Amarillo For It Now!

Dream of the south plains people for an open traffic route directly north to the oil fields above Palo Duro canyon, got a shot of energizing backing Tuesday in a meeting in Amarillo, where Amarillo influence was publicly pledged in support of getting a highway across Palo Duro and Tule canyons between Silverton, Briscoe county, and Claude, Armstrong county. Approximately a 23-mile stretch of unimproved road and a quite expensive bridge are to be done on the route to make it feasible.

The meeting in Amarillo was attended by County Judge G. C. Tubbs, Commissioners Fred N. Clark, W. H. Counts, W. C. Plumlee and Fay Hart. J. M. Willson, sr., of Floydada, and Roy Patterson and Frank Perkins, of Lockney, also attended and lent their support to the idea from this county. Every other town on the route from Borger to Post had representatives at the meeting also.

They're for it now! That's the story so far as people of this area are concerned. This means Amarillo is publicly for the route. Heretofore for many years Amarillo actively opposed the route while they had big plans for routes that would point directly into and through their city. Now that many of these objectives have been accomplished and traffic congestion is beginning to result in a high accident hazard from south plains commercial trucks which have to use the U. S. Highway 37 route through Amarillo to the oil fields, need for more direct route is being seen.

In Floyd county 15 years ago a survey of daily truck hauls from Floyd county to the oil fields showed that the route by way of Amarillo was costing this county alone more than $40,000 per year in mileage and lost time by way of the Amarillo bottleneck. The condition is even more pronounced at this time, since industry and farming have been totally mechanized. Briscoe, Floyd and Crosby have been penalized more heavily than other counties by this road condition.

The group is known as the Borger-to-Post Highway association. The sketch of the route to the left, made 15 years ago, can be revised to show all construction done or in process including 13 miles and a bridge across the river between Post and Ralls leaving only the connection between the Briscoe and Armstrong county capitals unfinished.

Vote is Called on School Bond For Dec. Sixth

Taxpayers of Floydada Independent School district are to pass on a proposed bond issue of $165,000 on Tuesday, December 6, in an election to be held at the American Legion hall at the corner of Fifth and Virginia streets.

Call for the election was issued by the school board of the district last week, following meetings in which the school's housing situation was canvassed pro and con.

Serious need for six more class rooms at Andrews ward school call for an additional wing there, which the board plans to make on the south of the present building, subject to approval of the taxpayers, of course. Additionally, a physical education building, which will be erected on the high school campus, has been one of the school system's serious needs for many years, and will be provided for from the proceeds of the bond issue, should the people of the district give their okay.

Shortage of Class Rooms
At this time Andrews Ward school has 20 class rooms, counting six added this past year. Already it is known that classroom facilities for 25 sections will be needed. Unless rooms for these sections are provided five classes in that school will be without "homes".

Pointing to the need of facilities to carry out a well-rounded physical education program, the school authorities indicate that a gymnasium available for daily use at the high school would make such a program possible. At present there are no such facilities. When room is needed for indoor games for high school students the ward school gymnasium has to be pressed into service.

The additional facilities, while increasing the debt of the district by $165,000 if the bonds get approval, can be provided without an additional tax, board members state for the consideration of taxpayers.

The date for the vote is next Tuesday. Usual hours of opening and closing the polls—8 a. m. to 7 p. m.—will be observed. The place for the vote is the American Legion hall.

Physical Education For All
Pointing out the advantages which will accrue to the children of the school district should the taxpayers decide to support the bond issue, Superintendent I. T. Graves said the explanation for the statement that more debt in the form of bonds in this instance will not increase taxes is in the fact that whereas Floydada Independent School district had before consolidations real values of about three million dollars it now has about five million, without any increase in the valuation. Thus the increase in the levy is offset by the increase in valuations.

Floydada schools have been suffering for lack of physical education equipment for the past 20 years and the inclusion of a physical education building at this time will be extremely valuable to the school in (See Bond Election, back page)

Plane Wreckage.—Twisted steel of the plane in which Clyde Irwin and his daughter Luella Faye took their fateful flight early Sunday is shown here. The picture was made by a Hesperian staff member while a few embers still twisted and curled about the scene. Shown are citizens of the community who visited the wreck in increasing numbers throughout the day Sunday. The plane crashed on the C. W. Burton farm about 6:15 after it had taken off from the Irwin private hangar a mile and a half distant. The daughter was killed and the father is in a Floydada hospital with severe burns.

CRASH CLAIMS VICTIM

The end of a joyous Thanksgiving visit at home for Leola Faye Irwin, 21-year-old native daughter of Floyd county, came with fiery death Sunday morning at 6:15 when a light plane, in which she took off with her father from their home 10 miles northeast of Floydada, crashed and burned in a wheat field a mile and a half distant.

Clyde Irwin, 52, her father, is in Peoples hospital at Floydada, with severe burns over 40 to 50 per cent of the area of his body. He also suffered face and head injuries extent of which had not been determined the first of the week.

Father and daughter were to have flown to Brownsville, Texas, near which place Miss Irwin was a member of a high school faculty. She was teaching her first school after finishing degree work at West Texas State college last summer. Mr. Irwin had gone to Brownsville to bring his eldest daughter home for the holiday period. On the take-off Sunday morning the couple had gone alone to the family's private hangar adjacent to their farm home, leaving other members of the family at the house, a quarter mile distant. There were no actual witnesses to the crash, so far as has been learned.

First to reach the scene of the accident were George Mize and Ham Smith, jr., of Floydada, who saw the flaming machine from the road. Rushing out they found Mr. Irwin about 150 feet from the plane and took him immediately from the scene to the hospital. They questioned him whether anyone else was in the plane, and he also queried them, indicating a mental lapse as to events immediately preceding the crash. Flames that were consuming the machine and its fuel supply were rising 40 to 50 feet in the air. Presence of the ranchman's daughter's lifeless body in the flaming wreckage was learned later.

