F. L. Moore Doing Well After Wreck

County Assessor And Collector Suffers From Bruises And Exposure

County Assessor and Collector Frank L. Moore this week is recovering at his home in South Floydada from injuries sustained Thursday night of last week in a highway accident.

Suffering many bruises and cuts, the county official yesterday was reported as doing well and rapidly regaining his strength.

Moore's automobile was completely wrecked Thursday night when it fell in a ravine north of Matador 1 mile, and Mr. Moore, driving alone was exposed several hours when he was thrown from the machine. Cotton pickers enroute westward found him and brought him to his home here. He was conscious but unable to help himself and asked that he be brought here, the cotton pickers said.

Yesterday from his home it was said Mr. Moore is doing well. When he will be able to report for duty at his office was not indicated. He was enroute from Matador north toward Turkey when the accident occurred.

Farm Security Office Closed For District Meeting At Plainview

The Farm Security office in the court house was closed Tuesday, and will remain closed until Saturday while officials and employees in the office attend a four-day Farm Security meeting in Plainview.

Over 100 persons are expected from District 2 for the training school which is being held in the Hilton hotel. Supervisors in the Plainview FSA office were in charge of all arrangements.

The opening session began Tuesday afternoon but all other meetings will begin at 8:30 and be closed at 5 p. m. There are 22 counties included in District 2.

L. H. Hauter, Amarillo, Region 12 director; Rex Bexter, Amarillo, state director; Ester B. Call, Amarillo, regional chief of home management; and Earl Wise and Mrs. Ruby D. Matthews, district supervisors are among those to appear on the program.

A number of field trips to the homes of FSA clients are planned along with farm problems peculiar to this section, FSA officials said.

ATTENDING STATE MEETING OF CHICK ASSOCIATION

C. B. Carmack is in San Antonio this week where he is attending sessions of the Texas Chick association. He is due home today or tomorrow.

ACCEPTS POSITION HERE

W. H. Jackson of Matador is now connected with the Wilson Kinzie Optical and Jewelry company in the watch repair department. Mr. Jackson began his duties there last week.

He and Mrs. Jackson will move here probably this week end as soon as living quarters can be secured.

Guffee Named Roll Chairman of 1939 Red Cross Drive

Clarence Guffee Monday afternoon was named chairman of the American Red Cross roll call campaign in Floydada, November 11 to November 30, in Floyd county.

Chapter committees in session with Francis Blackburn, field representative of the Southwestern division offices at St. Louis, accepted a quota of 600 members for this county, almost twice that of last year. Huge increases on the demands of the Red Cross due to war conditions in Europe have made the increased demand on Floyd county people imperative, said Miss Blackburn.

E. P. Nelson, who recently succeeded Geo. A. Luder as chairman of the Floyd county chapter, presided at the meeting.

Suffering and woe from one end of the world to the other, in addition to local service needs, have greatly increased the need for big enrollment increases in America, said the field representative. A thorough organization in the county to present the needs for Red Cross activity to its people will be effected, is the plan.

Yesterday Mr. Guffee announced the appointment of Mrs. Walton Hale as director of the roll call drive in Floydada and Mrs. Doyle Greer as director at Lockney.

Among the attractions which will be seen at the 51st Annual State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7 to 22, are the Holy Land Exhibit, Follies Bergere, the Southern Select Circus and the Rubin and Cherry Shows. Top photo shows Shirley Temple, sweetheart of the movies, as she recently opened the Holy Land Exhibit when it was presented in Hollywood. In the center photos are Leo, the lion, which grows at moving picture patrons, which will be one of the features of the Southern Select Circus, and Veronica, one of the stars of the Follies Bergere, auditorium attraction at the State Fair. In the lower photo are the famous stars of "Tiny Town Topics," midjet show on the Rubin and Cherry Midway.

Lockney Sugar Beets Will Be Used In Chemurgic Exhibit At Texas State Fair In Dallas

Complete Picture Of Sugar Beet Industry Outlined In The Fair Exhibit

Sugar beets from Lockney will be represented in the Floyd county agricultural chemurgic exhibit at the Texas State Fair at Dallas. This exhibit has been assembled and arranged by the County Agent, D. F. Bredthauer, and will show the people of Texas that Floyd county irrigation farmers are thinking in terms of proper land use planning under intensive cultivation.

The exhibit has been so arranged to give a complete picture of sugar beet production—starting with the seed, fertilizing, crop rotation, plowing, harrowing, planting, through the growing period, harvesting, shipping and storage at the plant, and follows the beets through the operation of refined sugar even showing the beets washed very clean.

The second feature shows where the beets are weighed, third, how they are cut into thin slices, fourth, how hot water soaks the sugar out of the beet slices and forms juice, fifth, shows the juice purified by lime and gas produced from limestone, sixth, shows how the purified juice is filtered, seventh, shows the juice boiled down to a heavy syrup in evaporators.

Eight, shows the vacuum pan in which the syrup is boiled until full of sugar crystals, ninth, shows how the huge centrifugal machines which the beets against a machine which filters out the syrup and holds back the pure sugar, tenth, shows how pure sugar is dried by warm air and packed in bags for home consumption.

Another interesting feature of this exhibit shows 12 by-products of sugar beets. Also, under this exhibit livestock feeding possibilities are taken up as beet pulp and molasses are excellent food for fattening cattle and lambs, how the manure goes back to the best fields as fertilizer and how the by-products of sugar beets will produce 300 pounds of dressed meat.

The last feature shows that production of sugar is not in direct competition with other commodities in the United States but that it sorbs millions of pounds of carbon dioxide.

District Court To Begin Here Mon. With Grand Jury

Heavy Criminal Docket Faces Fall Term With Number Of "Hold Overs"

The full term of district court will get under way here Monday morning when the grand jury goes into session to examine a number of cases for presentation to the court.

Approximately 15 felony indictments were continued over from last term of court. Included in these are a number of indictments resulting from alleged infractions of the gas tax exemption law. Some indictments are concerned with infractions of this law in Floyd county.

Officers expect the grand jury to return at least five other indictments on burglary, etc. when they go into session. Several of the cases due to come up will require considerable time for trial while others will be disposed of rapidly.

The civil docket is quite as heavy in proportion as the criminal docket. A large number of the civil cases are concerned with delinquent taxes but at least 45 civil matters are due to come before the court not including the delinquent tax suits.

District Judge Alton B. Chapman and District Attorney John Hamilton will be on hand early Monday morning to begin their work as will the other county officers.

Non-jury cases will likely come before the attention of the court this next week with the first jury being called during the week following. Just what weeks will be set aside for criminal work is not known at this time.

A complete docket will probably be released this next week, as is customary.

Most officials expect this to be one of the busiest terms of court in several years.

Yannigans Will Meet Floydada

Floydada Due To Be At Full Strength Again For Amarillo Boys

Amarillo's Yannigans, under-studies to the famed Amarillo Sandies, will provide the entertainment Friday night on Wester Field for the fans and the Whirlwinds. The game will be the third home game and the last non-conference game and will begin at 8 p. m.

Little has happened this week to encourage Coach Odell Winter except the fact that most of the injured men of last week are back and ready to start. The main disappointment has been the small number of boys reporting for practice. Seventeen were out Monday and about the same number Tuesday. With this slack, a few injuries in the wrong place would cancel Floydada's chances at any championship.

Just what has been the cause of the drop from 22 men reporting to 17 cannot be found but it is likely to be fatal to any championship hopes that may be held on the FHS campus or downtown. In fact it is a shame that there are so many "big" boys eligible to play in the high school lacking the spirit for "what you may call it" to play football.

In spite of the shortage of players Coach Winter has been setting up several new maneuvers to make touchdowns. Some of these plays are sweet as sugar. If they work the Whirlwinds' ace hurler, George Luder, while others, just as nifty, take advantage of the fact that Floydada has four ball-toters. Then of course the Winds have all the plays they used to a fare-thee-well against Slaton, Tulsa, and Flomot.

The Yannigans, on the other hand, topped over Farwell last week by no modest score and are aching to whirl the Whirlwinds. It is rumored about the town that Amarillo will breeze in with about 55 men, five complete teams, to do battle with the Green and White.

Of course only 11 men will play at once for each side. Amarillo will probably have a stingy defense, since the Yannigans are coached on blocking and tackling 90 per cent of the time, and excel in all phases of defensive play.

Naturally the Yannigans play hard, because next year they are just as likely to be Sandies as not, and playing AA ball against Lubbock, etc. The Yannigans never have played "Tip Toe Thru the Tulips" ball and it isn't likely that they (See YANNIGANS, page 5)

Changes In Voting Places Indicated for November 4 Election on Superintendent

Twenty-Four Voting Precincts Include Three New Ones Named

For the first time in nearly 20 years there will be no voting box house when Floyd county property tax payers ballot on the proposal of a county school superintendent.

