $250,000,000 Federal relief expenditure, to be recommended soon by President Roosevelt, is to be distributed largely in the big manufacturing centers which have been hard hit by winter layoffs.

WASHINGTON — The administration's new crop control program won house approval by a 2 to 1 majority today and went to the Senate, where leaders said it would be considered tomorrow.

More Planes Wanted
PARIS — France's already vast armament budget has been revised to provide an additional 1,000 new fighting planes for the year, strengthened French African naval bases and the start of a military highway across Algeria to Italian Libya's frontier, sources disclosed today.

SHANGHAI — A grave state of anarchy and lawlessness today were reported straining authority of the Japanese in North China while their armies struggled to conquer a vast area of Central China along the Lunghai railroad.

HERE — The Floydada Whirlwinds captured the series with the Lockney Longhorns in the third and deciding game by whipping the Lockney team in a thriller 33 to 30. Like the game Tuesday night, there was never a let down from beginning to end. Patterson again captured the high-point title with 16 points.

Thursday, Feb. 10
WASHINGTON — Administration leaders, rebuffed in their attempt to hurry their new crop control program through the Senate today, sought votes tonight to pass it tomorrow.

WASHINGTON — Congress will approve the $250,000,000 relief fund asked by President Roosevelt to meet distress resulting from the business recession legislative leaders predicted today. It is expected that there will be much investigation however before the final vote.

Japs Back Down
TOKYO — A Japanese naval spokesman indicated today Japan would join in the efforts to halt the world naval race if Great Britain and the United States would approach the problem from her (Japan's) point of view.

WASHINGTON — The Republicans in Congress are still worried that Secretary of State Hull is pulling a "fast one," was indicated when Senator Johnson (Rep. Calif.) suggested that there may be a secret alliance between the United States and Great Britain about which Secretary Hull "does not know."

NEW YORK — The American Tanker, Nantucket Chief, was reported on her way home today after being released by the Spanish Rebels. The vessel was captured some days ago as she attempted to run the Spanish blockade with a cargo of oil. The captain claimed he was "mistreated" by the Insurgents.

Friday, Feb. 11
SHANGHAI — The Soviet Union has refused to increase her aid to the Chinese government, according to information, because of fear that it may involve her directly in war with Japan. The Russian government has placed few restrictions upon the munitions and volunteers flowing into China.

WASHINGTON — Senate leaders agreed late today to delay a final vote on the farm bill until Monday after the measure ran into a flurry of criticism, principally from dissatisfied Republicans. Dairying was the principal subject of debate.

AUSTIN — Ernest O. Thompson, Texas railroad commissioner and chairman of the interstate oil compact commission, gave fresh evidence today that he is in the governor's race to stay regardless of Gov. James V. Allred's decision on running a third term.

CHICAGO — President William Green of the American Federation of Labor asserted tonight "labor and capital have a common cause to protect against autocratic usurpation of power over their destiny by governmental agency."

BERLIN — The German army's feeling of trust in its new high command seems to be growing despite uneasiness caused by Adolf Hitler's centralization of control over the armed forces. Information was given out that the Jews were responsible for the conflicting reports that were given out during the shake-up.

Saturday, Feb. 12
AUSTIN — The visit of Gov. James V. Allred to Washington and his repeated thrusts at Attorney General William McCraw aroused fresh speculation today over his plans with a growing feeling that the mystery will soon be dispelled.

WASHINGTON — Japan, Germany, and Rumania all entered the world crisis picture this week. Japan refused to give any details concerning her "alleged" building of 35,000 ton vessels. Germany went through a complete diplomatic and army shake-up, while Rumania completed a bloodless revolution that placed King Carol back in power.

BERLIN — Nazi sources continued today their blanket denials of an undiminished flood of rumors as to conditions in Germany consequent to the shake-up in the army, air force, and ministry.

Sunday, Feb. 13
PAMPA — Three men were near death in a hospital here as result of an explosion in the Phillips Red Camp boiler plant early this morning which sent searing flames over their bodies.

WASHINGTON — Increased concern over world armament resulted in two proposals today that the United States sponsor a conference on limiting navies. All proposals originated from congressmen.

Hoppers Due Again
COLLEGE STATION — Grasshoppers will return to plague the Panhandle this summer in even greater numbers than they massed the past year authorities estimated today.

SHANGHAI — Japanese armies rolled relentlessly from north and south today toward a frontal junction on China's vital Lunghai railroad, crushing their stubborn Chinese foe between the two halves of their vise-like offensive.

SINGAPORE — Only three American vessels will be present for the inaugural ceremony and christening of Britain's new naval base in the East. The American vessels are the only outsiders allowed to be present and were especially invited by the British high command.

LOCATED IN THE OLD DAY AND NIGHT GARAGE BUILDING

New Machinery Firm Announces Open House Friday Through Monday

Hatley & Graham Machinery Company, recently organized firm which will sell the Minneapolis-Moline line of farm machinery, this week announced plans for a three-day open house at their location, the Day & Night Garage building, north Main Street, beginning tomorrow.

Friday, the first day of their observance of open house, will be featured by a demonstration of their machinery on the A. L. Bishop place immediately north of Floydada on the Silverton Highway. A plot of ground selected there will be used to show the versatility of the tractors they sell and how farming can be successfully done the "M-M" way.

Features also are planned for Saturday and Monday, when demonstrations of their various machines will continue at the warehouse.

R. B. Hatley, formerly with Floydada Oil Company and other enterprises of similar type, and Lindsey Graham, formerly employed with Stansell-Collins Company, are members of the new machinery firm. Both, in addition to their mercantile activities, have been interested in farming operations in the county and have a practical slant on the various farm operations and the machinery with which these are handled.

Invitations have been broadcast to their open house, an advertisement appearing in this issue of The Hesperian.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mayhew and son from Amarillo, came Sunday afternoon to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kreis. Mrs. Mayhew and son remained this week and Mr. Mayhew returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Heard returned home this week from an extended trip which included three states, Louisiana, Tennessee and Georgia. They left Friday in company with Mrs. J. R. Terry for a few days visit with relatives at Temple.

