Paving School Streets Major Local Problem

60 Campaign Patches Heavy Quota Assigned

Paving on 11 blocks of the streets of Floydada leading to the public schools and giving a loop for travel on hard-surfaced to and from them is the matter of first community importance pending this week, as a committee of workers made ready for a canvass of the residents to determine how much they are willing to spend on a program outlined by the city council at an informal meeting last week.

The program, as outlined based on cost estimates for material and labor, will represent an outlay of $12,000. When finished the 11 blocks would have a hard-surfaced ribbon 22 feet wide of construction similar to that through the city on the highways, according to the plans. With time as an element no bond issue is contemplated at the present, city officials said.

Will Ask For Pledges

On the committee to contact the citizenship and property owners are F. C. Harmon, E. P. Nelson, R. B. Rosson, O. P. Rutledge, Mrs. Alton B. Chapman, M. P. Goen and Mrs. Geo. V. Smith.

Plans made by this committee this week are to get pledges in a canvass of the community, and when these are made to submit their report in this form to the city council for their consideration. The council last week did not know how much of the money they have in the treasury they can use for the purpose since much of it is pledged to service outstanding indebtedness. However, they will know shortly, Mayor W. U. White said, and when the report of the volunteer workers is made, will either be or not be in position to talk to a contractor due here soon to carry on work for the State Highway department through Floydada and at Dougherty. The estimated $12,000 bill for the paving is much lower than a similar job can be done for by a contractor not on the ground, Geo. A. Linder, engineer on the project, told the council.

M. P. Goen, one of the members of the committee, said yesterday it was not known what the reaction of citizens on the affected streets and in the community in general would be. The canvass will determine this soon, however. Most residents who live on the blocks adjacent to the paving have indicated a willingness to go along, but more unimproved than improved property faces the streets in the program, and the outcome will depend largely on how determined other residents, school patrons in particular, are "to get the schools out of the mud" the committee believes.

Waste Paper Campaign Is Under Way

Guiffee, temporary chairman of the waste paper collecting campaign for Floyd county yesterday issued an appeal for the people to bring waste paper to deliver it by the November 15 expiration of the present delivery period.

Dulby Motor freight warehouse, the receiving station for the paper, is located at the depot. Papers of different kinds should be divided and delivered in bundles without fail, Mr. Guiffee said.

Union Auxiliary Sale of Poppies Next Saturday

American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a poppy sale Saturday, November 11. Proceeds will go to the war effort.

The sale will be on the streets selling poppies Saturday and the city is urging that the public buy.

PROMOTION

James Jones was promoted Friday last week from 2nd Lieutenant to 1st Lieutenant. He is stationed at Sheppard Field, Wichita, Texas.

Club Congress trip Awarded to Edwards, Jr., by Santa Fe

Edwards, Jr., youthful Floyd farmer and schoolboy, of 4-H club career, has been awarded a trip to Chicago in recognition of his work and as a result will have the pleasure and privilege of an expense trip to Chicago in connection with the presentation of the 4-H club award to him.

He will be a guest of the Santa Fe Railway company during the trip, which will last for a week from home.

Edwards, Jr., is one of 19 Texas boys who will be awarded the trip.

November 22 formalities of presenting the award of merit awarded by the Santa Fe Railway company will be held on November 22, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Edwards, Jr., and his parents, who are to be guests of Floydada club. At that time H. M. Tanner, agricultural worker, will present the award to Edwards, Jr. and his parents. The trip will be accompanied by County Agent O. Gordon, Leon C. Ranson, county agricultural agent, and Bill Tanner, club chairman for the year.

Floyd Backs Roosevelt in Record General Election Vote

President Roosevelt, who has shattered all political records, did it again Tuesday when he won the Fourth Term in the presidency by a large electoral vote over his crusading opponent, Thos. E. Dewey.

Cotton Purchase Plan Put Into Effect to Assure Price Parity

Full parity price to farmers for their 1944 crop of cotton is assured under the new Commodity Credit Corporation purchase program regardless of whether or not it is under a government loan, Paul Snodgrass, chairman of the Floyd county ACA Committee, said today.

The CCC will purchase all cotton for which a loan rate schedule has been announced, offered to it up to June 30, 1945. The cotton will be purchased at the following prices: (basis, Middling 15/16 inch) October, 21.73 cents per pound; November, 21.78; December, 21.83; January, 21.88; February, 21.93; March, 21.98; April, 22.03; May, 22.08; and June, 22.13.

The five point increase per month has been added to the price as allowance to the farmer for storage and carrying charges.

Other highlights of the purchase program are:

1. Premiums and discounts are the same as those of 1944 loan program, based on Middling 15/16 purchase rates, gross weight.
2. Purchasing agents, mostly local banks and warehousemen, will be approved by CCC.
3. Purchasing agents will buy at CCC prices if warehouse receipts and sales agreement are turned over to them within 10 days after issuance. Agent's fee of 50 cents per bale will be paid by CCC.
4. Purchases will be made only from farmers who produced cotton in 1944. Cotton must be stored in CCC-approved warehouses.
5. Farmers with cotton in loan may sell it to CCC by repaying the loan.

A comparison of the returns from the loan program and the purchase program is as follows:

Purchase Program—500 pound gross weight bale of 15/16 middling white cotton produced in Floyd county and offered to a purchasing agent in Floydada, Texas. 500 X $0.2178 (price for November) equals $108.90.

Under purchase program the gross weight is used.

Title passes to purchaser.

Posthumous Medal To Native Son of Floyd County

GUNTER, Nov. 2—Pvt. Charles E. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Jones, has been awarded the Purple Heart post-humously. He was killed in France July 5 in action with infantry of the 79th Division.

A native of Floydada, he attended high school here. He was the husband of the former Jimmy Dee Stambaugh of Sherman.

Private Jones, named in the above dispatch as a native of Floydada, is a grandson of Mrs. S. T. Harris, now a resident of Lubbock.

Stewart Rites Pending Son's Arrival Home

Funeral rites for G. A. Stewart, 75, prominent resident of the Fairview community, who died Wednesday morning, are pending the arrival of a son from California, members of the family said late yesterday.

Mr. Stewart, who had been ill for four months but had rallied recently, died Wednesday morning. He had been in the Plainview sanitarium for treatment since the previous Monday.

Native of Alabama

A native of Alabama, but a resident of Texas since the days of his youth, Mr. Stewart and his family had lived in Floyd county since 1925. He was married to Mary F. Welch at Boonville, Texas.

The widow of this union survives, as also five sons, Jim and Arthur of Floydada; Vernon of Phillips; Sherman of Sweetwater, and Orville of Hollywood, California, and three daughters, Mrs. R. M. Cannon of Floydada; Mrs. L. B. Cheeves of Amarillo, and Mrs. S. C. Evetts of Olden, Texas; and nine grandchildren.

A member of the Baptist church since early life, Mr. Stewart had been a deacon for a number of years.

