Saturday is the day the vote is held on the constitutional amendment for the schools of higher education. There are many good reasons why the people should not permit this amendment to be carried. One of these is that it ties up five-sevenths of the constitutional Confederate veterans' pension fund. Long before 30 years is gone Texas will have thousands of veterans of later wars who will be on sufferance and wondering why the people of the state tied up the fund for the schools when it was intended for another purpose. And the idea that we can foresee the needs of the colleges of the state for the next 30 years well enough to set the figure now is not a good one. Recall back to 1917 or even 1920. Could we then have foreseen what would be happening in the 1940s? Nor can we now.

City of Floydada's efforts to make a real clean-up is and keep it that way must be gratifying to all the people who live in Floydada and to those as well who don't exactly live on the townsite but help keep the town moving along. The citizenship generally is glad to pay 50 cents per household and business per month to provide funds with which a part of this work can be done. It used to be that a little money went a long way. While this is no longer true and the cost of providing sanitation and a good appearance is a way up high it should and will pay, most everybody is agreed.

Before the war The Hesperian was a never-failing and useful compendium on the ways of nature, particularly the way nature had things planned for the season just ahead. Never mind how we got all this information and dished it out with such success as to accumulate untold accolade. Latterly, we have been amiss in this respect, a part and parcel of the careless, slapstick methods which run through all manner of business nowadays. Suffering public just has to charge it to the war, war nerves, shortages, and so forth. It was different in those other days. Two years after the Civil war the footsore Confederate had already come home, got the old lady and the children together, made a crop and started west. But that was then and this is another day. They had a lot to learn in those days about eight hour days be careful not to work up sweat, don't take your job too seriously and things like that.

What we mean by staying with the job of watching and reporting on matters of nature and how we could be useful in the community that way instead of writing political stuff men, is illustrated by our failure in season last week to help out with the Johnson grass that opposes the opinions of better informed situation and warn our people about spreading tree roots, how to kill them out. Saturday and all of this week has been the ideal time. Last week was the time for us to remind our readers. Probably we cost the county a half a million dollars by that lapse. As is well and generally known Saturday was the first day of the full moon in August. Johnson Grass cut even with the ground on that day would have died. Trees circled and all of their outlying roots would have died out next spring. But what did we do? We tell the folks we are going to vote against the amendment come August 23. Nobody is interested in what we are going to do about the amendment. We only make ourselves ridiculous by putting in that two bits worth. It illustrates how easily even newspapermen stray from the plain path of duty.

The Hesperian ought to stay with the weather and other matters which pertain to nature. Weather is more important than anything else almost that has to do with living and making a living. We'd probably get rich if we'd only concentrate. However, you see men who have great capability in a certain line, who are sure fire successes when they do what they can do, always hankering to do something else, making a poor out of it, and returning again to "this thing I do," which a successful one-track minded man is quoted as saying years ago.

We mention that we ought to stay with the weather because last week we went off the deep end against the constitutional amendment that is to be voted upon by the sovereign electors on Saturday, August 23. Those who want to make some money on a sure-fire proposition should bet that the amendment will carry, now that The Hesperian has announced itself. We are never on the winning side politically, and even when we are something happens to make us wish we hadn't been. We recall one time we were for a successful candidate for governor and this writer lost his job as precinct chairman of the Democratic party as punishment. A man who couldn't be for good government couldn't be a Democratic party chieftain in these parts. However, after it developed that the chairman's office carried with it no emoluments, neither were there any honors which it bestowed, the job went by default two years later and we got our office back by appointment.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture forecasts that the final count on the nation's wheat crop will be 1.4 billion bushels, the largest crop on record. That record would be 61 percent above average production, and 24 percent above last year's production.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

I Love Little Things
By Edna Hamilton
I love the little things of life;
A blue glass bowl with yellow flowers.
A redbird swaying on a branch,
A day filled with golden hours.

I love the simple things of life;
Dashing, splashing drops of rain,
Dewdrops on blue violets,
A field of golden grain.

I love the simple things of life;
Like jellies on my pantry shelf;
I find in loving little things
I'm truly loving life itself.

No rain as yet, but we recall all the old sayings we can to bolster our morale. My sign of rain is early of a morning the lake on the north of the house looks very near and the farthest hillside looks unusually steep. Uncle Tom Franklin liked to see the sky filled with "rain seed." "Yas, Nell, it will rain fore night. Some like to see a giant thunderhead far to the southwest before sunrise, others the sun to rise from behind a bank. The windmill pipe sweats, we hope for rain. It gets very hot, maybe rain. The wind blows and blows, perhaps it will bring up a cloud. No sign of rain, whatsoever, many believe is the best sign. What is your best sign? Of course it has failed along with all the rest.

Joe Ellis visited us this week and he helped me wash and polish the car and clean up the garage. He is lots of help and company to us.

Billy is growing fast and he can crawl across the room in record time. Margaret Nell loves the flowers and is happy to see new ones open. The days go by, and we try to get the most of them while they last. Soon winter will come.

I have not seen the Bedingfield and Scott Families since they went to Oregon a visiting, but they sent me some very pretty and interesting rocks for my collection. Many thanks for the remembering. I was so happy and thrilled for my friends the Parrish families, to get to go to California to their reunion. But how sad it makes me about the passing of the sweet little girl.