This is occasioned by the change made last February in the voting precincts of the county. Approximately the same territory will be served by a new voting box established at Fairview. That part of Center box toward Floydada will vote at Kirk & Sons hardware store. The remaining portion of the territory heretofore served by the Center box will vote at Fairview school house.

Other changes in the voting arrangements include a box that will serve southwest Floydada at Martin & Company's store on South Main street. Voters who last year cast their ballots at the city office on West Virginia will vote this year at the county surveyor's office in the northwest basement of the court house. Other precincts in the county will cast their ballots at the usual places, including southeast Floydada at the county court room.

The special election on November 4 is occasioned by the fact that the county superintendent's office will automatically become a part of the county judge's office on January 1 unless the voters determine to have the two offices separated, and continue to maintain a county superintendent's office.

A petition filed with the commissioners last week asked for the election. Most of the petitioners indicated their desire that the superintendent's office be maintained as a separate unit.

Social Planned For District American Legion At Plainview

The Plainview American Legion will entertain the district members in a social beginning at 7:30 Thursday, October 12 at the Legion hall. W. H. Sharp, local commander said all commanders and adjutants as well as all members and their wives are asked to be present.

CHARLIE GRAHAM, BROTHER OF LINDSEY GRAHAM DIED SUNDAY AT CUSHING, OKLA.

Word was received early Sunday morning by Mrs. G. C. Edwards of Dougherty, telling of the death of her brother Charlie Graham who died at 2 p. m. Sunday of heart attack at his home in Cushing, Oklahoma.

The deceased is also a brother of Lindsey Graham of Floydada who was away on a vacation trip and could not be located. He, with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. B. Hatley are expected home today from a two weeks vacation, trip to Florida.

Mr. Graham, a resident of Cushing for many years was serving on the police force there. He and his family visited his brother here last summer and had made several trips to Floydada prior to last summer.

Mrs. Edwards and daughter Miss Mozelle and son Willard Edwards and wife left Sunday for the last rites that were held at Cushing.

W. H. (BATES) MCLUNG IS OPERATING LUNCH BOX CAFE

W. H. (Bates) McClung, former Whirlwind football player, has leased the location formerly occupied by the Penny Profit cafe on Highway 70 just east of the Jetton Oil company.

The Penny Profit was destroyed by fire earlier in the year, a new building is on the old location, and the cafe named "The Lunch Box." McClung says that the cafe will specialize on T-bone steaks and barbecue sandwiches but will serve all kinds of short orders and sandwiches.

HATLEY'S AND GRAHAM'S EXPECTED HOME TODAY FROM FLORIDA VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hatley and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Graham are expected home today from a two weeks vacation trip to Florida.

During their absence, John Allen of Chickasha, Oklahoma has been relief agent for the Western Union.

Cotton Harvest Is In Full Swing Over Floyd

According to the ginners of the county, Floyd cotton harvest is in full swing. A number of schools in the county have closed so that students might assist with the picking. Although most of them were closed for a two weeks period, several indicated that one week would be enough to get the cotton in their communities pretty well picked out.

Floydada gins were humming and late Wednesday had ginned out a little better than 600 bales total. South Plains had just got their new gin humming and the yard was full of wagons and trailers waiting to go under the suction.

Other gins over the county were also busy with the cotton pouring in. Most of the ginners expect the ginning season to be short and snappy, and all over by the time 7,000 bales are picked. Last year over 19,000 bales went under the suctions.

The weather continues dry, although the temperatures diminished and several mornings had a wintry feel. Rising temperatures have been experienced the latter part of this week. Signs of rain have been few however and the wheat farmer is still scanning a dry sky and a dryer earth.

Last Rites Today For Mrs. Mitchell At Wall St. Church

Resident Of County For 40 Years Succumbed Tuesday At Jacksboro

Funeral rites will be said this afternoon at the Wall Street Church of Christ for Mrs. Ella Davis Mitchell, resident of Floyd county since 1900. Elder O. W. Kirk will preach the funeral.

Mrs. Mitchell died Tuesday morning at 4:30 o'clock at Jacksboro where she had been living the past year and a half. Recent oil developments on land in Jack county called her attention to that section. Land which the family had owned for more than 40 years has been developed into oil producing territory in a recent period.

She had been ill since Sunday night and Mrs. S. E. Thurmon, only daughter, had been with Mrs. Mitchell since early Monday. Mrs. Mitchell was 70 years of age.

Surviving relatives include two sons, H. T. Owen of Childress, Chas. H. Owen of Jacksboro, and a daughter, Mrs. S. E. Thurmon, Floydada, also two sisters, Mrs. Lou Gravette, Floydada and Mrs. Alice Elliott, Duncan, Oklahoma. Thirteen grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren also survive.

Born in November, 1868, in Missouri, Mrs. Mitchell had been a resident of Texas since early childhood. She lived at Waco, at Bryson in Jack county and at Whiteflat before moving to Floydada about 39 years ago.

Surviving children are by her first husband, John S. W. Owen, who died in 1909. She was married to C. W. Mitchell in April of 1916.

Remains of the pioneer were brought back to Floydada Tuesday night and were held during Wednesday and this morning at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. S. E. Thurmon, pending funeral rites this afternoon.

NICE OF A. H. MANNING, RESIDENT OF FT. WORTH, DIED ON VACATION TRIP

Mrs. O. H. Jones, of Fort Worth, a niece of A. H. Manning, and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Wm. Snell, died at 1 o'clock Saturday in New Orleans, where she became ill while enroute to Florida on a vacation trip. She was sick for only two or three days and an operation was performed.

The body was returned to Fort Worth where interment was made Monday afternoon following funeral rites at 2:30. Her husband, three sons and one daughter survive, also her father, L. V. Manning, two brothers and two sisters.

NEW COOLING CASE

A new display and refrigeration case for meats was installed this week at Felton-Collins Grocery company. The new case is of bright white porcelain with black trim and is one of the most modern display and cooling cases in this area. The new equipment holds approximately the same as the old case but is considerably more handy and better looking.

Soil Hearing Begins Today At 2 o'Clock

Many Expected As Floyd,
Crosby And Briscoe Counties
Ask Area

Many Floyd, Crosby and Briscoe county farmers are expected to be present this afternoon at 2 o'clock when the State Soil Conservation board begins its into a nation-wide proposal that an area of some three counties be set up as a soil conservation district.

The hearing is to be held in the district court room. Early application for a district to be set up in Floyd county last spring was supplemented two weeks ago by Briscoe and Crosby farmers who asked in their petition that their counties be included in the area for soil and water conservation purposes.

"We are anxious that every land owner in the whole area have anything to say that he feels would be worthwhile under the soil conservation set-up," said W. H. Nelson, Floyd county chairman last week.

Who will conduct the hearing and what manner of procedure will be set up was not known locally last night here. However, it was certain, local producers felt, any angle that will add light to the needs of the area, will be gone into fully.

Frank Buckley, former county agent of Motley county, is one of the officials named by the state board in the new set-up.

That the soil conservation law in Texas, which fits into a nation-wide set-up, will have far-reaching effect on wind and erosion practices during the next several years, is certain, it appears to Floyd county farm leaders. Accordingly these are anxious that every sound suggestion be heard fully and incorporated into the report from this area.

South Side Singing At Rushing Chapel On Sunday, October 22

"Everybody Welcome" Is The Invitation From The President Faye Hart

The South Side Singing convention is scheduled to meet at Rushing Chapel in an all-day gathering on Sunday, October 22, instead of a previous announcement.

President Faye Hart is anxious to have all the singers in the county and as many visitors present as possible at the meeting, he said. Many visiting singers are expected and there will be plenty to eat, he said.

Other officers are T. J. Heard, vice-president and Miss Abbye Lee Woolsey, secretary-treasurer.

REMODEL GARAGE

Bishop Motor company was busy this week remodeling and repainting the "back shop" of their garage. The ceiling and walls were receiving a new coat of paint. Window frames were being repainted. The lower portion of the walls and the equipment in the shop will be finished in light blue.

Considerable other work will be done before the work is completed. J. B. Bishop, owner of the company said.

Meeting of Hiway Association Here Thursday Morning

Palo Duro-Garza Highway association will meet in Floydada Thursday morning of next week. It was announced the first of the week by Judge Charles Stewart of Claude.

Representatives from five counties—Armstrong, Briscoe, Floyd, Crosby and Garza—are expected to attend and mutual problems in connection with the promotion of Highway 207 to final completion as a hard-surfaced highway will be discussed.

County Judge G. C. Tubbs here said Monday that much interest has been evinced by the commissioners' courts and the judges in the effort to get faster action on this route, which means a great deal in opening up the east end of Palo Duro canyon to travel and to elimination of long hauls to and from the oil fields from this section of the plains. Savings on hauls from the oil fields by the new route would pay for 60 miles of the route per year, it was pointed out.

