Social Security Board Manager Points to Benefits for Workers and Survivors Under New Law

Wednesday, John Palmer, manager of the Social Security board in Lubbock, was in Floydada for the purpose of assisting persons who had questions regarding social security, or who wished to file a claim for social security benefits, or who needed social security account number cards.

Sometimes young widows, aged parents, and orphans do not know they are eligible for benefits and lose money through delay in filing their claims, Mr. Palmer said.

In addition to the monthly old-age benefits payable to the insured worker himself at age 65 or after, the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance system provides for monthly benefits to members of his family. Benefits are also payable to his family at his death, whatever his age.

A safe rule is this: When in doubt about your right to old-age and survivors insurance benefits, visit the local office of the social security board. No matter where you work or live, you're probably not very far from a social security board field office or from one of its part-time service points.

The Social Security Board field office servicing this area is located at 1311 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Palmer plans to be back in Floydada March 27.

Scramble For Homes

Apparently veterans as well as the run of nine civilians of Floyd county are of about the same opinion on the housing situation. Their actions indicate they think that what they get done about roofs over their respective families' heads will be what they do themselves. Souds and fury at Washington and in regional offices where the government uplifters are busily re-doing the lives of the people will only make it more difficult for citizens in communities the size of Floydada to get housing, is the belief freely expressed on the streets, and in responsible quarters here as well.

Hauling From Everywhere
Although lumber yards have only a small per cent of the things the home builders need, especially in doors and windows and flooring, they are going ahead, finding this here and that there to go ahead with construction. Plumbing supplies also have been a bottle neck.

One solution found by many is the purchase of old houses. These are moved to the location chosen and the work of re-doing gets under way. Twenty or more such jobs are under way now, and numerous repair jobs are still hanging fire that were started in the early fall, families meanwhile using the houses with what inconveniences they may have to put up with.

Permits issued since January 1 at the city hall are as follows:
Mrs. R. F. Luttrell, repairs, Lot 11, Block 48, $104.

Freda M. Fawver, residence, Lot 10 in Block H, Andrews, $1,000.

PRETTY FAIR SUBSTITUTE

Although the probability of a general paving program, of permanent materials and engineering to grade and drainage structure, seems out of the picture in Floydada for the present, because of a considerable number of things including a tight material situation, inadequate construction machinery and shortage of materials—although the permanent paving program hasn't got very far the folks—and the city is going with them—have found a pretty fair substitute until they can do better.

We refer to the gravel and clay that is being laid in various parts of the city. Today there has been finished at least 22 blocks of this type of surfacing. It gets the job done very nicely for most any kind of weather we are having. The first few blocks laid took some pretty bad weather and carried the traffic nicely. Then followed the gravel and clay on the streets of the schools which also stood up well. Others are following suit. Makes a fair street out of streets that couldn't have been called streets except that's the only name there was available for use in polite society.

NEED FOR MANY THINGS

Need for many things is noted so that the municipality of Floydada can keep up with the progress of the community otherwise, which may account for the fact that the youngsters and some of their elders don't see as fast action as they would like on a swimming pool.

Actually, it might not be possible to put a swimming pool into operation for this season should the matter get the approval of the citizens by way of a bond issue tomorrow. Apparently, in any kind of construction there are bottle necks nowadays that you can't get around.

However, we haven't seen an idea advanced that "caught on" with the general public so completely in any way as that of a municipal swimming pool. The youngsters, of course, who don't count the cost, but not only these but the people around over the country, who live about as near the court house now as any of the rest of us since tire and gas rationing is over again.

It hadn't occurred to us that such would be the case. We had thought of several "must" items for the city, among them a more adequate water supply, better streets, and better market streets, probably extensions to the water sewer and light systems, all of which would cost real money. But the idea of a swimming pool has caught on and there it goes to be a "right sharp" or disappointment if it doesn't materialize.

FLOUR IN THE KITCHEN

If you note that mamma has more flour in the kitchen than she formerly had you can credit the report that there is to be a type of flour rationing with "black" bread as one of the probabilities.

Whether or not the report is true the folks are so used to the kind of flour or bread they want and so out of humor with the idea that there is any shortage of flour that they won't consider it any particular dishonor to try to "take care" of their own households against the interim between now and a crop.

The fact is that most everybody knows where there is enough wheat in their own or some neighboring community to last that particular area for a good, long while, and they will be inclined to wonder, too, how the "shortage" comes about in their particular part of the world instead of some other, as for instance, in the northern states.

Anyway, call it selfish or not there is more flour in Floyd county homes than for a good time. If it turns out that the baker can't deliver the folks their white bread they'll have a little of their own when pap and the kids put up a holler.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

By the time this is in print, the second leaf of the calendar will be torn off and thrown away as waste. No more important are the days of February, only as history. The days have all been numbered, the good and the bad, the cold and the warm, the dry and the wet. Days to be looked back on and not forward to. March will have come in before many of you read this. Will it be meek like a good Mary's little lamb? Or will it come in with a roar as strong as a lion's in Ringling's show?

We know what has happened in the month just laid by, but we cannot see into the one that is coming right straight down the year's track that is beginning to get a little rough with the wheels of the two traveling months.

Several nice letters in the mail the past week. One from Mrs. Jim Jester of Montague who sends a delightful story of a pair of red birds who build near their house, a story I have enjoyed very much. Mrs. Arthur Cooper of Goodland, Kansas, writes a friendly letter and sends me some poems and cute sayings of children.

"Dorothy, the little daughter of Dr. Albert Traweck, Jr., of Mata-dora," she writes, "has inherited plenty of the brains of that pioneer Motley county family. Her mother bought an old red hen for the next Sundays dinner, but Dorothy took a great fancy to the fowl and begged to keep her as a pet. Her mother refused. 'But wouldn't you let me keep her if she laid eggs for us?' asked the little girl.

