Judge Calls Special Term Dist. Court

January Term Closes Last Saturday; Bloodworth Fined On Tax Charge

The regular January term of District Court closed here Saturday afternoon, and Judge Alton B. Chapman opened court Monday in Motley county. A special term of district court has been ordered by the judge, however, to open in Floyd county on March 18.

The petit jury selected for the fourth week of the regular term shall appear in court to serve during the special term, Chapman said. The Grand Jury will not be summoned.

E. B. Bloodworth, charged with falsifying an invoice of exemption for refund of the motor fuel tax, was found guilty as charged Saturday afternoon and his punishment was assessed by the jury as a fine of $100.

The Bloodworth trial opened Friday morning, occupying the court for most of two days.

Following the trial, four other indictments on the same charge were dismissed on motion by the state's attorneys.

Sitting on the jury during the trial were Buck Sams, foreman, A. P. Shugart, W. J. Griffith, Barkley Chestnut, Roy Childress, Marvin Shurbit, M. O. Davis, W. F. Culpepper, B. F. Harper, E. W. Bybee, Noel Troutman, and T. H. Casey.

Conley Beall England, 20-year-old Dallas youth, plead guilty Saturday afternoon to charges of theft of property valued at more than $50, waiving trial by jury, and was sentenced by the court to serve two years in the state penitentiary.

England was indicted by the Grand Jury last week, following his arrest at Alpine in a car stolen here several weeks ago.

Trial of Leo Hand, charged with rape, was continued to the next term of court.

Several civil suits were settled by the court during the closing week of the term.

On January 22 the Lockney Independent School district won a suit again E. L. Ayres for collection of back taxes. Ayres failed to appear in court to defend the claim, and the court found the claims valid and ordered foreclosure sale on Lots 11 to 16, inclusive, in Block 3 of Lot 1 of Block 11 in the original town of Lockney.

Claims for taxes due for the years 1931, 1933, 1934 and 1935, plus penalties and interest totalled $136.56.

The State of Texas No. 3001 and 3094 Consolidated versus Panhandle Compress and Warehouse Company Inc. for payment of back taxes was settled in favor of the plaintiff, the defendant failing to appear. Suit was filed on the following property: 45.13 acres of land out of the C. H. George Homestead Survey, 5.3 acres (See JUDGE CALLS page 5)

Hoots Addresses H. D. Council At Meeting Saturday

Members of the Floyd County Council of Home Demonstration clubs met at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the courthouse and heard a talk by Alyce A. Hoots, secretary of the Floyd County ACA, on "Shelterbelts or Windbreaks."

"A windbreak is a shelterbelt," Hoots told the women. Trees are the principal shelterbelts in this county. We want them around the house, barns, chicken houses, and other buildings as protection from sand and even from snow such as we have had recently. Protection for warmth by planting on the north and west saves much fuel.

"The shelterbelt should not be too near the buildings," she continued, "a hundred feet is the recommended distance. As many as five rows of trees is best."

Shelterbelts cited by Hoots as examples included those on the Herman Krause farm at Allmon, the Harlan Day place at McCoy, and the Ben Quebe farm at Providence.

Twenty members attended the meeting. Reports by the finance and yearbook committee were heard and adopted, and plans were made for the Farmer-Business Men's banquet held in Floydada on February 28th when the Home Demonstration club members served Homebushes, Sunnyside, McCoy, and Dougherty clubs prepared and served the meal.

One person will be chosen from each club to accompany Mrs. S. J. Latta, chairman of the county council, to the district meeting at Lubbock. One member will be selected from the entire group to act with Mrs. Latta as delegate from this county.

Farmers And Merchants of County Gather Tonight for Banquet at Fellowship Hall

C. H. Day, Field Officer for the Texas AAA from College Station, will head a panel of experts on the "Question Box" at the Farmer-Business Men's Banquet here tonight. The banquet will be held at Fellowship Hall at the First Christian Church.

Mrs. Della Close Dies; Home Near Floydada Tuesday

Last rites for Mrs. Della Vashti Close, 67 years old, were conducted Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock from the First Baptist church in Floydada, with Rev. A. A. Shaw, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lockney conducting the services.

Rev. Vernon Shaw, local pastor, was ill and unable to hold the funeral.

Interment was in the Floydada cemetery under direction of Harmon's Funeral home of this city.

Mrs. Close died at her home northeast of town at 12:20 a. m. Tuesday after an extended illness. She had made her home in this county for the past 31 years, moving here from Sulphur Springs. She was born in Hill county in 1872.

Surviving are her husband, B. D. Close and four children by a former marriage, James Rufus McWilliams of California; Mrs. I. N. Lamkin of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Minnie Borden of Galveston, and Mrs. H. C. Hall of Mabry Field, Texas.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon were Judge Tom W. Deen, J. D. Hart, W. N. Windsor, J. C. Reasoner, A. W. Chowning, and E. E. Johnston.

In charge of flowers were Oleta Strickland, Mary Helen Yokum, Maxine Officer and Edwanda Johnston.

DOLLARS DON'T GROW ON TREES, BUT DO INCREASE IN VALUE ON DOLLAR DAY

International bankers might call it "inflation" and go into long-winded conferences, but Floydada merchants call it "Dollar Day" and Floyd county shoppers don't have to think twice to decide that it's a good time to buy!

That's right...next Monday is First Monday, and First Monday is always "Dollar Day" in Floydada. Yraving value if you spend it in Floydada stores on Dollar Day Specials!

Champs Fail To Repeat As New Contest Winners Named

Last week's champions failed to repeat this week in the Hesperian's weekly mis-spelled word contest. Mrs. Roy Brewster won the first prize award for city entries, and Mrs. C. B. Lyles of Fairview led the rural entries.

Nearly 200 entries were received in the contest this week, but out of the entire group, Mrs. Brewster and Mrs. Lyles were the only two to turn in perfect score sheets, having found all of the mis-spelled words on the full-page contest feature sponsored by Floydada merchants.

Of last week's first place winners, L. A. Marshall of Floydada ranked among the prize winners but fell short of first place, and Mrs. J. W. Chapman, winner of the rural division last week, was supplanted by her husband in the list of winners.

Floyd county farmers, merchants, and representatives of the several farm agencies operating in this county will gather tonight at Fellowship hall at the First Christian church for the first Floyd County Farmer-Business Men's banquet.

More than 125 people are expected to attend the affair, Alyce A. Hoots secretary of the Floyd County ACA, said this week. The banquet has been planned and arranged by the county Land Use Planning committee.

C. H. Day, field officer for the Texas Agriculture Adjustment Administration from College Station, will head a board of agriculture experts who will appear on a "Question Box" panel which will be the principal feature of the banquet program.

Accompanying Day will be J. Lynn Mauk, district 2 field man from the state AAA office, V. L. Cade, district 2 committeeman from Lubbock and K. J. Edwards of the Texas Extension Service.

