Floyd County Road List for January

Commissioners Salary List County Officers

Fears that Farm-to-market Highway No. 54 from Petersburg to the intersection of Highway 207 south of Blanco canyon would not be included in the January list of lettings by the State Highway commission, proved to be unfounded.

This 14,261 mile stretch of road principally in Floyd county but also extending into Hale to build into the city of Petersburg, was approved by the federal good roads administration in time to be included and is being advertised to be let on January 23. Bids to be opened and read in Austin at 9 o'clock on that date.

Originally scheduled for December letting, the above-average length of the proposed road caused delay in getting approval on account of the higher cost than usual for such construction in one contract, and at one time during the period it was feared that final approval would not be obtained from Washington in time for the work to get under the wire for January. James F. Potts, resident engineer, supervised the search for caliche, prepared the plans and got their approval by the District and State engineers offices.

When the route was in the proposal and right-of-way securing stages it was a highly controversial project and served as political dynamite in Precinct One for four years, with repercussions in other precincts of the county in last summer's campaigns. Serving as a feeder for Petersburg's growing business interests, the route also will serve laterally a highly productive area in getting to Ralls and Floydada markets.

W. E. Grimes as county clerk raised from $165 to $175 per month, to which income will be added as the office may be increased. Maximum salary allowed by the statute has been equal in any recent year.

Mrs. P. G. Stegall raised from $65 to $100 per month, to which fees of office may be added. Considered one of the best offices as to hours and attention to details, this office received $1500 or less in recent years.

Deputy Sheriffs' salary allowance for deputies from $175 total to $300 per month, to be divided $150 to each deputy. The salary of the sheriff is set at $83.33 the same as for fees of office to be paid by the county. The county furnishes the car which he maintains and his total statutory income is $1100.

Prizes in the salary list for the Justice of the Peace in Precincts 2 and 3 for the county are: Justice Reed's name on the list for $35 per month, from $30, and D. G. Ayres, service officer, at $150, a $200 increase.

Officials of the county to receive the same payments as last year include the following: Commissioners $106.66 per month, $5 per month travel allowance; Sheriff $1100 (See Salary List, back page)

March of Dimes Director Named

George D. Wilson Texas March of Dimes Director

The 1947 March of Dimes, annual fund raising drive of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which sparkplugs the never-ceasing battle against polio, will be held January 15 to 30, it was announced yesterday by Guy W. Ginn, chairman of the March of Dimes campaign committee here.

The need for funds, Mr. Ginn said, has never been greater, since the nation has just emerged from the worst epidemic of polio in the history of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, founded in 1938 to spearhead and co-ordinate the battle against this disease.

"United States Public Health service figures show," said Mr. Ginn, "that the 1946 polio epidemic is second only in severity to the great epidemic of 1916, the worst in recorded history. This means that not only were the Foundation and its chapters called upon as never before to supply expensive equipment, personnel and every other aid known to modern science to the stricken, but they still must assist those who have not yet achieved maximum recovery. And there are more of these than there have ever been before."

The National Foundation also spent millions of dollars during 1946 in medical scientific research to trace the cause of infantile paralysis," Mr. Ginn explained. "It will continue to do so until that cause is found."

Discovery Well Still Featured In Oil Circles

George D. Wilson Texas March of Dimes Director

Featured interest in oil circles of this area at the end of last week was still Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 E. L. Fisher, prospective wildcat discovery in southeast Hale county.

Stanolind No. 1 Fisher, six miles northwest of Petersburg, about 18 miles southeast of Plainview and approximately 20 miles west of Floydada, was reported to be on a total depth of 6,992 feet. In Pennsylvania line, waiting for orders at last report.

Located 660 feet from south and west lines of section 5, block CL, EL survey, this project logged signs of possible production from 6,894 feet to the current bottom.

Not all of that section carried oil saturation, or had shown porosity but enough of it had to lead many observers to believe that it will make a commercial oil well—and a discovery.

In the last drill stem test reported on the wildcat, run 6-968-92 feet, recovery was 80 feet of free oil, 480 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud, and one stand, or about 90 feet of drilling mud and water.

No official information has been released regarding the origin of the water. That will have to be determined by a chemical analysis.

At the end of the week it had not been definitely revealed what the owner was planning to do with the exploration. It was understood that some men with authority were recommending that casing be run production tests made, and the well completed—if it could be—from the pay already drilled through.

Others were reported to be wanting to deepen the exploration to try to explore the Ellenburger.

Heavy Deposits in 1-Bank Towns

In eight one-bank towns in a five county area, including Floydada and its nearest neighbors, bank deposits amounting to a total of almost 15 million dollars were reported in the call made by the Comptroller of the Currency on December 31, a resume of these reports received in The Hesperian office this week show.

In the report are included banks at Crosbyton, Floydada, Lockney, Matador, Petersburg, Ralls, Silverton and Quitaque. In round numbers the total deposits are $15,754,286. With only one exception the banks each show more than a million dollars. The exception is Silverton, where the less than a year-old First State has more than half million dollars on deposit. For some of the banks the figures represent a peak, but for most of them the totals are off slightly from early fall figures.

