Tax Valuation Raise Forecast For Monday

Come Monday, June 11, and the meeting of the Commissioner's court of Floyd county as a board of equalization, $18 of Floyd county's taxpayers are due to report and show cause why their valuations for state and county taxes should not be raised.

At least they have a notice from the court clerk to that effect. A check of the list of rendition marked for a raise indicates that 90 per cent or more of the raises are on town property, and of that largely on homesteads in Floydada and Lockney. The Floydada list has 524 names on it, the Lockney list 251 names. Dourherty has four and 39 non-residents are notified to appear and show cause. Of the 39 non-residents three are railroads, 2 are cotton oil companies, one a refinery and one a storage company.

Few Tracts of Land
Included in the list scheduled for raise are a few tracts of land. No effort was made by the reporter to get at the total raise for all the 818 property owners nor the probable cost to them in additional taxes. The proposed raises run from about 10 per cent to slightly more than 300 per cent in instances.

The county's property owners have enjoyed low valuations for taxes for several years, so far as state and county assessments are concerned, this being the first proposed raise in more than 15 years for any appreciable number of taxpayers. The raise, however, is not "across the board" but, as indicated above, practically altogether on town property and of these principally on homestead residence property. A few business concerns are included in the list and a number represent new improvements moved in to the towns or new homes built on formerly vacant lots.

None of the members of the court have been contacted by The Hesperian to get an appraisal of their reasons for the raises which are proposed on some property and none on other property. Practically all property in the county, both real and personal, including the properties listed for raises, was rendered on the basis that has prevailed for a number of years, far below market values at present.

Club Boys Show Barn is Nearing Finish This Week

Work on the boys' club show building on the rodeo association grounds adjacent to 12th street in east Floydada has been going along with speed, but the business of getting the money to pay for it has not been making so much progress. Roy C. Curry, who was named to have general supervision of the building, has had as many men at work on the job as was possible all the time and yesterday the sheet iron was going on the roof, indicating the job had been about completed.

"Just first one thing and another" has been in the way of general solicitation for funds to finance the building, mainly a matter of finding somebody to work at the finance with equal zeal of the volunteers to get the work done. Roy C. Curry told the Chamber of Commerce and rodeo association officials when they asked him to oversee the job that he "had a little time" before the harvest and wouldn't have any after it began. Commitment with a little time for the financial budget have been more difficult to find.

Now would be a good time for all good men to come to the aid of the building fund, Oscar L. Stansell said this week. All the volunteer money that can be got together will be that much saving in time for solicitation, he pointed out. Stansell and Calvin Steen took the first pledges for the building and helped Lon M. Davis engineer the purchase of the Johnson warehouse from which they obtained sheet iron and dimension lumber. The building is costing more, at that than was first expected, said E. L. Angus, who has been taking a major interest in the building.

Good For Everybody
The club building will have so many possible uses that it will lend itself to many good uses in the county, the committeemen urge. In addition to FFA and 4-H club work many uses to encourage agriculture and livestock, and other affairs of general interest. Instead of being useful for two or three days a year it can be of service 10 to 20 days a year if it fills its mission thoroughly.

While money is being collected in the name of the 4-H Club Building fund, the reason is that that name was "thought up" as a short one. It might have been called half a dozen other names and have served the same purpose. As for instance, not by women's clubs, by county fairs, by poultry clubs, horse or colt show, dairy show—most anything of the kind—said O. L. Stansell.

Light Plant Vote in Floydada Due Saturday, June 7

Residents of the City of Floydada are scheduled to pass on the county's proposed light and power division expansion program Saturday of this week, June 7.

Issuance of light and power system revenue bonds aggregating $175,000 will be passed on in the election. Of this amount $58,000 will be used to retire the present 4% revenue-bearing bond issue to get a lower rate of interest and the remaining $117,000 will be used for expansion of the system, principally for the installation of additional power plant unit, according to plans of the council, if the vote is favorable.

Potts is chairman of this committee and suggestor of the film for use in visual education for highway traffic safety. Floydada Garden club is sponsoring the Friday morning presentation of the film, which will be the last time it will be shown here at this time. All are invited to see the film which will be projected by H. G. Barber of the high school faculty.

Southw's't'rn Has Huge Expansion Job In Process

Southwestern Public Service company, which serves an area extending from southern Kansas to Carlsbad in New Mexico, got the jump on industrial growth and rural electrification in this area and is in process of expending $16 million dollars for enlargements and betterments, started in 1946 and due to be completed two years hence.

Guy Ginn, manager of the Floydada district for Southwestern, said this week that the program includes more than $300,000 in Floyd county some of which has already been accomplished, included in the finished category is the 66,000-volt loop through the western part of the county, with huge sub-stations to afford power for irrigation to many farms and to energize lines to the farm homes of the area.

In the program for completion in the next year or so is a completely re-built, and possibly re-located, power line to carry current to Lockney and Floydada. It will be a shielded line and will reduce service interruptions to the minimum through the use of automatic switches. On January 1, 1946, when the expansion program was started Southwestern had generating capacity of 142,200 kilowatts and when the present program blueprint is finished and additional 122,000 kilowatts will have been added, together with an immense increase in new lines and substations in the territory.

