

Jury Of View Sets Costs of Widened Road to Cedar Hill

Widening, Straightening Program Calculated To Make Travel Easier

The jury of view on the widening program for the highway east from Lockney 7 miles to the Silverton highway and from the Silverton highway east to Cedar 6 miles, sat Saturday and Monday their recommendations were reviewed by the commissioner's court.

According to the figures made by the jury of view the widening program east to Cedar from the highway will cost the county a total of $119 for 10 feet of right-of-way on each side of the road, increasing its width to 60 feet from 40 feet.

To increase the width of the highway from Lockney east to the highway 7 miles the jury of view assessed damages for an 80-foot right-of-way east from Lockney to the cemetery road a mile and thence east a 100-foot right-of-way to the highway. Their schedule also called for straightening out the road to make curves out of short turns. The total bill for this distance, if their recommendations are followed in total by the commissioners will be $1,317.50. Of this amount $500 was awarded Solon Clements, $200 to the Iowa Bankers Life Assurance company, and $400 to Noah Wright.

Nominal amounts were awarded other owners on the route. All members of the jury-of-view could not be present at sittings Saturday a majority thereof being Walter Wood, Willie Sims and O. J. Huggins, present, with County Attorney John Stapleton and Deputy County Surveyor Walter Newell as technical advisors.

Widening the roadway is expected to add materially to the convenience of travel east and west on the total of 13 miles and the new roadbed will be eligible for lateral road improvement at a later date, it is hoped.

Court Empowers West Tex C-C To Speak For Floyd In Rate Fight

The Floyd County Commissioners court this week empowered the Freight Rate Equality federation to speak for them in the fight that is being made for a more equitable freight rate for producers and distributors in this area as compared with eastern and northern sections.

Freight Rate Equality federation is an organization set up at the suggestion of West Texas Chamber of Commerce. J. M. Willison of Floyd, is its president. The formal resolution adopted, and ordered spread on the minutes by the Floyd county commissioners is as follows:

"Believing that the level of freight rates in the territory represented by this organization is discriminatory when compared with freight rates in other regions, and

"Believing that markets for our products; even flow of our trade and commerce; cost of our living; and our development and general welfare are adversely affected because of comparative unfair freight rates:

"We, the Commissioners Court of Floyd county do hereby dedicate ourselves to the task of overcoming our freight rate differential and affiliate ourselves with the Freight Rate Equality Federation on the understanding that this Federation shall have as its program the abolition of the unequal freight rate zones of the United States, and on the understanding that a committee of three from his organization shall represent it in all affairs of the Freight Rate Equality Federation."

Child Hit By Car Saturday Afternoon Reported Improving

An accident that caused a broken thigh for Leon Crabb, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Crabb, happened Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Elmo Leatherman, driving south at the intersection of Main and Missouri streets, ran over the child.

Leatherman who had the right of way said the child ran in front of the car before he saw him. Clarence Walding, who saw the accident verified Leatherman's statement. Officers termed the accident as unavoidable.

The child was carried to the Floydada Hospital where an x-ray picture was made showing the break near the hip. He was bruised on the face and arms. First aid was given him and a major operation was performed on his limb Sunday morning when an open reduction was made and he was placed in a cast.

Mr. and Mrs. Crabb live in the Sand Hill community. Mrs. Crabb is a granddaughter of Mrs. J. A. Grigsby of Floydada. They live on the Jack Farley place.

Hospital attendants say the child is improving nicely and will probably be dismissed from the hospital within the next few days.

Protect Your Health From Flies; Outline Given For Protection

F. S. A. Explains Methods For Poisoning And Trapping Flies Around The Home

We have all been confronted at some time or other with the problem of controlling pests that are found in or about the home. House flies not only disgust and annoy us, but menace our health and life, and that of our families by the various diseases they transmit. It has been demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that they carry such diseases as typhoid. This fact alone should make it imperative for us to take every means of keeping the insects from our food. Even if one is not moved by health considerations, the fact that these insects breed in filth should move one to avoid their presence as far as possible. The most practical thing to do in reducing the number of these insects around the premises, of course, is to remove their breeding places. Accumulations of organic materials about the place that might remain to rot and furnish places in which maggots develop (especially animal manures and including garbage, which attract flies as a source of food supply as well) should be promptly and regularly removed and either spaded or plowed under, or thinly scattered so as to dry out quickly. Open toilets should be screened and precautions taken otherwise to prevent access of flies for maggot laying. In spite of all our efforts in this direction, flies in greater or less numbers will always come to our homes, possibly from some distant breeding places over which we individually may have no control. Sometimes we may be personally at fault in this respect, even because of materials carelessly thrown out the back door that are attractive to flies as food. This would suggest that we exercise care to see that disposition is made of such materials. Further, screens of proper mesh, covering both doors and windows are an absolute necessity in excluding flies; and since mosquitoes, some very small, should be excluded at the same time, screen of 16 mesh to the inch should be insisted upon for this purpose. Flies that reach our premises and get by the screen door need to be destroyed. One effective method is by the use of the fly swatter, and money invested in several is well spent. This, however, requires active attention on the part of the housewife while flies are being killed, and she is not always able to give the

Petersburg Picnic To Draw Big Crowd

The high light of the program probably will be the free barbecue which has been arranged by Petersburg merchants. Committees are working day and night getting preparations made for the occasion in order to assure every visitor a good time with plenty of entertainment.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

Demonstration of tractors and plows practicable for operation on Floyd county farms will be given on Tuesday afternoon of next week at the S. J. Latta farm 4 miles east of Floydada, it was announced this week.

S. J. Latta, dealer for the M-M line is sponsoring the demonstration beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

matter the continuous attention that is sometimes required. So another method, that of poisoning can be used. This method works by itself after it has been prepared and permits one to attend to other work or to take the afternoon nap that relief from flies makes possible.