The meeting will be held beginning at 10 o'clock at the county court room on Thursday morning.

OUT IN HIGH COTTON

Thirty years ago to be an aged man was to be a person of distinction. When wars and pestilences, accidental gunshots, slow fever and Indian raids finished few were left to pass the age of 50. Thirty-five was the average age of expectancy.

What so many people do not now realize is that to be an old man now is just to be another old man. You are old but not distinguished on that account. And the situation for the next ten years definitely is to be aggravated. In the seventies and eighties and even the nineties all the home folks, and the foreigners who rushed to America by the millions—raised six, eight, ten and even fifteen children to the family. A huge number of these are now arriving at that period we refer to as aged. By 1950 they will comprise a tremendous political bloc. They will outnumber their youngsters (one, two and three children families) so badly it will be a "sight on earth" as Aunt Lucinda said.

This is stepping out into the high cotton.

MAKE "THEM" PAY

The present movement of the Townsendites, the old age pension groups, made up principally of men and women, who through the misfortunes that befell them in 1929 et seq, were put on a cruel world to shift with nothing to shift with, can be counted upon to keep their youngsters in increasingly hot water.

In previous world financial catastrophes—and 1929 is not the first or the longest drawn out by any means—the voice of the protesting aged was so feeble numerically as to be negligible.

But now it is another story. Millions of the aged in 1929 had "made" their stakes and were taking it easy. Swept under by the depression, you now hear former substantial farmers, artisans, business men by the thousands insisting that "they" (whosoever they is) be made to support them for the remainder of their lives. It can be depended upon that "they" will be put to their wits' ends before the matter is finally finished to comply with the demand.

A CHANGING WORLD

To show you how times have changed as to age outlook, the ten-year-old now doing his third grade in school, will grow up in a world populated by "old" people. His outlook and surroundings will be completely different to that of a person born in 1870. For this latter lived in a world in which a man 45 was Old Man So-and-So, and a man three score and ten was a patriarch of the whole cloth.

Further back by numerous centuries an old man even got his name in the Bible, if he happened to be a member of the chosen tribes and not a Philistine or a Hittite.

From here on out for years the old people will increasingly set the pace politically and in numerous other ways touching the lives of their children, and incidentally the destinies of the world.

CINCH FOR A JOB IN 1960

One other thing and then we are through with this old age business, for awhile at least. By about 1960—it may be sooner by a few years—there will be plenty of jobs for everybody that is within the working age. Right now, there are several million people between 20 and 55 who would be out of jobs if there were even as many jobs as there were at the peak of the bottom in 1928. Because there are many million more mature people in the country now than there were then. Believe this or not.

Anyway, another twenty years will see a change and if you are in the working age, you'll certainly have a job and no excuse for not working. Statistics say so and you can't outfigure a statistician.

Fact is, twenty years hence there will likely be a law that will make you work! Millions of aged people will be drawing pensions and thousands on thousands of smart young college graduates will be dashing cross-country in fast automobiles after brilliant week-ends to get there in time to cross-examine the oldsters, fill in the blanks and get signatures on the proper lines of all five copies. You'll be paying off, ten-year-old, and you'll have a job. You will have a job!

INFORMATION ABOUT THE WEATHER

The trantulas which have been crawling about in such numbers the past several days are not hunting high ground to be safe from water, but are merely out stretching their legs in the cool after the long, hot spell, during which they were cooped up below to keep comfortable.

Snow is the forecast along in December. After the weather cools a little bit more you should plant your wheat in the dust. Should a column of hot air force the December snow around us, the next effort of the rain man to give us some moisture is due along in April. If the December snows hit you'll be walking over lot fences as though they weren't there, and you won't see the ground out in the garden until along in January.

SOME INFORMATIVE LEAFLETS

Do you know what the marks on the highways mean?

We mean the marks on the pavement down in front of you. Everyone of them has a meaning, even that extra stripe to the right of the median line. We have several little leaflets in The Hesperian office, put out by the Highway department, that will make these markers mean more to you. They are free for the asking. A good way to keep up with the times.

WHAT ABOUT WAR PRICES

What about prices? Will the war go on and if it does will there be another boom in the prices of wheat and cotton, sugar, lard?

Who knows? We don't. However, we do know that the acreage planted to wheat last year in continental United States was many million acres more than that planted in any world-war year. And there are plenty of millions of bushels of the world to eat on for awhile. Even with a drought in the south-west country for a year or two nobody would go hungry. But they might get scared and think they were! And pay too much for wheat for awhile.

You plant too much wheat and wish you hadn't. You hold your acreage down and you make a mistake. Round and round the wheel of fortune goes. Where it will end nobody knows.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

Usually I hurry and get my morning work done early, but this morning I decided to gather the tomatoes first. The air was cool and pleasant. Small round clouds, like pieces of dusty wool fleeces, hurried to the northeast driven by a gradually rising wind.

Then the flower garden called. Late flowers were gathered. Pink snapdragons and fuzzy blue ageratum set off by silver king went in to one vase. In another blue ageratum and red galliardias, and the third vase (a quart jar fancy pickles came in) holds a purple and white dahlia.

I made note of things to be done before cold weather. A bed of pansies to be planted on south side of porch, rose bushes set out, daffodil bulbs sent by a friend from Tennessee to be pried deep against the cold. Poppies and larkspur seed need to be sown. Gladiolus bulbs dug stored.

The morning work was late getting done but I had had an hour of pleasure.

Big black headings in papers with horrors of war and death and tyranny, make us uneasy about the future. But I hunt through the papers for a single golden day of clouds, and here and there I find bits that give courage and reassurance. In talk for today by George Matthew Adams in Star-Telegram I found these lines to keep our "heart fires burning," as he says:

"I believe that the spiritual forces in the world are able to defeat all the forces of hate, intrigue and selfish political power. Each of us can volunteer at once in the contest for peace and good will against force and hate by keeping our hearts free from hate and intolerance, no matter where they may find a lodging.

"Mere might has never been right, for there is no soul to its back-ground. Deathless are the spiritual forces of mankind. The street of power is brief. Where today are the vast empires of Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon.

"To the cross of Calvary they nailed the form of a peaceful man, who only went about doing good—healing, encouraging and inspiring all who came to listen to His message to the heart. Through force and intrigue they did away with Him. But not with the truth He taught and the message He sent into the world. He lit fires of love and beauty in the hearts of all. Today His empire is worldwide. No power of mere man, through force, will ever be able to defeat the spiritual reserves that had their inception in a crude manager in Palestine nearly 2,000 years ago.

"Daily do we all need a new baptism of faith, courage and vision. These heart fires of ours must burn with the energy of an unconquerable faith. The stars in the sky do not change their course. The song of the lark is not less pungent with beauty because hate is let loose and the innocent wantonly killed.

"All material gain is temporary, but spiritual gains stored in the heart and warmed with the fires of faith, compound their richness from generation to generation—world without end!"

Last Wednesday was a lovely day for us. In the mail there was a letter from my son, one from my beloved Aunt Mirie and a card from my girlhood friend, Lena Martin Bonine. Such sweet, kind messages these three letters contained. Then after dinner a car bearing a Montana license turned in at our gate. What a delight to recognize old friends, Tom Caret and wife of Shelby, Montana. Mrs. L. E. Benton of Falls and Mrs. Jack Alley of Tahoka.

When my father kept a store at Emma, Tom clerked a good while for him. It was so nice to sit and visit with these friends, to look at old pictures and recall the good old days at Emma. These days lay warm and fragrant near our hearts. Their beauty has deepened with time.

Having these people as friends in our youth enriched our lives with the lovely personality of theirs. Tom's wife is a new friend in a way, having known her only a few years but somehow she, too, seems to be a part of our life and indeed is a welcome friend.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for October 8, 1939.

The Forerunner Of The King

Lesson Text—Matthew 3:1-17.

Golden Text: "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." Matthew 3:3.

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea.

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan.

