Census Is Done Except A Few In NW Corner

The taking of the 17th decennial census in Floyd county is all over and done, except for a bit of a corner in the northwest part of the county, said Ralph C. Johnson, crew leader, yesterday morning. Below is the thinking or guessing of many Floydada friends on the population of this community. A lot of elasticity is due to be given the fact that the average of these guessers did not know where are the official boundaries of the town. In the reverse of what has happened in the big cities where square miles and square miles of territory was added during the winter so as to get advantage of big figures, the area of Floydada is actually less than it was 10 years ago, a block lot out here and a block there, to encourage something or somebody to go ahead and do what they wanted to do.

Another area of fair to good showers was around Fairview and back toward Center. Cedar area had little or no rain and the same is true on eastward from Fairview in the vicinity of Hillcrest.

THE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL
Every worthwhile undertaking for the betterment of the community requires wise planning, skillful administration and public support. The Peoples hospital, a non-profit institution, was organized to provide service to its members and the community at large.

The general direction and the formation of its policies, rest in the hands of its directors to a great extent. The directors, serving without pay, can and do render a valuable community service. Special commendations are too few, however, those who serve well have the personal feeling of being a part of an unselfish movement to bring health and happiness to many.

Elsewhere in this issue appears an announcement of a special meeting of the membership of the Peoples hospital. Two directors are to be chosen at this time. The members should attend this meeting. Each member as he attends this meeting should canvass carefully the whole membership for possible nominees who are capable and willing to serve as directors. Men who have made a success in their own chosen field should receive careful consideration and when once chosen, should be supported in the job which they are to do.

Be Sure To Attend Church Regularly

What fortunate people we are, in these United States of America! Our fathers purchased for us at great cost the priceless privileges of Democracy; the right of a people to make decisions as to their speech, their government and their religion. This means, as William Jennings Bryan used to say, the right to make our own mistakes, and then the responsibility to correct them. In other words we have accepted responsibility to live together for the common good and in mutual goodwill. We must do two things to be worthy at all of this magnificent inheritance: (1) We must seek to understand and to appreciate what Democracy means, and (2) We must see that Democracy works.

The right to vote carries the responsibility to vote. The right to think for one's self requires that we read and discuss and become responsible and well informed thinkers. The right to free speech calls for the self-control and the wisdom which will make our speech of good temper and of helpful counsel to others, who likewise have the same freedom of speech. The right to worship according to the dictates of our consciences summons us to train our consciences so that we shall choose well, surely that we shall worship somewhere. Democracy is the most elevated of systems of economic, of civil, and of religious living, but it is also the most difficult. For it requires so much of those who assume responsibility to govern themselves. There must be self-discipline; there must be the training of youth in disciplined living; there must be high dedication to the common good, as over against selfish behaviour. A man who lives only for himself is an autocrat and not a democrat.

Democracy challenges each of us to think of every other person as a sister or a brother in the universal family of God; every man is a child of God, who merits respect and concern from us.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial and a stranger alike can furnish leadership today declare that the church in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for READER.

Hospital Will Name Trustees Next Tuesday

Members of Peoples hospital of Floydada, in their annual meeting Tuesday night of next week, will name two new trustees of the organization to succeed Ed Holmes and H. O. Cline.

Holmes' term expires and Cline will be up for re-election following his appointment by the board last year.

Hold-over members are Joe R. Robertson, W. F. Ferguson, Roy Hale, Ernest Lee Thomas and Bill McNeill.

Principal speaker at this meeting will be Dr. Ozo T. Woods of the Dallas Medical and surgical clinic. Dr. Woods is a committee member of the Texas Rural program and is chairman of the citizens committee on medical health in Texas. Members anticipate an inspiring and beneficial talk by the eminent Dallas medical man.

New Doctor Is Named

An added member of the Peoples hospital staff beginning the first of next week will be Joseph R. Davey, M. D., who comes from Robbinsville, North Carolina. Dr. Davey specializes in internal medicine and pediatrics, an announcement from the hospital said last week. He is also qualified to do all kinds of general surgery.

native grass from the pasture and set out lawns in the front and back yards.

Their farm of 160 acres, located in the Lone Star community, has a twenty acre permanent pasture, forty acres of alfalfa with the remaining acreage being cropped in wheat, milo and corn.

Mrs. King is a member of the Lone Star Demonstration club and is at present chairman of the Floyd County council. She is a member of a study club, serving as its secretary this year.

Mrs. King has many hobbies, some of which are growing flowers, gardening, ceramics and textile painting. She is landscape demonstrator for her club this year. She irrigates her yard, garden and trees from the irrigation well.

