Byrd Test Has 'Some Oil' Says Tuesday Report

The oil test on the A. P. Byrd well, northeast of Petersburg two miles, abandoned by Humble Oil & Refining company, practically confirming the territory for any future development until the new operators decided to try to make a well of the Byrd test.

The leases had been abandoned several months ago in southeast Hale county by Humble Oil & Refining company, practically confirming the territory for any future development until the new operators decided to try to make a well of the Byrd test.

The report from Petersburg indicates the operators are attempting to develop the hole all the way before beginning any efforts such as acidizing, to make it produce.

Considerable publicity was given to the news that Humble had abandoned its leases adjacent to Petersburg last fall when the leases lapsed.

Jr Stock Show Wednesday

Approximately 150 heads of animals in all—steers, swine, lambs and dairy cattle—will be in the Floyd county Junior Fat Stock show Wednesday of next week, it was estimated by E. L. Angus and his assistant superintendents, H. G. Barber and F. L. Montanden, V. A. teachers of Floydada and Lockney, and A. L. Hartzog, county agent. The event will feature the efforts of FFA and 4-H club boys of the county in production of fat animals for the market and dairy animals for milk production, a show that has been a spring live stock event in the community for several years.

The estimate now is for about 50 fat steers, between 40 and 50 hogs, 20 lambs and 20 to 30 dairy cattle to be lined up by 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday, March 31, at the Rodeo grounds show barn.

County Agent A. L. Hartzog, who has seen most of the competing animals on the boys' farms, says there will be a large percentage of excellent animals present.

Yesterday the show officials said that interest in Floydada has been such as to indicate there will be considerable local support for the boys' sale when Col. Seale begins crying the animals at 3:30 in the afternoon. Opening hour for the show has been made early purposely to give time for judging and placing all awards to precede the sale.

A lesson from last year's sale was that it must begin early so as to finish before night. In the organization for the sale progress to date has been reported as excellent.

Floydada Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the show and sale. Yesterday they said indications are likely that the sale will have floor bids. Should any of the entrants not want to sell, however, arrangements are being made to make it possible for the animals to be shown at another show in the area—that at Plainview on April 1 and 2, and possibly to make shipment on to Kansas City.

Complete information on the show, including the judging schedule, the rules, the officials and judges are given in another column of this issue of The Hesperian.

Something like $300 in prizes is due to be awarded during the day in all divisions. Several local people are said to be expecting to attend the sale and obtain fat steers, swine or sheep either in the sale or at private treaty. With chaotic conditions in the packing industry at this time price trends have been erratic.

New equipment added this week at the Spears auto company includes a valve facer and Hard seat grinder with all attachments and a Brady cooling system cleaner. With this equipment they are now able to handle most any type valve or facing job and are, they think, in a position to give the only radiator and block cleaning job of one single operation in town.

Mr. Spears hopes to be able to give better and more complete service to his customers with the latest equipment available.

Three-Fourths Inch Moisture In Local Area

Three-fourths of an inch of moisture fell in a sluice of rain and hail that covered a limited area of the county in a streak southwest to northeast late yesterday and last night.

The moisture came in two showers. The first was limited in area east to west to four or six miles, but the second spread out quite considerably. Reports, however, are meagre at 8 o'clock this morning.

Hail was quite heavy in small stones at Floydada, and heavier north six miles. Travelers caught in the Munday area said big hail stones fell for several minutes and on Highway 207 north six miles hail drifts were six inches deep in some places. The "streak" apparently formed around the county line in Starke and McCoy and grew heavier as it moved northward. Rain is reported at South Plains, but not much at Lockney nor at Dougherty from the first shower. The second shower, however, brought more rain at Boothe elevator 7-fifths of an inch of rain fell in all.

Slight damage to some roofs in Floydada is reported.

Late yesterday afternoon Berry Produce company suffered a $30 loss during the hail storm. Harold Berry was coming from Lockney with a load of eggs when he was forced to stop three miles east of Floydada until the storm subsided.

The top layer of eggs were a complete loss.

At Center C. M. Meredith reports a quarter of an inch of rain.

Arsenic and Old Lace Cast Has 200 Guests At Costume Ball

The cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace" and the members of the Footlight club presented one of the largest and nicest costume balls ever to be held here, Friday of last week.

Of the hundred and some odd invitations sent out, there were in the vicinity of two hundred persons present, in various costumes. Some of the costumes represented were: Pirates, cowboys and cow girls, little boys and girls, senores and senoritas, Arabs, Egyptians, gamblers, sheriffs, hunters and many others.

Everyone seemed to have thoroughly enjoyed themselves, in fact it can be said that the Footlight club has set a high mark for anyone to follow in the social line.

The best costume, picked by the applause of the audience, was worn by Billy Tad Probasco. He was dressed as a sheriff, complete even to badge and wicked hog leg, and might even have acted the part better than a real sheriff could have himself.

dell, Ruth, Beatrice and Juanice Beedy, Roy Nell, Joyce and Linda Hammonds, Lillie Solomon and Viola Goughlighty.

Arsenic and Old Lace Cast Has 200 Guests At Costume Ball

The cast of "Arsenic and Old Lace," and the members of the Footlight club presented one of the largest and nicest costume balls ever to be held here, Friday of last week.

Of the hundred and some odd invitations sent out, there were in the vicinity of two hundred persons present, in various costumes. Some of the costumes represented were: Pirates, cowboys and cow girls, little boys and girls, seniores and senoritas, Arabs, Egyptians, gamblers, sheriffs, hunters and many others.

