Farmers And Merchants To Banquet

Business Men Of County Will Be Guests Of Farmers At Fellowship Hall

Agriculture experts from College Station and the Triple-A administration will be "on the spot" when Floyd county farmers and merchants get together Friday night, Feb. 23, at Fellowship Hall at the First Christian church for the first Farmer-Business Men's banquet.

Plans for the banquet program include no long speeches from noted orators... the feature attraction of the evening will be a "question box" in which guests may drop any question concerning the farm program or modern agriculture in general.

A. H. Kreis, acting as master of ceremonies, will draw the questions from the box and "fire away" at any one or several of a board of "experts" who are scheduled to appear at the affair. Round table discussions will follow.

Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lockney will deliver the invocation. Music will be furnished by the Floydada high school girls' quartet and the Tubbs Trio.

Following the introduction of guests and agencies, H. W. Schacht will make a brief opening talk, and discussion of question box topics will follow.

Among the specialists in various lines of agriculture who will appear on the program are C. H. Day, formerly with the Texas Agriculture association and now field officer for the State AAA; J. Lynn Mauk, district 2 field man from the state AAA office; V. L. Cade, district 2 committee man from Lubbock for the AAA; and K. J. Edwards of the Texas Extension service.

Farmers representing 32 communities in the county will be hosts at the banquet. With them will be the members of the county ACA committee, members of all community committees, the county agent and the administrative assistant, Farm Security Administration officials and vocational agriculture instructors, REA and SCS officials.

All are inviting one or more guests from among the business men of the entire county. Approximately 125 people will be served, according to present plans.

The banquet will be served by members of home demonstration clubs from Dougherty, McCoy, Sunnyside and Sand Hill, under the direction of county Home Demonstration Agent Edith L. Wilson.

Farmers were chosen to represent each of the 32 communities in the county at a meeting of the community and county committees. The entire group met in Floydada Tuesday of last week and designated guests. No limit was placed on the number which each farmer might invite.

The banquet has been planned by the Floyd County ACA committee to promote closer relationship and understanding between farmers and business men.

Funeral Rites For Mrs. B. Yeary Are Held Here Monday

Funeral rites for Mrs. Bradley Yeary of Cedar were conducted Monday afternoon from Harmon Funeral Chapel in Floydada, with Rev. Vernon Shaw, pastor of the First Baptist church in charge.

Mrs. Yeary died last Wednesday night at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Leroy Patterson, at Bakersfield, California. The body was returned to Floydada Saturday morning for burial; but funeral services were delayed due to the heavy snowstorm Friday and Saturday.

Burial was at the Floydada cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Yeary is survived by her husband and seven children, Joe Yeary of Taft, California; Myrtle Yeary of Globe, Arizona; Rene Yeary of Cedar; Esley Yeary of Floydada, Frank Yeary of Dumont, Mrs. W. F. Faulk of Dumont, and Mrs. Zelta Patterson of Bakersfield.

Other survivors include 5 grandchildren; two brothers, J. V. Gilley of Floydada and Irvin Gilley of Virginia; and one sister who is also living in Virginia.

Mrs. Yeary was born in Virginia on December 12, 1876, and was 63 years of age at the time of her death. She came to this county from Virginia in 1901.

Mrs. Yeary was a member of the Baptist church at Cedar Hill, having been baptized by Rev. G. W. Tubbs nearly 30 years ago.

Palbearers at the rites were Lee Pierson, Andrew Jetton, Obie Beard, Clifton Gilley, Gene Gilley, and Paul Box.

Blocked Highways, Stranded Motorist, and Freak Incidents Feature Worst Plains Blizzard in Years

Swept by one of the worst blizzards in years last Friday and Saturday, the Plains area was storm-bound for more than three days as drifted snow blocked all highways and railroads in this section, stranding hundreds of travelers and virtually halting all communications.

Snowfall was estimated at between six and seven inches in this area. Whipped by a 40-mile-an-hour gale, the heavy snow was blown in deep drifts across roads and highways, and hundreds of travelers, caught unawares by the suddenness of the storm, were forced to leave their cars and seek refuge in farm homes along their route.

While the snow was unusually wet, benefit to crops was lessened considerably by drifting. Many fields were swept nearly clean by the high wind. Moisture ranged from a quarter of an inch to as much as an inch and a half where drifts were heaviest.

Small Loss of Stock
Temperatures remained fairly high throughout the storm period, dropping to a low mark Saturday night at 21 degrees, and losses in stock reported thus far have been light.

Heaviest livestock loss was in hogs, according to reports. Hundreds of fattening hogs smothered to death during the storm, many farmers reporting heavy losses.

Town Is Crowded
All local hotel facilities were

Q. A. & P. MAROONED
A Q. A. & P. passenger train, marooned by snow drifts since last Saturday in a cut in the caprock between Floydada and Roaring Springs, was released Wednesday morning when snowblows finally cleared the tracks. The train arrived in Floydada Wednesday afternoon.

over-taxed Friday and Saturday nights by motorists stranded here by the storm, and the county courthouse, living quarters at the jail, fire station and other public buildings were used to house the crowds. Only one school bus completed its route Friday, and more than 100 school children from rural districts were forced to remain in Floydada over Sunday. Local homes were opened to the stranded students. The Lakeview bus completed its route before the storm closed roads in that area. The Dougherty bus reached Dougherty, but was halted there and could not complete its route to Antelope, and the Starkey bus was stalled several miles out near the Harlan Day farm, where the students were cared for Friday and Saturday.

Motorists Stranded
More than 50 cars were counted within a mile of town on the Floydada-Matador highway Friday afternoon, stalled in snowdrifts. Hundreds of others were scattered over highways throughout the county.

Among the stranded motorists was Maury Hopkins, former assistant manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, who with Erie Sherman of Oklahoma City spent two hours Friday night in a snow bank near Paducah. They reached Floydada Monday for a brief visit with relatives.

Many freakish occurrences marked the storm. Typical of the trouble of the man with a milk cow in a little cow shed was that of Duncan Hollums who dug his cow out of the shed Monday morning by removing a wall and dragging her off an 8-foot pile of snow. She (See SNOWSTORM page 4)

Vote on Soil District Is Set March 9

Attorney General Rules On Election; All Landowners May Vote In Referendum

Legal technicalities involving voting qualifications having been cleared up by Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, landowners of Floyd county will go to the polls Saturday, March 9th, to vote on the proposed establishment of a State Soil Conservation district in this county. W. H. Nelson, county polling superintendent for the proposed district, announced this week.

Four Voting Boxes

Four voting boxes will be set up in the county on that day, Nelson said. Voting box No. 1 will be located at the county courtroom in Floydada for qualified voters residing in Dougherty, Antelope, Baker, Pleasant Hill, Lakeview, Starkey, McCoy, Allmon, Harmony, Sand Hill, Floydada, Blanco and Campbell school districts.

J. T. McLain of Floydada will be the presiding judge, with T. E. Leach and W. F. Ferguson both of Floydada as clerks.

Voting box number 2 will be at the Lockney Beacon office in Lockney for qualified voters in Irick, Pleasant Valley, Muncy, Aiken, Lockney, Ramsey, Roseland, Sterling, Lone Star, Providence and Prairie Chapel school districts. P. L. Brown of Lockney will be presiding judge, with Henry W. Schacht and Robert W. Smith, jr., of Lockney as clerks.

