Wheat Insurance Put in Motion

Already established in their new office over the First National Bank, Messrs. Nelson V. Little and Laurence Wilde are now ready to serve Floyd county in all matters concerning crop insurance.

The government, through the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, is offering farmers in 13 counties in the state the new experimental wheat crop insurance for the 1949 crop year. Mr. Little, district supervisor for the corporation, advises that the following counties in West Texas are being offered the new insurance: Deaf Smith, Castro, Swisher, Floyd, Hale, Knox, Jones, Taylor, and Runnels.

The new insurance is radically different from that type offered in the past. It still covers all unavoidable hazards however. The insurance is an investment insurance and insures a farmer that he will make the "out of pocket" costs for seeding the crop.

Premium Rates Reduced
The premium rates are greatly reduced because the new insurance covers only the investment in the crop. The rates being charged in the various counties are less than one third of that charged for the old type of wheat insurance. The rate in the above counties runs from 70 cents an acre in Knox county to a maximum of $1.15 per acre in Swisher county.

Floyd county premium rates are a maximum of 85c.
In Taylor and Runnels county they have a different type of program which is known as "yield insurance." The other counties named have "dollar coverage" insurance.

The premium rate for each farm will be automatically reduced 1% for each 50 acres of wheat planted except for the first 25 acres. Also, it can be reduced another 5% by paying the premium before Feb. 28, 1949. The premium doesn't come due however until harvest time. In other words, a farmer can insure his wheat crop and not pay for the protection until the wheat crop is harvested. The new contract will not be a three year contract. It can be cancelled for the 1950 crop year if the farmer cancels it before April 30, 1949.

August 31, 1948, is the last day for accepting applications for this new insurance. The program will not be in effect in any county unless that county has applications covering 200 units.

Extensions To Mail Delivery Area in City

Upon recommendation of the local postmaster, the Post Office department has this week authorized the extension of city delivery in Floydada to 25 additional blocks; namely, West Lee Street, Andrews Ward school, one block on South Wall, 1/2 block on South Main, the 100 block on West Marivena, the 300 block on East Houston, the 400 block on West Georgia, and New Home addition on West California, Mississippi, Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia.

Services will be given this new territory when the residents have their houses numbered, mail receptacles provided, and a satisfactory walk leading from the street to the front entrance of dwellings. Walks of any material, including gravel and cinders, that render them passable throughout the year are acceptable.

Mrs. Barbara H. Smith, postmaster, said this week she was very happy to be able to obtain the delivery service for the residents on the blocks indicated.

Giant Power of New Diesel Put to Work

With effortless power, the new light plant's gas-diesel Cooper-Bessmer engine throbbed and churned into motion yesterday for the first day of use.

The three smaller machines were still running, but not carrying any load late yesterday. Things went according to schedule, and the large new engine is carrying the entire load today for the first time. Although it was turned off last night for a checkup, it will run a 24 hour shift from now on. It nearly doubles the amount of power available in Floydada.

Plans are underway for a large open house, with prizes already arriving at the city hall in large boxes marked "Open Houses." There are many minor repairs to be made on the building before the open house can be held, however, so the public must wait awhile longer.

Clarence the Peeper Is Jailed

A window-peeper, known simply as "Clarence", roams Floydada no more, after he confessed that he has been consistently peeping under our window shades since 1940.

In Plainview one night, while he peeped in a lady's house in one window, she peeped out at him from another window. By the time poor Clarence realized what was happening, the police were on their way and he had to drive right past the lady to get away. The watchful lady took his license number. In this way, the Plainview police were already on the lookout for his car and were not greatly surprised that he was window-peeping in Floydada the night he was caught.

His unlucky night in Floydada was really rough. He parked his car on the highway so as not to disturb anyone. Then he gazed in the windows of Alpha Booth and Jim Willson, Jr. for awhile. Later he wandered over to Everett Perry's house, where the dog promptly made him decide to wander on. He peeped in another house along that same street that night, but the authorities were unable to decide who lived there from his description of the house.

While Clarence was busily doing all of this, two highway patrol cars were driving down the highway when they saw his car. Plainview quickly confirmed the license and when Clarence came back to his car, both the highway patrol and City Marshall Bob Smith were waiting for him.

Calvary Baptist New Church at 2nd and Grover

Interested persons have devoted their time, energy and financial support to the building of the Calvary Baptist church located on the corner of Second and Grover streets in northwest Floydada. Started two weeks ago, the church was near completion enough to conduct services in it Sunday. Sunday school was held Sunday morning with 52 present.

The church will be officially organized on August 8 at 3 o'clock at which time the congregation will meet and elect a superintendent and other necessary officers. Until that time, services will be held with different persons filling the positions.

Rev. J. T. Bilbey is pastor of the new church. He asked The Hesperian to extend a cordial invitation to those that are not attending church elsewhere to come to the services. Rev. Bilbey stated that thanks should be extended to the members of the First Baptist church for their cooperation, donations and the fine spirit that they have shown in behalf of the new work.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were called over there last Saturday morning, and Mrs. McDonald stayed until Monday night, came home for two days, and is now again at Lubbock.

