Grade school will be dismissed for the matinee. High school pupils were dismissed for their classes for yesterday afternoon's showing.

The 90 minute film was made by W. G. McMillan, a Lubbock man, on a 5,000 mile trip through the jungles of British East Africa. Thousands of animals of countless species will be shown migrating from one feeding ground to another. In one scene 20 lions are seen stalking the cameraman. Mr. McMillan, his son, Bill McMillan, jr., is on hand to shoot the head lion just as he springs for his father. Another scene in the picture shows a lion scheming to kill an impala, a small deer-like animal.

Light Rain, Near Frost, Weather News

Nearly enough cold to make a killing frost was recorded in Floydada and at other South plains points Thursday of last week, and somewhat of a rain fell generally over Floyd county Saturday afternoon. These two items make up the weather news of the week, except that the temperature climbed back close up to 90 degrees again by yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to make shirt sleeve weather.

The cold Thursday recorded at 36 degrees. The West Texas Gas company thermometer registered that cold for the hour from 6:30 to 7:30. The little red line beginning at 12 o'clock slid right down a 45-degree angle to the low. Some reports said cotton leaves, sweet potato and tomato leaves were nipped.

Some Planting on the Rain

The rain Saturday was a gentle affair that blew up from El Paso and gradually covered most of the high plains. Floydada had 5-tenths of an inch of moisture from 1 to 5 o'clock. Lamesa and Tahoka reported more than an inch at each of these points.

A few wheat farmers began sowing the first of the week, counting the moisture sufficient to bring up a stand. No damage is reported to cotton or feed.

He was sent from the Philippines in October, 1941. After the Japanese attack on December 8, 1941, his squadron was forced back into the little peninsula of Bataan to take the full fury of the Japanese armies. From here the last word was heard from him February 28, 1942. Cecil, with thousands more, died July 6, 1942, from starvation and abuse in a Japanese Prison camp.

Sweet Potato Experiment Is Encouraging

An experiment in the production of sweet potatoes on sandy soil of the L. H. Dorrell farm four miles east of Floydada, using irrigation, is being completed this week by Glen Jarnagin, and with encouraging results.

Jarnagin planted an acre and three tenths of the yams and despite what he said was lack of knowledge of the fine points in production of the crop, his yield of number one sweet potatoes is close to 300 bushels, about an equal amount of number two, and a large quantity of smaller ones due to go to the canner and the feeding pens.

"There doesn't seem to be any doubt that sweet potatoes can be handled successfully and profitably on the Dorrell farm if you are willing to put out the work and hit a reasonably good market," Mr. Jarnagin said last week-end while finishing up the harvest. His market this season was fair to good. He sold at $2.25 to $2.75 per bushel.

Jarnagin wanted to plant more of the potatoes but decided against going in too deep on account of lack of knowledge of the culture of the crop and of irrigation methods. Lack of local marketing facilities also made him hesitate to do more than a small acreage that he felt he could handle and market himself, with a small crew, if it turned out he had to do it the hard way.

On the small plot he used Mr. Jarnagin also raised some good melons and cantaloupes but did not attempt to market them except locally. The cantaloupes were especially prolific and profitable.

SHALL WE HAVE STUDENT GOVERNMENT?

The essence of a true democracy is the right of the individual to express his opinion and to use his democratic rights free from the power of the few.

Democracy can exist only when the individuals in that democracy take an active interest in its functions; in high school the student government is the elementary beginning of our democratic system.

In order to maintain a student government you must be willing to cooperate in its functions, be ready to express opinions, and have an overall keen desire to see it function properly.

Realize with pride the true worth of your high school education, its unlimited benefits, and above all its training in developing you into the kind of citizen that will make our United States the greatest democracy of all time!

Floyd Romps Over Abernathy 20 to 6

Floydada's Green and White Warriors pushed across three quick touchdowns in the first period of play to slip by Abernathy 20 - 6. The other three quarters were fought virtually at a standstill with Abernathy managing to score in the last stanza.

The fans had hardly settled in their seats before Jeter brought them up again with a magnificent return of the opening kickoff 80

High School Band Has 2 Busy Weeks

The past two weeks have been busy ones indeed for the high school band.

Monday, October, 4 the band journeyed to Amarillo, where they attended the Tri-State Fair. After they had finished marching in the colorful parade, the band members were free for the rest of the day. Friday night the band came up for its usual stunt.

This week the stunt began with a trumpet fanfare. Then marching through its own ranks, the band came snappily onto the field. Marching to the fifty yard line the band did a spectacular, criss-cross and an accurately timed telescope formation. Then the band continued down the field to the south goal post, did a counter march, came back to the fifty yard line, did a round corner to the left, and faced the east side grandstands. They went into a formation of a bicycle and while playing "Bicycle Built for Two," the two wheels went around. The twirlers also did a routine of twirling numbers.

Coming out of the formation immediately the band did a counter march, faced the grandstand on the west side, and repeated the bicycle formation. Then with a counted march and a round corner the band marched off the field playing "The Westerner" March.

Everyone was very proud to see the former director of the Floydada Whirlwind Band, Mr. Clyde Haden, who is now doing a fine job as director of the Abernathy High School band.

yards to the Antelope 5. Three plays later Bishop shot through guard and crossed standing up from the 4. Finley's conversion was between the uprights and Floydada led 7 - 0.

A 45 yard quick kick set Floydada back on their own 20. Bishop receded off a first down; however a fumble on the next play presented Abernathy with the ball. Finley returned the compliment and intercepted an Antelope pass to set the stage for his own pass to Jeter who in turn raced 60 yards to the 5 where Bishop, as before, added the finishing touches on the next play. Finley's conversion was good and Floydada led 14 - 0. Bishop, monopolizing the scoring for the "Winds," ended the first quarter scoring on a pass from Finley that originated on the Antelope 22. The kick was blocked.

The second period was marked with comparatively little action. Recovered fumbles by Guthrie and Haney deep in the Antelope's territory were to no avail as the "Winds" were not able to cash in on the breaks. With about 5 minutes left to play in the ball game, Abernathy's Miller took over on the 23, and went through the middle outrunning Floydada's secondaries for their only score of the game. The conversion was no good.

Floydada 20 Abernathy 6. The game was a good one all the way which was played under a handicap for Don Boothe was out of action with a cut arm.

Robert Koch first isolated the tuberculosis germ.

You kids really did help me out this week. I never was so surprised when I discovered all the gossip you kiddos had written. Keep it up -- please! !! O. K. on with the gossip.

EDITORIAL

SHALL WE HAVE STUDENT GOVERNMENT?

The essence of a true democracy is the right of the individual to express his opinion and to use his democratic rights free from the power of the few.

Democracy can exist only when the individuals in that democracy take an active interest in its functions; in high school the student government is the elementary beginning of our democratic system.

In order to maintain a student government you must be willing to cooperate in its functions, be ready to express opinions, and have an overall keen desire to see it function properly.

Realize with pride the true worth of your high school education, its unlimited benefits, and above all its training in developing you into the kind of citizen that will make our United States the greatest democracy of all time!

High School Band Has 2 Busy Weeks

The past two weeks have been busy ones indeed for the high school band.

