

Farmers to Vote Soon on Ceiling Price For Harvesting Cotton

70-County Area Will be Affected By The Decision

Cotton farmers are going to decide if they want to set a ceiling price on pulling cotton, by casting a vote for or against within the next few days, it was announced this week by L. A. Williams, chairman of the agricultural victory council. Floyd county cotton farmers will receive more detailed information from the county agent's office within a few days, Mr. Williams said.

The vote will cover the 70 cotton producing counties in West Texas, and if carried by a majority, a ceiling price will be set by the Texas Wage board. This will become a federal regulation and will be binding upon all cotton farmers within the area. The ceiling price will be based upon testimony given at a hearing to be held soon in Lubbock. Any interested person may testify at the hearing, and the date will be announced in this paper next week. Proponents of setting the ceiling price point out that it will help the cotton farmer get his crop harvested and will stop pickers moving from farm to farm. Those who do not favor it say that it will just amount to more government regulation, leading to delays and confusion in getting the crop harvested.

What do Floyd county farmers think? That is what the county committees want to know. They urge that every cotton farmer inform himself and be ready to express himself when the time comes to vote.

Decision Up to Farmers
Decision to give Floyd county growers this information and an opportunity to vote was made in a FARMERS TO VOTE joint meeting of the Executive committee of the Agricultural Victory Council and the Farm Labor Advisory Committee on Tuesday of this week. These groups want to make it perfectly clear that they are neither for nor against the proposition, but feel it is their obligation to give farmers the facts. The decision must be made by the farmers themselves.

Who To Contact
Farmers who want more information can contact the following community leaders: L. A. Williams, Henry Schocht, W. F. Ferguson, E. E. Foster, Fred Duvall, Russell Crawford, Claude Pawver, Ernest Lee Thomas, J. S. Lackey, J. R. Austin, O. G. Glesmeyer, Richard Taylor, George Pigg, E. W. Walls, John Loyd, R. E. Gary, Roy Pawver, W. His resignation became effective on August 31, according to the East Texan, student publication of ETSTC.

Mr. Hall began his career as a professional man in 1891 when he was made an assistant teacher in Floydada Public schools, his resignation at the East Texas college winding up an over-all service period of 53 years.

Crowell Game Friday Night Opens Floydada High Season

Game Time 8:30 o'Clock; Wester Field the Place

Opening their 1944 football season Floydada High School Whirlwinds tomorrow night will play the Crowell Wildcats under the floodlights of Wester field. School officials announced the game will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Beset by problems of conditioning and lack of time to perfect timing, Coach Murry's Whirlwinds will have an uphill fight of it all the way, and may go down in defeat because of lack of reserves, especially in the backfield. The teams have been about evenly matched in previous clashes but the Crowell squad this year has the advantage of experience playing together and a 30-day spring training period which circumstances cheated the Whirlwinds Squad out of.

Big Rally Tonight
But the squad themselves and the members of the pep squad and the high school and fans in general are not deterred by the facts of condition and team superiority. They want the Whirlwinds to win and they're hoping to pull the game out of the fire somehow.

To steam up the team and prove the school spirit a big downtown rally will be staged by high school students at 8 o'clock tonight. Pep squad leaders anticipate a big attendance at this rally with which they hope really to storm the business district.

The Crowell Wildcats defeated Floydada 12 to 0 last season at Crowell; they lost to Floydada 6 to 0 at Floydada the year before. There has never been over two touchdowns difference in the teams when they have met one another in the past.

Crowell has seven letter-men back from last year's bi-district championship team, Floydada eight. Two Crowell boys, Pat McDaniel in the back field and Glen Taylor in the line were all-district selections last season. The Wildcats defeated the Paducah Dragons 32 to 7 last Friday afternoon in a practice scrimmage. Floydada lost to Plainview on the same date.

Crowell team averages 162 pounds this year. McDaniel's ball carrying; O. C. Wharton and Kenneth Payne's blocking from the guard positions (See FOOTBALL GAME, back page)

Dairy Subsidy Payments Are Being Made

During the first 11 days of September, 261 Floyd county dairy farmers have received $3770.58 in dairy payments. This was the report made by Ray S. McEntire, Administrative Officer of the Floyd county ACA.

This represents payment on 3207 hundred weight of whole milk and 38790 pounds of butterfat," he said. McEntire further stated, "Dairy farmers should immediately turn in their July and August production as this payment can be made only during September and October.