How Prct., Co. Candidates Ran In 1st Primary

Revised and corrected figures for all races in the county and precinct, including those unopposed are given below, as taken from the unofficial reports.

Of several changes which the corrections show, that the unopposed Enos T. Jones for county attorney, indicates that far from failing to get votes from the electors who did not know him, the Baylor law man was second high on the ticket. The figures compiled and reported by The Hesperian were badly in error for this candidate as were the votes reported for Margaret Collier, county clerk, running unopposed. None of the figures given, however, were contrary to the final result.

In the unopposed column W. D. Newell for county surveyor again led the ticket for number of votes received with 3291.

Candidates Who Were Elected
Candidates who had clear majorities and get the nominations for their respective offices and are expected to be certified Saturday morning by the county committee are:
For County attorney: Enos T. Jones;
For Sheriff: Leland A. Hart;
For District Clerk: Mary L. McPherson;
For County Clerk: Margaret Collier;
For County Treasurer: Mrs. Sam A. Spence;
For County School Superintendent: Clarence A. Guffee;
For County Surveyor: W. D. Newell;

Counts to Run Unopposed
In the race for commissioner of Precinct No. 2 the name of W. H. Counts will appear on the ticket without an opposing candidate, Bert Bobbitt, second man in this race having issued a statement that he is withdrawing in favor of Counts. Since the county committee adopted a majority rule it will be necessary for Counts' name to appear on the majority ballot.

Other county and precinct offices for which there will be a run off are:
In the county judge's race in which G. C. Tubbs and Tom W. Deen will be opposed;
In the race for assessor-collector (See COUNTY VOTE back page)

Rev. Vernon Shaw Revival Minister at Baptist Church

Summer revival at the First Baptist church began with the Sunday morning service, preached by Rev. I. A. Doyle due to the fact that the guest preacher didn't arrive until Monday afternoon.

Rev. Vernon Shaw, pastor of the Floydada church, prior to the Doyle's coming here in 1941, is still widely known among the congregation. He is preaching for the revival. His home is at Kerrville.

It was decided not to have services Monday morning because Rev. Shaw could not be here. As a result, services will be held Saturday morning at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. Both Rev. Shaw and Virgil Mott, educational director of the First Baptist church in Pampa, arrived Monday afternoon. Mott is the same singer who was in Floydada during the revival last summer. The speakers have been invited to numerous Floydada homes for dinner after their sermons as the church members attempt to show their appreciation.

Goodnight No. 17: Webb Taylor;
West Lockney No. 18: T. B. Mitchell;

This week the probability that Floyd county Democrats, in their convention Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock will vote to send a delegation to the state convention with iron clad instructions to vote for Harry S. Truman electors "and no one else," was indicated in preliminary information.

At least two precincts have elected delegates with this plain directive on how to vote in the county convention. These are Southwest Floydada with 23 votes in the county convention and North West Floydada No. 19 with nine votes in the convention.

Seven Votes at Fort Worth
The state Democratic convention will be held in Fort Worth on September 14, following the meeting of the state committee on the previous day, when count will be made on the August run-off vote and the results declared.

Floyd county will be entitled to seven votes in the Fort Worth convention. The number of delegates and alternates which can be seated from this county has not been indicated. Seating capacity is due to govern to some extent in this connection, it has been indicated.

Three Floyd county precincts only, had indicated this mid-week that precinct conventions were held Saturday. In two of these, delegates were instructed to vote in the county convention to instruct the county delegation to the state convention "to vote only for those persons for presidential electors who pledge themselves to vote as such electors for Harry S. Truman and no one else."

The two precincts sending delegations to the county convention instructed for Truman were Southwest Floydada No. 1 and northwest Floydada No. 19. At Baker precinct convention, Geo. L. Fawcett, precinct chairman, is to name a delegation of three. No resolutions were adopted at this convention.

Ralph Johnston served as chairman in Precinct No. 1, with John B. Stapleton secretary. The following delegates to the county convention were named: O. B. Olson, W. J. Waller, Ralph Johnston, R. D. Smith, John Stapleton, A. C. Goen, Walter Collins and C. A. Boothe. In Precinct No. 19, R. F. Stovall was elected chairman and Alton B. Chapman secretary. Jess Wood, W. E. Grimes, R. F. Stovall, J. C. Wester and Alton B. Chapman were named delegates to the county convention.

Three-County Draft Board

A three-county board that will serve Hale, Floyd and Motley counties in the peace-time draft, was announced in the press yesterday at the same time that draft board areas were given out for the whole state. The board is indicated as having headquarters at Plainview, and the membership to be composed of J. M. Wilson of Floydada, J. D. Lockhart of Plainview and D. E. Pitts of Matador.

