Council Seeks Bids on Swimming Pool

Billy Wesley, Jr. Wins Ace Award Scholarship

City council of Floydada is still trying to figure out some way they can meet in the public demand for a swimming pool. The money they have won't meet the bill for the pool as originally planned and for which $25,000 was voted by the taxpayers. There was sufficient money at the time the money was authorized to be spent but by the time the federal authorities would issue a permit for the city to get the materials their money wouldn't stretch far enough.

At their last regular meeting the council decided to see what they could do by cutting the job up into three parts, swimming pool, bath house, perfuming system. The engineers were instructed to draw plans and specifications subject to bid and see how something can be worked out that way. It will cost the city about $1,000 in engineering fees to do this but it would be a part of the eventual cost anyhow so the net loss will not be material if the work is finally undertaken. The fee is 60 per cent of 4 per cent of the estimated final contract to get the specifications and the bids in the city office. Bids will be advertised for in three parts as indicated.

Pressure on the Council
Yesterday City Secretary B. K. Barker said the pressure on the city council continues to be strong and that body is trying to meet the situation as best they can. The council has been convinced they can't go through with all of the job at this time, but they want to take a look at figures to see how much can be done, Mr. Barker said.

Funeral Yesterday At Silverton For Mrs. E. L. Ayres
Graveside services for Mrs. E. L. Ayres, 73, of Lockney, were conducted yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Silverton cemetery with Elder Earl Cantrell officiating. Mrs. Ayres died early yesterday morning in the Lockney hospital after several days of illness.

Future Farmer Week Observed Chapter Here
National Future Farmers week in America finds chapters in this area, Floyd county chapter in particular being seasonal study and field work. This goes with farming, such as mapping, moving and replanting trees, pruning grapes, evergreens and Chinese elms, said Henry G. Decker, vocational agriculture teacher in Floydada High school and sponsor of the Floydada chapter Future Farmers of America.

Wheat Men Hanker to See Their Crops Looking Up Above Ground
Although Floyd county wheat men are not so enthusiastic about their prospects for a wheat crop this year, many of them are getting anxious now to see what their mixture of sowed and volunteer wheat looks like "on top of the ground". Good weather has kept the late fall rains nibbled back in most fields and in this mid-February date the man is still wondering whether he has a wheat crop or a job of plowing to get ready for a spring crop.

Firestone Dealer Will Open Store Floydada, At an Early Date
M. Robinson, of Post, this week announced the purchase of a location of the stock of Collier Auto from Everett and Robert G. M. Robinson, jr., and W. D. St. All of Post. The quartet have organized their new business under the name of Robinson & Co. Home and Auto Supply and operate a Firestone store at the location, 108 South Main street, which they will occupy as soon as the Colliers can give possession.

Floydada Jaycees Have Strong Basketball Organization

'Winds in Cage Play Tonight
With brilliant play last night the Floydada High School Whirlwinds kept their season-long slight advantage over the Spur High Bulldogs in conference basketball, winning the first of a three-game play-off series 42-33. The game was played at Spur gym. It marked the first time this season the 'Winds' have been able to take the Bulldogs. Both first and second round robin games between the two schools were won by the Spur boys. The last one on Tuesday night was a thriller-diller ending 37-36.

Shurbet Colt Brings $3375 After Show
J. B. Shurbet's brown coming two-year-old quarter horse Dutch Boy, which set West Texas show rings afire last year and placed second in the quarter horse show at the Fat Stock show in Fort Worth, has a new owner now.

Jaycees Point For Basketball Tournaments
The Jaycees ran into some sharpshooters when they journeyed to Petersburg Monday night and lost a good game 46 to 41. Of their 18 games in the season to date the team has won 13 and lost five. Pictured above are all members of the team, their coach and manager, with one member, R. D. Webb, jr., absent. They are:

W. P. Neff Victim of Icy Roads Last Week in Oklahoma
Remains of William P. Neff, 63, victim of a highway accident, were interred in Floydada cemetery following funeral services Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Methodist church. Rev. Lloyd H. Jones, assisted by Elder C. L. Jarrett, officiated.

SOUTH DAKOTA TRIP
L. C. McDonald, R. T. Jones, Lon and Tom Emert left the latter part of last week for South Dakota, where McDonald and Jones are interested in a piece of farm and ranch property, of which they will assume possession on March 1.

Guy Address on Germany Thurs. Night High School Auditorium
The address of Chas. A. Guy, of Lubbock, long prominent in West Texas newspaperdom, will be heard on Thursday night of next week at the Floydada High school auditorium. It was announced this week by Guy Ginn.

Wm. P. Neff
four miles out of Chickasha, Oklahoma. Mr. Neff, in company with a son, Buell, were enroute to Wayne, Oklahoma, to get their daughter and sister, Mrs. Lela Payne Capshaw, who was coming to Floydada for a visit. The Neff pick-up swerved to avoid an oncoming truck, skidded on the icy shoulder of the highway and plowed off a ten foot embankment. The body was brought to Floydada by a Chickasha ambulance, arriving here late Thursday afternoon. The son escaped injury.

Floyd county taxpayers Tuesday voted by a resounding four-to-one majority to issue $500,000 in bonds for the construction of farm-to-market hard-surfaced roads covered by eight projects extending a grand total of 68.5 miles.

Reversing positions taken in November and again in December, when proposed $300,000 issues were twice defeated by slight margins, the voters turned out to give the go ahead signal to the issue almost double in amount. Roads proposed under the plan will serve as school bus routes and marketing avenues in 11 communities directly and seven or eight others indirectly.

Four Precincts Dissent
With majorities ranging from four to one, as in Floydada's combined four-box vote to Harmony's 16 to 1, Sand Hill's 22 to 1 and Sterley's unanimous 42 to 0, seventeen of the 22 boxes in the county piled up heavy majorities quickly. Lakeview split 50-50 on the issue.

