Whirlwind-McLean Bi-District Game on Dec. 5

Farmers Asked To Market Scrap Metal

An urgent appeal to farmers of Floyd county to market their scrap metal as part of a national scrap collection campaign designed to aid the National Defense program was made this week by Paul Snodgrass, Chairman of the Floyd county USA Defense board.

Mr. Snodgrass announced that Secretary of Agriculture Wickard has called upon American farmers to cooperate in the national campaign now under way to help provide necessary iron and steel supplies for the defense program. Information received by the Defense board emphasized that America needs all the scrap iron and steel it is possible to get to help meet the shortages of these metals in the production of defense materials. Scrap iron is essential in the making of steel. Also, steel is needed for the manufacture of farm machinery and farmers who dispose of their scrap iron now will be helping make it possible for more farm machinery to be produced in 1942.

In a letter to the Texas USA Defense board, Secretary Wickard said: "The OPM has been putting on a drive to increase the flow of scrap metal from the cities. They have requested the aid of the Department of agriculture in increasing the flow of scrap from the farms. I am therefore requesting that every Defense board put on a drive to get farmers to market their scrap and steel. The financial returns cannot be expected to be large but the results will be important to farmers and to our whole defense effort."

Farmers are being asked to market their scrap iron at current prices which are those that have been set by the Office of Price Administration. However, these prices are moderate and farmers are asked to sell their scrap more to help the national defense program than to make money. The scrap iron collection campaign is to be carried on through the usual market channels.

Mr. Snodgrass emphasized that the Government does not want farmers to scrap useful farm machinery. Where machinery is being kept for spare parts, it is suggested that the parts be taken off the machines and stored and the remainder of the metal sold for scrap.

Floydada Retail Stores Make Ready for Christmas Season

With Christmas only 27 days away today Floydada retail stores and shops who serve gift-minded customers are making their gift stocks available in a widely appealing array.

"Do your Christmas shopping early" is the slogan which if followed, makes Christmas a real pleasure instead of a drudge, and Floydada merchants are going to do their part to make this possible. Shoppers who wish to avoid the last minute rush can be first this week-end if they want to do so.

Ample stocks to fit most any idea the shopper may have from home-furnishings and appliances wearing apparel, car accessories and such down to little personal gifts of a thousand kinds are now being shown.

The effort to make their shops pleasant places in which to trade early has included not only charming displays but also added sales people.

"Shop early" is the title of a special appeal found in this issue of The Hesperian. Here you will find valid reasons for and the merits of early shopping. Practically every type of a gift you could select is represented in the establishments which are using the reminder.

They are ready to serve you and a visit to their stores will make your selection of gifts easier while stocks are complete.

None of these or other merchandisers are saying for sure that when present stocks are sold they cannot replenish them. However, they do fear this is true. And this year, more than ever, you'll be better satisfied, more pleased than if you wait until later in the season.

City Sponsors Yule Lighting; Prizes Offered

Promoting the Yuletide spirit in Floydada the City council this week announced plans of the City Light and Power division to sponsor a contest to determine:

Whose home in Floydada this year will be the most attractively and artistically lighted and decorated this season;

And which store windows can be made the most inviting, the most appealing to shoppers.

These questions of direct interest to many will be answered sometime early in December when disinterested judges will be asked to choose the winners in a prize contest and award places.

Mayor White, speaking for members of the council, said the idea of fostering more and prettier Christmas windows, more and prettier homes during the holidays is calculated to add materially to the enjoyment of the season and make Floydada a more pleasant place for shoppers to visit.

Prizes will be awarded as follows: $5 as first prize, $3 as second prize and $2 as third will be paid: (1) for retail store windows, to include department stores, food stores and markets, tire and automobile sales establishments, retail gasoline and oil stations and any other "down town" business establishments.

And (2) residences within the city limits.

A total of $20 in cash prizes will be awarded and paid.

The plan is designed to supplement the general street lighting and city beautifying plans, being inaugurated this week.

Score cards, entry blanks will be available this week-end to all interested.

Individual Effort

Believing that the Christmas season should be one of universal beauty and gaiety (so far as the horrors of war across the sea will permit) the city authorities offer the contest in the hope it will spur every citizen, housewife, business man and property owner to join in the spirit of the season, adding their individual efforts to that of the collective community.

Beginning the Christmas season with the end of the traditional Thanksgiving season today, the city's plans include every effort to make down town lighting general and effective. V. L. Elliott and L. D. Britton are carrying on the street lighting installations this week and Christmas lights will be in operation Friday and Saturday nights here.

"The personality of a community is reflected by its appearance," said Mayor White, "and at no time more than at the Christmas season. Right now people of Floydada have an opportunity to take part in rivalry that will reflect our municipality in a pleasing way to the many visitors we expect during the holiday shopping season.

Entry cards for the contests will be available at down-town drug stores, at the city hall and other convenient places, the Mayor said. Should residents and business establishments desire they can contact V. L. Elliott, or L. D. Britton who will have entry blanks at hand.

Food Sign-Up Big Success In County

Fifteen hundred and twenty-seven out of Floyd county's 1,667 farm operators had signed up in the national farm movement, "Food-for-Freedom," when the USDA defense office in Floydada closed Saturday night.

The figures on this huge sign-up is a two-week period were forwarded by wire to B. P. Vance, chairman of the State Defense board Monday. In every instance of requested increased production it was indicated this county will meet next year's demands for foods for American homes and for homes and fighting forces of allied countries.

Will See All Operators.

The final report to be given the state defense board will be made following the end of this week. Saturday night is the last date for the sign-up. "We will divide up the list remaining along the middle of the week and go out to see them, if necessary," said Paul Snodgrass, chairman of the county defense board Monday. "Many are coming in still and signing up their pledges. We hope the number of non-signers by Thursday night will be very small. People are mighty busy for the most part but are taking the time to join up in the pledge of "food for freedom."

The total cropland acres represented by the 1,527 farm operators who had signed pledges Saturday night is 370,980.9 acres. These 1,527 operators, the totals show, in 1941 have milked an average of 4,617 cows that have given an estimated 2,573,093 gallons of milk. The number of pledged milk-producing cows for next year is 5,645, which the owners say will produce 3,114,908 gallons of milk. This increase represents a bit more than a thousand (See FOOD SIGN-UP, back page).

The Sometimes United States His Subject

Jeff Williams, the Oklahoma patriot, humorist and philosopher, who has traveled more than a hundred thousand miles by plane in the past two years to make speeches in all parts of the United States to all kinds of crowds, will have as his subject "The Sometimes United States" when he visits Floydada on Tuesday, December 2.

Williams, a Chickasha lawyer, will make his address here at the High School auditorium, sponsored by the Floydada Rotary club, and the proceeds will be used to further a boys and girls park project which the club has under way. Richard F. Stovall, president of the Rotary club said that Judge Alton B. Chapman will head a list of local notables who will entertain the distinguished guest while he is in this section of Texas.

