Thirty-six members of the seventh grade class at Andrews Ward school received diplomas at graduation exercises at RCA auditorium last Thursday night.

The ward school graduates were extended an official "welcome to high school" by Superintendent Walter Travis at the close of the exercises.

Honor students of the class were Wilma Lois Russell, valedictorian, and Hazel Brooks, salutatorian.

Miss Elizabeth Caldwell played the professional march as members of the graduating class filed to their places.

The program was opened with a song by the class, "Have You Ever Been to Texas in the Spring?"

D. I. Bolding, Jr., spoke on "Spirit of School" and Albert Morrison continued the program theme with a talk on "Spirit of Instruction."

Superintendent Walter Travis presented diplomas to 100 seniors, the largest graduating class in the history of Floydada High school, Friday night at commencement exercises at the high school auditorium.

Two members of the class Alleen McIntyre and Bill Jackson, were not present at the exercises to receive their diplomas.

A light shower late Friday afternoon and a sudden drop in temperature forced a change in plans for the commencement exercises, which were originally scheduled to be held out-of-doors at Wester Field, where baccalaureate services were conducted on the preceding Sunday night.

The commencement program was arranged and presented by members of the graduating class. Theme of the program was "Building a Life."

The auditorium was filled to overflowing as hundreds of parents and friends of the graduates gathered to attend the exercises.

The program was opened with the professional, played by Nelda Fagan, followed by the invocation by Rev. Gordon Voight, minister of the First Christian church of Floydada.

Robert Colville, salutatorian of the class, gave the opening talk on "Planning for Citizenship." A saxophone quartette, Frances Jo Terrell, Jane Clark, Lanelle Harmon, and Lula Lee Teal, and a piano solo by Maureen Hart featured the program. Irene Daily, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Clement B. McDonald, sang.

Mary Frances McRoberts read "Man Building," and Billy Brown, graduating member of the high school band, played a clarinet solo.

Preliminary Count 2689 In Floydada

Slight Gain Over 1930 Indicated In Figures Released Yesterday

Floydada has a population of 2,689 persons, it was announced yesterday by District Census Supervisor, Robert H. Bean, of Lubbock.

The figures are preliminary and subject to correction, he said. Ten years ago final census figures for Floydada set the population at 2,637, indicating a gain of 52 persons in the ten-year period.

Considering the fact that the past 10 years have been unusually difficult ones for small cities and towns, local officials and business men are inclined to look upon even this slight increase as a good omen for the community, and as indicating that the next 10-year period of decentralization in business and industry will afford the town an excellent opportunity for expansion.

The Hesperian had the city's population estimated from unofficial sources at above 2,700 and Mayor Glad Snodgrass yesterday gave it as his opinion the preliminary figures of the district office will be revised upward when the final check-up is completed.

County Not Finished

At least one district in the county is not yet complete, and no figures on the county are yet to be released, said Mr. Bean in a telephone conversation yesterday. Much importance is attached locally to the county figures, inasmuch as continuation of the office of the assessor and collector of the county is contingent on a population of 10,000 people in the county. The district office has promised to have the information available in early June for the guidance of the Democratic Executive committee in making up its ballot.

Solon Clements Is Awarded $3,573 Damage In Suit

Solon Clements was awarded damages totalling $3,573.31 by a county court judge late Wednesday afternoon in a suit instituted by Clements against Floyd County for damages to land incurred when the road connecting highway 207 and Lockney was routed across his farm.

A jury of view had set damages at $1,250 at the time the highway route was laid out. Clements, in the suit, asked for damages totalling approximately $9,500.

No appeals were filed immediately, but County Judge Clifford Tubbs indicated that the county might file an appeal in the case if the plaintiff does not.

The suit involved an 800 acre farm, a portion of which had been severed by the highway, and Clements asked damages of ten dollars per acre, with additional damages amounting to approximately $1,500 for a drainage ditch which was dug after the highway was built.

