Pete Gillespie Lived Quietly, Died Quietly; Note to 'Ruby' Furnishes Clue Identifying Nice Young Man

Clad in striped pajamas, Pete Gillespie, a nice-looking young man of about 35, is leaving today over the Q for Clinton, Missouri. He is traveling in a simple, cloth covered cask. Gillespie died in the Floydada hospital Tuesday afternoon after an illness of about one day. He had stayed in the Commercial hotel for some time prior to his death, and was found unconscious in his room. Death was attributed to sugar diabetes. Authorities tried in vain to find members of his family when it was suspected that Gillespie was in the final coma so often connected with diabetes. He had little identification on him, and very little was known about him in Floydada. In his pocket was found a stub from a construction company in Kermit, Texas. This also had his name on it. It was the first definite clue.

G. M. Brunner New Mayor of Lockney

G. M. Brunner, a lumber and building materials dealer, is the new mayor of Lockney, chosen in Tuesday's special election to fill the vacancy created by the death of R. L. Maggard. Mr. Brunner will serve until April of 1949, when the term of office expires. The new mayor has been a resident of Lockney for 14 months, moving to that city from Groom.

Legion Election Second Of August

Nominations were made at the Monday night meeting and the names of those proposed posted. Members of the Legion auxiliary, were present at the meeting Monday night.

Surveying Job in Motley County Takes Newell's Mind Back to 'Time When' of Covered Wagon

A surveying job State Land Surveyor had in northeast Motley county last week carried his mind back to "the time when." He and his crew were running lines on a section of land for the Matadors, that according to the records, was surveyed first in the early eighties by a famous state surveyor by the name of Jones. Later the lines were supposed to have been run in 1903. All the markings, corners, and calls on these two ancient surveys had been lost. The "time when" that the scene of his work took Surveyor Newell back to was when his father and the mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Newell, brought their family and moved from down-state to Floyd county in the early 1900's. Walter was the eldest of a considerable brood of youngsters. They camped on this section near Northfield en route from Childress. It was the second night out from Childress, which they left one afternoon en route to the plains. Since that time W. D. Newell has surveyed land all along the line athwart the trail the family followed to the plains country.

Check List for Primary Vote

Floyd county citizens will go to the ballot box Saturday in large numbers to choose their Democratic nominees for state and county officials, including the United States senator, highest honor within the gift of the people of the state. Since selection in the primary is tantamount to election, the importance of Saturday's primary will not be overlooked. Also the importance of making decisions that comport with one's political conscience and belief are highly important. Herewith below is presented the list of candidates again as they will appear on your ballot, for your study and selection. It's your vote and your responsibility which no one else can take over for you. The list has nothing to do with the current hullabaloo in national affairs. The presidential and vice-presidential candidates and the electors will be named in the general election in November. In the long list, however, you will note that several important offices are to be filled in local administrative and clerical jobs. And that is why the list is submitted just prior to the election--for your study and consideration. Here are the names of the candidates and the offices for which they will be nominated:

For United States Senator:
Otis C. Myers of Dallas County
Jesse C. Saunders of Orange County
Cyclone Davis of Dallas County
George Peady of Harris County
Coke R. Stevenson of Kimble County
Lyndon B. Johnson of Blanco County
Roscoe H. Collier of Dallas County
Terrell Sledge of Hays County
F. B. Clark of Brazos County
Frank G. Cortez of Bexar County
James F. Alford of Harris County

Record Vote Foreseen in Balloting Saturday

County Award From Debt Fund Above $23,000

The Board of County and District Road Indebtedness of Texas from its Austin office this week notified County Judge W. E. Grimes that the allocation to Floyd county from the state fund this year will be $23,831.39, of which the amount of $18,551.39 will be remitted to the county within a short time. Reserved from the county's allocations will be $5,182.94 to be applied to maturities of this county on road indebtedness of 1940 and prior years. Judge Grimes was notified. The remainder of $96.06 is deducted to cover expenses incident to the handling of the fund. Judge Grimes pointed out that the fund to be forwarded can be put in a lateral road account and that it may be expended for construction or improvement of lateral roads. It will be available for use as of September 1, when the fiscal year begins.

H. B. Machen Is New Postmaster Lockney Office

H. B. Machen, farmer living five miles northwest of Lockney, is due to be installed as acting postmaster at Lockney, succeeding the late C. J. McCollum, and is due to be given the permanent appointment subject to confirmation by the U. S. Senate in January. This statement is based on information from Washington which listed Machen as high man in the examination held this spring for applicants for the office, according to the list of the Civil Service commission. Machen served in the European theatre during the war and was discharged with the rank of major. The family has lived near Lockney since 1942.

Funeral rites were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and interment was made in an Oklahoma City cemetery. Mrs. Carr was survived by her husband, Mack Carr, and her sons, Charlie and Marvin, of Floyd county, were among the relatives who attended the funeral. Mrs. D. L. Hargis was with her mother at the time of her death and remained at Oklahoma City for the time being. Two other surviving children are Will Carr and Miss Ruth Carr, both residents of Oklahoma City.

Thursday afternoon, Ward Taylor and John Gamble, district fieldmen for Production and Marketing administration, with Nelson Little, district fieldman for Federal Crop Insurance corporation, met with the local Agricultural Conservation association committee composed of G. B. Johnston, W. H. Nelson, and W. F. Ferguson relative to negotiating an agreement between the local Production and Marketing administration office and the Federal Crop Insurance corporation. Mr. and Mrs. S. McEntire, administrative officer of PMO, sat in on the meeting.

When time for absentee voting expired on Tuesday night, a total of 130 ballots were counted by County Clerk Margaret Collier and forwarded by mail to the various presiding judges. Absentee ballots are deposited in the ballot box by the presiding judge between 2 and 3 o'clock on the afternoon of election day.

Prct. Conventions of Democrats Due to Be Held Saturday

Conventions of Democrats in the various voting precincts of the county are due to be held Saturday afternoon, and according to custom will convene at 2 o'clock in all probability. None of the precinct chairmen of the county, so far as was learned by the Hesperian, had issued call for conventions. Representatives for the county convention on Saturday, July 31, are due to be selected at these precinct gatherings of the Democratic electorate. The county Democratic chairman has announced the hour for the county convention as 2 o'clock p. m. following the meeting of the executive committee, which convenes the same day at 10 o'clock to make the formal count of the first primary vote and declare the results.

Polling Places Open at Eight, Close at Seven

Yesterday it appeared that the vote in the Democratic primary on Saturday will be the largest since before World War II, and indeed, it is possible the vote will exceed that of any previous primary in the county's history. Polling places open at 8 o'clock in the morning and close at 7 in the evening. All polling places will be as usual, except for Allmon, where the election will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Foster; and in Southwest Floydada Precinct No. 1, where the voting place will be the new REA building, corner of Fifth and California streets. Heretofore the vote at Allmon has been at the Allmon school house, which, however, has become private property and is being used for storage. In Southwest Floydada the voting at the International dealer's business place has been carried on at some inconvenience to the implement dealer. The change was made to get the election out of the way, so to speak. Here are the voting precincts by name and number and the names of the respective presiding officers: S. W. Floydada No. 1, A. C. Goen; Starkey No. 2, J. K. Holmes; Allmon No. 3, E. E. Foster; Sand Hill No. 4, W. R. Dooley; E. Lockney No. 5, J. J. Harris; Aiken No. 6, Oscar Golden; Providence No. 7, Pelham Clements; Lone Star No. 8, G. B. Johnston, Sr.; South Plains No. 9, W. E. Sims; Cedar No. 11, Clarence Ginn; Fairview No. 12, Lee Rushing; Baker No. 13, George Stiles; Lakeview No. 15, Will Bunch; Harmony No. 16, Walter S. Hanna; Goodnight No. 17, O. P. Clark; W. Lockney No. 18, T. B. Mitchell; N. W. Floydada No. 19, E. L. Norman; Dougherty No. 20, Claud Ring; Sterley No. 21, Robt. W. Smith; McCoy No. 22, George L. Smith; S. E. Floydada No. 23, C. B. Sims; Northeast Floydada No. 24, Ernie Widener.

