School Vote July 11 Consolidation

Call for a consolidation election to be held in six school districts of mid-northwest Floyd county simultaneously on Thursday, July 11, was issued here late yesterday by County Judge W. E. Grimes, which is seen as the culmination of efforts of the six districts to get together on a solution of their school problems.

The districts are Lockney, Sterley, Irick, Pleasant Valley, Ramsey and Prairie Chapel. Comprising a huge area of rich agricultural lands and the City of Lockney, the new district, if created, will have ample funds for all scholastic needs and will have an enrollment that will make it one of the outstanding schools of the section.

Call for the election was made upon receipt of petitions from the districts affected. It appears that practically entire agreement on all points has been reached and there is not much likelihood the elections will not carry in all the districts.

Wheat Movement From the Fields Nears Its Close

Movement of the wheat crop from Floyd county farms to the elevators had slowed down perceptibly on Sunday and this mid-week, except for the crops on irrigated farms, the wheat trucks were not crowding each other at any of the receiving elevators.

Generally, the movement of grain cars from Floyd county points to central storage plants, is still brisk as elevators discharge the crop that had backed up in their bins earlier in the season.

At Lockney storage space is about full and the movement of the crop from that point and from Aiken as well was beginning to get under way in a big way the first of the week. Wet weather stopped several machines that were to have been running all day Wednesday in irrigated fields. Wheat is very good throughout.

Trucks, Combines Move Out
Meanwhile most all transient truckers and combine operators had begun to move out on Saturday and by Monday the roads and highways were full of machines, all headed north. Ample home machines are left to take care of the crop remaining in the fields.

That the crop has shown a big gross profit to farmers is indicated by the tremendous jump in bank deposits. Biggest day reported at the First National bank here was $425,000 worth of wheat money deposited. Several days $100,000 and more has gone into the bank here. Other banks of the area have shown proportionate increases.

There were six persons in both families having birthdays in June. A picnic dinner of fried chicken, salad, ice tea and angel food cake was spread at the noon hour for 36 persons.

Weather has People Looking for Cool Spots, Reports Enloe

Enloe recently added a qualified Red Cross swimming instructor and life saver to the staff at the pool in the person of Leslie Morrisett, who is on duty at all times. Morrisett is authorized to qualify both junior and senior life guards under Red Cross sponsorship.

The ballot for the Democratic primary for Floyd county on July 27 will carry the names of 14 Texans who aspire to be the governor of the state.

Applications for places on the ballot were taken up by the county committee Monday morning in their 10 o'clock meeting and their order on the ballot which will be prepared by the primary committee next Monday was determined. Rain Helps S. E. Corner and Motley

Rainfall that followed practically the same pattern as a similar one two weeks ago, fell in southeast Floyd county northeast Crosby, northwest Dickens and over practically the south half of Motley county Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

While Floydada and Lockney and their immediate areas had light showers in the 26-hour period, the rain was a big help in the Dougherty area and extending westward to cover parts of Lakeview, Baker, Pleasant Hill, Fairview and Campbell. Fred Cardinal in the south-east corner reported a four-inch rain while Dougherty had an inch, Hillcrest a half inch. Rain was "pretty general" below the caprock, Matador and Roaring Springs reporting big downpours.

Showers stopped combines for half a day in most of this county. Cooling winds that came in with the showers made contrasting temperature reports for the week. Whereas Monday a high of 98 was recorded, the high for Wednesday was 56 degrees at Floydada.

Customers Rush Water System as Heat Hangs On

If weather conditions continue unfavorable and the residents of Floydada continue the use of water from city mains at the same rate as they have the past two weeks, the city water supply is going to be taxed to the limit, said Floyd Johnston, water superintendent, here this week.

Except for the coolness of yesterday, which with the shower made the demand a great deal lighter, the city wells would be pumping on a round-the-clock schedule today. And the disappearance of the partial cloudiness will be the signal for irrigation water users to turn all hydrants on full force again and the water man take up his nightly vigil once more.

The city has been able to meet the demand except for late afternoons when pressures from the mains have been very low, and the city has had to watch its supply of water for emergencies with an eagle eye. At all times sufficient reserve is being hoarded against a possible demand by the fire department. However, Superintendent Johnston said that the amount of water used daily is keeping the supply in the afternoons and early evenings dangerously close to the minimum.

