

NOW ... The Fight For Peace

PROTECT THE SPIRIT OF PEACE!

THIS IS THE DAY ... to sing a song of victory to the United Nations ... to give reverent thanks for the determination of our fighting men in defeating the oppressors of mankind. THIS IS THE DAY ... when the dove, emblem of the Holy Spirit, hovers above to instill in our hearts, hope of a lasting peace. But, hope and prayer must be accompanied by cooperative and zealous effort directed at this objective. Let each of us dedicate ourselves to this goal.

A BETTER WORLD FOR ALL OF US...

It's here ... the suspense, the waiting is over. A mother closes her eyes and offers a silent prayer of thanksgiving. A young wife sits, clinching and unclenching her hands, filled with a new sense of excitement. "Now, we can really plan ..." she thinks ... "The horrible IF is gone ..." Now we can really plan. Yes, and plan we must ... all of us, those whose boys have come back and those whose boys have gone to a greater reward. We must keep this peace they've fought for. We must build it and strengthen it. May God grant us the wisdom.

A BRIGHTER WORLD AHEAD

Peace! Peace on earth and goodwill to man! The surge of overwhelming happiness in every city, in each small village; the deep satisfaction of accomplishment of men and women all over the world. It rises as a heat wave above a summer road to reverberate again and again between earth and sky. It's done! Peace is ours! Peace that we will see and enjoy in our own time!

HOMAGE TO OUR FALLEN HEROES

It has been long violated, long fought for, throughout the history of man. Let us resolve, now, while the blood of our sons and husbands and brothers is still red upon the battlefields, to so conduct our lives and our businesses and our country that our children and all their descendants shall know no world but a peaceful world.

HAVE FAITH IN THE WORLD TO COME

The first faint rays of a more golden sun strike the shrill church spire, and reflect upon a world at Peace. A little girl laughs her enchantment into the wind, and it carries to a world at Peace. All up and down the little street people are making poetry of the commonplace chores, and singing bits of long forgotten tunes, as the old dreams revitalize themselves. Here, in the long awaited hour comes the benediction from the hand of the Prince of Peace.

PEACE BEGINS AT HOME!

And so it comes, the GREAT DAY ... a new beginning for a good, bad old world who leaves the prison gate a reformed character, solemnly promising to "go straight" from now on! Let us realize that the reformer must take place in each of us ... in our daily thought of others, be they in our block, or on the other side of the earth. This can be the age of reason and of normal human sympathy ... an age in which we see each people as a unique contributor to the better life of all the people.

Home Making Projects of Girls Put on Display

Home making girls' summer project work has yielded a very nice return in the way of sewing, canning, embroidery, crocheting and other various forms of homemaking. About 40 FHS girls have participated in this interesting summer work, which will count as credits toward graduation. These projects consist of at least 100 hours in various things such as, sewing, cooking, canning, gardening, re-decorating homes, and part time work on farms and in the stores.

Dresses Shown in Windows
Displays in the various stores were very nicely shown, and the names of the girls who made the different items were attached to the garments, or pasted onto the jars of canned stuff. In the Parker Furniture window were shown dresses, jumpers, skirts, play suits and blouses, made by Jeanne Batten, Jane Whitaker, Leslie Jo Crabtree, Wanda Pricer, Mava Merle Smith, Bessie May Morrison, Margaret Green and Doris Vinson. Other names were hidden from the public eye, which if said reporter fails to mention some home-loving girl, please forgive this time. The displays were really marvelous. The garments were made of such materials as dotted voiles, dotted swiss, prints and woolsens.

Special Articles Shown
In the J. C. Penny windows were dresses, blouses, baby garments, and embroidery also crocheted and other novelties. The girls accredited with this nice display were named: Rita Robinson, Ruth Reddy, Jeanne Batten, Wanda Price, Billis Sisson, Leba Jean Gibson, Joy Lambert and Wilma Dyer. Special attention articles were baby jackets, dresses and slips made by Miss Sybil Roe, a green checked tissue gingham dress made by Miss Jean Warren, a checked black and white skirt (woolen) made by Eureka Joy Kirk, and a beautiful set of cup towels for each day of the week made by Miss Betty Muncey.