Town Reared Girl

Mrs. B. H. Quebe, president of the Providence Home Demonstration club, is enjoying farm life although she was born and reared in the city. She moved from Dallas to Lubbock after entering college, finishing work for a B. S. degree in mathematics in June 1948. She was married to Mr. Quebe in June of that year and moved to their 320 acre farm north of Aiken.

A conservation plan was signed with the Floyd County Soil Conservation district in May 1949, which entitled Mr. Quebe to receive technical assistance in laying out complete irrigation system on his farm. He also plans to establish as improved pasture and plant legumes to be turned under to keep the soil built up.

Mrs. Quebe joined the Home Demonstration club shortly after moving to the farm and has found it very beneficial in learning farm life. She has many hobbies, but specially enjoys playing the piano, reading and visiting. She has recently become interested in sewing and gardening.

ED JOHNSON GAINS

Ed Johnson, veteran of gents store sales, is going to get up and be all right it appears as of this writing.

Mr. Johnson was a patient at a Lubbock hospital and the angels flapped their wings at his door for several days, goes the story. He had an abdominal operation.

Tuesday afternoon he rode about town for several minutes and came down to Glad's store front in company with his sister-in-law Mrs. Glad Snodgrass. He's going to be eating fried chicken and the like again pretty soon, Mr. Johnson said.

Tropical Worsteds

Tropical worsteds have become more than summer suits. Men wear them from beginning of the warm spring weather right through to fall. Men like tropical worsteds because they feel perfectly comfortable in them.

Made from fine worsted yarn, tropical worsteds lose their wrinkles overnight when hung properly. Most times you will save enough on cleaning and pressing bills alone to make up the difference in cost between this and a cheaper suit.

There are many differences between tailored clothes. That's why we specialize in the field where we are best qualified.

Realistic Guesses, Too

The Hesperian's realistic list is made up of customers who guessed the population of the community at 6,000 or more. We are confident that if all the additions and subdivisions had been added in the high guessers would have been the only ones who would have been in the money. Below is what these realistic guessers who had not been apprized of the municipal boundary limits, thought:

Directors Named

R. L. Trice was elected as a new director and T. C. Hollums chosen to fill the unexpired term of R. B. Gary, in ill health, at an annual meeting of the Farmers Cooperative Gin company here last week. Tate Jones was re-elected as a director. The two carry over directors are Roy L. Pawver and Leo Frizzell.

The meeting was held at the American Legion hall, with about 75 members present.

Legionnaires Vote Against Beer Serving

Legionnaires of McDermett post, American Legion, turned down a proposal that beer be served at the Legion hall on a strictly membership basis when they held their regular meeting Monday night.

The proposal was made by members favoring such a move when it was disclosed that Legion and VFW posts in numerous neighboring cities are finding that beer for members only is proving a membership-increasing argument and also a profitable undertaking.

Post Commander G. G. Holmes had the ticklish job of presenting the proposal to the membership in their regular meeting. There was argument pro and con and a final vote that turned the measure down by a majority.

Letters to members which called to the attention the proposal was sent out last week. Less than a hundred of the members were present and cast a vote.

J. C. Covington, the post's sole 100-member campaigner, told the meeting that where he had been getting 100 members annually for some five years, he could make it 700 members if beer were voted to be served under the regulations. Covington has been a "hoot owl" for the past five years. A "hoot owl" is a Legionnaire who has been responsible for getting at least 100 members.

maintain that a trade-at-home attitude would be beneficial to all concerned, but when people begin to think in terms of loyalty to home people being a means of extracting dollars from them that otherwise would flow elsewhere then is when we find it desirable to take another approach to getting the people's patronage. If Floydada merchants can't give the public their money's worth or what they desire to spend their money for, they are going to seek elsewhere for it and no kind of publicity will keep them from doing so," said he.

This same spokesman talked the idea that Floydada stores have what the people want and will enjoy their patronage only so far as it is presented attractively and in an interesting and competitive way.

MRS. KIMBLE HOME

Mrs. Wilson Kimble returned home Monday night from a trip of some three weeks duration.

Most of her time was spent in Jacksonville, Texas, visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris. Mrs. Kimble also spent a short time in Biloxi, Mississippi and New Orleans, Louisiana, and spent a week in Fort Worth.

On her return trip home, Mrs. Kimble was accompanied by Miss Ann McGlinchey, a sister of Fort Worth. Miss Glinchey will spend around two weeks visiting her sister before returning to Fort Worth.

BLACKWELLS TO PLAINVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Blackwell have moved from Floydada to Plainview to make their home.

Mrs. Blackwell, who has been associated with The Hesperian, resigned her position last week. She was in Lubbock Memorial hospital last week-end and the attending physician told members of the family that an anticipated operation likely would be unnecessary.