Everyone seemed to have thoroughly enjoyed themselves, in fact it can be said that the Footlight club has set a high mark for anyone to follow in the social line.

The best costume, picked by the applause of the audience, was worn by Billy Tad Probasco. He was dressed as a sheriff, complete even to badge and wicked hog leg, and might even have acted the part better than a real sheriff could have himself.

Mrs. John Hutchinson, accompanied on the piano by her daughter, Miss Lee Hutchinson, sang a group of popular choruses and Irish selections.

District Attorney Makes Address

District Attorney John Stapleton was guest speaker for the evening. His subject was: "Equal Pay in the Pay Envelope." Mr. Stapleton advanced four reasons why women sometimes do not receive equal pay for equal work, they begin as follows:

1. Women more often absent from work than men.
 2. More sensitive and therefore require more tact in dealing with them.
 3. A necessity for changing equipment for convenience of women.
 4. Equal pay has a tendency to feminize jobs.
- Other reasons being that men as a whole have in the past been hostile toward women receiving equal pay and unions have been "cool" toward women because women have not made good union members.
- In quoting statistics Mr. Stapleton showed that in civil service jobs where a man would receive a salary of $5000 a woman doing the same job would receive $4000. He also referred to the Lucretia Mott amendment which had also been brought to the attention of the club by another speaker in an earlier program of the year.
- The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the Legion hall Monday evening, March 12, at seven o'clock.

Good manners when we travel; Mrs. F. O. Conner.

Whirlwinds Lose in Boxing Bout With Longhorns

Lockney High school leather slingers continued to demonstrate their much better than average boxing ability Monday night and Calvin Pyle, the sensational middleweight of the team, gained another win without going the full route when he floored Joe Bunch of Coach Gresham's Floydada boys. It was the first date for the Floydada lads this season in the pugilistic ring, and their condition was none too good.

The Lockney boys swept 11 of 14 bouts. Fred Conner won the only knockout decision for Floydada by taking Maurice Ferguson of the Lockney team.

Other members of the Floydada team in the match were Bob Hartman, John Parkey, Arlen White, Don Boothe, Bob Mooney, Stanley Conner, Pike Hanna, Buster Mooney, Bill Green, George Owens and Bob Reid.

Livesay and the Bybee brothers Bill and Don, looked especially good on the Lockney team.

Working Out for Track

Coach Gresham said yesterday afternoon his team had been unsuccessful in getting any more matches. Some schools are tapering off, with only another match or two to go while others in the same approximate class as Floydada have their cards full for the season.

Meanwhile the coach has his field and track men working out and conditioning. He will attempt to put contests in every division of the district field and track meet here on April 10. The track was put into condition two weeks ago and should be sood by the time of the track meet. The coach liked the workouts of some of his runners, especially in the junior high division, he said.

Easter Service at Methodist Church Sunday at 11 a. m.

Services observing the Easter occasion will be conducted at First Methodist Church in Floydada, at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. The choir will sing "The Holy City" as a special musical number. Reverend Lloyd H. Jones, pastor, will conduct the service and deliver the Easter message.

A new type of evening service is attracting considerable attention and is being received with enthusiasm by the congregation. Beginning promptly at 7 o'clock, a worship period featuring organ music and the spoken word is conducted for 20 minutes in a quiet and reverent atmosphere of worship. Immediately following the benediction the congregation retires to Fellowship hall for a period of discussion of some vital scripture statement in which all present may participate. The service terminates at 8 o'clock.

Church School begins at 9:45 on Sunday morning for all ages. A hygienic nursery is maintained both at the Sunday school hour and the church hour for babies and small children each Sunday morning. Junior III fellowship is conducted from 5:30 to 6:50, and Senior fellowship begins at 8:10. The WSC meets at 3 o'clock each Tuesday at the church. Choir rehearsal is regularly at 7 each Wednesday evening. The pastor, Rev. Lloyd H. Jones, conducts a counseling program from 2 to 5 by appointment on Wednesday afternoons.

Easter Service at Christian Church Early Sunday Morn

Sunrise service at 6:30 Easter morning will be held at the First Christian church. Rev. J. P. Smith will deliver the sermon.

At 11 o'clock on Easter Prof. Paul Elliott, Texas tech instructor, will preach to the congregation. There will be special music at both services. Fellowship dinner following the morning service. The public is invited.

Fashion Change Another Fraud By 'Designers'

Fashion changes which have brought the radically new styles to the United States are merely another onslaught by foreign designers on the American pocketbook in the opinion of Philip Wylie, noted author, and observer of the contemporary American scene.

"For modern fashion has become a big business, controlled not by lady's real desire for novelty, her good taste and proper love of ornament, but by a mere commercial greed of the most cynical and exploitative variety," Wylie says in an article in the November Cosmopolitan.

"The world of fashion has one purpose: to make as much money as it can, as fast as possible, from Mrs. and Miss America. Thus, the changing fashions no longer follow cultural tendencies, but, if anything precipitate such tendencies.

"Designer" is a very good name for those who promote the fraud; they have designs on one thing: America's pocketbook.

Fashion designers who have designs on the American pocketbook have one tried and true formula, according to Wylie, who asserts: "Each new style has been one that has made millady's extant wardrobe obsolete. Fashion's aim has become to shame American women into constant buying without any real need at all. The technique of mass panic has been mercilessly employed through advertising and high-pressure public relations, to keep the ladies afraid that what they have in the way of clothes is forever too long, short, wide, narrow, plain, or ornate.

