Draft Plans Complete For Floyd County

3000 Bales Of Cotton Ginned Floyd County

Good Weather This Week Makes Demand For Labor Exceed Supply

Although the cotton season had not begun to make itself felt appreciably in the channels of trade in Floyd county centers up to noon Wednesday, ginners reported a figure closely approximating 3,000 for the total ginnings today.

Shortage of labor is causing considerable cotton to remain in the fields longer than it should to get the best samples. Maize headers have also been scarce although a good price for this kind of work has been offered. Probabilities are that more cotton is now open awaiting the harvest than has been gathered. Farmers are anxious to make the most of the open season and are offering 50 cents per hundred for pulling bolls.

Amazingly good staple has been the rule throughout the cotton to date. Very little cotton is being sampled at the government classing office that is running short of an inch staple. Much of the crop is showing a staple in excess of an inch in length. Grades last week following the showers, ran generally at low middling to strict low middling. Samples improved appreciably Tuesday of this week.

According to ginners over Floyd county, ginnings have about reached the peak in most areas. Floydada gins are running about as heavy now as they expect to have to go this season and up to Wednesday afternoon some 560 bales had been turned out in the city.

Ginnings are slower at South Plains, Edgin and Lakeview. The cotton seems to be slower opening there than elsewhere in the county. Lakeview has ginned about 80 bales to date with corresponding figures for South Plains and Edgin.

CITY MARSHAL RECOVERING FROM TWO WEEKS ILLNESS

City Marshal Morgan Wright who has been seriously ill for two weeks was reported to be slightly improved Wednesday by his daughter, Mrs. Addie Wise, of Phoenix, Arizona, who arrived Thursday to be at her father's bedside.

All of the children were here Sunday to be with their father except Grady Wright of Phoenix, Arizona, who came Tuesday and left Wednesday afternoon. Those here Sunday besides Mrs. Wise were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crabtree of Tulla, Clyde Wright of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wright of Brownfield who were here also a greater part of the time last week and the week before.

SOS For Campaign Funds Issued From Demo. Headquarters

An SOS call for funds with which to finance the last 30 days of the Democratic National campaign was made from national headquarters of the party this week and relayed by Myron G. Blalock out of the Texas headquarters at Austin to Texas county chairmen.

With $75.50 of a $467 quota pledged and paid to noon Tuesday, represented the work of the campaign chairman in Floydada and Lockney, the local committeemen issued a call to all good Democrats to come to the aid of their party.

"The national committee's funds are limited, indeed," said Walter G. Collins, local finance leader. "While our opponents have money to burn, we are going to have to call on the small business man and the farmer to finance our own party's campaign if we get it done."

Mr. Collins and Chas. Bedford, co-chairmen of the drive for funds at Floydada, spent a considerable portion of registration day Wednesday contacting local Democrats and also have given some time to the drive since, but will be unable to contact the many hundreds they need to see to insure the success of the drive.

K. Ewing Bain, Floydada attorney, has been named appeal agent for Floyd county by President Roosevelt, to supplement work of the Floyd county draft board. The appointment was made by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

Hough Case Set For Wednesday By The District Court

Special Venire Called By Sheriff Fred Clark For 10 O'Clock

T. E. Hough, charged with murder, pleaded "not guilty" before Judge Alton B. Chapman in district court on Tuesday, October 15, in a hearing following his indictment for the fatal shooting of R. C. James of Plainview.

Immediately after the shooting in down-town Floydada, Hough surrendered to peace officers. He later posted a $5,000 bond and was released. James was rushed to a Floydada hospital following the shooting and some four hours later died.

A motion for a special venire of jurors was made by Hough's attorneys and the motion was granted by the court. Sheriff Fred N. Clark was instructed to summon a special venire of 72 persons to appear before the district court Wednesday morning, October 30, at 10 o'clock, the trial time is set.

In other matters both civil and criminal, the court has been working steadily. Two suspended sentences were removed last week and a number of civil cases have been settled, including several divorce suits.

Food Machinery Corp. received a default judgment in the favor for $729.80. W. B. Hatchett was defendant.

Pernicie King received a judgment in his favor over John Deere Plow company.

Sweet Potatoes Make Big Crop In Garden Of Mr. And Mrs. Howard

Samples from a huge garden crop of Maryland Sweet yams grown by Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Howard on their farm southwest of Erick two miles were being shown in Floydada Monday morning by the growers, the product of one of the larger hills weighing 17 pounds.

The Howards had seven rows of the sweet potatoes 126 feet long from which they marketed 32 bushels and kept several of the smaller ones from which they hope to produce slips next spring for the 1941 plantings.

In addition to producing heavily the crop was of delicious flavor and texture, with a rich brown hue.

MASONS WILL MEET
Announcement was made this week by E. P. Stone, secretary of the Certificate of the association, that a meeting of the association will be held with the Floydada lodge No. 712, October 24.

Whirlwinds Meet Dragons Friday Night In Paducah For Conference Game

Paducah Favored Over Whirlwinds In Big Conference Game

Floydada's Whirlwinds pack their traveling bags Friday and head for Paducah where they will face the Dragons on their own stamping grounds, and under the lights Friday night. The Dragons are favored to squash the championship hopes of the Green and White warriors before they swing any higher, but indications have been all week that the Winds are going to put up a stubborn battle before they give up their championship hopes.

Most of the Whirlwind team accompanied Coaches Winter and Hale to Paducah Friday night to scout the Dragons in their win over Crosbyton. The information came back that the Dragons didn't reveal a thing in winning from the Chiefs 25 to 0. However, they all report that Mobley is the big gun for the Monsters.

Winds Seem Improved
The Winds seem improved in their pass defense and pass offense. Winter and Hale have been working since the Ralls game on these two phases and indications are that some of the work has bettered the Winds play. Rushing seems to be the logical hurler with Patterson, Poster, Grigsby and Walls as receivers.

Just what Winter will show in the way of tricky ball handling is yet to be revealed but some handsome new numbers have been concocted just for Paducah. The regular numbers of reverses and double-reverses will be played, as well as Rushing and Gollygight hammering away at the center of Paducah's line.

If the Whirlwind forward wall charges and hammers as it is capable of hammering the Dragons are in for a surprising evening, especially if the foursome in the backfield are feeling up to par.

Mobley is rated as the "man of the hour" at Paducah and 90 per cent of the offensive work is done by him. He is a dancing deerskin, the master of cut-back and speed. To date no team has stopped Mobley. Crowell held the Paducah team to a 6-1 tie, but Mobley contributed to Paducah's six points.

The Dragons lost a regular tackler with a broken leg last week but a capable reserve is filling in at the post and Winter does not regard (See WHIRLWINDS, back page)

700 Bales Through Local Improvement Program Receiving Good Price

Effort Being Made To Build Reputation Of Floyd Cotton

(By D. F. Bredthauer)
The one variety cotton improvement program, sponsored by the Surplus Marketing administration, Washington, in operation in Floyd and Hale counties, is gaining momentum as the cotton harvest season advances. To date 700 bales have gone through this program ranging from $1.25 to $2.25 per bale over loan prices and these producers are receiving as much as from $4.00 to $5.00 above the ordinary local market price.

Cooperators in the Floyd-Hale one variety cotton area are given an opportunity to build up a one variety quality cotton that will demand a premium in the mill markets of the United States and abroad, and since the farmers of this area asked for the one variety program, it is now squarely up to the farmers just how far they wish to make their reputation in these markets as the producers of one variety cotton.

The volume of bales that this program receives in these counties will also determine the rapidness of the mill buyers to acknowledge this area as a producer of quality cotton. The more farmers that will support this program will naturally give a larger volume to be distributed among the mills so they will have a chance to gain the knowledge of spinning value which the Floyd-Hale one variety farmers are anxious to demonstrate. When cotton is placed in this program it must be remembered that all are cooperating together not only for the advantages that are received this year but are building a reputation for cotton for the future years so that this county will be recognized as a quality one variety cotton producing area.