Monday, October 4 the band journeyed to Amarillo, where they attended the Tri-State Fair. After they had finished marching in the colorful parade, the band members were free for the rest of the day. Friday night the band came up for its usual stunt.

This week the stunt began with a trumpet fanfare. Then marching through its own ranks, the band came snappily onto the field. Marching to the fifty yard line the band did a spectacular, criss-cross and an accurately timed telescope formation. Then the band continued down the field to the south goal post, did a counter march, came back to the fifty yard line, did a round corner to the left, and faced the east side grandstands. They went into a formation of a bicycle and while playing "Bicycle Built for Two," the two wheels went around. The twirlers also did a routine of twirling numbers.

Coming out of the formation immediately the band did a counter march, faced the grandstand on the west side, and repeated the bicycle formation. Then with a counter march and a round corner the band marched off the field playing "The Westerner" March.

Everyone was very proud to see the former director of the Floydada Whirlwind Band, Mr. Clyde Haden, who is now doing a fine job as director of the Abernathy High School band.

yards to the Antelope 5. Three plays later Bishop shot through guard and crossed standing up from the 4. Finley's conversion was between the uprights and Floydada led 7-0.

A 45 yard quick kick set Floydada back on their own 20. Bishop reeled off a first down; however a fumble on the next play presented Abernathy with the ball. Finley returned the compliment and intercepted an Antelope pass to set the stage for his own pass to Jeter who in turn raced 60 yards to the 5 where Bishop, as before, added the mashing touches on the next play. Finley's conversion was good and Floydada led 14-0. Bishop, monopolizing the scoring for the Winds, ended the first quarter scoring on a pass from Finley that originated on the Antelope 22. The kick was blocked.

The second period was marked with comparatively little action. Recovered fumbles by Guthrie and Haney deep in the Antelope's territory were to no avail as the Winds were not able to cash in on the breaks. With about 5 minutes left to play in the ball game, Abernathy's Miller took over on the 23, and went through the middle outrunning Floydada's secondaries for their only score of the game. The conversion was no good.

Floydada 20 Abernathy 6. The game was a good one all the way which was played under a handicap for Don Boothe was out of action with a cut arm.

Robert Koch first isolated the tuberculosis germ.

Carnival Queen

Candidates Named by the Classes

Thursday afternoon at 1:30 the freshman class elected their candidates for the carnival queen. Candidates were Clara Mae Jones, Nana Burleson, and Loene Williams. Clara Mae Jones was elected to represent our class.

The sophomore class is proud to introduce their queen. She is the cute girl with the grand smile, Billie Newberry. The other candidates were Katie Collier, Elayne Snodgrass Edith Garrett and Mary Young.

Floyd Romps Over Abernathy 20 to 6

Floydada's Green and White Warriors pushed across three quick touchdowns in the first period of play to slip by Abernathy 20-6. The other three quarters were fought virtually at a standstill with Abernathy managing to score in the last stanza.

The fans had hardly settled in their seats before Jeter brought them up again with a magnificent return of the opening kickoff 80

You kids really did help me out this week. I never was so surprised when I discovered all the gossip you kiddos had written. Keep it up -- please! !! O. K. on with the gossip.

So they say in foods class, Dorothy Foster just dreams about Chuck Holmes! Is that so, Dorothy?? Ruth Williams seems to be having fun on the Sand Hill bus. I wonder who with???

Wanda Reed actually is crazy about Bob Harbor. Whew!!! I wonder why Joyce Womack went to Lubbock Thursday?? What's his name, Joyce??

Don't you think Doris Foster and Barry Rosson would make a fine couple?

Well, it seems as if Marlene Raley is trying to go with all the boys in school. I believe she is going to ask Charles Hollums to a Halloween party.

Who has eyes for La Juana McAda in second period S. H.? (Is it love?) Did my eyes deceive me or not, but didn't I see Loene Williams with Kenneth Bishop Sunday night? My what a cute couple.

It looks like Bill has a little competition. It seems Dale Sims & Eddie Jarrett both want to go with (See De Quacker, next page)

This week's topic is one of the attractive girls who lead the pep squad. Verna Laster was born in Clarksville, Arkansas, on January 31, 1930.

She has beautiful black hair, hazel eyes that change with different colors, 133 pounds moulded into 5 feet 4 1/2 inch frame, and very tiny fingers.

Verna has had a very varied life spent in twenty-nine different states and the District of Columbia. Her favorite pastimes are decorating goal posts, listening to records, riding bicycle, and working at the Lunchbox.

Besides being a cheer leader, Verna belongs to the Social Club, Section, A. Y., Glee Club (Sweet Sixteen) National Theatrical Club, and the Pep Squad. She also won a beauty contest the fourth of July in Arkansas.

A list of her favorites are red, yellow (but not together), rye bread, fried fish, blackeye peas, pineapple and cheese salad, chocolate pie, English, Algebra, and Chemistry ("when I can understand it"), football, tennis, roller and ice skating. She likes any kind of orchid lipstick and "Tweed" perfume.

Unfriendly people are number one on the list of Verna's dislikes. A runner up is "better than thou people".

Verna's most embarrassing moment was during one hot summer several years ago. She was ironing her dress and the laundry man came to the door and caught her "sans dress". She ran back to the back of the house and put on a housecoat. Then she had to bring the laundry to him her face was a bright scarlet.

Verna's ideal boy has brown wavy hair. He is 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighs about 160 pounds. He has a wonderful personality and dances excellently. He is very considerate, very complimentary, and lots of fun. When Verna was asked if she had found him, she replied, "I have my eye on him."

She is going to finish high school in three years, and she is also very talented musically.

Verna's ambition is to work her way through Denton and to be an interior decorator. She would also like to get married over "Bride and Groom".

Her favorite expression is "Good Honk," and calling things "hootchie."

Verna said that she likes Floydada better than any other town in which she ever lived. Her reason was that the town is so friendly "The people here try to help you and want to get along with you." The first two or three days Verna was here, she was walking down the street and met Orby McClesky. He spoke to her as if he had known her all of his life. This made her feel very welcome.

Verna, we want to tell you that we are glad you decided to stay in Floydada, because you really are an asset to F. H. S. as well as to the community.

Barry Rossen—Yes.
Sherman Irwin—Yes.

Dorothy Thomas—Of course not!
Leroy Parrish—Yes!

Jon Parkey—Might be okay for awhile. I think they should, so we would have the pleasure of telling them, "No! I haven't a thing to wear!"

Jennie Chowning—I most certainly do!

Mary Cozby—Well, not especially!
Johnny Lloyd—Yeah.

Aubrey Guthrie—Most certainly should!

Glad Roberts—No, I don't! That's one thing I hate to do, but of course there's a time when you have to if you're desperate.

LAKEVIEW, October 11.—Rev. D. S. Pettijohn, of Plainview, filled the pulpit here Sunday, preaching at both morning and evening hours. He and his family were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tooley.

There were no "dinner winners" in Floydada last Friday evening when Bill Parsley, emcee of Keeton Packing company's radio program, "Dinner Winner," called parties, giving them a chance to win five pounds of steak and enough trimmings to make a full meal.