Alphabetically the figures for the eight banks are as follows:

Crosbyton	$1,989,760.71
Floydada	4,569,356.15
Lockney	1,340,499.01
Matador	2,421,822.21
Petersburg	1,516,000.00
Quitaque	1,280,446.23
Ralls	2,100,000.00
Silverton	537,002.18

Rev. Gibson Named Chaplain by Fire Department—Fire Safety School Due to Close Friday Night

This week it was announced by the Floydada Fire department that Rev. Arch Gibson had accepted his election by them as chaplain of the department, and he will be associated with the department in their various activities. Rev. Gibson is pastor of the Floydada congregation of the Church of the Nazarene.

Fire School Close Friday

The climaxing meeting of the fire safety school of instruction which has been in progress for the past two weeks, will be held Friday night when there will be a feed for the firemen and their wives and diplomas indicating proficiency will be issued by the instructor, Bob Dodson.

Mr. Dodson is with Texas A & M college and is conducting fire schools throughout the state. In addition to the 15-hour training he has been giving the local department personnel, he also has been carrying on a school at Quitaque for the fire department there.

Enrolled in the fire safety school are Carl Rodgers, Buster Boothe, J. C. Odum, Albert Duncan, Ellis Barbee, Melvin Henry, Floyd Johnson, Wylie Rodgers, Fred Lambert, Ray Smith, Leonard Matsler, J. M. Bunch, Charlie Presley, W. M. Her-ring, and Rev. Arch Gibson.

Postal Receipts Show Good Year Despite Decline

Despite a June quarter slump that dropped the Floydada Post office receipts below the record year of 1945, Floydada office had a good year, and the fourth quarter of business was in excess of the fourth quarter of the preceding year by $73.87. Figures were released by Barbara H. Smith, postmaster, this week.

Receipts for the year were $21,525.76. This is a drop of $209.43 from the 1945 figures of $24,216.19. December quarter with receipts of $6,446.46 was high for the year, and the March quarter was second with $5,299.99. But June made the year's total look bad.

Postal Savings Increase

That all the people are not spending all their money is indicated by the fact that postal savings at the office have increased. At present patrons of the office have $123,282 on deposit there.

Without being told or reading the papers postmasters would know that land exchange was brisk throughout 1946, because of the great demand for documentary Internal Revenue stamps.

Handicapped in height the Whirlwind squad are showing speed and should show pronounced improvement as the season progresses, thinks Coach Gresham.

No Other Reports

Superintendent I. T. Graves, district interscholastic athletic chairman, said he had no information on either Friday or Tuesday night's games from the other teams of the district.

Hours of Looting Nets Pair Zero

An orgy of car theft and burglary only partially carried out, in Floyd and Hale counties Friday night and early Saturday morning of last week was reconstructed by peace officers of the two counties to have been done by a duo of men, who wound up the victims of frustration, highway robbery in the cold, small hours of dawn, all the chances and no swag whatever to show for the effort.

The net haul was nothing for the pair, if pair it was.

Duncan Hollums, 228 West Kentucky street, Floydada, whose car was stolen, was the big loser as a result of the car theft and burglary. He is having a new motor installed in his 1940 two-door Chevrolet this week. His car was recovered by officers on the Petersburg highway 12 miles southeast of Plainview Saturday, adjacent to the farm of Oliver Harmel. The car had been run dry and the "motor burned up."

It contained items of merchandise that had been taken from the Consumers Fuel association and Redd's cafe at Lockney. The loot was restored to the owners by the officers.

Two other stops made by the car thieves in burglary attempts at Lockney were made at Patterson Grain company and at the Jiffcoat department store, but nothing was missed from these establishments.

Three Others Are Lucky

The Hollums car is believed to have been stolen by a pair who had wrecked a two-tone 1942 Chevrolet in southwest Floydada earlier in the night. The description of this wrecked car answered that of a car reported stolen in Lubbock. It was still in the possession of Sheriff Leland A. Hart yesterday at noon.

Three other car owners in Floydada were luckier than was Mr. Hollums. Machines belonging to C. P. Looper, Carl Nelson and Lloyd Murry had been backed off their driveways and left standing to be discovered by their owners early Saturday morning. Ignition trouble or frigid caused these to be abandoned without being run.

The final frustration for the pair came when they ran the Hollums engine dry of oil and made their stop at the Harmel farm. There they attempted the theft of Mr. Harmel's car. Aroused by the noise at his garage, he told Hale county officers next morning. Mr. Harmel switched on yard lights and scared the men away. Later the same night a Hale county officer passed a pair of men hitchhiking who could have been the pair, it was said here this week. The pair was in the vicinity of the damaged automobile.

Mr. Harmel hurried to report the incident at his home to officers when he discovered the abandoned Hollums motor car with the loot from the Lockney places of business still in it. The serial number and a call to Floydada soon located the owner through officers and Mr. Hollums had his car back in his possession—and a considerable expense bill to put it back into running condition.

Sheriff Hart said no arrests had been made early yesterday.

Fall on Ice Breaks Ankle

One of the casualties incident to icy streets common to all of Texas in the opening days of the New Year, was E. L. Teague, postal worker formerly in the Floydada office, who is wheel chairing at a San Angelo hospital with a broken ankle. He transferred to that office from Floydada last fall.

Teague, who is a city carrier at the San Angelo post office, fell on the ice January 4 while on duty. Two bones were broken, his sister, Mrs. Mable Sims, was told in a letter from Mrs. Teague.