"One variety means much to the spinner," County Agent, D. F. Bredthauer states, "we have many

Floydada Application For Home Guard Granted

Officers Of Organization Named In Petition To Adjutant General

Floydada's application for a Texas Home defense unit was granted Tuesday in Austin, according to a statement from Floydada's delegation to the capitol to secure approval. The committee which presented the application was composed of Harry Morckel, G. C. Tubbs, Gordon Voight, Dr. D. H. Pitts, and Mayor Glad Snodgrass.

It had been decided at a meeting Friday night in the district court room that it would be best to send personal representatives to Austin rather than a mailed application. The committee was appointed and

A call meeting of everyone interested in the Floydada unit of Texas Home defense unit was made today by Dr. D. H. Pitts, who will captain the unit. Men of all ages from 18 to 64 years who are interested in joining the unit are especially requested to be on hand. The meeting will be held Monday night at 8 o'clock in the District court room.

President Roosevelt signed the bill Monday making the Texas Home defense units possible. Tuesday the Floydada committee contacted Colonel Mason of the adjutant general's department and secured approval of the unit for Floyd county. Members of the committee quoted Colonel Mason as saying, "We have stacks of applications from other towns and cities but by sending personal representatives, we know Floydada actually does want the unit."

Colonel Mason instructed Dr. Pitts, who will captain the unit here to call a meeting and make a "muster-roll" enrollment as many as 64 men. When all details had been worked out here, Pitts was to send the information to his office and final papers would be returned to the unit.

It was also unofficially announced that rifles and ammunition would be furnished later by the United States government. Other than that no information could be secured on possible equipment.

Mattress Work Begins Soon; 102 Allotted For This County

Work will start Thursday morning in the Baker community for the second mattress allotment for Floyd county. The allotment for this time is set for 100 beds. In August 102 beds were made that were distributed to needy families in the county.

Mrs. W. H. Nelson will supervise the work in the Baker center and the work will be done by women of the Bakerview Home Demonstration club.

Other centers and their supervisors in the county will be announced soon from the office of the county home demonstration agent, Miss Ethel Wilson.

Due to the rush in the cotton harvest at this time it may be several days before the centers are established and the work gets under way. Miss Wilson said.

ERVIN TURNER HOME
Ervin L. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner is at home this week awaiting a notice to report to one of the Primary Army Flight training schools.

He arrived home Friday.

Medical Staff For Floyd Is Named Sat.

Questionnaires Probably Will Be In Mails By Late Next Week

With some 1,369 young men between 21 and 36 years of age registered in Floyd county, of which better than 200 are visitors or temporary residents of this county, final boards have been appointed by President Roosevelt and announced by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel this week.

Complete personnel of the Floyd county draft board at present is J. M. Willson, chairman, T. P. Collins

Information from Washington this week announces that the nation-wide draft lottery will be held at noon Tuesday, October 29. Secretary of War Stimson will draw the first number from a goldfish bowl. The order in which the numbers are drawn will determine the order in which young men who have registered will enter the army, unless they volunteer or are deferred. The ceremony will be broadcast, it is understood.

and W. H. Counts. Office assistants will be O. P. Rutledge and Mrs. Gerald Sama, stenographer.

Late Saturday afternoon the draft board had completed assigning serial numbers to Floyd county registrants and were ready to receive the order numbers which will be determined by lottery in Washington, presumably this week.

Upon receipt of order numbers, the board will begin issuing questionnaires to determine classification of draftees. These questionnaires must be filled out and returned to the draft board in person, and there the registrant must swear (or affirm) that his answers are true and correct to the best of his knowledge.

Advisory Board Named
To assist registrants who are "stumped" as to how to fill out questionnaires, the president has named a board to give necessary advice, but with no power other than "advisory," and have nothing to do with classifications or assigning serial or order numbers.

Jeff D. Ayres will serve as chairman of the advisory board. He served in that capacity during the 1917 draft in Sterling county. He will have as helpers, J. C. Wester, Gordon Voight, Harry Morckel, B. K. Barker and Frank Perkins, the latter of Lockney.

These men serve without pay and accept no fees for their assistance, and all will be glad to assist draftees with problems encountered they begin to fill out the questionnaires.

Resident Training Project For Girls Possibility Here

The possibility that Floydada might obtain a girls resident training project was, expressed this week by Ogle Evers, Floyd County Welfare office. The project would be for girls from 17 to 25 years of age and would provide instruction in sewing, cooking, and business administration.

Should the project be secured for this county it would be quite similar to the one which operates in Lubbock and which has been attended by a number of Floyd county girls. The Lubbock project has also made some provision for training boys in certain lines of work.

Everyone interested in such a project should contact Evers at the welfare office in the basement of the Floyd county courthouse.

Last week four NYA students went to Lubbock to begin training. They were Billy Probasco, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Probasco; Mary Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Schultz; Pauline Wood, and Evelyn Queen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Queen.

Evers also announced that ten boys had gone from Floyd to CCC camp. Those from Floydada are B. F. Rodgers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rodgers; Fred Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bishop; Billie McPeak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McPeak and Alton Hill, son of W. H. Hill. Those from Lockney were Laverne Huskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sparkman; Melvin Vissage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Star Vissage; Lynn Alford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alford, and Kenneth and Roma Pemberton, sons of Mrs. Ida Pemberton.

$70,853 Parity Checks Are Received At ACA Office To Date

To date, 1318 cotton parity checks totaling $70,853.11 which covers 8919 contracts have been received in the county ACA office. Out of the approximate 1500 cotton parity applications, more than 85% have been submitted to the state office for payment and more than half of the total amount of money to be paid to farmers in Floyd county has been received.

The 1940 Agricultural Conservation applications are being typed and notices being mailed to the producers and by the end of this week most applications will be ready and notices will be mailed each day until all are signed. Some applications have already been submitted and others are being checked. However, if all the soil building payment has not been earned, the application will be held in the county office until after December 1, when all applications may be submitted.

The 1941 winter wheat plan sheets will be signed at the same time the producer signs his application for payment.

Listing sheets for 1941 cotton allotments have been submitted to the state office and all allotments should be out before the marketing quota election is held early in December.

How the man with a small income can own a home is answered by the federal housing administration's home-building program. A man with a small income, of course, should spend as small an amount as possible to give his family a good, livable home. If you have a steady income that runs $900 to $1500 and you want to build a home in the $1800 to $2500 bracket, and you live in town, you should investigate the FHA plan of home-building. This plan, incidentally, is not going to cost the government anything. In the long run it will actually show a profit to the agency of the federal administration.

There ought to be 50 or 100 new homes built in Floydada during the next 12 months. Poorly housed families that are paying rent for tumble-down houses with inadequate modernizations could take the same money and build homes of their own. The owners who have houses that are not worthy of the name of home for a family would have to salvage what they could out of their investments, of course. This is worth investigating on the part of a man who is raising a family in Floydada. In other cities and towns they are building homes by the hundreds on this plan and it is working out to the advantage of the community, of the family, and of the lending agency. Don't take the first no you get as final. If you are working honestly and efficiently at your job, if you have reasonable assurance of regular employment and if you can get hold of a building site, don't fool around about it. Bore in and get the job done. If you have a bad rent paying record, hold your fire. A record for trying to meet your obligations fairly and squarely is a jewel of rare value when you start a job like this. It never pays to try to beat bills anywhere and under any circumstances. The time to beat a bill is before you make it.

When the list of registrants under the military conscription law, or selective service act, as it is called, is made up in order number it is our hope to carry the complete list for the information of the general public. Right now there is not a great deal of point in carrying the list before the big lottery takes place. Watch for the order number list after the lottery is held. Chances are the local board will be getting new names for the rest of this week from various parts of the United States and a list made up now has a chance of being incomplete.