Box number 3 will be located at Cedar Hill school house, for voters residing in Cedar, South Plains, Center, Fairview, Hillcrest, and Liberty school districts. J. C. Lackey of Lockney will be presiding judge, with C. V. Lemons and T. S. Brown, both of Lockney as clerks.

Box number 4 will be at the Edgin school house for voters in the Edgin and Fairmount school districts. J. A. Taylor of Quitaque will be presiding judge, with Cecil Purcell of Quitaque and George H. Pigg of Quitaque as clerks.

Attorney General Rules

Attorney General Mann has cleared up many rulings in regard to who may be eligible to vote in the election. Controversy and misunderstanding over election laws has held up a vote on the proposed districts since the law creating them was passed by the legislature last spring.

'Town Farmers' Eligible

Mann has ruled that any person holding legal or equitable title to land lying in the district, who resides within the district, is a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years of age, a resident of the state for 12 months and of the county or district in which he or she offers to vote for 6 months, and who has paid a poll tax or obtained an exemption certificate in accordance with the regular state election laws, can vote in the election.

Another controversial ruling in which it is stated that anyone owning land is eligible to vote has been explained by V. C. Marshall, chairman of the state soil conservation board, that this means any person owning land which is confronted (See SOIL DISTRICT page 4)

A veritable "child of the storm" is this two-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. Dunn of Mount Blanco, pictured above with her mother in the warm haven of a Floydada hospital.

Many a time in the old days the family doctor has raced the stork for miles through the snow in a horse-drawn sleigh, but here's the story of a modern mother who raced the stork to the doctor...not in a sleigh with a galloping team of horses, but over the snow in a Model A Ford, drawn by a span of mules!

It is the story of a family marooned by snowdrifts, 18 miles from Floydada and the nearest doctor, with a baby on the way. It is one of many stories born of the storm which swept the plains last Friday and Saturday.

There were no sleighs handy Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Dunn realized that her child would arrive with snow so deep that no car could hope to pass. But Wesley Hay on a neighboring farm had a Model A Ford, and Ralph Warren, another neighbor, contributed a span of mules.

Lil Abner fashion, the family moved out, Hay and Warren going along. The Ford was light and its wheels were high. The men took turn about, leading the team and breaking a trail, and the caravan reached the hospital in Floydada four and one-half hours later, fourteen hours ahead of the stork. The young lady above arrived at 10:15 Sunday morning, 8 and one-half pounds of healthy infant.

She's a two-day-old "lady with a past," and now all she needs is a name. The parents are open to suggestions. Maybe they'll call her "snowdrop."

Floydada, Lockney Get Fire Insurance Credits This Week

Savings to insurance policy holders in Lockney will amount to $1,751, and in Floydada to $2,075 in the revised standings.

Increased Acreage For Production of Sugar Beets Seen

Allotments in Floyd County Are Materially Increased For 1940 Crop

Floyd county sugar beet producers can expect a healthy increase in acreage allotments for 1940. County Agent D. F. Bredthauer announced this week.

The Floyd County ACA has been notified by the Rocky Ford, Colorado district from which allotments for this section are received that the sugar beet acreage allowed in this county for 1940 will be materially increased.

Preference in distributing the allotment will be given to old growers who have demonstrated their ability and ableness in growing the beets, the release stated. New growers may also receive allotments, but the committee may recommend the grower and his ability to produce beets. The distribution of sugar beet acreage in the county will not be allotted to any producer until the committee is satisfied that the grower will do his part in carrying out proper growing methods.

G. B. Johnson and Buck Sams will be at the Lockney Beacon office Tuesday, February 27, for the purpose of taking applications for sugar beet acreage allotments from both new and old growers, or applications may be made to Aleyce A. Hoots at the ACA office in Floydada until February 28, Bredthauer announced.

It is necessary that this information be compiled and in the hands of the Rocky Ford district committee before March 1, he pointed out.

Past experience has taught that it is impossible to expect a profitable return from the growing of sugar beets unless production is kept above 10 to 12 tons per acre. This requires proper seed bed preparation, application of at least 8 tons of barnyard manure per acre or planting on ground where a green manure crop and alfalfa or soybean crop has been turned under the previous season.

Name Winners In First Week Spelling Bee

More Than 400 Farmers Attend Irrigation School During Two-Day Session

Encouraged by the enthusiasm greeting the first Floyd County Irrigation school which was held at Lockney last Wednesday and Thursday, County Agent D. F. Bredthauer this week visualized a long-range program of agricultural education under direction of the county Land Use Planning committee which sponsored the Irrigation school.

More than 400 farmers from Floyd, Hale, Briscoe, Swisher, Deaf Smith, Castro and Lubbock counties took part in the two-day school. Agriculture agents and farm leaders from all sections of the Panhandle were present to observe procedure and reaction to an institution which is the first of its kind ever held in this section of the state.

At least 425 farmers took part in the school Wednesday and Thursday, Bredthauer said. More than 200 registered on the opening day, and the registration total was raised to 365 Thursday. A number of farmers, arriving late, failed to sign the register.

Lectures on various phases of irrigation brought immediate and enthusiastic response from farmers attending the school, and open forum discussions were conducted following the addresses.

At the close of the program Thursday afternoon, farmers adjourned from the Lockney Grammar school auditorium where the two-day meeting was held, to the Frank Perkins farm south of Lockney where an irrigation well was put under test and a demonstration series of lectures and demonstrations by Albert Molenaar of the Utilization Division, REA, from Washington, D. C. Molenaar went into the problem of costs of installation and probable profits of irrigation thoroughly in an effort to demonstrate under what conditions and in what manner irrigation wells may be made profitable.

The REA specialist conducted the test demonstration at the Perkins farm Thursday afternoon.

The second unit in the program will probably be carried out in another school later this spring, when a study of potatoes under irrigation, insect and disease control, and co-operative marketing plans will be conducted.

Demonstrations will follow up discussions of all topics, Bredthauer said. Practical demonstrations are planned throughout the year at the proper seasons, and educational tours will be conducted.

Included in the long-range program will be work on dry land farming as well as irrigation. Four sub-committees are now operating in (See Irrigation School page 4)

Dallas Youth Is Indicted Monday For Theft of Car

Convening Monday morning in brief session, the Floyd county grand jury indicted Conway Beal England, 20 year old Dallas youth, of theft involving property valued at more than $50. The case will probably be tried in district court at the current term.

England was arrested in Alpine last week, and a car stolen here three weeks ago from Mrs. Tom Hay was found in his possession. Sheriff Fred Clark made a trip to Alpine Monday of last week to return the prisoner and the stolen car.

England is being held in the Floyd county jail pending trial.

The car, a 1938 Ford V-8, was stolen here three weeks ago. The theft was reported immediately to state officers, and later when information was received indicating that the machine had been transported across the state line into Clovis, N. M., to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The arrest was made by Alpine officers.

District court will convene Thursday morning for three criminal trials. The case of Cardinal vs. Cardinal, set for trial last week, has been continued to the March term of court, and a case in which B. L. Handley is suing the First National company, hearing of which was started last week, has also been continued by Judge Chapman.

WPA Road Workers Make Good Showing On Newest Project

Improvement On Road South From Lockney Includes Much Lake Grading

Sixty-two thousand six hundred and one man hours of work for men on the WPA rolls in Floyd County are being expended in the road construction job that started on January 1 from Lockney south to the Blanco canyon.

