New equipment has been bought and installed and classes have been reorganized, with quarters in the Burger, Farris, White building in the 300 block on South Main street.

A. T. Hall, president of the school board, said this week the board has hope of being able to erect new building and re-establish the school on the school campus this spring.

The quarters down-town were leased for the remainder of the school year and new equipment taking the place of the old was installed last week. N. S. Abbott is coordinator of the county vocational school for veterans.

Plans are to have a new building ready for occupancy by next fall. At this time a final settlement on the fire loss has not been made. The estimate made on the extent of the loss at the time of the fire was $13,000.

The hour for the meeting is 7:30 o'clock. The membership drive which shared the spotlight last week with wind and cold netted a total membership of 317 in the county a check-up this week revealed. "Several of the committees reached their quotas with ease while others did not do so well," Mr. Quebe said.

Those who campaigned through the wind and cold found families at home and their job was easy. Those who waited for better weather didn't fare so well. "With several committees yet to report Mr. Quebe is hopeful the membership goal of 400 will be reached.

Municipal Election Interest Grows; 2 New Candidates

More interest was added to the forthcoming election for city officials by the announcement of one additional candidate for alderman and one for mayor this week.

Former County Judge W. E. Grimes is the new candidate for mayor and Wayne Bennett building materials dealer, is the candidate for alderman. Their applications were filed over the week-end. Reportedly there will be other candidates for city office.

Already announced also are J. A. Patterson for mayor and Jimmy Willson, jr., for councilman. The city election will be held on April 3. Absentee voting begins on March 13. Last day for candidates to file to get their names on the ballot is March 3.

The city election will be held to elect a mayor and a complete slate of aldermen, five in all. Harmon Not Candidate Mayor F. C. Harmon has placed himself out of line for consideration as a candidate for re-election as mayor in a statement this week in which he declared he considered that 10 years of service as an alderman and six years as mayor ought to be his part. "I appreciate the honors that have come my way at the hands of the neighbors and have enjoyed working with some of the community's best business men," the mayor said, "but I want to step down and out and let somebody else have the responsibilities for a while."

The mayor urges every eligible citizen of the community to have a part in the April election, stressing the importance of every citizen taking his part of the responsibility of naming the city officials for the next two years. He calls attention to the fact that March 3 is the last date on which names may be filed to be printed on the official ballot.

News item in this issue of The Hesperian tells of the forthcoming visit of an Internal Revenue collector's deputy soon to spend a day to help the people with their income tax. People who have real income troubles have long since learned not to wait for the collector to come around. One man, of course, would make no appreciable dent in a day in the line that would form. Doubtless the gesture is made for the psychological effect, more than for any other reasoning of the department's head men.

See in the public prints where two artisans of some kind, probably carpenters, left for Amarillo to join in the permanent economy up there. Many communities of the area will be aided in this fine large way by Amorillo. It will doubtless be of enduring benefit to the whole area for that kind of thing to keep happening.

Possibly it is getting late enough in the winter season that the influenza epidemic which swept across from the Scandinavian countries to England and western France, will not get as far as this portion of Texas before it becomes ineffective. On both the east coast and the west coast where there was more exposure earlier in the winter the virus was rather severe, especially when it hit elderly persons. For a time public health officers are said to have looked askance at the possibility that the country was in for a repetition of the 1918-19 epidemic.

Santa Fe reports on the southwest wheat crop condition: "The general situation is very much muddled and probably will remain so for sometime."

About the most powerful and least expensive thing we know of that a person can put his money into at the time is a good, well-worded classified advertisement in The Hesperian. Backing our judgment we have one we used last week advertising for a rain. We are repeating this week, the cost this week being, of course, half the price of the first insertion. In contrast with this money-saving plan of ours we see in the public prints where a New Mexico syndicate of oil men, ranchers and every-day nesters have pooled $55,000 for the same service we are after for fifty-five cents.

Our last week's advertisement got only a light sprinkle Saturday night. That is co-operation and denotes an effort was made by the rain man. We are far from satisfied when we ask for a good rain we don't mean a heavy dew.