How happy she must have been as she ran across the road. How beautiful the country she had come to! But there was an unseen death that walked that highway and in an instant Betty Joyce Dunavant was in a world that was far more wonderful than anything this one can offer. There the road was paved with gold and when Betty runs across it to gather the beautiful flowers of heaven, no death is there to mar. The trees of life with its towering glory is hers. Her feet will speed to the very steps of the white throne where Jesus is waiting for the "little children" he loves.

A New Little Girl in Heaven
Oh what do you think the angels say?
Said the children up in Heaven,
There's a dear little girl coming home today;
She's almost ready to fly away
From the earth we used to live in;
Let's go and open the gates of pearl,
Open them wide for the new little girl,
Said the children up in Heaven.

Far down on the earth do you hear them weep?
Said the children up in Heaven,
For the dear little girl has gone to sleep.
The shadows fall and the night clouds sweep
O'er the earth we used to live in,
But we'll go and open the gates of pearl;
Oh why do they weep for their dear little girl?
Said the children up in heaven.

Fly with her quick, O, angels dear,
Said the children up in Heaven
See, she's coming! Look there. Look there,
At the Jasper light on her sunny hair,
Where the veiling clouds are riven!
Ah-hush-hush-hush all the swift wings fur!
For the King Himself at the gates of pearl
Is taking her hand, dear, tired little girl,
And leading her into Heaven.

Peach Canning by Cold Process

For canning peaches choose fruit that is sound, firm, and table ripe. Miss Lella Petty, County Home Demonstration agent of Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, says beyond the pink blush, if the peach has one, to see that the ground color is yellow or white, not a purplish greenish tint. A bushel of peaches yields about 18 to 24 quart cans.

Directions for cold packing peaches in preparation for processing in a water bath canner are given. Instead of the precooked method, peaches packed raw hold their shape better and look prettier in the jar. Here are directions for canning peaches:

Wash peaches. Dip in boiling water, then quickly in cold water to loosen skins. Remove skins. Slice and pit the fruit. Slice if desired. To prevent darkening during preparation, drop peaches into water containing 2 tablespoons each of salt and vinegar per gallon. Drain and pack cold into jars or cans to 1/2 inch of top. Add boiling syrup (boiling 1 to 2 inches in container). Steam containers: Pints and No. 2 tin cans, 10 minutes; quarts and No. 3 tin cans, 15 minutes. Remove from canner, repack if necessary from boiling water. Seal and process in boiling water bath 15 minutes. Remove from canner, complete seals on jars if closures are not self-sealing type. Cool jars in a draft. Cool tin cans in cold water. Label and store in cool place.

For Pickled Peaches:
Pickled peaches are one of America's favorite sweet spicy relishes. This recipe is for 8 pounds of small or medium sized peaches: After peaches are washed and pared, two cloves are stuck in each peach, or the 8 two-inch sticks of cinnamon and 2 tablespoons of whole cloves may be tied loosely in a clean, thin, white cloth and placed to cook with 2 pounds of sugar, 1 quart vinegar and 1 cup water for 10 minutes. The peaches are added to the liquid and cooked slowly until tender but not broken. After standing overnight, sirup is drained from the peaches and spices removed. The sirup is boiled rapidly until thickened, and poured over peaches already packed in clean sterile jars. The jars are sealed tightly.

To give time for the flavor to be blended, the jars of peaches should be kept in a cool place for several weeks before serving.

U. S. POSTAGE STAMP CENTENNIAL IN JULY

The New York postmaster snipped a rectangle from a sheet of gummed paper. Thus on July 1, 1847, the first official U. S. postage stamp was sold, says Pathfinder.

That was a big forward step for the U. S. mail service, then struggling against cheaper express companies. With such stamps, inventors in England seven years earlier if it could keep tab on postmasters' sales. These men had merely scrawled "paid" on envelopes, or used personal hand stamps called "postmasters' provisionals" to show they had collected postage.

In 1856 the use of stamps on letters—optional until then—became compulsory. Next year they were perforated for easy tearing. In 1897 the first commemorative stamps, the Columbian series, were issued for the Chicago World's Fair.

Big-time collectors pay up to $15,000 for postmasters' provisionals; $4,000 for a 1918 airmail with plane printed upside down.

VICTIM OF GREED

Thirty-three years ago the last known passenger pigeon died in Cincinnati zoo. With its death ended one of the most cruelly fascinating wildlife stories in U. S. history. Through his greed and recklessness men had succeeded in killing off another of nature's creatures, declares Pathfinder.

This month, the final chapter in the story of the passenger pigeon was written in Wyalusing State Park in Wisconsin where, on May 11, the Wisconsin Society for Ornithology unveiled a monument to the state's once most numerous bird.

In the greatest nesting on record 136,000,000 passenger pigeons moved into an area 75 miles long by 10 to 15 miles wide in central Wisconsin in 1871. But approximately 100,000 hunters moved in too, slaughtering the highly edible birds by thousands and shipping them to market in carload lots. More than 2,000,000 were killed and shipped to market from Warren, Wis., in 1882, but this was the last big slaughter. The passenger pigeon was on the way out. Ornithologists scout theories that most of the birds perished in a tropical storm over the Caribbean in the 1880's during a migratory flight. There's only one explanation says the Wyalusing monument: "The avarice and thoughtlessness of man."

RAPID CALCULATION

"Do you know how these economists figure out the cost of living?" "Sure. They take your income—whatever it may be—and add ten per cent."

A recently discharged Navy gunnery officer was sitting peacefully at home in front of the stove. The door of the stove blew open and flames shot out.