J. L. Laminack, supervisor on the job yesterday estimated that the job will be completed sometime in April, probably on April 15, and that about $4,000 per month will have been expended on the job for labor.

The project is set up to improve 13 miles of road leading south out of Lockney, about 10 miles running due south from Lockney to Blanco canyon. Several lake fills are included in the work that will be done, and some culverts, now much needed, will be constructed.

Eight to 10 trucks a day are being used now on the job and 1,500 to 2,000 yards of dirt daily is being moved, said Laminack.

Officially the project is set up as WPA No. 14211 at a total cost not to exceed $23,545. Of this amount federal funds will be used for 60.7 per cent and county funds for 39.3 per cent.

Road East is Completed

Prior to that time several dollars was spent on the road east of Cedar to reduce the climb on the caprock and make access easier to the Flomot area from plains points.

COUNTY SCHOOLS RECEIVE $1 PER CAPITA ALLOTMENT

Floyd county schools received $3 per capita state apportionment last week, according to County Superintendent Guffee.

Funds totalling $2,721.10 were received for distribution to schools in this county. The payments bring the per capita payments made for the 1939-40 term of school to $3, leaving $13 per capita of the $22 apportionment yet to be paid.

Manifold papers, Hesperian.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sanders of Albuquerque, New Mexico visited here this week-end. They were guests in the home of their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hanks, a brother Fred Hanks and a sister Mrs. Clifford Warren.

Seniors Present Unique Program at Assembly Wednesday

The Senior girls displayed the talent in their ranks Wednesday morning in assembly when they presented a rather novel program which was originated by Mr. Davis. Eleven girls, each representing a year in school and giving a list of important events happening in that year, covered the eleven years of school life for this year's graduating class. The most popular song for that year was sung either as a solo or by a group. Maureen Hart accompanied the singers at the piano.

Many students expressing ideas about the program said that they enjoyed it, since it was something different.

The girls who participated in the program were: Mary Frances McRoberts, Jane Graham, LaNell Harmon, Mary Denison, LaVerne Russell, Irene Daily, Mildred Stovall, Ruth Simpson, Pauline Wood, Lovelle Ginn and Lula Lee Teal.

The student body was quite surprised when Mr. Travis introduced Mrs. J. J. Spikes, a pioneer woman of this country, who in turn introduced Mrs. Temple Ann Ellis gave a very interesting review of her book "Road to Destiny," a saga of the struggle of a pioneer family in the days when Crosby county was yet young. This was especially interesting because it is so near home. Mrs. Ellis is now living in Lubbock.

Snowbound Students Enjoy Long Week-End Parties

House parties and picnics seemed to be the order of the week-end for bus students who were stranded in town during the blizzard. Well, maybe it wasn't such a party, but nevertheless, they all made the best of a bad situation.

Many homes were honored by the presence of uninvited guests, but the hospitable people of our fair city were only too glad to accommodate the bus students who could not get to their homes. The city hall, the jury room, and other places furnished shelters for the students during the week-end. But it didn't turn out so badly because everyone seemed to have had a grand time.

Eddie Brown said his dad struggled through snow drifts to bring him a suit case full of clothes, and now he is ready for another blizzard since he is going to take up residence in town for a while.

But Ellen Brock said she got awfully homesick to see her mamma and was plenty ready to go home.

Jennie Lou Harper, who was unfortunate enough to get home, wished that she had gotten stranded in town so she could have spent the night with the other students.

Opal Knight and Anna Cates have received supplies from home and are going to stay in town for a while. Anna, Cleo Kirk and others found it necessary to purchase some slacks (on credit) in order to make their appearance at school Monday.

Gilmer Denison says they had a lot of fun at the City Hall; they had boxing gloves, dominoes and pool tables for entertainment, so they didn't even think of the storm.

Mildred Stovall, who hasn't been home since Thursday, declares that it's a good way to get some new clothes—just go down and charge it to dad!

Imogene Woody says that hiking around in the snow hunting automobile batteries and pushing cars out of the drifts is a lot of fun.

The Lakeview bus was the only bus that completed its route Friday; the Dougherty bus got to Dougherty, but not to Antelope; the Fairview bus got out eight miles and then returned to Floydada, there was so much snow that the driver could not see and the bus could not make the drifts. The Starkey bus was stalled near Harlan Day's home and the driver and students spent the night there. The Sand Hill bus got stuck several times out of town, and on Monday when this paper went to press, the bus was still almost covered with snow. The bus Mr. Baxter drives went out to the Sand Hill bus, after the driver came in to report the fate. There were students from the two busses to find places for them to stay. Mr. Travis, Mr. Linder, and Miss Rees were busy in the school trying to find places for the students, while Mr. Russell and Mr. Camp were busy taking the students to homes here in town. Mr. Camp stated he had pushed fifteen cars, all within the city limits, who had either been stalled or were in a ditch, by six o'clock. So, all in all, the blizzard furnished new experiences for lots of folks, but enough is enough.

● Women often inherit money or receive cash from life insurance. The bank is the one place to which they can turn for advice and protection in money matters. The self-supporting woman, also, finds banking facilities indispensable. ## Lockney, Floydada Bands Plan Joint Concert On 27th

On the twenty-seventh of this month the Lockney Band will visit at Floydada. The Band students will be given the day off for practices, and sectional rehearsals will be held in the morning. Mr. Blount of Lockney will conduct the reeds while Mr. Camp will conduct the brass and percussion. In the afternoon full band will be held with the two bands combined to practice a few previously selected numbers. If it can be arranged the combined bands will hold a concert, free to the public, on that night. The Floydada High School Band will return the Lockney Band visit some time in the near future.

It is only fitting that we make some mention of the bands attendance the recent basketball games. They have provided entertainment for the spectators between halves and at other intermissions.

ESSAY WRITING

Beat Lockney! That is the slogan that is in the heart of every student who is entering the Interscholastic League events this year, and essay writing, little as it may seem, is no exception. There are only two students who are entering essay writing, Lovelle Ginn and Margaret Tubbs, two seniors who are really out to win.

Miss Cade is sponsoring the essay writing in P. H. S. and she is lots of help to those who are entering.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

Looky what the Sophs have! New students! And are they proud of them? Just you ask them and find out!

Two boys and one girl have been added to the soph class. The boys are R. W. Burchfield, who comes from Socorro, New Mexico. He thinks FHS is ok so far. Billy Newberry is from Roaring Springs.

Alice Helms comes from Crosbyton. She is becoming a friend of all the girls and is a "swell" baseball player.

SPELLING ENTRIES LIGHT

Spelling is being coached this year by Miss Eunice Howell. Only three pupils are entered, and they are Maxine Officer, Donald Cornelius, and James Wester.

DEBATE AT RALLS

The boys and girls debate teams went to Ralls last Thursday afternoon and debated the Ralls teams. Mr. Linder accompanied Louise Willson, Frances Field, Mary Frances McRoberts, Bruce Foster, and Bennie Crawford. Mary Frances McRoberts entered debate Monday.