How long until television comes to this part of the state? We note a "right sharp sprinkle" of sets around over the area and some of them with high poles to hang their antennae on are getting their appetites sharpened by occasional freak spurts of programs from all sorts of places. The date is not too far away, assuming the war does not interfere too much, when the young man who has been straining his intestines out to get and keep a shiny new car is going to have to add television payments on top of that to keep his wife and children from feeling like they are terribly mistreated.

The market is wide open and there is a very good reason why chickens do not go higher on the market in line with other meats. But we wonder what that reason is. While inflation has hit practically every other food, the meat of the barnyard fowl has remained about the same on wholesale and retail markets for months and months on end.

The story told by travelers on their return from the Rio Grande valley is not too pretty a one about the citrus fruit trees. Allowing for possible exaggeration it does seem that the losses in the recent freeze have been tremendous. Some of the stories have it that fine trees were ripped open by the frost of the frozen sap and the current crop was ruined practically in its entirety. Weather records of more than a half century were shattered twice since the beginning of the new year.

How It Came About.—The briefest, plainest account of how it happened that Floydada came to be named Floydada, is told by Mrs. Maud E. Hollums in a recently quoted statement to Laura V. Hamner, as reported in The Amarillo Daily News. Says Mrs. Hollums, as quoted by Miss Hamner:

"The town of Floyd City was dedicated by Caroline V. Price and her husband, James B. Price, as shown by the records of Floyd County. No one by the name of Ada Price had anything to do with the said dedication.

"The Floydada postoffice was created in September, 1890. When Floyd County was first organized with Floyd City as the county seat, efforts were made to get a postoffice by that name, but the application was rejected because Hunt County already had a postoffice named Floyd City.

"Efforts were then made to secure a postoffice named Floydalia. This name was agreed upon by the citizens, one of whom was my father, Arthur B. Duncan, now deceased. The name was submitted to Washington but was misinterpreted there and the result was that the name Floydada was given the post-office."

This is no doubt correct, but many oldtimers do not go to the trouble of contradicting the "Floyd" and "Ada" story. To Judge Duncan's knowledge of how it actually happened may be added the testimony of others including the late W. T. Montgomery, who helped survey out the town and was one of the first assistant postmasters. Claud V. Hall, in his Early History of Floyd County, relates the circumstance.

WHAT are the things you hope some day to have in an automobile?
Is it power that rises to every challenge?
Is it the satisfied feeling of being a very important person there at the wheel?

Future Farmers Review Record and Accomplishments of Chapter

Floydada chapter of the Future Farmers of America held a special meeting Tuesday evening in celebration of National Future Farmers Week. The program called for a review of the chapter's work up to the present time was given by President Lavon Shearer.

Shearer stated that the first year class had made rope, pruned trees, shrubs, and grape vines, dug flower beds in front of the school building, culled hens, wormed pigs, studied the selection of livestock and made field trips to see the animals. They have measured and studied soil conservation practices, and have shown slides and movie films of work that they were planning to do.

Second and Third Year Boys
The second and third year boys have built a concession stand entered and won the local grass judging contest, sent president Lavon Shearer to Kansas City as a delegate from the local chapter. They have pruned trees, set out roses and cherry trees, studied animal disease and their treatments.

Plans have been shown in connection with some of the work to aid the boys in recognizing and controlling the diseases.

The chapter sponsored a trip to the Fort Worth Fat Stock show which was made on January 26. The chapter sponsored two teams in the district chapter conducted contest held at Tulsa on December 18. The first year team won third place, while the second year boys won second place. The chapter also elected Miss Billee Newberry and sponsored her in the district sweetheart contest.

Prizes for Accomplishments
The chapter has in its care a land plane and grass drill to rent to the people of the county. They were purchased by the Soil Conservation Service.

The chapter sponsors an improvement contest among its members in which the top ranking student receives registered gifts. The boys that received them this year were Lavon Shearer, A. C. Pratt, Virgil Warren, Bob Patterson and Teddy Assiter.

Lavon stated that a lot of work has been planned for the rest of the year. The meeting was closed and refreshments served. Three boxing matches were held for entertainment.