O'Possum Family Makes Abode Here

Tracks of a grown possum in Willson & Son Lumber yard about six months ago and in due sequence the appearance with them of many little possum tracks six weeks ago had employed them waiting for what happened a morning or two ago when they found a third-grown possum in a refuse barrel looking for what he could find.

Yesterday morning the second young one was caught in the same barrel and there ought to be some more appearances along now. Possums, spelled o'possums by Mr. Webster and others, are such a rarity that most local children have never seen one and Hubert Davis yesterday had the last little fellow they caught, nailed up in a box to take home for the kids to see.

Grain Ripens Normally As Weather Favors Crop

Sunshine and wind for 11 days, with no rainfall and a minimum of overcast have had Floyd county wheat crops, numbering upward of 300,000 acres total, developing in a normal way, with daily improving prospects, subject only to what the weather man may bring.

But the ground is very wet and all that sap can do to hold a crop back from early maturity is going on out in the fields, with the probability that the grain will be the lightest weight since 1941, so far as this area is concerned.

No probability is indicated by any wheat growers contacted or by grain dealers that any trial runs will be begun under 10 days and it is two weeks, maybe more, before the grain in any appreciable quantities will be going to the elevators.

Remarkable uniformity in appearance of the crop all over the county has been noted by many who have gotten around through the area. Down-state grain men, who make the area, are said to believe that Floyd county people have their wheat crop over-estimated. However, an occasional field with three grains to the mesh and 18 to 21 meshes to the head are reported, and that kind of wheat won't disappoint anybody. Reports received at The Hesperian office point to the probability that wheat in the northeast part of the county is favored slightly for high yield than other portions.

Grain Car Situation
With railroads warned for the past 90 days that the wheat crop in the southwest and middle west is to be an enormous one and the need for cars will be urgent, confidence has been expressed that enough car and storage will be available to handle the crop in a reasonably normal manner. The situation, both as to grain cars and storage, is enormously better than at this time last year.

Of the three rail systems serving Floyd county officials of the Santa Fe, the Fort Worth & Denver and the Q & A & P have indicated they will have some cars with which to begin the season and if they can get quick enough turn around at terminals and do not have to haul the wheat too far they will be able to cope with the situation.

This war time program is being continued this year by congressional appropriation as a benefit to farmers faced with harvesting available. The agent stated that his office placed 135 combines in the county last harvest season and

Rural Electric Receives Bids on 100 Miles Line

Indicating that materials for construction of electric high lines are getting a slight bit more plentiful and pointing hopefully to the energizing of Floyd County Rural Electric cooperatives' system, the board of directors of the R. E. coop here Tuesday opened bids for the construction of 100 miles of their M system, and are hopeful of getting an approval of the bid from the Washington office of Rural Electric administration.

Low bidder was Lyman Walker Electric company, Cleburne, Texas, with a gross of $24,830.74 for the 100 miles of construction. Second low firm was Basanda Construction company, Dallas, which offered to do the work for $24,931.80. Three other bidders were Rhinehart & Donovan, Oklahoma City, B & C Construction company, Dallas, and Cento-Nelson, El Paso, Texas.

"Receipt of materials is improving to the extent that we felt justified in getting a contractor to help in the construction of the lines still not built," said L. V. Chapman, manager, yesterday. The coop has been struggling to get materials on hand and work done. Weather has been unfavorable and materials have moved in very slowly. However, as working weather would permit the coop has been getting about a mile built a day. They are on "L" section of 100 miles and lack about 50 miles of completion.

The contract which the coop hopes to consummate with approval of Washington includes lines in Hale, Floyd, Briscoe and Crosby counties, all a part of 279-mile "M" section. Of the 179 miles not included the tentative contract, Chapman said that if the home crew finishes their job first they will get on the additional miles, while if the contractors finish first they will be given an amended contract and take over on a part of it.

Controlling Flies. — Plains people are just beginning to realize what a great thing it is going to be to be able to control flies in particular and insects of the same characteristics in general, as for instance mosquitoes. Synthetics, except for the shiftless, is going to mean fly-less barns, fly-less garbage cans, fly-less poultry houses. And as soon as stockowners can arrange it, cattle not "eaten up" by horn flies nor "run to death" by heel flies; and cows with grub-less backs next spring.

Roses Their Loveliest. — Spirea this early spring and now roses at their loveliest. When nature is kind plains flowers are the prettiest flowers, the most luxuriant. Pay off for the women who work with their gardens. Perhaps prettiest views in Floydada right now are the roses along fences. Why not a word from you to the growers saying how you delight in the beauty their thoughtfulness has provided? Flowers for the living you know!

No Harvest Right Now. — Our reader who lives down in Texas will be interested: Do not expect to hear from your renter or lessees that harvest has begun any time in the next several days, past the 10th of June anyhow, and on most of the acreage considerably later. There may be some wheat in Floyd county that will be mature enough and dry for the harvest by the end of next week but we haven't seen it. Anything you haven't seen you doubt, you know.

STILL HAS NO STANDING

Unless we continue to be ill-informed the State of Texas will continue to give the chiropractors no legal status.

The medical men, the chiropractors and the osteopaths tried to get together—or at least to outward appearances they did—on a type of health bill for Texas that would be all-inclusive and still maintain for each type of health practice its own identity. Apparently the effort has already failed and there will be no clarification in the standing of the chiropractor in particular.