Corbin and Parrish In Senate Run-Off

With 23 of 24 counties complete, and only three small boxes in Kent county with an estimated 50 votes in all not reported, it appeared certain yesterday, on the face of unofficial count, that Kilmer B. Corbin of Lamesa and incumbent Sterling J. Parrish, will be in the runoff for state senator of the 30th district. This is according to figures supplied by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal at 4 o'clock, as follows:
Corbin 17,341; Parrish 15,932; Brock 15,117; Brummett 11,954. Parrish is the incumbent and resident of Lubbock. The two losing candidates also live in that city.

QA&P Resumed Passenger on Route Tuesday

Resumption of passenger train service into Floydada over the Quanah Route, with connections into Oklahoma City and St. Louis, was resumed Tuesday morning when Passenger No. 1 rolled in to the Quanah depot at 9:15.

Schedule calls for arrival from Quanah at 9:15 a. m. and departure from Floydada at 10:15 a. m. Schedules were met promptly. It is a good train and will have a full complement of mail and express service as well as passenger service, Robert Medlen, local agent, said. The passenger was discontinued during the earlier years of the war, without dissent from local business interests, for the purpose of conserving manpower, fuel and facilities, it was said at the time. Resumption of the service was made without formal demand. Passenger and mail service had been furnished by local freight. With heavy tonnage over the line the past year the service had been quite erratic so far as time tables were concerned.

1600-Pound Bull Drowns in Bar Pit

Story of a 1600-pound bull drowning on a plains farm in Floyd county is one of the oddities of the week, and an expensive one to Lyndale Dairy farm.

Geo. B. McAllister, manager of the business, said the bull a four-year-old registered animal, and a younger bull were scuffling in ground being pastured adjacent to a narrow bar pit. The big bull tripped over the fence as the younger made a pass at him and landed in water in the bar pit with his feet in the air. The pit was so narrow the animal couldn't turn over. "He just lay there and kicked until he drowned," said McAllister. The animal was so big the men couldn't do anything with him barhanded. Power machinery equipped to pull bulls out of barpits isn't part of the equipment readily available on the place, so they couldn't do anything but watch the animal expire. The cost was something over $500.

What makes a newspaperman mad at himself, getting back to something more appropriate for a country newspaper to discuss perhaps, is that while he saves the country, slashes about and throws his weight, whatsoever it may be, on this and that mighty problem of the nation—what makes the newspaperman mad at himself is that while he is doing this his more practical neighbor is concentrating on how to make a living for his family. And when the years roll around he has the money to buy a new car, build himself and his family a new house, and have enough left to take his wife to the Dallas Fair during an odd week when there is not much to do on the home front. Some even hie them off to New York or take a cruise to Hawaii, as well they should, while their business plans are maturing. The newspaperman can't get off and couldn't finance the trip if he could. He has been busy being a smart fellow. He even knows what to do about civil rights.

The average newspaperman makes a poor politician. Some men who run newspapers are political wizards, but the most make a poor showing at being a politician, especially at what we call the higher level. They get burned out too quickly, out of patience with the littleness of some of their contemporaries in attempting to reach the heights of fame and power. An occasional newspaper kingmaker comes along but he is a rare bird.

Tests in building home freezer units show that six inches of insulating material is the best thickness. Thinner insulation runs up the operating costs and more insulation makes the box too bulky.

The main purpose of National Farm Safety Week, which will be held July 25-31, is to do away with 30,000,000 farm hazards. This goal can be reached easily if every farm family will do away with at least one hazard for every member of the family.

Heat from an electric light bulb kept burning in the closet will often keep the air dry enough to prevent mildew on shoes and clothes. Frequent airing with an electric fan also helps.

At this writing it appears that Coke R. Stevenson and Lyndon B. Johnson, both residents of the Texas hill country, are pitted against each other in a run-off for United States senator. Incomplete but apparently decisive figures show that Geo. B. Peddy is the third man in the race but not a disgraceful third at all. Many people thought Mr. Peddy was the proper man for the place and gave him their support in all out fashion. The Hesperian was not among these. We have favored and still favor Mr. Stevenson for the honor of representing Texas in the United States senate. We feel he would measure up to the stature of the great men who have filled this high office. Stevenson, we think, will even measure up to Joseph Weldon Bailey. However, we refuse to find mean things to say about Lyndon B. Johnson, the opponent. Mr. Johnson is a most excellent man, in our judgment. It may well be the people of Texas will want him over Mr. Stevenson for their senator. We are not militantly against such a fine young man. We just think Mr. Stevenson would be the better for the place and support him with that thought in mind.

FARM TRUCKS INCREASE

Almost one-third of the nation's trucks are now in use on farms and ranches, the Department of Agriculture points out. Farm trucks have increased to 1,880,000, or 61 per cent since the war began. There are also 4,860,000 cars and 3,000,000 tractors in use in agriculture today, making the farm a major user of oil products.

More and Better Telephone Service For FLOYDADA...

