

The Floyd County Hesperian

FLOYDADA, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1938.

NUMBER 41

Turkey Day Observance Is General

Stores In Floydada Scheduled To Close Thursday In Observance

The three hundred and seventeenth anniversary of Thanksgiving will be almost universally observed in Floyd County this year according to plans being made today.

The post office, bank, court house offices, utilities offices, city hall, and a large number of business establishments will cease operation Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving Day. Merchants and employees plan to stay at home and eat turkey and enjoy various amusements that will be provided or visit friends and relatives elsewhere and enjoy meeting of fellowship.

Floyd County alone has supplied a goodly number of turkeys for the dinner tables of the United States and it is expected that most families in this county will partake of the customary fowl, however others are looking forward to baked hen.

Following the dinner hour Floydada High school's Whirlwinds will meet the Spur high school Bulldogs in a revenge football game here at Western Field beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The game is almost as customary on Thanksgiving as is the turkey. Although Spur is hoped to win the game is conceded by the coaches to be hard fought and thrilling affair.

A large number of fans will journey to Lubbock to see the traditional battle between the Lubbock West-erners and the Amarillo Sandies for the District 1-A championship. Although the seats have been sold for several days a number of fans were able to secure tickets for the affair.

Thursday night the Floydada Firemen will sponsor a Thanksgiving dance in the Surginer building with "Cowboy" Kyle and his Lubbock swingers playing. The dance will begin at 9 o'clock and continue until past midnight if the dancers wish.

It is also probable that a number of social affairs will be given over the county in commemoration of Thanksgiving.

So, Floyd County will celebrate Thanksgiving Thursday in what is probably the most wholesome fashion in years. Everyone feels that they have more this year to be thankful for than in a great number of years. Whether this be true or not a gala holiday is predicted.

Floydada Whips Lockney 6-0

If Floydada fans will wait patiently for four or five years it is possible that Floydada will turn up with a football team that will take the Lockney Longhorns to a cleaning — at least a mighty (little) team turned the trick Tuesday afternoon by trouncing the Lockney "Mites" 6 to 0.

The two "chigger-weight" eleven's battled it out at Andrews ward but Floydada won when Johnnie Collins smashed over for the deciding score. No member of either team weighed over 85 pounds, and members of the teams were from the fourth through the seventh grade.

Starters for Floydada were Johnnie Collins, rb, Joe Dick McClung, qb, Billie Williams, hb, James Cline, qb, Johnnie Hammonds, c, Jennings Martin, re, W. E. Smith, le, Emil Pence rt, George Tyler, it, Delwin Williams, lg, and Jimmie Shurbet, fe.

Engineers Inspect Dam Site; Call It Highly Desirable

Engineers of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics last Thursday spent nearly a day on Blanco canyon in company with local officials inspecting the proposed site of the dam project, and verbally called the site a "very desirable one."

With them on the inspection trip were G. L. Kirk and R. W. Cothern, president and secretary of Floydada Chamber of Commerce and W. D. Newell, from the Lider engineering office.

The engineers making the trip here were Chas. E. Kitchen, engineer from the BAE office in Washington, D. C. and Joseph A. O'Hearn, associate engineer from the Amarillo BAE office.

Recently the Bureau of Agricultural Economics has been shifted into the soil conservation service set-up and additional inspections and checking of proposed damsite was made necessary by this change. R. W. Cothern said, Engineer O'Hearn believes action from the Washington office concerning the Blanco project should be forthcoming soon.

Farmers to Vote December 10 On Cotton Quota Plan For Crop of Next Season

U. S. Awaits Report — Ordered to the United States from his post at Berlin as ambassador to Germany is Hugh R. Wilson, above, who will report to Secretary of State Hull and President Roosevelt on Nazi persecution of Jews.

Agent Bredthauer And Party Make Trip to Colorado

See At First Hand Processing, Handling Sugar Beets At Factory

County Agent D. F. Bredthauer and a party of Floyd county men made a hurry-up trip to Rocky Ford, Colorado, this week where they viewed some of the activities in connection with sugar beet handling at the sugar beet factory of the American Crystal Sugar company.

In the party with the agent were J. L. Suits, Lockney publisher, Ed Whitfill and C. J. Taylor, and H. M. Bainer, agriculture agent of the Santa Fe Railway company.

Between 20 and 30 cars of Floyd county beets have been sent out to the Rocky Ford plant for processing. The Floyd county men, with tongue in cheek, have been watching the high sugar content reports on Floyd county production and wondering if the experiments carried on will result in the development of a new type of agriculture on many irrigated farms in the county.

The party left late Monday traveling Monday night, spending Tuesday in the Colorado beet production area and expected to reach home late Wednesday or early Thursday. As a result of the tests that have been carried on under the guidance of Mr. Bredthauer the past two years Floyd county has been given a sugar beet quota by the state agricultural office and its sugar beet growers will receive in addition to their beet production income a subsidy that will amount to $4,000 to $5,000. Floyd is the first Texas county to be recognized in this manner.

Door-To-Door Salesman Runs Into 'Peddling' Ordinance Of The City

A door-to-door salesman who had a force of 5 young women selling a bargain-priced photographic offer ran into Floydada's anti-peddling ordinance Saturday and when hauled into corporation court, paid a fine for the violation of the ordinance.

Only the sales manager was fined, the young women being permitted to go free.

A flood of door-to-door sales people last year resulted in the passage of the anti-peddling ordinance by the city council. It carries a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $100 for each call the peddler makes. Farmers selling their own produce and bona fide business establishments of the community are excepted in the provisions of the ordinance.

Locker System Ready To Contract Building

After many delays it appeared this week the individual refrigeration locker system, planned for many weeks, is ready to function as soon as a building is located that suits the needs.

It was indicated Tuesday by A. J. Jackson, who is expected to manage the plant, that arrangements will be completed sometime this week for the building.

REDA MAE GARY III.
Miss Reda Mae Gary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary, became ill Monday night with an appendicitis attack and she was carried to a Lubbock hospital where an operation was performed Tuesday morning. Her father reported her as doing nicely Tuesday evening.

Referendum In Cotton Producing States To Have Far-Reaching Effect

In a referendum on December 10 Floyd county farmers will vote yes or no to the question:

Do farmers want a marketing quota on cotton for 1939?

Announcement that the vote will be taken was made last week and the local agricultural conservation association officials are making preparations for the ballot. The vote is expected to be carried on in similar manner to that of last year when secret ballot was taken. Farmers must vote two-third majority for the quota before it can be made effective by the department of agriculture.

The vote for or against the quotas for cotton will have no effect on the soil conservation program, which is an act of the congress, was explained this week by L. A. Williams, chairman of the local committee, and it has been explained by department officials that no loans on 1939 production will be possible if the quota plan is rejected.

Senators and congressmen of the country are watching for the reaction of the farmers to the quota vote, a rejection of which will practically sound the death knell to the Triple A program and result in some kind of a substitute program to be enacted on the forthcoming session of congress.

Arguing for the favorable action of Floyd county farmers in the referendum on December 10, Mr. Williams pointed out that failure to adopt it will throw the cotton production industry into confusion again, and would also have a depressing effect on the cotton market. The cotton marketing quota plan is additional to the soil conservation plan—a program which the farmers, by their choice, may use in years of bumper crops to protect their markets.

It is now expected that 1939 allotments for cotton acreage in Floyd county will be mailed to producers by December 5, when they will have full information on which to base their judgement on the quota plan as affecting their individual farms, it was said at the committee's office this week.

Texas Boys Assemble At Dallas For Trip To Big Chicago Show

Percy Tate And 18 Others Take Off For 4-H Club Event At International

A foretaste of what is in store for them during this week and the first 4 or 5 days of next, was given the 19 Texas 4-H club boys the first of this week when they were whisked to the big International Live Stock show in Chicago in a Pullman car of one of the Santa Fe Railway company's fastest stream-lined trains.

Assembled at Dallas for the trip the boys rode a special car to Wichita, Kansas, and thence by special Pullman on the second fastest train the Santa Fe operates, a streamliner that is the last thing in up-to-date trains.

In Chicago Tate, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate of Aiken, will compete in the cotton class, representing the State of Texas with his long staple cotton and a record of production and marketing that is enviable. He will be competing with the best cotton and best cotton producers of the nation. The Aiken club, of which he is president, will have several individual boys' exhibits in the show.

Tate won the right to show at Chicago by a 3-year record as a 4-H club leader and student of cotton farming in Floyd county.

The show at Chicago, closes on December 2.

258 Premiums Are Paid In Floyd County For All-Hazard Coverage

258 of 316 applicants for all-crop coverage on wheat planted in Floyd county this year had paid their premiums when the time limit expired last week, according to figures released by O. L. Allen, federal crop insurance supervisor for the county Monday.

Hazards covered include all forms of damage that can occur to a wheat crop, from dry weather to hail. Amount of insurance and premium paid is based on the crop production history of the farm insured.

Wheat growers in Texas rank second only to Kansas in the amount of premiums paid today for "all-risk" insurance, it is reported out of College Station by E. R. Duke, state crop insurance supervisor.

The wheat insurance plan contemplates the building of a reserve in wheat that will be paid to insured farmers in the event of a crop failure.

Longhorns Vs Rockets December 2

Hard Game Predicted By Fans Over This District; Many Fans To Go

The Lockney Longhorns will advance into the bi-district Friday, December 2, to do battle with the mighty Wellington Skyrockets on the Rocket's home field at Wellington, according to an announcement made this week by J. W. Jones, superintendent of schools at Lockney.

Superintendent Jones, and his company composed of Leo Cooper, G. D. Tate, Sam Miller, chairman of the school board, A. P. Barker, Robert Smith and Hugh Carroll, John Stapleton also went.

Floydada, Wellington, Plainview, and Paducah were considered as sites for the game but when Wellington offered $600 cash and 125 one dollar choice reserved seat tickets, or an option on half the gate receipts of the game, Lockney decided to accept and play at Wellington.

The game could not be played on Thanksgiving because Lockney had played a full 10 game schedule and the league rules would not permit a game under these circumstances until after December 1. Although the Turkey day date would have been much preferred by both teams from the gate standpoint but if the weather remains bright there is certain to be a large crowd on hand.

The 125 reserve seat tickets, owned by Lockney will go on sale and those wishing to purchase them may see Superintendent Jones. It is highly probable that they will be snapped up as soon as they go on sale but more will be available at Wellington, since there is a stadium with a large seating capacity.

The game will be called by Burns McKinney, assistant coach at Paducah, as referee; Sunderman, coach at Estelina, as umpire, and Blassen-game of Childers, head linesman.

At present the dope stacks up the Rockets as unbeatable by any Class B outfit. The Wellington team is undefeated and untied and have run up huge scores on all Class B teams in their district and have defeated a number of powerful Oklahoma teams.

The Lockney team started slow but gained momentum daily until it rushed through the district with only one tie on its record to mar an otherwise perfect season. If the dope is to be considered the Rockets are due to win as they please, piling up the kind of score they prefer but fans in this section feel that the Wellington lads are going to be lucky to win by two touchdowns and in their hearts secretly feel that an upset is highly possible.

The last defeat suffered by Wellington last year in the regional game with the mighty Panhandle Panthers, victors of Districts 1 and 2. The winner of the Lockney-Wellington game will probably again face the Panthers since no team in District 1 seems to pack the power this year that the Panhandle team boasts.

Pleasant Hill And Ward School To Play Six Man Game Today

The second game of six man football this season will be played this afternoon (Wednesday) at Western field between Pleasant Hill and Andrews ward. The game will begin at 4 o'clock.

The Andrews Ward school has had a junior high school squad this year and have played three games of regular football but have not played a game of six-man.

The Pleasant Hill team has played one game, winning from Lakeview by a 20 to 7 score. Several hundred fans were present for the game and most of them seemed to enjoy the game.

Teachers Will Attend Assn Meet In Dallas

Several Floyd county teachers, among them County Superintendent Walter Travis, and Superintendents A. D. Cummins and J. W. Jones of Floydada and Lockney Public Schools, will attend the annual convention of the Texas State Teachers association in Dallas this week-end.

Among those who will be present at the sessions will be at least 4 members of the Floydada teaching staff. They are Misses Alva Weatherford, Elizabeth Caldwell, Nancy Ann Haddell and Mrs. Eva Braddock Piper.

An important post in the association's executive committee will be assumed by Superintendent Cummings following the close of the Dallas convention. He has been elected to a 3-year term on the board of directors from District 4.

Floydada public school faculty has a 100 per cent membership in the association.

Sugar Beet Enthusiasm is evidenced by the smiles on the faces of J. L. Suits, (left) Lockney publisher, and D. F. Bredthauer, Floyd county agricultural agent, as Bill Hams, of the Hesperian staff, clicks the camera. One of the approximately 30 carloads of beets from Floyd county fields is shown in the picture below. The beets are averaging an unbelievable 17 per cent sugar content.

2 New Pastors Are Named To Floyd County Churches By N. W. Tex. Conference

J. E. Eldridge Returned To Floydada; Willson On Uniting Board

Two new faces will be seen this week on Methodist church pastorate, following the annual north-west Texas conference in Memphis last week.

J. R. Bateman, who comes from the Stamford district, will succeed G. H. Gattis who transferred recently to the North Texas conference and is stationed at Allen. O. B. Herring succeeds H. H. Hamilton at Lockney. Hamilton was sent to Fairmont on the Abilene district.

J. E. Eldridge, pastor of the Floydada church, was returned here. W. V. O'Kelley to Aiken and Ollie Apple to Petersburg. Complete list of appointments in Plainview district are as follows:

Lions Zone Meeting Set For Tuesday

District Governor To Address Representatives Of 8 Clubs Here

Representatives of 8 clubs of this zone of District 2-T, Lions International, are due to gather in Floydada Tuesday night of next week for a conference and program, at which an address by District Governor Omar Burleson, of Anson, will be featured.

Arrangements for the zone meeting were begun by the local club this week, with the expectation that attendance would be between 100 and 150 persons.

Tuesday it was indicated that a resume of the activities of the zone clubs during the approximately first half of the club year, and an entertainment program in which all clubs will have part, will make up part of the program.

The meeting is to be held at the Andrews Ward gymnasium around a banquet board of turkey and trimmings. Ladies of the First Christian church will serve the meal.

A program committee composed of W. H. Henderson, Tucker Teutsch and O. M. Watson, and a greetings and introduction committee, whose duty it will be to see that there are no wall flowers, have been named. The greetings committee is composed of Paul Gosen, C. E. Pyffe and Lorraine Britton.

Clubs expected to be represented with Floydada club Tuesday night are Crosbyton, Plainview, Lubbock, Lamesa, Brownfield, Morton, Littlefield and Dimmitt.

McChesney's Funeral Rites Held At Olney Friday, November 18

Friends Learn Of Death Of Former Resident In Message Friday Morning

H. G. McChesney, 44, prominent for several years in business circles at Floydada, died at the home of his wife's parents at Olney early Thursday morning and funeral services were held from the Methodist church at that city, at 4 p. m. Friday, Dr. F. P. Culver, officiating.

The deceased was former manager of the South Plains Lumber yard, coming to Floydada in January, 1931, from Slaton and succeeding R. B. Wakefield as manager of the yard where he served several years. He was an active member of the Methodist church while here and served as pastor of the Wake Methodist church in 1935. Was also active in the Masonic lodge.

He is survived by his widow, two daughters and one son. The children are Marjorie 12, Herbert Glen 11, and Joan 7.

In June, 1937, after an illness of several weeks, Mr. McChesney was admitted to the Veteran's hospital at Albuquerque, New Mexico, for treatment. At that time Mrs. McChesney and children made their home at Olney.

In the fall of the same year he was transferred to the Veteran's hospital at Los Angeles, California but failed to recuperate and he and his family returned to Floydada last spring spending most of their time here until May 20 when they left for Olney to make their home.