J. W. GRIGSBY WRITES HOME AFTER TRIP, AT SEA

J. W. Grigsby, who is a signalman on a United States carrier ship, last week got his first mail in 40 days, he wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Grigsby in an airmail letter that was six days reaching them according to the postmark.

This indicates that J. W. has had some interesting experiences in the last few weeks. However, nothing in his letter indicates where he was or what he was doing in the elapsed time. The homefolks were thrilled to hear from their navy boy, to put it mildly.

Matadors Come Here Tomorrow Night for Game

Floydada football fans will get to see only one more game of the Floydada Whirlwinds on their home grounds before the season closes in District 4-A. This comes Friday night of this week when the Matador Matadors come to Westerfield, carrying on the interscholastic contest for district honors. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Undoubtedly the home guards will be out in big numbers to see the Whirlwinds take their Mosley county opponents in their last home conference game.

On the basis of the season's scores the Green and White boys ought to win easily, and the fans should get to see a number of the popular second string "Windies" in the role of contenders. Unless overconfidence and lack of condition lose for the local team they should win going away from the Matadors. Coach Murry, meanwhile, is going ahead with drills and practice on plays that will be sorely needed at Friona a week hence and at Spur on November 23.

The game next week away from home was the best arrangement that could be made by the school's athletic council after Crosbyton dropped out of conference play and left the November 17 date open.

Coach Murry finally has a combination of line and backfield coordination that is working. He is working against time to perfect the boys' play in the hope of giving the Spur Bulldogs a run for the money in the final district clash. Both teams appear certain now to be sure winners, the Whirlwinds lacking only the Matador game to clinch their try against the Dickens county championship team.

Gees Hear From Son After Nine Months Silence

First news of their son in nine months was received last week by Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gee when they received two letters from Pfc. Louie Gee.

The Red Cross had investigated and failed to find anything as to his whereabouts. He didn't give any account in his letters for the long period in which he had not written.

Louie's APO number is out of New York City, and his address indicates he is in a military police company.

Don Shaw OCS Graduate in Far Away Australia

Don Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shaw, of this city, is now a second lieutenant in the U. S. army. Recently the family received news that their only son had finished an Officers' Candidate school located in Australia, and following the completion of this training is now back in New Guinea in a combat area.

Has Been Wounded

What the luck of the assignment can do for you in the armed forces is strikingly illustrated in Don's army career. In January he will have finished three years of service overseas, all of it in the Pacific Southwest. In one of the bitter battles on the march back to the Philippines Don was wounded, a shrapnel putting him in the hospital for several weeks. Before and after this wound he has seen months and months of active service, but has been most reticent in his letters home and Mr. and Mrs. Shaw know little of his service and where he has been in action.

MELVIN SLAUGHTER AGAIN IN PRIVATE LIFE, HERE ENROUTE TO CALIFORNIA

Melvin Slaughter, once more in private life after two years in the army, has been here this week on a visit with his mother, Mrs. Lulu Slaughter, and his sister, Mrs. W. L. Fry.

He is enroute to his home at Long Beach, California, where he plans to rest for a short time and then get back into harness as a civilian.

Melvin was injured at Aberdeen Proving grounds last spring and has spent the months since in Walter Reed hospital, the medical corps show place at Washington, D. C. He had an eye injury. Partial sight was saved in the eye and it has been improving gradually. He was dismissed with a medical discharge

Newton Home Damaged By Lightning

Close approach to freezing was recorded in Floydada this morning at 8 o'clock when the thermometer at West Texas Gas company office registered 33 degrees, much colder than registered before this season. Previous low had been 36 degrees.

A week of continued sunshine was interrupted by a storm Monday night when every portion of the county had some rainfall, ranging from a sprinkle in the east and northeast part of the county to a heavy rain in the extreme northwest corner. Three quarters of an inch fell at Lockney and 33-hundredths at Floydada. Considerable hail and a heavy lightning display accompanied the storm. Some hail damage was done to feed and cotton in the fields in the northwest part of the county, and several hundred dollars damage from smoke and fire followed when lightning struck the residence of J. E. Newton at Dougherty.

At South Plains only a light sprinkle fell. Rainfall in the vicinity of Floydada was refreshing to wheat in the fields, wheat men said.

Except for bundle feed, harvest in the forage fields has been marking time while a frost is awaited.

Except for the lack of laborers the cotton harvest is proceeding normally. With much cotton open and pretty weather prevailing cotton men have been hearing down in an effort to get help to save their crops.

Hubert Stringer Shows Continued Slow Recovery

Hubert Stringer, Wichita and Floyd county business man and rancher, who narrowly escaped death from strangulation and burns in a fire at his Floyd county home near Barwise 10 days ago, yesterday was continuing to show gains at the Pitts hospital.

Still speaking only in a whisper as a result of lung and throat involvement from smoke and heat, and suffering from the burns on back and arm, the injured man, however, is gaining strength rapidly. If weather conditions are favorable tomorrow it is possible he may be moved to Wichita Falls, Mrs. Stringer has been with him since last week as well as a special nurse from Wichita Falls.

Albert Pricer and other employees of the Callihan Wheat company rescued Mr. Stringer early Saturday morning from a smoke-filled room, where Stringer spent the night alone in the headquarters house on the Stringer farms. His life was despaired of for two or three days.

Two Amendments Get a Negative Vote in County

Although news reports indicate that the people of the State of Texas as a whole gave all three amendments to the state constitution a majority on the face of early returns, Floyd county voters saw it another way. They turned down each of the pension proposals for state and municipal employees, but okayed the county tax reallocation.

(51) To give cities and towns authority to set up a pension plan for employees got 319 votes for with 378 against;

(51) To give state employees privileges of a pension plan received 310 votes, while 389 indicated opposition.

County tax reallocation amendment had a majority of 334 for to 226 against.

Business as Usual in Floydada Armistice Day, Survey Shows

Armistice day, celebrating the ending of World War No. I, midway of World War No. II, comes on Saturday, and in Floydada that will be too tough a combination for many of the retail stores as well as for signs and elevators.

Result will be business as usual, at practically every retail outlet in the community, a hurried survey this week indicates.

A few establishments will be in position to close and some had already made plans to be closed because of the combination of circumstances arose. But generally this will not be the rule.

Returns Reveals 25 Per Cent Here Oppose 4th Term

Although the unofficial returns of the general election in Floyd county Tuesday night revealed that 25 per cent of the electorate opposed Franklin D. Roosevelt for the fourth term, Democrats rallied to poll a record general election vote and gave the presidential candidate the biggest vote he had ever received in the county.

Vote Exceeds Primary

The total ballot for president exceeded the vote in the first primary election by 200 votes. Practically without exception as returns came into The Hesperian office from election judges over the county the figures revealed an increase over the figures for mid-summer. Normal voting strength of the county in pre-war days was approximately 3,500. An estimated 85 per cent of the present eligibles voted Tuesday.

Democrats Carry Nation

Last night's reports indicated the Democratic ticket has carried 35 states with 413 electoral votes and a lead of about three million popular votes over their Republican opponents in the nation-wide poll. Democratic congressmen in the house will number at least 234 and senators at least 54. Seven senatorial races were still in the balance and 36 congressional races were undecided early last night.