"The Switchboard here is GROWING"

PLAN YOUR HOME

around these Electrical aids to Better Living

Whether you're planning to build or remodel, electric aids to better living are a "must" to today's modern home planners.

You'll want to plan your home around handy, work-saving electrical appliances... cool attic ventilation, an efficient, economical all-electric kitchen.

And all through the house make sure there is Adequate Wiring, and plenty of electric outlets for radios, lighting, fans, vacuum cleaners... all the appliances you will want to live better... electrically.

You'll find it the economical way of living, too... because electric service from Southwestern Public Service Company is cheaper today than ever before.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

23 YEARS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP AND PUBLIC SERVICE

One new switchboard position and 200 new lines have been added at the telephone office here. More telephone operators now can handle your calls during busy calling hours. In addition, we will be able to install new telephones for many people who now are waiting for service.

We've installed a lot of telephones here since the end of the war—more than 200. Floydada now has 742 in service, almost double the number in 1941. But more people here have wanted telephones than ever before. New orders for service have poured in faster than we can connect them. As a result, although we have added 200 telephones here since V-J Day, the waiting list has grown from 64 at that time to 552 today!

That's why we're hard at work putting in more equipment here... as much as we can get, as speedily as possible. Each new piece of equipment means more telephones. There'll be no let-up until everyone in Floydada who wants a telephone has one. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Support to Counts

In a statement this week Bert Bobbitt, of Sterley, announces that he will not be in the run-off for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, but instead intends to vote for W. H. Counts. His statement says:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the people of Precinct Two for the very nice support you gave me in my race for commissioner. I am happy to know that so many people expressed their confidence in me by voting for me last Saturday.

I have given the matter considerable consideration and have decided to withdraw from the race in favor of Mr. Hugh Counts. I know that he will make a good commissioner. I wish also to express my thanks to Mr. Counts and Mr. Cap Carthel for their courtesy during the campaign. They ran a clean race and I appreciate it.

I realize that Mr. Counts will have many problems and I intend to give him my fullest cooperation and I hope that those who supported me will do the same.

Bert Bobbitt.

Gets Pounding

When Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Jones and family returned from their vacation last week, they received a severe pounding from the Women's Society of Christian Service.

For you who are expecting to visit the Jones family in the hospital, a pounding in this case meant that ladies of the Methodist church had the refrigerator and kitchen well stocked with everything from fried chicken to ice-cream.

This is one type of pounding that everyone could thoroughly enjoy. Rev. Jones said he wished to publicly express gratitude of the Jones family for this manifestation of interest on the part of ladies of the church.

The Floyd county committee has an important place in making supervised credit available to local farmers, according to William E. Anderson, county supervisor.

Committee Well Informed

Before any money can be borrowed through the agency an applicant must have the approval of the county committee. In the case of farm ownership loans, the farm to be purchased, enlarged or improved must be approved by the committee. "The members know agricultural conditions in the county, are often familiar with the farm the applicant plans to operate," Mr. Anderson said.

In addition to approving the loans the committee cooperates with the county supervisor in overall administration of the program in the county. Periodically they review the progress of borrowers to determine whether they have reached a financial position that would enable them to refinance their loans through private lenders. A farmer who

To The Voters of Floyd County:

This is to express my sincere thanks for the wonderful vote of confidence I received in the election Saturday and furthermore I also want to say thanks to my opponents for the clean-cut, business-like campaign they made.

I was told when entering the race that politics were a bad business and I could expect all sorts of mud-slinging. This was not true at any time, and I believe with all my heart that if a candidate cannot run on their own merits and leave the opposition do the same, then it is unwise to even aspire to the office.

I tried to present my qualifications to you through the newspapers and over the air, as well as by personal contact, but I am sure I did miss many with my message. Therefore as I am now in the run-off primary for assessor-collector, I would like to re-iterate:

I am the widow of the late Dr. Joe McCollum, beloved pioneer of Floyd County. At the time of his death I was to go to the hospital for Veterans of World War I and a cancer check-up, and one week after his interment I was on the operating table for a very serious operation.

I returned in February too late to take the appointment as acting postmaster at Lockney, and as my financial obligations were very heavy, was forced to sell my home to meet them.

Now I am in need of a means of providing for myself, and I do know that I can make you a good assessor-collector. I have the educational background, along with a record of twenty-one years of serving the public in Floyd County in various capacities, and I do earnestly seek your vote and influence in the second primary election of August 28.

Accident Grows in Texas

July—The fifth observance of Farm Safety week, July 25-31, the Texas farm accident record is growing increasingly darker, according to George Clarke, manager of the Texas Safety Council.

The gloom is the result of the increase in the number of farm accidents, Clarke said. The total for the first five months of the year was 6634, as compared with 6322 for 1947, which showed a 4.7 per cent increase over the year.

Statistics indicate that farm people are more careful on their way to the markets, while pleasure driving is the high cause of accidents. Clarke said.

