In the Finley Family Held Their Re-Union In Floydada Last Week

This picture of the Finley clan has 92 faces in it, members of the party which gathered here last week to enjoy the company of relatives and friends for a brief time. Story of the gathering on another page recites that some of the old-timers in the group, who were young together once, had not seen each other for 25 to 39 years. The event high lighted the reunion for Mr. and Mrs. Jess Finley who were hosts. All the group enjoyed themselves so much they resolved to meet another next year on a date and at a place they have agreed upon.

Man School Year Opening

The opening date for the school year less than two months away, Superintendent T. Graves is bending every nerve toward final arrangements for this event. The date for opening is Monday September 8, busy assembling a good faculty. Superintendent also is co-ordinating efforts to complete the considerable additions to the plant. Plans are being made for a larger building, as well as a larger bus system, according to Superintendent Graves.

Quite Awhile Before Mailing Questionnaires

Although selective service officials say it will be "quite awhile" before questionnaires will be mailed out, the boys in America still have something to look forward to. This little something consists of eight pages of Selective Service questionnaires which have been prepared by the government for American youths who will register next month for the draft. People who are tempted to slip a little white lie into their answers are helpfully reassured that one untruthful statement could bring imprisonment for not more than five years or a fine of not more than $10,000 or both.

Match Roping Friday Night

Teams of ropers representing the Floydada Roping club and the Crosbyton Roping club will compete tomorrow (Friday) night in Floydada Rodeo grounds arena in a three calf per man competition. There will be five ropers per club. Carl Smith, president of the Floydada club, announced that following the matched roping a jackpot roping will be staged. The Floydada club's rather salty young Brahma calves will be used in the contest. Admission will be 25c for students and children 50 cents for adults.

Printers Imp Spoils Story, Worries PMA

Due to a dropped line or two in an article published last week relative to the grain purchase program, the wording was contradictory. In discussing the settlement of the grain under the purchase program, the article incorrectly stated that the settlement of the grain would be made on the basis of the class and grade at the time of delivery. The correct statement should have been: "The settlement of the grain, if delivered, will be on the class and the grade of the grain at the time the delivery is made during May 1949, not on the class and grade of the grain at the time the agreement is signed," stated Ray S. McEntire, Administrative Officer of PMA. He further explained: "Under the purchase agreement programs producers may sign a purchase agreement not later than December 31, 1948, pay a small service fee and be assured that Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase their grain from them at the applicable support prices in case they want to deliver the grain to the Corporation during the month of May, 1949. "Producers who wish to take advantage of the purchase agreement program will need to sign a simple purchase agreement form in the County ACA office. They will need to specify the quality which they may wish to deliver, and the service fee to be paid will be $1.50 or 1/2c per bushel, whichever is greater, on the quantity estimated to be delivered for wheat, and $1.50 or 1c per hundredweight, whichever is greater, for grain sorghums. A smaller quantity than the amount specified in the purchase agreement, or none, may be delivered, but payment cannot be made for delivery of a quantity greater than that specified in the purchase agreement. "No class or grade is indicated at the time of the signing of the purchase agreement since the class and grade at the time of delivery is used as the basis of the settlement."

Cline & Rainer Buick Dealers

Announcement two weeks ago that Cline & Rainer have been named Buick authorized dealers for this area is followed this week by the announcement from the firm that they now have their opening stock of parts and that they are ready with a complete Buick service for owners of Buick motor cars. Beginning their partnership in 1935, H. O. Cline and A. C. Rainer were Magnolia wholesale dealers in the area. Later they added retail Magnolia service. In 1938 the partnership went into the associate dealership of the Western Auto stores organization which they have continued since. Mr. Cline and Mr. Rainer have been angling for the Buick dealership for months and recently their efforts were rewarded with being named dealers here. To date the firm has received one of each of the three models of Buick, now in the hands of users, and this week the announcement of a parts and service tie-up with a stock of parts in the bins, makes the story a complete one.

Floydada Fills Card in Games for Whirlwinds

Although other teams in District 4-A by this time have quite likely filled all or most of their dates for interscholastic football this fall, Floydada Whirlwinds and Paducah Dragons were the only two squads which had full cards when the football schedules were made out. Opening the football season September 10 Floydada will have Slation high at Floydada, Paducah will have Chillicothe high at Paducah; September 17: Floydada at Tulla; Paducah at Crowell; September 24: Floydada at Phillips; Wellington at Paducah; Matador at Amarillo; O'Donnell at Crosbyton; October 1: Spur at Matador; Ralls at Floydada; Crosbyton at Paducah; Abernathy at Lockney; October 8: Paducah at Spur; Abernathy at Floydada; Ralls at Matador; Lockney at Crosbyton; October 15: Lockney at Spur; (See Football Schedule, back page)

Heavy Run-Off Vote Seen

I am a Democrat and will support the Nominee of this Primary.

