No Drouth to Building Material Dealers Customers Still Haul It Off; Demand More

A new and unexpected angle in the current misunderstanding of Russian leaders by the American people. Mr. Stalin had as guests at his Black Sea resort a dozen or so British "labor leaders," described in the American press as leftists, meaning they approached the status of fellow travelers or such. He told them that since the U. S. A. and Britain appeared not to be ready for co-operation with the Soviet Union in settling the many world differences, the Soviets would simply have to await with patience the time when these countries were ready to try to reach reasonable understandings. "We are a patient people," the Russian dictator is quoted as saying. Parts of his conversation with these patriots from Britain the latter "were not at liberty" to disclose.

The Russians have in labor camps somewhere in the interior of that sprawling country several million men and women of various nationalities, taken from their native lands and now at enforced labor in rehabilitating the Russian economic standing. With labor as cheap as that the Russians ought to be able to get quite a bit done with little strain on their finances. The hours these slaves work? Whatever hours they can stand physically. The Politburo has Jap war veterans by the thousands, German war veterans by the thousands, and others of course, who were entitled by the rules of human consideration to be returned to their homes and families, but are still being held, without regard to the dignity of the individual, as slaves and hostages. It will be difficult indeed for the American mind to reach a "cooperative understanding" with the Russians while minds with that type of thinking are in control of Soviet affairs. And workmen who thought of the Soviets as the Emancipators are beginning to learn something of the hours worked in Russia and how it is determined who shall work where and at what wages.

How many A bombs would it take to paralyze business in Floyd county? Would three placed in about the right spots do the job? And who would have the best chance of getting out of a bombing alive? One guess is that three A bombs to the average county in the United States ought to get the job done. Of course those who live in the rougher terrain would have a better chance of getting through an initial attack alive. However, it seems factual to say that the radioactive rays that linger after the initial swoosh has spent itself remain longer where there are mountains and hills. Speaking of bombs disrupting the economic and industrial set-up, one bomb per county average in the United States ought to be enough to be totally paralyzing. Granted that, our nice people who think we ought to be sweet to the Soviets, could be rewarded by the institution of a new regime in America, soon thereafter. Their "economic freedom" from the tycoons of American industry would be complete.

Since we are off on this kind of a tack, thinking of what is on our mind, instead of something closer at home and more within our range of knowledge, we should remind our people that Mr. Stalin is the same Joe who purged Russia shortly before the opening of World War II of some 1324 colonels and generals by the simple process of having them hunted down and shot. One of these generals was killed on the streets in New York City, about which there was no public information on the who or why. There was no proof of quiet so far as the world knew, like in America we would think we owed to the opinion of mankind. The mind of the Politburo works differently to the way our minds work, to say the least.

Greatest hazard to all farming operations is the weather. Next comes this and that and not far down the line is the market. But a farmer, when it comes right down to it, has proven that he can take a lot of bad marketing conditions and still keep his farm intact as a producing unit, if he gets a break as regards the weather. He must have some rain and he must have a break at planting time and on frost dates part of the time. Back in the twenties when he got none of these and bad markets, too, he certainly went plenty broke. In 1934, after about 15 years of that kind of a thing no farmer could imagine that by 1947 he would be sitting on top of the world once more. With a lot more of the southwest area, including a considerable portion of Floyd county under irrigation, the weather threat will not be so imminent every week. Generally speaking, too, the neighbors on non-irrigated farms will be given a better chance to hold their flocks and herds intact, since they will be close enough to a feed supply that the freight rate will not be forbidding, also they can be their own haulers instead of hiring railroad men to haul for them at the price which the railroad men consider is necessary to maintain a decent standard of living—quite a bit higher than the farm operator deems essential when it comes down to a matter of saving his home and farm.

For the first time in nearly a quarter of a century, the national farm mortgage debt is increasing, estimates for last year showing a rise of nearly 3 1/2 percent.