Few wonder, of course, how the chiropractors continue to operate without what we call official standing, for it is well-known that efforts to prosecute have found few juries receptive in recent years. Juries just refuse to convict in spite of the way the law reads. Many people want chiropractors and the vast majority of the others are willing for them to have the kind of health service they want.

ANOTHER BIT OF FOOD INFORMATION

This great compendium of useful information, especially valuable in homes of our better people and on occasion borrowed by their neighbors, has another food suggestion that is due to be epoch-making.

This suggestion is as regards string beans that are put up in cans. We offer this strictly as a matter for consideration. We do not ask that a constitutional amendment be adopted or anything of the kind.

All we ask, ladies, is that you "string" the beans before you put them in the can. We do not particularly like string beans but it appears we are going to be offered them frequently, and often, fresh from the can. Assume the commercial or "standardized" beans are going to have strings on them and we ask no odds of any man so far as they are concerned. We will firmly push them aside and damned be he who shoves them farther, or if that be not good English, then further!

But could not the good and faithful Floyd county housewife, since she is going to can beans anyhow, and spend about so many days at it, pull the dam strings out before the cooking process is started? This suggestion is offered apologetically and in all humility. Why, ladies, why copy everything! Isn't your husband all right? Aren't his children about as good prospects for president as the next? Can you hazard any hope for a kid that spends all of his time pulling the strings out from behind his teeth? Them standardizing folks from Philadelphia are all right but if you go along with them far enough you won't have a son fitten to run for governor much less president.

RENT CONTROL OR NOT

Among other important events during the month of June will come the decision of the Congress and of the president as to rent controls—whether the present law will be retained unchanged, whether it will be amended and re-enacted, or just discarded.

There are valid arguments for and against discarding the control of rents, and the likelihood is that one's experiences of the war and post-war days will have quite a bit to do with his judgment as to steps that must be taken now.

President Truman thinks rent controls should be continued. A majority in the Senate and House quite definitely want some major changes or complete discard of the control measures. Since there have been injustices to many property owners, and the present law has numerous loopholes and technicalities it seems the law should at least be rewritten, and any reasonable change the president is likely to go along with. However, for a few months at least it seems the controls should be maintained. Experience in small towns like Floydada will give an idea of how totally out of control rents would get shortly if rent control were taken off in the larger centers. What actually is going to happen will be known within 30 days for the present law expires on June 30.

BUILDERS! ARCHITECTS!

Now is the time to Join the Swing to GAS

Right now you could probably sell a grass hut to an Eskimo or an igloo to a Hottentot. Even so, it pays to build houses people really want. It pays... not only in immediate sales... but in long-term prestige.

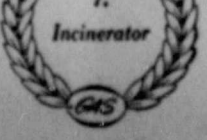

That is why so many farsighted architects and builders are turning to the all-Gas home.

Especially in the Southwest, gas is the fuel people know and prefer. In our cities and towns, everyone uses gas. And modern Gas service—with postwar Gas appliances—promises even greater ease, comfort and efficiency. Here are a few ways it adds to better living:

House heating with an automatic Gas furnace assures cozy warmth on the rawest winter day. Year-round Gas air-conditioning goes even farther—actually brings healthful comfort in every kind of weather. Hot water in abundance is provided for every need... and with such economy and speed-of-recovery that it is possible to own both an automatic dishwasher and automatic laundry. Silent Gas refrigeration keeps foods fresh for long periods and eliminates daily shopping trips. The automatically controlled Gas range cooks meals and turns itself off while the homemaker relaxes or shops or attends to other duties. Incineration simplifies disposal of refuse. A Gas clothes-dryer makes laundering easy and rapid.

Yet, with all this, Gas is economical! Both the initial cost of equipment and carrying charges are low. Mass production, due to volume demand, has resulted in high quality without high cost. And this superior quality plus freedom from mechanical wear means that appliances stay at their peak of efficiency for a longer time. Add to that the well-known economy of operation and it is obvious why Gas is the best buy for any client's money.

Most important of all (from your point of view)... Gas appliances are designed compactly to save space—space that often allows you to put in an extra room or cut down the outside dimensions. They reduce building costs further because they require only simple connections. And the attractive streamlined design of each of the seven Gas appliances listed at the left is so recognizably modern that they help sell a house on sight!

Strawberries Good Fruit for Home Freezing

If you freeze your own fruit at home, strawberries should be your dish. Leila Petty, County Home Demonstration agent from the Extension Service of Texas A. and M. college, tells us that there are several reasons for laying in a supply of frozen strawberries this spring. To begin with, strawberries have proved to be one of the best fruits we have for home freezing. They are easy to freeze, and on the nutrition side, they are crammed full of vitamin C. And fresh or frozen, strawberries are big favorites with just about all of us. Miss Petty says some berries can be frozen without sweetening, but strawberries keep their flavor and texture better when packed with sugar. You can figure on using about one cup of sugar for four cups of berries.

Here's the procedure you can follow. Sort and wash the berries in cold water, discarding the green, bruised or overripe fruit. Then cap the berries. Of course, you can leave them whole or sliced, just as you prefer. Next comes the sweetening, one cup of sugar for about four to six cups of berries. Add the sugar slowly, turning the berries over gently until it dissolves.