'Cotton Crop Best in Recent Years' - Agent

"The cotton crop in Floyd County is the best in recent years, and that means it should be used to the top advantage of its full cash income this fall," said A. L. Hartzog, county agent, yesterday. He offered further encouragement by saying that the general insect situation isn't so menacing as previously, and the farmers seem to have it pretty well under control. The northeastern part of Floyd county and other small spots are having some trouble with grasshoppers. The main trouble of this sort is below the cap-rock. In Motley county, the farmers have been poisoning grasshoppers with poison-bran bait, which has been obtained there in arrangement with the county agent's office at Matador under an agreement made by Hartzog and Motley county officials for supplying government bait materials for the cost of mixing to farmers residing under the caprock in this county whose crops are threatened. "While a few irrigation farmers report a considerable number of grasshoppers along irrigation ditches, very few find it necessary to poison. However, the cost of poisoning would be relatively small to control grasshoppers along the edges of alfalfa and ditch banks in the younger stages as compared with later control measures when crops are being heavily damaged," said Hartzog. It was suggested that farmers having small areas with grasshoppers should spray or dust with toxaphene after moving livestock from the pasture areas. Toxaphene is a new insecticide which is available from commercial chemical supply houses and should be applied at the rate of ten pounds of 20% toxaphene per acre to control the grasshoppers. The alternate way of using toxaphene effectively is to spray fence rows and ditches with a mixture of two pounds 20% toxaphene plus 100 gallons of water. "Some of you farmers may have young crops of cotton and black-eyed peas which are being threatened by a striped tobacco worm about two inches long," Hartzog said. These worms are voracious feeders. (See Cotton Crop, back page)

Effort to Break Jinx

Effort to break an old jinx will be strenuously made as to the time the returns are all in and tabulated for the county. Heretofore, 11:30 is the earliest hour for a complete report to go up on the board with all boxes accounted for. Some years the count has not been completed until the wee small hours, and on more than one occasion all boxes were not reported until Sunday following. In those years unusual conditions, such as rains, a breakdown in communications, or failure to get the count made at the voting box usually has to have a complete count on all boxes in the county this year before 11 o'clock. Many counties (See Election Party, back page)

Republicans Call County Convention

County Republican chairman E. E. Wells this week served notice on Floyd county Republicans that the county convention of the party will be held on Saturday, July 31 in Floydada. The convention will choose delegates and alternates to the state convention and will transact such other business as may properly come before the county organization he said. The meeting place is the county court house, the hour 2 o'clock p. m. There will be no precinct conventions on Saturday, July 24, as these are not required of a minority party. "We want a full attendance at the county convention," Mr. Wells said.

MRS. COLLUM IMPROVING

Mrs. Lila Collum returned Tuesday of last week after being in the Plainview hospital for three weeks. She is said to be steadily improving, although she must still spend much time in bed. Mrs. W. H. Finley and children wish us to express their gratitude to their many friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness and beautiful flowers. They wish to express their special thanks to those who donated blood.

FRANK JONES ENLISTS

Frank G. Jones, Jr., enlisted in the army for three years July 18 at Lubbock. He will be sent to Fort Ord, California, for basic training and then sent to the Alaskan department in the corps of engineers. Relatives of Mr. Cates are staying in a Lubbock hotel. Mrs. Champion, from Denver is staying with Mrs. Cates. W. B. Cates and family, from Cisco, has also been visiting here.

Second Operation Believed Success

After a second operation yesterday, word today from W. A. Cates said that he was coming along nicely. He has been in St. Mary's hospital at Lubbock for two weeks now, and this is his second operation. At the age of 83, Mr. Cates had rather a hard time on the operating table the first time. They planned to finish the entire surgical work but he was too weak, and had to have two blood transfusions that day. He was given plasma on the operating table yesterday, and only one transfusion was necessary. Having been in the hospital at Lubbock since July 7, it will still be a week or two before he will be able to come home.

Eighteen-Year-Olds May Enlist Within 2 Weeks, Sgt. Says

Within two weeks, eighteen-year-olds will be permitted to enlist for one year, announced Sgt. Walling, from the Plainview Recruiting service. Enlisting this way will save the boys about nine months service. They won't be sent overseas. One seeming disadvantage is that they won't get to choose their branch of service, but must go in the regular army. The same thing would happen if they were drafted. Six years will have to be spent in the inactive reserve after their release from the army. This according to the sergeant. Draft registration will begin about the first of September, and the first ones will be drafted about September 22 or 23. They will receive eight weeks basic training and then be sent overseas, in all probability, Sgt. Walling said.

WHY LABOR BOSSES ENDORSE THE OPPONENT OF... JUDGE JOHN A. RAWLINS

Candidate for Associate Justice Supreme Court of Texas

JUDGE JOHN A. RAWLINS

★ It is recorded May 9, 1945, in 188 S.W. Reporter 2d series, page 276, that James P. Hart, opponent of Judge Rawlins, was one of the attorneys for the labor unions in their unsuccessful and ill-advised attempt to enjoin the State Officials from enforcing the Texas law regulating labor unions, which was passed with the view of protecting public interest.

★ The Appellate Court, in upholding the law forbidding the unions from collecting work permit fees from non-union employees, reorganized the policy expressed by the Legislature in the preamble to the Act: "The right to work is the right to live."

★ Judge John Rawlins is under no obligation to either labor or capital. He is now completing 20 years of service as a State Trial Judge. He is a family man, a World War veteran, and a church worker. He has the endorsement of the Dallas Bar Association and is interested only in administering the law fairly and impartially in the interest of the public at large. He is a graduate of Texas University and Texas Christian University.

As it will be impossible to see all of you personally to solicit your Vote for the office of COUNTY JUDGE, due to taking care of the official duties of the office at the present time, I take this method of asking you for your vote and confidence in the coming Primary Election.

I am proud of my Record as County Judge and earnestly solicit your inspection of that Record. As Budget officer of the Court, I have tried to hold the expenses of the County within our Budget and our Income. As you know that has been hard to do in the face of rising prices. If you will inspect the County's Financial Statement taken from the Records of the County Treasurer and published by the County Clerk in February, you will note that all of the County's Accounts are in excellent shape. Not too much surplus, but in the black, as of January 1, 1948. I have always opposed the raising of Valuations of our property and will still oppose same unless it becomes an absolute necessity, realizing that once we get our Bonded indebtedness, interests, etc. adjusted to a Higher valuation, it would be hard to reduce them and ever get out of debt.

Believing that I have a good understanding with the Highway Department, I would like to help complete and carry out according to promise the New Gigantic Highway program you have voted for the County. We are promised some additional Federal Farm-to-Market Roads to be set up possibly in September, recently set up by Congress.

I am for working out a Cooperative Plan to Control the Bindweed and the Johnson Grass along our roads. I assure you it has been a pleasure to serve you as your County Judge.