Inspect Water Works Job for Final Okey
Except for some sewer extensions which can't be made now because sewer main tile can't be found in the market, the city's waterworks job contracted last spring and started in the fall by Sherman Machine & Iron Works, is just about finished. The city's engineering firm, Parkhill, Smith & Cooper, had a man on the scene yesterday with a view of giving approval and okeying the final payment on the contract.

Will See Highway Department
Judge Grimes yesterday indicated the Commissioners court's attitude is being one of making haste, but slowly. "First, we canvass the vote, then we confer with the State Highway department to see for sure how our program stands there. Meanwhile, we will be studying the bond issue, clearly within the scope of the act as quickly as possible."

THIS CHANGING WORLD

Gandhi is dead, but the spirit of a powerful leader lives on. The smoke of his funeral pyre has ascended, and may his influence thus ascend in the hearts and lives of leaders throughout the world.

Gandhi loved liberty, and was a man of peace. God give us more men of peace today. So many of the great leaders in the development of our civilization have been warriors, that it is a relief to know of a man who could stand the pressure of an enemy invasion of his home land and resist only passively.

This little brown man of India was not a Christian according to our belief, yet he practiced more real Christianity than many who would brand him heathen. Gandhi might have been wrong in theory, but the evidence is that he was so right in practice. The leaders of the Catholic Church have often promoted wars, and protestant leaders have fought in the name of religion. Those claiming to follow the Prince of Peace have left a bloody record of violent persecution, hatred, and strife. Their influence is still so strong that Christianity today, in general, has lost its meaning, and most professors have not even begun to be Christian, but we call Gandhi pagan.

It is sad indeed that a man of peace had to be murdered by the hand of one who believes in violence. It makes us think that perhaps many more centuries will pass before the leaders of men will actually begin to follow Christ, and practice Christianity in their dealings with each other. —J. Loyd Rice.

The Hesperian is pleased to make an explanation of weather conditions, somewhat unusual as reported exclusively by this column last week, notably the peal of thunder (a lone one heard over a radius of at least 21 miles as later investigation has revealed). Since there is to be no thunder during the month of February the fact-finder has to take a base as close to February as he possibly can, which was late, very late, January. The late April frost may or may not be a severe one but it is not good news to the cotton planters who expect to have their seed in the ground at least by mid-April so as to get a good early start and a long growing season. Spring will break early but it is due to have some interruptions. Some will recall last year's situation. It thundered in February and one anonymous reader recalls quite clearly that it killed back their potatoes twice and they didn't make seed. It frosted in April, you see. A good way to farm or garden on the plains is to work with nature, not against it or according to something they use to do back in Tennessee or North Carolina, or even back in good old East Texas.

RIGHT TO HIT BACK?

We like the general idea behind these paragraphs we picked up out of the Boyce House writings:

It's time that some fairness was introduced into Congressional hearings.

This business of browbeating sovereign American citizens by some man who is a member of Congress and therefore is supposed to be our servant ought to be changed at least to the extent that the citizen shall have the right to hit back.

A Congressman can bulldoze a business man, for example, and then refuse him the right to introduce witnesses to support his position and to uphold his good name. He isn't even allowed to cross-examine some irresponsible individual who may have it in for him and gets before the committee and makes untrue, unsupported accusations.

The idea that Howard Hughes had to write out the questions he wanted to ask and submit those questions to the committee chairman for his approval or rejection is repugnant to the American spirit of fair play.

That's one reason why this country rocked with applause for the tall Texan who refused to be browbeaten but stood his ground and slugged in true Texan style until that durnyankee Senator tucked his tail and ran.

A quite substantial campaign, spear headed by official sources, will be carried on this spring in an effort to get people garden-minded. A good way to lower the cost of living per family and get more A vitamins into the family diet, it is argued. Gardening also loosens up many a joint and limbers up many a muscle that has lacked exercise. Smell of the good earth doesn't do a person any harm either.

Big campaign ready to be sprung also in the making to get people to put their surplus funds into government bonds. This effort will be made to get money that is lying about (you may not have surplus but a lot of people do) into bonds so as to get more government securities out of bank portfolios; and to keep it from being available with temptation to spend it in competition with other money for scarce items—things made of steel, for instance.

During the war, 7,234 combat types and 1,000 non-combat types of Naval ships were used, a total of 8,234. These do not include 60,000 small boats, minor landing and district craft. Those ships steamed a total of 420,000,000 miles.

Home Builders Club

"Women know least about floor coverings than any other thing in the home," said Miss Leila Petty, Home Demonstration agent, to the members of the Homebuilders club when they met in the home of Mrs. Riley Teague Friday.

Miss Petty gave instructions for selections and care for velvet, Wilton and Axminster rugs. Wiltons are our best domestic rug. She showed samples of hooked hand-woven and braided rugs and samples of battleship and inlaid printed rubber and asphalt tile linoleum.

During the business meeting the finance committee announced an auction sale for the next meeting and asked members to bring clean cotton rags to be sold to garages. The club welcomed two new members Mrs. T. C. Herring and Mrs. J. P. Moss.

Present for the meeting were Miss Petty, Mrs. O. G. Mayfield, Raymond Williams, Joe Dunn, W. A. Cates, T. J. Heard, D. T. Mayo, J. P. Moss, T. C. Herring, P. F. Bertrand and the hostess, Mrs. Teague.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Dickie Atteberry February 27 at 2 o'clock. Visitors and new members are welcome.

Extension farm management specialists for Texas A. & M. College say there are several favorable factors affecting the livestock market. Cattle prices will be affected by the heavy marketing of cattle and calves in 1947, as it brought breeding cattle numbers down and means a short calf crop in '48 for certain. Fewer calves and strong demand mean good prices for beef. The recent cold wave may cause still more breeding cattle to be marketed because of the high cost of winter feeds.