Then pack the fruit tightly in containers, making sure juice covers the pack. Be sure to leave room for them to expand in freezing. Miss Jones says to allow about one inch for expansion if you're using the carton and bag containers, and an inch and a half in a glass jar or tin can. Then seal tightly. Remember that frozen berries can't be removed from a glass jar until they are at least partly thawed. However, a specially designed wide-mouthed freezer jar is due to be on the market in June, so perhaps you'll want to keep an eye out for them.

For more detailed information on freezing strawberries and other fruits, ask at the Extension office for a copy of Extension Bulletin 130 "Freezing Foods for Home Use."

Post Stampede Forecast As Big Garza Co. Event

POST—All of Garza county donned western togs last Saturday night and attended a street dance which opened a western-clothes campaign which will last here until after the annual Post Stampede and rodeo in the new arena June 11-14 inclusive.

The town is being decorated this week and Post merchants are readying their floats and naming their cowgirl sponsors for the most colorful daily rodeo parade the town has seen since before the war.

In celebration of the completion of the new rodeo area, on Highway 84 north of the city limits, some new features have been added to this year's rodeo celebration. On Brownfield night at the rodeo some Indian dances will be featured. On succeeding nights, each honoring a West Texas town, other special programs have been planned. Thursday, June 12, will be Snyder night; June 13, will be Levelland night; and the closing night June 14, will be Colorado City night. Each town is sending a queen to the rodeo.

All cowgirls of West Texas are invited to enter the Cowgirl Sponsor contest, for which a hand-tooled saddle will be given as first prize. Second prize will be show-made boots and the third prize will be silver spurs.

The usual money prizes will be given for the regular rodeo events which will include amateur performances in bareback bronc riding, wild cow milking, wild steer riding and cutting horse contest.

Sidelights From Washington

(By George Mahon)
Previously I reported that the Republican majority in the House of Representatives would seek to reduce sharply the requests of the president for agriculture. Last week the Agricultural Appropriation bill passed the House in a form that was very unsatisfactory to many members from farm areas. I voted against reporting the bill out of the Appropriations committee and spoke and voted for many amendments offered to the bill.

Briefly, here is what the bill does. 1. Cut AAA soil conservation payments from $300,000,000 to $164,000,000. Farmers will have every reason to feel that this is a breach of faith by the government as Congress and the President had in effect months ago promised to provide the full amount of $300,000,000 for the 1947 crop year.

2. The bill provides that the Farmers Home administration, successor to the FSA, must discontinue the farm ownership program known as the Farm Tenant Purchase program. FHA loan funds for crop production are cut by one-third.

3. REA funds for administration of the program were cut by $1,600,000 and loan authorizations for REA coops were reduced by $25,000,000.

4. Funds for the Soil Conservation service to be used in connection with the conservation districts, and otherwise, were cut by 10 per cent.

5. Funds for the school lunch program were reduced from $75,000,000 to $45,000,000.

In previous years 30% of the tariff receipts have been available for supporting farm prices and disposing of agricultural surpluses. The bill reduces this program by two-thirds.

The votes in the House of Representatives on most of the above issues were very close. On a motion by the Democrats to restore the full $300,000,000 for soil conservation payments and some of the other items, we lost by a count of 174 to 180.

What the Senate will now do with the bill remains to be seen. Undoubtedly some changes will be made by the Senate and House before the measure goes to the President for final approval late in June. The outcome of the controversy over this legislation is of vital importance to all farm areas.

Hesperian about some

C. E. Donnell, M. D., Plainview)
remembrances of people
I have known that have livnow live in Floyd county that at this celebration May 28
It is said that remembrances
long ago are signs of old age long ago on one. Well, be that I have never yet found a
that was not filled with pride
he could say, I have been in this country more than 50 years.

Our family moved from Missouri in 1889 to Baylor county, Texas. One of my uncles, L. A. Donnell, had settled there in 1879. He was Quarter Master sergeant under Col. Sterling
Price during the Civil war.
It was my privilege, as a boy of 15 to be in a group of men prospecting the Plains from Seymour Your good citizen, R. C. Scott, was stranded there with a roll of bedding and a saddle. He joined us and came with us to Matador where he found some Floyd county friends
My father and I liked him very much. I am like the Chinaman.
When my son was with occupation
forces in China his Chinese servant laid his hand over his heart and said, "You number one right in here." I have not seen much of Scott during these years but have always been glad to meet him. One morning after we had passed Guthrie some few miles we drove through a gate into the Pitchfork. When Scott opened the gate he saw a plover. He came to the wagon and took my old musket out to kill the plover. When he shot the gun kicked him on the right cheek. I do not remember if he killed the plover.

Probably he did not look to see if it was dead.
It was very gratifying that I got to meet Mrs. Scott. When I went to McLean, May 1905, her father, Phil Reeves, was sheriff of Gray county and lived at Alanreed. I knew him well and also Elmer and Ernest, his sons, and Vera, the daughter there. I helped celebrate the arrival of Vera's son, Clyde Charles, August 14, 1914. She is now Mrs. Charles J. McMurry of Clarendon. Glad Snodgrass I have met on several different times in the years past and he was connected with the Reeves family some way.
Two of your citizens, Malcolm and Thomas Earl Daniel, I have known all their lives, their mother being my cousin. Their father, Judge J.
E. Daniel, who has lived in Floydada since the spring of 1946 was my school teacher in the state of Missouri in 1888. He moved to Briscoe county, Texas, July, 1892; was school teacher; county and district clerk;
also, county judge and for years was secretary of the N. P. L. A. of Briscoe county.