Republicans, Regulars Divide

Probably the biggest upset in the results, however, is in the fact that the Republicans out-voted the Texas Regulars, dissenting Democrats. The 370 votes cast for the Republican ticket contrasts with less than 25 votes cast for the party in the off political general election year in 1942. Texas Regulars, polling 320 votes, ran third in the county, indicating an out-and-out revolt against the party among many who have heretofore gone down the line for the ticket. Total dissenting vote was 697, of which the Socialist party got two, the prohibitionists four and the America Firsts 1.

Interest in the ticket below the presidential electors lagged. The gubernatorial candidates ran some 60 votes behind the presidential candidates and less than 750 electors cast a vote on the proposed constitutional amendments. All the (See ELECTION, back page)

GAS FOR COTTON PICKERS

Human nature being what it is you'd expect to hear the story that is going the rounds, namely that OPA boards in-state counties are withholding gasoline and tire coupons from itinerant cottonpickers who want to move on west looking for better cotton, or to get in on the ground floor of cotton picking on the plains.

This story has it that the boards are telling the applicant there is plenty of cotton to pick where they are and that moving on is not necessary to find work. It would be human nature to do this, while on the other hand it will be human nature for the cotton pickers to let out a cry of "peonage."

Most likely the facts are that there are not many cotton pickers in the sense that was true a few years ago. Seasonal workers who formerly took to the fields may well be in Dallas, Fort Worth, Grapevine, Houston shipyards—dozens of places that need help by the thousands to carry on defense plant work. Also numerous other types of work where wages have skyrocketed, are furnishing competition against the cotton fields to aggravate the situation.

The conclusion would be that what cotton pickers there are left are in great demand from scores of counties. In some case or other, maybe several, where there was lots of cotton to pick, an indignant board member couldn't see the sense in the harvester moving on when there was lots of work right there at home. Things like that are viewed every man from his own standpoint.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN

Many of us use expressions of which we do not know the meaning. We accept what we feel is the meaning of the expression and let it go at that. If it seems to denote an action or a belief that we favor so much the better. We take it to our bosoms.

For instance, do you know what academic freedom means? We ought to know but would have a reporter to corner us on the expression and put into print our answer.

Academic freedom is what Dr. Rainey says the big row is over down University of Texas way. The board of regents let him go as a result of the controversy. The students at the university took advantage of the situation to have a lot of fun that day. Youth gets stirred up about things, at least some of them do and the rest go along for the ride. It was a gala day for all.

WHO RUNS THE SCHOOL?

We wouldn't know for sure just how far academic freedom goes and how much authority the Board of Regents can reasonably be expected to assume in connection with the actions of the president of the school. Surely the situation must be similar, in some respects to a Board of trustees in a school district. In the final analysis, the board, which delegates much authority and responsibility to its superintendent, has the authority and the responsibility, and on occasions has to take over the reins. We do not know that the situation at the University is the same. However, we can't imagine it being otherwise.

Most likely, we guess, the board and the president of the school could not see eye to eye and finally, since the appointee can't have more authority than the appointer, it had to be one or the other.

We would dislike to be a regent of most any state school, and of the University of Texas in particular. The latter because the ex-students' association appears to feel it is their job to help run the school. Noticeable in the news of the turmoil is that the ex-students had meetings and called the regents to do this and that and generally acted officious in the matter. Perhaps they were right. We don't know. We do know that academic freedom got in the news in a big way.

PUBLIC FAVOR IS FICKLE

Public favor is fickle. Senator W. Lee O'Daniel is finding out. Some years ago the darling of Texas politics, the senator came back last week to campaign for the Texas Regulars and against the president. His crowds grew slimmer and slimmer, so it is said, and at Houston he ran into a barrage of disfavor from a large crowd (which grapevine says was a crowd of union men) that just practically howled him down. The radio audience heard the speech with the yelling, whistling, cat-calling, booing in the background, and one of the faithful close by chiming in with "that's right."

Who knows that reaction may not set in again and that sometime in the future the senator will come home once more to bask in the favor of the electorate? There is time enough before he has to campaign among his constituents again.

Since public favor is fickle, why not assume that in the not too far distant future the time will come Senator O'Daniel once more is on the popular side? Sometimes it happens that way. Note that New Jersey has a governor this year who was in the same office a quarter of a century ago, staging a comeback with the help of a new generation of voters.

HOW DO YOU STAND?

Do you know what the World Oil pact means? The one that has been signed by Anglo-American representatives, subject to approval of the U. S. Senate?

We are not sure what it means. Oil men say, however, it means putting the American petroleum industry at the mercy of foreign manipulators. Ratification must be made before it becomes effective. State Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson is strongly against it, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce opposes it and the oil industry says it was framed without discussion with petroleum industry leaders or the public. It is simply another device to attain federal control of American industry, says the committee of oil operators opposed to the ratification.

The oil industry and the states have done a good job, they all say, and will continue to do a good job if permitted to run their own affairs with state regulation and a minimum of federal intervention.

We do not know. A generation hence hindsight will tell us who had foresight.

BLAST AT A. T. & T.

The first attack we have seen on American Telephone & Telephone company in a number of years came last week in a blast by the National Union Farmer, the militant official paper of the Farmers Union.

The monopoly this periodical dished in effect, is responsible for the fact that fewer farmers now have telephones than had them 25 years ago.

The periodical speaks for a sizeable segment of American farm people. We hadn't thought of the American Telephone & Telephone company having responsibility for the fact that farmers do not have telephones. We had always thought of A. T. & T. being one of the most widely operated, most public reaction conscious most able monopolies in America.

It will be interesting to note what progress the Union campaign makes, if the matter is to be carried along further in the form of a crusade.

Telephone lines throughout the area would be a great thing, we know, and so far as Floyd county is concerned the farmers' paper has the right information. There are not nearly as many rural lines as there were and many of what are left can be used only at times.

The bumps along the highway of life are to keep us within the speed limit.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Issue of November 13, 1930)

For the second time in a ten year period, the Lockney Longhorn gridsters have succeeded in crashing the Floydada Whirlwinds eleven in their annual battle for honors in Floyd County, their latest accomplishment coming on Armistice day of this year at Lockney when the Longhorns smothered the Whirlwinds under a 26 to 6 count.

Floydada also forfeited to the Longhorns last year to the tune of 34 to 0. A crowd estimated at near 3000 fans witnessed the annual tussle.

Ginnings over the entire county for the 1930 crop passed the 3,500 bale mark last week, the total report from the gins over the territory this morning was 3530.

Mrs. E. L. Angus, in Amarillo the first of this week in company with members of a party attending sessions of the Women's Missionary union, was drafted to make a Floydada speech over WDAQ, Amarillo broadcasting station at the Capitol Hotel.

Hoyt McClenden, who has been serving as auditor for the South Plains Lumber company, left Tuesday to accept a similar position with the Panhandle Lumber company with headquarters in Amarillo.