"It is true that farmers are driving cars than ever, but that only emphasizes the need for greater caution, and common sense. Farm safety should encourage farmers to brush up on their driving as well as to check up on their working and living habits around their farms."

The present trend continues, and the Texas farm accidents are slated for death as the result of all kinds of driving injury will strike some farm families approximately every year in Texas during the balance of the year unless extra precautions are taken.

Many farm families are being scarred by the loss of a loved one to the farm accidents this year, including motor vehicle and property damage. The added cost will be increased insurance rates, and in business lost because of death.

HANDLING PUBLIC MONEY IS GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

An editorial by Franz W. Zeiske, published in the Bellville Times, Bellville, Texas.

Every month County Auditor Homer Preibisch audits the reports of county officials receiving and administering public funds, and submits a complete report of his findings to the court as well as the officers. Not only has he found each such county official's fiscal affairs in perfect condition each time, but county officials have repeatedly stated that they not only welcome but insist on careful audits of their offices, which shows mighty good judgment. It is good business and to a great extent avoids the possibility of misunderstandings.

This week District Attorney J. Lee Dittler received a copy of a copy of a letter written by the county auditor of a Texas county, to one of that county's commissioners. Here is the copy:

"Dear Commissioner: I want to call your attention to the following facts about your precinct.

"1. You have spent over 36% of the 1948 anticipated income in the first quarter of the year."

"2. Your precinct at this time is about $1,500 further in the red than it was the same date last year."

"3. For the first quarter of 1948 you spent more money than any other precinct, and precincts Nos. 1 and 2 have a much greater anticipated income than your precinct."

"4. Precinct No. 4 has the same anticipated income as Precinct No. 3, yet you spent $1,740.00 more than Precinct No. 4, in the first three months of 1948. Furthermore Precinct No. 3 had a deficit and Precinct No. 4 was not in the red."

"I am of the opinion, the people of Blank county do not expect you to spend more money on the roads in the precinct than they provide."

"You are intelligent, capable, and have the reputation of being a good business man, or the people would not have elected you as their commissioner. There is no difference in running the financial affairs of a county or a precinct than there is in one's private business pursuits. A precinct as you are running yours is destined to financial failure whether you believe it or not."

"I assure you that I as county auditor, the county judge, and the other commissioners stand ready to advise with you."

That letter took some courage to write, undoubtedly. It is to the credit of our county officials that they ask for periodic and exhaustive audits of their financial affairs.

Taxpayers are entitled to know exactly how their money is being spent, how much is available for immediate use, how much is needed for retirement of bonds and other indebtedness, and how much for other uses.

School districts, counties, and larger divisions of government should regularly publish comprehensive and detailed statements of income and money spent. Not only is the public entitled to have this information at regular intervals, but having it would avoid a thousand misunderstandings. Armed with accurate figures, arguments for or against public policies are substantial. Without such figures, all discussions approach the status of rumor, and hence have little weight.

Advice seldom helps. If we are dumb enough to need it, we haven't sense enough to use it.

Sisson Heifer Is Sears Award to Don Pope

Don Pope, an outstanding 4-H Club dairy club member, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cager T. Pope of near Floydada, recently was awarded a registered Jersey heifer, Premier Fancy Sylvia, by the Sears Roebuck Youth Foundation, according to A. L. Hartzog, county agent.

Don's 4-H Club activities included the keeping of a daily milk record and butterfat test on a cow which he owned, and for which he was awarded a County 4-H Achievement medal for the keeping of outstanding dairy records last year.

The heifer of Combination Premier breeding was bred by O. T. Sisson and comes of a long line of outstanding Combination Premier Jerseys of high production, which were a part of the Oscar Stansell herd at one time. In the exchange of dairy animals at the time the awards were made Don's father also purchased from Sisson two young registered cows of excellent type, already producing heavily.

The Sisson herd has been one of the outstanding examples of breeding and feeding for production in the history of Jerseys in Floyd county and these animals should make a fine foundation herd for the building of a herd of registered, high producing, excellent type Jerseys on the Pope farm.

Good Herd Started
Don and his father now own seven head of registered Jersey females of Combination Premier and Sibil and Volunteer breeding, and the agent said this week that the Pope herd stood a very good chance of becoming one of the top Jersey herds in the county and represents a mark of achievement in the county's dairy program.

Some of the outstanding breeders of Jerseys in Floyd County are Earl Edwards, Jr., and his father Earl, Sr., Cager Carmack & Sons, Bobby and Billy Charles, Clyde Farish and son Donald, Harvey Brock, O. T. Sisson, W. O. Dear, Chas. B. Smith and Pierce King.

4-H Club members other than Don Pope who have received awards of registered heifers with which to start foundation herds are Robert Hambricht, Robert Hartman, John B. Griffin and Sam Ross, who received Cow-Hog-Hen heifers awarded by four of the county's leading farmers cooperatives, and R. W. Smith who was awarded a Sears Heifer and who has purchased two other registered heifers.