Turns on Heat, Floydada Turns Water Faucet

Temperatures soared in Floydada last week, the people reacted, but by turning on their air-conditions, but by getting a t-a-l-l water and turning the hose on the lawns.

Floydada people are drinking 1-1/2 gallons of water a day, and a conservative estimate, Bert estimated yesterday. This isn't always so high, and with the temperatures, he said, the temperature for the past two weeks had a high of 100 degrees and upper nineties for the past week.

All shower results in amazing increase in water consumption. The demand for the day drops to 700,000 gallons, even if the day is only a small one.

In the winter, Floydada consumes about 300,000 or 400,000 gallons a day.

Used Clothing Brings Letter From Germany

Last November, a little group of Methodist women met in the basement of the Methodist church to pack a box of used clothing for distribution overseas.

These women packed all of the warm clothes that they could find. Someone got so enthused that she packed another lady's coat. When the ladies got ready to go home, they had to unpack a few boxes, looking for the coat.

Many people have wondered if all of these boxes have been wasted effort. This week, Mrs. Will Snell received a letter in answer to a note she had put in a heavy wool robe. To all who were doubtful, the letter can answer for itself:

From F. Kiesel, Witzzenhausen; Edward Schroder str. F., U. S. Zone Germany.

Dear Madam:

Some days ago my daughter got a lady's mantle by the Committee for welfare of the Protestant Churches in Germany. We were very glad of the gift, for my daughter needed such a mantle badly. A paper which we found in one of the pockets not only revealed to us, who the charitable giver was, but even invited us to write if we needed something. Being in the most distressed condition, we are very thankful for your kind readiness to help.

Refugee After 40 Years

A short report about myself and my family may give you an idea of our condition. After having spent nearly 40 years as a Studienrat (master of a high-school for boys) at Gortitz, I was living there in my retirement when in February, 1945, the approaching of the Russians forced us to leave our home for Wizenhausen, where my elder daughter was then on duty in the military hospital. Some time afterward, we got news that the house at Gortitz where we had a nicely furnished flat had completely burned down. Now we are forced to live here in a narrow attic-room and as we could take only as much as we were able to carry with us, we are wanting in the most necessary things. Thus in an age of 70, I find myself in the deepest distress.

What we need most presently is food and clothing, the nourishing standard being on the lowest point now and no spinning stuff of any kind being on sale. So we should be thankful for anything you kindly want to give us. My family consists of my wife, myself, and two daughters in the age of about 30 years. My wife still suffers from the consequences of an inflammation of veins (Thrombose), which hinders her very much from shopping and doing all the other necessary things for the household. I hope there will once be the possibility to show our selves grateful to you.

With best thanks once more for the beautiful mantle.

Cordially yours,
Fritz Kiesel.

Vicious Untruths

HAVE BEEN TOLD BY THOSE WHO SEEK TO DEFEAT SENATOR PARRISH FOR A SECOND TERM.

But in all the slanderous statements that have been made no reference has been made to the record that Senator Parrish made during his first term as state senator, for the reason that the Senator has advocated, supported and voted for the very legislation that his opponents have placed in their platform.

Senator Parrish has not resorted to mudslinging. He is seeking re-election to a second term upon the record he has made:

- (1) Senator Parrish fought for the school teachers and was co-author of several bills to aid the teachers;
- (2) Senator Parrish supported and voted for a bill to raise the pay of the district judges from $5,000 to $6,000;
- (3) Senator Parrish is not only for farm to market roads—more roads have been built in the 30th Senatorial district than in any like period in history;
- (4) Senator Parrish is for Legislative Re-Districting and introduced the re-districting bill aimed at giving West Texas the representation in the Legislature that it deserves;
- (5) 100 per cent record in the matters of Veterans affairs;
- (6) Fought and voted against price raising legislation which would raise the cost of living to every Texan.
- (7) Senator Parrish's father, the late Pink Parrish, was responsible for the 4c gas refund to farmers. Senator Parrish has consistently opposed any effort to discontinue the refund of State Gasoline Tax to farmers.
- (8) Through the efforts of Senator Parrish the appropriation for Texas Tech has been more than doubled. In 1943 there was appropriated for Texas Tech $1,435,348. In 1947 the appropriation for Texas Tech was $3,216,996.00.

Home-made ice-cream and cakes highlighted the J. C. Penney picnic at Roaring Springs Monday night.

All personnel of the Floydada store met those of the Paducah store, holding the picnic together in an effort to become better acquainted. Besides the employees, only a few close members of their families attended.

Although it was fairly late before the picnic became assembled, wading, swimming, and an old-fashioned sing song were still worked into the program before time for the party to break up.

"We work together. We might as well play together some, too," said Mr. J. W. Reue, manager of the Floydada branch of J. C. Penney.

Vote for Lyndon Johnson for United States SENATOR

Here's Why -

1. Volunteered for combat duty with the Navy—Received the Silver Star for Gallantry in action in South Pacific—While Coke was saying he didn't believe in gasoline rationing for the war effort, and that service men didn't need to vote—Remember?
2. 11 years experience in Congress—He won't need a guide to find the capitol nor a lobbyist to tell him how to vote.

3. He stands on his record already made in Congress, for the following:

- | | |
| A. Rural Electrification. B. Preparedness and World Peace—To a combat veteran, these are urgent realities, not just campaign talk. C. Rural Improvement—Soil Conservation, Farm to Market Roads, Adequate Schools and Hospitals—He grew up on a farm and knows what the farmer needs. | D. Checking Inflation. E. Increased Assistance to the Aged. F. For Fair Play between Labor and Management—He voted for the Taft-Hartley Act. 4. 39 Years Old—Old enough to know WHAT TO DO—Young enough to get it done. 5. He won't move the County Seat to Washington, but he can see farther than the County Line. |

Elect Congressman Lyndon Johnson Your United States Senator

(This Advertisement written and paid for by Veterans, Farmers and Businessmen of Floyd County who are for Lyndon Johnson)

To the Voters of Floyd county

This being my last chance to make an appeal to the voters of Floyd County, I wish to state that I believe myself well qualified to fill the office of Tax Assessor-Collector: first as to Education, having attended the Colorado Woman's College Denver, and State Teacher's College at Greeley, Colorado, and eighteen months in Business College at same time attending Chiropractic College in Oklahoma City; second, ability to meet the public under any emergency. I have been able to keep my "chin up" through every kind of adversity, and one disappointment has only made me tackle each new problem with more determined energy, and third, I have always tried to be honest and upright in meeting all obligations, and know that as your next Assessor-Collector I can give you an efficient, Courteous, and Honest Administration.

Need Fertilizer? Nitrogen Supply Gets a Boost

COLLEGE STATION, July—Three developments have taken place recently following Congressional action of the International Emergency Food Committee. These changes will boost the nitrogen fertilizer supply of the next 12 months up ten percent over last year's total, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist of Texas A. & M. College.

The expected increase will make available over 900 thousand tons of nitrogen fertilizer, or around 85 thousand tons more than was had last year. Even though there has been an improvement in the supplies of the world fertilizer nitrogen as compared with last year, the expected supply from now until next July will still fall short of world demand.

The first of these three developments that will bring more nitrogen fertilizer is the increase of smaller country imports and the private production. The amount the United States will get from private production added to the imports from the small countries such as Chile, Canada and Norway will amount to something like 26,500 tons of the ten percent increase.

The other two developments deal with army production at the US government plants. One provides that ten percent of the anhydrous ammonia that is produced at these plants to be changed into fertilizer for farm uses. In numbers, this will amount to around 28 thousand tons.