Urges Cooperation
The water superintendent said the threat to the water reserve is so close that the citizens could be of great assistance in case of a major fire, which an alarm could be sounded just as easily as a trash fire at any time. And here is the way Mr. Johnston says the citizenship can help:

Immediately that a fire alarm is sounded if every citizen will at once turn off all irrigating hydrants and quit using water only that is actually necessary until the fire is under control, it would add thousands of gallons instantly to be used by the fireboys if needed. "Of course, we don't want a major fire to happen (See Water Supply, back page)

Mr. Hartzog was advised by the Extension specialists from College Station that the hour for the broadcast is 6 o'clock a. m. and that it can be heard over WOAI, San Antonio, WBAP, Fort Worth, and KPRC, Houston.

Jackie Brook, of Floyd county, is one of the members of the Texas party. Jackie's achievement record in dairying, crop production and community activities made him one of the choices to get the national encampment trip.

BUTTERFAT PRICE TAKES JUMP ON LOCAL MARKET

Big jump in the price of butterfat this week which the city consumer sees only as an added expense to her already growing food budget, can be seen in a somewhat different light by consumer in small cities of agricultural areas like Floydada on the high plains.

Where the price of butter jumped 11 cents on permission of OPA at retail, the price of butterfat paid the producer took a 10 cent jump at the same time. Yesterday for the first time in local records buyers were paying 56 cents for butterfat.

Donated to the post by the owner, Johnnie Lackey, the young bull is 18 months old, weighs about a thousand pounds, and was put up last week in the O. L. Stansell pens to be conditioned for the sale.

Mr. Lackey has been breeding registered Domino Herefords for nearly a quarter of a century and bulls from his cattle are represented in some of the best herds in the southwest.

Col. W. H. Seale, auctioneer, has consented to conduct the auction, W. B. Henry, commander of McDermott post, announced this week. The hour of the auction will be mid-afternoon or shortly after the ceremonies honoring General Wainwright and his party. The sale will be held down-town.

Breeders who are interested in the young bull as a possible addition to their herds may inspect the animal at the Stansell pens at any time, said Commander Henry.

Teacher Who Taught First School in Floydada Dies at Sweetwater

Sam H. Kelsey, 83, who for 40 years was a traveling salesman in West Texas, died at Sweetwater, his home on Wednesday of last week and funeral rites were held on Thursday.

Mr. Kelsey taught the first school in Floydada, which opened in November of 1890 with 20 pupils but which before the end of the school year had enrolled near 50 pupils.

Claude V. Hall, first publisher of The Hesperian, was one of the advanced pupils in the classes taught by Mr. Kelsey here, and Silas E. Duncan, of Floydada, attended the school as a primary pupil.

Their plans practically complete a full two weeks before the cent, officials of the American Legion Service Men's celebration set for July 3 and 4 here yesterday gave out their plans for the two eventful days. It appears now that the celebration will top anything ever undertaken in the community in attendance and interest.

Floor Denver Alfalfa Mill Blasted Out as Dust Explosion

The main building of the Denver Alfalfa Mill and Pro-cessing plant at Lockney was blasted out on Monday night, June 17, by a dust explosion.

The explosion was caused by a dust cloud that had accumulated in the top floor of the sheet metal structure were put out of operation. Wilson said repairs would be made as soon as possible. Damage amounted to several thousand dollars. The blaze started about 8:30 p. m.

OLD MAN DRY HERE?

Always keep your eye out for Old Man Dry, used to be said by Sam Lazarus, who was in the cattle business for many a year in the southwest. Mr. Lazarus always did just that, even after he got into the railroad building business.

Farming or ranching in the southwest calls for taking that advice. Have things in shape so you can take it if you have it to do, and sooner or later you certainly will. It is the nature of this country to be that way. Perhaps nature's way of resting up the land, for it is not average production running on 10-year averages over this country always have a way of evening up with good years for bad. Possible we have had the good years for a spell. Good that most everybody has money and most everybody is out of any 'lights' they may have had when they went into dry eras before.

Anyway, if it rains it will be fine. If it doesn't it just won't.

ROW CROP NEEDS RAIN

The frank truth is that the outlook for a row crop is rather on the poor side and getting poorer as days go by and no rain. This means, of course, that cattle are going to "go to town", the mothers with the calves by their side, along with the other more merchantable cattle.

It doesn't do an awful lot of good right now for us to remind each other that the Department of Agriculture has been warning us to clear the pastures of some of the cattle and get set to do without grain since the government insists the feed is going to be taken to feed hungry people instead of hungry livestock.

Alfalfa is coming along nicely out on the irrigated farms. Perhaps good foundation stock can be "held together" by its use. However, it would be a pretty fair sized order to try to keep all the cattle that are in the country on the tonnage that will come from these fields, huge as it may appear. Competition from commercial feed makers for which irrigation farmers have plenty of reason to be thankful, will not leave too much of the feed in the hands of local people.