Mr. Blackwell is associated with Southwestern Public Service Company, and has made his home at Plainview since his early youth.

Many Guests At Morckel Opening

Between four hundred and five hundred guests registered at the Morckel Farm Chemical company's new office and warehouse Saturday when their open house was held to celebrate their new building and removal from their old location on West Missouri street.

Registrants included persons from four different counties and there were representatives present from 10 different wholesale distributing concerns which number the Morckel firm as a customer or co-distributor.

In addition to the usual enjoyable features of an opening day there were numerous floral decorations sent by friends and there was cake and coffee for all comers.

The new store has been dedicated to the service of Floyd county farmers and the solution of their problems of insecticides and weed eliminants.

BAPTIST PARSONAGE DONE

The new Baptist parsonage will be completed the last part of the week and the members of the building committee wish to announce that they will hold an informal open house Sunday afternoon between 2 and 6 o'clock p. m.

The members of the committee are Fred Batey, chairman, J. D. McBrien, H. O. Cline, Mrs. E. E. Joiner and Mrs. Alton Chapman, and one or more of the committeemen will be on hand during the time that open house is to be conducted.

FIRE DAMAGES ROUSTABOUT

A roustabout car that has been setting up for the period of months between harvest developed a lot of heat Tuesday morning and furnished the owner R. F. Finley and his family with a bit of diversion, at 420 West Lee street.

The old buggy, of pre-war vintage, just commenced burning, the family having no idea how, somewhere in the back seat. There was no damage to the garage. Firemen helped put out the blaze and push the car out of the danger zone.

Topflight Concert Attractions Will Be Presented Here

From a galaxy of unusually able artists will be chosen the topflight attractions who will come to Floydada this fall and winter under the sponsorship of the "Municipal Concert Plan," announced several days ago.

Floydada Junior Chamber of Commerce is spearheading the recent effort to bring entertainment for music lovers of the community to Floydada.

The organization will be completed during the summer, while named as membership committee of the temporary organization are Olin Watson, Jr., W. Douglas, and Mrs. Carl L. Jr. Jim Word was named secretary. A membership committee will be carried on later in the year.

A minimum of three concerts planned to be presented here, the artists to appear will be selected from some 18 topflight entertainers.

Marshall Formby On Floydada V

President Truman thought it best to veto the independent gas producer sponsored bill that would have kept a federal control agency off the necks of another enterprise. The northern people who are the gas producers' customers away from home urged and insisted they had rather have federal control, they say. They do not want to be nicked. They fear the gas producers would. Conclusion of ours is that people are being nicked by the federal government and don't know it. They have no defense against a federal agency. They can fight at a private owner or combination of private owners. Now watch the federal agency step in and begin telling the boys where and when they can drill, where and when they will have to appear, where and when they'll collect. The story is they all fight against control and lose—and nobody wins what is lost.

From Unallocated Clearance to 2, 4-D license, how many accounts would you guess the treasurer of the State of Texas is keeping at this time? Is it 10, 89 or 233? According to figures as of the month of March the number was 233. Perhaps by May the number has increased. We do not know and we do not know that it is good or bad for Texas. The total cash in state funds is $150 millions, according to this report. But the sad part of the story is not told here, maybe not sad, maybe exactly the way the people of Texas want it. This big sum is pledged for this and that, and the legislature is going to have to go on a treasure hunt come January, we are told.

The recently-freed (as of July 1) oleo margarine interests are going to take in after the butter people with a super blitz campaign, as is now being prepared. Before long watch for the government to begin giving butter away to schools, public institutions, perhaps families on relief. The government has a hundred million pounds of butter on hand, more they pledged to buy in butter price supports. Wacky world we have when the government wades out into the business of giving everybody special privilege, special attention, that was started back in the good old days when Republicans said we had to support the full dinner pail—with tariffs for the benefit of the employers who undoubtedly would pass along the great benefits of the program to the masses who toiled.

The Hesperian has been irked by the fact that, with all the glories of Texas from which to draw ideas, the State Highway Department continues to have motorists of this state use about the most hideous license plates of any state in the union. Hideous is not exactly the correct word, but we try to make it serve the purpose of the better word, whatever it may be. Only Oklahoma, that other individualistic set of extroverts with boundaries set by law, can compete with our state in horrendous kind of plates that year after year we have motorists put on their automobiles to travel the wide-wide world. The Lone Star, the cactus, a buffalo, Comanche Indian, blue bonnets, the Alamo, San Jacinto battle scene, an oil rig or derrick, even a lonesome windmill or a design of a log cabin with the lean-to and a breeze way—half a hundred ideas would beat the way we have it now. Looks like some of the boys, sometime, some how, would have some kind of an idea. It should not cost a cent more. For ideas we suggest Tennessee and Ohio as having done something about it.