SHERIFF'S SALE

THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Floyd
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That by virtue of a certain Alias Order of Sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Bastrop County, on the 16th day of January 1940, by Vernon Eskew, clerk of said court, for the sum of Thirteen Hundred Seventy Eight & 50/100 ($1378.50) Dollars, and cost of suit, under a Judgment in favor of Sam Denman, as Plaintiff, against Edward Kennedy, Defendant, in a certain cause in said Court, No. 9605 and styled Sam Denman, Plaintiff, vs. Edward Kennedy, Defendant, placed in my hands for service, I, Fred N. Clark as Sheriff of Floyd County, Texas, did, on the 7th day of February 1940, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Floyd County, Texas, described as follows, to wit: Lots 5, 6, 7 in Block 14, and Lots 18, 19, 20 in Block 15, Wilson Addition, in Lockney, in Floyd County, Texas, and levied upon as the property of said Edward Kennedy, Defendant, and that on the first Tuesday in March 1940, the same being the 5th day of said month, at the Court House door, of

Third Term for Lockney Is Big Question Mark

If I'm not mistaken Lockney has taken two terms of football for us. Are we going to stand for them to take a third term? Lockney is saying "What has Roosevelt got that we haven't got?"

I tell you they have some competition, our hat is in the ring and they might as well train for a fight. What is the difference between the Russians and Finnish war and Lockney versus Whirlwinds? Lockney has the equipment and we have the brains. When it is time for us to tackle the Longhorns we are going to see them just like the blizzard came to see us, and boy are they going to be snow bound.

So until then, Lockney, we will see you south of the border.

Hesperette Staff Gets Rest During Freshman Edition

Most of the regular Hesperette staff had a rest last week when the Freshman class published their annual class edition. The freshmen members of the staff, however, had more work than usual, as they wrote almost all the articles that appeared on the page.

The February 29 issue will be Sophomore edition; March 14 junior issue; and April 11 will climax the class editions when the Seniors take over the journalistic duties.

Congratulations are in order to Netha Denson, the editor, and everyone that helped in having such a good paper last week. The upper classmen are going to have to be excellent to excel those Freshmen.

HESP—HISTORY—6

Last Thursday a former student of FHS, W. C. Boren, spoke to the history class 10-A, for about 40 minutes. His subject was "Big Business." Incidentally, the class missed a test.

W. C. was formerly an extemporaneous speaking winner in FHS. "Gee, he's a good speaker. Where did he learn so much?" were some of the remarks heard about his speech.

Floyd County, in the City of Floydada, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., by virtue of said levy and said Order of Sale, I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said Edward Kennedy, Defendant.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Floyd County Hesperian, a newspaper published in Floyd County.

Witness my hand, this 7th day of February 1940.

A Story In Song By Two Love Lorn Lassies . . . Wow

(By Netha Denson and Sharon Fuqua)

As I was coming back from "South of the Border," I had the "Jitters" for "Billy." He didn't even say "Goodbye" the "Scatterbrain." I was "Out of the Frying Pan into the Fire," then I met "Oh Johnny, Oh" and the "Stars Fell out of Heaven" in the "Middle of a Kiss." "You're a Lucky Guy," I say to him "When the Dance is Over," because I am a sister of "La Cucaracha." You are "Careless," he told me, just because it's "Indian Summer" and you know I'll be "Faithful Forever," you little "Chatter-box." By that I think he is in love with me, so trying to be romantic, I ask, "Could It Be Moon Love?" He said, "Could Be" but "Stop! It's Wonderful" whatever it is. The "Love Bug" had bitten me and everything was grand when "Johnny" made love to me in "The South American Way." We had a lot of fun "At the Balliki." In case you don't know, that's on the "East Side of Heaven." Why don't you "Stop Beating Around the Mulberry Bush." I ask him and ask me to marry you? He answered, "I'm not in the Mood," "To you Sweetheart, Aloah!" Johnny tells me in "Blue Hawaii."

"It's a Hap-Hap-Happy Day," when "In a Little Dutch Garden," I met Joe, whom I call, "The Little Red Fox." "Always and always," I shall remember that dream, oh, "Darn That Dream," the dream in which I caught him. When I awakened I found I had been only dreaming, "A Vagabond Dream." Then "Little Sir Echo" came in to my "Heart and Soul." We "Build a Stairway to the Stars," "And the Angels Sing" the "Beer Barrel Polka" that is, until "Josephine" came along. They "Anchors Aweigh" and leaves me "Grieving." Then one day as I was walking "Listening to the Mocking Bird," I "On the Sidewalks of New York," meet "My Little Skipper." He came and went with the "Ebb Tide." And then I meet "Frankie and Johnny" and managed to break up that affair but Frankie ran away.

FRESHMEN NEWS

The freshmen are lacking in genius this week. It must be because they worked so hard on the Freshmen edition last week. Even so they are enjoying the snow very much. Some have been building snow men, some have been sleigh riding, and some, well—they are sissies and won't even get out of the house. Boy, they're really missing something!

In this kind of weather many are absent from school because they cannot get to and from school. (The lucky kids). Well, anyway, we hope they have to come back before long. No hard feelings, of course.

Oh, well, it's fun while it lasts, kids, so have your fun before the snow melts.

SENIOR NEWS

Senior check really looks bare these days. The snow kept many of the seniors out of school. The study hall, usually full of dignified seniors, now looks like a benefit dance in Floydada given for Lockney Longhorns.

The Ernie Hesperette staff are acting like two year olds out to make whoopee. Fighting over all day suckers. Tsk, tsk, tsk.

This is the Old Fossil signing off until next week at this same time when we may have more news.

Junior Play Goes Into Rehearsal; Cast Is Selected

"Toby Helps Out" a three act comedy play has arrived for the juniors.

The characters have been cast temporarily with Jessie Lee Michel as Johnny. Johnny is a good natured boy about fifteen. He is a leader among his friends.

Jane played by Frances Field is about fourteen, pretty, vivacious, who longed for romantic life of the character Geraldine in the "Flower of the Valley." Matra Yearwood plays the part of Molly who is fifteen and very sure of herself and is inclined to be a little spiteful at times. Dave, played by Bruce Foster is a tall good-looking boy of fifteen who looks the part of a hero. Mortimer, played by Doyle Walls, is fourteen rather spindly and entirely without a sense of humor. Betty Lou, although she is thirteen, appears younger for she lisp. This part is played by Louise Willson. Toby who is a typical cut up is played by Bennie Crawford.

Mrs. Harvey who hasn't been cast is a woman about 50 and is very determined in what she thinks. Mr. Phelps hasn't been cast either and is one of the judges.

The play is an old fashioned melodrama.

This play is being put on to raise money for the junior-senior banquet. The old, young and middle age will enjoy it.

DECLAMATION

Miss Smith is the coach of declamation. Students she is coaching are: Robert Conner, Maxine Officer, Mildred Stovall, Irene Daily, Gracie Waller, Florence Lloyd, and Kenneth Mickey. Those entering not coached by Miss Smith are Florene Cates, Lee Dale Clubb Bruce Foster, and Mary Frances McRoberts.

Snowstorm Lays Blockade of Drifts Over Entire Plains

Hospitality Gets Test
The far-famed western hospitality characteristic of this section was put to a real test during the week-end as storm-bound travelers sought shelter at farm homes along the highways.

Herschel Green, who lives 9 miles east of Floydada on the Matador highway reported 40 guests at his home Friday and Saturday nights. The Green farmhouse was packed far beyond capacity during the two-day storm period, but no travelers were turned away.

Harlan Day, 18 miles south of Floydada, entertained 16 school children from the stranded McCoy-Starkley school bus which left Floydada Friday afternoon. The children were forced to remain until Sunday before roads could be cleared sufficiently to allow travel.