The other development is that half of the coming year's exports of nitrogen fertilizer shall be made up of army production. Since the coming year's expected exports will be close to 61 thousand tons, 31,500 tons will be on hand for domestic uses.

With all this talk about thousands of tons of fertilizer, it sounds as if there will be enough for everybody, says Thornton. But even with this expected increase, the world will still be a little short on nitrogen fertilizer.

WEDDING IN AN ARMY BIVOUAC—This soldier and his bride pronounced their vows amid the pine trees of Louisiana during Army maneuvers. Episcopal Chaplain Harry S. Kennedy officiated.

Mrs. Glenn Crawley left Tuesday for her home in Amarillo after having spent the past week in Floydada visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hall, sr., while her husband has been in Chicago attending a road machinery convention. Mr. Crawley is employed by the Fred Berryhill Construction company of Lubbock and works out of Amarillo.

Mrs. L. D. Britton is in Port Worth this week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Bell, while on a two week's vacation from her job at Hale's Department store.

George Reuben Hall Funeral Tuesday

Funeral services for George Reuben Hall, 69, were conducted Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the First Methodist church following his death Saturday afternoon in the home of his son, Willard Hall, 508 East Kentucky street. Mr. Hall suffered a stroke of paralysis at 3 o'clock and died about an hour later.

Cecil Tune, pastor of the Methodist church at Meadow, officiated at the services prior to burial in Floydada cemetery. Harmon Funeral home had charge of the arrangements. Born August 6, 1878 in Bledsoe county, Tennessee, Mr. Hall came to Abilene in 1888. In 1904, he moved to Stonewall county and was married to Fannie Adamson May 15 of the same year. The family lived there and Hall was engaged in farming until 1936 when he lost his eyesight. For the past two years, he had made his home here with his son and family.

Mrs. Hall was in Big Spring at the bedside of an ill brother at the time of the death of her husband and was unable to be here for the funeral.

Survivors include the wife, four sons, Willard, of Floydada, J. P. of California, Missouri, and Jack and Virgil; one daughter, Lila Rose Hanson, of Lamesa; three brothers and eight grandchildren.

Palbearers were T. D. Wellmaker, Paul Luttrell, Laymon Garland, W. J. Wilkes, E. C. Bailey, Oran Self.

Examiner Off Duty For His Vacation

Tuesday just went to show that not many of the Floydada people are absent-minded.

It was reported that the drivers' license examiner would be on his vacation until the first Tuesday in August. Not a person showed up Tuesday, demanding their licenses and wondering where that examiner "was at."

The examiner, Milford McMurtrey, is away on his vacation during these two weeks, said Miss Maxine Griffin, Sheriff Hart's office deputy.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Tyler, Betty Jean and Johnny, of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. James P. Huguley, Pat, of Amarillo, spent last Sunday visiting in the home of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McLain and family. Pat Huguley remained to spend the week. Mr. and Mrs. Tyler and family also visited in the home of Mr. Tyler's mother, Mrs. N. E. Tyler.

To My Many Friends

It will be impossible for me to see each of you before election day, but I will appreciate your vote and influence.

I served you two terms in this important office; my records are open for your investigation at any time. In regards to some reports that I bought things with the county's money for my personal use, the commissioner's court records will bear these rumors as false. Everything which is bought with the county's money must be approved by the commissioner's court and your county judge.

If I am elected to this office, I shall work with the people on any road problem, and I shall try to get all of the hard surface roads that is possible within our county. I have had the experience of working with the highway commission at Austin, which is invaluable in the behalf of obtaining more hard surface roads within our county.

I shall cooperate with, and work with, the farmers in connection with the Johnson grass and vine weeds which are in our bar ditches. I am asking for this office, not with the intention of it supporting me, but for the fact that I like this work and feel that I can render a service to the people in the county which has been so good to me and my family. If you feel that I am qualified for this important post, then I shall always be indebted to you for your support.

In closing may I say that I am not running against anyone, or anything, but for the office of Commissioner of Precinct 1.

Sincerely,

W. H. Bill BROCK

To The Voters of Precinct No. Four

During the past several weeks I have made an earnest attempt to see every voter in my precinct and personally solicit your vote for the office of County Commissioner, and if I have overlooked anyone I assure you it was purely unintentional on my part and I take this means of earnestly soliciting your vote and confidence in next Saturday's primary.

spread their gorgeous fans in the sunshine of the island. There were snowy-white peafowls, also. We sat awhile under the shade of a jaborandi tree, sweet with its perfume of purplish-blue flowers. I reached out my hand and touched a blazing red hibiscus, tropical flowers of many bright hues on every side. A bouganvillea vine climbed up a tree and flung purple flowers over itself as if to hide, airplanes buzzed in the blue sky overhead, why couldn't one stay in such a heavenly place forever. But it was almost time for the trip back to the mainland. We went back to the beach, looked in the stores at the many souvenirs, then sat under a shady tree and watched the bay of Avalon, alive with its bathers dancers speed boats, and tourists making all the places they could.

We crowded in line back on the steamer, Catalina. Found a good seat and began to watch for the flying fish. As the boat scared them from the water they would take off above the waves, landing back in the water, some times a distance of three hundred feet, blue bodies and silver wings, glistening from the water. They do not fly, I am told, they sail. We tried to stand out on deck but the cold wind almost took off our heads. Soon the breakwater and the bay at Wilmington, our car and then back to Huntington Beach, boysenberries black and juicy covered with white sugar with cereal for supper, then to bed, but I hated to lose one moment in sleep and wished I could stay awake day and night while on this delightful journey.

We gaped at the pelicans, watched the black swans and caught our breath with delight at the majestic beauty of the many peafowls as they

Vote for T. T. Hamilton for Assessor-Collector of Taxes

The head of a family, a resident of Floyd County for many years, T. T. Hamilton represents the type of citizenship which accepts responsibility without fanfare.

He is the kind that would handle all the intricate details of the most important office, (financially speaking) the county has, with its many and varied funds, its many and varied ways of spreading income and expense, its county funds, school funds, state funds, highway accounts, ad valorem tax, occupation tax, and a score of others, including common school tax funds.

Mr. Hamilton has a back ground of business and professional experience that will be most invaluable to the county if the voters see fit to choose him for the office. He has served in the assessor-collector's office. He has represented himself and other taxpayers at the assessors and collectors window. He knows values. He knows how to meet people and work out the many problems of taxation.

A vote for T. T. Hamilton is a vote for the business administration of your tax affairs in Floyd County. T. T. HAMILTON WILL HANDLE THIS RESPONSIBLE OFFICE IN THE MANNER IT SHOULD BE ADMINISTERED.

Lots of Winners in Handicap Golf Tournament at the Country Club

Lon M. Davis, Jr. was crowned handicap champion of the Country Club Golf Tournament with a net total of 61 for his score, which is 11 under par.

Contestants in the tournament were so good that it really proved a handicap to the people who were giving the prizes. Nearly every place was tied for.

The handicap was played Sunday afternoon, with the amazing advantage of fair weather.

Bill McNeill, Everett Perry, and Dorothy Word tied for second place with scores of 63, nine under par.

Gwen Norman won fourth place with a score of 64.

Bob Hambricht and Troy McNeill tied for fifth place, with scores of 65.

Gene Collins, Kinedr Farris, Billy Stanforth, and Franklin Stovall tied for sixth place, with 66 as their score.

Mark Martin, Ed Johnson, Martha Brown, Margaret Fowler, and Billy Hambricht scored 68's to tie for seventh place.