Recipe For Poisoning Flies

Materials needed: (1) 1/2 cup sweet milk, (2) 1/2 cup water, (3) 1 teaspoon hydrated lime, (4) 1 teaspoon brown sugar or syrup, (5) 2 teaspoons ordinary commercial formaldehyde, or baking soda, (6) A thin slice of stale bread (7) A bowl or jar of about 1 pint capacity. This fly poison that will be effective for poisoning flies can be mixed at home. In making this, we take a bowl or jar of sufficient capacity and pour into it 1/2 cup of sweet milk, and 1/2 cup of water. To make the mixture more attractive, add one teaspoon of brown sugar, or syrup, and stir it thoroughly until dissolved. Now, 2 teaspoons of ordinary commercial formaldehyde, such as the druggist will sell you, stirred in, makes the liquid poisonous to flies. Some times this mixture is slightly acid and repellent to flies, so to correct this, add just a pinch or two of baking soda or hydrated lime, such as is obtained from lumber yards. After the solution has been mixed, it is ready for use, and should be poured into saucers or shallow pie tins. While this method will kill many flies, others, like the dove flying from the ark, will find no convenient place to alight. So, for the convenient of all the individual flies, a slice of stale bread can be put in the saucer or pan of liquid poison. Another convenient way of presenting the poison is a kind of self-feeder. Take a glass tumbler, fill it half full of the poisoned solution, cut a round piece of blotting paper, slightly larger than the mouth of the tumbler, place this over the tumbler and invert a saucer over this. Hold the saucer down firmly, and quickly turn tumbler and saucer over. There should not be so much solution that it will spill over the saucer, yet always enough for the hungry unsuspecting flies. These baits should be placed on the sill of a window being particularly darkened. The mixture is poisonous, and should be kept out of reach of children. Screen traps of the same type, that we have built at home, are available outside the house. Anyone with a few tools can construct flytraps. A trap is very effective in catching flies and is easily made, durable and cheap, may be made of four barrel hoops, four laths, a few strips of boxing, and 3/4 lineal feet of screening, 24 inches wide. (For greater details see Farmer's Bulletin 734). The effectiveness of the traps will depend on the selection of baits. A good bait for catching house flies is 1 part of blackstrap molasses to 3 parts water. After the mixture has been allowed to ferment for a day or two, overripe or fermented bananas crushed and placed in the bait pans give good results, especially with milk added to them. A mixture of equal parts brown sugar and curd of sour milk, thoroughly moistened give good results after it has been allowed to stand for 3 or 4 days.

Sprays designed to destroy or repel house flies fills a certain need in connection with the house fly problem. Extracts of pyrethrum flowers are now generally available commercially and these generally give fairly good results in the destruction of house flies in buildings. Most of the sprays of pyrethrum extract contain kerosene oil as a carrier, and undoubtedly the kerosene has much to do with the toxicity of the spray. Such materials are most applicable to buildings which become infested with flies, and which can be readily closed up at night, and the air thoroughly saturated with the spray, by means of an atomizer. Under such conditions, the flies are rather quickly overcome by the spray, and if a sufficient quantity is used, they will not revive.

Max Andrews of Oklahoma City came Saturday for a visit with his brother, Dr. V. Andrews and Mrs. Andrews. He spent from Sunday until Tuesday in Amarillo visiting a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Surginer of Houston returned home Thursday of last week after a three days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Surginer.

Mrs. O. U. Gamble and daughter Miss Virginia Belle, of Lubbock visited friends and relatives here Tuesday.

Jack Jones of McAdoo underwent a tonsil operation Wednesday morning at the Floydada Hospital and Clinic.

Farm Measuring To Be Completed Near August 15 Estimate

With farm measuring for compliance under the 1939 Farm Program now in full swing, every effort is being made to complete this work by August 15, H. H. Marshall administrative assistant, said Monday.

If this is accomplished, it is believed, Mr. Marshall stated, that the conservation payments will be received in this county several months earlier than for this year.

One important step in the carrying out of the measuring requirements will be the reporting to the measurer by the farm operator any soil conservation practices that are to be carried out after the measuring on the farm is completed, such as the building of terraces, or of ground tanks. This, however, does not apply to sweet sorghum, which will be left on the ground.

Should any farmer be overplanted either on his cotton allotment or his general allotment, he will be notified immediately, and will have time to plow up the excess acreage, Mr. Marshall said.

Again Mr. Marshall emphasized the necessity of every operator or his representative being on hand when the measuring takes place.

"CHIROPRACTIC MEDICINE"

In my last article, I stated that I would discuss "Chiropactic Medicine." From my standpoint, there is no such thing as Chiropactic Medicine, it is a therapeutic monstrosity, since Chiropactic stresses spinal adjustments for the restoration and maintenance of health. The use of medicine in Chiropactic practice would be an open denial that adjustments are all-sufficient. My office is not anti-medical, but non-medical, anyone desiring medicine should seek it through the proper channel. Since Chiropactic in theory and practice is non-medical and non-surgical, the question of "Chiropactic Medicine" resolves itself into an absurdity.

See me concerning your health problems. Following subject: "Chiropactic for All."

Committee Embarks On Plan To Learn Farm Conditions

Land Use Planning Reveals Facts For Long Time Program

County Divided Into Three District Areas Based On Soil Types

For the past two years Floyd county farm men and women have become interested in solving their agricultural problems on a cooperative group basis and from their enthusiastic efforts a land use planning program has been set up for the purpose of studying the existing conditions and to learn more thoroughly the different agricultural benefits which are being offered to the farmers of Floyd county by the various governmental agencies represented.

The county has been divided into three district areas based on the three major soil types of the county.

The major portion of five-sixths of the land area of Floyd county is located on top of the "Cap Rock," is composed of dark clay and clay loam soils and is principally a wheat, grain sorghum and cotton area. The rough land along the "Cap Rock" adjacent to the high plains is made up of a brown shallow clay and is designated as the grazing area. Below the "Cap Rock" is the area known as the cotton and grain sorghum farm lands. This area is made up of reddish brown fine sand loam soils. The plains area has been subdivided into an irrigation system of farming and a dry land system of farming.

