J. W. Reue yesterday assumed the job of Rotary club president in Floydada, succeeding Ray S. McEntire.

City Council of Floydada Tuesday night let a contract for the municipal swimming pool, and although the $25,000 bond issue voted by the taxpayers of the community two years ago, doesn't provide sufficient funds for the original plans as costs now go, there is going to be swimming in Floydada beginning with the opening of the season next spring.

At this time the council does not know exactly what they will do about a bath house nor can they say how they are going to provide a filtering system, when the time comes. The contract they let calls for the swimming pool, its fittings, and the like at $18,666.80.

Tyler Firm Low Bidder
Oliver & Bellamy, a Tyler firm was low bidder on the swimming pool proper. Installations call for all pipe fittings and circulation system for the filtering system. They are expected to have the job finished by May 1. It will be located on the northwest corner of the park on Highway 70. There were five bidders on the pool.

The job was divided into three parts for the bidders. Bids on the filtering system ranged from $7,000 down to $5,000. For the bath house construction job bids ranged from $9,000 to $8,000. With insufficient money in sight neither of these last two jobs were let.

Specifications of the swimming pool call for size 90 feet by 35 feet in width. At the shallow end it will be three feet six inches deep, at the deep end 10 feet 11 inches.

C. of C. Urges Clean City Is a Healthy City

A clean city is a healthy city is the burden of a message from Floydada Chamber of Commerce this week to citizens of the community in urging that the heavy rains have brought with them a problem of sanitation and cleanliness which must be met by the citizenship.

Robert Crowell, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, this week pointed to the fact polio stepped up its spread into West Texas in the wake of the heavy rains, according to the State Health department.

In the week ending July 3 a total of 67 new cases were reported in the entire state. This was a drop from 78 the previous week but the spread was over more territory. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, urged local authorities to take preventive measures before they run into additional trouble.

The local business men's civic and industrial organization is pointing to the need for individuals to join in the fight against rubbish, trash, weeds and filth and not wait for the city to do all the clean up work. The city has made underway of weed mowing and has alerted its sanitary crews.

However, the city cannot undertake to do the work of the citizenship on their private premises. Mr. Crowell said his organization is working on the theory of the old adage that a stitch in time saves nine. Join the fight against polio, he urged.

Thursday, July 15, has been set for the formal opening and dedication of the Floyd County Co-Operative hospital in Lockney, according to plans worked out last week by representatives of the hospital official board and members of the business men's club at Lockney.

Plans for the day include an afternoon program, a free barbecue, and a dedication service to follow with open house at the hospital during the afternoon and evening.

"Stuttering Sam" will highlight the afternoon program. He is widely known to radio audiences under this title, but his name is Cecil Hunter. A free picture will be shown at the Plains theatre also during the afternoon and other forms of entertainment provided.

The hospital will hold open house during the afternoon and evening and visitors will be allowed to go through and inspect the entire building.

Visitors from neighboring cities will be invited to attend as well as several people who are outstanding in hospital work in Texas.

Plans Are Taking Shape
This week the Lockney Business Men's club had gone a long way toward perfecting plans for the day's activities, said Marvin Cox in Floydada yesterday. L. A. Hooten, president of the club, has a program and arrangements committee comprised of J. B. Seale, Cleatis Jeffcoat, and Edgar Hays. Pont Darnall, Lockney food dealer, is chairman of the barbecue committee. Marvin Cox and Claude Brown are on the advertising staff.

WAYNE BLOODWORTH RETURNS TO ENTER BUSINESS HERE
Wayne Bloodworth, former Floyd county boy, but a resident of downstate points since the end of World War II, has decided to cast his lot here again. He is in Floydada making arrangements to open a jeweler's shop. He is here from Whitewright.

Name Carl Rodgers Fire Dept. Chief at Annual Meeting
Monday night, when the fire whistle called the men to their monthly and annual meeting of the Floydada Fire department, Carl Rodgers was re-elected to the position of fire chief, at the head of both companies. However, due to his illness, Charles Presley has been appointed night man. Presley is also the new secretary.

The five year service pen was awarded to Leonard Matzler on Monday night meeting. He is retired, and still has the privilege of using the hall and game room, going to fire, and everything except voting and being elected a foreman.

First assistant fire chief is Melvin Henry, and he has charge of the first company at a fire. Ellis Barber, who has charge of the second company, is second assistant fire chief.

Men in the first company are: Bob Owens, captain, E. T. Williams, drill captain, Floyd Johnston, Buster Boothe, Ben Galloway, Charles Presley, Fred Lambert, Wiley Rogers.

The second company consists of: Al Fuchs, drill captain, Louis Earl Warren, Albert Duncan, Truitt Smith, J. C. Odum, James Taylor, Ellis Barber, who is in charge.

Floydada Store Is System-Wide Leader in Seat Cover and Tire Sales Contest White Auto Stores
With the highest point rating in tire and seat cover sales among all of the 178 stores which make up the White Auto stores system, the Floydada store, with W. E. (Elwyn) Garrett as proprietor, led a 60-day contest and won a $250 prize, it was announced this week.

Stores representing a cross section of the auto accessory merchandising world in the southwest's small cities and towns are in the White Auto store system. They are located in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

The contest closed on June 26. It was one of the greatest organization wide sales efforts in the history of the company's associated stores.

Tribute to Garrett's sales ability was paid in generous fashion by the sales department head of the big volume merchandising organization. Garrett, the report said, "has

Power Plant Trial Runs Due In Two Weeks

Within two weeks, the giant new Cooper-Bessmer gas-diesel engine at the city power plant will be put on test runs, it was announced this week by Al Fuchs, superintendent of the light and power division, and L. S. Stevens, superintendent of Eugene Ashe Electric company of Fort Worth.