Ross Alexander, N. B. Stansell, Jim Potts, Gordon Hambricht, and Fred Brown tied for eighth place with scores of 69—three under par.

Others shooting better than par were Aaron Carthel, Alva Sparks, Bill Hambricht, John Kimble, Adelaide Lloyd, and Henry Barber.

Prizes were awarded to the winners of the first eight places.

Good 100-Yard Shot
James Wester won the approaching contest on no. 9 hole when his 100 yard shot landed 15 inches from the cup. Bob Hambricht was second in this event, with his 10 feet and 4 inches from the cup.

Everett Perry's tee shot on No. 2 stopped 5 feet 9 inches from the cup and won that contest. Second was Gordon Hambricht, with a shot of 12 feet 9 inches distance from the hole.

Billy Stanforth fired 41 and 33 equal to 74 to win the prize for the lowest gross score.

Adelaid Lloyd fired a lower gross score than any other lady contestant and won a prize.

Bobby McGuire, who usually drives the ball a mile, won a "blind" prize for the shortest drive off no. 1 tee. His drive measured 9 feet, counting roll, too.

Another "blind" prize was awarded to Frances Stanforth for the highest score on any hole—a sixteen on No. 2.

Mrs. Ben Whitaker left for her home in Big Springs last Friday after visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney.

Will It Rain on the Board?
The outdoor bulletin board has never yet set out, with the exception of one year without being raised on and chances are three to one the board will have been wet before the election party.

Rain 'Christens' Election Board
Cotton-making rain hit in Floydada last night before the second coat of slate could dry on The Hesperian's big election board, carrying on the saga that rain must fall before a successful election party.

Usually the rain hits Friday night. It was 48 hours early this year.

The carpenters barely got time in the dry southwest wind and heat of mid-July to put the boards together and the management scurried R. H. Willis around to get a nice young man to put on some slate. Just barely in time.

The newsman got his story in type about how it usually rained on the board but rarely rained out an election party.

Then the clouds thickened, the lightning crackled, the thunder roared. It rained quite considerably. 5 of an inch rain gauge showed. A right sharp shower, as Charles Massie would say.

Cotton Crop - - -

They move in from weeded areas and wheat stubble and a reasonably good control can be had by dusting with a mixture of 10% wettable DDT and 75% sulphur.

Most cotton insects can be killed with some DDT sulphur mixture applied at the rate of 10 to 15 pounds per acre.

The county agent suggested that cotton flea-hopper damage can be prevented by dusting early in the fruiting season. The cotton-flea hopper is a "gray-green hopper-like" insect which has bulging eyes similar to those of the grasshopper. They are about 1 1/2 of an inch long.

Found in the terminal buds of cotton plants, this is where it does most of its damage of punching the tiny squares which fall before they are as large as a lead pencil in diameter.

It was pointed out that the earliest crop of bolls is the best paying cotton and all cotton producers should examine their fields thoroughly at three-day intervals by walking across the field and counting hoppers found on about 100 widely scattered plants. If as many as 25 hoppers are counted flying from or found in the plants, infestation is reaching dangerous stages and the cotton should be dusted promptly.

The Voters of Floyd County:—

Since it has been necessary for me to continue to support myself while campaigning for District Clerk, I have not been able to call on many of you, but I use this means of introducing myself to those of whom I have not had the privilege of meeting.

At present I am employed in the County Clerk's office. I was reared near Lockney, the daughter of late C. P. McPherson and wife, have lived in Floyd County practically all my life, am 26 years of age, and am married.

After graduating from Lockney High School, I completed a business course in Lubbock, and for the next seven years, I have been employed in Floydada. During that time I have worked in the National Farm Association office, the Tax Collector's office, County Agent's office, and for more than a year as Deputy County Clerk. All of my office work has been clerical, chiefly concerned with public relations, and this experience would be of value in the management of the District Clerk's office; especially in the duties of which closely resemble those of the District Clerk's office. If I am elected, I intend to devote all time and energies to the office.

Your consideration will be appreciated.
Respectfully,
MARY LOUISE McPHERSON

If you are a Democrat and will remember that Saturday, July 24, is the day for the meeting of your precinct convention and be there, you will have less to complain about on July 31 when the county convention is held and later in September when the party's state convention is held. The Republicans hold forth on the same days and dates, of course. Whatever your judgment or opinion is on the political situation can best be expressed by a vote in the precinct convention. The more votes in these conventions the more likelihood of the state's electorate getting their will done in the later and larger ones. Most people who complain about what "they" are doing to us in the higher brackets will admit to you they never attended a precinct convention, never took the trouble to find out where their precinct convention was to be held, and do not intend to be present next Saturday. These people, for some reason that can be explained by a psychologist no doubt, prefer to let such things slide by and then complain about the bosses running things. In a county like Floyd a court house full of people at a county convention was never heard of. It is probably the same over most of Texas. But sometime in August begin to listen at the man on the street talking so convincingly of how crooked politics is. He doesn't know a thing, doesn't want to know. It would be too much trouble. He just wants to mouth.

We have been convinced for sometime that when a candidate goes to making charges against his political foes that he should have to put up something, should have to answer personally, some kind of a hostage that would force him to be answerable for his utterances. As it stands now by common usage and consent a man can march up and down the land uttering charges that are calculated to be ruinous to a man's reputation among his fellow men and never a mite of responsibility. Most times these scurrilous things have a mite of truth about them. By repetition and re-statement and revised versions of the same half-truth, the opponent often is put on the defensive and instead of running for office has to stomp the country trying to defend his reputation and keep his family from being smeared with the ignominy of a charge that is both cruel and unfair. People should learn to beware of these smears. Seems like surely enough of them have been carried on in Texas until the voters would know better. However, people seem to like to seize upon such things and fatten their spleen in this manner. Many a pretty good man has been ruined by the fact that, in a fateful moment, he decided to offer himself for public office.

The civil rights program which the Democratic leaders and the Republican leaders are agreed to have fastened on the country by federal statute, has a good many people behind it who have good intentions. We wouldn't want to impugn their motives. They are going to make the people in southern states treat the colored folks right. The down-to-earth truth is, and the negroes know it, most of them, that about the cruelest most impersonal race discrimination in the world, is practiced in communities such as Harriet Beecher Stowe was reared in, in all the big cities of the north. Detroit, for instance, is a powder keg of racial hatred that could not be imagined by Floyd county colored people, nor the whites, either, for that matter, unless they knew. By and large when two races live side by side, intermingling like in Texas there is bound to be and is going to be some unfair, some cruel things done by the majority group. The extreme criticisms leveled against the whites of the south by the northern people has served the purpose, however, of making the Caucasians more self-searching of their attitude toward the negroes. But don't think a federal statute will do the trick. All a federal statute will do will be to fasten federal control more and more over the states—serving to take the people's constitutional rights away from them to govern themselves. Government throughout the pages of history has crammed itself down the throats of the people. What there is about human nature that makes us refuse to see such plain warning in the history books against federal encroachment on the personal lives of the citizenship is a matter that cannot be satisfactorily explained in the light of pure reason. The hot heads and the silly ones seem to take over and great and good men go off their balance. They refuse to see that two mountains do not make a hole in the ground. One does not have to defend unfairness, racial discrimination, segregation or any of those things, right or wrong, to be right in opposing sturdily as a stout heart will permit this devilish thing of the government taking over what the people reserved to themselves when the country was founded. Assuming that the people of Texas are going to be mean to the people of the colored race, as these proposals do assume, they'll also be mean to them in Pennsylvania and Connecticut and wherever the races commingle. But the whites won't be as mean to the colored races as the federal government will be to the whites and the coloreds both, if you get what we mean.