Friends from Floydada who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Travis, who were first to learn of their friend's death, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Henson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Leibfried of Cunningham, Texas, former neighbors here, attended the funeral.

More Improvement Planned For 1939 On Silverton Road

Floyd county commissioners court, who asked for a date to appear before the State Highway commission at their meeting on November 30, to urge further early hard surfacing on Highway 207 north toward the county line of Briscoe, were told in a letter from W. J. Amy, administrative assistant to the state highway engineer, that time and expense spent on a visit to Austin at this time would probably go for naught.

Further work on the highway may be anticipated, he indicated, however, in the year of 1939 when an extension of hardsurfacing on the route on north is tentatively set up in the federal aid program of the commission.

The tentative set-up that includes further improvement of 207 in 1939 is encouraging to the local officials but is disappointing to the extent that earlier action has been hoped for by them. Apparently the letter from the highway official indicates that July of next year will be as soon as definite action toward further hard surfacing on 207 will be taken.

Thanksgiving Dance Thursday Night At The Surginer Building

"Cowboy" Kyle and his kings of swing will do their stuff for the Floydada Fire boys' Thanksgiving dance Thursday night beginning at 9 o'clock in the Surginer building.

The Firemen say that the orchestra is "Lubbock's hottest swing band." And that lovers of swing and dancing will get more than their money's worth at the affair. No time limit is set since a "fill" is attached to the 9 o'clock. The attendance will be "one iron man" better, known as a "dollar," and that includes Uncle Sam's cut.

J. A. Weathers Rites Held At Lockney Sun.

Hear Attack Fatal to Resident of Floyd County For Past Thirty-Four Years

J. A. Weathers, 83, a resident of Floyd county for 34 years, serving as farmer and Baptist minister, succumbed Friday morning, November 11, following a heart attack and funeral rites were conducted at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the Lockney Baptist church by Rev. A. L. Shaw, Bro. Lemons of Hart, Texas and Bro. C. M. Weathers, a nephew of the deceased. Burial was made following the service in the Lockney cemetery.

The deceased born in Rome, Georgia, January 2, 1856, came to Texas at the age of 15, married John Etta Ewing at Greenville, Hunt county in January 1881. He made his home with his son Bill, northwest of Lockney but because of ill health was at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ed Whitfill, at the time of his death.

He is survived by three daughters and three sons. They are Mrs. Geo. Bowers, of Clovis, New Mexico; Mrs. Lee Floyd of Brownfield; Mrs. Whitfill, J. C. J. H. and Bill all of Lockney, and 25 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren, all present except one grandson. His wife died 13 years ago.

Cramer Funeral home was in charge of the burial, and 8 grandsons acted as pallbearers.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Harris left Wednesday for a two weeks visit at Key, Alabama and points in Georgia before returning home. At Key they will visit Mr. Harris' mother who is 97 years old.

Mrs. Pauline A. Buth Buried Thursday Eve.

Funeral services for Mrs. Pauline A. Buth, 65, were held at the Baptist church at Sterley Thursday afternoon by Rev. R. E. L. Muncey and Rev. Charles Odum of Plainview following her death Wednesday morning, and burial was made in the Plainview cemetery beside her husband who preceded her in death four years.

Mrs. Buth, a resident of the county for 31 years, had been ill the past month and death was not unexpected.

She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Lillie Samman, Kress; Mulda Taylor, Olton; Martha Meada, Lockney; Edith Buth, Petersburg; Charlie, John and Willie Buth, Lockney; Louis Buth, Tress Laguna, New Mexico; four sisters, one brother and 16 grand children.

Pallbearers were Bert Bobbitt, G. B. Johnson, F. S. Byars, Roy Tinsley, E. A. McLeod and Frank Jones. Flower attendants were Mrs. Roy Tinsley, Mrs. Bert Bobbitt, Mrs. E. A. McLeod, Mrs. Bob Reeves, Mrs. Tressie Thompson, Mrs. W. A. Cooper, Mrs. John Casey and Mrs. Bill Smith.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Crager Funeral home.

HARRY CHRISTIAN ILL
Harry Christian was taken to a Lubbock hospital late Wednesday afternoon seriously ill with appendicitis. An emergency operation was performed this morning. Mrs. Christian and children left early this morning for Lubbock.

Chiropractors Will Meet For Program Here On Sunday Afternoon

At a meeting of the South Plains Chiropractic association that will be held here Sunday, at the county court room, Dr. J. L. Thompson, of Wellington and Mrs. Joe McCollum, of Lockney will deliver addresses to the general public, and about fifty visiting chiropractors who are expected to be here for the meeting. The meeting will start at 1:30 p. m. Dr. Thompson will speak on the subject "Artificial Surgery." Mrs. McCollum will discuss "Health and Diet."

Dr. D. H. Jarrell, of Hale Center, is president, Dr. E. L. Lansford of Lubbock vice president and Mrs. Joe McCollum, Lockney is secretary-treasurer of the association.

Dr. N. C. Purcell and Dr. J. G. Pruitt are to be hosts for the meeting.

VAUGHAN HORN DEVELOPS PNEUMONIA WEDNESDAY

Vaughan Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn of Crosbyton, developed pneumonia following an appendectomy two weeks ago, according to information received by an uncle, W. H. Bethel, who called the sanitarium this morning. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Horn. His condition is regarded as critical.

Lockney—

school from which he transferred.

Game A Natural
The Bulldogs lost half a game when they were tied by the Flomot Longhorns 26 to 26. Lockney had the same experience except the score was 13 to 13 when the final gun sounded.

The Steers are experienced and heavy, with a powerful and elusive backfield that dealt the speedy and capable Flomot boys plenty of misery. The Lockney line managed to keep Amoretts from scoring, which is more than a passing accomplishment.

Lockney out first-downed Flomot by about five first downs although the penetrations were even. With one of the most experienced and well balanced teams in years the Longhorns are an even bet to gain their first conference crown since back in the '20s.

Spir looms over the horizon with an equally aggressive and veteran eleven which soundly outplayed the Flomot boys in first downs and penetrations but not in scoring. The Bulldogs are heavy and tough, having a combination of speed and power that matches that of Lockney.

If the dope is figured down to a fine point, Spur stands to the front as a slight favorite, but the Longhorns will be playing on their home grounds and before a crowd of "home folks" and that means the Steers will be double tough for even a Bulldog to stampee.

Both teams have a big reserve roster boasting a goodly number of capable players to back up the regular starters.

Spur had made no decision on starters because of the middle up horizon late last night, but Lockney, prepared to face either Spur or Flomot, will probably start.

W. Allen at center, G. Richardson and C. Gentry at ends, G. Williams and L. Thompson at tackles, J. Allen and H. Owens at guards, Brotherton at the quarterback post, Kelley and Davis at the half back slots, and Hill in at fullback. Some changes might be made at the last minute but his has been the effective combination all season.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

According to a report from Lubbock G. H. Barton, 45, of Floydada and his brother, M. A. Barton, also of Floydada were slightly injured in an automobile crash east of the city Tuesday afternoon.

SEE 1938 MILK RECORD

A new high record of milk production in 1938—about 110 billion pounds for the full year—is indicated by monthly estimates of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The increase over 1937 is about 4 percent.

Butter is the most important manufactured product, using about 41 percent of the total milk production. An equivalent amount is used as milk and cream. Cheese takes

FLOYDADA, FLOYD COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1938.

NUMBER 41

VOLUME 45

Turkey Day Observance Is General

Stores In Floydada Scheduled To Close Thursday In Observance

The three hundred and seventeenth anniversary of Thanksgiving will be almost universally observed in Floyd County this year according to plans being made today.

The post office, bank, court house offices, utilities offices, city hall, and a large number of business establishments will cease operation Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving Day. Merchants and employees plan to stay at home and eat turkey and enjoy various amusements that will be provided or visit friends and relatives elsewhere and enjoy meeting of fellowship.

Floyd County alone has supplied a goodly number of turkeys for the dinner tables of the United States and it is expected that most families in this county will partake of the customary fowl, however others are looking forward to baked hen.

Following the dinner hour Floydada High School's Whirlwinds will meet the Spur high school Bulldogs in a revenge football game here at Wester Field beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The game is almost as customary on Thanksgiving as is the turkey. Although Spur is hoped to win the game is conceded by the coaches to be hard fought and thrilling affair.

A large number of fans will journey to Lubbock to see the traditional battle between the Lubbock Westeners and the Amarillo Sandies for the District 1-A championship. Although the seats have been sold for several days a number of fans were able to secure tickets for the affair.

Thursday night the Floydada Firemen will sponsor a Thanksgiving dance in the Sarginer building with "Cowboy" Kyle and his Lubbock stringers playing. The dance will begin at 9 o'clock and continue until past midnight if the dancers wish.

It is also probable that a number of social affairs will be given over the county in commemoration of Thanksgiving.

So Floyd County will celebrate Thanksgiving Thursday in what is probably the most wholesome fashion in years. Everyone feels that they have more this year to be thankful for than in a great number of years. Whether this be true or not a gala holiday is predicted.

Floydada Whips Lockney 6-0

If Floydada fans will wait patiently for four or five years it is possible that Floydada will turn up with a football team that will take the Lockney Longhorns to a cleaning—at least a mighty (little) team turned the trick Tuesday afternoon by trouncing the Lockney "Mites" 6 to 0.

The two "chigger-weight" elevens battled it out at Andrews ward but Floydada won when Johnnie Collins smashed over for the deciding score. No member of either team weighed over 85 pounds, and members of the teams were from the fourth through the seventh grade.

Starters for Floydada were Johnnie Collins, fb, Joe Dick McClung, hb, Billie Williams, lb, James Cline, qb, Johnnie Hammonds, c, Jennings Martin, re, W. E. Smith, le, Emil Pence, rt, George Tyler, lt, Delwin Williams, lg, and Jimmie Shurbet, rg.

Engineers Inspect Dam Site; Call It Highly Desirable

Engineers of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics last Thursday spent nearly a day on Blanco canyon in company with local officials inspecting the proposed site of the dam project, and verbally called the site a "very desirable one."

With them on the inspection trip were O. L. Kirk and R. W. Cothern, president and secretary of Floydada Chamber of Commerce and W. D. Newell, from the Luder engineering office.

The engineers making the trip here were Chas. E. Kitchen, engineer from the BAE office in Washington, D. C. and Joseph A. O'Hearn, associate engineer from the Amarillo BAE office.

Recently the Bureau of Agricultural Economics has been shifted into the soil conservation service and checking of proposed damsite was made necessary by this change, R. W. Cothern said. Engineer O'Hearn believes action from the Washington office concerning the Blanco project should be forthcoming soon.

Agent Bredthauer And Party Make Trip to Colorado

See At First Hand Processing, Handling Sugar Beets At Factory

County Agent D. F. Bredthauer and a party of Floyd county men made a hurry-up trip to Rocky Ford, Colorado, this week where they viewed some of the activities in connection with sugar beet handling at the sugar beet factory of the American Crystal Sugar company.

In the party with the agent were J. L. Suits, Lockney publisher, Ed Whitfill and C. J. Taylor, and H. M. Bainer, agriculture agent of the Santa Fe Railway company.

Between 20 and 30 cars of Floyd county beets have been sent out to the Rocky Ford plant for processing. The Floyd county men, with tongue in cheek, have been watching the high sugar content reports on Floyd county production and wondering if the experiments carried out will result in the development of a new type of agriculture on many irrigated farms in the county.

The party left late Monday traveling Monday night, spending Tuesday in the Colorado beet production area and expected to reach home late Wednesday or early Thursday. As a result of the tests that have been carried on under the guidance of Mr. Bredthauer the past two years Floyd county has been given a sugar beet quota by the state agricultural office and its sugar beet growers will receive in addition to their beet production income a subsidy that will amount to $4,000 to $5,000. Floyd is the first Texas county to be recognized in this manner.

Door-To-Door Salesman Runs Into 'Peddling' Ordinance Of The City

A door-to-door salesman who had a force of 5 young women selling a bargain-priced photographic offer ran into Floydada's anti-peddling ordinance Saturday and when hauled into corporation court, paid a fine for the violation of the ordinance.

Only the sales manager was fined, the young women being permitted to go free.

A flood of door-to-door sales people last year resulted in the passage of the anti-peddling ordinance by the city council. It carries a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $100 for each call the peddler makes. Farmers selling their own produce and bona fide business establishments of the community are exempted in the provisions of the ordinance.

Locker System Ready To Contract Building

After many delays it appeared this week the individual refrigeration locker system, planned on for many weeks, is ready to function as soon as a building is located that suits the needs.

It was indicated Tuesday by A. J. Jackson, who is expected to manage the plant, that arrangements will be completed sometime this week for the building.

REDA MAE GARY ILL.

Referendum In Cotton Producing States To Have Far-Reaching Effect

In a referendum on December 10 Floyd county farmers will vote yes or no to the question:

Do farmers want a marketing quota on cotton for 1939?

Announcement that the vote will be taken was made last week and the local agricultural conservation association officials are making preparations for the ballot. The vote is expected to be carried on in similar manner to that of last year when secret ballot was taken. Farmers must vote two-third majority for the quota before it can be made effective by the department of agriculture.

The vote for or against the quotas for cotton will have no effect on the soil conservation program, which is an act of the congress, was explained this week by L. A. Williams chairman of the local committee, and it has been explained by department officials that no loans on 1939 production will be possible if the quota plan is rejected.

Senators and congressmen of the country are watching for the reaction of the farmers to the quota vote, a rejection of which will practically sound the death knell to the Triple A program and result in some kind of a substitute program to be enacted on the forthcoming session of congress.

Arguing for the favorable action of Floyd county farmers in the referendum on December 10, Mr. Williams pointed out that failure to adopt it will throw the cotton production industry into confusion again, and would also have a depressing effect on the cotton market. The cotton marketing quota plan is additional to the soil conservation plan—a program which the farmers, by their choice, may use in years of bumper crops to protect their markets.

It is now expected that 1939 allotments for cotton acreage in Floyd county will be mailed to producers by December 5, when they will have full information on which to base their judgement on the quota plan as affecting their individual farms, it was said at the committee's office this week.

Texas Boys Assemble At Dallas For Trip To Big Chicago Show

Percy Tate And 18 Others Take Off For 4-H Club Event At International

A foretaste of what is in store for them during this week and the first 4 or 5 days of next, was given the 19 Texas 4-H club boys the first of this week when they whisked to the big International Live Stock show in Chicago in a Pullman car of one of the Santa Fe Railway company's fastest stream-lined trains.

Assembled at Dallas for the trip the boys rode a special car to Wichita, Kansas, and thence by special Pullman on the second fastest train the Santa Fe operates, a stream-liner that is the last thing in up-to-date trains.

In Chicago Tate, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate of Aiken, will compete in the cotton class, representing the State of Texas with his long staple cotton and a record of production and marketing that is enviable. He will be competing with the best cotton and best cotton producers of the nation. The Aiken club, of which he is president, will have several individual boys' exhibits in the show.

Tate won the right to show at Chicago by a 3-year record as a 4-H club leader and student of cotton farming in Floyd county. The show at Chicago, closes on December 2.

258 Premiums Are Paid In Floyd County For All-Hazard Coverage

258 of 316 applicants for all-crop coverage on wheat planted in Floyd county this year had paid their premiums when the time limit expired last week, according to figures released by O. L. Allen, federal crop insurance supervisor for the county Monday.

Hazards covered include all forms of damage that can occur to a wheat crop, from dry weather to hail. Amount of insurance and premium paid is based on the crop production history of the farm insured.

Wheat growers in Texas rank second only to Kansas in the amount of premiums paid to date for "all-risk" insurance, it is reported out of College Station by E. R. Duke, state crop insurance supervisor.