NEW GRANDDAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Battey returned Monday from Borger, where they had been the past week with their new granddaughter, who was born December 28 and who has been named Gay Lynne. Gay Lynne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Edmondson.

SHOULD HAVE DAMS

What we wonder is that a different approach to the water conservation program in Texas cannot be made. We mean in northwest Texas in particular and the whole state in general.

At present time there is well-oiled machinery moving toward controlling underground waters in northwest Texas, which seems to be motivated principally in Houston and Harris county, for the benefit of conservation measure for the benefit of all the people on the Brazos watershed. It would keep so-called selfish individualist land owners in the counties of the high plains from hogging the underground waters, mis-handling them so far as the general good is concerned, and appropriating them to the personal benefit of a few against the welfare of the many.

Of course, if that logic is pursued to its end a Floyd county man who wants to change his two-stage irrigation well to a four-stager or a three -- he must hire himself a lawyer and go to Austin and beg to the Board of Water control to let him do so, while his crop burns under an August sun.

A more realistic and a less selfish approach would be a movement to conserve the Brazos flood waters at their source areas. Why would not six or eight or ten dams on the White river of reasonable cost from the escarpment of the plains westward to the New Mexico line to save flood waters and silt be better, if you apply it also to all the rest of the state?

Such a plan, that would save flood waters, might add to the water level in the northwest and west Texas instead of lowering it. We don't know exactly what the result would be. We know that we would have a lot of holes of water seeping into the surrounding ground. We know that the cost could be made relatively light, considering and we know that we could leave a lot of people alone who are now trying to make a living on their own.

It would be a wonderful thing if the people of Texas would get the vision. There may be practical reasons why it is not within the range of possibilities, but we see no reason why a dam somewhere in the vicinity of Crosbyton and Spur others in the vicinities of Floydada, Saint W. and westward to the New Mexico line wouldn't be feasible and enable, be healthful, helpful, add to the pleasure of the people who abound in the areas, raise the water level, help production, save soil, and generally multiply the happiness of the people of the state.

NOT TOO BIG DAMS

One trouble with the dam business, which some day perhaps will be remedied, is that great, tremendous tasks that cost into the millions are the only ones which the government agencies will so much as look at.

When we speak of dams across the plains and all the little streams all over Texas we do not mean million dollar outlays. We mean little dams that will impound the water where it falls and keep it from overflowing down where they don't want it.

This dream of myriad small dams across the country to impound overflow waters would serve many purposes to make life fuller for the people in addition to the principal one of impounding flash floods, raising the water level and saving the soil that now flows down stream by the hundreds of tons every year.

The dream is not any more visionary than was that dream that has resulted in rural electrification program. A thousand little dams could be built on scientific principles, the same as and for the same reason as the crooked or contoured now and the stock tank on the range.

GOOD TIME DUE FOR ALL

It is nice that Texas is to have a new governor right away now. Mr. Stevenson, who has done a good job we feel, will give over to Mr.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

Income tax reports have kept most of us indoors even the last week was pretty fine to be out of doors. Uncle Sam is very persistent about this matter and his nephews and nieces get down to the unpleasant task of figuring out how much has been lost or gained the past year. I have put it off and off since Christmas. Mr. Spikes insisting every day that I should get to work on the reports. I would tell him I had not dreaded it long enough, but the last day draws near and the report is ready for the mail.

I had such a lovely card and note from Mrs. Kate Carter of Crosbyton and she tells me that the tenth was their wedding anniversary. Well, I remembered that Sunday afternoon that she and Stanley were married and that it was at our Sunday afternoon singing at the schoolhouse. One song that was sung, I recall the sweet melody and words yet, was "We are Almost at the Gate." Many happy recollections and many happy years to come, Mr. and Mrs. Carter.

Looking back in a record of the hotel we kept at Emma, six rooms and no bath. I find that the following ate meals with us in the month of January 1900, only forty-seven years ago.

Joe A. P. Dickson, A. J. McKay, Judge McKnight, George Smith, Bob Smith, and I can see myself, a little girl with blue eyes, long pigtails tied with a string and a long gircham apron passing the things down the long table, taking up more of mother's light biscuits, more and more of them the men ate, more and more cups of coffee that had been ground in the hand mill. Plenty on the table of the food that was available then.

And one day a lady who was boarding with us made some very delicious peach pies. I passed the men a piece around. They ate and bragged on them. I was filled with "letters." I went back for more pies. They cut large pieces, till at last in their netiref and the pie eating contest was stopped.

Men that later became prominent in history ate meals at our table. Years afterward I boasted I knew so and so and when "The Prairie Lawyer" came out, I recalled his author, Charles Coombs was one of Jester.

Since Mr. Jester and his family are not unfamiliar with the scene at the capital, including the capitol itself they will know the way around at Austin. Beauford is a son of a distinguished lieutenant governor and the Jesters know about Austin and its ways.

We say it is nice the state is to have a new governor because it gives Austinites a chance to strut a bit as they stage the inaugural reception for the new governor and lieutenant governor on Tuesday January 21. Nice, too, that the new governor is not afraid for them to go ahead and have their fun.

the men, and enjoyed the book which was given us by the John Hollums' all the more.