Another thing we have planned for the early future is the publication of the general election ballot for November 5. This we expect to print in next week's Hesperian. The ballot will cover practically a whole page in the newspaper and has several amendments on which you will be called to pass judgment. You can take this sample ballot and study how to vote a "mixed" ballot or do whatever you want to do about the presidential race. If you are one of those who just can't "take" the third term or the big spending or whatever it is you don't like about the present administration, a study of how to vote this ballot intelligently might be of value to you.

How seriously England is besieged by the mighty armada of the Nazi air forces is being told in little stories and half-truths that get into the dispatches. England needs the English fog worse than ever in its history since it failed to get the fog in 1966. Fighting blow for blow the two air forces together are destroying property on the isles and on the continent at a rate hardly conceivable. The Four Horsemen are looking on gleefully.

When we think of the war now in progress and the claims and counter-claims of the belligerents, one western-coin phrase comes more often to mind than any other: "There ain't no horse that can't be rode and there ain't no cowboy that can't be throwed."

Lack of capable tool makers is hampering the defense program, it is said, and this lack can be charged to the unionized toolmakers, who along with scores of other workers crafts have had in force for a number of years a rule limiting very closely the number of apprentices who can work. In many instances the rules and restrictions imposed on the employer have been so strict as to rule out any learners. German workmen had the same rule working beautifully in the late twenties and early thirties and were riding high and handsome—for a dictatorship. It was to be a workers paradise with the farmers and industrialists paying the bill. All the dumb bells are not in public office and all the grasping greed is not on Wall street.

Japanese statesmen are certain it will be national suicide for the United States to get into war. Undoubtedly they can be right and the forecast may be more certainly proven twenty years hence. It must be remembered the Japanese were warned that this kind of thing meant suicide for nations and for civilizations as well years and years ago. Their present-day warning is only an echo of what they were told from America when they began their conquest of Asia.

Of all the newspapers in the United States the percentage of so-called liberal papers is less than 14 per cent, a survey by the Democratic National committee disclosed. Of this 14 per cent, of course, a large number are in the deep south. The result is that many of the readers of the United States are not getting a sympathetic presentation of the Democratic party's viewpoint in this fall's national campaign. Reading the newspapers you read, whatever they may be, note that 90 per cent of the political "columns" and "interpreters" of the news are pouring it on the administration. Admitting there are two sides to the question of what political stripe our next administration should be, we believe there are two sides, too, to the news of what is happening. Personal Journalism in America is going to have to answer for a lot some time somewhere.

A study of the population gains and losses in West Texas tells the story of counties which had towns and cities of considerable growth due to one reason or another,—oil developments, cotton area distribution center, or whatnot. Gaines county, for instance, had a gain of 198.9 per cent. Cochran 90.2. Gaines had both oil and cotton as an incentive. Cochran mostly oil. The old standby counties of Floyd, Motley, Briscoe, Cottle, Hale, Crosby and Dickens all showed some loss of population. In Floyd the loss was 14.1 per cent. Charge it to wheat, to machinery farming, to the farm program or whatever you like, there it is. Other counties showed more and less, some as high as 28 per cent loss.

Cartoonists often can put more punch into a single drawing than the news and feature writers can into reams and reams of copy. The other day a Democratic-ally subsidized cartoonist had Wendell Willkie sitting at his desk dictating a statement, with the shadow of the G. O. P. elephant in the background. Said Mr. Willkie, "I believe in the New Deal but I want to debate it."

Football 'Down-Under'—All kinds of football—the kind played in America and the soccer and rugby of the Old World—are known to Australia. But Australia has developed a variety of the sport all its own, and people who have compared it with others declare it is equal if not superior to them in all that makes a game good to watch and to play. Some day, we hope, it will become international.—Secretary L. H. McBrien, in Rotarian Magazine.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

The maples along the well-kept streets in Floydada are wearing scarlet scarfs and looking like gay gypsy ladies at a dance. The fall winds make the wild music as they sing and twang through the shining steel wires overhead, the trees sway and bend as it passes. The red siege of autumn does not come to the prairies as it does in the timbered countries, but here and there some trees and plants are set afire as if by the red-hot sun of this time of year wants to leave some of his warmth for the cold days ahead.

I go around the place looking at everything this lovely day. The flaming Virginia Creeper makes a background for late fragrant sweet roses. Fluffy bronze, yellow, white, red and soft pink chrysanthemums delight me with their beauty. Heavenly blue morning-glories do not close their blue parols all day. Dahlias have reached their most beautiful stage. Sweet blue violets are coming from the midst of green leaves.

The ash tree drops leaves of gold on the lawn covering it with the leaves that danced and made cooling shade through the summer. In the garden pumpkins look like huge golden oranges, tender greens and turnips are having their place. We catch a glimpse of the top knot quilts that hid in the bean vines when they were small. Now you can hardly tell them from the parents. They whistle and call as they fearlessly hunt for bugs.

Oh, if I could only travel and see things, we sometimes sigh. But do we try to see what is near us, was my thoughts as I watched the week's edition of the Hesperian printed last week. In the machine a sheet of white paper slipped, out came pages of black print, fascinating to watch. Now nothing, next in a second, nothing to be read. A page of blank white, a page of print, on and on hundreds of copies. Then they were taken to another machine to be cut and folded. In and out, large flat sheets, coming out cut and folded for the public. Under Mr. Ham's capable hands, (yes he does other things than write football news,) a little machine puts names on the fresh new papers.

As instantaneously and easily as this seemed to be done, I realized there had been days of hard work gone before. Mr. Steen had sat at his desk, talked with many and written and reviewed articles, men had set type for hours and hours, all the force had worked to one point, that the Hesperian would be good and out on time for that week. Then the same routine has to be followed this week, type upset and put in another form for news of this week.

But there are other places too. We could see how ice is made a modern way, go to the electric plants and see what we have never seen. Our own town could educate us and make us feel traveled. Then when we go to our own little cities on the plains, there are many things of interest. We could see great wool washed and spun into thread and woven into cloth, oil mills crushing oil from our cottonseed, looms making cloth from our cotton. Flour being ground from our wheat. But do we hunt these interesting things up to see? No, we crowd in the ten cent stores and come home sighing and wishing we could travel and see things.

My husband has been telling me some of his boyhood memories. His mother's father was Dr. John Fox who had run away from his folks in England to be a sailor. On one voyage, the ship was wrecked off the Carolina coast and John Fox became an American citizen. He had studied medicine under the ship's doctor and took up the practice. He lived a while in Alabama and Mississippi, and moved to Kaufman county on Spikes Prairie in an early day.

He was a familiar sight as he rode a Palomino horse visiting the sick. He raised yellow horses. He would hobble a young horse with long hobbles and ride him around to teach him to pace. His wife rode horseback to visit friends. She always kept many calico dresses starched very stiff to wear. Their daughter, Julia Ann married John Wesley Spikes.

THE BLIZZARD
With the sting of death,
In its icy breath,
Comes the wind in a howling rage:
And the cedar's bend,
In front of the wind
That tortures and twist the sage.

The cattle in fright
Afraid of its might,
Drift and freeze to death
While the grasses whip,
In its mighty grip,
And die from its icy breath.

We're snug and warm,
And safe from harm
Here by our fireside so bright
But our tears will flow
For those we know
That ride on the plains tonight.

WHEN
When Cosmos blow
White, pink and gold—
Then, you may know
With all my soul
I'm loving you
My friend quite dear,
Though absent you
Seem quite near.
When Petunias
Are dressed in blooms
Of royal purple
Pink and pure white
And Sweet Williams
Sends their perfume
You give your friends
Smiles that delight.

Queen OF THE Roller Rink?

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

READY TO TAKE THE BUMPS and hard knocks on her way to the top, this young lady may end up with the championship, or be one of the hundreds who flop. You can't tell which.

