EDITORIALS

The new election law, or the amendment to the old election law, so far as we are informed about it, pleases us. It is the kind of a law that will take old slipshod ways of doing things out of primary and general and special elections. It goes so far, is the only trouble, it guarantees, if followed to the letter, there will be no intimidation, no knowledge of how anybody voted at anytime, until and unless a contest is instituted and even then only to the officials who conduct the contest. If they put out the information when that time comes the responsibility for baring the way you or I voted will be between less than a half dozen persons. The responsibility will be largely personal instead of broadcast. The system will be relatively simple, the responsibility for violations of its provisions easy to trace, or so we think. Only thing is it adds something else for the county's general fund to take care of. If the general fund does not have the money to provide the additional equipment we do not know where the voter will go from there. In the case of primary elections the county will not be obligated to furnish all the paraphernalia. If the commissioners do not volunteer to furnish this the candidates will have to do so, because the new law does not change the rule that the primary candidates pay the expenses of an election in which they participate. Costs which have run $25 to $45 heretofore may and quite likely will run $100 a year from now.

Impact of the new laws the state legislature has been passing is due to be felt in Texas beginning about this time. Three we think of right now that will affect Floyd county people and the high plains are: The so-called secret ballot revision of the election laws, the Gilmer-Aiken school bills and the underground water conservation bill. Each of them carries with it the implication of some additional expenses under certain circumstances. One of these circumstances may have arrived already in the school set-up. There seems to be no doubt there will be some head-scratching in school districts where they already have their limit of tax rate. In these instances the school people have only two alternatives if we are correctly informed: First, they can get their Commissioners court to raise county tax valuations; or, second, they can take up a collection to make up the difference between what the law says they should provide and what they can provide by way of tax levies made.

Another way in which the Gilmer-Aiken bill will hit local people is in the matter of consolidations. If we understand what the law says from the smattering of information we have, a school district which has not had a school operating in the last two years is going to be consolidated with an adjoining or neighboring school. The law appears to direct the county school board to do this job. You can think of nearly a score of schools which have not been operating for the past two or more years in Floyd county. They have been transferring and paying transportation and apparently are well-pleased with the arrangement they have, considering the circumstances. Now they will be joined to another district and there will not be any voting done.

Let us hope the Gilmer-Aiken measure is what the people want, or if not what they want, at least what they need. All of its aspects will become more visible as time goes on. The legislature and the teachers organization of the state stepped right out and gave Texas a brand new arrangement of their school system. The cost, said officially to be $60 million over former costs will be much more than that as a matter of fact. Whether Texas people can support the bill when times change is one of the questions some will ask. Others will take for granted there must be a federal appropriation to help out. And that will be another matter. One thing about it the Texas school system is to be run from Austin henceforth. It will be fine for a common school trustee not to have to worry about his school business any more. All he will have to do is sign here and here and even some of that he will have relief from. On second thought, we do not actually know that the district trustees have not been dispensed with.

The Gilmer-Aiken bill, or a bill of similar import was opposed by the powerful teachers organization of the state two years ago, but this year this organization got behind the bill, after some objectionable features had been eliminated. Now the teachers have the kind of a law they want and we hope they will quit putting it in the papers how ashamed they are of Texas. How it is fiftieth in this thing, forty-seventh in that, educationally speaking. All of us are familiar with the rigamarole of how ashamed they have been for anybody from Connecticut to know how backward us Texas seventh graders are. Is it not fair to take this attitude. We want to be "nice" and we want to be fair, but the run of the mine citizen cannot be either or both all the time. Perhaps we are not being now. We've got friends who are upright men and women in the teaching profession. Have they done the right thing by themselves and us and the coming generation, is all we want to know. They'll have to live with it, you know.

Hygiene in the garden is as important to vegetables as cleanliness is in the home. Many diseases of vegetables are carried over on the stems, roots or leaves of the plants which have spent themselves in spring production. Such plants should be dug up, and not cut off at ground level.

Producers of eggs, chickens and turkeys must keep in mind the consumer demand for their production if market outlets are going to continue to increase their volume of business.

District Bonds Crosby Get Court's Okey

More than a year of legislation, the way was finally cleared last week for work on the county's Road district No. 10-to-market program, says the Review.

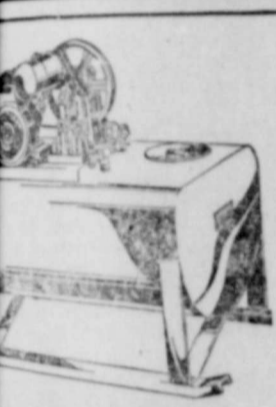

The court fight ended when the Supreme court at Austin granted an application for writ of certiorari in the case of Andy Wooten vs. Crosby county.

The bond issue, voted early in the year for the issuance of $132,000 to construct 16 1/2 miles of roads in the district, was designated in the bond issue.