The money-spending spree of the great State of Texas, which got under way more than a year ago must go on for a time, that is more money must be spent elsewhere to keep the spending on a balance. Like this year's hospital needs which were totally demanded by conditions, there are other spendings which must come along. Fact is, just to carry on with the projects already started calls for tremendous spending for a time at least. Education, roads and welfare demands are eating up the lion's share of the state's income. None of these in itself is bad as long as there is balance in the thinking and planning and the people are willing to put up.

Story goes, by way of the grapevine, that the proposed Floydada radio station is not to happen right quick. At this time a hearing is set for a way up in June on the business of whether a station in Floydada will have a certain wave length or a station in Tullia. Possibly neither. An up-and-at-them Lubbock man is spear heading the Tullia claim. First time in fifty years we know of that Floydada and Tullia have been in active battle or rivalry for something. They play ball and football and things of the kind but the kind of rivalry that raises the Irish in you has been lacking all of these years - until just now - between the two communities.

It is dangerous economy to build steep stairways to save space, especially if they are used frequently. Every stairway should have the protection of a guard rail - low enough for children.

PARIS POLKA DOT'S

CHICAGO—Gay polka dots at heel and hand are the fashion feature revealed by these imported nylon stockings and gloves from Paris. Eye arresting, the hose and gloves were a standout item in the new spring import collection brought from France by Marshall Field & Company's fashion coordinator.

WHAT HE SAID:
It was the first wedding ceremony for the young minister and he was almost as bashful and embarrassed as the young couple before him. In a brave effort to round out the affair, the minister stammered:
"It's all over now. Go and sin no more."

LOOKING FORWARD

It is not too early to begin planning how you are going to spend the summer; of course, now you mainly think about how wonderful it will be to sleep late and not worry about lessons. You dream about all the good times with the gang—picnics, parties, swimming, and all the rest—but in spite of all these occasions you will have a lot of time on your hands. Time that can be made profitable or wasted.

Many seniors could be planning college or business courses to further prepare themselves for the future. Many may start to work on either a permanent basis or part time summer jobs. Others can be of help at home.

Now is the time to begin thinking and planning what YOU are going to do this summer.

FFA Boys Hoping For Pretty May 7

Last Monday night the F. F. A. meeting was held. The business was discussed and refreshments were served. The boys decided to go to Roaring Springs on their F. F. A. and F. H. A. picnic, May 7, 1950.

A business meeting was held, and the girls and boys voted to go to Roaring Springs. The group will leave at approximately 8:00 a. m. We hope that this will be a fine day for a picnic.

The Soil Conservation projects are now on display. They will be judged for prizes and the awards will be made May 4, while the tour is being made.

The boys who are planning to get a Lone Star Farmers decree are busy putting the finishing touches on their records. May they all get the degree!

DE QUACKER

Boy! are the Jrs. on the ball? Of all the gossip that I have heard I just hope that I can put it all down. You could help me remember it all by dropping some in my can in Mr. Baker's outer office.

Joe Mack Dunn phoned Eva Weller the other day for a date to the show. Did you go with him, Eva?? You should have, you would have had a lot of fun.

Who was it that Don Probasco was with at the banquet? She sure did look pretty. Don, you had better latch on to that.

Jerry, why are you letting Billie walk?? She was walking Sunday afternoon, and I don't think that it was that pretty of a day for a walk.

Wayne Robertson and Marlene are still topping the top. You make a cute couple.

Pat Pralin and Aubrey sure did enjoy the Prom the other night. Could it have been because they danced with each other all the time??

Say Dale Roberts, what will Jean have to say about the girl at the banquet?? You had better be careful.

Katie, I guess that "T" is a pretty good egg for sending you a nice flower to wear to the banquet Sat. night!!!!

Ruth Maxey, where have you been keeping yourself lately?? I haven't seen you out in some time.

Don and Meri sure do have fun when they are together. I would too if I were you!

Say Peggy, did you happen to give a slumber party Sat. night?? It sounds like fun to me.

Dan, maybe you had better watch Nancy a little closer or is it gonna be Dick that you should watch?

Elayne, that orchid sure did look pretty on your evening dress, but if David could have gotten one, I heard that he was gonna give you a white orchid.

Why doesn't someone notice Tank Haney, I think that he is cute, and I also think that he would show you a good time.

Edith and Jackie are still kicking everything off just fine. I like it that way.

Could Chuck Holmes have phoned Billie the other night?? What will Jim have to say, Billie??

Are Anita Tooley and Gordon still going together?? I just haven't seen them lately. Why not come out in the open???

Who is Rhonal Teaff going with? She must be an out of town girl.