South Plains News

(By Mrs. M. M. Julian)

SOUTH PLAINS, February 18
The South Plains Home Demonstration club had its first meeting in February, and was supposed to meet at the home of Mrs. Carl Daniels, on February 14. The snow was drifting so badly that everyone was afraid to try the roads way East of town. The only one present was Mrs. J. P. Taylor, who lives close by. The club is such a large one, that it is a disappointment when the hostesses are left with great quantities of food on hand.

The president, Mrs. Ruth Smitherman, has notified members that the club will meet this coming Wednesday, February 21, at the school house. Everyone is urged to be present so that they won't miss any of the demonstrations to be given during the coming months.

Wm. Staniforth sr., and Billy Staniforth went to Amarillo on Tuesday and Friday of last week to attend the stock sales out at sales ring. Mr. Edmonds went with Billy Staniforth on Friday to help bring the purchases home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods spent last week end over in Tucumcari, New Mexico. They visited their daughter, Mrs. Jack McGowan, and family, whom they hadn't seen since the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Art Willis went to Olton last Wednesday and stayed two days with an old friend there, Mrs. J. A. Phillips. On Thursday night they attended a shower in Olton, and Mrs. Willis returned Friday.

Wedding at Clovis N. M.
Bethleen Northcutt McIntire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Northcutt, of Tulsa, Texas, became the bride of Arthur Noel Deavenport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Deavenport of South Plains, Texas, on Friday, 2, at six o'clock, in a double ring ceremony, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Owen Thornton, 1204 Calhoun Street, Clovis, New Mexico.

Luther G. Roberts, minister of 16th and Pile Streets Church of Christ, of Clovis, officiated at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Thornton of South Plains, Texas were the couple's only attendants.

The bride was lovely in a navy blue costume with white accessories. Her wedding suit was of navy blue gabardine with tiny self-covered buttons on the pockets. Her navy blue straw hat was covered with tiny buttons around the crown. The brides corsage was beautiful red roses.

After the wedding ceremony, Mrs. T. Owen Thornton served delicious refreshments to the bridal couple and their attendants, and the immediate family. The newly married Deavenports spent a few days in Clovis New Mexico, and Perryton, Texas. They will be at home to their friends in the near future at South Plains.

Little Bud Higginbotham and his mother, Mrs. Bryant Higginbotham, have both been ill during the past week. We missed them at church and Sunday school last Sunday.

Hosts at Dinner
The Wm. Staniforths were gracious hosts at dinner last Sunday night in Plainview at Mrs. Blassingame's. Mrs. Staniforth planned the delicious menu for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donohue, and Mrs. Wiley Blair from Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnard, and Miss Barbara Barnard from Barwise, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Staniforth, jr., and Little Billy Staniforth enjoyed the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and Karen, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Vaneck and Rev. C. A. Joiner. Barbara Sue Milton is ill at home this week with a case of chicken pox. Her parents think she was exposed while at Fort Worth awhile back, for there are no cases around in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beedy had some of their children home Sunday, and had them all to church with them. Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Beedy and baby boy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McGuire and baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wilson and children were visitors at S. S. and church last Sunday. The Wilsons are from Silverton. They went home from church with Mrs. Johnny Wilson to have dinner and spend a pleasant afternoon with his brother, Johnny Wilson and family.

There were several visitors in school on Valentine's day, the mothers bringing small children who joined in the fun with the pupils. The teachers served ice cream and drinks to the children after the boxes were all distributed. Mrs. West and Dale, Mrs. Julian and Bruce, and Mrs. Edmonds and Diane were visitors that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thornton and baby, Kay, spent the week-end in Clovis, New Mexico, week before last. They were week-end guests at the Owens Thorntons.

Mr. and Mrs. Menard Field from Floydada, were Tuesday evening dinner guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Staniforth, jr., and family. This was a terribly cold night and they were unfortunate enough to have a flat just after they left the high way. Mr. Field really was cold before he could get the tire changed. The wind during the last cold spell was of blizzard proportions out on the plains.

Jerry Pearsey went to Haskel last Wednesday and returned Thursday bringing his wife, Peggy, back with him. She had been staying with Jerry's grandmother, Mrs. F. E. Pearsey, who has been very ill, for the past two weeks.