The club phlegned Williams into coming here by promising that he should have a good quail hunt while here. Accordingly, the quail hunt is the first thing on Mr. Williams' agenda when he gets to Texas.

Blocks of tickets are being offered to residents of neighboring cities and towns in the south plains area, who will be assured of seats to hear Will Rogers' successor, R. E. Fry has charge of advance ticket sales.

Floydada High Loses Coin Toss In Meeting Of Officials At Childress Wednesday Afternoon

Floydada Whirlwinds will play their bi-district championship game with the McLean Tigers: Friday, December 5, at 2:30 o'clock; At Tiger Field, McLean; Admission prices will be $1.10 including tax for reserved seats; Seventy-five cents for general admission for adults; Thirty cents for general admission for students.

A block of 500 reserved seats between the 35-yard lines will be offered to Floydada fans as soon as they are out of the hands of the printer and can be forwarded to Floydada by McLean school officials. They will be on sale at Arwine Drug company, White Drug company, Bishop's pharmacy, West's Quality bakery, and at the Floydada High school.

That's your answer to the questions where, when and how much lost on Flip of Coin.

The rest of the story is that the coin was flipped into the air Superintendent Walter Travis called "heads" the coin fell "tails."

It was at Childress yesterday afternoon that all the details were settled between the two schools, representing the champion teams of District 4-A and District 3-A. From Floydada were Walter Travis, superintendent of the schools, Walter G. Collins, member of the school board, Conner Oden, official of the Whirlwind Athletic club, and Homer Steen. Coach Floyd Murry was with his wife at the hospital, where they have a brand new daughter.

McLean was represented by Superintendent C. A. Crver, Coach Sewell Cox, D. C. Carpenter, member of the school board, George Colebank, business manager of the school, C. O. Green, president of the Business Men's club, and J. A. Meador. The McLean officials had spent the day previous in a hearing in which eligibility of one of their early season players was attacked. All the games in which this player performed, it was proven, were non-conference games and had no effect on the final outcome of conference play.

A strong invitation from Childress school, city and chamber of commerce officials was turned down by Superintendent Travis, of Floydada, who pointed out he wanted his boys to have a fifty-fifty chance at playing the game at home. This was followed by the agreement as to terms and then the toss to determine which would be the "home" team. Carpenter pitched the coin and Travis called the wrong side.

McLean Fast and Versatile

Cox's McLean Tigers are fast and versatile in their attack and stout-hearted in defense. They have the Whirlwinds outweighed by 10 pounds in the backfield and the Whirlwinds have the advantage of 12 pounds average in the line. Coach Murry who saw the Tigers play Shamrock last week says the game is going to be a bear fight. His judgment is the team in the best condition to win.

Terms of agreement briefly are that the "visiting" team will be paid $150 traveling expenses, after which actual expense of officials will be deducted from the gate receipts and the remainder split half between the schools. Ticket printing, advertising expense and other incidentals will be cared for by the "home" club. Weather will have a large part in determining the size of the crowd. McLean has an excellent gridiron and approximately 1,800 reserved seats.

GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE ANNOUNCES SAT. MEETING

A meeting of the Good Government league of Floyd county will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the county court room, it was announced by officials of the league this week.

Representative Tom W. Deen, of the 102th district, will address the league.

1941 Whirlwinds First Winners Since 1926

When Floydada High school's 1941 football team in District 4-A intercollegiate competition was certified by District Chairman B. F. Tunnell, of Matador, as district winners Tuesday morning it was the first such title to come to the school in the long period of 15 years.

That last time was in 1926 when J. C. Wester and Ike Jay were coaches of the team and Roy (Snipper) Swain was its captain. Since that time the Whirlwinds have had six years when the team was runner-up to the district winners. These years according to the files of The Hesperian were:

In 1927 the Whirlwinds lost to Slaton in the championship 14 to 3, when Dixie White and U. S. Marshall were backfield stars.

In 1931 Lamesa won the title over the Green and White boys 6 to 0 in a heartbreaker on Thanksgiving day. This was the year in which the present coach Floyd Murry and his brother Lloyd were among the heroes. The book says that Little Murry played the second half in the semi-finals of that year against Littlefield with one hand in a cast, winning 14 to 13.

In 1932 the team would have come through for a championship had it not been for Brownfield's Jim Neely, who beat the Murrys and their cohorts 19 to 0 in the district final.

In 1934 the team with Luder No. 1 as its spark plug was third in the district and in 1935 was second, losing a hard battle to Matador in the final game 20 to 13 under Coach Terrell Luder again starring, Moon-eye, Wood, Ward, Jones, Goughly, Baker, Mathews, McClung, Montgomery and Allen being some of the other first stringers.

Floydada high was third in 1936 and second to Spur in 1937, Plomot being ruled out on an ineligibility count.

Recent history showed, in 1938 a loss of three conference games in the season, with Lockney Longborns the champions, Plomot runners-up. In 1939 the first mention of Rushing in the Floydada line-up was given, with Luder No. 2 the (See 1941 WHIRLWINDS back page)

Hale's Last Vet Of Civil War Succumbed

Robert W. LeMond, 94, Hale county's last veteran of the Confederacy, was buried at Hale Center Tuesday afternoon with all honors the community could pay him.

He resided in the plains in 1892 and had resided in Hale county since. In the Civil War he was a member of Ford's brigade and later with the first regiment of Benavides Texas cavalry.

He was a native of Mississippi.

Briscoe Test Well Down To Depth Of 5,357 Feet

Drilling on the Montague No. 1 oil test in Briscoe county is slowing up as the bit penetrates through a formation of dolomite, Clay Tyler, superintendent of drilling operations said last night.

The bit rested at 5,357 feet last night with 1,143 more feet to complete the contracted depth.

Cotton Begins To Move With Some Volume

Cotton this week has begun to move in some volume from Floyd county fields.

As the fleecy staple opened gins were beginning to have heavier runs, although dryers are still being used. Last night reports showed 1,397 bales ginned in the county of which 432 were turned out by Floydada gins. Aiken leads all points in the county in number of bales ginned and McCoy and Lakeview are making good early season showing.

Days have been ideal for opening cotton. A quarter-inch rain Saturday morning followed by a Sunday morning low temperature of 18 degrees and a low of 23 degrees on Monday, slowed down operations temporarily.

Phillips-Hereford In Play-Off At Hereford

The Phillips Blackhawks and the Hereford Whitefaces, football district conference winners in District 1-A and 2-A respectively, will play on the Hereford high school gridiron this afternoon for bi-district championship.

The Blackhawks outweigh their opponents 20 pounds per man and expected to win. The Hereford team, however, began the season rased as losers and are hoping to upset the dope bucket.

Coaches of the Floydada Whirlwinds this morning planned to attend the game.