Mrs. James Jones, Mrs. L. H. Christensen, Mrs. L. F. Gresham, and Mrs. R. E. Fry. None of the ladies were fortunate enough to receive a dinner, but all of them were sent a pound of meat the next morning, with the compliments of Keeton Packing company.

Catching Often Colds in Autumn

Texans—Sudden seasonal changes in weather during the fall often result in chilling, which is usually followed by the incidence of the common cold. This disease always occurs because of the fact that few people can live isolated and in any group of people, coughing, sneezing and spitting will scatter millions of germs among susceptible persons.

W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that there are countless ways of spreading a cold other than coughing, sneezing and spitting. The doctor said, "If one of your family has a cold, get a glass with him, you get the germs on the glass. If a person with a cold touches his mouth or nose with his hand, and then touches another person, the germs can, and very likely will, get into his own mouth or nose with his hand, and the germs get into his system. A cold with a cold may contaminate the next child that comes up and plays with them. Germs obtain the cold germs from the toys." Cox said that as well as adults, who are getting from a cold should be kept in bed, and if complete rest, and plenty of liquids do not improve his condition in a short time, the family physician should be called. Dr. Cox further advised that for the weather, plenty of rest, and plenty of liquids do prevent them if possible.

General Election Absentee Voting Began Yesterday

Likelihood that there will be some interest in the general election this year was indicated by the fact that yesterday, date for absentee voting to open, Miss Margaret Collier, county clerk, had a customer or two. General election day is November 2, first Tuesday in November, and absentees may vote to and including Friday, October 29.

The general election ballot is as long as the moral law and nearly as wide, said one voter when he looked over its 20-some odd inch length.

CHIGGERLESS CLOTHING

Chigger-proof clothing that will stay that way for the life of the garment is a definite possibility as the result of U. S. Department of Agriculture research that has continued since the end of the war. Two organic compounds which can be used to impregnate cloth from which garments are made have remained deadly to chiggers after seven launderings. This would ordinarily cover most of the life of work-

BEAUTY AND THE BURDEN

Port, 101-pound Pat Varner and pretty, 110-pound Elaine Higgins, both of Chicago, demonstrate the ease with which a 53,600-pound freight car equipped with frictionless roller bearings can be moved. The car, part of The Timken Roller Bearing Company's exhibit at the Chicago Railroad Fair, can be started with only 120 pounds of pressure, a reduction of 88 per cent in starting power, as compared to freight cars equipped with old style friction-type bearings.

Already standard on many railway locomotives and passenger cars, Timken roller bearings can now be used to replace friction bearings on most existing freight cars.

Big clothes, hunting and outing garments and military uniforms for which chigger protection is most needed. The most promising compounds are listed as phenyl carbonate and x, x'-dichlorodiphenyl ether. The research results have just been announced and the Department does not know of any commercial application as yet.

Pearl Harbor was the signal for intensive research in chigger protection. The Army had to prepare for the Pacific campaign. Army doctors knew that one of the perils of the South Pacific was a disease known as scrub syphilis which results from the bite of an infected mite that is a close relative of the American chigger. Research got underway immediately at the Orlando, Fla., laboratory of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine. By early 1944 Raymond C. Bushland, as an officer in the Sanitary Corps of the Army, carried his findings in Orlando to New Guinea. There he showed soldiers how to make their uniforms chigger-proof by dipping them in 5 per cent emulsion of dimethyl phthalate and hanging them to dry. This would protect a soldier from the mites for up to a month—or until the uniform was laundered.

Research continued and about the time the war ended the Orlando workers found even better chigger-proofing chemicals—benzil and benzil benzoate—that would stand for three to five washings. V-J Day came before these treatments got to the Pacific jungles so full of chiggers.

Continuing on promising leads the Federal investigators have found the still more durable compounds that are effective against chiggers and do not cause bodily discomfort.

WINGS OVER THE ORCHARD

Use of the airplane by apple growers has increased recently as a result of the greater use of hormone sprays (or dust) to prevent pre-harvest drop of the fruit. According to L. P. Batjer of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the best spray for the purpose, naphthalenic acid, adapted by the Department to this use, has only a short effective period and must be applied to the trees at the busy harvest season.

Airplanes can do the spraying job without entering the orchard as they apply the fruit-holding treatment from above whereas the usual sprayers must move among the trees. The airplane, says Batjer, is not quite so efficient as the ground sprayer but is commercially satisfactory.

Robbery differs from larceny in that force or fear is employed in the former.

"Oil Progress Day" Recalls Industry's "Pot Still" Days

One day some ninety-odd years ago a tall, stoop-shouldered canal boat man named Samuel M. Kier was stirring a sticky, evil-smelling brew in an iron kettle which squatted on a stove in the cellar of a shack just outside the city limits of Pittsburgh. The mess on the stove was a sample of Kier's Rock Oil, a patent medicine in which Sam had invested heavily but which tasted so vile that few people would buy it. Kier was trying to salvage his investment by seeing what would happen if he ran the unsavory stuff through a primitive still.

As the petroleum began to boil vigorously, Kier slapped a homemade "worm" on top of the kettle. A dribble of colorless liquid ran out of the still. He touched a match to it and the liquid burned slowly. Inspired, he put some of it in an empty whale oil lamp. The lamp glowed brighter than it ever had before!

That was how Sam Kier discovered kerosene and became America's first petroleum refiner. The petroleum industry, which is paying tribute to Sam Kier, to all of his successors and to the pioneering spirit of the American people as a whole during the observance of "Oil Progress Day" on October 14, has come a fabulously long way since those ante-bellum years.

Instead of a handful of struggling companies, the industry now consists of 34,000 competitive firms. Instead of one well—that brought in by Colonel E. L. Drake at Titusville, Pa., in the summer of 1859—oil companies have drilled around 1,200,000 wells and oil is produced in 25 states. Some 428,000 of these wells are producing oil today. Instead of a transport system consisting of a few rickety wagons and canal boats, the oil companies have a remarkable system of 150,000 miles of pipelines, plus large fleets of ocean-going tankers, inland-waterway tankers, barges, railway tank cars and tank trucks. Instead of peddling their products in five gallon tin cans, oil men now include thousands of wholesale distributors, and operate a quarter million modern, clean and efficient service stations.

Today, oil and natural gas supply almost half of this nation's heat and power requirements. From crude oil comes a grand total of more than 1,200 useful products—products which everyone uses almost every day of his life.

"Oil Progress Day" is being observed this week. Members of the industry will report such things as the above to citizens of the communities in which they operate. Oil men are making that report to call the attention of their friends, customers and neighbors to the fact that they operate in the American tradition of free, competitive enterprise. As a result they are doing an outstanding job in their efforts to contribute to America's progress and well-being. They are, in fact, echoing Sam Kier's cry: "We're making progress."

This week's topic is one of the attractive girls who lead the pep squad. Verna Laster was born in Clarksville, Arkansas, on January 31, 1930.

She has beautiful black hair, hazel eyes that change with different colors, 133 pounds moulded into 5 feet 4 1/2 inch frame, and very tiny fingers.

Verna has had a very varied life spent in twenty-nine different states and the District of Columbia. Her favorite pastimes are decorating goal posts, listening to records, riding bicycle, and working at the Lunchbox.

