

Manpower Shortage Is Becoming Acute

A tight transient labor situation began to make itself pretty apparent in Floyd county in the past week. It is serious enough that a good many specialty crops are faced with the prospect of considerable delay, and many cotton farmers also are beginning to visit the labor placement offices in Lockney, Plainview and Lubbock.

Matadors Here In Conference Go Fr'd'y Night

Tomorrow night the Floydada Whirlwinds pit their powers against those of the Matador Matadors at Wester Field, game time 8:00 o'clock, admission 75c.

Horn to Judge Achievement Day Pig Show

H. B. Horn, a live stock farmer of Priona, will judge the swine at the Achievement day hog show in Floydada on Saturday, October 30, it was announced here this week by A. L. Hartzog, one of the assistant managers of the big fall hog show of 4-H club and FFA boys of Floyd county.

Crosbyton 'B' Football Team Here Tonight

Football fans of the area ought to enjoy a game here tonight scheduled between the Junior High teams of Floydada and Crosbyton. Coach Gresham says both teams will have a very considerable sprinkling of future stars of the district's grid fields with not enough of what it takes as yet to make the first string.

Considerable Local Interest

Yesterday E. L. Angus, general superintendent of the boys' hog show, said quite considerable interest in the achievement day event has been evidenced by local business people. "I feel sure we are going to have a number of buyers from the business men for such hogs as the boys will want to market, possibly as many as we had last year," said Mr. Angus.

Approximately the same number of hogs will be shown this year as last, was the guess of Mr. Angus and other officials of the show. Prizes in every breed shown will be given in cash and there will be breed champion prizes and a prize for the grand champion hog of the show, as well as for groups of pigs and the usual Cow-Sow-Hen awards to boys of the county by the four cooperatives.

School Holidays

I. T. Graves, superintendent of Floydada schools, announced Tuesday the holidays that are scheduled for the school year.

AT AUSTIN MEETING

L. W. Chapman, manager, Lee Trice, treasurer, and Johnny Lackey, a director, of Floyd County Rural Electric cooperative, are in Austin this week where they spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday attending sessions of a Texas Power Reserve group study by cooperatives.

LAST RITES ARE SAID

Final tribute was paid to Harley Wampler Sunday October 16 at Ralls, Texas. Those attending from Floydada were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hart, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Finley and Mrs. Hattie Mullins, his sister.

Inside and Outside Re-Doing For Masonic Bldg. at Main and Mo.

A "face lifting" treatment for the two-story Masonic hall at the corner of Main and Missouri streets is practically completed this week. Work done has included improvements both inside and outside with an application of plaster and white coating to the exterior, replaced door and window frames. The exterior is finished in pure white to make it a most attractive building. On the interior re-finishing, painting, re-furnishing of the kitchen and dining room, air conditioners in auditorium and kitchen, have been included in the improvements. Some $3,000 has been spent on the modernization program by the building committee composed of Troy Leonard, D. T. Mayo and B. A. Robertson.

Parrish farms, incorporated, are among the sufferers for lack of help. Their fine, high quality crop of carrots is caught in the squeeze and they are getting many orders they are unable to fill with the small crew they have working. Hope that some of the 'wet backs' which filtered across the Rio Grande last week would show up in this area has not been realized as yet.

Meanwhile as the pressure in the cotton fields grows the main rush of the feed crop harvest also is almost ready to break into the farmers' sleeping hours.

Lon Werniche, farm placement supervisor, stationed at Lockney the past two weeks, is said to be doing an exceptionally good job in his efforts to get labor for the fields. He is with the Texas Employment commission, which attempts to get farmers and laborers together but is careful not to get mixed up with the negotiations as to prices to be paid.

Good weather has prevailed in the past week. Lowest temperature was 35 degrees Monday morning. Sunday the thermometer registered 36. Every other morning the low has been in or near the fifties. High has run from 87 degrees on Friday to 48 Wednesday morning.

A wee bit of a sprinkle and some overcast has marked one or two days this week, but has hampered farming operations little.

Twenty Carloads a Day That the shipment of foragegrain from the area is going to be really tremendous when the crop gathering gets under way, unless lack of storage at terminals prevents, is indicated by the fact that an average of 20 carloads are moving out of Floydada daily already.

If a stalemate should develop in the storage situation the farm operators will have to choose between leaving the crop in the field on the stalk subject to storm hazards or "storing" it on open ground. Some growers have provided a limited amount of storage.

Tanner Flying Service is GI Training Unit

Announcement that Tanner Flying service and Floydada Airport now have approval of Civil Aeronautics administration for the operation of a flying school was made this week by W. H. Tanner.

Last hindrance in the way of approval was the removal of telephone lines on the south side of the field, which was accomplished some weeks ago, but the formalities of getting approval had to be observed before actual operation could begin. Approval of the school here is for the following ratings:

- 1. Basic ground school; 2. Primary flying school using Piper model J3C-65 airplane. Open for Applications Now Tanner said this week that he would be ready to begin operation of the GI class the first of next week and that he can use more students in the first class. Applications for training in the school should be made through County Service Officer Darnell G. Ayres, or prospective students may see Mr. Tanner at the airport. Operation of the GI flying schools is authorized by the Civil Aeronautics administration of the Department of Commerce.

City Pool Filter Unit Contract Let

Floydada's City council is getting just a bit more done with every passing month toward making a complete swimming pool out of the proposed park improvement in north west Floydada.

able, however, federal agencies clamped down on material supplies. While the council waited for permission to start work again costs skyrocketed. The council now has made three efforts to get work started on some kind of a basis.

Pool Completed by May 1 In the summer they let the contract for the swimming pool proper. The bill for this alone will be $18,000, according to their contract with Oliver & Bellamy of Tyler. At the same time bids were asked for the filtering unit and the bath house. The filter unit bid was not accepted on the ground the offer made was entirely too high. The bath house bids all were turned down for lack of money. The pool contract calls for its completion by May 1.

Ben Kreis, of Papalote, was killed instantly, September 23 when the jeep he was riding in overturned near Comfort, Texas. Details are not known as Kreis was alone in the jeep, but it is believed that he lost control of the vehicle.