Other school buses returned to Floydada in the face of the storm, and more than 100 school children from rural districts were cared for in Floydada homes throughout the week-end. Buses were held in town Monday, though at that time Supt. Travis reported that all but 38 of the children had been enabled to reach home.

Slight Trouble on REA
Reports that practically all lines of the Floyd County Rural Electric Co-op were without power during the storm period were exaggerated. L. W. Chapman, co-op superintendent, said this week.

Trouble was reported on the lines at ten o'clock Friday morning, Chapman said. The superintendent and linemen left immediately for Petersburg sub-station and after switching placed half the power through each of two sub-stations at Aiken and Petersburg and had lines in operation by one o'clock that afternoon. Only the south end of the line, including about 120 members, was affected and these were without power for only 3 hours Friday.

Members at Dougherty, however, were less fortunate. A fuse was blown out in a transformer between Floydada and Dougherty at ten o'clock Friday morning and although the trouble was not serious, linemen were unable to reach the fuse box because of snowdrifts until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon when the power was turned on again in that section. Chapman and his crew were marooned at Petersburg until late Sunday afternoon.

The majority of the patrons on the lines had uninterrupted service throughout the storm, however, Chapman said.

Tractor Turns Taxi
Fred Batty, president of the Floyd County ACA, and Tate Jones, both living near the Dougherty community east of Floydada, were caught in town by the storm Friday, and Saturday morning after other means of transportation failed, conceived the idea of driving a tractor through the drifts to reach home.

A light rubber-tired tractor was rented from Mark Martin, local dealer, and after a brief test run through drifts in town, the two men set out on their 11-mile journey. An hour later, Jones phoned news of their arrival.

Other Floyd county farmers used tractors Saturday afternoon to reach town to call for mail and supplies.

Buses Cancelled
All buses through this section were halted Friday afternoon, and travel was not resumed over the highways in any direction until Sunday afternoon when the first bus from Lubbock arrived here. Buses between Floydada and Plainview were running again Monday.

Trains were held up by drifts Friday. The Santa Fe passenger from Plainview arrived here at noon Saturday, but the Q. A. & P. bound for Floydada out of Quanah was caught in snowdrifts near Roaring Springs Saturday morning and was marooned there until Tuesday.

Mail Service Relayed
All mail service out of Floydada was routed by way of the Santa Fe to Plainview. Postmaster Barbara H. Smith said Monday. The star-route to Silvertown was scheduled to run Monday as far as South Plains, but the Port Worth and Denver passenger was reported stalled near Turkey and the mail was routed to Plainview.

Service on rural routes was held up Friday and Saturday, and carriers attempted to make only part of their routes Monday.

This mid-week there are still east and west roads all over Floyd county which are impassable. Mail carriers have taken a lot of punishment trying to get around to their patrons with the mails. Friday G. N. Shirey, carrier on Route 5, did not reach home. He stayed at the O. W. Lotzsch home until Sunday when he reached Floydada by way of the highway.

Stories of snowdrifts high as the barn and automobile owners who will not be able to get to their garages until the week-end, have come in by the score. Experience of R. H. Willis, Route 5, is an example. He walked to town Sunday to see if he could get any mail, including the Hesperian, to take home. He dug his milk cow out of six feet of snow and his chicken house was covered up in several feet of snow. Many farmers lost out to 40 head of hogs from smothering.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jackson, enroute home Friday from a visit with relatives at Oklahoma City, stopped at Paducah enroute when the Q. A. & P. train could not negotiate cuts east of Roaring Springs. They finally reached home by private conveyance Sunday night.

A school bus bound for South Plains out of Lockney Friday afternoon was stalled by snowdrifts about two miles south of town. Rescuers from Lockney went out in cars to bring the children and driver back to town. The children were billeted in town Friday night and their parents notified that they were safe.

Two Hartley children, a girl aged 13 and a boy aged 6, became separated from the group at the bus and failed to report in town. Fearful that they might be lost in the blizzard, a search party was organized and hunted most of the night for the youngsters. They were located Saturday morning at the Childers home in Lockney, where they had spent a warm and comfortable night.

Prizes County Equipment
State Highway Department Road Maintenance Foreman A. J. Hamilton, who with his men spent little time in bed from Friday until Monday, finally announced that roads would be traveled in all directions in Floyd, Crosby and Briscoe counties except Highway 86 east from Silvertown on which the crews worked Monday and Tuesday.

"I don't know what we would have done if we hadn't been able to borrow Floyd county commissioners' equipment to fight the big snowdrifts during the week-end," said Hamilton. "All the equipment we have is out-of-date for the job we had to do, but the county machinery really did the work when we finally got it assembled. The commissioners all had emergency jobs they had to finish for their districts before they could loan us their equipment and men." Hamilton got up out of a sick bed to undertake the huge job. He felt about as good or better after it was all over as he would have had he stayed in bed, he said.

Experience of stranded motorists was many and varied. G. L. Snodgrass, Carrick Snodgrass and C. O. Spence were typical. Spence and the elder Snodgrass reached home Sunday afternoon from Lubbock after spending Friday afternoon, Saturday and Sunday trying to break through the snowdrifts from Lubbock. Carrick Snodgrass reached home finally Monday after getting within a few miles of his residence on several attempts. Mr. and Mrs. Dee Johnson reached home Sunday from Lubbock after being tied up by the snowdrifts from Friday afternoon.

City Engineer Injured
John Lewis, one of the engineers at the city light and power plant, was back on the job Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock with a patched eye and 16 stitches in his forehead after a narrow escape in a wreck on the ice-covered highway Friday afternoon. He remembers starting home and recalls waking up in his car on the highway east of Idalou three miles Friday afternoon. His car was right side up but all the glass was broken in his car and he was bleeding profusely from a bad cut. Neighboring residents took him to a sanitarium in Lubbock where he was patched up. Several attempts to reach home finally resulted in a trip by tractor from Petersburg Sunday afternoon.

T. T. Hamilton, enroute home from Olton Friday afternoon stuck near a farm house at Halfway and spent two nights and a day there. He telephoned his family from Olton at noon Sunday to learn they were without word from him and very much upset. He had "sent word" and thought they knew he was safely sheltered.

Tractors Negotiate Lanes
When all other kinds of machinery failed to negotiate the huge snowdrifts, rubber-tired tractors of practically all makes were doing the job beautifully. A half-dozen or more tractors loaned by local agen-

Soil District—

In other words, Marshall explained, a land owner may live within an incorporated district or township and own land outside the township within the proposed district and still be eligible to vote. It is also deemed that a person owning land only within the incorporate township, say a home, would hardly be concerned with erosion problems; but if he has land or farm within the county which is subject to erosion, thereby this party would be interested in the welfare of the land and would be a qualified voter.

A three-fourths majority vote of landowners voting in the county will be necessary for the creation of the district. County Agent D. F. Bredthauer pointed out this week, stating that farmers are voting for the purpose of creating a district to secure aid from state and federal agencies as a body. The election does not carry strict land-use regulations, he said, as this feature will have to be voted on after the district has been formed. At that time, 90 percent of the farmers voting in the election must favor the proposed regulations before they can be put into effect.