A. H. Kreis will act as Master of Ceremonies. Each farmer and guest present will be allowed to drop questions concerning the farm program and modern agriculture in the question box and the questions will be taken up by the toastmaster and answered informally by the Question Box experts. Round table discussions will follow.

Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist church of Lockney, has accepted an invitation to be on the program, and will deliver the invocation preceding the banquet. Music will be furnished by the Floydada high school girls quartet and the Tubbs Trio.

Henry W. Schacht, formerly chairman of the county ACA, will make a brief address explaining the purpose of the gathering. Guests and members of the farm agencies will be introduced by the toastmaster.

Each farmer has invited one or more guests from among the business men of the county. The banquet will be served by members of the home demonstration clubs from Dougherty, McCoy, Sunnyside, and Sand Hill.

Third Annual Ring Tourney; Flomot Draws Ace Boxers

An outstanding field of entries has been received for the Third Annual High school boxing tournament to be held at Flomot Friday and Saturday, March 1 and 2.

More than 100 entries have been received in the two divisions...one for high school boxers and the other for outsiders.

Both Wichita Falls and Amarillo are sending strong teams. Sixteen boys who competed in the district Golden Gloves tournament at Wichita Falls, including several semifinalists in the state tournament at Fort Worth, have mailed entries to Coach Guy Wheeler, who is promoting the Flomot tourney. Amarillo is sending a team of 20 Golden Glovers.

Other fighters are entering from Floydada, Lockney, Matador, Roaring Springs, Quitaque, Silverton, Turkey, Memphis, Estelline and Childress.

First session of fights will begin at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Fights Friday night will start at 8 o'clock. There will be three sessions on Saturday, one at 10 o'clock in the morning, semi-finals at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and finals in all divisions at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Season tickets are on sale at $1.00 (See THIRD ANNUAL page 5)

County Court Session Is Interrupted

Solon Clements Suit Against County Halted By Death Of Attorney's Relative

Progress of one of the most important cases to come before county court in some time, a suit for damages instituted by Solon Clements against Floyd county, was interrupted Tuesday by the death of a brother-in-law of Judge L. G. Mathews, attorney for the plaintiff.

Judge Mathews was notified Tuesday morning of the death of his sister's husband at Haskell, and left immediately to attend funeral services there Wednesday afternoon.

He planned to return to Floydada Wednesday night, and the trial will be resumed this morning (Thursday).

Clements is suing the county for approximately $1400 in damages which he asserts were sustained when a Floyd county jury of view instituted condemnation proceedings for a right-of-way for the highway connecting Lockney with Highway 207 crossing a 200-acre tract of land belonging to him.

The jury-of-view granted $500 in damages for the right-of-way.

The new highway cuts across a corner of the 200-acre tract, cutting off 5.84 acres from the main tract. Clements entered a claim for damages on the grounds that the irregular shape of the tracts caused by the route of the highway has materially decreased the value of the land.

The hearing opened Monday morning, and testimony by witnesses for the plaintiff was still in progress when the trial was interrupted Tuesday. County Judge G. W. Tubbs, presiding at the hearing, said yesterday that an effort will be made to complete the case today (Thursday) since another case has been set for hearing Friday.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the hearing, and the county courtroom has been crowded during most of the session. Attorneys for the plaintiff are (See COUNTY COURT page 5)

Floydada Masons Plan Past Masters Meeting Fri. Night

Floydada Masons will hold their annual Past Master's meeting at the Masonic hall Friday night, March 1.

Jesse D. Cox of Brownfield will make the principal address of the evening, according to Dr. C. M. Thacker of the program committee.

Jim Clonts, district deputy grand master, will act as toastmaster. Songs by a quartet and other musical numbers are planned. The meeting is open to all Masons.

Other towns along the proposed highway route are invited to join the association, and all county judges in counties through which the highway is routed are being notified to appoint chairmen to organize local associations in towns where there is no Chamber of Commerce organization.

Wherever possible, the association is working through the local chamber of commerce organizations in organizing support for the highway.

Afternoon Mail Dispatch Offered Floydada Patrons

P. M. McDonald of Lockney Succumbs To Pneumonia Mon.

Pioneer Rancher Buried At Silverton; Rites At Lockney Wednesday Morn.

LOCKNEY, Feb. 27.—P. M. (Uncle Pete) McDonald, 83 year old Floyd county pioneer, died at his home here at 8 o'clock Monday night after a week's illness which ended in pneumonia.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning at the West Side Church of Christ, with Rev. Truitt Hickey in charge. Interment was in the Silverton cemetery under direction of Crager Funeral home of Lockney.

Mr. McDonald is survived by three children, Mrs. Dora Gentry of Lockney, Wilks McDonald of Blue Ridge, and Mrs. Ella Gentry of Lubbock. His wife died three years ago.

Familiarly known as "Uncle Pete" Mr. McDonald had lived in Floyd county for the past 45 years, coming here from Collin county in 1905. He was born on October 11, 1856.

Active until his recent illness, he was a retired cattleman and owned extensive ranch interests east of Lockney along the line of the Caprock.

He was found at his home, where he lived alone, several days ago, apparently overcome by exertion while shoveling snow from his barn. He was lying on his back, unable to rise and had suffered considerably from exposure, which with his advanced age, developed into fatal pneumonia.

Pall bearers at the funeral services Wednesday morning were Irvin Bennett, Jim Willson of Floydada, Dorsey Baker, Pete Thornton, Tab Meriwether and Freeman Love. In charge of floral offerings were Mrs. Pete Thornton, Mrs. Barney Manning and Mrs. Tab Meriwether.

Local C-C Heads Aiding "Airline" Hi-way Movement

Virgil Williams, president of the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, and Claude Henderson, secretary, attended a meeting of the Fort Worth West Texas Airline Highway association at Paducah Friday night.

Jim Willson of Floydada was named chairman to organize a member association in Floyd county. Henderson said Monday.

The association has announced, as immediate objectives, the paving of connections in the "airline" route between Crowell and Seymour. The route would reduce the distance between Fort Worth and this section of West Texas by many miles.

Counties represented at the meeting in Paducah last Friday included Tarrant, Baylor, Foard, Cottle, Motley, Floyd, Hale, and Potter. Other towns along the proposed highway route are invited to join the association, and all county judges in counties through which the highway is routed are being notified to appoint chairmen to organize local associations in towns where there is no Chamber of Commerce organization.

Wherever possible, the association is working through the local chamber of commerce organizations in organizing support for the highway.

State Representative C. L. Harris of Dickens county last week formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the 19th Congressional district. Harris opened his campaign on a platform of amending the farm program to benefit the tenant farmer, and came out for federal old age pensions.

Voting Strength Of County Passes 3 Thousand Mark

Floyd county's voting strength at 1940 elections will be well over the 3,000 mark, figures released by the tax collector's office this week indicate. Poll tax payments and exemptions issued prior to February 1 totalled 2,914, and the number of over-age voters who are not required to secure exemption certificates will probably be near 300.