TEXAS TECH LINES UP

HEAVY TEAMS FOR FALL

Just when things look darkest from a football standpoint at Tech something turns up to brighten things up...

The Southwest Conference declined to consider Tech as a member of that loop for various unexplained reasons...

All that looked dark, very dark, but now that Tech's 1938 football schedule is announced...

The schedule as it stands at date: Sept. 17—Montana State, at Lubbock.

Sept. 24—University of Wyoming at Lubbock.

Sept. 30—Duquesne University, at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Oct. 7—Oklahoma City University at Lubbock.

Oct. 15—University of Montana, at Butte, Montana.

Oct. 22—Texas College of Mines, place to be determined.

Oct. 29—Open game wanted

Enthusiastic Response Given Organization Of Farm Protective Assn

Committee Meeting Yesterday Afternoon Formulates Plans for Active Campaign in County

At the committee meeting yesterday afternoon of the Floyd County Texas Agricultural Association, reports indicated an enthusiastic response may be anticipated when the organization plans are carried to the people of the county.

The committee meeting held at 2 o'clock in the county court room had the purpose of formulating plans for the drive.

It was explained at this meeting by R. M. Battey, president, that for this organization to maintain a success in the county it must be organized strictly in the communities and that an executive meeting be held once every two months...

The dues of this organization are $2.00 per year, which is distributed as follows: 20 cents to the community, 30 cents to the County organization, 50 cents to the Texas Agricultural Association, 50 cents to the Texas Farm Bureau, which is a State Publication, 50 cents to the A. P. F. F. and National Agriculture, which is a National Publication dealing with the Agricultural situation of the nation.

The principal reason for this is that the boys are taught to select their projects on a safe and sane basis and most of the pure bred stock was acquired by the boy after one or two years of 4-H field crop projects were completed there giving the boy sufficient feed and preparation to take care of his pure bred livestock when he has sufficient money to make the purchase.

Officers of the Irick 4-H Club are president, Marshall Langford, dairy calf; vice-president, Geo. Robert Chambers, cotton; secretary-treasurer, Johnny Langford, dairy calf, and reporter, James Whitfill, pig.

Sand Hill 4-H Club, president, Kenneth Cates, pig; vice-president, Frank Jeter, pig; secretary-treasurer, David Battey, turkeys, and reporter, Gene Probasco, cotton.

McCoy Community 4-H Club, president, Archie F. Curry, dairy calf; vice-president, Charles F. Hartsell, pig; secretary, Leon Hulsey, dairy calf; treasurer, Edward Smith, pig, and reporter, Troy E. Cummings, pig.

A large proportion of the huge sums spent by apartment houses, hotels, hospitals, and business establishments for pest control is for one insect—the cockroach, according to records in the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

Where the cockroach hides is the key to his control, Bureau entomologists report. Cockroaches are nocturnal. They hide in large numbers during the day—in the home usually in the kitchen near the sink, around cabinets, behind radiators, and under baseboards or the trim on doors and windows.

These are the places to treat by dusting with sodium fluoride powder or pyrethrum powder. Before applying the powder, as many openings as possible should be closed with a crack filler, such as putty, plastic wood, or plaster of paris.

Sodium fluoride powder, the best all-around cockroach remedy, is poisonous to man if taken internally in sufficient amounts and should be kept out of food and away from children and pets.

Because cockroaches develop slowly and can exist for some time with little or no food, they usually may be found in all stages of growth.

In addition to making excellent cover for birds along fences and in the corners of fields, and producing delicious fruit, the wild blackberry also has medicinal value. It is an astringent. Old herb doctor once believed that the wild blackberry was such an astringent that shoots of it (when eaten as a salad) would restore a loose tooth to its former state of solidity.

Acting under instructions from Adam R. Johnson, director of the State Relief Commission, Dott Slough, Floyd County Family welfare worker, this week announced that after February 1 no more surplus food commodities would be issued from her office to enrollees on WPA projects...

Diminishing surplus food commodities, which must be conserved for those having no work and no pay checks—primarily the responsibility of the relief commission—is assigned as the reason by the state director, who points out in his order to the local office:

"As the available supply of surplus food commodities diminishes we become more and more conscious of the needs of the group for whom we feel primarily responsible—the people who are unemployed or who are not assigned to WPA and so have no work and no pay checks."

"In order to conserve, for this group, our food commodities, we are instructing that until further notice you will issue no food commodities to clients who are assigned to WPA projects. This applies to workers whether they are actually working on project or off temporarily suspended projects."

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cass and son C. A. Jr. attended the funeral service of D. R. Atchley, an uncle of Mrs. Cass, Sunday at Hereford.

Mr. Atchley died Friday at Plains, Texas of acute indigestion after only a few minutes illness. He was carried to his home at Berger and interment made in the Hereford cemetery.

The Cass family returned home Sunday night.

EWES HAS THREE LAMBS

One of the freaks of lambing time among Floyd County's many small herds of sheep is noted this week. A big, fine ewe in the flock of W. F. Daniels is the mother of three lambs, which, however, could hardly be said to be triplets.

The first of the three lambs was born on Friday of last week, the last two on Sunday.

The latest washing and greasing equipment is to be added to complete the plan for modern efficient service of all kinds.

The new service will be ready for operation about March 1.

TRUEMAN KIRK UNIVERSITY STUDENT MAKES HONOR ROLL

Trueman Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ohmer Kirk, came in ten per cent highest grade of 5,000 freshman students of the University of Texas. He came within four-tenths of a point making the freshman Fraternity Phi Eta Sigma.

Of 2,000 physical training students he made third highest place with a grade of 89 for this semester and has been selected for coaching and grading papers in the geology department for next year.

Washing and Greasing Service to be Added

A modern flat steel enclosed washing and greasing rack is in the process of installation at G. R. Strickland and Son service station on the Matador highway.

When the rack is complete it will have a value of approximately $1,250. Strickland said. The power lift will be completely enclosed by the 18 by 20 foot flat steel structure and will have a clearance of 14 feet.

District Court Has Two Driving Cases

District Court handled two driving cases Wednesday, the first, James McDaniel, charged with driving while intoxicated, was given a jury trial found guilty as charged. He was given the minimum sentence of $50 fine and five days in jail.