Lots of Grandparents New Boy, Larry Jack Hough, Has Good Chance of Getting Spoiled

Although he doesn't know what it's all about or why people make such a fuss over him, little Larry Jack Hough, born October 11 in the Plainview hospital, is quite a distinguished personage. The distinction about Larry Jack is that he has so many grandparents. His mother and daddy are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hough, both former students of Floydada high school. His paternal grandparents are T. E. (Jack)

Hough, of Floydada and Mrs. Estelle Holmberg, of Minneapolis, Minnesota. Grandparents on his mommy's side of the family are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Abbott, of Plainview, formerly of Floydada. Great-grandparents of the new arrival are Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hough, of Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barrett of Kress.

Intoxicants, inflammable materials (including matches of all kinds and lighter fluids and poisons or compositions which may kill or injure another are unmailable.

Preparation of Parcel

Because of the great distance these parcels must be transported, it is absolutely necessary that all articles for overseas be packed in boxes of metal, wood, solid fiberboard or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard, testing at least 200 pounds. The boxes should be wrapped in heavy paper and tied with strong cord, preferably by four separate pieces, two lengthwise and two crosswise, knotted at crossings.

Assuming that the big cities have been forestalled into a position where their immense populations cannot dominate the Texas political scene, we are for the amendment which would force the legislature, or a commission created by that body, to redistrict the state for legislative purposes every 10 years following the federal census. Contrary to public opinion the objection to redistricting has not been all of these years since 1920 confined to districts which have lost population relatively (in east Texas as against west Texas as is popularly thought). The fact is that the big city boogier has had something to do with the unwillingness of some rural legislative representatives to redistrict and go all out for it with no strings attached. For instance, Dallas and Fort Worth and Houston, San Antonio, Beaumont and other centers have a "gang" of representatives, not a representative for a few counties. If the populations of any one or all of these centers should increase in a largely disproportionate way then their few square miles of area of congested population could play hobby with the state's economic affairs to the advantage of some as against the commonwealth as a whole. In Ohio and Illinois and some other northern states this problem was settled before the people would approve re-districting arrangement. We recall that A. B. Tarwater saw the threat to the general welfare in this possible condition while he was representative. Doubtless Mr. Holt, our present representative will watch this development. Meanwhile the people vote on November 2 to say whether they will or won't have an amendment that will take care of representation on a population basis. We are for it if the big population, big interest centers, are safeguarded against. Against it otherwise. The huge aggregation of minority populations that could dominate a legislature against the general welfare has been a problem since the beginning of time.

The most important function of the future markets on the grain exchanges is to provide a means of "hedging" which is a form of business insurance. It is used by those engaged in various phases of grain production, distribution, and processing (such as elevator operators, millers, and food processors, etc.) as a protection against price risks. Hedging thus accrues to the benefit of everybody from farmer to consumer.

"Feed the land and fatten the crops" is a good slogan for Texas farmers. And by feeding the land, agronomists mean planting well-inoculated and fertilized legumes. Legumes supply plant food and add organic matter to the soil.

Mechanization of the cotton producing industry is certain because mechanization is demanded by competitive conditions. The demonstrations at the Lubbock experimental farm last week only high-lighted this fact. Egypt and other cotton producing countries are getting their cotton ready for market at a price far below that at which citizens of the United States can produce their fleecy staple. The nation as a whole is underwriting the cotton industry now. This situation cannot be expected to prevail always. For a hundred years Texas cotton interests urged free trade throughout the world for all products. This theory had to be abandoned when every other form of industry had the active price support of the government. Even labor, usually kicked around, now has a "floor," backed up by a national law. But the market here at home can absorb only so much of the cotton produced and the rest of the staple has to get out and compete where they don't care what the Congressman and the Senator say, or how many telegrams are exchanged between the Department of Agriculture and the president of the Farm Bureau.

Fall business of the geese honking overhead reminds us of Bryant's pensive, lonely-sortlof "To a Water Fowl." You've read it, of course. Is it not a thing that calls you back to read again that night every time you stand out in the pasture and see and hear them heading toward a distant land? And how one, left behind, seeks a course that will take him also to better and happier climes. Among other things you wonder what thyme that throbs behind the ear or gene that was planted years ago, makes him know certainly where he is going and why. That is more than the earthbound viewer below knows, who plods the weary way between chores and jobs, wondering how this and that should be done. The goose knew exactly the while what kind of a glade in which he would alight though before he may have never seen it. Providence is kind to the feathered tribe. Is it not recorded that "not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father?" The plodder below however, may take comfort in the passage of the scripture which says that "ye are of more value than many sparrows." Only thing is the Lord provides the fowl a "ticket" to another clime which suits him better. The plodder has to provide his own fare.

Floyd County 14 Years Ago

(Taken from the issue of October 25, 1934)

Woodrow Hill, who sustained a fractured skull in a car wreck some time ago on the highway between Leckney and Plainview, was reported to be out of danger today.

Taking ten prizes in the turkey division of the poultry show at the State Fair at Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Christian returned home Monday night after an absence of a little more than a week.

Sunday's home coming of the Cone Methodist church was an event that will long be remembered. Mrs. Lucy Noble, one of the two living charter members, was present as well as many of the early day members.

The children and grand children of O. W. Hart surprised him with a birthday dinner Saturday at his home in the Baker community. He was 71 years old.

Miss Lillian Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cox of Sand Hill, became the bride of J. D. Hargrove of Ralls Sunday morning.

Friday the Floydada Whirlwinds won their second conference game from Paducah. Every boy taken to Paducah saw some action in the game and showed his stuff in the right way.

Miss Hattie Thorp, worthy matron of Floydada chapter Order of the Eastern Star, is attending the session of the Grand chapter of the order in Fort Worth this week as representative of the Floydada organization.

Floydada Fire Department gave a party last night at the Randerson building for the cast in the recent benefit play, "Sky High."

R. H. Hale of Plainview is a new partner in the W. H. Seale Dry Goods, it was announced this week by Col. Seale, the new partnership becoming effective this week.