With the new engine almost doubling the capacity of the city plant, it still is expected to run more economically, said Mr. Fuchs, because it will operate on natural gas. In the event of another natural gas shortage like the one last winter, the machine can run on oil just as easily.

About ten new men are being employed in the installation of the new Cooper-Bessmer engine. These men are employed for the erection of the engine, while city employees are doing all electrical work, which includes two switch-board panels.

Even after the engine is running, it won't necessarily mean that construction has stopped, because there will still be a number of minor items to attend to, such as putting the floor back in.

Protected From Lightning
More than fate keeps the power plant from being struck by lightning during the frequent electrical storms that this country is noted for.

There are lightning rods on all of the feeders going out into town. When one of these feeders is struck the lightning runs back up the wire to the arrestors, which ground the current quickly.

"At your homes, the sound of the thunder drowns out sounds of lightning striking a wire, but you can really hear it stomping down here," said Mr. Fuchs.

At times, lightning is said to be seen playing all around the plant. Every transformer is grounded to insure further safety.

EDITORIALS

The visit of the Greater United Shows to Floydada last week under the auspices of McDermott post, American Legion, occasioned the usual considerable number of remarks on how much money the carnival took out of town. Everybody always says that about a show or a carnival. But since they often broke and wind up financially flat one wonders whether or not the carnival or show does not actually leave more money in the community than they take out sometimes. For instance, this is a bad year on tent shows, traveling troupes, carnivals, and so forth. This is the word that is going the rounds among the troupers. They don't tell you or me. They live in a sort of a world of their own. They ask and expect no sympathy from the public which they serve in whatever way it is they serve them. Eighty per cent or more of the carnivals and road shows that are making Texas this year are losing money. They have lost money consistently for the whole season. They don't know why. They just know the people are not coming out to see their attractions, in contrast with last year when most shows clicked. Perhaps you can explain it to your own satisfaction. The show people do not know the answer. One concern has lost money consistently for 18 weeks, with the exception of one week when they a bit more than broke even and that in a town that wasn't expected to do as well as some of the others. Totally dependent on the whims of the public the show people do the best they know how. Sometimes they hit a season that is a bonanza. And spend the rest of their years trying for a ten-strike again. The show business has its ups and downs the same as others. Some years they don't take as much out of town as they leave. This is one of those years.

There is only one other state in this union where it could happen that a company like Southwestern Bell Telephone company would come to the city council of Floydada and ask for a revision of rates. In all the states where a company would be asking, as Southwestern is, for relief on their local exchange charges, the matter would be taken to a commission at the state capital. This commission—maybe better informed, maybe not any better than a city council but presumably also honest men—would consider all the angles and one morning Floydada people would get notice that whatever is to happen to them has happened, so far as telephone rates, light rates, or whatsoever, is concerned. The decision might be right or wrong, but it would be the law. Whether this is for the best or not we could not say. Undoubtedly the telephone company, or any other organization serving a wide-spread clientele, would be in favor of a state commission plan. They might not get what they wanted, but the hazard would be at only one local point. They would not have to consult with several hundred councils or city authorities as they will have to do in Texas in their current effort to get an upward hike in rates. Win some raises doubtless, lose some.

When it comes time to make a decision a city council would likewise likely wish for a state commission to pass on the matter before them. A city council's members, in a town like Floydada, do not have anything to go by in particular. All they can do is generalize. They will have to admit that costs have gone up in this instance of a raise request, also that the expansion program gives the customer a better run for his money. And after that, they will have to assume some things. As for instance, that the telephone company has been reasonably good at making their word good, they have been good taxpaying citizens of the community, they haven't asked for increased rates in a long, long time. Such a thing, of course, as hiring an accountant to check so they will know for themselves will not even be considered. There are too many ramifications of the telephone business for an accountant to get to the actual facts. Quite likely the telephone company's own accountants are not agreed, nor are any outside accountants they may have employed. So the council will have to make up their minds on generalities. But even at that, cumbersome and troublesome as the Texas way may be, we are inclined to favor it against the forty-six other state commission plans. For one thing, it brings the problem right down to Floydada. It gives the Floydada customer a chance to object in his own language without hiring a lawyer. In other words, the decision is made between the corporation and the corporation's customer, as near as can be. The plan forces both to think in terms of the other at practically the customer level. Maybe it is not good practice, but it makes a good theory.

Rains have been spotted. Practically all of Floyd county, neighboring counties, including the south and east country down past McAdoo, have had plenty of moisture now and the summer planting of feeds in ground where earlier crops, due to hail, wind or dry, were abandoned will have begun by the weekend unless there is further delay due to continue. However, the rains have varied largely in amount in various parts of the county. As for instance, the Sunday night downpour here, with much lightning. At Lockney the fall was 7-hundredths, above South Plains an inch, around Baker nearly two inches. Even on the town section in Floydada the fall varied as much as an inch, with the low around 2.7, the high nearly four inches. It does that way in West Texas,

License Examiner To Be on Vacation Last 2 Weeks July

The sheriff's office announced last week that the Drivers' License examiner who usually spends every Tuesday in Floydada examining applicants for drivers' license, will not be here the last two Tuesdays in the month of July.

The examiner, Milford McMurtrey, will be away on his vacation during those two weeks, said Miss Maxine Griffin, Sheriff Hart's office deputy, and those who need to have driver's license will want to keep this fact in mind so they can be sure to have their examination on July 13. Otherwise they will have to await the examiner's return the first Tuesday in August.