Play Date is Set
The South Plains Community club met Friday night at the school house with about twenty-four people present. There were six tables of 42". Doughnuts and coffee were served at the end of the evening. They have decided definitely on a date for the minstrel play, which the club is sponsoring. The play, with a classy title of "Chicken Lifters Association" will be presented on March 2. This play comes on the next meeting date of the club, so there will be no business meeting on March 2--just the play given. There will be more chairs ordered right away. Only a dozen were received this past week.

Birthday Party is Surprise
Mrs. L. T. Woods was pleasantly surprised on the evening of February 13, when she was unceremoniously ushered to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods by her husband. Much to her surprise several friends greeted her with "happy birthday." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. John Smitherman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beedy and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods. The evening was spent in games of were served to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Julian, Kendis and Bruce spent Friday in Amarillo, visiting Mrs. Alex Cannon, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and children.

Wednesday of last week Herman and Mildred Thornton and Kay went to Lubbock to take Kay to the physician who always has ministered to her. Kay has had a bad sore throat, and many grown ups around South Plains as well, have been having bad sore throats.

Those who attended the pastor's and laymen's conference at Plainview, last Monday were Reverend R. C. and Mrs. Guest, Rev. C. A. Joiner, and Mrs. Gilbert Bean, from South Plains.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris will be congratulating them on the birth of a new baby girl, born Saturday night in Lockney. The new baby has been named Beverly Joy. Mrs. Harris is the former Johnna Kennady.

Rev. C. A. Joiner visited Mr. and Mrs. Sim Reeves on Tuesday of last week, and had dinner at their home.

Mrs. Junior Calahan and new baby girl are spending a few days with her mother, who lives near Floydada.

Johnny West was out of school with a severe sore throat most of last week. His parents thought he was taking cold mumps, as there are quite a few cases around. Winfred had the severe illness, too, a few days before Johnny. All are back in school now.

Roy Childress, from Canyon, has been a frequent visitor in South

Plains lately, he is helping work on the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Marble, Don, Fred, Keith and June, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Pierce King and family in Floydada. Mrs. Marble's father, who has been staying with Mrs. Marble, the past two weeks, was present also. He remained with Mrs. King for two or three days' visit.

Floor Placed Under Cotton

Agriculture secretary Brannon has put a price floor under 1951 cotton. He has announced that the government will offer cotton growers a guaranteed minimum loan rate of not less than 29.68 cents per pound for middling 7-8 inch cotton. This is about two cents more than last year's loan rate. Under the law, Brannon must determine the loan rate for mid-July 7-8 inch cotton at mid-January parity and announce it before planting begins. Better qualities of cotton, Brannon says, will be eligible for a higher loan rate, not yet determined. The secretary says that if growers have a normal production year, the average loan rate for all upland cotton will come to more than 30 cents a pound.

Run of Hard Luck for Sterley Man Countered with Good News

The luck of Joe Reeves of Sterley may have reversed itself in the past week, says a report out of Lockney. Reeves recently fell and broke his arm, then took down with the mumps and early in this month was hospitalized with bruises and cuts suffered in a gas explosion at his home. Reeves started on the good luck trail while still in the hospital. Report on the sale of his slaughter lambs the market showed that his shipment had topped the market and made an all-time high in their class. His lambs averaged 99 pounds and sold for $37 per hundred.

But that didn't get him back out in his field where a lot of things were to be done, particularly a chiseling job. Came then the news that the neighbors had organized in a good neighbor project and double-chiseled his land to put it in good condition for spring operations. The story goes that the neighbors who helped keep Reeves' farm operations up-to-date were Bryan Smith, Robert Lee Smith, Bob Crawford, Leslie Ferguson, Jim Bert Bobbitt, Loran Rhodes, Gene Mason Davis, Kenneth Wofford, Elmer Sandhusky, and C. L. Henderson.

Five Committed to State Prison From Floyd During 1950

HUNTSVILLE, February. — The five persons committed to the Texas State prison system from Floyd county in 1950 comprises the largest number in one year since 1940, when the number committed was again five. However, over a period of 22 years, the average has decreased from about four per year during the first half to slightly over two per year during the second 11 years.