The trial opened in county court Monday morning, continuing for three days as more than 50 witnesses (See SOLON CLEMENTS page 5)

J. C. Gilliam Goes To Granbury Sunday To Father's Funeral

J. E. Gilliam, 82 year old pioneer Hood county resident, father of J. C. Gilliam of Floydada, died at his home at Granbury Sunday morning. J. C. Gilliam left Sunday morning to attend the funeral services at Granbury at five o'clock Sunday afternoon. Interment was in the family plot at Fall Creek community.

Mr. Gilliam had visited his son here several times and was well acquainted in Floydada. He had been in ill health for the past six years. He is survived by five sons, D. T. Gilliam of Comanche, D. L. of Fort Worth, C. H. of Polar, E. E. of Men, Arkansas and J. C. Gilliam of Floydada; and four daughters, Mrs. Phillip Carter, with whom he was making his home; Mrs. Ross Rainer of Harlingen, Mrs. Joe Marshall of Houston and Mrs. Ola Dickson of Memphis, Tennessee.

Parker Willson, Genial Master of Ceremonies for the Light Crust Doughboys, will bring his famous radio band to Floydada next Tuesday for the Floyd County Golden Anniversary celebration. The Doughboys travel in a custom-built deluxe bus, having a special rear platform wired for their performances. They plan to be in Floydada all day to help in entertaining the celebrants.

Stage Set For Opening Of Floydada Rodeo At Wester Field Next Monday Night

The stage is all set for the opening rodeo in Floydada next Monday night. Cattle are here, the arena finished, the pens and chutes all nailed down tight, the various committees at work finishing their jobs, and the judges named. Bucking broncs and pick-up horses are on the way.

This about sums up the advance story of the rodeo, except that prospects are bright for a big attendance and for those who attend to see the best and biggest array of good horse flesh ever shown in this town.

The Matador rodeo set a record of nearly 400 horses in their parade, setting a mark at which the local promoters are shooting.

Ollie Cox, who is furnishing the rodeo stock, assured the association this week they need not fear of an ample number of entrants in all the contests—roping, bronc riding, steer riding, bulldogging and wild cow milking. "There are going to be plenty of contestants for this rodeo," he said. "All you've got to worry about is the crowd." And, judging from the interest being shown, the crowd is to be here, too.

This week the association had added to the seating capacity at Wester Field 1200 seats on the east side of the field or arena, which will not be reserved. All seats on the west side of the field will be reserved and reservations are selling at 25 cents for each performance. General admission will be 50 cents.

Adding quite a bit of good horse-flesh to the array that will appear in the Tuesday morning parade will be the twenty horses of the polo teams to be here for games Monday afternoon and Wednesday afternoon. Marvin Shurbet will have charge of this portion of the program. Twenty-five cents admission will be charged for the polo games.

Advance reserve seat ticket sales are in charge of V. Williams and G. G. Voight. Boy Scouts will serve as ushers and help in the sale of reserve seats. At the same time a season ticket committee is out selling tickets giving tickets covering four performances for the price of three.

Among the entries who have announced they will be here to enter one or more events in the rodeo contests is Nig Reed of Silverton, who won first prize at Matador in roping; W. E. Burleson, Lester Durham and Pete Keeling are three Floyd county men who have entered one or more of the contests.

Boots for the Girls
Girl sponsors from local firms will contest for a pair of boots, and sponsors from neighboring cities and towns will contest for boots also. In this division three pairs of boots will be awarded and one pair of silver-mounted spurs. Horsemanship, riding equipment and appearance will be the principal points on which the girls and their mounts will be judged. (See STAGE SET page 5)

Zell Probasco Is Buried Tuesday at Floydada Cemetery

Funeral rites for Zell Probasco, 55 years old, were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the First Christian Church. Rev. Gordon Voight, local minister, was in charge of the services.

Interment was in the Floydada cemetery under direction of Harmon Funeral home.

Mr. Probasco died at his home here early Monday morning. He had been in ill health for the past three years, and recently suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Funeral bearers at the service Tuesday were Calvin Steen, John McCleskey, John Reagan, Carl Minor, Glad Snodgrass, and G. T. Young.