A neighbor, Lee Ruzhing, was one of the rescue party which aided F. C. Harmon and T. G. Hall, jr., to remove the body from the wreckage and take it to the mortuary in Floydada. Her presence in the plane was learned only after neighbors and members of the family said it was the intention of her father to fly her back to her work at Brownsville.

The plane was a single engine Bellanca, purchased less than 60 days ago. The crash occurred on the C. W. Burton farm about 1 1/2 miles east of the Irwin private airfield. Of two speculative causes of the crash, one is that the pilot was closer to the ground in making a bank in the early dawn than he thought, that he caught a wing which skewed the machine about and caused it to crash. Another possible explanation is that an effort at a landing was being made. (See Plane Crash, back page)

Leola Faye Irwin Rites Held Monday

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Leola Faye Irwin, victim of a plane accident early Sunday morning. Rites were conducted at the First Christian church, Floydada. Rev. Joe Wilson of the Fairview Baptist church and Rev. R. N. Huckabee, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated at the rites held at 2 o'clock. Interment was made in the Floydada cemetery under the direction of Harmon Funeral home.

Leola was born on March 17, 1928, in the Fairview community, where she had lived all of her life. She finished Floydada high school with the class of 1945. She attended West Texas State college, Canyon, for four years, receiving her B. S. degree on August 28, 1949. She was teaching her first school at Brownsville, Texas. She was a member of the Fairview Baptist church, being converted August 1, 1948.

Her mother preceded her in death a year ago last April. Pallbearers for the occasion were Walton Wilson, Gene Hopper, Robert Fisher, Edell DuBois and Macy Boteler.

Surviving her are her father, Clyde Irwin; six brothers, Randall, Shirley, Lofflin, Sherman, Herbert, Hershel, and one sister, Luella. Other relatives include Mr. and Mrs. Fay Maxey and Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Boteler and families of Floydada; brothers of Mr. Irwin, Carman Irwin and family of Clayton, New Mexico; Rube Irwin of Floydada and Herbert Irwin of Louisiana, and two sisters, Mrs. Gracie Mayfield and Alta Mae Irwin of New York City, New York.

Leola was buried in the family lot by the side of her mother.

Dollar Day Monday Hits Exactly Right For Pre-Holiday Shoppers

Shoppers who like a good bargain ought to be well pleased Monday of next week, when Dollar day will reign once more as the first Monday in the month rolls around.

Especially pleased, it should be said, because practically all of the population will be out on the hunt for items to use for Christmas gift giving. This year, as in all years, a bargain is a bargain whenever and wherever it is found. Numerous local shops and department stores are featuring Dollar day items, and reading the advertisements some of these appear to have the holiday savor.

Advantages accruing to merchandisers and to the public in regular, periodic Dollar days or First Mondays include the opportunity to make special purchases and to feature them in this way. Often a very good item catches on with the public and pleases the budget-minded persons who want something different and specially-priced.

Monday shoppers will do well, also, to take time to visit the many other interesting shops and retail stores in Floydada which may not have the Dollar day features but are featuring holiday merchandise in great variety in Floydada.

STREETS - FULL GREET SANTA CLAUS MONDAY AS HE INAUGURATES HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES

Streets-full of youngsters, from tiny tots to teen-agers, swarmed over the down-town business section of Floydada Monday afternoon when Santa Claus made his triumphant pre-Christmas round to view the kiddies and see what histask might be like when he returns on Christmas eve.

"The streets were full of children," the patron saint of jolly good times at yuletide, told C of C manager Robt. H. Crowell late Monday after Santa had made a business district tour and dished out thousands of pieces of candy to interested youngsters. "I hope all got some of the candy. It will be back at Christmas-time. It was a nice turn out and lots of good kids evident in the throng."

Sprightlier Windows, More Light
The Santa Claus visit Monday and the street lighting plan sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce is not the sum total of the effort to make Floydada an excitingly interesting shopping place during the holiday season.

Last week the Junior Chamber of Commerce took up the cudgels for better-looking stores, for brighter and more appealing windows, for more light. Their campaign vanguard was an appeal to business establishments of the county to "put your best into your window displays. Buy something extra to put into your windows to catch the eyes of your customers."

"Leave your lights on at night—It costs only a few cents to make a dark, uninteresting store bright. You are competing with every city in the world and don't think that you aren't."

"Be ready to go December 1. We can make this Christmas the biggest one Floydada has ever had."

of the growers go to the polls on December 15, anything can happen," says the chairman. "And there will be no way of telling if those who do vote represent a fair cross section of the opinion of all growers. Nor will it make any difference. The decision for 1950 will have been made."

Johnston points out that arrangements have been completed by county PMA committees to set up polling places in every cotton growing community in the state. Every reasonable step has been taken to make it as convenient as possible for growers to get to the polls.

Any person who, as landlord, tenant or shrotopper, had an interest in a crop of cotton grown in 1948 is eligible to vote in the referendum.

Polling places will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. the day of the referendum — Thursday, December 15.

A kind weather man has extended the days of good weather another week in Floyd county and throughout the plains-panhandle country as agricultural workers have hustled to gather the biggest cotton crop in years and to get their feed into shocks and storage bins. The pressure of this work has been unequalled. The job is being done with speed.

A report from the fourteen gins in the county this week puts the total bales ginned to Tuesday in the county at $6,227 bales. The count had passed 40,000 bales last night, County Agent Robt. H. Gibson said.

Much cotton is being piled on the ground at this time because of the inability of the gins to take care of the cotton as fast as it is received and also because of the speed the cotton is being gathered due to the mechanical cotton strippers being used all over the territory at this time.

Agent Gibson is estimating that between 50 and 60 per cent of the county's cotton crop has been ginned. A larger percent has been harvested, of course, with thousands of bales stacked on the ground.

The gin reports and the estimates on harvesting means the total production in the county is going to exceed an early-season estimate of 50,000 bales by a very considerable number. The total may actually reach 75,000 bales, Mr. Gibson says.

While an occasional cotton man is found who has finished his harvest, numbers also can be found who still have all of their cotton in the fields.