Re-districting of voting precincts has left the Southwest Floydada box the largest in the county with a voting strength of 477 indicated by poll tax payments. An increase of 10 percent can be figured for all boxes over the figures given due to "overs" who are not required to register.

West Lockney is the second largest box in the county with an indicated voting strength of 324.

Fairview is a new voting box, replacing the old Center box which has been one of the largest in the county. Voters of Fairview, Hillcrest, and part of the newly created Northeast Floydada box have been voting at Center for approximately 20 years.

The northwest Floydada box, which has been polling about 315 for several years, has been cut to 230 in the re-districting. This box is in precinct 2.

The east Floydada box, in precinct 4, formerly the largest voting box in the county, has been cut from an average voting strength ranging from 350 to 550 to 135 this year.

Northeast Floydada box is an addition to Commissioner's Precinct 3 and includes part of the area due north and east of Floydada heretofore in the Center voting precinct.

In the change the Cedar Hill district has materially increased in voting strength and area and now has an indicated voting strength of 192.

Voting strength by boxes in the new districting is as follows: Southwest Floydada 477; Starkey 55. All (See VOTING STRENGTH page 5)

Work On Courthouse Annex Gets Underway Last Week

Construction on the new $10,000 County Agriculture building was started last Thursday when excavation for foundations began. Workmen began pouring concrete Wednesday morning and G. B. Snodgrass, construction foreman for Lubbock contractors on the job, said Wednesday afternoon that brick work will probably begin on Tuesday or Wednesday of next week.

Although contracts call for completion of the building within 120 days, Snodgrass said that, unless weather conditions delay the work, the construction will be completed in about 60 days.

A crew of ten men were at work Wednesday, and work of pouring the re-inforced concrete foundations was going forward rapidly. Labor on the project is almost altogether awarded to Floyd county workmen. Only a few brick layers

Plan Star Route To Plainview To Begin Run Soon

Mail Service Problems Believed Solved; Post Office To Be Open Friday P. M.

Bringing a final solution to the problem of an afternoon mail dispatch which has troubled Floydada patrons since the Q. A. & P. train schedule was changed last December, Chief Clerk Cole of the Railway Mail Service was in the city last week and assured Postmaster Barbara H. Smith that a late afternoon dispatch will be inaugurated on a seven day a week basis within a week or ten days.

Although final details of the plan have not been worked out, Cole said that he was confident that proposed star route will be started by that time. Plans call for the dispatch to leave Floydada at about seven o'clock in the evening, going to Plainview to make connections with the southbound Santa Fe to Lubbock at 9 o'clock and with the northbound Plainview-Amarillo star route at 10 p. m.

Mail dispatched by this star route would arrive in Fort Worth at 7:10 a. m. and in Dallas at 8:30 a. m. on the following morning. Quick service both to Lubbock and Amarillo would be provided.

The late dispatch to Plainview will speed up all mail sent by air. Postmaster Smith pointed out. An air-mail letter placed in the drop at Floydada post office before 7 p. m. would arrive in Kansas City at 8:14 a. m. the following morning, at Chicago at 2:56 p. m.; at Houston at 11 a. m.; at Saint Louis at 10:03 a. m.; at San Francisco at 6:33 p. m.; at Washington D. C. at 5:25 p. m.; and in New York City at 5:37 p. m.

The proposed star route will originate at Plainview and make a round trip daily at Paducah. It will bring Floydada patrons an extra mail at about 10 o'clock noon. Other mail schedules are not affected by the additional service.

In addition, beginning Friday March 1, the Floydada Post Office will be open all day to give window service to those who wish it. In the past, the office has been closed on Friday afternoons. "The local post office is glad to be able to offer this additional authorized service to Floydada patrons," Postmaster Smith said.

The Plainview-Paducah star route will be temporary until July 1, at which time the service will become permanent. While Chief Clerk Cole was in Plainview, Floydada, and Paducah last week, he secured bids for temporary service. Bids for permanent service are not open at present.

The star route will carry letters, parcels, and newspapers.

Hospital Approved By A.M.A.; State Affiliation Given

Formal approval of the Floydada Hospital & Clinic by the American Medical Association is one of the events of recent weeks in local health circles.

Meaning that facilities of the hospital, as well as the nursing staff and the medical authorities of the hospital are classed as of a high standard, the approval is a rating that is expected to add prestige to the organization and reflect credit on the whole fraternity of medical men who practice in this area. Notice of the approval was received recently by Geo. B. McAllister, business manager of Floydada Hospital & Clinic.

Recent application of the hospital authorities for affiliation in the Texas Hospital association also has been recognized; it was indicated by Mr. McAllister the first of the week.

These honors have come to the local clinic on the heels of recent admission into the Group Hospital Service, incorporated, an organization that has as its aim hospitalization under an insurance plan that assures superior hospital service and attention on an insurance basis.

One of the events at the hospital last week-end was the return of Dr. A. E. Guthrie from New York City, where he had been for the past month studying operative and diagnostic methods at the different hospitals in an post-graduate study. Dr. Guthrie, who was accompanied by Mrs. Guthrie, returned home Saturday night.

EDITORIALS

Who will win the attention of the legislature next January? Will it be the truck fellows who think they want the load limit raised or will it be the $30 or bust old age pension folks? We do not presume to know. The "talent" is deciding now. You'll now wonder why, perhaps, and you'll know for a fact four or six years hence. The truck boys got sidetracked a year ago. Maybe they won't this time. Maybe the pension folks won't either.

The truckers are straining against the bits for something that will put out of business the most of the fellows who are paying the lobbyists. The lobbyists they have hired are taking the money and laughing about the whole thing. The day a load limit is taken off there'll be ten thousand applications for hauling permits in Texas that will put out of business most of the fellows who live in Floydada, Lockney, Crosbyton, Matador, et cetera, et cetera. If we were in the truck business we'd go along with the present setup, overload as much as they do, take a penalty once in a while as they do, and forget the legislature. It is all right to be righteously indignant but not to be too righteous or too indignant.

A sturdy lie that has been going the rounds for two centuries is that the rattle snake, the prairie dog and the owl all live together in familiar bliss on the plains of Texas. Nothing is further from the truth. The rattle snake's belly, often opened by searchers for fact, has revealed the remains of prairie dogs (their prey). And the prairie dog holes which owls inhabit show by their unkept condition that the dogs have been run out by the hard beaks of a prowling successor. The prairie dogs have neatly kept, habitable places of refuge until the snakes and the owls horn in.

For Vitamin B1, which is all the rage now, just keep feeding your chaps pork that you can get so cheap it is a shame. This is that thiamin you hear about on the radio. While wheat bread, whole grain cereals, and peas, like your ma used to feed the children before the scientists whipped the Indians, are good, too. Don't get excited. The aborigines knew a lot of things from experience that modern science would have you think is all their own thinking. There was a scientific reason for sulphur and molasses long before the doubleless frog-eyed university professor found it out.