They Taught in Briscoe
Mrs. Frank Montague—nee Mrs.
Fannie Wilson comes next in line.
She, Judge Daniel and myself a'
had been teachers in the Lakeview school in Briscoe county during the 1890's. Daniel, 1894-95; Miss Fannie spring, summer and fall of both 1898 and 1899. I think it would be hard to find three people now living that had taught in the same school at different times during the 1890's.

Then, there was with us
Mrs. Montague's brother, Charles Wilson who lived in Briscoe. Later in the day I met the wife of W. B.
Wilson nee Callie Jane Randolph
who I think was raised in Floyd county. I had met her father many times while I lived at Canyon. Her husband and I were good pals in our young days.
Next I go to register and Mary (Gamble) Shaw writes my name in the register. I knew Mary and her sister and brother John while they were in the college at Canyon. At the courthouse entrance I meet another college student while at Canyon, Mrs. Henry Price nee Mahel Garrison. They now live at Silverton. Then, at the same place I met Mrs. Kate (Courtney) Ward. She is a sister of my good friends at Canyon, Mrs. A. B. Duncan, Jr., and Miss Johnnie Courtney.

Friend of James A. Oden
The next fellow is Conner Oden.
I met his father, James A. Oden, at Dimmitt in 1902. We became close friends. He was manager of the V.V.N. ranch in Bailey county and was county commissioner of Bailey
and the southwest corner of Castro county. When Jim was fixing to get married I had to dress him for the occasion otherwise he probably never could have been married. When I went to Canyon in 1921 they lived there and it was my good pleasure to have them as my patrons. Bill Conner, for whom this boy Conner Oden gets his name, had a small ranch in Castro county but he was the founder of Tulia, Texas. We always try to help celebrate the anniversary of the organization of Swisher county, July 17. Swisher was organized in 1890 as well as Floyd.

Dr. Geo. V. Smith and I attended
medical school together three years.
It is always a pleasure to run into him. I was sorry I did not get to see more of him during the day. The day was too full for me and he was busy too as usual, but as a student I counted G. V. and L. V. Smith my best student friends.
I was in a summer normal school
in Plainview during the summer of 1897 with one Charles W. Smith. I met one of his sons, Carl Smith whom I had the privilege of serving while he lived in Randall county.
Also his double cousin R. L. Mickey.
The Mickey name was heard many times back yonder as a post office.
I was very glad to meet Carl again
and to make the acquaintance of Mr. R. L. Mickey.

Clyde Dodson was there for some purpose but I never asked him. He has lived at Aspermont for 38 years.
He knew my good friend Dr. Mc-Cammant there years ago. There were two Dodson families formerly of near Lockney that I have known.
When Floyd county was organized
T. J. Braidfoot and Mr. McLain ran Della Plain for county seat. They were defeated. I met Braidfoot's daughters, Gaudslopie and Gertrude and they came in Floyd county in 1887 from Seymour. I know their folks there, the Porters and others. Also, met Tom McLain who was a son of McLain. The Braidfoot girls and I attended the first school ever taught in Briscoe county

How women and girls
may get wanted relief
from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aching and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 2 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

The girls are now Mrs. Otis Reeves of Plainview and Mrs. John Arnold of Silverton. Otis Reeves was a brother of Oscar Reeves, the crippled man that I am sure most of the oldtimers in Floyd county knew I married their sister Daisy Reeves
I should say that Mr. Braidfoot went over into Briscoe county and settled Silverton and ran that for a county seat and won it. Mrs. Braidfoot named Silverton.

Muncy's Preaching Experiences
Brother R. E. L. Muncy as a citizen and preacher of the gospel has been a contributing force for good to the welfare of Floyd as well as some others. He was called to pastor the Baptist flock of Silverton 1897. He made the run to Silverton once each month until 1900 when he moved there and stayed for a year or more.
When he was called the membership
wanted to raise some money to pay him for his monthly service. There were twelve men that agreed to pay one dollar per month each. That might have been pretty good but I have always wondered about that.

Bro. Muncy had a preacher Elder hold a meeting in 1900. It was a real meeting, too, and the crowd raised $130 for the visiting preacher. I got after one of the members who later was my sister-in-law, and told her they should raise part of that for Muncy. Any way they got out and raised him $50. He went to Fort Worth, bought a new suit
and attended the State convention
like a white man. Long may he live.

I met Clifton Crabtree. When I went to McLean I bought a horse of his brother Eldridge, Old Sam, was his name. When I reached McLean
I soon met his Uncle Jim Crabtree who moved over there from Floyd county. I gave Eldridge $60 for Sam and did it in a hurry to keep him from backing out. The first time I saw him after that he said
"I was a fool for ever selling him."