"Oh, perhaps," replied the weary mother, 'but she won't lay. She's just an old cull.'

The very next morning Dorothy caught her mother's hand and led her out to the red hen's coop. There in plain sight was not one—but two eggs—big white Leghorn eggs, stamped "Guaranteed Infertile."

Also a letter from Mrs. Von Soden of Los Angeles who is writing a book of the Hereford Country in early days in the form of fiction. Well, as to getting letters, I am just like you, thrilled to death, but as to answering I am also like you—answering in my mind for days and put off putting the letter on paper.

Many diseases have changed their names since I was a child. Then one doubled up in a knot with cramp colic. Now he has the knot cut off his intestines and brags of his "operation for appendicitis". Then one put hot stove caps to neuralgia in the temple or face and took anti-kamnia pills. Now his sinuses are infected, and he waits in a doctor's office.

A vial of laudanum was hung on a high nail for emergencies of an aching tooth. Now a dentist takes over. Mastoids did not bother my father and mother, but grandpa was kept busy smoking his pipe and blowing warm smoke down a squalling youngster's ear. I have lived and learned that pain is pain and no matter by what name the disease is called, pain is still the same old fashioned pain.

From the St. Jo Herald of 1877, the reading public learned of the unusual qualities of Mustang liniment. "The enemy of disease, the foe of pain for man or beast." It was reputed that there was not one sore it would not heal, no lameness it would not cure, no ache that afflicted the body of man or horse or other domestic animal, that would not yield to its magic touch.

And do you remember "Lightning Oil"? Our family does because little two year-old brother, Joe, took a good drink of this strong liniment and Dr. Carter told mother and father if he ever went to sleep all our efforts would not avail to wake him up. All of us stood around where father held him outside in the cool air, dancing, singing, laughing, calling, anything to attract his attention till the deadly medicine had time to pass off.

Poem of the week... "The Power of Little Things," by Frances Ridley Havergal.

The memory of a kindly word
For long gone by,
The fragrance of a fading flower
Sent lovingly,
The gleaming of a sudden smile
Or sudden tear,
The warm pressure of the hand
The tone of cheer,
The note that only bears a verse
From God's own Word—
Such tiny things we hardly count
As ministry,
The givers deeming they have shown Scant sympathy;
But when the heart is overwrought
Oh, who can tell
The power of such tiny things
To make it well!

Good thoughts for the week!
From book, "Charles E. Cowman," by Mrs. Cowman.

1. "A man who walks with God always gets to his destination."
2. "Does it pay to be a Christian?" was frequently asked him. (Charles Cowman, the Missionary—Warrior) And Mrs. Sowan answers for him "Does it pay for the river to scatter blessings along its course? Does it pay for the rose to fling its sweet-ness to the world? Does it pay the wheat to grow and feed the hungry millions?"

"It does pay a thousandfold to live a life that counts and it may be lived in the hardest place, but that life is not found on a bargain table."

The Panhandle-Plains and Southeastern New Mexico area is made to order for raising sorghums and many an enterprising farmer has found how easy it is to make new income from this much-demanded product. Extensive tests have been made and experts tell us that sorghums grown in this territory can't be beat. Heavy beef is being profitably finished on these fine sorghums. The climate and soil conditions here are ideal for sorghum—and a lot of other agricultural products for that matter.

Yes, the Panhandle-Plains and Pecos Valley area has everything—including plenty of dependable, low cost electricity for irrigation, water pumping, milking and scores of other farm uses.

Fill Them Out Yourself, Urges Collector of Internal Revenue

Acting Collector of Internal Revenue H. E. Arnold believes that the greatly simplified income tax returns currently in use can be filled out by most any taxpayer who will read and study the returns, and he points out the satisfaction a taxpayer can get from doing this job for himself. A statement issued Sunday by Mr. Arnold is as follows: Present income tax law requires that an individual income tax return be filed by everyone who had $500 or more of income during the year 1945. However, the main thing I want to mention is how to go about filling in your return. I urge you, with the deepest sincerity and good will, to try to fill out your return by yourself. If you do this you should have a certain feeling of satisfaction and it can be done if you will read carefully the forms and instructions. In urging you to fill out your return as far as possible, I wish to remind you that income tax blanks have been vastly simplified since 1944. My earnest advice is that you tackle your own return as soon as possible and by yourself. In most instances you will need no assistance if you follow the directions on the forms. By doing this, you will enable this office to aid thousands of returned veterans who are in great need of aid due to the fact that many of them have not filed returns for the past several years. However, if, after you have tried to prepare your return, you have questions or need advice, the local office of the collector of Internal Revenue will try its best to furnish you prompt, courteous, and efficient service.

Side Lights From Washington

(By George Mahon)

By George Mahon

This is being written on George Washington's birthday and shortly after the reading in the House of Representatives of Washington's Farewell Address, an annual custom. I think the Father of our Country would approve the action we took in Congress yesterday in passing overwhelmingly a bill designed to curb the actions of James Caesar Petrella, head of the Musicians Union. You will remember that this is the man who in recent years has set himself up as the dictator in the field of music. On one occasion, he refused to permit the broadcasting of a special program at a National Cemetery in Virginia, commemorating Memorial Day, because a U. S. Army band furnished the music. He demanded $2,800 of one of the Washington theatres because some young women who were members of the armed forces were allowed to put on a home-talent play at a program sponsoring the sale of war bonds. He stopped a home-talent program for crippled children on one occasion. These and other unreasonable actions by Mr. Petrella have brought down the wrath of the people upon his head. The general public, as well as labor unions whose cause has been unfairly injured by the unwise actions of Petrella, will, no doubt, be glad to see Caesar's wings clipped.