Besides being a cheer leader, Verna belongs to the Social Club, Sextet, A. Y. Glee Club (Sweet Sixteen) National Thespiens Club, and the Pep Squad. She also won a beauty contest the fourth of July in Arkansas.

A list of her favorites are red, yellow (but not together), eye bread, fried fish, blackeye peas, pimento and cheese salad, chocolate pie, English, Algebra, and Chemistry ("When I can understand it"), football, tennis, roller and ice skating. She likes any kind of orchid lipstick and "Tweed" perfume.

Unfriendly people are number one on the list of Verna's dislikes. A runner up is "better than thou people."

Verna's most embarrassing moment was during one hot summer several years ago. She was ironing her dress and the laundry man came to the door and caught her "sans dress." She ran back to the back of the house and put on a housecoat. Then she had to bring the laundry to him her face was a bright scarlet.

Verna's ideal boy has brown wavy hair. He is 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighs about 160 pounds. He has a wonderful personality and dances

excellently. He is very considerate, very complimentary, and lots of fun. When Verna was asked if she had found him, she replied, "I have my eye on him."

She is going to finish high school in three years, and she is also very talented musically.

Her favorite expression is "Good Honk," and calling things "hootch-le."

Verna said that she likes Floydada better than any other town in which she ever lived. Her reason was that the town is so friendly "The people here try to help you and want to get along with you." The first two or three days Verna was here, she was walking down the street and met Orby McClesky. He spoke to her as if he had known her all of his life. This made her feel very welcome.

Verna, we want to tell you that we are glad you decided to stay in Floydada, because you really are an asset to F. H. S. as well as to the community.

Wing Often Catches Colds in Autumn

TEXAS.—Sudden seasonal changes in weather during the fall often results in chilling, which is usually followed by an incidence of the common cold. This disease always rapidly because of the fact that few people can live isothermally in any group of people, coughing, sneezing and other actions will scatter millions of germs among susceptible persons.

W. Cox, State Health Officer, said there are countless germs in the air, and when they are inhaled and spit, they are carried to the next child that comes up and plays with them, mainly obtain the cold germs, as well as adults, who are often carriers of a cold should be kept away from children, and if complete rest, food, and plenty of liquids do not improve his condition in a short time, the family physician should be called.

Dr. Cox further advised that persons who are suffering from a cold should be kept away from children, and if complete rest, food, and plenty of liquids do not improve his condition in a short time, the family physician should be called.

General Election Absentee Voting Began Yesterday

Likelihood that there will be some interest in the general election this year was indicated by the fact that yesterday, date for absentee voting to open, Miss Margaret Collier, county clerk, had a customer or two.

General election day is November 2, first Tuesday in November, and absentees may vote to and including Friday, October 29.

The general election ballot is as long as the moral law and nearly as wide, said one voter when he looked over its 20-some odd inch length.

CHIGGERLESS CLOTHING

Chigger-proof clothing that will stay that way for the life of the garment is a definite possibility as the result of U. S. Department of Agriculture research that has continued since the end of the war. Two organic compounds which can be used to impregnate cloth from which garments are made have remained deadly to chiggers after seven launderings. This would ordinarily cover most of the life of work-

BEAUTY AND THE BURDEN

Pert, 101-pound Pat Varner and pretty, 110-pound Elaine Higgins, both of Chicago, demonstrate the ease with which a 53,600-pound freight car equipped with frictionless roller bearings can be moved. The car, part of The Timken Roller Bearing Company's exhibit at the Chicago Railroad Fair, can be started with only 120 pounds of pressure, a reduction of 88 per cent in starting power, as compared to freight cars equipped with old style friction-type bearings.

Already standard on many railway locomotives and passenger cars, Timken roller bearings can now be used to replace friction bearings on most existing freight cars.

ing clothes, hunting and outing garments and military uniforms for which chigger protection is most needed. The most promising compounds are listed as phenyl carbonate and x, x'-dichlorodiphenyl ether. The research results have just been announced and the Department does not know of any commercial application as yet.

Pearl Harbor was the signal for intensive research in chigger protection. The Army had to prepare for the Pacific campaign. Army doctors knew that one of the perils of the South Pacific was a disease known as scrub syphilis which results from the bite of an infected mite that is a close relative of the American chigger. Research got under way immediately at the Orlando, Fla., laboratory of the Bureau of Entomology and plant Quarantine. By early 1944 Raymond C. Bushland, as an officer in the Sanitary Corps of the Army, carried his findings in Orlando to New Guinea. There he showed soldiers how to make their uniforms chigger-proof by dipping them in 5 percent emulsion of dimethyl phthalate and hanging them to dry. This would protect a soldier from the mites for up to a month—or until the uniform was laundered.

Research continued and about the time the war ended the Orlando workers found even better chiggerproofing chemicals—benzil and benzil benzoate—that would stand for three to five washings. V-J Day came before these treatments got to the Pacific jungles so full of chiggers.

Continuing on promising leads the Federal investigators have found the still more durable compounds that are effective against chiggers and do not cause bodily discomfort.

WINGS OVER THE ORCHARD

Use of the airplane by apple growers has increased recently as a result of the greater use of hormone sprays (or dust) to prevent pre-harvest drop of the fruit. According to L. P. Batjer of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the best spray for the purpose, naphthalenacetic acid, adapted by the Department to this use, has only a short effective period and must be applied to the trees at the busy harvest season.

Airplanes can do the spraying job without entering the orchard as they apply the fruit-holding treatment from above whereas the usual sprayers must move among the trees. The airplane, says Batjer, is not quite so efficient as the ground sprayer but is commercially satisfactory.

Robbery differs from larceny in that force or fear is employed in the former.

"Oil Progress Day" Recalls Industry's "Pot Still" Days

One day some ninety-odd years ago a tall, stoop-shouldered canal boat man named Samuel M. Kier was stirring a sticky, evil-smelling brew in an iron kettle which squatted on a stove in the cellar of a shack just outside the city limits of Pittsburgh. The mess on the stove was a sample of Kier's Rock Oil, a patent medicine in which Sam had invested heavily but which tasted so vile that few people would buy it. Kier was trying to salvage his investment by seeing what would happen if he ran the unsavory stuff through a primitive still.

As the petroleum began to boil vigorously, Kier slapped a homemade "worm" on top of the kettle. A dribble of colorless liquid ran out of the still. He touched a match to it and the liquid burned slowly. Inspired, he put some of it in an empty whale oil lamp. The lamp glowed brighter than it ever had before!

That was how Sam Kier discovered kerosene and became America's first petroleum refiner. The petroleum industry, which is paying tribute to Sam Kier, to all of his successors and to the pioneering spirit of the American people as a whole during the observance of "Oil Progress Day" on October 14, has come a fabulously long way since those ante-bellum years.

Instead of a handful of struggling companies, the industry now consists of 34,000 competitive firms. Instead of one well—that brought in by Colonel E. L. Drake at Titusville, Pa., in the summer of 1859—oil companies have drilled around 1,200,000 wells and oil is produced in 25 states. Some 428,000 of these wells are producing oil today. Instead of a transport system consisting of a few rickety wagons and canal boats, the oil companies have a remarkable system of 150,000 miles of pipelines, plus large fleets of ocean-going tankers, inland-waterway tankers, barges, railway tank cars and tank trucks. Instead of peddling their products in five gallon tin cans, oil men now include thousands of wholesale distributors, and operate a quarter million modern, clean and efficient service stations.