These figures were revealed by Dr. Rupert Koeninger, director of classification at the prison and head of the sociology department at Sam Houston State Teachers college. His advanced students aided in the survey which dates back to 1928. The total for Floyd county is 69. The highest number in one year was eight in 1933, a depression year. Friend (to policeman, who had formerly been a salesman): How do you like the new job? Policeman: Swell. The pay is good, the hours O.K., and the customer is always wrong.

Grass Harvest Volume Grows

FORT WORTH —Grass, man's best tool for anchoring soil against erosion, was given a sound vote of confidence during 1950 by Texas farmers and ranchers.

Increased respect for this weapon against soil and water waste is reflected by last year's seed harvest, which shows 746,599 pounds of native grass seed harvested by Texas farmers and ranchers. It was pointed out today by Lewis P. Merrill, Soil Conservation Service regional director here.

Leading the native grass seed harvest parade in Texas were little bluestem (400,325 pounds) and blue grama (202,410 pounds), both warm season forage plants.

The 1950 seed harvest figures, Merrill said, also reflect widely increased use of King Ranch bluestem by conservation-wise farmers and ranchers. It is a deep-rooted introduced perennial grass known for its erosion-resisting and forage qualities and its adaptation to wide extremes of rainfall.

King Ranch Bluestem Through Texas, a total of 506,537 pounds of King Ranch bluestem seed was harvested, easily a new record seed take for the popular drought and cold-resistant grass, the regional director said.

Of the KR seed harvested in Texas last year, 463,082 pounds or about 91 per cent of the state-wide harvest were taken from the farms and ranches of soil conservation district cooperators, Merrill said.

An additional 8430 pounds of KR seed were harvested from the Soil Conservation Service nursery at San Antonio and U. S. land utilization project areas.

From Texas' more than 4 1/2 million acres in close-growing, soil-conserving legumes, a total of 25, 216,000 pounds of legume seed was harvested during 1950, Merrill announced.

Leading in the Texas legume seed harvest was Hubam sweetclover (11,258,947 pounds) a versatile conservation crop respected for its ability to overcome cotton root rot, decrease soil loss and runoff and improve soil productivity. Second was hairy vetch (10,819,087 pounds), a winter cover crop known as a veritable storehouse of soil nutrients.

The harvest of native and introduced grass seed and legume seed in Texas last year totaled more than 30 million pounds, the regional director said.

"The 1950 seed harvest is a clear indicator that the Texas farmer and rancher is paying increased attention to the use of grasses and legumes as his best weapons in improving the soil and fighting soil and water waste," Merrill said.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(NELLIE WITT SPIKES)

February sometimes can act just like March and April. She can blow both hot and cold in a few hours time; bring a tiny shower in the dark of the night and blow it away with a strong west wind the next day. This morning as I look out the north window white and gray fleecy clouds float northeast, storm-feeders we use to call them. In these days when we depend on the weather man to tell us the coming weather, we are just too plump lazy to watch the signs in the heavens and be our own forecaster. Of course we used to fail but does not the weather man do the same? When we saw the northern horizon blue and smoky we brought in cowchips and mesquite wood, filled extra buckets of water and waited for the blizzard. If any ever traveled east and missed us I do not recall it, they hit and how!

Our children will not even know it is in their power to tell the weather. They get it out of a radio like they get milk out of a bottle without a thought.

"The statesman throws his shoulders back, and straightens out his tie, and says, 'My friends, unless it rains, the weather will be dry!' and when this thought into our brains has percolated through, we common people nod our heads and loudly cry, 'How true!'"

After the lecture Ernest Joiner of the Ralls Banner gave about using old sayings and adages I timidly copy the above, because when one is a plain farm woman and not too smart to think up bright sayings, I just have to copy. And besides I differ with him as did the lady who sent the poem. I like the old sayings and "writings." Now please, Ernest, just one more quote from Henry Louis Mencken: "All successful newspapers are ceaselessly querulous and bellicose. They never defend anyone or anything if they can help it; if the job is forced upon them, they tackle it by denouncing someone or something else." Go on, I am listening—Any way I will not be hit with a proverb!

Grandpa Wheeler of Ralls is a fine Christian gentleman and we are sorry that he is not too well. Hope he will be up and about soon. The odds and ends of old dresses have been made up into rugs, old letters and papers sorted out and I begin to get restless. Wonder if I could be that the flower catalogues have anything to do with it? Or if it is spring fever coming on a little early?