Committeemen from each of these areas have met monthly for the past two years and have summarized statistical information from work sheets on file in the county AAA office and to date have broken down each of these subdivisions into an average size farm unit consisting of pasture, number of acres for roads and lanes on the farmstead and acres of cropland including number of acres devoted to cotton, wheat, grain sorghums, barley, sudan, legumes, fallow and idle land. They have also made a survey as to the number of work stock, beef cattle, brood sows, milk cows, hens, turkeys, sheep, tractors, and size of gardens on each of these average size farm units. The committee has also made preliminary recommendations regarding various changes that could be made possible over a long time program. These recommendations have been divided into three groups:

- (1) Situations which could be met immediately by cooperative efforts; (2) problems which could be handled by the refinancing and readjustment of farm debts or by other government loans; (3) Situations which would necessitate a long period of time, such as reducing the acres in the average size farm unit for a family of five, the (See COMMITTEE, page 5)

A. J. Hudson Funeral At Flomot Wednesday

Community's Outstanding Civic Leader, 84, Succumbed At Home Of Daughter

Funeral rites for Andrew Jackson Hudson, 84, Flomot farmer, merchant, civic and church leader, for 35 years, were held yesterday afternoon from the Methodist church in Flomot with hundreds of friends and relatives present from Flomot, Motley, Dickens, Briscoe and Hall counties.

The patriarch died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Effie Hunt at Flomot. He had been ill since the latter part of last week. A man of unusual type Mr. Hudson had been buffalo hunter, cattle baron, trail driver, brand inspector on trail herds in the Coleman area before moving further west and had led a very active life throughout his allotted time.

In 1900 Mr. Hudson moved from Flomot to Flomot, where he had Coleman to Dickens and in 1906 farming interests. Since 1922 he has been in the mercantile business at Flomot. He was reared in Johnson county.

Mr. Hudson's funeral was preached by Rev. Charlie Pipkin, of Matador, an old friend, assisted by Rev. Bob Jameson of Whiteflat, Rev. E. C. Coggins, pastor of the Flomot church.

Grandsons of the deceased served as pallbearers and granddaughters as flower attendants.

Four children survive Mr. Hudson. They are Mrs. Maude Vinson and Mrs. Effie Hunt of Flomot, Mrs. Susie Garrison of Silverton and Mrs. Alma Thomas, Sherman. His wife preceded him in death in 1914. She died in Plainview and was buried in the cemetery there. Following the funeral at Flomot Mr. Hudson's remains were taken to Plainview for interment by the side of his wife. Hardcastle Funeral home of Turkey, had charge of arrangements.

Not only a good business man, Mr. Hudson had been active in community affairs at Flomot ever since becoming a resident of that section. He was president of the school board for many years and was an active layman in the Methodist church. One of his most recent church activities was the payment of a remaining debt against the Methodist church there so that the church could be dedicated before his death. The dedication was made only a few weeks ago.

W. C. Hudson, of Dougherty, is a nephew of the deceased. He and his family and Mrs. G. J. Stapleton of Lockney and County Attorney John Stapleton were among those who attended the rites from this section of Floyd county.

Remission Ad Valorem Taxes In '40

New Law Means Little For Counties Immediately But Much Later

The remission of one-half of the ad valorem taxes to counties in Texas, provided for in the law passed by the recent legislative session and approved last week by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel means nothing at all for the immediate present to counties but a very great deal beginning in 1941.

The bill, briefly, remits one-half of the state ad valorem tax to the counties beginning with the year of 1940, with certain deductions. In practice, since 1940 collections will not begin to come in in large volume until January of 1941, the law will become operative in 1941. This appeared to be opinion in the court house this week in Floydada.

At the collector's office the estimate was made that the remission would give Floyd county approximately $13,000 more revenue per year.

This the commissioners court would be empowered to do with as their wisdom dictates,—pay debts, apply on deficits, replenish sinking funds, pay off warrants, build roads, reduce the local tax bill, or what not, according to County Attorney John Stapleton's interpretation of the act.

The tax remission act is effective for a period of 5 years for all counties in the state and is expected to take between 3 and a half and 4 million dollars from the state treasury.

With several of the richest counties in the state already enjoying the benefits of tax remission under special enactment the matter had almost reached scandalous proportions when the way out was discovered to allay the hue and cry from the counties of the state which had not asked for special remission enactments. Among the counties in the state which have remissions by special enactment is Harris in which is located Houston. Harris county is the richest in the state and has a special remission law that will return all its taxes for a period of 10 years. The law that applies to all counties generally is effective for a period of 5 years only.

Two Seriously Hurt As Car And Truck Collide

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bynum, of Flomot, enroute late yesterday from Plainview to their home at Flomot, were severely injured when the car in which they were riding collided with a truck northeast of Lockney at a road intersection.

Sheriff Fred Clark, who went to the scene of the wreck, said that Mr. Bynum was thrown clear of his car, from the information he could obtain. Mrs. Bynum was also hurt. Other passengers in the car were not seriously injured.

They were taken to Plainview for treatment.

Both car and truck were badly damaged when the car plowed into the truck, striking it just to the rear of the cab. Harper was driving the truck, accompanied by Pete Peak. The truck belonged to Irvin Bennett.

The Bynum car was enroute east and the truck south. Both drivers apparently misjudged their speed, each expecting to cross the intersection of the roads before the other. Mr. Clark said, The Bynums had been to the interment rites for Mrs. Bynum's grandfather, A. J. Hudson, and were enroute home.

Committee Calls Local Officials On Check Of Fuel Tax Refund Law

A legislative investigating committee in Plainview has subpoenaed John Hamilton, 110th district attorney of Matador, and John Stapleton, county attorney of Floyd county, for testimony today, relative to the workability of the motor fuel tax refund law and the attitude of local officers as to its enforcement.

The committee is investigating violations of the law. Stapleton and Hamilton have been in the lime-light recently in connection with local investigations that have had to do with the state comptroller's office investigations into alleged violations in this area.