Team Standings In District 4-A

Standing of District 4-A teams in football conference play closing last week-end are as follows:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
Floydada	6	0	0	1.000
Matador	5	1	0	.833
Paducah	3	2	1	.581
Ralls	3	3	0	.500
Lockney	2	3	1	.419
Spur	1	5	0	.167
Crosbyton	0	6	0	.000

Floydada team for the season piled up 191 points to all opponents 7 points.

Neon Lighting Adds To Bishop Motor Company

Bishop Motor company last week installed a 48 by 72 inch neon sign. It is a Ford ensignia in three colors. A service sign, in connection with the ensignia, made in the shape of an arrow pointing toward the shop measures 16 by 62 inches.

This sign is quite an improvement on West Missouri street.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Licenses to marry issued by County Clerk Emma Louise Smith are as follows: Harold Huggins and Evelyn Roy, November 21; Herman Dean and Mattie Chatman, (colored), November 22.

McLean Tigers Take District Honors In 3-A By Winning From Shamrock 19 To 6

Coach Sewell Cox's McLean Tigers won decisively over Shamrock's Irishmen at Tiger field last Friday night, when a frigid crowd of 5,000 fans saw a fast little team outplay a big rugged team for District 3 A honors, and win both a running and a passing contest 19 to 6.

Sparked by Joe Cook, 140-pound quarterback and John Kelly Lee, right wingman, the Tigers demonstrated that a double wing back type of game can and does win games. The Tigers' light line was equal to that of their much larger opponents and their blocking was superior to that of the visiting Irish. Both teams showed scars of previous battles, but the winners were in far better condition for the 60 minutes of grueling play.

Lefors, which had topped the league in the district, was ruled out last week when they found an ineligible in their backfield and voluntarily resigned the hard-won district honors, throwing McLean and Shamrock into the battle for first place in their last conference game of the year.

Comparing Whirlwinds, Tigers' Although Floydada's line is an average of 15 pounds (and Baxter's surplus) heavier than the McLean line comparative figures indicate that the McLean boys have a backfield that averages 12 pounds heavier than the Floydada backfield. Shamrock had an even more pronounced advantage in weight over the Tigers but could not make it count sufficiently to meet the lightning thrusts of the Tigers when they got on a scoring rampage.

EDITORIALS

Winning team at last, says local football fandom, meaning the high school football team, a fine lot of boys if there ever was one, has won their district championship and will be in the play-off for bi-district honors. Which prompts us to remark that people who do not like football and do not like the idea of football in school would get a great deal more out of life if they could bring themselves to see the youthful point of view. Football under a good coach gives a boy something that he'll never get out of life otherwise. At least, never without paying too much for it. The time for a boy to learn what he learns in football is the time when he is of football age. And the time for a community to be proud and stick out its chest is when the home team—its own boys—show their superiority on the football field. Floydada High school's Whirlwinds have done that very thing and Floydada is that proud community.

What one likes in particular about the winning district champs—the Whirlwinds 1941 pattern—is their becoming modesty, their gentlemanliness. Winning their district with topheavy scores, after beginning underdogs and permitting only one conference rival to score on them at all, is enough to make most anybody over important. Not so with the football squad of Floydada High school. Proud of their achievement, yes, mightily, and proud of the little attentions they get, too, but Smart Alecs not at all. All very fine.

First real winter whipping down across the country this past week makes a lot of mighty thankful people that they saved a lot of good feed while it was dry and will go through the winter with ample feed for all requirements including dairy and range cattle, too. This is a natural feed and range cattle country, natural too for dairy cattle. A big crop of bundles and the heavier feeds means winter and spring prosperity for those who have the feed to carry their cattle along. And who is it has not ample and spare?

One notes with sarcastic interest the appeal of the government through some of its agencies for scrap metals to be marketed now. Aid is needed, it is declared, to make possible steel for defense needs, including agricultural implements and parts. Everybody knows where the scrap metal from the country went while the president and the secretary of state and the congress were trying to appease the Japanese in far-western waters. Enough Floyd county scrap metal was shipped to the Pacific waters to run the Japanese army for six months, and not much exaggeration in that. Request that scrap metals be now marketed through the regular channels comes like the farmer's orders to close the stall door after the horse was already escaped. Any scrap now marketed would be a mere trickle compared with that already sent to warring nations and some of which is due to be hurled back at our own boys on our own ships. What was being done was common knowledge, but country newspapers like The Hesperian were laughed at when the matter was mentioned. It's patriotic duty now to sell your scrap iron—after it is gone.

Business establishments which need parts for machinery they use are finding that it is not easy to get parts, and are being warned by manufacturers that increasing difficulty can be expected. Farmers may well take warning and get in orders now for parts they'll need later. This is the best government left in the world, because for one thing you can still make a holler. But the bureaucrats are running the war and they're going to run it the way they want to run it. You'll have to get permission later to buy your parts if the war goes on. Better anticipate than procrastinate, if you can.

We read of a Hitler-dominated world and what it will be like when and if Hitler does dominate the whole of the world. But had it ever occurred to you that the world now is not even dominated by mankind, much less by one man of the civilization that we know? Insects and crawling things have mankind backed off of the best and the most fertile areas of the world. The middle belt around the earth is controlled both north and south of the equator by worms or variants of the worm. A little area at the Panama canal has come under man's control at an annual cost of millions and the English and Dutch have taken over a few spots in the tropics which they have to guard at high cost against insects. But these are just enough of the exception to prove the rule. And in those portions of the temperate zone in which mankind has prevalence the cost of holding our ground against these insistent natural enemies is tremendous. In Floyd county last year the cost was probably $100,000 and who would hazard a guess of what the probable cost will be in 1942. The insects have the upper hand. Mr. Hitler and his legions are pickers. Scorpions and stingarees and other desert fauna are building their homes in English and Italian tanks wasted in the Sahara desert last winter—living in grand style and picking the bones of English and Italian boys for dessert.

Speaking of worms and insects that eat up crops as we were in a recent issue of The Hesperian, it is said the Department of agriculture experts are as much concerned over the quality of the poisons we may be able to obtain next year as they are about the quantity. Quality varies widely in these things as in others. One good batch of poison bait, for instance, might slay all grasshoppers it could be expected to slay. The next might not have what it takes and prove a waste of money. In war times the fight on bugs, as well as many other domestic matters, gets side tracked or at least secondary consideration. A world busy with killing humans will give scant attention to what is thought of as a lesser war.

The near approach of the quail season in Texas serves as a reminder from the Game Fish and Oyster commission to hunters that quail now are being banded. Scattergun artists who find they have bagged a bird with a band are asked to advise the commission, a thing that will be helpful in a scientific study of quail now being carried on in wide areas of the state. The average migration of quail is relatively unknown and more knowledge would assist the commission's biologists in the program of quail re-stocking. Keep this in mind if you happen to be one of those who bags a quail with a band.