The second, Arley Cooper, also charged with driving while intoxicated was given a jury trial and found not guilty and released.

Two civil cases on the docket were arbitrated. Sinclair Refining Co. vs. Marvin Shurbet et al set for Feb. 10 and First National Bank Lockney vs. J. H. Byington set for Feb. 14 were arbitrated and settled out of court.

Ed Kelley vs. R. E. L. Muncy et al set on the docket for Feb. 14 was continued to the October term of court.

No jury list has been made for the fifth week of court.

Rotary Club Hears Special Music Wed.

Rotary Club members and visitors heard musical arrangements by Clifford Tubbs rendered by Sappho Ward, Maurine Hart, and Evelyn Tubbs at their regular luncheon Wednesday.

WHIRLWINDS COP SERIES WITH CEDAR HILL FOR TITLE

The Floydada Whirlwinds swept the two game series with Cedar Hill, rural school champions, to capture the county title going away, and prepare to travel to Lubbock Friday to enter the district tourney that will be conducted there of Friday and Saturday.

The Floydada quintet rushed their way to a 39 to 17 win over the Cedar Hill boys Saturday night in the first game with H. Smith hitting top form for the first time this season. Monday night the Green and White duplicated the Saturday night game with a 37 to 17 score to clinch the championship and the trip to the Hub City.

Lockney Defeated
The Cedar Hill series was earned by the Whirlwinds in pinning the Lockney Longhorns in two games out of three. The Longhorns captured the first game on their home court by a lopsided score that almost dashed any hopes the Whirlwinds might have had for the title.

The second game was played on the Andrews Ward gym floor and the Whirlwinds became a fast breaking, bucket shooting, crew to win 44 to 35. On a flip to determine the third game site, Coach Odell Winter won and the game was also scheduled for Andrews ward.

The final game was a nip and tuck affair with the FHS quintet coming out on top at the gun by a 33 to 30 score that left the fans gasping for air.

"High-Pockets" Patterson scratched the basket for 32 points in the last two games of the Lockney series to capture high point honors.

AIKEN WINS PLEASANT HILL BASKETBALL TOURNEY HERE

Aiken captured the invitation junior basketball tournament sponsored by Pleasant Hill school Saturday in Andrews Ward gymnasium. Floydada juniors were runners-up but dropped the final game to Aiken by a lopsided score.

The consolation prize went to Providence when that team nosed out the Cedar Hill juniors in a tough game.

Aiken and Providence received silver trophies for their victories. Invitations were sent to 10 schools in the county. They were Aiken, Baker, Cedar Hill, Dougherty, Fairview, Lakeview, Pleasant Hill, Providence, Sand Hill, and South Plains.

Games began at 9:30 and continued throughout the day with the finals held Saturday night.

Aiken was coached by A. A. Brock, Floydada by Brady Thomas, Providence by J. M. Williams, and Cedar Hill by J. G. Biggs.

A small fee was charged at the door to defray expenses.

DISTRICT 3 BASKETBALL TOURNEY AT TECH THIS WEEK

This week end will take 16 District 3 basketball teams to the annual meet which is held at the Texas Tech Gymnasium. Each team will be representing their county. Lubbock and Hale counties will have two teams each in the meet.

According to the schedule for Floyd County will meet District County at 3:30 o'clock Friday, Feb. 18 in the Tech gym. Just who the Dickens County champs are is not known here.

The second round of games will begin at 4:30 with the winners of the first two games meeting at 5:30 the winners of the third and fourth games will meet, etc. At 6:30 a half will be called to high school games for the Texas Tech-Normanna Aggie basketball game that night.

Members of the competing high school teams will be admitted free to the Border Conference scrap the night if accompanied and identified by their coaches. The Aggies are undefeated in conference play and are slated as Border champs, when as Tech has lost four and won two conference games on a recent rag trip.

FLOYDADA DEFEATS CEDAR HILL IN FIRST GAME

Cedar Hill came in for the same dose of medicine Saturday night that Lockney received on the Whirlwinds home court as they were defeated by the fast breaking and valiantly improved Green and Whites 33 to 15.

H. Smith showed the form that had been expected all season by basketball fans as he found the range of the basket and tossed his share of leather.

Mrs. Dave Standifer and children from Muleshoe visited her mother Mrs. E. C. Nelson Sunday.

DOES SHE LEAD THE FIELD - OR FOLLOW THE LEAD?

Bread and Milk are the foods children need in largest amounts

GOOD BREAD helps children get ahead. It supplies elements important to their health and development, as well as the ENERGY and PEP to compete with others.

According to leading authorities, at least a FOURTH of ALL the muscle-building, energy-giving food a child eats can well come from bread at a cost of only a few cents. After six years of age your youngster will be the gainer if he gets six or more slices of bread every day—an easy matter since most children are crazy about it.

Bread and milk meet nearly every nutritional requirement for growing children. Their carbohydrates furnish ENERGY... their proteins growth... their mineral salts contribute to strong bones and healthy teeth.

Since children require food that is easily digested, bread is ideal. No other common food except sugar is MORE QUICKLY digested. Nothing is left to upset or harm the digestive system.

Bread is the best and cheapest way of giving growing children the things their young bodies need in greatest amounts; a good source of food energy and muscle-building protein.

JUNIOR-SENIOR FOLLIES TO BE PRESENTED SOON

Just think! Just barely a week until the Junior-Senior follies! The follies are something to look forward to. The Juniors think the Seniors get all the "breaks" anyway, so they try doubly hard to win. The Seniors feel that they should win after all, it is their last year.

The seniors have a splendid play entitled "The Cats Whiskers." It is a comedy (and not silly). The cast is the best yet. Most of the actors and actresses have had previous experience in playing the parts given them for this play. See for yourself the cast:

Ernie Jones—One year married Keith Tye.
Esther Jones — his wife — Lanell Shirey

Mrs. Daly — Frankie Sanders.
Mr. Daly—Leighton Teeple
Mr. Burns—Lynn Colville
Mrs. Burns—Beth Newton
Mr. Smith—Reid Strickland
Mrs. Smith—Adline Foster
A Policeman—Ralph Taylor

Perhaps the play was not written by Shakespeare, maybe the players are not a Norma Shearer and a Fredrick March, but they're good amateurs and they're going to win the follies!