Valentine Day was cold and we sat around the fire, the house still and very quiet. The postman came with his pack, crunching the snow as he came up the steps with the mail. Suddenly the day was glowing with warm color and happiness for two valentines were in the mail. A Swiss handkerchief with red hearts and border from two friends in Amarillo who took the time to send a valentine. Trilla and Nan Nordyke, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the remembering which was very sweet of you. Gloria and Alden Carthel sent us a lovely Valentine with morning glories around the border. Thanks to you young neighbor friends, for the remembrance.

I am afraid that most of my rose cuttings put under glass jars last fall are killed. I cannot see any green about them. I promised myself last year that I would not try to have so many different kinds of annuals another year but the pictures in the catalogs are very intriguing. (Have been wanting to use that word a long time.) Hear it every day over the radio, so this is my chance. Intriguing—clothing, food, pictures, all come under this category (another chance to use a word that is heard most every hour.) Maybe after all I can learn the new ways of saying things and not have to go back into the dusty past for thoughts and words. You cannot teach a --- "no, I must not quote that---" It may not be true—come to think of it.

LENTEN ADVENTURE — CHEESE FONDUE

Lent, known as a time of abstinence—of "giving up"—marks a change in habits of living and eating. But the wise homemaker takes advantage of a change in routine. She puts fast-day foods to work in brand-new recipes!

Her menus will count heavily on cheese, milk, eggs and fish for hearty flavor and to meet the body's need for protein. Many dishes will include enriched yeast-raised bread—as a stuffing, binder or extender. Bread or bread crumbs will increase the value of dishes in which they are used. Enriched yeast-raised bread supplies energy, protein, vitamin and mineral values.

Bread has always been important during the Lenten season. For example, traditional Hot Cross Buns, rich with spices and currants, brighten many meals and the end of the forty-day fast is marked with traditional Easter breads.

Fashions, Fads of '51

Now that the snow has melted away, and the sun has come out once again, I guess you are beginning to think about the spring and summer fashions.

Well, let's hope there won't be any bulls around this spring because there is going to be plenty of red, especially in shoes, hats, and bags. The dresses will also have their share of this color. Orchid is another color that seems to be prominent, especially in hats. Speaking of hats, if you see a girl with a pile of flowers on her head, don't be alarmed—it's only a hat. Yes, the newest thing in hats, or maybe I should say on hats, is flowers.

Rayon gabardine suits seem to be taking the spot light for Easter wear. Among the wonderful things about them are the soft colors and the straight, short loose jackets.

The printed silk dress, that's as fresh as a rose in a florist's window, will be good for all occasions.

It looks as though there are going to be quite a few bare arms this summer from all the sleeveless blouses I've seen. These blouses make you feel like a lovely lady and make a nice costume when worn with your loudest, circular skirt.

Say, have you noticed these huge pockets on the cotton dresses and blouses? They are excitingly new and different and very eye-catching.

That's all for this time. I'll have more fashions for you next week along with some fads, tricks, and beauty hints for teen-agers.

A Bit O' Humor

Coach Watson: Jerry, what is your favorite state?
Jerry: California.
Coach Watson: Spell it!
Jerry: I believe I like Texas better.

"I don't believe that man 'upstairs' likes for Barbara to play her drum."
"Why?"
"Well, this afternoon he gave Barbara a knife and asked her if she knew what was inside."

Miss Fraser: Joe, you were to write a two-page composition on milk. Why did you write only half a page?
Joe: I was writing on condensed milk.

Mrs. Thomas: Who can name one important thing that we enjoy now, which our great-grandfathers didn't have a hundred years ago?
Glynnis: Me! ! !

Miraculous Recovery
He had never had such a tough time in his life. First he got pyorrhea, followed by appendicitis. Just as he was recovering from these, he got pneumonia, followed by pulmonary phthisis, followed by arteriosclerosis. All in all, he never knew how he pulled through and could still stand. It was the hardest spelling match he had ever been in.

Girl: How did you break your arm?
Boy: Do you see those steps?
Girl: Yes, I didn't!
Boy: Well, I didn't!