A number of producers were not paid the May and June payment because the production was not turned in prior to the expiration date, August 1". Each pay period consists of two months, and payment must be applied for within sixty days.

Scouts Meet in Open Air, Homeless Now

Boy Scouts of Floydada are without a "home" now, and Scoutmaster Garland G. Glover of Troop 64 is wondering what they'll be able to do about it.

The old residence on the church property, used for years for Sunday school, Boy Scout meetings and the like, has been sold and is moved the first of the week.

The Scout meeting this week was an open-air affair on the church lawn. No date was set for another meeting temporarily, the scoutmaster said.

Pat M. Felton, Farmer-Merchant Died Fri. Night

Pat M. Felton, 74, pioneer farmer-merchant of Floyd county died of a heart attack at his home, 122 So. Main street at 8:45 o'clock Friday night.

Active until recent months Mr. Felton, however, had disposed of his interest in Felton-Collins Grocery company, and also had sold his farming interests. He had been interested in these and other farming and merchandising ventures since he moved to Floyd county 37 years ago.

Funeral rites were said Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Phil H. Gates, Methodist minister, and Rev. L. A. Doyle, Baptist minister, officiated at the rites held at the First Methodist church. Interment was made in Floydada cemetery. Pallbearers were L. T. Bishop, R. E. Fry, Robt. McGuire, W. O. Jones, Polk Goen and Jack Henry. Named as honorary pallbearers were N. A. Armstrong, J. M. Wright, H. M. McDonald and A. C. Goen.

The widow and nine children survive, three sons, Pat Felton, Sioux City, Iowa, Z. R. Felton, Clovis, New Mexico, and Stewart (Cap) Felton, paratrooper with the American invasion army in Southern France; and six daughters, Mrs. Clay Johnson, Graham, Texas, Mrs. Terrell Loran, Levelland, Texas, Mrs. Audrey Mudd, North Hollywood, California, Mrs. Tom Shaw, (See PAT M. FELTON, back page)

M. B. Bradshaw, Ex-Service Man, Opens Tire Shop

M. B. Bradshaw, former service man recently released by the army, is opening tire vulcanizing business in Floydada, he announced the first of the week.

Yesterday the new business was set up in the filling station building of W. T. Stiles opposite Oden Chevrolet company on South Main street, under the name of Bradshaw Tire company. Tire repairing, tire vulcanizing, grade three tires and re-capping will be featured in the new business, Mr. Bradshaw said.

The family will move to Floydada from Lubbock the first of next week. The Bradshaws have three children.

Plows and Grain Drills Will Run This Week-End

On the major portion of Floyd county farms today farm operators are tuning up to begin work tomorrow on plowing and sowing of wheat, following a delay of nearly two weeks occasioned by excellent rains that fell early last week and again Sunday night of this week.

Some exceptions to this general statement are noted in areas where the fall was lighter Sunday night and in others where the fall was heavier. Throughout most of the central county districts it will be Monday before the grain drills begin to hum. Several inches of rain fell in a section with Center central to the area Sunday night. Some communities report some hail damage on that date. At Floydada the rainfall was 55-hundredths of an inch.

Forage Feed Helped
One great advantage of the rains and continued wet is noted from reports of material help to forage feed crops, especially those which promise bundle feed for live stock through the winter. While some combine maize has begun suckering and will be slow readying for the harvest, other types of forage feeds are doing very well indeed.

Many crops of bundle feed will mature into fair feed even with an early frost date, and grass on ranges is going to be excellent where Sudan grass are increasing the flow of milk and butterfat to the dairies and cream stations.

A number of fields of fine alfalfa were caught on the ground in the irrigation area and some of it was ruined, according to the reports. However, some of the cutting had been finished and a considerable acreage is yet to do.

Enrollment Up Slightly Over Last Year
Enrollment in Floydada Public schools was slightly higher this week than they were at the same period last year, Superintendent I. T. Graves said yesterday.

At high school the scholastics entered numbered 336 and at ward school the total was 436, making 772 in all.

A. W. Dunn Died at Williams Home Friday Night

Funeral rites of the Primitive Baptist church of which he had been a member for many years, were held Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church in Floydada at A. W. Dunn, 79.

Mr. Dunn died in his sleep at the home of a daughter, Mrs. L. A. Williams of Harmony community sometime Friday night or in the small hours of Saturday morning. The family found him dead in his room at breakfast time Saturday morning. Apparently he had succeeded in his sleep. He had made his home with this daughter since the death of his wife in August of last year.

