Over Hundred Bales Cotton Ginned In Past 10 Days Here

Floydada Alone Has Over Fifty Bales Thru Gins

Cotton Opening Slowly But Big Rush Expected Within Next Few Days

A poor cotton harvest is getting underway slowly this week over Floyd county as gin men sit ready and rearing to go but little cotton appearing in the yards for them to work on.

Not over 125 bales of cotton have been ginned and probably not over 150 have been picked to date if estimates gathered from the various yards is any indication of present production.

All of the ginners contacted generally agree that the cotton harvest this year will set some sort of a record for shortness and low production. In fact most of them seem to expect the ginning season to be over and practically gone by two more weeks, providing the weather stays hot and dry, and indications are that it will.

Floydada gins had ginned over 50 bales through Wednesday afternoon and all had steam up and a wagon or so on the yards waiting for their turn. Business in Lockney was considerably slower, probably because the irrigated cotton is slower in opening than further south and east.

Although a number of warnings have been made by county officials concerning the "wandering" cotton picker several truck loads of pickers have been seen coming through the county.

The county officials have warned that if any of these "foreign" pickers get caught without work in this county they will not be able to help them out of their predicament since it is all the county can do to help the unemployed already here.

It is not likely that any large number of pickers will drift into the county since the news has floated out that the crop is bad and that the county will not meet them with a full dinner pail if they fail to find work or run out of work in a short time.

Every effort will be made to see that local labor can be found to take care of the short harvest without having to import families to handle something that Floyd should have ample labor for.

North Floyd Singers Will Meet October 1

The North Side County Singing convention is scheduled to meet at South Plains the first Sunday in October, according to an announcement made this week by Mrs. L. Latham.

All singers are reminded to keep the date in mind and plan to be present for the all-day affair. Visiting singers are expected to be present.

This date falls on October 1.

HAS INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Kenneth Baird Bishop, son of Baird Bishop, is suffering from infantile paralysis. Dr. V. Andrews who waited on the youth last week-end suggested treatment in a hospital, said Kenneth Baird has nerves of both arms affected.

The youth is in a Lubbock hospital and his father has been with him there since Saturday.

City Rolls Gross $1,439,865 For Current Year '39

City tax rolls for 1939 show a gross valuation of $1,439,865.

This recapitulation of the valuations, given approval last week-end by the board of equalization, includes $1,042,030 for real estate values and $397,835 for personal property values.

City Secretary S. E. Duncan has completed the rolls and is ready for the tax collection period beginning October 1.

1939 tax rolls valuations, if 100 per cent collections were made, would afford the city a total of $21,599.64 income. Of this $1,439.86 is due to go into the general fund and the remainder into the bond fund.

Prior to last year all taxes collected went into the tax fund for the period since 1928. The agreement entered into with bondholders made the new arrangement effective.

The values this year are approximately $10,500 less than a year ago.

S. A. Greer Dead; Rites Monday Mark Pioneer's Passing

Stockfarmer, Resident Of County Since 1898, Sick Two Hours

S. A. Greer, since 1898 a resident of Floyd county and one of its outstanding live stock farmers, died Sunday night at 9 o'clock. He was 81 years of age.

Although failing in strength, Mr. Greer was in Floydada Friday transacting business. Sunday night at 7 o'clock he suffered a stroke and died about 9 o'clock at his home, Brookfield Farm southwest of Floydada.

Funeral rites were held Monday afternoon at 4:30 at Sand Hill Church of Christ of which congregation he had been a member for many years, and many old-time friends of the family were present for the last rites. Elder O. W. Kirk, of Floydada, officiated. Granddaughters of the deceased served as flower attendants and active pallbearers were long-time friends of the family. Flower attendants were: Maxine Walker, Theida Olds, Ina Atchinson, Dorothy Greer, Venita McCleskey, Louella Rose, Jackie Coats, Bonnie Roe McCleskey, Decie Dimple Mickey;

Walter Knight, A. V. Womack, Leonard Pope, Carl W. Smith, Tom Thomas, J. H. Holmes served as pallbearers.

A native of Mineola, Texas, where he was born on July 4, 1858, Mr. Greer was married in 1884 to Mary Frances Coates, and together they moved to Hunt county. From that county they came to Floyd in 1898 and had lived continuously in the Sand Hill community since. Of 10 children born to Mr. and Mrs. Greer six survive. They are Mrs. Robert Hall, Roswell, New Mexico; Mrs. R. R. Mickey, Lubbock; J. V. Greer and Mrs. Roe McCleskey, Floydada, Mrs. A. C. Blevins, Dallas, and John Elton, Wichita Falls, Texas.

County Agent, D. F. Bredthauer, announces that a Floyd county agricultural exhibit was assembled Sunday at the Tri-State fair at Amarillo showing the many diversified products of Floyd county.

An agricultural exhibit will also be taken to the Panhandle-South Plains fair at Lubbock this week-end.

Additional farm products will be needed at this time. All of the gallon classes are open such as wheat, oats, barley, millet, sweet sorghum, maize, kafir, sudan, soybeans, cowpeas, and blackeye peas.

In the bundles class Bredthauer is anxious to obtain some millet, and in the corn class, field, sweet, and pop corn, 10 ears of each, will be badly needed. In the vegetable class there is needed cantaloupes, beets, carrots, onions, sweet and Irish potatoes, pumpkins, and cashews. Apples, pears, peaches, and plums will be needed for the fruit class.

Anyone having any of the above mentioned products, will please leave them at the county agent's office before 12 noon, Saturday, September 23, and these products will be put on display in the county agricultural booth at the Panhandle-South Plains fair at Lubbock which opens September 25.

Loyce Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner, returned Friday from a three week camp at the National Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Loyce was chosen one of thirteen boys to represent the R. O. T. C. of the eighth corps area as a team. This area is made up of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Colorado.

He placed fourth on the team and received an expert rating on the National match course by firing 262 out of a possible 300 at ranges from 200 yards to 1000 yards.

After camp in company with three team mates, he visited the National air races at Cleveland, Ohio, the world's fair in New York and in Washington, D. C. They also went into Canada and saw Niagra Falls.

NO SHOOTING! Sheriff Fred N. Clark announced this week that shooting of small calibre firearms in the city limits was against the law and that boys found shooting about the town with them would be liable for trouble.

The recent accidental shooting northeast of town has caused quite a bit of resentment among the people toward careless use of firearms in and about the city by bird and small game hunters and the officers are being asked to curb this carelessness.

Whirlwinds Invade Tulia Friday Night

Tulia Passing Attack Looks Dangerous To Floydada Coaches

Friday night the Floydada Whirlwinds invaded the nest of the Tulia Hornets, self confessed future district title holders, to try their power on a powerful offense and a better than average defense the last week stopped the Paducah Dragons, favorites along with Matador to annex the District 4-A title.

Assistant Coach Brady Thomas, who watched the Hornets work over the Dragons, reported to Coach Odell Winter that the Tulia team had a nifty and dangerous passing attack that was likely to prove fatal to the Floydada team unless an excellent anti-aerial defense was set up this week.

The same report said that Paducah's line stopped the Tulia running attack cold but the passing game was too strong for the Dragons. Tulia has a well balanced team and has a running attack that may function if the Winds put the throttle on their vaunted overhead game.

The air attack that Slaton tossed at the Green and White was no batch of confetti so the Winds have had some pass defense drill and not to be underrated, The Winds stopped the Tigers running attack more times than one before it even began to start.

The Hornets are favored strongly to take the Whirlwinds into camp by a neat score because the Insects have more experienced hands back from last year as well as playing a "revenge" game on their home field.

Last year Tulia had humbled their first opponent by a 70 to 0 score and was flying high. The Floydada boys had been trampled by Slaton. The two teams met with Tulia favored to win in a walk but Floydada tossed the duke bucket on top of the school house and marched off the victor by 18 to 0. The Hornets have not forgotten that game and most of the team playing this year played in it.

The whole affair right now shapes up as an aerial battle versus a running game. Lidger, Goughly, Patterson, and Rushing are potentially the best ground gaining backfield on hoof in this district.

Lidger handles the passing, punting and running as well as figuring out the attack for the team. Goughly does the ball lugging and promises to be a deadly blocker and tackler and probably will halt more than one rush right at the line of scrimmage. Patterson shapes up as a climax runner, shifty and fast in a broken field he more than once

Amarillo State Fair Draws From County

Judging in the dairy division of the Tri-State fair in Amarillo is under way today and the Jersey herd of O. L. Stansell, of Floydada, will be placed in this competition during this judging.

Mr. Stansell has 20 head of Jerseys entered in the competition. He and Bill Sisson and Bill Johnson took the cattle to Amarillo last week and Mr. Stansell, in company with N. B. Stansell, returned to Amarillo Monday of this week.

Yesterday's judging at the Amarillo show included the Chester Whites in the swine division, in which Miller brothers of Sand Hill have several head entered.

Floyd county has a creditable exhibit at the fair. It was so declared by the judges at the opening of the fair. It was set up by County Agent D. F. Bredthauer, who was assisted by W. T. McKinney in collecting and arranging the exhibit. Mrs. Bredthauer and Mrs. McKinney accompanied their husbands to Amarillo, the party returning home Sunday.