In the Southwestern Public Service window such articles as a bright colored sun suit made of jersey material, made by Wilma Dyer; printed aprons and a peasant scarf by Betty Muncey. Quite an attractive tablecloth was designed and made by Wanda Pricer, all finger work, with a purple, green and yellow border blended into one piece to form the border, also a fringed cloth was made by the same girl. Miss Emma Goe is accredited with a lovely embroidered scarf, with a crocheted edge, also a child's dress of printed striped percale. Ruth Reddy a nice buffet set, embroidered, and a crocheted edge. Joyce Porter produced a lovely pair of pillow slips with a lace edge whipped on.

Many Canned Foods
In the Community Canning center, which is a Government project, and with Mrs. W. C. Sims in charge, had the canning display in their window next door to the Southwestern Public Service office. Here we found lovely jars of tomatoes, beet pickles, green beans and peas, also jelly canned by Sybil Roe, peaches, green beans and jelly by Joyce Porter, peaches by Jean Batten, peaches by Betty Lou Tye, plums, peaches and berries by Sybil Russell, peaches and sweet pickled peaches by Olive Gross, and cucumber pickles and oars by Inez Cantrell.

These accomplishments have all been done in the home during the summer months.

H. E. Whitaker Is Awarded Medals

Staff Sergeant Howard E. Whitaker, son of Mr. H. E. Whitaker, sr., Rt. 1, Floydada, Texas, was presented the Combat Infantry badge and European Theatre of Operations ribbon, with six campaign stars, August 31, 1945, at Brooke Convalescent hospital, Brooke hospital center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he is a patient.

Whitaker entered the Army November 20, 1942, and served twenty three months overseas as a member of "M" company, 26th Infantry regiment, 1st division, and was in Alaska with the 5th Division. He also has the American Theater of Operations ribbon, Good Conduct medal, and Distinguished Unit badge, with Oak Leaf cluster. He was previously awarded the Bronze Star for heroic or meritorious service in combat.

Whitaker related: "I was awarded the Bronze Star for action on 'D-Day,' June 6, 1944, at the Normandy invasion. I was a section leader at the time and two German machinegun positions were holding us up, and I led my men in assaulting and destroying the positions so we could continue our advance."

Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Switzer left yesterday morning to return to Camp, Swift, Texas, after visiting here since Sunday.

May Fever Sneezers in Spotlight To Choose Up Sides

John A. Hollums, who thinks he is the best hay fever sneezer in Floydada, but feels that Dee W. Fyffe also is good, wants to choose up sides and have a sneezing contest in Floydada Saturday afternoon.

Without consulting Mr. Fyffe and just making it a form of a challenge, Mr. Hollums says if he can get about two or three above the average men on his side he's got a cinch. The kind of weeds and flowers that are blooming now have got him in his top sneezing form, Hollums says, and he thinks if he can get Fyffe to toe the mark with what he considers a bunch of good helpers it will be an easy win.

"Fyffe is a fair to good sneezer but he will need some high point men on his side or he won't stand any chance," Hollums declared as he began lining his men up for the event.

Those who attend are asked to bring nosebags of broom weed, rag weed or other freshly blossomed weeds with lots of pollen.

Unusual Hen Has Perpetual Yen to Mother Chicks

A Rhode Island red mother hen belonging to Mrs. C. E. Bartlett, has been trained to mother from 50 to 75 chickens at a time. She carries these until they are fryers then Mrs. Bartlett will take these from her and give her another bunch of baby chicks.

Last Monday Mrs. Bartlett took 40 fryers from the hen and replaced them with 50 baby Rhode Island red chickens.

In the past three years this mother hen has raised 450 chickens of different varieties. She sets once a year. The rest of the year she raises bunches of chickens. She weighs 8 pounds. This hen lays, sings and clucks to her chickens 8 months out of the year.

Indicts One In Hillin Death

Ruel Griffin of Crosbyton was indicted by Crosby County grand jury last week charged with the fatal wounding of Lonnie Hillin, 31 year old son of Sheriff and Mrs. Hillin of Crosby county, on August 15. Hillin was hurt in a quarrel and fight after a group of men had spent the afternoon in a Crosbyton residence, playing games.

Griffin was ordered held without bond to await trial in district court. The jury deliberated for three full days. State Rangers took over the preliminary investigation in a few hours after the body was found in a bar ditch four and a half miles west of Crosbyton, early of the morning of August 16, by Sheriff Hillin himself. A second Crosbyton man was held for several hours, before being released, and all the men who had been engaged in the games were questioned by the Rangers.

Young Hillin was buried in Falls, Texas, August 18, leaving his widow and a 10 months old daughter Marion Kay, also a daughter by a former marriage, Peggy Jean, 10 years of age, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Hillin, of Crosbyton.