This is not intended as pessimism. It is rather a suggestion that we look at things the way they point now.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE YEAR

Petersburg. Thoughts while getting a flat fixed. Dirt whips down the street, but a low line of clouds are in the west, looking like a chain of mountains. Maybe they will bring rain soon—maybe not. West Texans never can tell one year by the ones that have already passed. Rain comes in 15 minutes. The old timers squint their eyes as they remember.

We are on our way to Amarillo for a short visit. Brother Lowell and his wife, Ida, have a new home on the highway south of the big town. Sister Edna and Carl live west at ferment. Now that all the candidates know who they have to beat and sense the job ahead it may be assumed that the next several weeks are going to see things pick up on the political side.

A peculiar fact (for a state like Texas where we take our politics straight) is that more people appear not to have their minds made up how they will vote for governor than in recollection of many oldtimers. The governor's race usually sets the pace for the warmth of politics, which means that unless the candidates can warm up the atmosphere pretty fast it is going to be just a very ordinary election year, and not much fun.

Only six weeks until the first primary and hardly a flurry of interest that one can note, and 14 men out beginning to shell the woods. Perhaps Governor Stevenson had something to do with keeping the pot from boiling sooner. Anyway, he kept the boys on the anxious seat for a long time and afraid to get out and begin. They didn't know whether they had 'Coke' to contend with or not.

Bushland. My brother Joe and Mary live in town.

Plainview—Always get a thrill when I get near this town. Papa always made the horses trot the last mile into town. The wagon rattled and the wagon wheel flapped, while eager, big-eyed children peeped from under its planked up sides. I always admired the band stand in the court yard. Wished we had one at Emma.

If I had a big well, I think I would grow alfalfa, for the reason of its being good to look at and better to smell, if for nothing else.

Trailer houses everywhere. Never did I think I would like to travel in one, but perhaps would find it very enjoyable.

Wheat is getting cut, fields look like sheared sheep. Farmers are smiling over the wheat crop, even in the face of no other crop this year.

The wind is getting higher. The sun is shining down with a vengeance. People are starting to Sunday School. I miss going to Cone.

A car with "Just Married" painted in red letters also, "This trip is needed". "Please do not disturb". But the man's smile would tell the "just married" as well.

The Plains country is wearing its drabest dress just now. Kinda hate for summer tourist to catch her like this. We are about ready to go on so far this week I will quit and tell you about our visit next week.

Americanism?

DRAWING BY BANKS SMITH, JR.

There is no mystery in Americanism. It is the warrant that any man may be Master of his Fate and Captain of his Soul.

The National Americanism Endowment Fund, headed by President Truman, is asking the Americans of Texas to contribute $450,000.00 toward the national goal of a $15,000,000 trust fund to further a broad—and urgent—program of widespread education in the fundamentals of Constitutional Americanism. NAVY DRONE PLANE REHEARSES FOR BIKINI

Called by two "mother" planes, a pilotless Navy Helicat (Grumman FC7) sails over the San Diego area in a dress rehearsal for similar air data operations planned as part of the atomic bomb tests at Bikini atoll this summer. The drone (foreground) is controlled by the "mother" Helicat immediately behind it. The rear plane serves as standby should the first one fail. During the tests four drones, each with two control planes, will be launched from the USS Shangri-la and will be controlled first from the carrier's deck, then from a mother plane in the air and finally from the ground control operator on Rot Island where they will land. 4-H Canning Girls Release Food for Famine Relief

"More Home Canning Will Release More Food for Starving Millions Abroad." That is the motto of thousands of rural girls participating in the National 4-H Canning activity. The activity is conducted under the direction of the Extension Service.

By increasing their canning of garden and other home-raised products, the girls will render a three-fold service. They will establish a larger of varied, nutritious foods for their family's future use; reduce cash expenditures for foodstuffs; and help release more commercial stocks of canned goods for famine relief overseas.

Awards for outstanding records are offered by Mrs. Ruth Kerr for the 18th consecutive year. County winners will get medals and the state champion will be a guest at the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. National winners will receive $200 college scholarships.

County extension agents will furnish information and suggestions on home canning to 4-H club members.

NEW MARSHALL AT LOCKNEY

LOCKNEY, June 14—T. L. Reed, a recently discharged veteran of World War II, was employed as city marshal this week by the city council. Mr. Reed will be authorized to direct traffic as well as assume other duties of this office, city officials said.

Reed was discharged from the army last November 24, after three years of service, all of which was spent as a member of the military police. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reed who live in north Lockney.