Oliver Allen, Floyd county chicken fancier, is an exhibitor at the fair and his flock did well in the judging on Tuesday. His single comb Rhode Island Reds won in the following classes:

First cock, first hen, first cockerel, second and third pullet, first old pen and first and second young pen.

In the Rhode Island division there were more than 100 entries. Sweepstakes and special prizes were due to be awarded in the poultry division yesterday.

Assemble Chemurgic Exhibit The exhibit from Floyd county at the Texas State fair in Dallas will follow in lines of the chemurgic idea which is assuming large proportions down-state. In this exhibit Mr. Bredthauer plans to feature sugar beets and by-products of this crop, which is to be supplemented by cotton and wheat. Floyd county will be advertised as the biggest beet sugar producing county in the state.

Lockney Longhorns, Olton Mustangs to Clash at Olton Both Are District Champs

Olton Favored Over Steers With More Experienced Men From Last Year

Taking up where they left off last year, the Lockney Longhorns trampled the Friona Redskins into the dust last Friday night 33 to 0 without half trying.

Just about everything they did try worked, and worked to a perfection. The Chiefs had a good big team but not as good as the Longhorns were able to put on the field.

The top-sided win over Friona immediately puts the Lockney boys right into the picture as district contenders with Matador and Paducah and gives them a strong chance to retain their district championship title.

Their victory over Friona was much more convincing than the Whirlwinds 14 to 0 win over the Slaton Tigers on the same night.

This week the Longhorns travel to Olton to do battle with the Mustangs, champions of their district last year and considered by many to be even a stronger team this year than last. The Mustangs have four district champions including Lockney on their schedule according to reports, so the reputation of the Lockney boys will no wise faze the Mustangs.

Although Olton ranks the favorite in the game, in spite of Lockney's win last Friday, the Longhorns stand a good chance of upsetting the dope and bringing home another win.

The Longhorns are short on reserves but the first team is one of the best balanced in the district. The backfield is strong and versatile and the line is big and fast.

Funeral Rites Held For A. A. Hatchell Sunday At Plainview

Funeral rites for A. A. Hatchell were held at the family home in Crosbyton Sunday at 9:30 a. m. following his death Friday morning.

Interment was made at Plainview, his former home. His death was not unexpected as his condition had been considered grave since Saturday before his death. He had been in ill health with a heart ailment the past month.

Mr. Hatchell, well known mortician of this area, was born August 23, 1858 in the state of South Carolina. In 1877 he married Miss Lenora Dorrell, an aunt of L. H. Dorrell of this city. She passed away in the year 1907.

To this union were born five children, four of whom survive. They are Miss Ada Hatchell, Crosbyton; Garris M. Hatchell, Oklahoma City; Judge Austin C. Hatchell, Lufkin; Mrs. Anne Shropshire, San Antonio. One son Bunyon Hatchell, deceased. One brother Amenda Hatchell of Olaneta, South Carolina also survives.

Mr. Hatchell was a member of the Masonic lodge, the Odd Fellows and at the time of his death was serving as Justice of the Peace at Crosbyton.

Harmon Funeral home had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorrell attended the last rites.

New Retail Station For Consumers Fuel

A new retail station for the Consumers Fuel association is under construction this week. Foundations have been laid and the superstructure is due to take form during the next several days.

It will be of brick and will have features of accommodation and service to stockholders and the public not now possible in the old station which it will supersede.

The new building is a part of a construction program started this spring, the first unit of which was a new warehouse that is as nearly as possible fireproof. In the long run, in the belief of the officials of the association, the new set-up will represent big savings in many ways, including the reduction of fire hazards. All-steel and brick, as far as possible, is being used in construction of the buildings which will constitute the new lay-out.

J. G. MARTIN III.

J. G. Martin, general manager of Martin Dry Goods company, is ill again. This time it is the matter of an operation, which he underwent Wednesday morning for an abdominal infection. He was resting well at last report. He is in a Lubbock hospital.

For several weeks this spring Mr. Martin was ill and felt he had practically covered, when the new trouble developed.

Dr. Warren Poole, an assistant in surgery of an Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, clinic, was here last week-end with Mrs. Poole, on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Poole. His work in the "city" is a part of his study toward a master's degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Project Books May Win Prizes For The 4-H Club Boy Here

Prizes For Various Project Books Listed In Story Given Below

Floyd county 4-H club boys stand chances to earn cash rewards this year with their project books as various Floydada and Lockney business men have decided that the 4-H club work is an asset and needs boosting. Prizes ranging from $25 down have been made up and will be awarded later in the year.

County Agent, D. F. Bredthauer, announces that information has been received this week from the state office that the Floyd County 4-H council which consists of Herman Stowe, Aiken, Clarence Guffee, Floydada, Ed Whitfill, Lockney, and L. A. Williams, Harmony to begin accepting the completion of 4-H record books. The final date for accepting these record books is October 15.

Bredthauer further states that Floyd County 4-H club boys for 1933 had a 95 per cent completion of record books and sent one boy, Percy Tate, of Aiken to the international livestock show at Chicago. Percy Tate received this award for his outstanding work in cotton projects.

The Santa Fe railway will again offer awards for 1939. In addition to the out of state prizes, some very attractive awards have been offered by business men of Floyd county which are as follows:

Ed Whitfill, prize $2.50 each for ten best 4-H individual cotton exhibits consisting of an individual exhibit of 20 open bolls, a sample of cotton seed and a sample of lint, to be packed in a partitioned container 12x18x2 inches. (A space 10x12x2 inches each for cotton seed and lint). Lint must be a sample from a bale (ginners sample) and shall not be carded nor hand ginned. Each exhibit must be in the office of the county agent by October 15.

Dorsey Baker, $25 for the best 4-H meat animal (swine, beef calf, sheep) record book submitted. All record books must be in the county agent's office by December 1.

The above prizes for 4-H boys living in the Lockney trade territory, north of Iriek and Muncy and west

Brother Of Will Steen Died At Goldthwaite

W. M. Steen, accompanied by his nephew, Calvin Steen and Orville W. Harris, Saturday attended funeral rites at Goldthwaite, Texas for Robert L. Steen, 64, who died at his home there Friday morning.

The funeral service was held at 10 o'clock a. m., and was followed by interment in the Goldthwaite cemetery. The Floydada relatives returned home Saturday night.

Other survivors of the deceased include a son, and a daughter both of Goldthwaite. I. M. Steen, a brother of Canyon, is another survivor who is known here.

A native of Hamilton county, Texas, the deceased had been in the hardware business at Goldthwaite for more than a quarter of a century.

Many Leave For College From Floyd

Annual Trek To Schools Find Many Youths Matriculating This Week

Floydada and Floyd county high school graduates began the annual trek to institutions of higher learning this week.

A check of ex-high school graduates reveals one of the largest number in several years leaving for their favorite colleges. Texas Technological college at Lubbock leads in popularity of the local students. Students and their respective choices are as follows:

Mahon Will Support Cash And Carry Plan

LUBBOCK, Sept. 21. — Congressman George Mahon closed his Lubbock office on Monday of this week and returned to Washington for the special session of Congress convening today.

He predicted that the cash and carry neutrality policy advocated by President Roosevelt would be enacted into law. "I voted for the cash and carry provision last session and I expect to do so again," he said.

Mahon explained that it is not possible to tell in advance how long the special session would last. It might possibly last until late in the fall he said. The regular session of Congress will convene January 3, 1940.

Sept. 30 Deadline For All Coverage Wheat Insurance

"The thirtieth day of September is the last day to insure your wheat," L. A. Williams, Crop Insurance supervisor warned Floyd county farmers this week.

"We have written over 200 applications today with an average insured production of 800 bushels," Williams said, and added the query, "Why not give your banker and merchant some assurance of a normal wheat crop for 1940?"

It will be impossible to handle all those who have indicated they are going to insure before the closing date, if all wait until the last day to exercise this privilege, he said, and urged that applications be made now to avoid the rush.

Editorial

BRIEFS ON CURRENT THOUGHT

It is probable that the oil industry and particularly the independent producers have never before faced so many and so diverse problems at this time . . .

Following the upward trend in the cost of raw materials in the manufacture of paper, it is necessary that . . .

The super-questions, on which all things depend are these:

- (1) Will it be a short war, or a long war? (2) Will the U. S. get into it or stay out of it?

The three "currents" above are characteristic of the material that flows across the desk of the newspaper man during these days. They leave the editor as much confused and at sea as you are. One thing for sure only: Prices are going up if there is any way to make them go up—in every line. A lot of folks haven't been making as much money as they have wanted to make.

THE LONG WAR THEORY

The theory of the "talent" in New York City, Washington, is that there is to be a long war—meaning a year, maybe three years. This theory has it that when Hitler gets through in Poland and has a firm grip, he will assent to peace proposals from Mussolini, Stalin or somebody. Britain and France will go through the motions of assent, pausing for consideration. Stocks will be subject to the "Peace scare." But finally no agreement and the war will be pressed. Grapevine says Washington is convinced Britain and France are not fighting for Poland but against Hitlerism, whatever that means, and are determined to make an end of it. Thus only the passing out of Hitler himself could terminate the war.

The minor note: Hitler, having taken Poland, will arrange peace terms. France and Britain, averse to a needless war, will agree to some kind of truce. Out of this, somehow, will grow a peace.

From either of these theories take your guess.