CURRIE APPLIANCE COMPANY
Floydada, Texas

Staged by the Whirlwinds, and like last year the predominate name in the game was Joe Sandlin. Wearing a chin guard, Sandlin played a very good game in spite of the handicap. He was cheered by the Floydada fans as well as the Paducah fans when he was removed from the game in the third stanza with an injured back.

Paducah took the opening kick and returned to their thirty five but were forced to kick a few plays later when the Floydada line proved to hold too well. Sandlin kicked on the fourth down and Floydada had their first chance of the night. However on the first play, the Paducah line charged fast causing Finley to fumble before he could make the hand off. Paducah recovered and the all-important score only a few plays later with a quarter back sneak for a t. d. pulled by Joe Sandlin who toed the skin through the uprights.

Another Fumble Costly
The second quarter scoring came also from a fumble in a round about way and was climaxed by a 10-yard pass, Sandlin to Bidly, good for ten yards and a score. Then for a minute it seemed as if Floydada had started to roll. Sandlin quick kicked from his own 10 yard line and Bob Bishop carried the ball back 80 yards for Floydada's only first half score. Bishop had picked up Blockers all along the route and had eluded several would be tacklers as well.

The last half was strictly a Floydada game and at this point several hundred Floydada fans found it difficult to remain seated since things were happening so fast. When things started popping and the Whirlwinds had forcibly moved to the Paducah 21 yard stripe Finley unleashed one of his famous passes hitting Jeter on the run resulting in an encouraging touchdown. Floydada was on the move only time could stop them. Finley missed the try for conversion and the score was Floydada 12 Paducah 20.

Jeter Makes Third Score
Early in the fourth canto Jeter broke loose on the Paducah 45 and traveled the remainder of the distance to even up the number of touchdowns per team. Finley kicked again and it was good to bring the score to 19 to 20, still in Paducah's favor and destined to remain so.

With some desperately needed time left Floydada kicked to the Dragons and with their fight stopped the onslaught of the charge and took over for what seemed to be their last chance of coming from behind to victory. After pushing the ball down within good scoring distance on beautiful runs Finley unleashed a pass intended for Jeter. Presley intercepted and carried the ball dangerously near Floydada's goal before Bishop pulled him down from the rear. When the line held and Floydada again took the ball they had almost a hopeless distance to cover in little or no time and so desperate was their plight they tried a fourth down gamble on their own twenty which failed at the exact end of the game.

Again Floydada's fumbles and pass interceptions had hurt, not to mention the fact that the line held and opened holes for the runners only after they were far behind in score. A game that could have had a different ending is over. All that is left is to take notice and don't make the same mistakes again. Our team can win games, and will win them, thanks to the lesson of a bitter experience.

Music Contest For All School Boys and Girls

AUSTIN TEXAS — There is a University Interscholastic League music contest for every school boy and girl in Texas, regardless of the size of the school. F. W. Savage, director of music activities, says, "To high school musicians Savage says, "If you play a piccolo, tuba or harp, or any instrument, either with a band, orchestra, or solo, if you sing alone or with a chorus, you can enter a music contest in the League."

This season the League music program offers 238 classifications of contests for choral groups, bands, orchestras, soloists and ensembles. Approximately 40,000 students, from grade through high schools, will compete at district meets and regional competition-festivals throughout the state.

Competition will be based upon the prescribed lists of music which contains more than 2,000 pieces of music. Music teachers and directors will be notified as soon as the prescribed lists are ready for distribution, Savage said.

For schools where there are no music teachers at all, there is the music appreciation contest, based upon recordings. Choral singing is open to grade schools.

Last session 283 bands, 30 orchestras and 229 vocal groups competed for ratings. In 1949, participation is expected to be even greater in all contests. The deadline for entering the League music competition is Feb. 15, 1949.

NO BETTER WAY TO START A BLAZE THAN BURNING TRASH ON WINDY DAYS.

WHEN FIRE COMES, DON'T BE A DUNCE; CALL FIREMEN AT ONCE.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

I turn to the old Witt and Spikes day books to learn what people bought and the price they paid in the fall of 1901. Only forty seven years ago at Old Emma as we say now.

Men in the store those fall days were standing around reaching in the cracker barrel and kraut barrel for something to eat on as they talked, spurs scratching the sides of the counters where some sat. They all seemed agreed on one subject. They had found the best spot in the world. No cotton to break a man's back. No peristomion and sassafras roots to be dug out continually, no ticks on the cows, no chills and fever for the family. As they talked some bought supplies.

John Babb needed dried apples and 1/2 gallon sorghum and the charge account says they were twenty five cents for apples and 25c for molasses. R. A. Jones was in town and he had charged 6c pounds sugar 50c, 5 pounds prunes 50c, 5 pounds peaches 65c, 1 ham 13c pounds (only) $1.95.

Charley McDermott sat on the counter eating cheese and crackers which cost him 10c and I bet he had a plenty, too. Roy Ezell prepared for winter, 1 pair drawers, 75c. Uncle John Noble took advantage of the ham. He took home 20c pounds which set him back $3.10. Sam Wright came in with a load of freight which came to 5521 pounds and he got $26.35. A long hard trip these freighters had. He took home a new washing machine and wringer. That was the thirtieth day of October; also he bought four yards of white flannel $1.00 and twelve yards calico, which was 70c. Cash sales were fairly good that year. One day $5.00. Ollie Eddy bought the largest bill I find in one sale. To give you prices and things of that time I will put down the entire bill:

1 pr. shoes $1.35, 2 capes $2.50, 15 yards flannel $1.50, 6 yards jeans $2.40, 2 1/2 yards cassimere 90c, 7 1/2 yards cottonade $1.50, 3 yards dress goods 80c, 10 yards worsted $2.00, 10 yards outing $1.00, 10 pr. hose 90c, 4 pr. Sox 50c, 7 ndkfs. 25c, 2 bunches braid 20c, 8 spools thread 35c.