"Fire!" shouted his wife. The navy man leaped to his feet grabbed the cat, shoved it into the stove, slammed the door shut, opened up the draft and called up the stove pipe:

"Ready two!"

CORN CARRYOVER MISLEADING

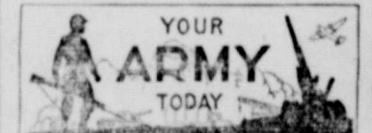

Last year the U. S. "carried over" 150,000,000 bushels of corn. This year the predicted carry-over will be 450,000,000 bushels. How much does that mean per farm? L. J. Norton, University of Illinois agriculturist, explained it this way recently:

"150,000,000 bushels amounts to just a few ears on the floor of the average corn crib—not enough to keep you from walking on the crib floor. 450,000,000 bushels means the corn in the average crib might reach up to the fourth board on the crib wall."—Farm Journal.

HEAVEN FOR PIGS

Pigs aren't supposed to know much about the hereafter. If they do think of pig heaven, it must be a place where there is plenty of grass, shade and water, and a rubbing post wrapped with burlap saturated with a good livestock dip and disinfectant; and maybe a shed sprayed with DDT to control flies.—Farm Journal.

BIRTHDAY: The Coast Artillery Corps marks its 40th birthday on May 27. It was separated from the Field Artillery and became a distinct arm on May 27, 1907.

"Forty years ago," observes General Jacob L. Devers, commander of the Army Ground Force, "the establishment of separate Coast Artillery Corps was appropriate to the times. Today, however, the War Department looks forward to the unification of all three of our artilleries—the Field, Seacoast and Anti-Aircraft—so that the most effective co-ordination between them may be insured in time of emergency."

NURSES WANTED: The War Department now has vacancies for 1,800 nurses in the Regular Army. They must be between 21 and 35 years old.

GREETINGS: Major General Lewis B. Hershey, who, as head of Selective Service, was responsible for the sending of "greetings" to millions of men whom Uncle Sam selected for Army duty, paid his respects to the Universal Military Training experimental unit at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

"We cannot have democracy," he stated after a visit to the UMT Experimental battalion, "without preparedness for all young men. Part of the country's population cannot be expected to undertake the training for all the able-bodied youth. Each must carry his share. In this atomic age, everybody should know what to do and how to do it without waiting for last-minute instructions from atom-bomb experts."

Pi Mu Pledges Three Floydada Students of Piano This Past Week

PI MU, the national honor society for outstanding piano students, pledged three students from Floydada this past week.

Noma Lou Hamilton, Ruth Maxey and Joyce Myrick were the students recommended by Mrs. Pearl Fagan, to become members. Membership in this honor society is obtained only through the recommendation of a qualified Progressive series teacher and based on the record of the student. A 90% average must be maintained by the student to become a "pin member" in this honor society.

After high school graduation, free scholarships to the St. Louis Institute of Music, summer sessions, will be awarded these students. There the students will study for college credits and certification for the work done under the local teacher will be given. This credit will be determined by examinations at the summer sessions.

Mrs. Ohmer Kirk of Floydada will be given an opportunity to enroll two of her students later this fall. Mrs. Kirk is also a qualified progressive series teacher and has had several opportunities to offer scholarships to her students under this plan.

Mrs. Charles Record of Lockney took her survey and is a qualified teacher for the progressive series. She has given an enrollment scholarship to one student in Lockney this last week. Miss Bobby La Cassey the recipient is going to work for a credential teachers certificate and assist Mrs. Record with her elementary students. Mrs. Record has one other outstanding student who is to be given the enrollment scholarship offer.

ALATHAN S. S. CLASS HAS REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING

The Alathan Sunday school class of the First Baptist church met August 14 at the church in their regular monthly meeting. A lovely lunch was served at the noon hour.

Those enjoying the day was Rev. L. A. Doyle and Mrs. Doyle and son Don, Rev. Fred L. Fisher of Abilene, Virgil Mott of Pampa, Rev. E. L. Muncy, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jordan and Kathie and Mesdames L. H. Newell, W. N. Paschall, G. M. Bullard, J. W. Glin, J. T. Snodgrass, W. F. Culppeper, Lela Lloyd, J. L. Coppell, Morvan Wright, Josie Embury, J. A. Grigsby, W. B. Cantrell, A. H. Manning, and Miss Elaine Cantrell.

WORLD FOOD OUTLOOKS

Both short-term and long-term appraisals of world food prospects were included by Sir John Boyd Orr, Director General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in a foreword to his second annual report. The report is for consideration by the FAO Conference which opens August 25 at Geneva, Switzerland, and in which various U. S. Department of Agriculture representatives are taking part.

Of the short term outlook he says: "The food position of the world is today no better than it was a year ago, and unless measures are taken to provide the war-devastated countries with agricultural equipment, fertilizers, and other requisites for the harvest of 1948, a severe food shortage will last for at least two years more."

"The state in which Europe has been left by the war demands urgent attention, but in Asia many millions of people are perennially as ill-fed as the most desperate victims of the war. The hope of economic development or social and political stability is illusory in countries where the majority of the people are wholly absorbed in the problem of finding food."

For the longer view, Sir John's comment was: "Looking further ahead, we are faced with the problem whether the earth will be able to produce the food needed to support its population. It is estimated that, taking account of the probable increase of world population, food production would need to be doubled in the next 25 years to provide everybody with a diet capable of maintaining health and working efficiency. The problem is aggravated by the fact that the topsoil of the earth is being washed away at the rate of hundreds of thousands of acres a year."