Curtis Simmons See Switzerland Resort Mountain Country

Sgt. Curtis Simmons, daughter of W. S. Simmons of this city, who is stationed in Wiesbaden, Germany has been to Switzerland on a seven-day furlough to the resort mountain country, where she went on conducted tours to the principal cities and scenic localities, participated in winter sports, took pictures of the million dollar scenery, and enjoyed the same hospitality accorded prewar American tourists. Sgt. Simmons is now serving in the States Air forces in Europe, the organization that will police the American zone of Germany from the air. She is a graduate of Lockney High school and was employed as a teacher by the South Plains school up to the time of her enlistment. She is now a veteran of 22 months in the ETO.

GUARANTEE BUILDING LOANS

(American Red Cross News Service) Amendment to the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 (GI Bill) liberalizes provisions relating to GI loans. These loans may now be made by any lending agency which is subject to examination and supervision by a government agency. A loan becomes automatically guaranteed if the veteran and the lending agency close the deal, the terms being in accord with the provisions of the Act. The only other requirement is that the cost does not exceed the appraisal made by an appraiser designated by the Veterans Administration. Loans made by individual lenders (not falling in the class of approved institutions listed above) must obtain prior approval by the Veterans Administration in order for the loan to be guaranteed. The appraised value under the new law must not exceed the "reasonable value" of the property while under the old law the appraisal value could not exceed the "reasonable normal value thereof." Any loan on real estate may be guaranteed up to a maximum of $4,000 of the loan as compared with a $2,000 limit under previous law. The government guarantee remains at 50% of the total loan up to the maximum amount. The business loan guarantee limit remains at $2,000 or 50%. Real estate loans may be retired over a period up to 25 years, and farm realty loans up to 40 years. Maturity on non-real estate loans may not exceed ten years. Proceeds of loan may be used to purchase a lot in connection with home construction. Provisions of the Act are liberalized so that loans may be made for all ordinary farming purposes, for any normal business enterprise, and so that existing indebtedness in default may be refinanced in connection with all types of eligible loans. The first Allied troops to land on Continental Europe in World War II was the all Texas 36th Division.

MRS. STILES IS PROGRAM LEADER AT CLUB MEETING

Friendship Home Demonstration club met last Thursday afternoon in the kitchen of the agricultural building with Mrs. George Stiles as hostess.

Mrs. Stiles gave "A Woman's morning prayer" by Grace Noll Crowell as the opening exercise. Mrs. Mal Jarboe gave the council report. Names were drawn for secret pals. Identity of pals are to be revealed at the Christmas party. An interesting program was given on "West Texas trees and their characteristics" by Mrs. W. E. Barnes. A report on "Suitable shrubbery" was given by Mrs. Lee Rushing.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames Lee Rushing, Mal Jarboe, F. O. Connor, R. M. Stovall, R. H. Ashton, W. E. Barnes, and the hostess George Stiles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bishop left today for Grand Prairie and also Cedar Hill to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore a sister of Mr. Bishop.

NEWSPAPERS HELP

CHICAGO—Bishop J. Ralph Magee (center) credited the nation's press as indispensable in the attainment of the Methodist goal of $25,000,000 for postwar relief and reconstruction. Meeting with Treasurer Thomas B. Lugg (right) and Associate Director J. Manning Potts, all of Chicago, to announce the remittance which brought the cash receipts up to 25 million dollars, Bishop Magee, director of the Crusade for Christ, joins in an inspection of campaign clippings.

"The Church is extremely appreciative for the help of the country's 12,000 newspapers," Bishop Magee said. "I am impressed that America should be continuously grateful to the press for its constant help in interpreting and promoting civic and humanitarian movements."

The Methodist relief fund, toward which a total of $27,757,718 was subscribed, is thought to be the largest sum ever to be raised within a year for a comparable purpose by a religious group.

RUTS DOMINATE THINKING, SAYS 'BOSS' KETTERING; SEEKS RUT-FREE MINDS

"What I'm looking for just now," writes Charles F. "Boss" Kettering in the Rotarian magazine, "is some finely educated person who will write a treatise on 'The Theory of Rutology.' In it I want him to tell all that is known about ruts—when to stay in them, when to get out, and, if getting out, how to do so without wrecking everything."

Kettering, whose inventions run from automotive starters to iceboxes and on to fever machines—he is director of research for General Motors—does not object to ruts because they make roads rough, but because they make roads easy by staying in them.

Even the war, thinks Kettering, only provided a change of ruts. "War hit us at an intersection," he says, "and jolted us out. Then we quickly went to work and made some more (ruts)—particularly in our postwar thinking."

LAMPS TO KILL INSECTS

A new use for germicidal lamps, to kill insects of fruits and vegetables, may be on its way.

We have known for some time that ultra-violet will kill moulds and keep fresh fruit in better condition during shipping. Now fruit men in Fresno County, California, have found that the ray will also kill certain insects, whether on fruit itself, or on leaves and stems.

Fresno County people frankly admit they don't know all the answers, but the possibility of killing injurious insects must interest both producers and consumers. Experiment Stations, electric companies, nurserymen, and packers are going to do further testing.—Farm Journal.

The lady of the house was entertaining her bridge club friends when the pattering of tiny feet was heard on the stairs. She raised her hand for silence.

"Hush," she cooed softly, "the children are about to deliver their good-night message. It always gives me such a humble feeling to hear them . . . Listen!"

There was a moment of silence—then shyly:

"Mamma, Willie found a bedbug!"

Youth: "There's a very important question I've been wanting to ask you for days and days."

Girl: "Go right ahead, I've had the answer ready for months and months."

'SHEER ECONOMIC GIANTISM'

"We have moved into an economy of 'bigness'—sheer economic giantism," said Secretary of Agriculture Anderson in a recent address.