Could Use A Rain

First audible hint that some Floyd county farmers would like a bit of moisture now is given in reports which say the replanted wheat, where wireworms did damage, needs moisture now to put the new cereal kernels to sprouting and growing.

The high temperature of the week was recorded on Monday, 87 degrees. On Wednesday morning, the low was 34 degrees.

Bank Deposits Show Gain

Deposits in banks in the county have begun to climb as a result of marketing the huge cotton crop but December will see the principal increases as cotton raisers begin to finish their work and make final clearance on operations. At the First National Bank in Floydada, President O. M. Watson said the increase from cotton profits to date has been about a half million dollars.

"However, cotton men have been paying a lot of operating expenses, getting debts out of the way, and otherwise improving their financial position," he said. The bank man pointed to the fact that the crop has been the most expensive to raise and harvest in the history of cotton raising in the county. This fact, coupled with the lower price being realized for cottonseed, will make the net income from the crop considerably less per bale than early season estimates. The tremendous yield, however, is going to put a great deal of new money in the country.

Johnston Says 'Those Who Do Vote to Decide'

"Those who do vote will decide!"

This point was emphasized by G. B. Johnston, chairman of the Floyd County Production and Marketing Administration committee in an appeal to the county's cotton growers to cast their votes Thursday, December 15, in the national cotton marketing quota referendum.

"Only if an overwhelming majority of eligible voters participates in the referendum can we be sure that the decision will be a fair one and will represent the actual wishes of the cotton growers," Johnston states.

The chairman explains that marketing quotas will be used for the 1950 cotton crop if approved by two-thirds or more of those voting in the referendum.

"But if only a small proportion of the growers go to the polls on December 15, anything can happen," says the chairman. "And there will be no way of telling if those who do vote represent a fair cross section of the opinion of all growers. Nor will it make any difference. The decision for 1950 will have been made."

Johnston points out that arrangements have been completed by county PMA committees to set up polling places in every cotton growing community in the state. Every reasonable step has been taken to make it as convenient as possible for growers to get to the polls.

Any person who, as landlord, tenant or shrotopper, had an interest in a crop of cotton grown in 1948 is eligible to vote in the referendum. Polling places will be open from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. the day of the referendum — Thursday, December 15.

COTTON ALLOTMENT EXPECTED RUN NEAR 46,000 ACRES

requests to the Floyd PMA office relative to the cotton acreage allotments have no avail. The only information which the county office will give is the fact that the county allotment and the individual farm allotments can not be released until county allotment and all reserves have been published in the Register.

It is common knowledge (and it is being released) that the allotments of the various counties in Texas are approximately 86% of the simple average of 1947 and 1948 plantings in the county. In Floyd county (the county based on BAE information) the allotment is public information) the allotment is given as 50,000 acres. The 1948 planting was 57,500 acres, and of these two results in a 86% allotment of 46,225 acres. This figure is assumed to be correct except that reserves as the county must hold out for new farms, correction of errors, and other items.

To insure appearing the letters should be written soon. Time is limited. Christmas will be here before we hardly know it. Address letters to Santa Claus, editor, or to Santa Claus care of The Hesperian.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

Nellie Witt Spikes

No, Mr. Traveler going through our country, the high hills are not the White Sands, but mountains of King cotton. Right royally he has ruled this year and his subjects have worked long and faithfully at his commands. Right seed in right season, plenty of water and many back-aches from bending over a hoe. Up and down the green rows with plows, more and more water, this greedy king needed. Then a perfect fall for the turning of green bolls into fluffs of snowy white and the rush was on to save before the winds and rain could take their heavy toll. By hand and machine it has been gathered.

Trucks and trailers even old wagons that had been turned out for a long rest, are gathered at the gins, where bale after bale is turned out to start on long journeys to the mills. Nothing like this has ever been seen on the plains, maybe nothing like it will ever be seen again. Piles of cotton seed growing into towering hills of snow, laborers from several states and many Texas counties swarming the streets of our towns for clothes and food and pleasure. And still many fields are white and the hills grow larger and the sun shines warm and bright. King cotton has come into his own! For this year, at least.

Our helpers to gather this crop, the Latin Americans, may have many hardships but they take life with a smile and a contentment that we might follow. They can move into your place or move out with the least trouble I have ever seen. They empty their clothes out of cotton sacks, take food and dishes from tubs, that the women will use to wash their clothing every day. Everything is essential.

They pack their clothes back in the used cotton sacks, put the food and dishes in the tubs, then the sacks make seats in the back of the big trucks. Used cotton sacks make bedding, stop cracks in drafty doors. Sixteen or more people with beds and clothing and babies in one truck, while two of us can not go away for a week without filling a car too full for comfort!

Mother and I went over to an antique shop 2104 Fourteenth in Lubbock to look around for Christmas gifts. Although our purchases were small we found Mrs. Wendt so gracious and charming going to much trouble to show us her beautiful things of silver and china and glass she has in stock.

We were amused when she stepped on the handle to a beaded footstool and the lid came up revealing a hidden spitoon. Even a millionaire had to spit. She picked up a squat china object like we used to see hidden under a bed behind the counterpane, wound a key and sweet music came from its hidden insides under its knobbed lid. Well, we moderns do not know all the answers. Some one before our time figured some, out!

Granddaddy was reading the Sunday School lesson and asked Margaret Nell how any one could buy, "without money and without price," as the lesson stated. She pondered for a while and then said "Why, they could have it charged, of course." Remembering how her daddy had made arrangements at the store, near her school for her to get some things and not have to bother with money.

I went over to Wilma's and we spent the day making fruit cakes. We put in every goodly and sugar and plum we knew about or could find on the market and they smelled out of this world when baking. A package of small gum drops or large ones cut in pieces add color and flavor. About eight pounds they weighed to each cake. Billy had to help but when he squeezed an orange over the orange juice I had already gotten out, his hand slipped and the juice dripped all over me but it also went into his face and eyes so I finished without his "help." He was a good taster, tho, and enjoyed the day as well as we did.

