More Study Of Damsite Undertaken

Engineers From Bureau Of Agricultural Economics View Park Proposal

Another step toward getting approval of a proposal for a recreation park site and dam on Blanco canyon south of Floydada was made last week-end when J. S. Rezer, assistant engineer of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, spent Thursday afternoon and Friday in Floydada and on the proposed site in company with A. W. Anderson, landscape engineer.

Describing the project as feasible and worthwhile, the engineers carried back to their regional office maps and other detailed information concerning the possibilities of a lake forty feet deep, a mile and a half wide in places and two and a half miles long, such a lake with the water available might be created by a dam 1300 feet long and 50 feet high, the water levels run indicated. More than a day was spent by assistant county surveyor Walter D. Newell and a crew on the ground to afford information as to water levels and the possible extent of the lake that would be created by a dam.

Insufficient information was held in the Amarillo office to warrant forwarding the application to the Washington office, James C. Foster, regional director of the bureau, told local officials and citizens when they visited him a week ago. It was to afford all the possible information that the visit of the field man was asked for.

Local enthusiasts for the park plan envision a park and play ground of great beauty lying from the dam site westward toward Highway 207, which with roads leading into the grounds would make it a very practical location for the convenience of an estimated 65,000 persons who would be better served by it than by any other site now in view for a recreational center.

Local officials and Chamber of Commerce workers are keeping Congressman George Mahon advised of their activities and he has promised to join in their conferences with the regional director when the matter is carried further toward consummation.

New Assistant County Agent At Work Here

H. H. Marshall, graduate of Texas University in charge of AAA routine work in Robinson county for the past four years, assumed his duties here September 12 as assistant county agent to succeed L. W. Chapman, who is now superintendent of Floyd county REA.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conner at present. His home was formerly Franklin county. He came to the office here highly recommended by his superiors.

Deakins Home, Says Illinois Is Pretty

J. G. Deakins, home the latter part of last week from a sojourn of ten days in Illinois, says that state is a pretty farming country.

"If Floyd county had every foot in cultivation, never suffered from a shortage of moisture, and had big barns every where you looked it would be Illinois," Deakins said.

His visit was in company with J. A. Nelson, of Fort Worth. They were in the vicinity of Rockford, a manufacturing and farming center west of Chicago.

Fall Under Binder Results In Painful Injury For Allmon

W. R. Allmon is resting much better this week and is expected to be out and about in a few weeks after suffering injuries in an unusual accident last Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

X-ray pictures made the day he was hurt indicates he has 8 ribs broken, 1 of them in 3 places and another in 2 places. In addition he has severe bruises on his back and shoulders.

As Mr. Allmon recalls the accident he reached over to grab a big wheel of a row binder and he was jerked from his seat. He called to his team quickly and they stopped. He was several minutes extracting himself from the lugs of the big wheel as he remembers it. He was cutting and binding feed.

He has been confined to his bed, very sore, stiff and taped up, but believed to be definitely recovering after a very narrow escape with his life.

City Fire Marshal Meeting At Lubbock Tuesday Draws Floydada Chief and Marshal

Warning Given On Dirty Alleys And Uncut Weeds And Grass As Fire Hazard

Fire Chief Verne Elliott and Fire Marshal E. S. Price attended the eleventh regional meeting of City Fire Marshals which was held in Lubbock Tuesday. Fire marshals from 41 Texas towns as well as a number of city officials, fire chiefs, and firemen attended.

According to Fire Marshal Price, the purpose of the regional meeting was to raise the standard of the office commensurate with the importance attached to the fire marshal's duties and powers. "This is being accomplished," Price explained, "by the holding of these periodic regional meetings where fire marshals may be instructed as to their duties and how better to perform them."

Engaged to Curtis B. Dall—A debutante three years ago, Miss Katharine Miller Leas, above, of Haverford, Pa., is soon to be married to Curtis B. Dall, a New York broker and the former husband of Anna Roosevelt, who divorced him in 1934. A few months later, the President's daughter married John Boettiger, Seattle publisher.

"At the Lubbock meeting there was fully explained: the Fire Marshal Ordinance, inspections as a fire prevention measure, fire hazards and how to get them corrected or removed, the investigation of an incendiary fire, how city officials can cooperate with the fire marshal in the performance of his duties, what an efficient fire marshal is worth to a community, and other subjects pertaining to fires, their control and prevention.

"It is only through the continued practice of fire prevention methods that fires can be reduced. We urge that the people of Floydada clean their alleys and cut their weeds now before fall frosts come in order to cut down the danger of winter grass and weed fires that might cause a heavy property loss," Price said.

The Lubbock meeting was held from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon. Representatives were present from Amberst, Aspermont, Anton, Big Spring, Brownfield, Colorado, Crosbyton, Floydada, Hermleigh, Hale Center, Idalou, Jayton, Lorenzo, Levelland, Littlefield, Lamesa, Lockney, Lubbock, Odessa, O'Donnell, Olton, Mulshoe, Midland, Plainview, Post, Paducah, Roaring Springs, Roby, Rotan, Ralls, Roscoe, Sweetwater, Spur, Snyder, Slason, Seagraves, Stanton, Sudan, Seminole, Tahoka, Turkey.

1939 Wheat Acreage For Floyd County Is Set At 143,089 Acres

The 1939 wheat acreage for Floyd county will total 143,089 acres according to information this week. The acreage was based and determined by taking 64 per cent of the wheat acreage of the county for a five year period, 1933 through 1937.

The 1938 figures are based on a production figure of 8.4 bushels per acre yield and payment will be made on that figure but the 1939 yield per acre figures are expected to be much higher although they have not been figured at the present time.

A large number of wheat producers are asking "what can we plant on diverted acreage?" It is given out at the county agent's office that producers may plant wheat in excess of their 1939 allotment for grazing purposes if a 25 per cent mixture of barley or rye is added to the wheat when seeded.

It is also understood that wheat compliance will be based on seeded acres and compliance for wheat will be checked during mid-winter.

Some producers are over-alarmed, it is believed by authorities, as to what might be planted. General crops will have a base for 1939 which will consist of grain sorghums and barley for harvest and that most every wheat farm will carry some sort of general acreage base which will take up the crop land figure.

4-H Sponsors Meeting Held Wednesday P. M.

L. L. Johnson, state 4-H club leader, presided at a meeting of 4-H club sponsors held Wednesday afternoon in the county court room.

The purpose of the meeting was training for sponsors and agents, outlining the 4-H program in Floyd and Motley counties for 1939.

Present for the meeting were County Agent D. F. Bredthauer, Henry Schacht of Alken, Bruce Blackford of Irick, Edd Holden of Sand Hill, Lon Davis and J. G. Wood.

Frank Buckley, county agent of Motley County, and Percy Tate of Alken, outstanding 4-H club boy of Floyd county, were also present for the meeting.

R. E. A. CO-OPERATIVE MAY CHOOSE RESIDENT ENGINEER FRIDAY NIGHT

Probability that a resident engineer for the Floyd County Rural Electric Co-Operative will be chosen tomorrow night when the board of directors will hold a meeting postponed from last week.

Other matters pertaining to perfecting the local set-up also will have attention.

Hiway Department Makes No Promise On WPA Project

But Plains Officials Assured Consideration Will Be Given Requests

Floyd, Hale, Briscoe, Lamb, Bailey and Briscoe county officials who appeared before the State Highway commission Monday of this week were made no definite promises by the commission, but were told their projects and proposals would have every consideration.

Demand for road construction and improvement greatly exceeds the work possible with the funds available, the officials were told.

At Austin from the plains, among others were the members of the Floyd county commissioners court, Judge W. Coffee, Jr. of Briscoe county, Judge H. M. LaFont of Hale county, Judge L. R. Crockett of Lamb county, and Judge M. G. Miller of Bailey county.

The Floyd county delegation and Judge Coffee of Silverton were interested particularly in a WPA project that would lead north in Floyd county toward the Briscoe county line. Need for employment for WPA workers and anxiety to close the gap in an important highway were presented by members of the Floyd county court and Judge Coffee.

Judges of Floyd, Hale, Lamb and Bailey urged the commission to designate a highway, east and west to connect highway 28 at Floydada with a highway at the New Mexico line that would greatly facilitate travel between southwestern Oklahoma, the eastern panhandle and the west plains area. Much natural flow of travel is taking circuitous routes that would be saved a great deal of mileage by this route, the commission was told.

Appearing with the delegations from this area was Representative A. B. Tarwater, who pointed out the needs of the area and urged the utmost consideration for the road needs here.

Perfect Clay Pigeon Shooting Seen To Win National Trap Shoot

The most perfect clay target shooting that was ever done was seen by J. O. Dudley and his son, Charles, while they were at Vandalia, Ohio, recently for the national American championship shoot. Several hundred crack clay pigeon shots of the nation were in the competition which lasted a week. Dudley and his son saw five days of the shooting and participated in one or two events each.

The national championship was won with a perfect 200 targets broken out of 200. Dudley himself broke 197 out of 200 and was far from being toward top money he said. In the great American handicap, Dudley competed and had a 97 out of a possible 100. It was won with a 99. There were 12 or 15 ninety-eights, he said.

Charles Dudley competed in the sub-junior clay target championship event. A St. Louis boy won this event with a 98. Charles and an Ohio boy were tied for second place with a 91 each.

Dudley said the championship winner had a run of more than 900 targets without missing when the shoot closed.

They were two and a half days going and two and a half returning to Floydada, taking some ten days off to attend and participate in the national event.

Whirlwinds Vs Hornets Friday Nite

Dope Favors Heavier Tulia Squad To Defeat Floydada High School Eleven

Tulia's mighty Hornets will invade Wester Field tomorrow night to take the Floydada Whirlwind into camp. Fresh from a 70 to 0 victory over Friona the Hornets will be highly favored to do just that.