SO MUCH FOR THAT

Since everybody else is talking war we had as well, too.

Present army and navy enlargement in the U. S. are only preparatory to other things. Spy chasing is another first step. Others will be coming along.

If you are in business, depend on it, tighter control is in sight—this includes anybody who is operating a farm. Various plans will be developed, piece meal, over the next few weeks. Watch for "voluntary" control, the net effect of which will be the government as the director-general of the business organization of the country. All of this sorter easy and gentle like at first. Then, and if, U. S. participates in the war, controls will be absolute. The anti-profiteering campaign is largely verbal, the "housewife's panic" a passing phase. So much for that.

DON'T BE COCKSURE

If you are going to bet some money don't be so cocksure about the war and what it may entail. This may be remembered as what certainly must be the fact:

No nation or community ever made lasting profit out of a war, believe it or not. It isn't done. Profit does not ensue from waste—waste of human life, waste of materials. Whatever else happens all hands must join in paying for the folly, whose ever folly it may be, of war. Blame anybody you want to blame, but be sure that profit from a war is rarely permanent.

DOESN'T SOUND REASONABLE

A copy of a page of the Congressional Record we recently ran across has the following astounding statements from the mouth of Congressman George A. Dondero, of Michigan:

"Mr. Speaker, a few minutes ago in front of the Nation's Capitol a photograph was taken of the Michigan delegation with the twenty-seven millionth Ford car produced by the Ford Motor Co., of Detroit, Mich.

"It may be somewhat of news to you to know that this one company has produced one-third of all the cars made in the world, and during the last 10 years, according to the reports filed with the Federal Trade Commission, the profit of the Ford Motor Co. has been one-tenth of 1 percent, less than $1 per car. Henry Ford is not making automobiles today because he needs bread; he is making cars in order that men may have work. For more than a quarter of a century Henry Ford led the world in the payment of high wages to the laboring man; and because of his mechanical genius he has made it possible for the common man, the poor man, to have and to enjoy one of the great conveniences of our day and age, namely, the automobile."

SOMETHING CAN HAPPEN!

Despite all the forebodings and the carefully planned-for disasters we foresee, things can happen to avoid them and often do. As for instance, the experts forecast an ample crop of grasshoppers this past spring and there was mobilized all manner of grasshopper fighting materials, machinery and men to save plains grass and crops. But something happened in almost all the whole area. How it could have been one of the unexplainable mysteries of nature. The grasshoppers were consumed ere they ever emerged from the ground by a natural enemy in the insect world. County Agent Bredthauer knew it was happening on a small scale. He suspected it might be happening on a grand scale, he said at the time. And sure enough it did!

GRASS BRINGS WEALTH

Did you know that many of the wealthy families of the State of Texas date their fortune's beginnings back to the grass era of the seventies and the eighties?

Of course you did, but you probably hadn't thought of it just that way, and hadn't realized that much of the present wealth in the southwest is being produced by grass. Check against your knowledge of who is and who is not making money, forgetting for the moment the oil wealth, which is more or less accidental so far as the landowner is concerned. You'll find that much of the wealth is coming from grass and the grazing of it with sheep or cattle.

Today, with your mind on "ringing the bell" with wheat or cotton, you may have forgotten that grazing, like interest, works while you sleep.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

These are busy days on the farm. Cotton gathering, maize heading and cutting feed keep the men busy. Mothers are getting the children ready for school, canning the late vegetables and feeding the hungry workers.

I have often thought it was harder to gather a poor crop than a good one. Sorry feed and cotton are an aggravation to handle and your mind is full of fear and worry for the needs of the family and the stock when winter comes and there is no feed for the stock.

I can think of nothing better this week than to share with you a pamphlet I found while in Tennessee. I hope it gives you a comfort in the sad, terror-stricken times that it has me. I read it over and over.

It is entitled, "The Cause of the World's war can be summed up in one word Godlessness" by Penn reporter.

One Solitary Life

Here is a man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another village. He worked in a carpenter shop until he was grown, and for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book, he never held an office. He never owned a horse. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put his feet inside a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place he was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but himself.

While yet a young man the popular opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. He was turned over to

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

Shows some letters from the Floyd County Hesperian published in September, 1925.

(Issue of September 24, 1925)

All known September rainfall records of Floyd county have been shattered with the falling of six months supply—12 inches—of rain within the past twenty days. The 1915 September total of ten inches in a weeks time comes the nearest to equalling the recent downpour record, so far as can be ascertained. The total of this week is three inches.

New courses offered in the Floydada High school this year are as follows: shorthand, bookkeeping, second year home economics, sewing and cooking, according to the superintendent J. C. Wester.

Wilson Kimble, head of the Wilson Kimble Optical & Jewelry company, will leave Sunday for Chicago to take a post-graduate course in optometry. He will be away from home some twelve days.

Three loving cups will be awarded at the close of school this year in the commercial department by Miss Ruby Higgs, head of this department in the Floydada High school, for the best work done in this department it is announced this week.

Floyd county women's clubs are to make exhibits only at the Lubbock and Dallas fairs, according to an announcement made this week by Miss Mable Faulkner, county home demonstration agent. It has been decided not to have exhibits at the Wichita Falls and Amarillo fairs, since separate exhibits will be necessary.

From a small wooden structure employing four clerks to a fifty foot front corner brick employing twelve clerks—that is the growth in fifteen years of the Martin Dry Goods company, who last week began a party for the people, celebrating their birthday. The event is the occasion for a Big Anniversary sale from September 18 to October 5, of the store, for several years one of the big retail trade centers in this section of the plains regions.

A number of pretty, new homes have been started in Floydada during the past few days, or will be begun this week at a cost that will total some $40,000. Among these are the following: The W. Edd Brown residence at the intersection of South Main and Crockett streets; on East Crockett street, Dr. W. M. Houghton is just completing extensive remodeling and additions to his residence which have made it over into an airplane bungalow.

Builders have practically completed the R. E. Fry building in the Barker addition. Other buildings contemplated are the E. C. Sarginer, Ford Butler and W. F. Daily constructions.

Tuesday morning at breakfast time Mr. and Mrs. James W. Jones of northwest Floydada were given the scare of their lives when lightning struck their home, tore holes in the ceiling, and above and below two windows and tossed their twin sons into the middle of their little bed. Miraculously neither baby was injured. The lightning tore a hole in the ceiling, set fire to the paper on the wall, tore a hole over the east window of their home and two under it. It then jumped across the room and tore two holes above and below the west window. The children were within a foot of the east window.

With foreign dictators at war with decency—slaughtering the innocent and filling the world with hate, it is evident that if we wish the present type of society to survive and to improved along Democratic lines, we must, as a people, pay due attention to the religious education of our youth.

Religion is the only foundation upon which liberty and Democracy can be maintained. We thank God we are Americans, living under a Democracy that has built the greatest religious, industrial and peace-loving nation in the world—the envy of every other country on earth—where the Child of Bethlehem has more worshippers than ever before.

Scientific dogmatism and all the other isms used by the world leaders in seeking material power and success find—"The Cross of Jesus a Stumbling Block."

Napoleon had the world at his feet for four years, and when he died the world was going on as if he had never lived. No king, czar, or man has ever been able to approximate the perfection of the doctrine laid down by Jesus in "His Sermon on the Mount" when he uttered this doctrine 2000 years ago.—He spoke the truth has proven true through the centuries since, and will be true eternally.

When the clatter of Arab steeds ridden by conquerors in silence—the patter of the footsteps of the common donkey ridden by Jesus will continue to sound through the whole world, and Jesus will remain the one power of God unto salvation to those who will receive Him. For without God there is no lasting solution to any problem.

Floydada Upsets A Favored Slaton Team Friday By 14-0

Lider And Golightly Make The Counters; Slaton Fails To Click

The thing "that just couldn't happen" happened Friday night when a Slaton Tiger team, favored by two touchdowns over a green and unproven Floydada eleven, fell victim to the Whirlwinds running and passing attack and were upset by a 14 to 0 score.

The Whirlwinds showed a spark of midseason football at times and again looked pretty bad to the fans but the final score was in their favor and the score indicates almost exactly the difference in offense and defense of the two teams.

The first string backfield of Lider, Golightly, Patterson and Rushing worked with a will. Lider showed perhaps the best defensive game since he has been playing on the Floydada team and his offensive play was good. Golightly backed up the line and collected his share of tackles and handled the ball with plenty of zip, most of his power was thrown at the center of the line. Patterson, a second string back last year, broke into the limelight with some excellent broken field jaunts and pass snagging. Rushing played heads up defensive ball and accounted for two intercepted passes, as well as carrying out his blocking and tackling assignments.

The Floydada line looked good, considering the earliness of the season. Perhaps the bright spot was the fine defensive play of Frankie Jones at end who caused the Tigers no small amount of trouble on their end sweeps. More than once he broke up the three man interference out in fresh and George Fry Lider came in to dump the ball carrier.

Johnson played a strong game at center and backing up the line in spite of his light weight.

Here's The Story

Slaton kicked to Floydada with Lider taking the boot on his 15 yard line and returning to the 35. Lider smashed right tackle for 5. Golightly swung around left end to the Slaton 46. Lider lost 4, and attempted pass by Lider was intercepted on the Floydada 45 to halt the Whirlwinds.