For United States Senator:
COKE R. STEVENSON of Kimble County
LYNDON B. JOHNSON of Blanco County

For State Senate, 30th Senatorial District:
KILMER B. CORBIN of Dawson County
STERLING J. PARRISH of Lubbock County

For County Judge:
G. C. TUBBS
TOM W. DEEN

For Assessor-Collector of Taxes:
MRS. ELIZABETH McCOLLUM
T. T. HAMILTON

For Commissioner, Precinct No. 2:
W. H. (Hugh) COUNTS

For Commissioner, Precinct No. 3:
W. C. PLUMLEE
ROE JONES

For Commissioner, Precinct No. 4:
FAY HART
CLAUD FAWVER

With the second primary, Saturday, August 28, 9 days away, mounting interest pointed to the probability this week that 70 per cent as many votes will be cast on that date as in the first primary, when nearly 3,300 marched to the polls.

Creating considerable interest in Precincts 3 and 4 are the two commissioners races and the vote will be as big next week-end as in July. In Precinct 3, Carl Plumlee, incumbent, is opposed by Roe Jones, prominent Center farmer. In Precinct 4 Claud Fawver and Fay Hart are run-off opponents for the commissioners' office now held by R. B. Calhoun.

In Precinct One the commissioner's contest was decided in the first primary. In Precinct Two W. H. Counts is running unopposed by his first primary opponent Bert Bobbitt.

Two County Candidates

For county places there are two contests. In one of these G. C. Tubbs and Tom W. Deen are opposed as candidates for county judge. Both have held the office in prior years.

In the other county race Mrs. Elizabeth McCollum and T. T. Hamilton are competing for assessor-collector, for which Ethel Graham, present incumbent did not offer.

Only state-wide campaign left over from the first primary is that of Lyndon B. Johnson and Coke Stevenson for the post of United States senator. One district choice is left to be made. This is for state senator from the 30th district in which Kilmer B. Corbin, present county judge of Dawson county, is opposed to Sterling J. Parrish, of Lubbock, present incumbent.

Total County and State Tax $1.64 per 100

Although nothing official has been done by the Commissioners court and will not be done until after the adoption of the county budget, the forecast is that the total ad valorem tax in Floyd county this year, including county and state and not including common school, will be $1.64.

The state tax board has set the state rate at 42 cents and this is fixed. The county rate, if set according to the demands of the budget now awaiting approval, will call for a total county rate for all purposes, except school, at $1.22.

The break-down on the county rate for 1949, based on renditions made this year, will be as follows, unless, as said, there is a change made by the Commissioners court following the budget hearing:

Jury fund,	5c;
Road and Bridge,	22c;
Special Road,	15c;
Road Bonds,	35c;
General Fund,	30c;
Permanent improvement,	15c.

Notice that the public hearing on the county budget will be held on Monday, August 30, has been given by the Commissioners court through County Judge W. E. Grimes.

Games Tonight In Tournament

Monday night saw the first game of a fast moving single elimination softball tournament begin.

The first game for the opener, between Hagoods and Paducah, a thriller, ended with Paducah in the short end of a 3-0 game that was anybody's up to the seventh inning. The second game between Merchants and Abernathy found the Merchants on the long end of the 5-2 score playing on the under side of a 2-0 lead picked up by the Abernathy team in the first inning.

Tuesday's games started with Phillips on the under side of a heart breaking 4-3 score, with a strong Ralls nine, dropping Phillips team from the rest of the competition. The second game was the delight of Farmer fans when this team beat out a 15-4 whollop for a slightly off Matador team.

"The games are likely to get better," says Gene Collins, head man for the softball association. "With the winners of the two nights games pitted against one another and the prize money closer in reach."

Hagood and Merchants play the first game and Farmer and Ralls play the second.

Tonight's decisions of winners and losers will determine the teams to play one another on next Tuesday night, changed from Monday night to allow the Farmer team to compete in a game already scheduled for them in the Plainview tournament, winners against each other against each other in a battle for third prize.

Admission for these games is 15c for children and 25c for adults. Starting time is set at as nearly 8 o'clock as the sun will permit.

'Friday Clean-Up Gets Good Results' - Mayor

Intense campaign for the eradication of filth and all types of disease-breeding spots in the community last week, culminated in a general half-holiday from business routine Friday while all energies were bent toward a general laundering of private and public premises, was one of the best result-getting campaigns in the history of this community. This was the consensus of opinion among city officials and of their aides in the Chamber of Commerce and among Jaycee officials expressed the first of the week.

Many volunteers from among the ranks of the business community were on hand for the volunteer campaign Friday morning. With city manpower and equipment swamped by demands of the situation Mayor Harmon and the council saw a volunteer movement, quickly undertaken and executed, as the solution of the problem of meeting threat of disease. Recovering reports of polio in various parts of the state added to the alarm.

Big Success, People Say

"I have been told by lots of people that the clean-up last Friday was a big success," said F. C. Harmon, mayor, this week.

The people already had their lots clean in most cases, and the rubbish stacked in the alley. Between 40 and 50 pickups, each manned with three volunteers to help, went around over town and cleaned up the alleys. While only about 13 or 14 trucks reported to the square, inspection showed that the others had just gone to work without being told what to do.