"By means of power, machines, modern mass-production and mass-sales methods, plus great accumulations of capital," he continued, "massive corporations have come to control or command huge shares of our national resources, our manufacturing capacity, and our distribution system. This concentration of economic power has moved steadily ahead during this century. It was estimated in 1930 that some 200 corporations controlled half of the industrial wealth of the United States. In 1929 the top 12 percent of the manufacturing enterprises in the country employed nearly half of the wage earners and turned out fully half of our manufactures. The war has accentuated, if anything, the sweep of the curve toward bigness and concentration. By 1942 the 200 largest manufacturing corporations controlled 44 percent of the total assets of all manufacturing corporations and 58 percent of the net capital assets of such corporations."

NOTICE CHICKEN OWNERS

City of Floydada has an ordinance prohibiting chickens running at large in the community.

We are getting many complaints now from people who say your chickens are ruining their gardens, flower beds, grass and shrubs.

You will have to keep your chickens up to keep from imposing on your neighbors. Please give this your attention so that we will not have to use the city's authority to force you to comply with the ordinance.

HOW SCIENTISTS WORK

Have you ever wondered how scientists actually work out a research problem? The story of an effort to find a superior seed disinfectant was told me the other day by a friend in the United States Rubber Company. First one or more tests were made with 2,088 new chemicals. Of this large number 568 showed some ability to kill fungi on glass slides. Since a dead microscopic fungus on a glass slide doesn't mean that the chemical will kill the same critter in the field, that was merely a start. Further laboratory tests found that 539 of the 568 chemicals would disinfect barley seed; but that was still in the laboratory. When tried in green-house soil only 69 of the chemicals disinfected the seed. Of the 69, only ten were any good in economical sized doses. Out of these ten, only four were effective on different types of seeds. When the first year's work was done only two, of the 2,088 with which a start was made, seemed to be promising in field tests. The field tests will take one to three years. If one of the two still left performs well in field tests, it will be sent to state Experiment Stations for final approval. Some four to nine years after the start, the disinfectant will be ready to offer to farmers for general use. No wonder they speak of the patient scientists!—Wheeler McMillen.

WILL LAND BOOM CONTINUE?

By late 1945, farm real estate values continuing their upward movement had reached an average on November 1, less than one-fourth below the 1930 inflation peak, according to reports to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The market is active, says the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, with preliminary figures for transfers in the last quarter running higher than for the same period in 1944, but not so high as for the fall and winter of 1943. "The principal influences tending to curb more rapid advances," says the Bureau report, "include the expectation that farm prices and incomes may not long continue at war-time levels; and cautious attitudes stemming from a recollection of the World War I land boom and the collapse in land values that followed." The BAE index of the average value per acre for farm real estate is based on the 1912-14 values as 100. For Nov. 1, 1945 the index stood at 137, a rise of 11 percent in the previous year, and a rise of 2 percent in the previous four months. In March 1919, soon after the end of World War I, the index stood at 140. The peak came in 1920. "In general," says the Bureau, "the termination of hostilities appears as yet to have had little effect upon the land market. Although value increases in recent months have been rather limited throughout much of the Mid-West, values continue to rise at about the wartime rates in most of the South and West. . . . Many prospective purchasers are undoubtedly postponing purchases because of high prevailing prices and the probable limited number of remaining high income years. However, the high volume of sales indicates the demand from those who are anxious to buy a farm home or otherwise invest in land continues very strong. Many such purchasers may be motivated by considerations other than the long term earning capacity of the land."

STAKING THE HIRED MAN

What's ahead for the average hired man if he stays in farming? Anything but his month's wages? Many a business has set up a profit-sharing plan for its help, or an old-age-retirement plan, or other incentive beyond ordinary wages. Could farmers do it? Well, I've just visited one who does, and he figures that it pays him as well as the hired man, writes Ray Anderson, associate editor of Farm Journal. He is Dave Livingston of Washington County, Iowa, who operates a good 320-acre farm in partnership with his father. His hired man is Wilbur Jackson. "If a hired man is aiming at farming for himself," says Livingston, "he's got to have a stake. Otherwise for the first year he can't feed his family and still have operating capital."

Many farmers, of course, have saved such a stake out of hired men's wages, but Livingston figured out a faster way. Down the road was a 40-acre place, with buildings, for rent. "Lease that place," Livingston urged Jackson. "Use my machinery, raise your own crop, work for me when you can, and in return for the use of the machinery I'll pay you 80% of the usual wage."

In other words, Jackson was "working out" the use of expensive machinery he didn't have the money to buy. Livingston was saving 20% of a hired man's cost, he was assured of keeping a good man, and he was getting a lot of satisfaction out of helping a deserving young fellow. It was a good deal for both.

Marriage license were issued on February 25, to Pat Hill and Mrs. Bertie Gray.

"An American soldier who had heard of English eccentricity, found himself one day—in a remote village—riding in a pony trap with a retired colonel. Every one hundred yards the colonel took a little pinch of powder from a packet and threw it on the road behind him. Finally the GI asked what the powder was.

"It's anti-lion powder," said the colonel sternly.

"But," said the American, "there are no lions in this country."

"You're right," said the colonel, "and it's a good thing, too. Because this anti-lion powder is no earthly good."

Church Paid Out of Debt,

One of the big pieces of news at the Church of the Nazarene this week is that the church is paid out of debt.

A campaign was wound up last week to finish clearing the church's record of indebtedness, including that for the new church building. "People of the whole community helped us in our final drive and we want to express our deep appreciation to one and all," Rev. Gibson, the pastor, said for the congregation Monday.

Gibson At Abilene
Rev. Gibson is at Abilene this mid-week, where he is attending a preacher's meeting. He is due to return Friday night.

Sunday night, following the servicemen's all-day rally, the church will have as an official visitor, their district superintendent, W. B. Walker, of Abilene, who will preach for the congregation.

Pvt. Bert Lee Emert was home over the week-end on a leave from Fort Sam Houston, Texas, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Emert of Floydada.