Honey put in the radiator of your car will keep it from freezing, so writes the editor, Captain Brown, of the Lorenza Tribune. Now this was not the opinion of the editor but was gathered from some of the men at Lorenza.

Well, perhaps it worked at Lorenza, but... a Lubbock man did not have such a happy experience. He put honey in his radiator, plenty of it. A hard freeze came, he started his motor. Out came water boiling hot and with it plenty of honey. Over the car's top, the wind blew it, over the hood and over everything. Hot words came out also, not Sunday school words, so that is the main reason we never tried honey in a radiator.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

These news items taken from the Floyd County Hesperian published January 19, 1933.

All penalty and interest on delinquent school taxes will be remitted during the month of January. It was announced following a meeting of the board of the Floydada Public schools Monday night. The time extension will permit the payment of delinquent taxes without the assessment of the penalty or interest to January 31, inclusive. It was stated by W. Edd Brown, chairman.

Salaries of the various officials who will draw funds from the county's exchequer the next twelve months, were formally entered on the books to receive pay checks on the first of each month, by the Commissioners court in their session Monday.

Conservation District News

I. O. Blasingame, a cooperator of the Floyd County Soil Conservation district, is beginning construction this week of terraces on his farm in the McCoy Conservation group. Soil Conservation Service technicians assigned to the District are helping Mr. Blasingame with planning and laying out the system. He plans to use a whirlwind terracer owned by the District for the construction work.

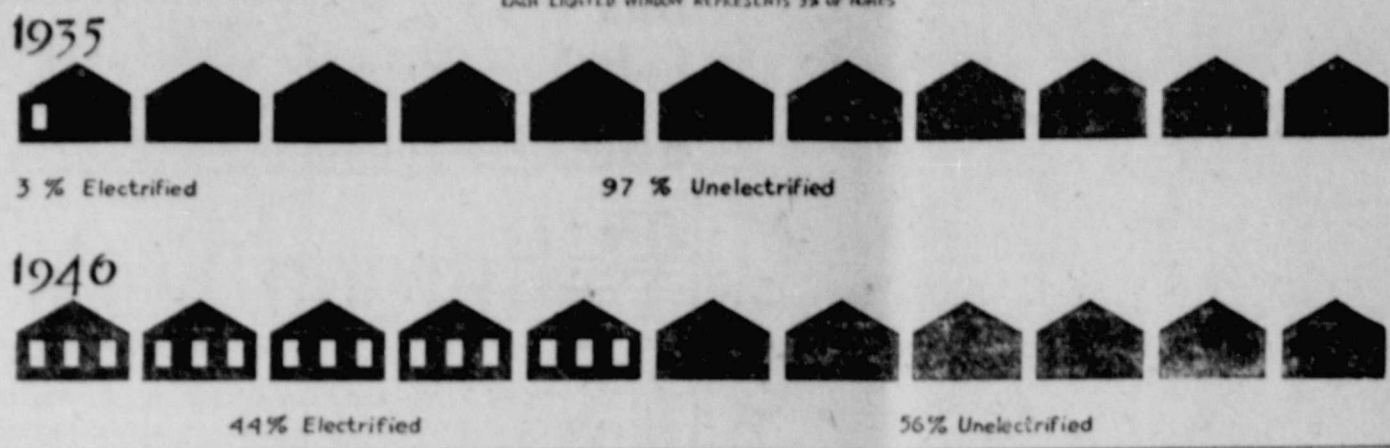

Hershel Carthel, a district cooperator of the Belt Conservation group, plans to use Hubam Clover as a soil improving crop. Mr. Carthel plans to over-sow twenty acres of wheat on shallow soil with the Hubam Clover next March. This clover is an annual and under irrigation will make its soil building growth after the wheat is harvested.

The rainfall of the District is being recorded by a number of farmers who have Soil Conservation Service rain gauges on their farms. The total rainfall for 1946 as recorded on gauges installed before January 1946 are as follows: Herman R. King 22.33 inches; W. G. Jones, 20.46 inches; J. S. Lackey 18.34 inches; John Lloyd, 19.84 inches; J. A. Taylor, 21.78 inches; and C. V. Ford 20.32 inches.

Recently a number of Soil Conservation Group meetings have been held by cooperators of the District for the purpose of scheduling assistance and reporting progress and plans. Meetings have been held in the North Starley, Almon, Harmony and McCoy Conservation groups. A technician of the Soil Conservation Service has attended each meeting for scheduling assistance and discussing plans. The schedule of other meetings to be held are as follows: South Starley and King Conservation Groups on January 17, Wylie and Belt Conservation Groups on January 20, Lone Star Conservation Group on January 21, Starkey and Cedar Hill Conservation Group on January 22, Dougherty and South Floydada Conservation Groups on January 23.

Eleven Years of Rural Progress

TEXAS FARM HOMES

The above graph illustrates the progress of rural electrification in Texas since the REA program was started eleven years ago. The first REA power line in the state and the nation was constructed near Bartlett in Bell county, Central Texas, early in 1936. At that time only three percent of the rural homes in Texas had electricity.

The other 97 percent were still in the dark. Today, 44 percent of the rural families of this state enjoy electric service, the majority of them through cooperatives which they, themselves, own and control. Efforts are being pushed to extend service to the other 56 percent as rapidly as materials become available.