An early spring and good pasture conditions in the Feed Belt would make a good market for Texas cattle, as many farmers in that area plan to buy younger and medium to good grade cattle for use on their pastures this spring and summer and will feed them only a little corn until the new crop comes on in the fall.

Not only will there be fewer cattle to market this year, but fewer lambs. Many ewes in Texas are in poor condition and won't be for a stand continued severe weather without feeding. Winter wheat pastures in Texas as a whole are in relatively poor condition. Last year small grain pastures carried a million lambs, but very few moved to that area in late '47 because of the drouth. Many ranchmen have culled their flocks closely. All in all, it looks like the demand will be good and the prices right for the livestock producer in Texas in 1948.

You Can Clean a Gas Range Like a Dish

Good Housekeepers Keep Gas Ranges Spotless For Efficient Use and Sparkling Appearance

ACCIDENTAL spillovers on today's automatic gas ranges are nothing to get excited about, for their modern finish is as easy to clean as a dish or glass. Aside from spillovers, some grease is bound to splatter over on to the working face and burners from open frying pans. Don't worry about it because you can keep that shining, clean look for years with a little simple care.

Since the greater part of the range top is porcelain enamel—a like material fused on metal, merely requires washing with a slightly dampened with warm, soapy water. Rinse and dry. The most important point to remember, never, is that this should never be done when the range is hot. Wait until it cools off. The easiest cleaning habit is to wipe off the top and the burners after every cooking—washing—by which time the range has cooled off.

Milk, fruit juices, vinegar and other acid foods will eventually dull porcelain-finished tops even though they are acid resistant. A dry cloth fold of paper towel will take care of these emergency wipe-ups.

Cleaning Top Burners

Automatic gas ranges are equipped with burner grids of cast iron with a baked-on coat of enamel which can be washed in warm, soapy water. You can lift out the burner heads and wash them the same way, rinsing and turning up down for quick drying so that burner ports (where gas flame goes through) will not be clogged with dampness. Aluminum burner heads can be cleaned with steel wool or mild cleanser but on chrome use a soft abrasive, not steel wool. If chrome or aluminum burner heads lose their gleam, clean them with a metal polish as you would an aluminum kitchen utensil. The holes or "ports" where flame goes through can be cleaned with stiff brush and warm water. Old-type burners may sometimes clog with spillovers. If this happens push a wire into the hole or port, twist and remove the dirt.

Removable drip trays underneath burners found on some models can be cleaned with warm, soapy water, always remembering to wipe dry the bottom of the tray, as well as the top, before replacing.

Cleaning the Oven and Broiler

Since broiler and oven linings are made of porcelain enamel they are as easy to clean as a porcelain pot. As soon as food is cooked, take out the broiler pan and grill and, if very badly spattered, soak in hot water while you are doing the dishes. Then wash with warm water and soap using very fine steel wool or a stiff brush for the dirtier spots.

Occasionally, the inside of the broiler compartment itself, including top, sides and bottom, can be washed with warm, soapy water.

The same method of cleaning applies to the oven. Oven racks can be lifted out and washed. Don't forget the top of the oven while you're at it. Grime collected here comes from food vapors which rise from the baking dishes.

If, as occasionally happens, your baking dish has overflowed because it was filled too full, allow the oven to cool, then remove the oven bottom and clean as usual. The bottom of the oven can be completely immersed in soapy water if it's not insulated. Otherwise, just clean the top section.

These simple, time-saving habits will guarantee that your gas range will look spanking new as long as it stands in your kitchen.

Better telephone service for farmers in the Floydada area

More than 400 farmers living in the Floydada area have already signed up for the new and improved farm telephone service we are now making plans to provide. During the last two weeks, Larry Chilton, Marshall Kemp, Chris Barber, and E. N. Hunter, telephone company representatives, have been interviewing farmers around Floydada, and will try to see every rural resident before they leave.

Their job is to find out how many farmers who can be served by the Floydada telephone exchange want the new service, and to prepare maps showing the exact location of every rural telephone to be connected with the new system. Engineers will use these maps to plan and build the lines, and preliminary work has already started.

The new two-wire lines will be built, owned and maintained by the telephone company. All telephone instruments will be modern lift-the-receiver types and there will be no cranks to turn. Fewer parties (no more than eight) will be on each line, and a new system of ringing will reduce the number of rings each subscriber hears.

The Floydada project is part of our over-all rural program, which calls for building new lines in Bell exchanges for 165,000 farm families in our five-state territory. We'll welcome inquiries from anyone interested in the new rural plans. Call the Chief Operator if you like, or drop in our business office on California Street.

Work Continues on Highway 70 Thru Oklahoma

HUGO, Oklahoma.—Plans were made at a recent meeting of the Oklahoma Division of U. S. Highway 70 Association, held in Hugo by representative citizens from cities and towns on U. S. Highway 70, for a general meeting of the Association in Durant, Oklahoma, on Sunday, March 7, at 3:00 p. m. at which time a dedication and program of appreciation will be held in connection with the extensive improvement of this highway through Oklahoma.

A monument and plaque will be erected on U. S. Highway 70 at the approach to the Roosevelt Memorial Bridge west of Durant in testimony of appreciation to the State of Oklahoma and the officials responsible for the construction of the highway through Oklahoma.

Invitations will be sent to all cities and towns along the route and it is expected that delegations will be present to assist in the promotion of this trans-continental highway as a tourist route from the Atlantic to

Same Number All The Way

U. S. Highway 70 is one of the few national highways carrying the same number entirely across the United States and is well recognized as a trans-continental highway, receiving much attention from highway officials in each state. Bisecting the Southern United States and beginning at the towns of Beaufort and Atlantic, North Carolina on the Atlantic Coast it traverses North Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California, terminating on the Pacific Coast at Los Angeles.