"I kept Sam until he was 26 years of age. He was a good horse but he surely didn't like to pull a single buggy nor leave town on any kind of drive. When he started home his head was in the air. Always when I start toward home I say to my car, Sam has his head in the air.
That makes me go faster. I drove and rode him for 18 years. I love
a good horse like any cowboy.
I met a Mr. H. C. Wells, Graham
Texas. I surmised that his wife was probably a sister of Mrs. W. B.
Wilson as they were together. Anyway he asked if I were related to people in Young by my name. He has a neighbor that has my full name. We are 3rd cousins the way
I count cousins. His folk settled in Young county in 1876.
Along in the afternoon I met Mrs.
Homer Threet nee Gertie Donnell another 3rd cousin who lives at Lockney.
Then, there were Jesse B. Jenkins, Robin Baker, Claude Witherspoon and wife, Wade Davenport and wife, and Buck Conner of Briscoe, Ferrell Abbott, Canyon and Mrs. Maude Burrus, all of whom I could have something nice to say if I had time to write and the editor
had space to print.

Billy Jack Eudy, student at Texas Tech college, has arrived home to parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eudy.

tion.

Joe H. Smith, In Arabia, Has Intriguing Job

Joe H. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Smith, of Harmony, who left the latter part of last year for Arabia to spend a contract period working in an agricultural development project, wrote back home recently to W. L. Stangel, dean of agriculture, at Texas Technological college, giving something of his experiences and reaction to conditions in the Near East.

The letter appeared in a recent issue of the Tech ex-students periodical and the main portion of it is reprinted here below:

We left the states on January 11 and arrived in Arabia January 17. The trip was without event. We had short layovers until reaching Cairo, Egypt. The layover there was something over two days and we surely made the most of it. The pyramids, Moslem temples and many other points of interest were things we will always remember. A trip along the Nile Valley revealed some of the most alluring but most expensive farm land that I have ever seen. Even there, the price of the land would reach in the more choice localities, several thousand dollars an acre. We saw many acres of fine alfalfa, several types of native crops and of course the inevitable date trees. I was a little disappointed that none of the famous Egyptian cotton appeared. I suppose that might come on the next trip there. The Anderson Clayton Cotton Company is supposed to have a sixty four stand gin in that country and I intend to see it before I return.

While flying over Arabia on the way in, I looked at the vast expanse of desert below me and wondered what an agriculture man would find to do here. The spots of vegetation seen along the way resembled yards in a sea of night. I must admit that I felt someone had made a mistake, perhaps the air line. However being a true son of the state that raised me and having a little sand in my own veins, I took a deep breath and did not bail out.

The country is ruled as you may know, by King Ibn Saud. Mr. Edwards has reported to us from several conferences with the king that he is intensely interested in progress in the agriculture field. This may seem a little odd when one thinks of the vast desert that is Arabia. However this land has many so called valleys where water is available and which we are told could be turned into agriculture productivity. Here there is little doubt lies one if not the chief salvation for Arabia. If these localities prove on further inspection to be subject to agriculture endeavor, it is my hope that some day the men who will have labored here may rest with the knowledge that they have aided materially in the betterment of a race of people.

At the present time this mission has under cultivation in the neighborhood of two thousand acres. Although the new equipment ordered may not arrive for several months, we plan an expansion of several hundred acres in the near future. It might be added here that equipment is the big limiting factor at the present time. The order for new operating material advanced by Mr. Edwards through the king will alleviate that upon arrival.

The acreage I speak of consists of wheat, barley alfalfa, some grain sorghum, date trees and all of the vegetables that are grown in the states. This part of the project was begun by our government a few years ago and shows a certain amount of progress.

As you are in part, perhaps large part responsible for my being here, I will explain on the present assignment given me by Mr. Edwards.

I have charge of the Kafs Douglas tract, situated in somewhat of a valley and located about thirty miles from the headquarters of Al Khari. At the present time I am attempting to save in the neighborhood of seven hundred acres which was planted both early and late. I am by native labor attempting to plant fifty acres of alfalfa and about thirty acres of vegetables. Along with this I am endeavoring to prepare at least three hundred acres of new land for grain sorghum. With the present terrific shortage of modern equipment, it is hard to overestimate the ever-recurring problems that arise. The water for the project is obtained from a too elaborate system of pumps installed by the Austrian Government. In a little while I hope to have six six-inch pumps and three, eight-inch pumps in operation. The water itself would seem to be a miracle. In this case it is found in a so called ion; nothing more than a hole in the ground perhaps fifty feet in diameter in which the water comes to within forty feet of the surface. So far this water has held up very well. Of course our project depends in large part upon the water supply. We have reason to believe it will be sufficient.

I am working at the present time, one hundred and sixty men and plan an increase in the near future. These workers are paid for regular day labor, eighty riyals per month, which amounts to about twenty seven dollars. Of course the head farmer and other key men are paid more.

I as yet have had no picture developed of the project.

There is so much more that I could say but perhaps I should close for this time.

Joe T. Smith.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

Floyd and Crosby counties have celebrated their home-coming one more year. Many responded to the call, duties kept others at home, but many have gone on to await year at another Reunion, the Home-gathering in Heaven.

Smiles and tears chase across faces we remember and love as we gather together again. The time is too short to span the memories of the years since we were young and the west was new as a pair of cowboy boots. We clasp hands and wonder if we shall meet another year.

At Floydada the ladies of the home demonstration clubs served a fine meal, but as Gule Snodgrass passed me with his well-laden plate he mourned, "But Mrs. Spikes where is the plum butter?" To you who may not know, plum butter took its place on the plain pine tables along with the big bowl of gravy and once when Eli Jones, a pretty big boy, was passed the plum butter when he just called for butter, he yelled, "I meant the native butter." How little was that native butter!