"We have the technical knowledge needed to reduce this wastage to a minimum, to increase the productivity of great areas of the earth, and bring into production certain areas that are at present producing no food at all. Agricultural science can supply the food if only economic measures are taken to enable it to be applied on a world-wide scale."

Insurance companies often come across unique evasions on the forms applicants fill out. One man, in the space asking the cause of paternal death, wrote, "Father was taking part in a public function and the platform gave way, ending his life." Subsequent investigation disclosed that his father had been hanged for cattle rustling. —Ex.

District Nine Picnic Plans Are Detailed For B & P W Members

Word has been received by the local Business and Professional Women's club officials that the District Nine picnic to be held in Amarillo on August 31 will be on the west side of Elwood Park, across from Saint Mary's academy. FAIL TO EDUCATE

Bernard Iddings Bell's is one of the few keen minds that has spent a life-time in both education and religion, according to Pathfinder.

Last month Dr. Bell, now consultant on education to the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago, appealed for a dose of "realistic common sense" in our elementary schools.

"Most Americans," said Bell, "cannot read anything more difficult than a pulp magazine. They cannot write letters and make their meaning plain. They rarely speak except in clichés. They are unable to follow argument put in the simplest words, or understand what a speaker is driving at. . . . No wonder the age is an age of people who never grow up, an age of delayed adolescents. . . . It is the schools which have helped to make it so. It is they who help to keep it so—to our great peril as a people."

YARN KEPT BARBERS BUSY

Barbers in five Philippine towns near San Fernando on Luzon did a land-office business shaving the heads of babies. Responsible for this latter bonanza was an old woman, with a Baron Munchausen complex who told this story: A bird and a snake quarreled over which should be king of all newly born children. The bird won, but the snake vowed to kill all babies with hair on their heads. Taking no chances, superstitious mothers in the five towns rushed their babies to the barber. —Ex.

NEGROES LOANED CHURCH TO WHITE CONGREGATION

In the White river bottomland of Arkansas the familiar pattern of domestic missionary work was changed, according to Pathfinder. For 15 years white residents near the little town of Augusta have had no regular preacher, no church. On the other hand, Negroes in the area have both. Last week the Negro congregation had arranged it so both had both. They loaned their church to a white ministerial student who will now use it for regular services among the formerly churchless "congregation" of Augusta.

FEW AMERICANS SANE

Firmly behind the quotable Quaker who knew everyone was crazy except himself and his wife—and had his doubts of her—stands a noted Philadelphia psychiatrist, Dr. Earl D. Bond, says Pathfinder.

He thinks there are only about one million Americans who are truly sane. But he wouldn't call the rest quite insane.

He'd probably call them ill-balanced. And at this point he'd tangle with Dr. Robert Seashore, Northwestern university psychological test expert. Dr. Seashore finds only 5% of the U. S. population is badly introverted, only 5% grossly extroverted; 90% of us are dully normal.

TWITS G. O. P. SENATOR

Sen. Ralph Flanders, staunch Vermont Republican, was at his best "Now when I was campaigning for election. . . .

"You mean," interrupted Wyoming Democrat Sen. Joseph O'Mahoney, "you have a campaign—in Vermont?" Flanders chuckled. "Naturally. I'm speaking of the primaries, Senator." —Ex.

She got the job. —Ex.

Texas Has Split Open Season for Duck Hunting

COLLEGE STATION, Aug.—Open season for duck hunting in Texas this year will be from November 17 to December 29, according to the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit and the Texas A. & M. department of fish and game. Under regulations of the Department of the Interior, states west of a north-south line are allowed to open either a season of 30 consecutive days or a split season of 15 days each, and Texas has chosen the latter.

Both the hunting season and bag limits have been reduced in order to offset the noticeable decrease in waterfowl which has occurred during the past three years, according to the Secretary of the Interior. He states: "If the sport of wildfowl hunting is to continue, we must regulate the take to less than the birds' increase."

Texas, in the central flyway, with birds coming from the Canadian and Alaskan breeding grounds, is better off than eastern states, the breeding grounds for which are in favorable condition.

Reduced Hours Bag Limits
Daily shooting hours for waterfowl have been reduced to the period from sunrise to one hour before sunset, with hunting not permitted before noon on the opening day of each split season. The duck bag limit has been reduced to four a day, with eight in possession. The daily bag limit for geese or brant in Texas is also four, with only one Canadian or one white-fronted goose. Post season period for possession of migratory game is still 90 days.

Not more than one wood duck may be included in the bag of four American and red-breasted mergansers may be possessed 25 singly or in the aggregate.

Regulations prohibit taking waterfowl by bait or with live decoys.

Open Dove Season
Open season on mourning dove in certain parts of Texas will begin September 1 and continue to October 15, according to the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit and the Texas A. & M. department of fish and game. These dates apply to these counties: Val Verde, Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Kendall, Comal, Hays, Travis, Williamson, Milam, Robertson, Leon, Houston, Cherokee, Nacogdoches, Shelby and all counties to the north and west of these.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hopper and family and Miss Billie Hopper spent last week in the home of Mrs. Hopper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Steadham of Throckmorton, Texas. While down-state they spent a few days at Possum Kingdom fishing.