Among other cities and towns it serves Raleigh, Durham, Greensboro and Ashville, North Carolina; Knoxville, Nashville and Memphis, Tennessee; Little Rock, Hot Springs and DeQueen, Arkansas; Broken Bow, Idabel, Hugo, Durant, Madill, Ardmore, and Waurika, Oklahoma; Vernon, Paducah, Matador, Floydada and Plainview, Texas; Clovis, Portales, Roswell, Almagordo, Las Cruces, Deming, and Lordsburg, New Mexico; Globe and Phoenix, Arizona; and San Bernardino and thence to Los Angeles, California on the Pacific Coast.

Starting two years ago the Oklahoma Highway department, under direction of Governor Robert S. Kerr, inaugurated an improvement program for this long neglected highway with the result that, with the completion of current projects, U. S. Highway 70 will be completely paved from Ardmore to the Arkansas line, a distance of 190 miles. Most of this is 22 foot concrete paving with a small part of bituminous surface.

Pushed During 1947
Under Governor Roy J. Turner's administration the U. S. Highway 70 program has been pushed actively during the last year, when several of the projects were completed. John Craig, Third Congressional District Member of the State Highway Commission, also has been active in getting Highway 70 projects into construction stage.

Two current projects are paving of the stretch between Kingston and Mandill and between Idabel and Broken Bow. Projects will come up for letting in Oklahoma soon on stretches of this National Highway from Ardmore west.

Arkansas also has started extensive improvement of U. S. Highway 70 between the Oklahoma line and Hot Springs, with projects now underway between the state line and DeQueen and between DeQueen and Dierks. The highway is paved from Hot Springs to Little Rock and most of the route from Little Rock to Memphis, Tennessee.

On the newly improved section of this highway in Oklahoma traffic in the last year than on the average Oklahoma highway, a report of December traffic released by the State Highway Department showed. The average highway traffic in the State increased 41.7 per cent over the figures for the same month in 1946, while Highway 70 traffic at Hugo increased 61.9 per cent over the same period in 1946.

Fairview News

FAIRVIEW, Feb. 16—This beautiful day is sure appreciated after so much cold, bad weather.

Miss Helen O'Dell returned to her home in Borger today, after spending some time with her brother and family, Rev. and Mrs. Bill O'Dell and son.

The school children and teacher Mrs. Smith, have been having some "time off" for the past weeks on account of the severe cold days.

We regret very much to lose Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crabtree, long-time residents of our community. They moved last week to their new home at Portales, New Mexico. We hate to see them leave us, but wish them well in their new home. The school lost two pupils, as Lane and Nancy Allen, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree, also moved to Portales to continue making their home with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chill McClure made a trip to Portales to help her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree, with the moving. The McClures are expected home today.

Leslie Jo Crabtree, of Floydada, and Mary Dee Cozby spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham and children moved last week to Portales, New Mexico. Mrs. Graham is the former Ella B. Crabtree and was reared here. She and Mr. Graham have made their home here in our community and in Amarillo for the past several years.

This makes several families we have lost to Portales in the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bagwell visited Sunday night after church with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Horton visited one day last week in Plainview with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Stapleton and with Mr. Horton's brother, Eli Horton and family.

Mrs. E. W. Walls, Mrs. Bill O'Dell and son and Helen O'Dell spent Tuesday in Plainview shopping.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Ritchey were their daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rosenthal and also Grandpa Rhodes, of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Horton.

MATADOR, Feb. 12—M. S. Thacker, Roaring Springs hardware dealer, who last week returned home from a Lubbock hospital, is now able to visit his office for a few hours daily. His condition is much improved.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

All remaining buildings for office use at Camp Bowie, near Brownwood, will go to high bidders at a WAA location sale March 2, 3 and 4. The "wind-up" clearance is to include 481 buildings, many of them easily portable hutments, but including mess halls, repairs and maintenance shops, libraries, stable, a blacksmith shop and other special structures. Anyone is eligible to buy and title will be transferred the same day of purchase. The public is invited to make inspection of the buildings at the camp site from February 19 through March 1.

When 7,000 metal folding chairs went on sale in a recent war surplus offering, so many offers of purchases were received at the War Assets office at Grand Prairie, that award officials had to resort to drawing to determine successful purchasers. As a result 70 veterans, many from the North Texas area, took the entire amount, each being allotted 100 chairs each.

Atabrine, that drug used by the armed services in the treatment and prevention of malaria, appeared as a headline item this week among war surplus merchandise. Some three million bottles of the atabrine, both in tablet and ampule form, are on government shelves in the Grand Prairie and other War Assets regions. By means of a nationwide sale, and newly reduced prices on the drug, WAA hopes to clear its shelves of atabrine by March 2. Interested purchasers can obtain full details on the sale through the Grand Prairie Customer Service Center.

Into the processing hopper this week went a new, large scale plan for launching another war surplus donation program to schools, hospitals and tax-supported institutions. Current inventories in the Texas area, and elsewhere, are to be screened in order to determine what surplus, needed by institutions, can be distributed on a cost-free basis. It is hoped that hard-to-sell surplus can be included, thereby saving the government warehouse and storage costs.

Miss Dwina Glassmoyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Glassmoyer, transferred from Texas Tech at mid-term and is now attending West Texas State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Lamar Haines

Impressive Ceremony United Floy Jean Hale, Ramon Lamar Haines Last Friday Morning

Soft music and candlelight fused to form an impressive background for the marriage of Floy Jean Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Hale, 625 West Kentucky, to Raymond Lamar Haines, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Haines, of College Station, at 10 o'clock Friday morning, February 13.

Elder Otta Johnson, pastor of the Park Church of Christ, performed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. Calla lilies and white stock banked the altar against a beautiful background of cordwaria fern and greenery. Calla bearing lighted tapers flanked the white kneeling bench.

While the guests assembled, Mrs. Morrison Hollums played "Leibestraume," by Liszt. Miss Patricia Kirk sang "Because." Strains from "Clair de Lune" by Debussy were heard as the bridal party entered. "The Trumpets" from Mendelssohn's wedding march were played for the entrance of the matron of honor and the main theme was played for the bride's entrance. Soft music was played throughout the ceremony.