Governed By Board
The board of supervisors is the governing body of the district, as has power, as provided in the act of legislature, to develop and carry out comprehensive plans for conservation methods and erosion control in the district. They may carry out these plans in cooperation with local landowners without assistance of county, state, or federal agencies if they desire.

The supervisors do not have the power to levy taxes nor issue bonds. If requested, agencies will assist the district to the extent that their facilities are available in such phases as the program as are consistent with their policies of operation. Such agencies as the A. & M. College Extension Service, the Department of Vocational Agriculture, the Farm Security Administration, etc., will carry on their work as they are doing now. The Soil Conservation service will furnish trained men to disperse such request assistance so far as men and money are available. These men will make complete conservation plans for farms which request assistance from the Board of Supervisors. Equipment may be requested from county, state and federal governments; AAA payments may be utilized for soil building practices in conformance with AAA regulations. No other aid in putting conservation practices into effect is contemplated in the near future except where CCC camps are available.

If the need becomes apparent, the supervisors may prepare land-use regulations, and submit them for public hearings and for a vote of the land owners of the entire district. A nine-tenths majority of all land owners of the district who vote is required to give the land-use regulations the force of law. Land-use regulations must apply uniformly to all farms of the district except as conditions vary. In order to enforce land-use regulations, after they are put into effect, the supervisors must show that they are not being observed on particular lands and that such non-observance is interfering with the prevention or control of erosion on other lands of the district.

Additional territory may be added to a district by a petition bearing signatures of fifty or a two-thirds majority. After a district has been in existence five years or more, it may be discontinued upon petition of fifty or a majority of the land owners, and by a simple majority in an election.

Mrs. S. J. Chenoweth returned home Monday from Rochester where she spent the past week visiting with her mother, Mrs. T. J. Everts. She returned by way of Sweetwater and visited with her sisters.

For the purpose hauled snow-bound people in Floydada to their homes in various parts of the county and any number of school children reached their homes the same way. Jobs of snaking cars out of snowdrifts were done in great numbers, also, by the tractors, which snuck their huge tires into the drifts and climbed on over pulling their loads behind them.

Typical experiences of travelers was that of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Cook, who left Tulsa, Oklahoma, early Friday for their home near Hillcrest in Floyd county. They spent seven hours Friday between Crowell and Paducah, and came on in Sunday afternoon, plowing huge snowdrifts at high speed after they left the highway and the road north from Booth's Spur to their farm home. "We were lucky but a lot of folks were not," said Mrs. Cook of their experience. She told of one family they encountered under the caprock that had been out in the weather nearly 24 hours without food or water, an eighteen-month-old baby being in the number.

Besides doing duty on the cemetery road out of Lockney and opening up the branch line of Highway 70 through Lockney Saturday the road equipment of Commissioner Harris of Precinct 2, was used to help open up the highway from Floydada to within a mile of Plainview and also on the highway east from Floydada to the Motley county line.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Cooper Held At Lockney

LOCKNEY, Feb. 20.—Last rites for Mrs. Minerva Cooper, 81, years old, of Aiken were spoken Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church in Lockney with Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lockney, in charge, assisted by Rev. A. A. Shaw, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. R. C. Malone, Baptist pastor from Plainview, formerly pastor at Aiken.

Mrs. Cooper died Friday morning at her home in Aiken community. Interment was in the Lockney cemetery, under direction of Crager Funeral home.

Mrs. Cooper was born September 1, 1858, having passed her 81st birthday at the time of her death. She is survived by two children, Mrs. J. E. Hampton of Aiken and Mrs. Neale of Dallas.

Funeral bearers were W. D. Colson, C. P. McPherson, Carl Smith, Joe Anderson, Middy McCulloch, and Earl Hackley. Floral attendants were Mrs. W. D. Colson, Mrs. Billie Barnes, Mrs. C. P. McPherson, and Mrs. Kelly.

Attending the services from Floydada were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and C. C. Huckabee.

REV. WELCH TO PREACH AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FRIDAY NIGHT AT 7:30 P. M.
Rev. B. C. Welch will preach at the Cumberland Presbyterian church in Floydada Friday evening. Services will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular church services were not held Sunday, due to the fact that Rev. Welch was unable to reach Floydada from Petersburg over roads which were blocked by snow.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank each and every one for their help and kindness, and for their beautiful floral offerings, during the illness and death of our wife and mother.
B. Yeary and children.

Irrigation School—
(Continued from page one) the county under the Land-Use Planning committee. Bredthauer pointed out. They are Irrigation, Soil and Water Conservation, Dairy Development, and Boy's 4-H club committees.

As the above programs are established and in operation, other committees will be named to carry out programs on other phases of modern agriculture.

R. E. Dickson, superintendent of the Spur Experiment Station, who was scheduled to speak Thursday on "Cattle Feeding" was unable to be present, and was replaced on the program by his assistant, J. K. Riggs, who is in charge of that work at the Spur farms.

D. L. Jones, superintendent of the Lubbock Experiment Station, discussed problems affecting irrigation before the school Thursday morning, stressing the necessity of plowing or listing the ground to a depth of at least 7 inches and watering thoroughly a week or ten days before planting. This method, Jones pointed out, has proved the most effective and most profitable on irrigated farms under test. Planting too soon after watering will result in too hasty growing of the plant at the start, he said.

H. E. Knapp, agriculturist with the American Crystal Sugar company, Rocky Ford, Colorado, touched on a subject of considerable interest to local farmers Thursday afternoon in discussing "Sugar Beets," a field that is rapidly expanding in this section.

"From ten to twenty thousand acres of the crop under cultivation will be necessary to warrant the establishment of a sugar mill in this area," he told local producers. Knapp pointed out that by-products of the sugar beet, tops and pulp from the mill, are excellent for stock feeding.

School At South Plains Disbanded During Snow Storm

The school bus from Lockney bearing South Plains students did not attempt to make the trip. Supt. Scoggins of South Plains was notified of the decision by G. D. Tate, Lockney principal, Friday afternoon.

Birch The Master Magician Is Coming

Entertainer Who Presents Program February 29 Here Hailed As Thurston Successor

Announcement was made today that Birch, America's foremost magician, with his company of assisting artists will play an engagement in this city on Thursday, February 29 at Floydada high school auditorium.

The Birch show is the largest magic production now on tour in this country. Equipment, scenery and effects valued in excess of $25,000 are carried and will be seen at the local performance.

Of the entire remarkable array of illusions, perhaps the most baffling is the famous Hindu Rope Trick. For centuries this has been the most talked-of and colorful of all feats of legerdemain. An ordinary piece of rope is tossed into the air, it remains rigid, a Hindu boy climbs the rope, and in the twinkling of an eye disappears!

Slicing a beautiful girl into four parts, shooting a live canary into a burning light bulb, walking thru a sheet of solid steel causing a live pony to vanish in mid-air and many other startling mysteries will be presented by this master magician and company in a magic pot-pourri of thrills and fun.

The current tour is Birch's eighteenth annual one, and his attractive personality makes him one of the most capable and pleasing entertainers the magic world has ever produced. Thurston publicly declared that Birch is the only magician sufficiently talented to be his successor and the man he picked to "fill his shoes."

Heading the Birch staff of assisting artists is Mabel Sperry, hailed by critics as the world's greatest girl xylophonist. Miss Sperry charms music lovers everywhere with brilliant solos on her special built Marimba Xylophone.