YOUR STATE TAXES DOUBLED

The State Tax Rate This Year Is 72c On $100 Valuation

Last Year the Rate Was 37c

Who Said, "No New Taxes"?

VOTE! VOTE! VOTE!

Saturday, August 23rd

AGAINST

An Additional 5c Tax

On Saturday, August 23, an amendment to the constitution of the State of Texas will be voted on to allocate 5c of the authorized 7c Confederate pension tax to finance a building program for State owned colleges other than the University of Texas and Texas A. & M.

An Additional Tax

"They" say this is not a new tax, but you have not been paying it for many years. It certainly will be an additional tax you have not been paying. If voted by the people of Texas on August 23, it will be added to your 72c State tax, making a total of 77c on the $100 valuation.

Small Taxpayers Pay

The veteran, the farmer, the small home owner, the laborer, the small business man, everybody will have to pay this 5c tax in addition to the 72c State tax, if this amendment carries. This State tax is in addition to local taxes—County taxes—School taxes—City taxes—and perhaps others.

Will Not Provide Buildings

If passed, this 5c additional tax will not provide adequate and sufficient buildings at today's cost of construction. In the next 10 years West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon MIGHT get $487,200. The College of Mines at El Paso MIGHT get $423,000. Sul Ross at Alpine MIGHT get $189,000. Texas Technological College at Lubbock MIGHT get $1,500,000 in these 10 years.

An Unnecessary Tax

This is an unnecessary tax. By a division of the so-called Permanent University Fund more buildings can be built at all the State owned colleges than this tax will provide. They also can be built much sooner. And the State University and Texas A. & M. still can get more buildings than they can use.

42 Counties Exempt

42 of the State's richest counties pay no ad valorem taxes for State purposes. None of these counties are in West Texas.

W H Y?

Should you pay another unnecessary 5c tax when 42 of the State's 254 counties will not be paying to help our State colleges.

Help Colleges—Vote Against

You will actually be helping all 14 of our State colleges if you vote against this amendment. All these colleges can and will get more money by regular appropriations if this amendment is defeated than they could get by the passage of this 5c tax amendment. Your vote against the amendment will help instead of hurt these 14 State colleges.

DON'T BE LED ASTRAY

Do not be led astray by this proposed amendment which levies a 5c tax on your property for 30 years and saddles a $45,000,000 debt on you and all other taxpayers. If passed, this amendment will open the flood gates of the State treasury to dozens of new colleges and you again will pay the bill.

Go Vote Saturday, August 23rd

Family Silver Polishing Made An Easy Task

LUBBOCK.—Home makers may bid goodbye to spending long and tedious hours polishing the family silver.

Flatware may be rendered gleaming in from two to five minutes by placing it in an old aluminum pan and boiling it in a solution of one teaspoon of soda and one teaspoon of salt per quart of water, according to Miss Lola M. Drew, assistant professor of home management at Texas Technological College. Each piece of silver should touch the pan while boiling.

Knives with hollow handles should not be polished in this manner, as the boiling water will loosen cement, Miss Drew cautioned. Neither should silver with oxidized or French gray finishes be treated with this method, since chemical action of the solution and aluminum will remove the soft finish and make the entire piece shine brightly.

However, for other pieces, many authorities say this treatment is less detrimental to silver than old fashioned rubbing.

Date of Teachers Meeting next Year is March Twelfth

Clarence Guffee, secretary of District Four West Texas Teachers association, reported Tuesday that the date of the district meeting is set for March 12, next spring, with afternoon and evening sessions in Lubbock. This date was set at a called meeting of the district executive committee Monday afternoon in Lubbock.

Vacancies on the committee filed at this meeting included the appointment of J. W. Jones of Denver City to succeed Tom McCollum on the state executive committee and O. C. Thomas of Ralls and Ross A. Buckner of Cotton Center were appointed to the house of delegates in the State Teachers association from the district. The vacancies were due to removal from the district of their predecessors.

Weather and Crops

Dry weather continues in Floyd county with the Starkey area the envy of the neighbors. There a dandy cotton shower Tuesday afternoon wet things nicely and sloshed over on the neighbors including a little bit of adjoining Crosby county communities. Floydada, McCoy and Petersburg. Where it really poured was a spot covering a jagged area over several sections of land.

In dry land areas the feed has begun really to hurt and while cotton blooms are evident in the tops of the stalks, sure sign it would be fine if a good rain had fallen three weeks ago.

But Alfalfa Booms

On the irrigated farms the story is different. The growers are weary from pumping and watering but alfalfa has done wonderfully well, feed crops are booming and cotton looks good. Some of the cotton hasn't fruited too well and some cotton crops show signs of having been watered too freely. But all in all the picture is nearly perfect.

Dry weather over the whole south-west area is helping the price of alfalfa, too. Early season low prices have given away to $25 offers for alfalfa in the field where the truckers pick it up and find a ready market elsewhere. The third crop is already off and a fourth looking mighty good, and 10 days still to go in August.

MRS. SLAUGHTER FLIES HOME FROM WEST COAST

BIGGER SLICE OF SURPLUS ROAD BOND NOT JUST AN ACCIDENT SAYS HOLT

Monday, August 18, 1947
Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas.

I note your article in the Hesperian of the date of August 14 relative to the amount which Floyd county received from the surplus of the State Road Bond fund, and I noted particularly that you received this year over the preceding year a much larger amount which was referred to as a "windfall".