The wheat insurance plan contemplates the building of a reserve in wheat that will be paid to insured farmers in the event of a crop failure.

Hard Game Predicted By Fans Over This District; Many Fans To Go

The Lockney Longhorns will advance into the bi-district Friday, December 2, to do battle with the mighty Wellington Skyrockets on the Rocket's home field at Wellington, according to an announcement made this week by J. W. Jones, superintendent of schools at Lockney.

Superintendent Jones, and his company composed of Leo Cooper, G. D. Tate, Sam Miller, chairman of the school board, A. P. Barker, Robert Smith and Hugh Carroll, John Stapleton also went.

Floydada, Wellington, Plainview, and Paducah were considered as sites for the game but when Wellington offered $600 cash and 125 one dollar choice reserved seat tickets, or an option on half the gate receipts of the game, Lockney decided to accept and play at Wellington.

The game could not be played on Thanksgiving because Lockney had played a full 10 game schedule and the league rules would not permit a game under those circumstances until after December 1. Although the Turkey day date would have been much preferred by both teams from the gate standpoint, but if the weather remains bright there is certain to be a large crowd on hand.

The 125 reserve seat tickets, owned by Lockney will go on sale and those wishing to purchase them may see Superintendent Jones. It is highly probable that they will be snapped up as soon as they go on sale but more will be available at Wellington, since there is a stadium with a large seating capacity.

The game will be called by Burns McKinney, assistant coach at Paducah, as referee; Sunderman, coach at Estelline, as umpire, and Blassensgame of Childress, head linesman.

At present the dope stacks up the Rockets as unbeatable by any Class B outfit. The Wellington team is undefeated and untied and have run up huge scores on all Class B teams in their district and have defeated a number of powerful Oklahoma teams.

The Lockney team started slow but gained momentum daily until it rushed through the district with only one tie on its record to mar an otherwise perfect season. If the dope is to be considered the Rockets are due to win as they please, piling up the kind of score they prefer but fans in this section feel that the Wellington lads are going to be lucky to win by two touchdowns and in their hearts secretly feel that an upset is highly possible.

The last defeat suffered by Wellington last year in the regional game with the mighty Panhandle Panthers, victors of Districts 1 and 2. The winner of the Lockney-Wellington game will probably again face the Panthers since no team in District 1 seems to pack the power this year that the Panhandle team boasts.

Lions Zone Meeting Set For Tuesday

District Governor To Address Representatives Of 8 Clubs Here

Representatives of 8 clubs of this zone of District 2-T, Lions International, are due to gather in Floydada Tuesday night of next week for a conference and program, at which an address by District Governor Omar Burleson, of Anson, will be featured.

Arrangements for the zone meeting were begun by the local club this week, with the expectation that attendance would be between 100 and 150 persons.

Tuesday it was indicated that a resume of the activities of the zone clubs during the approximately first half of the club year, and an entertainment program in which all clubs will have part, will make up part of the program.

The meeting is to be held at the Andrews Ward gymnasium around a banquet board of turkey and trimmings. Ladies of the First Christian church will serve the meal.

A program committee composed of W. H. Henderson, Tucker Teutsch and O. M. Watson, and a greetings and introduction committee, whose duty it will be to see that there are no wall flowers, have been named. The greetings committee is composed of Polk Goen, C. E. Fyffe and Lorraine Britton.

Clubs expected to be represented with Floydada club Tuesday night are Crosbyton, Plainview, Lubbock, Lamesa, Brownfield, Morton, Littlefield and Dimmitt.

McChesney's Funeral Rites Held At Olney Friday, November 18

Friends Learn Of Death Of Former Resident In Message Friday Morning

H. G. McChesney, 44, prominent for several years in business circles at Floydada, died at the home of his wife's parents at Olney early Thursday morning and funeral services were held from the Methodist church at that city, at 4 p. m. Friday, Dr. F. P. Culver, officiating.

The deceased was a former manager of the South Plains Lumber yard, coming to Floydada in January, 1931, from Slaton and succeeding R. B. Wakefield as manager of the yard where he served several years. He was an active member of the Methodist church while here and served as pastor of the Wake Methodist church in 1935. Was also active in the Masonic lodge.

He is survived by his widow, two daughters and one son. The children are Marjorie 12, Herbert Glen 11 and Joan 7.

In June, 1937, after an illness of several weeks Mr. McChesney was admitted to the Veteran's hospital at Albuquerque, New Mexico, for treatment. At that time Mrs. McChesney and children made their home at Olney.

In the fall of the same year he was transferred to the Veteran's hospital at Los Angeles, California but failed to recuperate and he and his family returned to Floydada last spring spending most of their time here until May 20 when they left for Olney to make their home.

Friends from Floydada who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Travis, who were first to learn of their friend's death, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Henson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Leibfried of Cunningham, Texas, former neighbors here, attended the funeral.

More Improvement Planned For 1939 On Silvertown Road

Floyd county commissioners court, who asked for a date to appear before the State Highway commission at their meeting on November 30, to urge further early hard surfacing on Highway 207 north toward the county line of Briscoe, were told in a letter from W. J. Amy, administrative assistant to the state highway engineer, that time and expense spent on a visit to Austin at this time would probably go for naught.

Further work on the highway may be anticipated, he indicated however, in the year of 1939 when an extension of hardsurfacing on the route on north is tentatively set up in the federal aid program of the commission.

The tentative set-up that includes further improvement of 207 in 1939 is encouraging to the local officials but is disappointing to the extent that earlier action has been hoped for by them. Apparently, the letter from the highway official indicates that July of next year will be as soon as definite action toward further hard surfacing on 207 will be taken.

HOMER STEEN, Editor

WASHINGTON LETTER

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON — Chief difference between the 1939 and 1938 AAA programs is that this year farmers can know in advance of planning season what they must do to comply. Last year winter crops were planted before the AAA program was announced.

This advance information is of particular value to wheat farmers. Last year, since there could be no actual allotment of acreage, available funds for parity payments were apportioned mathematically. Each wheat farmer who co-operated in reducing acreage of other crops which he had not planted before the AAA allotments were announced was given his share of the parity payments funds at the rate of 12 cents a bushel. This was based on a total wheat crop limit of 62,500 acres.

This year wheat farmers who co-operate with the specified allotment plan will receive payments at the rate of 17 cents on the bushel and the total so-called "acreage goal" for wheat is shaved to between 55,000,000 and 60,000,000 acres.

Also in 1939 farmers may earn pin money for the first time by building check dams for control of erosion and seepage of irrigated crop land. Previously cooperation in soil conservation practices was invited but was not on a paying basis. The rate of payment for applying limestone to build soil has been increased in some areas.

The national crop goal for 1939 is between 270,000,000 and 285,000,000 acres to be planted to soil-depleting crops (or 5,000,000 acres less than last year). The fund for parity payments will be $500,000,000 this year as before. In addition there is $212,000,000 to be distributed in price adjustment payments, on cotton, wheat, corn, tobacco and rice.

Crop payments on 1939 acreage allotments will be made at the following rates: 2 cents a pound on cotton, 9 cents a bushel on corn, 17 cents a bushel on wheat, 10 cents a hundredweight on rice.

This year as last, farmers who exceed acreage allotments will be subject to what are called "partial performance deductions," at the following rates: 4 cents a pound on cotton, 50 cents a bushel on wheat, 40 cents a bushel on corn, and 30 cents a hundredweight on rice. An innovation this year will be the acreage allotments on commercial vegetables, designed to reach the small producer. Co-operating vegetable producers will be rewarded at the rate of $1.50 an acre and the penalty for not co-operating will be deductions at the rate of $20 an acre.

The need for some control of acreage planted to commercial vegetables developed when it was found that farmers who found it profitable to reduce acreage planted to major crops in compliance with former AAA programs, simply increased their production of commercial vegetables.

If farmers find a way to get around the 1939 allotments there may be more special allotments for isolated problems such as the special celery program initiated this year to curb surpluses threatened in five celery producing counties in Florida.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

(Issue of November 20, 1924)

McDermott Post No. 118, American Legion, will soon have a home of their own. Ground was broken for the foundation for their new hall and two rooms at the corner of Fifth and Virginia streets Tuesday of this week and foundation work has been started. L. C. McDonald has been the contractor for the job.

W. B. Hall will succeed Marvin Gilley at the First State Bank, the latter having resigned his place there to go to Spur where he will engage in the Chevrolet dealership.

Two new homes are to be built shortly on South Wall street, one each by W. N. Paschall and Allen Reynolds. Mr. Paschall is building a six room house on the east side of the street and Mr. Reynolds is putting up a four room house on the west side.

W. U. White and his wife are moving to Floydada this week from their home at Canadian where they have been residing the past several months, and will take up their residence here as soon as possible.

This week the city of Floydada started the use of a small street maintainer on the streets and alleys. The maintainer is a machine to be used by one man and was sold to the city by Barker brothers. It is an adaptation of the Fordson tractor for the purpose.

B. K. Barker and E. S. Randerson are in Dallas this week where they are taking the Shrine degree of the Masonic lodge.

Mrs. B. P. Woody who has been in Graham visiting for some time returned home this week.

Route 5 which last July was created as a semi-weekly, operating southeast from Lakeview store was recently converted into a daily line. This change has been made necessary, due to the closer development of that territory and to the increase of the amount of mail carried on that route. The carrier on Route 5 is Jeff Welborn.

The board of stewards of the First Methodist church, as guests of W. A. Baker, enjoyed an oyster supper at the White Rose cafe last Thursday evening.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(Nellie Witt Spikes)

The golden fruits of Florida, California and South Texas, the people of Old Mexico, shining cars gliding over smooth pavements, richly dressed men and women, hurrying here and there, windows heaped with every comfort every necessity, the human race could need or wish, the smell of coal smoke from many trains, the ringing of street bells.

The little city of Lubbock looked very busy last Saturday. Where once the cowboy ran his fast pony after the hawling steers, now college boys run with a football. Where the herd lay bedded and sleeping under the stars now many boys and girls are sleeping under the dormitory roofs. Where the loafer wolf howled, the stren of the fire wagons and ambulances shriek and moan. Where the shy antelope drank from the canyon springs, a beautiful park invites the merry crowds to stop and play. Where the prairie grass lay long and green, now are beautiful lawns and where the catclaw and mesquite reached out long lacy fingers, tall trees and evergreens, planted by the hand of man, now cast dark shade over the passerby. Where once the wild flowers bloomed, grow flowers of many hues. These are some of the changes we have seen. And who knows what we shall see yet?

Robert Day sent me some pretty rocks they collected on their trip last summer. Two are from Arkansas, the others from Oklahoma. It is nice to be remembered by friends when they are on vacation. It is almost as good as to get to go. Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Day.

Mr. Steen also added to my rock collection with a petrified piece of a tree from the petrified forest. It is as lovely as a gem. Wish I had a piece of it in a ring. Paul brought me a rock from Sander's creek in Lamar county. It brought an echo of dogs hunting possums and coons in the moon light. Another he brought was a petrified stump from Kickapoo creek in Jack county. I can see the hostile Indian as he hid behind the trees and rocks slipping up on the whites he hated, stealing the horses, burning the log houses, scalping the men and carrying off women and children.

I like to go to the big towns but I like best to trade as we once said instead of shop, in the little towns. There in the big places we are not known, our few bills look so small as we see the heaps of things, we are hard to please after we see hundreds of dresses, hats and shoes, the clerks do not know us, are not interested in our troubles and pleasures, but in the little town it is different, our few bills do not look so hopeless, we are pleased in selecting a dress, a hat, some shoes, the clerks know us, ask about our health, the new baby, and we get sympathy and help with our purchases. Hurrah for the little towns, may they never die!

What have I to be thankful for this year? No I am not going to count the material things. Have I had a good crop of love and have I stored up sheaves of kindness to last through the hard times? Have I cut down and burned the weeds of hate and envy? Have I stored away beautiful thoughts and deeds? Am I thankful for my friends? For loved ones. For my country, which is at peace? So many things I have to be thankful my heart seems stored as full as the barns are in a good year.

I wish I could look in each of your homes this Thanksgiving, see the tables loaded with turkey and all the rest, see the boys and girls that have been gone sitting at mother's and father's table thankful for the privilege. I wish for everyone that reads this all the joy, the peace and the love that Thanksgiving brings.

Here is a poem written by my friend, Erva Ann Sherrard, who is getting to be a well known poetess.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME
IT NEVER FAILS TO HAPPEN
WAIT, JUNIOR! I THINK I'LL STOP AND TRY ON THAT HAT!
O-O-O-O-W!
I MIGHT HAVE KNOWN IT!!

The little farmer has been hard hit by the present farm setup, at least in this section. He is no longer permitted to cultivate enough cotton or wheat to make him a living, and he is gradually leaving the farm with the unavoidable result that the country towns depending upon him have also begun wanting. That a change in farm policy is imperative cannot be stressed too much.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

Although the new wage and hour law presents many a complicated situation and is hard to understand, it or some other law must solve the problem confronting the American working public of too many hours with nothing to use them for to make wages.—The Memphis Democrat.

Fresh meat is essential to a wholesome diet, and farmers and their families can have it with little cash outlay, while town folks often do without because it costs more than they can afford. Enough feed goes to waste—grass and weeds in fence corners and fields, or eaten by rats after it is stored—to raise and fatten all the beef, mutton and pork the average farm family could eat.—Foard County News.

This country is in the ridiculous position of declaring that we sell no war materials to warring countries while at the same time we are furnishing Japan with the materials to commit upon China one of the most brutal outrages in the history of nations.—Dallas News.

A number of towns are either building or wanting to build county hospitals that evidently don't know that building a hospital is about the smallest part of such enterprise. Very few hospitals in the United States are on a paying basis; the charity cases usually take care of any surplus of money.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

Murder by motor car is on the decline, according to the National Safety council. Traffic accident fatalities for the past nine months have registered a steady decline. This decline has taken place in the face of a slight increase in mileage figures.—White Deer Review.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Another Thanksgiving day, a day set aside to give thanks for the material things of life. And can our people find plenty of things for which to be thankful? In the midst of our complaints concerning the many disjointed political and economic affairs of our country and the world, we have meat and we can eat. We have so much more presently and so much more in prospect than other peoples in many parts of the world, speaking of material things.

Thanksgiving! Even the poorest of us have much to make the word a magic one if we only reflect. And, most of all, opportunity for the future. Let us, indeed, give thanks to a kindly providence.

COLD WINTER AHEAD?

Students of the weather, who have charted the excesses of climatic conditions in the United States for many years, are said to believe that beginning about this winter, possibly next, excesses of low temperature are due to begin and run through a period of some time. Likewise they believe that a rainy cycle for the southwest is in prospect.

The whys and the wherefores they have not learned as yet and there is always a possibility that this may be the time when the cycle will not repeat itself. All of which adds to the zest with which the scientists and amateurs alike continue their study and prognostication. It is interesting to speculate on whether there will be a day, sometime hence, when the weather cycles can be forecast accurately enough for a farmer to plan his planting. Perhaps this mystery of nature will remain a secret always. But many things that could not be done have been done.

INSECTS IN TEXAS

Although the insect specialists of A. & M. college have a collection of insects that is composed of some 70,000 specimens representing some 4,000 varieties, authorities there think it is probable they have less than 10 per cent of the species occurring in Texas represented.

The average person pays little attention to insects until they begin to bother, possibly to eat up a wheat or cotton crop, or damage live stock. But, we are told, insects outnumber in kinds the members of all other groups of animals combined. Insects have had and will continue to have a profound influence on the lives of the people and yet, as noted, above, even the men who spend their lives studying insects with the knowledge that has been accumulated aforesaid, do not know all the things that are needed to be known about the crawling and flying things we call insects.