"Today it is impossible for a woman to be dressed 'correctly' for more than a few months without new clothes."

American women should be bright enough, in Wylie's opinion, to apply the brakes on an exploitation of themselves which periodically makes them look absurd, often injures ages their bank accounts.

SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT

If the cackle of a hen—or pullet—is her advertisement that she has laid an egg, the poultry yards of America are noisier places than they used to be. In the ten years from 1936 to 1946 the average egg production of layers in the flocks increased from 121 eggs a year to 155, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This is an increase of more than 28 percent.

The National Poultry Improvement Plan got under way on a national scale in 1936, and is to be credited with a large share of the improvement which the egg production records reveal, says the Bureau of Animal Industry.

In 1936 there were 1,017 hatcheries operating under the NPIP. In 1947 the number was 4,496. The egg capacity of the hatcheries under the NPIP was 38 million in 1936 and 326 million in 1946, or nearly two-thirds of the total hatchery capacity.

A notable result of operations under the NPIP has been a 50 percent decline in the incidence of poulton disease reactors -- from 3.66 percent in 1936 to 1.84 in 1946.

Over the years, says Paul B. Zumbro of the Bureau of Animal Industry, the poultry population of the United States has been greatly improved through the efforts of relatively few specialized breeders and the multiplication of efficient strains by hatcherymen. There are 347 breeders entered in the highest stage of quality breeding under the NPIP known as "Record of Performance." These breeders have 471 flocks and are trapping about 220,000 birds. "These flocks," says Zumbro, "furnish a major portion of the stock used for hatchery flock improvement work. The work of the pedigree breeders has greatly enhanced the egg production qualities of our population."

Pres. Cleveland Said a Mouthful

By (George Peck)
President Truman would do well to study the life and public addresses of another Democratic president, Grover Cleveland. In his second annual message made in December 1886, Cleveland said: "When more of the people's sustenance is extracted through the form of taxation than is necessary to meet the just obligations of the government and ex-ses of its economical administration such extraction becomes ruthless extortion and a violation of the fundamental principles of free government."

At this time, when America is faced with the necessity of feeding a great portion of the world's population, were Cleveland alive, he would demand that the whole attitude of government toward business be changed. He would contend that this would allow production to rise, from which would increase national income, out of which the government could tax at a lower rate and still obtain all the money it really needed.

Also recommended for White House reading is something that Jonathan Swift, English satirist, wrote in his "Voyage to Brobdingnag" early in the 18th Century: "Whoever could make two ears of corn, or two blades of grass, to grow upon a spot where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more initial service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together."

If Swift were able to speak from beyond the grave, his advice to England and America would be to once again encourage individual thrift and initiative and to see to it that achievement gets a reward commensurate with service rendered.

Our Federal Government up to 1930, for the most part, kept its nose out of the affairs which the Constitution says rightfully belong to the individual States; it encouraged Free Competitive Enterprise; and made a fairly successful attempt at keeping the national budget balanced.

When we entered World War I in 1917, the Federal debt was slightly over one billion dollars. Even at the end of that war, the debt had risen to only twenty-five and one-half billion dollars and by 1930 this had been reduced to sixteen billion dollars. But after seven years of the New Deal, by 1940, before we even embarked on the preparedness program for our entry into World War II, it had risen to 45 billion dollars. Now look at the national debt and shudder; its crowding the 300 billion mark.

Had Grover Cleveland and Jonathan Swift been at President Truman's elbow as he pondered the tax relief bill sent to him by the 80th Congress, they would have advised him to sign it -- to turn a deaf ear to the "tax-and-tax, spend-and-spend" advisors that actually surround him.

Their counsel to Harry would have been to cut unnecessary governmental expenditures to the bone;

to abolish many of the bureaus set up at Washington in recent years the chief function of which seem to be to hamper business, frustrate Free Enterprise and impede the "American Way."

In closing this piece, let me draw Mr. Truman's attention to another choice remark made by Grover Cleveland. To resort to the vernacular he said "a mouthful" when in his Inaugural Address of March 4, 1883, he uttered these words to Congress: "The lessons of paternalism ought to be unlearned and the better lesson taught that while the people should patriotically and cheerfully support their government, its functions do not include the support of the people."

Scholastic Census Is Almost Finished

Scholastic census in Floydada Independent School district has been almost completed. Mrs. V. H. Boteler thinks. Except for a few call backs and some who may have been over-looked, the annual March job of the census taker is history. Deadline is March 31.

Mrs. Boteler last week expressed concern over the possibility she would miss some six-year-olds. In the story about it The Hesperian im-advertently mentioned the age of "seven" on September 1. This was incorrect, of course. Children are enumerated if they are to be six by September 1.

Clarence Guffee, county superintendent, said only a few of the common school districts had made reports as yet, since they have March 31 as a deadline also.

OH, LET 'EM WALK THAT WAY IF THEY WANT TO

LUBBOCK—Loafer type shoes are often to blame when girls develop the habit of dragging their heels when they walk, according to Miss Sue Rainey, associate professor of physical education for women at Texas Technological College.

Miss Rainey pointed out that when shoes do not fit snugly at the heels, many girls drag their feet rather than exercise toe muscles to hold shoes on. The habit persists even when dress shoes are worn causing some coeds to "look like they are walking through loose sand or a plowed field all the time," she stated.

Suggestions: Walk through loose sand or a plowed field all the time so you'll look natural; or, exercise those toe muscles; or, buy a new pair of shoes.