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire;

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

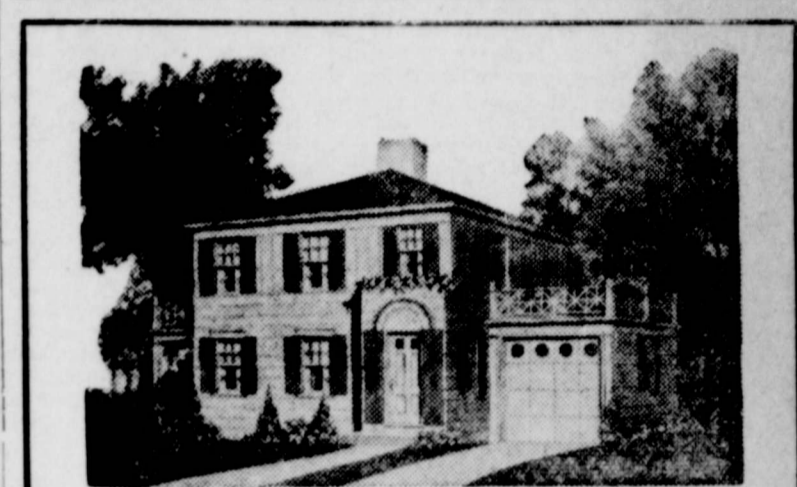

17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Lesson Thought

Our last lesson closed with Joseph and Mary's bringing the Child Jesus back from Egypt and settling in Nazareth where He remained in obscurity until the time of this lesson, a period of more than twenty years. We have one glimpse of Him at the age of twelve years. The rest of the period is silent concerning Him. The probable reason for this silence is that opposition be not stirred up before the time of His public ministry—when His power was to be manifested. The pupil should read the whole story concerning the relationship between Jesus and John. Not much is told concerning their mothers; but there is sufficient to teach that they were blood relatives and that is significant, for it suggests that there is something in the blood of people, as well as in their environments.

Miss Ruth Jordan of Littlefield was a guest over the week end of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan. She is teaching in the school at Littlefield.

WINTER'S DASTARD 90 HOURS

skipped by OIL-PLATING your engine today

Can you figure on your car's Daily Winter Starting Schedule being any briefer than this? . . .

No. 1 Start * GOING TO WORK
No. 2 Start * GOING TO LUNCH
No. 3 Start * RETURNING FROM LUNCH
No. 4 Start * GOING HOME FROM WORK
No. 5 Start * GOING TO THE MOVIE
No. 6 Start * GOING HOME FROM MOVIE

Could half-a-dozen starts or so get you through a day? Will your icy engine turn lukewarm in only 5 or 6 minutes? Even so, just think what that comes to, all through these bad months! . . . Total: 90 hours!

90 tough hours—and often more. A whole 90 hours when oiling that comes from "fast flow" alone lags far behind the sure lubrication that comes from changing today to OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING is ready to lubricate sooner than any oil ever can flow—sooner than "instantly!"—because patented Conoco Germ Processed oil forces OIL-PLATING into a durable bond with the engine parts. OIL-PLATING becomes part of the parts!

They can't drain dry of OIL-PLATING. They remain "bathed in slippiness" all day, all night, in all weather, even with your car at a standstill. That's why OIL-PLATING lets your engine slide into swift, safe, dragless action, instead of letting it suffer Winter's worst 90 hours—along with your battery. Slash starting time; stretch your time between quarts to the limit, by changing to Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station today for your right Winter Germ Processed oil. Right Dressing Adds Distinction To Salad, Says Farm Home Leader

Just as a bit of trimming can enhance the beauty of a well-cut dress—so can the right dressing add distinction to a good salad.

Naturally, the kind of dressing that is "right" depends on what is in the salad—and the tastes of the family. But the homemaker who has on hand, or can make up as needed, French, mayonnaise, and cooked dressings, is prepared for any salad she may concoct. For from these basic dressings she can get countless variations by changing the seasonings.

Family resemblance of salad dressings is that they all contain fat, acid, and seasonings. In the uncooked dressings, French and mayonnaise, fat is in the form of oil. Olive, corn, peanuts, soybean and cottonseed oils are all in good salad standing. Some cooks like to use a combination olive oil, for instance with bland corn oil. In cooked dressings, less fat is used, and this is usually butter or margarine.

Vinegar, lemon juice, or a combination are the common acids in salad dressings. Seasonings are unlimited as a good cook's imagination. Some of the briefest directions in any recipe book are those for making French dressings. All there is to it is to beat or shake the ingredients until small globules of fat scatter through the liquid, thickening the mixture somewhat. A homemaker's French dressing must be beaten or shaken each time it is served, because the oil and acid separate as the dressing stands.

There are no set amounts for ingredients in French dressing. Three parts of oil to one of vinegar or lemon juice is a good proportion to start with. Some like more oil, some like less. Paprika, salt, onion juice, a suggestion of garlic, sugar, and tabasco sauce are conventional seasonings.

Of all the salad dressings, mayonnaise is the only one for which the Federal Food and Drug administration has a definition. According to that, it must contain at least 50% egg yolk and all have egg or egg yolk as the emulsifying agent, and vinegar or lemon juice as acid.

Mayonnaise has more oil in proportion to acid than French dressing. And the protein of the egg serves to make the emulsion stable or permanent—that is, it prevents the fat and acid from separating after they have been beaten together. Recipes vary, but one egg yolk is required for 1 to 1 cup of most oils—and there must be enough acid for flavor—usually about 2 tablespoons of vinegar or lemon juice. Have all at room temperature before mixing.

Compared to mixing a French dressing, whipping up a mayonnaise is almost a formal proceeding. One good way to do this is to beat the egg seasonings, and about half the acid together thoroughly. Then add the oil—slowly at first, no more than 1 teaspoon each time. Soon as the mixture begins to thicken, add more oil at a time. Put in the rest of the acid gradually as the mixture gets very thick. Then beat in the rest of the oil.

Add other seasonings to taste, but be cautious about adding liquid or salt. Too much of either will make the oil and acid separate.

Popular mayonnaise variations are Russian and Thousand Island dressings. To make Russian, combine about 1 part of thick chili sauce to two parts of mayonnaise. To make Thousand Island, chop bits of highly seasoned materials into mayonnaise. There is no rule about what these should be. But some good additions are hard cheese, hard cooked eggs, pickles, olives, radishes, green peppers, pimientos, capers and onions. For a fruit salad dressing, whipped cream folded into mayonnaise is appropriate.

Cooked salad dressings are somewhat related to custard and white sauce. If they lean to the custard side of the family, mix and cook as for a custard, in a double boiler until the mixture thickens. Then take it off the stove and cool it in water so the dressing will not overcook. If the main part of the liquid in the dressing is milk, beat the vinegar or lemon juice into it, a little at the time, after the dressing is thickened, so the milk won't curdle.

If part of the thickening is starch and part eggs, cook the starch thoroughly before adding the eggs. Lower the temperature to cook the eggs—putting the mixture over boiling water. Cook salad dressings are used in much the same way as mayonnaise. They are inexpensive. For the most part, the time to add dressing to salads is the last possible moment before they are served. Dressings high in acid, if left on fresh vegetables or fruit for long, cause them to lose their crispness. Very often, a choice of dressings is served at the table.

All dressings—cooked or uncooked, homemade or "boughten"—should be kept covered in the refrigerator. Discard at once any with an "off" flavor.

Right dressing adds distinction to a good salad, says Allie M. Tipps, above, home supervisor of the Farm Security administration, Floyd county. Dressing should be added usually the last possible minute before serving.

MR. AND MRS. SMITH HOSTS TO TP CLUB SEPTEMBER 22

The TP club held the September meeting with Mr. and Mrs. James J. Smith at their home in the McCoy community September 22. A Weiner and marshmallow roast was enjoyed.

Miss Allie May Tipps gave an interesting discussion on "poultry and a well balanced ration for poultry." The speaker stressed eggs as one of the most valuable food products in the home and said farmers should use a well balanced ration for the flock to have a better egg production.

Wm. T. McKinney explained the necessity of the revision of the 1939 farm and home plan due to crop failure which adds more crop expense. In this farm and home plan each family must estimate costs of everything planned to do in the year of 1939.

Those enjoying the delightful evening were Mr. and Mrs. Hal B. Johnston, Carrick Snodgrass, Ernest L. Thomas and Mr. Cox, Mrs. T. E. McKinney of Gordonville and Lorena Cook.

CENTER HOME DEM. CLUB

"A linen table cloth with no fold, or only one fold, parallel to the table is correct," said Mrs. T. C. Hollums to the Center Home Demonstration club women when they met Tuesday afternoon, September 26, at the home of Mrs. C. P. Cordier.

Mrs. W. P. Sims gave a report on the council meeting, Mrs. Hollums gave the demonstration on "setting the table and table service." Four covers were laid on the table. A cover means all the china, glassware, silver, napkin and space to be used by each individual for a meal. Place the chair directly in front of the plate, just at the edge of the table. Stand to the right of your chair before sitting. Pass food from left or right. Follow the example of your host or hostess when in doubt.

Refreshments were served to Messdames W. P. Sims, Jas. Green, W. B. Jordan, Trains Lightfoot, T. C. Hollums, H. B. Mankins, A. W. Anderson, O. G. Mayfield, C. P. Cordier and T. L. Collins.

MRS. POOLE HOSTESS TO ANTELOPE H. D. CLUB

Mrs. W. S. Poole was hostess to the Antelope Home Demonstration club Thursday, September 21 in a formal luncheon. The table was laid with a cream colored damask and pastel pottery in Spanish designs, the center piece was a tray of vari-colored fruits and melons.