The Whirlwinds will enter the game sadly outweighed in the line and slightly outweighed in the backfield. The Hornets line averages 173 pounds per man while the backfield averages 155 pounds per man.

Floydada probable starting line will average about 142 pounds to the man with the backfield near 146 pounds to the man. The figures show that there will be a difference of 31 pounds to the man in the line and nine pounds to the man in the backfield.

Passing Attack Due Faced with the heavy Hornet line the Whirlwinds must either take to the air in an attempt to get over it or run plays designed to enable them to go around the line.

The probability is that the Whirlwinds will open up with a razzle-dazzle attack of passing and ball handling in an effort to outscore their heavier opponents.

The Tiger game provided little enthusiasm for Floydada fans and little rejoicing on the part of Coach Odell Winter. Every offensive threat that the Whirlwinds started ended with a fumble or a high short punt.

The Green and White team has been drilled severely on their ball handling in an effort to cut down on the disastrous fumbles that helped the Tigers win. Passes have been thrown freely and spinners have been used frequently in an effort to pass the ball around as much as possible in practice.

Every report that has seeped out of the Hornet hive brings sad news from Floydada's standpoint. (See WHIRLWINDS, page 5)

Forty-Four Delegates From Floydada Church Present At Sessions

The twenty-second annual session of Floyd County Baptists met at the First Baptist church at Lockney September 20-21. A. L. Shaw, pastor, acting as moderator opened the session.

A sermon was the highlight of each session and these were delivered by Rev. H. M. Weldon, Matador; Rev. Clark, Tulla; Rev. A. C. Huff, Plainview; Rev. G. I. Brittain, Plainview and Rev. Virgil Lemon, Plainview.

Clifford Tubbs had charge of the song service. This was followed by reports from all phases of the work given by the pastors. Others from Floydada who had parts on the program were Rev. Vernon Shaw, District Missions, and Mrs. G. A. Linder who gave a report of the W. M. U.

New officers for the year are Moderator, A. L. Shaw; Vice Moderator, Rev. H. M. Weldon; clerk, Rev. W. H. Jackson; corresponding secretary-treasurer, A. B. Muncy; W. M. U. president, Mrs. G. A. Linder; corresponding secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Jordan; recording secretary, Mrs. Culppepper; association-ary, B. T. U. director, Mrs. Clayborn; brotherhood president, H. C. McDermitt; representative of the district board, Rev. A. L. Shaw. Rev. W. R. Derr and Rev. Vernon Shaw.

The next session will be held with the First Baptist church at Floydada on Tuesday after the third Sunday in September 1939.

Forty-four from the church here attended.

Lockney FFA Chapter Meets With Floydada

Sixty-two boys were present Tuesday night for a joint meeting of the Floydada FFA and newly organized Lockney FFA.

For the first time Lockney High School will have an agriculture department, taught by R. K. McCoy. Since members of FFA must begin as Greenhands the entire Lockney organization must be initiated by Future Farmers into the organization. The Floydada chapter will have the initiation ceremony at a later date.

The meeting was a regularly scheduled one and gave the Lockney boys an insight into the workings of an FFA meeting.

Jayton Warehouse Situation Subject For Conference Of CCC and Farmers of Section

Equitable Solution Of The Tangle Anticipated By AAA Director

Bill Norman and J. R. Hinton, of Floyd county, are included on a committee of 1937 cotton raisers who have been holding conferences on the Jayton warehouse situation, where several thousand bales of cotton have been stored after being borrowed against by the producer, and on which grades determined at the time of storage have failed to stand up to grades set by the Commodity Credit Corporation. The latter organization, a federal agency, advanced the funds to farmers on contracts which make the farmer responsible where cotton is not of the grade and staple specified.

Wednesday Norman sat in a conference in Lubbock where growers and Congressman George Mahon conferred. A conference with a representative from the Commodity Credit Corporation is due to be held Monday.

The matter first became a serious issue with several cotton raisers in this county when notes were forwarded here for collection after the collateral (cotton in storage at Jayton) had been determined not to be of the grade and staple as shown in the contract. A few notes also have been forwarded for money borrowed against Haskell and Lorenzo storage receipts.

While some farmers are said to have permitted their cotton to be picked up and taken to the Jayton warehouse and a loan obtained after the cotton was turned down locally, for the most part Hinton and Norman point out, the cotton was turned over to the warehouseman by the farmer who innocently believed the cotton was being graded by an official or representative of the government. Since cotton has gone down materially and approximately $5 per bale storage accumulated, the demand that the cotton be sold and the notes paid will work a serious hardship, they declare.

Floydada Chamber of Commerce and several local firms and officials joined in an urgent request that before the loans are closed out an investigation be made of the situation by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Several hundred messages and letters were sent out from towns in the affected area. One such telegram from the Chamber of Commerce elicited the information from I. W. Duggan, director, Southern Division, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, that a representative of the Commodity Credit Corporation will make a personal investigation of the Jayton warehouse situation in this area.

"I am sure," Mr. Duggan wrote the chamber secretary on September 15, "that a satisfactory solution can be reached which will protect the interests of cotton producers and the government." Continuing Mr. Duggan said:

"We have attempted in all cases to include provisions in all our programs affecting cotton which would prevent situations such as the one at Jayton from arising. It is much better to prevent such instances than to try to correct them after they have happened. However, since it has happened, it is necessary that we work out a fair and equitable solution, which I am sure can be done." He adds, "The solution reached should be such as to discourage a similar one arising in the future."

About Forty Have Applied For Farm Tenant Purchases

Claude C. Carpenter, FSA Supervisor, Reminds Of Deadline Oct. 1

The Farm Security Administration is anxious that all Floyd county farmers interested in making an application for a loan to purchase a farm under the Bankhead-Jones Tenant act call at the local office for application blanks before October 1. It appears those making application after October 1, 1938, cannot be considered for loans this year.

It will be necessary that those making applications last year make new application at this time. It is possible the financial condition of individuals has changed during the last few months. Some individuals that made application last January have bought other land and some have moved out of the county and state.

Applicants that have sufficient livestock and machinery to operate a family-sized farm and cash not to exceed 25% of the value of a farm are eligible for a tenant purchase loan. It appears any one with 25% cash of the purchase price of a home could secure a farm from individuals or other lending agencies.

Homer R. Robbins, regional chief of Tenant purchase division, was in the local office this week and appeared to be favorably impressed with the number and type of applications received to date.

Dependable, permanent and progressive farm families desirous of a farm home, and located on family-sized farms of Floyd county land, at average land values, will help make the Farm Tenancy program successful. Approximately 40 applications have been received to date according to Claude C. Carpenter, local supervisor.

Menard Field Sells South Plains Agency Of Phillips Pet. Co.

Menard Field, for years wholesale distributor at South Plains for Phillips Petroleum Company, has sold his agency and equipment to L. B. Mayes, formerly of Amarillo, and G. A. Patterson, of Oklahoma City, it was announced this week.

Yesterday the new representatives were taking charge of the business. Mr. and Mrs. Mayes were in Floydada for a short time.

Mr. Mayes has been with the Phillips company for a number of years, located in Amarillo, while Mr. Patterson has been efficiency adviser of the Biltmore hotel in Oklahoma City.

It was not learned what plans Mr. Field, who retires from the agency after several years of successful operation, may have.

Adjustment Payments To Arrive Oct. 1

Conservation Compliance Checks To Arrive Sometime In December

Cotton price adjustment payments on the 1937 crop, which are expected to go to some 350,000 Texas farmers, are under way and checks have been going out from the regional disbursing office, the state AAA office at Texas A & M college has announced.

Floyd county will receive a minimum of approximately $175,000 sometime near October 1, it is believed. Due to crowded conditions and lack of space, the local office was unable to complete forms for the payments as soon as certain other offices. Shipping clerks at the central office also sent the county agent office here the wrong forms in the first shipment which furthered the delay.

Every effort was made in the Floyd county office to overcome the two handicaps and by working a great deal of overtime the forms were sent in only a few days late and the payment checks are expected to arrive within 10 days or so.

Payments in excess of $2,500,000 were certified the first week and additional payments are being certified at the rate of around $600,000 each day. It is estimated that cotton price adjustment will reach 337 million dollars in Texas alone.

During the first week some 15,000 applications for payments were certified. Briscoe, Collingsworth, Hall, Lubbock, and Swisher counties have received some payments as have a number of other counties in the state.

W. E. Neighbors New Manager Of Floydada Poultry And Egg Co.

W. E. Neighbors, of Levelland, is the new manager of Floydada Poultry and Egg Company, east side produce house, formerly managed for 9 years by J. V. Jones, and which has been in charge of Earl Chesshir for a week after Jones checked out on Wednesday of last week.

Neighbors moved here with his family Tuesday night and checked in Wednesday morning. He has been in the produce business the past 21 years, much of this time in southwestern Oklahoma. He had been located at Levelland for a year.

TO DEALERS MEET

Geo. Finkner, owner of Triangle Garage, left Tuesday morning for Oklahoma City where he will attend an Oldsmobile dealers meeting and see the new Oldsmobile models for 1939. It could not be learned whether Finkner would return with one of the new models or not. He is expected home this week-end.

Water Trees Now For Best Results County Agt. Says

County Agent D. F. Bredthauer urges the owners of fine trees both shade and fruit trees to do their watering during this month in order to secure the best results next spring.

"Shade and fruit trees will respond readily if given plenty of water during September. The chief essential, however, in applying water is to secure even distribution and deep penetration.

"With shade trees or orchard trees, the next year's fruit buds are being formed and the current season's crop maturing the same time, primarily July to September.

"The fall period of the year in this section is therefore a critical time for the tree to secure a proper irrigation. For trees on heavier soils common in Floyd county, the water must be allowed to percolate slowly in order to insure thorough uniform penetration and the irrigation should extend well out past the evers of the tree as feeder roots extend four or five times the distance from the trunk to the evers or outer edge of the limbs," Bredthauer said.