COTTON IN BAGS

Consumption of cotton for mounted to 820,000 bales in 1947, owing largely to increase in war packaging requirements accompanied by curtailments of imports of burlap from India. With burlap once more available and the consumption of cotton for bags dropped to 440,000 bales in 1946. Although cotton faces continued competition from burlap and growing competition from paper, says the Bureau of Agricultural and Industrial Chemistry, bags are expected to represent the largest single end use of cotton by 1950, with an estimated consumption of more than a half million bales.

MEAT AS AN EXCUSE

All signs point toward what will be called a "meat shortage" this spring. The cry for rationing and price controls will rise in the cities. Even on the promise of a shortage, a bill to authorize controls was introduced. (It has been shelved temporarily.)

This illustrates how relentlessly the idea of government controls seeks every possible opening. The bill was presented on the mere threat of a shortage. It was sponsored by a Republican New Dealer.

A look at the meat facts emphasizes the slender excuse seized upon to seek renewal of this futile and dangerous power. Last year Americans ate more meat than ever before. They consumed 156 pounds per person. That was 30 pounds more than the average amount from 1935 to 1939, when we ate 126 pounds apiece, and 40 pounds more than the 116-pound low in 1935.

What about 1948? Estimates indicate that farmers will produce enough meat to give each American 146 pounds. That is only 10 pounds less than last year. It is 20 to 30 pounds more than pre-war. So, whatever shortage arises will be only relative to demand.

Nevertheless, since government power never overlooks an opening into which it can reach, the demand to fasten price controls on the people will come again. But "controls" will not produce more meat, nor lessen the supply of money.—Farm Journal.

Another one of the community affairs that most of us let go by default, hoping somebody else will be sure to take care of things, is the cemetery association. Most of us willingly give what we think is "our part" but, as the call of the secretary fairly well indicates, most of us also would like for it to be somebody else who attends the meetings, makes the plans, carries on. Perhaps to follow the suggestion of Secretary Harmon and "make a special effort to be present" tomorrow night would be a good idea for a change. All of us most of the time have something we need to do, if nothing but take a bit of a rest when the day's work is done. The routine of keeping the affairs of a cemetery association financed and moving along is one of the "musts" whose call for time and attention we brush off with most ease.

One thing about the newspaper people who have been crying their heads off about the bureaucrats is that they couldn't be very useful to the home folks in case it came time to try to get one of the bureaus or commissions to do something for the old home town. This thought came to us again as we recalled, for some reason over the week-end, that we have become "hipped" on the bureaucrats. The fact is they have come to stay. The people want them or they would not have them in the first place. People have decided they'd rather have somebody from away off yonder tell them what they can and can't do, how much they can and can't have. And to make it a game of who gets the most. It is he who uses the best strategy in approaching the bureau which has the kindnesses to disburse. Funny that a man would work his head off to pay taxes to turn over to somebody to tell him whether he can have what he would like to have.

The matter of having bureaus multiplied by commissions is much like the situation in the educational field in Texas. The people want Mr. Wood and his program of giving the people what he wants them to have or they wouldn't keep putting him back in office. Mr. Wood has practically put the neighborhood church and neighborhood social life out of business, but he served notice when he went into office of the way he would want to do things. His word has become law, with school teachers making obeisance and school boards scurrying about to get their business in shape to "take advantage" of the largess which the state dishes out. Little kids ride to school through the mud and snow, after they have waited for awhile in the dark for the bus to come along. School has become big business, too big for a school district to attend to its own affairs. We don't say it is wrong, we only say that is the way it is. And that people must want it that way or they wouldn't have it.

Don't Kill the Dog: For a long time the horror of hydrophobia, more modernly and perhaps correctly called rabies, has sent the menfolk of the community scurrying with their guns to kill the animal, usually a dog, when a "mad" animal has been discovered in the community. Especially so, if the dog already has bitten a human being. What, by all means, should be done is to see that the animal is penned and if he dies cut off the head carefully so as not to injure the brain. Then forward the brain to the Texas State Department of health at Austin. A good many dogs are killed when they should be penned for observation. The point is that the animal, if it has rabies, most definitely is going to die. There are no survivors once the virus has taken hold. So if the dog doesn't die he didn't have rabies and fears are unfounded. If he does die, he will die in time for the victim of his bite to have proper treatment.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

Items taken from the files of The Floyd County Hesperian published fourteen years ago.

(Issue of March 29, 1934)

Floyd county gained 34,896 bales of cotton grown in the year of 1933, the second largest in its history. The new route of Highway No. 23 west from Floydada to the Hale county line has been opened all the way. Judge J. W. Howard said this week and the right-of-way could be made ready for a contract to be let on a short notice.

Two carloads of Floyd county fat-wine left Floydada Saturday for the Luer Packing company, consigned by N. A. Armstrong, Floydada buyer and feeder. Floyd county will have a bigger representation of dairy herds at the Panhandle Plains Dairy show this year than it has ever had.

Floyd county crop prospects for 1934 got another boost last week-end when the county's area received an excellent rain and snow.

The ninth annual vocational agricultural judging contest for high schools of West Texas will be held at Texas Technological college on April 2.

Mrs. E. C. Thomas entered eleven of her piano pupils in the Music festival at Lubbock March 23 and 24. Each one received an honor. Delma Sammann, four years old, fell Monday from a tree where she was playing and broke her arm, crushed her elbow and split the bone in one shoulder.