The high plains is a cattle country and its residents finally will wind up in the cattle business. Cotton, wheat and whatnot will have their places, but the major activity and thought will be feed and forage and cattle and hogs and sheep. Chickens and dairying included, of course. Successive trial and error just continue to prove this as the truth. The march of progress and time are putting unanswerable arguments before the man who has to dig what wealth we have out of the soil. Just watch! Twenty years from now whoever is on the job in Floyd county will be depending on feed and live stock. And you'll count the big wheat farmers in the county on the fingers of one hand! Way out on the limb with that one!

Probability that the postal department will work out a plan for giving Floyd county people an adequate mail service is in the offing. Mrs. Barbara H. Smith, postmaster, has been working diligently on the job and has finally impressed the department with the dire need of doing something. The department thinks they are going to give the area more than has been asked for. All of which will be on a temporary basis to see if it actually works out.

Weeks of bad weather have kept many a town and farm home owner from planting and cultivating his premises like he intended to do. Now that open weather is due is the time to give your trees and lawns attention. This is not a spectacular thing but it is a lot of pleasure along during the spring, summer and fall to see fine, green trees growing around and sit in their shade.

"Clean up or close up" is the brewer's slogan. He has in mind the maintenance of orderly, lawful conditions wherever beer is sold. It is done in many European countries and is said to be done in some parts of the United States. We have never seen it done in Texas and take it for granted that it can't be. However, we do not know all the answers to the beer question any more than we know the answers to the question of old age pensions.

STILL THINGS TO DO

Activities of the National Youth Congress culminating in a meeting in which the ills of the world were aired with a sort of you-ol-folks-have-messed-things-up attitude, is a reminder that every generation has had its problems and from experience we would say that every succeeding generation will find things still to be done.

Wars and autocracy, greed and pillage were cautions for the Dark Ages of which we read in history. The same agencies still are to be contended with.

Youth, nationally and individually, will have things to do long after they've quit complaining of their elders, who may have done the best they could under the circumstances. That's all youth will have done when youth becomes aged and youth again points the finger.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

Things are about normal on the farm again, all but muddy feed lots. Bundles have to be carried out in the pasture, so a dry place can be had to feed the hungry stock. The snow has melted enough for us to see our wash tubs and the wash pot is showing its black sides against the white snow. Most of the rock fence on the east, is uncovered now. "For once," said Cub Parrish last Sunday, "I was glad to see the sandstorm yesterday."

Odd names of towns, as found in headings in Star Telegram: Fifty-six, Arizona; Yellowknife, Canada; Cappyville, Ill.; Lobo, Texas.

Mrs. Lois Davis and little son, Noel Duane, came to see me yesterday afternoon. These are dear neighbors. We have known the Davis family since 1918. In all those years, there has been nothing to mar our friendship.

Bish Travis of Cone, who is the father of the Floydada school superintendent told me he was glad that we visited Walter and that he enjoyed the story of the storm. Of course, I had to give the blizzard as it came to us. It is thrilling to hear each one tell what the storm did for them. Men helped one another regardless of whether rich or poor. Storms and sorrows of life bring out the best in men, held to make characters strong and true.

My sister, Josephine Tyner, who is assistant secretary of the Amarillo Exposition and Fat Stock show, inc., sent me a copy of the 1940 annual. From the front page to the last it is of great interest. It is dedicated to the new assistant of agriculture, Grover Hill. Ben Mead says in the annual, "Stranger, today, there's many a range rider, as well as ranch owner (and farmer as well, I say) who feels that Washington is a little closer to headquarters; who feels that the government after all is a part of our people, even for cow people, since Grover's saddle hangs in the Big Boss' stable. Another thought comes in this, too; if the Big Boss can pick men like Grover for this job, then isn't it possible that some of those other hands in Washington were well-chosen, also?"

I especially liked, "The Windmill," by John McCarty of the Amarillo News he says in part, "The windmill of the Plains country may never be pictured in the romantic manner of the giant contraptions for which it was named in Holland." There isn't much romance attached to the western type. There isn't an awful lot that can be said in its behalf, what with the sucker-rod always breaking, the leathers wearing loose, some fool water-dog getting into the cylinder or anyone of a dozen ills befalling this squeaky sentinel of the prairie. However this writer wants to go down in history as the defender of that much cussed, much repaired, onery and crazy bugaboo of the Panhandle country, the "mill." It did keep man and beast from dying of thirst, although at times from no fault of its own but purely from the lack of a moving wind, it caused suffering and death. The vast Plains do experience dead claim for days on days. It is then cattle suffer from lack of water, unless engines and pumps are provided. The windmill was the place where the cowboy paused to rest, where he sometimes lingered to sleep and occasionally was used as an observation post. On Sundays it sometimes became a picnic shrine or a romantic spot where brave cowboy and shy maid talked of a dugout of their own, their brand and the "start in life."

And Mr. McCarty, I might add it was a fine camping place for a man in a covered wagon, which held a few household goods, a woman in a large sunbonnet and a "passel" of sunburned children. Water and fuel was near these ranch mills. It was the task of the children to fill the gunny sacks with cow chips while father watered and hobbled out the horses, and mother got out

In the cast were Mrs. John R. Shipley as Mrs. Radcliff, Yvonne Smith as Terry Radcliff, Doffas Staple as Mammy Jimmy, Winnie Staley as Patricia Stone, L. H. CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our many friends for their thoughtfulness and help, for the many floral offerings and cards, during the recent illness of Mrs. Clark. We thank you from the depths of our hearts.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark

the sour dough jar. Grown people were so particular about what kind of chips we children had to gather up. As a boy once said in telling of his load of fuel he was trying to sell to a housewife, "They are hard, brown medium." Fastidious people now may shudder at this kind of fuel but it kept me warm and mother cooked good honest food over its quick, hot blaze, and today there is nothing that makes me long for my childhood days, as a whiff of burning cow chips. It seems to me when I see the soft misty-blue haze on the canyon hills, it must be from the smoke those brave pioneers made in long ago days from the "prairie coal."

This would be incomplete without the poem found in the annual written by D. V. K. Funk, long time resident of Vega.

The Maid of the Plains
With sack in hand, o'er the plains she strayed

One day when the sun was warm; The place was where large herds had lain.

And rose up to graze in the morn. Ever now and then she stooped to the ground

To pick up the fuel rare; Then she straightened up and opened her bag.

And placed her treasure there. Then over the plains a stranger came—

A young man in a car— He evidently was a tenderfoot, and he had come from afar.

When he saw this maid he approached her For the way he would like to know.

Then he asked her would she direct him

To the town of Ontario. Said he to her: "Oh Maiden Fair, what flowers do you pursue? Is it roses, daisies, buttercups, or violets so blue?"

She looked at him in great surprise—a smile came to her lips "Stranger, there aren't any posies here;

I'm picking up cow chips."