Tate-Tueton Nuptial Vows Said Saturday In Home Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, July 3, Virginia Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate of Lockney, became the bride of Dean Tueton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Tueton of Lockney. The ceremony was read before an improvised altar in the home of the bride's parents with Rev. Dean Brookshire, pastor of the Church of Christ in Plainview officiating. Arrangements of pink and white gladioli and fern formed the background. "Because" was played softly while Mavis Tate, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. The traditional wedding marches were played for the professional and recessional. "I Love You Truly" was played softly during the exchange of vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white garter and carried with white accessories and a white Bible topped with a corsage of pink and white gladioli with pink streamers. The traditional something borrowed was a gold bracelet, something new was the bridal attire, something old was a gold wedding band belonging to her aunt and something blue was a garter.

Mrs. Kenneth Tate attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a gold two piece dress with red accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Bill Tueton, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Mrs. Tate, mother of the bride, chose a black and white printed silk dress with black accessories and wore a white carnation.

Mrs. Tueton, mother of the groom, was dressed in a black crepe dress with white accessories and wore a white carnation.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was given. The bride's table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with two tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Fred Morris served the cake and Mrs. Clyde Baxter poured the punch from a beautiful cut glass bowl.

Out of town guests present for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tueton of Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morris of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dorset of Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Tueton are graduates from Lockney High school with the class of 1946.

Following a brief wedding trip to points in Colorado, the couple will make their home in Lockney.

Any Color, So it is Red or Yellow Eight Cub Scouts Use Up Lumber Scraps, Apple Crates, Ingenuity To build Themselves 'Private' Den

Privatet
X

reads the sign on the wall of a little yellow building on a vacant lot near Jim Word's new home.

Passers-by step back in amazement as they view the red and green roof, and bird house to match.

This is the cub scout hut made by Den Two that won first prize in the contest which was judged recently by Jim Potts. This little hut met all qualifications. It was made entirely of lumber people have thrown away or given the cubs. The most unusual thing is that the work was done by eight little boys between the ages of nine and 11, with the moral support of two boy scouts and den mothers.

Inside the hut, the furniture may be a little blinding at first, but upon closer inspection, it becomes apparent that the boys have used up a lot of effort and apple crates.

Every cub has a chair, painted his favorite color. Every chair is red. The den mother has a chair made larger than the others. It is painted red. In the corner is a table, large enough for the cub's to conduct all their official business upon, and also large enough to study treasure maps when the need arises. The table is painted red, to match the rest of the furniture.

On the wall are ten hooks, with ten wetter roasters hanging there, one for each cub and their two scouts. The boys made these out of coathangers, and this coming month their chief project will be cooking out in their two cooking pits, which are dug far enough from the hut to avoid fire.

Butterflies, Beware

On the same hook with the wetter roasters hang butterfly catchers made out of old curtains and more coat hangers. If an unfortunate butterfly ever wanders into that little yellow hut, it will find the cubs totally prepared for the emergency.

On one wall hangs a picture of a cub scout and a boy scout, looking fondly at each other. After the rain, they both looked as if they had just taken a swim, but the fond expression lingers on.

Another wall vanishes before your very eyes. The cubs fixed a section so that it lowers on hinges and forms a large window. This is an accomplishment that any cub could well be proud of.

The china, stacked neatly on a bench, consists of drinking cups that the cubs have made from no. 2 cans, smoothing the edges and painting their names on in such original manners that it would be totally impossible to mistake one cup for another.

Their patriotism is exceeded only by the rain last week, and the large flag that they run up every morning in front of the hut on an iron pole, looked a little wilted after the rain. The boys built a chair with a compartment for the flag. They painted the chair red.

This would have been a fine arrangement, but the roof leaked on the chair, and the chair let the water drip through on the flag. The little boys were quite upset over the flag getting wet, but it was dripping bravely in the morning sun, and was probably just like new in no time.

That Touch of Something

The door was fixed to resemble the Waldorf-Astoria. An old tent was draped over three poles, giving the door that exclusive appearance that can add so much. The rain proved too much for the decorative tent though, and like many tents have a habit of doing, it landed on the ground, full of water.

On the roof is a device, made by Bobby Rainer, which is guaranteed to tell which direction the wind is from, as long as the wind is blowing from the west. However, it added the finishing touches to an already perfect hut, in the minds of the eight little cubs.

Cubs in Den Two are Jimmy Collins, who made the bird house, Doyle

Three Out of Five Have It

Half of all U. S. farms have been electrified since the REA program was started.

In announcing the basic allotments for REA loans in the States, the U. S. Department of Agriculture compared the number of un-electrified farms in each State with the total number of farms in the State to give the percentage of un-electrified farms. The eight States having the highest population of electrified farms were Connecticut with 98.5 percent, followed by Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Washington, New York, Idaho, and Oregon which was more than 92 percent electrified.

At the other end of the list were North Dakota with only a little more than 15 percent of the farms electrified, preceded by South Dakota, Mississippi, Nebraska, Tennessee, New Mexico, Montana, and Kansas which had nearly 42 percent electrified.

The other 32 States ranged between the 42 percent and 92 percent limit. For the country as a whole the July, 1947, figures show 61 percent of all farms electrified as compared with 54.3 percent a year earlier. Nearly 400,000 farms were electrified during the 1947 fiscal year, the largest increase on record for any year since the program started. In 1935 less than 11 percent of U. S. farms had electric service.

Each year the Rural Electrification Administration makes up a table of the number of farms in each State that do not have electric service. This is a basis for allotting to each State its share of half the money made available during the year for loans to promote rural electrification. For 1948, Congress has made available $225,000,000 and a half of this sum is $112,500,000. With more than 2 1/2 million farms still not served by power lines. This allows for a basic allotment for loans in each state of a little less than an even $50 for each un-electrified farm. In addition REA may approve loans from the other half of the fund up to 10 per cent for any one State.