Jackie: I bet I can jump higher than the Empire State building!
Don: I bet you can't. How?
Jackie: The Empire State building can't jump.

Coach Gresham: What is ignorance, Bill?
Bill Carmack: Ignorance is when you don't know something and somebody finds it out.

Mr. Foster: When water turns to ice what is the greatest change that takes place?
Edgar: The price.

Ann: If you don't stop playing that trombone, I'll go crazy.
Jo: I guess it's too late; I stopped an hour ago.

Herbert I: I bet I can push something in a wheelbarrow that you can't.
Hershel I: I'll bet you can't.
Herbert: You.

Father: When I was a boy, I

Gifts Given Maturities Savings Bonds

W. E. Grimes, chairman of the Treasury committee for Texas Savings bond division, has issued the statement below relative to the treasury's plan for putting automatic interest extension on Series E Bonds for the benefit of bond holders and public generally. Eighty-five per cent of the Series E Bonds are owned by Americans, including half of the people of Texas.—Ed. note)

E. Savings bonds, beginning May 1, 1951. Under this plan, the holder of a Series E bond would have the choice, as the bond matures, of:

- accepting cash, if he so desires.
- continuing to hold his present bond, with an automatic interest-bearing extension. Owners who exercise this extension privilege will receive 2 1/2 per cent simple interest for all or any part of the next 7 1/2 years; interest during the final 2 1/2 years of the extension will bring the total interest to 2.9 per cent compounded; or
- exchanging his matured bond for a current income savings bond of Series G.

The House in congress has passed this legislation. As of this date (Feb. 16, 1951), the senate must yet approve it, and is expected to do so in its regular order of business.

The plan will apply to Series E Savings bond only, including both those sold during the past and those to be sold in the future.

The interest bearing extension is for ten years only.

When legislation is finally passed by congress and signed by the President. The plan will go into effect on May 1, 1951, which is the tenth anniversary of the beginning of Series E sales. (Savings bonds sold prior to May 1, 1941, were of a series other than E.)

There are several distinct advantages in the plan to people holding Series E bonds and who want to reinvest the proceeds. First, the plan makes it unnecessary for the bond holders to cash in their matured bonds and then buy new ones; they simply hold the old bonds and the interest on them accrues automatically for another 10 years. This means that a Saving bond purchaser will receive 78 per cent more than his original investment by holding his bond to maturity and then full advantage of his extension privilege for another ten years. Dollar-wise, this means that a savings bond buyer has the opportunity to receive $133.33 for the bond he originally purchased for $75. Second, the 2 1/2 per cent interest during the earlier years of the extension is a somewhat better return than for a new bond. The treasury emphasizes these two things: (1) Holders of matured savings bonds may cash them in at any time; and (2) the holder of maturing E bonds has the privilege of retaining them for all or any part of another 10 years, but he is under no obligation to do so.

Good Financial Report Plains Coop Meeting

PLAINVIEW — Stockholders of Plains Cooperative, Inc., meeting at their plant here Tuesday afternoon heard what was termed one of the best financial reports in recent years.

J. M. Jackson, Plainview accountant, presented the report. John A. Lloyd, Floydada, president of the board of directors, presided.

In his report to the stockholders Jackson said the cooperative operated last year with a net loss of $954.83 after allowing for a depreciation in the amount of $4,264.30.

The annual report for 1949 showed a net loss of $29,689.17 after depreciation. The auditor told the members that all bills had been paid and that the organization was in the soundest shape financially that it had been in some years.

Members were told that the organization's mortgage liabilities had been reduced during the year from $65,242.45 to $22,726 as of December 31, 1950, and that further payments made during January had reduced this indebtedness to less than $10,000.00 as of February 13, 1951. Mortgage payments came from sale of capital assets.

Directors were elected to succeed John A. Lloyd, Ellis Jones and John Hegi who resigned at the meeting. New directors are Frank Weil of Hale Center, John A. Lloyd, Floydada, and Ellis Jones of Plainview. At the directors' meeting which followed, Frank Weil of Hale Center was elected president of the board, A. S. Nafziger of Olton was elected vice-president and John Lloyd was named secretary. Other members of the board are E. G. Bryan of Rails and Ben Quebe of Lockney.