Approximately 284 new customers were added to the Floyd County Rural Electric cooperative's lines during 1946. L. W. Chapman, manager, stated here today. This brings the total number of members served by the cooperative to nearly 1200 located in Floyd, Hale, Briscoe, Crosby and Dickens counties.

New customers are being connected to the cooperative's lines as rapidly as the available supply of construction materials permits, the manager said. A severe shortage still exists in many line hardware items needed in building rural power lines.

A place for each meeting has not yet been determined, but cooperators of each group will be notified where their meeting will be held.

Program 11 Years Old
The electric cooperatives program was inaugurated in Texas 11 years ago this spring when the first REA line in the nation was built near Bartlett in Bell county, Central Texas. Mr. L. W. Chapman said. At that time, only three percent of the rural homes of Texas had electric service. Today more than 44 percent are electrified. Texas' 75 rural electric cooperatives serve approximately 146,000 rural consumers in 220 counties. Included are farms, ranches, rural schools, churches stores, and hundreds of small rural industries.

Mr. Chapman pointed out. Electricity has increased the productivity and purchasing power of every farmer it has served, and created a vast new rural market for electrical appliances and equipment of all kinds.

New Mexico Death Calls Floyd County Friends for Rites

Several Floyd county friends and relatives Sunday afternoon attended the last rites for Dugal Carmichael, 22, of Floyd, New Mexico, whose lifeless body was found Tuesday morning of last week near Las Vegas New Mexico, where he was a student in Highland university. A military funeral was held and interment made at Forrest, New Mexico, for the ex-service man who was last stationed on Tinian before his return from foreign service.

The O. G. Carmichael family had lived in Floyd county near Dougherty and moved to New Mexico some 17 years ago. Dugal graduated from Portales, New Mexico, schools in 1942 and went into service shortly thereafter.

Tommie Gilpin, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Troy Cummings and Bill Ferguson. The bride, given in marriage by her father, Dr. C. M. Thacker, wore a suit of fashion-made blue gabardine with brown accessories. She carried a satin muff topped with gardenias.

Adds To Applications On Campus

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — American students today have a baby problem on their hands, or rather campus applications.

It is adding to the competition for higher education. It is being met by an unprecedented shortage for students in the United States.

The war has retarded the number of thousands of young men and women who were not necessarily retarded by military service.

The advantage of the G. I. Bill of Rights to veterans of World War I has resulted in an increase in our higher education numbers to an extent that is anticipated a rush of students even though the rush is being retarded by the war.

It is estimated that a stork invasion of the United States is now in progress.

Thousands of student veterans in trailers, doubled up in army barracks, and jam-packed crowded dormitories, the army's new baby precipitates a crisis.

The University of 400 visits to the campus are expected on the 15th. At the University there are 3,000 married students who already have 891 babies and many of whom are expected to be born in the next few weeks.

Similar reports have come from Texas, Florida, Montana, and almost every campus in the United States.

Babies were a rarity once upon a time. They are to be found in almost every campus community.

The importance of the emergency maternity and infant care program are not available to veterans attending school unless their children were conceived while the veterans were in military service. A married veterans' educational subsistence allowance remains at $90 a month regardless of the number of his dependents.

Solution of this campus baby problem calls for utmost cooperation of college, community, state and federal authorities. The national child welfare division of The American Legion is rushing its survey to completion to develop the complete picture so that it can recommend emergency steps to alleviate this new national crisis.

Live Stock Entry Deadline January 18 at Ft. Worth

Floyd county live stock owners who may have in mind to enter animals in the Live Stock show at Fort Worth this spring, are reminded this week that the last possible date to fill out entry application blanks is January 18—next Saturday.

County Agent A. L. Hartzog has some of the blanks in his office and will gladly help stockmen or club boys fill out entry applications upon request.

Allen Parmenters In Contest High 10

Efforts of the Oliver Allens to break into fast company with their Parmenter reds by entering a pen of 13 hens in the 18th Tarleton Egg Laying contest, at Stephenville, were partially rewarded this week when they had a copy of the official report for December placing their pen in the high 10 of 112 pens entered from 11 states including Massachusetts, Minnesota, California and Iowa.

The report shows that the Allens had two hens which laid 24 eggs each in December, three that laid 23 eggs each, four that laid 22 eggs each, two that laid 21 eggs each, and one laid 20—an egg for every day of the month save one.

cause babies brought into the world under such circumstances are not getting a square deal in life, and because it is knocking many veterans out of school.

Present benefits of the federal emergency maternity and infant care program are not available to veterans attending school unless their children were conceived while the veterans were in military service. A married veterans' educational subsistence allowance remains at $90 a month regardless of the number of his dependents.

Solution of this campus baby problem calls for utmost cooperation of college, community, state and federal authorities. Help These Boys With Assessments

Mrs. Ethel Graham this week announced that Travis Lightfoot and J. B. Jordan have been named assessing deputies and have begun an early tax assessing campaign. For a change they are going to "take a stand" in Floydada daily to see how many assessments they can make.

Mr. Lightfoot and Mr. Jordan will be located at the bank corner daily from about 9 to about 5 o'clock, the assessor-collector said.