INSURANCE FIRE

I think we have the safest homes in the world, here in Floyd County, and the rates are going to come down, down, DOWN!

In 1945 as in all other years our own Farmers Union Fire Insurance company paid every loss in full and used less than 16 percent of our premium rate of $6 per year per $1,000.00! That's why I offered $25.00 to any person that would get the record of the percent of premium money coming back as losses to the same policy holders from any OLD LINE agent in Floyd County who wrote more than $100,000.00 worth of business.

This week I'll raise it to $50 because it would be worth thousands of dollars to Floyd County farmers to know they are safe in their own company and it is unbelievable how much money STAYS in the big boy's hands, through Fire Insurance alone. It isn't common sense to give it to them, then cuss them because they have got it.

You will pardon me if I worry because the last farmer don't come into our own Farmers Union Fire Insurance Company. Some farmers are still afraid of their own shadow and won't go in with their neighbors. But a new day is dawning when farmers will know they are safe and will keep more of their savings in their own home and the rest in their own company.

MODEST NEW MEXICO HITS BACK AT BRAGGING TEXAS

(By Boyce House)

It was only a question of time until the modest statements of us Texans about our State would get a rise outta our friends who dwell elsewhere and recently that's just what happened. An individual, signing himself as Rattlesnake Robert, went to bat for New Mexico in the New York Herald-Tribune. Actually, he is the noted poet and short story writer, S. Omar Barker, and the Herald-Tribune and Mr. Barker have given permission to quote his kidding article!

"Despite a profound reverence for the self-confessed colossalitude of Texas, I feel that the Lone Star's tall shadow should not be permitted unduly to adumbrate the modest merits of her nearby neighbor to the west.

"I refer to New Mexico, forty-seventh star in the flag, not to be confused (though it generally is) with Mexico—the good neighbor republic which supplies, via the south west wind, 50 percent of the Grade A sand in every Texan's craw. New Mexico, of course, supplies the rest.

"Actually, Texas is no bigger than New Mexico. It only appears to be bigger because it is spread so much thinner. The mean average thickness of New Mexico from sunshine to sea level is 3,600 feet. The higher you go into the mountains, the meaner it gets. Straight down from the snow-capped crest of Truchas Peaks, New Mexico is 13,206 feet thick, and a little left over. Mashed down and rolled out to the same thinness as Texas, New Mexico would reach all the way from Yalta to the Atlantic Charter with enough lap-over to flap in the Texas wind. On the other hand, at the thickest point in Texas, an average New Mexico screw-billed angleworm could bore through to the bottom in one wiggle.

New Mexico is the sunshine state because its scenic beauty is so entrancing that even Old Sol cannot let a day pass without taking a good look at it.

Leland A. Hart Sheriff Candidate

To the People of Floyd County, Texas:

I take this method of announcing by candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Floyd County.

For the past 25 years I have resided in the Baker community and am well acquainted over Floyd County. I will do my best to see every man and woman in the county between now and the Democratic primary election to be held in July.

But having sold my car when I entered the service of the United States Army and being unable to purchase one since my return, I probably won't be able to make a house-to-house canvass, so please do not hold it against me if I do not call at your home.

I solicit your careful investigation of my qualifications and if you believe I am qualified for the job, I will appreciate your vote and influence.

Leland A. Hart (Political Advertisement)

"Compared to New Mexico, Texas is a new comer. A million years before Tex Columbus fourteen-ninety-twoed America, an early settler known as the Folsom Man was practicing point rationing in New Mexico. He used arrow heads for red points. No points, no buffalo meat.

"Fourscore years before the First Texas cowboy scuffed a high-heeled boot on Plymouth Rock, a Mr. Coronado, of Spain, was eating corn off the cob in New Mexico and mailing home pictograph tourist-cards of five-storied Pueblo tower courts marked 'X-My-Room-X. Come on over, the climb is fine."

"Speaking of climate, New Mexico is where all Texans who have the tires come every summer to cool off and brag about the Texas climate.

"New Mexico has plains so flat that the State Highway Department has to put up signs to show the water which way to run when it rains; yet its mountains are so steep that the bears which inhabit them have all developed corkscrew tails so they can sit down once in a while without sliding off into Texas.

"There is no place in New Mexico from which on a sunny day (which means every day here) you cannot see a mountain, smell a pine tree, or hear a Texan. Snow falls so deep in New Mexico's mountains that it takes 40,000 automobile loads of Texas hot air each summer to melt it.

"On that fabulous river, the Rio Grande, New Mexico and Texas split honors fifty-fifty; New Mexico furnishes the water and Texas furnishes the sand for it to sink away in.

"New Mexico is a game country too. If all the deer horns in the state were clustered together into one giant hatrack, it would make a good place for Texans to hang their hats on when not talking through them. Combine all the mountain lions' tails in New Mexico into one and you could brush all the heel flies out of Texas in one swish.

"Speaking of oil, all you have to do in southeastern New Mexico to start a filling station is to stick a garden hose down a gopher hole.

"New Mexico raises every mentionable crop, including cotton, cattle, beans, buckaroos, wheat, sheep, chili con carne and the hopes of Texans who hanker for some place to go trout fishing.

"There are more writers, artists, jack-rabbits and political aspirants to the square inch in New Mexico than there are bureaus in Washington.

"And the sun shines 365 days of the year, and twice on Sundays." So says Mr. Barker of New Mexico.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. Campbell, pastor of Seth Ward Baptist church in the pastorate.

FOOD FUTURES

A rosy future for the housewife is pictured by F. L. Thomsen, marketing and transportation specialist. In the fast approaching era of pre-cooked frozen foods, he said, meal preparation for many a housewife "will involve only a pause during her reading of the evening newspaper. Clearing the table and washing the dishes eventually may consist merely of bundling all the left-overs and paper utensils in the paper tablecloth and dumping it in the garbage can."