MANY FARMERS INTERESTED

A tax that bears on all with reasonable likeness cannot be complained against unless it becomes unbearably heavy. But a tax, like the present tariff, that does not place burdens alike on all, is one against which the people affected should make a fight.

It is interesting to note that farmers are becoming aroused at last and are holding meetings over the country protesting the handicap which the national congress has set up against agriculture in general and that of the helpless southwest in particular. County and regional meetings in Texas now are to be climaxed in December by a huge gathering in Dallas, where the representatives of the county organizations will make themselves heard in a way that may finally reach the ears of Washington. Joe Bailey fought these battles without any help from the home folks for a good many years. With no backing from home he lost, of course, though the galleries filled to hear him. Now, Tom Connally and others representing the Texas thought, are asking that the Yankee feet be removed from our necks. If the home-folks back our representative up like it appears they will some results may be apparent some of these days.

A peculiar thing about the native south-westerners all these years. They have been willing for the other man to make the rules of the game and then try to beat him at it. Things do not work out that way, we are beginning to learn.

IRIS AND PLAINS YARDS

The possibility of making greater use of the Iris in the yards is suggested in a recent discussion of them recently by S. H. Yarnell, division of horticulture, A. & M. experiment station.

The old white flag so common in Texas is an example of how well the iris will do in most any part of the state. Many homes where little effort has been made to have other types of flowers grow have the flag as a border for walks and in corners of the yard and around. Since there are so many multicolored varieties of the iris, Mr. Yarnell thinks it is strange that they are not grown more commonly. The bulbs are so reasonably priced in most varieties that this objection could hardly be raised.

THE ACHIEVEMENT DAY TOURS

The achievement day tours in which more than one hundred women and girls from all over the county joined were heartening and enlightening. Study of ingenious ways and means used by the home makers to make home life more livable was the principal thought behind the tours. The social feature was none the less important because it was not stressed.

Admitting a probable proneness to over-stress the value of home demonstration work in Floyd county, it is our thought that the achievement day tours alone were worth to the county all the program has cost us this year.

SPECIALIZING IN TURKEYS

People who are raising just a few turkeys are finding they bother the neighbors more than they are worth to the raiser. On the other hand, it seems to be the general result that turkeys are profitable when the raiser goes into the business on a specialty basis, and arranges to take care of his birds throughout the laying season as well as when they have begun to put on weight for the market.

Not what I have, but what I do, is my kingdom.—Carlyle.

Father and Son Neighbors Win in Different Counties

George H. Kirkpatrick, left, and son Graham, talk over the election results.

UTICA, O.—The central Ohio counties of Knox and Licking decided to make it a family affair when they went to the polls and named 65-year-old farmer George H. Kirkpatrick and his 37-year-old farmer son, Graham Kirkpatrick, to the state legislature.

The Republican Kirkpatrick runs adjoining farms but the Knox-Licking county line splits their acres. Both get their mail at R. F. D. 2, Utica, but the elder Kirkpatrick will represent Knox county at Columbus and the younger, Licking.

This is Graham's first elective office. He ran on the Ohio senate two years ago but lost in the primaries. George Kirkpatrick served one previous term in the legislature, was defeated two years ago for re-election by Mt. Vernon's Democrat Walter Riley. He beat Riley this year by double Riley's margin in 1936.

Father and son worked closely in mapping their campaigns, both were supported by respective county party machinery but neither campaigned for the other. The election results would seem to indicate they did pretty well on their own.

Wives of both farmer-politicians took no active part in their husbands' campaigns but did their bit by managing the farms while the menfolk were off to the political wars.

The elder Kirkpatrick is one of Ohio's most prominent swine breeders. He is nationally known as a judge of swine and raised and sold the highest-priced hog ever marketed in Ohio for $4000. The younger Kirkpatrick, one of seven children, is a graduate of Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., was a star college baseball catcher and was trained as an aviator and mechanic before turning to farming. He has been for several years and is a past president of the Ohio State Association of Trustees.

Garden Plot Needs Water This Winter

Don't Wait 'Til Plants Start Growing, Says Mary Watson Jones

November is the month to offset next spring's possible drought in the farm garden, warns Mrs. Mary Watson Jones, Floyd County Home Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

"Don't wait until plants start growing to water the plot," she says. "What now. Turn the surplus water from the well into the garden and thoroughly water the land."

This procedure has a twofold purpose, Mrs. Jones says. First it will save water, secondly it will assist in killing insects when it freezes and expands the soil. It will also help with the rotting of the vegetation in the soil.

Before breaking garden land make a heavy application of well-rotted barn manure at the rate of five tons per one-fourth acre, Mrs. Jones advises. Fresh manure may be used but should be applied in the fall or winter and turned under early to decompose. Here are some garden rules she sets:

Locate the plot near the house so the housewife need not walk a mile for an onion.

Have a windbreak if possible. Plant two rows of trees on the windward side not closer than 75 to 100 feet, eight feet apart in the row, allowing ten feet between rows.

Low growing, bushy trees may be planted on the windward side with taller, faster growing trees on the inside rows.

Locate the garden near the windmill to utilize the surplus water from the tank.

Select mellow sandy soil or garden loam soil.

Start plants in cold frames for early gardens.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH FREE OF INDEBTEDNESS NEW CHURCH UNDER WAY

Sunday was a day to be remembered at the First Christian church the occasion being noted because the last of a series of bonds representing the indebtedness of the church were paid off.

This leaves the church free of any indebtedness and the new church will under way with pledges to take care of all the expenses.

At next Sunday's service a Thanksgiving offering will be taken that will be used for added furnishing in the new church building. J. C. Wester is chairman of the building committee, Lon Davis, Sunday School superintendent, Gordon G. Voight, pastor.

Sunday School services 9:45, preaching at 11 a. m. each Lord's day and Young People's meeting each Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in a study of "The Life of Christ," taught by Rev. Voight.

Mrs. T. C. Vassar left Wednesday of last week for a visit with relatives at Dallas.

After Fifth Championship—Between them they weigh 58 pounds—35 pounds for the four-times national champion gander, and 23 pounds for little Bobbie Loescher. This white Embden gander will be after its fifth championship award at the Great Western Livestock show Nov. 20-26 in Los Angeles.

METHODIST W. M. S. HAVE SOCIAL AND PROGRAM

Mrs. H. M. McDonald and Mrs. C. L. Travis were hostess to the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church at the church Monday afternoon for the monthly, social and World Outlook program.

Mrs. J. B. Bishop was leader of the lesson. Mrs. John L. West gave the devotional.

Mrs. W. H. Henderson gave the Meditation followed by Mrs. Wilson Kimble, Mrs. George V. Smith and Mrs. James Colville each presenting interesting parts on the program.

Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour.

The meeting for next Monday will be at the church for a Missionary study with Mrs. J. E. Eldridge in charge.

Rushing Chapel Home Dem. Club Meeting On Monday, Nov. 21

RUSHING CHAPEL, Nov. 21.—The Rushing Home Demonstration club, in a meeting Monday afternoon, at the chapel, studied the "Art of Bedmaking." Miss Ruth Grimes, gave a demonstration on making a bed.

In a business meeting that followed, Mrs. Bob Carter was elected to the office of president of the club and Mrs. M. J. McNeil, to vice-president.

The ladies of the Methodist church are planning to have a box supper at the chapel on the night of December 2.

At this time, the public is invited to come and bring a box. A musical program is being planned for the entertainment of the evening.

Mrs. S. L. Rushing and Mrs. C. B. Smart made a business trip to Plainview Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Clyde Irwin went by plane to California where she will visit her parents during the holidays.

Miss Juanita Rushing is expected home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Conner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor at Floydada, Sunday.

HOME FROM STEPHENVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Scott and W. O. Boucher returned home Monday morning from Stephenville where they were called Saturday to be at the bedside of Mrs. Scott's and Mr. Boucher's sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Boucher who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Boucher who has been in a hospital at Stephenville for the past six weeks, was in a critical condition when the relatives left to return home.

AN APPRECIATION

We wish to thank the friends for the kindness and consideration shown us during the illness and death of our dear husband and our daddy.

Especially are we grateful for the lovely floral offering, and to Mr. Harmon for the kind consideration shown us, we will ever be thankful.

Mrs. Harry Christian, Etwina and Duncan Hollums, Greer and Ruth Christian, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Christian, Mrs. S. D. Greer and other relatives.

How Flowers Are Pollinated

Flowers are pollinated not only by insects, wind, water and man, says Collier's Weekly, but also by birds such as hummers, honey-eaters and sun birds, and by mammals such as bats, and by climbing marsupials such as the money mouse of Western Australia.

Stork Holland's Sacred Bird

The stork is Holland's sacred bird who keeps down the population of toads and frogs common to such a country. Formerly no Holland city was without its stork colony.

NO ONE BEST METHOD FOR TREATING TREE CAVITIES

Cavities caused by decay often endanger valuable trees. Whether to treat and fill these cavities, or merely to treat them to prevent more decay, is a question which comes often to tree men in the United States Department of Agriculture.

The research men who work with disease of trees find that whether to fill or not to fill is not as important as arresting decay. Fillings of cement or asphalt, although they do not ordinarily add much strength to trunk or branch, do give a tree a better appearance. They prevent new growth from rolling into a cavity and assist it in reaching across a cavity more quickly.

On the other hand a filled tree is not as resilient under wind pressure. Asphalt used in cavity filling is likely to slump on a hot day. Any covered or filled cavity is a menace if it has not been filled properly in the first place, says Rush P. Marshall, forest pathologist in the Department.

He points out that reliable and conscientious tree surgeons are more concerned with showing the public how trees will respond to proper treatment than in pushing either one of two approved methods.

A SALESMAN'S PRAYER

"O Lord, look with a forgiving eye, we beseech Thee, if Thou canst—on the buyers who lie to us about the low prices our competitors give them. Lord, soften the hearts of those who, as soon as they see a salesman, get as busy as a hen with one chicken, keep us standing around until our feet warp, and then buy as much as two dollars and sixty-five cents worth—and want that billed out the first of next month. Good Lord, curb our tendency to flirt with the married women; the single ones don't count, and they expect it. Teach us, we pray Thee, not to complain at the roller towels that the multitude has used before we get there. Lord, give us digestions like alligators, that we may thrive on the loin steaks cut from the neck where the yoke worked. Help us to be thankful for the stump-water served us and called coffee, dear Lord. Toughen our hides, that we may sleep soundly in hotel beds already inhabited.

"Lord, soften the hearts of our employers, that they may render us what little commission is due us in full. O Lord, overlook our absent-mindedness when we get away from home and forget about being married; and in conclusion, we beg Thee, when we have made our last trip, please don't send us below. We have had our share of that place on earth, Amen."—The Turnstile.

NOT FIRST DICTIONARY

Contrary to general belief, even among scholars, Dr. Samuel Johnson's "Dictionary," which was compiled about 1750, was not the first dictionary of the English language—although it was by far the best one ever produced at that time. The first compilation of this sort, says Pearson's London Weekly, was "The

FARM TENANCY RISES AS PUBLIC LAND DISAPPEARS

From 1880 to 1935 the number of farm tenants increased from 1,024,601 to 2,865,155, a gain of about 180 percent. The trend to tenancy and absence ownership of the land became particularly noticeable when good farm land in the public domain began to disappear and agriculture became more highly commercialized.

Evils of the tenancy system, particularly in the cash-crop areas of the Nation, are pointed out in the 1938 Yearbook of Agriculture, "Soils and Men." The system is largely an outgrowth of one aspect of the pioneer American attitude toward land—that it is an instrument for quick profit making, either through immediate returns from cash crops or the sale of land at high prices.

As a result, the authors declare, many landlords do not want their land tied up under a long-term lease because a favorable opportunity to sell may arise at any time. On the other hand, many tenants look with disfavor upon long-term leases because they want to be free to rent a better farm or buy one of their own. In general, leases developed in such a way leave the landlord free to sell the farm, tenants free to move, both free to exploit the soil, and neither accepting responsibility for conserving it.

As increasing proportions of agricultural lands become tenant-operated, the authors continue, the need for more adequate tenures increases. The work of the Farm Security Administration in setting up tenants as landowners under the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant act, while limited, is a step in the right direction, says Gove Hambidge, Yearbook editor.

Cockeram's was, Cockeram, in his dictionary, urged young writers "to acquire a learned style by looking up the simple words" they knew and to "find synonyms of such length as to astonish their readers."

THANKSGIVING

Once again "thank you" time is here. In all the holiday festivities, we sometimes lose sight of the true meaning of Thanksgiving and fail to receive the benefit the season should bring.

This Thanksgiving let us feel thankful for a successful school year, for staunch friends, for work to do, and for the pleasure the years will bring.

If any of you are doubtful that there is anything to be thankful for, review your calendar for the year and you will find a home, an abundance of food, the beauties of nature, the love of family and friends, everything that is truly necessary for happiness.

Words are inadequate for such a deep subject so I will use this little poem by Ellen Isabella Tupper to cover the subject.

For all that God in mercy sends:
For health and strength, for home and friend,
For every kindly word and deed,
For happy thoughts and pleasant talk,
For guidance in our daily walk,
For all these things give thanks,
For beauty in this world of ours,
For verdant grass and lovely flowers
For song of birds, for hum of bees,
For the refreshing summer breeze,
For hill and plain, for streams and wood,
For the great ocean's mighty flood,
For all these things give thanks,
For the sweet sleep that comes with night,
For the returning morning's light,
For the bright sun which shines on high,
For stars that glimmer in the sky,
For these and everything we see,
O Lord, our hearts we lift to thee,
And give thee hearty thanks.

KEEPING SCHOOL CLEAN

Miss Rea, dean of girls, at F. H. S. suggested that "Keep clean reminder" be handed down to F. H. S. students at large.

Since, for nine months a year, six hours a day (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) the students must live at school, it is important that the school be clean. One would not even consider living in a home where scrap paper is knee deep on the floor. "Knee deep" may be exaggerated, but even "ankle deep" is untidy. At home, one doesn't sling ink on the floors or stick gum under the chair seats, so why should school be different? To forcibly extract varnish from the best furniture is not being done in the best of circles and furthermore, "Fool's names, like fool's faces always appear in public places." If you wish your name to be left to posterity, don't leave it on the school desk, try "Who's Who in America" or history or something.

A person is known by the house he keeps or does not keep. Let's keep our speck and span. It won't be much trouble; there's a waste basket in every room.

STOP AND LISTEN

One of the great American characteristics is lack of attention in dealing with one another. Millions of mistakes are made each year by the failure to listen to what is being said, and then by neglecting to profit by what was learned.

Only recently, the entire nation was agog over a mythical invasion from Mars which was both humorous and pathetic. If people had only listened to the announcements explaining that the dramatization was fictitious there would have been no hysterics or temporary insanity, which goes to prove that America doesn't listen.

Everyone is in such a rush to go someplace and do something that they don't have time to stop and find out directions. They rush off and, eventually, come to the point where they have to listen, but not before time and energy has been wasted.

Noticing the fault in our own school (which diminishes the subject considerably), we find that students are late in getting to certain places because they forgot to observe what hour they were to be there. Not only do they disregard time and place preliminaries, but they also miss important assignments by thinking of what happened last night instead of listening to the requests voiced by Miss Education. This preoccupation leads to the leaving of important papers at home, forgetting errands, overlooking dates with the dentist and other people.

And our one big excuse is that we just weren't listening, which usually doesn't excuse us because no one is listening to our excuses.

Blanche Bamberger spent the week end in Plainview.

Ten girls from the Floydada Chapter of the F. H. T. club attended the annual area meet held at Canyon last week. The girls were well entertained and gained a great deal of helpful and interesting information for their club.

Upon their arrival in Canyon, they registered at the Canyon High school. The rest of the morning program was conducted in the high school auditorium. The Tulla Chapter was in charge of the program and the president of the Tulla club acted as president of the entire group.