Groom's Sister Matron of Honor
Mrs. E. T. Edwards, of Fort Worth, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a brown gardenia suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias and candy tuft.

Keith Haines, of College Station, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Bill Hale, brother of the bride, and David Haines, brother of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a pink gardenia suit with matching hat and a crown of flowers in pastel colors. She chose navy accessories and carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hale chose a navy and light blue ensemble with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Haines, mother of the groom, wore a dress of dubonnet with navy accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Reception For Party and Guests
Following the ceremony, the bridal party and guests were feted with a reception in the dining room of the Hale home. Centering the bride's table was a large three-tiered wedding cake on a reflector set on a cloth of white net over satin. A wedding bell and light tapers completed the table decorations. A lovely arrangement of calla lilies and white stock adorned the buffet. Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. R. F. Stovall, D. H. Pitts, J. A. Arwine and Conner Oden.

Mrs. Haines is a graduate of T. S. C. W. Denton, with the class of 1947. Mr. Haines served with the field artillery in World War II. He graduated from A. & M. college College Station, with the class of 1943.

Your Exhaust Might Cause Your Death

AUSTIN, Texas—To minimize the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning during winter weather, motorists and commercial drivers are urged by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, to check up now on the exhaust systems of their automobiles for defective connections and leaks.

He said that "warming up" a car in a closed garage is the greatest cause of carbon monoxide deaths. Leaks from manifold connections, cracked manifolds, defective mufflers, leaks from loose muffler connections and leaks from hot air heater connections are potential sources for release of carbon monoxide and should be checked.

"Pay particular attention to those items and remember that proper carburetor adjustments causes minimum production of carbon monoxide and that the highest proportion of this gas is produced by an idling motor."

The State Health Officer said that headaches which occur during long drives may be an indication that carbon monoxide is leaking into the car. Sleepiness, dizziness, fatigue and in extreme cases, paralysis are other symptoms of carbon monoxide leaking into the car. Truck drivers making long drives are particularly vulnerable, he said.

Doctor Cox described this gas as being colorless, odorless, and tasteless. When in the air it gives no sign of its presence and is taken into the blood instead of oxygen. Suffering or collapse result from lack of oxygen.

Make Sauer Kraut for Winter Meals

Don't miss out on homemade sauer kraut served with spareribs or wieners next winter. Choose fresh, hard, sound cabbage now and make kraut. Remove the outside leaves, quarter, and discard cores. Shred and mix thoroughly with salt, one cup to 20 pounds of cabbage.

Pack firmly in a stone jar or light keg and cover with wooden lid or dinner plate which will fit down on the inside of the container. A jar full of water on the outside will hold the kraut under the brine which forms as the salt draws the juice from the cabbage. Keep at a temperature of 65 to 75 degrees Fahrenheit and remove scum each day.

Sauer kraut is cured and ready to can in from 20 to 40 days, depending upon the temperature at which it is kept. Pack into hot Ball jars which seal with glass lids or Dome Vacu-Seal caps. Should there not be enough juice to cover the kraut, add brine made by dissolving two tablespoons salt in one quart of water. Process 1 minutes in hot water bath.

Sauer kraut may also be made by mixing one scant tablespoon salt with one quart shredded cabbage and packing directly into Ball jars. Do not seal the jars yet. Remove the scum as it forms. When cured, then process 30 minutes in hot water bath. Seal jars according to the manufacturer's instructions.

Bulk-cured kraut is superior in flavor, texture and keeping quality to that cured in jars.

Candid Camera

On November 3, 1930, the weary stork dropped on the F. C. Harmon's and drew a deep breath. Then, after squaring his round shoulders, he dropped a squawling bundle on the door step. In a relieved manner he flew madly off.

The bundle has turned out to be our personality for this week. Her name is Ruth Elaine Harmon and she has 108 pounds stacked curvaceously on a 5 feet 2 1/2 inch length frame. She has changeable eyes—blue they're blue, with green they're green; and with other colors they're grey. Topping this is a smooth olive complexion and a mass of brown hair.

Ruth's favorite clothes are sport clothes, just anything sporty. Her favorite perfume is Tuya and her favorite lipstick is Chen Yu's Wisteria.

Ruthie dearly loves music. Classics and semi-classics are her favorites but she simply cannot stand hill-billy music. Her favorite female singer is Lily Pons, and she can't decide her favorite male singer. The song that stands tops with Ruthie is Gounod's "Ave Maria." Running a close second is "Danny Boy." Her favorite band is the Whirlwind Band and she can't decide her favorite orchestra.

Ruth's ambition is to become a great acrobat like June Powell. Ruth's pastime is doing everything that needs to be done. She says her hobby is cutting up and she's getting a wonderful collection.

Ruth's real passion is acting. She has been in quite a few of Mrs. Graves' plays and has done a wonderful job with her parts. She loves movies in general and says she can't decide her favorite movie. Also, she can't decide who is her favorite movie stars. When she sees one star in a picture, he or she, becomes her favorite, and then something always happens. Ruth's favorite subject is Speech, but she's not taking it because they don't offer Speech III.

Ruthie dislikes reading but her favorite author is Ben Ames Williams and her favorite book is "Mrs. Mike." Ruth's favorite time of day is when she's nappy, and that is most of the time except when she's mad. When Ruthie gets just as mad as she can get, the only thing she can think of to do is to cry.

Ruth's nickname is "Burpie" and the runner up is "Ruthso". Her favorite and most unforgettable person is Norma. Her pet aversion is not having enough time to do things she wants to do. Her favorite food is peaches; her favorite color is fuchsia with blue as a close second. Her favorite sport is swimming.