But when you are looking for an oil of championship quality, you have clues to help you choose. Here they are:

Because motorists' requirements vary as their cars and pocketbooks do, Phillips makes many oils. But you need have no question or doubt, if you want our best oil, because Phillips definitely and frankly tells you: Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer.

It's good sense to drain and replace worn oil after 1,000 miles. It's better sense . . . and economy, in the bargain . . . to drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Whirlwinds Drive Through Hard Scrimmage Thursday Preparing For Paducah

Coach Odell Winter and "Bulldog" Hale turned their charges loose on the field last Thursday and let them take their course. He appointed Rushing as headman of one mixed team and Golightly the main cog of the other. The scrimmage would be conducted under simulated game conditions. Winter and Hale then retired to the grandstand to watch the game.

"Big" Patterson, who had an injured shoulder, acted as referee, and Griesby, who has been sick, acted as headsmen. Virgil Orman was field judge. Rushing, Foster, DuBois and Womack made up one team and Golightly, Patterson, Cardinal, and Chowning played in the other. Reserves and regulars were mixed liberally to provide the opposing lines.

The Greens, headed by Golightly, marched for a touchdown from the opening kickoff on line smashes and reverses. The Whites came right back in the same period and jammed a touchdown over with Rushing and Foster collaborating on the hard work.

Both teams settled down to hard fast play and rocked along even until the final minutes of the second period when the Greens marched to the 1 yard line following an intercepted pass, and on the last play, Golightly banged over to make the score Greens 12, Whites 6.

The last half was dominated by the play of the green team. Rushing let a pass fall incomplete on his own 30 on fourth down and in five plays the green had made it 18 to 6. The Whites opened up with a neat passing attack with Rushing doing the hurrying. His heaves were accurate and fast but the Green defenders proved adept at snagging for interceptions. In the final minutes of play Golightly made the other touchdown and raced around end for the extra point and the game ended Greens 25, Whites 6.

Rushing received a badly cut forehead in the last quarter but the injury is not expected to prove serious. Just what the scrimmage exposed to the experienced eye of Coach Winter is not certain but it is likely that the quarterback situation is not solved.

It did prove however that Winds would just as soon throw a tooth jarred block or tackle on each other as not. The leather cracked hard and often in the scrimmage and the blocking was much better.

Foster proved as limber legged as ever and Patterson scattered for numerous long gains. As for power Rushing and Golightly dominated in that department, with Golightly having the edge but Rushing was the better passer and kicker.

DuBois, Womack, Cardinal, and Chowning played neat ball and made several neat gains when carrying the mail. The lines were evenly matched most of the time but the Green line seemed to have the most zip and drive.

NEW MODEL ROSE BEETLE APPEARS ON SOUTH PLAINS ROSES

LUBBOCK, Texas.—A new bug, Fuller's rose weevil, has made its appearance in West Texas, according to O. B. Howell, professor of horticulture at Texas Technological college. This uninvited pest is a gray mottled, snoutless weevil, about one-half inch long and is now found feeding in the tops of chrysanthemums and Christmas daisies.

Infestation may or may not cause the top leaves of the plants to curl. The larvae of this bug is a white to cream colored worm which feeds on the roots of roses, hollyhocks, cosmos, cocklebur and other plants. The adult feeds on flower buds until they are destroyed and then the foliage is attacked.

Infested plants should be sprayed immediately with calcium arsenate spray once a week until the bugs disappear. Lacking spraying equipment, the bugs may be shaken to the ground and put into a can of kerosene or some similar killing agent.

Mexican Men Register To End Only 'Incident' On Registration Day

Afraid they would get into trouble two Mexican men within the draft age were held here last week-end by authorities for 48 hours after they had refused to register under the selective service act. They were Florentino Calisio, 32, and Paulino Calisio, 25 brothers.

Investigation at the Dougherty registration booth developed they were natives of Charco, Goliad county. The young men, however, claimed Mexican citizenship. Federal authorities asked that they be held until investigation could be made.

When an interpreter finally got the young men and the authorities to understand each other better the Mexicans registered and were released. They had lived at Charco all their lives and expected to return there shortly. With a crew of other Mexicans they were pulling bolts on the J. G. Gage farm near the caprock, and were turned in by their boss who had been unable to prevail on them to register.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arwine spent last week-end in Dallas and Fort Worth.

KEEP HER EYES YOUNG
with Better Light for Better Sight

THEY say you can tell a woman's age by her eyes. And if that's true, the time to start keeping your daughter's eyes looking young is when she first starts to use them for close seeing. For if there's anything that's destructive to beauty, it's the crow's-feet and wrinkles that come from squinting in poor light.

Begin now by giving your child a Better Sight lamp of her own—and teach her the habit of reading and studying that will keep her eyes looking young for the rest of her life. Good light was never so cheap.

Bad days ahead. But here's how Winter OIL-PLATING maintains needed lubricant in advance—for Safe Quick Starts...

Ever hear of "the break-away?" Sounds harsh. You can almost feel what it means in the lingo of auto repairers... the moving parts "breaking away" from dead cold standstill... risky moments when your engine's cold steel needs lubricant fearfully fast. And that's why it needs to be OIL-PLATED today by the economical change to Conoco Germ Processed oil.

OIL-PLATING must help faster than any mere fast flow of oil, because sooner than any oil-flow could begin, OIL-PLATING is up to its topmost point in your engine! OIL-PLATING is kept surfaced direct to cylinder walls, pistons and other precious parts, by a strong "power of attraction" processed into Conoco Germ Processed oil. Hence OIL-PLATING doesn't all go draining down during parking—doesn't take leave—doesn't wait for the oil-pump to restore lubrication at every start. That's why OIL-PLATING doesn't let your engine suffer Winter's worst. Always there ahead of starting wear, OIL-PLATING helps your engine to keep its fine fit. And that's your big help toward oil mileage. Mileage is what has won the Conoco man his proud title of Your Mileage Merchant. Today have him put in your Winter Germ Processed oil. Mrs. Warren Will Review Book Nov. 6

Mrs. B. H. Warren of Plainview, a graduate of Baylor university, and head of the English department of Wayland college will review "The Beloved Return" by Thomas Mann, Wednesday afternoon, November 6, at 2:30 o'clock at Fellowship hall of the First Christian church. Mrs. Warren is a semi-professional reviewer and has been booked for the remainder of the season. Her appearance in Floydada will be sponsored by the 1929 Study club.

Invitations have been extended to the clubs of Quitaque, Plainview, Petersburg, Matador, Lockney, Lone Star, Silvertown, the Home Demonstration clubs of Floyd county and the public in general.

The author of the book, Thomas Mann, is said to be the greatest writer since Goethe. He writes not of war or politics but fiction of a romantic touch. This book is a comparison of the nineteenth century with today, the today thought being as late as 1940. Mrs. Warren says, "The parallelism of these thoughts with today are extremely profound."

The theme of the book is "The relation of a genius to the work of reality, and the question 'is the genius ever able to adjust himself.' A short musical program has been arranged by Mrs. Warren to precede the review.

Immediately following the review a tea will be given at the home of Mrs. E. L. Norman for all of those attending the review. All of the presidents of the various clubs who will be here for the afternoon have been asked to compose the receiving line for this occasion.

Antique Tea Given Thursday Evening by 1922 Study Club

Guest day was observed by the 1929 Study club with an antique tea Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. I. W. Hicks, 300 South 2nd street.

Mrs. I. W. Hicks and Mrs. O. P. Rutledge gowned in black dinner dresses greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. Bertha Gilbert gowned in blue taffeta presided at the guest book. Mrs. E. L. Angus invited the guests into the room where many lovely antiques were displayed and presided over by Mrs. J. H. Myers wearing a colonial print and Mrs. A. P. McKinnon, wearing a black taffeta with a polka bonnet to match and carrying an orchid feather fan and jet beaded bag. Mrs. Angus wore a blue lace evening dress and antique pink evening shawl.