Elder D. L. Handley of Lockney, officiated at the funeral service, assisted by Rev. L. A. Doyle of this city.

Pallbearers were Raymond Williams and Choma Williams of this county, Cpl. E. A. Williams, AAF, Bryan Texas, Cleon Mullins, Childress, Johnnie Roberts, Friona, and Earl Raub, Channing. Flower attendants were Lavern Mullins, Amarillo, Norene Mullins, Fort Worth, La Rue Williams, Lubbock, Mrs. Alpha Raub, Channing, Gladys Roberts, Friona, Norma Louise Dunn, Lockney, Bonnie Nell Fuqua, Mona (See A. F-O Thomas R. Wright Survives 30 Days in New Guinea Jungle With Crew of Downed Plane

Flight officer Thomas R. Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wright, of this city and husband of the former Norma Harris who now makes her home in San Diego, California, was one of four airmen who lived for more than a month on the wings of their plane after it crashed in one of New Guinea's densest swamps, the Netherlands News Agency informed United Press in Holland.

Flight Officer Wright, navigator on the plane, and the pilot and crew have been rescued and are recovering from their experiences.

Located by a mixed Dutch and American patrol, the men had lived on their crashed plane in a vast swamp so impenetrable that they had to struggle for three hours through deep slimy mud to salvage supplies which had been dropped by plane and had landed only a hundred yards away.

The rescue occurred "under the nose" of the Japanese command in the area, and on returning the patrol encountered a force of 100 Japs.

F.O. Thomas Ross Wright

killed 30 and took 6 prisoners, the Netherlands News agency reported.

T. Sgt. John Lewis

T. Sgt. John T. Lewis, above son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis of Adrian, Texas and former resident of this city, is a member of the ground force of the air corps and is now in the Gilbert Islands of the Marshall. Before being inducted, John worked for Martin and company and at the City Light plant. He went overseas September 9, 1943, and has been on several islands of the Pacific including Saipan. He writes his folks that he is enjoying his work and is getting a thrill out of keeping them flying.

In awarding the Air Medal to Sergeant Crawford, Col Ernest P. Wackwitz, Jr., station commander, commended the filer's successful participation in aerial attacks which are "knocking out German resistance and helping to insure victory for the Allied armies' invasion of Western Europe."

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

Green surely is a good color for tired eyes. Every direction one looks, eyes are soothed and delighted with the beauty the Plains country can do after a good bath. Even the almost dead feed is springing back to life like the miracle of the resurrection plant. Now what we need is time now, time of warm days and frosts not just around the corner. "Uncle Bud" has gone on. No more early ranges will beckon and mirages glimmer before his blue, keen eye. He loved the ranges and the horses that carried him over them, loved to sit and tell others so plainly that they could see the things he told and knew so well. We are glad we knew him and that he called us a pioneer friend. The world has been made better by his kind, unselfish way of living.

The young garden is coming on but for the most part will be a disappointment like the earlier one. Beans seem to have the falling this year to bloom and that is all. Something happens, beans do not put on. Blackeyed peas grow off like everything and make one crop and pass out. Beets did well also carrots, but who wants beets and carrots every day? The green sass is about ready so we will fare fine on it for a spell. The pyrauantha bushes are beautiful. I like to glimpse the clusters of orange berries against the blue sky. Pake berries glisten like blue-black grapes along the fence rows, red juices dripping down where birds pull them off the stalk. Indian peaches are turning streaked red and smell with heavenly delight. Fall is here demanding payment from spring and summer. She wants the gold beads of the maize to trim her green velvet dress and the fluffy white bolls of cotton to wear in her hair. As she walks along the country roads she sweeps up the dust with her long train and fans the warm air with her cottonwood leaf fans.

People remember dry years but this takes the cake. Estacado we are told was hauling water during the flood.

Fred Spikes and Jim Griggs spent the day here. Many Floydada folks will remember them both. Jim lived there in early days and Fred a winter or so. Way back sometime about seventy one years ago, you would never think that long ago by looking at him now, Jim Griggs began life in Virginia, moving with his parents to Jack County Texas. "No, I did not know many folks in Jack County," he laughed and said, "I never did get out of the cotton patch. Pa decided to move west but mother objected, said that the boys would still want to go farther and farther west, which we did. Father said he could come west and the boys could live at the back side of the farm and eat roasin' ears out of his patch like they do in Jack County. We moved to Floyd county in the fall of 1891. I worked for the Wm. Perrins in Floyd County 92-93-94 who run several thousand horses. I have rode the range from the Matadors to the Pitchforks hunting horses. I have been visiting Mrs. Perrin in Lubbock. I broke horses but when I got off a horse, my boots came off and I did the chores barefooted. Always had gone barefooted. I was grown before I knew they made shoes for boys," he laughed.