PLAN POLO MATCH

The Plainview Polo club have matched polo games with the Black River Dude Ranch team from Carlsbad, New Mexico, Marvin Shurbet, member of the Plainview team said here yesterday. The dates are July 26 and 30 at Plainview. Phillips and Crenshaw, Shurbet and Bradley comprise the Plainview team.

Co-op Confident New Lines To be Authorized Following Visit Of R. E. Engineers

Chapman Believes Grant Of Extension Funds Will Have Approval

Following the visit here last week and this of District Engineer T. E. Keeton, of Oklahoma City, and Regional Engineer Van Hoose, of Washington, D. C., confidence is felt this week by Superintendent L. W. Chapman of Floyd County Rural Electric Co-operative that the Rural Electric Administration will grant an allotment for extension of lines of the local coop.

Chapman said the officials asked many questions and checked information given them very closely in regard to the extensions sought. "We have no idea whether they will give us everything we have asked for but we do feel confident that we are going to get a substantial allotment for extensions," Mr. Chapman said. Hale and Crosby county extensions are being sought principally, with additional mileage in Floyd county also included.

Irrigation Load Studied Study of the problems presented by the heavy load of irrigation wells in the area served by the local cooperative was made the order of the evening for the irrigation committee of the board of directors of FCREC when they conferred with Albert Molenaar of the utilization division out of Washington Monday night in the office here.

With the Petersburg substation already completed and in service the cooperative has been striving to get early completion of the huge station that will be built near Aiken. This substation will take energy from the Two lines and distribute it over many miles to users in the west and northwest part of the county. Foundations have been laid for some time for the Aiken station and Tuesday construction of the enclosure for the substation was started. Mr. Chapman said.

Mr. Molenaar's conference with the committee here had to do principally with the matter of financing irrigation motors and pumps with funds that may be provided with proper collateral from REA.

H. V. Hinnon, of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, Hereford, sat in on the Monday night conference here. His association has problems similar to those in this county in regard to the irrigation pump and most efficient motor and load installations.

Ed Johnson Deputy District Governor Of Lions in Area

Floydada Club Moved Into Zone 8 Of District 2-T From Zone 4

Two official actions of Lions International which will be made immediately upon the induction of A. G. Bearden, of Lamesa, as governor of District 2-T, are of immediate interest to Lions of this section. They are:

The naming of Ed Johnson of the Floydada club as deputy district governor; and

The change of Floydada club from Zone 4 to Zone 8 in the area set up. Johnson's selection as deputy district governor by Governor-elect Bearden recognizes an efficient job last year as zone chairman in District 4 and brings to the office, in Mr. Bearden's belief, a man who "will make a good, active deputy."

His choice of Mr. Johnson was made public for the first time Tuesday when a letter to M. P. Goen, president of the Floydada club, was read in which the announcement was made. Governor Bearden's letter also acknowledged the pleasure of his visit with the club here last week on ladies night when he officiated at installation ceremonies for new officials.

Moving Floydada club from the jurisdiction of Zone 4 to that of Zone 8 will make a decided change in the area meetings in which the club will participate. Along with Floydada, Crosbytown also was moved into the latter zone. The 4 clubs, Paducah, Matador, Turkey and Childress are clubs in Zone 8. The 2 added clubs will round out the area with 6 clubs, all within easy traveling distance, leaving Zone 4, however, with an ample number of good clubs that the change will not make material difference in effectiveness, in the opinion of the new governor.

Irick Youth Drowns Sunday Near Tulia Buried At Lockney

Funeral rites for Orville Shearer, 18 were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Methodist church at Lockney. Young Shearer was drowned Sunday afternoon near Tulia where he had gone with a party of young people for an outing. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shearer.

The deceased is thought to have suffered from a heart attack while swimming as he was in the shallow part of the pool when he apparently was overcome and fell backwards into deeper water.

The deceased lived with his parents in the Irick community for the past seven years and is survived by the parents, two sisters and one brother.

Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist church at Lockney assisted by the Baptist minister Rev. A. L. Shaw conducted the funeral rites. Interment was made in the Lockney cemetery under the direction of Crager Funeral home.

Crops Grow But Rains Are Needed

Battle Waged Against Weeds On Farms; Much Small Feed Acreage

Floyd county row crops, some just 10 days out of the ground and others now heading out, have been growing satisfactorily, but from all areas come reports that rains are needed now.

Except for a 15 of an inch shower that cooled off most of the county Sunday night and a half-inch rain that was just right over most of Fairview, Sterley, and Sand Hill, the week has been marked by high temperatures, fine growing weather for clean crops that have plenty of moisture but hard on small feed-stuffs that was planted following the beating rains of the first days of the month, also for crops that were "lost in the weeds" for days.

Around McCoy appear to be the area of the best cotton this year in Floyd county. Generally speaking there is much cotton in the county that has not gotten off to a good start.

Feed and forage acreage, greatly increased this season over last, gives promise of furnishing ample feed for the increased numbers of range cattle.

Where wheat was cut early and the growers got into their fields immediately for plowing the ground is in excellent condition. However, in late plowing operations under way the ground is badly packed, reports say.

Loyce Turner Is Home From Military Camp

Loyce Turner reached home Saturday from Fort Logan, Colorado, where he spent 6 weeks in a military training camp, finishing his junior year in that service at Texas Technological college.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner.

While at Fort Logan he studied the use of the .45 calibre pistol and the .30 calibre service rifle. He lacked 6 points being rated expert with the pistol, being sixth man out of 145 in the rifle competition. With a possible score of 1,000 he rated 844 with the pistol and a possible score of 250 with the rifle he had a score of 219.

Students from Oklahoma A. & M. Texas A. & M., Texas Tech, and Colorado School of Mines were among those registered. Of 20 boys from Tech Turner was high with both rifle and pistol.