Decorations Lovely

After browsing through the antique room the guests were escorted by Mrs. S. W. Ross, gowned in a rose taffeta evening dress, to the dining room where old-fashioned refreshments were served from a gorgeously appointed old-fashioned table. The table was covered with a white linen damask with squares of handmade lace in each corner of the cloth and centered with a yellow and white flower arrangement on a reflector, flanked by silver candle holders and white tapers. Mrs. Lon V. Smith wearing her mother's wedding gown of grey taffeta, trimmed in lace, served tea from an antique silver service while seated opposite her was Mrs. J. B. Jenkins, gowned in a colonial dress who poured coffee. The linen cloth was more than 50 years old and was one that had belonged to Mrs. E. L. Angus' mother.

A silver basket of yellow roses adorned the buffet and the china cabinet was covered with autumn leaves and silver candle holders with white tapers were placed at each end. The refreshments consisted of homemade bread and buttered sandwiches, tea or coffee, cheese balls moulded to represent small oranges, gherkins, and pound cake with hard sauce. Favors were colonial lace bouquets made of candy gum drops, tied with yellow and silver ribbon.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with vases and baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums and dahlias, which were in keeping with the club colors of yellow and white. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. W. I. Cannaday, gowned in a black jersey dress, Mrs. C. K. Arnold, wearing a rose taffeta, Mrs. Lon M. Davis, who wore a black crepe dinner dress and Mrs. P. W. Bell, gowned in navy blue crepe.

Program Given
The program began with a vocal solo "Alice Blue Gown" by Miss Lois Wren, accompanied at the piano by Miss Selma Linder. Mrs. Jno. H. Myers entertained with an old fashioned reading, Miss Louise Willson gave two accordion solo selections. Miss Marty Lou Bond wearing a hoop dress sang "The Old Spinning Wheel," accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. G. E. Bond. She was seated at the spinning wheel which was one of the antiques displayed by Mrs. Lon M. Davis. As an encore Marty Lou sang, "Tomorrow is a lovely day." The program was concluded with the singing of "Old Lang Syne" sung by the group, led by Mrs. Angus with Mrs. J. V. Daniel at the piano. Mrs. Daniels played a medley of Southern and Colonial songs while the guests were arriving.

The program and tea was arranged by Mrs. E. L. Angus, social chairman and Mrs. Glad Snodgrass, Mrs. Lon M. Davis, Mrs. W. I. Cannaday, Mrs. S. W. Ross, Mrs. P. W. Bell, Mrs. C. K. Association Leaders Encouraged By Early Marketing Success

Leaders of the Floyd County Egg Marketing association this week saw signs of definite progress in their marketing program, with an encouraging premium paid regularly for their eggs over the cash market for run of the barnyard eggs.

At this time the premium is about 4 cents per dozen with signs that the quality market can absorb all of their offerings, however big the supply.

"It is beginning to be evident to members of our association that when we say we have quality eggs for sale, there must be no question about it," said Floyd F. Fuqua, president of the association this week. "One shipment of eggs of poor quality could cripple our efforts for months and months. On the other hand, if we can prove up and give unvarying quality, it looks like we can go a long way. Next spring and summer our efforts ought to show big results." Fuqua says a ration that will produce eggs that will stand up under shipping conditions is the big job for the members. He urges those who are considering taking membership in the association to study this phase of the matter.

In other words the market for guaranteed good eggs at a premium is as big as all out-of-doors but the guarantee must be made to stand up, he indicated. People who want what they want and are willing to pay for it are not interested in what we say we have unless we have it, he pointed out.

Volume of the association has been gratifying the past several weeks and the operations have shown some profit for the members, both encouraging signs, said Fuqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Keim and children, Jack and Elizabeth, and Robert Lady of Tulla, and Mr. and Mrs. Keim's daughter, Mrs. Ed Spann of Borger, were guests of Mr. Keim's brother, A. B. Keim and family, Sunday.

Determined On Friday

Undoubtedly the fate of District 4-A will be decided Friday night at Paducah. Floydada is aspiring for the pennant, cup, trophy, or what-have-you that signifies they are official champs and the dreadful Dragons also aspire for that gon-falon.

Paducah rules the favored spot because of their many decisive victories this season and because they tied Crowell 6 to 6, while Floydada took it on the chin from the Wildcats. Fans here and there rate Paducah two touchdowns and one extra point better than Floydada.

We doubt that is correct reasoning, because outside of Crowell the Dragons have met a bunch of push-overs of the same calibre that Floydada started so hot on...until they met Crowell.

Of course Paducah is good. They have a well balanced crew and one of the best backs in the district but if Floydada feels right and starts right the Winds stand a strong chance to upset the Paducah eleven. Paducah's greatest weakness seems to be the lack of reserves, outside of that they are well balanced offensively and defensively and win, lose or draw it will be a merry battle.

What About Matador

The Matador Scarlet Scourge is also to be reckoned with but if Paducah wrecks Floydada, we will string along with the Dragons to grab the title over Matador. The Bullfighters are "snappers" and were lucky to win over Spur. Matador probably has a more versatile backfield than Paducah but Mobley is a better all around back than Allsup when individuals are mentioned. Paducah's line is a shade better than that of Matador as well. All in all, Paducah looks the best of the two.

As for straightaway power Paducah has by far the most. Matador has speed to burn but not so much genuine brute power.

This And That

Pick your personal poison, but Golithely is the sweetest back you will find in this area. Power, speed, blocking, and kicking make him by far our choice for the "All-". Patterson and Foster are probably the best climax runners in the district outside of Allsup. Foster is probably the "quickest" of the lot...no one can figure how he accumulates so much yardage without adequate blocking. Patterson is the most

Rushing has power, but little speed. He can kick the ball and pass better than Golithely part of the time but it seems he will reach his peak next year. All four of these boys can block...when they want to.

There seems to be no question but what Floydada has the best potentialities of any team...if and when they begin to click. Our backfield has the material, including speed, power, and blocking. We have a big fast line that should never meet its match but to date Floydada has looked everything but invincible.

There is hope everywhere that Floydada will hit its stride Friday night...so do we. If we don't, a victory over Lockney is about all we can salvage out of this season...and that isn't cinched.

That's Right—We're Wrong
No doubt this column will always be wrong on one or two games each week. That seems to be the fate of sports writers...always worse pickers than the layman, but we have a tough hide and week after week ram our neck out for another lick.

Lockney will try their hands at Bulldog chasing Friday afternoon at Lockney, but no doubt they will not face the dogs with their passing and running. Davis can pass to Kelley but after that...Spur 19, Lockney 7.

Bullfighters vs Jackrabbit. Allsup versus Smith. Rails vs Matador at Matador Friday night. Smith is the best all around back, Allsup is faster but the lines are about the same. This should be a snap to pick if you take the dope bucket splashing, and we do...Matador 13, Rails 7.

Now for some wizardry and some polite snickers and gaffaws from the "wiseacres" of here and there. Paducah vs Floydada at night and at Paducah. Fans may recall that Paducah has gone dry this year but Guthrie isn't far way, and Floydada is by far-and-away my choice (Please pass the chopping block, Pappy). Floydada 19, Paducah 14, and hold your breath.

As an anti-climax after that upsurge...Crosbyton 25, Open Date 24...a squeeze play was the difference.

Now that we have the spirit. Marquette 19, Texas Tech 14. T. C. U. 21, Tulsa U. 6. Texas A & M 26, Baylor 9. Texas U. 19, Rice 7. Old Miss, 20, Arkansas 7. West Texas 26, Benedicts 6.