The fire department Tuesday night extinguished an incipient blaze with chemicals at the J. E. Eubank residence on West Tennessee street. When they made the run to the fire and went in to investigate they found the electric iron had burned a hole through the board, then dropped to the floor and burned a hole in it, too.

The Eubank family were away from home at the time of the fire. Damage was estimated at $50, or less.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Will Spikes

Summer has gone with a flip of her organdy dress, she bows to the new queen—Autumn. And as she goes farther and farther south we see only in memory the green flowering world she brought us. We loved and admired her yet we complained of the heat she brought. We longed for winter. But now that she has gone we remember only her beauty and goodness to us.

One day Autumn heats us with summer heat but the next she gives us a taste of frost and cold. Everyone is in a hurry, so much to do. Crops to be gathered, saved from the winds and the sometimes early frosts. While we milk in the cold, early mornings, we see lights in the windows of our neighbors. We know mothers are there making biscuit and frying meat and eggs. Husbands and sons have to be gotten off to the fields, children have to have lunches made ready.

As the sun comes up we hear the rattle of the maize wagons, the hum of the binder, the silencing noise of the cotton sacks dragged over hard ground. The gins whistle and pour out black smoke. The school bus roars on its way to the towns carrying eager boys and girls wanting to learn how to make the most of their lives.

I stay in the house and cook and sweep but once I joined the harvesters. I know the aching back and sore muscles from stooping to pick up the maize that has fallen. I run the binder many a fall. How tired I got from slapping the slow horses or trying to knock off a hungry horse fly. And when the feed was short and had to be knocked off the carrier with a stick, or the binder choked up and had to be cleaned out, stalk by stalk, and how bad it was to look back and see twine strung out for several hundred yards.

The blooms from the feed went down my neck, careless weeds stung my legs, the children, left at the end of the row sometimes used the grease to grease their legs and their clothes, and pour out the drinking water. How I disliked to oil the binder, especially the holes that had to be cleaned out with a wire. But as the last rows were cut and dumped into the long windrows, I delighted to look back and knew the joy of finishing, and having the joy of knowing I was help to my husband.

I missed seeing Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Stark and children who are visiting their mother and father. Mr. and Mrs. Pitman, but they sent me a note in the shape of a smooth rock that they brought from Arkansas. On it I read about the tall pine trees and clear flowing streams of red apples and nuts, of squirrel and red birds, of two sweet little girls playing in the shade of the pines and listening to the chatter of the squirrels as they stored the nuts in the hollow tree, and hearing the red bird sing as he looks like a flame of fire or a red apple, as he jumped from one tree to another. It tells of my friends sitting by a fireplace, warming by big pine logs, talking to one another and remembering me in my home on the plains. Thank you, my kind friends for the lovely message.

Panay and poker face, the Persian cats, have at last accepted the new house and want to sleep in the day time. Panay was mad and showed her anger. For days she would not come in. But when she did, she went from room to room looking at each change, like a child. Poker Face did the same but he walked in a stately manner as if nothing could shake his dignity.

A lovely scene... golden yellow cosmos in the background. A rock fence in the front covered with heavenly blue morning glories. Blue sage and rosy pink salt cedar make a beautiful bouquet.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON — Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation subsidized buying of wheat for export is disappointing by moving at snail's pace. For about a week the Department of Agriculture with considerable optimism posted a bulletin showing how much wheat had been bought and how much sold under the program. There was so little change in the figures they discontinued the bulletins and their optimism showed symptoms of sudden death. It was the plan to buy 100,000,000 bushels, but so far they have bought scarcely 6,000,000 bushels and exporters have asked for only 2,000,000 bushels to sell abroad.

It's the unofficial opinion of disgruntled agriculture experts that potential European buyers aren't playing ball. They seem to be suffering from the delusion that if they wait long enough this wealthy nation, which can afford to help its wheat farmers revive their export trade, will one day give wheat away.

Sidney Says

A part of the New Mexico doings in my last writing I forgot to tell about. Out there they have a new way of punishing a bad and unruly child in school. The teacher puts them through what is called the belt line.

A niece of mine told me that if they put one of her kids through the belt line they would hear from her. I didn't know what the belt line was so I asked her to tell me and this what she said:

She said the teacher lined the bad or unruly up between two lines of students about four feet apart. The victim had to run down the line while each one hit at him. So the faster the victim runs the fewer lashes he gets.

Now if that niece of mine gets tangled up with that teacher, I bet the teacher comes out at the little end of the horn and with the worst whipping she ever got in all her born days, for she is large, black headed and although a grandmother she hasn't a gray hair in her black head.

She says if one of her kids needed a whipping and got it she would say nothing, but show me a mother who would believe her child needed a whipping! Can you do it? I doubt it.

I wish the Federal Government would do away with rural routes and have only Star routes and not so many dog-gone holidays. If the holiday comes on Sunday they take it on Monday. I don't like that.

Another attempt made by the department through its FSCC to stimulate foreign purchasing has not been a great success. As an experiment, FSCC bought 20,000 bales of one-variety cotton, at a fair price to the planter, for sale abroad. The idea of this experiment was to give publicity to the fine quality of American cotton, anticipating that foreign buyers would compare it, appreciate it, and demand more of it. But it hasn't worked out that way, and FSCC's purchase of 50,000 bales of cotton and 14 mill yards of cotton cloth, made recently, was for distribution to relief clients.

Pellagra A Disease Caused By The Lack Of The Proper Foods

Not Communicable and Essentials Of A Proper Diet Certain Preventative, Health Dept. Says

AUSTIN, Texas.—"Pellagra, while not a communicable disease is of concern to the State Department of Health since many people die of it each year in Texas. Pellagra is a disease that is caused by the lack of proper foods. It comes on slowly and may not be recognized until the victim begins to have a sore mouth, stomach trouble, and reddening and scaling of the skin. When these symptoms appear, the disease has been present for some time," stated Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The longer a person has pellagra the harder it is to cure, so one should be on the lookout for the early symptoms, such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the feet and hands. The disease may become so severe as to affect the mind.

Pellagra is not contagious. As long as a person eats enough of the right kind of food and is not otherwise diseased, he is in no danger even if he lives with a pellagra patient.

The prevention of pellagra depends upon eating the right kind of food at all times. To make sure that the diet is right, it should always include plenty of milk daily, some fresh meat, and as many fresh vegetables as possible. Tomatoes, whole wheat products, salmon, brewer's yeast, and fresh fruits are especially valuable. Having provided these essentials of a proper diet, the rest may be arranged according to family and personal likes. In this way pellagra may be avoided.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

(Issue of September 25, 1924)

Out of the fight for honors among the counties of the Panhandle and South Plains at the Tri-State fair this week Floyd county emerged third, reports from Amarillo this morning state. Judging of the counties was completed late yesterday afternoon, 23 counties being judged.

Movement of the cotton crop has started in earnest with the opening of the weather. Dry, crisp days are opening the cotton fast, and the cotton raisers are starting picking in new fields every day.

Announcement has been made that the Floyd County Federated club will sponsor a flower show to be held in Floydada on Saturday, October 4th, and the details for the show are being worked out rapidly this week by committees representing the federated clubs and the Nineteen-Two-Two Study club of Floydada.

People of the Sand Hill community are taking a lively interest in the preparation of the Community fair, which will be held at the school house there on October 10. Olin S. Miller, superintendent of the fair, says the expectations are to have good crowds, fine exhibits in every department and plenty of entertainment for the crowds that will attend.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Floydada High School Whirlwinds will open a football season with a game on the home grounds, which will be played in the Floydada Baseball park, against Plainview Hi.

Kirk and Sons this week completed plans and specifications and let the contract for the construction of a building adjoining their present site on the north side of the square, which will be a large addition to the business district. They let the contract yesterday to H. E. Cannaday for the construction of the building.

Miss Vaughan West and Paul B. Murrif were united in marriage at the home of Rev. Marvin Brotherton September 10 at 6 o'clock. Miss Eunice Murrif, of Brice, Texas, sister of the groom, and Bacyl Davis, of Lockney, were the out-of-town visitors.

License to marry was issued this week by County Clerk Miss Clara Lee Johnson to the following couples: Jesse Ivey and Miss Ruby Watson; Claude Fawcett and Miss Nettie Belle West; Lynn Smith and Miss Nannie Mae McDaniel.

Facilities for attending every medical emergency, from a finger-scratch to childbirth, will be provided at the New York World's fair 1939. There are to be 10 first aid stations on the grounds, a large corps of physicians and surgeons, nearly 100 nurses, 10 motor ambulances and a mobile X-ray truck to speed to the scene of any accident.—Scurry County Times.

The belief is spreading that no-body should enjoy luxuries whose neighbors are in need! Still one should not wonder that the frugal man, who has worked hard is not going to feel sympathetic towards a lazy neighbor who has wasted his substance.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

Railroad stocks have gone begging now their outgo for years has been larger than their income. They cannot even pay the interest on their borrowings. During the war government ownership mended up the railroads greatly, and of late years autos and trucks have cut into their business. On top of that the I. C. C. is hampering their operations in every way possible. Small wonder that the railroads now want to cut their employees wages 15 per cent or go into receiver's hands.—Briscoe County News.

But he often forgets that where a Sam Jones can get away with rough language, his imitator is likely to shock his audience when using the same expressions. Somebody must get off.—So many of these schemes to provide milk and honey for everybody without work make overcrowding.

Two little boys were straddle a none-too-big hobby horse. Things were so crowded that one little fellow said to the other: "If one of us would get off I could ride better."

South Holds Opportunity Greater Than Problems

Here is one way the south is meeting the old problem of over-production. A cotton farmer is shown plowing under excess crop in order to be eligible for federal aid.