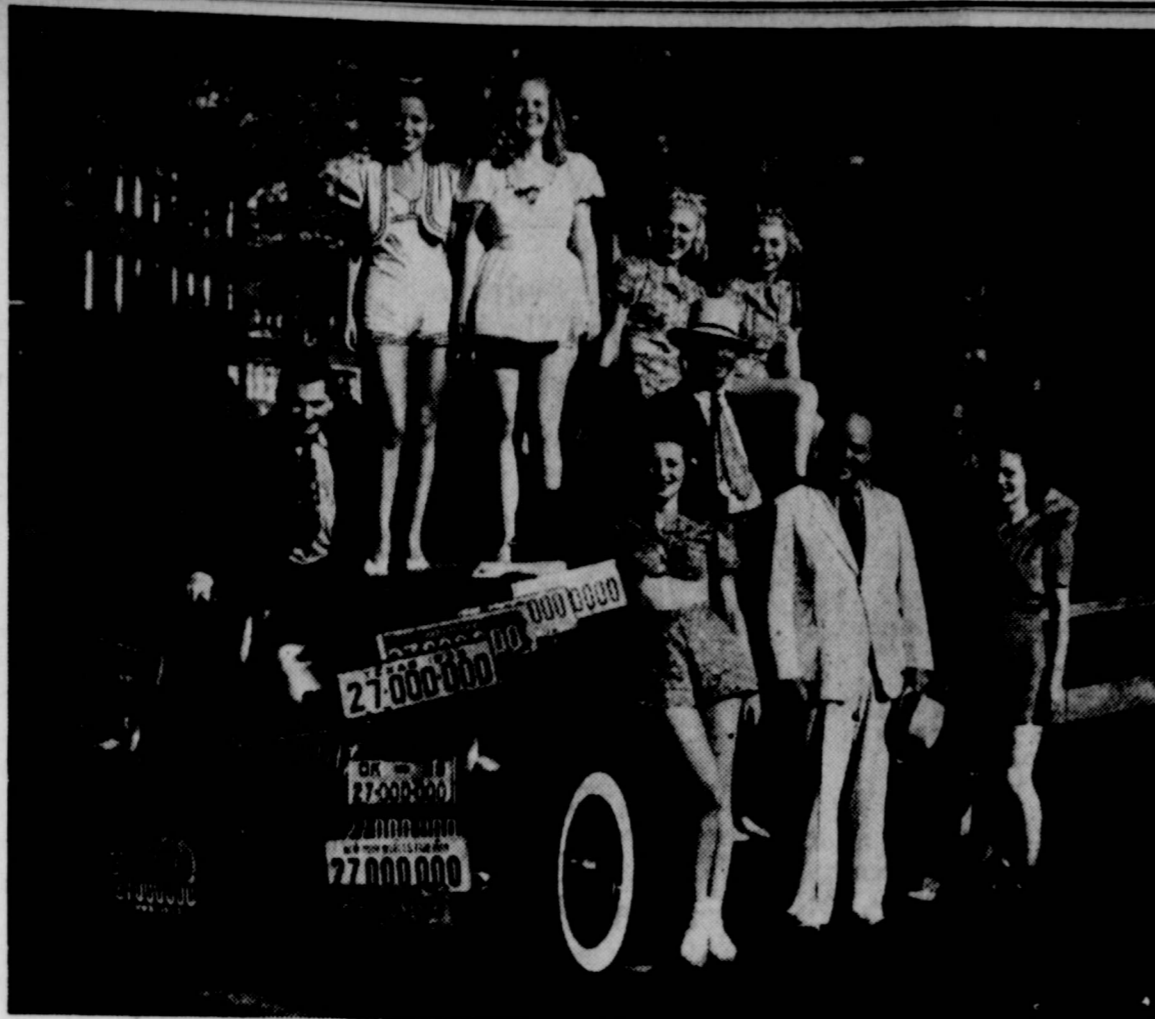

Turner is hoping his showing at Fort Logan will qualify him for a trip to the National Rifle and Pistol matches at Cleveland, Ohio, late this summer. However, it will be several days before he will know what his luck will be in regard to this trip.

REFRESHING AND ENCOURAGING

If the powers that be do to suit you, aren't you proud of them? And if they don't, how would you like to take back your vote and get an honest man in office.

This week we are pleased with Governor O'Daniel. He is the greatest man we've known in the governor's office since Mr. Colquitt. He vetoed over five million dollars from departmental budgets passed by the legislature. And admitted he should have vetoed more had he had time to give more study to the matter. And the salvos of approval from the plain plains people will be hearty.

The governor vetoed our pets—almost every one of them—bue we're for the governor. He went down the line and "done his duty as he seen it." His intestinal fortitude is refreshing and encouraging.

REMISSION OF TAXES

The Hesperian has been griping for several years because certain counties, other than Galveston, have been getting tax remissions. The number of counties had reached a count of 20 the last time we checked, while the rest of us were paying.

Now the legislature and the governor make the remission of half the ad valorem tax general for all counties. The precedent first set is bad but since some counties are getting theirs through pull or lobbying, the rest had as well have the same.

WPA WORK AS A CAREER

The fights and riots up north over the Works Progress administration's new longer hours for workers serve for one thing to remind us that a good many people have decided to take up WPA as a life's work, a sort of a career as it were.

Content to let some one else do the worrying and the paying, these appear to have about as good a proposition as they want. We say "appear" that way because we'd hate to leave the impression that a man who is on the public couldn't possibly have more ambition.

HOW MANY HOURS IN A MONTH?

Do you know how many hours in a thirty-day month?

Our pencil says 720. Maybe that is wrong. Anyhow the number is thirty times twenty-four. There must be some reason when the laboring people (meaning the organized laborers) incite killings and riots over the matter of a man working 130 hours out of a whole 720 in a month. If a man were to work 8 hours a day for 6 days in the week his total Monthly work would be 192 hours, so that somewhere, to work only 130 hours a man must dispose of 62 hours fiddle-foddlng about or something, not to speak of a rest day on Sunday.