Now the following remarks are no criticism whatever of your article, however, I want to assure you and your Commissioners court that the fact that you received a much more substantial sum this year was no "windfall" (as the term might imply) but was a carefully planned and skillfully executed bill in the past Legislature put over by the Legislators from the so-called "Country" districts.

This Bill was actually reported favorably out of committee, passed its engrossment and up for final passage in the House before Representative John Croswait of Dallas started a fight against it, and it was too late then to stop it in the House, but later on in the Senate, Senator Fred "Red" Harris of Dallas staged a two day filibuster against this bill.

This law materially aided seven of the eight counties in our 120th District and your County Judge Grimes will recall that I communicated with him several times relative to this measure and sent him a copy. Of course it received my vigorous support. I will be in Floydada in the very near future and explain this to you in detail, as to the source of the funds and the chances made for the benefit of the "Country Counties."

'FOOT-AND-MOUTH' TACTICS

Just as an attacking military commander is careful to leave no weak points in the forces with which he surrounds and prepares to crush the enemy, so the Mexican-United States Commission directing the campaign against foot-and-mouth disease in Mexico is blocking off any loopholes through which the disease might spread or perpetuate itself.

One recent step in this determined effort to bring the disease under control and eradicate it is the establishment of a thorough-going system of railroad car disinfection in the Mexico City freight yards. All rolling stock in which livestock are sent to Mexico City -- main slaughter point of the country -- is subjected to three-stage treatment before it is again released for transport duty.

After the livestock cars arrive in the stockyards and the animals are unloaded, a cleaning force immediately removes all manure and litter from the cars. The cars are then shifted to another siding, thoroughly washed down with streams of water under pressure, left to dry and, as a third step disinfected. Each car is sprayed inside and out with a two-percent or stronger solution of sodium hydroxide.

At the conclusion of this treatment, each car is sealed and placarded and then assigned for further transportation use over the National Railways of Mexico or the Southern Pacific of Mexico. Thus, on arrival at a new loading point, shippers are assured that the cars on which they will load animals have been thoroughly disinfected and possible spread of infection to free areas is avoided.

The disinfection of the cars is carried on under the immediate supervision of a representative of the Mexican Ministry of Agriculture and Livestock, and two technicians from the U. S. Department of Agriculture. No cars used for the transportation of livestock to Mexico City are exempt from this process.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Coverdale of Long Beach, California, are here visiting and attending to business in Floyd County. Mr. Coverdale is principal of Long Beach Evening High school.

Tech and A & M to Study Cattle Deaths on Wheat

LUBBOCK.—Texas Technological College and Texas A&M College this winter will launch a long-range cooperative research program to determine causes of grazing winter wheat, resulting from grazing winter wheat, conducting experiments on 8500 acres of land at the Pantex Ordnance plant near Amarillo.

Pres. W. M. Whyburn of Texas Tech has signed a use permit from the War Assets Administration authorizing the college to use the land for seven years upon payment of one dollar to WAA. Buildings, including laboratories, are now on the acreage, and their use is included in the permit.

Tech Dean of Agriculture W. L. Stangel, in his capacity of director of farms, will be in general charge of Tech's operations there. The colleges hope to develop grazing practices that will eliminate livestock losses during periods of grazing on winter wheat and other lush pastures following study of the nature of physiological disturbances resulting in animal deaths.

Complete details of the proposed program have not yet been worked out, but it has been agreed that A&M will provide personnel and laboratory supplies and that Tech will supervise growing of wheat and make arrangements for cattle to be provided as needed in the study. A number of livestock owners in the region have agreed to cooperate with the college in making cattle available.

The federal government invested approximately $35,000,000 in the war time ordnance plant. Slightly more than half of it has been turned over to the schools for this research.

CANADIAN VETERAN PLAYS GERMAN "P. W."

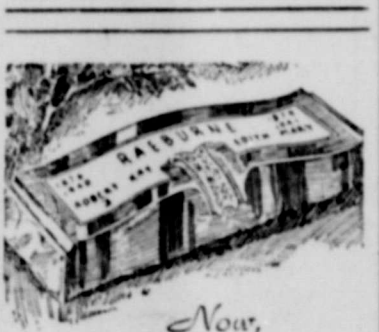

The London Sunday newspaper "The People" dug up the story of a smart operator, identified only as "Slim," a 28-year-old veteran of the Canadian Army. Slim didn't have much money because he couldn't find a job. Everywhere he went he noticed that German prisoners of war were having fun, enjoying unrestricted freedom. That gave Slim an idea.

He dyed his old khaki battle dress black, sewed on green prisoner-of-war patches, donned Wehrmacht boots. For two days he got sympathy for his "sad captivity," enjoyed free meals, dances, drinks, ice cream taxi rides; and cut-rate movie tickets and cigarettes.

Back in mufti, Slim reflected: "Part of the kindness was genuine sympathy, most of it merely curiosity. This is a land fit for heroes but they are German heroes." —Ex.

GET VETS' BONDS
The average enlisted man of World War II has a $150 terminal-leave-pay bond, bearing the late Sen. Carter Glass' likeness in the family safe deposit box. But some of these battle-worn securities have found their way into dingy second-story "loan offices." Confidence men have bought up bonds for as little as $50 from needy, uninformed vets. Pathfinder warns.

Fearful that the racket may corner a sizeable portion of the $1.8 billion of bonds redeemable after Sept. 1 the Treasury Department last week took steps to protect likely victims. To all banks this month will go a stern Treasury directive: Don't pay cash to any leave-pay bondholder, except those who can produce positive identification. Any bank that redeems a loan-shark held bond will be left holding the bag.