WASHINGTON.—The report of the National Economic Council to President Roosevelt which found the south to be "the nation's No. 1 economic problem" has focused nation-wide attention upon that region.

Vast opportunities and great problems are immediately apparent, side by side.

For the south today is changing more rapidly than has any section of this country in its history with the possible exception of California in the days of the gold rush in '49.

During the last three years more than $500,000,000 in new industrial investment has flowed over the Mason-Dixon line. It slowed temporarily in 1937, but the movement is on again with evidence of renewed force.

Of this half billion dollars in new capital, more than $100,000,000 was spent to develop paper production which promises to become one of the great industries of the south. Southern pine is used most successfully for brown paper, but the late Charles Hertz showed the way to produce white newsprint from the fast growing pine.

National interest in the plight of the south has improved the attitude of the southerner himself toward the situation. He feels that an honest attempt is being made to right the wrongs that grew out of the Civil War. He feels that the industrial north has rid itself of much of its antagonism toward the farming south.

Part of this changing attitude may come from a new understanding of the Civil War and its problems, an understanding that has come largely through the wide distribution of popular books on the war.

Business men of the nation see immense possibilities of development in the south if that region should ever reach the consumer level of the rest of the country. The south gives every evidence of having started that climb.

Most important in the picture is the fact that the south is helping itself. The University of North Carolina has developed a method of marketing the entire cotton stalk so that it may be used in the rayon industry. New uses have been found for old crops, new crops are being raised for the Farm Chemurgic Council. Cattle breeding is increasing.

Editorial

EVERY STATE TO ITS OWN WAY

Every state has its own way of doing things and the older the state the more hide-bound, the more set in the old ways. As for instance, in Texas, barbaric laws give preference to "publication" of land sales and other legal actions of individuals, officials and corporate bodies by using a convenient post, tree or telephone pole.

Mostly, by this means, people learn their neighbors have been sold out for a song, that the school district has refunded its bonded debt, or that so and so's will has been probated, some two to six weeks after the matter has become an accomplished fact.

In Oklahoma and New Mexico, not hide-bound by tradition, another course is pursued. The widest publicity is given to all official actions that affect or are of general interest to the public. Admittedly, the newspapers are helped by this kind of a law, but so is the general public as opposed to the sharper and the Shylock and the unscrupulous official. In Texas the general public, lethargic on many matters, has submitted to the domination of minorities in many matters the past few years, as for instance the barbers' law, the dentist's law, the beautician's code, the pharmaceutical and the embalming arrangement to control the number of practitioners in the state, all in the name of the general welfare, to mention only a few. The general public needs to assert itself in the matter of publicity for all these things. Apparently the newspapers will not undertake such a concerted move themselves in a positive and practical manner.

LEARNING A NEW TRADE

Unscrupulous newspapers, Mr. O'Daniel says, have taken it on themselves to misrepresent him and to present in the wrong light some of his aims when he shall become governor.

Mr. O'Daniel says he was not booed down nor humiliated at Beaumont, that it was all a misunderstanding. And taken advantage of by enemies to make his program an unpopular one.

The incoming governor is not by himself believing there are newspapers which, to accomplish their own ends, are not past being dishonest, not past misrepresenting the facts. The Hesperian has stated such a belief sometime back. We go further to include some flour salesmen, some radio speakers and some lawyers.

However, the truth shall prevail, we are taught, and Mr. O'Daniel by saying as much will not take one jot nor tittle from his effectiveness. The governor-elect is learning a new profession. Naturally, we shall see a bit of lost motion in his efforts.

WHAT MAKES A NEWSPAPERMAN

What does it take to make a newspaperman, a good one?

Olin E. Hinkle, up at West Texas State Teachers College, seems to doubt whether an "intensive" course of newspaper study is what is needed. "A broad, general education plus a few courses in journalistic practices and ideals constitute the best education for newspaper men," is his idea.

Study of economics, history, business law, bookkeeping, sociology, agricultural economics, historical geography, modern drama, American prose, modern novel and short story, literary criticism, appreciation of the fine arts, and printing, are the subjects he will specify to qualify for a degree in journalism after the brief fundamental education has been given.

What Hinkle seeks is a minimum waste of time in studying about journalism, and obtaining in its stead an understanding of life and government. Appraising each situation critically and impartially and writing about it clearly, is the proper objective, he thinks. Mr. Hinkle is largely right. A newspaperman like a farmer or banker has to have something on the ball.

FARM MACHINERY TRANSPORTATION

While no reduced freight rates are allowed for wheat or cotton when they are shipped abroad, it is a noticeable fact that the steel makers product gets a "break" when it goes to foreign lands. Thus, we quote from Marvin Jones, congressman from the 18th district, on farm machinery:

	Domestic Rate	Foreign Rate
Indianapolis to Galveston,	$1.04	.44
Indianapolis to New Orleans,	.75	.44
Chicago to Houston,	1.05	.47 1/2
Chicago to New Orleans,	.80	.47 1/2
Moline, Ill., to Houston,	1.02	.47 1/2

On iron and steel the difference is even more pronounced.

Mr. Jones says he is not in position to say that there is not some merit in the contention that this is as it should be. However, he points out "If it is wise and just to give a lower freight rate on manufactured products from the industrial areas to the point of shipment when going into export in order to dispose of the surplus, why doesn't the same reasoning apply to farm products going into export, in order to dispose of the surplus of those products?"

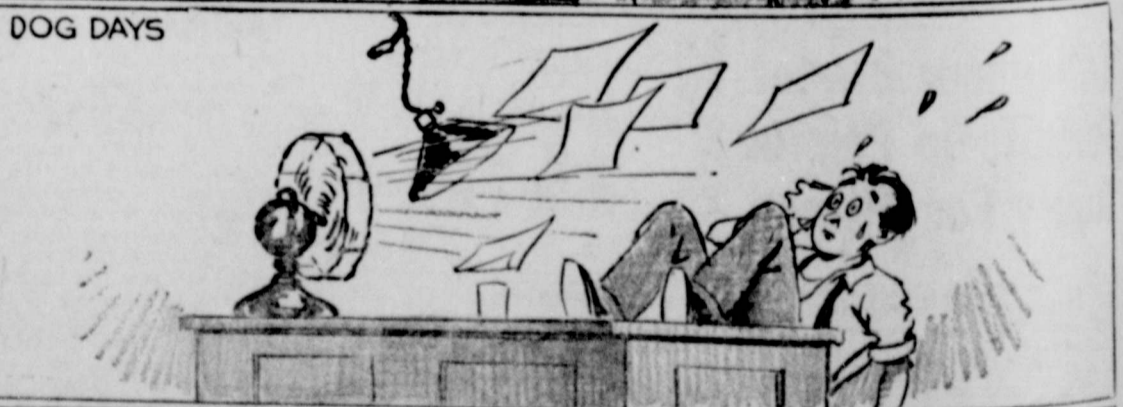

One reason why such unusual and unfair discrimination is being practiced against the southwest is that the people of this area are still paying for the civil war and the helplessness of their forebearers following it.

Maybe a happier situation will prevail some of these days. At any rate Mr. Jones and others got a provision in the last farm bill that recognizes these discriminations and will have a tendency to correct them.

ALL ON THE GIVE SIDE

Kay Elliott, over in East Texas, has written a book about dogs. It is an interesting book by a man who loves dogs as this paragraph will attest: "The love of a dog for its master is all on the give side. He will wait, faithful and apparently happy, through week upon week in which his master pays him no attention unless it be to scold him for some misdeed; he will wait, with faith unshaken, for that day he knows will come, when his master will reach down and take his head in his two hands and rumple his ears back and forth. Then a light will come into his eyes, a light of love, his tail will wag madly, and his very body seem to tremble with emotion. For this he would again endure all the scoldings, all the neglect, all the thoughtlessness of years gone by."

Hester West Writes Interesting Letter Enroute To Her Work

Letter Mailed at Honolulu From Boat Westward Bound to Chinese Mission Station

[Ed. Note.—A general letter to her friends and co-workers in this area from Hester West is reproduced below. It was written while on the high seas a day out from Honolulu on August 23. Miss West is a nurse returning to China for assignment as a missionary of the M. E. Church after a year of rest and study at home.]

Dear Friends:
It is Tuesday now. We sailed at about 12 noon on Sat. Got to Victoria that afternoon about 4 and left about 6. It is a beautiful little island. Green pines have their own attraction but when they are part of a flower garden on an island with steep sides, surrounded by a blue, blue sea well they are just beautiful beyond expression. Mrs. Paty, Elizabeth, Dr. and Mrs. Hawk and I went in a taxi the two miles up to the town and got us some camp chairs to use for deck chairs. To rent a chair means $2.00 and we got the others for $1.25 and then will have them after the journey is over. As we drove through the streets we were astounded to see two baskets filled with flowers hanging from each light post. The taxi driver said that when cold weather came, they were all taken down and put in hot houses.

We were tired after all the excitement of seeing the boat start off. It was a sight to be long remembered. Its Vancouver I'm talking about now. The pier was filled with folks there to see their friends and loved ones off. I would guess that at least 350 passengers are on the boat. We were all on one side at the rail and all the visitors were across on the pier with only the gangplank acting as connecting link. A Chinese with a big brass gong went past sounding the last warning. The final handshakes were given and then we waited for the gang plank to come up. We saw that the loading was not yet done. The big crane took load after load of California oranges and dropped them down in the hold. There was a swarm of stevedores rapidly storing it away. At last they waved the "all clear" signal and up came the gangplank and the distance between the land and us got greater and greater. The band played and then the cornetist stepped to the rail and played "Auld Lang Syne. Handkerchiefs were waved, tears were shed and as I had no one to wave at, I looked about to see how the passengers were taking the parting. I knew that many of them were missionaries going to China, Korea, and Japan again. Some were young folks going out for the first time, others were grandparents, going out for perhaps the last time. As they bade farewell to relatives, friends, and North America for perhaps the last time there was a sort of exalted look on the faces I saw. Their eyes looked as though they were seeing beyond the parting scene to other places. Most of the eyes were dry and smiles were on their faces. Quite a group of missionary children were among the group. One elderly gentleman put his arm around his wife and they stood watching the land grow dim in the distance.

a concert by the ship's orchestra. The sea was calmer by then so we had a good night's sleep. I was so thankful that I had not been laid out by the antics of the sea. Food tasted good and all was well with me.