Everybody in Band Enjoyed WTSC Trip

Saturday the band members went to W. T. S. C.'s homecoming at Canyon.

A few of the things the bands were required to do were to march in the parade, take part in a delicious barbecue, and go to the game between the W. T. S. C. Buffaloes and the Hardin Indians from Wichita Falls.

The parade started at the campus continued to town, and returned to the campus.

There were nine other high school bands and two college bands.

Everyone had a wonderful time and hopes to take more trips like this in the future.

Candid Camera

What handsome, black-haired boy is Vice-President of the Senior Class? What certain left guard was captain in the Abernathy game last Friday night? What boy makes the girl's hearts beat faster; finds his smiling reflection in faces wherever he goes? That character, my friends of the Candid Camera, is Bob Jarboe.

Bob was born on July 31, 1931. Now at the age of 16, he is 5 feet 11 inches, 160 lbs, full of bones' to-goodness whirlwind. Besides being one of the most eye-catching members of the senior class he is also one of the most valuable. During his school career he has always been cooperative and eager to do his share in class work. Not only does he have notable physical assets, but also he is quick-witted, energetic fun—a likeable personality!

Among Bob "Jazz" Jarboe "likes" are blackberry pie and just plain jello, people with good personalities, people who mix well with other people, wearing the color brown, W. T. S. C. football (but naturally) swimming, typing, (teachers: please note) all the teachers in F. H. S. levis and "T" shirts, loafers and loud socks, lab days in Chemistry course blonde hair on just anybody, June Allyson and Dennis Morgan, and his favorite movie, "High Barbaree".

Jazz has an ambition. Quoting him: "Well, I'm just like any other boy: I want to be a football coach." But "deep down" he has a secret desire: To be a swabber for a couple of years. Bob's hobby (and what a hobby!) is loafing. He wishes school was simply getting here, playing football, and going home again. Bob also has very definite favorite time of day. His favorite time of day is the darkness between 7:00 and 10:0 P. M.

Did you ever see a girl 5 feet 4 inches, weighing 120 lbs. with peaches and cream complexion, soft blonde hair, and dreamy, dark brown eyes? If you find one fitting this description, stop and talk to her. After meeting her, find out if she can be vivacious, yet quiet at the right time, ask her if she likes horses and dogs, dislikes cats; find out if she detests long finger-nails and is interested in sports -- besides being very popular with others. If she meets all these qualifications, please contact Bob Jarboe, Floydada High School, immediately.

"Jazz" dislikes pink, slimy okra and asparagus, conceited people who try to be what they aren't, algebra and long football workouts. "Heaven on earth" would begin at 10:00 A. M. A good breakfast of tomato juice, eggs and bacon, and melba toast to set the pace for the day. Hunting for quail until lunch time. Bob would come in to a table set with a big "T" bone, mashed potatoes, all the fresh tomatoes a guy could eat, and corn-on-the-cob touched off with blackberry pie and plain jello. After a two hour "after dinner" nap, Bob would go swimming. Working up a big appetite he'd be ready once more to begin on a meal just like his lunch. A shiny Mercury convertible would be sitting outside waiting to take him by for his girl. After seeing the best show in town, Jazz would take her home in a round-about way.

Winds Outclass Abernathy Team for 33-0 Win

A shower of bugs and other-good weather, the Floydada Antelopes outclassed and outright the Abernathy Antelopes on ground and in the air for a 33-victory last Friday night.

Although the Antelopes had a very light, hard hitting back field were smothered by the vicious Floydada eleven. Abernathy had a good pass to the flat, that most every time they tried it only for a few yards or no gain before their blocking could start.
Floydada passed more than usual started it so that even Floydada were wondering since they were to a Hale and Grigsby combination in previous games. However Grigsby was in the backfield this time and made a very good snowing for him-it, mostly around and over right end.