"We believe we have been of real service to our community in booking the Birch engagement. It is not often that we are permitted to view a performance of such real merit," one of the officers of the Junior class said declared in discussing the contract and show. Proceeds will go to Junior class fund.

Horses, Tractors Pinch Hitting For Autos At Center

CENTER, Feb. 20.—The tractor and horse became the chief mode of travel here from Friday until Monday, when a few cars were able to get through the snowdrifts to Floydada.

Friday night all but three families of school children were lodged in the Jordan and Collins homes. Roe Jones called for his daughters, leaving six children in each home for the night. All of them managed to get home Saturday afternoon except Kenneth Tubbs and Eugene Mayfield, who were forced to remain until Sunday afternoon when they reached their homes, one by tractor and the other on horseback.

The storm and need of helping each other has shown the spirit of neighborliness in the community in many instances.

Mrs. A. A. Tubbs spent Friday night alone as George and Margaret got as far as the Ross home and could go no further. Kenneth was in the Jordan home and Mr. Tubbs was at his father's place. He had driven into a snowdrift and stalled his car.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jackson rode over on horseback Friday night and spent the night with Mrs. Montgomery.

Rev. O. E. Edwards will preach at Center on Sunday, February 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry have moved from the Meredith farm. Otis Anderson has been helping with the work and will stay until a family is secured.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and son have moved to the Hicks place east of Fairview. They have been with Mrs. Montgomery since the first of September. A new family from Athens will move to the Montgomery place when the roads are passable.

C. M. Meredith spent Friday and Saturday night in town and got home at noon Sunday by leaving his car two miles west of home and walking in.

MRS. C. P. LOOPER ABLE TO RETURN HOME FROM A LUBBOCK HOSPITAL MON.

Mrs. C. P. Looper was brought home Monday from the Plains hospital at Lubbock where she was carried Tuesday of last week for an operation.

She is thought to be improving nicely, her daughter Mrs. Martin Brown said Wednesday.

Announces For Senate

Judge Marshall Formby of Dickens, a candidate for state senator from the 30th district of which Floyd county is a part, was visiting friends here Tuesday.

Formby is serving his fourth year as county judge of Dickens county and during his administration the county has gone on a cash basis for the first time in 15 years and its citizens are enjoying the lowest tax rate in 22 years. Adequate relief projects have been sponsored during this time.

Formby was born in Hopkins county and moved to McAdoo when he was five years old. He is well known in Floyd county.

A graduate of Texas Tech, Formby is president of the 40,000 ex-students of the college and this year sponsored a co-op house for boys to attend Tech and obtain room and board at cost. He is president of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioner's association and has taken the lead in obtaining larger WPA quotas for West Texas and made a trip to Washington in January to work out a method to certify relief clients.

Morrison Goes By Air To Reach Road Maintainer Saturday

DOUGHERTY, Feb. 21.—When Jim Morrison, who runs the road maintainer in precinct 4, received a call to aid the state highway department in clearing the snow-bound highway between Floydada and Matador Saturday, he was at his home three miles north of the highway and the maintainer was some 20 miles away in the Lakeview community. Dot Hammonds, a neighbor, came to the rescue by offering to fly Morrison to Lakeview in his plane.

Morrison accepted, and the men made a perfect landing on the road just north of the P. J. Wilkes home at Lakeview. Jim mounted the maintainer and cleared his own path to the highway.

School Children Marooned
When the Dougherty-Antelope school bus out of Floydada was stranded in a snow drift four miles south of Dougherty Friday afternoon, the driver, James Wise, and 16 school children walked half a mile to the farm home of S. M. Crawford where they remained until the storm cleared and parents of the children could rig up wagons, sleighs, and saddle horses to get the children home.

The bus was still buried in the snow at this writing, and the pupils are enjoying some forced holidays.

Miss Lide Cooper, district home demonstration agent from College Station, visited last Thursday in the home of Mrs. C. A. Caffee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Newton spent the week-end in Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Powell were in Floydada Sunday.

Myrna Lee Marshall of Floydada is visiting her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Poole and Dr. and Mrs. Warren G. Poole of Oklahoma City were in Levelland Thursday on business.

Tom J. Boyd spent the week-end in Hereford and Plainview.

Local
DOUGHERTY, February 14.—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Handley, and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Handley of Lockney were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Campbell Sunday.

Macel Jones of Crosbyton spent the week-end with her father, W. B. Jones.

Sunday guests in the J. T. Poole home were B. B. Guley and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Attebery of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Hunsucker and baby and W. C. Hunsucker of McAdoo.

Helien and Nadine Powell, Mollie Edwards and Imogene Woody, students at Floydada high school, have made arrangements to stay in town for the next two months so that they can play on the volleyball team.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Newton were Lubbock visitors last Wednesday.

Mrs. Earl Foster and twin daughters, Doris and Dorothy attended a quilting at the Gearhart home at Baker Friday.

Auto Owner Advised Of State Laws

Stapleton Gives Vehicle Owners Point Of View Of Commissioners

County Attorney John Stapleton told the Hesperian in an interview Tuesday morning that he had been instructed by the Commissioners' Court to advise every motor vehicle owner of Floyd county of the rules and regulations concerning the registration of motor vehicles.

Article 6675a-2 of the Civil Statutes provides in part: "Every owner of a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer used or to be used upon the public highways of this state * * * shall apply each year to the State Highway Department through the county tax collector of the county in which he resides, for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him * * * for the ensuing or calendar year or unexpired portion thereof."

Article 6686, subdivision e, reads as follows: "All registration fees shall be paid in the county in which the owner lives at the time of registration of said motor vehicle," and subdivision f of the same article provides: "Any person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than Fifty ($50.00) dollars and not more than One Hundred Fifty ($150.00) dollars, and all costs of court."

"After the quoting of the above statutes, very little explanation seems necessary," Stapleton said. "If you live in Floyd county at the time you register your car, you must register it in this county or be guilty of violating the law. Even though your car or truck is to be operated almost entirely outside Floyd county, if you live here this is the only county in which it may be legally registered."

Get Your Plates at Home
"We would particularly like to call this fact to the attention of Floyd county residents who buy new cars from out-of-county dealers: Be sure to get your plates in Floyd county; if you do not, you are violating the law and are subject to prosecution."

"But the best reason of all for registering your car or truck in Floyd county is that Floyd county retains every cent of the registration fee and every cent of it is spent on Floyd county roads. I know that we are all interested in good roads for Floyd county, and I know that we are all anxious to tote fair with our county and see that it gets all the money that is rightfully its."

"Still another thing that I might call to the attention of motor vehicle owners is that the higher courts have ruled that when you do not register your car or truck in the county of your residence, you are, in effect, without license, and you may be required to register your motor vehicle again."

ander home.
Mrs. Bill Poole and Mrs. Chet Caffee spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Smith at Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baxter of Fairview were guests Sunday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Campbell.

Quilt Show Dates Week March 4-9

Local Department Store Makes Plans For Event Early Next Month

Date for the quilt show this spring at the Hagood's Dry Goods will be the week of March 4-9, Cecil Hagood, manager of the store, announced this week.

Encouraged by the high interest of many quilters and lovers of pretty hand made quilts last year, Hagood said his store planned to repeat the show this year and has every encouragement to believe the show will be "bigger and better."