Peggy Lanham is another girl that I haven't seen out lately. What the matter, Peg??

Floyd, you had better watch Jo Mack; I think he asked Eva for a date the other night. You would hate for your best friend to beat your time, wouldn't you??

Margie Herring has caught her man, Margie, how about telling us a little more about it. You have a very pretty ring, so why not??

Ann West is another girl that has a nice boy-friend that gave her flowers to wear to the Jr. and Sr. banquet, Sat. night.

Carroll, did you enjoy the banquet the other night with Jane?? Jane, what will Johnnie have to say about this??

I am just wondering when Frank Capshaw is gonna open his eyes and see that Betty Laminack thinks that he is just about the cutest thing that walks on two legs.

Who is Veva Buske going with since she and Shipley broke up?? How about telling us, Veva??

Duane Lemons, I know a very cute Senior that thinks you are cute. Maybe you had better look into this a little more.

Now you kids don't forget my "Little Can" in "Little Baker's" "Little office".

Hawaiian Cruise at Jr-Sr Banquet FHS Band News

The students and faculty of F. H. S., members of the school board, and other guests took a Hawaiian cruise at the Jr. and Sr. banquet, Saturday, April 29.

The banquet was presented by the Junior class at the high school cafeteria at 8:00 o'clock p. m.

The cafeteria was gaily decorated with flowers of all sizes and colors and many palm trees. The tables were covered in pastel shades on which were set large baskets of fruit. Tiny Hawaiian dolls were put at each plate as plate favors and the nut cups were of small imitation canoes.

The program was opened with the invocation rendered by Mr. Barber. "Aloha" was given by Don Probasco, Master of the Isles, followed by "Hawaiian Leis", response by Bill Jones. The special music was presented by a Hawaiian group from Wayland college after which Mrs. Lake Pylant presented a group of slides entitled "Hawaii Speaks". Muriel Okomat sang "Kuipo", a Hawaiian love song, followed by the final speech, "At the Crossroads of the Pacific," given by Mrs. Graves. The banquet was brought to a very successful close when the Hawaiian group sang, "Aloha Oe" dedicated to the Seniors, meaning "farewell to thee."

As A Farm Woman Thinks

The following poem from May Adult student is dedicated to all who are building new houses:

Builder Makes Reply
By Julia W. Wolfe

Builder will you build a house for me
With windows wide and high, that I may see
The distant hills and just a glimpse of sea?

Builder, will you build it strong and fine
With sturdy walls to stand the shock of time,
And grace and beauty in each lovely line?

"Oh, that," said he, "I'll do right readily,
A labor of delight 'twill surely be."

Builder will you build for me
Where love and happiness will ever be,
And all who dwell there live in harmony;

Where they who come will always welcome find;
A place of peace; with voices ever kind
To soothe the weary heart and troubled mind?

"But that, alas! I cannot do," said he "For that you must yourself the builder be."

My beloved Aunt Mirtie of childhood days as well as the years that have passed by, her sweet daughter, Mary Lee, my dear mother and sister Lois, spent the day last week with us in our new home. Such a pleasant time and happy days reviewed! And yesterday the girls and their families came. So our new home is beginning a "lot of living" to make it a "Home."

Sandra Collier brought me a rock from Palo Duro. It is so nice to be remembered when some one goes for a holiday. Thank you, Sandra.

TEMPERATURE 40 DEGREE BELOW ZERO—Soldier searching for parties made heroic treks into the Yukon wilderness in seeking the U. S. Air Force C-54 plane which disappeared with 44 persons aboard in a flight from Anchorage, Alaska, to Great Falls, Montana. Walkie-talkies and pole aeriels have been vitally important instruments used by the searchers in the Arctic terrain. American and Canadian soldiers and airmen engaged in the search were assembled at Whitehorse for "Exercise Sweetbrier," United States-Canada joint "combat" troop-training maneuver for Alaskan defense.

Mother and Aunt Mirtie recalled a man in their community in Parker county who always killed one hog for each member in his family and one for the "Corners and goers." But the corners and goers got so plentiful that he said he would have to kill two for them to have enough.

I used to watch Mr. Spikes work in his little shop. He heated the irons then cooled them to make them have the right kind of "temper." Wonder if we are not "tempered" with the wather turning suddenly from hot to cold. If so we should be the true steel by the time summer comes.

Who remembers the Uncle Josh records the young people kept on the graphophone most all the time and which were so funny? Uncle Josh got in some good kindly philosophy with the fun. "Most people repent of their sins," he said, "I never knew an auctioneer to lie unless it was absolutely necessary."