Looking at the Game
A fast moving game all the way looking to be only slightly one sided in the first quarter. Floydada received, and after marching to the twenty eight yard stripe, lost yardage and kicked. The kick was returned to the twenty, but after the second play Grigsby blocked a pass which Cline caught on the Abernathy twenty eight yard line and returned to the seventeen. Two plays later Floydada fumbled over the goal with Abernathy recovering for a safety and taking the ball on their own twenty. After taking the ball from their twenty to their forty-one they punted to the Floydada twenty where Grigsby took the ball to the Floydada thirty five. The Quarter ended two plays later Floydada on the Abernathy forty-three with a drive started which netted the first T. D. in the second quarter.

From the forty-three Floydada made a steady push to the Antelo-pes ten where Grigsby took the ball over end for the tally. Conner took the ball low for no point.

After the kick Abernathy was stopped dead and kicked to the Floydada thirty-eight from their own fifteen. Until the half the game was a deadlock in Floydada territory, featuring intercepted passes. The half ended with Floydada in possession of the ball on the Antelope forty-six yard marker.

Second Half at Fast Tempo
The third canto started the tempo at a fevered pitch when Grigsby's kick off was fumbled on the goal line and then returned only to the Abernathy seven yard stripe. Abernathy again was stopped cold and punted to their own forty where the 'Winds made a steady march to the goal. A pass Grigsby to McGuire good for twenty yards set up the score on an off tackle run from the ten by Hart. Again Conner missed his try at conversion for a twelve zero lead.

Following the Floydada kick, the Antelopes took the ball to the Flov-ada thirty-eight yard line where they lost the ball on downs, but were quick to take advantage of a recovered fumble to send Grigsby around end from the twenty-two for the third T. D. and then off tackle for the extra point. The Antelopes had only two plays after the kick in the third quarter to try to overcome the nineteen point lead piled up by the heavier Floydada squad.

Interceptions the Fashion The fourth quarter was probably one of the most unusual parts of a game Floydada fans have seen or will ever see. Passes were thrown and intercepted so fast that it was hard to tell which team had the ball much less which player had it.

From the position of the ball on the eighteen yard marker, the Antelo-pes literally went over the 'Winds to the Floydada forty-five before being stopped by a fifteen yard clipping penalty which caused them to kick. However Floydada passed incomplete three times and kicked to the Antelope ten where the fire work started in full force.

Abernathy passed and Floydada intercepted only to have their return pass, the next play, intercepted by the Antelopes who in turn had their next pass intercepted by Finley.
Floydada used strange tactics for their next T. D. They ran the ball.

Yes sir, Grigsby took the old pill over on the next play from the Antelope seventeen on the type of play that seemed to have forgotten in the past few minutes, just a plain old everday ground run. Conner felt so good about the strategy he tried some of the same and made the try at extra point good.

The kick off was made and the Antelopes again took to the air bringing the ball to the Floydada forty-five before Grigsby could leap in the air and pull one down for Floydada on his own thirty and take it back to the forty. After a ten yard run Grigsby uncorked a long pass from the Antelope forty nine to Hale on the twenty, Hale dashing the remaining twenty untouched for the last tally of the game. Since everyone else was in the scoring mood Conner took the ball perfectly through the uprights for the thirty-third point Floydada was to make.

All in all it was a very exciting game, a little too wild in places and not enough drive in other places.
'Winds beware; penalties cost you several touchdowns this game as well as in the Ralls game and you are going to face teams that will beat you if you throw away any of your scoring punch.

Petersburg Yards Show Results of Beautification

PETERSBURG, Oct.—Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Tom Carter, District representative, and Miss Lucile Shultz, Home Demonstration agent of Hale county, made an inspection of yards in Petersburg and community that were entered in the beautification contest of Hale county.

The contest is sponsored by the State and Petersburg is one of the districts in Hale county. Practically $6,000 worth of plants were set out this year in the community. The loss of planting only amounted to eleven plants, which is an outstanding record.

The judges inspected 62 yards and 16 were selected as outstanding. Pictures of the yards were forwarded to Austin.