The prairies full of cattle and only butter during the summer months when one was fortunate enough to pick up cows with calves which would give enough milk for the family and a little bit for the calves.

At Ralls we spread dinner together the old fashioned way and ate and talked and talked. Eugene Naugle was just in time to get a plate and eat with the rest. It had been only some fifty years since Eugene had eaten in Crosby County but he made up for lost time. He is pastor of the Methodist church at Dazzaroute and his father was my first teacher at Emma. Eugene brought along a picture made at that school and there I am with a long dress covered with an apron my bare feet trying to keep in line with a rope stretched as a guide. Lena Martin Bonine is in the same picture and anyone that knows her now could pick her out.

Crosby county folks who could not get to come wrote letters and among them is the one of which I quote a part. It is from Ira J. Allen, the name sake of my husband who is now a lawyer at Houston and is the son of Mrs. John Allen of Petersburg.

"I was born at Old Emma July 31, 1896 in one of those substantial homes of the pioneers, a dugout. Since that date I have knocked about considerably over the surface of three continents but have never found a single spot in this world with as many fine people in a comparable area as can be found in the magic square of Crosby, Lubbock, Hale and Floyd counties." So write the homesick ones who cannot come to the reunions.

We enjoyed a visit with Amos Yates of Forrest, New Mexico, when he stayed a night and went with us to the Floyd county reunion. Amor lived near Floydada back in 1898 and '99. Amos is a friend who is loyal and true, ever ready to do what he can. We wish him the best.

The other day when I went in the kitchen I saw my heating pad over a small basket. Wilda raised it up and I saw she was hatching out ducks. The old hen had absolutely refused to have the first one and was trying to kill it. Now she never had hatched out chickens, in fact we buy all our chickens and raise them away from the hens, so that old hen could not have known it was not natural to hatch out ducks. Eight little ducks are in the basket now at night. They drink and gobble their food in the best duck manner. Their little scoops slide along and rather up everything in the path. The heating pad was as good as a mother hen's warm breast. This is an idea I will pass on.

"People in the west were thinly sowed and came up bad," so Mrs. W. P. Pulling told us at the Emma reunion, "that is the reason, as my mother used to tell, that not many people were in this country."

Wish you could have seen the big basket of dinner that Mrs. John R. Ralls brought. And was it good? In fact there was more good things on those tables than Delma Parrish had ready for us, than we could eat and with a sigh we had to pack many things up again.

Wish I could tell you about every one I met at the two good days last week; the nice things, the funny things, the dear remembrances we had together, but space is not enough.

DDT-Sulphur Get Approval

COLLEGE STATION. — DDT and sulphur mixture can mean dollars saved to West Texas alfalfa growers this year, judging from the experience of Hale county farmers.

Hale County Agricultural Agent M. W. Ayres reports that the DDT and sulphur mixture now has the nod of approval from several farmers who had a severe infestation of pea aphids on alfalfa recently. Before the aphid poisoning could get underway, however, the insects had slowed down alfalfa growth to the extent that some farmers lost their entire first planting.

A local insecticide dealer cooperated with the county agent and a few farmers in running some field trials in an effort to find the best poison to use against the aphids on alfalfa. Their best results were obtained with ten percent DDT and sulphur applied at the rate of 20 to 30 pounds per acre. Most of the poison trials were done by airplane.

The farmers who have used the treatment are well satisfied that it will pay dividends, says County Agent Ayres.

First Methodist Church Services

Reverend Lloyd H. Jones, pastor of the First Methodist church of Floydada, announces that all the regular services of the church will be conducted next Sunday. Rev. Jones returned from Amarillo last Sunday night where he had been attending the Annual Conference of the Methodist church. The conference assigned him to Floydada for another year. The church year will begin from June 1 to May 31.

Rev. Jones is in Abilene this week attending a course in the Young People's annual assembly being conducted at McMurry college. Two young people from the Methodist Fellowship of the local church are also attending the assembly and taking training work.

Bobbie Jean Medien and Pat Hennessy are the representatives of the Floydada church. The Youth assembly closes at noon on Friday.

FLAME RESISTANT FINISH COLLEGE STATION

Science has come up with another development aimed at home fire safety. Government and industrial research has developed flame-resistant chemicals that may be applied to fabrics to cut down danger of household fires. Mrs. Bernice Claylor, home management specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, says that fire-resistant draperies, rugs and upholstery are in prospect as a result of the new development.

The problem of fire-proofing ironing board covers is still unanswered, however, since the heat of the iron will break down the flame-resistant chemical covering.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Boteler and daughter of Artesia, New Mexico are here visiting with Mrs. Boteler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lyles.

John Lawlor, yeoman first class of Jersey Side, New York City, returned to New York the first of the week after spending the past three days in the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Burke.