An inspection Saturday showed several lots were not clean. Some of these can be reached with the city mower, which has been running almost every day for six weeks.

Contacting The Non-Compliers

Mr. Harmon is personally contacting the people who did not comply with the conditions of clean-up day and the city's first ordinance. In some cases, suit will be filed but the defendants will be given a reasonable amount of time to clean up, Mr. Harmon said.

Austin Writer Says Stevenson to Be Elected

(By Marjorie Oden)

"You can tell more about politics here in West Texas than we can in Austin," was the surprising opinion of Richard M. Moorehead, who is one of the leading reporters of the Austin bureau of the Dallas Morning News. Mr. Moorehead was seen Wednesday morning. He and his family are here for a rest. They are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moorehead.

Mr. Moorehead explained that rumors fly so fast in Austin it is difficult to realize what is really going on. Here in West Texas, the people have their own particular ideas, and are not in the least bashful about expressing them.

"Influencing the band wagon vote is one of the chief activities of some politicians in Austin," he said.

"They are anxious that the newspapers print how some candidate is leading South Texas, when in reality his only support might be in East Texas. One of their duties is to see that such things are sent around in ways that newspapers will print them."

"I think Stevenson will be elected senator with at least half of Peddy's votes," the writer predicted.

The two senatorial candidates are running on opposite type programs in every way, and Moorehead expressed the opinion that Stevenson wouldn't change his policy of not making campaign promises even if he saw he didn't have a chance. "As for Stevenson, I know he thinks like West Texas."

W. W. Payne Rites Monday Afternoon Held in Floydada

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the First Methodist church for W. W. Payne, retired farmer and former County Commissioner of Precinct Four, who died August 15 at the age of 86.

Rev. E. A. Powell and Rev. J. E. Young officiated at the services. In terment was in Floydada cemetery.

Six grandsons acted as pall bearers. They were H. D. Payne, Gene Payne, Wade Payne, Clyde Graham, Clifford Graham, and Winfred Payne.

William Wylie Payne was born in Lee County, Mississippi, August 30, 1862. His parents died when he was very young.

Miss Alva Durrett became his wife January 6, 1892, at Montachre, Mississippi. They moved to Floyd county in 1914 from Wolfe City, after living in various parts of Texas.

Mr. Payne served as County Commissioner from 1922 to 1930, and had lived near Dougherty for 34 years prior to his death.

Survivors include his children, R. Vernon Payne, Floydada, Oron Payne, Dougherty; Cecil Payne, Floydada; Cleburne W. Payne, Floydada; Norman Payne, San Angelo, and Mrs. George Graham, Clovis. He is also survived by 15 grandchildren.

Out of town relatives here for the funeral were Mrs. Lottie Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Payne and Don, Hershel Payne and Joe Payne of Wolfe City, Texas; Glen Payne of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Durrett, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smallin and Rexell, R. H. Durrett and M. C. Durrett, all of Lubbock.

Football Reserve Seats Go on Sale Monday Morning

Reserved seats will be for sale again this season for home games of the Floydada Whirlwinds, Superintendent I. T. Graves announced this week.

300 tickets at $2.50 each for five games will be sold, which will be in addition to the regular admission price. Sale opens Monday morning and no sooner at the office of Mrs. V. H. Boteer, school secretary, so that all may have an equal chance at the reservations.

Proceeds from the reserved seat sale will be used for maintaining the field, for retiring indebtedness created for new seats last year and for additions to the stadium, Mr. Graves said.

The general admission price has not yet been set. Last year it was 75c per game. The district committee will have the final say on what the admission will be this year, Mr. Graves said. He expects to call this committee together early in September to decide this and other routine matters in advance of the opening of the football season.

Raise Doctor Harmon for Quick, Accurate Diagnosis Polio Cases

That the emergency or epidemic stage of polio infection in this area had passed was expressed last week by Dr. F. C. Harmon, health officer there, who said, "that there would probably be few more scattered cases."

That Dr. Harmon's quick accurate diagnosis of infantile polio cases, nine in a four-day period and prompt transfer of the patients to polio centers for treatment, lives and suffering, were expressed by doctors, by new and Abilene specialists, and by the Paducah Post, "speaks of the intensive campaign to clean up all possible infection in that city and of future plans for DDT spraying and praise for Dr. Harmon is included in the following paragraphs:

As everyone knows, Dr. F. C. Harmon, City Health Officer, has had his hands full lately and is also making a name for himself, especially during the polio epidemic, but when that statement is backed by Abilene and Plainview doctors, of course makes it even more impressive.

Of the nine patients diagnosed by Dr. Harmon, as positive polio, all have been confirmed by the Abilene and Plainview doctors and nurses and they state it was through Harmon's quick and correct analysis, plus getting the patients to the hospitals for proper treatment immediately, that have saved lives and twisted limbs.

Asst. County Agent Began Work Monday

Assistant County Agent for Floyd county is Jack Carothers, who will be associated with the local agricultural agent's office until January 1, as general aide to County Agent A. L. Hartzog. The new official began work Monday.