What would that amount buy these days? But who would want to be paid so little for work. On the ranches, twenty to thirty dollars a month every day and 1/3 of the night, and about forty cents a hundred for freight from Amarillo. Sometimes mud and rain, other times snow and sleet, contrary mules and rough roads. What would a four or eight mule team think if suddenly they found themselves pulling loaded wagons on smooth pavement? A pavement that stretched all the long hard miles to Amarillo.

Such a change in Crosby county.

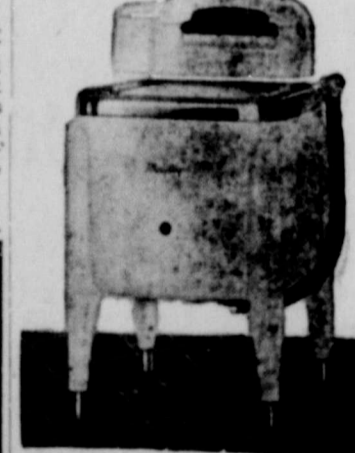

Crackers from the barrels to crackers in small waxed-paper boxes. Buggy whips to foot accelerators which when pushed take one ninety miles an hour and only a horse could be whipped to a slow speed in comparison. The wax which was so carefully saved for another chewing has been exchanged for bubble gum. Bull Durham for ready-rolls. Dried fruits for frozen fresh fruits. Soda biscuits for baker's bread. People go to town so many days a week that the editors never make any mention. Then if one was left out, the editor would hear about it.

No longer one finds old worn-out horses hitched at run-down school buildings and a run in a silk stocking shoes no one as the pair of black cotton with a white hole or so did. A petticoat showing then was a sign of untidiness, now they are made to show. Yes, Crosby county has come a long way since that day that Sam Wright took home a washing machine with a wringer so his folks could rub their clothes without a washboard.

The pear tree near the well that has weathered some forty years, took on a new lease of life this year and gave us some ten bushels of fine fruit. Pear preserves keep good company with hot biscuits for breakfast.

Lord, in the quiet of this morning hour
I come to Thee for peace, for wisdom, power
To view the world today through love-filled eyes;
Be patient, understanding, gentle, wise;
To see beyond what seems to be, and know
Thy children as Thou knowest them; and so
Naught but the good in anyone behold;
Make deaf to mine ears the slander that is told;
Silence my tongue to aught that is unkind.

Save $30. PER BALE IN COTTON HARVESTING COSTS

with a JOHN DEERE TWO-ROW COTTON HARVESTER

The easiest way to boost your cotton-growing profits is to use a John Deere No. 15 Two-Row Cotton Harvester. Based on labor cost, it saves $30 or more per bale over hand pulling. It does an excellent job in any crop that's suitable for mechanical stripping.

Handling two forty-inch rows at a time, the No. 15 does a efficient once-over job of saving bolls. Its work is considered many gin operators superior to cotton stripped by the old hand puller.

With the John Deere, you, too, can make short work of harvest... get all your cotton to the gin before bad weather or crop losses. For details, see us the next time you're in town.

Two Thousand Buyers Due to Attend Sale

AMARILLO.—Two thousand prospective buyers representing 20 states will gather next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 21 to 23 near Tulla, Texas, to bid on the 4,000-acre I. C. Little farms in Castro and Swisher Counties. Chief auctioneer will be Col. A. W. Thompson, Ft. Worth, who will be assisted by Mason King of the Amarillo Globe News.

The rich irrigated land has been divided into 160 acre units. Two thousand acres are in growing wheat and 180 acres have alfalfa in production. In addition to the land, complete machinery -- including eight tractors, four truck balers and similar equipment -- will be sold. Three large modern houses and one semi-modern house are included in the sale.

Sales will begin at 2 o'clock October 21 and will continue at 2 o'clock each afternoon until everything is sold. A barbecue prepared by Chas. C. Lowe, Amarillo, will be served at one o'clock each sales day. Rip Ramsey and his Western Ramblers will furnish entertainment.

I. C. Little, owner of the farms, has large ranch interests at Childress and is selling his Castro and Swisher County farms to further develop his 43,000-acre ranch properties. Mr. Little is a pipeline contractor who during the war helped build the "Little Inch" and the "Big Inch" pipelines.

Many prospective buyers will attend the sale by plane, as landing facilities are available near the headquarter site where the auction will be held. The sale is estimated to bring over $500,000 in sales.

South Plains News

SOUTH PLAINS, Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Duggan and boys from Abernathy, B. S. Hyatt from Dickens, and Dr. and Mrs. Wayne J. Greer from Lockney, visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stewart.

1.—Check the battery to see that it is in good condition, fully charged and charging properly.

2.—See if the motor needs a tune-up to insure quick starting.

3.—Drain the radiator, check all hose connections and add sufficient anti-freeze.

4.—Change engine oil to the correct grade for the coldest weather you expect this winter.

5.—In all but 1949 Ford models, change to winter grease in transmission and differential.

"Service statistics show that battery failure is the largest single cause of cars failing to start during winter weather," Mr. Pierce explained. "This necessarily doesn't mean the battery is worn out. It may only be discharged due to lack of maintenance or faulty connections."

"Because you can't get a conclusive test until the battery is fully charged, have your dealer put the battery on his thermostatically controlled fast charger. The charger will quickly and safely charge the battery, usually in less than a half hour."

Brakes also should be checked for winter driving and motorists should make sure their tire treads are not worn dangerously smooth they will make driving on icy roads doubly hazardous. Crisscross the tires if an inspection indicates this is desirable.

"Drive slowly in cold weather until the engine reaches normal operation temperature," Pierce advised. "Keep the fuel tank full as much of the time as possible to prevent condensation of moisture and resultant freezing-up of the gas line. A good plan is to fill the gas tank at the end of the day's driving, rather than at the start."

EDITORIAL

GIVE US SOME "DOS"

"Hesperette" staff has received many complaints within the weeks since our first publication, have patiently (?) attempted to solve these problems. It seems that everyone has suggestions for the "Hesperette" - negative suggestions. Our editorial should not be written in a snide style after time. We should not have the same thing over and over. The gossip column is right as long as my name is in it. (The editor is being held responsible for more names than can count.) These are some of the complaints which we have heard.