Implement Plant Opens Production Here Last Week

Hinton & Cardinal Machine Shop Begins Manufacture On Large Scale

Their big dies stamping out five plow shares a minute from a 60,000-pound stock of heavy steel, Hinton & Cardinal's machine shop last week began their first big production week by turning out the opening of the spring plowing and planting season.

Workmen are bending their efforts to the production of a superior point, while the big trip hammers and shapers beat out the specially heated and treated patterns and punch them for bolting on West Texas plows this week.

Practically abandoning all work for the general public and confining their efforts to the manufacture of their specialties the new firm are now engaged in making points that will fit standard makes of plows and before many days will also be making sweeps and shortly thereafter will start production of go-devil blades.

Weeks and months of effort have been given to the production of tools and dies at the factory on East Mississippi street, and yesterday they were averaging five units per minute of perfectly made points.

J. R. Hinton and Gerald Cardinal, members of the firm, on Monday had workmen unloading the big carload of sheet steel at the plant, and as it rolled in it was immediately started into production.

The plant during dull seasons will use three to seven men and during the height of the production period will have 10 to 15 workmen busy.

"We are sitting right out in the middle of the biggest farming area of the southwest, we are making a superior product, and we feel sure of one of the biggest markets you can imagine for our products," said Mr. Hinton this week. "The only thing we have to watch our step on is to keep on making the superior product that we have started out with and we'll have a market as big as all out of doors."

First steps to get into the manufacturing business was taken by the firm in the spring of 1939. They gradually built up their plant, began making their dies and assembling tools and equipment.

A few weeks ago they quit altogether servicing demands of the retail public. The managers expect to make their business a successful enterprise for their own capital to underwrite and also to prove a valuable addition to the community business life.

Buster points, sweeps, go-devil blades, pit cultivators, tumbling tractor frosnos, feed mixers and forming rolls for tanks will be the feature items of production for the next several weeks. Later one-way disc plows and other seasonal items will be added.

At the present time their source of supply on raw steel is Birmingham, Alabama.

Sunday School Lesson

International Sunday School lesson for March 3, 1940.

IN THE UPPER ROOM

Lesson Text: Matthew 26:17-30. Golden Text: "This Do in remembrance of me." 1 Cor. 11:24.

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that dipeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him; but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! It had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it:

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Lesson Thoughts

It had become evident among the Jewish leaders that they must get rid of Jesus if they retained their influence over the people. The sanhedrin, the high court of the Jews, had gathered at the home of the high priest to discuss what to do.

The leaders recognized that all their previous attempts to discredit Jesus with the people had failed. They had tried to beat Him down in discussion, but their debaters met with disastrous defeat. They had tried to trap Him in some statement that could be shown to be a sedition and arouse the Roman government against Him, but He could not be caught by that snare.

Immediately after Mary anointed Jesus in Bethany, Judas Iscariot held a conference with the chief priests and bargained to deliver Jesus to them for thirty pieces of silver. They did not dare take Jesus by open force, for fear they might create a riot among the people who regarded Him as a prophet. So they decided to arrest Jesus secretly and kill Him, but to wait until the large crowds gathered in Jerusalem for the passover had gone to their homes. While Judas was watching for an opportunity to deliver up Jesus, the hour approached for the beginning of the feast of unleavened bread, at which point the lesson for today begins.

Slices Beautiful Girl Into 4 Parts

But The Hindu Rope Trick, Will O' The Wisp Mystery, Is Even More Mystifying

Thrilling, fascinating, astounding, wonderful—and not as cruel as it sounds, is the miraculous feat which Birch, Master Magician, will perform tonight at the high school auditorium.

But even more spectacular than slicing a young lady, is the Hindu Rope Mystery, the thrilling spectacle of a piece of rope rising into the air, a Hindu boy climbing the rope, and then disappearing at the command of the magician!

Also included in the Birch performance are such bewildering illusions as the Vanishing Pony, in which a beautiful Shetland is caused to vanish while suspended in mid-air; the Challenge Packing Box escape in which Birch will attempt to escape from a strong box constructed by a local lumber company; the Beautiful Silk Mirage where yards and yards of gorgeous rainbow silks appear from nowhere; the Canary and the Mazda Lamp, in which a live canary is shot into a burning light bulb; and fifty other amazing illusions.

Birch, The Magician
A huge truck transports the thirty-eight trunks and crates of equipment and scenery, making the Birch production the largest magical show on tour in the United States today. Birch is playing to capacity audiences in every city—and the reason? It is not a "talkie," and not a radio presentation, but Birch in person presenting a most interesting evening of humor and mystery. Although he is a young man, so great has been his experience, and so ably demonstrated has been his exceptional talent, that Thurston publicly stated Birch is the logical one to become his successor.

Miss Mabel Sperry, brilliant young xylophonist, is the assisting artist. A star of radio and concert fame, she brings you delightful melodies on her World's Fair Marimba.

Admission prices have been fixed remarkably low for an attraction of such high calibre, and present an opportunity which has rarely been duplicated to see a master of his craft. For this reason it is expected Birch and his company will be hosts to capacity audiences while in the city. Proceeds will go to the Junior F. H. S. class, who are sponsoring the entertainment.

Mrs. George Lider Reviews Book For South Plains W. M. S.

SOUTH PLAINS, Feb. 28.—Mrs. George Lider of Floydada, association president, reviewed the mission study book, "Give Ye Them to Eat," Monday for the South Plains Missionary society.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Walter Wood, who served as co-hostess with her daughter, Mrs. Jack McCowan. A brief business session was held, Mrs. Harper Scoggins presiding.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Charles Knierim, Luther Campbell, Walter Wood, Jack McCowan, Bill Harper, C. A. Joiner, W. S. Simmons, John Smitherman, Harper Scoggins and Mrs. Callahan, members, and to the following visitors from the Floydada WMS: Mesdames George Lider, G. N. Shirey, and W. C. Sims. Rev. C. Malone, local pastor, was also present.

School Resumes Classes

The South Plains school resumed class activities Monday after a week's enforced vacation due to the high snowdrifts which blocked highways and roads in this sector last week. With a few absentees, most of the student body was present Monday.

Valentine Party

Miss Zelda Battey was hostess to the high school students and teachers at a valentine party on February 14 at the high school. An exchange valentine box with valentines for all present was the main attraction. Games suitable to the season were played.

Mesdames Blanche Phegley and Verna Snodgrass held a similar valentine party for the children of the lower grades.

Gold Star 4-H Girl Picked

Miss Jackie Daniel was selected last week as the 4-H club member from South Plains to represent this club as a Gold Star 4-H club candidate. Miss Daniel, having completed all assignments given by the county demonstrator and the sponsors, and having received a popular vote of the club membership, will write up a record of her achievements and submit it to a judging committee who will select the best Gold Star girl in this section. Jackie is now serving as president of the South Plains club.