More frozen foods, including meats, poultry, fish, ice cream, and milk and other dairy products, as well as the well known fruits and vegetables, will be available. Fresh foods will be of a higher quality because of more careful handling, prepacking, and in the case of some fresh fruits and vegetables, rapid air transportation from field to grocery. Prepacking of fresh meat cuts is expected to precede expanded frozen meat production. Canned fruit and vegetable production is likely to decline relative to the total output of processed fruits and vegetables.

Home freezing of foods probably will not be an important factor in the Nation's food production, Dr. Thomsen concludes, because industry can do the job better and cheaper than the housewife—probably better than the local locker plant even, except in some rural areas. Use of home freezers by city people will be largely confined to storage of frozen food purchased at the store.

Some developments may bring somewhat higher food costs than now. Air transportation calls for a considerably higher ton-mile rate than by rail—but food quality will be higher. It has been demonstrated, Dr. Thomsen said, that a substantial number of people are willing to pay more for better quality. He believes that marketing costs generally can be reduced materially "if farmers, consumers, and dealers wish to take the necessary steps."

TOBACCO FOR CIGARETTES

Cigarette smokers were particularly well cared for in the 1945 tobacco harvest, according to an annual summary on crop production recently issued. With a new high record of production of more than 2,000 million pounds, it reports that 57 percent of the crop was flue-cured and 31 percent light air-cured. This distribution of production among the classes, it notes, "will provide relatively more tobacco for export after satisfying domestic needs. Flue-cured leaf accounts for more than half the total crop and is used mainly in cigarettes. Summarizing the year's experience with this class,

AIRY PASTRY

"One of the trade secrets in pastry making is rapid cooling and heating," John Lezan, French pastry chef at the Marguery Restaurant, New York City, tells Mrs. Harry Weir. "These custards are hot when I put them into the pastry shells, but the electric fan cools them in a hurry and keeps the shells from getting soggy. Cold utensils and cold ingredients help, too, to make pastry short and flaky."

RUSSIA NOT ALL GOOD BUT CERTAINLY NOT BAD

MIDWEST EDITOR FINDS "Russia has not been able to achieve communism," reports Grove Patterson, editor of the Toledo (Ohio) "Blade" in The Rotarian magazine, reporting on experiences in Russia. "Perhaps she does not want and never will have it. What Russia has is a partial socialism, Patterson found, though politically a dictatorship by the Communist party.

Stalin as Secretary-General of the Political Bureau, has the real power—not as Generalissimo or Premier. Patterson compares this power with that of the old-time American political boss.

Patterson finds some private "ownership" in the long-term land leases made by the Government and the private ownership of cattle and small crops and tools on collective farms. Such things are taxed, but with the State owning all business, the actual money taxes paid by the citizens is low. Illiteracy has dropped in 29 years, from extremely high to practically zero. There are now 8,000 churches, and 9,000 newspapers in Russia—and divorce is harder than in most other countries.

ANDERSON'S TURNABOUT

Three months ago Agriculture Secretary Anderson howled for Congress to remove all price controls, ceilings and subsidies. Now he wants them continued, reports Pathfinder Magazine.

Reason, Anderson told the National Canners Association last week at Atlantic City, is that "demand for food and buying power of veterans and workers is greater than we thought it would be."

He told the canners sugar would be "hot" for another year and that if Congress failed to continue subsidies on 1946's vegetable pack, prices would increase the amount of the subsidy. This meant housewives would have to dig deeper, pay from 1 to 5c a can more for fruits and vegetables.

Anderson's turnabout, said observers, was a straw in the wind. He's still a no-ceiling, no-subsidy administrator but higher-ups "persuaded" him to change his opinions. It's a strong indicator, they said, that "subsidies and price control will continue."

Miss Jewell H. Smith and Tom Wilson, the latter of Phoenix, Arizona spent Sunday evening in Plainview.

Lewis W. Simpson left Monday for Andrews where he will be employed with a highway construction crew.

FULL VALUE FROM PEANUTS

In work with the peanut scientist is trying to develop methods to get out of the nuts the largest possible money values. The peanut meal left after the oil is extracted is a high protein product and valuable as livestock and poultry feed. Commercially, however, a pound of protein suitable for spinning into fiber for a glue is worth several times as much as a pound of protein of the grade used for feed. This difference—in value per pound—makes promising a method developed of extracting from peanut meal a part of the protein. This part of the protein can be removed by treating the meal with mildly alkaline water and then acidifying the water to collect the protein. The remaining meal still contains considerable protein and is still good value as a livestock feed—provided the price is lowered in proportion to the reduction in protein. The cost of the treatment, the Bureau of Agricultural and Industrial Chemistry points out, is much less than the value added to the 300 to 350 pounds of industrial protein that can be extracted from a ton of peanuts.

Until recently there was a hitch in this process. The red skins of the peanuts in the meal gave an objectionable red color to the protein particularly for spinning fibers. Research has developed a simple lye solution treatment that bleaches the color from the nuts before the oil is extracted. This adds less than a cent a pound to the final cost of commercial protein.

Carrying the process still further, chemists recently announced that the water used in extracting the protein from the meal may be used finally to grow yeasts that have high feed value both for protein and as a source of vitamins in poultry rations. The lye bleach process of disposing of the objectionable skin color promises to make effective earlier ways developed by research which were balked by the color problem that has now been solved.

Miss Imogene Roy left Wednesday for her home in San Diego after a visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roy of Floydada.

Miss Leola Irwin, of Fairview, who is going to school in Canyon visited over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Irwin of Fairview.