Mrs. C. A. Caffee gave a demonstration on the proper setting of the table and the table setting for formal and informal meals. Members drew for duties to be assumed at table. At table many "do's and don'ts" of past and present etiquette were discussed and the continual need for impressing one rule—the most frequently broken "must"—"when mother announces the meal, lay the paper down and go immediately."

"Being properly seated and arising saves much chair scraping—and the rugs," said Mrs. Caffee.

In the afternoon a regular meeting of the club was held with Mrs. Poole, president in the chair. Roll call was answered by "new rules learned in table setting and placements."

Mrs. S. M. Crawford gave an interesting account of the meeting with Mrs. Joe Dunn. Mrs. Caffee displayed and discussed pictures of the development of spoons and forks used in eating from the beginning of civilization when shells were often used to the present day silver service.

Mrs. T. J. Boyd gave a report of the Texas Home Demonstration association, which was held in Lubbock. Mrs. Boyd stressed the need for co-operation, and the mutual benefits to be derived from associated club work.

During the social hour Mrs. J. E. Smith and Mrs. C. A. Caffee scored high in the contests. Mrs. Boyd drew the attendance prize.

At the close of the afternoon the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. A. Wise, served beautiful dishes of ice cream and cake.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Russel Crawford October 5, at 2 p. m. instead of 3. Miss Wilson will give a demonstration on "Can your bedroom pass this one?" Each club member is reminded to bring a jar each of fruits and vegetables to be judged; the winning jars will be sent to Miss Wilson's office for further competition.

The service of the employment bureau will be free both to employer and employee. It is designed to get the worker and the job together, with intent to make jobs available first to all local people who need work and next to get workers here for those farmers who are unable to get their cotton gathered otherwise.

"We have the laborers spotted and can get them on short notice," said Kimbro. "Should it develop that additional laborers are needed."

The service, in practice, has made it possible to get the job and the man together more quickly than formerly, and serves the additional purpose of keeping the laborers from spending their limited means out in a vain search for work and finally becoming charges on the public as strangers in a strange land.

Mr. Kimbro can be contacted either by personal call to his office or by telephone No. 216.

Rushing Chapel News

RUSHING CHAPEL, Oct. 3.—Rev. W. M. Culwell preached at the morning and evening service here Sunday. This was the beginning of a revival meeting that will be held at the chapel. The community is invited to attend this series of services that will be held each morning and evening.

The Woman's Missionary society met Monday at the church with five members present. One visitor was present. We enjoyed a good lesson from the study book and after the lesson a box was packed for a little orphan girl at Waco. The church is responsible for the clothing of the child.

D. V. Hunt of Sweetwater visited Saturday and Saturday night in the home of his sister Mrs. Carl Mooney, whom he hadn't seen in nine years.

Miss Geraldine Harris of Roswell, New Mexico is a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mooney.

The Floyd South Side Singing convention has been postponed until the fourth Sunday in October. This will be an all day meeting and many visitors are expected to be here.

Quarterly conference is scheduled to be held at Rushing Chapel on the third Sunday. Dinner on the ground will be served and a large crowd is expected.

Little Miss Joy Jones of Lubbock spent the week-end with her grandmother Mrs. S. L. Rushing.

Lula Lee Teal visited last week in Floydada with Miss Maudine Moore.

Yannigans—

have started since the last time they played the Whirlwinds.

Most of the folks who ought to know are rating the game as a toss-up. Floydada having the offense and Amarillo the defense. In all likelihood it will be one of the toughest games of the season.

Coach Winter will probably start Joe Rushing, a back who gathered up 141 yards from scrimmage against Flomot, and "High Pockets" Patterson, paper weight pass snagger and speeder, at the wing back slots. George Linder will handle the signal calling and fullback spot, and R. E. Golightly, the 150 pound back who belies his name at quarterback.

Winter will also start his most effective line combination in all probability with Frankie Jones and E. L. Tyler at end, "Beetuf" Patterson and "Big Foot" Turner (who can also punt) at tackles, Emmett Henson and Ray Fickes at guard and James "Alice" Johnson at center.

Of those starters keep one eye peeled on Linder, Golightly, Patterson, Turner, and Henson because those boys look like material for all-district.

No starting lineup is available for the Yannigans but with 55 men it is doubtful that their coach experiences much trouble in finding 11 men to start the game.

Center School News

CENTER, Oct. 3.—A slogan hung in the room of Miss Marble reads as follows: "In school, we sing, we play, we draw, we write," which is of course, the truth in itself. But we do more than that here at Center. As proof we have this evidence: Miss Marble and her mother papered her room at the teachers' last week and it has really brightened up the headquarters at the teachers.

Another thing of interest in the schoolroom of Miss Marbles is a queer little oblong space on one end of the blackboard. When I inquired about what it meant she said, "That is a pig pen." Of course it was not really a pig pen but a make believe, and the significance of it was this—there are certain things the kiddies do that cause their names to be placed in the pen. As I understand it when once in the pen it is rather difficult to get out.

As I ambled around the room this morning I noticed a few names in the pen. We will let you know when they get out.

The teachers at Center gave a party for all the students Friday night. Mr. Collins, principal of the school directed a number of games that were seemingly enjoyed by the students. At the conclusion of the entertainment, refreshments were served.

Center school is planning to do some much needed repair work on chairs and desks, the work to be started soon.

Several pupils have been out of school this week because of cotton pulling.

Mrs. Walter Miller of Sentinel, Oklahoma, came Tuesday of last week for an extended visit with her parents, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Howard and other relatives.

Miss Mildred Wilson of Goodlet, Texas spent the week-end here with her sister, Miss Edith Wilson, home demonstration agent of Floyd county. Miss Wilson is a teacher in the school system there.

Mrs. George Hulsey, Jr., and son George III, of Lubbock, came Tuesday for a visit with Mrs. Hulsey's mother, Mrs. P. G. Stegall.

Mrs. John Reagan spent Monday in Lubbock with her parents Judge and Mrs. B. H. Howard.

W. F. Daniel Injured At His Home Monday

W. F. Daniel was given treatment for severe bruises on his head and shoulders received Monday when a combine platform fell on him.

He was dismissed when no broken bones were found. Latest reports he was doing fine.

Miss Dorothy Nell Swinson received a dental operation Thursday of last week at the Floydada hospital and is doing nicely.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Russell, a son on October 3.

Mrs. Bill McNeill was dismissed from the Floydada hospital Wednesday following a major operation ten days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reagan spent the week-end in the home of Mrs. Reagan's sister, Mrs. J. N. Payne and Mr. Payne at Ralls.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baggett of Ozona and their granddaughter Sue Pace of Austin came Wednesday for a few days visit with Mrs. Baggett's sisters Mrs. E. P. Nelson and Mrs. S. W. Ross and their husbands.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fogerson and sons and his mother, Mrs. F. W. Fogerson visited relatives at Olton Sunday.

1940 Fords On Display Tomorrow

Many New Features Included
On New Models At Bishop
Motor Company

The new 1940 Ford V-8 models will go on display all over the country tomorrow. Bishop Motor company, local agent for Ford, will have the new models on display in their show rooms Friday and Saturday with salesmen on hand to point out all the new features to visitors. The public is invited to drop in and see these new models, the first low price 1940 automobiles to actually be placed on display in Floydada.

J. B. Bishop, owner and manager of the company, made a trip last week to Dallas where the new models were pre-viewed to managers and salesmen. He returned this week with the following notes on the new 1940 Ford models.

Bishop Tells of Ford
The new cars are big, substantial and powerful in appearance. Body lines are pleasingly streamlined. Front end designs are distinctively modern, with low radiator grilles, long hoods and deeply rounded fenders. The trimly tailored interiors are big and roomy, with plenty of seat room, leg room, elbow room and shoulder room.

Two V-8 engines are available, an 85 horsepower engine in the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8, with a 90 horsepower engine optional in the Ford V-8.

Four Ford V-8 and five deluxe body types comprise the two lines. A new business coupe as well as a Fordor sedan and Fordor coupe are available in both. There is also a deluxe convertible club coupe with automatic top as standard equipment. Three color choices are available in the Ford V-8, six in the deluxe line.