Monday we had a fine day. Every one was up and about. Had a short service in the morning, led by one of the missionaries from China. Oh, how we are praying for strength for our difficult task. Several who have recently come out of the war zone are here and with letters and literature in addition to the personal experiences, we are trying to get a true picture of China and Japan and Korea in order that we may be better able to adapt to the situation upon arrival.

I will have to get used to having both the outgoing letters and the incoming ones read. I do hope I can omit all those things which might be objectionable to the Japanese censor and hope my friends can do the same. I do not covet a place on the black list. Of course, at times I may be able to get letters directly to the post office on the boat but those coming in with all have to go through the post office.

Today is Wednesday. Tomorrow at 10 a. m. we are due to dock at Honolulu so this letter must get itself finished. We are still having grand weather. The sea is so blue it looks like a heavy oil of some kind. Last night we had a fancy dress party. It was fun. All sorts of figures made their way across the floor in front of the judges' bench. Pop Eye, an angel, Scottish Highlanders, etc.

We are especially fortunate to have such a fine group of folks going to China on the boat. Some of the leaders of the Christian movement in that land are here. Every morning 9:30-10 we all have a devotional time together. The ones for China are feeling their great need so greatly and are praying so earnestly for a closer fellowship with God and with each other. We miss the ones who are yet in America but know that they are helping with talks and prayers there. We are all so thankful for those who remember to pray for "all of God's children."

This boat has a large amount of deck space so we do not feel cramped and can sit, walk, swim or play as we desire. We are all getting a nice sun tan which is most becoming. I have been teaching two of the girls to knit. You can well imagine that I enjoy that. They seem to think it a great art too.

Sunday School Lesson

DAVID: TRIUMPHANT FAITH

International Sunday School lesson for Sunday, September 25, 1938. Golden Text: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. Psalms 23:1.

Lesson Text: Psalms 23 and 27. Printed Text:—Psalms 23 and 27:1-6

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

1 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

2 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

3 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

4 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

5 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Psalm 27:1-6—
The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my arm; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me: he shall set me upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy: I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Time and Place: David lived between the years 1025 and 1015 B. C. Psalm 23 was probably written in his earlier days, while Psalm 27 may have been written in his mature years. There is no indication where either Psalm was written.

One of the most complex and mixed personalities of recorded history undoubtedly was David, king of Israel.

He first appears as a shepherd boy, devoid of guile, entering an armed camp to bring food to his older brothers. There he learns of the challenge of the giant Goliath which none in the camp will accept.

The shepherd boy, armed with a sling and stones, accepts the challenge and slays Goliath. Subsequently the divergent character of David's personality begins to appear.

We have the man of war, a leader of daring men like himself, an outlaw who becomes the deliverer of his people, yet whose career is so drenched in blood that he is forbidden to build the Temple, so that honor is reserved for his son Solomon. We see him engaged in an illicit love affair, issuing in the foul murder of an innocent man and patriot—and yet when sin is brought home to him by a courageous prophet, his sense of justice is such that he acknowledges his wrong.

We see him in the camp, uttering without any thought of its fulfillment a yearning for a drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem. When hero-worshipping soldiers have risked their lives to bring it, we see him pouring it out on the ground as a sacrifice and offering, unwilling to take for himself that for which men had risked their lives. Then, we have him pictured with his harp as the sweet singer of Israel and the reputed author of many of the Psalms, which in general have been for the world "the Psalms of David."

He appears in our lesson, especially through Psalms 23 and 27, as a symbol of triumphant faith.

If a man had done nothing more than write the 23rd Psalm, he would have been worthy of a great place of distinction among men. Successive ages have borne witness to the beauty of its sentiment and to the note of calm and unwavering confidence in which it contemplates both life and death.

It moves on the plane of the highest things of life. There is physical satisfaction. How can there be any truly happy living where there is penury and want? The human spirit may triumph over these things with great fortitude—and there have been men and women who have been noble in their poverty, but they could hardly be said to have been happy or satisfied. The Psalmist recognizes the need of satisfaction for the body. There is refreshment and enjoyment. There is rest from labor and fatigue.

But there is man's part and place in the higher paths of righteousness. There is the sense of triumph over evil, and the consciousness of a presence that is near man to strengthen and help and support him. There is the consciousness that surrounding human life is goodness and loving kindness, and there is a sense of the permanency of human life.

It is the same thing which the 27th Psalm in its early verse reinforces with striking illustrations. It is the note of triumph of light over darkness, of salvation over destruction, of courage over fear, of beauty and order over chaos and ugliness, of worship and song over evil and untruth.

Are these things true? Need we ask it? The witness of history, the witness of man's spirit, the witness of the divine revelation of Jesus of Nazareth—all these confirm the vision of the sweet singer of Israel and the beauty and faith of his song.

Mrs. Z. B. Sanders left Sunday for Silver City, New Mexico where she will spend several months with her daughter, Mrs. Emmitt West and family. Parliamentary Rules Study of 1922 Club In Meeting Thursday

"For the World was Built in order and the atoms march in tune"—Emerson, was the motto chosen for the parliamentary day observance of the 1922 Study club in their meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. G. A. Linder in place of the home of Mrs. E. L. Angus as scheduled.

Roll call was answered with parliamentary suggestions.

Mrs. R. E. Fry, president, opened the meeting and offered her resignation with regrets which the club regretfully accepted. Mrs. O. P. Rutledge, first vice-president took the chair during the remainder of the business session. Mrs. W. I. Cannaday was elected as first vice president succeeding Mrs. Rutledge.

An interesting program under the leadership of Mrs. Noel Troutman was rendered. A novelty song, "The Order of Business," was sung by Vera Nell Marshall, Martha Yearwood, Alene Warren and C. W. Denison with Mrs. Pearl Fagan at the piano. Louise Wilson gave two appropriate readings and Mrs. P. W. Bell conducted some Do's in parliamentary procedure in the form of a playlet with Mrs. C. K. Arnold, Mrs. Pearl Fagan, Mrs. R. E. Fry, Mrs. W. I. Cannaday, Mrs. Tom Shaw, Mrs. S. W. Ross, Mrs. Ed Johnson, Mrs. J. M. Wilson assisting her. These playlets were business meetings conducted strictly by parliamentary rules. Mrs. Bells talk gave some very good help which could be applied to the club in appropriate ways.

Mrs. Arnold will be hostess to the club October 6 at 3:30.

Miss Beatrice Davis, George Lee United In Marriage Friday

Miss Beatrice Davis, city, and George W. Lee of Plainview were united in marriage last Friday evening at the Methodist parsonage with Rev. J. E. Eldridge reading the ceremony.

Mrs. Lee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Davis of Plainview, former residents of Floydada. She completed high school at F. H. S. and has been connected with the Consumers Puel association for the past nine years as cashier. She will continue work there.

Mr. Lee is the son of Mrs. M. M. Lee of Knox City. He is violin teacher at Plainview.

The couple returned home Monday from a short trip to Amarillo. They will make their home here.

1934 Study Club Has Meeting Wed.

Miss Jane Hughes was hostess to the 1934 study club when they met Tuesday evening to study the subject "Adolph Hitler."

Subjects discussed on the program were "Attitude toward International Relations," by Miss Lois Fouts; "Jewish Policy," Bettie Newell; "Biography," Mrs. Russell King; Miss Mildred Olsen was in charge of the program.

Members present were Misses Lois Fouts, Alva Washford, Ruth Grimes, Fannie Mae Rose, Bettie Newell, Mildred Olsen, Jane Hughes, Bernice Patton, Mrs. Maurine Hammonds, Mrs. Elizabeth Hams, Mrs. Katherine King.

Visitors present were Misses Bernice Dallinger, Beryl Eusty, Nancy Hadsell and Elizabeth Caldwell.

CHARLES HULSEY HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY

Charles Hulsey was honored with a farewell party and shower last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. L. H. Smith before he left this week for Lubbock to enter Tech college.

Mesdames George L. Smith and R. E. Smith were co-hostesses. The social was held on the beautiful lawn where a number of games were played.

A large number of friends of the honoree were present.

DONNIE MACK HICKERSON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Donnie Mack Hickerson entertained with a birthday party Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home, 921 South Third street, to celebrate his third birthday.

Games were played, pictures were taken and refreshments served to Roland King, Lyn Mince, Sonny Pollan, Billy Eudy, Marion Martin, Clarabelle Pollan, Mary Ann Carathers, Wilda Finley, Wanda Mae Martin, Frances Marie Edwards and the honoree.

Mothers present were Mrs. Vernon King, Mrs. B. Pollan, Mrs. Wahl Mrs. Harold Mince and Mrs. Roy Edwards.

ENTER AT W. T. S. T. C.

Among the students leaving the first of this week for Canyon to enter W. T. S. T. college were Marjorie Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ohmer Kirk; Mary Anna Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ross, city and Mary Jo Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Horn of South Plains; Myra Nell Evers, daughter of Mrs. Joe Evers of Pleasant Hill and Ima Ruth McCada, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McCada of Campbell. Fern Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Fry.

Pla-Mor Bridge Club Opens Fall Meetings Playing In Fry Home

A profusion of cut flowers were placed about the rooms where Mr. and Mrs. W. Luther Fry held the opening meeting of the fall for the Pla-Mor Contract Bridge club Thursday evening.