At noon a luncheon conducted by the W. T. S. T. C. Home Economics department was served to the girls in the college department. After lunch the assembled crowd was taken to see Buffalo courts, Cousins hall and other departments of interest at W. T. S. T. C.

The afternoon program was conducted in the auditorium of the W. T. S. T. C. demonstration school. Among the other talks on the program, Esther Pinkner from the Floydada chapter gave a talk on "Personality in Regard to our clothing." Officers for the area were elected from the districts.

After the afternoon session the girls attended the meet were entertained with a tea by the W. T. High School Home Economics department. The tea was held in the home management house and the representatives were shown through this attractive house.

Five hundred and sixty two girls attended the meet. Those attending from here were Jaunice Cothorn, Claudyne Carpenter, Mary Louise Tubbs, Verda Frances Turner, Louise Wilson, Esther Finkner, Mattie Pearl Turner, Dorothy Dell Stovall, Aileen McIntyre, and the two sponsors, Miss Fouts and Miss Rees and Mrs. Carpenter.

Dramatic Club Entertains With Theatre Party

The members of the dramatic club attended a theatre party, on Monday, November 21. Using their regular meeting as a social. Several days ago the club voted on "Marie Antoinette" as the picture they wished to see. The picture was voted as one of the best in the month and worthwhile for the club.

They met at the home of Donnie Beth Nichols and from there preceded to the theatre. Those attending were Dorris Collins, Harold Cothorn, Evelyn Groves, W. C. Boren, Olin Watson, Winifred Holde, Edna Mae Griffin, Geraldine Ralins, Judson Abernathy, Frances Daniel, Donnie Beth Nichols, and Mrs. Piper, the sponsor of the Dramatic club.

Class News

Junior News

There are 14 juniors selling the Holland's magazine now, and although only a few subscriptions have been sold to date, each person is striving to sell at least 10.

The juniors are planning to make half of the money for the banquet, so let's all get behind them and make the magazine sales a success!

It is believed that the cast for the junior play, scheduled for December 10, has finally been decided upon. The books have been ordered, but haven't arrived, and just as going to try to play his part to the best of his ability. Here's to the junior play and may it be the best play ever to be presented by a junior class.

Senior News

Not much has been done in the senior class this week but many rumors have been making the rounds of things that are going to happen.

Miss Cade thinks that since we have not had a senior quilt since 1935, that one might be very successful. Although no definite plans have been made we will probably have one.

Also there are rumors for an annual. Mr. Frogge has suggested a way to have a very good one and our sponsors are interested. If everything works out all right just watch us go to town.

We have two very capable sponsors, which after all is one of the main things, plus a very industrious class. Put them together and there is bound to be some kind of explosion.

BAND AND DRUM CORPS

Have you thought that the band is going crazy these last few days? Now don't be frightened. They are only practicing that goose-stepping business.

If you want to experience a silly sensation, just join the band and try strutting your stuff for a change. The reason for this prevailing epidemic is the formation for the Spur game next Thursday afternoon.

GUESS WHO?

He has dark brown hair and eyes the same.

In football he's said to know the game.

And is said to rule a senior's heart. He'll teach her to whistle if she'll teach him to dance.

I'll probably get killed, but I'll take the chance.

Slander

Session

Does Douglas still possess the little glint of red in his hair? Maybe it was because it was shampooed so well Thursday night. R. E.'s was just as clean, Lula Lee.

By the time this goes to press, we will know who is elected football queen. All I have to say, is, may the best one win. I think all the candidates are swell.

Where was everyone, I mean most everyone, Friday afternoon? With all the football players in Littlefield, and practically half the school in Lockney it was rather lonesome in the halls.

Mr. Russell, did it take you quite a while to figure out who the kid in overalls was Wednesday night?

Blanche and Gilbert, as well as the rest of the Bamberger family, are not at all hard on the eyes.

Have you all noticed Donnie Beth's Diamond? Some lucky guy from Wichita Falls paid for it, Catch?

Lula Lee can't seem to stay in her chair in clothing class. I guess the floor's just too tempting.

Just think, only one more pep rally this season. Oh, dear what will we do then?

Claudyne, where did you find that cute "Little" "Barrel"? Gee, he's lots of fun. Could it be that he hails from Tech? He and Verne put together are one big "mess".

The freshmen girl that Kenneth Hodge prefers is Evelyn Mallory.

La Ferne Eubank is getting jealous, because Frances Copeland insists on flirting with Judson Hollmes.

Randolph Rutledge says Joy Cardwell gives him a pain in the neck. ('That's nothing, he gives her a pain all over!')

Wanda Withers is giving up hopes of ever winning Tresmans Glover's heart.

Who does Sadie Holmes like the best—Bill or Leon Ferguson?

Definition for boy: A noise with dirt on it.

Maudie Moore and T. G. Eaves had a nice little "Chat" during Coach's absence the third period.

Herschell Hinson, Phil Steen and Randolph Rutledge seem to be in need of a fortune teller to find out which one Geneva likes.

What's wrong with Alice Bell? Seems to us she has what it takes. If throwing erasers is good exercise, Scrappy Hodge and Junior Thomas get plenty of it.

Who did Marilyn Stanley and Ruth Hollins go with after the joint meeting Wednesday night? Were they from Lakeview?

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. Certain teachers made that their motto when they went roller skating Thursday night.

For a while it looked like Billy Crabtree and Mrs. Piper were hitting it off pretty well in public speaking but look at them now!

C. W. Dennison received a special request of "Heartand Soul" from the Lubbock all request program Sunday.

Robertine went to see "Marie Antoinette" three times and is mad because they chopped off her head all three times.

Olin has gone temperamental on us. He won't write a column unless somebody gives him an idea. It's that Garbo complex again.

Here's a bouquet to Mary Louise Tubbs. She is a very willing helper and always has a smiling countenance. Many organizations are better because she is a member.

I hear that some football boys decided that a lot of magazines stands needed cleaning up and besides people with diphtheria can't read anyway.

Emogene can't make up her mind whether or no. Shall she break her date and accept another for the Pep-Football banquet I would advise "no." (There I go, horning in on Dorothy Dix).

Get your dates for the banquet, boys. And give some pep girl a thrill. After all it only comes once a year and it should be a big event to be enjoyed by every football boy and every pep girl.

Judson says that he has a new girl but you couldn't tell by looking. He sat and stared at the old one 45 minutes.

Mal can't understand why Jimmy won't tell who he has a date with for the banquet. Mal says he mild not have asked her if he were ashamed of her but Jimmy says he won't tell because he don't want Fleecy to know.

Says Frankie Jones to Gloria, "Gosh, I wish you didn't have a date for the banquet."

Why were so many Sophs disappointed when it was said, that Robert Montgomery asked Jo for a date to the banquet.

What's this we hear about Maxine losing a bet to a certain senior girl, O' these Lockney boys—

I'll probably get killed, but I'll take the chance.

Future Homemakers, Future Farmers Meet Together

The local chapters of the Future Homemakers and Future Farmers held their annual meeting last Wednesday night in the agriculture department.

Eugene Blackman F. F. A. president was master of ceremonies. He was assisted by Miss Verda Frances Turner, F. H. T. president. The program was opened with the F. F. A. opening ceremony followed with Verda Frances Turner giving "A Girl's Creed," by Grace Noel Crowell.

The members of the F. F. A. orchestra played several numbers. Mary Frances McRoberts gave an appropriate reading, Nelda Fagan played several piano selections. A short talk on "Our Chapter" was given by Leland Woodward. Mary T. made a talk on the work of her department.

The Home-Economics club and F. F. A. members voted at a joint meeting last Wednesday night to have a Home-Ed and F. F. A. Christmas party December 21.

In preparation for this party, special committees will be appointed to make the necessary plans. A program, committee, and a refreshment committee will be appointed soon so they may start working.

The F. F. A. chapter scrap book is collecting pictures of the agriculture boys and their projects. Each boy is responsible for one page in this book. He is to fill it with pictures and a history of his projects. Each year one of these books is made and the collection will be kept as a history of the chapter.

A number of the F. F. A. boys attended the farmers meeting at Plainview, Monday, November 21.

This meeting was for the purpose of discussing farm problems and how to overcome them, and also takes the subject of leadership for discussion.

The Green Peppers has staunchly stood by the Whirlwinds through victory and defeat, always urging them on to do their best and keep up that valiant fighting spirit that has led them to success.

Although the Pep Squad was unable to attend the Littlefield game, it is the only game they have missed. Thursday night the usual rally was held with the pep and vigor that have been characteristic of the rallies of this season.

Before a large bonfire the band and peppers displayed their talents of the Thanksgiving game are under way and one of the largest rallies of this season is to be staged tonight.

The date for the annual Football-Pep Squad banquet has been set for December 3. The committees which are to arrange the affair have been appointed and are promising a banquet that will speak for itself in success and prominence.

The following Monday after the Spur game the pep leaders for next year are to be elected. Everyone is giving serious thought to whom they want to bestow this honor.

The Pep squad is 100 percent behind those Whirlwinds and are urging them on to victory.

Queen Candidates Are Nominated

According to a tradition started last year, Floydada High School will elect a 1938 Football queen. The football boys met November 15th and elected a candidate from each class and announced that one of the four would be their queen.

Sappho Ward, senior, vice-president of the Pep Squad, editor of the Hesperette, member of F. H. T. club, blond with green eyes, height 5 feet 2 inches.

Lula Lee Teal, junior, came to F. H. S. from Fairview this year, member of the Pep Squad, member of Junior Play cast, studies the saxophone, brunette with green eyes, height 5 feet 4 inches.

Janet Bratton, sophomore, member of the Pep Squad, member of F. H. T. Club, dark brunette, with brown eyes, height 5 feet 4 inches.

Topsy Dudley, freshman, member of Pep Squad, James Johnston's girl (the wishes). Brown hair with blue eyes, is 14 years old and five feet four inches tall weighs 112 pounds.

The student body will elect the queen from these girls by voting at one cent a vote. Ballot boxes are posted in the lower hall.

The race is expected to be a very close one but only one will tell. A final chance to vote will be given in chapel Wednesday after which the winner will be announced.

The winner of the race will be presented in the Spur-Floydada football game Thanksgiving Day. The other three girls will be attendants to the queen.

PRESENTING THE WHIRLWINDS

Fred Beard is a senior and is captain of the backfield of the Whirlwind team. He plays halfback and has had two years experience. He weighs 140 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. He has brown hair and brown eyes. Freddie ran 70 yards for the first touchdown of the season in the Tulla game. Sports writers dub him the most conscientious player on the team.

Robert Montgomery is senior class president and captain of the line. He has had three years experience as center. Mon (Galloping Ki) is 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. He has black hair and gray eyes the latter he uses to his best advantage.

Many Homes Built Texas '38 Record

Building Boom Result Of More Liberal Loan Terms Of FHA

So many new homes have been built or are under construction in Texas that the year will go down as a boom year for building trades engaged in this line, a survey recently made out of Austin shows.

The building boom in new homes, due to a considerable extent to the urgent need for new dwellings, was accentuated by the unusually liberal terms as to interest and service charges made possible through the Federal Housing Administration plan.

As explained by authorities of this government agency, the home building plan of this agency offers the cheapest means by which a man with a small income, but one that is certain, has ever had in the history of the country.

Builders declare the Floyd county rural construction has kept pace with the state-wide movement, not only as regards new home construction but as regards the repair and modernization of old homes. Repair and modernization has been undertaken in scores of instances where the building occupied by the family was made new by this means. Many have used the FHA plan but some have undertaken the improvement program by the use of private sources of money.

In Floydada, while the building program has been reasonably good, there is still need felt for homes. Many families now occupying rental property could well afford to undertake their own establishments, a survey indicates. It is this cross-section of the community from which it is hoped the construction program of the next several months will draw its largest volume.

Firms which have been making a particularly strong effort to interest people of the territory in home building, home repair and modernization the past year have included the three lumber yards of Floydada—Willson & Son Lumber company, Higginbotham-Bartlett company, and Wooldridge Lumber company; also Floyd County Abstract company, First National bank, G. C. Tubbs, Insurance Agency, Brown's Household supply, Duncan Abstract company, J. G. Wood, real estate dealer, Radio Electric company, and Floydada Insurance Agency.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for November 27, 1938.
HONESTY IN ALL THINGS

Golden Text:—Thou shalt not steal. Exodus 20:15.
Lesson Text:—Exodus 20:15; Luke 19:1-10; 45, 46.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

17 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

18 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

19 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

20 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

21 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

22 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

23 And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

24 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

25 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

26 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

27 saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

28 Time and Place: Ten Commandments were given from Mt. Sinai, B. C. 1498. The conversion of Zacchaeus took place in Jericho February or March, A. D. 30. The cleansing of the temple in March, A. D. 30.

Lesson Comment

The eighth commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," is direct and simple. It does not concern itself with many of the various and niceties of definition that arise in a complex society like ours.

It does not consider such questions as the rightfulness of possession, nor whether the thief might not under certain circumstances be more entitled to the things stolen than the man from whom they were taken. We must remember, of course, that these Commandments have their origin and emphasis in a simple and rather primitive society where the conditions of life were not complex and where, if a man stole from his fellow, he took that which was likely to be the direct product of his neighbor's labor and honesty.

In a complex society many questions arise. A professor of ethics, under whom I studied, used to tell a story of a man who was walking across a field on an English estate. The owner of the field came upon him and, accusing him of trespassing on his land, ordered him off. The trespasser questioned his right. He wanted to know where the owner got the land. The owner replied that he got it from his father. "And where did he get it?" continued the trespasser. He got it from his father. And so it went on, back to the original ancestor who, the owner said, fought for it. At that, the trespasser pulled himself into a fighting mood and said, "I'll fight thee for it now."

Social matters, whatever may be the rights or wrongs of the past, are today not quite so simple. We are living in a world of law, and although the law itself may not always operate fairly or uphold inherent justice, we would have a condition of far greater chaos, disorder and injustice, if every man were to decide for himself to take from his fellowman what he thinks he ought to have. This is the point at which the Commandment has very real validity, even in our modern world where there is so much lack of justice and inherent right.

But the story of Zacchaeus, the publican, throws some light upon this problem of the reality of ownership and the reality of theft. Here was this man Zacchaeus, a collector of taxes. It was the custom in those days for a man to pay so much for the privilege of collecting the taxes, and he was wont to make as much as he could for himself by extortion.

Whether Zacchaeus practiced extortion or not is not clear, but when Jesus came into his life and salvation came to Zacchaeus, he dared to look at his own business life and work, and he said, "If I have taken wrongfully anything of any man,

I restore fourfold."

That was what a thief was compelled to restore under the law. Zacchaeus said in effect, "If I have taken anything that really does not belong to me, I am a thief, and I want to square my conscience by restoring a thief's portion."

What a revelation would come to the world and what a change, if all men similarly met Jesus and faced their lives and their actions upon such a basis of reality! Zacchaeus had learned the meaning of the Commandment, "Thou shalt not steal."

Frank Duncan Cloud Funeral Held Friday; Is Buried At Albany

Former Floydada Boy Paralyzed Since August of 1937 Died At Waco Hospital Thursday

Funeral services for 15 year old Frank Duncan Cloud, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell Cloud, were held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at Albany, at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cloud. Death occurred at the Methodist hospital at Waco on Thursday.

The youth, a former resident of Floydada, had been paralyzed since August of 1937 when he sustained a fall. He slipped on a diving board at an Abilene swimming pool while on a Boy Scout picnic.

He was carried to the hospital at Waco last week where a successful operation was performed but, as the feeling returned to his body, his heart failed to withstand the shock and death followed.