"It is just an idea, but we think it might work out that a property owner in town with a few minutes to spare had rather render his taxes now than to wait later for the assessor or a deputy to call around at his place, when he might be busy. We'd appreciate it if property owners will keep this in mind and help out by rendering their property for taxes early," Mrs. Graham suggested.

Billy Staniforth, Jr., Injured as Clothes Caught in Machine

Wm. M. Staniforth, Jr., of South Plains, who was injured Friday morning of last week when his clothing got caught in tractor-driven machinery on the Staniforth ranch, is settling into the routine of a fracture patient at Plainview hospital this week, where he is being treated for compound fracture of the lower right arm, a broken nose cuts and abrasions.

Suffering from shock Staniforth was hurried to the hospital soon after the accident occurred. He was preparing to operate a power-driven digger when the machinery ripped Staniforth's outer clothing from his body, pulled him into the fast-moving power and threw him violently to the ground, all within seconds.

Mrs. Staniforth, the former Frances Field, bride of a few weeks, said this week her husband has suffered intensely but appears to be recovering normally.

LIBERTY ON WHEELS

America's stepping stones to freedom—property of the people—are going back to the people, for a visit.

So that men, women and children in Kansas City, Boise and Clinton's Corners may have an opportunity to view the so-called "landmarks of democracy," prized historical documents will pound the rails next spring in the "longest tour in the history of American railroading."

For almost a year a specially-built, fireproof train, guarded by soldiers, sailors, marines and FBI—equipped with every known device to protect its priceless cargo—will sweep across the nation. At cities and towns along the route it will give citizens several days to study at first hand several hundred famous writings they heard about in grade school.

Mr. Mohammed, Thus stay-at-homes who can't get to Washington will be able to see the original Bill of Rights; notes James Madison made during convention debates on these first 10 Amendments; the Declaration of Independence; President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation; Patrick Henry's jotted notes of his "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" speech. Only a facsimile of the Constitution will tour, but plans call for the original of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address to "go on the road."

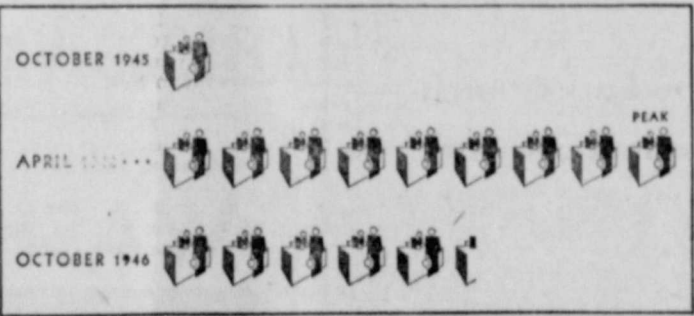

Behind the tour is Atty. Gen. Tom Clark with a serious purpose: To stir a national and local crusade to re-emphasize the concept of American democracy, to re-affirm in the minds and hearts of the American people an understanding and appreciation of the basic principles of our Government.

"Liberty on Wheels," Clark believes, will help "combat alien ideologies."

Let's Start Now!

As far as our school is concerned, the new year will start on Monday morning, January 20. Of course, with the new year we always link resolutions. Thus, as our thoughts turn to the new semester of our new school year, let us all make these resolutions:

1. More study
 2. More names on the second semester honor roll.
 3. More cooperation with both the faculty and other students.
 4. More friendliness to everyone with whom we come in contact.
 5. A lot more of that wonderful Floydada High School spirit that makes our school such a wonderful one in which to work and study.
- If the entire student body will really put themselves into this new year, we can readily make F. H. S. even a better school than it is now.
- Remember that the things that we do are what makes our school what it is, and in this new year let us do our part to help F. H. S. reach its peak.
- The way to make things the best and most pleasant is to start for this goal at the very beginning.

Report on the Band

Well, the eventful holidays are over, and we are back to school again.

The band is going to have to start back in the groove, but don't think they stopped during the holidays because they did not. Maybe you saw them selling fireworks to make more money for their jackets, and they're glad to say they made a great deal.

The Friday before school was dismissed, they had their Christmas party. Everyone brought novelty presents and exchanged them. Mr. Haden surprised them with her-shades, potato chips, and cokes. From all reports everyone surely enjoyed a very pleasant party.

This week the band has been practicing on scales and new marches. "The Marine Hymn" is the latest number, and it seems to be getting along nicely, especially the part where there is a drum solo.

Mr. Haden is already making plans for next year and hopes to have thirty or forty members in the band.

THE WINTER GARDEN of Southern Texas

Where a widely diversified agriculture is possible and profitable.

Where a mild climate means growing crops every month in the year.

Where all-winter pastures of Oats-Clover (mixture) and summer pastures of Sudan and Rhodes Grass mean profitable, year round dairying and beef production.

Where fresh vegetables are grown for Northern markets—during the winter months, when most of the Nation is out of production.

Where Oranges, Grapefruit and Lemons yield abundantly and are marketed throughout the year.

Where productive soil, low taxes and operating costs and a 12-month growing season mean more margin of profit.

Where is any other region that can offer as much? Good soil, low taxes, low irrigation cost and long growing season are basic elements of land values.

As water seeks its level, so will land values seek a level commensurate with its productivity.