Slaton opened up their bag of passing tricks and on the first play passed for a first down on the Floydada 35, a line play picked up nothing, a pass fell incomplete but Floydada was penalized for offside. Two line plays brought a first down on Floydada's 22. A line play failed and a pass fell incomplete and Slaton penalized 15 yards for holding. An attempted pass by Slaton was intercepted by Rushing on Floydada 20.

Lider made 5 and Golightly picked up a first down on his 32. Floydada fumbled and Slaton took the ball on the Floydada 35 to again try for pay dirt.

Slaton pass fell incomplete, a line play failed to work, another pass missed, and then Slaton gained 1 yard at the line and the ball went over on downs to Floydada on the Floydada 34.

Lider swung around right end for 1. Golightly smashed his guard for 3 and then carried again around left end for 4. Golightly kicked out on the 50.

Slaton took the ball and Mudgett took a pass from Scott on the Floydada 29 and was dumped by Patterson. Slaton was penalized for offside on the next play drove to the Floydada 6 yard line. Floydada recovered a Slaton fumble to halt this scoring threat on their own 8. Golightly make 2 and Lider kicked out on his 45.

Again confident of their ability to bang down the ears of the Whirlwinds the Tigers shifted to a ground game and made 4 at left tackle and drove to a first down. Another line play gained nothing and Slaton was penalized for offside. Floydada then took an offside penalty. Slaton pass incomplete, a rush at right guard netted 2 and Slaton again netted an offside penalty, a pass fell incomplete, a rush at right tackle gained 2 and another try at left tackle gained only 3 and the ball went over on downs.

Lider swung wide around right end for 3. Lider quick kicked to the Slaton 30.

Deep in their own territory for the first time Slaton lost 5 on a fumble, a pass went incomplete, a try at center failed to gain, and the Tigers kicked to the Floydada 45.

Trying their passing game, the Whirlwinds failed to connect in three tries so Lider kicked to the Slaton 47.

Slaton tied the air for no gain and Floydada recovered a fumble on the next play to take over on their own 45.

Lider failed to go, Patterson carried for no gain at right end. A lateral from Lider to Golightly to Tyler gained 15 yards and set the Whirlwind to spinning. Lider passed to Patterson who was downed on the Slaton 9. Lider carried to the 1, and then ripped around right end for the touchdown with Golightly blocking out the Slaton half back. With Golightly holding, Lider kicked the extra point. Floydada 7, Slaton 0.

The half ran out with Slaton trying to gain through the land and then again trying their air attack but failing to score.

Second Half
The third quarter was scarcely three minutes old until Floydada had put the ante at 14 to 0 with some excellent running.

Floydada kicked to Slaton on their own 26. A play at left tackle gained 3, another try at the line failed to gain, a pass fell wide, and Slaton kicked to the Floydada 40.

Thirsting for another counter the Floydada machine began to percolate again. Patterson slipped around right end to the Slaton 40 and Golightly repeated at left end to run to the Slaton 20. Lider failed to gain. Patterson went around right end for 5. Lider waded through the Slaton line to the 6. Lider tried left tackle for 1. Golightly banged right guard for 2. Lider repeated the procedure for 2 more and then Golightly sped around right end for the second touchdown. Lider kicked goal. Floydada 14, Slaton 0.

Following that spurge Floydada settled down to a strong defensive game and allowed their attack to return to standard "play safe" attempts. More than once during the remainder of the third and fourth quarter Slaton drove deep into Floydada territory with a renewed running and a better passing combination but were always turned back by the good defensive game of Floydada.

Substitutions were made in the last few minutes but Floydada was beginning to show a return to offensive when the whistle ended the game. The 1938 game which Floydada lost to Slaton had been revenge by a 14 to 0 victory, a pleasant surprise and a great upset.

Other than the boys named earlier in the story the whole Floydada line and backfield turned in a sturdy defensive game and a good offensive game.

Floydada and Lockney

Two of the upper bracket clubs lost and two of the "unknowns" won. The upper bracket clubs, Matador and Paducah, picked tough customers and lost while Floydada and Lockney, "unknowns," picked rough customers and won.

Floydada looked good against Slaton but not good enough to annex any district titles, nor did they look invincible, in fact at times Slaton made things look mighty dark for the home club.

Lockney evidently found things to their liking because they cut down the Friona team 33 to 0 and the folks said it could have been 66 to 0 just as easy. The Longhorns have a well balanced ball club and it would be no huge surprise here if they kept their district title, although all hands agree that if they do there will be some hard battles ahead.

Pick Your Limb Boys

Predictions made by this corner last week were consigned to the "dead" box due to a scarcity of space but perhaps this week our prognostications will appear.

Don't look now but Lockney's Longhorns will fall victim to the Olton Mustangs by a small margin probably 19 to 13. If they beat Olton, and they might, the Longhorns will be No. 2 choice for district champions.

Still sizzling from the victory over Rule, the Spur Bulldogs will get dog-tagged by Snyder 35 to 6. The Dogs ain't got the stuff yet... but watch them when the games start counting.

The Jackrabbits of Ralls should have started their season last week if they wanted to begin the season with a win. Littlefield will swamp them 37 to 0.

Crosbyton is still sore from their defeat at Seagraves and will bow up and snap off Post (mebby) 13 to 6.

Don't give Tulla any points and pick Floydada because the Hornets are buzzing again, already shooting for a regional title, and defeating Paducah was a good job so in spite of "want to" we must predict that Tulla will defeat the Whirlwinds.

with a varied running and passing attack by 21 to 13... revenge will be sour grapes here since Tulla is due to do the revenging.

Matador will snap off Silverton easy enough by a score of 25 to 6. The Matadors still have the men and material but they lacked the "oomph" against Crowell.

Last but not least Texas Mines will scrap Texas Tech's cocky crew by a touchdown. Tech hasn't the power and stuff that took them to the cotton bowl last year.

And if that isn't enough limbs to crawl out on at one time... there just ain't any more.

Just to make the prediction business a cinch, we pick Texas Tech to drop two games this year. Hardin-Simmons to lose 1 and tie 1, TCU to lose 1 and tie 1, West Texas to win all but two, anyone except Amarillo to win the District 1-AA crown.

Another south Texas team will win the state high school title. Wellington will not win regional again and probably not even bi-district... Tulla will probably win their district again.

The Arkansas Razorbacks may win the Southwestern conference crown, but since our sympathies and hopes are not with them we hate to predict that they will... rather we lean to SMU, Rice, or A & M take your pick (TCU in second place no matter who cops the title).

FloMot Here

Believe-it-or-don't-but on September 29 the FloMot Longhorns will come to town to take a try at spanking the Whirlwinds for the third time in a row... and since the Winds are adverse to being spanked by the Longhorns or any other team in these New Nited states, it is indeed probable that FloMot and Floydada will provide one of the best games of the year.

The FloMot boys have a new coach and also do not have Red Amonett, so Floydada fans can breathe some easier, but not because about 30 rough and rowdy boys answered the call to arms at FloMot and they had much rather plaster a defeat on the Class A Whirlwinds than win their Class B conference, which they are picked to do.

Mrs. P. G. Stegall spent from Saturday afternoon until Monday in Amarillo visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Williamson and Mr. Williamson.

Dr. and Mrs. Poole Honored At Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Poole Friday evening honored their only son, Dr. Warren Poole, and his wife of Oklahoma City, on their first wedding anniversary. A barbecue and picnic supper was served on the lawn to more than 150 guests at the VT ranch home of the Poles.
The spacious lawn about the home furnished the setting for a very enjoyable evening. As a special favor to the daughter-in-law, who had never seen the old dances, old-fashioned square dancing held first place in the program of entertainment. A platform built especially for the purpose with a string orchestra was used.

The picnic supper was served from tables arranged on the back lawn under the trees with several neighbors assisting the hostess in serving the barbecue and an abundance of other edibles. Partners for the supper were chosen in amusing manner, all gentlemen being required to shake hands with three ladies. The third was his partner.
Mrs. Alice Walker of Oklahoma City, mother of Mrs. Warren Poole, was among the guests.
More than 150 persons signed the unique register cleverly arranged by Mrs. T. J. Boyd, B. B. Gulley officiated at the square dances.
Dr. and Mrs. Poole were here for only a brief stay, returning to their home on Monday. Dr. Poole there is an assistant in surgery at a clinic, where he is doing work looking toward a master's degree from the University of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia.

Whirlwinds

 scared the "gizzard" out of the Tigers last week. Rushing, a Fairview boy who played his first football game last week, likely will continue his hard blocking for the other three backs, taking only occasional turns at carrying the mail. Last week Rushing stopped two Slaton drives with intercepted passes and it is probable that he will do the same against Tulsa.

The Floydada line played a whale of a game against the Tigers. Jones, regularly at guard, was shifted to end and played havoc with the Slaton end sweeps. Tyler played a good game but lacked his usual zip because of a sinus attack over Friday before the game.

The two big tackles, Patterson and Turner, did themselves proud but injured back and may not open already a better than average tackle. He will likely take over "Big Foot's" spot and it is probable that no one will be able to tell the difference.

Pickens and Hinson, guards de-luxe, caused plenty of misery for Slaton and will probably cause Tulsa no end of grief. Crawford can fill in at either guard in case of injury and Friday night there seemed to be no noticeable difference on defense.