Concluding the games of bridge when refreshments were served Mexican lunch cloths were used on the tables.

Mrs. Calvin Steen and Jack Henry held high score for members and Mrs. Walton Hale and Bud Merriott for the guests.

Playing guest hands were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Merriott of Wichita Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Walton Hale, members of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Steen, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Steen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stovall and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Hammonds. Mr. and Mrs. Hammonds will be hosts to the club September 29 at 7:45.

BOBBIE WAKEFIELD HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. R. C. Wakefield entertained from 4 until 6 o'clock Monday evening honoring her son, Bobbie, to celebrate his third birthday.

Games were directed and pictures from a movie camera shown to amuse the little guests. A lovely white birthday cake with three red candles was cut and served with ice cream to the guests on the pretty back lawn.

Celebrating the occasion with Bobbie were Neil Cummings, Franklin Stovall, Aubrey Guthrie, Ralph Murphy, Larry Hollingsworth, Doris Elaine and Kenneth Amburn, Ann Carolyn Welborn, Ann Deakins, Ruth Lippard, Louise Parrish and Don McGuire.

Mrs. Smith Hostess To S. S. Class With Social Thursday

Mrs. Lon V. Smith entertained the Baranca Sunday School class and their wives in a social at her home, 1902 South Wall street, Thursday evening.

Games and contests held on the beautiful lawn furnished the entertainment for the social with Mrs. Vernon Shaw and Mrs. Earl Crow directing them. Iced watermelons were served to the guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Poole Honorees At Shower Monday Evening

With the Antelope school auditorium converted into a spacious living room, the decorations of fall flowers made a pretty setting for the miscellaneous shower given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Warren B. Poole. Mrs. Tom J. Boyd was hostess assisted by Mrs. J. E. Newton, O. T. Glassmeyer, R. L. Rutherford, C. A. Caffee, and schoolmate of Dr. Poole.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Boyd and led to the improvised dining room where they were served refreshments by Glen White and Harlan Palmer. Guests were then presented to the honor guests with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Poole, parents of the groom, Mrs. C. A. Caffee, aunt of the groom, and Mr. Caffee standing in the receiving line.

A brief program was presented and talks of advice and comedy given by many of the guests.

Approximately two hundred guests registered in the lovely "Life Book" that was in charge of Ogie Evers. Guests were from Lubbock, Floydada, Dougherty and the surrounding communities.

Dr. and Mrs. Poole were married in Oklahoma City, September 3 and the occasion was in honor of their first visit to Dr. Poole's former home. Mrs. Poole was the former Miss Kathleen Walker. They will make their home in Philadelphia where he will enter the University there for a three-year course in post graduate work in surgery and where Mrs. Poole will do special work in the school of nursing.

Interest Growing In Floyd County Chorus

Since the arrival of new music, the interest in the County Chorus has increased under the leadership of Mrs. Raymond Williams, director. The chorus now has an attendance of twenty-five women representing a maximum of three members from each of the Home Demonstration clubs of the county.

Mrs. Williams a member of the Harmony club, has had several years in the study of voice having studied under the direction of Mrs. Arilla Peterson Plainview; Mrs. Grace Krug, Amarillo; and with Martha Stuart of New York City. While she was in Amarillo she sang in the Polk Street choir. Mrs. O. G. Glassmeyer, of the Dougherty club is pianist for the chorus.

Meetings are held at 2 p. m. on the first and third Saturday's of each month. They have been held in the high school auditorium for the past few months but at present a new meeting place is to be determined that will be more convenient to the members and easier warmed during the winter months.

Dougherty 4-H Girls Met September 19

DOUGHERTY, Sept. 20 — The Dougherty 4-H club met at 10 a. m. at the school auditorium September 19 with the home demonstration agent, Miss Ruth Grimes, who gave a demonstration on vegetable salads.

Miss Grimes told the girls that thicker vegetables should be marinated in French dressing for at least thirty minutes to give them a better flavor. Salad vegetables should not be crushed.

The girls voted on a new sponsor and elected Mrs. Dolores Capshaw. There were seventeen girls present at the demonstration.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday September 28. Our sponsor will give the demonstration.

H. D. WOMEN AND GIRLS OF COUNTY ACCOMPLISH MANY INTERESTING THINGS

Under the direction of Miss Ruth Grimes the women and girls of Floyd county are accomplishing many interesting things.

Since the home demonstration work started in May there has been eighteen home demonstration clubs organized with 400 women enrolled. There are twelve 4-H clubs with approximately 300 girls enrolled. Miss Grimes is planning to organize several more 4-H clubs in the near future.

In August Miss Grimes gave the girls demonstrations on canning green vegetables, stressing the point of one hour from garden to can. The girls did all the work themselves, both preparing the food and looking after the cooker.

Two girls from this county will be sent to the Dallas State fair in October. Their expenses will be paid while there but the clubs will have to pay the train fare.

Many women over the county have been losing canned food without knowing why. In August Miss Grimes tested cookers to see if the gauges were registering correctly. More cookers were found to be incorrect than correct.

At the last meeting of the county council another cooker tester was bought. This tester is now going the rounds of the clubs and it is hoped by the end of the month that all cookers will be tested. We would like very much for every woman in the county to feel free to use this tester if she has any reason to feel that her cooker is not doing good work.

Miss Grimes drives on an average of 1000 miles a month and visits as many as thirty clubs per month. Some days she meets as many as three clubs.

Some of the demonstrations that she plans to give in the next three months are "Warm bedding, its storage and care," "Wool, feather and cotton comforts," "School lunches," "Bed linen" and "mattress making."

Every woman in the county regardless of whether she is a club member or not is invited to attend these demonstrations.

Not only is club work helping women to make their homes better places to live but it is also helping the communities to grow and develop leadership. In August Miss Grimes and a community specialist from A & M spent one week in our county to help communities to work out plans for community organizations that every member of the family would enjoy. The communities are urged to improve their school yards and other public buildings, to work out plans and strive to furnish their communities with the things they need most.

County council meets on September 24 at 2 p. m. at the court house. Every club president and council reporter should be present as there will be several important business problems discussed.

State Patrolmen To War Drunk Driving

If you are planning to attend a football game and "take a nip now and then" to keep off a cold or something before or after the game, you better not, Capt. W. W. Legge, of the State Highway Safety division, warned yesterday while visiting in Floydada.

The state highway patrol is going to fight harder than ever against drunk driving and drivers that are drinking while driving." Capt. Legge said, "Patrolmen will be stationed on all main highways and traffic arteries to keep an eye out for offenders."

The state highway patrol wants everyone to enjoy the games and enjoy the fun before and after the game but not in such a manner that it will endanger the lives of other persons and inflict possible property damage.

Capt. Legge asked for cooperation from all drivers and warned "If you drive don't drink, if you drink don't drive."

Worth Gwendolyn Shipley, who has been a student at Baylor Belton college, will attend school this year at Denver university, where she matriculated last week.

Miss Fern Finkner went to Fort Worth last Thursday where she will enter Texas Wesleyan college for her third year work.

Slaton Tigers Beat Floydada Whirlwinds 26-0; Geo. Lider Is Out With Sprained Back

Slaton's Tigers clawed the Floydada Whirlwinds Friday night into a 26 to 0 defeat behind the leather, lugging ability of one J. C. Tucker, Tiger right halfback.

The Whirlwinds received the kick and on the first play promptly fumbled the ball and lost it on their own 22-yard line. Slaton lost 5 yards on a line play when the Whirlwind line broke through.

The Tigers fumbled and lost the ball on the first play promptly fumbled the ball and lost it on their own 22-yard line. Slaton lost 5 yards on a line play when the Whirlwind line broke through.

A line play netted 5, but a Slaton lineman broke through to down the Floydada passer for 11-yard loss. Freddy kicked out 30 yards to the Floydada 40-yard line.

Two line plays netted the Tigers one yard but a first zone pass picked up 7 yards. A line play lost 2 yards and the ball went over to Floydada on their 34-yard line.

An end sweep picked up 12 yards and a first down, but the Tigers broke through on a juggled ball and Floydada lost 3 yards. A line smash gained nothing. On an attempted punt the Tigers smothered the kicker but Floydada recovered and gained 5 yards. Freddy kicked out 25 yards to Slaton's 32 yard line.

Slaton missed an attempted pass but whipped off tackle for 30 yards and a first down to Floydada's 41-yard marker. Slaton lugged for 2 and 4 yards before they smashed off tackle for 15 yards, first down.

Two smashes netted 9 yards and the Tigers added 4 more for a first down on Floydada's 6-yard stripe. Two smashes netted 3 yards and an attempted pass failed. Tucker smashed over for a touchdown. Clack kicked the point. Score: Slaton 7, Floydada 0.

Floydada received the kick on their 31-yard stripe, and fumbled with Slaton recovering. An off tackle slant netted 12 for the Tigers and a first down on Floydada's 19-yard marker. Slaton pulled a nifty and fumbled on Floydada's 21-yard marker with the Green and White recovering.

Two plays lost 1 yard but Go lightly whipped through the line for 11 yards and a first down. Two plays netted 5 yards but a crossed-up play lost 13 yards and Slaton recovered a fumble.

With the ball on Floydada's 25-yard seam the Tigers made it a first down on two plays and placed the ball on the Whirlwind 11-yard stripe. Three plays netted 4 yards and a pass fell incomplete on the Whirlwind 7-yard stripe.

Floydada gained 1 yard. Beard whipped a pass down the groove to Go lightly for 19 yards as the half ended. Score: Slaton 7, Floydada 0.

Second Half
Slaton received the kick on their own 42 yard line but were forced to kick after three plays gained only 6 yards. Floydada took the punt on their own 25 yard line. Daniel gained 15 yards, a smash gained 9 and Go lightly made it another first down with 2 yards.