Band Gets Better
The Floydada band, which seems to be improving at a very fast rate seemed to impress the Abernathy crowd at last week's game, as well as the Floydada fans, who are by now expecting a good halftime show from previous experience.

The last halftime performance was no exception to the good entertainment rule and was carried out with the precision that marks all of the band's halftime performances. They marched on the field from the north and were led to the other end by June Powell, who was doing her very difficult one handed hand springs. A counter march at the south end with various maneuvers in between brought them to the middle of the field where the band formed a semi-circle and started playing Marie. Then from the two sidelines came two little darkies who did a very nice jitter-bug dance.
Of course the darkies were only painted and turned out to be two girls, Peggy Collier as the girl, and Billie Chowning as the boy.

Keep it up Bandsters we enjoy your half time performances and have high expectations for your next at Wester field tomorrow night.

F. Nix Must Quit Ministry

ABERNATHY, Oct.—Rev. J. Frank Nix, who has been pastor of the Baptist church here since 1939, announced his resignation from the ministry and his forced retirement from the ministry. Nix recently returned from a mission trip to Minneapolis, Minnesota, where physicians advised him to quit the ministry because of a heart condition and warned that if he continued to preach, he would cause a thickening of the heart muscles over a period of years. Nix said he would try to see a new pastor as soon as possible. Nix, in the ministry 40 years, was graduated from Wesleyan college in 1913 and was a missionary of the Staked Land Baptist association, an area from Dickens west to the New Mexico line. Nix moved to New Mexico in 1915 and worked a land claim north of the San Juan, N. M., preaching in various churches and revivals until 1916 when he sold his land and became a full-time pastor at Fort Sumner. In 1917 he was elected state evangelist for New Mexico and in 1918 pastor of the Farwell-Texas Baptist church. His next pastorate was at Portales and then he moved to Clovis in 1923, when he served 16 years before moving to Abernathy.

Active Civic Worker
He has been active in civic affairs in Abernathy and has served on many state and district boards of the church. He organized a men's Bible class in Abernathy in 1940 and has served as its teacher ever since. Rev. and Mrs. Nix have seven children and nine grandchildren. One son, Major William E. Nix is on duty in Tokyo, Japan. The other sons are: John H. and Frank, Waco and Joe, a student in Texas Tech University. Daughters are: Mrs. A. D. Breneman, an instructor on the University of Hawaii, Honolulu; Mrs. B. F. Pearman, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. W. W. Wallis, Boston.

City Park Church Announcements

(Otta Johnson, Minister.)
During the past four weeks the work in our congregation has really started building up. The members seem to have more zeal than ever before. The attendance is steadily growing.

Last Wednesday night there were 66 present for singing and bible study. Included in every Wednesday night singing, are quartets and other special songs. All lovers of good singing are urged to attend this weekly service. In the near future there is to be a dinner on the ground with singing in the afternoon. Be sure to watch the Hesperian for the exact date and time.

Interest in Young People's classes, that meet at 6:45 p. m. each Sunday, is very good. The average attendance in these for the past four weeks is about 35 young people. Our contributions each Sunday have almost doubled during this time.

Tentative plans for improving up our building and grounds are being made. Other improvements are already in motion.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend all of our services. Come out and enjoy the soul-inspiring sermons and songs. Where the truth is preached in love and where nobody is treated like a stranger. The song service is directed by Floyd Johnston.

• More and more calls from more and more telephones have taxed the capacity of switchboards and operators alike during these days of equipment shortages. Even so, most calls at most times go through promptly.

If, at times, you do not hear "Number, please?" immediately, it's because hundreds of other people are calling at the same time and operators are doing their best to answer each call in turn. This is especially true during the busiest hours of the day—midmorning and early evening.

We're putting in more equipment as fast as we can get it. Our aim is to eliminate delays and answer every call promptly.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

A WINDOW FULL OF STARS

There is a window in my room That looks up toward the sky, Where all the night And every night The gallant stars go marching by. Orion with his golden belt, The Lute's lamp of blue, The polar stars, The southern stars And stars whose names I never knew.