Jim is very modest about his being a deputy and a county commissioner of Quay county, New Mexico, where he took his wife, the former Helen Loring of near Lockney, to begin life in a dugout in the side of a hill. They have reared seven children and still run a four section ranch where Jim still burns the V Spear brand on his calves and vaccinates them by himself as he is short-handed. There have been hard times and good years but Jim says he believes he was happiest when he was broke, but I think that was because he knew he would come up again. His hair is still black and the silver in it is mighty scarce. Of course when I ride all day, I am kinda tired and hungry! As hungry as I ever was. Sometimes it takes most of the night for me to rest up. My schoolin' has been in the school of hard knocks and I have had plenty enough to learn.

Jim is honest for we learned by just sitting still and listening when the talk was not for publication that he owned the bank when the banks all went broke just like you and I did and when he had a break and he went in to pay off with four years interest the note was lost and no record of any debt at all. But it was paid just the same. The old pioneers made an honest debt and it was paid if at all possible.

"Yes it rains out there some years. Back in November of 1899 it rained for eight days. Wife and I with a tiny baby started visiting in a wagon across the boggy prairie. We stuck. The mules could not pull us out. A friend came by and took the baby, wife rode the gentle mule using the friend's saddle and I rode the wild bronc mule—it was so boggy he couldn't pitch," he added with a merry laugh.

"And speaking of bogging down, why the other day I rode across the South Canadian which bounds one side of my ranch, near Puerto canyon. I had been ridin' this creek for seven or eight years and never had no trouble. All at once my horse went down. He tried to get out twice and failed, then rammed his head in the slushy quicky mud. I jerked him up, and after several efforts he got out, muddy to the saddle skirts. One time I thought he was a goner. And that I would have to bog out and come back later for my saddle but then I wanted to ride him as long as he lived," his eyes twinkled with the memory.

Jim's boys are not cowboys. One is a banker, one works on the railroad, the other I do not recall but not a rancher.

Jim went west, about as far west as he could go and ride the ranges, now his boys do not want to wear the boots and spurs and brand the dogs.

Jim Griggs is a friend. Once when he was needed, he showed his loyalty. I would again today if he was needed. Loyal and true to the memory of two boys who were left murdered near their home and loved ones. Knowing the truth and telling it, never wavering. These things are not forgotten and we remain grateful and when we meet, always.

Ah, how good it feels! The hand of an old friend.

S'd Hill Farmers Union Will Meet Tuesday Night

The Sand Hill Farmer's Union local number 33 will meet in its first regular meeting Tuesday night, September 19, in the Sand Hill auditorium.

In the call meeting of August 22 a good crowd attended. Tolle Corder was elected temporary chairman of the program committee.

Delbert Stringer, Joel Corder and W. H. Brock discussed the subject of whether we should have a program of scarcity or abundance and what our local could do to promote abundance.

Frank Overturf, state secretary of Texas Farmers Union, was there and made an interesting talk on farm conditions. Mrs. Overturf was also there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Day recently visited her mother, Mrs. W. T. Hughes of Bovina.

Mrs. Tom Jernigan went to Lubbock Monday for a few days visit with her son, Jack and family.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Issue of September 11, 1930)
Although Floyd county had no general rain during the past week, there are numerous communities which have had excellent late feed growing downpours, and some reports indicate that two or three inches of rain have fallen.

At a recent meeting of Vocational agriculture teachers held at Lubbock, O. T. Williams, teacher of Vocational Agriculture of the Floydada High school, was chosen president of the organization for 1930-31.

Fire which is thought to have originated from an oil stove left burning in the kitchen destroyed the farm home of V. M. Manning, one mile southwest of Floydada Sunday morning at 8:45 o'clock. The Floydada Fire department answered the alarm but they did not arrive in time to check the blaze.

Roscoe Fort, formerly of Silvertown and more recently of Lubbock, has been appointed retail and wholesale agent for the Phillips Petroleum company in this city, succeeding B. O. Cloud, it was announced this week. Mr. Cloud has not announced his plans for the immediate future.