Red Cross Assures Preparations To Include Draft

Assurances were extended this week by the Red Cross that they are making full preparations for expansion to deal with welfare problems of all men who enter service as well as their families at home. The announcement was made through Cecil Hagood, chairman of the Floydada Red Cross chapter.

"The Red Cross is the government's official agency chartered to deal with personal or family problems of men of the army and navy," Hagood said the public will be asked for increased membership support during the organization's annual Roll Call, November 11 to 30, that military, public health, first aid and other National Defense responsibilities of the Red Cross may be met adequately.

"Increased staffs of chapter home service workers, and field representatives at training points," Hagood said, "will assist the men or their dependents in matters of illness, emergencies, material relief, obtaining of information needed by military authorities for furloughs or dependency discharges, advising in business difficulties, obtaining of employment for a member of the family, and other problems."

"Army hospitals have already asked for more than 4,000 Red Cross nurses to be on duty by next July. The first groups have been called on September 15 and another yesterday. For convalescents, Red Cross 'Gray Ladies' will write letters, read books, provide games and other amusements. Red Cross volunteers will make comfort items for hospitalized men."

"Among other preparedness measures being taken by the Red Cross, our chapters will be expected particularly to train more women and girls in home hygiene and prevention of disease as a civilian safety measure. train additional thousands of first aiders in industries affected by war materials production, increase enrollment in the Red Cross nursing reserve corps and in nurse's aide special courses for training of assistants in civilian hospitals in time of national emergency. In addition, they must continue to produce garments and surgical dressings for use overseas and here at home. This expansion will take into account, also, the continuing need of domestic Red Cross peacetime services."

Evelyn Daniels, student at W. T. S. C. at Canyon spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Daniels.

Soil Conservation Plan Completed By Board

Four Sample Farms Have Been Selected For Demonstrations

The work plan for the Floyd county soil conservation district has been filed with the state board at Temple, it was said here last week.

The county board has not lost sight of the fact that the entire program is entirely voluntary, carrying a complete soil and water application to its cooperators and a program that will be universally accepted by the land owners of the county.

At present the district board, W. H. Nelson, F. L. Brown, J. S. Lackey, W. F. Ferguson, and Webb Taylor, has gone into an agreement with the extension service for the County Agent, D. P. Bredthauer, to help conduct educational meetings and to assist with meetings where possible, to planned work schedules with appropriate agencies and to assist in conducting method demonstrations in establishing soil and water conservation practices on demonstration farms.

Another agreement has been made with the soil conservation service for technical assistance such as to assemble information for sample farms and ranches to be used in group meetings, to make conservation surveys to determine soil type, slope, land cover and extent of erosion on farms or ranches of the selected demonstration farms to be used at group meetings.

County Agent Bredthauer, states that four sample farms have been selected by the district board for experimental demonstrations with one farm located in each of the commissioners' precincts which are the farms of Oliver Holmes, Irick; Harry Morckel, Floydada; Robert Hinsley, Dougherty, and C. M. Meredith, Center. The soil conservation service through its local representative, E. Kemp, has been called upon to make a complete soils map and a map on contours and terraces on each of these selected farms.

The district board will conduct a field trip to each of these demonstration farms inviting all farmers and ranchers of the county to take part in the inspection tour. Immediately following the field trip the party will gather at a designated meeting place and the farmers and ranchers will be given an opportunity to express their views as to how a complete soil and water conservation program should be applied on these farms together with a practical crop rotation system and from information received at these gatherings.

The board will proceed in completing the district work plan. It is hoped that sufficient interest will be taken by the land owners so that the district work plan will incorporate those features of soil application that a large majority of the land owners are willing to put into operation on their holdings so as to receive unanimous support that will be of benefit to the county as a whole.

Women's "Build-Up"

Women's headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, so often relieved by CARDUI. Principal way it helps is by increasing appetite, stimulating flow of gastric juices and so improving digestion and helping to build physical resistance. Another way you may find CARDUI helpful in reducing periodic distress: Take it a few days before and during "the time." Used for 50 years.

Quota Vote For Cotton Dec. 7

Same Procedure Will Be Followed This Year As In 1939

Voting procedure in the cotton marketing quota referendum, December 7, will be the same as was used in the referendum last year. All cotton producers in the state will be given the opportunity to vote in the referendum to decide whether quotas will be in effect in 1941. George Slaughter, state AAA committee chairman, pointed out in last year's referendum, 82 percent of the cotton producers voting in Texas favored quotas, while 91 percent of the producers in the nation voted "yes."

A national cotton marketing quota of approximately 12,000,000 bales, the same as is in effect for the current year, has been proclaimed by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard.

The county AAA committee will be in charge of all arrangements for the referendum in the various counties, the chairman said, and the voting will be handled just as in any regular election. The committee will choose three local farmers to serve as election officers in each community. Voting places will be provided for all communities where cotton is produced, the county committee designating the places and providing ballot boxes. Voting places will open at 9 a. m. December 7. All voting will be by secret ballot, each farmer marking his ballot and casting it in the customary manner used in secret balloting.

To be effective in 1941, cotton marketing quotas must be approved by two-thirds of the farmers voting in the nation. If approved, quotas will apply to all states, counties and communities where cotton is produced.

A A A Announces How 1941 Parity May Be Secured

The Agricultural Adjustment administration announced recently the provisions under which producers of corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and wheat may earn 1941 parity payments.

Payments will be made to eligible producers from a fund of 212 million dollars appropriated for that purpose by the government.

1941 parity provisions are essentially the same as those in effect for the 1940 program. A producer who participates in the 1941 AAA Farm program will be eligible for payments if: (1) the 1941 planted acreage of the commodity for which payment is made does not exceed the farm acreage allotment for such commodity; (2) he plants within the total of the acreage allotments of corn, cotton, rice, tobacco and wheat established for his farm for 1941; (3) he does not offset his performance by overplanting these commodities on any other farm, wherever located in which he has an interest.

As provided in the agricultural adjustment act of 1938, the 1941 parity payment rates for the five commodities will be based on the amount by which the returns from the 1940 crop of each falls below the parity income. The rate for any crop can not exceed the amount by which the 1940 average farm price is less than the parity price and will be as nearly equal to parity as the available funds permit. Rates will be announced later when the information upon which they are based is available. In 1939 and 1940 the rate of payment and the average farm price combined could not exceed 75 percent of parity.

As in the two previous years, parity payments will be made on the normal yield of the farm acreage allotment determined for each commodity under the 1941 program.

ABSENTEE BALLOTING STARTS SLOW; FIVE CAST UP TO WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

County Clerk A. B. Clark said late Wednesday that only five absentee ballots had been cast up to that time. Indications are that there is little voting interest in the national election, although the discussions of politics are considerable.

Absentee balloting began October 16 and will close on November 2. Ballots this year are "desk cover" size and have a multitude of parties represented.

THE HESPERIAN

Farmers And Homemakers Hold Joint Meeting

Faculty Favors The Selective Service Law, Reporter

Question—"What do you think of conscription?"

Mr. Winter: "I think it's a good plan. It will help bring everyone rich or poor down to the same level. Every man who has reached maturity needs a little military training whether in time of peace or war. There are some who say they won't do this or that if they are drafted, but Uncle Sam can certainly make them wish they had."

Mr. Barber: "I had rather train and be ready to fight, than be called and not know how. It's a fine thing." He also said, "It's getting all the good looking men."

Mr. Hale: "It's O. K. I like to follow the leaders as long as I like the leaders. If the men called, get trained for actual training instead of glib bricking O. K."

Mr. Travis: "It looks like the condition of times, makes it necessary for the U. S. to do this, to defend themselves, and I know no fairer way than the selected draft."

Mr. Hemphill: "To some extent it's a good thing. I hate to give a year of my life to such service, although if it is going to be done I am willing, able, and capable to do so."

Miss Fannie Mae Rees became the bride of Rev. Robert Murrel Parsley on Saturday evening, June 29, at Southland, Texas.