Watch out for poor germinating seed in your milo maize next spring by doing your investigating beforehand, suggests a recent release from Tech college where some selections taken at random are being tested and found away below normal in germinating power due to heavy rains and continued wet during the fall. Germination tests might reveal that you have, instead of poor germinating seed, the high germinating kind—and you'd be luckier than ever. A good seed planted at the right time has a good chance to make you money. Poor seed do not have a chance regardless of other conditions.

A memorandum from the State Land commissioner stating that a land sale of nearly 200,000 acres in all parts of Texas will be held in the spring is a reminder of the huge public domain the state yet holds. More than one half of the counties in the state will be represented in the sale, the land to be sold being surveyed school lands.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

Read "Thanksgiving, 1941" in Poet's Corner on this page. What a nice way to put one's thoughts and prayers. Don't you think Flora Smith Dean expresses season well in the poem?

In "Ode For Music," Thomas Gray says this:

Sweet is the breath of vernal shower,
The bee's collected treasures sweet
The still small voice of gratitude

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good, is the old adage. It was an ill wind that made the Sand Hill demonstration women have such a difficult time finding the home of Mrs. Robert Day, but it was a good wind that blew them in my direction to talk a few minutes with these interesting club women.

This is not boasting when I say I have not seen so very many pictures shows. I like a good one, and I do not know many of the great stars in Hollywood, by name or picture, but the stars in the heavens, that is another thing. Bright silver stars fastened on the black velvet curtain of the night. The big and little dipper, Job's coffin, the little red north star that has been the guide for many countless travelers, the morning and evening stars, the milky way. "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork."

Mrs. Lon Davis was so very busy last Friday keeping books and weighing at the gin, but she had time now and then to talk with me, and the time I had to wait for my husband went very quickly and pleasantly. Also enjoyed hearing Mr. Williams from the Santa Fe depot tell of his fine cattle.

I will be happy when the sight of an empty fruit jar does not make me feel like I was not doing my duty by not filling it. There are still greens, pumpkins and sweet potatoes to can.

As I take stock of the summer's work, the putting in stores of food on pantry and cellar shelves, the new trees set out and growing for fruit for the years to come, the flowers and shrubs that will bloom after the cold of winter, these I am thankful for this Thanksgiving. But for more than these am I thankful, the supplies laid up for my soul. There is much joy from the flowers that gave their sweetness so abundantly, peace saved from the warm twilight hours of summer days, plenty of warmth for my soul from the brilliant hues of the trees of fall and calm stored from the still sunny days of June.

FLOYD COUNTY 14 YEARS AGO

News items taken from files of the Floyd County Hesperian published in Floydada fourteen years ago.

(Issue of November 24, 1927)
Three thousand people from Floyd and adjoining counties joined in the celebration last Friday incident to the opening of the Lockney Cotton Oil Company's plant at Lockney, declared to be one of the most modern institutions of its kind in the southwestern states; and these with several prominent rail and business men of the state were guests of the management of the mill in a big barbecue served in one of the huge warehouses of the mill.

"A goal line uncrossed by a Class B Team" is the record sustained by F. H. S. Whirlwind team last Friday afternoon when they held their old enemies, the Lockney Longhorns, scoreless and added 28 points more to the rapidly growing total against their opponents.

The game last Friday probably closed the 1927 season on the local gridiron and was witnessed by a large crowd of fans from both Floydada and Lockney. Coach Ike Jay's men have scored a total of 229 points against their opponents this season, without a single loss. The Longhorns were the eighth victim to go down before the powerful Whirlwinds eleven.

Mrs. Lon V. Smith and daughter, Emma Louise, were guests at dinner when Mrs. J. S. Day of San Antonio entertained Sunday evening at the Lubbock hotel. Mrs. Day is an old friend of Mrs. Smith and is visiting at Lubbock and several nearby towns.

Mrs. Geo. V. Smith returned Sunday from Houston where she attended the convention of the Texas Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers association, one of the largest and most educational conventions of the state.

This Thursday will find Floydada and Floyd county folk observing the Thanksgiving holiday in varied ways. Programs, sports, dinners, home-comings, hunting parties, and auto trips will be the headlines for action.

There has been much sand blown over the plains since the days I spent at Old Emma, learning the meaning and beauty of Thanksgiving from my own home, the school and the church. I remember the big strutting turkeys we stenciled on the boards, cleanly erased from their arithmetic problems and grammar diagrams. The brown clad pilgrims going through the snow to the white-spired church, the gold pumpkins. Ringing in my ears are the songs we learned to sing, "See the snow is softly falling and the sky is gray, To grandmamas we are going for 'tis Thanksgiving Day." And the horn of plenty teacher made and covered with gold paper. May both teachers and parents impress on the youth today as ours pressed on us, the meaning and beauty of the American Thanksgiving.

Pleasant sounds: Wes Izzard's voice as he gives the news from station KFYO at Amarillo; Liquid sweetness of the field lark as he sits on fence posts around the farm; A knock on the door by a friend come to spend a few hours.

Pleasant thoughts: "There is beauty in the rolling clouds and placid shingle beach. In feathery snows, and whistling winds, and dun electric skies; In laughing fields and dented hills, the valley and the lake; There is beauty in the gullies, beauty on the cliffs, beauty in sun and shade. In rocks and rivers, seas and plains. In sun and shade—the earth is drowned in beauty."

POET'S CORNER

For America and all freedom means don't forget to count your blessings every one, however small, and pray for those in poverty and despair in those countries under oppression's yoke on this Thanksgiving day, 1941.

THANKSGIVING

I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast brought me,
So safely through the morn of life,
That Thou hast kept me, 'til the noon time,
Safe, in a world of sin and strife.

I thank Thee, Lord, for all the blessings
That have been mine from day to day;
I thank Thee for Thy tender watch-care
That held me up, along the way.

I pray Thee, Lord, that Thou wouldst watch me,
When evening points the western sky;
And keep my feet on that brighter path,
That leads to glory by and bye.
—Flora Smith Dean

America, a country of plenty, two Thanksgivings with turkey and all the fixins. Football games, happy home-comings, reunions, that is

THANKSGIVING 1941

How thankful I am for the harvest
The Lord has given to me;
There are rows of jars in my cellar
That are beautiful to see.

There are onions with skins of silver,
Squash and pumpkin galore,
Tomatoes and peppers and citron,
All there and many more.

And I've hominy corn and grits,
And snow-white meal for my bread
And out of the Lord's rich bounty,
My loved ones and I are fed.

The cows stand fat in the barn lot,
There's a wealth of grain in the fields;
The cotton is white for the picking,
The earth of its treasure yields.

How thankful I am for the harvest
The Lord has given to me,
I wish I could share my plenty
With the needy across the sea.
—Flora Smith Dean.

Thanksgiving is a time for true reverence, so now we meditate on our blessings.

LET US BE THANKFUL

In this, the month of November
There is a day set apart
On which we should remember
To give thanks from every heart.