Church Activities

There was a good attendance at the morning services of the Baptist church, with Rev. C. Malone filling the pulpit. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood were elected messengers to the Baptist Sunday School convention which will be held at Harlingen March 5-6-7. Announcement was made of the Baptist Workers council which was held in Matador on Tuesday of this week.

B. T. U. Services

The Senior B. T. U. had 16 members present Sunday with the following persons appearing on the program: Carol Reeves, Zeldia Battey, Velma Lois Young, Merle Scoggins, Margaret Bean, Jack Reeves, and Mrs. W. S. Simmons. Due to small attendance of the Junior BTU, this group joined the senior group for the program.

The adult group had 13 members present, with Rev. C. A. Joiner in charge of the lesson. Rev. Clint Malone preached following the BTU services.

Personals

W. H. Scoggins, "takes me back to my boyhood when we really had snow and had to dig the stock out."

Mr. Hamblin: "It looks like my neighbors are in till April. There's a drift 8 feet high in front of their garage."

Any South Plains Housewife: "I'll be glad when the snow is all gone, and the mud dries up. I'm tired of scraping and mopping mud out of the house."

Various stranded school kids: "Gee, I never saw so much snow. (And they never had). I'm having fun. I don't care whether my folks get here or not."

Two boys: "Say, I dread to get out in this to do the chores. Come on, we gotta dig the hogs out. Might as well get started. We gotta dig the hens out too."

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

(From the files of The Hesperian for February 18, 1926)

On the civil docket for the spring term, 1926, Floyd county district court, there are 43 appearance cases, according to the records in the office of District Clerk G. C. Tubbs. There are 18 non jury cases and six jury cases. The criminal docket shows to have 29 cases in which arrests have been made, and quite a bit of work will be ready for the grand jury.

Old-timers tell us that 14 years ago today (Feb. 18, 1912) was one of the worst days of bad weather in the history of the plains country. On that day, according to residents here at that time, snow began falling about sun-up and continued until about sun-down, the falling snow being driven before a hard norther. In the blinding snow and wind, many travelers became lost and cattle drifted throughout the plains country.

Tom Nelson, one of three men to meet instant death in an airplane accident at Amarillo last Friday afternoon, is a son of B. J. Nelson and formerly lived on the Geo. R. Griggs farm southeast of Floydada.

Much praise for Horace Grady Moore, Floyd county boy, was given in an interview last week appearing in the Lubbock Plains Journal by George Smallwood, professor of English at Texas Tech college where Moore is attending school this year. Other members of the English faculty also praise Moore's ability. A number of his poems have appeared in The Hesperian from time to time.

Mrs. J. D. McBride, 52, of Campbell died of paralysis last Monday, having been ill since Thursday of last week. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. D. Moore Tuesday afternoon.

"The Birth of a Nation," bringing forward David Griffith's wonderful art of pictorialized spectacle with music, will play at the Olympic next Monday and Tuesday.

Lorenzo high school's cagers Saturday won the South Plains district basketball championship. Floydada went to the semi-finals, lost to Lorenzo by 16 to 14 score.

Sand Hill P. T. C. To Present Play This Friday Night

"Petticoat Ranch," a comedy drama in three acts, will be presented at the Sand Hill auditorium Friday night, March 1, at 7:30 o'clock. The play will be given under the auspices of the P. T. C. society, and the cast includes the following local people:

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pope, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Womack, Clara Mae Craft, Ovelene McLain, Bonnie Mickey, Ervin Graham, Milton Jetton and A. S. Wharton.

The play is set on a dude ranch in Arizona, where Ma Manning, proprietor of the Petticoat Ranch, aided and abetted by Don Gordon, tenderfoot knight errant, and Pedro Mrs. Manning's house-servant, strive to save the ranch from the clutches of Jackson, local banker, who is about to foreclose the mortgage on it.

Two lady dudes, the local sheriff who is very fond of apple pie, Curley Claxton, foreman of the ranch, Ma's daughter Golden, and Ellen Starr, a neighboring ranch girl, all contribute their share of the excitement.

Between-act numbers will be a part of the evening's entertainment. Season tickets will be good for this play, and a small admission charge will be made to others.

DEEN AND ALLISON WILL SPEAK BEFORE GOOD GOVT ASSOCIATION SATURDAY P. M.

Alvin A. Allison of Levelland, candidate for State Senator, and Judge Tom W. Deen of Floydada, candidate for the office of state representative, will speak before the Old People's Good Government association in the District Courtroom Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, according to W. B. Cantrell, secretary of the Good Government association.

WE WANT YOU TO FEEL AT HOME wherever good beer is sold

The Brewing Industry realizes that decent, respectable people prefer to patronize decent, inviting places.

And we agree with them.

That is why we are taking action—in cooperation with law enforcement authorities—to "clean-up or close-up" beer retail establishments that disobey the law or permit anti-social conditions.

To do this we have instituted a new self-regulation plan now in operation in a few states and being extended as rapidly as possible.

We think you will be interested in knowing something about this program. May we tell you about it in an interesting free booklet?

Debate Tournney Planned; Thirty Schools Invited To Send Entries Here

Martha Yearwood, Louise Willson Are Co-Editors

Every year, a Junior who is a member of the Press club is appointed assistant editor of the Hesperian by the editor and the sponsor. This year the honor is conferred on two girls, both excellent students. Martha Yearwood and Louise Willson were appointed assistant co-editors last week by Miss Rees and Mary Frances McRoberts.

Martha, an excellent student, with a voice like a songbird, is a member of the Spanish club, F. H. T. club, Press club, Girls' Social club, F. H. S. Girls' quartette she is secretary-treasurer of the junior class and has been elected head yell leader for next year.

Louise, a saucy redhead is the reporter of the Girls' Social club member of the Spanish club, F. H. T. club, Press club and she is a member of the debate team this year.

Both girls have been doing some excellent work this year, and everyone is wishing them success in their new positions.

LOOKING AHEAD

As we sophomores of the class of '39 and '40 look ahead we wonder what the future holds in store for us. Even though we are only sophomores it would be well if we would begin to plan what we intend to do after we finish high school. Doubtless many of the sophomores will attend college while others may wish to go to work at once, so that they may earn their own money.

One's choice for his vocation should be made deliberately and carefully. He should have decided what he wants his life's work to be by the time he is a junior or senior in high school, or by the time he is a freshman in college at the very latest.

One should choose according to his mental and physical capacity, and later develop superior knowledge for the particular vocation he has chosen.

Having chosen a vocation one should make the best preparation he can for entering it. This is why people that enter college are shown to have achieved more successes than those that only finish high school.

But whatever we Sophomores may do, we know there will be some among us who will truly achieve something worthwhile in life, while some member of the sophomore class may become a famous person in the years to come.

Important for Women

A weak, run-down condition often gives a foothold to functional dysmenorrhea, causing much periodical distress from headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain for women. CARDUI so often helps in such cases, for it sharpens appetite, boosts flow of gastric juices; so improves digestion, helps build physical resistance. CARDUI, taken a few days before and during "the time," is another way to help periodic distress. Used 60 years.