Today, oil and natural gas supply almost half of this nation's heat and power requirements. From crude oil comes a grand total of more than 1,200 useful products—products which everyone uses almost every day of his life.

"Oil Progress Day" is being observed this week. Members of the industry will report such things as the above to citizens of the communities in which they operate. Oil men are making that report to call the attention of their friends, customers and neighbors to the fact that they operate in the American tradition of free, competitive enterprise. As a result they are doing an outstanding job in their efforts to contribute to America's progress and well-being. They are, in fact, echoing Sam Kier's cry: "We're making progress."

Wedding Vows United Jacqueline Moore and Doyle Walls Sunday

In an impressive church ceremony Sunday afternoon, October 10, Jacqueline Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore of Clarendon, became the bride of Doyle Walls, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls of Floydada.

Vows were exchanged at the First Baptist church with Rev. L. A. Sartain, pastor, reading the double ring ceremony. The archway, decorated with huckleberry and white gladioli, was flanked by a background of fern and palms. Cathedral tapers along the aisle cast a soft illumination upon the nuptial setting.

Mrs. Allen Bryan, organist, played "Indian Love Call" as Don and Gordon Moore, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles. Soft strains of "I Love You Truly" formed an impressive background as the vows were exchanged. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Sister Matron of Honor
Attending her sister as matron of honor, Mrs. Linda Blair was attired in a luggage tan gabardine suit with green accessories. Her corsage was of yellow pom pom mums.

Adron Field of Floydada was best man. Serving as ushers were Bud Moore, brother of the bride, and Percy Tate, cousin of the groom.

Entering on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a petite dressmaker suit of electric blue velveteen, which was accented with cocoa brown accessories. She wore a gold lavalere which was an heirloom belonging to her mother. She carried a white bible and a colonial bouquet of pinocchio roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Moore chose a taupe crepe dress, trimmed with silver sequins; and black taupe accessories. Her corsage was of red rose buds. Mrs. Walls, mother of the groom, wore a black crepe dress, trimmed with green sequins; and forest green accessories. She wore a corsage of pink fether cornations.

Reception in Church Parlor
The church parlor was the scene for the reception following the ceremony. A white Irish linen cloth covered the serving table which was centered with an arrangement of giant yellow marigolds, flanked by white candies in crystal holders. The three tiered wedding cake was beautiful with tiny love birds hovering over the miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Lola Barns served the cake, and Mrs. Jean Moore presided at the punch bowl.

For the wedding trip to New Orleans and other points of interest enroute, the bride chose a gray gabardine suit with brown accessories. The couple will be at home in Floydada where Mr. Walls is employed with Oden Chevrolet Company.

Mrs. Walls was graduated from Shamrock High school and attended Wayland College. For the past three years, she has been manager of the Western Union offices in Floydada and Hereford.

Mr. Walls was graduated from Floydada High school and attended Texas tech at Lubbock. He served three years in the army in the European Theatre of war.

Guests from Lockney and Floydada at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walls, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Teuton, Mrs. Clyde Baxter and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tate and Marvis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hale, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Choose Pot-Roasts
To Start Family On Chilly-weather Menus

Pot-roasts are a sure-fire way to start the family on really hearty fall and winter menus. Not only are they filling and satisfying themselves, but they are such a substantial base for other autumn foods.

Just because all pot-roasts are lumped in a general group is no reason they must all be alike, points out Reba Stages, well-known food authority. First of all there is a variety of cuts to use—beef arm or bladebone or rump cuts are all excellent for pot-roasts. The cooking method used for pot-roasts—known as braising—also offers opportunity for variation, because it employs the use of liquid for best results, and each liquid adds its own particular flavor to that of the meat.

Have you ever tried cooking a pot-roast as you do Swiss steak, as a sort of Swiss-style pot-roast? This is only one example of the many ways you can add different character to a pot-roast.

Dredge the meat with seasoned flour. Brown well on both sides in hot fat, using a heavy utensil such as a Dutch oven or a heavy frying pan with a cover. Slice 2 or 3 medium onions and place slices on meat. Then add liquid, in the case of the Swiss-style pot-roast, tomato juice or canned tomatoes. (For a 3 to 4 pound pot roast 1 1/2 to 2 cups tomato will be sufficient.)

Now cover the utensil closely and let the pot-roast cook slowly until tender, about 3 to 4 hours. When pot-roast is done, remove from pan and thicken liquid for gravy. And the pot-roast you'll present to the family will be one they'll truly dub "out of this world."

Twenty-four Attend Church Convention From Local Church

Twenty-four delegates from the First Christian church here attended the annual Christian church convention of this district Tuesday at the First Christian Church in Lubbock. The district 2 convention included delegates from churches in the area from Plainview to Odessa and from Paducah to the New Mexico line. Approximately 150 registered.

The theme of the convention was "Crusade for a Christian World." This is also the theme of a three year campaign which began a year ago. The Laymen's League session was from six to eight o'clock in the evening. The "Crusade for a Christian World" campaign is a nation wide affair. The financial goal for the three year project is $14,000,000, and 3,000 life recruits for ministers, missionaries, etc. in religious work under the auspices of the Christian churches. Thirty eight percent of the goal is complete. This financial goal is over and above the regular church budgets. The quota for the local Christian church is $2,000, 40 new members by baptism, and as many life recruits as possible.

NEW BAKERY IDEAS
When Fred Levy took over the ailing 63-year-old San Francisco candy and bakery firm of the late Simon Blum in the 1930s he called up every customer he could, discovered they were tired of Blum's lack of variety. So he decided to experiment with novelties in cake and candy making while maintaining top quality production, reports Pathfinder.

Last week, nearly 15 years later, Blum was doing a $1,250,000-a-year-business and Levy was convinced the public will buy both quality and new merchandise if given a chance. He had started by throwing out all artificial cake flavorings and thinking up new cake numbers like "orange bouquet" and "breath of lemon." Now a cake from Blum is regarded as an experience. Then he experimented with new types of candy, evolved a white chocolate, a piece of which is placed in every Blum box. Candy prices normally range from $1.65 to $2.10 a pound, but will be topped next Valentine's Day by the most expensive box ever offered the public: A seven-pound collection packed in a box decorated with 10,000 sequins and price-tagged at a neat $350.

JUKEVISION NEWEST

In 14 television cities, a new kind of juke box was finding its way into taverns and restaurants. It is a seven-foot-tall combination phonograph and television set, resplendent with mirrors and colored lights. For a nickel it will either play a record or provide three minutes of television. To prevent conflicts between music lovers and sports fans, the control box is usually placed out of reach behind the bar.—Pathfinder.

ton Business Picks Up

in Floyd County has picked up in the past week and here are some of the reasons. Top panel shows irrigation water flowing in a canal on Raymond Rucker's place in Pleasant Valley. Panel—On the Gule Snodgrass place at Harmony George Caven Bob Crowell of Floydada admire the wonderful crop that is fruit-ful, and Crowell turns back the foliage and sees big mature bolls in field soon ready for the harvest.