Now, it may be right that industry should be so geared as to make everybody a good living working 130 hours a week but the average man will wonder what a fellow does with all that time on his hand and how it could be such a great burden on him to work 130 hours. At least enough of a burden to kill a policeman or two and a deputy sheriff about.

He who is afraid of being too generous has lost the power of being magnanimous.—Mary Baker Eddy.

RIGHTEOUS DEMAND, NOT ANXIOUS PLEA

Truth of the matter is you don't have to get over forty feet off the pavement until you find a soil worker who views Mr. Green of the A. F. of L. and Mr. John Lewis of the CIO as grafters of the same breed and type. Whether this is right we do not attempt to say. We know, however, it is true, that this is thought of them and all their organizers and fat-salaried helpers of one kind and another.

The diggers in the soil think of themselves as paying for all this braggart "American standard of living" bill by the sweat of their brows, either in taxes or too high prices for the things they buy. And then for Mr. Green to come along and support the WPAers in their righteous indignation over a change in hours that will have them (the WPAers) working 32.5 hours a week and killing folks because they do not believe it is right—well, the thing just doesn't make sense to them somehow or other.

The WPA folks, on the other hand, think of their fight as a righteous demand, not an anxious plea. Apparently, Mr. Green thinks the same.

CONVERSATION ON COUNTRY LINES

A court of civil appeals opinion the other day put the monkey on the telephone line owner's back in areas where the Rural Electrification program has been introduced and the telephone subscriber can't get central and talk to his neighbors as has been his wont these many years.

A telephone subscriber, as we get it, down in South Texas somewhere wanted his phone service like he had it these many years. He sued REA to get his rights, claiming their lines had ruined his conversational privileges and made his investment in a telephone line worthless. The static that followed the installation of the electric lines would have to be met, the court said, by the telephone owner metalicizing his own lines at his own expense, if we understand the opinion rendered.

This opinion will be of more than passing interest in Floyd county where conversation by way of the wire had been sadly halted by the new light lines.

IS THE DEPRESSION OVER?

Is the depression over and passed in Floyd county?

We are inclined to think that it is so far as a great number of the farm homes are concerned. Comparing things as you see them today with things as they were in 1934, the change is nothing short of miraculous. In every direction you see the signs.

New roofs for old, porches that sagged replaced, homes with formerly needed coats of paint, new posts in the fences, good machinery mostly paid for, a completely new complexion on the automobile front, money in the bank, a definite program for this year and the next, chickens in the chicken lot, cows in the pasture, hogs in the hog pen, vegetables growing in the garden, more and better furnishings in the home. Better living in every way than ever before in the history of the area and taxes lower than in two decades.

Maybe we're wrong but we think the "program" or something has really been good to Floyd county people the past four years! For our part we suspect the depression is over on Floyd county farms.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

I spent the week-end with brothers and sisters in Amarillo. As we sped along the hard gleaming highway, old scenes rose from the mirage of the past. A covered wagon crept slowly along, a man and a woman on the spring seat, a number of children peering from under the cover of the wagon sheet pinned up on each side with a large safety pin. There was the place we camped and Lavell and I went up to the house near, fearful of the barking dog, but father always wanted milk and butter when he could buy it. There was the place where the mosquitoes almost ate us up one night in camp. Here is the creek this side of canyon we reached at noon.

After dinner mother got water from the creek, heated it in the dutch oven and as she washed us, put each one in the wagon so we would not get axle grease on us. How short is this hill now. Father would rein up the horses heads and trod down it, the harness jingling, the pots and skillets rattling and our hearts almost running away with awe as we saw a train coming in wearing a long plume of black smoke. There is where the wagon yard was in which we camped. Oh, how I longed to stay in the hotel!

Then we boarded the train and went to Amarillo with Uncle Felix Franklin who was in Canyon. The conductor was a majestic person in his uniform. We wondered that Uncle Felix could dare joke with him. The glass guns filled with candy we knew were not for us. How we envied the boy who carried them and the fruit and magazines for sale. Drawing cup of ice water which did not satisfy as the train lurched from side to side.

The conductor always stopped the train before the depot was reached so that Uncle Felix could walk across the prairie to his home. We followed the older ones and watched Uncle Felix's feet crush down the long green grass and white daisies.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

Now shown taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Hesperian Standard years ago.

(Issue of July 23, 1925)

Two and one half additional affiliation credits with the Texas University bringing the present total to twenty-two and one half units, have been granted the Floydada High school for the work completed during the past session, according to advices received here this week from Superintendent J. C. Wester who is attending summer school at Denton Normal.

Surveyors representing the Santa Fe railway have been here since the latter part of last week, for the purpose, it is understood, of completing maps and surveys of the county immediately east of Floydada in connection with data being prepared for presentation at the I. C. C. hearing in Plainview this week.

Representatives from Floyd county will attend the Sixteenth Annual Farmers' Short Course to be held at A & M college July 27-August 1. County Agent T. Scott Wilson and members of the county judging team will very likely make the trip. Miss Mable Faulkner, county home demonstration agent, Mrs. W. E. Miller of Sand Hill community, district winner of the home Kitchen contest held recently, and Miss Vieie Harris of the Harmony community first place winner in the county biscuit making contest will attend.

Albert R. Clubb and Miss Thalia Williams were quietly married at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Williams of Harmony community.

Evidence of the active expansion of Floydada's business and trade territory is shown in the addition last week of the Dodge Speed wagon to the delivery force of E. E. Boothe bakery. The truck will make three weekly trips carrying bread and pastries to Silverton, Plomot, Gasoline, Turkey, Whiteflat and Quitaque.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pope and family returned Sunday after spending ten days on a vacation trip in southwest Texas and New Mexico. They visited Clovis, Roswell and Cloudcroft, New Mexico and El Paso in the southwest. Mr. Wilson, who is a local photographer, stated that he had made a number of pictures of the beautiful scenery near Cloudcroft and other interesting points.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Gilliam, formerly of Roscoe, have re-moved here to make their home. Mr. Gilliam has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Higginbotham-Bartlett company here.