Come one! Come all! Especially are needed the sophomores! Come to see our play for the superb play of the year!

MRS. JONES TO HAVE CHARGE OF DETENTION FOR AWHILE

Detention has changed hands! Miss Miller deserves a rest after such a long siege. Detention goes may get tired, but Miss Miller never gets a rest. Hers was the privilege of being present every afternoon. Baseball may not be the best substitute, but it is better than nothing.

Mrs. Jones is taking over the responsibility and is also coaching spelling. Detention meets in her room instead of Miss Miller's room.

SOCIETY

Miss Mary Wilson Hicks Is Honored Saturday Night

Miss Mary Wilson Hicks was honored Saturday night February twelfth, at eight o'clock, with a surprise birthday party, given by Marjorie Kirk, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, on South Wall Street.

The honoree received many pretty and useful gifts.

The Valentine motif was carried out in the refreshments.

The guests at this occasion were Mary Adair, Thomasine Cox, Anita Jo Jenkins, Le Nell Shirey, Frankie Sanders, Reda Mae Gary, Frances Jo Terrell, Vera Nell Marshall, Mary Jo Horn, Aileen Warren, Edith Grimes, Beth Newton, the honoree—Mary Wilson Hicks, and the hostess Marjorie Kirk.

Vera Nell Marshall Valentine Party Hostess

Miss Vera Nell Marshall entertained at the home of her parents with a Valentine party Friday night, February eleventh. Games relating to hearts were played and enjoyed by the group. The girls even became so industrious as to make some valentines.

Lovely refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Mary Wilson Hicks, Mary Adair, Muriel Fagan, Mary Emma Collins, Modelle Hanesy, Alene Warren, Erma Dean Moore, Marjorie Kirk, Thomasine Cox, Evelyn Hicks, Dorothy Nell Swinson, Frankie Sanders, La Nell Shirey, Oletha Strickland, and the hostess Vera Nell Marshall.

WITH OUR EXCHANGES

"Waiter," call the manager. "Honestly, I've never seen anything as tough as this steak."

"Well you will sir, if I call the manager."

A tiresome young man was calling on a girl and showed no signs whatever of going home. "Did you know," he asked when midnight had come and gone, "that I can imitate any bird that you can name?"

"Indeed," responded the girl, "suppose you start with the homing pigeon."

A sensible girl is not so sensible as she looks because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.

If you want to see better, drink milk, but of course, if you want to see double, you'll have to try something else.

Ray took his aunt out riding. "Tho' winter be the breeze; He put her in the rumble seat To watch his anti-freeze!"

FRESHMAN FOLLIES TO BE PRESENTED AT F. H. S. SOON

The Freshmen presented "Kidnapping Betty", starring J. L. Nickles, Leon Handley, Bruce Foster, Layverne Handley, Laverne Hanks, Louise Willson, Aileen McIntyre. The cast is coached by Miss Miller Mr. L. B. Williams.

Three cheers for the fish. They don't mean to brag but they're hoping to win back the honors for the freshmen class this year. With all the spunk they can muster up the fish are starting practice on a smash hitting comedy that sure to take the cake.

He: "How's your companionate marriage coming on?"
Him: "Not so good. I lost my wife's address."

Superintendent A. D. Cummings of Floydada High School has been re-elected for the school term of '38-'39. Mr. Cummings is popular with both faculty and student body and every one rejoices that he is back for another year.

The Vocational Agriculture boys trimmed approximately 1000 trees around the football field. They got some good experience and helped the appearance for the school a great deal.

The boys have taken, as one of their main projects, the landscape of the front of the School house. They plan to put out all kinds of trees and ever greens.

The chapter has been working on a 1 act play that they expect to present the play in Lubbock and if they win there they will be given a free trip to El Paso to the State Convention next summer. To give them lots of practise they plan to present the play in several different communities. The cast will be Billy Daniels, Milton Weems, Eugene Blackman, Raymond Colston, Melvin Phillips, J. F. Poindexter, Jewel Elza, Leeland Woodward, Ardel Spence, Joe Smith, and Dru Cumbie. The boys are expecting to go over in a big way.

JUNIOR NEWS

Those peppy Juniors are busy at work, as usual, raising money for the Junior Senior banquet. They are hoping to and have good prospects of sponsoring the best banquet in the history of F. H. S.

The cast for the follies has been selected and are diligently working to beat the Seniors. They are soliciting the support of the rest of the school (except the Seniors, of course). The play called "The Tantrum" consists of the following cast. Bunny Hawthorne, seventeen years old. —Dorothy Dell Stovall, Tim, her younger brother—Charles Nickles.

Cousin Geneva—Sappho Ward; Paula Ryan, Bunny's married sister — Gloria Hammond; Roger Ryan—Judson Abernathy Allan Kennedy—James Gibbs Great-aunt Linnie — Oletha Strickland.

Prunella—Evelyn Groves. Wallace McCoy — Olin Watson. Eddie Mintz—James Burrus Mary Ann—Juanita Luttrul. Friends of Geneva.

This play has a strong plot, a strong cast and is expected to go over strong! Everybody come out and see the hit of the follies. "The Tantrum".

THING I WOULD LIKE TO DO

To install an elevator to carry my books from geometry to history class. An elevator for me would be all right, but it would have to be able to stop at the fountain and give me a drink.

To have a pair of sun glasses handy for use when Robert comes to school with a loud shirt of his. Using the word loud, I should have asked for ear muffs because the shirt can shout too.

To find one of those dollars in a nickle box of peanuts.

To have a machine that would open the window when I am on the other side of the room.

To have a convenient hole to crawl into when Miss Copeland finds out I don't know my geometry.

To read my library book in three days so that I want have to skip two or three chapters in order to get back on time.

To lose my life—time pass to detention in some deep dark canyon.