A pass Beard to Go lightly down the middle gained 8 yards. The next play lost Floydada 8 yards and an attempted pass fell incomplete. Floydada punted but interfered with the ball, receiving a 15 yard penalty. They punted out weakly to the Slaton 43.

Slaton lost 1 yard and then Tucker whipped out from tackle with half his team as interference to spin across Floydada's goal. Clack did not click. Slaton 13, Floydada 0.

Floydada took the kick-off on their own 25 yard line. A line play netted 0, Gibbs skipped off tackle for 21 yards and a first down. Go lightly added 10 more for another first down. Two plays netted 3 yards a pass was completed but lost 1 yard. Floydada kicked 15 yards.

Slaton had the ball on their own 27-yard line. An off-tackle smash picked up 13 yards.

Two plays netted 16 yards and another first down. Four line plays picked up 9 yards but the ball went over on the Floydada 36-yard marker.

A line play gained 3 yards. Two passes were incomplete and Floydada kicked to Slaton's 48.

A line buck gained 6, but another lost 1 yard. A penalty for off-side gave them a first down. Austin broke around end for a touchdown. Tucker tucked his toe into the ball for the extra point. Score: Slaton 20, Floydada 0.

Floydada received the kick on their 30. A line play lost 4 a pass fell incomplete through a Tiger's arms. Slaton intercepted the last toss on the Floydada 40.

Tucker scooted for 10 yards, first down. Slaton penalized 5 yards, off-side. Tucker picked up 5, Austin ran for 20 to place the ball on Floydada's 3 yard stripe.

Tucker came through his right tackle for a touchdown on the last play of the game but fizzled on the attempted kick.

Starting lineups:
Floydada: Tyler, Jarboe, Henson, Montgomery, Martin, Willson, Conway, Beard, Go lightly, Gibbs, Daniels.
Slaton: Stotts, Shelton, Kahlich, Clack, Haliburton, Brown, Scott, Ward, Tucker, Dickson, Austin.

Mrs. B. O. Cloud and Mrs. R. C. Henry spent Tuesday in Amarillo.

S. W. Conference Ready for Opening Games Saturday

Since the first games in the Southwestern Conference, the nation's question mark conference, will be played tomorrow and since the people of Floyd county follow the successes and failures of that conference with cheers or tears it seems only right that the schedule for those schools should be presented.

Texas Christian is favored to win the championship with the present champions, Rice Institute, holding sway in second place. A and M is figured to cop third place. It is customary in the Southwestern Conference that the champion does not repeat therefore the odds are against the institute.

The Deadline

(By Bill Hams)

Well, Slaton's Tigers got their revenge for last year's defeat... but the Whirlwinds looked good in spots... and bad, very bad, in others. Naturally fumbling doesn't improve the looks of any team and the Green and White boys booted that ball enough for six ball games. The absence of George Fry Lider didn't help the offense any either, particularly in the kicking department, but the boys may have learned a lot by having to work out problems without George Fry.

"Crazy Legs" Gibbs, stellar guard of '37, is a sight in the backfield. Seemingly his conversion to a back hasn't removed a bit of the fight and "git" that he showed in the line. This scribe almost had heart trouble watching Gibbs gallop 18 yards against the Tigers across his own right tackle. Short and stocky as he is, Gibbs, scoots over the terrain with leg movements that deserve the appellation "crazy"... he seems to have plenty of drive and spin when it is needed... but when he takes off with that ball, watch his legs if you want to see some action.

Freddy Beard and R. E. Go lightly (don't take the "go lightly" part literally) should be some combination before the season ends. As a pass combination they went to town Friday night... "Beard to Go lightly" should be more than just a phrase before November.

Freddy accounted for a goodly amount of Floydada's total yardage by his sprints at tackle and end... He and Daniel put some danger in to the Whirlwinds running attack.

Daniels resembles someone from "Buck Rogers" with that "mask" headgear and goggles that he wears. If someone would give him a little interference he would probably payoff with a touchdown and cut down the principal and interest on the stadium.

The backfield combination of Go lightly, Beard, Gibbs, and Daniel should be effective. If they will get some glue on their fingers, and get some interference ahead of the ball carrier.

The Tigers were singing "That Good Old Paper Mache' Line" after the game, and they were referring to the Whirlwind line at that. However like that backfield, the line looked almost good at times.

It is whispered about that "the Whirlwinds were "Tucker" out after the game."

Oh hum, the Tulia Hornets barely managed to eke out the Friona team 70 to 0. Looks bad for the Whirlwinds come Friday night... but who can tell?

Heh, heh, the best laugh at the game Friday night was when W. Travis, co. supt., bought a "coke" without intention and had to pay the concession ten cents for it... other Floyd county citizenry squawked on "ten cent cokes" but everyone understands that Slaton's FFA boys must "profiteer" a little to make both ends meet.

E. A. Roberson Of Crosbyton Killed In Gin Accident

Funeral services for E. A. Roberson, 45, were held at the First Baptist church at Crosbyton Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with Rev. W. R. Derr, pastor, in charge of the service. Burial was made in the Crosbyton cemetery with the Marr Funeral home of Dallas in charge.

The deceased was killed in a gin accident at Ralls Wednesday afternoon where he was employed.

He is survived by his wife and four children; three sons, Emery Lee, Arthur, and Ernest Roberson, all of Crosbyton; a daughter, Vera Jane Roberson of Crosbyton; a brother, Winston Roberson of Gladewater; and four sisters, Mrs. Otto Nichols of Fort Worth, Mrs. Lillie Nichols of Goose Creek, Mrs. Guy Day of Fort Worth, and Miss Winnie Roberson of Houston.

Mrs. J. M. Gamblin spent yesterday and today in Amarillo visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thomas and attending the fair.

Nine Don'ts For Rooters At Games

Now that football season is officially under way, certain rules of conduct govern good football sportsmanship. A well-known sports editor last year set down the following "don'ts" to be observed by fans, however enthusiastic.

- Don't yell "Kill 'em, Team."
- Don't think you know more than the team. You don't.
- Don't forget your manners. If you have none, get some.
- Don't forget to cheer all men injured.
- Don't groan or cheer on penalties.
- Don't forget that the officials are the judges.
- Don't make fun of opponents.
- Don't cheer during signals.
- Don't forget to be a sportsman, winner or loser.

Rules Listed For Library Study

Editors note: In answer to a request of the Hesperette for announcements concerning the new library rules, Mrs. Eva Piper, English and speech teacher, sent the following directions. All students give these special attention and abide by them.

- All library fees must be paid before books can be checked out of the library. Fees are 50c.
- Bring your books in on time. Lock in your book to see when it is due. Period books are 5c a period. Other book fines are 2c a day.
- Remember to be courteous in the library. The newspaper and books are for you to read and enjoy, but not to destroy. Others may want to read them after you are through.
- Be as quiet as possible in the reading room. Students are subject to the same penalties in the library as they are in the classroom.
- Please drop books into box just below the door, and do not throw them into the room.
- Juanice Cothern, one of the senior girls, who has been operated on for appendicitis, returned home Saturday.

The agriculture boys are busy this week, getting ready for the Lubbock Fair. All agriculture classes plan to exhibit an educational booth.

M. C. Fagua, Jr. is showing his exhibits at the Tri-State fair at Amarillo which is being held this week. These from a pedigreed flock.

Last year the agriculture boys didn't buy good quality live-stock for projects. Although some of them were successful, this year they plan to get a higher quality product for projects, planning to improve and enlarge as they go along. That is the purpose of the F. F. A. organization.

The teachers of the Crosbyton District met last week at McAdoo where the Floydada Chapter was given the secretary's privilege and the secretary will be elected from the Floydada Chapter.

The first district boys meeting will be held at Crosbyton November 3. Eugene Blackman who is a junior in Floydada High School and is taking second year agriculture had for his projects last year two acres of irrigated cotton and two acres of irrigated milo. He plans to improve and enlarge his projects this year.

Class News

Freshmen Class

The freshman class of '38 has started off their year with a total of 79 students.

Making schedules, hunting teachers, getting books and the worst part getting out of all the crowds. Many poor fish went to check in the morning, got in the wrong classes, went to lockers at the wrong times, got in detention the first day or two and in general did everything wrong.

Many of the freshmen have joined the pep squad, band, and football team. There are about a dozen pep girls, four band students and three boys went out for football. Some of the freshmen came over here with the idea that high school was all fun. Poor fish.

Floydada Schools Have School Boy Patrol; Promote Safety

10,000 Book Covers Given Schools

The band played "On Wisconsin" as chapel opened Wednesday morning, and at the close. Mr. Camp, band director, led assembly in singing "Old Black Joe" and "America."

Mr. Cummings, superintendent, introduced Mr. Curtis Gilliam who in turn told us about the program they were putting on about safety. Mayor Snodgrass said a few words about National Safety and the benefits of it.

Judge Mathews gave an interesting talk about safety. He said, "In America more people are killed in automobile accidents than were killed in all the wars that the United States had engaged in since the Revolutionary War." He urged the students and people to drive carefully and be careful. "Too many people are in too big of a hurry. That's why on the Fort Worth Highway, seven to eight people have been injured recently, just from Floyd County."

Captain Legge of the State Safety Patrol, was introduced next. His speech was on courtesy on the highway. "Too many people aren't courteous on the highway, thus causing many wrecks. You can always judge a driver by the shape of his car," Legg said. "Bent fenders, crushed top, bad tail-lights, are the signs of a bad driver, so beware of this driver. It costs the people of America $1,000 per minute, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, for automobile accidents alone."

The Lion's Club is sponsoring the school-boy patrol, made up of the Boy Scouts. Garland Glover introduced the scouts that make up the patrol.