If you are tired of uncertainties, come to a district where results are far more sure, where the climate is kind, and where many acres of fertile soil await development.

Kilties Assembly Program is Given

Thursday "The Kilties" presented a very interesting assembly program to the faculty and student body. Chief Nimmo and his squad of singing Scotchmen gave several very beautiful and enjoyable numbers in solos and quartets. A highlight of the program was a number on the bagpipe played by Chief Nimmo.

Some of the main attractions were "The Desert Song"—a solo "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling"—a solo, and "Sundown"—a quartet.

This program was deeply appreciated and enjoyed by everyone.

DE QUACKER

Tests are over now, thank gosh. And fun is in full swing. The kids have started thinking that it will soon be spring! Romance now is going strong. And more is yet to come.

When April comes this year, my gossip business will hum. Maxine's interest seems to be centered around Lubbock. Could it be Joy-boy??? Also Rudy, or could it???

Claud has been having a little too much fun in typing class. Better watch that, Bobbie Jean.

June Powell was seen with Glenn again last Tuesday night. Thought you didn't like him, June.

Norma Jean Moore was seen quite a lot with George Mize during the holidays. Looks as if he didn't waste any time. What happened to your other interests, Norma?

Hope McIntosh and Bobby Finley established a lasting friendship at a party during the holidays, so I hear.

Looks as though Nadine Willis has lost out to Joyce Jarrett. Or is Nadine interested any more? I hear Aline is quite the idea for her now.

But anyway Gene Hollums seems to have fallen for Joyce's charms.

Kelly really thinks that the stories that Lindel writes are the stuff. Or maybe he just thinks that Lindel is the stuff.

Frances Pratt doesn't worry because Deane isn't here. She just gets her a dozen more boy friends—Don't you other girls wish you could—

What seems to be on Dink Bishop's mind lately?? Something surely does occupy his attention during book-keeping class??

Venita Green really must rate with Nita's boy friends—First Lane, then Ken Underwood. What's wrong, Nita? Oh, Yes. A late flash—It seems that Nita is still going with Ken, too—What about this, girls???

Betty Lou, why don't you give some of these guys a break around here?

FLASH
 Beth and Thomas Wayne are busting up! Or are they making up now?? It seems that they can't make up their minds. Could Tuff Hall be involved??

Bill Hale; what's this about Hazel Patton?? Could you have lost the McGuire touch?

Profile of the Week

She is around 5 feet, 5 1/4 inches has brown eyes, is a "natural blonde", is a member of the band, the Jr. Music Club, the "Hesperette" Staff, and is President of the Gamma Sigma Kappa. You guessed it—Hazel Patton.

Hazel just adores Chen Yo "Lucky Devil" lipstick, is madly in love with chocolate cake (any color) and absolutely drools over "Winter Wonderland."

Her favorite pastime is popping her gum with great intensity for the sole purpose of hearing D. A. fuss about it. When asked what her favorite perfume was, Hazel replied, "Tabu or not Tabu" (Joke son!) The best show she ever saw was "Till The End of Time." Her favorite movie stars are Guy Madison and Jane Russell. Such taste! Her ideal boy is 5' 9", has blonde hair and blue-eyes, plays basketball and football, is not conceited, and has a wonderful personality. All this brings into light her biggest weakness—Joe H. Hazel just adores listening to sentimental music and would just love to make one passing grade in Chemistry before she graduates. The type of people she likes have their silly moments as well as their serious ones and are very friendly, and she just hates silly and conceited boys. Her favorite color is pink and the biggest thrill she ever got was playing in the "Powder Bowl." The biggest scare in Hazel's life was when she almost drowned at Carlsbad and her most embarrassing moment was when she wore the bottoms of her pajamas to school without knowing it.

Hazel sounded most unindustrious when describing her ideal day. She would like to get up about twelve eat lunch, go back to bed, get up in time for supper, and go back to bed again.

The height of Hazel's ambition is to be a preacher's wife and also to fall deeply in love. She plans to go to Texas Tech next year. Her major will be "compulsology."

Here's wishing lots of luck and success throughout your life, Hazel—you really deserve it.

Each of Texas' 254 counties currently is producing or has produced oil or gas, or has land under lease for oil and gas development, a new map prepared Jan. 1 by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association shows.

Texas oil and gas counties number 169, while former petroleum counties total 17. The 68 others have land leased for oil and gas exploration and development. Counties added to the oil column include Edwards, Knox and Madison, where recent discoveries were made, and Newton, Nolan and Walker, which had shows earlier, but which reported their first production last year.

Nearly 54,000,000 acres, or virtually one-third the entire land area of Texas, is now under lease for oil and gas development. Texas farmers, ranchers and other land-owners receive around $215,000,000 a year in lease and royalty payments, the Association reported. This extra "cash crop" totals more than two billion dollars for the past twenty-five years, or nearly one-seventh of the value of all Texas agricultural crops during the period.

Discharges recorded in the county clerk's office in the last week:

Ralph C. Pawver, T/5, 1938th Engineer Aviation Utility Co. discharged from Separation Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, December 4, 1946.

H. C. Clark, T/5, Battery B, 147th Field Artillery Battalion discharged from Separation Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, November 23, 1946.