Other Jersey breeders who have contributed substantially to the improvement of Jerseys in Floyd county, according to the agent were the late N. E. Tyler, and J. A. Jameson recently deceased, whose herd is being dispersed; also O. L. Stansell & Sons, N. B. and Jack; Berry Hooten of Lockney; Roy Golden; Jack Brian of Lockney; Roy Hollums, Roy Patton and Son R. C. W. H. Brock & Sons; Homer Steen; Jack Henry; W. A. Barker; W. I. Allen deceased, father of Oliver Allen; Frank P. Henry deceased.

Those who have contributed widely to the development of Milking Shorthorns in the county are Alton B. Chapman, George McAllister; M. J. (Bill) Wesley of Aiken; Virgil Williams, former Santa Fe Agent here, now of Fort Worth; and T. B. Mitchell of Lockney.

E. L. Angus and Roy Patton have contributed a great deal to the improvement of dairy production in many ways and particularly in serving as official butterfat testers for herd testing.

Commendation of Men's class Teacher Given W. J. Waller

A letter of thanks and appreciation received by W. J. Waller this week from the Men's Bible class at the first Methodist church is one of his prize possessions. Mr. Waller resigned as teacher of the class recently and the members of the class voted to instruct Tom W. Deen to write the letter of appreciation. The letter said in part:

"We are grateful to you for the wonderful lessons that you have brought us from Sunday to Sunday. We realize that you are bound to be a man that knows God and that you have given time and thoughtful study to His word. We realize that this has not always been just the class it should have been, but you have been kind and patient with us, and we shall ever be grateful to you. We appreciate you and love you for your Godly life and hope that you can see your way clear to come back to us and again be our Sunday school teacher."

The letter was dated July 25.

Leaders Enjoy Outdoor Cookery at Home of Mrs. Sims

Home Demonstration leaders were present at a meeting on outdoor cookery last week in Mrs. W. Sims' outdoor living room. Angels-on-horseback, biscuits, and eggs in orange were demonstrated by Miss County Home Demonstration agent. The fireplace that has been an ideal place for outdoor cookery and the window seat and shrubs made a pleasant place in spite of the heat and dust everywhere else. Attending the meeting will be Mrs. Sims and her club members in August. Most of the will have community pic-

Lois Baumgardner Exchange Teacher in English School

Boarding the U. S. Marine Tiger on July 14, Miss Lois Baumgardner of Santa Rosa, California, had her last glimpse of the United States until the end of school next year in England. The one-time Sand Hill girl went to England as a part of an exchange program. Miss Baumgardner is exchanging places with the English teacher, even to the point of living quarters. She will go to England to teach in a Ford secondary modern school, and Miss Margery Elizabeth Lee, last year teacher of the school will come to Santa Rosa Junior high, the former class of Miss Baumgardner. Each teacher is furnishing plenty of advice to the other, as well as living quarters. Upon advice of the teacher she is replacing in England, Miss Baumgardner bought her clothes in California. She was warned against buying an entire new wardrobe, because the new look is completely ignored in England in an effort to wear out their old clothes. Cautioned especially to bring plenty of woollens, Miss Baumgardner was warned that there is a wool shortage in the part of England where she will teach. As for living quarters, she will live on the Cornish coast in Miss Lee's cottage, which is about twelve miles from school. She was unable to live in the same home which had been occupied by Miss Lee because of transportation difficulties. The two teachers will meet in England before Miss Lee sails, since her school year started last September and will not end until July 28. English teachers have in addition to the month's vacation in the summer, three weeks at Christmas time and three weeks at Easter.

Reach Settlement In TNMO Bus Strike

The crowd in front of the Lubbock bus station will be void of color in the future, without the striking union members milling to and fro with their sandwich signs. The strike of union bus drivers against Texas, New Mexico & Oklahoma coaches was reported settled Saturday, but the terms of a settlement were not made public. In answer to questions about the settlement, all that is said is a "satisfactory settlement" was reached. The strike, marked by several acts of violence and the tossing of one "home-made bomb" into the bus terminal building, had been on since May 16.

S. J. R. NO. 2 A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to Section 28 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to provide for a Board for apportioning the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment; providing for the issuance of the necessary proclamation by the Governor; and making an appropriation. BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 28 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as hereafter to read as follows: "Section 28. The Legislature shall, at its first regular session after the publication of each United States decennial census, apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts, agreeable to the provisions of Sections 25, 26, and 26-a of this Article. In the event the Legislature shall at any such first regular session following the publication of a United States decennial census, fail to make such apportionment, same shall be done by the Legislative Redistricting Board of Texas, which is hereby created, and shall be composed of five (5) members, as follows: The Lieutenant Governor, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Attorney General, the Comptroller of Public Accounts and the Commissioner of the General Land Office, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said Board shall assemble in the City of Austin within ninety (90) days after the final adjournment of such regular session. The Board shall, within sixty (60) days after assembling, apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts, or into senatorial or representative districts, as the failure of action of such Legislature may make necessary. Such apportionment shall be in writing and signed by three (3) or more of the members of the Board duly acknowledged as the act and deed of such Board, and when so executed and filed with the Secretary of State, shall have force and effect of law. Such apportionment shall become effective at the next succeeding statewide general election. The Supreme Court of Texas shall have jurisdiction to compel such Commission to perform its duties in accordance with the provisions of this section by writ of mandamus or other extraordinary writs conformable to the usage of law. The Legislature shall provide necessary funds for clerical and technical aid and for other expenses incidental to the work of the board, and the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be entitled to receive per diem and travel expenses during the Board's session in the same manner and amount as they would receive while attending a special session of the Legislature. This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1951."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held throughout the state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1948, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon: "For the amendment of Section 28, Article III of the Constitution of Texas providing for a Board for apportionment of the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment."