When nights are clear I hardly dare To close my eyes in sleep, Lest I should miss That star or this Across the skyways wide and deep Ah, blessed am I who own a sky, Where God's own stars of light Bend down beside My window wide And lift my thoughts to Him at night.

Isn't this a lovely poem? It is what I would have liked to have been able to write for I too, love to watch the stars outside my window at night. Some go across the opening so swiftly as if they had much space to wander over and in a hurry to get it done. Others go slowly. There are about five that seem to go together, altho not close to one another. Sometimes the moon is bright and the stars dim in the presence of a stronger light. "The same stars," I muse to myself, "the same stars as when I came to this house as a bride. The same stars will be there shining when I am gone." They give an insight of eternity for the Heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament sheweth His handiwork.

Each day goes by clear as a gem in a ring. Why worry about the days to come? These days are to be enjoyed.

An ancient Welsh poem known as the "Counsels of Bard Ddoet" written hundreds of years ago gives something to think over:

"Consider before you speak;"

"First: What you speak;"

"Second: Why you speak;"

"Third: To whom you speak;"

"Fourth: Concerning whom you speak;"

"Fifth: What will become of what you speak;"

"Sixth: What will be the benefit of what you speak;"

"Seventh: Who may be listening to what you speak;"

"Place your word on the end of your finger before you speak it;"

"And if these seven ways before you speak it;"

"And no harm will result when you speak it."

"A mother is a mother still The holiest thing alive"

The affection and close relationship of a mother and her daughter is a precious thing to behold, and when death slipped in and the mother slipped out, Mary E. Simpson grieved for her mother, Mrs. Leah Moore. Never does one feel so utterless as in trying to speak comfort for such a great bereavement. Time is the only comforter for the loss of a mother. And such a lovely gracious mother. A pioneer she was and altho the life of such were rather hard and without comfort, flowers sprang up in the path of this young mother and gladdened all the days of her life and gave rich beauty and fragrance to her many friends.

Yes, you may cry, my friend, Mary E. for does not the night cry and in the morning the dew refreshes the flowers? True tears make souls beautiful. True sorrows are after all but the seeds out of which come fairer joys. For under the cold snows of grief the flowers of Christian graces grow unhurt, as flowers bloom when the blanket of snow is warmed and melted by the winds of spring.

Do not let the organ she loved be silent, nor the flowers she enjoyed go unwatered and untended. Remember the friends she loved and remember she has longed so many times to see the precious babe she lost in its infancy.

Oh, when a mother meets on high The babe she lost in infancy, Hath she not then for pains and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Wiman, of Levelland, were in Floydada Saturday night and Sunday, guests of the Bob Crawells.

Mr. Wiman said the recent hail storm, which centered in Levelland was the most terrific he ever experienced in West Texas. O. T. Williams Going to Korea on Soil Work LUBBOCK.—O. T. Williams, who has been district conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service here since 1939, left Tuesday for Korea where he has been assigned as conservationist by the United States government.

Williams is being loaned to the War department to go to Korea to work with the Department of Agriculture in setting up a national soil and water conservation program in the American zone. Tour of duty is indefinite with a minimum of one year.

Wife Joins Him later

Mrs. Williams is to remain in Lubbock for the present until arrangements have been made with the War department for housing facilities. She will join Mr. Williams in Korea as soon as these arrangements are made.

Former vocational agriculture teacher at Ralls and Floydada, Williams has been in agricultural work on the High Plains 21 years. He was active in vocational teaching work and was twice president of the Association for Vocational Agriculture Teachers for the High Plains.

He went with the Soil Conservation Service in 1935 and worked with H. H. Finnell at Dalhart. While on the demonstration project there he had charge of a training program in which 35 young college agriculture graduates were given special training in soil and moisture conservation. These young men served as a nucleus for the expansion program of the service throughout the area.