In charge of floral offerings were Mrs. Lloyd Murry, Mrs. N. B. Stansell, Florine Dorrell, Betty Newell, Mrs. Lynn Fawver, Mrs. Joe Parrish, Mrs. Fred Brown, and Mrs. J. C. Wester.

Music was arranged and directed by Edd Brown. Sappho Ward was pianist.

Mr. Probasco was born at Vernon in 1884, and had lived in Floydada for the past 29 years. He had farmed in this area for a number of years, and was a freighter in the early days.

He is survived by his widow and two children, Mrs. Preston Badgett and Billy George Probasco, all of Floydada; four brothers, Babe and Charlie Probasco of Labarge, Wyoming, and Frank and Tad Probasco of Floydada; one half brother, Claude Mason of Texico, and one sister, Mrs. W. N. Nichols of Good-year, Arizona.

Elect G. D. Tate As Superintendent Of Lockney Schools

Graydon D. Tate, high school principal at Lockney for the past six years, was named to succeed J. W. Jones as Superintendent of the Lockney Schools by the board of trustees last week.

Jones resigned a short time ago to accept a position as superintendent of schools at Denver City, the thriving new oil town which has sprung up southwest of Lubbock.

Mr. Tate has taught in the Lockney school system for the past eleven years, serving five years as grade school principal, six years in the high school.

He graduated in 1922 from Wayland College, and received a Bachelor of Science degree at Texas Technological College.

Big Golden Anniversary Event Ready

Pioneers To Register At 9; Crowd Of 10,000 Expected For Day

Biggest attendance ever recorded for the Floyd County Pioneers' Reunion in Floydada next Tuesday is the present outlook.

With the prospect of the biggest parade ever staged in the county and a day so full of activity as to crowd it to capacity there is no doubt that only bad weather can cut the attendance under 10,000. For not only are the old-timers themselves due to be here but the invitation to be present and help celebrate the anniversary of the county's founding has been extended to all, old and young, including new-comers.

Registration for the pioneers will begin promptly at 9 a. m. Tuesday morning and the big parade will get under way at 10 o'clock, with Parade Marshal C. L. Anderson and a corps of helpers in charge. Scores and scores of horsemen and horse women will be in the line of march, headed by Floydada High school band, immediately followed by the "Homesteaders," floats and horses. Memphis and Spur high school bands may have a part in the parade although definite promises had not been received late yesterday.

At 11:15, following the parade the Light Crust Doughboys will give a 45-minute program from their sound truck, and at noon the barbecue will be served. A corps of 20 men to assure quick service will wait on the long lines due to form with the old settlers heading the lines.

The formal program of the day will be opened when President C. J. McCollum, postmaster at Lockney, calls the old-timers to order at 1 o'clock. Their program will last until 4 o'clock when the old-fashioned dance will start in the open air on west side, and continue until 6 o'clock. When they take out for a rest, the Light Crust Doughboys will again entertain for 35 minutes. After supper the old-fashioned dance will be resumed and the other hundreds who cannot witness this spectacle will view the night performance of the rodeo.

As a part of the afternoon's program a pageant, "The Builders," written by Dana Thomas Harmon, will be presented. The prologue will deal with the coming of the pioneers, "from whence they came and why." The memorial service will be presented by Mrs. Lester Honea, assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Braidford Arnold and Miss Mary Leda McAdams.

A talk honoring the organizers of the county will be presented, and the Floyd County Home Demonstration Club chorus will present "A Century of Song."

There will be a vocal solo by Toby Penn, numbers by the Floydada High School quartet, a square dance by pioneers in costume, and numbers by the high school glee club.

County Has Given $255 to Red Cross War Relief Funds

Late yesterday Cecil Hagood, chairman of the Floyd County Chapter, American Red Cross wired Norman Davis, national chairman, that Floyd county had raised to date $255 of its $440 quota for war relief. None but committees working in Floydada had reported at the hour he wired the central office.