James "Alice" Johnson, 140 pounds of center, played a good offensive and a great defensive game against Slaton and will figure to start against any team as long as he is on his feet.

The boys mentioned above proved a potent and unattractive dose for the Tigers and it might turn the trick against the Insects but the defense and offense needs a lot of polish and oiling before it stands a good chance of dropping the Tulsa boys.

Dealers To Know All About 1940 Chevrolet Oct. 10; Show Oct. 14

Dealers over the United States will know all about the new Chevrolet on October 10 and will make their initial showing of the new model on October 14.

Conner Oden, manager of Oden Chevrolet company, city, will attend a gathering of Chevrolet dealers on October 10 when they and their salesmen will be shown and told about the new model. Mr. Oden said this week.

Meanwhile there is much activity in the Chevrolet agencies this week. Monday he, in company with Roy Ables of Ralls, and R. E. Campbell of Matador, attended a Chevrolet dealers in Amarillo where they talked dealer problems in connection with the new model. Friday night of this week Oden and members of his sales force will be guests at a meeting where they will be entertained for outstanding records made in used car sales during the month of August.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wakefield and son, Bobbie Clint, left Saturday morning for Midway where they will spend a week on a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Forester and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Wakefield.

Rev. Pittman To Enter U. Of Chicago Sept. 27

Riley Herman Pittman, for the past three months minister of the First Christian church here, left Tuesday. He will visit his parents at Haskell and spend some time at the Texas Christian university at Fort Worth before going to Chicago where he will enter the University of Chicago, September 27. He plans to continue his work at the University in the field of religious education.

Rev. Pittman arrived in Floydada the last week in June to assume the duties as pastor here in the absence of the former pastor Gordon G. Voight. He completed his work Sunday night and his parting message was entitled, "The Great Affirmation," taken from the scripture Romans 1:16.

The plans of the church are indefinite at this time as to the return of Rev. Voight who is Chaplain of the Citizen's Conservation Corps of Southwestern Texas and New Mexico with headquarters at Fort Bliss.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bishop and daughter, Howell Sue, returned to their home in Dallas Sunday. Mrs. Bishop and daughter had been here several weeks on a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Houghton, and Mr. Bishop came over the week-end for his family.

FORMER DISTRICT HEALTH NURSE IS INJURED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Mrs. Patricia Martin, of Clovis, formerly connected with the district health unit in Floydada, was slightly injured in an automobile accident Monday evening on the highway four miles west of Crowell. Mrs. Martin was enroute to Clovis from Dallas when the accident occurred, damaging her car to the extent of around $450.

In a telephone conversation with Mrs. Maud Merrick, Mrs. Martin related her injuries were not serious and she was able to continue her trip on to Clovis by bus. She will return through here in about ten days and visit with friends she said as she goes for her car.

Mrs. Martin is connected with a health unit with headquarters in Clovis in duties similar to which she held with the district unit located in Floydada before the first of September.

Rising Cost Of Living The Cause And Cure

A few days ago sugar looked like a drug on the market, only a few weeks ago pork and other meats were dropping steadily in price while officials worried. Wool also was falling on the market and failed to bring any price to arouse interest. Wheat which 10 days ago sold for 55 cents has jumped to 77 cents per bushel... and all this just because of a war in Europe, several thousands of miles away.

The agriculture department has notified other branches of the government that there are ample supplies of agriculture products for this nation and that there is no apparent need for such drastic price jumps. The government maintains that there is ample cotton, wheat, meats, and other goods and food-stuffs to take care of any need that may arise.

It is believed unlikely that the government will take a hand to halt "profiteering" until parity prices are reached, possibly the "parity" prices will be $1.12 for wheat, 81 cents for corn, 15.6 cents per pound for cotton, $9.10 per hundred on hogs.

BEAR GRASS ROOT TEA AIDS AS CURE OF RHEUMATISM

A rheumatism remedy that grows wild in West Texas and is so reasonable in cost as to make it within the reach of every sufferer from rheumatism, is recommended by S. E. Taylor of southeast Floyd county. The potion is a tea made from the roots of bear grass. "Lots of folks I know have tried it and it has done them good," said Mr. Taylor. One of his neighbors who drank three cups a day of this grass root tea recovered in three weeks.

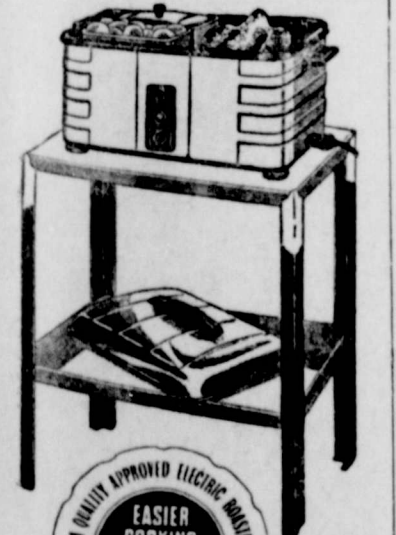

Mrs. Geo. L. Fawver left the latter part of last week for Clark, Missouri, where she will visit relatives at her former home. She will also visit in Iowa and at St. Louis before her return home within about 30 days.

FOR MEN ONLY

You like broiled steaks... you like tender roasts with potatoes, fool in fact, we like just good food, don't we?

Here's a tip. Surprise the Missus with an Everhot Roaster. She'll take a new lease on life because it's so easy for her to cook the foods you like. It's a sure way to get out—and stay out—of the doghouse and have better foods, too, with an Everhot Roaster.

EASIER COOKING
EASIER LIVING
LOOK FOR THIS SEAL

Inasmuch as the roaster was your idea, you (or the Missus) can't grumble about the price. It's a regular $29.40 value for only $19.95—complete with Broiler, Glass-Bake dishes (she'll love 'em) and table. Or if the Missus has you on a budget, you can pay only $1.95 down and two dollars a month.

Dougherty News

DOUGHERTY, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Bill Norman entertained Tuesday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock honoring her little son, Weems, on his eighth birthday. At the close of a number of games, directed by Mrs. Norman refreshments of sandwiches, punch, ice cream and cake were passed to Bobby and James Brownlow, Don and Emilee McNeese, Geneva Carmack, Frances Foster, Winnie Sue Robinson, Kenneth Ring, Maurice and Edsel Ford, Junius Robinson, Genelle Norman, and the honoree, Weems Norman.

Leaves For Dallas

Mrs. J. H. Freeman in company with Bob Owens left Friday for Dallas to be at the bedside of her little granddaughter, Delores Howard, who has been critically ill in a hospital for the past 10 days. Delores, who is suffering from encephalitis, a rare disease, is said to be holding her own this mid-week. A consultation of 20 specialists were called in Saturday of last week to see the little girl and a special serum, said to be four times as strong as human blood, is being administered this week in an effort to combat the malady.

At Mineral Wells

John R. Mayo who has spent the past three weeks in a Dallas hospital was able to come to Mineral Wells over the week-end, and will spend some time there before he will sufficiently improve to return to his home here. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Mayo, who have been visiting with him here left Tuesday for Mineral Wells and will remain with their son there for some time.

Church News

Plots Show Land Use to Co. Farmers

Various Experiments Point Way To Better Methods Of Watering

(By D. F. Bredthauer)
Floyd county irrigation farmers from 13 communities gathered at the Texas Agricultural Experiment station at Lubbock, September 8 at 10 a. m. for the first of a series of meetings which have been arranged by the Floyd County Land Use Planning committee for the purpose of setting up profitable irrigation demonstrations in all of the irrigated communities of the county. In the Land Use Planning bulletin, irrigation was listed as one of the major problems and the recommendations made by the Land Use Planning committee were that the farmers cooperate with the county agricultural agent and study experiment station records which are emitted from the Lubbock and Iowa park station.

When and How
In the practice of irrigation it is a known fact that just to apply water during the dry season will not always complete the job satisfactorily. The first thing which always confronts an irrigation farmer is the proper tillage for preparing seed bed and if an abundant crop is to be harvested year in and year out, the land must be supplied with food material. The third problem is when and how to irrigate. These are the three subjects which were studied by Floyd county farmers led by D. F. Bredthauer, county agricultural agent, with Don Jones, superintendent of the experiment station, discussing the experiments which were in progress.

The first demonstration visited was a field of some eight different kinds of sorghums: milo, kafir, hegar, dwarf milo, yellow milo, wheatland milo, quadroon, redtop, and other crosses of milo. Each of these plots was planted on June 12, and each was irrigated on June 7, June 27 and August 19. This test was for the purpose of bringing out which one of the sorghums was the most abundant yielding crop for ensilage, and it was astonishing to see how the common redtop cane was producing with respect to the other sorghums. This brings out the fact that each year farmers are interested in new varieties of milo often-times overlooked an abundant producer for the sole reason that redtop is too common a crop. In this demonstration redtop was not only brought to the attention of the farmers, but authorities have this as being the number one crop insurance sorghum for West Texas.

The second demonstration visited was a pasture demonstration of buffalo grass. In 1937 one acre of ground was planted with three inch cubes of female buffalo grass in three foot centers. This demonstration was irrigated and in 1938 these plantings had covered the ground. Mr. Jones related that at present he was unable to say whether the irrigation of buffalo grass would amount to the yield of sudan but that it was a definite known fact that with the irrigation of buffalo grass farmers would receive both early and late grazing. In connection with this demonstration, it was brought out that pastures every so many years need rejuvenating at the roots of the native grasses press rather deep into the soil and when lited on the contour pronounced results can easily be seen the first year.