At bottom is John R. Gray, manager of Scott Gin Company, showing the new all-steel, all-electric gin which took the place of the old gin destroyed by fire early last year. It is one of three built in the county this year to care for the big irrigated cotton crop. Others are at Barwise and Lockney.

Saddle Blanket.—The General election ticket for Floyd county (and for Texas) is quite a thing for size as usual, only a little more so this year because of the additional parties which have asked for a column on the ballot. There are eight columns in all—Democratic, Republican, State's Rights, Prohibition, Progressive, Socialist, Independent and Write-In. The last-named column is for the voter who is of the opinion he is the only really smart man in the county who has a good conscience. The law sees that he gets to do the way he wants to do and nobody's business, expensive as it may prove to be. The ticket in Floyd county will be about 17 inches wide by some 24 inches long or deep, including the "for" and "against" of eight amendments. The Progressive column is a new one in Texas. It is Mr. Wallace's. It has been many a year since the Prohibition column first appeared on a Texas ballot and it has been there ever since, as far as we know, probably more than 35 years. The beauty about letting the Pros have their say in their column (or Antis for that matter, if they demand it) is that they could be right and most everybody else wrong. There are some voters in Floyd county, a hand full, who have voted the Prohibition ticket in the general election year in and year out. When a man's conscience insists that he do a thing a certain way there is no other way for him.

The recent very, very close race in Texas for the nomination for United States senator has some good people thinking there ought to be something done to the Texas election laws to take care of a situation like that. This reminds us that every time something happens that hasn't happened before in our time somebody comes up with the idea that there ought to be a law passed. The fact is that the elections in Texas now are not any different to what they have been from time immemorial for the very good reason that human nature and the proneness of humans to err have not changed. It would be good, of course, if the vote in whole State of Texas could be recounted by the respective and various district courts, all the erroneous ballots, returns and whatnot cleaned out, and all the crookedness, if any, eliminated from the final figure established as the vote in the senatorial race. However, the time for this has passed and the only way it could have been done would have been for somebody to have challenged the vote in every county. If you ask why every county, the idea is that an erroneous ballot is just as effective in defeating the will of the people as a crooked one. There is not a county in Texas, we venture to allege, that would have all of its votes counted if a judge laid the law before him and set some good clerks before him to do the recounting. There are just any number of things, not dishonest intentionally or otherwise, that could happen to change the final vote in any race in any county. But we remind our readers that a law can't be passed to eliminate the human element in elections any more than a law can be passed to make a man not make any mistakes in the conduct of his personal affairs. Don't go along with the idea that we want a lot done about the election laws. The election laws are not perfect but they are good enough to protect the purity of the ballot. You can't pass a law against being a human being. Or can you? Some are trying it.

Diplomacy—Secret or Open: There could be no greater contrast than that between the conversations held in July the Kremlin and the General Assembly of the United Nations that opened its debate on 21 September. Of those talks in Moscow relating to the future of Germany the world received not the slightest hint save as could be gleaned from the expressions on the faces of the western ambassadors as they emerged from meetings with Stalin or Molotov. Whereas in Paris, the least utterance of any delegate from 58 nations will be amplified, translated, and re-uttered around the planet.

"Open covenants, openly arrived at" was proclaimed long ago by Woodrow Wilson as the golden rule of international relations. History has amply confirmed his judgment. Where agreements have been reached after full and public discussion, solid progress has been made. Where they have been concocted privately without consultation and without the knowledge of the people, whether at Munich or at Yalta, the result has been disillusionment, repudiation and sorrow for mankind.

Yet, experience does admit many difficulties in open diplomacy. The temptation to use public discussion for propaganda often stultifies agreement. Hard words before a world audience leave endless bitterness. The fear of losing face is intensified. A nation finds difficulty in retreating from immoderate proposals once they have been announced publicly, and the chance of fruitful agreement is consequently diminished.

Through its Interim Committee or "Little Assembly" the United Nations has been seeking a combination of these two methods—the public and the private. Techniques of conciliation have been proposed that will permit opposing interests to discuss their differences secretly, and then bring the solution to the bar of world opinion. Covenants will be openly arrived at, approved as just and sound in the people's judgment after the preliminaries of reconciliation have been achieved without fanfare.—Rotary Report on U. N.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

The rain fell slow and at least washed the dirt off of things. The garden looks a great deal cleaner, and a shower of dust does not fall on things when it is time to gather butterbeans. Spiders which have had the walls of the house all to themselves to cover with webs were suddenly surprised at the loss of their homes. Yes, the rain did good even tho it was not much. We think that it might rain again some day.

It is always a pleasure when we can help some one who is having car trouble on the highway and last week was no exception when we found Mrs. Jack Dempsey of Woodrow, Lubbock County stopped on the Ralls - Crosbyton road. This was our first time to meet this gracious lady and I still feel grand for the nice compliment she gave me and my column. Hope to meet her again some day but do not want her to have car trouble again.

Mr. Suits of the Petersburg Journal is having some trouble. Seems like he had such an interesting trip to New York and is dying to tell about it but his son finds so much oil news and has to tell about crops and meetings and other people's coming and goings, that the latest news from the Big City is just crowded out. Keep on, Mr. Suits. It will be good reading if it is some months late. Jimmie Rankin tells of the cowboy who went to New York City and was asked how he liked it. "It is a fine place," he said, "but it is just too far from anywhere." My daughter-in-law, Marjorie and Gladys Kirkham, recently visited there and found out it is pretty far away. Marjorie brought me the Statue of Liberty. Anyway it is a copy of it in bronze.

Pears are almost ready for preserving and the old, old tree has a good crop on it this year. We had to pull the lowest ones to keep the hens and turkeys from eating them.

Hope you will enjoy the following poem as much as I do.

Sonnet for Harvest.
By Anobel Armour
For gold-and-red spiced apples, newly gathered
In woven baskets from the orchard lanes;
For blue wild grapes, festooned against dusty panes
Under the barn's gray rafters, spider-feathered;
For coach-proportioned pumpkins, amber-weathered
To yellow ripeness; for wheat from furrowed plains;
And narrow bins, each filled with small grains;
For garden peppers strung and kitchen-tethered;

the continued strong demand in this country should take up bushels of this year's big crop. This would mean only 20 million bushels less than what we used last year. The European Recovery Program will use around 450 million bushels. The wheat price support for the 1949 crop is 90 percent of parity through loan and purchase agreements.

And here are a few gloomy facts.
The carry-over of wheat stocks next July 1, is expected to be up nearly one-fifth above the prewar level. European wheat production has improved, and will approach the yields they had before the war, if they don't get a stack of bad weather.
The United States acreage goal has been set 8 percent below last year's goal, and Texas' recommended seeding goal is down 10 percent.
The storage bins are heavily loaded with this year's big wheat, grain sorghum and corn crops.
All in all, it looks like the United States and world supplies have improved quite a bit. Next year's carry-over certainly will be up, and the situation could look a little tough if average yields are had from the acreage goal. The average yields are 71.5 million for the U. S., and 6.5 million for Texas. And another bumper wheat crop in 1949 would probably require marketing quotas for all growers in 1950.
So, it looks like good business to face the facts, says Bates and Miller. If some marginal acres have been in crops that should be returned to pastures, better plan to begin re-sodding now. Increase your summer fallowing and erosion control practices, say these extension

Whirlwinds Ice Abernathy Game In First Period

Through long runs, accurate passing and a few important breaks the Floydada Whirlwinds maintained their undefeated conference standing by downing the Abernathy Antelopes 20 - 6 Friday night at Wester field.