THE FARM YEAR AHEAD

"The year 1946 promises to be the most significant peacetime year agriculture has seen in a third of a century," says Howard R. Tolley, Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. "Despite reconversion problems in industry, farmers can look forward in 1946 to a strong demand, at good prices, for agricultural products because of large wartime savings, removal of wartime restrictions, prospective tax reductions, and a high level of exports and foreign relief shipments. Farm prices in 1946 may be slightly below the record 1945 levels, but they are expected to assure farmers a net income double the 1935-39 average and higher than any year prior to 1945. Farmers generally are emerging from the war with an agricultural plant in much better condition than after World War I. Many will resume long-term soil building practices and ease up on the intensive cropping of some of their land necessitated by war demands.

SLOBOLT LETTUCE WELCOMED

Announced on February 22, 1945, just a year ago, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's new leaf lettuce variety, Slobolt, has been up and doing. According to Dr. Ross Thompson who developed it through 10 years of breeding and selection at the Plant Industry Station, Beltsville, Md., favorable reports have come to the Department from home gardeners and commercial truck growers throughout the country. Its great advantage is as a warm weather lettuce, as under such conditions it does not have the common fault of most varieties—of quickly sending up seed stems.

For very early planting when temperatures are low, Dr. Thompson says a gardener will get quicker results from planting Black-seeded Simpson or some other strain that develops rapidly. Slobolt may be planted at the same time or a few days later, thus extending the spring lettuce season. It makes a good fall crop from a midsummer planting. Slobolt seed is not yet plentiful, although many seed houses have it. The seed supply of the older varieties is adequate. Thompson recommends ordering early. He expects there will be enough Slobolt seed produced this year to supply everyone who wants it in 1947.

Mrs. John H. Cox and Mrs. C. B. Stewart, both of Austin, came last Wednesday for a two weeks' visit in the home of their mother, Mrs. Kate Collier and their sister Miss Margaret Collier.

Mrs. A. P. McKinnon, who had been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Kirchner in Dallas for several weeks, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Norris and little daughter, Paula, left Sunday for Coffeyville, Kansas, where they will make their home.

Miss Maudene Moore, who is attending Draughts Business college of Lubbock visited over the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Lula Moore.

Rev. L. A. Doyle and W. C. Cates went Monday to Vernon, Texas, on business.

How Much
Is A Penny's Worth

FOR YOU, IT MIGHT BE A STAMP, A STICK OF GUM; TO ANOTHER--A SMOKE OR A PIECE OF CANDY

To Almost everyone it means TWICE AS MUCH in Electric Power and Service. It means greater Comfort, more Conveniences--a Fuller, Richer American way of living. For today the average price of Household Electricity is much, much less than it was 15 years ago. In Floydada it costs less than it did the year that World War II began.

Not only Household Electricity alone but also energy for Business, for Commercial Lighting costs the consumer less.

Now-a-days we utilize Clean, Efficient Electricity in hundreds of ways with the knowledge that our penny is worth twice as much. That's good economy.

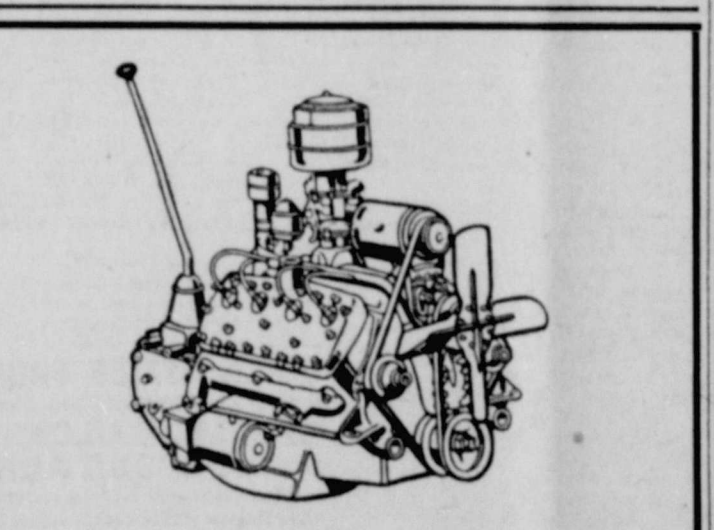

A substantial part of this economy is due to the fact that your Light and Power plant is owned by your Municipality--which is just you and your neighbors in Floydada. If we continue to manage carefully and patronize freely we can make our Light Plant one of the Biggest Aids to our common welfare in the future. So patronize your City Plant and --

Use Electricity -- It's Cheap

It's easy to "tie in" to your home-owned light plant service. Just Telephone 211.

THIS WEEK'S . . .

PERSONALITY

Our personality of this week was in Floydada and has lived here of her life. It seems we have a of home loving folks around here

now whether she could be as this or not.

and in this description is none than Lovene Jones. Her favotopic of conversation is gossip (um! Yum!) She says her worst is sitting on her feet, and her color is red. Her heart-throb is

L. Berry, and her favorite song
 "Always."

Governor's nickname is "Susie" and she likes musical shows better than about anything. The thing she likes more than anything else is "chickens," and I'm sure everyone shares her viewpoint on the situation. Her secret ambition used to be to become a great singer.

One of the most breath-taking events in her life was falling off the cabinet and landing on her head (that explains it). She hit the floor so hard that she turned red in the face, so her mother pushed her and ran out the back door screaming. There was a man standing on the barn, so he promptly took all his tools and rolls off the ground. I guess that is about as much incident as she ever caused in her day.

Lovene's favorite class period is the one when she keeps the office she likes to wear C. L.'s football jersey better than just about anything. Her red shoes run a close second, and how she can stand up on the things is more than I can say. She seems to manage very well on her feet. Her favorite thing to do is to sit up in the middle of her bed with a good book, chaperoned by two.

De Quacker

If you didn't know it Nita Merle is looking at "Love" a lot now. No wonder she likes to get to work on time at Jones'. Look why they like to work overtime and at night too!!

 (Or would you call that "Work"?)
 And what was the phone call about and Sunday night they were together, Thursday-7th period? hm!