FAVORS FRENCH DAMSELS OVER AMERICAN GIRLS

Johnny Graves, George Washington University sophomore, created a furor among the co-eds by declaring: "French girls are more cultured than American girls. They never ask whether or not you have a car, what night club you can afford, how much can you spend. They go walking, cycling, riding with you, and then take you home and get the old man to open up the best bottle of wine in the house. Imagine American girls doing that!"—Pathfinder.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

Because of the necessity of taking care of the official duties of the Sheriff's office, it has not been possible for me to make a house-to-house canvas nor to see all the voters. I realize my first obligation to the citizens of Floyd County is to perform the Sheriff's job to the very best of my ability even if it means I cannot electioneer at all. I have done my best to fulfill that obligation ever since I took over the office some 18 months ago, and as long as I hold the office that obligation shall be uppermost in my mind.

I am a candidate now for my Second Term as your Sheriff, and I am running on the record I have made in that office. I invite your investigation of that record. I have tried at all times to make you a vigorous but fair law enforcement officer. That was my pledge to the citizens of Floyd County two years ago when I returned from the Army and ran for the office, and that is still my pledge to you.

If you feel the service I have rendered merits a Second Term in the office, I will appreciate your help and your votes.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT CENTURY OLD—WAS PLAGUED BY MANY OBSTACLES

One hundred years old this summer, the Washington Monument honoring the Father of our country, was one of the most completely kicked-around projects in the history of the United States.

Little known facts about the monument which costs a total of about $1,500,000 are contained in an article in the July issue of Cosmopolitan magazine.

Originally proposed two years after the end of the revolutionary war, the project was first opposed by President Washington himself. There followed a series of setbacks which delayed the completion of the monument until July 4, 1848, just a century ago.

"Although the Washington Monument today is one of America's most popular attractions, few of the 22,000,000 persons who have visited it know its stormy past and interesting present. The slim, white shaft has been subject to such a barrage of Congressional penny-pinching, religious squabbles and architectural changes that it's a wonder the memorial to our first president was ever started, let alone finished. As one historian has said: "The Washington Monument is as American as football—and has been kicked around almost as much."

Fifty years after Congress made the original gesture toward the construction of a monument, the Washington National Monument Society was formed to raise $1,000,000 by popular subscription. After sixteen years it had raised only $87,000.

Alabama citizens made the first real start toward building the monument when a group offered, in lieu of a cash contribution, to quarry, cut and dress a stone for the memorial. The idea caught on throughout the world, according to the article.

One block of marble, from the Temple of Concord at Rome, was donated by Pope Pius IX and inscribed with the words "From Rome to Washington." Members of the "Know-Nothing" Party protested the gift and when their objections were ignored, overpowered the monument watchman, and stole the "Pope's Stone" which was never again seen.

The Washington Monument remains the tallest masonry structure in the world, measuring a little over 555 feet in height and 55 feet square at the base.

The only near-accident in construction occurred when a black cat made its way to the 153-foot level in 1856 and jumped off as a watchman tried to rescue her. She landed unhurt and scampered away.

DOWN PHASE OF THE CYCLE

There has been a long-time upward trend in the United States in the production per breeding unit of livestock, says a U. S. Department of Agriculture report by Glen T. Barton and Martin R. Cooper of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. In the present situation, however, the meat supply is restricted because there are fewer breeding units, they explain.

"Livestock production per breeding unit did not rise as much during World War II as did crop production per acre. There was a large increase in the number of breeding units, however, in contrast with a relative stability in cropland acreage. Livestock production per breeding unit in the last two years has been slightly below the relatively high level of 1945. More significant, however, has been the rapid decline in number of breeding units. We are on the downward phase of the cattle and hog cycles. The short corn crop in 1947 has also contributed to the decrease in numbers of breeding livestock."

IMPROVING ON WINTER

Freezing is one of the oldest ways of preserving meat. It is also one of the newest, the U. S. Department of Agriculture points out.

In old-time freezing there was not much that could be done about the process. It was a winter method and depended on continued cold. A mid-winter or early-spring thaw might spoil a meat supply intended to last for additional weeks or months. This was true whether the meat was wild game brought in by hunters, or was from domestic animals.

Modern freezing is still so new that there is a good deal to be learned about it—and done about it.

This is the purpose of an expansion of studies of meat freezing and curing made possible under the Research and Marketing Act. O. G. Hankins of the Bureau of Animal Industry has outlined the projected study. A first step will be to survey freezing and curing methods now in use. Samples of meats typical of these methods of preservation will be assembled and compared for quality and nutritive value. Next, the experimenters will try first to duplicate then improve the methods which the survey and comparison work indicate are most effective.

The Bureau of Animal Industry will have equipment that can improve on even the most severe winter weather. It will be able to freeze meat at 100 degrees below zero if that proves desirable. It will be able to store frozen meat with no danger of thawing.

"This project," says Hankins, "provides an excellent opportunity not only to develop information of great practical value, but to uncover facts of basic scientific significance."

Wonderful Trip Recounted By J. W. Chapman

A wonderful trip which they completed only last week is told about to The Hesperian by J. W. Chapman, of Lubbock, who says that he and his wife and two daughters, June and Nelda, are still dreaming about a 26-day vacation that took them through 13 states from Texas to the Pacific northwest in 5,966 miles.

Mr. Chapman said he and the wife and daughters went to lots and lots of places they had been reading about all of these years, had little or no tire or automobile trouble, just took their time, had pretty weather, stopped when they wanted to stop, and traveled on as their fancy demanded. Their longest day's travel was 400 miles and they enjoyed nice to delightful accommodations wherever they went.

"I couldn't resist calling The Hesperian on the phone and telling our Floyd county friends what a good time we had," said Mr. Chapman, who called the latter part of last week from his office in Lubbock, where the family now make their home.

Grand Canyon, of Course
Enroute westward the Chapmans journeyed and Grand Canyon in Arizona was the first objective, as it is on so many such jaunts. Thence to Hoover dam they went, and on to Los Angeles and a 400-mile jump to San Francisco; on north to Portland, Seattle, and across the national boundary line into Canada to Victoria, B. C., city of beautiful flowers.

Turning back at the west coast Canadian city they saw the tremendous Grand Coulee dam, the immensity of which Mr. Chapman declares no words can describe. As far as the eye could see, almost literally speaking, the water flowed 18 feet deep over that majestic engineer's dream of power and water development. Then Yellowstone park, of course, and Salt Lake City, where you can't sink in the salt water (and they swam in it) and on to Denver and Colorado Springs and Pike's Peak. Meanwhile there had been Mt. Rainier for comparison.

Because they took their time, saw what they wanted to see, and passed up what they were not interested in, the Chapmans got home rested, delightfully pleased, and wishing their friends could know

Kids Vote Monkeyshines Chief Accident Cause

Why do teen-agers figure in more auto accidents than any other age group? Inexperience? Carelessness? In cooperation with leading high schools the Chevrolet Motor Division sought the answer from the youngsters themselves. By wide margins some 10,000 students voted speeding and clowning as their worst driving sins. Shenanigans like the one in the Chevrolet cabriolet above are an illustration. Look, Ma, no hands! Conservation District News

W. T. Rankin of the Lone Star community was in the District office checking on planting vetch. He has 60 acres of wheatland that he expects to plant in vetch. Mr. Rankin wants to improve the soil fertility on this land. The vetch will be plowed under in the early spring and the land planted to cotton. This is a little different way of planting vetch as more is planted in growing cotton and sorghum.