After a first quarter spree for Floydada, the game became much better with the progress of time and the settling the Abernathy eleven underwent.

On the first kickoff Bill Jeter took the ball on his own fifteen yard stripe, ran "through" the Antelopes and within five yards of a T. D. before being brought down from the rear. Three plays later Jeter nudged the pigskin over, and Finley, in good form, racked up a conversion for the home team. The blocking for this run was one of the best displays we have seen in some time since very few of the Abernathy team was standing or had any chance of downing Jeter.

Following the next kick off by Floydada, Abernathy was forced to kick and after a ball exchange on a fumble and a pass interception Floydada took the ball and with only two plays under their belt, opened with a pass Finley to Jeter where Jeter going to the four before being stopped, a sixty-seven yard play setting up Bishop's five yard score three plays later. Finley, whose toe worked wonders, sent the skin through the uprights for the second time in so many minutes.

Pounce on a Fumble
After the kick another stroke of luck beset the local eleven when on the kick return Abernathy fumbled and Floydada recovered on the Abernathy 32. After only one first down and one pass attempt Finley hit Bishop with a beautiful pass from the twenty. Bishop raced the remainder of the stretch to make a 20 - 0 lead in the first quarter. Finley again tried from placement, but the kick was blocked by a fast charging Antelope line.

The second and third quarters found the teams more on even keel, though most of the play took place in Antelope territory Floydada went to the fifteen yard line in the second period and to the seven in the third.

With the start of the fourth quarter Floydada was again on the march taking over on the Antelope 49 and driving to the six only to draw a fifteen yard penalty and loose the ball four plays later on downs.

Abernathy then started on their own four and started what seemed to be a march, when Jimmy Miller took the ball on his own twenty seven, went through a beautiful hole in the center of the Floydada line, and scampered the Seventy-three yards leaving opposition far behind. The score remained six when the power play for the extra point failed to gain the necessary two yards. In a matter of only a few more minutes the game was ended 20 - 6 in Floydada's favor.

Whirlwinds Do Good Job
The Whirlwinds though not as impressive in this game as in the Ralls game, turned in a good record. Taking quick advantage of the breaks of the game, they racked up a decisive lead and held the Abernathy team in their own end of the field and out of scoring position except for the one time, which actually originated from the Abernathy end of the field.

Standings in the Conference
After this week's results in district 3A, we are beginning to get a better and more complete picture of things to come, although school boy football is a dangerous thing to predict, if you want to keep any kind of average at all.

This week Crosbyton bowed to the strong Lockney eleven, as did Paducah to Spur, Matador to Ralls and Abernathy to Floydada. We can now start carrying percentages with a certain amount of meaning to them although some of the tougher teams have never met on the field as yet.

The District 3A Standings

Team	W	L	Per
Lockney	2	0	1.000
Spur	2	0	1.000
Floydada	2	0	1.000
Ralls	1	1	.500

To Get Ease of $2 Checks

to those who are dependent on Old Age assistance, the Needy Blind, and Aid to Dependent Children increased an amount of $2 on October 1, as a result of recent changes in the Federal Social Security Act, according to Mrs. Adla Bailey, Floyd County welfare worker.

matching formula by which federal money is allocated to the states was changed. The new Federal formula provides about 64% federal to 36% state. Mrs. Bailey stated that there is, of course, no federal money allocated any state except on this matching basis.

Cut in Grants Avoided

Had not additional federal money been made available, it would have been necessary to reduce each Old Age Assistance check between $2 and $3 during each month of the present fiscal year, according to Mrs. Bailey. It is now possible to avoid this cut and instead raise checks $2 and to adopt a maximum payment of $50 in the Old Age and Blind program; and $27 for the first child in a family and $18 for each additional child in the Aid to Dependent Children program. All adjustments have already been made and it has not been necessary for those receiving aid to visit the Welfare office to secure such raises as are possible. It is anticipated that the Old Age Assistance rolls will show a net increase of 700 persons per month, and the average payments will increase slightly each month. Mrs. Bailey commented that the additional funds will be used in these three ways: To avoid what would have been a $2 to $3 cut in payments each month; to increase payments approximately $2; and to provide for payments to new persons coming on the rolls.

September Checks Average $31.57

The number of checks to be mailed in October to those eligible to receive them was not known until after the 1st of October, as the certification of new grants did not close until the 30th of September. In September there were 207,143 Old Age Assistance checks mailed out with the checks averaging $31.57. It is anticipated that a slightly larger number of checks will be mailed in October, which will average about $33.57. Average payments to the needy blind will average about $38 to about the same 5,741 persons who in September received an average of $35.01. Payments to dependent children will average about $3 per child more to the 41,873 children who received an average of $15.08 for September.

Mrs. Bailey added that during the fiscal year, which will end August 31, 1949, it is anticipated that $36,000,000 will be distributed to those entitled to receive Old Age Assistance, of which $31,000,000 will be state money and $5,000,000 will be federal money; $2,700,000 to the blind, composed of $1,000,000 state and $1,700,000 federal funds; $9,000,000 to dependent children, of which $3,000,000 will be state and $6,000,000 federal. The Texas Constitution prohibits expenditures of more than $35,000,000 for the three assistance programs in any one year. The Legislature has appropriated this amount as follows:

$31,000,000 for old age assistance;
$3,000,000 for aid to the dependent children;
$1,000,000 for aid to the needy blind.

Before additional money can be appropriated by the State Legislature, the constitution will have to be amended to allow for larger appropriations.

W. A. Gound returned home this week from a trip east across the Mississippi, visiting relatives at his former home in Tennessee, also in Virginia, Georgia and Florida. He was in the latter state during the Miami blow, but was distant from the storm area.

Severance Tax Is League Debate Subject of Year

AUSTIN, Texas.—Texas high school debaters have already started research on this session's University Interscholastic League debate topic: Resolved, that the State of Texas should increase the severance tax on its natural resources, announces Bruce Roach, speech director.

Last year approximately 3,000 teams, representing 6,000 high school students, participated in the debate contest of the League, arguing the pros and cons of the query which dealt with arbitration of labor disputes in major industries.

"We are expecting at least 20 per cent increase in debate participation this year," says the League speech director, "for two reasons: Smaller schools are taking more interest in League contests and the importance of the question is attracting considerable attention this year."

In the past years League debates have discussed such topics as cotton control, socialized medicine, compulsory military training, equalization of education opportunity, the sales tax, and in 1940-41 the natural resources tax. Those questions were chosen by the schools themselves.

Armed Robbery Charge Filed in Hijacking

Fred Nabors, former Floydada oil and gasoline retailer and distributor, now in Amarillo in the wholesale tire business, picked up a hitchhiker Wednesday of last week while on his rounds among dealers east on the Fort Worth & Denver line, later to wish he hadn't been so soft-hearted.