Is Noted Recreation as on Farm

Recreation is on the up because people are changing as about a desirable balance and play, according to M. Wilson, Director of Extension in the U. S. Department of Agriculture. "Years ago," he says, "one of the things held in most regard by farm people was looked down upon. It was unheard of for a farm family to take a vacation." But this attitude is changing, he says, so that today ten times as many farm families plan and take vacations as did so a generation ago.

In response to this the Extension Service finds that nearly a score of States now employ Extension specialists who devote part or full time to organizing recreation opportunities for rural people. Dr. Wilson says, "It seems to me that this is a good thing," and looks forward to further developments in this direction.

The Extension Service in many States now promotes vacation camps for farm women and children. Tours and trips for 4-H Clubs are increasingly popular. Camping in State and National parks and forests draw more and more farm people of all ages. More and more of the automobile tourists are from country homes.

"Mechanization and technology," says Wilson, "are reducing the working hours of American farm families. A two-man farm a generation ago is a one-man farm today. The farm and home work of women and children is lighter than ever before. Automobiles, improved highways and other new ways of communication have put country people within easier reach of picnic parks, fairs, community organizations, movies, athletic events and various other commercial and recreational facilities and services at county seat

Trouble Shooters Go Modern

Already car dealers throughout the United States are delivering new cars equipped with telephones. This introduces a new phase of servicing for both the car dealers and the tire distributors. Joe Raye, Cuyahoga Falls, O., General Tire dealer is pioneering this type service and he finds himself quite the popular dealer in his farming-industrial market. No farther away from his customer than a telephone call, Raye's business is enjoying a boom. The dispatcher (shown in the inset) at Raye's place of business has only to call the rucks for them to give first-aid to motorists in a matter of minutes. Raye has notified farmers in his market that he'll be ready to extend his service to them. "Time is an important factor to the farmer," Raye points out, "and an hour saved in repairing a tire can be worth plenty." Not even Alexander Graham Bell expected this type of progress.

TIPS TO THE STUDENTS

Here is a new twist to the old excuse, "I was late because the alarm didn't go off." Why not try "I was late because I had to give the baby a bath" or, "I had to build a birdhouse." Even principals like variety.

What are the pet peeves of principals and teachers of the bobby soxers? False excuses "smart-alecks," and "Apple polishers" head the list.

Are you guilty of any of these grievances? If so, then why not try a little co-operation? Would you be disgraced if you were at school on time for once? It would save time and trouble for both you and the principal. Try it some time—you might like it.

Are you a "smart-aleck"? Probably you don't mean to be one, but you are just trying to show off or be the life of the party. It doesn't show off your cute ways; it merely shows up your asinine actions. Don't be a smart-aleck. No one likes them.

The purpose of "apple-polishing" is to obtain better grades. It won't work. Instead of getting better grades, you lose the respect of your teachers. The only way to get high grades is to work hard for them.

If you are guilty of any of these faults, then try to remedy them. Being courteous, punctual, and truthful will not only gain friends but also retain other people's respect for you.

Futures Take Exes by One Field Goal

The Futures beat the Exes. It was not expected but they came from behind the closing minutes to turn defeat into victory as Randall Handley scored a field goal to defeat the exes 54-52.

The exes started the fire works when Pecos Hart put in two points and they built up the lead to 8-4 in the first few minutes. Then the futures got their attack going to lead at the first quarter 18-19. The second quarter see-sawed back and forth with the exes being on top at the half 36-34.

The futures came back strong to knock the count only to have the exes to pull ahead at the end of the third quarter 44-38. The futures got their attack and pulled ahead to lead with a few minutes to go. But the exes started rolling and tied the count at 50-50. They went ahead when Pete McGee put in two points. The futures tried desperately and succeeded when Bobby Finley tied the count and Randall Handley came through with the same's winning points.

High point honors went to Bobby Finley with 27 points. Leonard Grigsby scored 20 points for the exes.

25 Happy Home Making Girls at District Meeting

Saturday morning, March 20, twenty-five happy Homemaking girls met at the high school ready for an all day visit in Plainview. The girls left at 8:15 in the Floydada school bus driven by Mr. Fisher. They arrived at the Plainview city auditorium about 9:00, where they registered and were served hot spiced tea and cookies.

At 10:00 o'clock a welcome by Mrs. Haycock of Plainview was followed by a response from Phillips. The entire group, which totaled between 1200 and 1400 girls, then sang a few songs together. Then the roll was called and minutes of the last meeting were read. The candidates for the area and state offices were introduced.

From 11:15 - 12:00 a program of work was given. This program consisted of short speeches from several of the schools of this area which were represented at this meeting. Those giving a talk from Floydada were Margaret Huckabee and Margaret Briggs, who gave talks on "Preparing for Careers".

The meeting was then adjourned for lunch. A very good lunch was served to those that desired to stay at the auditorium. This lunch was prepared by the Plainview Homemaking girls.

At 12:45 there was a business meeting of area officers, voting delegates, and nominees. Those attending this meeting from Floydada were Gladys Roberts and Margaret Huckabee. While this business meeting was carried on, those that did not attend toured the Plainview Homemaking department.

At 2:00 o'clock the girls enjoyed some special music furnished by the girls from Plainview. This music consisted of several solo numbers on the piano and on the marimba. The girls then enjoyed a very interesting style show.

This style show consisted of two or three girls from each school. They modeled clothes that they had made in their clothing classes. Those who modeled clothes from Floydada were Billie Newberry and Elaine Snodgrass. After that, Miss Armstrong, the area supervisor, gave a very interesting talk. She told the girls about a state rally which is to be held at Galveston, April 22-24. Only one officer and one delegate or representative from each chapter will be allowed to attend this rally.