Kenneth Don Hill Is Improved

In leukemia, the disease of no known cure, Kenneth Don Hill is reported to be improving this week. If this marked improvement continues, it will mean, not only the life of a little Lockney boy, but hope for everyone who is suffering from the dread disease.

A new drug is being proved, and in the meantime, James P. Hill, father of the boy, now has a job at Galveston. This way he can support his family and be near Kenneth Don at the same time.

For nearly three weeks now, Kenneth Don has been a patient in the John Sealy hospital at Galveston, where the new drug is being tried on him.

"The new drug is in experimental stages, and the beneficial effects are still unknown," say attending physicians.

Nature is wonderful. A million years ago nobody knew that we'd have to wear glasses; yet look how conveniently she located our ears.

FARM JOBS MECHANIZED

New machines, varying from oil-burning brooders to pecan tree shakers, have entered the agricultural picture in the past decade. Oil-powered equipment on farms and ranches today includes hay balers, corn pickers, combines, hop pickers, loaders and stone pickers, with 3,000,000 tractors providing basic power.

FARM PRODUCTIVITY UP

Farm productivity has been increased 40 per cent above any previous peak, the Department of Agriculture records show, despite the fact that a million workers have left farms and ranches since 1935. This increase has been obtained, it was pointed out, through use of oil-powered farm equipment.

The daughter of a civilian employee at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla., had a chronic case of hiccoughs so she was taken for a ride in a plane which zoomed, rolled and snapped in an effort to scare her out of them. The ride didn't cure the girl, but it made her father pretty sick.

FARM AIRPLANES

More than 9,000 airplanes are now used on farms and ranches, according to the Civil Aeronautics Authority. In addition, over 300 companies do such contract jobs as dusting, spraying, sowing, and fertilizing from the air. In California alone nearly 99 per cent of the rice crop is seeded from airplanes.

According to a book publisher, only a person who has suffered can write a modern novel. If that's true, then we'd say that anyone who has read a modern novel can write one.

Opening In Old Paper File

"The Dickens Item", dated October 15, 1909, was brought to light last week by Uncle Johnny when he was going through the papers at his home. The item, a 15-inch four-page newspaper, was published at Dickens, and was the seventh number of two of the papers published at the Texas Spur, published by Cobb, publisher, little at the time, but the lead in this issue was the death of the town of Spur for the then thriving town of Dickens.

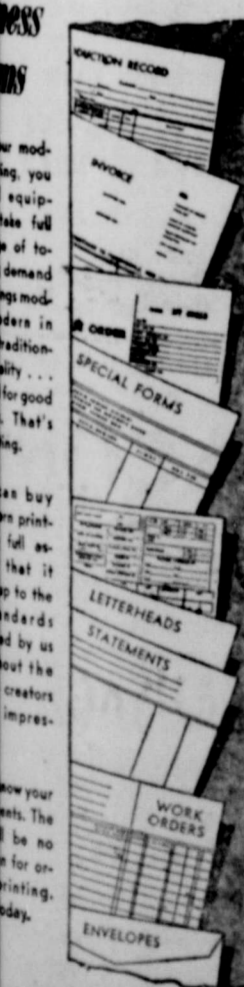

"Land Opening", the item, "Wichita Valley", was published in the Spur, and was the first of the series of the town of Spur, which was the completion of the Wichita (London & Northwestern) road to that town, is being with great interest by people. The road was completed last week, and we were that daily train service inaugurated at once. Another page in this issue is an advertisement of the town of Spur and

Dagleys Reported Doing All Right in Knox City Hospital

No definite word has reached Lockney about the condition of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dagley, who were both hurt painfully and possibly seriously Thursday afternoon, June 24, but they are reported doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Dagley were injured when their car overturned several times near Benjamin, Texas, due to a Blow-out.

After visiting a son-in-law at Weatherford who had suffered a heart attack, the Dagleys were returning home at the time of the accident. They were taken to Knox City hospital, where they are still under treatment.

Mrs. Dagley, the most seriously injured, suffered a crushed pelvis and probably internal injuries. She was in a semi-conscious condition, it was reported. Mr. Dagley suffered severe bruises and cuts, and an injured back.

Although it is not known how long they will be confined to the hospital, the children are with them at Knox City.

Fred and Ted Bell On Vacation Jaunt Visit Mexico City

Fred Bell and his son, Ted, Tech student, returned home last week from a vacation jaunt which took them down-state to visit their son and brother Floyd at Texarkana and as far south as Mexico City, D. F. They crossed the border at Laredo.

On their trip to the Republic of Mexico Mr. Bell says roads were good, but that the automobile traveler to Mexico City should be prepared for a hundred miles or more of winding, twisting mountain driving that will take him up into the clouds and slow him down from speeds he makes on the plains.

The sights of Mexico City were very interesting and there are numerous interesting things, including the prehistoric pyramid to be seen, farms hanging on the side of mountains and things of that kind, Mr. Bell said. A thing that set him to smiling and still amuses him to recall was the sight of a man riding a horse and leading a big sow. They were in a trot and a squealing shoat following along behind had a hard time keeping up.

Mr. Bell also had some hard luck at the border on his return. He wanted to bring across a stalk of ribbon cane to chew. The man took it away from him along with a piece of bacon. Both were against the rules.

67 New Polio Cases Reported In Texas

AUSTIN, Texas, July 6. (UP)—Polio stepped up its spread into West Texas this week as the number of cases for the year rose to 647 in the state, State Health Officer George W. Cox reported today.

For the week ending July 3 a total of 67 new cases of infantile paralysis were reported. The previous week 78 cases were listed.

While the incidence of the dreaded disease dropped under the previous week's report, Dr. Cox said its spread over more territory created a new danger. He cautioned county health officials to take preventive measures "before they have had a case of polio."