Miss Rees, home economics teacher in Floydada high school for the past six years is now going to put into practice some of the things she has been teaching.

The ceremony took place Saturday night June 29 at the home of Rev. Hubert Foust of Southland. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Phillips, sister and brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Parsley will continue teaching until a suitable teacher is found to take her place. Their home will be in Plainview, where Rev. Parsley is attending school.

During her teaching experience here, Mrs. Parsley has sponsored the Hesperite for five years, the Home Ec club six years, the junior boys one year, and this year she is sponsor of the freshmen boys.

BAND HAS ROUGH SAILING ON TRIP TO MATADOR AS BUS "BUSTS"

"Did we have fun, or did we have fun? What we can't do with a coat can't be done," says Kenneth Baird Bishop and Lajuana Liefried.

"You bet we did," says Scrapy Hodge and Frances Keim.

The above refers to the trip the band made to Matador Friday night. There was a little trouble with the bus. It stalled on a hill about four miles this side of Matador, and the band got out and walked uphill. Some caught rides on into Matador, some waited and rode the bus in.

A portion of the band played "Wagon Wheels" while the Matador pep squad did a formation with flashlights. The band did a formation honoring neither team.

More trouble! The timing gear this time. The bus went dead about six miles out of Matador coming this way.

"Whoever heard of a band director becoming a mechanic overnight. I could do better myself," says Arliss Rainer. Mr. Camp tried to fix the bus but couldn't. He sent back to Matador to get a truck to pull them in. They arrived in Floydada about 1:30 Saturday morning.

Floydada Future Farmers are to have a pest eradication contest with all members participating, it was decided in the regular meeting Tuesday night, October 15.

Ah- The Shadow Is On The Prowl; Secrets Must Now Be Told

There have been gobs of dark rumors creeping down the dismal passageways of F. H. S. these past few days. Just put your ear to a key hole and you'll probably hear some stealthy whispers.

It has been whispered about that Sharon's heart goes flutter-flutter when a certain little black headed boy appears;

Could it be true that La Juana and Kenneth are drifting apart? At least that's the story that reached my pal, The spy, and me.

My pal, The spy, tells me that the leaves on the trees along the west side of town are turning brown and drifting away.

The wind in the willows whispered that Old Man Winter is just around the corner, and here I stand without a Coat (Hint, Hint! Gee, I'm freezing).

It is also rumored that Arla Vee Bishop is "cute as a bug's ear": At least that's what Joe Wilson thinks.

SENIORS REALIZE $5.00 FROM SKATING RINK; TO BE APPLIED ON 1941 GIFT

The Floydada skating rink was sponsored by the Senior class last Friday evening and night. The class received 20 per cent of the gate receipts. This money is to be used to help pay for a present which will be presented to the school at the end of the year.

It looks as if the seniors have very little class spirit this year, since the attendance was somewhat low.

Approximately twenty dollars was taken in, five of which went to the senior class.

Classes Select Girls To Represent Them At Big Carnival

The four different classes have chosen a class queen to represent each class. The senior class elected Martha Yearwood, the juniors elected Topsy Dudley, the sophomores elected Helen Young, and the freshman elected Aileen Tinney.

The students will vote for the queen they want at a penny a vote. The students have placed boxes for voting in business stores down town, so the town people can vote for any student mentioned above. The class queen who wins will be crowned carnival queen at the junior carnival Thursday night October 31.

Seniors Name Choice

October 17, the senior class held their second class meeting of the year to select a queen to represent them at the junior carnival Thursday October 31. The class sponsors, Miss Howell and Mr. Barber, made short talks to the class and the meeting was turned over to E. L. Tyler, president of the senior class.

The following girls were nominated: Edith Shirey, Martha Yearwood, Frances Field and Jeanette Bratton, but it seemed to be Martha all the way as she won the honor to represent the class with a popular vote.

Martha is president of the pep squad and a very popular girl in F. H. S. The seniors are backing Martha with spirit and money they can rake up. Here's to you Martha.

Juniors Sure Of Win

The Juniors met last Monday to make plans for the junior carnival. The carnival is to be held on Halloween night. The class president Randolph Rutledge, appointed committees and told the class what plans had already been made.

The class then decided to elect a queen to represent them at the carnival. Topsy Dudley was elected, and it looks as though we have a good chance of winning.

Today... America depends on the Telephone

"One, if by land, and two, if by sea." better method of communication—the telephone.

Today America needs no midnight rides like Paul Revere's. For this country now is protected by a vast telephone system owned by more than 600,000 American people, employing nearly 300,000 skilled men and women, and used by Americans from coast to coast.

In emergencies today, Americans turn to the telephone, knowing they will receive fast, dependable service—a telephone service backed by the nation-wide resources of the Bell System.

One hundred years later, in an attic only a few miles from the starting point of history's most famous ride, Alexander Graham Bell gave the nation a faster, better method of communication—the telephone.

Suddenly the light of a lantern pierced the darkness... then another. The white road echoed the pound of galloping hoofs as the midnight rider called the sleeping countryside to arms.

American History Has Up-To-Date Slant For Students

The tenth grade students have found their American history, for this year, interesting. Not only is the subject one of interest, but Miss Rea has made her room as attractive as possible.

Upon entering her room, one of the first things we notice is a statue, the Winged Victory, which stands on a corner shelf in the back of the room. The Winged Victory is on the right side of the room and on the left side on a similar corner shelf is a bust of Mendelssohn.

In the center of the room at the back is a large picture of the inauguration of George Washington. To one side of this is a picture of General Grant in the wilderness. On each of the side walls pictures, calendars, and maps may be seen. At the front there is a set of modern maps and a very large exhibit case.

In this case the projects made by the students are kept. Miniatures of the Alamo, a spinning wheel, a covered wagon, log cabins, and pictures of garbed characters from history are among the most interesting.

Aside from the room, we find that this year's history books have opened a path for us to travel with the people of long ago.

We learn of hardships and suffering our ancestors went through to establish our nation. We also have reports from outside material picture studies, daily current events, "Who Am I" Contests, debates and letters, themes, and diaries written by students who have imagined they were persons in Early American History.

Miss Rea has given a long list of books which both educate and entertain us by relating the customs of our forefathers. We enjoy our oral reports a great deal, and we gain facts that would otherwise have escaped us. The debates we have are also educational and entertaining.

Home Guard—

Go To Austin Monday
A concentrated effort to secure a Texas defense unit for Floydada was decided upon last Friday night at a meeting held in the district court room by those interested in such an organization. Some 40 persons were on hand for the discussion.

Harry Morckel acted as chairman. County Judge G. C. Tubbs spoke strongly in favor of such an organization and said he would do all he could to help secure such a unit here. Judge L. G. Mathews also recommended a defense unit highly not only as a unit to keep up patriotic spirit but as an asset to any community.

Dr. D. H. Pitts and Sheriff Fred Clark also spoke favorably for the unit. A large number of ex-service men were present for the meeting as well as younger men who registered on Wednesday under the draft law. With a written petition all ready to be sent Governor W. Lee O'Daniel in regard to securing a unit for Floyd county, the suggestion was made by Mathews that a delegation drive to Austin and present the request in person. A number of other Texas cities have requests ahead of Floydada, and for that reason it was believed that a personal call would achieve a great deal more than mailing the petition.

Officer Personnel Named
Officer personnel for the proposed unit was named in the petition and if such a unit is granted Floydada, these officers will be commissioned by the adjutant general to serve with the unit. Dr. Pitts is expected to head the unit as captain, the commission he held in the regular army. J. C. Gilliam is expected to be first lieutenant, and T. P. Collins, second lieutenant.

Non-commission officers will be named following organization of the unit. As soon as a unit can be secured, proper enlistment blanks will be given to volunteers. Some 22 men indicated that they planned to enlist in the unit, if it were secured, at the meeting Friday night.