He promised the national office to make a strong effort to complete the county's quota by Saturday night, and issued the following appeal to the people of the county:

"Several volunteers in all parts of the county will be canvassing for funds this week, but we urge you do not wait for a committee to call on you. A picture of five million pitiful refugees clogging the roads of Europe dying by roadsides of wounds, fright and hunger while war rages between the armed nations, is painted by Red Cross headquarters who urge prompt action now if we intend to be of help."

In addition to the canvassers who will attempt to see all possible funds may be contributed at Red Cross jars set up in various local retail establishments and at the County A. C. A. office.

$100,000 Parity Payments Arrive In 16-Day Period

Working with unprecedented speed, the Texas office of the Agriculture Conservation Association has poured more than $100,000 in 1940 wheat parity checks into Floyd County in the past sixteen days.

Parity payments had totalled $101,097.52 by Wednesday, according to Aleye A. Hoots, secretary of the Floyd County A. C. A. That amount represents payment in full on 1135 contracts, and included 1433 checks.

Only forty-six 1940 contracts remain to be paid, Hoots said. About parity payments this year will total approximately $125,000 in this county, and the remaining amount is expected to arrive here shortly.

The first check on this year's contracts were received in the county office on May 4, and that he and his wife and their son Pat, together with his wife and daughter Bettie Lou, are moving to their new location this week.

Five Thousand In Matador For Two Day Rodeo Event

More than 5000 persons thronged into Matador last Friday and Saturday for the second annual Matador Round-up and Rodeo and the town went "Western" in a big way for the two-day event.

Every man and boy in the city capable of growing a beard sported moustaches, chin-whiskers and sideburns. Cowboy regalia was the order of the day, and multitudes of horses and riders on horseback, along with horse-drawn conveyances of a pioneer era, turned back the calendar to the hey-day of the open range in a town which has long been a stronghold of ranch country.

Two Floyd county girls, Mary Beth Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Bennett, of Lockney, and Emogene Lackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Lackey of Cedar, scored in the sponsor's contests at the Matador rodeo Friday and Saturday of last week. They tied for second place, and a Flomot girl, Mary Ellen Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Barton, scored first.

Ned Reed of Silverton was the winner of the shop-made saddle offered as Grand prize in the calf-roping. The annual celebration was open at ten o'clock Friday morning with a huge parade in which the Floydada High School band and a large delegation from Floydada took part.

Rodeo performances were held both afternoon and night in a specially prepared arena at the Matador football field. Saddle stock, characterized by old timers as the "best bunch of horses ever gotten together in West Texas aside from the Fort Worth and Stamford shows," assured success of the rodeo.

In a statement Tuesday Fairey said he had accepted a job as sanitary inspector for the City of Odessa effective June 1, and that he and his wife and their son Pat, together with his wife and daughter Bettie Lou, are moving to their new location this week.

"I appreciate the encouragement given me by voters in my campaign for commissioner and thank you all for the various courtesies shown me," said Mr. Fairey, adding that he felt he was bettering himself in making the change.

SECURITIES, REAL ESTATE DEALERS HERE CO-OPERATE WITH TEXAS LICENSE LAW

C. L. Martin, investigator for the Securities Commission of Texas and the administration of the Real Estate Dealers License Act of Texas visited in Floydada Monday with the real estate men of Floydada.

Jeremiah Announces The New Covenant

Golden Text:—"I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people."—Jer. 31:33.

Lesson Text:—Jeremiah 31:31-37

Jeremiah 31:31 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was a husband unto them, saith the Lord:

33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the Lord: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

35 Thus saith the Lord, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The Lord of hosts is his name:

36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the Lord; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the Lord.

Lesson Thoughts

Jeremiah. Our lesson text today is from Jeremiah, known as "The Weeping Prophet," but he was also a prophet of judgment, announcing woe after woe that was to come upon the people unless they repented and turned from their evil ways.

He is also called a prophet of sorrow. His life was full of hardships. He was more than once imprisoned and his life often in danger. It seems that God would not let him have a wife and family (Jer. 16:2) and he was often lonely, his only companion being his faithful secretary, Baruch. He was naturally diffident and weak, and seemed ill adapted to endure the hardships he was called upon to undergo, but he trusted in the strength of God.