J. M. Willson, lay delegate of the Plainview district of the M. E. Church, south, left Sunday night for Abilene to attend a meeting of the Board of laymen held Monday night and Tuesday.

Three characters shared honors in the Little theatre three-act comedy, "What happened to Jones", presented at the High School auditorium Friday night of last week.

O. T. Williams, taking the lead, Mrs. Leroy McDonald and Odus Stephens gave the outstanding performance of the cast.

Charles Brown, son of Fred Brown of this city, has been selected as the honorary member of the Floydada Lions club for November and was in attendance at the joint meeting of the Floydada and Lockney Lions and Rotary clubs held here Monday.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

AS A Farm Woman THINKS! And still the frost stays off, but even by the time you are reading this, everything may be black and looking like wet rags. I gather strawberries from the garden, a quart every three or four days, we can have greens, beans, and turnips, which are just coming in. Time for opening the canned fruit is postponed, which pleased us very much.

The dahlias are extra pretty and last week I had two white Augusta roses. Yellow and red leaves flutter gaily on the branch then turn loose and fall to the ground, crisp and rustling as one walks across the yard.

Something always goes wrong when you have company. Last week when Fred Spikes was here, he started to salt his eggs and said, "what is this in this can?" Nothing but the can of baby's powder that we had not noticed on the table.

My nephew, Jummie, always calls for a "setting" of eggs when he orders eggs for a meal.

Time was when you had to deny anything nice anybody said to you. If somebody liked your dress you were supposed to master up a quick dislike for it and to say you thought it was ugly or too bright or too sad or just anything besides you liked it too. I knew a well-to-do young woman who always said, "Why, this old dress? I got it out of the rag-bag." Now it is permissible to admit you, too, like a dress you wear, if you do.

The pick-up drove rapidly into the town. Now that was not unusual but the white hen that teetered back and forth on the side of the back was unusual and funny, that was to me, the hen did not seem to see the funny side. She would rock to the outside, which she faced, almost fall, regain her balance to rock to the inside, but never did she lose her hold. Her claws held fast.

The pick-up became smaller, the white hen looked as little as a handkerchief tied fluttering to the pick-up's side, then a white dot and she was gone from my sight as suddenly as she came into it.

I am in debt to Mrs. Nicholson of Lorenzo for introducing me to two charming women, her mother and Mrs. Stockton Henry, both of the same city. Hope I meet them again with more time to get better acquainted.

Just as I had convinced myself and I hope my husband, that never, never, would I help scrape another hog, I find this in a paper. The traditional scalding and scraping of hogs in butchering may soon be replaced by a new scientific method. The Hercules Powder company has produced a liquid plastic which does the trick. Hogs are dipped into the sticky stuff. After the plastic cools, it is peeled off taking all the hair and dirt with it. Plastic can be remelted, cleaned and used again.

Makes me think of the time my sister tried some such method of removing superfluous hair from her legs, but maybe this had better be forgotten.

Community night program at Farmer last Friday night was simply fine. Everything was interesting and all enjoyed the C. B. and Navy visitors. Clyde Pierce was the first boy to answer country's call from Farmer. He was at Pearl Harbor and has spent many days on board ship, going as long as seven months without putting his feet on land. His sister's husband (Now where in the world did I put his name? The last was Julian but I can't remember the initials) said he had been in the Alutians and volunteered the information that a C. B. was a mule skinner who had had his brains knocked out, but I do not believe that for I think he used a great deal of sense when he picked out such a pretty sweet girl for a wife.

It was nice to see Joe Jackson back from the Pacific and Harold Plurry from India. When our boys get home we never remember to call them by the rank they have in the army and navy. They are just called the given name we have always known them by.

Mrs. Beulah Foster of Farmer has lived in that neighborhood since a girl and tells many interesting and laughable happenings. The other night at Farmer I laughed 'till the tears stood in my eyes as she talked of school days. "Uncle" Bunch Pullingim lived some three or four miles from the school when he taught there, and he walked to school, Mrs. Wimberly carried a bucket of water to school from the Bud English farm and never have I seen such a full bucket of water. Pink Parrish was a boy almost grown and large in size. He could not sit in a small seat and had to sit in a chair. She told with a laugh. There were several in the Sam Wright family and several in the S. U. Payne family. The Paynes carried their dinner in a big basket, the Wrights in a bucket. There was a picnic every day when the two dinners were spread out.

Merle Brockett delighted all with his music and singing. Some day Merle will be well known as he richly deserves.

If postwar air transportation will be as great as some people anticipate, we'll have to find a new place to build our castles.

Overheard in a restaurant: "Waiter, this steak is tough!" Reply—"Well what do you expect for $2.50?"

A NEW ROPER GAS RANGE

TO KEEP HIM HEALTHY WITH WELL-COOKED FOODS

Once again a beautiful new Roper gas range appears on the scene with many of those fine features that have established Roper as a long-time favorite with housewives from coast to coast.

The range is a big 40-inch gas range. It has a large "3-in-1" baking oven with automatic heat control, "E-Z-Roll" broiler with "Enamo-Grill," "Simmer-Speed" top burners and other refinements that make it easy to prepare healthful foods.

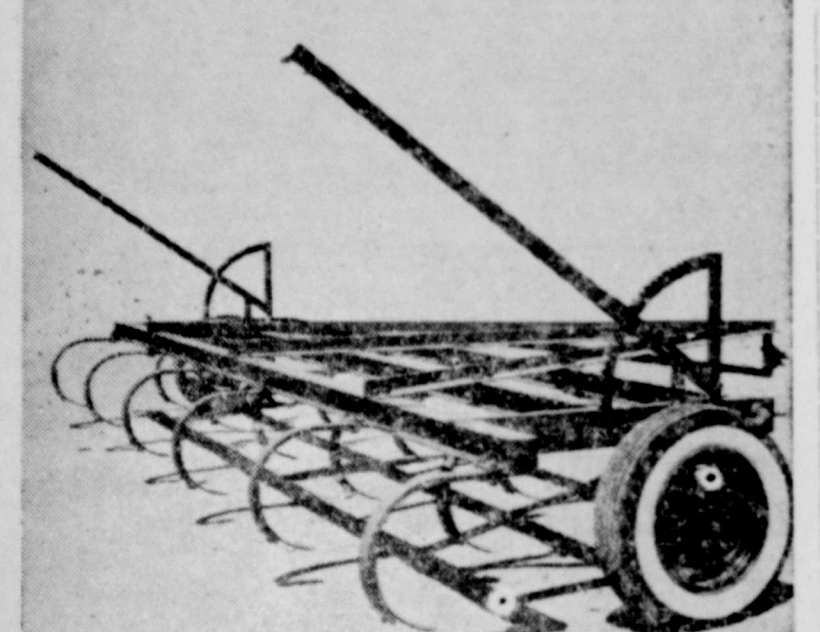

It offers the unmatched convenience of the patented Roper "Staggered" cooking top, providing more usable top surface, greater convenience. This cooking top is found on no other range. Stop in.