Reed attended a police school while in the army and the city council feels that he is well qualified for the position.

NEW METHOD FOR HAY

LOCKNEY, June - A new method of harvesting alfalfa hay instituted this year by Denver Alfalfa Milling & Products Co. is that the hay is chopped in the field as it is picked up by the leader instead of at the dehydrator as has been the practice in the past.

The hay is mowed and raked into windrows, and when the leader picks it up it goes through a chopper and is blown into a truck which hauls it to the dehydrator. This method makes the task of feeding the dehydrator much lighter.

The Denver Milling company has installed some new equipment this year among which is a dust collector which saves the best part of the meal in the grinding process. The plant here now has a capacity of 12,000 tons a year.

"GOOD NEIGHBOR" SUGGESTIONS for party-liners

Before calling, please listen to see whether the line is in use. If it is, hang up gently and try your call again a little later.

When talking, remember your party-line neighbor—he may want to make a call—so please be reasonably brief.

Between calls, try to allow a little time so the other people on the line may have the opportunity to use it.

Ask the children to follow these good neighbor suggestions, too.

Church was well attended Sunday morning. But for various reasons sickness, etc, some of the most familiar faces were absent. After church Rev. and Mrs. Muncy found their car piled high with packages. We country people occasionally have to express ourselves in the old-fashioned way, by a pounding. It is still just as blessed to give as to receive. And it was Father's day.

The offering for the Old Minister Retirement fund was taken Sunday, but you may still put yours in next Sunday if you were absent and want to be represented.

BETTER HOME TOWNS

In six weeks the Georgia Power Co. made just about everybody in the state tourist-conscious and determined to make Georgia towns brighter, cleaner, more attractive to travelers and stay-at homes.

The company's program, called Better Home Towns, took the form of a tourist letter-writing contest which offered $6,200 in cash for best letters telling "why tourist should visit my home town and what we can do to attract them."

First Prize. Mrs. Robert Rainey, Eatonton (pop. 2,399), won first prize of $500 and another $500 went to her town to be used for a new recreation building.

Mrs. Rainey cited unmarked historical spots in and around Eatonton what "eyesores" should be torn down buildings that needed repairs and paint, and what tourist wanted when they came to town. Aside from sites, Mrs. Rainey's theme was cleanliness, neatness and good food, southern style.

The contest provoked thousands of letters. Towns all over the state started cleaning up, got to work on improvement programs, made plans to increase tourist accommodations. The state itself plans to launch an advertising program telling the nation what tourists can expect when they visit Georgia towns.

A prominent bishop sat in a box in the opera house awaiting the curtain and watching the fair ladies in low cut evening gowns being ushered to their seats. After looking around the house with opera glasses, one of the ladies in the party said:

"Honestly, bishop, did you ever see any-thing like it in your life?"

"Never," gravely replied the bishop, "never, since I was weaned."

standards of living than have been known are in prospect. The American people now the way appears cleared for better times.

Every time will tell whether the majority will use their savings to raise their living standards, or fritter them away on luxuries.

Attention stresses the importance of saving rather than on non-essentials in connection with its campaign "Better Your Home, Better Your Life," an editorial in the "Living" states in part:

Time spent in making a home more comfortable is time that is yours, whereas money spent outside the home is gone. Yet this is a truth that people discover only after they have frittered away half their earnings on purchases which are of one-time use.

Collection of night club and party checks, cruise receipts, and club bills, enjoyable though they may have been at the time, are scraps of paper with little value. Comparable pleasures are created at home and for less money, and the savings realized in making home still more comfortable, more satisfying, and more inspiring.

People who have not yet discovered this truth are the real spendthrifts. Because they are the ones who throw their money away, they buy nothing permanent.

Call for Canners To Protect Diet

COLLEGE STATION, June.—More home food preservation than ever before is being urged as food insurance for the coming winter and spring. Gwendolyn Jones, specialist in food preservation for the A. and M. College Extension Service, reports that this year's goal is to exceed the record of four billion jars of food canned by 25 million housewives in one year.

To safeguard American diets during the months to come when wheat products will continue to be in less than full supply, more vegetables especially will be needed to replace some of the food values and the "filling" quality of the wheat that goes abroad. The more garden vegetables that are put up in homes and in community canning centers the better the food insurance for this country.

Prospects so far are for good vegetable and fruit crops this season but production predicted so early in the season can rise or fall as weather hurts or helps the crops. Adequate supplies of glass jars, jar rings, and closures are expected. The supply of pressure canners has been increasing steadily. Housewives are advised, however, to lay in supplies of containers and equipment now to enable manufacturers to gauge demand and keep up production as needed.