Observe Ladies day at the International Harvester Dealers

Thursday was ladies day at Martin Implement company. Where men usually stand handling combine parts and discussing weather, ladies sat demurely through a free show, sipping cokes and munching on frost-sticks.

"Frozen Food Facts" was sponsored by International Harvester. Mrs. J. F. Mathews, a Hereford housewife, and B. F. Witherspoon, a refrigerator expert from Amarillo, put the demonstration on. They were accompanied by Mr. J. H. Carver, an international Harvester official in Amarillo.

The show began at 2:30, when 48 ladies and four brave men gathered to witness the preparation for freezing and cooking vegetables, meats, poultry, fish, and fruits. The demonstration lasted an hour and a half. Afterwards, Mrs. J. M. Daniel was given a roast, already prepared, as an attendance prize. The rest of the food was accumulated by various people around.

The demonstration was followed by a brief salestalk by International Harvester.

A REPORT TO OUR CUSTOMERS . . .

WHAT WE ARE DOING TO INCREASE OUR GAS PIPE LINE CAPACITY

TWO NEW SOURCES OF SUPPLY ARRANGED

We have signed an agreement with El Paso Natural Gas Company to purchase gas from that company at two points. Barring unforeseen contingencies, this gas, which will benefit all towns on our system, will be available by November 1, 1948.

Thus, by next winter, we will be receiving natural gas from FIVE sources, as follows:

1. From Panhandle Gas Field, through our own transmission lines.
2. From El Paso Natural Gas Company line at point of intersection with our line near Hereford.
3. From El Paso Natural Gas Company line at point of intersection with our line near Amherst.
4. At a point 25 miles south of Lamesa, from Empire Southern Gas Company, whose line from Andrews County to Big Spring intersects our line there.
5. From Cities Service Oil Company's Compressor Station in North Cowden Field, Ector County.

We are conducting investigations and studies which may result in our tapping still more sources of supply.

NEW FACILITIES TO BE INSTALLED ON PIPE LINE SYSTEM

Here are the new facilities expected to be installed before next winter, with estimated month of completion.

1. Near Turkey Creek Compressor Station will be installed a 300 hp. booster compressor. (September.) Main plant is 2350 hp.
2. At McSpadden Compressor Station: the more 400 hp. compressors, increasing capacity to 2850 hp. (July.)
3. At Plainview Compressor Station: the more 300 hp. compressor, increasing capacity to 2400 hp. (December.)
4. At Littlefield Compressor Station: one 300 hp. compressor, to increase capacity to 330 hp. (August.)
5. Between Littlefield Compressor Station and Whitharral: nine miles of 6 1/2-inch pipe will replace 3 1/2-inch pipe. (4.4 miles in July; remainder when pipe now on order received.)
6. From Littlefield to point of intersection with new El Paso Natural Gas Company line: ten and one-half miles of 8 1/2-inch pipe will replace 4 1/2-inch pipe. (Pipe expected in July; will be installed soon as received.)
7. At Tahoka Compressor Station: one 300 hp. compressor, to increase capacity to 780 hp. (September.)
8. Between Tahoka and Brownfield: four miles of 6 1/2-inch pipe will replace 4 1/2-inch pipe. (Pipe on order; will be installed soon as received.)

Questions and Answers about the Telephone Company's Request for Higher Rates in Floydada

Q. Why is the telephone company asking for higher rates for Floydada?

A. Because Floydada's rates are too low to bring in enough revenue to pay the cost of furnishing the service.

Q. Is the telephone company operating the Floydada exchange at a loss?

A. During the last six months of 1947 expenses of operating the Floydada exchange were $926 higher than revenues collected for service here.

Q. How about telephone costs? Are they up much?

A. Yes. The cost of everything that goes into furnishing service is higher. Trucks cost 50 per cent more than in 1940. Copper is up 80 per cent. A 35-foot pine pole that cost $6.30 in 1940 now costs us $14.99.

Q. How much is the telephone payroll up?

A. The telephone payroll in Floydada is four times as high as in 1941. The telephone growth in Floydada has made it necessary that we hire more people to handle the larger volume of calls, and in addition wage rates have gone up.

Q. How long have Floydada's telephone rates been in effect?

A. Present rates for telephone service here were established in 1937. At that time Floydada had 558 telephones as compared with more than 810 today. The scope and value of the service has increased greatly in the past 10 years with no increase in rates.

Q. With so much more business, isn't the company's revenue much higher than it was a few years ago?

A. Telephone revenues have increased, to be sure, but expenses have increased much faster. Since 1937, local telephone revenues have increased 69 per cent, but expenses during the same period have gone up 115 per cent. Despite the fact that we have 45 per cent more telephones than in 1937, and are handling a greater volume of calls than ever, the telephone system here is being operated each month at a loss. Rates established 10 years ago will not bring in enough revenue to pay present costs of furnishing service.

Q. Would it be possible for the telephone company to cut corners and reduce expenses?

A. The telephone company takes advantage of every possible operating economy to keep rates low without affecting the quality of the service. Through these economies and advances in the telephone art we have been able to furnish more and more telephone service here without increasing rates. The telephone company is proud of its record of not having increased rates during these 10 years, although the telephone system here has greatly increased in size and the cost of virtually everything that goes into the furnishing of service has risen sharply.

Q. What does the rate increase amount to?

A. Briefly, for residence customers, the new rates represent an increase of less than a cent a day, and only 5 cents a day more for business telephone users. Charges for various auxiliary telephone services will be increased in relation to higher costs of furnishing these services.

Q. What are the telephone company's expansion plans for Floydada?

A. The telephone company will continue to enlarge the telephone system here as rapidly as possible to provide service for families who are now on the waiting list.