At 3:00 o'clock the new area officers for the year 1948-1949 were installed. As Floydada had an area officer this past year, we do not have one for this year. Gladys Roberts was the parliamentarian for Area I the next year. The installation of these area officers was a very beautiful and inspiring scene.

The girls left Plainview at 4:00 o'clock to arrive in Floydada about 5:00 o'clock, a very happy group of girls having had a day of thrills and excitement.

Those attending from Floydada were Gloria Ratten, Gloria Ratten, Velma Briggs, Virginia Holmes, Katie Collier, Lee Hutchinson, Mary Helen Parrish, Doris Deer, Nita Anderson, Barbara Dutton, Johnnie Owens, Darlene Johnston, Eunice Welborn, La Juana McAda, Margie Serrano, Billie Newberry, Elaine Snodgrass, Nell Huckabee, Ann West, Juanita Huckabee, Gladys Roberts, Joe McCravy, Margaret Huckabee, and Mrs. Baker.

Many Enjoy 'John Doe' Tuesday Night

On Tuesday night, March 23, 1948, the high school auditorium was the scene of the long waiting presentation of the play, "John Doe."

"John Doe" took place in Limbo which is between earth and heaven. There judgement was held for each and every person. Waiting there were a priest, a doctor, a lawyer, a machinist, a negro, a night-

Bradford Beedy Attends Forum

Bradford Beedy attended a Youth forum at Plainview, March 20, held by the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman. Eight counties were represented at the forum. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the advantages and weaknesses of F. F. A. and 4-H contests.

Those present were divided into groups of four, and each group was given a set of twelve questions. From these questions each group was to select one and discuss it. Then a group leader was chosen who gave the conclusion to the forum.

Lunch was served by the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman which was prepared by the Hale County Demonstration club.

Everyone found the forum very interesting and entertaining, according to Bradford.

In the Chapter Conducting contest held this year at Plainview Delton Waggoner won "All District Sentinel". Delton received his blue ribbon this week.

An Ag meeting was held this last Wednesday night in the high school auditorium. There was much business on hand. The Chapter was entertained by the McCoy Ramblers.

This week the Ag classes made a trip out to Johnny Lloyd's to transplant some cedars. This is the second time this year the boys did some of this work.

Lady Luck Forgets To Smile on Boys of FHS Tennis Club

The newly-organized tennis club under the direction of Jack Cogdill tested its talents on the courts of M. H. S. Friday, March 19.

High honors go to Jo Anne Cline for winning her singles match, 6-4. The doubles team of Gladys Roberts and Jo Muncy won their set 6-3.

We might explain that the girls teams had no competition in their own field and played against the boys of the Junior class.

June Powell was defeated in singles by Neil Ratten 6-2. Ruthie Harmon and Mary Maxey lost their double match 6-4.

It seemed that Lady Luck forgot to smile upon the boys teams when Sammy Hale lost two sets to Sapho Giesche, 6-4. Bobby McGuire was defeated by James White, 6-3.

The long standing doubles team of Barry Rosson and Gene Jackson lost to Norman Spray and Bobby Thompson, 6-4.

A beginner in double Thomas Amburn played well with Bobby Cline, but they were forced to bow to the stronger team of Garland Ratten and Bobby Wasson.

Firm believers in the value of experience, the teams are working harder than ever for a chance to go to the district meet next month and shine!

Candid Camera

One beautiful spring day, way back in May 15, 1932, in Big Spring a big event took place; at that time a bundle of joy was brought into this world. This bundle of joy grew up to be 5 feet 11 inches tall with black hair, twinkling brown eyes and a ruddy complexion. But good looks aren't all he has; his personality is superb! He is a real friend to everyone. He is a vivacious character and his main interest is sports. He is a junior; in fact, he is a class favorite. He is always known for his alertness, especially on the "Hesperette" staff; he is one of the sports editors. Of course, it's that boy of distinction Mr. Bobby Bishop!

Bobby loves baseball and he hopes to be a professional baseball player some day. He likes food and his favorite is banana pudding. He likes blue very much and he likes to wear levis and "T" shirts. Bobby's net aversion is concealed people. He likes the kind of people that do not brag about everything. His most unforgettable person is Pecca. Bobby likes popular music. As his favorite song is "Beg Your Pardon" and his favorite composer is Francis Craig. His favorite orchestra is Happy Robert's and his favorite band is the Whirlwind Band. Bobby likes to hear Dinah Shore and Bing Crosby sing, because they are his favorites. Bobby's favorite comedian is Bob Hope. His favorite movie was "The Yearling," and his favorite stars are Esther Williams and Jimmy Durante. His favorite teacher is Coach Gresham and his favorite subject is that delectable and delightful algebra. Bobby likes loafing and he loves night.

Bobby was most excited when he did his first pole vaulting. He had no reaction; he just couldn't believe it. Also, another time was the time when he was joining the "F" club.

Among Bobby's likes are foods sports, St. Louis Cardinals, every kind of people, boxing, and just everything in general.

Among his dislikes are turnips, spinach, cauliflower, nose people, history, and taking tests.

One time Bobby will never forget was the time that he turned over in his walker and the walker came right back to a standing position.

Bobby's ideal girl should be about 5 feet 6 inches tall. She must have blonde hair and blue eyes. She must be pretty and have curves in the right spots. She must have pretty white teeth, too. Above all, she must be rich. Bobby hasn't found her. I have no comment.