The Boy-Scouts that are on duty at High School are Carl Arnold, Robert Arnold, Joe Arwine, and J. L. Nichols. Those on duty at Andrews Ward are James Turner, Kenneth Baird Bishop, and Buddy Norman. Students are to obey the Patrol, and if a student neglects to do so, the Patrol will turn their name in to the superintendent of the school, where some kind of punishment will be given.

The School-Boy Patrol, or the Boy Scouts names will be submitted to Austin, where they will be listed among the State School-Boy Patrols. This is merely voluntary on their part. So please try to cooperate with them.

Chatty Chats

Seniors did you know that you have the biggest, brightest, and best prospects for a year of champions? Yes sir, this year can be, and ought to be, the number one year of all times. First, you have a champion football team in the making. Each player has had two and three years of experience and you can't forget that each is above the average.

Next you have the largest pep squad ever assembled in Floydada, under three fine leaders, capable and very pleasing to the eye. A dozen or so new members have been added to the band, and in their smart green uniforms, they go marching to victory, led by that cute, little blond drum major who could stand up and win over any in the nation. Dramatics in the past show that yours is above the usual run of talent. In Interscholastic Meet you have possibilities too. In declamation, debate and extemporaneous speaking, there are entrants with one and two years of experience back of them. All of this means that you have a double plus chance of coming out on top. This is your big year, seniors. With cooperation it can be the best. Get behind those Whirlwinds; seniors, get behind those seniors!

Every week this column comes up with a new name, so I think I might sponsor a contest. All you would have to do would be to write your name for the column ten times on a pet head and send it in, enclosed with the top of a ninety-nine-cent waste-basket and to the "winners" I would send a newly published book on "How to Catch Polekities and Why not To."

By the by, I knew this column was bad, but the other day it had such a bad smell; that smell was so strong that it picked itself up and dropped in the waste basket. How do you like that?

Well, anyhow, this about rounds up this weeks Chatty Chats so until next week I say so long to you, and I do mean you.

Press Club

This year the Press club has planned a number of interesting activities. Besides the weekly effort to write the paper, there will be social gatherings for pleasure and information.

First, as soon as the daily schedule is running smoothly, the club is going to have a picnic in order to get better acquainted. In this combination of work and pleasure the club hopes to improve the paper.

Later in the year, informal parties will be planned and at the close of last year's journalistic activities, it was agreed that each year the Press club would wind up its program with a formal banquet at which time the graduating members would introduce the new staff and make their farewell speeches. This tends to promote more interest and school spirit so the staff of '38-'39 is looking forward to a productive as well as social year.

Mary Kay Daniel went to Amarillo Friday afternoon and returned Sunday.

ACHIEVING SAFETY

With the introduction of the school boy patrol in the Floydada public schools, the ever-important question of safety is again brought to our attention. This organization is a worthy undertaking to limit the number of accidents (the polite name for wrecks) that are prevalent in many school zones.

The number of children of school age who are either killed or maimed every day is appalling. So complex has this problem become that protective measures are now a necessity.

To achieve safety there are many precautions that may be taken, especially in the case of traffic. Drivers should pay marked attention to all signs, which are only put up for the benefit of the public and not to afford diversion as one drives along. After obeying signals, probably the next most important thing is to give the correct signals yourself. In this way numerous accidents could be stopped before they are started.

Speed! The greatest danger on the highways today is a threat to the health and happiness of every citizen in the United States.

If this editorial does not serve one other purpose, I hope it will impress upon the readers that to kill someone while speeding is just as unlawful as to shoot him outright. I urge the school students to drive carefully and slowly in the school zone and on the highways.

Articles on safety may not seem important to you unless you have experienced an accident but, those who know the horror of them will appreciate reminders on the question of safety.

There's a Far-Away Look in Your Eyes

There's a far-away look in your eyes.
You're dreaming of something.
What can it be.
There's a far-away look in your eyes.
You seem to be spellbound.
What is it you see?
If I knew, dear, just exactly where I stand.
I'd worry no more.
If I knew, dear, even though you hold my hand.
Just who you adore.
Oh, there's a far-away look in your eyes.
You're dreaming of someone.
Please say that it's me.

F. H. A. CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The F. H. A. club held its first meeting Wednesday in the auditorium to make plans for the year's activities and to elect officers for the year.

Plans are already underway for the various social and business programs of the year, and the F. H. A. club is going to be one of the most active and beneficial clubs in F. H. S.

Don't Believe It!  That all methods not employing drugs or surgery are roughly classified as Chiropractic.

DON'T BELIEVE IT!! Chiropractic

is a system of adjustments of the joints of the spine by hand only for the release of nerve energy. This definition is inclusive and any and all other methods are declared not to be chiropractic—all else belongs to other methods.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE
Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place. In such cases, Cardul has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

HOW BUSINESS MEN "Get Together" THROUGH THE BANK

From the days of barter no two men could trade without some mutual faith. Later, they learned to deal with each other through a responsible "third party" to whom both had entrusted funds for safe-keeping. These dealings were the first banking transactions.
Today, all of our intricate machinery of business and credit would fall to pieces except for the bank, which stands as the central and connecting unit of it all.

T. L. Wilhite Dies Of Heart Ailment At Lexington, Ok., Home

Father Of Mrs. Mal Jarboe Succumbed After Illness Of Five Days

LEXINGTON, Okla., Sept. 21 — Thomas L. Wilhite 69, died of heart failure Sunday at his rural home near Lexington. He had been a resident of this section for 30 years, coming here from Texas. He was well known and had extensive land holdings. His wife preceded him in death eight years ago and of their union ten children survive.

Interment was made in the family burial plot in the Lexington cemetery. Survivors include four sons, Mitchell of Apache, Cliff of Lexington, Haskell, Washington state, and T. L. of the home address; and six daughters: Mrs. Roy Burkett and Mrs. L. L. Center, both of Lexington; Mrs. Owo Womack, Norman, Mrs. Charles Schrammeck, Oklahoma City, Mrs. Mal Jarboe of Floydada, and Mrs. Loyd Watkins, Wichita Falls, Texas.

Twenty grandchildren, three great grandchildren, a brother, Dave Wilhite, of Tennessee, three half brothers and a host of distant relatives also survive.

Mrs. Mal Jarboe, of this city, one of the daughters of T. L. Wilhite, left Saturday for her father's home at Lexington after being notified of his serious illness which began on Wednesday of last week. Following Mr. Wilhite's death on Sunday morning Mrs. Jarboe also left for the Oklahoma town to attend the funeral, accompanied by his son, Tom Bob.

Mr. Jarboe is expected to return home probably today and Mrs. Jarboe within a few days. Mr. Wilhite had visited his daughter here a number of times. The last visit in Floyd county with relatives was this summer when he spent some weeks here, apparently in excellent health.

Lions Make Poor Out At Showing Teachers How To Run The School

Members of Floydada Lions club who Tuesday attempted to show the new members of the Floydada public school faculty how the local school ought to be run made a poor out of it, it was generally agreed Tuesday.

Frank Moore, the teacher, and most of the "pupils" gave evidence they did not know the answers early during the program. "It would take us nearly half a day to demonstrate all the club members know about how to run the school, but we are going to do the best we can in 30 minutes," it was explained to the visitors.

The program was intended as a welcome salute and recognition to the new teachers in the schools here.

Mrs. E. Piper, teacher of English and speech and G. W. Russell, commercial department head from the high school; and Misses Beryl Busby, Nancy Hadsell, and Elizabeth Caldwell, from Andrews Ward school.

MRS. M. E. LATHEN, NEW OWNER OF BLUE GOOSE, TO MOVE ON OCTOBER 1

Mrs. M. E. Lathen, who last week purchased the Blue Goose Laundry from G. D. Lewis and is operating the business at the same location at the southeast corner of the townsite, will move about October 1 to a new location in the Day & Night Garage building on North Main street, she said this week.

To give all of her attention to the new enterprise Mrs. Lathen has resigned from the operation of Andrews Ward cafeteria, where she has been employed the past 3 years, her resignation effective as soon as she has been employed the past 3 years, her place.

The plant at the new establishment on North Main where she will set up October 1, will be a very modern one, she said. Hot and cold running water, with steam and a water softener are included in the installation for which she has contracted.

AVON POWELL MAKES FIRST STRING AT PORTALES J. C.

Avon Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Powell and former whirlwind player, has made the first string at Eastern New Mexico Junior college which is located at Portales.

This is Avon's first year at the school. The team is coached by R. P. Terrell, former Floydada High School coach. In the first scrimmage of the year Avon scored the first touchdown of the season when he recovered a fumble across the pay-off stripe.

Playing at right end, the same position he played as a regular on the whirlwind team several years ago, Avon is expected to be one of the main-stays in the line.

Quentin Burgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Burgett, is also coming out for the junior college squad.

The team will meet the Hardin-Simmons freshmen in the first game on Friday night, September 23 at Portales.

Mrs. G. E. Bond made a business trip to Lubbock Saturday. She attended a preliminary meeting of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers convention that will be held at Lubbock this fall.

Born September 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turner Leatherman, a son named Thomas Marshall.

J. V. JONES WILL OPEN INDEPENDENT HOUSE HERE

J. V. Jones, who resigned a week ago at Floydada Poultry and Egg Company as manager, will open an independent poultry market here soon, he announced this week, but has not set a definite date.

Operating in the territory for 9 years he has formed a wide acquaintance among poultry raisers and dealers.

Charles Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Neil of this city, has entered Draughton's Business college at Lubbock where he is taking a complete business course. Mr. Neil entered school there at the beginning of the fall term.

Mrs. R. N. Burgett has been ill for the past few days and is reported to be much improved this week.

Miss Ruth Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan of Center, returned to Brownwood last week for her senior year at Daniel Baker college after spending the summer here with her parents.

Miss Emma Louise Smith left Sunday afternoon for Waco where she enters Baylor university for her senior year.