He is survived by his parents and one brother Ray Cloud, whose home is at 1218 Sylvan Drive, Abilene, Texas. The father is a cousin of B. O. Cloud of Floydada who was out of town and unable to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Roy Snodgrass accompanied by Mrs. Foy Bouren, of Lubbock, attended the funeral returning home Saturday.

WHY NOT RESOLVE NOW to put your rent receipts to work for you, not someone else! Your present rental will build a modern home of your own, under liberal FHA financing, and provide enough to pay the loan, together with interest, taxes and insurance, in twenty years.

Don't deny yourself the comfort, convenience, and privacy only your own home can bring. Why be satisfied with anything less, when it is so easy to have it.

To quote one housewife, (an FHA home owner) "We never realized how easy it is to have the home you want . . . We wished for a home for so many years. We never realized that anyone who is getting a steady income, and it doesn't have to be large, can buy a home.

"We are sorry we wasted so many years in dreaming and planning . . . and wasted so much money. The rent money we were accustomed to spending is paying for our home."

'The Art Of Living' Reviewed For 1922 Study Club Meeting

'The Art of Living' was reviewed for the 1922 Study club in their meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Noel Troutman by Miss Jane Hughes.

Mrs. O. P. Rutledge, club president, presided over the business appointing committees to assist other clubs and organizations in arrangements of the Community Christmas tree which they sponsor each year. The president also asked Mrs. R. E. Fry to serve the club as Public Welfare chairman.

Mrs. I. W. Hicks had charge of the program. Roll call was answered with 'my credo' when some very worth-while things were given. In Miss Hughes' review of the book by a Chinese author she gave the splendid talk in three parts. First the speaker gave the author's views of different religions and ended by giving what the Chinese pagan believes. He really believes in a God. Second part pertained to the Chinese flowers, growth, culture and their idea of grouping and arrangement. The third part gave the author's own philosophy of life.

Mrs. E. L. Angus sang as a solo "Perfect Day," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. V. Daniel.

At the conclusion the hostess served lovely refreshments.

The club meets December 15 with Mrs. W. I. Cannaday for the Christmas program and tree.

How the Kangaroo Fights
Normally the kangaroo is as peaceful and harmless as a lamb, but when hunted by dogs he is likely to turn and attack. The 'roo generally backs up to a tree or rock, the dog jumps for a throat-hold and promptly is encompassed in short, strong forelegs. Then with his powerful hind legs, ending in a wicked claw, the kangaroo proceeds to rip the dog's hide. At other times the 'roo will stand in a pool of water, seize the dog as it dashes to the attack and hold it under water until the last gasp. The "Old Man" Kangaroo may be eight or nine feet tall when standing on its toes, but the species comes in many sizes down to specimens measured in inches.

M. L. Solomon and John McKinley, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Solomon, of Matador, were among the visitors at the Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist Church last week end.

Filing supplies. Hesperian.

McCoy News
McCoy, November 22.—Brother Sidney Johnston brought a fine message Sunday morning. His subject was, "The Orphan Child and Our Duty to Them." At the end of the service a picture was taken of more than a hundred chickens that were donated to the orphan home, for their Thanksgiving dinner, by members of the church and community.

Plans are being made to send a Christmas box to the orphan also. Of the 108 members on roll at the Baptist Sunday school there were 105 present Sunday morning. Several additions to the church the past few weeks and a number of visitors were present Sunday.

A number from this community attended the worker's meeting held at the Floydada Baptist church on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whitfill of Lockney were guests of Mrs. Whitfill's uncle Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Ewing, Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Jackson was a guest in the S. W. Ewing home Sunday.

Mrs. Griffith's Sunday school class honored her with a miscellaneous shower at Sunday School Sunday.

J. W. Griffith, Leslie Ray, Bobbie Lee and H. A. Copeland, Jr. were guests of Charlie Hartsell, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Edwards spent the first of the week in Dallas and Waco, visiting at the latter place with Mrs. Edwards' parents.

Married 56 Years Floyd County Couple Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McCleskey Residents of County 47 Years Are Honored Sunday

A happy event was enjoyed Sunday when the children gathered to commemorate the 56 wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McCleskey, at their home at the intersection of Tennessee and Fourth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. McCleskey 83 and 81 years of age respectively, were married in 1882 and came to Floyd, from Bosque county in 1891 when their eldest son, Sam was a small boy. Mrs. McCleskey was Miss Lucretia Paralee Childress. They took up a 160 acre claim two miles north of the present Mickey store in the Sand Hill community.

At that time Mr. McCleskey freighted provisions from Estelline, Childress and Amarillo. Antelope were plentiful and buffalo carcasses were scattered over the plains evidence of the skill of the buffalo hunters.

He has served Floyd county in many capacities. Farmer, carpenter, sheriff, tax collector, cotton weigher and public spirited citizen. Mr. and Mrs. McCleskey are both young in thought, healthy and busy in the duties of their home. Always appreciative of a visit of a friend or neighbor.

Three of their four living children were present. They were Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCleskey and children Betty Jo, Sammy Lee, Orby Tye, Dan Kent and Mrs. James Jones and children James David and Beverly Sue; Mr. and Mrs. Roe McCleskey and children Greer, Venita and Bonnie Roe; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Tye and children Dorothy, Jimmie, Betty Lou, Carolyn, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tye and Keith Tye, of Lubbock; John McCleskey was out of town because of illness in his wife's family.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tye, of Kermit; Mr. and Mrs. A. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Reece Tye and children Jackie, Daphna and Dorrel, of Paducah; Mrs. H. C. Randolph, Mrs. W. B. Wilson, Dorothy Greer, John Jr., McCleskey, Mary Frances McRoberts, and Junior Flannery, of Lubbock.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Hopkins visited here from Sunday until Tuesday morning with their daughter, Mrs. Jack Henry and family enroute home from a visit at San Angelo and Stamford. Their daughter, Miss Joyce Hopkins and Dr. M. Anderson of San Angelo accompanied them here returning home the same day.

Samuel Rutledge of Amarillo spent a short time Sunday afternoon visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Rutledge.

Typical Family—Selected by the National Institute of Straight Thinking as the typical American family, was the Glen Craig family, above, of Muncie, Ind. Left to right, Billy, 4; Mrs. Craig; Emma Lou, 8, and Mr. Craig.

Military — Cinema celebrity Jeannette MacDonald wears this stunning wool broadcloth suit in French blue and red. Military note dominates the fitted jacket with upturned collar, four inset pockets. Purse and hat are of matching blue felt with red detail.

Blue Bonnet Needle Club Met Thursday In All Day Social

Blue Bonnet Needle club was entertained at an all day social Thursday in the home of Mrs. J. W. Buchanan with a Thanksgiving dinner. Each guest also added a covered dish to the meal.

The day was spent working on the club quilt and other needle work. During the business meeting they voted to have a Christmas party the arrangements to be completed at the next meeting.

The next meeting will be held December 1 at 3 o'clock with Mrs. L. H. Dorrell as hostess.

Members enjoying the day were Mrs. D. W. Johnson, Mrs. Alva Sparks, Mrs. Wesley Little, Mrs. D. W. Fyffe, Mrs. A. L. Sparks, Mrs. C. S. Price, Mrs. Iva Allen, Mrs. E. F. Cline, Mrs. E. L. Teague, Mrs. F. F. Fuqua, Mrs. E. B. Rainer and Mrs. Dennis Murphy. Mrs. Martin Brown and Mrs. Harry Morckel were guests of the club.

SIMPLE TREATMENT SAVES DRAPERIES AND CURTAINS FROM SULPHUR GAS INJURY

Sulphur in illuminating gas and in gases from coal-burning stoves and furnaces is destructive to window curtains, draperies, and other household fabrics. The deterioration often is not suspected by housewives. Dipping or spraying the fabrics with a solution of 7 ounces of borax and 3 ounces of boric acid dissolved in 2 quarts of water protects them.

This treatment was offered by United States Department of Agriculture chemists as a simple and effective fireproofing for fabrics. They find, however, that even if the fireproofing were unimportant the treatment would be worth while as a protection from gases.

Coal gas usually contains some sulphur, even though the familiar sulphur smell may not be evident. These fumes combine with moisture to make strong acids that are often more destructive than the normal household wear on curtains, rugs, and draperies. The treatment does not affect the appearance of most fabrics.

When there is fire danger, as on rugs before a fireplace, the first value of the borax-and-boric-acid treatment may be for fire prevention.

Farmers' Bulletin 1786, Fireproofing Fabrics, gives details of the method. It may be obtained by writing to the Office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. The work on fireproofing fabrics has been transferred to the United States Bureau of Standards and is being continued by that Bureau.

Mr. Morckel went to Springfield, Missouri, last Wednesday where he visited his father, C. W. Morckel, returning home by Jasper to bring their guests home with them. They arrived here Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morckel have as their guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Buchanan and her grandfather, S. W. Sires of Jasper, Missouri, who will visit here until after the Christmas holidays. They will also visit with their son, J. W. Buchanan and family.

Joint Hostesses Use Thanksgiving Motif At Lovely Luncheon

Outstanding among the social affairs of the week was the pretty three course luncheon given Monday at the home of Mrs. Walton Hale, 518 West California street, with Mrs. Hale, Mrs. B. K. Barker and Mrs. Jack Henry as hostesses.

The Thanksgiving motif was stressed in table appointments and decorations. Centering each table was a vase of bronze chrysanthemums with orange and gold nut cups on which a gold turkey was attached to the handles holding the place cards. A large bowl of fruit surrounded with red autumn leaves centered the lace covered dining-table.

After the luncheon was served games of contract bridge were played, Miss Ann Brown held high score and Mrs. Marvin English low.

Guests for the delightful occasion were Mesdames A. B. Keim, L. T. Bishop, W. Luther Fry, J. C. Gilliam, A. D. Cummings, G. L. Kirk, A. E. Guthrie, George McAllister, Bill Dally, Marvin English, R. C. Wakefield, Calvin Steen; Mesdames J. A. Arwine, Homer Steen, L. J. Welborn, Donald R. Pitts, Conner Odell, Cecil Hagood, Baird Bishop, John Reagan, Polk Goen, Robert McGuire, Gus Bird of Matador and Miss Ann Brown of Dallas.

Thursday Contract Bridge Club Play In Home Of Mrs. Carter

Thursday Contract Bridge club played Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Ernest Carter in the regular meeting.

Thanksgiving motif was stressed in appointments. With refreshments small candy turkeys were used as plate favors.

Club members attending the meeting were Mrs. Fred Nabors, Mrs. N. B. Stansell, Mrs. J. B. Claiborne, Mrs. Hazel Cooper, Mrs. L. D. Britton, Mrs. Lewis Norman, Mrs. Bill Fowler, Mrs. Jake Hill, Mrs. A. V. Stewart, Mrs. Bud Lloyd and Mrs. Clinton Fyffe. Mrs. M. H. Bealmear played a guest hand. Mrs. Stewart held high score.

Mrs. Cooper will be hostess for the next meeting December 1 at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. N. B. Stansell.

BOBBY GENE STEPHENS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. B. Tinnin entertained for Bobby Gene Stephens Saturday to celebrate her eleventh birthday. Miss Myrtice Meador assisted with the entertaining.

A number of games were played and delicious refreshments were served.

Attending the affair were Opal Ludene Ray, Edna Foy Westfall, Joan Campbell, Bettie Aiken, Goldie Waterford, Martie Louise Bond, Wanda Heard, Eugene Purvis, Johnnie Collins, Marjorie Lee Bredford, Bettie Merle Boteler, Tiny Foy Terrell, Macel Botler, Dale Goens, Addison Barker, Lajuana Jo Sharp, Maurine Medlen, Clara Nell Latham, Mary Lee Thacker, Jean Wester, Billie Wester, Kate Sparks, Edna Earl McNutt, Bettie Yearwood, Wilma Lois Russell and the honor guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wells, of Crowell, spent Sunday here as guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Guthrie.

Slacks Bring Sentence — A few minutes after this picture was taken, School Teacher Helen Hulick of Los Angeles changed her slacks for a jail blouse and dress after a judge sentenced her to five days for contempt of court. He told her she had to wear a dress in his court and Miss Hulick refused to comply. Pictured with Miss Hulick is a deputy sheriff who took her to jail.

Orvel Spence Makes Texas Tech Judging Team Tour To Chicago

The Texas Technological grain judging team left November 16 for an annual tour of the middle-western states to Chicago and return. Included on the four man team this year is Orvel Spence of Floydada, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Spence of the Harmony community. Other members are Russell Cook of Littlefield, John Moody of Beecher, and Billy Waddell of Greenville.

The team will stop at Stillwater, Oklahoma, Manhattan, Kansas, Kansas City, Missouri, Chicago, Illinois, Nashville, Tennessee, and Oklahoma City and Lubbock.

The team will spend three days in Kansas City and three days in Chicago at the bigger events. They will return to Lubbock about November 30.

Orvel is a graduate of Floydada high school and is this year a senior at Texas Tech in the agriculture department.

Legion Men Hear Talk On 'Americanism' At Monday Night Meeting

Members of McDermott Post, American Legion, Monday night in their regular meeting heard discussion of the plans for the organization in Texas of the Sons of the American Legion. A. C. Jackson, of Lubbock, state membership chairman for the junior organization, was the speaker on this subject. He was accompanied by W. T. Strange.

John Stapleton, member of the local bar and county attorney elect, spoke on the subject, "Americanism." J. M. Willson, commander of the 19th district of Texas, was among those present. Officials of Willie Landrum post at Lockney, who had been invited to attend the meeting, were unable to be present for installation ceremonies arranged for.

Catherine the Great—Here's a college-bred cow with plenty of breeding. She's Cornell Ollie Catherine, senior champion female Holstein, owned by Cornell University and she was one of the big attractions at the Columbus, O., 29th Annual Dairy show. Cornell Ollie Catherine is held here by Donald Decatur, Columbus schoolboy.

Resistant Plants Only Solution For Sorghum Disease, Says Expert

COLLEGE STATION, Texas.—A fungus disease which is causing sorghum plants to fall down or "lodge" in fields over the sorghum area in western Texas, the Panhandle, the Red Beds region and as far north as Woodward, Oklahoma, this year, has been identified by Dr. A. A. Dunlap, pathologist of the Texas A. & M. College Experiment station, as Sclerotium bataticola. The fungus originally was discovered on sweet potatoes in New Jersey, and named in 1913 by the late Dr. J. J. Taubenhuis, who soon thereafter became pathologist of the Texas A. & M. Experiment station. Its occurrence also has been reported on maize and beans in California, but this is the first severe infestation attacking the sorghum crops in Texas.

"This disease was first noted on sorghum around Lubbock the latter part of August when lodging from this cause began," according to R. E. Karper, in charge of grain sorghum investigations for the Texas A. & M. station. "A month later it was observed almost universally in sorghum fields throughout the western part of the state. The disease is manifest when plant approaches maturity and shows signs of drying up, premature ripening and later bends or breaks several inches above the crown and falls to the ground.

"A reddening of the pith of the stalk at the top of the root crown is present and the disease appears to attack the stalk causing decay of the pith up to 8 or 10 inches above the ground.

"After the stalk dries out for several weeks the pith and fiber shrinks and presents a dry, shredded and decayed appearance. The fibers are spotted with fine black bodies resembling particles of charcoal. These are the small sclerotia, and from this characteristic appearance the disease has been named 'charcoal rot.' When the stalk is split open the charcoal-like sclerotia are easily seen and can be shaken out into the hand. The sclerotia are carried over in the soil and germinate when conditions are favorable in the warm summer months.

"Wilting and premature ripening of the plants causes shriveled and undeveloped kernels and consequent reduction in yield. In sorghum fields the disease appears to occur in more or less circular areas of varying size and is indicated by spots throughout the field in which the plants are severely lodged.