Mr. Carothers comes from Haskell. He is a graduate of A. & M. college. His work here will be done as part of his agent-in-training program sponsored by the Extension service in training personnel.

Work in the Floyd county office of the agricultural agent continue to become more varied and time-consuming, and the Extension service is also said to have taken into consideration the fact that Floyd county agent, A. L. Hartzog, will be a very good tutor for a young man who is entering the Extension service.

EDITORIALS

We do not want to leave the impression that we intend to migrate to the South Seas come the day when Mr. Dewey is inaugurated president. However, we will say that we wish he were now prospectively president of Pango Pango instead of the country he is most likely to become president of. We imagine, sitting here in the comfort of an air-conditioned office, that we'd rather have an involvement with mosquitoes or something of the kind than to have the president we are going to have, if and when we do. Doubtless, a very fine man is Mr. Dewey, and a good administrator. But everything he says and the way he says it, works on our nerves. Maybe there'll be enough others think of it the same way by the time of first Tuesday in November. Such, however, is not the outlook at this time. The Grand Old party is already having big inside-the-organization fights over who will dish out the patronage where. That is really the fight in Texas Republican circles at this time.

We think it is well the United States is going along forbearingly with the Russian regime, hewing to the line of fairness and openness, so as to earn the respect of mankind in our effort to make a world in which all can live respectful each of the rights of the other. It is true there are things wrong in the United States. It is a fact that we have recognized regimes in some of the other lands of the earth who are not regimes which those peoples would have if they could have their way. But idealism must give way to practical considerations. If you can't do as you should you can do as nearly that as possible. Also there is the fact that we have some far from ideal conditions in our own country. There are things in New Jersey, New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts taking place that outrage the beatitudes, in fact might well be called rape of man's self respect. Also, they say, the same kind of things are happening in Texas and Georgia, Louisiana and Alabama. It seems to be all right in New Jersey, New York, all wrong in Texas, Georgia. Be that as it may, we can hew to the line of a conscience that is alive as our environments will permit. We can't go along with the ideas the Russians have. We have to go along with each other in our federation of states.

You can't un-mix the property rights of the individual from the personal rights of the individual. When you do away with property rights you also do away with personal liberty, with the right to bear arms, to have your own household free from molestation, to be free from the onerous burden of a government-imposed militia. This seems to sound silly but we are getting back around to the basic matters of which the colonial residents our forebears complained, and on account of which they finally took up arms in an untrained sort of way and spilled their blood to establish. Basic rights, basic liberties, the respect for the individual human being as such, that is the mud sill on which we have builded a new world. When and if we get away from it we have violated the best there is in this sordid old world.

Second or run off primary date is barely, in fact, less than two weeks away. The Hesperian thinks Mr. Stevenson, the ex-governor stockman, plain as a shoe sort of citizen, is a much better man for the people to select for senator than the ubiquitous, opportunist younger man Mr. Johnson. The latter will be good if we can't do better most likely. Whatever you may be told about Mr. Stevenson: He is smart, he is clean politically and personally. He will do what he thinks is best for Texas and the nation if you select him for senator. We just know, almost, that he is the best man of the two to elect. He should go in, we think, by about 50,000 votes, if the state turn out is two-thirds of what it was in the first primary. We certainly wish Mr. Johnson well in whatever undertaking he may get into when the voting is done.

Floydada's clean up last Friday was the nearest approach to a real clean up which has been witnessed here in many years. The city had been swamped with the magnitude of the job and it was really a good thing that for the time the various organizations of the community, and the individuals, took time out to give their help and assistance. Scores who had done as good a job of clean up on their own premises as they could, turned in and helped with the street and alley cleaning. There were not enough trucks and manpower to completely finish the job, but it must have been 90 per cent perfect effort. Of course, a clean up day, in which volunteers roam the streets and alleys to pick up what careless and inconsiderate, possibly just thoughtless people, leave behind, is not the ideal set-up. There is no reason why you should follow behind me and pick up the refuse which I leave behind to clutter the streets and alleys, to make your children sick, to produce epidemics. I should be made to do right if I am careless either negligently or purposely. The fact is the city should arrange some way to get enough revenue for the purpose to do the clean up job after your own and my own responsibility has been fairly met.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

The following items were taken from the issue of August 23, 1934, in The Floyd County Hesperian:

Committees of the Methodist church of Floydada have begun energetic preparations for a "Home Coming" of all present and past members, present and past pastors, present and past Sunday School superintendents, and other officials of the church, with an all-day service Sunday, September 16.

The South Plains Hotel, two-story structure at South Plains in north Floyd county, was destroyed by a fire of unknown origin that was discovered Saturday morning about 1 o'clock.

The casualty list from the current Texas drought will have among other things many thousand trees in Floyd county and hundreds of these thousands in the town of Floydada.

"There won't be any depression when we forget about good times."