While going through the fields another interesting fact was discovered. During the past few years Texas has almost lost her sudan seed market due to the fact that Johnson grass has infested this crop and as the seed is very closely related, experiment stations have tried crossing sudan with other sorghums with the idea of getting a dark colored seed, reddish and black in color, so that sudan can easily be distinguished from Johnson grass. In this demonstration it was interesting to note the different crosses and with this thought in mind it is believed that another very interesting problem might be solved. This step goes further than what might be termed beyond standards of human intelligence as can be seen by the fact that cattle were allowed to graze the various crosses to see which cross or type the cattle would relish and it was interesting to note how some of the crosses were grazed two or three times lower to the ground than other crosses.

Alfalfa Interests Farmers
It was interesting to see how the Floyd county farmers lingered before the five alfalfa demonstration plots. Under this demonstration the management of the experiment farm was trying to bring out when to irrigate—before or after cutting—and the use of superphosphate at the rate of 200 pounds per acre. To date five cuttings have been taken from these plots. Each of these plots cover 1/2 acre of land. The plot irrigated after cutting produced 5728 pounds of hay, one plot irrigated before cutting produced 6112 pounds, another plot irrigated after cutting produced 4700 pounds, another plot irrigated before cutting produced 5195 pounds, while the plot irrigated after cutting and to which 200 pounds of superphosphate had been added produced 5406 pounds of hay. It is the opinion of Mr. Jones that alfalfa in Floyd county should be supplied with at least 200 pounds of superphosphate. Each of these irrigations received two inches of water per irrigation. The grazing of alfalfa for dairy cattle offers some possibilities; however, to overcome the troubles of bloating it is recommended that cattle receive dry feed each morning before being turned out on the alfalfa field.

It could hardly be said an irrigation farm is complete without some area being devoted to alfalfa—not only from the standpoint of feed production or crop insurance. Under the land use planning program, it is recommended that on an average size farm of the irrigation unit consisting of 225 acres, that 25 acres be devoted to legume crops and 5 to 15 acres of this land be used for alfalfa. At present it is a tendency of farmers to have too many acres devoted to this crop, and as this is a crop which needs much attention and is a rather expensive crop, it is recommended that a few acres are more economical to handle than large acreage as this might prove unprofitable due to the fact that it is a rather bulky crop to store and sometimes this market is not as steady as others.

Under proper irrigation six cuttings per acre can be taken and it is recommended that the first cutting not be taken until 25% of the field is in bloom. This is recommended as in the prolongation of the first cutting a greater crown growth will be stimulated, the remainder of the cuttings should be taken when 15% of the plot is in bloom.

However, again, it is well to leave a small cover on the field for winter protection after the last cutting. With reference to seeding, the seed should be inoculated which is a small expense and will always help the plants in collecting nitrogen and have more nodules on the plant.

To determine the value of when and how often to irrigate was the thing which was brought out in five plantings of hegar. Each of the five plots was planted on May 28 and each was of the same seed. Three acre inches of water was applied in March to plot number one and for the past three years this plot has averaged 24 bushels per acre. Plot number two received two irrigations: one in March and one in July; the average for three years for this method or irrigation was 47 bushels per acre. Plot number three was irrigated three times: March, July, and August and over a three year period produced 53 bushels per acre. Plot number four was irrigated two times: once in March, another in April and on a three year average produced 33 bushel per acre. Plot number five received no irrigation, was grown under dryland conditions, and during the three year average produced 21 bushels per acre.

In each of these demonstrations where water was applied before planting or in March a very marked increase in yield was received. It was also noticed that where water was applied during the middle of July and August that a very large yield was attained. From these demonstrations it seems likely that the proper time to irrigate hegar would be before planting and during July. Hegari is a crop which should be planted late, however not later than May 26 under average conditions so that the crop will come into maturity during September or at the time of equinox.

Irrigating Cotton
Under the same method of irrigation, the irrigation of cotton also offers a very interesting story. However it must be remembered that the Lubbock Agricultural Experiment station is located in a type of soil which is known as the cotton and grain sorghum area and is different somewhat from the wheat and grain sorghum area of which the major part of Floyd county consists. It must be remembered that the planting dates are different but the fundamental type of work will hold true. In speaking of irrigation, it should be remembered that Lubbock county carries 70 to 90 pounds per acre on an average more than Floyd county farms. On five cotton demonstrations to determine of the value of when and how to irrigate the following results were obtained:

Plot number 1, no irrigation, on a three year average produced 325 pounds per acre; plot number two, irrigated in March, before planting, on a three year average produced 372 pounds per acre; plot number three, irrigated in March and April, on a three year average produced 408 pounds per acre; plot number four, irrigated in March and July, on a three year average produced 430 pounds per acre; plot number five, irrigated in March, July and August, on a three year average produced 503 pounds per acre.

Each of these plots was planted on May 26 and it has been very forcibly brought out in these demonstrations that it is very profitable to irrigate once or twice in late March and April and to plant during the middle of May. Irrigation should be applied during blooming time. It should also be remembered that it usually takes 55 days from a white bloom to open boll. It must also be remembered that very few cotton blooms mature after August 10th and due to early frost the plant will result in bollies or low grade of cotton. Watering does not make length of staple but makes the staple stronger.

The row crop demonstration on the experiment station farm thoroughly demonstrated that best results are obtained where water is applied before planting and where a good bottom season has been stored. Mr. Jones states that 3 acre inches of water at the Lubbock station will penetrate from 18 to 36 inches. County Agricultural Agent D. F. Bredthauer states that on an average of Floyd county irrigation farms water rarely penetrates below 10 inches and he suggests that every irrigation farmer should prepare for himself a ground auger and test his fields after every irrigation to determine depth of penetration. One reason that we do not have as deep a penetration in this county as they do in other counties is that we have a soil that is of a tighter nature and another reason is the method employed in tillage and preparing seed beds.

For a deeper penetration so as to store up sufficient moisture with irrigation it is recommended that 10 to 12 inch chisels be used. This size can be economically operated with the present owned machinery. One reason that so few benefits are received from irrigation during the summer months is that it must be remembered that one inch surface moisture will not only last about 10 days. In irrigation it is not a question of how much water can be used but how you use it for crop insurance. Only so much water can be taken up by the soil and authorities tell us that soils have about 25% saturation or this is what is usually figured.

Another suggestion which has proved very successful is that rows should be on a slope of one inch to every 100 feet and the maximum length of an irrigation row should never be over 200 feet and this also applies to the borders.

In speaking of irrigation it must be remembered that as irrigation grows older on the farm our lands become more depleted and there will be more plant diseases, molds, and insects and we must think in terms of putting plant food back into the soil and it would be well for us to think in terms of disease and insect control program also, the farm experts pointed out.

WESLEY PHARR, BROTHER OF MRS. C. L. BERRY ILL

Mrs. C. L. Berry left Monday for Wolfe City after receiving a telegram telling of the serious illness of her brother Wesley Pharr. The message stated his illness was due to lockjaw and that little hope for his recovery was held.

Mr. Pharr, with his parents was a former resident of the McCoy community.

Captain T. M. Wiley of Waco, connected with the Veteran's Administration, was a business visitor in Floydada Friday. While here he was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGuire. Captain Wiley was captain of the troop in which Mr. McGuire was a member during the World war.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kirk left Monday morning for Canyon where their daughter, Marjorie, will enroll in West Texas State Teachers college for the 1939-40 year.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for September 24, 1939.

Isaiah: Foretelling the Birth of the Messiah King.

Golden Text: "His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." (Isaiah 9:6).

Lesson Text: Isaiah 7:14; 9:1-7; 11:1-5.

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

4 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

5 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the Lord; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

Introduction
In this lesson we are to study not only the miracle of prophecy, but the prophecy concerning the world's greatest miracle. Miraculously Isaiah was shown the miracle of Jesus' birth, if we can speak of it in such terms. Looking at it from a human standpoint, a child being born of a virgin, it was a great miracle; but looking from the standpoint of the Divine, it was carrying out the natural order of ushering in the second dispensation. There was no human language nor figure of speech that could fully express the fact which Isaiah was foretelling, for human minds were impotent to understand a transaction which was so divine.

Isaiah was trying to prepare the people for Christ's coming by putting them in the expectation for His coming. He bared His coming upon their needs and God's promise; and gave the fact of His miraculous birth as a sure and unmistakable sign that He was the Messiah.

THE HESPERETTE

Future Farmers Objectives For Year Are Announced

The Floydada chapter of the future farmers of America have been working out their objectives for the coming year and their program of work.

The objectives are: give the home ec girls a party; display educational booth each month; have project show fair; show agricultural pictures twice per month; send delegates to all F. F. A. conventions; have father and son banquet; have joint meeting with F. H. T.; make a scrapbook; improve classroom; have an F. F. A. program once a month; put on radio program;

Have a news article each week in the Hesperette; sponsor judging contests; attend Fort Worth Fat Stock show; sponsor a pest ratification contest;

Feed out animal for co-operative class; 95 percent of boys earn certificate of merit; 100 percent membership have a project marker; exhibit livestock at Junior Fat Stock show at Lubbock;

Develop at least two Lone Star farmers; have at least one project tour; at least 25 percent of boys attend summer encampment; chapter be best in state.