"There is no known treatment of either the soil or the seed to reduce the damage by charcoal rot and the control must apparently depend upon finding resistant plants."

"This disease should not be confused with the pythium root rot of milo that has caused losses for several years and for which the Texas station has announced the development of an abundance of seed from strains resistant to the root rot. Mr. Karper has specialized in grain sorghum improvement for many years and no delay is to occur in the search for resistant strains.

COMMUNITY COLD STORAGE PLANTS NOW TOTAL ABOUT 1,300 IN 33 STATES

Community cold-storage plants where thrifty families may preserve out-of-season meats and vegetables now total about 1,300 in 33 states. The figures have been compiled by Kenneth F. Warner, meat specialist of the United States Department of Agriculture, from reports from all the states.

The Corn Belt, from Ohio west through Kansas and the Dakotas, reported 795 locker plants, of which Iowa had 305 units, the largest number for any state. Ranking high also is the Pacific Northwest, where Washington had 225 units, the second largest number. Other states where the lockers have become popular included Minnesota with 114; Nebraska, 92; Kansas, 90; Oregon, 75; Wisconsin, 65; Idaho, 50; Illinois, 46; Oklahoma, 42; and South Dakota, 25. Many new plants are proposed or are under construction.

A survey of 75 of the locker plants in 13 states by Mr. Warner in the late summer shows that they have from 79 to 1,200 individual lockers, with an average of 362 per plant. Seventy-four percent of the lockers were rented, although the plant managers reported more nearly capacity business in the winter and a definite falling off in the fall and late summer. The plants visited by Mr. Warner have been in operation for from 1 month to 10 years, with an average operation age of 2.8 years.

Families using the lockers were both small and large farmers, tenants and landowners, professional men and day laborers. Some families lived as far as 50 miles from the lockers.

"I hear that Angus MacPherson lives a good clean life. What a remarkable character!"

"Remarkable nothing! He does that so he won't have to pay for his sins."—Mutual Magazine.

A Yankee was on a Christmas walking-tour in Scotland. Snow had fallen and he was struggling along a narrow road when he met a Highlander.

"I guess, friend, I am sure lost!" he said plainly.

Scot: "Is there a reward out for ye?"

American: "Nope."

Scot: "Weel, ye're still lost."

Miss Sally Pitts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald H. Pitts, arrived Tuesday morning from Norman, Oklahoma to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents. She is a freshman student in the University of Oklahoma.

Longhorns Trample Bulldogs Win District Title 13 To 0

Lockney Grabs First District Title From Spur; Last Year's Champ

The Lockney Longhorns snapped up their first district title since back in the 20's Friday as they mopped up the last year's champion, the Spur Bulldogs, 13 to 0. The Longhorns now must face the execution block with the Wellington Skyrocks manning the broad blade ax.

Here is how the Longhorns took the belt from Spur's mighty men. Brotherton kicked with Hill holding. Ousley took the kick on the Spur 20. Sparks smashed at right tackle for 6 yards, Hurst went off right tackle for 2. Willhoit banged twice at center and picked up a first down.

Hurst took a crack at right tackle for 5 and then switched to left tackle for 2. Willhoit for 2. Hurst booted to Hill who promptly fumbled and Smart recovered the ball for Spur on the Lockney 30.

Sparks gained 2 at center, Hurst ripped left tackle for a first down. Spur managed for a 5 yard penalty for offense. Hurst whipped right end for 4. Haralson to Culbert incomplete. Hurst banged left tackle for 4 yards and a penetration. On fourth down Haralson to Willhoit was incomplete.

Lockney on own 18: Brotherton raced over right tackle for 5 yards. Hill dashed at left end for a 3 yard loss. Brotherton carried at left end for a first down. Hill smashed left tackle for 11 yards to the Lockney 48. Brotherton banged right tackle for 3. Brotherton to Hill for 3. Brotherton cut around left end for a first down on Spur's 35.

Brotherton tried right end for 3. Hill at left tackle for 2. Brotherton fumbled and Hurst recovered for Spur on the 19 yard line.

Willhoit ripped center for 1. Willhoit went around left end for first down. Hurst penalized 15 yards for holding. Hurst gained 1 at left end. Hurst failed to gain at right end. Haralson kicked to Hill on the Lockney 30.

Brotherton gained 9 at right end. Hill made it a first down on Spur 45. Hill lost 3 at guard. Lockney penalized 5 for offense. Brotherton to Hill for 2. Brotherton made 8 at left end. On fourth down Hill passed to Gentry for 20 yards to Spur's 15 yard line. Brotherton picked up 5 at right tackle. Davis fumbled on a reverse but recovered. Brotherton gained 2 at right tackle. Hill made it a first down on the 5 yard line. Brotherton carried over right tackle for a touchdown. Brotherton kicked goal.

The remainder of the half went scoreless although Lockney threatened twice but failed to make good when they fumbled when in the shadow of the Spur goal posts. Once they drove to the Spur 10 when Brotherton fumbled and Spur recovered.

Early in the third quarter Lockney drove downfield on hard running attacks to the Spur 18 when Brotherton again fumbled and Hurst recovered for Spur. Although Spur put on a mighty drive they failed to go any nearer than Lockney's 25 yard line.

As the fourth quarter opened Lockney held their 7-0 lead over Spur with second down on their own 30. Hill broke loose over right end for 20 yards. Brotherton carried twice for 4. Baker gained 2. Lockney was penalized 15 yards for holding. Hill to Harris was incomplete. Hill punted to Hurst on the Spur 17 when he fumbled and Lockney recovered.

Hill circled right end for 8 yards. Davis gained 5 for first down off right guard. Davis fumbled but recovered on the 1 yard line. Brotherton lost 3. Hill cut to the right end and cut back for a touchdown. Brotherton failed to kick goal. Lockney 13, Spur 0.

Spur could do nothing on the offense and Lockney seemed headed for another touchdown when the game ended.

Littlefield Stops Whirlwinds 24-20 With Aerial Attack

If the Whirlwinds had shown a mite of pass defense against the Littlefield team Friday the Green and White would have come from the field as victors instead of stinging under the 24 to 20 defeat.

When the Wildcats opened up with their aerial artillery the Floydada team sailed frantically in a circle and then sank beneath the barrage with only a few last struggles.

Besides the passing of Elms and Hammonds for the Wildcats, Daniels and Golightly showed the most spark in the backfield. Lider was knocked out early in the second quarter and Gordon Patterson took over his duties which he handled excellently considering the amount of time he had played this year.

The Whirlwinds started like a house afire soon after the kickoff. The first play cast Floydada 10 yards due to a bad pass back. Lider failed to gain. Daniel raced for 25 yards to the Floydada 40. Daniels started again and managed for 9 yards more. Lider kicked into the wind to Littlefield's 30.

Littlefield failed to gain on three smashes and kicked over the goal. Lider and Daniels carried twice for a first down on the 30. Lider took the snapback from center spun and faked to Golightly who ran wide to the left with the interference. Daniels took the ball from Lider and cut to the left through a gaping hole at right tackle and scooted down the sideline for 70 yards and Floydada's counter. Lider kicked goal. Floydada 7, Littlefield 0.

Littlefield took the kickoff and ran back to their 40. Hammonds completed one to McKnight for 30 yards to the Floydada 30. The Elms passed to Hammonds for a touchdown. Goal was kicked. Floydada 7, Littlefield 7.

Daniels took the kickoff and raced to the Floydada 30 where he was hit, smashing his glasses and mask. Patterson subbed in.

Floydada's attack failed to work as the first quarter ended so they kick into the wind to the Littlefield 40.

The Wildcats cut loose again with their long range gun. Hammonds passed to Black for 40 yards and a first down on the Floydada 19. Elms backed up and calmly whipped another pass to McKnight for a touchdown. Goal was kicked. Littlefield 14, Floydada 7.

Floydada again bogged up in their running and passing attack and they kicked to the Wildcats. The Littlefield team rushed down the field on passes and running plays until a fourth down pass flew over the end zone for a touchback.

The Whirlwinds worked the ball from their 20 to the Littlefield 35 when a bad pass from center cost 15 yards and Lider was knocked out as he recovered for Floydada. He was removed from the game and Daniels went in minus his glasses and mask. Daniels ripped around left end for 20 yards back to the Littlefield 40 but from there no gain was made and Floydada kicked.

Hammonds whipped a 15 yard aerial to Yantis just as the gun ended the first half.

Floydada took the kickoff and began an attack with Golightly picking up 13 yards through the line. The next play was bad with Littlefield intercepting the attempted pass.

Hammonds to McKnight gained 12 yards. Anderson rushed over tackle for 10 more. Walraven picked up 9 more and Yantis gathered up a first down on the Floydada 10. There their attack failed and Floydada took over.

Golightly made 10 at right end but Littlefield stopped all other attempts and Floydada kicked. Littlefield couldn't get going and kicked. The Whirlwinds continued their passing but failed to get a first down. Daniels kicked 70 yards out of bounds on the Littlefield 1 yard line.

Fikes rushed through and blocked the kick and Floydada took over on the spot. Golightly smashed through for the touchdown but missed goal. Littlefield 14, Floydada 13. Third quarter ended.

The Wildcats passing attack bogged when Freddie Beard intercepted one of their heaves on the Floydada 20. Beard lost 10 on an attempted pass. The pass from center missed everyone in the backfield and rolled across the goal. Floydada recovered for a safety. Littlefield 16, Floydada 13.

After the free kick Littlefield kicked out on the Floydada 7. Beard made 10 and then backing up to pass he was downed behind his goal for another safety. Littlefield 18, Floydada 13.

Not content with that lead the Wildcats began to claw again moving downfield on passes and runs to the Floydada 34 yard line. Walraven to McKnight was good for the 34 yards and a touchdown. Kick was no good. Littlefield 24, Floydada 13.

With the game growing near an end Floydada took a kick from Littlefield over the goal to get started on their own 20. On a screened pass Beard passed to Daniels who darted down the west sideline for 80 yards and a touchdown. Freddy kicked the goal. Littlefield 24, Floydada 20.

Before Floydada could get possession of the ball again the gun shot ended the game.

The Deadline

(By Bill Hams)

This week will end the football season for the Whirlwinds. It will also mark the close of several boys' competition is concerned. The boys' football careers, so far as high school have all played hard ball and have managed to stack up a good record, although hardly an impressive one. It is probable that Spur will beat the Floydada team Thanksgiving, but be on hand to encourage them for there is always the chance of an upset.

The Lockney Longhorns defeated Spur to kick the dope bucket around somewhat but if they defeat the Wellington Skyrocks it will be the most colossal, stupendous upset of Class B football. The Rockets are rated as one of the state's strongest Class B teams in the state and they are scheduled to win from the Longhorns just as they please. . . . which they probably will. The Rockets subdued McLean 28 to 14 and the Tigers had one of the most powerful power attacks in the state. . . . no, the Longhorns don't have a look-in.

Daniels deserves a place on the all-district team. It is highly probable that he will be placed on it however. He made his usual 12 points against Littlefield, one for a mere jaunt of 70 yards, and the other after a short gallop of 80 yards. He seems to improve in every game, too. L. B. Martin should hold down a guard position, on the mythical eleven.

Texas Tech will not go undefeated. Marquette or Centenary will do the trick, and there is a strong hunch present that Marquette will turn the trick this week end. The Red Raiders are playing rotten ball and don't seem to care a whole lot. . . . and that is the attitude to take when a team wants to break a win streak.

News from California brings the fact that the Californians want T. C. U. and U. S. C. to meet in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2. Texas teams have always made a hit out there and the Sunny Cal folks want to see a real powerhouse do its stuff.

Look these over. Lockney 7, Wellington 30. Spur 26, Floydada 6. Turkey 13, Silvertor 6. Paducah 19, Matador 7. Flomot 45, Quitaque 0. Marquette 20, Texas Tech 14. T. C. U. 21, S. M. U. 7.

Slow Starting Engines!

Here's a prescription that works!

... proved by millions of motorists ... in every kind of weather from 50 above to way below zero.

R: High Test PHILLIPS 66 POLY GAS, at no higher price!

No other gasoline will so consistently give you split-second starting, because no other gasoline so consistently leads the high-test parade. Yet you pay not a penny extra, since Phillips is the WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER of natural high test gasoline.

Try a tankful. You get extra high test. . . plus extra energy units supplied by the scientific POLYMERIZATION process. . . plus protection against changes in performance caused by changes in climate. And it all adds up to just about the fastest cold-weather starting you have ever enjoyed.

Warm-up is rapid. Acceleration is snappier. And you save so much of the fuel usually wasted by excessive choking with ordinary low-test gasolines, that you can confidently expect more mileage from every gallon.

If you want "just what the doctor ordered" for faster starting in freezing weather, stop at the Orange and Black 66 Shield. That's where high test Phillips 66 Poly Gas costs nothing extra.

Foreign-Spinners Show Interest In 1-Variety Cotton

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, November 21.—Foreign spinners are anxious to receive quality cotton from Texas one-variety communities.

A letter recently received by E. A. Miller, agronomist of the Texas A. & M. Extension Service, from Manchester, England, is an expression of this desire. "We believe that some 'one-variety' cotton has been shipped to this country, but that it has been mixed with the ordinary shipments, say a few bales in a hundred, which to our mind destroys the whole idea. We are very anxious to have a trial lot of 50 or 100 bales of Texas one-variety 'Good Middling 31/32', which will go to a particular mill and be given a thorough spinning test," the English firm stated. Even lots of cotton produced in one-variety blocks will be offered to foreign spinners through the AAA's 20,000 bale experiment, Miller said.

"The request shows the need for the improvement of Texas cotton on a county-wide or regional basis," the agronomist pointed out. "Our 213 one-variety communities have demonstrated that quality cotton pays in dollars and cents, but we need to build up the volume of this cotton."

Saturday Designated As West Texas Day By Texas Tech College

The most colorful and important football game in West Texas history will be played Saturday, Nov. 26 at Lubbock between Texas Tech's Red Raiders and Marquette university's mighty juggernaut. It has been designated as "West Texas Day" by Texas Technological college and invitations have been extended to all fans interested in the rapid progress of the Red Raiders to see this game and show the renowned Eastern invaders that all West Texas is proud and back of the Red Raiders who are today listed as one of the nation's greatest teams.

A capacity crowd at Tech field Nov. 26 will convince Texas Tech executives that fans in this section are not only desirous but will support the college in its efforts to arrange games with the most famous football teams in the United States.

If West Texans rally to the cause here Nov. 26 and fill the stadium then contracts, now pending with big-games, big-time grid machines calling for heavy guarantees, will have a brighter opportunity of being completed.

Marquette, victorious over Southern Methodist and other great teams this year, will give the Red Raiders their most severe test this season. The game will hold the national spotlight that day and it is the hope of all Texas Tech executives that thousands of West Texans will come from far and near to see the Raiders make another stout-hearted bid in their commendable progress toward national recognition.

Half-Minute Interviews

Ed Holmes: "I've set a new record for me. Everything is gathered on our farm, cotton, feed and all and here it is not Thanksgiving day yet."

W. H. Edwards: "Prospects for wheat is about as poor this year as they have been in a good many, the way I see it."

Oscar Hewitt: "Deer are getting thick in the Canadian river breaks country, where our grass lease is located."

Lorin Leibfried, Cunningham, Texas (by mail): "Tell all the persimmons are ripe and o'possums are plentiful."

BOUQUET FOR MRS. SPIKES

Knowing that most of my years since a child were spent in the city a friend was surprised at the manner in which I expressed my enjoyment of Mrs. Nellie Witt Spikes' "Thinks." "As A Farm Woman

The Hesperian is very fortunate indeed to have for its readers a column containing thoughts expressed in the style, or shall we say writing personality of Mrs. Spikes. A Farm Woman—What higher honor! Speaking in mathematical terms the plus and multiplication signs far outnumber the minus. Like a magnet up in the sky, the rainbow draws our gaze but when this gaze shifts to the path of the rainbow's gorgeous lines we are led back to earth. Generous Mother Earth, whose very soul hungers to give to all who seek, even the traditional spot of gold, is not up in the skies but at the foot of the rainbow, down on the earth.