Organization work for the Floydada Public school year of 1930-31 is practically completed this Thursday morning as the schools begin the fourth day of the school year opening Monday. The job of enrolling and classifying the nearly one thousand boys and girls has been almost completed.

Mrs. Julian Huffman, old settler and pioneer resident of Floyd county for more than forty years, died on Thursday of last week at the home of her son, Herman Huffman, in the Prairie Chapel community.

One of the newest additions to the radio industry is now on display at F. C. Harmon's. The new model is a small set, only 17 1/2 inches high and 16 inches at the base, housing a seven-tube screen grid Philco receiver and a new electro-dynamic speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson returned home Tuesday night of this week from a foreign tour that carried them to some fifteen nations and principalities of Europe.

Continuing a practice that has become a tradition in Floydada, the Floyd County National bank of Floydada last week began distribution of free book satchels to the school kiddies of Floyd county.

To Miss Judie Moss: Mrs. W. U. Riggle Sure Thanks You

Little Miss Judie Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moss, did her daily good deed Tuesday afternoon by turning in a bill fold to The Hesperian office that contained $28 in currency, hoping the rightful owner would claim it.

By so doing she did Mrs. W. U. Riggle, of Lakeview, a mighty favor, for Mrs. Riggle was the loser and she had the money all budgeted for some purchases she had made. Questioned she knew all the right answers and Miss Judie can be sure the right person got the money, and that Mrs. Riggle left the Hesperian office a mighty pleased lady.

Why Did You First Consult a CHIROPRACTOR?

Was it because some friend ask, "Why don't you try Chiropractic?" or said, "You should consult a Chiropractor?" Maybe. But, the greater probability is that some friend said, "I found health in the PURCELL ALL CHIROPRACTIC OFFICE," and then related how, after, weeks, months or perhaps years, of pain and discomfort, he or she had health restored by changing to Chiropractic Care. That friend constituted living evidence that "Chiropractic is the Gateway to Health."

Now, you are one of the millions of Chiropractic Laymen of America, offering living evidence to friends that Chiropractic Service restores health. Your example directs other to this office.

rains in the county will be possible for farmers to sow them up to a stand. One of the greatest benefits this county has had from this fall and winter is some fall and winter pasture. Protein meals will be smaller this year, and protein and soybeans will not be rationed. This year, the 1944 crop, protein meals ready for use are being rationed. This is a tough situation and make every farmer want to make every grain as soon as possible for pasture.

More about "over seas" packages—Besides sending fruit cake in other packages that might be sent. Certain kinds of cookies ship very nicely. Honey cookies, or any recipe butterscotch cookies are very good. Cookies which are made with dried fruit and nuts usually keep moist. Fruit, nut candies, peanut moist, taffy and crystallized fruits are the best keeping candies. It seems that the fat in chocolate breaks down easily when it is subjected to high temperature and long storage—so fudge is not recommended. The candy and cookies can be sealed in cans. You just put layers of waxed paper between candies or cookies in the can.

Canned chicken would be a good thing to send. Then of course, beef is easily canned and we can always send chili or tamales for the boys who particularly like these foods. If pickles or relishes are sent "R" enamel cans should be used. If the pickles are thoroughly fermented or cured, you can heat the contents of the can to 170 degrees Fahrenheit before sealing. This usually takes about 20 minutes in No. 2 cans when it is steamed in a water bath. If the pickles are not well cured or fermented, heat No. 2 cans for 30 or 35 minutes. At the end of the steaming, seal the cans and thoroughly cool them in cold water. Freshly made relish can be poured in the can while it is still boiling. Seal it, then cool it, and it's ready to be mailed.

Preserves are one of the most satisfactory products you can send. At the end of the cooking or if you have reheated the preserves, you can pour the hot preserves into "R" enamel cans. Fill the cans full and leave no head space. Seal and then invert the cans and let them cool in cold water.

According to food specialists, it is wise to seal in cans all food sent overseas. They may be subjected to high humidity or even be allowed to stand in water or rain. We should prepare any food we send so that it will be protected against gases, grease, water rats, insects and all kinds of odors.

Football Game

Only four of this year's Crowell team were regulars last season, but several other boys played a great deal of football. "We have always enjoyed playing Floydada for they have clean boys on the field and good sports on the side lines," said superintendent Grady Graves of Crowell who is a brother of Floydada's superintendent.