Ruthie likes music, animals, butterscotch, week-ends, horse back riding, red hair, jewelry, levis, social clubs, Thomas, dressing up, stewed okra, spaghetti, bows and scarves, Mexican food, company, crowded places, singing, people (all kinds), and dancing. She dearly loves dogs brown eyes, good figures and Norma.

Ruth's dislikes are reading, getting mad, bubble gum (but she chews it all the time), people who bite nails, and most of all, she hates being lazy.

Ruth's most exciting moment was when she was elected Senior candidate for school queen.

Ruth says her ideal boy doesn't necessarily have to be like this, but if she ever found him he would be She wants him to have blond hair, blue eyes, and real long eyelashes. He should have a straight nose, a well-shaped mouth, and above all he should be considerate and respectable. He must like to go to church, have a good personality, and be rather intelligent. By the way, he must be tall, but not too tall. Incidentally she has found him.

Ruth's most embarrassing moment occurred during a trip from Memphis to Amarillo. A first class ticket was required for everyone riding in the lounge car. Ruthie, not knowing this fact, fancily perched herself in the big middle of the car. When the conductor asked for her ticket and found that she did not have a first class ticket, he politely asked her to leave. She was rather embarrassed before that "high-falutin'" crowd of people.

Her ideal day requires that she go to bed very early the night before so she may rise at 3:00 the next morning. She would travel to Kerrville with her ideal boy and stay at a dude ranch there. Upon arriving she and her ideal boy would ride around in his maroon Cadillac and look at the beautiful scenery. After dressing properly for horse back riding, they would sit by the river and talk until all of her friends and their boyfriends arrived. Then a station wagon loaded with breakfast - scrambled eggs, sausage, buttered toast, red beans, and milk - would arrive. After eating this conglomeration, the crowd would go in swimming and, as Ruthie says get "soaking wet." Then they would ride back to the ranch and spend an hour in archery. After lunch -- tuna sandwiches, milk, and coconut cream pie -- the crowd would rest for an hour. After canoeing the rest of the afternoon the weary bunch would be entertained by Jose Iturbi and Lily Pons. They would then attend a Mexican banquet and eat all the Mexican food they could hold. Ruth would then jump into a formal, strapless evening gown and dance by the river until 12:09. Then the bunch would embark on a mid-night horseback ride. After this there would be a mid-morning snack, and that is the end of her ideal day. Ruth, you are a swell and unusual girl, and you deserve the best of everything. Here's hoping you get it.

Crowell came in for distinct recognition as to advancements, enrollments, Scout trips and activities, when the annual South Plains council meeting was held in Lubbock Monday night. With one other troop in the area the troop was given the Buffalo Robe award. Mr. Crowell, the Scoutmaster, was present and accepted the award for his troop.

J. M. Willson, sr. who with Mrs. Willson and J. M. Willson, jr., also attended the meeting and the annual banquet which followed executive sessions, was named second vice-president of the council this year. He is also a member of the national council from this area.

Among others recognized at the meeting for special services rendered to the Boy Scout organization during the year were Guy Ginn and J. M. Willson, sr.

In the sessions of the late afternoon, preceding the banquet, Robt. Crowell was chairman of a panel discussion among Scoutmasters where problems of troop management were discussed.

BOYCE HOUSE "GIVES YOU TEXAS"

I'll never forget when I was given an encyclopedia, a 12-volume set, absolutely free.

It was back a good many years ago when I was editor of a small town daily and felt a keen sense of my own importance as the holder of that exalted position.

One day, a well-dressed man, a few years older than I, came in and said, "I represent the world-famous Blank Encyclopedia and I want to give you a set of these wonderful books, absolutely free."

At my look of astonishment, he continued, "In each city, we select some outstanding citizen and make him a present of a set. The only thing we ask is that you permit us to use your name as endorsing the encyclopedia."

Well, that sounded reasonable enough, so I agreed.

"There will be a small charge, of course, for handling and shipping," he said.

"Oh, of course," I concurred. "And, naturally, you would want the de luxe edition in the special buckram binding?"

"Naturally."

"There is an extra charge, a very small charge, for the buckram binding," he said, "but you'll never regret your decision."

Then he continued, "Of course, the Blank Encyclopedia is up-to-the-minute now but in this changing world, today's facts may be out-of-date tomorrow. Naturally, you will want to receive our monthly loose-leaf service?"

"Yes, naturally," I replied, rather weakly.

"There will be a small service charge for that. And now," he said briskly, "just sign here."

I did and he shook hands and took a breezy departure as well as my check for $22.85 for a set of books which I received absolutely free because I was an outstanding citizen.

Named Young Southerner for January

Jackie Gene Brock, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brock, of Floydada, was recently named young southerner for the month of January by the editors of the Southern Agriculturist, who say they are proud of his selection of him as one of the two young southerners for January. To Jackie Gene, winning top honors is not a new story. He was the 1947 winner of the 4-H club Danforth scholarship and has just completed his first year of pre-law study at the East Texas State Teachers college.

Jackie was National 4-H Club Safety winner in 1944, attended the National Club congress two years, and was also state leadership winner for two years. His club projects have included dairy cattle, beef cattle, field crops, hogs, to mention only a few. Jackie Gene served as chairman of the State 4-H Club round-up at College Station in 1946 and he has also won a couple of Santa Fe awards.

Louis Franke, Extension editor at College Station, predicts that "Jackie Gene is a lad you're going to be hearing a lot about one of these days."

Framed Picture Received

A picture of Jackie Gene, appropriately framed, with Miss Wanda Jean Heine, a Roscoe, Texas, girl bracketed as the girl winner for the month, has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Brock here last week.

Le Nell Harmon, of Lubbock, spent the week-end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harmon sr. Mrs. Harmon returned to Lubbock for a few day's visit with her daughter.

Ray McEntire returned from a brief business trip to home City.