God's Covenants. In this lesson we study about the covenants. What are they? Covenant signifies God's dealings with individuals or with God and man in which God bestows mankind. It is a contract between favors and man assumes obligations.

The first covenant mentioned in Scripture is designated as the covenant of works. Life was promised to man on the condition of obedience (Gen. 2:16, 17). Following the flood God made a covenant with Noah, the token of which was the rainbow. The covenant God made with Abraham comprised both temporal and spiritual blessings, the former consisting of great posterity, and the latter that he should be the ancestor of the Redeemer. The law covenant, known as the old covenant, was made with Moses at Sinai. The sign of that covenant was the Sabbath (Ex. 31:16-18), and its condition was keeping the Ten Commandments (Deut. 4:13).

Maxine Fry, who has been teacher in the Grand Falls, Texas, schools the past school year, returned home Monday. She was re-named by her board as a member of the faculty for another year.

No moving parts in its freezing system—that's the reason behind a record like this. But there are Servel Electrolux refrigerators—plenty of them—in West Texas 10 to 12 years old. Still making ice cubes, keeping the baby's milk safe, saving leftovers, just as efficiently as the first month. And at the same cost. And remember, Servel Electrolux is the only automatic refrigerator with no moving parts to wear, to get noisy, to lose efficiency, and to run up repair and service bills.

James E. Brewer, jeweler of Ballinger, Texas, has had a Servel Electrolux in the kitchen of his home for more than ten years, and he says, "We never spent one cent for service or repairs. It gives as good service as the day we installed it."

But say . . . a Servel Electrolux will make you the heroine of your home, when the savings begin to pile up. How the food keeps! Says C. Hines, Leuders, Texas, "The food we save, which we wasted before we bought a Servel Electrolux, almost made the payments." Vegetables seem fresher after a little while in the vegetable freshener than they were at the store. Leftovers keep until you can work them off. You can save plenty on Saturday specials. The fact is, you pay for one, anyhow; why not own it? Maybe you don't know what easy payments we can arrange for you. Why not come in and find out—or phone us, and we will come and see you.

Yes, one woman was forced to this, as a last resort. Only way she could get friend husband to agree to trade off that old jalopy in the kitchen for a new Servel Electrolux (the silent gas refrigerator). But friend husband led the cheers after that. Like any man, he could eat a quart of ice cream at a time, and in her new Servel Electrolux, this smart little lady kept a tray of ice cream all the time. And how crisp and fresh the green vegetables always were! And when he got the gas bill, and found all this cost only 2 or 3 cents a day, was his face red!

Mrs. W. L. Larche, of Stamford, Texas, says in 4 years' constant use her Servel Electrolux has cost about 75c a month to operate—"and I have gas bills to show that the operating cost has not increased one cent since the first month! . . . I have never had a service bill," she says.

- NO MOVING PARTS in its freezing system
- PERMANENT SILENCE
- CONTINUED LOW OPERATING COST
- MORE YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE
- CONTINUED SAVINGS THAT PAY FOR IT

Coop Egg Market To Be Discussed By Producers Sat.

Going forward with plans for a proposed cooperative egg marketing project discussed at a recent meeting, the sub-committee on marketing of the Floyd County Land Use Planning Committee this week announced a meeting to be held in the county courtroom Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

All poultry men in the county who are interested in establishing a market on grade and quality of eggs are invited to attend the session to discuss a plan of action.

The purpose of the meeting, according to a spokesman for the committee is to estimate the volume and interest if the poultry men in regard to a movement of the kind projected.

The plan was first brought up at a meeting of the Planning committee two weeks ago, when Miss Edith Wilson, county home demonstration agent, made a brief report on the value of organized egg marketing.

Herman King, C. V. Lemons, and Miss Wilson were appointed at that time as a committee to investigate the possibilities of organization. The meeting called for next Saturday is a result of their investigation.

Interest in cooperative marketing has been growing among farmers and producers in the county, and the plan has been put in operation by Floyd county wool growers in a series of sales during the past two weeks of the 1940 wool clip.