I have a big space in which to plant annual flowers. But it is so hard to get the little seed to come up. You have to plant so shallow and the ground dries so fast. I think there is nothing prettier than zinnias, four-o'clocks, which come up quickly. Asters and scabiosa, petunias and cosmos, I love them all and they make such lovely cut flowers.

The mimosa I put out in the yard is beginning to leaf out. I was so afraid it would not live. They are so very pretty and do so well here altho they are a tropical plant, the fern tree of Africa. They come easily from seed and the one at the farm is from seed I brought from Memphis, Tenn. I found this one in a nursery in Lubbock growing in a big tin can. I hope it blooms this summer. It is about five feet tall now.

On Installing A Septic Tank Care of Roses

College Station, A septic tank and disposal field is usually recommended as the best waste disposal system for the farm home. The septic tank, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer-buildings of Texas A. & M. College, is not a mysterious object. It is merely a holding tank for the household waste where decomposition disposes of these wastes quickly, easily and in a sanitary manner.

He says Sanitation authorities agree that a septic tank should be made large enough to hold the maximum amount of sewage discharged into it in any given 24 hour period. The minimum sized tank should hold no less than 500 gallons. Tanks that are too small soon become overloaded with sludge and raw sewage and this will pass into the disposal field and clog up the system.

He says a grease trap is not considered necessary for the ordinary household if the tank has a capacity of 500 gallons or more. The location of the tank, however, is of primary importance. It is cheaper, he says, to build the tank close to the source of the sewage because less water tight line will be needed. It is not, however, a good practice to locate a septic tank too close to a building for this makes cleaning difficult. All septic tanks will need cleaning during their life of usefulness so locate it where it can be reached easily for the cleaning job. The tank itself, he says, should never be a part of any foundation wall.

The disposal field should consist of two or more tile lines. If a single line is used, there is a greater chance that the field will become water logged and thus cause trouble. He says unless you live in an area where the soil is very porous, it is advisable to provide a porous bed of gravel or crushed stone for the disposal field. Sewage, it should be remembered, is not necessary rendered harmless in the disposal field; therefore, the field should be located a safe distance away from wells and water supply lines. He says the minimum distance should be 100 feet.

Allen says you can obtain plans for constructing the right kind of a septic tank and disposal field from our local county health unit, the State Health Department or from your local county extension agent. He says they'll be happy to advise you on the amount of disposal tile needed for the disposal in our area and also on the construction of the system. He added with this word of advice, a good plan and follow it in constructing your septic tank and disposal field.

What's the secret of the "UNRUFFLED" RIDE?

SOME car makers say springs make the ride—and so we give every Buick four of the soft, gentle coil springs practically all cars use on front wheels only.

Some say the drive is important—how power is transmitted to the rear wheels.

We agree—and use a torque-tube drive, that takes up all the thrust, freeing rear springs of driving pulsation.

Some stress tires—so you'll find low-pressure casings on every Buick, mounted on our own kind of Safety-Ride rims. Some play up shock absorbers—we make ours fast, soft and sure in action, to wash out all "after-bounce."

Then there are frames—and car weight—and engine mountings, which on Buick are a very special kind used nowhere else.

They're all important—yet the plain truth is no one of these things—or two or three—gives a ride you can truly call "unruffled."

We feel it takes all of them—springs, tires, shock absorbers, drive, engine mountings—carefully and precisely brought into balance with each other.

You can see why we think so in any Buick—SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER.

You can feel it on cobblestones and car tracks, washboard gravel and weather-pocked macadam, country lane and city street. You even feel it on boulevards, which grow still smoother when you travel them in a Buick—especially when it has Dynaflo Drive!

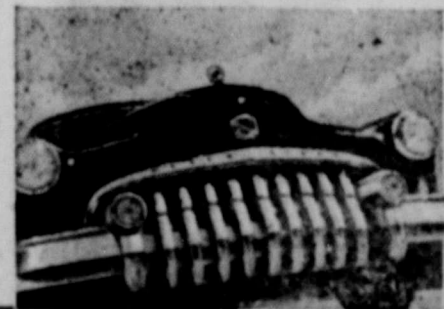

So we would like you to try a ride that is truly "unruffled." Free of harshness—undisturbed by jounce and jitter—level—steady-going—smooth.

Just ask any Buick dealer for a chance to try out any Buick. You'll find it "the ride of a lifetime"—and the buy of a lifetime too!

* Dynaflo Drive is standard on ROADMASTER, optional on extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes!

It's New... It's Super!

Here it is... the amazing new motor oil you've heard so much about... new Conoco Super Motor Oil... proved by a punishing 50,000-mile road test!

It is a motor oil so tough that in this killing 50,000-mile test, engines lubricated with Conoco Super Motor Oil showed virtually no wear at all... in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth of an inch on cylinders and crankshafts!