Don't Let Lack of Money Stop You

FLOYDADA TEXAS

Robert Linder, coach of debate in F. H. S. has invited approximately thirty schools in this area to send their debate teams to Floydada March 2 to participate in a debate tournament.

The tournament is scheduled to begin at 8 Saturday and will probably continue throughout the day. The Rails and Lubbock teams were the only ones that had accepted the invitation Monday afternoon, but almost all of them are expected to be heard from before Saturday.

One member of the F. H. S. boys' team, Bennie Crawford was absent all last week but both the boys' and girls' teams will be on hand Saturday to defend their sides.

Sophs Outstanding in Sports Field

Among varied sports of F. H. S. are seen many familiar faces of the outstanding Sophomore class. The class is well represented in the various sports, both junior and senior events.

Football season is being looked forward to with the greatest of anxiety. Joe Rushing made the first team last season and the representatives on the junior squad were Joe Dick Moore, Herschel Hinson, Virgil Boteler, Oran Beck, A. G. Tyler, Clarence Snodgrass, Randolph Rutledge, Jim Simpson and Junior Simpson.

Next in the line comes basketball and boxing. Basketball also has junior and senior teams. The junior members were Virgil Boteler, Randolph Rutledge, Gene Loran and Carlton Fawver. The senior members were Joe Rushing and Carlton Fawver. In the boxing division the Sophs were Homer Kennamer, Carlton Fawver and Wayland Hale.

As the world keeps rolling around tennis, track and baseball comes into the spotlight. Boys out for lawn tennis are Wayland Hale, Virgil Boteler, Jim Simpson, Joe Dick Moore and Junior Simpson. Wayland Hale seems to be the only holder of the class glory in junior track. The senior division is Joe Dick Moore, Melvin Ross and Joe Rushing.

Baseball is also being practiced. The participants are Virgil Boteler, Oran Beck, Herschel Hinson, Jim Simpson, and Wayland Hale. It is an easily recognized fact that the Sophomore class of 1939 and '40 is an up and coming class in the field of sports.

CLASS PROPHECY

While passing through Queenville, Miss Copeland's home town, I decided to stop by her home for at least a few minutes. Upon arriving and seeing the door ajar, as a surprise, I entered unannounced. I found her sleeping at her desk and started to leave when I chanced to glimpse the record book near her hand. I was indeed overjoyed when I found it to be none other than the record of the Sophomores of 1939-40.

Turning to the page with our roll the first name I saw was Ila Marie who is now living in Paducah with her husband, Ray Lathem, who is now a prosperous farmer. On a chicken ranch near them lives the former Lola Pearl Parrish and her husband James Martin.

Looking farther down the list I saw the names of Floyd Jean Hale and Norma Denison who at the present time are taking a correspondence course on "How to Win Friends and Influence People." Their instructor is Robert Lee Warren, who with his wife Elizabeth Whatley, has a fairly successful business.

The next name to catch my eye was Virgil Boteler, who now owns the "Clean 'em up" night club in Slaps City. Working for him as waitress are Dorothy Mae Jones, Dortha Shelmutt, and Mary Frances Jones. The blues singer is Ida Mae Beedy. His bouncer is Junior Finley.

Glancing down the list I realized that I had heard only a few times, if at all, from most of my old classmates. A few more I had recently received news concerning were Wanda Withers and Eva Marie Lewis, who are now traveling in Europe.

Gene Loran and Randolph Rutledge are now thriving designers of airplanes. Their test pilots are Bryan Collins, Herschel Henson and James Thurman Bishop.

I had become interested that I had entirely forgotten how swiftly time flies. When I glanced at my watch I knew that I must hurry to catch my train. I replaced the record book, regretting that I had no more time, and fled as I had entered.

Joe Rushing, president of the sophomore class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rushing, has made an outstanding record for his first year in Floydada High school. Popular with his classmates, he has an unusual record as a scholar and starred in both basketball and football. Other class officers are Herschel Hinson, vice president; Maudene Moore, secretary-treasurer; and Geneva Gordon, reporter.

Magician's Show Is Sponsored By Junior Classmen

The student body of Floydada High are looking forward to one of the most interesting entertainments of the year which is coming Thursday afternoon and night. Birch, an outstanding magician with his entire show, including talented Miss Mabel Sperry, will give two performances at the high school auditorium.

Birch's performances have proved amazingly popular with audiences all over the country and include all the tricks common to magicians as well as many new ones. A featured highlight of the show will be the famous Hindu rope trick staged amid oriental surroundings. Others include the disappearing pop act and the trick which Miss Sperry is apparently sliced to pieces with an over-sized axe. Dozens of other tricks are scheduled to keep the audience in a constant state of bafflement.

The junior class is sponsoring this highly entertaining show and the proceeds will be used for the junior-senior banquet, which, by the way, isn't so very far off!

HEAR SAY IN THE HALL

Donice: I wish my dream boy would start to school again.

Roberta: I wish someone in the Soph class besides me knew something.

Elizabeth Whatley: I wish we had more chairs at home. (To late now we are tall enough).

Charles Hartsell: Miss Miller, let's celebrate, it must be somebody's birthday.

Joe Dick Moore: What would you do if you wrote a girl five notes and she wouldn't answer them?

W. T. Elza: It looks like I have some competition. (Tresman Glover)

Margaret Camden: I think it is terrible because we have to be quiet.

R. W. Burchfield: These teachers expect me to know as much as the other students.

TO THE SOPHS

Fellow classmates, during an excavation into dusty volumes containing records of by-gone Sophomores, some startling facts were unearthed. The most important of which is—as far as can be traced in the history of our dear old F. H. S. The Sophomore class has always been the most inactive.

The Freshman works because he has yet to learn the technique of successful keeping from it. The Junior works for the Senior and the Senior works to graduate. So everyone works, but the Sophomore who is possibly the most willing of all.

Really, Soph, there's no need in feeling badly about it. Fate probably planned it this way just so we could have a nice vacation between our years of back-breaking toil. Good advice is to rest now or regret next year.

Supt. Travis attending NAT'L EDUCATION ASSN.

Superintendent Walter Travis of the Floydada Public schools, has been missed very much from the old school's halls of knowledge. This week he is attending the National Education association meeting which is being held in St. Louis, Missouri. This is the first time a representative at this meeting has gone from Floydada, and it is indeed a glad opportunity for Mr. Travis to go.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Irby and Jim Irby of near Flomot spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Grundy. Mrs. Grundy is an aunt of the Messrs. Irby.

Homemakers Receive State Director and Party at Tea In Department Last Week

The Floydada Department of Homemaking was highly honored Friday afternoon with five distinguished guests; Miss Ruth Huey who is the State Director of Homemaking Education, Miss Esther Sorensen, supervisor of Area II, Miss Elsie Wolf, itinerant Teacher-Trainee of Texas Technological college and Mrs. J. M. Willson and Mrs. G. A. Linder who are members of the Floydada school board and take an active part in the school activities. Miss Daltis Rea, dean of the high school girls was also a guest of the girls.