War Department Questions Fate of Floyd Boy

The Monroe Harrison, who had become convinced in the past year that their son, James W. (J. W.), was alive and one of several prisoners of war held somewhere by the Japanese following the Americans' ill-fated campaign in the South Pacific, now have another question mark in their minds about their son.

From Washington, under date of October 28, J. A. Ulio, major general, writes the Mr. and Mrs. Harrison a letter which is self-explanatory as follows:

"The War department was recently notified of the destruction at sea of a Japanese transport ship carrying prisoners of war, including Americans. Although a number of survivors was reported to have been taken to Fukoka, prisoner of War Camp on I August, 1944, another group is reported as being those about whom no definite information is available, and it is with deep regret that I must inform you that your son, Private First Class James W. Harrison, 20-11339, Field artillery, was in this latter group.

"Because of the indefinite nature of the War department's present information concerning your son, no change in his prisoner of war classification is being made at this time.

"Please be assured that as soon as additional information becomes available, you will be immediately notified."

So far as known no other relatives in the county with sons in Japanese prisoner of war camps have received similar letters from the War department.

J. W. was among the troops reported captured in Java about three years ago by the Japanese. After nearly a year the family had what they considered authentic information as to his welfare, indicating he was alive and well. The information given above by the War department is the only late news the family has, Mr. Harrison said last week.

HOMEBUILDERS CLUB HAS MEETING WITH MRS. PARKS AS HOSTESS ON FRIDAY

The Homebuilders club met October 27, in the home of Mrs. Elbert Parks. Mrs. P. E. Bertrand had charge of the meeting. Roll call was answered with our favorite pastime.

Mrs. W. A. Cates reported on Mrs. Finley's illness and also said that she appreciated all cards and letters from the club. She will be home soon.

The club elected officers for the coming year. Those elected were: President, Mrs. R. A. Williams; Vice-President, Mrs. P. F. Bertrand; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. O. G. Mayfield; Council reporter, Mrs. D. Shipley; Food Demonstrator, Mrs. C. J. Parr; and yard demonstrator, Mrs. D. D. Shipley. Refreshments were served to Mrs. C. B. Smart, T. J. Heard, C. J. Parr, O. G. Mayfield, John Lloyd, W. A. Cates, P. F. Bertrand and the hostess Mrs. Elbert Parks.

The club will meet November 10 at 2:30 in the home of Mrs. F. F. Paqua.

MEET IN FAR-OFF PACIFIC

Out in the Pacific War theatre, on one of the islands over which Uncle Sam's boys are carrying on a battle with the Nips, two former Floydada schoolmates have met up and have been spending some time together, according to letters from the boys to their families here.

They are Carl L. Minor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Minor, and Bryan Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Collins. They are located some three miles apart. According to the luck of the assignment Bryan is doing 12 hours a day while Minor has had so little to do he writes the homefolks he even welcomes a bit of KP duty to relieve the monotony.

Mrs. Hudson Holmes and daughter, Anita returned to their home in Amarillo Saturday after visiting here several days with relatives and friends.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Florene Cates Has Part In College Play

Denton, Texas, Nov. 2—Miss Florene Cates of Floydada, speech major at Texas State College for Women, is currently being seen in the TSCW Little Theatre production of "Brief Music," three-act play by Emmet Lavery, which opened Wednesday (Nov. 1) in the College Theatre Workshop and will run through Saturday. Josh P. Roach is director.

Setting for the play is a woman's college, and the plot covers three years in the campus life of seven students. Miss Cates plays the part of Lovey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boren, of Corpus Christi, after a visit at Mineral Wells with their son, W. C. Boren and wife, came on to Floydada Tuesday of last week and visited friends and relatives here until Sunday, when they left returning home.

Robin Griffin, who has been stationed with a medical detachment at Mare Island, is here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Griffin on delayed travel orders enroute to New Orleans. He ranks as pharmacist third class.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Standifer and family of Littlefield, visited here Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Vernon McPeak and family.

Walter Hollums Not a Candidate For Sheriff

Last week the name of Walter Hollums was used in the newspaper of the county as a suggested write-in candidate for sheriff of Floyd county. This week he issued the following statement in connection with the matter.

"While I appreciate the fact that last week's Floyd county newspaper had me listed in advertisements as suitable material for sheriff of Floyd county, I was in no sense a candidate for the office and my name was used without my consent.

"Had I wanted the people of Floyd county to honor me with this important office I would have announced and run on the democratic ticket in the primary election.

"This is not intended as a rebuke to those who advocated my candidacy or to any who might have written my name in on the ballot. However, I think in fairness to myself I should make my position clear in the matter."

TWO FLOYDADA SOLDIERS BEGIN ARMY TRAINING AT CAMP WOLTERS, TEXAS

CAMP WOLTERS, Texas—Pvt. William Raymond Fickes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Fickes, Route 2, Floydada, Texas, and Charles Franklin Hartsell, son of H. L. Hartsell, of Route 4, Floydada, Texas, have arrived at this Infantry replacement training center to begin basic training as infantrymen. They

Former Resident Crossings Crash Victim Last Week Clippings from the San Gabriel, California, newspaper, received last week-end by Mrs. Jno. L. West here, give the news of the tragic death of a niece, Mrs. Maria D'Elia, the niece's little daughter Garidel, 3 1/2, and her captain husband Alphonse E. D'Elia, of the U. S. Army Medical corps. The family was wiped out Monday morning of last week when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Pacific Electric passenger car, according to the news dispatch. Funeral rites were held Wednesday at San Gabriel, where internment was made. Mrs. D'Elia was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will McCarty, who once made their home here, while Mr. McCarty engaged in live stock farming and in the drug business. Her grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCarty, who in pioneer days, were prominent in business and ranching here, as well as in church and civic affairs. Muncy has contracted to buy the residence of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Jones there. Pioneer minister and stockfarmer, Rev. Muncy has made his residence in Floyd county since 1896. Muncy school district was named for him. RIVAL FLY KILLERS The postwar outlook for flies is serious—for the flies—and keeps looking worse and worse, according to entomologists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. For years, pyrethrum has been known to have power to knock down flies on contact. Pyrethrum has been the basis of most fly sprays. Since the war started a new chemical, DDT, has appeared, and tests show that if sprayed on walls or screens it will kill flies more slowly but just as surely. One spraying remains effective for as long as three months. Now Federal entomologists announce that after tests of more than 250 plants for fly poisons, they have discovered a plant native to Mexico that contains a substance even more poisonous to flies, plant for plant, than pyrethrum. With three substances as rival fly killers after the war, the life of the intruding fly is likely to prove hazardous in American homes, factories, and dairy barns. Postwar homes are likely to be cleaner, more comfortable, healthier, the entomologists predict. Mrs. C. L. Joiner, of Santa Ana, California, who has been here for the past two months with her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Bagwell, left yesterday returning to her home. Be wise—Advertise.