And some one thought up to bait a mouse trap with a bit of gum drop the mouse does not get to turn loose in time to avoid the falling of the trap.

Get packages of blue and silver, red and silver tinsel. Cut them into short lengths, tie the ends together with a bow of Christmas ribbon and hang on the ends of the branches for gay easily made decorations. Red cellophane ropes are pretty fixed this way, too. Children like to make these pretty wreaths.

Read Polish?

Mrs. Paul B. Murff the first of this week was in search of a person who could translate for her a letter in Polish. Mrs. Murff has a letter from Poland and would like to know what its contents are. Telephone calls revealed that had the letter been done in French or German or Bohemian, a translator could be had. But Polish, so far as could be learned hurriedly, is a language unknown to any local resident. If such person has been overlooked Mrs. Murff would appreciate hearing of it.

D. W. Badgett returned Wednesday of last week from Whitewright, Texas where he had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Badgett and grandfather, J. G. Sloan, who has been seriously ill. Mr. Sloan's condition is reported fairly satisfactory this week.

Texas League U. S. Largest

AUSTIN, Texas—The University of Texas Interscholastic League is still the nation's largest organization of its kind, according to 1948-49 membership and participation figures.

League members are 1,500 Texas junior and senior high schools and over 900 elementary schools. Last year 371,258 students participated in League-sponsored activities ranging from baseball to original oration. Spelling and plain writing attracted 75,000 students, largest group to take part in a single contest. Athletics sponsored by the Interscholastic League drew 90,000 participants. Almost 850 high schools fielded football teams—more schools than any other such organization in the world can claim.

Over 250,000 Texas students take part in League academic activities—debate, declamation, extemporaneous speech, one-act play, story-telling, ready writing, spelling and plain writing, number sense, slide rule, typewriting, shorthand, journalism, radio broadcasting, interpretative reading and original oration. Track and field topped athletic events with 25,000 students, 5,000 of whom were in the junior division. Football was next with 23,931 from high schools alone. Basketball drew 1,115 schools and 22,250 boys; baseball at 600 schools involved over 10,000 students. Tennis drew 6,000; volleyball, 5,000; and playground ball, 10,000.

In the highly-varied music competitions 46,000 students entered contests. The Interscholastic League operates under the University of Texas Extension Division's Public School Service Bureau.

We are deeply indebted to our many friends, especially neighbors of Fairview, for their flowers and cards, kindnesses and sympathy in our deep sorrow.

Several club women met Friday afternoon at Mrs. Hartless to work on trays.

Many of our community attended funeral services Monday afternoon at the First Christian church for Leola Irwin of Fairview. Another happy Thanksgiving season which ended in tragedy when a plane crashed taking the life of the girl and seriously injuring the father. Our deepest sympathy is for the loved ones and many friends she left behind.

Next Sunday will be church day, let us all try to be present.

L. L. Clark, who has been spending sometime in Clovis Memorial hospital, Clovis, New Mexico, recovering from a stroke, returned home Monday night. He was accompanied home by his wife, Mrs. Clark reports that he is showing some improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Fulkerson of Lubbock spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Fulkerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thurmon.

Repaired Toys Shown at Cub Pack Meeting

Toys which were repaired for less-privileged children by Cub Scouts were displayed at the pack meeting at the American Legion hall Monday night.

Following the theme of "Helping the Other Fellow," the boys gathered and repaired the toys during the month of November. The toys were turned over to the Floyd County Fire department for distribution at Christmas time.

Fifty-three Cubs and parents were present for the regular monthly meeting. Plans were made for the annual Christmas party which the pack club, sponsor of the local pack, will give the Cubs on December 19.

Mr. J. K. Kattner, chairman of the pack committee, and Enos T. Jones, pack club president, will have charge of the party.

Den 1 was winner of first place in the best exhibit at the meeting with Den 4 taking second honors. Top individual honors went to Highland Richardson for his hand-drawn exhibit. Den 1 also won the attendance award with 17 Cubs and parents representing their group.

Parents and friends were entertained with stunts and games which they had been practicing at their weekly Den meetings. Pack champions were chosen in three contests. Highland Richardson won the "Child Sit-Up" contest, while Jerry Hutchinson was champion of the "Dog Fight" duel, and Dale Brown took first place in the "Crack-the-egg" contest.

Frank Potts, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Potts, was awarded the Wolf badge with gold and silver arrow points in an achievement ceremony. Cubmaster W. O. Sawyer presented Bobcat awards to twenty-three new Cubs. Those receiving this award included: David Hill, Jerry Hutchinson, Dale Brown, Harvey Dwayne Allen, Jerry Lynn Ginn, Douglas Walling, Billy Powell, Vaughn Ginn, James Badgett, Bobbie Grundy, Don Norman, Highland Richardson, Arlis Powell, Gayne Catlin, Dale Lawson, Bill Norman, Billy Bob Jackson, and Annie Fred Brown.

Mrs. A. W. Arnold was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Alex Johnston of Palmview Thursday.

Mrs. Addie Chadard and Mrs. Callie Darby were also guests of the Allens. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Allen returned to Andrews Sunday afternoon. Always A Refuge — The Salvation Army, an evangelical movement with the single aim of converting people to Christian living, is both a spiritual and social force in every community where it operates. To the needy and the downcast, it offers a refuge, encouragement, and material assistance. Bringing true vitality to religion, it considers as its job the meeting of all types of human need when and where ever they exist.

Few Have Paid Poll Tax, Says T. T. Hamilton

Announcement was made this week by T. T. Hamilton, assessor-collector of taxes, that only 205 people in Floyd county have paid their poll tax.

As the coming year, 1950, is election year, he feels that there should be more people now paying this tax. Usually every election year, there are around 3,500 receipts issued in this county, Mr. Hamilton continued. Ordinarily there are about 1,000 more sold every election year than other years.

"If you haven't paid your poll tax, why not drop around the collector's office before January 31, so you will be eligible for voting next year," he urges.