Captain McCarty Is Presumed Dead

LOCKNEY, June.—Captain Wm. Aubrey McCarty, son of Rev. C. J. McCarty, pastor of Calvary Baptist church in Lubbock, and former pastor at Lockney, reported missing in action on June 5, 1945, in a bombing mission over Kobe, Japan, is now officially presumed dead, the father and the captain's widow were advised Sunday by the Adjutant General's department of the army.

Previous notices had advised that McCarty was a member of a B-29 crew. The ship was abandoned by part of the crew because of fire shortly after it left the target area.

The letter, signed by Maj. Gen. Edward F. Witsell, recounted, among other things, that "recently wreckage of the plane was found near Kobe by a graves registration unit. Also found were cremated remains of six crew members, which have been removed to a mausoleum in Yokohama."

Court Talks Over Sale of Airport

In an effort to arrive at the best way of disposing of the 480-acre farm and airport hangar adjacent to Highway 70 halfway between Floydada and Lockney, members of the Commissioners court conferred here yesterday for several hours.

The court has been unable to obtain a lessee for the airport and have concluded that a sale now would be more advantageous than to wait for future developments.

Texans Buy Fifth of Bond Quota in First Nine Days

With the first peacetime promotion for the sale of Savings Bonds by the U. S. Treasury only nine days old, Texans have invested almost one-fifth of their $33,000,000 quota in Series E Bonds. Sales through June 15th were reported at $5,429,123.75 with a total of $9,206,206 in all U. S. Savings Bonds at that date.

In encouraging the citizens of Texas to increase their purchases of Savings Bonds during the present promotion, Nathan Adams, Chairman of the Texas Advisory Committee on Savings Bonds, said: "A bad case of inflation would be a national catastrophe, affecting each and every one of us. It would distort every economic value, private and public. Investing in Savings Bonds is the sure way toward averting inflation. We must invest our savings and take as few of our dollars as possible to market until production shall match demand."

Spending money recklessly, buying "cheap" goods at inflated prices," Mr. Adams continued, "is like cutting down the tree to get at a few great apples. The thing to do is wait until the apples are ripe before you eat them. Leave the tree to bear fruit in years to come."

The treasury reports a total of 34 billion dollars in Savings Bonds now outstanding the first five months of this year. Redemptions have amounted to 2.8 billion dollars. Since tax payments, etc., were credited with this large percentage of redemptions, but figures for May disclose that the trend is toward a much lesser percentage in redemptions. It is further hoped that the current promotion will accelerate the downward redemption trend, giving renewed impetus to the regular purchase of Savings Bonds.

Tasty Picnic Menus For Camping

COLLEGE STATION, June.—Camping and picnic season is here in earnest and tasty menus for outdoor excursions must be planned. Edith Lawrence, specialist in food preparation for the A. and M. College Extension Service, says the task can be made easy with a few simple rules and some interesting recipes.

Meals should be kept simple. One main dish, possibly combining protein and starchy food, a crisp or chewy vegetable, one starchy food, and fruit for dessert will make a substantial meal. Beverages which can be prepared ahead of time or that require little preparation at camp should be served. Water should be taken along unless source of supply is known to be safe.

After planning meals, Miss Lawrence advises listing supplies needed. A checking of all recipes will prevent something being left at home.

Recipes for chicken risotto, bean-hole beans, campfire stew, and other camp foods along with detailed menus for 2½ days and rules for successful meal planning are found in Extension Service publication MS-742 Food for Camp.

Anyone interested may obtain a copy from her county home demonstration agent or by writing to the Extension Service, A. and M. College, College Station, Texas.

HORSE, COW PRICES SEESAW

A seesaw or teeter-totter effect appears in a comparison of two tables of prices to farmers published by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

One table reports the weighted average of prices received by farmers for horses. The adjoining table gives similar figures for cows.

Prices for horses have been declining over the years; prices for cows going up.

Taking the 30-year period from 1913, the average prices for horses now are in the range where cow prices were 30 years ago. And average prices for cows now are in the range of horse prices 30 years earlier.

For 1913 the average horse price was $127.00; in 1945 it was $63.90.

For 1913 the average milk cow price was $58.20; in 1945 it was $111.00.

In the 30 years cow prices had about doubled and horse prices halved.

In 1915 a fair trade might have been a horse for two cows; in 1945 a cow for a span of horses.

To further emphasize the teeter-totter effect, the two prices were roughly in the same range in the mid-period. The 1931 prices were: horses $55.90, cows $51.30.