The roads on the East plains; the Big Four to Blanco canyon; the four miles west from Big Four to the Fairview community. The $104,000 of the bonds will be paid at the present time, Judge Wooten said. The remainder will be paid as needed.

The state highway department has agreed to take over the construction of the roads, do the engineering and pay 25 percent of the cost. After completion the roads will be maintained by the state.

The department will have to draw the plans, secure the bonds and complete construction of the roads before cold weather, is reached. However no information from the district engineer's plans has been received by local officials, newspaper said.

FAIRVIEW, June 21 - Weather has been favorable for harvesting for the past several days and everyone is really busy trying to get as much done as possible before any more rain or storms come. Wheat has not turned out so good in most fields as so much of it was damaged by hail and wind.

Seems Floyd county folks have to take a beating from hail regardless of where they are. Some of our ex-Floyd county folks who now live near Portales, New Mexico, have been hailed out during the past few weeks as told in a letter Mrs. Bagwell received this week from Mrs. J. B. Jordan. Several families from our community have moved to Portales the past two years.

Monday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Payne and daughter, June, were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Payne and family, of San Angelo. Visitors in the Bagwell home Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denison, Rev. and Mrs. Joe Wilson and grandson, Mrs. Walton Wilson and daughter, Judy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cannon.

(Taken from the Issue of Thursday, June 13, 1949)

Floyd county has been declared a modified tuberculosis free, accredited area in respect to cattle, by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Livestock Sanitary commission of Texas in cooperation, according to a certificate received by Judge Tom W. Deen this week.

Railway week, June 10 to 15, was observed at the weekly noon luncheon of the Floydada Rotary club with a talk by Judge L. G. Matthews, one of the commitmen in charge of arrangements for observance of the week, and a talk by G. G. Voight, pastor of the First Christian church here.

E. G. Foster, for forty five years a resident of Floyd county, was buried Saturday afternoon in the Lockney cemetery.

5 YEAR GUARANTEED MOTHPROOFING WITH Fastex IS IN!

What is YA-DE?

YA-DE (with Fastex) is a mothproof... Not a moth-killer. One treatment makes the fabric immune to moth damage for five years. No moth will cut, eat or live upon the fibers of a YA-DE treated fabric.

What is Fastex?

Fastex (in YA-DE exclusively) is the newly-developed formula which holds YA-DE fast to textiles. Fastex means greater penetration, greater affinity, greater lasting power.

WHY WE CHOOSE YA-DE
ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS to the finest woollens and the finest furs.
CONTAINS FASTEX... the exclusive formula which holds YA-DE FAST TO TEXTILES.
DRY CLEAN IT, WASH IT... it's still mothPROOF.
A WRITTEN GUARANTEE... backs up each YA-DE treatment.
NON-POISONOUS, NON-IRRITANT.
A WORK SAVER... A WORRY SAVER.
SAVES HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES... No bags, no chests, no camphor balls, no sprays, no gadgets.
A GOOD INVESTMENT... YA-DE THREE suits for the cost of re-weaving ONE moth hole.
CONVENIENT... Mothproofing takes no longer... We serve you now... Let us serve you further.

Mrs. Housewife
DO YOU KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT THE MOTH?
The "Moth Season" is 365 days a year... The eating larva lives three years... Consumes 2,000 times his own weight annually... His feeding ground is world-wide... Your heated home is his best incubator... Good Housekeeping is no protection.

Do You Know the Difference Between MOTH KILLING... (buy boxes and bottles of insect Kill-Alls... spray walls, floors, cracks, garment seams... spray everything every two weeks or oftener... buy gadgets filled with odorous chemicals... shut your home and pour in poison gases.)

... AND MOTH PROOFING? There is one way to mothproof your property... easily... inexpensively... scientifically... YA-DE the fabric and forget the moth!

When you send it SAY "MOTHPROOF IT"

A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

morning, June 20, 1949 finds farmers again in the fields. The garden is being cut, wheat and corn are being cut, and the garden is being cut. Small hail, but like knives.

blackberries have made well we have enjoyed cobbler and cream. A good many ago we planted a row of They did not do any good any time the ground was plowed the vines, or did they? crept farther and farther and in the grape vines and they are, protected from the and hoe.

was a long, long way from many to Nebraska but William land made it a long time it was a long way from Nebraska to Crosby county but the Holzerlands made it their home, then back to Nebraska where Mrs. Holzerland passed away. It was a long way for Mr. Holzerland to leave his daughter's home where he has been visiting for he had to go by the way of death and then the mortal remains went back to Nebraska. He was our neighbor, a good one, true and honest and helpful. He knew the value of friendship. He worked hard and made the earth bear good crops. Such men have made America, weather they came from Germany, England, Ireland or somewhere else. Giving their best to the country of their adoption, making it good citizens and leaving a rich heritage for their children to live by.