Now, the best may be had by all!

BRIDGE OF DIMES

Farmers and other members of the cotton industry across the nation are being called on to support the National Cotton Council's worldwide program to increase the consumption of American cotton and cottonseed products. Cotton producers throughout the Belt are asked to aid in building a "bridge of dimes" across the dangerous chasm of cotton's competition by contributing ten cents on each bale ginned. The funds are used to support the Cotton Council's program of cotton research, production efficiency, sales promotion, and foreign trade.

VOTE!

AGAINST The so-called College building Amendment on August 23. Get every relative and friend you have to go vote against this amendment.

This proposed amendment, if passed, will levy a 5c ad valorem property tax on all property in Texas for the next 30 years for the purpose of constructing buildings at the 14 State owned colleges, other than Texas University and A. and M. It will permit Texas University and Texas A. and M. to issue $15,000,000 worth of bonds against the so-called Permanent University Fund—and, tie this fund up for 30 years.

Specifically, it is claimed that Texas Tech will get approximately $7,500,000 from this fund in these 30 years. Actually, Tech will get only about 60% or $4,500,000 for actual construction—the balance having to go for interest. Tech would get only one-third of this amount in the next 10 years, that is $1,500,000.

The two dormitories now being constructed at Tech are costing $4,000,000. The cost of one of these is $2,000,000. The $1,500,000 that Tech might get from this fund would not construct a building as big as one of these dormitories.

Three years ago Tech officials said $5,389,100 was needed right then for new buildings. You can readily see that $1,500,000 in 10 years or $4,500,000 in 30 years is not going to be of any material help to Tech.

While Tech will perhaps be getting $4,500,000 in 30 years, the University and A. and M. will be getting $75,000,000 or more.

This amendment prohibits the Legislature making appropriations for buildings at these 14 State colleges for 30 years.

If this amendment carries, all of us will be paying an unnecessary 5c ad valorem property tax for the next 30 years, and this will not be enough to be of any help toward a worthwhile building program for any of the 14 State owned colleges participating.

Defeating this amendment will actually help Tech and the other colleges instead of hurting them.

Mrs. W. Ray Johnson has her Masters degree from the University of Colorado. She has nine years experience and has formerly taught in the Texas City Public schools.

The teachers in the Primary Department are Mrs. Ethel French, Mrs. R. G. Dunlap, Miss Frances Mitchell, Miss Vera Meredith, Mrs. Edna Phillips, Mrs. Kathleen Stewart, Mrs. Noman Hamilton.

Since the colored school is not completed the announcement for the opening of this school will have to be made at a later date. Mrs. Annie Taylor will be one of the teachers and the other will be announced in the future.

North Ward Building

The Liberty school was purchased by the Board of education and moved to the North Ward vicinity for the colored school. It is now being repaired and will be put in first class condition. City water will be installed for the drinking fountains. Gas is expected to be piped in a short time. The building has been needed for some time and will be one that the colored people should be proud of. It contains two class rooms, cloak rooms, book rooms, and a large stage. There is a partition so the building may also be used for an auditorium for programs.

Several communities will bring their entire school to Floydada. McCoy and Muncy came last year and have transferred again for this next year. Liberty, Blanco, Harmony and Center will bring their entire schools for the first time.

South Plains, Sand Hill, and Fairview taught part of the high school grades in their home districts last year, but their entire high schools have transferred from these schools this year. The other schools will be classified as they were last year. Since there has been an increase in the scholastic enumeration and several districts that have transferred their entire school for the first time, there will be a large enrollment.

The caretakers of the buildings are D. M. Moore and W. W. Whittsitt. Repairs and improvements have been made on both buildings. New shades have been purchased, some new chairs and other equipment in general which should make both buildings attractive and in excellent condition for the opening of school.

Most of the above-named have been interested for a year or more and have grown wheat from certified seed this year.

Bringing in Certified Seed

In addition to the registered seed being imported several growers are known to be bringing in No. 1 certified wheat. Among these are Grady Walker, Wichita variety, Ray Cook, Westar variety, Lovel Jones, Panner, and Roe Jones, standard blackhull, approved good milling strain.

Mr. Hartzog doubts that he will be able to obtain any more registered seed, although he is still working hard at it. As to certified seed he has several names and addresses to which any wheat grower is welcome who wants to make a change or to experiment with any of the varieties the mills publicize as being for their business.

Mr. Hartzog said he is sure there are many Floyd county farmers who are studying the wheat seed situation and will introduce varieties from sources of which they learn. It just happens that one or two of the recommended varieties experimented with here this year so far out-produced some of the ordinary plantings that it will not be difficult to get changes made when the seed are available, he thinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Moran Dunlap of Meridian, Texas, visited from Friday of last week until Tuesday of this week with Mr. and Mrs. Edd Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Glad Snodgrass, and Mrs. Julia Moss. Mr. Dunlap is a nephew. He is postmaster at Meridian.

involved. The state tax applies to the total value of the trade. The state is losing much revenue in this manner and investigations are sure to be made, according to information she has. A car buyer who overlooks this important provision of the law lays himself liable and may find his transaction under the scrutiny of the authorities. The buyer makes affidavit as to the purchase price when he pays the tax and lays himself open to perjury when and if the state proves the total value was other than that sworn to.

Own a House Trailer?