Now we have a complaint of our own: Why does no person extend a positive suggestion? We know now what we are not to do. Why not tell us what we should do?

African Movie Is Worth The Money

The students of F. H. S. were honored by getting to see the Wild African movie made by William McMillan and his family in Africa. Students tickets were fifty cents. The picture was about wild animal life in Africa. It was very dangerous to get close enough to the animals to take these pictures. The picture was shown Wednesday and Thursday afternoon Oct. 13-14 and also on the same nights. Several rural schools also brought their children to see these pictures. The movie was sponsored by the Jr. Chamber of Commerce and the Whirlwind band. The show was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone and was well worth the price.

Paducah Dragons Win Tilt 20-19

Paducah Dragons gave Floydada Whirlwinds their first lost conference game Friday night at Paducah, when Paducah sparked by Joe Edd Sandlin edged over Floydada making all 20 points in the first half. Paducah started the scoring at the first of the game by a fumble by Jeter on the 30 yard line, with the two Sandlins driving to the one yard line and with Joe Edd plunging over and kicking the conversion 7-0. But from then until the second quarter it was just a game of getting the ball and then having to kick out. But once Jeter kicked it out to their 38 yard line where a pass from Sandlin to Bennet took them to Floydada's 3. Then a pass from Sandlin to Biddy clicked for a score and Joe Sandlin kicked the conversion and made it 14-0. Then Floydada got a chance at the ball. They were stopped and had to kick but there was no run back. But on the very next play Rochelle made an end sweep from their own 43 and galloped all the way making their last T. D. in the ball game. The conversion which was no good was blocked by Don Boothe, who was not in the Abernathy game because of a cut arm, but played a fine game against Paducah in the guard slot. The half was not over when there was a serious threat by Floydada when Jeter drove to the 7. But he fumbled and it was recovered by Paducah. But they were stopped two times and quick kicked it to Floydada's own 25, where Bishop picked it up and with good running and good blocking carried it 76 yards for Floydada's first tally of the game. Conversion was no good, 20-6. But before the half ended, Paducah had threatened again, but then chances were upset. With Finley intercepting a pass taking it 10 yards, and with Floydada running with it 2 plays. The half ended with Paducah kicking off and Floydada carrying it to the 44 by Handley. Finley then on the first play fumbled with Paducah covering it. Drives by Sandlin were stopped every time, so he kicked it out on the 20. Floydada took times about kicking it, but the next time Floydada got the ball drives from Jeter and Bishop to the 30 paid off, with a pass from Finley to Jeter going all the way and its conversion was wide making it 20-12. With Paducah getting the ball, a few drives were stopped and Sandlin was forced to kick and Floydada got the ball on

The conversion was good, making the score 20-19, and with Paducah getting the ball again, they fumbled and the Winds recovered getting another chance for the winning T. D. But an interception by Presley on their own 15, ran it back to Whirlwinds 25, and then Floydada had to hold them and they did. The game ended seconds later with the score - Paducah 20, Floydada 19.

As this week's personality, I take great pleasure in giving little characteristics of one of the most popular boys in F. H. S. He is the one and only Bob Bishop. (What would the school do with two like him?) Bobby has black curly hair and mischievous brown eyes that just twinkle all the time. His muscle bound 140 pounds are molded into a 5' 11" frame.

Bobby was born in Big Springs, Texas, and also started his education there. He later moved to Houston with his family and continued his education at Houston. Last but not least, he moved to Floydada when the senior class members were eighth graders.

Bobby said he liked to spend his summer vacation months just traveling over country that he has not seen before.

He has always been an outstanding member of his class; this fact has been proved by his being elected sophomore president, junior and senior reporter, and junior favorite. He was also a very capable member of the "Hesperette" staff last year.

Bobby has also been very active in sports as he has gone out for three years; track, two years; and baseball, two years. He has not only just gone out for them, but he has also shown up very well in all of them.

His favorites are baseball, Coach Gresham, blue, banana pudding, steak with all the trimmings, geometry, chemistry, working crossword puzzles, and just plain loafing. Bobby's dislikes being with nosey

Band News

This week the Whirlwind Band made a journey to a town that represents that traditional southern hospitality, Paducah, Texas.
The stunt Friday night began when the band was heralded with a trumpet fanfare. The band used one of its former entrances of marching through its own ranks onto the field. Marching snappily to the forty yard line, the band went into a series of accurately timed maneuvers including the difficult oblique maneuvers. Then with a counter march at the south goal post the band returned to the fifty yard line and went into the formation of an anchor. While in this formation, the band marched off the field playing "The Westerner March."
The audience showed their approval of the band's performance, by giving them a roar of well deserved applause.
The band carried on this week without two of their important members, Brad Beedy, base drummer and Edith Garrett, twirler.
Brad Beedy is in Pitts hospital recovering from an appendix operation performed Friday afternoon. We hope Brad has the speediest of all recoveries and will be back playing the base drum soon.
A team consisting of Don Probasco, Don Hill, Albert Whitfill, and Douglas Whitfill, with Mr. Barber went to Plainview Saturday to enter a poultry judging contest. With six teams competing, the Floydada team won second place. Albert was second high man in district.
The ag classes have been figuring rations for beef calves, also.

DECEMBER HOLIDAY STORY FEATURES TEXAS PANHANDLE

The Panhandle will be featured in a 4,000-word article in the December issue of Holiday, the third issue of the magazine devoted principally to Texas.
Written by Lewis Nurdyke, well-known Amarillo newspaperman, the article traces the region's colorful history and tells of the vast wealth in its modern oil industry, cattle raising and wheat farming.
The current November Holiday, second in the Texas series, carries five articles on the State, dealing with Austin, San Antonio, the Texas Rangers, the Magic Valley, and one on the State as a whole, written by J. Frank Doble.

L. C. McDonald, in company with his son, LeRoy, of Tulla, is in South Dakota this week on a pheasant hunting trip. Also among the South Dakota hunters from Floydada this week have been Dr. D. H. Pitts and Herbert Sims. The last two named made the trip by private plane.