Judging from the interest and enthusiasm of the membership, the Future Farmers will put over a real program of work this year.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Here we are again, the Fish of 1939-40. We have managed to struggle through another week of school without quite so many errors, although we are far from understanding it all.

This week the class is ready to give out the news about who belongs to what organizations. The freshmen named may not be permanent members of the organizations but they have joined and a rough estimate of class talent can be made.

The band list contains the following "Fish":

Netha Denson, Frances Keim, Evelyn Elliott, Dorothy Tye, Sammie McCleskey, La Juana Leibfried, Kenneth Johnston, Gene Collins and Wade Pelps.

In the glee club are Billie Johnson, Edna Patterson, Estelle Fuqua, Sharon Fuqua, Joye Ward and Ruth Hamilton.

It seems the freshman class this year is more eager than the preceding classes to have a well written Hesperette. The "Fish" who hope to report are Joye Ward, LaJuana Leibfried, Frances Keim, Sharon Fuqua, Dorothy Tye, Evelyn Elliott, Netha Denson, Kenneth Johnston and De Winn Fyffe.

The masculine side of the freshman class is interested in athletics. However, at this time, the press club is unable to announce any athletes. Speaking as a class member, most of us are as green as Robin Hood's Merry Men ever dared to be, but it is believed that when we become acclimated, FHS will find that we are a willing class and in many ways, able.

MUSICAL NOTES

Band students, one and all, received a big thrill when Mr. Camp announced that the band had received an invitation to attend the Tri-State fair at Amarillo on September 22.

Of course, everyone was in favor of the trip and to top it off, it was revealed that the band will give a concert on radio station K. G. N. C. from 3:45 to 4 o'clock.

The band will then journey back to Tulla for the football game Friday night, where they will play.

Mr. Camp has selected Howard Merry for drum major and he will do all the signal work as soon as he learns the routine. He will also do some twirling. New uniforms have been ordered for the twirlers and it is hoped that the drum major will also have a new uniform.

Another bit of glad news was received when it was announced that the new instruments are expected this week. This will almost complete the instrumentation.

Slaton's 65-piece band was here for the game last week and presented a flag ceremony before the game; they also did some splendid marching at the half.

The band is now working on some new steps for marching and it is thought that they will be very successful when they have been practiced a little more.

PRESS CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The Press club met Monday afternoon and elected officers. Mary Frances McRoberts, editor, presided at the meeting. Miss Aileen McIntyre, a senior in high school, who is dependable and talented, was elected president.

Donald Cornelius, a junior, who is always ready to do what is assigned to him, was elected vice-president. All of the members of the Press club think there is none better than Donald.

La Nell Harmon, also a senior, who has a grand disposition, will fill the position of secretary-treasurer.

Jennie Lou Harper, of the class, who has worked diligently on the paper this year was elected reporter for the Press club.

The meeting dates of the club are set for every Friday afternoon at 3:15.

Home Ec Officers Elected Monday

The Home Economics club met Monday, September 18, and elected officers for this year.

All officers elected were nominated by a nominating committee except the secretary who was elected from the floor.

Lovelle Ginn was elected president, and is a third year club girl. Jean Sims who is a second year club girl was elected vice president.

Yvonne Hale was elected secretary. Verona Miller as treasurer, Jennie Lou Harper as parliamentarian, and Aileen McIntyre who has done remarkable work as last year's scrap book was elected historian.

These officers will serve to the very best of their ability and will expect the cooperation of all the club members.

GREEN PEPPERS

The Whirlwinds started off with a bang Friday night by beating Slaton Tigers for the first time since 1937. Boy, are we ever proud of them. We are planning big on them doing the same thing at Tulla.

The three pep rallies last week end must have helped a little anyway.

Thursday evening at 7:30 the pep squad, after yelling a few yells, with the band marched to the biggest bon fire Floydada has had in centuries. Everyone was filled with joy and was glad to be there rooting for the Whirlwinds. Marching back to Martin's corner Ruth led them in a snake march.

Friday afternoon they had a very successful pep rally in assembly. La Nell started it off in a big way by asking Mr. Travis, "What chances he thought we had for winning district," and you know what he can do for you. He said, "We have every chance in the world to win."

He also introduced the football captains, George Fry Linder and E. L. Tyler. The latter, George Fry Linder, E. L. Tyler, Dillon Patterson, R. E. Gohligly, Emmett Hinson, and Raymond Fickes stood. The football boys going out for football stood also. The band then played "The Old Gray Mare" after which Mr. Davis said a few words. Jerra Ruth Salisbury and Mac Travis, mascots, made their first public appearance in assembly. The drum majorettes and twirlers, Ruth Simpson and Mildred Stovall twirled accompanied by the band.

The new pep sponsor, Miss McCarty was introduced and Miss Copeland and Miss McCarty also wished the team success.

LaNell then introduced the other two pep leaders, Lula Lee Teal, vice-president, and Jane Clark, secretary-treasurer. The student body was then led by them in a number of yells and songs.

One of the football boys expressed his opinion of the pep rally in assembly by saying that it made him feel like getting on top of the world.

Friday night the pep squad and band marched from town to the field stirring up their energy for the game. The pep girls were thrilled from top of their heads to the tip of their toes when the football boys started running through their arch on entering the field.

LUBBOCK BOOSTERS AT FHS

During the second period Wednesday, September 13, all classes were notified to assemble in front of the building when the bell rang. "What for?" "Wonder why?" "Who's here?" Many were the questions asked, but no one seemed to know the answer. Only one peek outside told the answer, however, for there were about a dozen men dressed in cowboy regalia at the door to greet the students, giving each one a ruler, a theater ticket, and a circular describing the midway.

The Lubbock boosters of the twenty-sixth annual Panhandle-South Plains Fair had come once again. Mark Halsey's Drug Store cowboys, with Hop himself as master of ceremonies, furnished the music.

The fair will be from Sept. 25 through the 30. Two Shetland ponies will be given away on the two school days, and four Automobiles will be given on the other days.

School children will be admitted free with tickets that can be obtained from Mr. Travis or Mr. Davis, and the band may attend one day.

PROGRESS OF GLEE CLUB

The Glee club under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Caldwell is progressing nicely. The girls have been learning some songs which are appropriate for Glee club work.

Every girl is doing her best, and cooperating with Miss Caldwell and some good material and talent is being brought to light.

The club is still open to new members, but as yet, no boys have enrolled, even though they are invited just as cordially as the girls.

Floydada Home Ec Class Invited To Area Meet

The Floydada Chapter of Future Homemakers has been invited to the area home economics meeting that will be held at Quail, September 30. Miss Mary Lee Vandiver, home economics instructor at Wellington, has written the Floydada chapter asking them to give a demonstration as 25 girls will be permitted to be played at club meetings. As many as 25 girls will be permitted to go. The meeting is a recreational meeting and playthings will be worn by all.

SENIOR NEWS

The senior class of 1939-40 is planning to make this school year one that will really count for FHS. Both senior girls and boys are prominent in all of the clubs and extra-curricular activities of the school.

The Whirlwind squad has in its line-up seven seniors; they are Emmett Hinson, Raymond Fickes, Frank Jones, George Fry Linder, James Johnston, Billy Henry and Carl Minor. These boys are doing their best to keep following the example set Friday night when the Whirlwinds set the Slaton Tigers down to the tune of "14-0."

The band is also well represented by seniors. There are about 15 who play instruments, and both twirlers, Mildred Stovall and Ruth Simpson are seniors. The newly elected drum major, Howard Merry is another senior. The three pep leaders, Lula Lee Teal, La Nell Harmon and Jane Clark are seniors as well as many members of the pep squad.

In the speech class, there are 20 seniors who are striving to improve their speaking.

Seniors are also well numbered among members of home economics and agriculture classes.

The class is starting out with plenty of vim and vigor, and they intend to keep it going. Lots of class spirit has been exerted in everything so far, and the old members are establishing a firm fellowship with the new members.

So with this attitude the class of '39-40 just can't help going places in a big way.

BIRTHDAYS

Margaret Tubbs, senior, 17—Sept. 20; Anna Jones, senior, 17—Sept. 20; Ruth Pelps, senior, 17—Sept. 20; Aaron Strickland, sophomore, 15—Sept. 18; Eula Barbee, junior, 16—Sept. 16; Elmer Norrell, senior, 17—Sept. 17.

Junior Class Elects Their 1939 - 40 Officers Monday

Monday, September 17 the junior class of 1940 had a class meeting to elect officers for the following year.

James Wester president of the class of 1939 sophomores took charge. Officers were nominated and voted upon. They are as follows: James Wester who was reelected president; vice president, Helen Powell; secretary, Martha Yearwood and reporter, Louise Willson.

Hard work is the motto of the junior class this year. The class must raise funds for junior and senior banquet. Also there will be a junior play and junior and senior follies to work on.

The sponsors of the class are Miss Howell and Mr. Russell. They sponsored the class last year but this is their first year as junior sponsors.

BACK TO SCHOOL PARTY

The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. was entertained Saturday night, September 16, at the home of Jean Sims. The party met with Selma Linder at 7 and then journeyed on out to Jean's home.