THE 1948-1949 PLANS of the company call for a gross expenditure of more than $300,000 for the continued expansion of facilities and improvement of service in Floydada.

The program includes: installation of two additional combination switchboard positions and 380 more subscribers lines at a cost of $12,000... expansion of the network of outside lines and cables throughout the city costing $11,400... and extension of telephone lines to serve 600 more families and business concerns in the rural area around Floydada at an expenditure of $294,000.

Improvement of long distance service also will be provided Floydada telephone users through two new circuits from here to Lubbock.

Battle of Test Tube Often a Dangerous One

AUSTIN, Texas, July—The test tube battle against disease is often a dangerous one in which the researcher runs a constant risk of being infected with the disease he is studying.

That is particularly true of Bruce-llis, the disease called Bang's disease in cattle and undulant fever in man, and University of Texas Brucellosis Research Institute workers must be constantly vigilant.

Precautions are taken through use of the best bacterial research technique with liberal utilization of disinfectant and employment of rubber gloves, face masks and insecticides.

Although figures show that 90 per cent of the Brucellosis researchers and a large number of veterinarians who deal with the disease eventually contract it, the University Institute still has a clean slate. Not a single employee has contacted an unmistakable case of the disease.

Work is underway in the Institute seeking a cure for the disease that cripples the economy of Texas dairy production annually, but Dr. V. T. Schuhardt, director, says the end is not in sight. Drugs to kill the organism have been discovered, but a means has not been devised to get the drugs to all infected tissues in the animal body.

Mrs. Nelson Coward and daughter, Miss Pearl Coward and Mrs. Will Snell returned to their homes Wednesday of last week after visiting with relatives in Fort Worth, Dallas. The Coward's also visited at Midlothian and Cleburne, and Mrs. Snell visited in Waco and Gatesville and attended a re-union of her brother and sisters in Turnersville.

Jackson Dubbed as "Coach With The Right Goal"

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jackson have even more reason to be especially proud of their son, Leo Jackson, after reading "Coach With The Right Goal," an article written by Lester Morris, Baptist minister of Cameron, and published in the June issue of "The Shield," a religious book printed in Waco for young people interested in Christianity.

Jackson is head coach of the Fighting Yoemen football team of Cameron, Texas. During the summer, he spends his time attending Baylor university in Waco working toward his masters degree. He has taught school and been coach in Cameron three years.

In addition to working spiritually with the young people of Cameron, Coach Jackson has won his share of football games. He has lost only four games and tied one. Two of these were regional championship games. He has won two district championships and two bi-district championships. In baseball, the Yoemen played 13 games and won the same number.

Jackson teaches a Young Men's Bible class in the First Baptist church, is active in their Brotherhood, and serves as Training Union director.

Outside of football coaching duties, he drives the school bus on its early morning route. "Kids find him in a jolly spirit even at the early hour of 6 o'clock," said the Baptist minister.

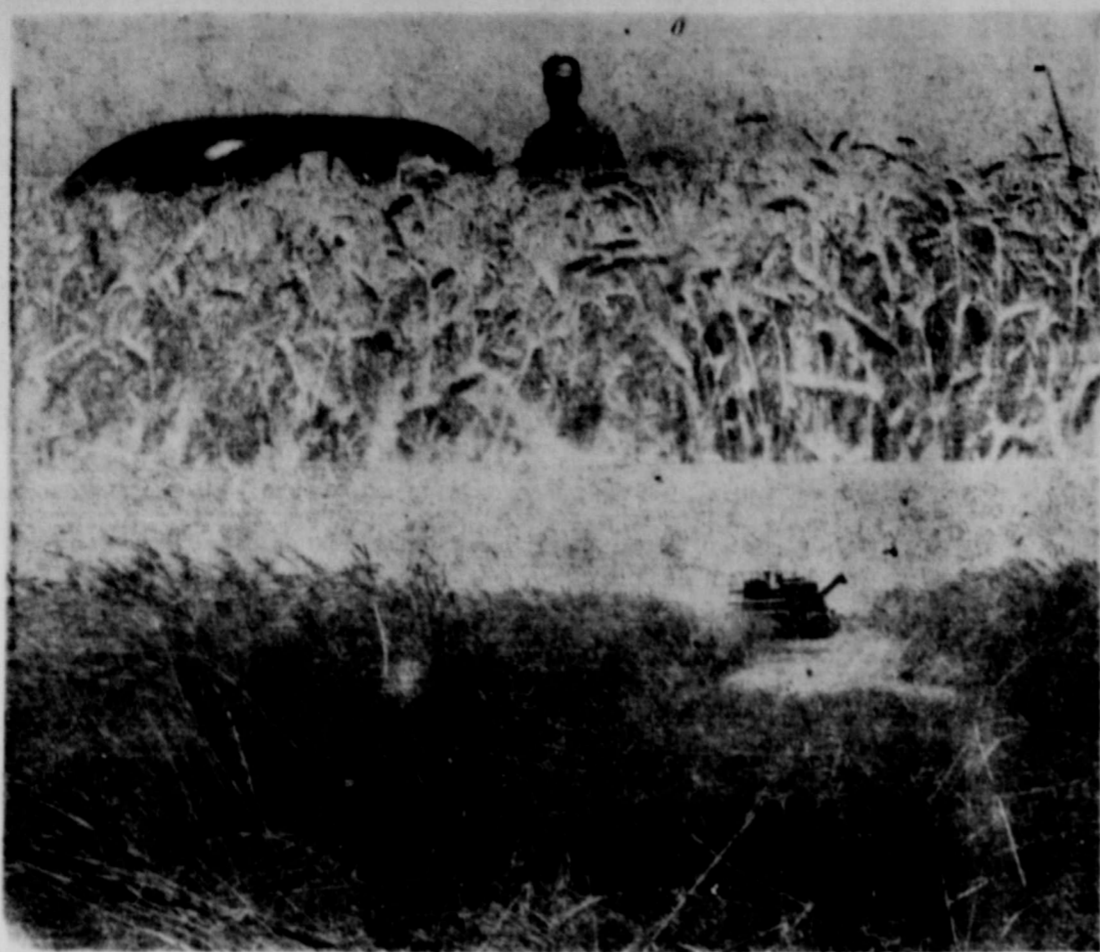

Jackson teaches history and attends the Rotary club meetings. He also belongs to the Knights of Pythias and the Masonic lodge.