Bobby's ideal day begins at 9:00. He would eat breakfast and then go back to bed. He would then get up at 12:00, eat lunch, and play in a baseball game about 2:00. He would pick up his ideal girl about 6:00. (Where he would go, I do not know.) He would return at 4:00 a. m., go to bed, and then start all over.

Bobby, you're really a swell guy and we, of F. H. S., want to show you the best spirit of friendliness as you have toward us. We think you are grand and one of the best, so here is the best of luck to the finest.

A LOW IN CEREALS

The 1947-48 cereal year promises to leave its mark in history. For many nations and scores of millions of persons it represents a low point in bread and grain supplies, with food intake in some cases even below that of the war years, and is probably the worst year of modern times. In no year for which records are available has there been a greater wheat, or total-grain deficit. As a

We Like the Program of FUTURE FARMERS of America and of the 4-H Club Boys

Wednesday, March 31 is their day at the Floydada Rodeo Association Building—and Don't forget it.

In these programs they learn among other things the value of good animals handled the right way.

They learn the value of feeding right, of conditioning right.

They learn that there are some hazards as well as some rewards.

In these programs, too, they learn that good breeding is important the same as good feeding.

Let's encourage these farm boys by our presence and our bids next Wednesday.

Municipal Light Plant Crosbyton Election Issue

CROSBYTON, March—Crosbyton people who will be away from the city on Tuesday, April 6, date of the biennial city election, may now vote an absentee ballot. L. D. Huckabay, city secretary, has announced a full slate of city officials will be chosen, including a mayor and two commissioners.

Two candidates appear on the ballot for mayor, with J. D. Tussy seeking re-election for a second term and Jack Arthur opposing him. Four candidates seek the two commission places, with the list including R. C. Ellison, A. F. Stephens, W. E. Wren and J. W. Carter. The election this year is creating much interest, occasioned by the candidates' stand on the municipal light plant issue. Mayor Tussy, Mr. Ellison and Mr. Stephens are running on a ticket which advocates an election to decide whether the local plant will be offered for sale. The opposing candidates, Messrs. Arthur, Wren and Carter, are urging the retaining of the local plant.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

In dual ceremonies to be held in a tri-city area of the Rio Grande Valley on March 30, Texas is to receive facilities for a modern, new tubercular sanatorium and Mission McAllen and Edinburg jointly are to acquire a three million dollar airport. The occasion will mark the transfer of the Moore Army Airfield by the War Assets Administration.

Five hundred thirty eight World War II veterans, many of them students at North Texas colleges, succeeded in purchasing surplus type writers at WAA's recent sale at the Grand Prairie Customer Service Center.

Three Texas camps are to be cleared of remaining surplus buildings for offsite use via the sealed bid method. At Camp Barkely, near Abilene, purchasers will have until April 5 to get bids to the Grand Prairie WAA office on 45 structures and 100 target frames. The other bid sales concern 60 Fort Brown buildings, near Brownsville, and 53 GI structures at Camp Swift, near Bastrop. In each of the offerings priority claimants will be considered during an initial period, with the general public buying the residue before final deadlines.

War Assets Administration is soon to stage another nation-wide clearance of surplus aircraft under both fixed prices and sealed bids from veterans and other buyers. A total of 335 planes, 90 per cent located at Bush Field, Ga., are in the offering.

One of the country's biggest surplus carbon plants, located at Sunray, Moore County, went on WAA's high bid block this week. Prospective purchasers must submit their proposals to Grand Prairie and Washington offices by a cut-off date of April 7.

Sidelights On Grain Sorghum

(By George Mahon)
Recently I have discussed with Anderson and other officials of the government the possibility of developing better markets for West Texas grain sorghum overseas. Our grain sorghums are now being utilized in many parts of the world.

India is our heaviest overseas consumer of grain sorghum, and the Indians pay cash for it and complain because they are not permitted to buy more. There is a quota system in operation which governs all our shipments of grain abroad. Recently we were successful in getting an increase in the grain sorghum quota for overseas shipment.

Exports of grain sorghum to India during the last nine months approximate 10 million bushels. This includes March shipments which are now enroute.

I am told that the Indians grind the grain and cook it pancake-fashion on top of the stove. In Germany the Germans eat their West Texas grain sorghum in the form of a mush or gruel. In Japan the grain sorghum is milled and used as flour or is polished and used in the whole grain as a substitute for rice.

Last year the U. S. production of grain sorghum was 107 million bushels, Texas producing 68 million bushels of that amount. The largest portion of the U. S. production will be utilized for stock feed but in excess of 4 million bushels will be used for human food in Japan, Korea and Germany, in addition to the shipments to India.

A good price for grain sorghum is a very important factor in the maintenance of agricultural prosperity in West Texas. This is true despite the fact that grain sorghum production in the nation is relatively small compared to wheat and corn. Last year the U. S. produced 12 times more wheat and 22 times more corn than the grain sorghum production.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon of last week from the First Baptist church. Interment was in the Edith cemetery.

Survivors include six sons, T. L. King, of Petersburg, Will and George King, of Stanley, New Mexico, Frank of Magdalena, New Mexico, R. B. of El Paso and D. O. of Edith; two daughters, Mrs. S. B. Plumlee and Mrs. R. Gaines, of Robert Lee. Forty-three grandchildren and twenty-one great grandchildren also survive.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

If Noah were to send out the dove to hunt a peaceful place for the ark to land today, the bird would find the floods of hate and destruction still high, but in spite of nations that would do away with God. He still rules the world and we should listen to Him as did the Psalmist of old who said, "I will hear what God the Lord shall speak: for He will speak peace to His people."