Several very enjoyable games were played and refreshments of Sandwiches, cookies and pop were served in school style to the following:

Edith Shirey, Jennie Lou Harper, Frances Jo Terrell, Maureen Hart, Evelyn Withers, Lellaface Hicks, Mattie Pearl Turner, J. L. Nickols, Donald Cornelius, M. C. Fuqua, Fred Lloyd, Bruce Foster, Beryle Bishop, Wilson Bond, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Shirey, Selma Linder, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sims and the hostess.

ASSEMBLY

The students of Floydada High school met Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. They witnessed a most unusual event; the Boy Scout Court of Honor. While the color guard, Robert Arnold, advanced with the United States flag Joe Arwine, troop bugler, played "To the Colors." The scouts, then were led by John Farris, scoutmaster in saying the scout's pledge.

Edward Wester was awarded the Eagle Badge by J. M. Willson, member of executive board of the South Plains council. The badge was pinned on Edward by his mother, Mrs. J. C. Wester.

The Bronze Palm was presented to Jimmie Willson by George A. Holand, field executive. This badge represented six months service in the troop as an Eagle Scout.

J. A. Arwine presented merit badges to the following scouts: James T. Bishop, Kenneth Bishop, Carl Arnold and Robert Arnold. J. C. Gilliam was court chairman.

absent from school Friday on account of a cold; however, she is back at her post, but is still quite weak.

Kenneth Baird Bishop was taken to the Lubbock hospital Sunday morning following an attack of infantile paralysis in the neck and shoulders. Kenneth is a member of the Hesperette staff and of the band. He is being missed by his schoolmates, who hope that he will be back in school soon.

Helen Woodward is in a Plainview hospital where she is suffering from streptococic throat. She has been absent from school almost a week, but it is hoped that she is improving. Helen is a junior and a member of the drum corps.

Robert Conner, a freshman, who has been in a Plainview hospital for the past two weeks is now back in school. He had his foot amputated after having fallen from a plow and almost cutting it off. However, he gets around quite spry on his crutches and takes his misfortune very cheerfully, aided by his many friends.

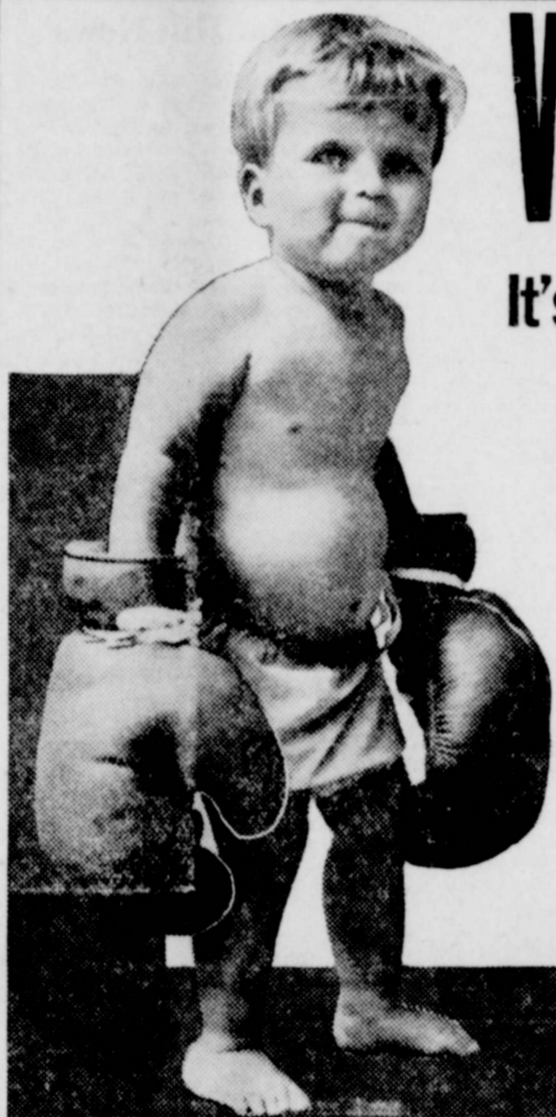

Mary Frances McRoberts, editor of the Hesperette, was ill over the week end, suffering from a cold. She is now much improved.

There seems to be an epidemic of colds and flu going around, be careful of your health. It is hoped that these ill students will soon be back in school and going strong.

ON THE SICK LIST

Several students of F H S have been ill during the last week, and some are absent from school on account of sickness.

Miss Rees, home economics teacher and sponsor of the Hesperette, was World's Champ of 1960?

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

YOUR chances of picking the future World's Heavyweight Champion, while he is still in kindergarten, are about as good as your chances of holding the winning ticket in the Irish Sweepstakes. All ring history proves that no method of selection can predict which boy today is the winning fighter of tomorrow.

But when you want a winning oil for your motor... you don't have to depend on second-sight or premonitions... you needn't be a lucky guesser. You have definite knowledge to guide your choice. Here it is:

To do away with all doubt, the great Phillips refining organization makes this straightforward statement. Frankly and without reservations. If you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer.

Yes sir, many things are hard to tell, but you can easily pick a winning oil. Just ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Nelson Asks Three Other Counties To October 5 Hearing

Interest Of Actual Land Owners At Hearing Of Vital Importance

W. H. Nelson, Floyd county chairman of soil conservation, who asked the state board of soil conservation to call a meeting in Floyd county to name a soil district in this area, has asked Briscoe, Motley and Crosby counties to have land owners here for the hearing of the local application on October 5.

The state board has indicated that the opinions of the land owners in the area will be of vital importance in connection with the hearing. They want to know what is the belief of the land holders as to the greatest value the new law can be to Texas farms and ranches. This is the information this week from the local committee, which believes that technical help in solving water and wind erosion problems of the area is greatly needed.

The meeting will be held at 2 o'clock p. m. on October 5 in the district court room in Floydada. It is hoped that at that time that the needs of the area can be co-ordinated under one head.

Frank Buckley, former county agent of Motley county, now with the state agency, will conduct the hearing here. Mr. Buckley has been an outstanding proponent of the plan to conserve soil and water supplies of the state through a co-ordinated effort.

INFANT BURIED WEDNESDAY

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stewart was buried in the Floydada cemetery at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Harmon Funeral home was in charge of the burial.

The infant was born Tuesday night at the Stewart home 15 miles northwest of Floydada.

FARMERS DAY HELD BY ROTARY CLUB WED.

Farmers Day was held at the Floydada Rotary club yesterday with County Agent D. F. Bredthauer in charge of the program. Several farmers were present for the luncheon and program.

McCoy School Briefs

Once more the Midgets of McCoy carried the colors to Starkey. Three fast and thrilling games were played by the two schools namely: baseball and volleyball and the "big" boys' basketball.

Starkey's triumphs of the evening were the baseball and volleyball games. A week ago McCoy beginners won over Starkey 16 to 8, but Starkey came back with a great revenge and the score was in their favor 22 to 2. Our boys are planning to clear themselves Friday when they meet on the home field.

The McCoy girls also lost but much improvement was noticed in both teams. We are proud of our little girls especially as this is their first year to have had any part in sports.

Our triumph came when our "big" boys beat Starkey's "big" boys 2 to 1. Only one field goal and one free pitch were made. Such was the guarding of the boys on both hard trained teams. Milton Haney was the star of the evening when he rung a long, nice field goal, that sure looked good to the McCoy boosters.

We certainly enjoyed the trip and are looking forward to another great day, here Friday. As this is to be the last games for a few weeks, we are expecting a large crowd.

We wish to thank everyone for their friendly interest and cooperation at the game and the student body of McCoy and faculty give their thanks for the favors bestowed on them through The Floyd County Hesperian.

Rushing Chapel News

DISTRIBUTING SCHOOL BOOKS

Ten thousand book covers, representing about half of the covers that will be used in Floyd county schools this year, are being distributed to Floydada and other Floyd county schools this week by Phillips Petroleum company through Clarence Guffee, county superintendent, and Walter Travis, superintendent of Floydada schools. It was announced this week by Menard Field, local Phillips products distributor.

The company similarly is furnishing book covers to schools throughout West Texas and the panhandle, Mr. Field said.

The First National Bank of Floydada and Dr. Pepper Bottling company are contributing the other covers needed in this county for textbooks.

WOMAN'S COUNCIL MET MONDAY

Woman's Council of the First Christian church met in the annex Monday afternoon for a business session with Mrs. L. H. Dorrell, presiding.

Rev. Herman Pittman instructed the council in starting a new course of study.

Concluding the meeting the council members honored Rev. Pittman with a shower before he leaves for school.

The meeting for Monday will be in the annex at 3 o'clock.

FORMER RESIDENT FLOYD CO. TO ENTER HARVARD U.

J. C. Oliver, Jr., former resident of Floydada will leave his home in San Angelo soon to enroll in Harvard university. There he will work toward his Master of Science degree in sanitary engineering.

Oliver has been employed as district health sanitarian by the State Health Department for the past four years.

Miss Elizabeth Caldwell spent Saturday in Lubbock.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. R. A. Marshall, from the southeast part of the county, underwent an appendicitis operation Monday and is thought to be improving nicely and able to be moved to her home within the next few days.

W. P. Cruse, city is in the Floydada hospital for treatment this week.

Mrs. George R. May was dismissed from the hospital Monday following a few days treatment.