To God for food we eat,
And for the clothes we wear,
A place where we can meet
Unmolested, to worship in song and prayer.

We thank Thee, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
Who died on Calvary;
He gave His life for everyone,
For all things, Lord we thank Thee.

—J. H. McMurray, Canyon.

Bumper Feed Crop Should Be Conserved

With the "Food for Freedom" drive calling for the greatest production of dairy, poultry, and livestock products in history, Mr. Edgar H. Kemp, District Conservationist of Floyd County Soil Conservation District, urges farmers to make every effort to save the bumper 1941 feed crop now threatened by rain, flood and winter freezes. Already thousands of tons of fodder and much of the grain produced on this year's sorghum crop have been damaged.

The conservationist particularly recommends trench silos as a means of preserving this year's feed crop. He states: "Progressive farmers throughout this region have realized for years that the best way to preserve feed for future years is to put it in a silo. While a great deal of information has been circulated about the ensiling of feed crops under normal conditions, it is not generally known that sorghums which have frozen or started to decay can best be preserved by ensiling. In seasons such as that of this fall, this is something that farmers should keep in mind."

Grains and forage sorghums which have been bound wet or have become wet in the shock can best be utilized if made into silage immediately, before they start to spoil, the conservationist recommends. Sprouted grain sorghums, frosted forage sorghums, and wet bundle feed properly made into silage is a safe feed for all types of livestock, he states.

Precautions should be taken in feeding green or freshly cut sorghums this fall, however, because of the danger of hydro-cyanic acid poisoning, according to Kemp. Some sorghums have had considerable second growth and the green or partially cured feed may be fatal to livestock.

Many farmers in Floyd County Soil Conservation District in recent years have looked back on their experiences during the drought and realized that if they had stored their surplus feed crops in good years cattle herds when the drought came. The fact that a farmer does not have livestock on hand should not deter him from putting up every bit of the feed grown this year, and saving it for a lean year that may come.

Prospective prices for milk and all kinds of livestock products during the next year or two are such that the man who saves a plentiful supply of feed will be rewarded. This winter, American farmers must supply both America and Great Britain with these products. To do this, we must have an abundant feed supply, the conservationist said.

Major Mathews Military Record Began In 1918

Age-in-Grade Policy of Army Relieves Him of Active Duty

Camp Bowie, Nov. 24—Major Luke G. Mathews of Floydada, who prides himself on his repertoire of illustrative anecdotes, has been relieved from active duty because of the age-in-grade policy.

Major Mathews, who commanded the 3rd Battalion of the 111th Quartermaster Regiment, 36th Division, was granted leave from November 16 and released from active duty on December 18. He was called into active duty last November 25 as a National Guard officer.

Major Mathews' military record dates back to the last World War when he served as a private in the 2nd Wing group at Kelly Field from July, 1918, to March, 1919, and continued with the 36th Division following its reorganization in 1922-23 when he was commissioned a Second Lieutenant. Advancing a rank in six months, he was promoted to a captaincy December 20, 1922, commanding Company C, 142nd Infantry, which he helped organize.

After serving on the 72nd Infantry Brigade staff, he was transferred in January, 1934, to the Division staff under command of Major General John A. Hulen. He served as staff officer until 1936 when he was transferred to the Quartermaster Corps to act as Division Transportation officer.

Upon organization of the 111th Quartermaster Regiment in 1936, he moved from the Division staff to the Regiment as its Intelligence, Plans and Training officer. In August, 1940 he was promoted to the rank of Major, commanding the 2nd Battalion. Prior to the Louisiana maneuvers, he was placed in command of the 3rd Battalion, which includes the division motor maintenance company. Its work in reducing immobility of the division's motor vehicles during the war games won praise from the Division commander.

In civilian pursuits, Major Mathews from 1919-23 was county judge of Coleman county, during which he also served as president of the Good Roads Association of Texas during the formative period when paved roads were just being brought to West Texas.

Rev. Doyle Urges Return Of Old Fashioned Ideals In Talk To Parent-Teacher Association

Rev. L. A. Doyle, pastor of the First Baptist church gave a talk on the subject of "Thanksgiving" at the meeting of Andrews Ward Parent-Teacher Association held Tuesday afternoon, November 18 at the school building.

Rev. Doyle said "we are so often forgetful that the Lord is the source of all our blessings. Then why do we set aside a day to thank the Lord for our blessings then go off to something else and forget it? The destiny of our nation depends upon our attitude toward the Lord in giving him the reverence due him. A nation has never fallen until its people failed to give God the honor due him. We should be thankful for opportunities of our school children. We should be thankful for the blessings that come to our American way of life.

"One of our greatest sins is lack of gratitude. Are we as grateful to our friends and neighbors who touch our lives?" he asked.

"Let us hold on to the old time ideals that the Pilgrim fathers had. Let us not let the standard down. Let us re-dedicate our lives this Thanksgiving.

Flu Epidemic As Predicted A Reality

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 24—Fulfilling a prediction made several months ago by the State Department of Health, an epidemic of influenza in Texas is represented by the 1392 cases reported for the week just ending, according to Doctor Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. This total is 6 times greater than that shown for the same week in the preceding 7 years.

"Neglecting proper treatment of influenza, or allowing the patient to be up too soon may have disastrous results," Doctor Cox warned, "since persons suffering from influenza are particularly susceptible to other infections."

Doctor Cox emphasized the importance of guarding against "flu"; drinking plenty of water, eating simple, nourishing foods, outdoor exercise, plenty of sleep in a well-ventilated room, and sensible dress according to the weather were stressed as best precautions.

"Pneumonia, frequently resulting from influenza, is a very dangerous complication," Doctor Cox stated and advised that a patient go to bed immediately upon the first appearance of a cold and place himself under competent medical care.

Floyd county physicians contacted this week including Dr. V. Andrews, county health officer, said that while considerable flu and kindred ailments are in evidence here the epidemic has not reached the epidemic stage.

First Rotary Disc Plow Found By U. T. Historian

Dr. W. P. Webb, University of Texas author-historian, examines with pride what he believes to be the first rotary disc plow ever invented.

One of three in existence, the plow was invented by Ole Ringness, of Clifton, an early Norwegian settler in Texas, about 1839. It has been in possession of the Ringness family for 82 years. Dr. Webb learned and has been obtained for the Texas Memorial Museum, located on the University campus.

Attention was first called to this plow in a recent issue of the Southwestern Historical Quarterly, of which Dr. Webb is editor, in an article entitled "Norwegian Settlements in Texas" by the late Axel Arneson of Fort Worth.

Importance of the implement lies in the fact that it is the predecessor of one of the most widely used types of plows, since the rotary disc-first patented in 1867—is especially adapted to planting wheat, oats and barley, since these grains require a shallow furrow. It is also used for breaking off dead stubble, thus fertilizing the ground for the next crop. The disc plow can also be used in breaking top soil to let water seep through.