Those not old enough to pay, may go down and get their exemption. This includes the persons becoming 21 before June or July, before the primary election is held the latter part of July.

Persons unable to come to the office, may mail check for $1.75, for each poll tax with the following information: name, address, age, occupation and the number of years in the state and county, and also the voting precinct. Mr. Hamilton said this week.

1950 is an Election Year. An active campaign to counter the shortage in qualified voters was launched by the Floydada Junior Chamber of Commerce this week when it was learned that only a few hundred poll tax receipts had been issued in the county.

Failure of the amendment to the state constitution to carry abolishing the payment of a poll tax as a requisite for voting, may result in only a hand full of persons in the county electing officials in 1950. Wide dissemination of the information that the poll tax amendment did not carry and that all who vote will be required to have a poll tax receipt issued before January 31, 1950, will be principal feature of the Jaycee campaign. The young business men urge payment of the poll tax and participation in elections as a civic duty.

Plane Crash

The plane's engine did not strike into the ground and bury up as a stall would have resulted in. Parts of the plane were scattered for several yards behind the final stopping place.
The plane evidently caught fire before Mr. Irwin got out or was thrown from the plane. His burns are principally on the back part of his body. He has been conscious or semi-conscious since the wreck.
The fuselage was about 40 feet behind the plane and one of the fuel tanks was ripped away and lay 50 feet or more from the scene of the fire.

RESCUE SHIP OVER LAND OR SEA—With its new wheels prominently displayed, the Air Force's first amphibious helicopter, the H-5H, is shown making a routine over-water flight. The wheel-boat combination greatly increases the H-5H's utility as a rescue, search and liaison aircraft, allowing it to land with equal facility on land or water.

The ship is equipped with a hydraulic winch, and when terrain or rough seas make it impossible to land, it can hover motionless over the area and haul survivors up into the cabin.

Scout Fund Still $250 Short of Goal

Although the fund is still shy some $250 of a goal of $1,200 set for the Boy Scout budget of Floydada for the coming year, he is confident that a number of people not yet seen will help bring this final figure up, said J. M. Willson, Jr., campaign fund chairman, this week.

Exact receipts or pledges for the year to date are $957.36, Mr. Willson said. All who have not been contacted and would like to have a part in the Boy Scout program may leave funds or pledges at the First National bank in Floydada, earmarked for the purpose.

Bond Election

that it will bring a physical education program for all of the student body, including the girls. Instead of a physical education program for a few of the select. This opportunity for all the student body to participate in a physical education would be a great thing for the community, point out school authorities.

Reason for the hurry-up in the plans is so that the district can get ready by February 1 for contract letting on the new building program. The school board has spent much time on a study of the building needs, and the plan is not a jumped up one. It was pointed out this week. However many preliminaries

Home Lighting Contest Opens

Parnell Powell, chairman of the Christmas committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced this week the opening of the Christmas home lighting contest. This is including both inside and outside home lighting.

Persons wishing for their homes to be judged in this contest should notify the chairman, or other committee members, Kenneth Bain, Jr., or W. H. Tanner, by turning names in in person or by mail.

"This contest is strictly for the residential section, although the Jaycees urge all business houses to decorate and leave their colored lights on all night, as some of these will receive honorable mention," said Mr. Powell.

Prizes for the contest ending December 23 will be first prize, $25.00; second prize, $15.00 and the third prize will be $10.00.

Mrs. Austin Heard Hospitalized After Pick-Up Turns Over

Mrs. Austin Heard is in the Floydada hospital this week following an accident which occurred three miles south of Lockney on the Floydada highway.

Enroute to her home east of Lockney from the home of W. A. Cates, her father, here, late Friday afternoon, Mrs. Heard said she started to pull over for a car to have plenty of room to pass her when the steering gear locked and the 1941 Ford pick-up that she was driving headed for the ditch and turned over twice.

Mrs. Heard's injuries are not grave but include a broken left leg and many bruises, according to attending physicians.

At the beginning of the week, it was indefinite how long she would be in the hospital.

Church people and members of coop organizations will find themselves on the defensive this coming year when congress undertakes its job of re-vamping the tax laws. According to the Speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn, the federal tax structure is to be re-done completely, a job which has been postponed for the last three years. Administration leaders have considered other matters, all involving tremendous expense, of more import in the interim. Coops and churches have been assailed as tax dodgers the past year and both types of organizations, as well as others, may as well use some remedy to toughen their hides so they'll not smart at the continued flailing they are going to get. In the debate in congress this summer it was freely charged that both have been escaping millions of dollars of badly needed revenue, which was lost to the treasury, or if not lost, added to the bills of others. Here are the demands of the groups which charge discrimination is being made: (1) Repeal of wartime excise taxes that are so irksome to business activity; (2) Bringing about tax equality by taxing all commercial enterprises doing business for profit, regardless of who owns them. Both church and coop will need to take stock of their respective positions and make ready to prove the situation as now prevails is justified, that they are entitled to the special taxation privileges they now enjoy.

In the rat-proofing campaign in the city -- which will extend out into the less thickly settled areas as time goes on -- it is found that as soon as the rats lose their happy hunting grounds in one building, with food and shelter provided by convenient openings, they migrate (down the side of a building or buildings) to the next place where they can dodge in and get something to eat and drink, and shelter from the elements. Some places in Floydada where rats had never been seen all of a sudden found they were hosts to the nasty rodents. Answer was the rats had been barred from former happy hunting grounds. Also some property owners who had no idea there were any rats about all of a sudden found out there are. While rat-proofing is relatively expensive if you view it in one light, it is practically no expense at all if you view it as a proper protective measure.