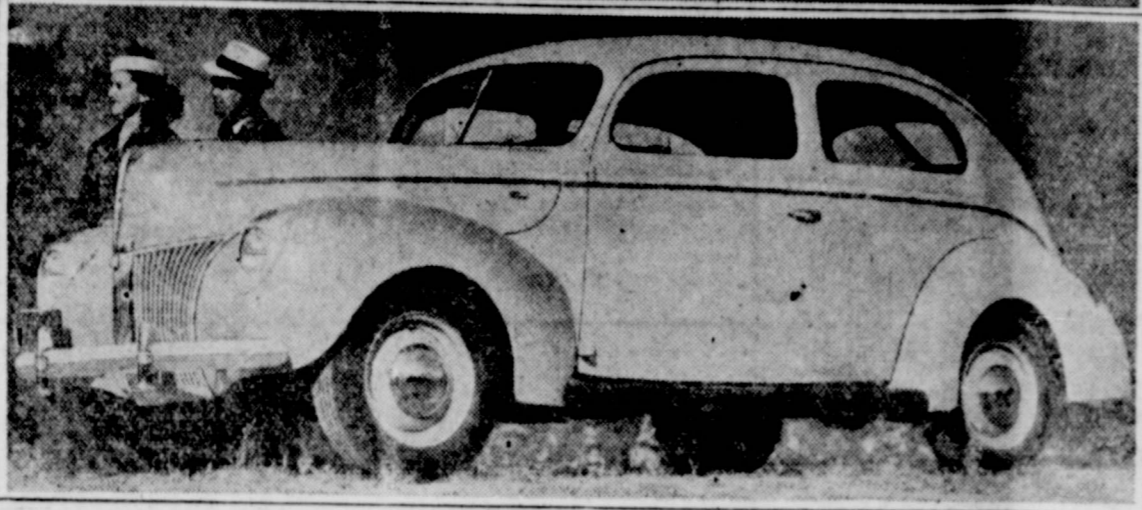

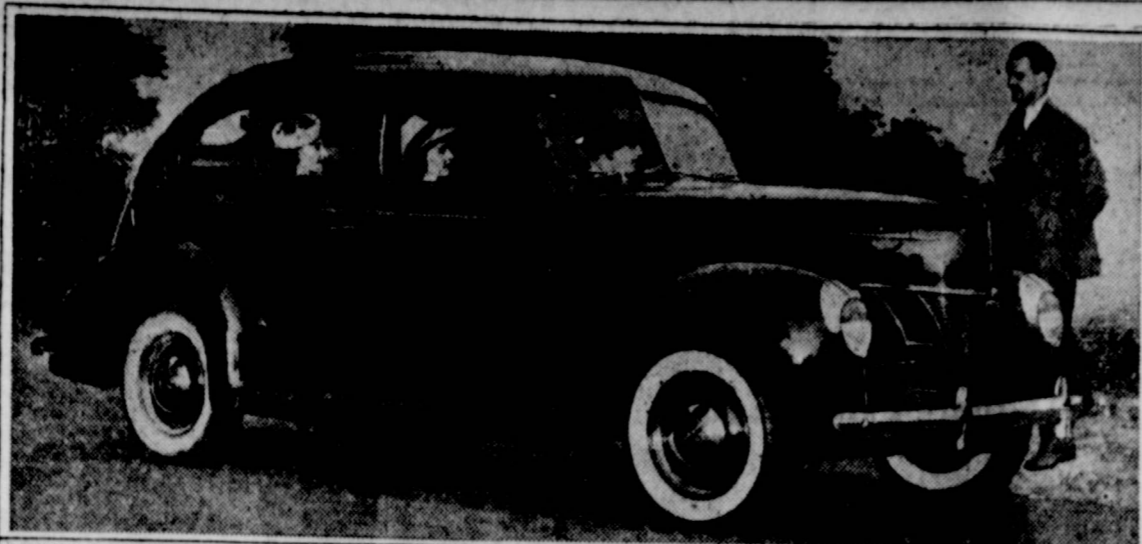

An important new feature of the cars is a finger-tip gearshift mounted on the steering column under the two-spoke steering wheel. This provides increased room for driver and passengers in the front compartment. There is also a new controlled ventilation system. New Sealed-Beam headlights are used on all types, providing greatly increased driving vision at night.

On the 85 horsepower cars, an improved spring suspension with a longer, more flexible front spring, and a torsion bar ride-stabilizer provide an exceptionally comfortable steady ride. The ride-stabilizer also contributes to firmer, easier steering. Front and rear springs of deluxe cars are equipped with metal covers. Large double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers with self-sealing construction are fitted on all cars.

Comfort features are emphasized throughout the design. Seats are built for restful riding. Front seat backs are of new resilient type. Cushions have a new "floating" edge. Driver's seats are adjustable two ways—they rise as they are moved forward. Bodies are scientifically soundproofed, shutting out road noises. An "easy-shift" transmission, permitting speeds to be changed quietly; new design curved disc wheels and improved drums for the highly effective, quick-stopping hydraulic brakes also contribute to quietness.

The interiors of the cars appear in new decorative schemes. A pleasing color treatment in maroon and sand duotone distinguishes the interiors of the Ford V-8. In deluxe cars, window and door frames are finished in dark mahogany, hardware in rich maroon, knobs and escutcheon plates in sand, with striped upholstery or broadcloth upholstery also in sand. In the Ford V-8, door and window moldings are in bleached walnut finish, handles are chrome-plated, with knobs and escutcheons in sand colored plastic. Upholstery is in taupe.

Instrument panels harmonize with the interior styling. Gages are grouped in front of the distinctive

Here are the new 1940 Ford V-8 cars. One is a Ford V-8 and the other a de-luxe Ford V-8. Both are big cars with graceful lines with emphasis on interior stylings. New features are finger-tip gear shift on the steering column, a new controlled ventilation system, and sealed-beam headlights for safer night driving. The two models are available in a number of body styles and colors. A number of other new features are also incorporated in the new 1940 models. The new models will be on display at Bishop Motor company on Friday and Saturday of this week.

steering wheel. A grille for installation of radio speaker, glove compartment with lock two ash trays and a cigar lighter are provided on the panel.
Other equipment supplied without extra cost on both the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8 includes: Front and rear bumpers and four bumper guards; spare wheel, tire and tube; twin electric air horns; dual windshield wipers with single control; battery condition indicator; foot control for headlight beams, with indicator on instrument panel, and dimming control for instrument panel lights.

Ford V-8 cars also have a sun visor, two ash trays and arm rests in the rear compartment of the sedans. A foot rest is supplied in the rear compartment of the Fordor sedan.

Additional equipment supplied on deluxe cars without extra cost include wheel bands, metal spring covers, two swivel-type sun visors, two tail lamps, ash trays in instrument panels and the rear compartment of sedans; arm rests at the driver's left and in the rear compartment of sedans, and a robe cord in the deluxe Fordor sedans.

Twenty Ninth Anniversary Celebration

History-Making Event Scheduled By J. G. Martin From Sick Bed

Sure that he will be up and about again soon after his second round with serious illness, J. G. Martin, manager of Martin Dry Goods company last week-end gave the "go ahead" sign to his helpers for the celebration of the firm's twenty-ninth birthday.

Martin spent several weeks of the spring and early summer in bed and in the hospital, and now he's flat on his back again, this time for an operation and will be weeks and weeks getting his strength back before he gets in the harness again. However, during his brief stay at the store he made elaborate plans for the company's birthday celebration beginning this week.

"Twenty-nine years is a mighty long time and we've got the folks in the habit of expecting us to have the latest and best all the time, and lots of it," Mr. Martin said from his sickbed. "We don't want to disappoint them and I'm expecting the folks at the store to make this one of the biggest celebrations we've ever had."

Beginning in 1910 on south side of the square, the store was later moved to the northwest corner of the square where it was operated for years and years until 10 years ago when the most modern retail establishment in the community was built by the Martin brothers—J. G. and Claude—at the corner of 5th and California.

In the past 12 months the Martins have bought a sanitarium or two, but don't have any deeds to show for their money.

Entering the twenty-ninth year of service to an area of several counties the brothers are having a party beginning this week. With thousands of items of new merchandise they expect a response that will equal to any effort they have made in previous years. Large portions of four counties are being covered with advertising of the event.

The group left Floydada Saturday morning at 7 o'clock and arrived at Quail at 9:45. They registered and received programs in Quail's new Home Economics cottage. After registering the girls went into the gym where they were entertained until noon.

The theme of the meeting's program was "Play for all and all for play." Miss Josephine Pazdral, the state director of homemaking gave a talk on "The F. H. T. as a Youth Organization" and made honorable mention of the Floydada chapter of Home Economics.

From 11:30 until 12:15 the Floydada chapter had charge of the chapter games.

At 11:30 Miss Aileen McIntyre who was one of the three girls on the nominating committee met and nominated area officers for next year 1940-41. Freshman News

The freshmen of Floydada High school have become accustomed to the school and are starting to work in earnest to make the freshman class of 1939-1940 the best class Floydada High has ever turned out.

They feel sure that with the splendid sponsorship of Miss Miller and Mr. Barber and the class officers the class will be one of the best if not the best in the school's history.

The Lubbock Fair was attended Thursday and Friday by some of the class members. Among them was the class president, Joe Wilson and the class secretary-treasurer, Netha Denson. Other members were Joyce Ward, Virgil Williams, Gene Collins and Kenneth Johnson.