Ringness conceived the idea of the revolving plow while he was driving an ox wagon with a badly dished wheel over soft wet ground, Dr. Webb explained. He noticed that the dished wheel turned up the sod in a plow-like fashion. He then hammered out several dish-like iron discs about 18 inches in diameter to test the idea. The relic Dr. Webb has received is one of these samples.

The inventor never obtained a patent on his discovery. He went to New York in 1872 with the idea of proceeding to Washington to seek a patent on his plow, but he became ill while in New York and died there.

Floydada high school Whirlwinds' defensive as well as their offensive was too much for the rugged Spur Bulldogs on Thanksgiving No. 1 afternoon, and the score of 33 to 0 gave the Green and White the 1941 District 4-A championship represented just about the difference between the teams in finish and maneuver.

As usual the forward wall, sparked by Carleton Fawver and Virgil Boteler, made holes practically at will in the line through which Rushing could pick up 3 to 8 yards and this constant threat made the Green and White open game an easier one to gain with. However, in making 33 points the Whirlwinds took many bumps and hard spills, the Spur line in particular and the team in general being big and rugged after the type of the Phillips Blackhaws, whom the Floydada boys met earlier in the season.

When scores came they came easily, however. The first to illustrate came as a result of a pass interception on the first offensive play by the Bulldogs. With the line of scrimmage on the Spur 10-yard line Boteler intercepted on the 25-yard line and ran within a foot of the goal line from whence Rushing bucked the ball over and followed by kicking the extra point. Incidentally, Rushing scored four out of the five scores made by the Whirlwinds, his next shot coming on a run through the Spur line also in the first quarter. Floydada had just taken a 15-yard penalty for holding and the line of scrimmage was at the Spur 45-yard line. On a pass formation the fullback found no receiver open and decided to run with the ball. Morrison blocked beautifully for him at the line of scrimmage, charging in fast, and thence 45 yards to the goal line it was a matter of scot. Rushing attempted to convert by kicking but failed. Morrison also got into the next series of plays that added six points for the Green and White in the first quarter. Going down on the kick-off from Floydada Morrison downed the Bulldog safety on the 11 and on the second Spur offensive play intercepted on the 16-yard line from whence he and Rushing carried the ball in four tries across the scoring line.

The extra kick was blocked. Spur's Boys Are Rugged

In the second quarter, as they caught on to the Green and White strategy the Bulldogs began to demonstrate their ruggedness. Until the very closing minutes of the first half they battled the Whirlwinds back and forth from their own 20 to the 50-yard line, until with the ball on the Spur 24-yard line Rushing and his line turned on the heat and six line plays carried the ball through tackle and center to the 8-yard stripe. A penalty here cost Spur 3 yards to their 6-inch line from which Rushing went through tackle for the score. Loran kicked the extra point to make the score 26 to 0 at the half.

A sustained drive from their 16-yard line to the Floydada 25 was the nearest approach to a scoring threat made by the Bulldogs. This came at the opening of the second half. When the ball went over on an attempted quick kick to the coffin corner, the Whirlwinds resumed their offensive at the 28-yard line. Boteler's only bad pass in many moons was missed by Rushing and the latter was downed when he recovered on his own 8-yard line. However, in the next play he ran the ball out through tackle to the Floydada 42-yard line, and thence in two more plays through the center of the line to the Spur 45-yard line. Taking the ball here and faking a line play Sparks was called around end position and scooted up the side-line to pay dirt. Rushing converted the extra point, kicking.

During the remainder of the game the ball see-sawed back and forth across the field. Prospective Squads men of the 1942 pattern of Whirlwind football took over for 10 minutes or more, with Eddie Wayne Conner calling signals most of the time, and Ross Loran and Morrison carrying the ball. Pyffe, playing center for Boteler, took much punishment before his passes became erratic and the ball was on the Floydada 26.

Running his first stringers back into the fray for the last five plays of the game Coach Murry's charges were on the offensive once more as Tyler intercepted a pass on the 20-yard line and ran to the Floydada 42. The game ended as Rushing completed an end sweep to the Spur 45.

For Spur Wilson at end, Captain Smith at left guard and Elkins and Ball in the backfield sparkled. Boothe was the best defensive center who has opposed Boteler this year, it appeared.

FLOYDADA STUDENT WILL PLAY IN SYMPHONY AT DENTON NOVEMBER 30

DENTON, November 22.—James Wester, Floydada student at North Texas State Teachers college, will play the viola at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, November 30, when the College Symphony gives its first concert of the season in the college main auditorium.

The program for the Denton concert, according to Conductor Floyd Graham is the most ambitious since the orchestra was organized. It will include: C. M. von Weber's "Oberon Overture," Claude Debussy's "Premiere Rhapsodie" for clarinet and orchestra, Ambrose Thomas' "Drinking Song from Hamlet," the Tschakowsky's "Pilgrim's Song," and "Symphony No. 4 in F Minor, op. 36."

Palace Theatre Presents Texas Playboys

The old gag about the "local boy who made good in the big city does not apply too strictly to likeable Bob Willis who steered himself and his Texas Playboys into an international fame by the simple process of remaining at home. Mr. Willis, in case you didn't know, is the band leader who put glamour into a flour bag and music into politics.

The international fame enjoyed by Willis comes primarily as a result of his work in the successful Lee O'Daniel campaign for the Governor. Texas currently is being enhanced by his work in Columbia's gay and rowdy "Young Lady," which also features Penny Singleton, Glenn Ford and Texas-born Ann Miller, at the Palace Theatre, at the Saturday Midnight review and Sunday and Monday.

Miss Miller was born in Chieno, Texas, and moved to Houston when she was still a young baby. Slight of build, she began to take dancing lessons at the age of three, in order to improve her health. Those lessons led to vaudeville and later to Broadway and then to Hollywood.

Bob spent his boyhood deciding he wanted to be a musician, and he quit his native town of Turkey, Texas with that aim in view. A violinist he wound up playing in three different names. When he and his guitarist side-kick won a hill-billy contest over KFKZ, Bob's star really began to shine.

In practically no time he and his band had grown into the southwest's favorite sons of song. In less than a year, more than 35,000 records of Bob's "San Antonio Rose" were sold in Dallas and Houston alone and that alone in the music world is something of a record.

His motion picture "Go West, Young Lady," is by far the most beautifully portrayed of any of his pictures which will be shown this week end at the Palace Theatre in Floydada.

AIKEN IS THE HOME OF THE ONE-VARIETY COTTON MOVEMENT IN TEXAS

For 10 years Aiken farmers have practiced the one-variety Cotton Plan. Communities and counties all over Texas are now copying the original plan started at Aiken.

We have here a block of 7,000 acres that are planted to one variety of the fleecy staple and the gin at Aiken, operated by Aiken Gin Company, Mr. Herman Stowe, handles this variety only. This movement has been worth thousands of dollars to farmers all over Floyd County and other West Texas Counties.