Four Years at Hereford

Williams was for four years in charge of the demonstration project of 31,000 acres at Hereford. He came to Lubbock in 1939 as manager of an area office which comprised 33 counties and while in this capacity had general supervision of demonstration projects, CCC camps, water facility projects and wind erosion and soil conservation districts.

During the early part of the war when the service was streamlined for economy purposes and state offices set up in place of area offices he became district conservationist working with district supervisors in several South Plains districts. He represented the service in assisting supervisors in 14 districts in developing their soil conservation program and plan of work and in operating the districts.

In Korea, he is to demonstrate train and advise in the principles of soil conservation; develop basic planning and action procedures needed to facilitate soil conservation; layout demonstration farms; participate in a training program of Korean personnel so that they may be leaders in the work and assist in developing and prosecuting a broad program of public information and education concerning soil erosion control, water conservation and sound land use.

Williams is a member of the Kiwanis club, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and a deacon in the First Baptist church. He and Mrs. Williams have two children, Mrs. W. M. Quinn of Lubbock and O. T., Jr., a civil engineering student in Texas Tech.

to be carried from the Abernathy field.

Amburn with bad knees, Perry with a broken leg, and Womack with a broken arm, are pre-Abernathy casualties.

Apparently Paducah is not "in" for the final district flag race, but they're set to make it a race for the Lockney Longhorns next year and they're gaining offensive know-how every week this season. Friday night here may be theirs. In the line they give the Whirlwinds five pounds per man average, but in the backfield they're 10 pounds per man lighter. The Sandlin family is still prolific with two starters in the backfield, one of them at quarter the other at full.

Lockney, Spur on the March

Floydada High school's expensive win at Abernathy Friday night was 33 to 0. Meanwhile Lockney Longhorns hung another pelt at the belt—Crosbyton's Chiefs lost to them 7-12, and Spur took Paducah's Dragons 12 to 0 to make a perfect score for the Longhorns and the Bull Dogs in conference play.

Lockney and Spur meet at Lockney Friday night. Both will be under pressure. The Longhorns are sure they're in at least by next season, but it may be this year. The Bull Dogs think they've got what it takes as of now. The Longhorns be well-staffed to give greatest value Use of specialists — he suggested at least five — will be found a necessity, the speaker declared. And he was positive in his opinion that sufficient membership is not available in this area to successfully operate two such hospitals in Floyd county one at Floydada and one at Lockney. He said the people interested need to get together and have one hospital which can be adequately supported. He said the choice of a location could be made on a "democratic basis," and urged such action. Questions and answers and discussion included this angle of the situation in Floyd county.

John A. Lloyd presided at the meeting, at which also a representative of the Hale Center hospital was present and addressed the group, giving information on the problems which his organization faced in carrying out the hospital plan there.

was in the practice of medicine there until his retirement and return to Floydada two years ago.

Dr. Hopkins was married to May Belle Foster at Bonham, Texas, in 1896, the widow who survives him. Surviving children are two sons, Carroll D. Hopkins of Artesia, New Mexico, and A. G. Hopkins of Amsterdam, New York; and three daughters, Mrs. W. B. Henry, Floydada; Mrs. John Herd, Post; and Mrs. Keith Arnold, Salt Angelo. Five grandchildren also survive.

Two sons preceded their father in death. Truett died in 1932 at Miami, Texas, and Maury died at Chicago in 1942.

W. U. White, John F. Lewis, Homer Steen, Glad Snodgrass, Clarence Guffee, John H. Reagan, W. L. Fry, and Roy L. Snodgrass, the latter of Amarillo, were pallbearers.

Of many out-of-county friends who attended the last rites were the following:

W. F. Foster, Tecumseh, Oklahoma; brother of Mrs. Hopkins; Dr. Joe O. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hardin; Mrs. Ben Hardin, Mrs. Glenn Crowley, Mrs. C. W. DeView and Mr. and Mrs. S. A.