A lovely tea was given in the homemaking department in honor of the guests. Miss Lovelle Ginn, president of the local chapter, greeted the girls at the door and presented them to Mrs. Willson and Mrs. Linder. Misses Jean Sims, vice president and Yvonne Hale, secretary escorted the girls to the table to sign the beautiful hand-made guest book, made and presided over by Miss Louise Stanton. The girls were then seated in the clothing laboratory (which had been made into a living room for the occasion.) Miss Jennie Lou Harper, parliamentarian, escorted the girls into the dining room where they were served tea, sandwiches, pickles and cookies. Miss Mary Denison, poured tea. Miss Ellie Biggs and Miss Marjorie Duncan assisted in the dining room. Misses Ella B. Crabtree, Eula Barbee, Laverne Handley and Pauline Woods assisted in the Foods Laboratory.

The dining table was laid with an ecru lace table cloth. Four pink tapers in crystal holders gave the only light in the room. A pink flowering plant was placed in the center of the table, giving the room a spot of life and at the same time carrying out the club color, pink.

Music was furnished by the F. P. A. orchestra. Misses Margaret Tubbs and Mary Frances McRoberts sang the new version to "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." After the tea, a short program was given in the auditorium for all the high school girls.

Miss Fannie Mae Rees introduced the guests to the girls. Miss Huey gave an interesting report about the work that is being done for the State Rally which is to be held in Dallas on April 24, 25, 26 and 27. A big birthday party has been planned to celebrate the twenty-one years of successful rallies that have been held in towns all over the state. Miss Huey stated that this will be the first time that any boys have been allowed to attend the Rally. Schools who have boys enrolled in the classes will be entitled to send four boys from their school.

Miss Huey complimented the work that is being done by the girls and teachers. "I think the community program being carried on in Floydada deserves a high compliment. I think the work being done is splendid."

Floydada was the smallest town that Miss Huey visited on this trip. Dallas, Fort Worth, Amarillo, Lubbock and several other large towns, were visited by the state director, Miss Huey, but since Floydada is just a small town compared to those cities, the Homemaking club and sponsors felt honored that they should be on the list with the other cities. Miss Rees looked up the reports that are kept by each homemaking teacher and found that this was the first time a state director had ever visited the Floydada department.

Miss Esther Sorensen had made visits here several years ago. Miss Sorensen remarked about the improvements that had been made in the department and the low cost of it all. Miss Sorensen, especially like the improvements that had been done in the teacher's room to no cost to the school board, and then the refrigerator the club girls bought and paid for, for the department.

Miss Elsie Wolf noticed several improvements in the work being done now than in her previous visit in December.

Week Quilt Show Opens Next Mon.

Quilters Of Area To Prove Art Of Quilting Has Not Been Lost

The art of quilting as practiced by the women of the nineteenth century has not been lost.

Civil War mothers who tried to cover their children adequately and at the same time have something of beauty and artistry in their homes established many precedents for their daughters to follow.

But the daughters not content with simply following the precedent, have thought up numerous innovations of their own, as one will see at the Hagood Quilt show next week.

Monday Cecil Hagood, manager of Hagood's Dry Goods which is sponsoring the event, said he had every hope that the store would be filled all of next week with superior evidences of the quilters' art. "The modern trend in quilt making will be in evidence particularly," said Hagood, "Unless I am mistaken in what the women-folk of the area are thinking. Entries are sure to be made from many communities. Naturally, we expect the judging to be a difficult task. Every woman has her own idea of what is the most artistic, the most beautiful in quilt-making."

Last year's show was marked by the showing of many antiques quilts made by ante-bellum women and by their daughters of post-bellum days. It appears, from early indications, the preponderance of this year's show will consist of modern quilts.

"The modern woman, who spends much of her time in social activities of one kind and another at home and away from home, still takes time to practice the art of quilting," was the conclusion of Mr. Hagood from the response to his announcement last week that the quilt show would be held beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday. The young women, as well as their elders, are interested, he said.

The show will open on First Monday, March 4 and continue through Saturday, March 9. Entries will be received and marked up Monday, and the judging follow as early as practicable. On Thursday names will be placed on quilts and winners indicated.

John Lloyd and son, Roy, and M. B. Johnston were in Lubbock on business Friday.

FIRST PIE SUPPER OF SEASON WILL FEATURE REAL POLITICAL RALLY

Floyd county candidates will be offered their first opportunity of the current political season to place their candidates before the voters vocally and en masse at Pleasant Hill school house next Wednesday night, March 6, at 7:30 p. m.

The Pleasant Hill PTA is sponsoring at that time a box supper at which all candidates are invited to speak. The public is invited. Proceeds will go to the Pleasant Hill school.

Henry Roberson Again Candidate In Precinct Two For Commissioner

Henry Roberson, of Lockney, is a candidate for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2. Raised near Sterley, Mr. Roberson has been a resident of the county since 1901, and except for the new areas included in the precinct, feels he is acquainted with all of the voters with few exceptions.

"Two years ago the people of the precinct gave me a good vote against a good man, and I appreciate it," said Mr. Roberson here Wednesday. "And I would like for the people who do not know me to investigate my dealings and make up their minds in my favor if they feel they can."

Every portion of the district will get a square deal to the best of his ability to give it. Mr. Roberson said, and he will devote all of his time to the job. He expects to see all the voters during the campaign and earnestly solicits your support and influence.

Mass Meeting Of Landowners Will Be Held Saturday

The Floyd County Land Use Planning committee has instructed the County Agricultural Agent, D. F. Bredthauer, to call a mass meeting of all landowners of Floyd county on Saturday, March 2nd, at 2:00 p. m. in the District court room for the purpose of discussing and helping farmers to understand the District Soil Conservation Law on which the farmers of this county will vote on March 9th. O. T. Williams of the Soil Conservation Service, Lubbock, Texas, has been requested to also be on hand.

Due to the fact that all of the action agencies that exist in Floyd county are extremely busy on various activities, it is almost impossible that these people will be available for community meetings and it is hoped that every landowner, both men and women, will make every effort to attend this meeting so that the proposed bill can be properly explained. The Attorney General's Department has clarified several of the rulings which have been more or less misleading in the past. Many people do not understand the purpose of the bill or law or how it will apply to farmers of the county.

Will Show Pictures Of Louis-Godoy Fight Tuesday And Wed.

The feature picture of next week at the Palace theatre so far as the fight is concerned, will be the Louis-Godoy 15-round affair. Jack Deakins, manager of Floydada theatres, says the film makers got a much better than average run of the fight.

Godoy's peculiar crouch, which made it difficult for Louis to land effective blows, will be particularly interesting to see, said Deakins. The film makers tell him the show is a complete picturization of the whole 15 rounds.