Miss Ruth Collins who has been attending school at C. I. A. at Denton for the past long session and the first term of the summer school, returned home Thursday of last week to spend the summer.

Vernon and Buster Eubank spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eubank, of Lorenzo, returning Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gamblin entertained their friends and neighbors Monday night. Music and games with refreshments of ice cream and cake, lemonade and peaches, were enjoyed by some 50 or 60 guests.

We liked the sound our feet made when we reached the board side walks in front of his house.

In the Franklin home we sat enthralled as the men talked of the early days of Amarillo. The scent of baked ham and boiled beans tantalized us, we heard the clomp of horses feet and the whistle of the train at the crossings. As the men talked we visioned the whole country round Amarillo covered with herds and herds of cattle held by cowboys on horses, waiting for their turn to be corralled and pushed into waiting freight cars. Cowboys riding hard, blue handkerchiefs over noses, yellow slickers behind saddles, braided leather quirts flying, spurs digging into the sweating flanks of the cow ponies, the yelling of the cowboys, the sand rising into clouds and settling on the prairie again.

We saw the lake near where Polk street Methodist church is now, the tired freighter unharassing his team and letting them drink of the clear cool water, heard the singing of the wild birds, barking of prairie dogs, saw snipe and killdeers riding the waves made gold in the sunlight and silver when the white moon rode high over the new town.

We saw the gambling tables piled high with round shiny silver dollars, crisp new green backs, cracking in the operator's hand; the restaurants with cheap pine tables and stools. The mail came in on the big white hack, pulled by the dun colored spanish mules. Letters were drawn from pockets of the freighters, letters written by homesick women longing for the east and kindred, schools and churches, and given to the freighter as he passed the lonely dug out or the tiny home on the prairie, to be mailed at Uncle Sam's post office.

The mirage from the past vanished. Amarillo 1939 was before me. A deep canyon of houses had been made on the flat prairie. Hundreds of white neons on tall posts from a fine forest, lighted this canyon at night. He had taken the blue from the heavens, the red from a brilliant sunset, the gold and silver from the little lake, and decorated the houses with neon signs down the streets. Tall stacks of gleaming silver dollars and crackling green backs were housed in stately banks.

Where once the freighter loaded his wagons from the general merchandise with beans, calico, sow belly, canned tomatoes, blue overalls and yellow slickers, now stood brick houses with all the goods and groceries that man has made and grown.

Here where tired thirsty horses drank from clear cool water at the little lake, a stately church stands and men and women drink from the fountain of everlasting waters. Majestic buildings, like castles seen by the cowboys as he lay under the chuck wagon and gazed into the floating clouds, rise where once the prairie grass was grazed by the cattle. Men have found pots of gold at the end of bright rainbows and built beautiful houses. Cafes gleam with white porcelain and shining nickle, serve foods brought from the ends of the earth. Where the mesquite tossed golden tassels, where the white daisies, the blue bells and the wine cups grew in the curly prairie grass, now grow stately trees, and beautiful tame flowers of many names and wondrous color.

I am collecting chess pie recipes. Last week Mrs. A. E. Steen gave me one. I was very pleased to meet her. The hardships of the pioneers were hers but the sterling qualities of the early women are hers also, the hospitality, the true friendships, the uprighteousness and the never giving up spirit.

It was a great pleasure to meet Miss Laura V. Hammer while in Amarillo. She is a delightful companion. Her sense of humor, un-failing kindness and understanding, we had learned from her book "No Gun Man of Texas."

If I told here how she praised Mr. Steen, it might make him vain. I look forward with much pleasure to her promised visit.

Filing supplies, Hesperian.

Committee

readjustment of freight rates, etc.

When this task was first started in 1938 by D. F. Bredthauer, Floyd county agricultural agent, Extension Service A. and M. college of Texas and now acting as ex officio secretary to this committee, he found that his farmers were not overly impressed by this work, but after the committee began working some very drastic situations were revealed by the statistical information which they had completed. By comparing these figures with the 1935 agricultural census it is found that to date Floyd county has 1,933 farm units with 329.2 acres per farm while the 1935 figure shows 1,743 farms with an average of 352.5 acres per farm, or a present gain of 190 farms. This gain is self-evident that today there are more people in Floyd county making their livelihood on the farm than there were in 1935.

The Dairy Picture

The dairy survey also shows a very unusual picture. In 1935 there were 11,193 milch cows on Floyd county farms but this figure has decreased to 6,720 for 1939 or a decrease of 4,473. In 1936 Floyd county had 8,227 sheep and today there are 37,648 sheep in the county. Beef cattle have also shown an increase with 28,937 head on Floyd county farms and ranches today as compared with 23,690 in 1935.

With all of this vast information the land use planning committee has been able to make a study of the food and feed requirements for each recommended average size Floyd county farm for the purpose of being able to recommend to the farmer of the county just how much feed it will require to have on hand to carry on successful feeding operations and at the same time have sufficient feed on hand in case of a lean harvest so that the entire farming operations will not be paralyzed. Here is an item into which the French silo has been universally received and is playing a very important factor in all of the feeding operations.

The committee feels that they have embarked on one of the most noteworthy plans that has ever been brought to the farmers of this county because they are learning the exact conditions that exist at present and are setting out a goal which cannot be attained in a year nor in the next five years, but this work is giving a broader outlook on the agricultural economic conditions and is proving to the farmers of the county that they must face and work out their salvation on a long time cooperative farm program.

Planning Board Named

The Floyd County Land Use Planning committee is composed of the following: L. A. Williams, chairman; D. F. Bredthauer, county agricultural agent and ex officio secretary; Miss Edith Lois Wilson, county home demonstration agent; J. C. Henderson, secretary Floyd Chamber of Commerce; W. T. ### Scholastic Transfers Must Be Made In July

Floyd county teachers and trustees are reminded that the month of July is the last in which scholastic transfers may be made from one district to another. To get credit for transfers it is important that trustees get transfers properly recorded in their districts and the same reported to the county superintendent. Clarence Guffee, county superintendent, this week pointed out that failure to give transfers proper attention at the proper time could prove expensive to a school district.