A third table on mule prices shows the weighted average prices received by farmers in 1913 was $135.90 and in 1945 it was $103, a reduction of about a quarter in comparison with a decline of a half for horses.

THE NITROGEN CENTURY

So far, for farmers this two-war century has been a nitrogen century. In the 45 years the use of nitrogen fertilizer has increased tenfold -- from 62,000 tons to 626,000 tons.

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Research Administration, scientists - specialists on fertilizers, soils, and crops -- have had much to do with making fertilization of the soil better investment.

Since 1910 almost half the money farmers have spent for fertilizer has been for nitrogen, a large share of which is chemical nitrogen that has become cheaper as the last twenty years brought improved synthetic processes of manufacture into wide use.

Wars are great customers of nitrogen, both for explosives and for fertilizer to promote food production. World War II brought a doubling of plant capacity for synthetic nitrogen manufacture in the United States and Canada. So now, according to the fertilizer specialists, some of these great plants are being converted to fertilizer production in order to assure farmers of the largest nitrogen supply for crops that they have ever had.

Among the various States there are striking differences in the use of nitrogen, says Dr. F. W. Parker, assistant chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering, in charge of soil and fertilizer research. More than half of the fertilizer nitrogen is used in the States along the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts, while many of the great corn and wheat States use little nitrogen and comparatively little commercial fertilizer of any

Discouraged by a laundry that kept sending his clothes back so shrunk out of shape he couldn't get into them, a customer finally got mad and sent them a large railroad spike. To it he wired a note saying: "I'll bet you can't shrink this." Eventually the laundry returned to him a small bundle. In it was a carpet tack. It said: "The hell we can't."

INSURANCE FIRE

This week Roy Foster insured his Home Furnishings and Farm Buildings for $3,000.00 and instead of making 3 payments of $30 each for the 5 years—he just paid $90 plus $5 for his membership in Texas Farmers Union. He saved more than $90. He is just another of hundreds in Floyd county that are insured with their own Texas Farmers Union Fire Insurance Company where every loss has been paid in full.

Ask farmers who have had losses with this "UTMOST" protection you see advertised. It's just called "UTMOST" in polite company. It's a matter of State record. See how much comes back as losses. Where does the other go?

Are you treating your family right when you pay double in another company instead of saving half and helping develop your own company? Did you build your own home that way?

We have the greatest producing spot in the world. Let's build homes here instead of Skyscrapers in other States. Multiply $90 times the farm homes in your county. No wonder they drive good cars and we beg for mercy. We give them the money, they invest it in our farm land and take our homes in the bad years! Maybe I'm wrong. I have been lots of times.

Levelland Rodeo Triples Seating For Biggest Show

Completion of a new all-steel grandstand at the Levelland rodeo grounds has tripled the seating capacity for Texas' largest arena which will be the scene for the town's annual show July 3, 4 and 5.

Over $1,600.00 in added prize money will go to winners in seven events—saddle bronc riding, calf roping, team roping, bulldogging, steer riding and two-way sponsor contests. Both junior and senior cowgirl sponsors will compete.

Street banners, placards, circulars and western attire of citizens are heralding Levelland's annual three-day rodeo. Afternoon performances scheduled all three days will begin at 2 o'clock. Night shows on July 3 and 4 will get underway at 8 o'clock.

Included in the specialties will be the picturesque mounted quadrille, cowboys and trick riding. President W. J. Robertson of the Levelland Rodeo association has announced.

Downtown parades will be fore-runners of the rodeo performances. Booster trips to towns within a 200-mile radius will begin on June 24. Advertisers of the annual rodeo will take along musicians to stage their booster programs in towns of the area.

HEALTH SERVICE FOR MIGRANTS

One of the reasons for U. S. Department of Agriculture support for the program of national health insurance is found in the interstate migration of seasonal farm workers. In hearing before the Senate Committee on Education and Labor, Charles F. Brannan, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture said:

"This migration is a recognized feature of our agricultural economy, involving a labor force of some 700,000 to 1,500,000 persons. The Department since about 1937 has attempted to mitigate some of the most serious hazards faced by this group, through a program of housing, sanitation, and medical care. The Labor Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration has been financing and administering this health program which has met the needs of the farm workers imported from countries to meet farm labor shortages and the needs of a segment at least of our own seasonal labor force.

"Actually we have hardly scratched the surface so far as the medical care needs of all domestic migrants are concerned."

Robert Browning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Browning, returned to Floydada Monday from Carlsbad, where he and his grandmother have been visiting.