The freshman class is sorry to lose its vice-president, Novella Russell who is moving to Colorado where she will continue her studies not in the eighth grade but in the ninth. It is certain that Novella will capture the hearts of her classmates there, just as she did here.

Senior News

At last, the long waited for senior rings have arrived. Some of the seniors are gnashing their teeth because they didn't get their rings in the first order.

The rings are gold finish with ruby sets. They have Floydada printed on them and a whirlwind twisting down between the H. S. This is the first time any of the rings have had the name on them.

The seniors are looking forward to the arrival of the bracelets. They are anxious to see what they will be like.

The seniors of the class of 1940 are all working together to make this the best senior class in the history of F. H. S.

LIBRARY CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Miss Rea called a meeting of the Library club Tuesday noon. The group renewed the study and numbering of the fiction books, and started on the history books.

The girls with the guidance of Miss Rea are trying to keep the library going and to add several improvements. An order for about $70 worth of books have been purchased since school started. "We wish to urge that all the pupils try to take better care of the books than they have in the past. They can show their appreciation to the school board for setting aside all of the library fees for library books by always being sure their hands are clean before they handle the books and they should not turn the corners of the pages down or tare the pages. If you keep a book over time be big enough to present the fine money when the book is returned. The librarians are very busy and have plenty to do without having to hunt you up. This is a plea from the girls who work in the library, so students of Floydada High school, come on and help them. Editors note.

There were four who worked all day Saturday in the library trying to get some of the books in better shape. They were Miss Rea, Mrs. Johnston, Ella Barbee and Rachel Head.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS ENJOY PICNIC ON WAY HOME

The group of Future Homemakers who made the trip to Quail for the area meet enjoyed a picnic supper a few miles out of Childress.

The girls received a lesson on planning, selecting, and preparing an unexpected and inexpensive meal. They did their grocery shopping in Childress and had fun doing it.

After taking his coat and vest off Mr. Travis gave the girls some lessons in scouting. He went to work making a camp fire that would be hard for any scout to beat.

The enjoyed menu consisted of weiners, marshmallows, pickles, potato salad, bread, punch and cookies. Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Travis, and Mac, Miss Fannie Mae Rees, Miss Pauline McCarty, Lavelle Ginn, Jean Sims, Verona Miller, Jean Nelson, Peggy Ann Trice and Aileen McIntyre.

NEW PROJECT

The Home Economics club has decided to take on a new project this year. It is the sponsoring of a semi-weekly Home Economics paper. Aileen McIntyre is the editor of the paper and the first issue was published and distributed to all Home Economics girls last Thursday. Although a new project, it seems to be turning out good results and the club is in hopes of its growth.

Future Farmers Initiate Green Hands Tuesday

The Floydada chapter of Future Farmers of America held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, September 26, in the high school building. The meeting opened with the opening ceremony; George Tubbs led the group in singing, "The Eyes of Texas," and the meeting was open for business.

The form Watch Dog was elected to fill the district Watch Dog position for the Plainview district in which the Floydada chapter is incorporated this year; the boy elected was Eddie Brown, the president of the chapter, his assistant is Neil Bertrand, the Watch Dog of the Floydada F. F. A.

The initiation ceremony was then held, the boys initiated for Green Hands are as follows: David Battey, Harold Bertrand, Hennton Bond, James Burk, Robert Camden, L. E. Corby, Troy Cummings, J. R. Denison, Weldon Dubois, Charles Dudley, J. W. Grigsby, Leon Hutlsey, C. S. Johnson, Jessie Michael, Wilton Patterson, Jimmy Peel, Luther Norvell, Joe Rushing, Jimmy Smyth, George Tubbs, Doyle Walls, Elvis Warren, Robert Warren, Arthur Womack, Drexel Yandel and Sam Huey.

Several of the Future Farmers of the Floydada chapter plan on getting their Lone Star Farmers are Eddie Brown, Russell Patterson, Leland May, Neil Bertrand, and Leland Woodward.

After the initiation ceremony the meeting was closed with the regular closing ceremony, the boys were then served with pop corn the meeting adjourned.

DINNER GIVEN VISITORS TO H. E. INITIATION

A lovely dinner was enjoyed Thursday, September 28, at the White Swan cafe in honor of our visitors Miss Josephine Pazdral, and Miss Gladys Armstrong.

Other visitors present were Mary Leda McAdams, Lockney home economics sponsor; Miss Edith Wilson county home demonstration agent; Miss Allie Mae Tipps, farm security supervisor; Mrs. J. C. Cagle, supervisor of the home management project; Miss Pauline McCarty, and Miss Fannie Mae Rees.

After the dinner the guest attended a formal initiation program held at the Floydada High school.

TIS TRUE

That the reason a girl's mind is cleaner than a boy's is that she changes it more often.

That a certain group of senior girls are going to know how it feels to ask a boy for a date, and they may have the experience of being refused.

That the modern girl wouldn't have nicotine on her fingers if she would help her mother with the dishes more often.

That three supposedly dignified senior boys went in for pugilistic combats Monday at noon on the campus.

At a football game:
He: Cold?
She: Yes.
He: Want my coat?
She: Yes, but don't take it off.

the body, morals, and the spiritual aspects of life.

He stressed the development of morals, because the civil government of today works upon the morale of youth. Knowing that the youth of today are the men and women of tomorrow, Rev. Bryant concluded his address by saying that there are no earthly beings who possess the four-square personality, the only one who is absolutely and perfectly four-square was Christ.

Mr. Travis proved his ability as a song leader when he led the group in singing the school song and "Onward Christian Soldier." He also announced that there should be no students playing on the stadium, loitering in the halls, and out-of-doors before 8:30 o'clock.

The public has a standing invitation to attend all assembly programs.

VISITORS, NEW AND OLD FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

The dining room in the Home-making department was attractively arranged for the serving of refreshments to the visitors, new and old members of the Future Homemakers last Thursday evening.

The table was laid with a lace table cloth, lighted pink tapers illuminated the room, a bowl of pink sweet peas were the flowers used, cookies with the blue letters of F. H. T., open race sandwiches, and punch were the refreshments.

Miss Mary Denison poured the punch, Miss Marjorie Duncan, assisted in the dining room. Miss Mary Helen Day, Dorothy Jones, Lola Pearl Parrish and Lois Burgett assisted in the kitchen. Refreshments were served to more than 75 persons.

ATTEND FAIR

Forty boys of the Floydada chapter made an educational tour to the Panhandle South Plains fair Thursday, September 28.

The group devoted much of their time to the booth of the chapter which placed ninth in the exhibit; they also spent some time in the hog and cattle barn and the rest in carnival grounds; they returned about 7:30 Thursday evening.

FHS Assembly

Rev. C. L. Bryant of the City Park Church of Christ, was the speaker during the assembly program Wednesday morning, September 26. Rev. Bryant's subject, a very vital and interesting one, was "The Four Square Personality." He listed four qualities which make up the personality; they are development of the mind,

Texas Fire Prevention Fight Is On

Campaign Against Demon Fire Week Of October 8-14

The relentless war against fire becomes increasingly important each year. This year, October 8 to 14, the nation once again joins hands in a joint effort to reduce the havoc wrought by fire. Throughout the country we find that communities are unleashing powerful publicity campaigns, on a town-wide scale, to inform the public on the dangers of fire and the precautionary measures to be practiced.

Newspapers in cooperation with civic bodies and business men take the initiative in launching Fire Prevention week campaigns. On this page you will see many suggestions that are helpful in the prevention and controlling of this menace.

Fire uncontrolled is one of the most serious problems of today. Each year its heavy toll of life and property is a black mark on the name of Texas. Only by constant and relentless vigilance on the part of every Texas citizen can we hope to reduce and finally eliminate this enemy No. 1.

Flomot Fails 39-0 Before Whirlwinds

Floydada Offense Too Much For Flomot To Hold In Check

The Floydada Whirlwinds took turns at looking great and "awful" last Friday night as they chalked up a 39 to 0 "revenge" score over the Flomot Longhorns, a team that had obliterated them twice in the past.

Although outclassed in offense and defense the Longhorns never quit fighting and on three or four different occasions almost broke a man into the open for a touchdown, but freaks of fate as much as Whirlwind tacklers spoiled their night.

The Whirlwinds lost almost as much from penalties as they gained from scrimmage and most of the penalties were clearly earned by the Floydada boys although some of the officials seemed to have "lead" in their feet when Floydada plays swung their way.

All the way Floydada failed to show any championship form, any extraordinary offense or any rock hard defense, in fact they looked rather weak at times on defense and let their offense sort of take care of itself.