The rat-proofing program of the Texas State Department of Health in Floydada, in which the efforts of the city authorities are joined also by the federal authorities, is going along in a way to indicate that while people of the community may be a bit dubious of the stories they are told of the advance of rat plague, still are willing to work with the powers that be. Mayor Harmon, reporting last week, said that most of the people of the community have gotten in line. Others are willing enough but want to do the job the way they want to do it. It is hard to believe that rats are carrying the plague and that they will have all the local rodents infected within the next few years. The health authorities seem to have the facts in hand, however, and the city is just having to go along whether they would like to do so or not. The fine point of the matter is that the city does not like to go pushing the people around who own property, which is what the program appears to do. The only thing that has to happen to make the city's position immensely popular and the position of the property owner unpopular is for one case of a rat-borne plague to break out. So long as this does not occur there will be a question mark but at least token compliance. Nobody wants to be "it". The health authorities insist that somebody is going to be unless real and urgent steps are taken to make the rat a homeless and foodless fugitive.

Pre-Christmas shopping days are slipping away fast. Those who have the time to shop now will find themselves through with the job and out of the way of those who are so busy they cannot take time off from the harvest and work incident to it. Another two weeks will see the majority of the harvest people in position to let up a bit and give their attention to Christmas giving and things of the kind. When the rush of their needs hit the rest of us need to have been finished and done and out of the way. This is a suggestion for the those who live to make Christmas a pleasant period of the year instead of a nightmare as it is for the procrastinator.

Look for interest on all levels in attendance at public schools to increase now. Absentees will cost plenty of money the way the new school bill is effective. When a youngster who is eligible to attend and should attend school he is so listed. When he fails to attend the school authorities have to record this fact. When they so record, it costs the district in state support under the Gilmer-Aiken act. Numbers of teachers to be used in a school is based on the actual days that students attend. Also look for the the scholastic compulsory law to begin to have teeth in it. A lot of things ought to be done in the thinking of the average citizen. When you put it the other way round that it will cost Mr. Citizen money if it is not done, it then becomes a must.

Lockney Woman Dies in Crash

Last rites were held for Mrs. W. P. Cates Monday afternoon, November 21, at Carter Funeral Home chapel, Lockney, at 1 o'clock. Rev. E. J. Cobb, pastor of the Lockney First Baptist church officiated. The body was taken to Afton, Texas, for burial.

Mrs. Cates, about 60 years of age, was critically injured Saturday, November 19, in a highway accident 12 miles west of Big Spring. The accident occurred after the automobile, in which Mr. and Mrs. Cates were sole passengers, collided with the rear of a vehicle directly in front. The impact caused the Cates car to careen broadside on the highway into the path of a car being driven by J. Boyce Lynn of Midland, traveling in the opposite direction. The car directly in front of the Cates vehicle had struck the rear of the car in front of it, and the Cates car was unable to stop before hitting the rear of the automobile directly ahead.

The Cates' were enroute from Big Spring to Odessa to visit a sister

LOOKS like a Jet Plane TRAVELS the same way

YOU see it quick-stepping along the highway -- and you can't miss the parallel.

You glimpse a bold front end -- sleek tapering fenders -- flaring, streamlined roof lines -- even to "double bubble" taillights, here is the look of "the fastest thing that flies."

Then you try one on the road, courtesy of your Buick dealer.

Adjectives flock into mind -- "agile" -- "nimble" -- "eager."

You realize that here is action, swift and easy -- action born of Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight power -- action floated on soft coil springs that, for all their lightness, keep your grip on the road sure-footed and firm.

This you tell yourself, is traveling as traveling should be.

Comfortable -- in the spacious manner of king-size interiors. Easy -- in the lightness of controls, which can include even the magic of Dynaflo

Drive* if you wish. Pleasurable -- in the wide, wide outlook that's yours, and the inner satisfaction of having a Buick for your very own.

And we might add another thing, just by way of being practical.

It's frugal too. Frugal in a first cost that's actually less than for some sixes. Frugal in the surprising way such a sizable car gives the go-by to gas pumps.

And if you have Dynaflo, frugal even in many upkeep costs you can forget about -- such as clutch troubles, transmission maintenance, even many engine servicing costs.

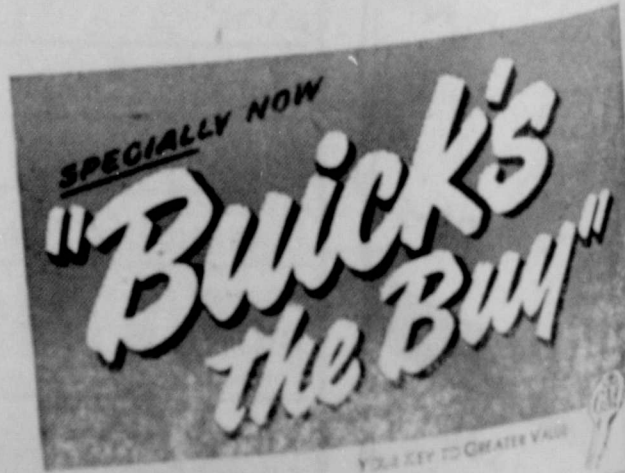

Why not put yourself into one of these jet-lined beauties right now? It's more easily managed than you might imagine -- as you'll see by talking to your Buick dealer.

Housing Authorizes Farmer Loans

Housing Act of 1949 authorizes the Farmers Home Administration to provide loans for construction and repair of farm dwellings and other farm buildings. Loans are made for periods from 5 years up to 33 years at 4 per cent interest will be paid to farm owners who are otherwise unable to finance needed housing and other building improvements for themselves and their tenants. A loan may be made to construct, improve, alter, repair or replace a dwelling or other buildings owned by the operation of the farm.

Who is eligible for a housing loan, must be a farm owner, be unable to get a loan elsewhere and have the necessary capital to make needed improvements. You must be able to repay the loan from other income. Tenants or laborers are not eligible but farmer may borrow money to repair houses and other buildings for his tenants. A borrower has from 5 to 33 years to repay the housing loan but may repay shorter time. The borrower will be expected to refinance his indebtedness through cooperative or private sources whenever he is able to do so.

The loan is secured by a mortgage on the farm, subject to any existing prior liens, and such additional security as may be necessary to reasonably protect the government investment.