Against the amendment of Section 28, Article III of the Constitution of Texas providing for a Board for apportionment of the state into senatorial districts and representative districts in the event the Legislature fails to make such apportionment.

We visited the beautiful ranches and saw the hay being stacked with a Mormon stacker, all by seeing the picture she had made. She gave me some pieces of vari-colored agates and some black glistening crystals she had carried with a load of others down from the top of the high mountain. Another fine specimen of rock is copper, gold, silver and some imbedded crystals.
Mrs. McCoy has some good scenes she has painted from the country out there, having no instructor but nature herself.

Sam was not at home and his wife was to lead the way to where he was working in her car. Fred was driving and I was supposed to be helping him with the highway signs and so forth. #### STATEMENT FROM W. J. WALLER

Thanks, voters. For what you did for me. My congratulations are to you and Fred N. Clark for your loyalty as Democrats. I acted silly in letting a few individuals over-persuade my better judgement to enter in against a worthy man on his second term. No ill will toward any man. Thanks, thanks a lot.
W. J. Waller.

Mrs. Henry Baker, Childress, and Mrs. Ernest Tunnell, Plainview, visited Mrs. I. R. Grundy last Thursday.

Mr. I. R. Grundy returned from Fort Worth Tuesday, where he had been for several days getting a physical check-up.

lowed some four or five miles the wrong car. We had to go back to a station near his home on the highway and wait for them to come.

We were always getting lost. On the way up that morning we took a wrong turn and found ourselves going up the private road to the star's homes. We met a handsome man and a lovely lady who realized our lost condition as if to say. They stopped and as we stammered the man kindly said, just take your time and tell me where you want to go. For some five minutes he directed, then the lovely lady emphasized the highway signs that would make us right. They looked as if they were dressed ready to make a moving picture, but they were so gracious to us as if they had plenty of time.

That afternoon going back to Huntington Park we got lost again and found ourselves down in the heart of the industrial district of Los Angeles. I don't think I will ever be afraid again to go anywhere after that hair-raising drive. It was the time of day the workmen were going home. Trains and electric cars were everywhere it seemed. Big trucks and little trucks and cars and cars, clanging and honking and turning. Nothing could have been worse it seemed to us than for an earthquake to let loose and jumble all that moving mess up worse than it was.

It was dark when we got to Etna's home and we were very tired and worn out but we had to go back to Huntington Beach that night, getting lost right in the edge of town and going down the beach almost to Balboa, but sometime or some how we always did land right where we had started for.

To The Voters of Floyd County:

I thank you for the fine vote you gave me in the primary election of July 24th, and for the substantial lead over my nearest opponent, for the office of County Judge of Floyd County, which places me in the August 28 run-off primary for that office.

Of course it will be impossible for anyone to make a house to house canvass of the county before August 28 but will contact as many of you as possible to ask you for your vote and influence. To those of you whom I fail to see personally, will you please take this as a personal appeal to you for your vote.

I have an ambition to see Floyd County progress and take her place as one of the leading counties in Texas in agriculture, and industry as well, and in education and spiritual development and as an ideal place to rear our fine children.

To effect this we must have a road system second to none, a rural telephone system such as is now being installed all over the county, and our fine Rural Electrification system which is now being expanded. We must conserve our soil not only for ourselves but also for future generations, a part of that program being the control of bind weed and other noxious plants, which have gained such headway in the past few years.

We must operate the county government as economically as possible in order to keep our taxes in reasonable bounds, as we may not be blessed with such good times we now enjoy for too many years in the future.

I could go on indefinitely and in greater detail telling you of my ambitions for Floyd County but for fear this might become tiresome to you, will close by asking you for your support in my race for County Judge.

Sincerely,

G. C. TUBBS

I want to thank the voters of Precinct 3 for their courtesies during the first primary campaign.

As a result of your support I am in the run-off for Commissioner. I will make an active campaign and be around to see you and ask for your vote.

If you elect me on August 28 I will make you the very best commissioner I know how. Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

of 77 new cases of chicken pox, 11 cases of diphtheria, 320 cases of measles, 75 cases of polio, and 189 cases of whooping cough occurring in the state in the week between July 16 - 17. Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, has made an appeal to all parents to have their children undergo a thorough physical examination before entering school next month.