I have just finished a delightful book by Faith Sone, called From Generation to Generation. I find the family so interesting she writes about for they were real people and some are still living. This dialog is well worth remembering, for the rebuke Rebekah gave her granddaughter who mentions that if one has money, they may have anything they want. Rebekah answers her with: "You must have a vision greater than money. Money, no John Cogburn had money and a kind heart, but no vision of advancement or education. When I look back on that life, I see my children in a house on fire and me trying to save them with my hands tied. My advise is work for a better neighborhood and you will rear a better family. Money alone never did anything. History is filled with the sound of wooden shoes going up the stairs and satin slippers coming down."

When it first began to hail just before sundown the other afternoon, we heard the plaintive call of the killdeer which was flying here and there in the storm. What a hard time the killdeer has had since his return from the sunny south. He is a true pioneer, tho. He takes the cold and the wind and the drouths, coming back every year to his beloved land. He makes his nest on the ground with bits of twigs, a pebble or so, uses what he has and is content.

This recipe for Sugar Pie sent to the paper by Mabel Lumpkin, a colored cook of Dallas who is noted for her fine cooking.

Sugar Pie

Three whole eggs beaten together until very stiff; add

Two cups sugar, little at a time, beating continuously; add

1/2 cup heavy cream

1/2 cup soft or melted butter;

2 tablespoons vanilla.

Pour into 9 inch uncooked pie shell and bake very slowly at about 250 degrees for 45 minutes.

I am adding the above recipe to my collection of chess pie recipes. It is on that order. I have about ten different kinds of chess pie recipes, but the one my folks used for their very special company and wedding pies is three eggs, one cup sugar, one half cup butter in small pieces, teaspoon vanilla all poured in a bowl together. Beat the mixture very lightly, pour into shell and bake slow. Some of my recipes call for a little milk some jelly, some cream.

Mrs. Oran Wheeler makes her chess pies with the yellow only and makes meringue for tops and are they good? Lois Waller makes them also but she uses more sugar and butter. So if you want to make something special, delicious and satisfying, try a chess pie. The slow baking is a necessity.

I miss the little long-legged coits which used to stand in the pastures this time of year with their mothers.

Disappointment. My Easter lily will not bloom in time for Easter. My fault. I did not look to see that Easter was earlier than usual and did not pot the bulb in time.

Good thought for the week: It is astonishing how soon the whole conscience begins to unravel if a single stitch drops; one little sin indulged makes a hole you could put your head through.

I like the Texas waltz, Kentucky, Sweet as a Flower, both Tennessee and most all the waltzes. There are a number of new pretty numbers I enjoy.

Hercules was able to overcome Ataeus only by holding him so that no part of him touched the ground.

QUAKER SCHOOL ENROLLS RUSS AMBASSADOR'S SON

When Washington school bells ring, the Three R's become the concern of prince and pauper, children of ditch-diggers and dignitaries.

When one Washington classroom was filled last week, among the shining morning faces present was that of 6-year old Nikolai "Coco" Novikov, son of Russian Ambassador Nikolai Novikov.

Young Coco arrives each morning in a shiny black limousine, escorted by a husky chauffeur, to spend the day in an American school, unconcerned over U. N. disputes and gloomy talk of war.

The institution — the Friends School (Quaker) — Pathfinder.

SHARES IN THE INCOME

"Today when farm prices average considerably above parity and when production is far higher than ever before in peacetime, agriculture's share of the national income is still considerably below its proportion of the population," Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Brennan stated in behalf of the Department at a Congressional committee hearing on a long range agricultural program.

"Only one-fifth of our people live on farms," he continued. "But last year agriculture received only one-ninth of the national income. Thus, even at the peak of prosperity, farm income lags. In the valleys of depression the gap grows much wider. Witness 1932, when agriculture with one-fourth of the population received only one-nineteenth of the national income."

RALLS, March—A recent radio broadcast from KGNC, Amarillo, by Mrs. Laura V. Hammer pictured the life of a pioneer Crosby county resident—Aunt Dell Smyer, 77, who now lives in Amarillo.

Mrs. Smyer and her husband, the late Uncle Henry Smyer, lived out here when "folks were neighborly and honest." When freighting supplies from Amarillo, Uncle Henry would leave feed along the route for his team on the return trip. It was never disturbed.

The Smyers lived on a ranch northeast of Lorenzo many years. Mrs. N. L. Green, a daughter, still lives in Lorenzo. Aunt Dell loved to ride horses, and did a man's job at roundup time, roping, bulldogging and branding cattle. She roped many an antelope and carried it home across the saddle. Their home was always a welcome place for passing cowboys.

They built the first residence in Lorenzo, and operated the first store in the town. It was later owned by R. L. Durham, now a Lubbock Merchant. Uncle Henry bought the third automobile ever to chug down the streets of the town.

Aunt Dell is the mother of 12 children, 37 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Mrs. Hammer inquired how Aunt Dell managed about baths for all these children in a time when conveniences were nil. "I just rounded them up and chased them through the tank," she declared.

Uncle Henry and Aunt Dell celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary several years ago at Lorenzo. Since his death she lived with her children until she bought her home in Amarillo a couple of years ago. Here she keeps a garden and a few chickens, with the help of her daughter, Gertie, who lives with her.

Mrs. Hammer said if Dr. Dunn should operate on Aunt Dell he'd find nothing but iron and sunshine!