Overseas Money Gifts Should Not be in Cash

Persons who missed the October deadline for mailing Christmas packages overseas and who plan to send a belated gift of money to Army and Navy personnel should send the money via postal money order, the Army and Navy Post offices emphasize. At many places where service men and women are stationed, it was pointed out, there is a local prohibition against the importation of U. S. currency, and cash could not be used if received. Army personnel can cash postal money orders at any APO or by presenting the order to their company mail clerk. Navy men and women present the order to their ship's mail clerk. In both cases, the money is paid in local currency at the rate of exchange in effect on the date of the presentation of the money order. As on domestic orders, there is a $100 limitation on the amount that can be sent on a single postal order. Late gift articles can also be sent Army personnel, without a written request from the service men, if they weigh less than eight ounces. However, Army post office officials say there may be no assurance of their receipt by the addressee before December 25.

Messages To Philippines Can Be Sent

Clarence Guffee, chairman of Floyd county chapter, Red Cross, received a wire this week to the effect that plans had been completed for Red Cross messages to be taken to the Philippines. One message length limited only by space both sides of form, subject to United States army overseas mail censorship, will be accepted until November 30 from relatives and friends to United States prisoners of war and United States civilian internees in the Philippines whose address is known, for delivery after they are liberated. Copies of the message form are available at the Home Service office of Mrs. E. L. Angus as well as at the office of the chairman.

AMERICA, WHAT NOW?

During the past five years the number of employees working for all state governments and all local governments has remained almost constant. Approximately 3,000,000 men and women are on the payrolls of all schools, police forces, fire departments, offices and working in other jobs handled by state and local administrations. During this same period, however, the number of federal employees, excluding the armed forces, has more than tripled. In March 1939, the total number of employees for all state and local governments was 3,138,000, and all federal employees numbered 911,000. By 1943 the number of federal employees had increased to 3,132,000, as compared to 3,070,000 employees of the entire 48 states, plus all the employees of every school district, county, village, town and city in the country. This phenomenal increase in the federal payroll has centralized in Washington many of the states and localities. Reducing these costs was the jurisdiction of the states and localities. Reducing these costs as soon as the war permits will halt this centralization and considerably lighten our tax burden.

Cotton Fields Need Harvest Hands Badly

While mild temperatures and continued dry weather favored both cotton and feed now maturing in Floyd county fields, the cry for help began to grow louder from cotton raisers of the area, who have hundreds of bales of the fleecy staple ready to gather and few harvesters. In other fields forage bundles were being rapidly put into shocks, with the supply much more ample than was anticipated early in the season and supplemented by one of the best wheat pasture prospects in years. And in still other fields the harvest of the combine maize is at a complete stop awaiting the coming of frost and drying of late maturing sucker crops. In many instances these sucker heads are bonus to the grower, unless the cold comes in with a storm that damages the fragile upper stalks. Material change in the weather is presumed to be brewing, according to forecasts but meanwhile shirtsleeve weather is the rule.

NEW MESSAGE SERVICE

Washington, D. C.—To speed transmittal of emergency messages from servicemen in France to their families at home, the American Red Cross has arranged direct communication between Red Cross field directors in France and Home Service at national headquarters here through Army radio facilities, it is disclosed. For some time after the invasion it was necessary for messages to go by way of London. Emergency messages sent through the Red Cross by families in this country to men in France will continue to be relayed through London where they are checked against the Army locator files to facilitate delivery. The messages are then forwarded by courier to France. When telegraph facilities are not available to the servicemen's nearest Red Cross field director, the message is sent to the forward area in an Army mail pouch by jeep, plane or ship. Often one or all of these are used by field directors in delivering messages to men at the front. BRYAN E. SMITH ENLISTS IN THE MERCHANT MARINE Bryan E. Smith, son of R. W. Ration Boards Are in Need of More Volunteers

War Price and Rationing Boards throughout the country are calling on 70,000 more Price Panel assistants to help during the next three months in putting over the cooperative grocer - consumer anti-inflation drive, the Office of Price Administration has announced. The 40,000 assistants now voluntarily giving part of their spare time to keeping grocers informed on price regulations are a little less than half enough to do the job during the critical months ahead, the OPA estimated. About 110,000 price panel assistants are needed. The assistants, after a brief training course under the supervision of the 6,000 community Price Panels of the United States, systematically visit retailers to explain price regulations, check existing prices, distribute price lists and collect data that district offices use to set prices at fair levels for both grocers and consumers, the OPA said. The majority of retailers have testified to the aid given them by assistants, OPA emphasized, and welcome as their protection against unfair competition by a dishonest minority of merchants and customers.

Mrs. Ralph Thacker of Corpus Christi is visiting with relatives, Mrs. R. E. Fry, Mrs. Lillie Britton and Mrs. T. J. Gilbert.

Improved Wiring Likely to Be Post-War Necessity

COLLEGE STATION—Wiring of many farm houses likely will have to be improved as new electrical equipment is obtained by farm families after the war. This statement was made by Mrs. Bernice Claytor, A. and M. Extension Service specialist in home improvement, who spoke to members of the Texas committee on the Relation of Electricity to Agriculture at a recent meeting on the college campus.

In many homes where there is electricity, lighting can be improved and outlets added for convenience in the post war period. When this time does arrive, the specialist said, the Extension Service will need to aid families in selecting equipment which will meet their needs and give them the greatest satisfaction and return for cost.

She suggested to research workers that they develop additional accessories for more convenient storage of milk in electric refrigerators. Something similar to vegetable hydrators would be welcome, she said.

Since the war, the A. and M. College Extension Service's home improvement program has shifted emphasis from buying and adding electrical equipment to efficient operation and maintenance. Mrs. Claytor reported that schools have been held during the war years to train county home demonstration agents in simple repairs such as adding plugs and repairing and splicing electric cords. Schools have been given in seven of 12 Extension districts, and others have been sought.

In conducting the schools Mrs. Claytor has had the assistance of M. R. Bentley, Extension agricultural engineer; and P. T. Montfort, research associate of the college agricultural engineering department.

In some instances, county home demonstration agents have helped rural women may out wiring of their homes and explained principles of the fuse box, facts every homemaker ought to know.

Whirlwinds On Top; Longhorns Bested 32 to 7

Floydada High School's Whirlwind squad made it for another notch in their 4-A conference drive for a chance at district honors again this year last Friday night. They won from the Lockney Longhorns 32 to 7.

But the Longhorns threw a first rate scare into the Whirlwinds when they scored with apparent ease midway of the second quarter, and made the extra point with clever deception. The score stood at 13 to 7 when the half closed.

Whirlwinds Score Early
Right off in the first quarter the Whirlwinds scored, Collins getting credit for six points and Carmack kicking for the extra counter. It looked easy for the moment but for the remainder of the quarter the Longhorn defense play tightened and it was not until the second period that Morrison carried the ball over for the second score. The kick was not good.

The Longhorns scored in quick fashion when they took the ball at their own 47-yard line. Williams, with good blocking, made it to the 17-yard stripe on an end sweep. A pass Carroll to Huggins made another 10 and Carroll made the needed seven yards for pay dirt. Williams carried the ball to score the extra point on an end play.