A BANK'S REWARD FOR WELL-DOING

A bank should be strong in friends as well as in assets. Friends are won by service, by courteous attention to individual needs and desires, and finally by safeguarding the interests of those who do business with the bank.

In fact, friends come — and stay — as the rewards of a bank for well-doing.

If we give you service which you like and find helpful, you will tell your friends and they will come to us for similar service.

Without laying any claims to perfection, we do try earnestly to please and benefit those who come here, and we believe you would find this a pleasant place to bank.

Apoplectic Stroke Friday Proves Fatal For Mrs. Smith

An apoplectic stroke suffered Friday morning by Mrs. Carl Smith, 46, at the family home in Campbell community, proved fatal within a brief period after she was found unconscious by her husband. Medical aid, hastily summoned, proved unavailing.

Mrs. Smith had been active in her household duties during the early hours of the day. She died at 10:30. Funeral rites were held at Blessing Funeral parlor, Mansfield, Texas, Sunday afternoon, and interment made in the cemetery at Pleasant Point. Rev. Ross Holland officiated. Besides the surviving husband, Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. R. H. Groom, resides at Lillian. Mrs. Groom is in a hospital at Mansfield and could not be present for the rites.

Born Vernice Roby Groom on December 31, 1901, Mrs. Smith came to Floyd county in 1938, following her marriage to Mr. Smith on August 11 of that year.

Funeral rites were attended by Bud Hamilton and daughter Nell, of Alken, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Norrell and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Baxter, Mrs. J. T. Poole, Johnnie Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hall, Jr. of Floydada. The body was taken overland in a Harmon Funeral home hearse. Sam Smith, a brother of Carl, and Bud Ellis, a brother-in-law, of Cleburne, who were here Friday afternoon returned to Johnson county with the funeral party.

Bank Elections—

of the First National bank at Crosbyton will be held this afternoon at the bank's office there.

Election at Lockney

At Lockney the same board of directors and officials were re-elected, with one additional vice-president chosen in the person of Helen Boedeker. The board of directors re-named are:

E. D. Teuton, T. Z. Reed, W. L. Betts, Artie Baker and L. E. Gross. Re-elected as president was Artie Baker, as vice-president W. L. Betts and T. Z. Reed, as cashier L. E. Gross and as assistant cashier Mrs. June Bybee.

The Lockney bank added $10,000 to its surplus account, making a total of $60,000 surplus. With a capital of $50,000 and $15,464.22 undivided profits, the total capital investment is $125,464.22.

Bob Robertson—

sence of Magistrate H. F. Pipkins, ruled the death a suicide.

Robertson's estranged wife, from whom he was divorced on December 31, and Robertson's attorney, John Hamilton, had just left his room when the shot was heard. A property settlement had been agreed upon by Robertson and his wife and was in process of being effected.

Thought Up Bob's Old Well

Prominent in civic affairs of Motley county, Robertson was a former commander of the American Legion post there, and a Mason. He

Move Jack Henry To Vet Hospital

Jack Henry of the staff of Floydada Post office, who was injured the evening of December 23 on a down-town street in Floydada and has been in Plainview hospital since being treated for broken bones in both legs, will continue his convalescence in the veterans' hospital at Amarillo.

Wednesday morning he was moved in a Harmon ambulance from Plainview to Amarillo. He is expected to be weeks or months recovering sufficiently to return home although he has had normal recovery today, considering his injuries, reports indicate.

was agent for the Continental Oil company, owned the widely advertised "Bob's Oil Well," and had assembled a most interesting collection of pioneer relics on the property adjacent. His most recent business venture was the construction of an elaborate cafe and dining room at the same site, replacing an older building which had brought fame to the name of Bob's Oil well. He was also extensively interested in farming and ranching in the vicinity.

Betha Rayne Robertson, a student at West Texas State college, is the only surviving child. A half-brother and two half-sisters also survive.

W. F. McCaghen, employe of Robertson for the past 14 years was named Tuesday as temporary agent in charge of Continental Oil company's extensive oil agency which Robertson conducted.

March of Dimes—

is discovered and conquered.

"The National Foundation also intends to pursue vigorously its far-reaching educational program to inform the public on precautions against the disease; what to do if and when polio strikes, and what your March of Dimes is prepared to do for every American, regardless of age, creed, color or race, stricken by the dread crippler -- and that is to provide the best available care, regardless of cost, until maximum recovery is assured.

Appeals for Support

"The people of Floyd County, in common with Americans everywhere," Mr. Ginn went on, "have been most generous in the past in supporting the fight against infantile paralysis through the March of Dimes. Indications are that they will even be more generous this year because they know that this is their fight. They realize that the March of Dimes is their best insurance against polio -- and that the battle will go on in the laboratory until final victory is won and infantile paralysis joins the other great scourges of mankind unmasked and disarmed by knowledge."

One half of the funds raised in Floyd county is kept in the county for local use. During the 1946 epidemic $1003 was spent out of Floyd county fund, which left a balance of $963, in our local funds, Mr. Ginn said.

The campaign is set up with the following chairmen:

Edd Johnson, Floydada city chairman;

Marvin Gilbert, Lockney city chairman; and

Clarence Guffee, rural school chairman.

It is hoped that Floyd county will raise $2000, for this campaign.

WTSC Who's Who List Carries One From Floyd County