War on Pantry Pests Is Urged By Miss Petty

(By Lella Petty, Floyd County Home Demonstration Agent)

Those small insects, the weevils, beetles and meal moths, which get into cereals and other dry foods in the home cupboards are a familiar nuisance to the housewife. Entomologists of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture take a more serious view of them because of the waste of food which they cause each year. Cereal products alone, discarded from home kitchens because insects are found in them, amount to a huge loss in grain, so critical at the present time.

If each family in the United States threw away only 50c worth of cereal food each year because of insect infestation, the loss would total about fifteen million dollars, the entomologists estimate. Actually they say, the loss from kitchens of the nation from insects probably is greater than this.

Every housewife, therefore can help the grain-saving program as well as the family pocketbook just by keeping her cupboards free of insects. Simple steps for doing this are: (1) Clean all kitchen shelves thoroughly; (2) Spray cupboard with 5% DDT; (3) Inspect all packages of food for insects; (4) Sterilize food packages in a slow oven (140° F) for half an hour; (5) Keep all food in tightly closed containers. (This will help control ants, cockroaches and other insects as well as the pantry pests.)

Kill by Spraying. Spray cupboards with 5% DDT solution every few months. Clear out cupboards, wash and dry them, then spray interior surfaces. The deposit of fine DDT crystals left after the spray dries will be effective for several months in killing insects that crawl into cupboards. Wait until the spray dries to put packages of food on shelves. The dry DDT will not harm food inside packages. But either will it kill insects already in packages.

Examine Dry Food. Insects sometimes are in food when it comes from the store. They may be in flour, meal, cereals, cornstarch, crackers, breakfast food, macaroni, spaghetti, spices, nut meats, dry milk, chocolate, cocoa, dehydrated and dried fruits, dry soup mixes, biscuit or dry rations and bird seed. But these foods are not ruined just because a beetle or moth has crawled in. An occasional insect in flour, for example, may be picked out and flour sifted through a fine sieve. Flour or other food should be sterilized with heat and stored in a clean, tight container. Foods which are heavily infested, however, may only be used to feed chickens.

Sterilize by Heat. Dry food products can be freed of insect life by heating in the oven at 140° F. for half an hour. Small packages can be heated just as they are sealed or opened. Contents of larger packages should be spread out on a baking pan so that heat can

Miscellaneous

ATTENTION, FARMERS

Now you can contour, lay out your ditches, chisel, drill, without surveying, with the new Ellis Contourliner. I have used my Contourliner almost a year and I find it will do the work.

The Contourliner is mounted on hood of tractor in plain view of driver to indicate level line across field. Makes instant indication of per cent of error when tractor deviates above or below level line.

Height 8 1/3 inches, weight 3 lbs. requires only 4 inches square flat surface for mounting. Will fit any tractor.

As there will be a limited number made this year I will need the orders as early as possible. If interested write for literature.

DON'T SQUEEZE THEM! Instead brush with KLEEREX and see how amazingly fast it hides ugly pimples as it dries them—often on first trial. Not a greasy salve that clogs pores, but a soothing medicated liquid that relieves itching—drives redness out. Ask for KLEEREX at all drug stores. Double your money back if it fails. 49c

These curtains treated with the famous Wat-A-Set process which has the seven famous features listed below:

- (1) Makes marquisettes, ninons and casement curtains washable; minimizes distortion of delicate open weaves. Will dry cleanse readily if desired.
- (2) Repels bugs called "Silverfish," which ordinarily eat rayon as moths eat wool.
- (3) Crinkle resistant. Minimizes crinkling when curtains are exposed to moisture.
- (4) Resists dirt. Dust does not penetrate and shakes off easily. Less frequent washings.
- (5) All colored Wat-A-Set curtains are dyed with dyestuffs selected for exceptionally good light fastness.
- (6) Reduces shrinkage. Although Wat-A-Set curtains will shrink slightly in laundering, this finish greatly minimizes the shrinkage in the fabric. If Wat-A-Set curtains are bought slightly overlong (about 3%) they will not be too short after washing.
- (7) Wat-A-Set helps your curtains to hang straight throughout their life.

Thespian Charter Issued to Floydada High School Society

The Floydada High School was granted a charter in the National Thespian Dramatic Society which is non-secret and non-social with Mrs. I. T. Graves as sponsor.

The student works for points to get in the Society. If the student has 10 points he is eligible to be a member of the National Thespians.

EDITORIAL

LET'S IMPROVE OUR AIM!

"Speed itself is not dangerous. Slowness is not in itself safe," says R. W. Sherman, author of "If You're Going to Drive Fast." And the gentleman is correct. Automobiles of the world of tomorrow will go faster, not slower, and the problem of today and tomorrow is not to slow down but how to bring about greater safety with higher speed. A fast driver can be a safe driver. Instead of formulating rules about speed and traffic, the government should see that the drivers that are turned loose on the highways know how to handle their cars. An automobile is a wonderful machine and a safe one provided the driver knows how to handle it.

Many horrible accidents occur every day through automobile accidents. A car turned over on the road side reveals the crippled body of a young child whose face is covered with splintered glass. The high school boy driving home from a party with his arm around his best girl, ran into a telephone pole, throwing the girl's head against the steering wheel and killing her instantly. But information of this sort can prove a menace because most accidents are preventable.

Rules can't bring safety, but good driving can.

The basis of good driving is to learn everything about the car. The correct uses of each moving part and proportions, and the noises of the car should be known to every driver. Imagine that all other drivers are fools and don't take your eyes off the road. Don't out drive your eyes. Liquor and driving don't mix. Don't abuse your car but watch your instruments. A horn is often to be saved. Your car uses lights as a horn at night. Speed can be safely acquired on the open road by learning your car's habits. What is its stopping distance at fifty miles per hour? At seventy miles per hour?

There will be few accidents twenty years from now if all the young people learning to drive these next few years become expert drivers. Very little has been taught our new crops of drivers about safe driving at the speeds at which today's cars are being operated. The major part of our campaign has been aimed at slow driving rather than at good driving.