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Jones, of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Murry, were guests Saturday afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Willis, County taxable valuations for Floyd county dropped below eight and a half million dollars for the year of 1934, the completed rolls made by Tax Assessor Roe McCleskey disclosed last weekend, for the first time in sixteen years. Otto Faulkner, a newspaper story in the Long Beach, California, Press Telegram says, has been promoted to detective lieutenant on the police force of Long Beach, a position second to that of chief of police. Mrs. O. M. McReynolds, a recent bride, was honored with a shower at the home of Mrs. C. P. Looper Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sams spent Saturday evening in Lockney. Rev. S. R. McClung, pastor of the First Baptist church, has been at Clarendon since Monday, where he is assisting in a revival meeting. Eleven Girl Scouts and three chaperons left Monday morning from the local Cardinal and Primrose troops for the Scout Encampment held at Camp Kiwanas near Amarillo August 20 to 24.

It was like old times, when the Methodist flashed their old form to win from the Merchants Wednesday afternoon, August 15, in a game lasting only six innings, agreed to by both teams. The score was 14-5.

Vista, California, back from the mighty waters of the Pacific some eight or ten miles we drove up and down hill to the town of Vista, where we were warmly welcomed by The Spikes' cousin Lizzie Tubbs that was, later Mrs. Van Sanders of Lubbock and now Mrs. Clarence Mc-Cauley. They have such a lovely home and are such gracious, entertaining hosts. After a fine supper we sat around a small fire for it gets cool at nights there and talked and talked of old times and old friends.
 Their beautiful home sets on the side of the hill and the town is below. Hills around the town and country are covered with avocado trees, such lovely trees they are, shiny and glistening like each smooth leaf had just been washed.
 One tree, on that hill, said Clarence as he drove us around and up on top of the hills, made his owner one thousand dollars one year and we gazed and knew why avocados are so high. Vista is a lovely place and we longed to stay on and on with such fine folks for neighbors and such sweet feeling air to breathe
 But the next morning we had to leave. I pulled a yellow rose and pinned it to my dress, climbed in the car and drove away with the vision of the ocean drive to San Diego and the thought of leaving such a friendly home that I never missed my one and only hat till the very next day! Afraid with shame
 I had to write for it later. What a way to treat ones who had been so hospitable!

J. G. Martin Slays Tremendous Snake, Expects Good Rain

J. G. Martin, 801 West Missouri street, gets the fur-lined bath tub and a trip to some place of other for killing the area's biggest snake last week. His feat fully attested by friends and neighbors, the owner of Mladies' shoppe slew a snake with his weeding hoe that measured six feet and five inches by hoe measure, a bit longer by step and rule.

Mr. Martin likes to fool around in the garden when the day's work is done. Work there doesn't count. Also he can't resist the temptation to rid the premises of reptiles and varmints when they appear. It was late in the afternoon when he found the biggest snake. With cotton chopper precision he hacked the gentleman up until he was dead all except the tail quiver which, of course, you can't kill off.

Some of the kindfoks sorter wanted to laugh about Mr. Martin measuring the snake with his hoe. "It was six feet long and five inches to spare," by the hoe handle Mr. Martin had recently invested good money in. Also he thinks it would look sorter foolish to carry a yard stick around in your hip pocket to measure snakes with when you can use a hoe, to hoe with, to kill snakes, and to measure them, too, if you buy a good six-foot hoe, which he always does. The snake, a chicken snake, was out by the wash house. Mr. Martin did not know, he said, why the chicken snake wasn't out by the chicken house.

After he had killed the snake and measured it carefully with the hoe, Mr. Martin being a Parker county man hung the reptile on the fence, stomach toward the sky. This can be depended on to bring a good rain nearly every time, the popular retailer said. Sometimes when the snake is too big, however, it doesn't work so good. He had rather had a little less snake, a little more rain.

Half Minute Interviews

Pete Kendrick: "It has rained 15 inches in the last five weeks up at Vega, where I am farming."

Tables 120 Years Old Still Hold Glow of Quality

Glad Snodgrass claims to have the oldest furniture in his men's wear store of any business firm in town. No, he's not complaining, but proud of the fact, and he wouldn't part with any of his antiques for anything in the Montgomery Ward catalogue.

Two beautiful red birch tables are so bedecked that few people ever notice their true value. One of the tables has a display of straw hats arranged alternately with some weird looking hat racks. The other table is covered with cloth samples.

These tables belonged to the mother of Mrs. S. Bruner, who was the mother of Roy K. Bruner. When she was in her eighties she passed away more than thirty years ago. The tables had belonged to her mother, who was about the same age when she died. Mr. Snodgrass estimates the tables must be at least 120 years old.

They have led a hard life, these two tables. Once the management decided the unique red color didn't match the rest of the store furniture, so the tables were sandpapered and soundly scrubbed with lye. They retained their rosy glow of health. During the time this reporter was looking at them, Mr. Snodgrass absent-mindedly propped his foot on one, while the reporter sat on the other table as a supreme test to see what pressure it could stand up under.

Even the desk in the back office at Glad's has a history. It once belonged to the father of Dr. Varn Andrews, who started out in business with it. Dr. Varn also hung out his shingle and put the desk into use in his first private office about the same time.