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Floyd County at the Court House thereof, in Floydada, Texas at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of thirty-two days from the date of issuance of this citation, to answer the 14th day of July, A. D. 1947, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Tresspass to try title suit by Lucie D. Stephens and husband, Neville R. Stephens, as plaintiffs against the persons first named and described in this Writ, to whom Writ is directed, as defendants. Plaintiff alleged that on the 1st day of January A. D. 1947, plaintiff, Lucie D. Stephens, was the owner in fee simple of the following described land situated in Floyd and Crosby Counties, Texas:

TRACT NO. ONE: All of the Seth Chasin Survey, Abstract 85, Certificate No. 139, Patent No. 133 in Volume 46, (291 acres in Floyd County, Texas and 119 acres in Crosby County, Texas);

Stephens, alleging that she and those under whom she claims and holds have had peaceful, adverse and actual possession of such premises for a period of more than ten years next before filing of Plaintiff's petition in this suit, and Plaintiff, Lucie D. Stephens, specifically pleads the ten year statute of limitation in bar of any defense the defendants may have; Plaintiff, Lucie D. Stephens further alleges that she, and those whose title she holds, have had peaceable and adverse possession of said land and premises under claim of right, in good faith, for more than twenty-five years next before filing of Plaintiff's Petition and said plaintiff specifically pleads the twenty-five year statute of limitation in bar to any defense the defendants may have, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit. The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs. Issued and given under my hand and Seal of said Court at office in Floydada, Texas, this 26th day of May, A. D. 1947.

PLOW CORPORATION

announces a 10% PRICE REDUCTION Effective June 1, 1947

THIS step is being taken because we believe it is the obligation of every industry to reduce prices when it is possible to do so. We think it is one way we can help cushion the effects of a possible recession and increase the purchasing power of our customers. In one year's time, this reduction will save our customers about $600,000.00.

There is no "sale" necessity involved in this price cut, for we now have the largest backlog of orders in our history and are entering our best selling season. Sales are increasing every day and many of our customers are in desperate need of plows which we are unable to deliver.

Production Efficiency is Enabling Factor

In our case, production efficiency and sales volume have increased to the point where we are now able to offset the increased costs of labor and material. Our labor rates have increased approximately 110 per cent and our materials costs approximately 112 per cent since 1942. But our sales volume has increased 2490 per cent and our productive efficiency 374 per cent in the same period.

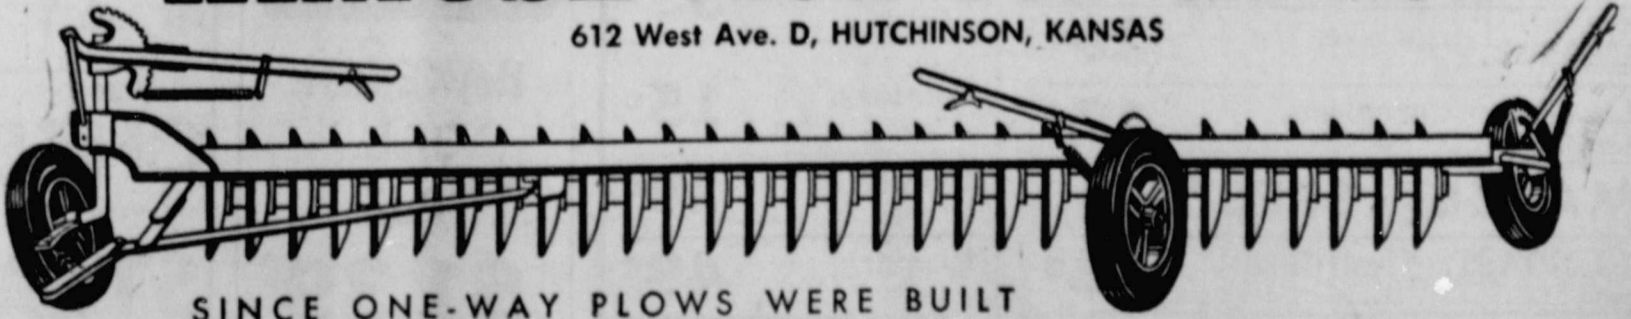

Balancing these things, we find that we are able to cut back our retail plow prices to a level approximately that of 1942. Modern equipment, improved manufacturing methods, our incentive wage system, and above all the unusually high type of hard-working, independent Middlewesterner who builds our plows, have combined to bring our factory to a high peak of productivity. We are passing the benefits on to our customers, who during the past 23 years have enabled us to become the nation's largest producers of one-way disc plows.

This price reduction is simply the execution of what we think is sound policy, that of producing a better and better plow to sell for less and less. To this end we pledge our future efforts.

Sincerely,
Henry Krause
President

Shannon Davidson Funeral at Flomot

Funeral services for Shannon Davidson, second victim of a Spearman fire, were held in the Flomot Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock following his death on Sunday in a Spearman hospital. Stewart Funeral home of Turkey was in charge of the arrangements and interment was made in the Flomot Cemetery.

Davidson was winner in 1939 of the 2,000-mile horseback "Pony Express" race to the Golden Gate exposition.

Davidson and R. B. Archer, Jr. were heating lard oil on a kitchen stove and started with a container outside the Archer residence to treat a truck bed they were planning to paint. Some of the liquid spilled on the stove, causing an explosion. Archer died last Wednesday from burns suffered in the explosion.

Surviving Davidsons are his mother, Mrs. J. M. Davidson of Flomot; a brother, Dale of Gruver; three sisters, Mrs. Raldo Martin and Mrs. Howard Martin both of Flomot and Mrs. Nell of Gruver.