In this same 50,000-mile test, gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles of the run was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000 miles.

Yes—Conoco Super Motor Oil has definitely proved that it can keep your new car new.

Wasted Water Could Furnish New York City

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles prepared by the Plains Water Conservation and High Plains Association, of which the Floyd County Water Conservation is an associate member.

A recent article in Reader's Digest, written in connection with the New York water shortage, declared that repairing leaky faucets alone would save 100 million gallons of water daily in that city.

A single precaution against leaks can save so much water, how much more could be saved by practicing not one but several proven water-saving rules.

A tremendous amount of water--more than is used by New York's 12 million residents--is pumped from irrigation wells out here on the High Plains of Texas. New Yorkers use 12 billion gallons a day. Plains farmers use about 10 times that much in pumping seasons.

Get You a Calculator

A good irrigation well will pump 1,000 gallons a minute. That's 60,000 gallons an hour and 1,440,000 gallons a day, for one well. Multiply that by the 12,000 wells on the high plains and the figure zooms to more than 17 billion gallons a day. Of course, some allowance must be made for the fact that all wells don't pump 1,000 gallons a minute, and all of them don't pump 24 hours daily.

In 1948, 97 per cent of the water pumped from the underground water reservoirs on the high plains was used for irrigation. About 1.4 million acre-feet were used.

Privilege and Responsibility

With the privilege of using the water goes the responsibility of protecting the supply and conserving it so that it will last as long as possible.

Our underground water supply, where it exists, can be made to last longer, if use is soon enough made of the Texas Underground Water Conservation Law. Enacted in 1949, this law makes it possible for water users to band together in local, independent districts to protect, preserve, conserve and re-charge the underground water supply.

So far, no districts have been formed to carry on this work. Until the organization can be effected, water users as individuals can practice conservation by these recommendations, made after extensive studies by a group of ground water geologists:

Rules for Water Saving

1. Conserve rainfall by proper methods of cultivation.
2. Select crops that produce the greatest returns from a minimum of irrigation water.
3. Locate new wells as far as possible from existing wells to lessen mutual interference.
4. Drill wells through the entire thickness of water-bearing sediments so that all sand strata will contribute to the well.
5. Case the wells with pipe of sufficiently large diameter to permit the pump to be lowered as the water table declines.
6. Use a power unit adapted for the load to obtain maximum efficiency.
7. Reduce ditch losses by using pipe or an impermeable liner.
8. Apply water at proper times and in proper amounts.
9. Maintain supervision while applying water to prevent waste.

BOOK HOUSE 'GIVES YOU TEXAS'

A book store owner in a Texas city was relating an experience he had had with a publishing house representative. The latter had indicated that the dealer wasn't ordering enough copies of a book, whereupon the dealer explained:

"That's the way with you fellows from up North -- always trying to tell us Texans how to run our business."

"I asked the dealer, 'Where did you come from originally?'"

"Wisconsin."

"How long have you been down here?"

"Two years -- but I'm a Texan now!"

Phrases without which nobody could run for office:

"Economy and efficiency."

"Clean as a hound's tooth."

"Point with pride."

"Show with alarm."

"Earn on a farm."

"Poor but honest parents."

"Have a clean campaign, free of personalities."

"A business administration."

"Wise men and most beautiful women."

"Less government in business."

"Public office is a public trust."

It was Twain who declared, "Hunger is the handmaid of genius."

DANGER: RUST SPOTS!

Battered and dented old milk cans, such as the one to which Winnifred Rogers is pointing above, are breeders of dangerous rust spots which affect the premium quality of milk and cream. Such old milk cans should be replaced promptly to protect the dairy farmer against down-grading or rejection at the milk station. Strong, new cans similar to those shown in the background above are again in good supply and are essential to good dairy operations, inspectors say.

HOW LONG IS A NEMATODE?

Nematodes have become such a factor in farming and gardening that it is desirable to be familiar with their ways, appearance, and size. Controls are being worked out for the more common crop nematodes, and new varieties are being described. But, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, few people ever see them although the pests attack the roots of many crops and also the stems, leaves and blossoms of some of the garden and field crops.

The small size of these pests was emphasized recently by Wilbur D. Courtney, nematologist of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Soil, and Agricultural Engineering, addressing a meeting of bulb growers in the Northwest.

"If we had a four-inch fishworm and a bulb nematode side by side," said Courtney, "and enlarged them both so that the nematode would be one inch long, the fishworm would then be 8 feet 4 inches long."

The foreign-born white population of the U. S. was 11,419,138 in 1940.

Pike County, Kentucky, is said to be the world's greatest coal reserve.