C. N. Walding, Woodrow Wilson, Buck Hekerson, and Woodrow Badgett left last Thursday for points in Utah where they will hunt deer. The season opened there October 16 and will extend through October 26.

1 1/2 Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE AROUND THE CLOCK every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25¢ an hour for every employe!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employes an annual raise which would average $1500 per employe!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1 1/2 billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employes have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48¢ an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10¢ an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employes Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

What Can You and Your Children Gain When You Vote For . . .

LYNDON JOHNSON

JACK PORTER

For United States Senator

1 Backed by President Truman, who on his recent Texas tour as the politician of the Kansas City Pendergast Machine, asked Texans to vote for Johnson, the man supported by the Parr Machine of Duval County.

2 Pledged to support Truman, Johnson would be called upon to vote for so-called Civil Rights Bill and the F. E. P. C. This law would destroy the rights of the States to segregate the Negroes and White People. It means your children would sit next to Negro children in school! It means you would have to eat in cafes with Negroes, even though neither you nor the Negroes want this sort of thing.

3 Supported by Truman and himself supporting Truman it is reasonable to assume that Johnson would take the same position as Truman does—to take from Texas its valuable tidelands. That means less money for the Free Schools of Texas. It means MORE TAXES against you!

4 A Lyndon Johnson vote is a vote for uncertainty. The highest courts agree that his seating will be up to the Senate. Will the Senate seat a man who was a principal in the charges made in open court of the greatest ballot scandal in Texas history?

5 Lyndon Johnson must go down the line with Truman. He has pre-election orders! He knows when and where to jump when the ADMINISTRATION says so. That dates back to when he got on the public payroll in the days of the alphabetic dole that cost the taxpayers millions!

6 Duval County's vote of persons who do not speak the English language—a mass vote of ignorant masses—put him on the ticket. Do you believe that AS DUVAL GOES, SO GOES TEXAS? How about the missing Precinct 13? How will Lyndon Johnson explain that to a Republican Senate? He, as a chronic officeholder, has not attempted to explain it to you. Why?

7 Johnson got a court injunction to stop a fair and impartial recount of the votes of Jim Wells County. Why?

8 A Lyndon Johnson vote will be a stand against states rights. It will be for the high taxes made necessary by the hundreds of needless bureaus maintained at Washington where the Truman voters reap rich harvests and then go to the polls to perpetuate Truman in power. It will be a vote against a reduction in your too-high income taxes!

1 Dominated by no one. Endorsed by Gov. Coke Stevenson. A native-born Texan and life-long Democrat who is running on the Republican ticket because he could not stomach the policies of the Big City Bosses and CIO organizers who are now running the national Democratic party.

2 His platform promise is clear. He will vigorously oppose the F. E. P. C. and Civil Rights Bill. He believes about this matter like most other native-born Texans believe. He is a friend of the Negro, but he is sure that any law which would force the Negro into the white schools would not be welcome by either. He believes that such laws are proper questions for the states to decide for themselves.

3 Jack Porter knows Texas owns the Tidelands. He knows millions of dollars can be realized from this source for Texas free school children. He is against Federal encroachment as threatened by the Truman-Johnson team.

4 A Jack Porter vote will be a vote for a man who, although never before sought a public office, has never had his honesty questioned at the polls or elsewhere! The Senate would seat Jack Porter.

5 Jack Porter, born at Weatherford, is ready to serve Texas . . . to go to Washington unchained politically . . . to fight for states rights! His principles are far more Democratic than the bureaucratic dominations believed in by his opponent!

6 There is no missing Precinct 13 of Jim Wells County to mar the record of Jack Porter. There will be none in the Nov. 2 election. There won't be any hide-outs for returns that go for him. Elect Porter, he will not have to account to the U. S. Senate for vote charges such as Lyndon Johnson has faced in this land's highest courts!

7 Governor Stevenson, now supporting Porter, did all within his power to get a fair and impartial recount of the votes in Jim Wells and Duval Counties, under the supervision of the Federal Court.

8 A Jack Porter vote will help put a man in high office who will go down the line against wasting federal funds that come out of your paycheck. When Justice Hugo Black put Jack Porter's opponent's name on the ballot it was concrete evidence that all federal power is lined up for the Truman-dominated candidate!

Voters Did NOT Take the "Pledge"

There is a movement in the so-called Democratic machinery of Texas to deny the right of voters to cast a ballot for the man of their choice in the general election.

Persons who voted in the Democratic Primary TOOK NO PLEDGE. THEY MERELY VOTED! At the top of the ticket was a so-called "pledge" just like the words "Official Ballot" was there. That wasn't a pledge!

The Democratic Primary voters made no promise. They were not sworn. They are obligated, if anything, to support only real Democrats—not those who are seeking public office on principles that attack the foundation of Democracy!

What if a Democratic nominee should become a horse thief? Would Democrats still be morally bound to support him? The so-called loyalist Democrats think so! What if a nominee became embroiled in the greatest ballot scandal in Texas history? Would Democrats still be morally bound to support him?

Your ballot Nov. 2 is so arranged that you can cast your ballot, if you so desire, for all nominees that meet the Democratic principals of Democracy, and still cast an honest vote for an honest man. Scratch Lyndon Johnson. VOTE FOR JACK PORTER FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE!

(Paid for by Floyd County Voters Supporting Jack Porter)

Matches Start Cotton Fires, Says Council

MEMPHIS, Tenn., (Special)—A marked increase in cotton fires, attributed directly to "kitchen" matches, prompted the National Cotton Council to issue a special fire-prevention warning today to cotton growers, gins and warehouses throughout the 18-state Cotton Belt.

A number of instances have been reported recently to the Council where "Strike-anywhere", "non-safety" matches carried by pickers, have found their way into seed cotton, later to start fires in the highly inflammable raw cotton or during the ginning process. Several disastrous fires this season have been traced to such sources.

The large influx of seasonal labor at harvest time brings workers into cottonfields who are unaware of the danger of fire, the Council reminds producers.