Gainesville Folks Liked Floydada Too

Gainesville, Texas, July 9, 1939. Mr. Homer Steen, Publisher, The Hesperian, Floydada, Texas.

Dear Mr. Steen: Since my return from Floydada, I have had opportunity to talk to most of the members of the community circus, and the consensus of opinion seems to be that their visit to your city was one of the most enjoyable in their experience as members of the home town amusement troupe.

I was particularly impressed by the splendid job of housing our people which you did, realizing the difficulties involved in handling so many, and our people greatly appreciated the manner in which their hosts sought in every way to contribute to their comfort and entertainment. Many of our people had never been to the plains country before, and they certainly are high in their praise of your hospitality and the enthusiastic response your people gave our efforts to entertain you.

The engagement was, from our standpoint, certainly a big success in every way, and we are glad to have had Floydada on our itinerary.

Cordially yours, A. Morton Smith, City Editor, The Register Business Manager, Gainesville Community Circus.

When Banks are Willing BUT BORROWERS ARE NOT

Now and then one still hears that "bankers are holding back business by not lending more liberally." The truth is that banks have never been more willing to make sound loans than they are now. But unsettled conditions today have made many business men timid about planning and borrowing, because of uncertainty about the future. There is plenty of money in the banks today, as always, for those who can use it — and not lose it.

This institute, which was initiated for the benefit of high school dramatic and debate coaches all over the state, features a group of high school students chosen from Texas High schools, with whom the teachers can work just as with a regular high school class.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for July 23, 1939.

Asa: A Life of Trust

Golden Text:—"Help us, O Jehovah our God; for we rely on thee" (II Chron. 14:11).

Lesson Text: — II Chronicles 14: 2-12.

2 And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God:

3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and brake down the images, and cut down the groves:

4 And commanded Judah to seek the Lord God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

5 Also he took away out of all cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.

6 And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the Lord had given him rest.

7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the Lord our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.

9 And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah.

10 Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

11 And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

12 So the Lord smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

Introduction

In the intervening Scripture we learn that Rehoboam, king of Judah, when he got his kingdom organized, forsook the Lord; and that in the fifth year of his reign, Shishak, king of Egypt, went against him, and the Lord allowed Shishak to overcome him. Then God sent the prophet, Shemaiah, to warn him and tell him of his trouble. Whereupon, Rehoboam and his people repented and acknowledged the Lord. Then God stopped the king of Egypt, and left Rehoboam to rule under him. The king of Egypt, though he left Rehoboam to rule, all the treasures which Solomon had accumulated. Rehoboam reigned seventeen years. At the close of his reign he again turned from the Lord. He recognized God and went to battle against Jeroboam, who had become idolatrous, and God gave him victory. Thus again we see Israel united, or ruled over, by the seed of David. Abijah's death, Asa, his son, took all the treasures which Solomon had accumulated.

MISS BURKE DISCUSSES FURNITURE ARRANGEMENT

"Furniture should be arranged to balance a room", stated Mildred Burke, club member, who was speaker in the absence of Miss Wilson, at the meeting of the Harmony Home Demonstration club, July 10 at the club rooms.

"Do not place all the heavy pieces of furniture on one side of the room, for it will give an unbalanced appearance. There should be three centers in a bedroom: the sleeping, dressing and reading, and sewing and writing center," she said. An important point stressed was not to place furniture across the corners of a room.

Punch and cookies were served to Mesdames Jim Holmes, A. R. Hanna, Frank Probasco, W. L. Craft, R. J. Weems, W. M. Jeter, A. V. Womack, J. V. Greer, Jeff Michael, Emmit Dutton, R. C. ## Friends Talk About "Q.C."* Too!

*“Q.C.” means Questionable Credit: The result of failure to pay bills promptly — as agreed.

CREDIT is a privilege—a convenience—extended upon the merchant's or professional man's confidence that when bills are rendered, they will be paid promptly, according to terms or agreement.

Pay each bill promptly and you establish a "Prompt Pay" record in the files of the Credit Bureau which, like money in the bank, will grow in value. For promptness in paying makes your credit good—and keeps it good!

But—failure to pay bills on time, through neglect or carelessness, can only establish a reputation for Questionable Credit ("Q. C.") and cause embarrassment — to your creditor just as much as to you. For no one likes asking for payment—even when it's past due.

The remedy for "Q. C." is simple: Bills are due on the first of the month following purchase and past due after the 10th.

Safeguard your credit! Pay all bills by the 10th — or promptly as agreed.

Workers in Floyd county this week were advised not to walk off a job and expect to draw all their unemployment benefits.

He explained that the penalty for quitting without good cause ranges from the loss of one benefit check to the loss of all benefit checks.

"The intent of the law is to help the worker who is unemployed through no fault of his own," Thomson declared, "and it is not to be confused with old age benefits or relief."

Country Club Golfers Whet Appetites For Party Thursday Night

The Dailyites and the Gilliamites are still bombarding Floydada Country club course this week trying to arrive at the answer to the question of who is going to eat and who is going to pay on Thursday night of next week, when the big winner and loser party is held.

The golfers and their families will make a big party of it and all have a good time, regardless of who is declared winner, said H. G. Daily and J. C. Gilliam, captains of the respective sides yesterday.

With several important matches yet to be played off this week winning side is far from determined, and to make the whole situation more complicated yesterday it was announced that 7 new teams had entered for match play. They are as follows:

George Fry Linder against Truman Kirk; Pat Collins against Doug Pitts; J. B. Jenkins against M. L. Probasco; Lewis Norman against R. E. Fry; Glad Snodgrass against A. B. Clark; Norman Goen against James Wester; and J. R. Yearwood against Stanford Goen.

Tuesday night's tabulations indicated practically an even break in won matches, the captains said, with indications that late played games would determine the winning side. The contest closes with play Sunday afternoon.