Rose Care

COLLEGE STATION. — Early spring is a busy time for the rose gardener. It is a little too late to plant roses unless you are using plants that have been held in cold storage, but according to Sadie Hatfield, extension landscape gardening specialist of Texas A & M. college, there are a lot of things that can be done to make those you already have growing more productive and beautiful.

Roses do best in a fertile soil. If fertilization is needed, now is the time to make the application she says. Two or three pounds of 4-12-4 or 5-10-5 commercial fertilizer for each hundred square feet of space in the rose garden is about right but if you want to be more accurate, she suggests that you ask your local agent about local fertilizer recommendations.

The fertilizer should be worked into the soil by shallow cultivation. Deep cultivation at this time of the year will destroy the young feeder roots that are near the ground surface and this may retard plant growth and cut down on the production of flowers. The rose garden can be mulched at this time and she says a good mulch of decayed leaves, straw, grass clippings, pine needles or well decayed barnyard manure will help hold moisture, keep down weed and grass growth in the garden and will improve the tilth of the soil.

She says roses should be checked now for new sprout growth. They come from the root stock; usually grow very rapidly and are easy to recognize because the leaves are small and light green in color. They should be removed for they can crowd off more desirable rose graft.

Roses require good drainage, yet they need plenty of moisture for heavy flower production. She says they should not be sprinkled, because moisture applied to the leaves encourages black spot and mildew. Both diseases are likely to develop during periods of rainy or cloudy weather and she says roses should be dusted with copper-sulphur dust within 24 hours after each rain for control.

Black spot is "public enemy no. 1" so far as roses are concerned. It causes the black spots on the leaves turns them yellow later and they drop. Die back of the stems usually follows and if the disease is not brought under control, the entire plant may die.

Miss Hatfield says that out-of-shape plants may be pruned now until summer but no more growth should be removed than is necessary. Prune only to keep the plants a convenient size and attractive in form, she adds.

Jack Eudy of Morton spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eudy.

Apple Pectin Another "Grandmother's Way" Now Proved Sound By Modern Science

"Old fashioned" Apple Pectin in modern powdered form, is the quickest, best way to make Jams and Jellies.

By MARY NEWTON, Home Economist

MODERN science and chemistry has made some surprising discoveries recently. In testing vegetables, fruit and plants for their chemical ingredients to compound the latest in "miracle drugs" the scientists have been discovering that many of grandmother's old remedies, once popularly used but later scorned by the medical profession, were actually based on sound scientific theory. Some of these include onions for preventing colds and other infections; honey for bronchial and throat disorders; and several of the bad-tasting old "herb teas" that grandmother used to brew.

Similarly, although not quite in the same category, is the old-fashioned use of apple peelings in the making of jams and jellies. It has been now well established that the pectin from apples is probably the most effective, the least changeable and the one which does not impair the natural flavor of the fruit with which it is used. Where mother and grandmother used apples, however, today's housewife is using the apple pectin in powdered form... and getting not only better results but more jam and jelly from her fruit and sugar. The powdered apple pectin does not require the long boiling and frequent testing for consistency that apples or apple peelings do; thus more jelly or jam results, the flavor is not "boiled away" and the finished product is of smooth, uniform texture every time. Another reason, which appeals to the busy housewife is that the powdered pectin finishes her jams and jellies much faster, saving time and work over a hot stove in mid-summer.

One advantage of the powdered pectin such as Pen-Jel which most people do not realize is that it is constant in its effectiveness while the fruit itself, even in apples, varies a great deal in pectin content depending upon its type stage of ripeness and even on how long it has been picked before it is used. This, before the advent of the modern way, resulted in puzzling variations in the results obtained although the same recipe was followed exactly.

The one caution, however, in the use of powdered pectin is that the recipes should be followed exactly as they appear on the folders enclosed in the package, according to an authority, Powell Williams, vice-president of the Pen-Jel Corporation, Kansas City, Mo. These recipes have been carefully tested for the best results and increasing or decreasing any quantity of the jam or jelly ingredients is not advisable. But even making several batches in the quantity recommended by the recipe takes less time and gives better results than making jelly or jam the old-fashioned way.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR TIRES?
May is the month immediately preceding the vacation and summer driving season... the season which sees our highways crowded with cars... and our hospitals crowded with the results of traffic accidents.

IT IS AGAINST THE LAW OF COMMON SENSE TO NEGLECT MECHANICAL REPAIRS ON YOUR CAR. The Absence of a two-bit bolt can cost you your life. Have your Automobile or Truck Inspected this month. Have the necessary repairs made and drive in a vehicle that you know is safe for you and safe for the public. Ask yourself: If the Highway Patrol conducted a Spot Inspection Tomorrow would your car stand the test?

Our Shop Service was never in better position to serve you. Capable workmen, good, modern Equipment, at your call.