Waste No Time
Flomot kicked to Floydada with Luder taking the ball on his 10 and returning to his 38. Luder lateraled to Patterson around left end for 13 yards, first down, Luder skimmed around right end for 7, Rushing scrambled off right tackle for 4, first down, Luder picked up 6 at right guard, Patterson took the ball on a reverse around left end for 32 yards and a touchdown, his first of the season. Luder kicked goal. Floydada 7, Flomot 0.

Luder kicked to Tiffin who returned to the Flomot 31. Amonett failed to gain in two tries at the line, Luder broke through the line to block the kick, Foster recovered on the Flomot 33.

Rushing picked up 3 at left guard, Patterson swung around right end for 9, first down, Luder lateraled to Patterson for 6, Luder banged right tackle for 3, first down, Luder smacked left tackle for 7, Luder picked up 1 at right end, Patterson fumbled on a reverse with Flomot recovering on the Flomot 9.

Martin picked up 7 at right tackle, Tiffin failed to go, Amonett gained 1, Amonett kicked to Patterson on the Floydada 40, returned to Flomot 2.

Patterson gained 12 around left end, Floydada penalized 15 yards, Luder went over right tackle for 9, Luder right tackle for 3, Luder tried the other tackle for 1, Patterson gained 2 at right tackle, two passes fell incomplete and Flomot took over on their own 20.

Two plays at the right side of the line gained 5 yards for Flomot, Rushing intercepted Martin's pass on the Flomot 45, returning to Flomot 35.

Patterson broke through to the Flomot 15 but Floydada penalized 15 yards, Golightly smashed left guard for 6, two passes incomplete, Turner kicked to Flomot 22.

Martin gained 5 at right tackle, Wagon failed to gain, Martin broke loose and ran to the 45, an 18 yard gain, one play netted no gain and Flomot penalized for offside, Tiffin in two quick breaking plays drove 21 yards, Martin carried the ball twice for 7 and then kicked over the Floydada goal.

Floydada ball on own 20, Golightly smashed right tackle for 11, first down, Luder lateral to Golightly for 19, ball on 50, Luder bootlegged the ball for 14, Luder made 6 at right tackle, Patterson carried on a reverse for 11, Golightly smashed through the line for 14, ball on Flomot 5, Golightly carried twice for a touchdown, Luder kicked goal, Floydada 14, Flomot 0.

Luder kicked to Flomot on their 28, Martin and Tiffin carried twice for a first down, Wagon and Martin gain 2 in two tries when a fumble lost 2, Martin kicked to Patterson on the Floydada 40.

Rushing swung around left end for 23 yards, Patterson lost 5, Rushing repeated his first run but picked up 37 yards to the Flomot 5, Rushing smashed the line twice for 4 yards, Luder fumbled but picked up ball and raced around left end for a touchdown, Luder kicked goal, Floydada 21, Flomot 0.

Luder kicked to Flomot 38, Floydada penalized 15, Tiffin carried over left tackle for 10, Martin gained 1 yard in two tries at the line, Rushing intercepted a Flomot pass on his 20 and it back to the Floydada 45.

Second Half
Flomot's kick went over the goal, Luder smashed left guard for 8, Luder raced out 17 yards around right end, Rushing went around left end for 15, Golightly smashed over right tackle for 19 on Flomot 21, Luder smashed the line twice for 5 yards, Rushing made 8 at right end, Luder drove 8 yards for a touchdown in two tries, Kick was wide, Floydada 27, Flomot 0.

Luder kicked to Flomot 30, Flomot lost 3 in two line bucks, Martin kicked to Womack on the Floydada 40, returning to Flomot 43.

Golightly bucked the line for 2, Luder passed to Golightly for 1 yard, Golightly passed to Luder for 15, ball on Flomot 24, Luder broke through left guard without interference for a touchdown, missed goal, Floydada 33, Flomot 0.

Flomot took kick on own 23, Martin carried twice at the right side of the line for 8, Tiffin right guard,

As I See It

Bill Hams

Wellington Defeated
Wheeler defeated Wellington 7 to 0 in conference play Friday night, hooray, hooray—so perhaps this district will not have to play the super-mighty Skyrockets who play Class AAAA football in a Class A district. This column never has had much use for the Skyrockets since the Longhorn-Skyrocket game of last year and it does our hearts good to hear of their skinning. And I'll bet everyone in District 3-A, except Wellington, is just as happy.

Lockney Good
This scribe has to sort of exercise a dual personality at present cheering for Floydada and Lockney in the same column, and both loving each other (I think not) as they do.

We think good clean rivalry is the stuff for football, not hate, but just plain old rivalry and we can appreciate good football no matter what team plays it. Naturally everyone pulls strong for their home town to win, but like last year, if Floydada can't carry the championship banner of this district, we hope Lockney can.

A certain Mr. Parrack who plays in the Lockney backfield is all-district material and will bear watching, also a couple of good guards on the same team look good. Davis seems to be lacking the spark that made him so good last year but we believe he will snap out of it.

Lockney has a good team and no fooling, they might be good enough to hold that district title.

Floydada Mebby
In the summary of the game with Flomot, Floydada had four backs that gained over 100 yards from scrimmage. Joe Rushing gained 141 yards from scrimmage to lead the other three, but he was the only back to play four complete quarters.

Some fans are pointing at Rushing as one of the best "natural" football players they ever saw. Joe may be a "natural" but if you ask Coach Odell Winter you will find that Rushing is a hard worker, a willing worker, and a lad that loves to play football, and those are probably the reasons he is coming to the front as he is.

We like the Whirlwinds this year just because they are hard workers, willing, and able to swap left jabs with any team and play football right up to the hilt, they have made mistakes but they are willing to profit by them and go right on.

We doubt that there is a more versatile backfield in the district than Luder, Patterson, Golightly, and Rushing. Speed, weight, aggressiveness, ability, and love of the game, and that line out in front is no slouch.

If Floydada could dodge the injury jinx, and play football like they did the last half against Tulla we think they would be a match for Matador, Lockney, or Paducah but as it is, it is a long way to a district championship with injuries already cropping up and a lack of reserves.

The Floydada boys looked a little slipshod on offense and defense against Flomot, a little cocky in spots, just as a warning "He who flies highest, falls hardest."

Sidelights on the Game
By special request—J. D. Nelson, and Herschel Swepton were present for the Flomot-Floydada football game.

Some of the fans were amazed when Royce "Big Foot" Turner stepped out of the line and went to punting the ball for a country mile. Yes, "Big Foot" is versatile too.

Rushing came through again with two pass interceptions. He captured two from Slaton, if you remember.

Patterson is catching the eye of the spectators with his spectacular running and pass snagging. The fans think a "little guy" ain't supposed to take knocks like that and survive.

Golightly is amazing the "Grandstand Coaches' association" with his "ramming" tactics. R. E. takes his man with a head ramming (like a goat) instead of a stiff arm, and from appearances on the opposition, they like it like poison.

Luder is playing 1,000 per cent better ball than last year. We want this big fellow to make all-district as bad as the next.

Lockney Will Meet Paducah Friday At Lockney Field

Paducah Believed To Hold Too Much Power For District Champs

Lockney's Longhorns open the District 4-A conference race tomorrow with the Paducah Dragons. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock at the Lockney baseball park. This year the field is equipped with bleachers large enough to accommodate several hundred persons.

The Longhorns snapped off Canyon's Eagles last Friday 13 to 0 to prove that they were still a power in spite of their lop-sided defeat at Olton. Parrack, 170 pound back, played a spectacular game for Lockney with Miller, Owens and Allen playing a whale of a game in the line.

Paducah early established herself, along with Matador, as a favorite for the championship crown with 13 lettermen returning. Although Paducah has been defeated twice, both times by former district and regional champs, and won last week from Memphis 7 to 6, she is still favored to be the roughest number in the district.

The Dragons outplayed Tulla and Crowell while losing and showed scouts that they had by far the strongest line in the league. The difficulty has been in the backfield where four new backs are being broken in.

Lockney displayed a good line, but not the line that stood out last year. The backfield for the Longhorns lacks the power and finish that marked last year's team. The Longhorns have probably the best backfield, with Paducah holding the edge in line play.

Lockney is due to furnish offense aplenty while Paducah will pack the defense power. Most observers call the game a toss-up with the breaks deciding the winner, but Paducah has more experience and probably a stronger defense than Lockney can penetrate, so the Dragons are due to win, if pre-game dope prevails.

If Paducah wins from Lockney, the Dragons will immediately become favorites to go through to a championship in spite of good teams at Floydada Crosbyton and Matador. If the district champs, Lockney, win they will immediately assume the character of "repeaters."

Matador will meet Crosbyton at Crosbyton in another conference duel at the same time the Longhorns and Dragons are fighting it out. Matador is figured to take Crosbyton into camp by an easy score but Crosbyton has been improving and may stop the powerful Matadors.