Doctor Frank Turner, president of McMurry college, Abilene, will preach Sunday morning at the Methodist church. For the last three years Dr. Turner has been at the head of McMurry, the only denominational college within the boundaries of the Northwest Texas conference and has been not only a successful school man, but is always in high favor with the membership of the church in this great territory.

Some very substantial gifts have come to the school under the management of Doctor Turner, and the future of McMurry seems assured with him in leadership. He is a gifted preacher and a sincere and earnest worker, tireless in his efforts with the conference to build a school that will help make West Texas history. The college is only nineteen years old, yet as a result of that short history seventy-five per cent of the pastors of the Northwest Texas conference have had training at McMurry.

Whirlwinds Spur Spur Bulldogs 33-0 Thursday

The Whirlwind football team swamped the Spur Bulldogs last Thursday afternoon 33-0 and walked off with the District 4-A title for the first time since 1926.

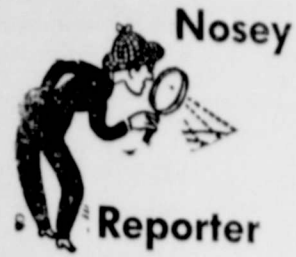

Out of six conference games, the Whirlwinds have been scored against only once and that was by Matador November 7.

Bi-District Bout Soon

The Whirlwinds worked out for a few hours Friday afternoon to keep in shape for that coming bout with the McLean Tigers for the Bi-District title.

The prediction of the coaches and athletes is that the teams are well matched and the game is hoped to be a tough battle.

The Tiger coach is Sewel Cox.

Listen my children and you shall hear
Gossip to startle and tickle your ear
It's spicy and hot, and like as not
To bring forth a noisy cheer
So give:
Yea, Helen, Yea, Harold; Yea, yea
Helen and Harold.
"It couldn't be!"
"Oh, but it is!"
"Not really?"
Yes David Batty was making eyes
at Betty Peck in English class. Betty Jean Swepston put in her application to the school board for bigger and better chairs to go in Miss Copeland's room, because the last one she sat in broke down.
What has sixth period English got that the rest of the classes don't have?
Neal Cardinal and Ruth Hamilton are hitting it off very nicely—so I hear.
I seem to catch myself wondering if J. D. Morrison and Mary Frances Jones are doing so well since the holidays.
Maudene is back and school begins to seem natural again especially to Melvin Ross.
Johnnie Ruth Belscher doesn't like boys! I know—you're laughing too. In fact, so is everyone but Herschell.
Kenneth D. is really Scotch! When he eats peanuts in church he eats them one at a time to make them last longer.
That reminds me. These League meetings are rather popular with Gene Loran and Johnnie Belscher, La Juana Leibfried and Randolph Rutledge, and Evelyn Elliott and Bryan Collins.
Arla Vee and Dorothy Tye like westerns. At least they liked the one last Saturday night. Well enough to go back for more or was it the company?
Egad! Every boy in town was parked by Arwines last Sunday night. Couldn't have been Pat King from Dallas!
Blue Chevrolets, green Chevrolets! "Look! Was that one?"
"Yes, but it wasn't him!"
"Are you sure?"
"Yes, but circle the block and we'll see."
Does this go on all the time? Yes, disgusting isn't it?
"Did you see that skirt?" "You mean whose milk bottle?" "No, I didn't pay that much for it."
"I couldn't say, really, mine are green."
Yes, it really sounds like that, and fun too! Why don't you try it? Everyone is talking this way lately. Don't know why, but it seems to be the latest trend in conversation. Oh, disgust! I just ran out of space so goodbye until next time!

A Fish Writes Home
By Molly Jones

Dear Mom and Dad:
Please send me $1 to buy a ticket on the elevator. A sophomore named Joe College is selling me the one he had last year as a special favor.

Boy, this is a great life if you can take it. Last Thursday night the upperclassmen had a little reception for us freshmen. We had a hot time. In fact it was so hot that I've had to eat my meals standing up for a week. The freshmen girls were all dressed up for the party too. I didn't even know Betty when I saw her. She got mad when I didn't speak to her, but really, how was I to know she was hiding behind all that onion, garlic and paint? I'll be glad when she begins looking and smelling like a human again—if ever.

An upperclassman's slightest wish is a freshman's command. If he says to polish his shoes, you do the fastest and best job of shoe polishing you ever did in your life, too. It's 2 o'clock in the morning. I'm just living for April Fool's day. Eight then and there I get even with some sophomores. April Fool's is the Freshman's day. We can settle all our old scores until the clock strikes 12:01, April 2. From then on the feud is continued and it's every Freshman for himself once more.

By the way, I'm taking 6 subjects. They're O. K., but personally I like the nights better. Whoops, there's the bell so I guess I'll have to close and go to social studies, much as I hate to leave English.

Your loving son,
Joe Doe.

P. S. You don't need to send the $1.00 for the elevator ticket. I just found out they don't have elevators here at Sam Houston.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED
The faculty and the students of Floydada High School express their sympathy to Dora and Calvin Barber for the loss of their mother.

Co-Captain Rushing Not Only Ace Athlete; He Studies And Is Favorite With Students

The all-around student and Whirlwind co-captain, Joe Rushing, was born in the Fairview community in 1923. His first eight years of school life were spent in Fairview.

He came to Floydada High school as a sophomore and was elected president of the class. He was also elected president of the ag club and served in that office for two years.

Joe, the full-back on the Whirlwind team, has played football every year since he has been in high school this being his third, and has honored mention of the 4-A District All-District players last year and has scored more points than any other player in the district this year.

Not only is Joe an ace athlete but he also does superior classroom work. His scholastic average for his sophomore and junior years is 92, and for this year so far it is 88.

Joe is always willing to assist in any school function. He escorted the senior candidate for carnival queen, Margaret Camden, at the coronation at the Junior carnival. He has had various roles in assembly programs, all the way from the Indian fighter, Miles Standish, to master of ceremonies. At the Gamma Sigma Kappa Halloween party, his impersonation of Lili Abner won honorable mention.

Joe is a favorite with the students. Because of his gallantry and friendliness, he is among the first to be invited by the girls to their societies. About Joe the boys say, "Once a friend always a friend."

Like any average person Joe has his favorites. His favorite movie stars are Betty Grable and Mickey Rooney. English and geometry are his favorite subjects. His favorite song is "You and I." His favorite project is caring for his cattle and his hobby is milking (one in a million).

Joe is planning to attend college, but he has not definitely decided where he is going, nor what will be his chosen field of study.

EDITORIAL
Did you hear that crow that rang out clear from the barnyard last Thursday afternoon? Didn't it just set your heart to thumping, and didn't your heart nearly burst with pride when our own Whirlwind football team ran roughshod over Spur for the final victory in this district? Isn't it exhilarating to be hailed champions and to have the title, "Champion Football Team of District 4-A?" That is enough to turn the head of the most practical person in school, and not being very practical where football is concerned we can't help being "chesty." So in our opinion the cocks have a right to crow, because it isn't every year that our team grabs the championship like that.