BASEBALL GIRLS PRACTICE FOR LOCKNEY LASSIES

Baseball has opened favorably for F. H. S. girls. In the first practice game Wednesday, February ninth the high school girls matched Andrews Ward girls and won by a score 25-13. Miss Miller, girls baseball coach this year, says that fifteen girls have come out, and each is working diligently for a place on the first team. Players are doing work daily, preparatory to the Floydada vs. Lockney game to be played during the county meet at Lockney.

Thru A Keyhole

It's been rumored that in the "Soph Follies" Dalton Jones is Mary Louise Medlen's hero. Well good for your side Dalton! Not only that but Billy Brown wouldn't take a part because he had to play opposite Mary Frances McRoberts. Well!

In the spring a young man's fancy turns otherwise than his books or at least I've heard of such actions. Some people, however, seemed to find it the perfect time to do other things than make up! (Mentioning no names, of course.)

Have you heard about some of the happenings at the basketball games? Well, I've noticed two certain people doing quite a bit of watching each other! You might as well expect it, however, as we mentioned above, it does look like spring.

Some people seem to think the ruler of their hearts have abdicated and here it is Valentine's. I guess some things just can't help but happen.

One very comical thing that has been turned in is the fact that some of our promising young students tied knots in some long handles (so to speak) that were hanging on a line just too late for safety's sake! Meanies.

Some people still think Nell looks like a barber pole or the "stars and stripes forever" in her (his) football sweater!

Another promising freshman has risen high in the eyes of F. H. S. gals, and we do mean Bruce Foster!

Paul Barnard will be a tylist at heart if he keeps up the pace he started Monday. But he averaged a half-word a minute. "A girl with a valentine personality." Mary Adair.

The famous Kirk ouija board has upset ten senior girls on this matter of honor boy of 1938. It seems they thought someone else, would be "It." Cheer up! Maybe, the ouija didn't know that time.

Whether thou goest in the Foods Lab on paper days, thou wilt certainly hearst such affectionate greetings, as sour puss, stale pass, pickle puss, sweet puss, angel puss, and such. (It varies according to the mood.)

As Valentine makers, Seniors and ex-Seniors, have proved beyond a doubt their superb ability. If there be any dissension among you just ask to see Frankie's and Nell's masterpieces.

LaNell Harmon is a marvelous candy maker with the aid of Martha, Aileen, Louise, Jane, Mary Louise and a few others. Some say they had a rollicking time last Thursday night and who knows better than they.

What secret code has a certain Junior worked up and passed on to her pal? Well I'll admit I'm stumped on it! Just what will someone start next?

Bob Montgomery is reported to be a swell referee for basketball games. I distinctly heard yells for him more than for the teams that were playing. They're probably just jealous, Mont!

Just why do so many students like Miss Rees? Well, as you know she has the keys to the candy holder! But honestly we sure do think she's tops.

We wonder why Mr. Cummings looked so bored when we were making a goal Saturday night? Could it be that he had seen so many games it was beginning to try on his nerves? And speaking of Mr. Cummings, some one reported that he so liked the swings at Andrews Ward that he has consented to buy some for High School. Or has he?

And also in speaking of basketball games it seems that Gordon Patterson (High-pockets to you) has caught the observers eye. One can hardly blame a person though. Honestly, he plays ball like nobody's business! And we're kidding.

Not only is George Lieder a good sideline yellor but also a good coach or a least the advice he gave James Johnston the other night was all right (for a scrub).

Some things are exceedingly trying. For instance after singing "The Lady Is A Tramp" all day and then completely forgetting not only the tune but the words!

The Boy Scouts did a bit of cleaning up Saturday from the reports of Jimmy and Ham. Surely you boys didn't run over stops or speed in town?

Isn't T. Davis' grading pencil just the very cutest? Well at least he seems to be extremely fond of it (size included).

In last week's paper there appeared a line that should have read "I have been saving up my money to buy a 'cot' so I could take it to English class." It read instead "I have been saving up my money to buy a cat so I could take it to English class."

Olin, do you have to rock yourself to sleep every night?

I wonder how long that rocker will last.

Mr. Cummings, can you understand yet why all the ladies like to kiss Robert Taylor?

How good it seems to see a couple of Home Ec boys mopping the Food's Lab. Somer, do you and James Fry practice at home?

Home Ec Club Members Sell Candy To Boost Club Finances, Budget

"Stop pushing! Gimmie a powerhouse—no not that! I wanta Babe Ruth. Got any chocolate kisses? Buy me some candy, please! Come back here with that penny!"

As you have probably guessed—these are the actual recordings of the Home Economics, candy selling department during the noon hour.

Although the noise and general uproar plays havoc with the nerves of the poor conscientious members of the weaker sex who sell these tasty morsels of divinity, the employing of this institution by the Home Ec Club has boosted the finances and budget of the club tremendously.

One can get a typical picture of school life by watching the shifting kaleidoscope of color and persons sometimes punctuated by the appearance of teachers who vainly try to bring a little order out of the chaos.

Hit Of The Week

"That is Why the Lady is a Tramp"

I get so hungry for dinner at eight.

I like the theater but never come late.

I never fool with the people I hate.

That is why the lady is a tramp. I don't play crap games with Barons and Earls.

Don't go to Harlem in ermine and pearls.

Don't dish the dirt with the rest of the girls.

That's why the lady is a tramp. I want the free fresh air in my hair.

Life's without care—I'm broke, it's o'ke.

Don't like California it's cold and it's damp.

That's why the lady is a tramp.

Chapel

When the students of F. H. S. assembled for chapel Thursday they saw so many chairs on the stage that they began to worry for fear of long talks. However, the long talks turned out to be an interesting play by a group of prominent business men. It consisted of an auction of a boy and bids were made by war, crime, entertainment, business culture, religion, business and farming potted their money and bought him and turned him over to the boy scouts to raise into a good citizen.

The students were then honored with a talk by Mrs. Lon Smith who talked on love which she compared with an airplane trip. Everyone enjoyed the talk and wish to extend a further invitation to her.