The appeal was made to coincide with the announcements of the various opening dates of schools throughout the state.

"It is a medically established fact that a child's health has a direct bearing on his progress in school," the health officer said. "It is no longer sufficient to provide the child with books and new fall clothing. Today we realize the health factor must be considered if the child is to reach his optimum level."

Dr. Cox said that since the child spends most of his time indoors with large groups of children, it is imperative that he be immunized against communicable diseases when such protection is possible. The spread of such diseases is facilitated in congested classrooms.

He said the examination should include a dental check-up and inspection of eyes, ears, nose and throat. The best health insurance for any child is constant supervision by the family physician and dentist.

Temperatures Stay High in Floydada

Temperatures stayed on a high level this week, and Floydada people continued to live at the drinking fountain, according to the gas house and city hall.

High for this week was Tuesday with 100 degrees, and Wednesday was only a fraction below the 100 mark.

Water consumption is now up to 1,200,000 or 1,300,000 gallons per day, according to Water Superintendent Floyd Johnson. Floydada is not consuming more than earlier in the summer though, he said. Before the rain started, water was being used for irrigation in very large amounts.

Fire Alarm Breaks Loose in Storm to Aid Din of Nature

A flash flood--rain--wind--lightning--and the Matador fire alarm joined in with the elements of its own free will, one evening last week.

At the height of the storm, a short in wiring set the alarm off. The short was attributed to lightning.

In spite of the electricity and heavy winds, no damage was reported at Matador.

To the Voters of Precinct Number 1

I appreciate more than I know how to express in words the good vote the people of Precinct No. One gave me in Saturday's primary, and likewise the many courtesies shown during the campaign.

Fred N. Clark, Commissioner of Precinct No. One.

Showers Whip Over Considerable Area

Showers spread over a quite considerable area of Floyd county in the period from Wednesday of last week to Tuesday of this week. The north and northeast part of the county, which would include portions of Cedar, South Plains, Fairmount, Edgin, Lone Star, Sterley, Fairview, Center, had fair showers to flash floods Wednesday and again Sunday. A lot of rain fell in the extreme north part of the county. Probably half of the county lying south and southwest had no moisture.

Tuesday afternoon a shower fell through an area roughly comprised of Dougherty, Baker and Pleasant Hill that stopped farm work for a half day or more.

Heavy Rain at Lone Star

The Wednesday afternoon and night rains were quite spotted, although practically every area of the county had some moisture. At Floydada the fall was 60-hundredths, furnishing a good cotton shower, dampening sudan patches and cooling the atmosphere pleasantly.

At widely scattered points rainfall really took on storm proportions. Between Ralls and Corne was one of these areas, and at Lone Star in the north part of Floyd county.

At the latter place the fall was two inches or better in a short time. G. B. Johnston, presiding officer at Lone Star box for the primary, Friday anticipated he would have to go to the polling place at the school house on a tractor or through water and mud. He didn't believe a car could make it from his home. The rain lay mostly to the northward.

Sunday Night Showers

R. L. Laskey of Cedar had about 3-fourths of an inch at his place. South of him a bit it was heavier and west three miles practically none.

South Plains report puts the rain there at an inch and a half.

At Floydada it was a little shower for a few minutes. Wind that bore the moisture, however, made it hard enough to spoil the chalked figures on The Hesperian election board.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Colville, of Amarillo, spent the week-end in Floydada, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Colville.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

Veterans, state and local governments and non-profit institutions have only four weeks left to claim preference in purchasing surplus personal property. Existing priorities will be eliminated, by order of Congress, on August 31.

Top Texas sale for veterans and others before the priorities are abolished will be an offering of about $25,000 worth of merchandise at the Amarillo Air base. Included will be 11 vehicles, to be sold on a bid basis to veterans only.

Now is the time for people who need surplus housing to get bid forms and mail in their offers to War Assets Administration. Currently, buildings at both Camp Bowie, Brownwood, and Camp Swift, Bastrop, are up for sale by the sealed bid method.

Arrangements for inspecting the various structures may be made with camp facility managers. Letters should be addressed to WAA's Office of Real Property, Box 6030, Dallas.

Buildings, fixtures, and utilities of two former army air fields in Texas are being placed on the market by WAA. At the Pampa Air Field, water and sewage facilities, the above ground gas system, and various types of GI buildings are offered on sealed bid basis with priorities to expire August 16 and remaining property going to the general public. At the Abilene Air Field, one large recreation building is available to government agencies and non-profit institutions only until a cut-off date of August 10.

An expert is a man who can tell the difference between an evening dress and a bathing suit.

Even after football season is over, students will hang around the colleges until warm weather sets in.

Probably the safest and most effective way to reduce weight is to put a time clock on the refrigerator.

If you spend a dollar to have some hope of getting it if you don't, you just spend it.