FAULTY WIVES AND MATES

Private family gripes were out in the open last week as Gallup-pollers added up the score in a national poll of wife and husband faults.

Major wife complaints were drinking and thoughtlessness. Then came selfishness, bossiness, other women; stinginess, lack of interest in the home.

Husbands sputtered most about nagging and extravagance; next about poor homemaking, night-clubbing, gossiping, outside interests, untidiness.

Only four of every 100 wives, eight of every 100 husbands declared their mates faultless.

"Oh, no," coyly replied one of the female passengers, "I always wear my bloomers down around my ankles."

When the Chicago subway was being dug a "drunk" stopped beside the excavation and called down to the men at the bottom of the pit: "Shay, watcha doin' down there?"

"We're building a subway," one of the men responded.

"How long is it goin' to take to build it?" Three years came the answer.

"Three Years!" (hic) "Tell with it. I'll take a taxi."

A Scotchman, upon entering a saddlers, asked for a single spur.

"What use is one spur?" asked the man.

"Well," replied Sandy, "if I can get one side of the horse to go, the other will have to come w' it."

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

These news items taken from the Floyd County Hesperian published 14 years ago.

(Issue of June 23, 1946)
Accompanied by high winds, hail and a heavy display of lightning, a cloud that came from the west and north late Monday afternoon roared its way across the southwest half of Floyd county, leaving in its wake ruined crops, thousands of acres of ripened grain, gardens, damaged homes, destroyed barns, outhouses and windmills in an area that covered three communities, portions of two others and did material damage in the south half of the city of Floydada. It did damage to the homes of Grady Hall, W. H. Jenkins and D. E. Smith.

Cagelene Carmack returned home Saturday from Amarillo where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carmack and children. Miss Marcellus Thurman accompanied her home for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Borum and children, J. R. Hazel, and Bernard left Saturday for Fort Worth where they will join their daughter, Miss Audrey Mae, to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Collins, Gene Collins, John Charles Collins, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Graham of Floydada were among the recent visitors registered at the Palo Duro Free park, 13 miles east of Canyon.

Mrs. Mary S. Cosby, who died Tuesday morning in the Center community, was buried Tuesday afternoon at Spur. She died at 2:54 o'clock at the home of her brother, J. S. Richards, with whom she had been residing for the past two years.

Directors of the West Texas Pioneers' association discussed plans for the annual reunion to be held August 15 at the Hank Smith Memorial park at a meeting held at the Old Rock house Saturday afternoon.

Side Lights From Washington

(By George Mahon)

This column is being written on Saturday afternoon, June 15. There is much uncertainty as to just when Congress will adjourn. The best guess seems to be that Congress will recess about July 15 for a period of three months. Such a recess would be very much in order, as Congress has been in session all or part of practically every month since the war began more than four years ago.

On Thursday of this week I was able to secure passage in the House of my bill involving appropriations and programs for all Government owned corporations -- 40 in number. Under the bill the Commodity Credit corporation will have sufficient funds to carry on the support price and loan programs on cotton and wheat and other basic crops. Parity prices fixed by the Department of Agriculture, unfortunately, do not take into consideration all labor costs but the approval of the Commodity Credit program will prevent the possibility of a collapse in the price of cotton, grain and other important crops for at least a two-year period. This is the most hopeful thing on the horizon for West Texas farmers. But on account of the continued drought, price guarantees for the present do not mean too much.

On Friday, June 21, we are scheduled to present to the House the bill making appropriations for the Army for the fiscal year beginning July 1. This will be the biggest bill presented to Congress this year. We are providing funds for pay and equipment for a modern Army and occupation force which will average about 1,125,000 men during the year. The sum recommended will be 7 billion dollars -- a huge sum -- but we have proceeded on the basis that the American people believe in a strong national defense program and are willing to pay whatever may be necessary.

Under the law, all appropriation bills for the regular agencies of the Government must be passed prior to July 1 of each year, and the month of June is always a very busy month in Congress.

During the week we passed by unanimous vote the bill providing terminal leave pay for enlisted men of our armed forces. The bill has now gone to the Senate, where favorable action is expected. The bill is of interest to all enlisted men and their families.

Following the veto by the President of the so-called Case bill, involving Labor-Industry disputes, a vote was taken in the house on the question of whether the House would override the veto. A two-thirds majority is required to override a presidential veto. The vote was 255 to 135 on the motion to override, which was 5 votes short of the necessary two-thirds. I voted to override the veto.

In the death of Senator John Bankhead of Alabama, the farmers of America have lost a true and powerful friend. The farmers of the nation did not always agree with Senator Bankhead, but they never questioned his loyalty to the cause of agriculture. In the post-war year, our agricultural producers will be confronted with problems varied and difficult, and we will need the best possible leadership.