Definition of a Farm
For this program a farm is considered to mean a parcel or parcels of land operated as a single unit for the production of one or more agricultural commodities for sale or home use which have an annual gross value equal to at least $400 based on 1944 commodity prices.

Preference is given to veterans of all wars and immediate families of deceased servicemen.
If your present income is not enough to repay a housing loan, you may still be able to get a loan if you can work out and follow a program which, within 3 years will enable you to improve your method of farming and increase your income to a point where it will repay a housing loan. Therefore, if you have agreed to and are following a program designed to increase your farm income, and if you lack the money needed to meet your payments during any of the first 5 years, the government will help you by writing off up to half of the principal and all of the interest due in that year.

There are standards for the farm houses and other buildings built or repaired with these loans. It is expected that any building built or repaired will have, when completed, a sound foundation, strong walls, tight roof and will meet similar minimum construction standards. There will be no exceptions for the construction work, however in emergency cases when loans and grants are made for minor repairs to protect the health and safety of the farm family, the construction work need only to conform to minimum standards to the extent necessary to make the building safe and sanitary.

type of assistance for which the applicant is qualified, the amount of the loan or grant needed and the number of years over which the loan should be repaid. When necessary the committee will inspect the farm and personally interview the applicant before making its recommendations.

The farmer who needs housing assistance may make formal application on a blank supplied for that purpose at the office of the Farmers Home Administration located in the courthouse at Floydada, Texas, which serves Floyd county.

In some cases loans will be made for land purchased or developed under the Housing Act of 1949. When the purchase of additional land or when improvements such as clearing, draining, fencing, and terracing will increase the family income enough to repay the housing loan, funds may be used for land purchase or development.

EDITORIAL

DECEMBER

This week marks the beginning of December, and such a change it has brought!

The streets are gaily decorated with holly, tinsel, and colored lights. Down these streets pass gay parades featuring the jolly old fellow in the bright red suit. The stores have arranged their wares in tempting displays, and the newspapers carry lavish ads. Radios send out the thrilling announcement, "Only 24 days until Christmas, and only 29 more shopping days."

There is a new crispness in the air and the smell of holly and spicey goodies. The air is full of sound-shrill cries of excited children, clammering crowds, and the sound of music, beloved old carols, and gay tunes about Santa Claus. Three loud cheers for the month of December.

Candid Camera

"Redhead, she's the cutest little redhead," these words certainly describe the very popular gal who poses for our Candid Camera's picture this week. The redhead is Edith Payne Garrett, F. H. S.'s talented drum majorette, who really looks good in her uniform and who can prance even better.

Edith came bouncing into this big world in a rather warm May 15 in 1934. Again, the best little town in Texas greeted a sweet baby girl who is still sweet but not a baby; she's fifteen and a very prominent young lady whose weakness is a certain handsome guy who stands 5 ft. 11 inches in height, weighs 145 pounds, has dark hair and brown eyes and is very sweet.

Edith's secret ambition is to get her degree at Baylor University.

Her pet likes are football games, friendly people, swimming, music, moccasins, twirling, fried chicken, riding around, and slumber parties.

She dislikes people who are slow, pop their gum, smack at the table, or wear ben-hur, also spinach, candied carrots, and running out of gas. Edith's biggest thrill came when Mr. Kattner announced that she was drum majorette.

She's crazy about swimming and she'd rather see a football or basket ball game than eat. Her favorite colors are blue and white.

She says her worst habit is forgetting to lock the door at night when she comes in.

During her leisure time Edith would eat, listen to records, and twirl.

Typing is her favorite subject and Miss Cline her favorite teacher. She swoons over the ever-popular "Some Enchanted Evening" and the best show she's seen is "The Johnson Story." Larry Parks, Ester Williams, and Ronald Colman are her favorite stars.

Edith was very embarrassed one day when she and some other kids were hungry and were hunting a place to eat. They were in Amarillo on a band trip; Edith noticed a rather nice looking place so she just walked in, thinking the rest would follow. She stepped inside the nice looking place only to find that she was standing in a bar and that the others hadn't followed. Edith said she certainly felt silly.

Edith's perfect day would begin about 9:30. She'd arise, dress, and drink a cup of coffee with toast. She'd just fool around, talk over the phone for about an hour, then she and her friends would go horse-back riding till noon time. For lunch she'd eat fried oysters with gravy, black-eyed peas, mashed potatoes, fruit salad, ice tea, hot rolls, and pecan pie a la mode. After lunch she'd read for awhile, then go riding around with Katie and Pat for about two hours. About 3:30 she'd take a dip in a cold swimming pool. When she had swam till her heart's content, Edith would start preparing a fried chicken supper for her ideal boy and two other couples. After supper they would listen to records, dance, and then go riding for awhile. They'd return for a coke and after an enjoyable time the company would journey home and Edith would journey to a nice soft bed to get her beauty sleep.

We all love you, Edith, you're a sweet girl that has a way with everyone. May lady luck shine on you, always.

Well, after the Thanksgiving holidays, everyone should be raring to go again. Some that went out of town should really be ready to get back to the old gossip column, so here goes.

Is it true that Beverly has never had another date with anyone but Billy Charles? What about this Billy, have you? But wait, I hear that she was with Bert the other night, so that must break the tide.

Jane, who were those boys in that good-looking car that you were with over the holidays? Where was LeRoy? Looks like LeRoy will have to get a Kaiser Manhattan. Continued Carver, you sure do get mad. One night it is Carol and next Chuck. Are you going to let up your mind this year? ?

Wonder if Billy Mac really has a date? You might try Veva; she might give you another chance. Boy, do Kenneth and Clara have a cute couple so far on having your fun.

Bill, you might as well give up going to keep Joy home. It looks like she just doesn't want to stay home!

Berwyn, I hear that Bill went to Dumas over the holidays. It is he? Wonder if he did any good? Dorothy and Sammy sure do make a nice couple. He sure comes home to see her.

Wonder who the dates were Sunday evening for Billy Charles and Fred? They sure were dressed up when I saw them.