Do you own a house trailer and if you were on the highway could you prove title to it? All house trailers now have to have certificates of title. If you have a house trailer and do not have a certificate of title the procedure in your case is to apply to the State Highway department direct for a "serial" number. After you receive this number then you take it to the local assessor-collector and apply for a certificate of title through that office. Thus if you have a "home made" house trailer you would have no "serial" number, of course, and would be assigned one. If you have a house trailer made by a commercial manufacturer it will have a serial number which you use in obtaining your proof of title that you take with you when you go traveling. Mrs. Graham explains.

line for correct bus operation. Mr. Guffee thinks. Uniformity in color for buses, training in first aid for bus drivers, study of the regulation governing the responsibility for the lives of the children, and the conduct of the pupils while riding the buses all will come in for attention, he said. According to meagre information Mr. Guffee had as of Tuesday institutes for the study of the regulations are due to be held as quickly as possible after the beginning of the school year. Most of the information the superintendent has on the new code has come through reading the newspapers, he said.

Teachers pay Schedule

Base pay for teachers this year in Floyd county will be $148 per month for an eight or nine month school year, according to type of school. To this will be added $25 per month for each year in college except the first, and an additional $8 per month for each year of teaching experience up to 12 years. A teacher with a bachelor's degree will draw in an accredited school a minimum of $2,007 per year, to illustrate.

the money is through this increase in taxation," the judge declared in announcing the new rate. "Unless enough money is raised with the new rate," he explained it will be necessary to raise property valuations next year to offset any possible deficit."

More Money for Deputies

The state recently authorized a 25 per cent increase in the salaries of law enforcement officers. The chief deputy was formerly entitled to $150 per month, and additional ones, $125. The new scale is $187.50 for the chief and $156.25 for the second and third. In addition, on Sept. 5, deputies will be entitled to a car allowance of six cents per mile on official business, which will tend to make the office more attractive.

McLains Are Home From Trip into N.M.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McLain of Sand Hill and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brown and Vicki of Lubbock, left Sunday afternoon, August 10, on a trip which took them to Dimmitt for a visit with Mr. McLain's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams.

Monday they went to Amarillo to see two daughters and families, the Tylers and the Hatfields, also a sister of Mrs. McLain, Mrs. Lynn Mahagan and husband and daughter and while there they met a nephew, Vernon Brodgen of Motley county who is now stationed in California.

From Amarillo they drove to Tucuman, New Mexico, to visit a sister of Mr. McLain, Mrs. E. C. Pulling, and husband and son, Tommie, and daughter and family, the Jack Dyers; also Mr. and Mrs. McLain visited a cousin of Mrs. McLain's, Mrs. Jack Feish and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Jim Feish. The Feish's were early day residents of Floyd and Motley counties. Jim Griggs is a half brother of Mrs. Mary Davis of Floydada and a son of Geo. R. Griggs who was an early day businessman at Floydada. Mrs. Griggs will be remembered by some as Helen Lorin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Loring. Mrs. Smith was Willie Merrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Merrell, residents of Blanco and Sand Hill communities from about 1888 to 1915.

The three daughters, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Hatfield returned with Mr. and Mrs. McLain Friday and spent the week-end.

a strata of rock and sand, we are told," Carter said. "If we can find the stream, and tap it, which we almost know we can, it will be a big help."

How to Get New Dam

The club still is seeking a feasible way to manage for a new dam and spill way, Mr. Carter said. Contour and water lines already are run, but core drilling has not yet revealed the extent in width of the water sands in the river bed. If the engineer can find out a way to get the flow of underground water controlled the site they have chosen is ideal. Otherwise the idea will have to be abandoned for the present. This abandonment would mean they would use a drag line to clean out silt deposits above the dam in use now and make the most of that. Engineer James F. Potts, Jr., is giving his odd time to the problem.

Carter said the club jumped the gun on asking for fish from the state hatchery for their pretty little lake. The other day the hatchery offered to deliver the fingerlings but the club had to beg off until a later date.

Miss Betty Boteler of Floydada and Miss Jean Covington of Daugherty spent Monday in Matador visiting with a girl friend from WTSC in Canyon. The day was spent on an outing at Roaring Springs.

The author of the following lines entitled "Liquor and Longevity," is unknown but it is strongly suspected that he is not a member of the Anti-Saloon League:

The horse and mule live 20 years
And nothing know of wines and beers.
The goat and sheep at 20 die
And never taste of Scotch and rye.

The cow drinks water by the ton
And at 18 is almost done.
The dog at 15 cashes in
Without the aid of rum and gin.

The cat in milk and water soaks
And then at 12 short years it croaks.
The modest, sober, bone-dry hen
Lays eggs for noes, then dies at 10.

All animals are strictly dry
They sinless live and swiftly die
But sinful, ginful, rum-soaked men
Survive for three score and ten.

And some of us, though mighty few,
Stay pickled 'til we're 92.

TROUBLES FADE

Mandy, at the ripe old age of 50 was celebrating her birthday. Her friends came and went. One of the said: Mandy, I understand you go upstairs without puffing and blowing, that you enjoy a good bit of beefsteak, and have plenty of your own teeth with which to chew it. You can read, are interested in current events, and are happy. How do you do it?"

"Well," answered Mandy, "I have a recipe that I've tried for the past 50 years, and expects to use it the next 50 years. Here it is: When I sits, I sits loose. When I works, I works slow, and when I see a speck of trouble on the horizon, I come my way I goes to sleep."