Hurrying to score again before the half was up the Whirlwinds lost ground on a fumble and a bad pass on mixed signals after making good gains and they had reached the 9-yard stripe when the half was up.

Floydada scored once in the third quarter. A quick mid-pass, Morrison to Bill Womack, netted 35 yards from the scrimmage line on the Lockney 40. Carmack plowed the line for the added five yards and kicked for the extra point to make the score stand at 20 to 7.

In the fourth Ralph Womack, new backfield man for the Whirlwinds, added two scores, as the Floydada boys finally began to distance their rivals. Then with the score standing at 32 to 7 and a mathematical impossibility for the Longhorns to win Coach Murry let his second string boys and reserves do their stuff. They played the Longhorns on approximately even terms for the last five minutes of the game.

Carmack kicked three times for extra point, missing one. Morrison missed one and Collins missed one.

Lockney Squad Improved
From early season reports of ragged games the Whirlwinds expected an easier win over the north Floyd county boys than they had.

Since their Paducah debacle four weeks ago the Longhorns have come a long way. Coach Hartley, who farms for a living and gives the Longhorns all the time he can, has done a good job, starting late and taking up as a substitute after the season had opened. At times the boys played championship ball but their inexperience in the clutches would nullify good gains.

Captain L. T. Barksdale of Childress Army Air field, was one of three officials from that field who handled the game.

Barcel Your Figure; Restore Youthful Curves

If you are overweight, perhaps due to over-indulgence in food and not due to any glandular disturbance, why not try this inexpensive home recipe to help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Here is a recipe that can be used inexpensively at home. Just get from your druggist 4 oz. of liquid BARCEL CONCENTRATE. Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just take 2 table-spoonsful twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your figure and lose pounds of ugly fat without back breaking exercise or starvation diet. It's easy to make and easy to take, and pleasant. Contains nothing harmful. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky weight and help regain slender, more graceful curves, return the empty bottle and get your money back.

You can get Barcel at Bishop Pharmacy

Fred Zimmerman, Jr., Now Leaves The (j. g.) Off

It's Lieut. Fred Zimmerman, Jr., now, not Lieut. (j. g.). It happened on the first of the month, his second promotion since he went to Uncle Sam's navy two years ago. And if you wanted to send him a note of congratulations and good wishes you'd send it Lieut. Fred Zimmerman, USNR, Navy 3952, Fleet Post Office, New York. You wouldn't know where that is but he does.

In a note about wanting to see The Hesperian again Fred, Jr., said probably it was his fault that he had received none recently, since he had not been giving his new addresses as he moved around. A couple of paragraphs from his letter probably would be of general interest.

Nothing To Be Friendly With

"I spent a few months over in England and roamed around quite a bit but did most of my time in London and Plymouth. The people over there were friendly but they just did not have enough to be friendly with. They are very short on food and clothing, and shorter on good weather—in the business I am in now "good weather" means clear weather with as little rain as possible. I know that back in Floyd county it often means quite the opposite. If we had had a break in the weather these past few months I am sure things would have been a lot different—we have just had too much California weather.

"For the past few months I have been "somewhere in France," several somewhere. Only wish I could write about the places I have been and the things I have seen—one of these days I will be able to tell you about them. I will just mention Paris—it is quite a place and that is expressing it mildly, it is all and more than anyone will write you about it."

Half Minute Interviews

H. G. Barber: "I'm going to try to get me a goose, too."

G. M. Bullard: "I subscribed for The Hesperian from Claude V. Hall in 1901 and haven't missed a copy yet."

SECOND SUNDAY SINGING

Second Sunday singing in Floydada this coming Sunday will be at the First Methodist church. The usual meeting hour of 2:30 will be observed, said Earl Rainer.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. McAllister have returned from a 10-day trip down-state, visiting at Glenrose, Mr. McAllister's former home. They also visited in Dallas with Mrs. McAllister's brother, Bill and Mrs. Dally, and with Mr. and Mrs. V. Williams at Fort Worth before their return.

Cpl. O. M. Watson, Jr., who had been at home on furlough visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Watson, left Saturday returning to Durham, North Carolina.

Farmer Set Up Councils to Aid G. I. Veterans

COLLEGE STATION, Nov.—Advisory Committees of farm people and technical workers to assist returning war veterans who are interested in farming have been set up in 240 Texas counties, and their aggregate membership now numbers more than a thousand, according to Joe L. Matthews, assistant in agricultural planning for the A. and M. College Extension service.

These committees are concerned only with men who want to farm and seek assistance and, probably these won't constitute more than 10 or 15 per cent of the total in uniform, Matthews explains. Several committees are contacting service men from their counties offering assistance, and in one instance 90 per cent of more than 2,000 men received questionnaires on their plans with replies received for more than half.

Rusk County sent letters to more than 3,000 service men, and similar work has been done by numerous other counties, including Eastland, and Midland. Committees now are gathering such information to furnish veterans as amount of capital required for purchase and leasing of farms and ranches and sources of credit, size of units necessary to maintain satisfactory standards of living and equitable partnership and rental agreements.

In most instances, these advisory committees are sub-committees of County Agricultural Victory Councils, and county agricultural agents serve as their secretaries as well as giving advice which comes within the province of their usual official duties, Matthews explains. Under an arrangement between the War Food Administration and the Selective Service organization, returning veterans interested in agriculture are referred to county Extension agents for assistance.

Matthews says he finds wives and mothers of service men alert to after-the-war adjustments, and many home demonstration councils and clubs now are studying the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Armand Cardinal Now Stationed At Seattle Hospital

Armand L. Cardinal, a Floyd county boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand R. Cardinal, of Grand Prairie, in a recent letter speaks interestingly of his experiences in the navy, principally about his job in a Seattle Naval hospital and his surroundings there. He says in part: I am sorry that I have failed to write you before this but it just seemed as though I could never find the time.

I am now on the staff of the hospital here in Seattle. I am on Ward 1, which is bone surgery. It is very interesting work, although some of it is rather unpleasant.

All there is on this compound is the hospital. Half of the patients are marine war casualties. About three-fourths of all the patients are war casualties.

I am feeling fine and enjoying my work very much. The only thing that is unpleasant that I have to work 14 hours about every other day.

You should have my graduation diploma by now. I had a friend of mine mail it from Farragut.

From now on out I will not have as much free time as before, but I will write whenever I have a chance.

I have liberty every other night and every other week-end. But you may rest assured that I will not take all of them because I can't and still do my work right.

We did not get paid last time and won't until November 5. I am so near broke, it isn't even funny.

We have no place to wash our own clothes here and have to send them to the laundry which does not break my heart any.

SAM BREWER MAKING MOVE TO ARKANSAS FROM ELECTRA

Sam E. Brewer, former resident of Floyd county, who moved to Electra to enter the dairy business and stockfarming, is making another move, relatives here learn.

Next Tuesday he will have an auction sale closing out his personal holdings there and is moving to Fayetteville, Arkansas, where the family plans to make their home.