When Glad started into business for himself, Dr. Varn Andrews gave him the desk to start out with, in payment of a favor Glad once did him by making him a stick pin out of a ten dollar gold piece.

The top to the desk is still in commission, although the legs were out from much strain and old age. People will be welcome to view these pieces of furniture, but here's a warning to the wise. People have tried to buy the tables and desk top with no luck, and you would just be wasting your time.

Dick Nichols and Herbert (Yam) Sims left yesterday morning by plane for South Dakota to spend a few days. They said they would be there by 11 o'clock that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Walding, and children, Donna Gail and Douglas, returned last week from several days vacation in New Mexico and Colorado.

Hollis McLain was taken to Veterans' hospital for clinical treatment Sunday night. Mrs. McLain accompanying him. Randall King made the trip, returning the following day.

George Wilkins, of Waco, has been here this week while on a vacation, guest of his sister, Mrs. Woodrow Hill and Mr. Hill.

Tested Recipes For Cucumber Pickles Given

There are many kinds and flavors of pickles. It is said there is no short cut in the making of a true pickle, but many good substitutes may be made by recipes which require only 24 hours to complete the process. Sweet pickles are an exception because cucumbers will shrivel placed at once in too heavy a syrup.

Some tested reliable recipes for unfermented pickles are given by Leila Petty, Floyd County Home Demonstration agent.

Mustard Pickles
Wash cucumbers, pack into sterilized jars. Solution (sufficient for 3 gallons of pickles in glass jars): 1 gallon vinegar, 1 cup salt, 1/2 lb. dry mustard (work into paste with little of the vinegar). Pour over jars and seal cold.

Bread & Butter Pickles
24 medium to large cucumbers;
3 tablespoons salt;
10 onions;
2 cups sugar;
3 cups vinegar;

About 1 tablespoon each of ginger, tumeric, celery seed, mustard seed.

Let unpelleted cucumbers stand overnight in cold water; ice may be added to make water cold. Drain and slice cucumbers. Add sliced onions.

Sprinkle salt over mixture and let stand 3 hours. Add sugar, vinegar, and spices. Cook for about 40 minutes or until clear. Pack pickles solid in hot sterilized jars. Seal and allow to stand 10 days before using.

Lime Pickles (Mrs. B. M. Harris)
2 cups lime to enough water to cover 7 lbs. cucumbers, cut in 1 1/2 inch chunks. Soak 24 hours, stirring several times. Remove from lime water and soak in clear water 2 hours.

Mix 2 quarts vinegar, 7 cups sugar, 1/2 box pickling spice, 2 tablespoons salt. Pour over cucumbers and simmer for 2 hours or until clear.

Miss Hartsell
C. Colville

Hartsell, daughter of J. A. Hartsell, became John C. Colville, son of Mrs. J. D. Colville, at day morning in a douny at the home of H. Jones, pastor of the church, performed by Roger Hartsell, brother, acted as usher.

Lynn Colville served his brother as best man. Candles were lighted by Virginia Veach of Canyon and Irene Luther of Amarillo, both former college roommates of the bride. They wore carnation corsages. Miss Veatch wore green, while Miss Luther harmonized in a soft shade of pink.

"Always" was played during the ceremony by Mrs. J. Morrison Hollums at the organ. She also played "When Song Is Sweet," "Leibesträume," "Clare le Lune," and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a Thelma Buchley original street length dress of white lace, made with a high neck, flared peplum, and short sleeves. Lace gloves matching her dress were worn and she carried a white Bible topped with pink and white carnations, entwined with white ribbon.

A shoulder length veil of bridal illusion fell softly around her face. She wore pearls, which were the gift of the groom. Something old belonged were pearl carscrows, which belonged to her sister. The thing new was her wedding outfit, and of course she wore the traditional blue garters. Something old was a ring belonging to the groom's mother.

Modena Hartsell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in blue eyelet fashioned along the same lines as the bride's dress, with a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. John Colville were honored at a reception in the home of the bride. The table was covered with a white lace cloth, centered with a tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Lynn Colville served cake, while Miss Betty Raye Burrows of Lubbock, niece of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. For tradition, Mrs. Colville wore a grey gaberdine suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

After a wedding trip through Colorado, the couple will be at home in Floydada for a short time while he is awaiting orders to extended active duty with the Armed forces.

Mrs. Colville graduated from Floydada High school with the class of 1943 and attended West Texas State college. She has been employed as bookkeeper at Producer's Cooperative elevator.

A crystal basket of gold marigold and Shasta daisies, crystal candle holders bearing white tapers, and crystal punch bowl were nestled in a wreath of marigold and white napkins having Dorothy and Eddie engraved on them in gold.

a third of the fields in its confines amply provided with rain, about a third where crops are making fair to good progress and another third in which row crop land is seriously in need of moisture.

Rains of last week to and including a dandy Saturday night have given a wide area in the north part of the county one of the finest seasons in years. Lone Star, Prairie Chapel, Providence, South Plains, Stazley, Cedar -- portions of all of them have fair to excellent growing conditions. This is also true in part of Fairview, Center, Campbell and a considerable scope of country around Hillcrest. At the latter place six inches of rain had fallen Sunday in the preceding 10 days. At Floydada 4 tenths of an inch of rain fell Saturday night. Other south and southeast points in the county need rain along with farmlands in this vicinity. Cotton apparently is doing better than feed crops in the dry areas.