"Fire-packed" bales, sources of most gin fires, are also caused by careless smokers, sparks igniting the lint when metal and rocks in dirty seed cotton strike machinery during the ginning process, defective electric wiring and faulty equipment.

Drivers License Examiner Dates During November

The drivers license examiner of the State Safety commission will be in Floydada only two Tuesdays during the month of November, it was announced this week at the office of Sheriff Leland A. Hart. The examiner's regular schedule puts him in Floydada every Tuesday from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m., which includes next Tuesday as his next date to fill here.

During the month of November, the examiner is to be here only on the second and fourth Tuesdays, being November 9 and November 23. Beginning December 1 he will resume his usual schedule, said the sheriff.

IRRIGATION RATE OFF

With the billings based on meter readings of the City Water department this week the last of the irrigation rates for this summer will have been recorded.

Beginning with the billing based on November readings the normal rate of water charges will be resumed in the city, said City Secretary B. K. Barker yesterday.

Ample water at the irrigation rate has been available for one of the driest summers on record in Floydada and the citizens have not been backward in making use of it to take care of their lawns and trees, the city meter readings indicate.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Banks of Amarillo visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Jarret last week-end.

STATES' RIGHTS HEADS IN TEXAS CAMPAIGN

GOV. J. STROM THURMOND of South Carolina

GOV. FIELDING L. WRIGHT of Mississippi

Houston, Texas, Oct. 20.—The States' Rights candidates for president and vice-president will join in the whirlwind campaign now under way throughout the State, during the week preceding the November election, it was announced here today by Robert W. Milner, States' Rights campaign director.

Governor Wright will make two speeches in Texas. He will speak at Columbus on Oct. 21, and in Wichita Falls on Oct. 22.

Governor Thurmond will open his Texas campaign in Texarkana Oct. 27. Thursday, Oct. 28, he is scheduled for speeches and appearances in Clarksville, Paris, Bonham, Sherman, Gainesville, Denton, and Fort Worth. His schedule on the following day is Cleburne, Hillsboro, Waco, Temple, Georgetown and Austin. Saturday, Oct. 30, he will wind up his Texas campaign with talks in San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Tyler, and Beaumont.

Both Governor Thurmond and Wright will broadcast each night during their Texas engagements.

Willsons Attending Legion Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Willson are in Miami, Florida, attending the National American Legion Convention. Mr. Willson is a National Executive Committeeman and Mrs. Willson is a state delegate.

The convention began Monday, completely filling a hall made from two former Navy airplane hangars. Registration numbered something over 9,000.

President Harry S. Truman was the main speaker of the opening day program, saying, "This is an opportunity I've been looking forward to for 30 years and I've finally made it." The theme of his speech was pledging every effort for a better understanding with Russia. But, he said, there will be no compromise of principles of freedom and human rights.

Texas delegates at the convention are campaigning for Perry Brown of Beaumont, Texas, an early Legion leader, for the office of national commander of the Legion.

FIVE ABSENTEE VOTES

Forecasting only lackadaisical interest in the general election, yesterday morning five voters had cast absentee ballots.

Although interest is expected to mount as the campaign gets warmer it does not seem probable now to political forecasters that the vote will be very heavy. Last day for absentee votes is Friday, October 29.

H. O. Pope left Saturday for Dallas for a few days visit with his son. From there he will go to Mineral Wells for a two week stay where he will take health baths.

nia since 1933, was found dead in his apartment at San Luis Obispo on Sunday morning, October 10. Authorities said he died of a heart attack. His only son, Leon, who lives at Monohans, Texas, flew to California and arranged for the return of the body to Texas for burial. This son and his family, including three children, were among the surviving relatives who attended the funeral rites at Alan Reed.

Fred N. Clark, a brother, and Mrs. Clark, of Floydada attended the rites, as did another brother, B. L. Clark, of Oklahoma City. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clark, a nephew and his wife, of Starkey, and their two daughters, Billie and Cynthia Joe, attended the funeral as did members of the road crew of Precinct No. One of Floyd county, out of respect to Commissioner Fred Clark. They are Frank Simpson, Weldon Wellmaker, D. F. Graham, and Elwood Walters.

A number of friends of the family sent flowers, among them the road crew and members of the county's official family in the court house and the Commissioners court.

Thoughtfulness of local friends and officials was deeply gratifying to himself and Mrs. Clark. Mr. Clark said following his return home from Alanreed.

Funeral for Lee Faulkner Tuesday

Lee Faulkner, former resident of Floydada who moved in 1924, to Bellevue passed away Sunday night in a Fort Worth hospital after about two weeks of severe sickness. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment was made at Bellevue, where the Faulkners made their home.

Faulkner is survived by his widow, of Bellevue, a son, Otto Faulkner, Long Beach, California, who is a son-in-law of the E. P. Nelson's here, and two daughters, Mrs. Hollis Moore, of Buda, Texas, and Mrs. Earnest Patterson, of Fort Worth.

Congressman Geo. Mahon in Floydada Next Wednesday

Youth Rally Was Success at McCoy

The youth rally at McCoy Saturday night was very much a success. Approximately 65 registered representing McCoy, Petersburg, Sand Hill, Cone, Floydada, Dougherty, Alken, and perhaps other churches.

Lorene Gunter, a Wayland student, gave a personal testimony. Special music was rendered by the Petersburg and Floydada churches. Slides of Alaska were shown and explained by Mori Haritoni, one of the students who toured Alaska this summer with a group of Wayland students holding revivals and bible schools. The slides were very beautiful as well as educational and inspirational.

Sam Choy, main speaker of the evening, gave a powerful message of "Finding the Will of God for my Life."

This rally was the beginning of monthly rallies similar to this one. There will be one next month at Dougherty and the following month at Cone. These rallies are not only for Baptist youth; they are for anyone who wishes to attend—old or young. Dates will be published in this paper as to when following meetings will be.

Travel Hazard Tripled After Night Fall

"Look out when it's dark out!" This warning by Colonel Homer Garrison, Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety is the slogan of a traffic safety program this month emphasizing the hazards of driving and walking after dark. "Darkness triples your chances of a fatal accident," Colonel Garrison said. "That is, for every mile of motor travel three times as many fatal accidents occur in the hours of darkness as in daylight, according to the National Safety Council."