The Soil Conservation Service technicians assigned to the Floyd County Soil Conservation district ran three ridge ditches on row crop land for B. A. Robertson of Barwise last week.

National Farm Safety week, July 25 thru 31, 1948 has been proclaimed by the President. "Safety Pays." Most large companies have reduced their accident rate by rigid safety programs. The Soil Conservation Service lost time injury rate in 1936 was 28.00 lost time injuries per million man hours worked and in 1947 it had been reduced to 4.90 lost time injuries per million hours worked. People can be taught to remove or guard against hazards before an accident happens. The National Safety Council is sending material to rural weekly newspapers and farm magazines. There will be radio programs. National farm safety posters will be placed where the largest number of farm people may see and read them.

Operation Seen Success For Evylena Smith

Two weeks ago in a delicate operation was performed the heart organs of 10-year-old Evylena Smith, daughter of Mrs. Ben Smith of Jal, N.M. She arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, at Lockney, for a return to her home. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Goins, of Floydada.

She had a fibrous growth near the heart which had all but closed the artery that supplies blood to the heart.

At Children's Hospital in Dallas she succeeded in cutting out the growth and rejoining the artery. It was the first such operation in Texas and among the best of its kind ever performed in the United States.

Physicians called Evylena's operation a "miraculous" feat.

About eight inches from the heart, the walls of the big main artery grew thicker. The blood channel which ordinarily is as large as the little finger narrowed to a tiny jet.

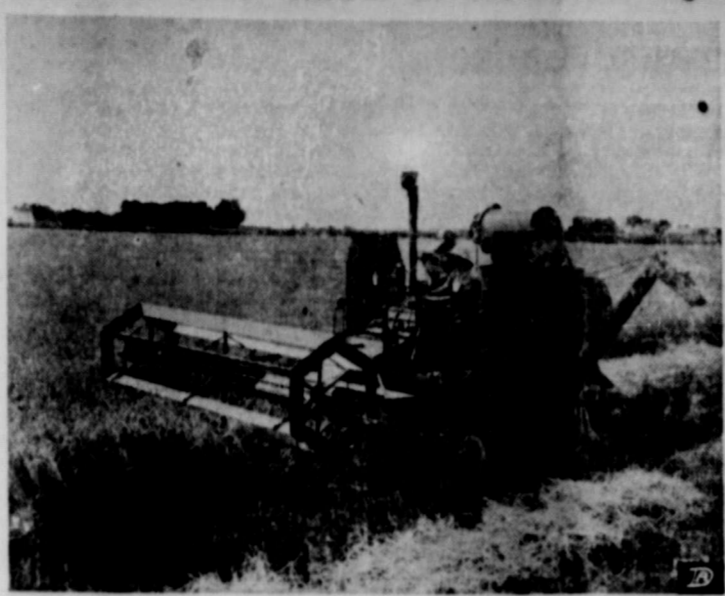

The surgeons first had to open the chest cavity. Then a lung was collapsed so they could get at the blood vessel. In all, Evylena was on the operating table 6 hours and 50 minutes with the crucial part of the operation coming at the last.

Two clamps had been placed on the aorta while the surgeons cut and sewed. The delicate sewing job was likely to be torn out by the rush of blood when the clamps were removed, but seven hours after the operation started, the surgeons removed the clamps and the stitches held. It was a successful operation and once more surgeons proved they can do a good many things that previously had been believed impossible.

Mrs. Thornton was in Dallas following her granddaughter's operation. Evylena had very little ill effects from the operation and was up and about within a week. However, she will have to take it easy for several months while nature completes the strengthening of the big artery. The physicians say she will be able to resume normal activities in about three months.

Combines Meet Threat of Storm Damage

WICHITA, KAS.—Recent heavy rains, which caused flash floods over wide areas, have seriously threatened the wheat harvest in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Nebraska. Kansas was hardest hit with estimated damage of $100,000 here when a tornado dipped to the ground. The self-propelled combine, above, a one-man machine, is a big factor in cutting losses by the rains, because it works faster, thus taking full advantage of breaks in the weather and because it is designed to skim the ground, thus saving grain which has been beaten down and tangled by storms.

The self-propelled combine, since its mass demonstration in the Massey-Harris harvest brigade during the critical harvest years of 1944-45, is the rule today wherever wheat is grown. It can harvest 50 acres of wheat in a 10-hour day.

Stevenson Thinks He May Win Senate In First Primary

Coke Stevenson this week is ending his first primary campaign for the United States Senate on the same note he struck when he announced his candidacy on January 1.

The former Governor said, in announcing, that he would offer no political platform because of his belief that "political promises are not worth much of anything." He has campaigned in a light automobile, which does not even bear so much as a windshield sticker or a placard. He has made no stump speeches.

"I've made a great many talks before organizations which extended me an invitation," Stevenson said. "Besides the people I've addressed at such meetings, I estimate that I have talked personally with 250,000 Texas men and women since I announced for the Senate."

Stevenson has a theory that a candidate for office can learn more by listening to the people than by lecturing them or trying to tell them what they ought to think and do.

His campaign methods apparently have been effective. Three successive statewide polls of public opinion have shown Stevenson far in the lead in the United States Senate race. He predicts that he will get a majority of the votes on Saturday and that no runoff will be necessary.

John A. Rawlins Has History Like Horatio Alger Story

DALLAS, July.—Judge John A. Rawlins of Dallas, candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme court of Texas, has a life history like an Horatio Alger story. He was born 53 years ago on a farm near Lancaster. His father was the son of a Christian minister.

Judge Rawlins was named for his two grandfathers, John Rawlins and Allen Holloman. His grandfather, John M. Rawlins, was a cousin of Gen. John A. Rawlins, who was chief of staff for Gen. U. S. Grant, and later became secretary of war. Which accounts for the fact that bears the name of John A. Rawlins, one of Uncle Sam's battleships.

Judge Rawlins was salutatorian of his Lancaster High School graduating class, went to TCU on a scholarship, earned a B. A. Degree. Two years later, he entered Texas University, where he worked his way through law school. While at the university he was president of the glee club, manager of the band, and sang in Chautauqua, a choral group.

Active in civic affairs, Judge Rawlins has been president of the District and Appellate Judges Association, and chairman of the board of directors of the State Bar. He declined re-election as president of the Ex-Student's Association of TCU to become a candidate for the Supreme Court bench. Judge Rawlins has three children, John Jr. 20, Billy 15, and Mary Jane, 12. His wife is the former Miss Virginia Holt of Waco.

Anti-Jester Victory Sure, Says Evans

AUSTIN, July.—Roger Q. Evans, anti-Jester candidate for governor, claimed victory at the primary polls as the last week of the campaign opened. He forecast his victory in the primary, declaring that on the basis of polls taken in every section of the state, he would receive between 55 and 60 percent of the total vote cast in the race for governor.

"These polls, which have been taken in every section of the state, indicate a sweeping Roger Q. Evans victory on Saturday," the Denison legislator said. "The manner of taking these polls, the first of which was taken five weeks ago, gave a true cross section of the voting preferences of the citizens of Texas."

PLAINVIEW, July 17.—George Zoller, Texas Tech tackle for four years, has accepted line coaching duties for Plainview High School football. Head Coach W. C. O. Harris announced Saturday. Zoller succeeds J. G. Munday who is now line coach at Schreiner Institute.