In the portion of the county below the caprock fair to good conditions prevail.

Except for areas of heavy rainfall irrigation wells have been operating around the clock.

This has been a week of gentle temperatures. Last week was a scorcher with five days of 100-degree temperature or more.

Austin Writer

anyone in particular, just giving all a square deal," Moorehead explained. "In any political race there will be some loose talk, and this one is no exception."

Truman By A Nose
A prominent Democrat was quoted by Mr. Moorehead as predicting that Truman would carry 35% of Texas votes, Dewey 30%, Wallace 5%, and Thurman the remaining 30%.

"Lots of people will vote for Truman who don't like him," Moorehead said. "His Bill of Rights (or Bill of Wrongs as a Houston newspaper man called it) is not opposed to so much in West Texas as in other parts." The reason many of us do not oppose it is because the proportion of negroes is not so high in this part of the country as it is in others, he thinks.

The clause about fair employment is considered the worst by Mr. Moorehead. In Austin, where 30% of the population are negroes, an employer would have to hire three negroes for every seven white people.

While Dewey doesn't have a fifty-fifty chance of carrying Texas, it is not impossible, he said. However, Dewey is not the strongest candidate the Republicans could have elected as far as Texas is concerned.

The Water Problem
"At least one geologist I know believes there has to be something done about the water problem in Texas," stated Mr. Moorehead.

A suggested solution to the problem as it now stands would be to create water districts, letting the farmers and residents of each district decide for themselves whether or not they want their irrigation and water for other purposes regulated.

Nothing like as much interest is predicted for the second primary as was shown in the first. One reason is that many of the state officials are already elected, and many of the counties lack only a very small number of their local officials.

Floyd county will probably be an exception, the Austin man said, because it still lacks a sizeable number of the local offices.

Mr. Moorehead got his start working one summer on the Plainview paper, free. The next summer he did a little better, working there with pay.

He attended the University of Missouri for some time, but got his degree from the University of Texas. After working for United Press at Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, and Houston for several years, he was hired by the Dallas Morning News and has lived in Austin ever since.

'Organization' of the Pixierats
The Pixierats, imaginary political party, were created by Mr. Moorehead and some friends one hot afternoon when they were sitting around the office talking. In response to the one feature story, chapters of "Pixierats" with their platform, candidates, and everything done in satire, have been organized in Washington, D. C. and recently they were mentioned over a Chicago radio network.

"It proves mostly that the people want to laugh about their politics," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Moorehead and family plan to return to Austin next week. They are now visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moorehead.

Mr. Joe Hale visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cummings last Monday. Mrs. Hale, who lives in Odessa, was accompanied by her children, Joe Mike, Jann, and Kyle.

Oleta Ely, of Seagraves, has been here for a two week's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ely.

Nazarene Church Congregation Off To Camp Meeting

All local services of the congregation of the Church of the Nazarene have been dismissed for next Sunday and practically 100 per cent of the local congregation will spend the day in Plainview where the Nazarene Camp meeting and district assembly has been in progress this week. Sunday will be the closing day, to culminate a great week in the church history of the area.

Camp meeting speaker has been Evangelist T. M. Anderson of Williams, Kentucky, one of the greatest holiness preachers in America. Great singing also is prospect for those who attend the Sunday services at the camp meeting. A mighty outpouring of the Holy Ghost is in prospect, says the announcement of the plans for Sunday.

Jason Gordon Urges Blood-Test Animals

LUBBOCK, Aug.—The finest livestock exhibits ever seen in the Southwest are indicated for the Panhandle South Plains Fair in Lubbock Sept. 27 - October 2, according to Jason O. Gordon, former Floyd County farm agent, general livestock superintendent.

Helping to stimulate more interest than he ever has observed previously, he said, are the increase of about 50 per cent in livestock premiums and the great enlargement of the cattle and swine barns. The departments are better equipped for exhibits than ever before.

"But an important contributor to interest simply is that farmers have more time to think about exhibits for the fair," he explained. "They have been mighty busy the last few years producing the food for a war of survival. That tension has been eased this year."

Mr. Gordon offered some suggestions which, he said, might help those interested in competing for the substantial cash prizes.

He suggested exhibitors should make sure their registration papers are in order and that they get their animals blood-tested if they are not on a regular Bangs' control program. The best plan, he said, is to study the regulations and thus insure that no last-minute difficulties will be encountered.

Mr. Gordon invited inquiries from anyone interested. They will reach him if addressed to the Panhandle South Plains Fair association.

Half Minute Interviews

R. A. Coverdale, Long Beach, California: "We've enjoyed our stay in Floydada. These people in Floyd county are a little more progressive than they are in some parts of the world."