Betty, wasn't Leonard home over the holidays? Why were you staying home when he is home? ? ? Did I see Mary Alice with "Trice" the other night? ? ? They make a nice couple. Why not keep it up, huh? ? ?

Why didn't Billee and Jerry stay at church Sunday morning? ? ? Why they had other business.

Jane, did I see you with Jon Parson the other night? ? Where was he? - LeRoy maybe you better go out of town any more. You get anything done if you do, say on these boys that go out of town.

If anyone sees Jr., you see Chris—some sees Bobby, you see Joy, some sees Jr. and Chris, you see Mary and Joy. They are always together. Sounds like fun to me.

Who was Jean Friske with the "Hall boys' mothers"? Keep up the good work, Jean.

I believe that David is working between Sammy and Dorothy. What about this, Dorothy? ? How did it end? ? Tell us more.

Did Peggy enjoy her Thanksgiving dinner with Fred? ? She should have and I think she should from the way she acts.

Wonder why David was asking Mary P. was Friday night? ? Did it be that he wanted a date with her? ?

Samelle and Bill Johnston are going together, must be love. What's this I hear about Arlen and Grace going back together? ? It must be love from the looks of things.

Keep up the good work.

Advisory Signs Addition to Highway Scene

AUSTIN, November—A view like the one pictured has now been in existence on most Texas Highways for the past few months. This type of highway sign serves to warn of the maximum safe and comfortable speed for curves and turns.

gram of advisory speed zoning by the Texas Highway Department and represent a step recommended by the Governor's Highway Safety Conference.

The speed indicated on the sign was determined by a scientific study of each additional curve and turn, and will vary because of the different elements such as degree of turn and the amount of bank on each separate curve.

Recruiting Chief To Be in Floydada Twice Each Month

The Marine Corps wants top men and women for recruits and would prefer younger men and women so that they may give more service to the corps, M/Sgt. W. N.

Burnette non-commissioned recruit chief of the Lubbock area, said in Floydada Tuesday.

M/Sgt. in summarizing his mission here, said the corps was seeking men and women who wished to make a career of Marine work. "We are a proud outfit," the recruiter said, "and intend to stay that way and can't if we enlist a bunch of misfits. We can afford to be choosy because of limited recruiting quotas."

out approximately 40 percent October 1. M/Sgt. Burnette said and requirements for enlistees have been increased and made rigid.

In order for a man to enlist in the corps he must be between the ages of 17 and 28 years, pass a thorough physical and mental examination and be accepted by the Dallas headquarters. Women must be between 20 and 30 years of age, unmarried, high school graduates and without dependents.

"The Marine Corps is pretty well a handpicked outfit and we intend to keep it that way," M/Sgt. Burnette said.

The service with Marines offers practically every type of training plus correspondence courses that can be taken with the object being either completion of high school education or accumulation of college degrees.

Sergeant Burnette's office is located in the Post Office building, Lubbock, where he keeps office hours from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Saturdays. He will be at the Post Office at Floydada from 1 until 3 p. m. every second and fourth Tuesday.

Seventy-five men of the Methodist congregation met in Fellowship hall for a dinner fellowship meeting and to organize for a unified approach to the responsibility of church men one evening last week. The banquet was served by the Woman's Society of Christian service to whom the men expressed great satisfaction at the fine quality of the meal and the pleasant service.

C. D. Poote, the toastmaster, expressed great appreciation for the good attendance, interest in fellowship, and the desire of the men for more efficiency in their church and spiritual life.

Included in the program was a quartet consisting of Fay Hart, C. M. Lyles, Earl Ralner and Alfred Fuchs. The group sang several songs, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Fay Hart.

GOSLEE'S COUSIN NEW ORLEANS SAYS HIM KNOW NEXT TIME

Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas.

Cousin Tom in Floydada, Texas, says that you didn't stop by the house to eat a meal of rice and beans. Rice and beans are very nice when cooked with fat salt meat. Ask my cousin Tom; he'll tell you they are hard to beat.

We had taken on a meal we would have taken in the sights. We could have seen how New Orleans looks when lit up with electric lights. We could have gone to the old French quarter.

Face that's known as the Vieux Carre.

Are you bound to have a good time either on its night or day.

Could have shown you things of interest.

It made history years ago in the old St. Louis cathedral.

Other places that I know.

Could have shown you an antique shop.

It is run by Monsieur Kelly.

Has antiques all over the place.

Sorry Tom did not tell you to look me up when you got in town.

Could have been glad to meet you.

Since Tom did not tell you there was no way for you to know, tell him when you see him that he's a dirty so and so.

Send me some clippings of what you had to say about the different things you saw along the way.

Are you come to town again? Drop a line to me at Frenchmen street and A. Goslee.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Xmas Party

Plans are in the making for the American Legion Auxiliary's annual Christmas party to be held in the early part of December. Everyone is asked to bring a gift to the party to be sent to the hospital at Waco, this year.

The gifts sent in from the various Auxiliary units will be assembled in a "Gift Shop". The veterans in the hospital will select gifts from the "Gift Shop" for their families and members of the Auxiliary units near enough to go to the hospital will wrap these gifts and mail them to the veterans' families in time to reach them by Christmas.

All of this will be done without any cost to the veteran. The American Legion Auxiliary of the McDermott Post No. 118, of which Mrs. J. C. Covington is president, will appreciate anyone sending or bringing gifts for this box. Boxes are being placed in some of the business establishments so that gifts may be left there. It takes a lot of gifts, gifts for all ages, to make the gift shop program a success, said Mrs. Covington.

Date of the Christmas party will be announced in The Hesperian in the near future.

... Roundabouts are here! ...

The new idea in Scarfs by Carol Stanley

What a simple idea can do for a scarf! Just because Roundabouts are round, because the edges are irregularly scalloped, something wonderful happens when you drape a Roundabout around your shoulders.

Pretty flower patterns in gay Autumn colors... Move Leaf, Blue Flower, Indian Copper and Nocturna Grey.

Pure Silk $2.95
Other Silk Scarfs $1.00 - $1.95 - $2.50