Another important thing that has just been discovered is that the F. H. S. students have proved themselves to be as good sports in triumph as in defeat.

Now, as the Student Body Pep squad of F. H. S. let's do our part toward winning the victory over McLean. If the Winds win the victory then we will be bi-district champions.

Even though this aim should prove to be only a dream, we still can be proud of our team as we have never been before.

We sing "Hail Floydada High School!"

Whirlwinds Spur Spur Bulldogs 33-0 Thursday

The Whirlwind football team whipped the Spur Bulldogs last Thursday afternoon 33-0 and walked off with the District 4-A title for the first time since 1926. Out of six conference games, the Whirlwinds have been scored against only once and that was by Matador November 7.

District Bout Soon

The Whirlwinds worked out for a few hours Friday afternoon to keep in shape for that coming bout with the McLean Tigers for the Bi-District title.

The prediction of the coaches and athletes is that the teams are well matched and the game is hoped to be a tough battle.

The Tiger coach is Sewel Cox.

A Fish Writes Home
By Molly Jones

Dear Mom and Dad:

Please send me $1 to buy a ticket on the elevator. A sophomore named Joe College is selling me the one he had last year as a special favor.

Boy, this is a great life if you can take it. Last Thursday night the upperclassmen had a little reception for us freshmen. We had a lot of fun. In fact it was so hot that I had to eat my meals standing up for a week. The freshmen girls were all dressed up for the party too. I didn't even know Betty when I saw her. She got mad when I didn't speak to her, but golly, how was I to know she was hiding behind all that eye shadow and lipstick? I'll be glad when she begins looking and smelling like a human again—if ever.

An upperclassman's slightest wish is a freshman's command. If he says to polish his shoes, you do the latest and best job of shoe polishing you ever did in your life, to the 10 o'clock in the morning. I'm just living for April Fool's day. Right then and there I get even with some sophomores. April Fool's is the Freshman's day. We can settle all our old scores until the clock strikes 12:01, April 2. From then on the feud is continued and to every Freshman for himself now more.

By the way, I'm taking 6 subjects. They're O. K., but personally I like the nights better. Whoops, there's the bell so I guess I'll have to close and go to social studies, such as I hate to leave English.

Your loving son,
Joe Doe.

P. S. You don't need to send the $100 for the elevator ticket. I just found out they don't have elevators here at Sam Houston.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

The faculty and the students of Floydada High School express their sympathy to Dora and Calvin Barbee for the loss of their mother.

Listen my children and you shall hear
Gossip to startle and tickle your ear
It's spicy and hot, and like as not
To bring forth a noisy cheer
So give
Yea, Helen, Yea, Harold; Yea, yea
Helen and Harold
"It couldn't be!"
"Oh, but it is!"
"Not really?"

Yes David Batty was making eyes at Betty Peck in English class. Betty Jean Swepton put in her application to the school board for bigger and better chairs to go in Miss Copeland's room, because the last one she sat in broke down.

What has sixth period English got that the rest of the classes don't have?

Neal Cardinal and Ruth Hamilton are hitting it off very nicely—so I hear.

I seem to catch myself wondering if J. D. Morrison and Mary Frances Jones are doing so well since the holidays.

Maudene is back and school begins to seem natural again especially to Melvin Ross.

Johnnie Ruth Belsher doesn't like boys! I know—you're laughing too. In fact, so is everyone but Herschell.

Kenneth D. is really Scotch! When he eats peanuts in church he eats them one at a time to make them last longer.

That reminds me. These League meetings are rather popular with Gene Loran and Johnnie Belsher, La Juana Leibfried and Randolph Rutledge, and Evelyn Elliott and Bryan Collins.

Arla Vee and Dorothy Tye like westerns. At least they liked the one last Saturday night. Well enough to go back for more or was it the company?

Egad! Every boy in town was parked by Arwines last Sunday night. Couldn't have been Pat King from Dallas!

Blue Chevrolets, green Chevrolets! "Look! Was that one?"
"Yes, but it wasn't him!"
"Are you sure?"
"Yes, but circle the block and we'll see."

Does this go on all the time? Yes, disgusting isn't it?
"Did you see that skirt?" "You mean whose milk bottle?" "No, I didn't pay that much for it."
"I couldn't say, really, mine are green."
"Yes, it really sounds like that, and fun too! Why don't you try it?"
Everyone is talking this way lately. Don't know why, but it seems to be the latest trend in conversation.
Oh, disgust! I just ran out of space so goodbye until next time!
Goodbye.

Co-Captain Rushing Not Only Ace Athlete; He Studies And Is Favorite With Students

The all-around student and Whirlwind co-captain, Joe Rushing, was born in the Fairview community in 1923. His first eight years of school life were spent in Fairview.

He came to Floydada High school as a sophomore and was elected president of the class. He was also elected president of the ag club and served in that office for two years.

Joe, the full-back on the Whirlwind team, has played football every year since he has been in high school this being his third, and has lettered each year. He was given honorable mention of the 4-A District All-District players last year and has scored more points than any other player in the district this year.

Not only is Joe an ace athlete but he also does superior classroom work. His scholastic average for his sophomore and junior years is 92, and for this year so far it is 88.

Joe is always willing to assist in any school function. He escorted the senior candidate for carnival queen, Margaret Camden, at the coronation at the Junior carnival. He has had various roles in assembly programs, all the way from the Indian fighter, Miles Standish, to master of ceremonies, at the Gamma Sigma Kappa Halloween party, his impersonation of Lil' Abner won honorable mention.

Joe is a favorite with the students. Because of his gallantry and friendliness, he is among the first to be invited by the girls to their societies. About Joe the boys say, "Once a friend always a friend."

Like any average person Joe has his favorites. His favorite movie stars are Betty Grable and Mickey Rooney. English and geometry are

Did you hear that crow that rang out clear from the barnyard last Thursday afternoon? Didn't it just set your heart to thumping, and didn't your heart nearly burst with pride when our own Whirlwind football team ran roughshod over Spur for the final victory in this district? Isn't it exhilarating to be hailed champions and to have the title "Champion Football Team of District 4-A?" That is enough to turn the head of the most practical person in school, and not being very practical where football is concerned we can't help being "chesty." So in our opinion the cocks have a right to crow, because it isn't every year that our team grabs the championship like that.

Another important thing that has just been discovered is that the P. H. S. students have proved themselves to be as good sports in triumph as in defeat.

Now, as the Student Body Pep squad of P. H. S. let's do our part toward winning the victory over McLean. If the Winds win the victory then we will be bi-district champions.

Even though this aim should prove to be only a dream, we still can be proud of our team as we have never been before.

We sing "Hail Floydada High School!"

His favorite subjects. His favorite song is "You and I." His favorite project is caring for his cattle and his hobby is milking (one in a million).