Recently, Coach Jackson was elected one of the eight directors of the Texas High School Football Coach's association.

O. A. Lucas and His Seventy-Eight Bushel Wheat

The combine in the wheat field pictured above was harvesting a fraction over 78 bushels to the acre when the action was recorded by the camera. The 36-acre field of certified Tenmarq was on the O. A. Lucas farm a mile southeast of Aiken in the edge of Floyd county. In the picture at the top Lucas is shown standing in the chest high wheat. The field was seeded with 55 pounds to the acre. The ground was watered before the crop was planted and the wheat was irrigated three times. Twenty-five acres of Lucas' best wheat averaged 60 bushels. Rain and wind put some of the grain on the ground and the combine did not get it all. Last year Lucas averaged 62 bushels to the acre on a field on his 80-acre irrigated farm.

BOYCE HOUSE "GIVES YOU TEXAS"

In November of 1920, I came to Texas. I had to sell the paper which I owned up in Arkansas and come to this state to rest in order to build up my health. After riding on the train for almost 24 hours, I prepared to get off in San Antonio. Nearly a thousand miles from my friends, a stranger in a strange land, I felt lonely, indeed. Imagine my surprise as I stepped off the train and heard a voice exclaim, "Boyce House, what are you doing away down here?" The speaker was a schoolmate of Central High days in Memphis, Tenn., who was at the station to meet a relative. The sight of a familiar face and the sound of a friendly voice drove away the "lost" feeling.

I have never seen that schoolmate since then.

A man living in a small Western city was in Chicago on a business trip. Under the impulse of a spirit of mischief, he entered the telegraph office sent a message to a man living in his town. The telegram read, "Flee at once; all is discovered. (Signed) You know who."

When the traveler returned, he found that the man to whom he had sent the message had left -- and he never did come back!

Jim White was a cowboy out in New Mexico. One day, he came into town with a story of a wonderful cave which he said he had discovered and explored.

Nobody believed him, however. It took more than 20 years before he could persuade anyone to go out with him and see if he was telling the truth. At last a group of businessmen yielded and he made good his most enthusiastic descriptions of the wonders of the cave.

And that is how Carlsbad Cavern came to be known to the world.

TO FOIL MOSQUITO BITERS

War-time tests by U. S. Department of Agriculture entomologists developed methods of thwarting mosquito attacks on soldiers that civilians can use too. One device consists of holding outer clothing away from immediate contact by means of lining or undergarment of coarse mesh fabric that adds little to the fabric far enough away from the skin so that a mosquito's biting apparatus does not reach through far enough to draw blood.

Europeans in the Arctic areas where mosquitoes are a serious pest had tried out this method and the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine included in tests of fabrics for uniforms. These tests showed that there are several tight woven fabrics that give good protection against mosquito biting. But the standard herringbone twill of army uniforms is not effective in thwarting the mosquitoes. What is known as Byrd cloth is one of the best anti-mosquito fabrics. The list includes some (but not many) nylon weaves, Jo-cloth, and some poplins and broadcloths.

In one series of tests the fabric was lined with coarse net material. The double thickness of the two fabrics gave good protection. Even the herringbone twill over the mesh did a good job of discouraging the mosquitoes, and turned in as good a count as even the best anti-mosquito fabrics worn next to the skin.

To make these tests, a group of army men seated themselves in a circle in an area in Florida where mosquitoes were thick. Each man watched the back of the man in front of him and counted the number of mosquitoes that landed. When the test period ended, the men rushed for a tent that had been cleared of mosquitoes with a pyrethrum spray. In this shelter the entomologists then made a comparative count on bare back of the number of bites by mosquitoes that had been able to pierce the fabrics and combinations of fabrics under test.

Legion Shows Film of Youth Baseball at Lions Meeting

Instead of their usual program, the Lions Club was presented with a movie on youth baseball, sponsored by the American Legion, at their dinner Thursday night. The dinner was held in the Hotel Coffee shop due to remodeling of the Andrews Ward Cafeteria.

In most of the larger towns, as well as many smaller ones, the Legion has taken great interest in forming ball teams for teen-age boys. This serves to keep the boys busy, and at the same time give them plenty of exercise and good, clean, fun.

Beyond a discussion several weeks ago of forming a team from 15 year-old boys in Floydada, the American Legion has made no plans.

While there is some doubt about the interest that would be shown in such a club here, the Legion also lacks someone to coach the boys.

Mrs. Blessing Died At Lockney June 26

After being in ill health for several years, Mrs. Retta Livesay Blessing died in the Floyd County Cooperative hospital in Lockney early Saturday morning, June 26. She had been a resident of Lockney in the early part of this century.

In Floyd county visiting with relatives, Mrs. Blessing's condition became worse several days before her death. She resided in Blackwater, Lee County, Virginia.

Rev. E. J. Cobb, pastor of the Lockney Baptist church, officiated at the funeral services, which were held in Carter Funeral home Sunday afternoon, June 27. Burial was in the Lockney cemetery.

Pallbearers were five nephews, Troy Horton of Plainview, Joe Hart of Hart, Jack Livesay, Teddy Jean Livesay and Floyd Barber, Jr., all of Lockney; and one cousin, Ray Livesay of Lubbock.