"You-all means a race or section, Family, Party, Tribe, or clan; You-all means the whole connection Of the individual man. In the singular it's never Used in this part of the land; But we give up hope of ever Making others understand."

Of all the funny things that live, in woodland, marsh or bog, that creep the ground or fly the air, the funniest thing's a frog.

And from the looks of the tadpole crop, we shall all have plenty of fun looking at frogs.

Walter Ellis Gillon never forgets that Aunt Nellie loves rocks when he goes on trips. He always adds some pretty and interesting ones to my collection. This time he brought me a lovely piece of rose quartz fastened to a small block of polished red cedar. Also other specimens of rocks.

During the rainy weather every time the ground in the orchard would dry off a little, Wilds and I planted beans and peas, then more beans and peas. Good thing the weather cleared up, there was not much place to plant any more.

Center News

Yes, a penny's BIG money!

When you spend it for electricity, of course! That important little penny will do any one of these things for you...

 1¢ ... vacuum clean 6 large rugs	 1¢ ... toast 3 full loaves of bread
 1¢ ... beat and mix 6 layer cakes	 1¢ ... wash and dry 6 loads of dishes
 1¢ ... bring you an evening of radio	 1¢ ... light a 100-watt lamp more than 3 hours

It's amazing what your electric penny buys in comfort and efficiency and real living values. It takes a lot of skill and experience—yes, and sound business management—to keep electric service the biggest bargain in your budget today. (And this, remember, in spite of the rising costs of making and delivering electricity to you!) Truly, electricity does a lot for a little!

Election Laws

ted. This may be done in any manner including the use of a wooden or rubber stamp. This new wrinkle also calls for the voter not to forget to bring his poll tax receipt or exemption.

The torn off stub number from the ballot the voter himself deposits in the separate sealed up box for the district clerk's keeping, is put in that box at the same time the voter puts his own ballot in the ballot box. The ballot box the presiding officer opens, of course, and puts his counters to work counting, but the box bearing the numbers is kept sealed "by placing a short ribbon through the hasp on the box and securing the ends of said ribbon with two gummed seals which shall be sealed together by affixing thereto the seal of the court, so as to make it impossible to open the box without breaking the seal." The district clerk also has to prepare a certificate in triplicate showing the number of the box, the date of the election, and the nature of the election. The district clerk puts one copy of this certificate in the box before sealing it, attaches one to the outside of the box and keeps one in his files. This box goes to the election judge from the district clerk at the same time the other ballot boxes and supplies are delivered, but when the presiding judge is making his returns the "number" box goes to the district clerk and not to the place where it has been designated other ballot boxes shall be returned.

One of the purposes which the new law will serve is to eliminate the casual and informal voting which has become generally customary and is calculated to make balloting a ceremony. In addition to this on the practical side, the county is likely to have to buy some boxes to take care of the district clerk's number box. This takes some more from the general fund. It is noted that the county is not bound to furnish political parties with boxes. In case the county does not have these boxes available the county committee of a party might have to buy their own. This would mean that assessments against candidates might have to be hiked materially in order to get enough expense money to handle a primary election, especially in view of the fact that a second primary is now mandatory under the new law.

at 4 per cent interest. Distress Loans On Wheat The ACA office has announced an emergency distress loan plan, whereby wheat may be piled on the ground under a 75 per-cent loan with the farmer being given 90 days to secure or provide storage. The grain will be graded at the time it is piled, and if the farmer fulfilled his contract, he will be paid on that grade, regardless of deterioration.

Tenants who apply for construction loans for storage should have a five year lease on the farm or on the bin site.

State Per Capita Funds are Received

What with legislative appropriations for transportation mounting into the millions, other appropriations for rural school aid and things of the kind, the fact that the State School board has remitted in the past week $4 per capita out of the state available school fund doesn't mean anything any more.

Fact is, however, the board did remit such a sum which represents $4.720 for common school districts of the county and $4,204 for Floydada Independent School district.

This $4 remittance makes the total forwarded to date to schools of the county $48 per capita of a total pledged of $53.

All Pollen Not Alike

Many persons probably share the impression that led a poet to write of "pollen-dust" as "the golden burden on the thighs" of a wild bee. Here is a more matter of fact and accurate description by George H. Vansell, bee specialist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who has studied the actual pollen that bees bring back to the hives:

"The pollen grains from different plants vary physically and chemically," he says. "They range widely in size, with some ten times as big as others. They may be spherical, triangular, square, disklike, or crescent shaped. Some pollen grains are provided with wings for their transportation by the wind. Others are light and apparently full of gasses which facilitate their transfer by wind movement. The surface texture of pollen is almost infinite in its variety. The color, as seen in bee loads, ranges from white through all the colors of the spectrum to almost black."

Chemical analysis shows that pollen is a high quality food material, analyzing more than 20 per cent protein, nearly 30 percent carbohydrates, and about 5 percent fats.