Prior to the death of the late senator, the State of Alabama had kept a Bankhead in Congress for 60 consecutive years.

lingen the Sunday previous for a visit with Mr. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harris of Lockney. Otis is manager of the Stone Department store at Harlingen. Eulalia Burrus, of Floydada was among those whose names appeared on the honor roll for the spring quarter at the West Texas State Teachers college. This means that she made a "B" average.

WATER SHORTAGES GENERAL

While the water wells and other sources of water supply for plains and lower panhandle towns are producing about the same amount of water they have as heretofore, water shortages are showing up in towns and cities, large and small. The answer is that people of the various communities are trying to keep their lawns, trees and shrubs amply watered and they are using far and away more water than they have during the past four or five summers when more reasonable weather was in favor of the water supply.

Floydada is among the rest of these. The water wells are running on a 24-hour schedule practically but the customers have increased in number -- scores and scores of new users -- and in volume probably double. Which tells the story of where the water is going. The water man, you can be sure, is watching the meter, and trying to keep some water hoarded against a possible major demand to fight fire. But it worries him just the same that he can't catch up and get somewhat ahead.

Water Supply—

but one can happen any time anywhere. If that point happens to be Floydada and the citizens here forget to help us it could be a serious matter," declared Mr. Johnston, who called attention to the fact that the community has built up a good fire record only after years of effort and that a bit of carelessness could be costly in numerous ways, including added insurance costs.

More Supply Coming Up
The city has been lucky in not needing additional water supply during the past four good years when rainfall helped lawn and garden at opportune times. Now, however, that a brown summer has shown up the demand is growing while the supply is not increasing.

The new well contracted for by the city with W. O. Tye, water well developer, will not be put on the mains as quickly as was anticipated. Shortages of materials, it is seen, are going to make actual completion of the well and connections to the mains a slower job than was believed probable. The well will make it possible for the city to more than furnish all comers when it is in operation, but meanwhile the cooperation of the citizenship is sought in the emergency. Thus: When you hear the fire alarm cut off all irrigation hydrants at once.

Combine Accident Amputates Foot

Corkey Guffee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Guffee received a foot injury June 12 which resulted in his foot being taken off. The accident occurred about 10:30 o'clock a. m. in a wheat field four miles east and four miles south of town, where Corkey was running a combine for his father.

The clutch on the combine bounced out of gear, Corkey jumped on the machines getting it in gear, and as he started to get down, he stepped on the gear inspection plate which gave way, letting his foot go into the machine. He was brought to Pitts hospital by Thurman Battey, where he received treatment and was carried in the ambulance to the Plainview hospital where his foot was amputated. Mr. Guffee reported Tuesday that his son was still in the hospital.

Mrs. Guffee, who was in Pitts hospital recovering from an operation, was not notified of her son's accident until Monday, when she was carried home. She is reported to be doing satisfactorily.

Celebration—

Two Rodeo Shows
Rodeo plans now call for two shows, one each afternoon of the celebration, beginning at 4 o'clock. Calvin Steen will be general supervisor for the Legion, with officials and members of the Rodeo club as his aides.

Still no possibility was indicated this week that the planned night show can be held and the club has abandoned making plans for the night show. However, each night two dances will be given, one in the American Legion building, the other on the Legion home's outside concrete floor, which is 50 feet by eighty feet.

So far, for farmers this two-war century has been a nitrogen century. In the 45 years the use of nitrogen fertilizer has increased tenfold -- from 62,000 tons to 626,000 tons. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Research Administration, scientists - specialists on fertilizers, soils, and crops -- have had much to do with making fertilization of the soil better investment. Since 1910 almost half the money farmers have spent for fertilizer has been for nitrogen, a large share of which is chemical nitrogen that has become cheaper as the last twenty years brought improved synthetic processes of manufacture into wide use.

Wars are great customers of nitrogen, both for explosives and for fertilizer to promote food production. World War II brought a doubling of plant capacity for synthetic nitrogen manufacture in the United States and Canada. So now, according to the fertilizer specialists, some of these great plants are being converted to fertilizer production in order to assure farmers of the largest nitrogen supply for crops that they have ever had.

Among the various States there are striking differences in the use of nitrogen, says Dr. F. W. Parker, assistant chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Soils, and Agricultural Engineering, in charge of soil and fertilizer research. More than half of the fertilizer nitrogen is used in the States along the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts, while many of the great corn and wheat States use little nitrogen and comparatively