Aside from being pushed out of his own panel truck at the point of a gun, robbed of the money in his billfold, being forced to take a walk to find a telephone so he could notify officers, Nabors now has to arrange so he can appear in court against the man whom he befriended briefly. Story of the affair is contained in the Amarillo Daily News of last Thursday under a Clarendon date line. It says:

A hijacking near Clarendon Wednesday afternoon led to a brief manhunt and Ralph Caldwell of Rochester, Michigan, is in the Donley County jail today, charged with armed robbery.

Fred Nabors, 323 West Tenth, Amarillo, victim of the highjacking, told Clarendon officers he picked up a hitchhiker on the highway about 10 miles west of Claude shortly after noon Wednesday. After Nabors had driven his panel truck to a point about 5 miles east of Claude, his passenger pulled a gun and used the pistol to direct traffic on through Clarendon, Asholia and Leila Lake.

About 2 miles east of Leila Lake the man ordered Nabors to turn off the highway. They turned south took a circuitous route on country roads and came to a stop when the hitchhiker took Nabors billfold containing $33 and ordered the Amarillo man out of the car.

Nabors walked to the George Self home in the Hudgins community and Mr. Self took him to a telephone, where he called Clarendon officials.

Truck Abandoned in Hedley In the meantime the panel truck had been abandoned in Hedley, and a passerby, seeing the driver throw away his cap as he left the car, became suspicious and told Hobart Moffett, Hedley Hardware dealer, who notified Clarendon officers.

Deputy Tax Collector P. C. Messer and County Atty. R. Y. King of Clarendon left for Hedley, picked up their quarry's trail on the old highway, and then lost it in a ravine. Messer went back to the highway to get a ride and was picked up by E. H. Ruth, state highway patrolman from Amarillo, who had just passed a man, answering Caldwell's description. The three officers found their man on the highway and returned him to the Clarendon jail.

Volunteer Fire Honored New Stamp

Texas.—The volunteer fire departments of Texas today receive from Marvin Hall, Commissioner of Insurance, a new stamp in honor of the 300th anniversary of the volunteer firemen's service. The stamp is being honored with a postmark from the state capital, Austin.

"I have long observed the good job the volunteers of Texas have done without regard of personal danger, discomfort or inconvenience to themselves and without desire for reward of any kind. It is a proud feeling to know that material recognition is being given to men so seldom praised."

When the Post Office Department releases this new three cent stamp in October commemorating an anniversary of 300 years of service, it will be another milestone for the volunteer fire fighting organizations whose illustrious history began as early as 1659, Hall asserted.

In that year one of the first known fire fighting groups was created in the Dutch colony of Nieu Amsterdam under Governor Stuyvesant, the Commissioner related. The community purchased and distributed 250 leather buckets and a supply of ladders and hooks. A tax of one guilden for every chimney in the town was also instituted to provide for the maintenance of this equipment.

It was also in this little town that was to become New York that the post of fire chief originated when a "Brent Master" was appointed to supervise the fighting of fires in 1689.

The first public fire-fighting groups of any importance were so-called "fire societies," volunteer organizations composed of friends and neighbors who equally combined social diversions and preparedness for combating fires. It was a similar society that Benjamin Franklin organized as described in his autobiography.

There are approximately two and one half billion people on the earth. Galileo Galilei invented the first telescope.

Farm Prices Down; Expense Still Climbs

A district Farm Bureau meeting was held at the Lubbock hotel in Lubbock Wednesday. W. R. Tilson of Meadow, Texas, district director, presided.

This was one of a series of 13 district meetings being held throughout Texas during the month of October, for the purpose of bringing farmers and ranchmen first-hand information on the immediate agricultural situation, and the economic conditions of the Nation as a whole, and to get the thinking from the grass-roots with reference to agricultural matters.

"Farm prices have dropped 30 percent in the past nine months, and farmers' buying power has been reduced 18 percent," Hammond said.

"Only through a workable, long range farm program that will provide for adequate price supports for farm commodities, can this Nation enjoy a balanced economy and avoid another depression such as was experienced in the early thirties," he declared. The long range farm bill hastily passed during the closing days of the last session of Congress will not adequately safeguard the interests of agriculture, and it will take a strong organization of farmers in this Nation to secure necessary amendments to this bill at the next session, the Federation president emphasized.

Plans for the Farm Bureau's fall membership round-up were discussed.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Issue of October 18, 1934)
Designated for entry into National pool, 306 tax exemption certificates representing 1,025,290 pounds of cotton, have been sent to Washington, J. S. Porcher, assistant county agent, said Wednesday afternoon.

W. C. Cates, who for the past several weeks has been in the Lee hospital at Guymon, Oklahoma, returned Sunday, accompanied by his father W. A. Cates.

Sheriff E. S. Randerson, R. C. Henry, and others spent a part of yesterday afternoon "gathering up" some Floyd county prairie dogs and ground squirrels for shipment to the Winn State Prison farm near Huntsville.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Greer, who have been residents of Floyd county for 35 years, Sunday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary when members of their family and many friends joined in a happy gathering at Brookfield farm, southwest of Floydada.

After completely routing their first conference opponents, the Roaring Springs Yellowjackets, the Whirlwinds will be out to add another conference scalp to their belt when they journey over to Paducah Friday afternoon to meet the Dragons. Floyd McClung, Baylor freshman from Floydada, led the song service in the All-Freshman program at the Baylor Religious hour this week.

W. H. Pope who lives three miles north of Sand Hill has recently installed an irrigation pump on his farm and began watering feed last week. This is the second irrigation well in the Sand Hill community, W. E. Miller having been operating one several months.

Miss Selma Linder entertained Wednesday evening with a bridal shower for Mrs. Modrel Williams.

Elmer Caruthers was honored by a number of friends and relatives with a surprise birthday dinner Sunday at noon.

PAVING FOUR BLOCKS CAN BLACK-DRAUGHT Help Physical Fatigue?

Roaring Springs. — Four blocks of paving are under construction in the Roaring Springs business section. The improvement starts at Broadway and 1st street at the depot and extends on both sides of the parkway to 3rd street. Cost of the four blocks of paving financed by property-owners along the route, is declared to be approximately $4,000. Due to the quality of material and condition of the streets, little more than leveling and topping is required. The work is being done by the Greenwood Construction company of Vernon. Streets on each side of the parkway are 50-feet wide.

Glass Water Jugs Fire Hazard, Says D. F. Leatherman

If you are using a water bottle or jug made of glass in your truck or automobile or are leaving glass gallon or half gallon containers lying about the premises you are harboring a considerable fire hazard.

This is the belief of D. F. Leatherman, based on experience, who says that a glass water jug he filled up with water and set in the seat of his truck caught the upholstery afire twice during a recent early-morning hour. The glass and water made a perfect lens to focus the heat of the sun on anything inflammable and the result, while you drive along, is that you begin to smell something burning. That something burning will be your truck a half hour later if you happen to leave it with the jug setting there and pouring heat rays into the upholstery of your truck.

Glass jars, very cheap to obtain, may come too high even at that, Mr. Leatherman says. An opaque container that costs more money might be a lot cheaper in the long run. It is his idea, also, that these containers made of glass, left lying about where they catch and concentrate the sun's rays, could be the cause of a considerable number of otherwise unexplained fires in out houses, barns and the like.