Doing Rapid Work On Big Four Road

CROSBYTON, July—Work is progressing rapidly this week on grading and drainage structures for the new farm-to-market highway running six miles north of this city to the Big Four schoolhouse. This part of the job will be completed in the near future. Lafon Construction company, of Lubbock, is sub-contractor on the job.

A section of the road has already been prepared to receive the caliche base, and hauling of the caliche is expected to start soon. The contractor has 90 days in which to complete the project.

The Big Four road will be wider than the one running south of the city with a 20-foot base and an 18 foot asphalt strip. The Highway department plans to join this road in the future with the Floyd county road from Floydada to the Lakeview community. This latter road is being completed this week.

ELECTRIFIED SMOKING

Planning to build a smokehouse? It can be electrified, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture and that means more than just an electric light, the Rural Electrification Administration points out.

Down in Southside Virginia, where Virginia ham is more than just a name, three cooperative cold storage plants also engage in slaughtering--both custom and for their members-- as a supplemental activity. They dress out the meat and when requested to do so, they cure it. When the "smoking" stage is reached, there's no need to wait for a rainy day to prevent a fire that might destroy building and meat, too. The "smokehouse" is a room in a modern, fire-proof building. Also, the smoking is accomplished by means of hickory sawdust spread over an electric grid fitted into a container quite similar to the ash box of an old fashioned kitchen range. It is reached in the same way--from the outside through a small door in the wall of the building, near which hickory sawdust is stockpiled.

Smoking meat this way is said to assure a uniform flavor, and to take less time than by the old way. It is easy to adapt the idea to farm or village needs.

Priceless Relics Housed in Museum

When the second unit of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum is completed, it will house the largest collection of Indian artifacts in the Plains region of the West. In the additional space, these exhibits are adequately displayed for the first time, according to Boone McClure, museum director. The collections are many and varied. Perhaps the most outstanding are the contributions of Susan J. Allen, Dr. R. Goettsch, E. E. Dowden, and Anna W. Dove. As a memorial to her parents, Miss Allen of Pennsylvania, who spent many years collecting artifacts of American Indian culture as well as articles of historical interest from all quarters of the globe, gave this collection to the museum. Included are more than 250 Pomo Indian baskets, 50 pieces of Apache bead work, more than 30 Navajo blankets, many of them priceless, and more than 100 articles of hand-tooled silver from the Navajo, Hopi and other tribes. Of special interest in the group is the blanket taken from Chief Geronimo of the Apache when he was taken prisoner by the United States Army. One of the most unusual items in the entire collection is a squaw pipe with a braided porcupine quill covering on the stem. Dr. Goettsch was for many years a frontier dentist, having contact and association with the Plains Indians from the Dakotas to the Red River. His collection numbers approximately 100 articles including an outstanding item, a "trail pipe" made from the leg-bone of a deer and occasionally used by the Indians in their rituals on the trail, when a larger peace pipe was not available. Also included are articles of clothing, jewelry and tools of the Cheyennes.

The E. E. Dowden collection consists largely of Comanche Indian relics. It includes the personal effects of Quanah Parker and his wives. A papoose cradle, belonging to one of the wives, is of unusual interest. A lock of papoose hair is still attached to the cradle, as a token of friendship between Mr. Dowden and the Comanches.

According to tradition, Quanah Parker had six wives, and each of them was represented with a star placed above his living quarters. An Indian agent informed Parker that according to law he would be permitted to have only one wife, and advised him to choose one from among the six and inform the others of his choice. Parker is reported to have taken the matter under consideration for a short time. Then turning to the agent, he said, "You tell them."

Received most recently is the Anna W. Dove collection which is valued at several thousand dollars. It was previously exhibited at the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts, and was removed by the owner to be added to the Indian exhibits of the Panhandle-Plains Museum.

Valuable in this group is the Navajo Germantown Indian Blanket which is estimated to be worth $1,000. The blanket measures five by seven feet and is of the bright colors found in most Indian weaving. There are papoose cradles from the Omaha, Sioux and Ute tribes.

Susan J. Allen, in recognition of her splendid contribution to the museum, has been named by the board of directors, as one of the benefactors of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Truth may be stranger than fiction, but it isn't nearly so marketable.

It is as hard for a rich man to enter heaven as it is for a poor man to live on earth.

LOUISIANA'S GOVERNOR INCREASES TAX BURDEN

After only two months as Louisiana's Governor, Earl Long was playing his late brother Huey's favorite game like an expert: taxing the poor to pay the poor, according to Pathfinder.

In the first week of Earl's new beer tax ($10 a barrel), brew-bidding dropped 30 per cent as poor men went dry to help pay $60,000,000 in veterans' bonuses.

The state sales tax went up from 1 per cent to 2 per cent. Equally fearsome was a new 9 cent-per-gallon gasoline tax, levied to help pay for $50 - $80 monthly old age pensions, hospitalization and school lunches. About the only poor man tax Long hadn't raised was the one on cigarettes: He hoped to jack that soon to 8 cents a pack.

Texas Offered Federal Gov't a Big Bargain

Austin, July—Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, said today that the proceeds from the July School Land Sale helped swell the permanent education funds to $50,000,000 for the fiscal year.

This tremendous flood of money into these funds exceeds by five times the largest amount heretofore received for a similar period of operation by any former commissioner, Giles said.

The higher education fund and the public school permanent fund have now reached a total of $125,000,000.

The Land Office added an additional $1,144,184.00 resulting from the sale of 210,000 acres located in 68 counties. Only 30 tracts totaling 15,000 acres located in Presidio, Reeves and El Paso Counties failed to receive bids. The amount bid per acre doubled that for any previous sale.

Commissioner Giles pointed out, by way of contrast, that when Texas made its bid to enter the Union, it unsuccessfully offered its entire public domain to the Federal Government for $13,000,000. Now a small fraction of those same lands are bringing in over $14,000,000.00 annually from oil and gas royalties alone for public education.

WHY CAN'T THE PEOPLE KNOW HOW GRANTS, DETERMINED FOR OLD AGE ASSISTANCE?

Editor of The Hesperian: Why can't the people know how Texas old-age pension system is handled? Why can't they be told how grants are determined? Why are we not told how Federal grants are prorated?

Two years ago the Federal Government increased its portion $5.00 a month per person. It was generally understood that it was $5.00 a month increase for all recipients, regardless of amount already received.

But it was not prorated that way. Many who were already receiving the maximum of $40.00 a month were promptly given $5.00 a month raise, bringing their grant to the new maximum of $45.00 a month. A few others received small increases, but a great many received no increase at all. Why was the Federal increase juggled in that manner?

The 80th Congress has just increased the Federal grant by another $5.00 a month. How is that increase to be prorated? Again it is generally understood to be $5.00 a month increase for all, straight across the board.

But you can't find out anything about it. The State Welfare Department is as silent as the tomb. They won't tell you a word, except that it is not for ALL recipients. Is it again to be juggled, as was the former increase, and those receiving $45.00 a month to be boosted to $50.00, and the tens of thousands receiving less than the maximum, to get only a small raise, or none at all?

SIGNING UP FOR SPARE-TIME STUDY—Army personnel at Ft. More than 8,000 members of the armed services enroll each month for self-teaching and correspondence study courses.

Is there any law against the people knowing something about the handling of their affairs? Are the old people being gyped out of what is granted them by their Government? Why keep it such a deep secret? If there is nothing to hide, why not lift the "iron curtain" and let the citizens of Texas know what is going on at Austin?