Montgomery's Initial Mission Called 'Flakful'

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBARDIER received his baptism in a recent battle over the Ruhr in the first Air Force Bomber attack on the Peckle Wulf fighter plane factory in Bremen, Germany, second lieutenant Joe D. Montgomery, 26, Floydada, co-pilot on a B-17 Flying Fortress, returned to describe his initial mission as "flakful."

Lieutenant Montgomery remarked that the flak started as soon as we were over Nazi territory, but, by the time we were able to drop our bombs, we were able to drop most of it.

Montgomery is a member of the 8th Air Force Bomber crew commanded by Captain Frank P. Bostrom, of Bangor, Me., one of the many that are returning to the United States after participating in the strategic bombing of Germany.

The bomber's mother is Mrs. Mary D. Montgomery, of Floydada, and his father is Mr. J. B. Montgomery, of Anchorage, Alaska. Prior to entering the army air forces in October, 1942, Lt. Montgomery was employed by the U. S. Engineers, in charge.

Awarded Air Medal

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBARDIER, Lieutenant Joe D. Montgomery, 26, of Floydada, Texas, has been awarded the Air Medal for "courage, coolness and skill" displayed on a bombing mission over Nazi Europe. The man is co-pilot on the Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress crew commanded by Colonel Frank P. Bostrom, of Bangor, Me.

Mrs. Shirey Hostess for Needle Club

The Blue Bonnet Needle club met Thursday, Nov. 2 at the home of Mrs. G. N. Shirey with Mrs. Shirey as hostess. A lovely luncheon was served to the following members: Joe Kendrick, Helen Irene Dorrell, Cecil Pyffe, Ruth Kendrick, Pansy Finley, Bessie Ann, Juanita Wiedner, Ethel Albin, Ruth Christian, Jessie Roberts, Fred Puqua, Julia Baker, Bessie Dorley Dorrell, and the hostess, Mrs. G. N. Shirey.

The club adjourned to meet November 16 with Mrs. W. D. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gilbert of Ft. Worth are the parents of a baby girl born in the Guthrie Hospital November 1, 1944. The baby weighed 6 lb. 10 oz. Her mother is the former Pauline Stovall. The grandparents are Mrs. E. P. Stovall and Mr. F. J. Gilbert, both of Floydada.

Do You Have A Little Black Book?

Dear Customer:

Recently I read about a talk given by the famous Elmer Wheeler on the "Little Black Book." This is a book in which he keeps a list of all the discourtesies, insults, impolitesses and bad service rendered by business under the excuse of "There is a war on."

I believe that practically every man has a "Little Black Book" (I mean a mental, not a physical one) of the fellows who say "What? referring your car, why that's ridiculous" or "Take it or leave it," or "If I don't like it, lump it," or "There is a war on."

Frankly, we know that we do not give you the service you expect. Quite frequently it is bad, some times it is down right "lousy." Perhaps we fall down on making repairs on time, but one thing we do do is to sit back and ask, "What do you expect?" or "That's the best we can do when there is a war on."

Tell the honest truth, we do not want to be listed in your "Little Black Book." As far as the Bishop Motor Co. is concerned, there is no "Limitation" or a "Prorogation" on consideration, courtesy, or operation.

We value your good will and appreciate your business, not only in the past when we had a hard time getting the merchandise we could get, but we appreciate it now at the present when selling it is easier than buying, realizing at the same time that future years will bring on the days when we will have to work hard to sell the merchandise that we can get. The fact is we want to give you the same type of service now that we tried to render in the past and intend to render you in the future. We appreciate making sales now the same as we did in the past.

If you want to feel free to make complaints when you have them, we will be glad to hear from you now as in the past. We do not think that we are trying to dodge the complaints you might have just because there is a war on. You feel that we are doing our best to take care of you, we want you to let us know about it and we will rectify it to the best of our ability, because, like stated above, we want to go through the "Duration" in such a way that you will not be in your "Little Black Book," and that we have a mental note in your mind that we are one of the firms that you want to continue doing business with. To these ends each of our organization pledges himself.

Sauerkraut is an economical and good source of vitamin C. The lactic acid and fiber content of kraut aid digestion. Since a small amount of salt is used it does not have to be soaked out. Therefore, the minerals and most of the vitamins found in the fresh vegetables are found in kraut.

Sauerruben (or turnip kraut) is made with shredded turnips fermented. Fall varieties of turnips are better for sauerkraut than spring ones. Purple top is the best variety. Use medium sized turnips. Wash in cold water, remove top and root and any blemishes. Shred and mix with salt. Use 2 ounces of salt (6 tablespoons of table salt) for each 5 pounds of turnips. Too much salt prevents fermentation, and not enough causes soft kraut or spoilage. Shred the turnips directly into the jar. Contact with air reduces the amount of vitamin C.

A two gallon jar will hold about 12 pounds of kraut. Mix salt thoroughly, uneven distribution may cause red streaks in kraut. If more than 5 lbs. are to be used in one crock, continue mixing salt with turnips as they are shredded.

Do not bruise or beat turnips in mixing. Keep shredded turnips under brine. If kraut is dry, and sufficient brine does not form to cover in a day or two, add brine. Use 1 teaspoon salt to a cup of salt water. Temperatures best for curing kraut are between 70 and 85° F. Too low temperatures retard fermentation and too high temperatures cause rosy brine and soft or slimy kraut. Ten days to three weeks are required for fermentation.

To can pack the kraut into glass jars or plain tin cans. Steam 10 minutes and water bath 15 minutes. Cabbage kraut may be made by this same method.

Donald Cornelius Makes Ready For Foreign Duty

ALEXANDRIA, La., Oct. 30—2nd Lt. Donald Cornelius, navigator, of Floydada, Texas, will soon complete an intensive course in combat flying at the Alexandria Army Air Field at Alexandria, La., and in the near future he will go overseas to a combat area.

He is the member of a Flying Fortress crew trained by the Second Army Air Force, which has the task of reading four-engine bomber crews for overseas duty.

Listed among the instructors at the Alexandria Army Air Field are many officers and enlisted men who have seen action in every theatre of war. These veterans direct crews through training conditions that simulate actual combat stressing teamwork, formation flying and high altitude missions.

The 20-year-old navigator attended Texas Technological college at Lubbock, Texas for two years. He is the son of Ermin L. Cornelius, 120 E. California street, Floydada, Texas.

Election—

(Continued from First Page) in the state as a whole, but two amendments are reported as carrying in the state as a whole, but two failed to carry in this county.

The municipal pension plan lost here 319 to 378, the state pension plan 310 to 389. The tax reallocation proposal carried 334 to 226.

The last-minute write-in for "another man for sheriff" proved to be a dud. One hundred five ballots carried a write-in candidate.

with 2108 registered for the Democratic nominee, Lee Howard.

Usually the general election returns are canvassed by the Commissioners' court in their first regular meeting which comes on Monday, and it was assumed yesterday that this formality would take its usual course this year.

The Republican ticket carried one box in the county—Providence—where a sizeable Texas Regulars vote was also cast. Cedar, West Lockney, Aiken, Sterley, Northeast Floydada, were among the precincts which cast sizable votes in protest.