Biographies of our first thirty presidents inform us that exactly one third of the fathers of these presidents were farmers so, of course their mothers were farm women.

Beneficial enjoyment extends from Mrs. Spikes' column on to her book "Early Days on the South Plains" which after reading the first line (have read several times) I wrote for two more copies. One to give the San Antonio Public library, and the other to Witte Museum library.

San Antonio public library informed me they considered the book of such value they had placed it in the reference room on Texas History.

Witte museum gave praise very similar. "As A Farm Woman Thinks," may you and your creator, Nellie Witt Spikes, dwell long upon the earth.

Erva Ann Sherrard, San Antonio and Burnet, Texas.

Mrs. R. E. Dorrell Buried At Granger

Mother Of L. H. Dorrell Claimed By Death On Armistice Day At Home Of Daughter

Mrs. R. E. Dorrell, mother of L. H. Dorrell, was buried at Granger, Texas, on November 13. Aged 77 she died on November 11 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Farr at Pharr, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dorrell had been at the bedside of Mr. Dorrell's mother for several days prior to her demise and two children living here attended the funeral rites.

Funeral services were conducted at the Church of Christ in Granger, of which deceased was a member, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 13. Irvin McFadin, minister of the Church of Christ, Taylor, officiated. Interment was made in Granger cemetery. Pallbearers were Ralph Wilkes, C. W. Brundige, Ollie Davidson, Fulcher Robinson, C. J. Taylor and Virgil Brundige.

A native of South Carolina where she was born March 13, 1861, Mrs. Dorrell moved to East Texas with her husband in 1886 and to the Granger community in 1892, where she lived until 1928 when she went to make her home with her children. She was a resident of Floydada several years. She was preceded in death by her husband, who was accidentally killed by the Texas Special on January 9, 1928. The surviving children are the son, L. H. Dorrell, of Floydada, and daughter, Mrs. Ella Farr of Pharr. Five grandchildren and one great grandchild also survive.

Attending the funeral from other communities were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Council, Weslaco; Judge Richard Critz of Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Galoway and daughter, Billie, of Taylor; Mrs. Bertha Bain and son, Gayle, of Austin; Miss Cordie Farr, Austin; Mrs. Ada Harvill, Jarrell; Mrs. M. T. Farmer and son, Billie, of Jarrell; Wilburn Farmer and daughter, Joyce, of Jarrell; Claud Teer, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farr, Austin.

Mrs. Richard Stovall and little son, Robert Tyson, were brought home last mid-week from Lubbock where she had been in a Lubbock hospital following the birth of her son November 10. Mr. Stovall and Mrs. E. F. Stovall went to Lubbock for them.

Paul Barker, of Santa Monica, California, visited Friday and Saturday with his brother, B. K. Barker and family. Mr. Barker has been spending some time at Plainview visiting with his mother, Mrs. Kilmer Barker.

D. P. CARTERS ILL FROM PTOMAIN POISONING ARE STILL UNABLE TO BE UP

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Carter, of Brownfield, former residents of Floydada has been seriously ill the past week. Mrs. Carter's condition is still such that she will remain in a Brownfield hospital for several days, according to word received from Mrs. B. O. Cloud, who visited the hospital Friday.

They both became ill about six hours after eating some fruit Tuesday night. Mrs. Carter's condition was the more serious and for several days it was thought she could not survive. Mr. Carter was able to sit up some Friday, Mrs. Cloud said.

Mrs. Ira Cox of Lockney visited for several days with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nora Cox. She returned home Thursday.

Miss Sybil Taylor left last mid-week for Amarillo where she will be employed with White and Kirk dry goods.

Claiborne Is Winner In Regional Sales Contest Of Managers

Appreciation of the merchandising activity of J. B. Claiborne manager of the Floydada Piggy-Wiggly store, in pushing Folger's coffee was expressed in a material way last week by J. A. Folger & Company, when they mailed him a check as first prize in a regional store managers' contest recently closed.

Good-looking floor and window displays of the store came in for praise from the coffee distributing concern. The Floydada store long has been an outstanding outlet for Folger's products.

J. N. Redd returned last week from South Bend, where he had been for two weeks taking the hot baths for rheumatism.

RUBY HARRISON PLEDGE OF LOWRY LITERARY SOCIETY

DENTON, Nov. 21.—Selected by the vote of old club members, Miss Ruby Harrison of Floydada recently signed a club pledge and was pledged to the James H. Lowry Literary society at Texas State College for Women.

Formal initiation of the pledges came as a climax to the week of rush parties given by the eleven literary and social clubs on the TSCW campus, and three days of mock initiation, traditional with pledging on every college campus.

Throughout the remainder of the year, activities of the club will center around regular meeting, literary programs, and a social calendar which includes teas, luncheons, dinners, and dances.

Miss Harrison, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrison, is a sophomore at the college. Active in many phases of campus life, she is working toward her degree in vocational home economics.

THANKSGIVING

It's been just 317 years since that first Pilgrim Thanksgiving, 317 years of increasing wealth and happiness in this land. We have even more to be thankful for than those intrepid Pilgrims, so let's all be thankful... for our homes, our friends, our great nation that gives peace and liberty to all. Let's be thankful for past favors... and face the future with hope.

A Tough Old Bird

We are certain you got a nice tender young gobbler for Thanksgiving, but we are also certain that a few were unlucky and brought home a "tough old bird," a veteran of many barnyard wars, that just wouldn't cook tender.

To these "unlucky" ones we say "COOK WITH GAS" because then no bird can defy your cooking skill, nor will they skid into your lap as you attempt to carve. If you have not cooked with a new gas range, you have missed a cooking thrill.

'Don't Be Transmitter Of Colds'—Dr. Cox

Common Sense Diet And Living Will Keep Colds From "Catching" You Often

AUSTIN, Texas—Prefacing some reasonable advice on common sense ways of avoiding colds with the remark that it is a mistake to say you "catch" a cold, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, added "As a matter of fact the cold catches you when you are not up to the mark, physically. Therefore:

1. Keep yourself as physically fit as possible. Eat nourishing food. Have your meals at regular times. Avoid rich, indigestible combinations. Include plenty of milk, other dairy products and fruit in your diet. Remember to drink plenty of water—several glasses during the day, every day.
2. Dress according to the weather. Add a sweater to your outfit, or a heavy coat when the frosty days come. Avoid sudden chilling. Don't expose yourself unnecessarily to draughts. Don't sit around in wet clothing. If you are caught in a drenching downpour, change to dry clothing as soon as possible.
3. Take some outdoor exercise every day. Be out in the sunlight as much as possible. If you have a job that keeps you indoors most of the day, you will find it pays to spend a few minutes two or three times a day, at an open window, flushing your breathing apparatus with fresh air.
4. Get plenty of sleep. Strike a balance between work and play. Don't fool yourself into thinking you can play around at all hours of the day or night, day after day; snatch a few hours sleep, and be entirely fit, physically, and ready for your profession, your job, or for school, or household duties, when morning comes.

Nightmare Land — Weird, octopus-like cypress trees make of Virginia's dismal swamps an eerie, menacing region. Here a lone boatman makes his way among the fantastic tree growths.

5. Colds are spread by the discharge from the nose and throat. Every time the victim of a cold has a coughing spell, germ-laden droplets of mucus are brought to the surface and spread around. Every sneeze throws germ-laden spray into the air. Avoid these hazards. Don't mingle unnecessarily with persons who have colds.

6. The careless cougher or sneezer sprays his germs all around the place and leaves them on everything he touches. Don't use a common drinking cup. Have your own towel and wash cloth. Always wash your hands before eating.

7. If you happen to be overtaken by a cold, show as much consideration for your neighbor as you would like him to show to you. Don't be a transmitter. Don't broadcast your germs. Sneeze or cough into your handkerchief. Use paper handkerchiefs that can be burned or otherwise disposed of. The quickest way to get rid of a cold is to go to bed, eat very lightly and drink plenty of water. At the first indication of fever, send for your doctor, and then follow his advice.

The meeting adjourned to meet again the last Wednesday in the month, this date being November 30.

Removed White House Bathub

When Andrew Jackson was president he had a crude bathtub removed from the White House which Dolly Madison had installed there, and it was 22 years later before another one was put in. It was installed there for President Fillmore, who was noted for his neatness and his cleanly habits, and whose wife introduced the bathing practice in the executive mansion as a preventive against malaria, then prevalent in Washington.

HITLER'S CAREER

Fifteen years ago Adolph Hitler was in prison at Landsberg. Germany, where he served nine months after an unsuccessful attempt to start a revolution. Today he is perhaps the world's most powerful figure. A few highlights of his amazing career follow:

Born in Austria, 49 years ago from the age of 14 worked as a builder's helper, draughtsman, carpenter and painter in water colors; at 22 a private in the German army; later lance-corporal; was severely wounded; returned to the front again; was gassed and temporarily blinded; won the Iron Cross for bravery.

After the war he became a politician agitator; was jailed, but resumed political activities after release. In 1932 he was defeated for the presidency.

His strength having become too great to be ignored, he was offered the post of vice chancellor by President Hindenburg, but declined. Was offered post of chancellor but refused to accept on Hindenburg's terms. In 1933 he was made chancellor with full power as such. Upon Hindenburg's death in 1934 Hitler assumed the duties of both president and chancellor.

Since 1933 Hitler has rearmened the nation; won back the Saar region by plebiscite; remilitarized the Rhineland; annexed Austria and part of Czechoslovakia. What will his next move be? The world wonders.

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm.

The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children.

Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—have on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Whirlwinds Face Spur Turkey Day

Spur Favored To Down The Crippled Green And White Eleven

Turkey day would not be complete if Whirlwind and Bulldog did not meet for a rough and tough football game. This year it seems that the Floydada Whirlwinds are again to meet their Turkey day nemesis, the Spur Bulldogs, in a game on Wester Field Thursday afternoon but one that will have no bearing on the outcome of the District 4-B race, since a champion is already crowned.

Last year the Bulldogs ran as they pleased to defeat the green and white team 33 to 0 and claim the district crown and play Wellington in the bi-district. The Dogs are hardly as strong this year as last but they are at that rated several points stronger than the blow hot, blow cold Whirlwinds, who have built up a so-so record this year.

The Bulldogs fell victim of the Lockney Longhorns last week 13 to 0 which immediately makes them three touchdown favorites over the crippled and faltering Floydada team who met Littlefield and fell by the wayside 24 to 20.

The Floydada backfield is shot to pieces with injuries. George Fry Luder was badly bruised at Littlefield, Clifford Daniels suffered an injured foot, and R. E. Goughly had his back injured. All three may be able to play against the Bulldogs but it is indeed doubtful that they will be at their best.

James Wilson, Mal Jarboe, and James Gibbs are expected to be ready to play at full strength again after being off the starting eleven with injuries. Gordon Patterson, who played three quarters of good football against the Wildcats last week will probably see considerable service against the Canines.

Douglas Pitts, freshman, may get in a lick since he just became eligible this week after his parents moved from Oklahoma. He weighs 150 and is developing into a good punter and blocking back. He has the weight to be a hard line smasher and runner but lacks experience, although it is understood that he has played three years of junior high school football.

Seven of the regular starters will be playing their last game in the green and white for Floydada High school. They are Jarboe, Martin, Montgomery, Wilson, Beard, Daniels, and Burgett.

The Bulldogs are reported to be banged up considerable after their battle with the Longhorns and the effects of their meeting the Plomat team some weeks ago. The Dogs failed to look impressive against the tough Longhorn line and their pass defense but the Whirlwinds looked worse than the Bulldogs against Lockney.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

Christian Rites Held Here Sunday Afternoon

Prominent Farmer Succumbs Following Attack Of Appendicitis And Complications

Last rites for Harry Christian, 49, prominent farmer of Floyd county since 1916, were held Sunday afternoon from the First Methodist church at 2 o'clock. Rev. Ernest Jennings, Presbyterian minister of Lubbock officiated. Interment was made in Floydada cemetery.

Mr. Christian died Friday morning in a Lubbock sanitarium where he was taken following an acute attack of appendicitis on Wednesday. Complications included an unfavorable pancreatic condition which could not be overcome.

Born in Missouri in 1889, Mr. Christian had been a resident of Red River county, Texas, since his early youth, when he moved to Floyd county in 1916. He had resided here since that time. PRaises BRITISH INDUSTRY
Gerard Swope, president of General Electric company, recommended to American labor, capital and government that they follow the examples of Great Britain and Sweden in cooperation for industrial peace.

Swope, who is chairman of President Roosevelt's commission on foreign industrial relations, spoke before the New York Herald Tribune forum on current problems on the topic, "Labor, Management and Government."

Swope traced the rise of industry and of unionism, with their struggles in the United States and continued.

"The findings of the commission appointed by the president to study industrial relations in Great Britain and Sweden show very clearly that the same countries have gone through the same struggles through which we have gone and through which we are still going.

"An organization of workers developed, employers and management saw that it was better to deal with organized labor through reason rather than by force; in other words to use in industry the same basic philosophy that we do in a democracy, to assemble the facts, to state the various phases of a question, and then try to reach an agreement by persuasion, argument and negotiation, and from the consensus of opinion of the majority endeavor to work out the best solution under the given conditions—this solution, of course, changing from time to time as the problem is better understood, or conditions change.

"In both Great Britain and Sweden, three important factors, tending toward the betterment of industrial relations, are: First, both workers and employers desire that all agreements be negotiated freely by their representatives and all conclusions be voluntarily arrived at; Second, that workers be treated with respect, not regimented, and that grievances be dealt with and disposed of promptly; And, third, patience in negotiation, respect of each side for the other, and time for the development of leadership and understanding."

Recommendations For Rural Schools Made By Deputy Supt. Day

County Superintendent Walter Travis announced this morning that a number of Floyd county schools had been recommended by Deputy State Superintendent, E. E. Day, for state teacher salary aid.

Schools recommended by Day are Trick Pleasant Hill, Starkey, Aiken, South Plains, Sand Hill, Center, Cedar Hill, McCoy, Providence, Allmon, Liberty, Edgin, Sterley, Lockney.

Other schools will receive high school tuition and transportation aid after their budgeted balance is used up, Travis said.

Superintendent Day visited here several weeks ago, inspecting the various rural schools of the county in an effort to determine the needs of the schools. The amounts recommended for the schools by Day must pass through the office of the state auditor.

Turkey, Trimmings, Singing And Speech Making At Lions Club

A luncheon club program that has turkey and trimmings, speechmaking and music usually is termed a perfect one.

And Lions club members Tuesday thought they had about that. For the turkey and trimmings they very faithfully served them throughout the year and had a specially good dinner for the day. For the music they are indebted to Mrs. Ed Bond and O. M. Watson, Jr. The latter sang quite acceptably with Mrs. Bond as accompanist. Little Miss Geraldine Simon read two numbers.

The speechmaking proper was done by Hollis Bond, who had a thoughtfully prepared talk on Thanksgiving day and its significance.

Rev. Vernon Shaw, who arranged the program, had to be away from home on account of illness in his wife's family.

Boys Work Program
Recognition of the youth of the community was given last week in the program arranged by Judge L. G. Mathews, chairman of the boys and girls committee of the club. M. P. Camp and members of the high school student body were presented on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fenner left Saturday for Hobbs, New Mexico, where Mr. Fenner will be employed with an oil company. Mrs. Fenner's mother, Mrs. C. P. Looper accompanied them to Eunice, New Mexico, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Simpson and family.