WASHINGTON, TRUTH TELLER

What a record to establish not one lie in a whole lifetime. Surely a monument should be erected to such a memorable person. Just think! Have you spent one single day in your life without exaggerating even one little bit? Very few of us have. Perhaps exaggerating isn't telling falsehoods, but, just the same, an exaggeration isn't exactly the truth. George Washington told the truth about the cherry tree; why can't we tell the truth about things we have committed when the teacher asks who talked aloud, he or she expects the guilty one to admit it. Thus you break her faith in you if you fail to admit the wrong you have done. People have much more respect for those who admit that which they have done. A tort is an act of misbehavior. Do you not think you could profit by admitting your tort rather than committing the worse crime—lying?

Yes, George Washington, you were a great person. May each one of the students of Floydada High School be as good, kind, and honest as you were.

MISS CADE ENGLISH TEACHER

Miss Cade, who is regarded as a splendid English teacher at Floydada High School, is always ready to help students in every endeavor. Her home is in East Texas, and her talks on the beauties of this part of Texas is always a source of interest to her many classes.

Miss Cade is intensely interested in hobbies. Fishing comes first on the list and after that camping, hiking, painting, traveling, knitting, reading, and in general, beautifying things.

Miss Cade made a true confession during the interview and it was that she likes onions and ice cream!

Her favorite radio programs are We the People and Lum and Abner. Her pet aversion is cats and her favorite color is pink which, incidentally, is becoming to her.

When asked the happiest moment of her life she replied, "The happiest moment of my life was that of receiving my M. A. degree last fall."

Miss Cade is a capable person and sincerely appreciated at F. H. S.

Lamb Feeders Day Is Scheduled For Feb. 19 At Texas Tech College

Invitations Extended To All Sheep And Lamb Raisers To Attend Meeting

Invitations have been extended to all sheep feeders to a lamb feeders day which is to be held at Texas Tech Feb. 19. County Agent D. Bredthauer and Agriculture Teacher W. A. King have been authorized by the college to make this invitation announcement.

Texas occupies a commanding position in sheep and wool production. Sheep feeding is annually receiving more attention. The South Plains section, because of its adaptability to the growing of an abundance of suitable sheep fattening feeds, is rapidly becoming recognized as a potential lamb feeding area.

Experimental data which were obtained in cooperation experiments at Lubbock by Texas Tech and the Agricultural Experiment Station have definitely proven that the grain roughage and sorghum roughage can be satisfactorily utilized for fattening lambs.

A lamb feeders' day will be held Saturday, February 19, in the livestock judging pavilion at Texas Tech. The program for the day, which will begin at 9:30 a. m., will include brief summarized reports of five years of work completed at the college; talks by men engaged in commercial and farm-lot feeding; and inspection of the college sheep farm and flocks; and lastly, a detailed report of this year's experiments.

There will be six lots of lambs fed varying rations to observe and on which will be given the results obtained covering a 90 day feeding period.

Lunch will be served on the campus by the Block and Bridle Club, a student organization.

TOO MANY BOARDS, SAYS MR. GREER, WHAT'S WRONG

I fully agree with W. Edd Brown about the constitutional amendment to allow the aged to draw a pension. W. Edd, thought it meant for all old folks, I did too but it seems it is for only a very few and a board to say who gets attention. Too many boards is what is wrong with our laws. I think we ought to have a new amendment and let the Commissioner's court say who is to get it. That fool board says to not work at all, if you want a pension. Well there would have to be more asylums built, or else increase the capacity of those we have. If you make people sit on the stool of do-nothing who have been active all their lives, they would go crazy. I wonder who Old Jim will run this time. I had been over on the north side of the square to get a piece of hardware and as I was coming back I noticed a bunch of men, at the corner of the bank, listening to a fellow wearing a wide brimmed hat, tooting up Jim Ferguson. The men listening to his tooting were all smiles. It only took a few minutes to make me sick. S. A. Greer.

ARKANSAS COTTON PICKER GIVES OBSERVATIONS ON FLOYD COUNTY CONDITIONS

This is my second sojourn in Floyd County and to say that the trip has been a treat to me is to feebly express the gratitude of my heart for the boundless, sincere hospitality shown me while in your midst.

I greatly admire your people. I'm impressed with the bracing climate and sparkling and life-giving water, together with the limitless wealth of your soil.

As I see it, to combine the rain and snow with the deep water wells will give you abundant moisture for not only general farming and live stock production but truck, beet growing and grape culture on a large scale. Also an unlimited amount of poultry and dairy products may be produced at a minimum cost.

Best Texas County

Considering the firm and erosion-resisting nature of your soil, coupled with properly balanced crop rotation, there is no limit both to the variety, quality and quantity of the crop you may grow. In other words Floyd County for all purpose farming, trucking, dairying and live stock production is the best county I have ever visited in Texas. But to reach the goal of permanent prosperity in your city, rural home, church, school and community life, there is yet much intelligent and persistent work to be done, and money to be expended.

As I see it, there are only two things that can and may keep you from attaining peace, happiness and financial security. The first is selfishness and the second is bigness. Without cooperation, no large-scale progress can be attained and no permanent prosperity can be had. Selfishness and too-large acre farming and stock raising practice will inevitably defeat both the above ends.

With the natural and deep water supply, what Floyd County needs is considerably more and smaller farms. More thoroughly cultivated and more but smaller herds, and they better bred and more efficiently fed and cared for. In my judgment it is not to the best of interest of your people to turn too suddenly from stock farming to tractor farming. I am told that tractors have just recently advanced in price nearly $100, and perhaps other farm machinery in the same proportion. I am also told that some 100 tenant farmers are or will be without land to till this next year as a direct result of the tractor-farming in your county. Without employment buying power is decreased and without buying power the market for the increased crops and live stock you grow will weaken, and with poor or worse still, no market for your abundant yields, from whence will come your profits? How will you meet the increased cost of your tractor-farm equipment?

We are taught in God's word that "no man can live unto himself, and no man can die unto himself." Whatever present gain that may accrue to you in the disposing of your tenants will be absorbed in higher taxes for their support when they join the local, state and federal relief rolls.

What you need in Floyd County as I see it is more happy, contented and full time employed families whose mouths are to be fed and whose feet are to be shod and whose bodies are to be clothed and furnished with ample shelter and household and kitchen utensils and who own splendid vehicles in which to ride. In the long run, horse farming is more economical and besides the raising of mules and horses is a good business. As Will Rogers once said, "The horse works for the man and man for the horse."