Let's Improve Our Aim!

The student having 20 points is a one star Thespian, 30 points a two star Thespian, 40 points a three star Thespian, 50 points a four star Thespian or an Honor Thespian. Ruth Elaine Harmon is the only Honor Thespian.

While a student may be permitted, under certain conditions, to earn his points in only one field of activity, the desirability of participating in as many fields as may be opened to him are stressed. The Troupe sponsor has the authority to determine the relative value of the work done by a student.

Students are expected to continue their activities in dramatic arts after they have attained Thespian membership. A star may be granted for each additional 10 points, but the Honor Thespian is the highest honor a high school student can be awarded.

Emblems and Jewelry
Students may wear stars on Thespian felt emblems and jewelry indicative of their rating in the Troupe.

The motto of the Society shall be "Act well your part; there all the honor lies." The colors of the club shall be blue and gold. The flowers of the Society shall be the yellow rose and the blue delphinium. The insignia of the Society shall consist of two masks (Comedy and Tragedy) facing in opposite directions and resting against the letter "T".

The members of the club are Ruthie Harmon, Jennie Chowning, Barry Rossen, Genelle Norman, Bill Smith, Doris Vinson, Verna Laster, Billie Frances Sisson, Jo Muncy, June Powell, Tom Bob Jarboe, Claude Parrish, Thomas Amburn, Ted Lamb, J. D. Helms, Mary Maxey, Bradford Beedy, Peggy Collier, Sherryn Pyffe, Grace Muncy, Trois Muncy, Dorothy Bishop, Mollie June French, Carlene Daniel, and Joy Bunch.

De' Quacker

Say, what's dis I hear about Jane and Garvin not going steady any more? And about Jane wanting to go with Trav? Well, Trav, their break-up leaves open space.

Nell Reddy and Buddy Peterson are getting acquainted lately, for instance at noon every day. Looks like fun.

Dorothy Clayton is getting a habit of taking the girls boy-friends for trying, that is away from Sherryn and Doris. Better watch out girls, and prepare for action. Anything can happen.

Shorty Cardinal has finally noticed the opposite sex. He seems "purty" interested in Ruth Maxey the first period.

Gleba Ratjen and Billy Jo Smith are staying together a long time. Must be fun or something.

Carroll Wonnack and Arminia Berry looked real "ducky" at church Sunday nite. Well, well.

Hope seems to be doing mighty good lately. She was with Weims Friday and Saturday nights and with Bobby Bishop Tuesday night which I think is an old romance. She was with Travis Wednesday night too; only she certainly was mad Sunday night when Weims didn't come to church after he said he would.

Gladys was seen with Sammy Wednesday night. Well, I reckon she got her man. Nice work.

Bob Reeves, Mac Smitherman, and Deral Young have diverted their attention to the Silverton gals. What have they got that the Floydada gals ain't got?

Ivy Pearl and Lonnie Cates are very friendly towards each other. Gossip.

Edith Garrett is going to give Johnny's ring back. Wonder why? Could it have something to do with Mary going with him Sunday week?

June Powell has been going with Ernie from Ralls. She certainly thinks he's cute. Some other girls are also stuck on the Ralls boys.

Trav is stuck on Jo Anne, or so it seems. They have been seen together quite a lot lately.

I saw Juanell Williamson in the show Sunday with Jerry Percy. What happened to Louis Warren? ? ?

Well, well, well. It has happened. Thomas and Ruthie have done gone and busted up. At least they aren't going steady any more. Anything can happen now.

Mary went with Leonard Saturday night and from what I hear she likes him a lot. An old flame has rekindled, so it 'pears.

Roberta and Ted have been together lately. Another old romance. She gave him a box of candy for Valentine and he gave her one, too.

Rings Do Not Tell Tree Ages

LUBBOCK, Contrary to popular belief, it is not always possible to determine the age of trees by counting growth rings, and it is therefore not exactly accurate to date ancient cities by data from trees, according to Dr. Waldo S. Glock, associate professor of geology at Texas Technological College.

The theory that trees develop one growth ring each year, a wide one for a wet year and a narrow one

How sweet. In more ways than one.

Who was it Ruth and Lee were riding around with Sunday? ? Lee was in the back by herself.

In assembly Tuesday, Doris Dyer and Nita Anderson were having a good time with Don Marble. And I won't reveal the secret of the other boy's name since it is a secret among these two girls. What about this Don and ?? ? It is real isn't it? ? ?

Is it true about Dan Hagood and Margie Herring? What will happen next, Dan? ? Are you sure it is Margie this time? You do make a cute couple after all.

What's dis I hear about Veva Buske and Billy Mac Shipley? I think this one is a real romance. I know cause I saw 'em wid me liddle eyes. Eunice Welborn seems to like Bobby Patterson a lot. This seems to be her subject lately. Eunice, what will Jerry think? Guess I had better not say more, but draw your own conclusion.

during a dry year, is wide-spread but not necessarily true, Dr. Glock said, because it has definitely been established that trees often produce two or more rings during 12 months and the width of the rings is dependent on temperature and available moisture during the growing season rather than annual rainfall.

Using grants totaling more than a thousand dollars from the Smithsonian Institute and from the American Philosophical Society, Dr. Glock is continuing the research on growth rings and their relation to past climates that has interested scientists for generations.

Working with pines from Arizona and New Mexico, he is specifically trying to determine if a continuity exists in rings from the tips of branches to the base of the trunk. He is inquiring into when during the year the trees grow, how often they grow during the season, and how often during the year rings tend to form.

If man could discover the relation of growth rings to the age of trees and the climate during which the rings formed, he would be able not only to compile considerable data on past climatic cycles, but also to predict long-range future cycles with some degree of accuracy. Dr. Glock stated.

He who can take advice is sometimes superior to him who can give it.