Jean Graham Program Monday Night Pleases Concert Audience

Jean Graham, talented young American pianist, was presented in her concert Monday night at the Floydada high school auditorium, by the Floydada Municipal concert association.

The success of the Floydada Municipal Concert association seems assured, if success rested on audience appreciation. Of Jean Graham, for she held the audience captivated from the opening number until the closing notes of her encores had faded and died.

Jean, a most gracious and talented young performer, consented to play four encores for the large audience, in spite of the strenuous road trip and resultant strain, and completely won the heart of the audience with her quiet, friendly and appreciative manner.

Over two hundred people from in and around Floydada were present for the concert. They are eagerly awaiting the next program to be presented by the association.

Mrs. F. C. Harmon returned home Tuesday from Houston, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Cogswell for the past five weeks. The granddaughter, Jana Lee Cogswell has been very ill, but was improving when Mrs. Harmon left for home.

Season of Alarms, When Legislature Holds Its Sessions

Among the delegations which have visited the state capital in the past 10 days to attend legislative committee hearings on proposed bills was one last week composed of County Judge Frank L. Moore and Commissioners Keller Holmes and Faye Hart, who were among hundreds of county officials alarmed over the threatened loss of revenue to county road funds. The proposal, still to be threshed out in the legislature, would finance farm to market roads from the county and district road bond indebtedness refunds and relieve the general fund of this cost.

The commercial truckers of the state had delegations at a senate committee hearing Monday night of this week, in which testimony was heard relative to "spot unloading" of over-loaded trucks on the highways. R. C. Henry represented a local organization of truck operators and was accompanied to the capital by Richard F. Stovall. More hearings will be held on both of these proposals, it has been indicated.

Mrs. A. P. McKinnon returned home Tuesday after spending the winter in Dallas, with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Kirchner. The Kirchners returned home with Mrs. McKinnon to spend a few days here.

Civil Defense To Change Our Way of Life

Mrs. Robert McGuire, publicity chairman of the Floyd County Red Cross chapter, Mrs. L. P. Martin, Junior Red Cross chairman, Mrs. Virgle Shaw, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Wynne Angus, Home Service, were among the 100 area Red Cross representatives, who attended an all day meeting in Lubbock on Friday of last week, in the ball room of the Lubbock hotel.

At the noon luncheon, served in the Lubbock hotel, R. E. Eaton of Washington, D. C., vice-president and assistant general manager of the American Red Cross, talked on civil defense. He said, "Civil defense is not a project. It is a change in the way of life, under which we, every citizen, must adjust. The Red Cross part will be to pep up disaster planning, endeavor to train 20 million in first aid in the country; train women in home nursing and instruct women as nurses aides." Every home should have a first aid instructor in it, he said. There is also the great national Red Cross blood program, to meet the needs of the military. The Red Cross is sending whole blood to Korea and is collecting a stockpile of plasma.

Morning and afternoon sessions were conducted in the different branches of Red Cross work. Harold R. Fowler of the Midwestern area office, St. Louis, emphasized readiness and fund preparation in his speech in the afternoon and Robert Smola, also of Saint Louis, discussed the fund raising campaign.

Milking Shorthorn Bull Yearling Hurdles From Want Ads to News

Former Floyd county residents, now in at California, have been tittering over a live stock advertisement The Hesperian recently carried. The advertisement offered: "FOR SALE—Registered milking shorthorn bull yearling, 3 miles west of McCoy store."

The Californians are serious about this bull. "Have you determined how much milk per bull?" An anonymously signed letter from "Former Floyd county Residents" asks. How a bull and a yearling could be a milking animal seems to be the worry.

To clarify everything for the Californians: Since you left Floyd county a considerable number of animals of the milking shorthorn breed have been introduced here. At this time the biggest single herd of dairy animals in the county registered milking shorthorns. Speaking of "milking shorthorns" is in the same manner as speaking of "Jerseys" in our cattle lore of the high plains. So, nobody here knows how you would advertise a bull yearling in any other way than the most direct way of stating that he is a registered milking shorthorn bull yearling. This tells the breed, the sex and the age, which was what the advertiser wanted. Incidentally, he sold the animal.