 "Worms" and Jo Muriy seem to be proceeding to plan!

Well, well, well! John K. slings his "Lines" in ALL directions - Barbara, Mary Helen, Clara Belle, Matador girl, and Lindel. Seems that Barbara was the only one who was fool enough to fall for it—so he comes back to throw more at her.

We know how much you love him and everything, but don't say we didn't warn you when we say you're headin' for a fall!

Ted, dear—when are we going to the show again? . . . Patsy.
 Now, Joe Bunch, don't look startled when you see this about the cute little girl that you said you would like to go with.

Tommy Assiter, you are going to make someone jealous if you don't be careful . . .

Chicken, you wouldn't make Pete
 "JEALOUS," would you?
 Eureka Kirk seem to be Russel

Patterson's dream girl from what we heard him say . . . Wonder if she still has him floating on a cloud?

Will someone please give the hint to Mr. Harris to let Ralph Langley have a seat next to Billie McCready in Algebra class? Take pity on the poor boy as you were young once too, Mr. Harris, . . . or were you the "studious" type?

WHEW . . . Is Willa taking interest in Gene Pharr (?) DWINA, guess whom I saw Glenn with the other day? You would never guess so I won't tell you!

Wonder when "Pop" is going to decide whom he likes best? Hint:
 Mickey, Lindel, or Bobby Jean.

Ask Norma J. and Melvin what they were doing Saturday night June, how do you like the Spence boy? You invited him to the Music club party Friday night, didn't you?

He is cute you know. And didn't he take you home after the S. S. party?
 Gossip, gossip! What! Music Club party.

When: Friday night
 Who: Earl Edwards—Wanda Sue Teague.

Mary Helen is in her "hog heaven" —cause D. F. was here—reckon he's as crazy over her as she is over him? M. H., you knew about Betty

Low asking him to the party Friday night—didn't you? Maybe that's why he told you not to break the date with Kelly.

Trutt and Wilma seem to be making history in World History class nowadays.

Didn't Gloria and Orby make a cute couple??? They seemed to have fun Friday night . . .

What about this calling down kids for sitting together in assembly and walking down the halls together? A. O.—E. A. B. AHEM!

 Does Action speak better than words? We wonder about Juanell

Williamson who has TWO eighth graders now! Jerry Piercy and Jimmie Simmons.

Did Lewzetta Morgan go "bird hunting" Saturday at Crowell with her flame, Buster. Was it woodpeckers again?

 So Francis Pratt gets "personal" letters from Earl Dean Leach! What do they say Francis? We want to know.

These things do happen you know
 "Babe" Smart with Earl Edwards, and the next thing I knew she was with Gorky. Hughteta, where were you going on the Silverton highway?
 Dale lives out that way.

Virginia Duncan, in your opinion who is the cutest boy you know of?
 Billie Frances, do Thomas Wayne and James F. solve your Algebra problems for you or should I say "Algebra"??

Wade Payne seems to be giving Floyd Lyles a pain "Cause he's beating his time with Clara Polian."
 Nanette is wearing Johnny Collins' jacket or is it Tuft's.

This week a little girl sent me a fake love letter intended for Lindel Simmons and it was supposed to have been written by John (Barbara's dreamboat) but I'm smart and I know a boys' handwriting when I see it!

And who was the Slaton girl Phil
 King has his eye on Sunday?
 What's this—Melvin Robertson swooning over La Rue Greaves???

Why is Weldon in such a rush to get over to Lubbock for? We know you have a cousin or two over there but that's not the reason.

 surrounding territory.

Don't Blame Your Dealer if You Can't Get G-E Appliances and Radios

It's not the dealer's fault. We don't think it's our fault. Maybe it's nobody's fault. But here's what happened:

Here's how fast G. E. and its affiliated companies were making and shipping things for you:
	OCT.	NOV.	DEC.	On hand Dec. 31, 1945
IRONS	60,440	67,564	85,968	2 1/2 days' production
CLOCKS	181,998	177,681	256,038	2 1/2 days' production
REFRIGERATORS	12,755	17,577	28,432	4 days' production
WASHERS	3,068	4,672	6,874	4 1/2 days' production
RANGES	3,056	8,973	8,996	3 days' production
RADIOS	85	5,129	9,401	1 1/2 days' production
TOASTERS		312	2,386	2698 (No shipments were made because production was inadequate to provide samples for dealers).

Out of the 2,485, 138 appliances manufactured in 1944 and 1945, General Electric shipped 98%.

AFTER the war ended, we weren't able to get back into production of some appliances as soon as we had hoped, and production rates weren't as high as we had hoped. A number of unforeseen things like material shortages made the job harder.

But there were only 120 days between V-J Day and December 31, 1945, and in those 120 days we partly recon-verted our factories from war to peace-time goods and got production started. During the year we turned out 2,313,791 electrical appliances.

We shipped these appliances out practically as fast as made—so fast that at the end of the year more than 98 per cent of those we'd built since reconversion began were out of our factories. Most of them were in the hands of users.

Then, on January 15, 1946, our plants were closed by the strike. Not a single electric home appliance has been built or assembled there since. And, because our warehouses are practically empty, your dealer won't be able to obtain any more until we can get back to making them.

We want to get back to producing as fast as possible. The manufacturing organization is set up; the machines are ready, waiting to be set in motion. These factors will help us to do an even faster job than we did in the months before the strike.

But we can't pick up production quite where we left off. Production lines are too complicated for that. A great many things have been dislocated by the strike.

When the strike is over, and the refrigerators and toasters and radios you've been waiting for begin to come off the lines again, we'll get them into hands of our dealers just as fast as we can. They'll be competitive in price. They'll be General Electric quality.

So, please don't be impatient with your dealer—or with us.

We'll cooperate by holding a tight rein on our prices to give you savings you can believe because you can see the extra change in your hands... and a change for the better in your food budget.