"And of all fatal traffic accidents, three out of five occur at night he said. "The causes of an increase in traffic accidents after dark seem pretty obvious, but people seem to ignore them. You turn on the lights in your house when night falls — so let's turn a little light on the causes of night traffic accidents and try to cut down the night toll of deaths and injuries."

Here are some of the reasons why more traffic accidents occur at night, according to Mr. W. J. Elliott, Chief of the Texas Highway Patrol.

1. Motorists cannot see as far nor as well as in daylight.
2. More drivers and more pedestrians may have been drinking.
3. Drivers at night — and pedestrians, too — are more likely to be tired. Fatigue reduces alertness and ability to react quickly.
4. Speeds considered safe in daylight may be too fast for safety at night.
5. Pedestrians too often do not realize they cannot be seen.

Captain E. L. Posey of the Lubbock District of the Texas Highway Patrol urges motorists, pedestrians and bicycle riders to be extra cautious during hours of darkness. "Careful attention should be given to 'affix at all times,' he said, "and this is doubly essential at night time."

Tribute Paid Chas. Sims, Old-time Cowboy Boy, by a Friend

(The following tribute paid Charles Sims, son of a Floyd county pioneer couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sims, was written by Casey Barthless of Miles City, Montana. The tribute also re-tells the story of his death and burial rites.—Ed Note.)

Old Time Cowboy Passes
Relatives from Texas and a host of close friends and neighbors gathered to fill the Graves Funeral Home to capacity at 2 p. m. on Sept. 16, to pay their last respects to Charles Sims who passed away on September 13.

The beautiful floral offerings which included a silk manila lariat rope entwined with flowers was a solemn tribute to this old time cowboy and indicated the esteem in which he was held.

While he had been in poor health the past several years his death was attributed to an accident while still in the saddle and engaged in handling stock on his ranch located on Tongue river some 30 miles south of Miles City. Will and Anna Sims brother and sister of the deceased were at the bedside when the end came.

At the conclusion of the chapel rites, which were conducted by the Rev. John B. Fitz of the Presbyterian church, the committal services were held at the Custer county cemetery where burial took place by the side of J. R. Hutchinson, pioneer manager of the SY cow outfit where Sims was once employed, and a man with whom Charles rode the range for many years. The pallbearers were Tom Gilmore, Dot Pyle, Pat O'Casey, Ernest Baker, Jim Jackson and Glen Bickie.

The late Mr. Sims was born in South Carolina on Sept. 12 1881 and at the age of three years moved to Texas with his parents where he attended school and remained until he was 16 years of age. Possessing a spirit of adventure and a desire to see the country, he moved up into the Oklahoma territory where he spent a year with an uncle.

Inspired by talk of the cow outfits and cowboy life of the north, he decided to become a cowboy. Buying a saddle he struck out for himself. And in due time landed in Kansas City where he was able to secure transportation to Sheridan, Wyoming, with a shipment of horses and mules. That summer he worked his way up into the Black Hills where he spent the following winter, driving an ore team.

With the arrival of spring young Sims again headed north where he was soon to realize his ambition. He hired out to the M. C. Connor cow outfit located on Powder River.

In the years that followed he also became identified with several of the last open range "spreads" operating in this section of the state. Among them were the Milliron, the Three V, the LO (operated by John M. Holt), the W. E. Harris outfit (SY) and the Diamond A. Sims was wagon boss for the later outfit when they closed out in 1919.

In 1921 after a reunion and extended visit with his people in Texas he returned to Montana and located on Tongue River where he took over the management of the old Howard Ranch which he later owned. Following the drought years of the '30s he sold the ranch. Later he leased a ranch in the same vicinity where he remained and continued in the stock business until his death.

Charles Sims lived a very colorful life. He was possessed of a most unusual personality. During a very active life he was rough, reckless, rugged and yet, he had such characteristics and qualities as endeared him to all who were privileged to have worked on the range or associated with him. He was a kindly person, generous and most sympathetic and willing at all times to lend a hand to one in need. His ability for making friends had no bounds. He was particularly interested in young folks but his friends numbered among folks of all walks of life, the humble to the rich—it made no difference.

He had a remarkable memory for names and dates, and was often occupied with a gifted ability in relating interesting experiences that happened along his eventful life.

And many a "pistol" who worked under or with him was inspired by his outstanding qualities.

Sims had a constitution that seemed of tempered steel. When the going got roughest, the weather at its worse for necessary handling of stock on the range, the tasks or responsibilities grew greater it only tended to add zest to his determination to see a job through.

The mold used in casting such men as Sims has been laid away or lost. The era and circumstances that developed or built such people is rapidly passing from memory to that of history of the open range and the old roundup days of a cow country.

And over that divide to where "Big Enough" has gone he'll find a round-up wagon camped beside a creek, the water holes will be full, grass a plenty to stake out his horse, and a soft spot where he can roll out his sougans.

Surviving relatives are one brother and four sisters, William Sims, Mrs. Guy Sims and Mrs. E. J. Thomas of Lockney, Texas, Mrs. Charles Flack and Miss Anna Sims of Plainview, Texas.

(The above tribute was prepared by Casey Barthless, long time friend of Mr. Sims.)

Mr. and Mrs. K. Terrell and son visited their daughter, Mrs. Frances Wooten in Dallas last week-end. They also went to the state fair while in Dallas.

Mrs. Fred Stewart and Mrs. Sam Phillips were among the many elementary teachers who attended the educational conference at West Texas State college Saturday, October 16.

The theme of the conference placed major emphasis upon education in the primary grades. This statement was borne out by Dr. Cornette, president of West Texas, when he said education does not begin in high school, nor does it begin in junior high, but its roots reach far deeper than the elementary grades, even down into the first grade. Here, the most efficient teaching is done, he said.

At luncheon the guest speaker, Dr. Mary Wilson of Northwestern State college at Natchitoches, Louisiana, forcefully spoke on the subject, "Classroom Provisions for Individual Differences."