Floydada Needs Industries One word to the business men of Floydada and the other towns, so far as I know you have practically no manufacturing interests at all. Not even a flour mill and have just reaped a crop of 5,000,000 bushels of wheat. The greatest single disadvantage to your plains country, is the sparseness of your population, the few manufacturing industries and the immense disadvantage to markets. You pay freight both on what you produce and ship out and what you ship in, and yet you are fairly driving an important part of your population to other section of the country which are already overcrowded, by failing to bring manufacturing and processing plants to your towns to furnish employment to a growing population. Your farmers are doing the same by turning to large scale tractor farming. Until your population is greatly increased, all north west Texas will be subject to north central and southern Texas, where the population is dense, where manufacturing is centered and where money changers hold forth, and where politics dominate the state.

If you will cast about, you will find the states and parts of states that are making the greatest advancement in every way, are doing so by combining agricultural, livestock, poultry and industrial institutions. In other words, money, raw materials and labor are mutually laboring together for the common good of all, and in doing so, unemployment is reduced to the minimum. Buying power is ample and money is plentiful. Interest is low and there is a sense of security, peace and prosperity among the people as a whole.

Mental Disorders Now Represent Big Problem Health Officer Says

Fifty Per Cent of Those in Hospitals Are Suffering From Mental Trouble

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 17.—Mental disorders today represent a real problem and it is estimated that more than fifty per cent of all hospital beds are filled by persons suffering from mental or nervous diseases, declares Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

It thus appears that modern civilization is exacting a terrific toll. High speed living, with its cruel exactions upon nature, is responsible for a large part of the trouble. But improper personal conduct must also shoulder much of the blame. The fact is that nearly fifty per cent of the patients entering hospitals for mental disorders are there because of organic or toxic causes.

For example, general paralysis is the direct cause of one-fifth of the mental troubles in males entering hospitals and one-tenth of the disorders for all groups. This condition is an organic disease of the brain due to the germ responsible for syphilis. It is a preventable disease. Early and effective treatment of acquired syphilis will block the end results of general paralysis in the insane.

The excessive use of alcohol is responsible for a number of mental disorders, at least in males. Alcohol and syphilis combined are responsible for approximately one-fifth of the hospitalized insanities. Nevertheless, improper living habits continue to impair many brains. Insufficient sleep, neglect of bodily care and a consistent over forcing of nervous energy are the pitfalls to avoid in this connection.

Nature demands that her fundamental laws be at least reasonably observed. A constant outraging of the physiological economy takes its toll not only in bodies but in minds also. Insanities and lesser nervous disorders could be spectacularly reduced if this fact was more generally respected. Training for mental health must be started in childhood as that is the time when corrections can be made to the best advantage.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Conner came home Monday from Sulphur Springs. Mr. Conner went down last week end for Mrs. Conner. She had been there for some time visiting with relatives and convalescing from an illness.

Sunday School Lesson

CHOOSING COMPANIONS IN SERVICE

International Sunday School lesson for Sunday, February 20, 1938.

Golden Text: For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother. Mark 3:35.

Lesson Text:—Mark 3:7-19; 31-35. 7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea; and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea.

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

12 And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 And he goeth up into a mountain and calleth unto him whom he would; and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach.

15 And to have power to heal sickness, and to cast out devils.

16 And Simon he surnamed Peter; and John the son of Zebedee, and James the brother of John; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder.

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Cananite.

19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him; and they went into an house.

31 There came then his brethren and his mother, and standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

32 And the multitude sat about him; and they said unto him, Behold thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

Time and Place.—Midsummer, A. D. 28, at the same time as the Sermon on the Mount on the Horns of Hattin, a two-crested mountain not far west of the Sea of Galilee.

The first words of the text emphasize the difference between the Great Teacher and the teachings of those demagogues who in practically all ages have offered Utopian schemes to better mankind and cure his ills. The opening sentence, "Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea," places the stamp of originality upon the Master's methods.

It is the mark of the demagogue that he always wants to be with the crowd or wants to have the crowd with him; but Jesus was continually withdrawing from the multitude.

Was it that He had no message for the common people, and did not wish to give the Gospel to the multitude? Not at all. On the contrary, the common people heard Him gladly, and we see Jesus constantly in places where people were congregating in their daily life, and in the synagogues and the temple, where they congregated for worship.

But almost invariably, where the multitude surrounded Him, hearing of His fame, the emphasis was always upon the things that He had to express. The people were eager for some physical benefit, but they did not perceive the need of His spiritual teaching. "Ye seek Me," He said on one occasion, "not because ye see the miracle, but because ye did eat of the loaves and were filled."

Jesus realized that the great influences were not upon crowds and multitudes, but were expressed in close contact with individuals and with small groups. He retired into quiet places with His disciples that He might teach them and commune with them.

He sent out the apostles and 70 other workers to go through the villages making contacts with people, bringing near to them in their daily lives the true teaching concerning God's love and righteousness.

Here we have the story of Jesus choosing the 12 who were to be His particular disciples, the inner circle whom we call "the Apostles." We need not dwell upon the men whom Jesus chose. Their names and characters are well known, so far as the Scriptures tell us anything in detail concerning them.

About most of them we have no extensive knowledge; the ones who stand out most prominently are Peter and the two brothers, James and John. We do not know so much about Andrew, yet it was Andrew who brought his brother, Peter, to Jesus.

The nature of His relationship to His disciples and to the Kingdom of Heaven that He had come to claim is emphasized in a passage in our lesson that might grate somewhat harshly upon our modern feelings if we did not read it properly and perceive its truth. When Jesus was told that His mother and His brethren were waiting for Him outside, we are told that He said, "Who is my mother and my brethren?" and looking round on the company He added, "Behold my mother and my brethren, for whosoever shall do the will of God the same is my brother and sister and mother."

Was Jesus minimizing the dignity and beauty and responsibility of family relationships? Not at all. On the contrary, He was emphasizing the reality and depth of the bond of love between those who have truly accepted the consciousness of God's fatherhood, and are living in the communion of love and grace. If we doubted this, we should recall the fact that the mother of Jesus followed Him to the cross, and stood by sharing His suffering, and in the time of His last agony Jesus committed the care of His mother to the disciple whom He loved.