Bringing Squad of 22 Crowell is bringing a squad of about 22 men to the game. Coach Murry said that lack of conditioning and lack of time for training he might not be able to put more together to put on the field last night game. He has a wonderful line up of new boys but the time element has forced him to neglect them woefully, he said. He may be able to begin to feed them into the team by next week's game but it will be conference game time before he has all of the squad of 40 performing, he fears.

Murry said he was proud of the spirit the boys are showing but 15 days time to try to whip a team together to put on the field isn't enough. Murry thinks his line will operate good but his backfield still have to learn to work together in addition to the fact that he has one completely new man on the first string a fullback position and has lost his kicker, Charles Dudley, to the navy.

W. J. Browning

(Continued from first page) was married to Miss Gussie Minnie Grace on October 5, 1905. His widow and one son, Joe, of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. John Finley and Mrs. Bill Debnam, both of El Paso, survive, as well as five grandchildren, a brother Cal Browning of Corsicana, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Jeton of Kerens, Texas. W. P. Thorpe and Mrs. Maud Merrick, of this city, are nephew and niece of the deceased.

Mr. Browning came to Floyd county in 1911 from Runnels county. He suffered a severe illness two years ago and was on a trip and visit down-state in an effort to regain his strength when his last illness occurred.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral included Mrs. Leona Henderson of Los Angeles, Mrs. G. W. Phipps of Iredell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grace of Matador, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Grace of Lorenzo, Miss Hattie Thorp, George Thorp, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thorp, Mrs. Verb and Ray Thorp, all of Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Grace and daughter of Hale Center, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grace and children, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gragory and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baker, all of Lorenzo, Pvt. and Mrs. Herman E. Thorpe of Matador, Mrs. Alice Freeman of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henderson of Whiteflat, Mrs. W. A. Amburn, sr., of Plainview and Mrs. L. Buchanan also of Plainview, Bessie Kendrick, John Carr, Mrs. J. F. Beard and Mrs. Minter Heard of Petersburg.

Survived Galveston Flood Mr. Browning was a survivor of the Galveston flood. He and his partner had a fishing boat at the time and were caught by the storm while out on a trip. They tied themselves to the rigging of the boat. The boat was wrecked and they drifted two nights and a day before being picked up by a freighter from Cuba. They were badly battered and their clothing was torn off except for the cuff and collar band.

A. W. Dunn

Eight Children Survive Surviving Mr. Dunn are eight children, 36 grand children, and 22 great grandchildren. The children are three sons, Dan F. Dunn, Clovis, New Mexico, Claud W. Dunn, Dumas, Texas and Joe Dunn, Lockney; and five daughters, Mrs. L. A. Williams and Mrs. Floyd Fuqua, Floydada, Mrs. Lola Dixon, Jackboro, Mrs. Oma Mullins, Childress, Mrs. H. W. Roberts, Friona.

A native of Texas, Mr. Dunn moved from Collingsworth county to Floyd 26 years ago, and had made his home south of Floydada during that time and engaged in farming until his retirement in recent years.

Among out-of-county friends here for the last rites for Mr. Dunn were J. H. Foster and son and family of Memphis.

Pat M. Felton

(Continued from first page) Mrs. T. P. Collins and Mrs. Arthur Stewart, Floydada. Twenty - two grandchildren and three great grandchildren also survive.

Many Years in Texas P. M. Felton was born in Arkansas, his mother dying in that state when he was very young and her body is interred at Searcy. The family was enroute to Texas from Mississippi when she died. Mr. Felton's earliest recollections are of Texas, the family moving on to this state when he was very young.

Of the surviving children Mrs. Mudd arrived Tuesday from California too late for the last rites, Pat Felton was unable to return to the parental home and Cap, the soldier son, is on duty in the expeditionary forces. Other members of the family were here for the last rites.

His parents had not heard from him the first of this week since receiving notice of his new address.

He was married in Arkansas to Miss Laura Lorena Kiser in 1885, the wife who survives. In 1935 they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with their children and a large number of friends around them at a gala event in the couple's life.

In addition to his wife three sons, A. W. W. N. and W. E. Anderson, all of Floydada, and four daughters, Mrs. E. T. Williamson, Mrs. Roy L. Fawver, and Mrs. Lovell Jones, of Floydada, and Mrs. J. C. Chandler of Detroit, Texas survive the deceased.