Numerous quilters have asked when we'd have our show this spring and our announcement answers this question," said Mr. Hagood. "The store will be transformed into a showroom for the event and merchandise re-arranged as may be necessary to make room for the display. Rules quite similar to those of last year will be observed, it is announced. Every effort will be made to make entry requirements simple and the quilt judging based on appeal to the eye.

Last year's show brought forth many modern masterpieces of the quilter's art in addition to a number of entries of antique pieces. Details as to entry dates and other arrangements are contained in the formal announcement over the signature of the firm.

Elder W. J. Higgins, of Petersburg, was here last week-end reviewing acquaintances with old friends. Elder Higgins is a former resident of Lakeview.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for February 25, 1940.

Stewards in the Kingdom
Golden Text: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant" Matthew 25:21.

Lesson Text: Matthew 25:14-27

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time, the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents; behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou has been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents, came, and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents; behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant: thou has been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went, and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money in the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

Lesson Thoughts
Between this lesson and the last one Jesus reproved the Pharisees because they loved the places of honor at feasts and the chief seats in the synagogues, and delighted to be called "Rabbi." He told his disciples, "Be not ye called Rabbi; for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren." Jesus thus condemns the assumption of superior authority in religious matters, declaring all are brethren. Following that occurs the seven woes pronounced upon the scribes and Pharisees (Matt. 23:13-36). In verses 37-39 of that chapter is Christ's pathetic lament over Jerusalem. In chapter 24 Jesus tells the apostles about the destruction of Jerusalem and the signs of His approach to this world in His second coming.

The Parable of the Talents, which we study today, is preceded by the Parable of the Ten Virgins. They were spoken by Jesus at the same time, or else Matthew related one after the other because each throws light upon the other. The primary teaching of the Parable of the Ten Virgins is to enforce constant "watchfulness" for the second coming of the Lord, and that of the Talents is a continuous "working" while watching for His return. But, as Taylor says, "Watchfulness is not to degenerate into idleness, but, while we watch we are to work, each in his allotted sphere, with the talents wherewith he hath been entrusted." This brings us to the study of the lesson for today, the Scripture for which is the Parable of the Talents, and the subject, Stewards in the Kingdom.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

Now the old timer can laugh and say, "I told you so," and the newcomer will have to admit that he had been right about the weather of long ago, when the west was new. But the old timer will not say that it is as cold as it got then. I am going to write down about the storm, not that you Plains people do not know all about it, but there are readers in other parts of the world that might like to get a shiver or two out of it.

The Storm

What do you think the weather will be, I asked Coleman, the colored man, as he turned the separator handle Thursday night. Now I had missed on recent prophesying and Coleman had won, so he came out strong that we would have a snow. I laughed to myself Friday morning when it began to drizzle, but the water soon turned to snow that melted as it fell, nice soft flakes, filling the air with fleecy whiteness. The wind became higher, tore the nice fluffy flakes into "snow flour," the ground was soon too cold to melt the snow. The wind picked it up, as a child picks up his toys, and hurled it further on. The dry flakes tried to stop it for they needed the moisture, but it only lay where the cotton stalks were left. The wind shrieked and moaned, bringing to the house the beating of sheep, the squealing hogs, cold and crowded in icy pens. The earth was filled with swirling snow that began to find lodgement around the houses, the trees and the barns. Hour after hour the wind piled it higher, packed it more closely, made huge loaves of snow in our yard. We sat by the fire and wondered about the travellers on the slippery roads, about our stock. The mail came, a blur of moving dark, in all that white, a low purr of an engine in all that howling of the wind.

Mr. Spikes and Coleman tended to the stock, long before night, the petting snow clung to their jackets and whipped them in their faces with cold wet whips. The white shivering cows were milked, helpless chickens carried into shelter. Night came on, the storm increases. We seemed shut out from all the world, but the oil lamp-light from the little shack near shone like a yellow blossom in the storm. All night long and all day Saturday, the elements raged like wild demons blowing cold and snow from gigantic mouths. No snow fell from the hurrying clouds, but the world was full of whirling snow. With a giant broom the wind swept the fields and the prairies, cleaning them as a good housewife cleans her floors. The snow was piled higher and higher four feet, six feet on to eight feet high the mounds grew around the place. Around and around the windmill went, the wheel a solid disc of ice. No longer the sound of squealing hogs came on the wind, they were buried in deep drifts.

Sunday morning we awoke to a new world, a strange world, a beautiful world. The huge mounds of snow were smooth and white as the icing on mother's best Christmas cakes; the fields and prairies looked as if the icing had run off the mounds and left a thin layer of white on them. On the north of the house were caves, moulded into beautiful shapes by the cunning hand of the wind. The snow-covered houses around the horizon, looked like glittering scenes on tin-foil Christmas cards. Long diamond jewels hung from the eaves, leafless trees looked like pencil marks on the blue sky. The world was all blue and white, covered with the pale, gold sunshine of the rising sun. We heard the chirping of a few birds, the Persian cats came in from the barn where they had been unwilling prisoners. No longer the wind whined and whistled in our ears—the storm was over.

Thursday of last week was a perfect day. My husband's sister, Mrs. Temple Ann Ellis, and I went to Floydada, where she gave a book review of her book, Road to Destiny to the Floydada High school. Folks may boast that they have seen the famed rose fields at Tyler, the herds of fat whiteface cattle on big ranches, the piles of gold and silver in marble banks, mountains of red maize and acres of white cotton, but I am saying there never was a fairer sight than the sea of faces of boys and girls. It was my happy privilege to look into that morning. I had wondered about the future of America. I had had doubts but as I looked into the eager faces of those boys and girls, shook hands with their trained teachers, trained both of minds, hands and heart, my fears were stilled and a wonderful thought came to me. "They will be worthy of the trust put in them."

Mr. Travis, the superintendent, was very kind to remember that once I was his teacher in a Sunday school class at Cone. I told him it was very nice to be able to call the superintendent of Floydada schools, by his given name.

I appreciate Margaret Tubbs coming and introducing herself to me. We heard some of the girls sing their voices fresh and sweet as the sound of running water in a desert. We hope to visit the school again. Those of you who have not visited a school since you have had no one to send, have missed a wonderful opportunity.

From Floydada we went to Lone Star to the home of Mrs. Tom McGeehe, where we had a good lunch and Lizzie gave a review of her book to the LaVentana club. Mrs. McGeehe had only gotten our letter that morning at ten o'clock but she prepared lunch, got her house in readiness and word to the women in her community. Our hostess was to us like a piece of good yeast, but also like the yeast, she had to have other ingredients to make a loaf of bread for a hungry world, a world hungry for good kind deeds and words, the women of her neighborhood, working in unison with her, were the good ingredients. How we all talked together, of old times and of new! How short the time is when happy friends are together!

FUNERAL OF BROTHER TODAY

"Ah, The Road to Destiny," you older women travelled in those days of long ago is not over, the trails have changed, there are other travellers, but we young women are still on the Road to Destiny," the sweet voice of the club president Mrs. Herman Huffman told us.

Reluctantly we left these new found friends. The women and men who pioneered this country, the ones who have passed on, would have been glad to look in the faces of those women, and to have known their sacrifices and struggles had not been in vain.

Three valentines, a box of candy, a red satin covered heart from my daughter Wilda one made and colored by my sweet little granddaughter Patsy's hand and one from my son with this loving verse—

Life's finer treasures
Are all too few
That's why I guess
There's just one you
The end of a perfect day.