Stapleton Announces Candidacy For County Attorney's Office

To the People of Floyd County: I hereby make my announcement for the office of County Attorney of Floyd County, Texas, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, July 23, 1938.

I am a native of West Texas, and I have been a resident of Floyd County for twenty-three years. I shall be thirty years old in August of this year. I graduated from Lockney High School in 1925, then spent three years in the West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, Texas, and one year in the law school of the University of Texas. Then the Depression came and I was out of school five years. During these five years I was engaged in several different businesses from raising wheat to selling automobiles. And I feel that during these five years I received much valuable experience and training in business.

For the past three and a half years I have been in Houston attending the South Texas School of Law at nights and working during the days. The South Texas School of Law is approved by the Supreme Court of Texas, and some of the foremost attorneys of South Texas are on its faculty. From these men who are practicing lawyers I received what I believe is as fine training in law as can be had anywhere. I was graduated last June with a LL. B. degree, and I was admitted to the bar in September.

I feel that I have a good foundation and that I am qualified to handle the office of county attorney. I promise you that I will fulfill the office to the best of my ability. I earnestly solicit your support and influence. I plan on making a vigorous campaign, and I hope to see each of you between now and the election.

Cordially yours, JOHN STAPLETON. (Political Advertisement)

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

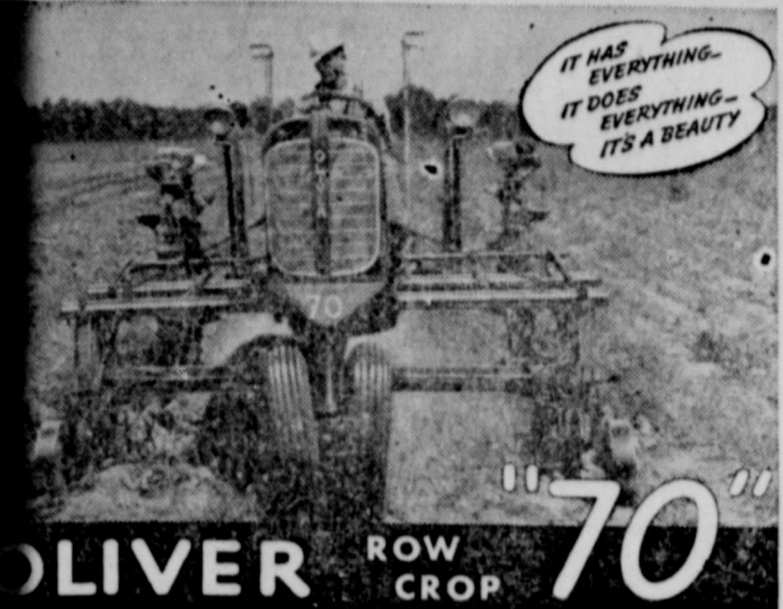

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling the germ-laden phlegm.

The Medical Profession has for many years recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients and now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by both adults and children.

Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief that you want. OLIVER ROW CROP "70"

Money-Saving Year-Around Power for Cotton Planting

Go down the ridges on the Row Crop "70" with its centrally mounted 2-row power and prove to yourself that the "70" has everything, does everything and is a beauty for cotton growing. Bust, run middles and plant with one tool—a few easy changes. Work at 3 1/4 or 4 1/4 m.p.h., straight on the rows, close to the row ends. Get a more mellow seed bed that means better crops. The self-steering Tip Toe Wheels actually cultivate the soil and never run in the rows to be planted.

The "70" is the most modern and easiest-handling tractor in the field today for cotton growing. Its smooth, steady 6-cylinder power is unsurpassed for all on tillage work with centrally mounted tools, and is ideal for drawbar, belt and power take-off work. Its finger-tip control from the comfortable driver's seat, and automotive type steering with steering-braking on the turns provide driver comfort and faster, easier handling than any tractor built before. The Oliver Variable Speed Governor Control enables you to use only the fuel needed to do the work.

The "70" is built in two engine types to give you greatest fuel economy—high compression "70" HC for gasoline, and the "70" KD, for kerosene distillate—each specially designed for the fuel. Pick your fuel and your "70", and get a "70"! We'll be glad to demonstrate. Come in and see us.

While the vast and expensive setup necessary to carry on the program is not indicated in this brief summary and other objectionable features of the bill are not pointed out, it is believed in congress and other informed quarters the bill is the best ever yet written, based largely on experience with temporary farm legislation during the past ten years.

press with the summary of the bill's provisions, Mr. Jones says:

"The new farm program is designed to give agriculture a place of equality in the national picture. No thinking person can deny the need for such a program. Anyone with even a short memory can recall the days of five cent cotton and twenty cent wheat, of ten cent corn and three cent cattle. These prices wrecked not only the farm and ranch sections but wrecked industry as well.

"The well-being of agriculture is necessary if the nation is to prosper, and it is the well-being of agriculture that is the purpose of the farm program.

"I have insisted from the very first that the farm measure should contain provisions which would assure fair treatment to small farmers and tenants so that individual farming will be encouraged. Such provisions were included in the measure which I introduced in the House, and I am glad that we have been able to keep these safeguards in the measure.

"The provision for enlarging our foreign markets is one of major importance. I believe that it is much better to pay a slight loss on shipments to countries which do not produce a commodity than to refrain from producing that commodity and thus lose the labor and commerce connected with its production. This philosophy has been retained in the bill.

"The measure is not all that some of us would have liked, but I feel that it is a step in the right direction. It provides the fundamentals for a long-range farm and ranch program and can be improved in the light of our experience from year to year."

In this section where the air is relatively dry it will ordinarily be unnecessary to disinfect pruning wounds but in case of large pruning, wounds should be covered with some protective substance. This is not to aid the healing but to prevent the entrance of rot causing fungi. All wounds an inch and one-half or more in diameter should be covered with white lead paint mixed with raw linseed oil, asphaltum grade D, which must be heated before applying, or a pruning compound can be made by mixing one part black paint, one part creosote, one-fourth part crude carbolic acid.