R. B. McCravy: "The rattle snake business is picking up. I'm getting them two to a tree nowadays."

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

Newest of the non-priority, sealed bid sales of camp buildings to be held in Texas will involve 63 buildings and fixtures at Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa, Texas. This surplus comprises storehouses, garages, recreation, club house, store building, laundry and other GI structures, all to be removed by the buyers. The buildings may be inspected by the public beginning August 20.

One more location sale of surplus housing is planned for the Grand Prairie region following recent announcement by the WAA that spot bid sales of buildings were at an end. This sale will be held at Camp Shelby, Mississippi, where the classification of available real property has been in doubt until recently. The auction type disposal will include about 1200 buildings and will be held about August 24, with inspection to start around August 17.

Detailed compilation of figures by the Grand Prairie region of War Assets disclosed last week that government-owned personal property originally costing $877,241,331.99 has been disposed of in the five state areas of the southwest since the start of the program in June, 1943. Specific recovery figures on this total are not yet available, but taking a national average of slightly more than 30 per cent in realization over the four year period, the government would have received $265,204,123.59 in sales. For Texas alone, personal property costing $385,405,089.77 has been disposed of.

MECHANICS EXAMINATION

DETROIT—An increase of nearly 4,000 mechanics in Chevrolet dealerships throughout the country who passed the recently-completed approved mechanics examinations, as compared with the number who passed last year, was reported by the Chevrolet Motor division.

Figures just compiled show that 22,312 passed the approved mechanics examination and 4,675 passed the approved body mechanics examination, for a total of 26,987. This compares with a total of 23,040 who passed the examination last year.

Mrs. C. B. Stewart, of Corpus Christi, visited her mother, Mrs. Kate Collier, last week, and other relatives in Floydada.

It has rained so much after you get north of Floyd county a few miles that the whole country is green and lush enough to make your mouth water, the W. B. Jones report. R. He and Mr. McDonald have 600 acres of 30 bushel wheat, that they are having trouble getting harvested, and expect to have more trouble getting marketed.

KILMER CORBIN of Dawson County For STATE SENATOR

Since I moved to Lamesa several months ago I have become well acquainted with Kilmer Corbin both as an individual and a public official. He has an enviable record as county judge of Dawson County during the past six years. His record for honesty and efficiency in government is unequalled. He knows the needs of the people of the 30th Senatorial District and will serve those people alone if he is sent to Austin.

I urge my friends of Floyd County to consider the candidacy of Kilmer Corbin for state senator. I urge them to accept this as my personal endorsement of this man who is seeking a well earned promotion as a public official. I urge that they support Kilmer Corbin.

Respectfully,

Control Grain Weevil, Urges College Expert

COLLEGE STATION, August — "With the shortage of grain storage space, there probably will be a lot of corn and grain sorghum stored on farms in Texas this year," Dr. H. G. Johnston, extension entomologist of Texas A. & M. College, points out. "The wise man will start out early to protect his grains against weevils."

storage bins are weather and fumigant tight, Dr. Johnston says. If the grain is not in storage yet, clean the bins and spray thoroughly with a five percent DDT spray.

Dr. Johnston recommends two mixtures for the fumigation process. The first is three parts of ethylene dichloride and one part carbon tetrachloride. One thousand bushels of grain will use six gallons of fumigant. Sprinkle with ordinary sprinkling cans over the top of the grain.

The second mixture recommended is one part carbon disulfide (highlife) and four parts carbon tetrachloride. Again, six gallons of the mixture will fumigate 1,000 bushels of grain. Pour it in shallow pans and place around the bin - it will evaporate and the fumes soak through the grain.

"Weevil control is important," Dr. Johnston concludes, "not only from the first thing is to be sure that a grain saving standpoint, but to protect your stored wheat if it is under government loan. August is a good month to get started on this important job."

Cavern Route gains Favor with Public

T. E. Manning of Frederick, Oklahoma, and C. A. Holding, of Tipton, Oklahoma, who were in Floydada briefly last week, indicate that the Carlsbad Cavern route to California, is gaining favor of the traveling public. They were here enroute west and stopped to make report on progress to Chamber of Commerce officials.

Supporters of the route in towns of Oklahoma and Texas have been pleased with the way contracts have been carried out on billboards and in publicity material the past year, Manning and Holding said. From Chickasha the Chamber of Commerce secretary wrote that the contract had been carried out faithfully and "even more done than the contract calls for." Floydada is one of the towns which supported the campaign last year. This campaign is intended to drain off excess travel on Highway 66 at Oklahoma City and route it down across Texas on Highway 70 and thence southward to Carlsbad. Manning and Holding had dates for meetings in Arizona to which they were enroute when here.

Statement By Floydada Old Folks Pension Club

We have understood that it is being told that the old folks are paying Judge Deen a salary of $100.00 per month, which is truly a falsehood, and the one who is telling it knows that it is untrue, because the old folks do not have the money and are not able to pay any one a salary of any kind.

It is being done for a political purpose and we want to say that it is the cheapest politics that we have ever heard of and it is an insult to the old folks of Floyd county. Our club resents this because it is untrue, and we don't believe a true American citizen would have started any such propaganda.