Morckel said that as soon as the government replaced present regular army equipment with modern equipment, he was sure that the defense units would be provided Springfield rifles, ammunition, etc. A rifle range is expected to be established if Floydada secures a unit.

Enlistment in the unit runs for three years, with one and one-half hours drill each week. As present no pay is provided for except when a unit is called out for duty by the governor. It is generally expected however that pay will be provided when units have been organized all over the country and the national guard units have been federalized.

At present the regular enlisted man received one dollar per drill period in the national guard.

The public is cordially invited to be present at the services Sunday, Mrs. J. F. Bohannon, local pastor said.

Draft Board—

The advisory board is not required to meet as a group, and may be found at their place of business during the day.

Medical Board Named
President Roosevelt approved members for the Floyd county medical board this week. Dr. A. E. Guthrie and Dr. George V. Smith, Floydada physicians, will examine registrants placed in Class 1 as immediately available for service in the nation's army or naval forces.

The appeal agent, one for each board, was also announced by the President. K. Ewing Bain, local attorney, was named in that capacity. He will look after the interests of both the government and the registrant in any matter of difference. Officials announced that the appeal agent is not to be confused with the appeals board, personnel of which will be announced at a later date, which will hear registrants appeals from the local draft board rulings.

Appeal agents for nearby counties are Farris Fish, Matador, Motley county; Meade P. Griffin, Plainville; Hale county; Lloyd A. Wicks, Ralls, Crosby county. Medical boards for other counties nearby are Albert C. Traawek and J. S. Stanley, Matador; C. L. Edge and G. B. Parkhill, Crosbyton; and E. O. Nichols and J. H. Hanson, Plainville.

Board Posts Numbers
Serial numbers were posted Friday in the Floydada post office by the local draft board. All official announcements from that body will be posted in the lobby of the post office and draftees may study them there.

The board meets regularly in the American Legion post building, which is south west of the ice plant, and any information may be had by calling there in person or phoning.

that spot as materially weakened by the change.

The Paducah backfield is versatile and has a knack of throwing passes to two tall ends, as well as flat passes around among themselves. Also they seldom fall to use Moble as a decoy and then a large fullback shows up with the leather on a reverse. Sublett is a powerful ball carrier and is always dangerous.

The Paducah booting department is good and Patterson will have to watch his safety work especially close. Scouts say that Paducah has a strong defensive club as well as a hot offensive.

The game is due to be an "all-out" battle because a loss for either team will be fatal this year. Paducah is favored to win by at least one touchdown but the chant on Wester Field this week has been "Get a Dragon." The boys agreed immediately after seeing Paducah play last week to work hard and keep regular hours. "We gotta win this one," one back said.

"We can beat 'em if we'll get in there and play ball," a huge tackle said. "But we can't get out there and pick daisies and fool around." All in all, the spirit on the playing field seems to be better, there seems to be life and drive that has been heretofore lacking and it all may mean the Winds won't lose Friday night as a number of fans think.

This Paducah affair opens the long drive ahead for the Whirlwinds. After they finish with Paducah, no matter who wins, they must face Lockney's Longhorns at Wester Field. A grudge game from "way back."

Then the Green and White must travel to Matador to meet the Scarlet Scourge, in another game that will make or break a potential champion. The Winds move from Matador to Crosbyton in another conference tussle, and then back home for their last District 4-A game with Spur's rough and rowdy Bulldogs. After that the Winds may play a non-conference foe in a "Second" Thanksgiving game, unless they are tied for the championship or have it in the bag.

C. H. Elliott of Spur was a business visitor in Floydada Tuesday.

also that that area is operating at full steam. The cotton has opened satisfactorily there and the picking is generally good. The cotton is expected to be better at Lakeview however than at Dougherty.

Lockney is far in advance of Floydada with at least 930 bales run through the presses. Aiken leads in ginnings with over 700 bales. Lone Star has ginned out about 125 bales.

Cotton in the irrigated belt is averaging something like a bale to the acre, a ginner in that area said Wednesday, with considerable acreage turning out better than a bale and a quarter per acre.

Cotton harvest at Aiken is believed at its peak but near Lockney the opening has been slower and the peak is expected sometime next week.

Pickers are still in general demand over the county but this demand is expected to fall off rapidly as the peak of picking is reached and passed. Since the dry land cotton is generally poor, there will be little demand for pickers after the peak. Irrigated lands will probably supply labor for most of the late pickers.

GRANDDAUGHTER ON VISIT

Mrs. William Clements and her 9-month-old daughter Francis Lenita are here from their home at Hynes, California, for an extended visit with Mrs. Clements' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. West. They arrived Monday.

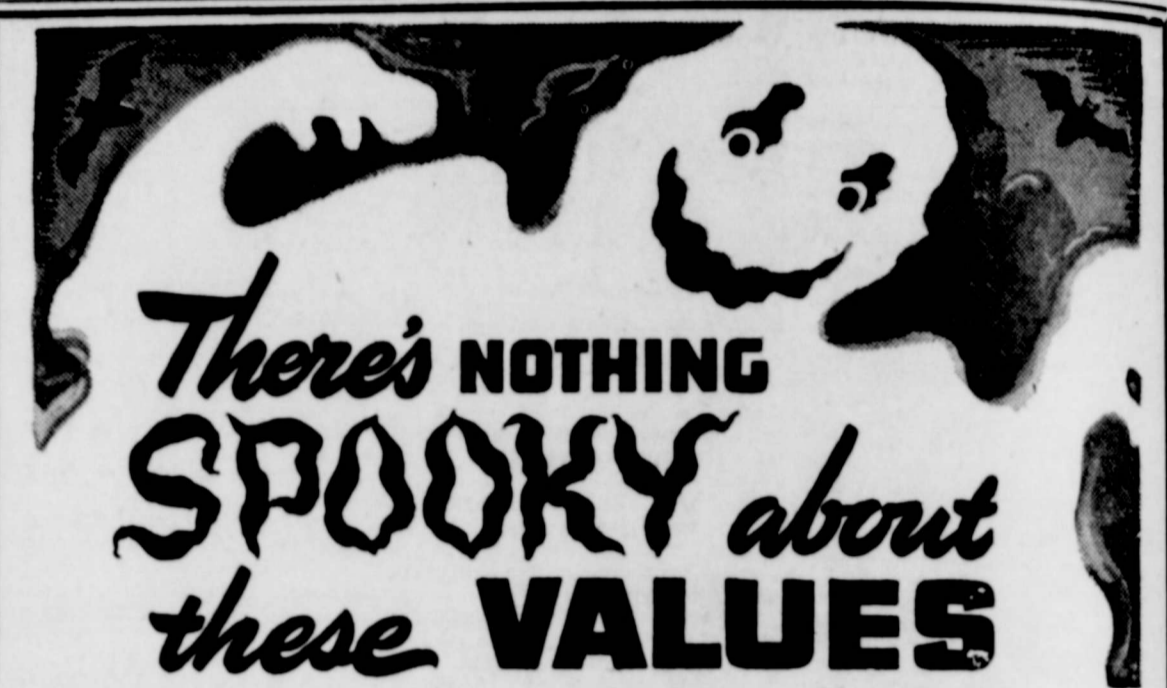

It is the first time the Wests have had the pleasure of seeing their granddaughter.

to give the farmer the best ginning service and to also get for the farmer the best grade and staple. It must also be remembered that the ginner is not able to perform miracles even with the use of his up-to-date machinery and it behooves the farmers to use all the precautions that they can in harvesting. Wet cotton and green bales are hard to handle at the gin.

It has been reported to the county agent, by a number of farmers in the Lockney area who have been foresighted enough to take advantage of proper harvesting and picking their cotton that they have been able to realize from $7.50 to $8.00 per bale more money than they had previously received under the method of snapping their cotton.