Survivors include her husband, Henry Blessing of Blackwater, Virginia, one son, Lloyd Blessing, also of Blackwater, one daughter, Mrs. Glen Kries of Cincinnati, Ohio, her mother, Mrs. J. T. Livesay of Lockney; three sisters, Mrs. Floyd Barber sr., Mrs. Grace Byars, both of Lockney, and Mrs. Edna Hart of Hart; four brothers, Ted Livesay of Lockney, John Livesay of Mission, Norman Livesay of Hereford, and Leonard Livesay of Los Angeles, California.

More Employes Hurt off the Job

More than twice as many American workers are killed by accidents away from work as are killed on the job, the National Safety Council reports.

Of the 52,000 workers accidentally killed during 1946, 36,000 or 69 per cent were killed in non-occupational accidents—in homes, on streets and highways, or in other public places.

Disabling injuries befalling workers totaled 5,300,000 during the year, and 3,250,000 or 61 per cent of these occurred off the job.

Despite the fact that off-the-job accidents occur on the worker's own time, they cost industry heavily and such costs eventually are borne by the consumer in the prices for goods and services.

Off-Job Mishaps Cost, Too

Whether an accident happens away from work or not, the employer still is faced with production delays, hiring and training expenses for the new employee, and other intangible costs. Aware of this, many employers who have carried out successful plant safety programs are now extending their efforts to prevent off-the-job mishaps, the Council says.

The greatest number of off-the-job deaths result from traffic acci-

Brides Younger and More of Them

Leap year could be to blame but all in all, statistics show that chances of becoming a June bride in Floyd county are advancing by leaps and bounds.

Ten years ago, only five June brides were listed on the records. Last year the number was raised to seven, and this year the number recorded almost doubled to 13.

Only two girls were as young as 18 last year and all boys were over 21. This year, four girls were under age and four boys were. In two instances, both the boys and girls were under age.

Perhaps not to be blamed on leap year, June brides are getting younger and there are more of them every year.

CROP LAND MECHANIZED

More than 80 per cent of America's crop land is now plowed with tractors, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Tractors operate more than 100 different types of farm implements, the Department says. In the small-grain class, such as wheat, rye, barley and oats, 80 per cent of the harvesting is also tractor powered.

Tractors, but home mishaps were to blame for most of the disabling injuries.

Final Finishes Lakeview Road Are Being Done

Only the final finishing touches remain to be made on Lakeview road. Final shot of hot top on the seven and one-tenth mile stretch of road from Highway 70 south was made by the contractors last Friday afternoon, James F. Potts, resident engineer of the Highway department said.

Cleaning the ditches and the right-of-way, when done within the next few days will be the signal for the final inspection by the district engineer and the federal engineer.

The new road withstood the rain well and is in good condition.

Two Crews At Work

The Highway department has two crews at work getting ready for the jobs to Sand Hill and Harmony and to Lone Star. One of these crews is exploring for caliche deposits in economical hauling distance of the roads and the other is making locations and setting stakes. This is preliminary to plans and specifications which must be submitted for approval to district and state engineers. The department has indicated the probability that the Sand Hill-Harmony and the Lone Star jobs will be let in one contract. Much work is to be done both in the office and in the field, but local authorities are hoping to see a September letting or October at the latest.

Working in Crosby County

The contractor is at work on the Big Four farm-to-market road from Crosbyton northward.

Light travels at the speed of 186,324 miles per second.

Tom Warren Very Sick Man, Doctor at Plainview Says

A long series of illnesses has been too much for C. T. Warren, and he is dying of heart failure. Dr. O'Neal of the Plainview hospital told the Hesperian this morning in a telephone conversation.

Warren, long time resident of Floydada and real estate dealer here, had a kidney hemorrhage. He recovered from that but his heart was left in a weak condition. He is said to have very slim chance.

Although Mr. Warren rallied yesterday, he was losing ground this morning. Two blood transfusions from Floydada men tided him over for awhile, but he is extremely weak.

Mr. Warren has been in the Plainview hospital for over a week. He was transferred there from Floydada hospital.

His only sister arrived this morning, and his wife and many other relatives have been with him much of the time.

Several Floydada people spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ring and Charles in Dexter, New Mexico.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Ott Walden, Mrs. B. C. Gray, Dennis and Donald Denison, Miss Virginia and Betty Miller.

Mrs. Frank Webb was returned to her home from the Stanley hospital in Matador where she underwent an appendectomy on June 27. She is doing nicely.

Oil Reports

Expectation was the first of this week that Byrd No. 3, test for oil, in extreme southeast Hale county, will be spudded in by the end of this week. Located 990 feet north and 330 feet east of Byrd No. 1, a producer and discovery well in the Arick field, it will be drilled by Donnell Drilling company for General American Oil company. Slush pit and water well were about ready for use the first of the week.

Byrd No. 1 is being re-conditioned this week in an effort to stop the flow of salt water that is mixing with the oil. Some progress is being made, it was reported.

No new developments are reported in connection with the Carmichael well, first producer in Floyd county. Storage is located on the farm and the well is being developed.

Granite on Strickler Test

The test on the Crump lands, Strickler No. 1, which ran low as to formation in comparison with the Byrd No. 1, has been abandoned at 7,747 feet where the driller reported granite. This is 992 feet lower than the rock was reported by Byrd No. 1 test, which was abandoned by the original operator above 6,000 feet.

There were no reports of activity in other portions of the county.

Jerry and Pat Finley of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Finley's several days this week to their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Shirey.

Nature sure pulled a mean one on her when she made prunes more than strawberries.

Having too much money goes to a woman's head, it is said.
