While this department has been concentrating on the date for the first freezing cold in Floyd county, trying to prove incidentally that that date is November 10, other better and better-paid minds have been concentrating on such matters as how to make it rain, why does it hail, what can be done about it. The latest of the reports on the rain-makers is that they have discovered there often is water in the clouds colder than freezing, but it does not turn to ice, freeze and fall as hail because it does not have anything to freeze on to. We wouldn't know about that, but we are up to the last minute on such matters as how stiff-legged can a tarantula walk, what makes the spiders spin their webs and how long it is from the first norther on the high plains until the first freeze or killing frost. Right now it appears that we are due to lose out. Cold is biting deeper and deeper and oftener and oftener into the south from the deep blue up yonder. How we and the weather can hold out against it another 15 days will be one of the wonders if we make the grade. Even the moon is not on our side and longer, except for a very brief spell.

One thing that makes us have a little more confidence in ourselves on the frost date is the fact that the spiders have spun no webs on the fences and on fall weeds to wave and sparkle in the sunshine. Surely spiders have to spin their webs before the first frost date. That always occurs, doesn't it? Maybe we are wrong. Maybe they wait until after frost to begin spinning the fairy webs that wave on the winds of the late fall.

Speaking of insects and the possibility of frost soon have you noted that grasshoppers still are reasonably plentiful? In some spots of ground the numbers are considerably more than in others. The winged kind of grasshoppers that lay untold numbers of eggs to plague the farm man next spring and summer. They are laying eggs plentifully, in fence rows and in soft, unturned soil. They are due to create some havoc, except for one thing. When that cold that hangs on in January and February penetrates to those little eggs down a few inches in the soil there ought to be a lot smaller hatch than usual next year. Also a great deal less of a great many other kinds of insects. One reason we predict a cold hard winter for this year is that farmers need it pretty bad. Otherwise they'll spend all they can get hold of for insect sprays and whatnot.

For the war effort, yes, but not for a lot of other efforts the government is making. In commitments around the world, playing the grand patron, will many of the small taxpayers of the country, be willing to go along with the increased federal tax load. Many taxpayers who now have no dependent claims they can make, but have been working to splice out the family income, may buck up on the increase and quit their jobs. We do not know this will happen. We suspect it will in thousands of instances. Whether they do or not they will be quite unhappy with the congress which listened to all the people with all the demands that were made. Mr. Mahon and Mr. Connally are due to hear of this although the "small" people rarely write their representatives. To these small taxpayers a little more is a lot more, because there was not a lot to begin with, and their voices will get around, indirectly.

Speaking of taxes, one of the dispiriting things that has been true of high taxes in all history is that they tend to make the rich richer and the poor poorer. What ever reason it may be assumed the congress found for the heavy burden of additional tax which imminently all will feel that body must hurry to undo all of it they can. The number and scope of things around the world that America is undertaking to do at the expense of the American taxpayer would make an amazing list for the small taxpayer to read. Worst thing for the small beginner in business will be the realization that taxes will make it extremely difficult for him to get a hold for his beginning. It is that bad. People are going to view the increased tax as unjust and unjustified and the real battle between the tax payer and the tax collector will begin. When governments begin to oppress look out.

TEC report as of last Friday night gave the condition of the Floyd county cotton crop as good, the per cent of the cotton open at 40 per cent, the ginnings 10,612 bales, and the estimated production 110,000. At the same time there were 120 unfilled orders for harvest help representing 2,500 jobs. Occasional visits to the gins indicate that not all of them are yet running to capacity, which they would be if enough help were available in the fields.

A record tonnage of commercial feeds was sold in Texas during the past fiscal year. The total tonnage was estimated at 3,853,600 tons. An increase of 617,205 tons over the previous year and 525,600 tons more than were sold in 1942-43, the previous record year.

Be wary of a woman's final decision. It seldom agrees with the one that follows.

Tan't enough that you just hatch ideas you got to hitch 'em, too.

South Plains News

(By Mrs. Murray Julian)
SOUTH PLAINS, October 22—Everyone is very proud of the New Look at church this week. The stairs have been changed, and two new rooms have been added. One is for the young people's class, and the other will be made into a nursery, where mothers can bring their children, and leave them, and go into their respective classes, while their children are being cared for. Rev. John Allen designed the new addition to the church, and he is hoping for a greater number of young people to come into the new class.

Mrs. Milton and Linnie spent Wednesday night with Mrs. John K. West, and on Thursday they visited Mrs. Bradshaw, and saw many other people in our community during the short time they were out here from Lockney.

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. Early Joiner and Gordon left Saturday afternoon for Hereford where they visited Mrs. Joiner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brumley, Saturday night and Sunday. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Brumley celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in their home at 100 North Texas avenue, at Hereford, with open house, from 2:30 until 7 o'clock.

The South Plains Home Demonstration Club with hostesses Mmes. Rex Smitherman, Ernest Hucabee, and Hansel Sanders will meet on Wednesday, October 24, at the school house at 2:30.

Mrs. John Smitherman and Mac left Thursday for Portland, Texas, where they visited Mrs. Smitherman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. K. McKenzie, over the week-end. They are expected home on Tuesday.

Brings Home Venison
Jack Yeary arrived home Thursday night from Rifle, Colorado, where he was all of last week, deer hunting. He was lucky in getting his deer, and brought home some delicious venison. Rene Yeary, his father, hunted for elk, up west of Pueblo, Colorado, but he and his party were not as fortunate as Jack. They came home empty handed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Claborn, of Sterley, were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders Thursday evening and spent the evening with them.

At Houston Convention
Rev. and Mrs. John Allen left Sunday evening after church for the convention at Houston. J. B. Thames preached a good sermon at the evening service for Rev. Allen, who had expected to be absent at that time. Rev. C. A. Joiner will teach the weekly lesson Wednesday night, in the absence of Rev. and Mrs. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cummings visited Mr. and Mrs. Rex Smitherman Sunday afternoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Garvin Beedy were guests at the Smitherman home on Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie West, of Silvertown, visited Mr. West's brother, George West and wife Sunday, and had dinner together. Mrs. Willie West is also Mrs. George West's sister, so it makes a double relationship.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phillips, from Lockney, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leonard, who live at Berger, came on Saturday night to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rene Yeary, and spent Saturday night and Sunday with the Yearys.

Mr. and Mrs. Grigsby Milton and Barbara Sue had Sunday dinner with Rev. and Mrs. John Allen, while Donita spent the afternoon with Janel Brown.

Marine Son Visits Home

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reeves were happy over the week-end, as their son, John, who is in the marines, and just completed his basic training at San Diego, California, came home on a 10-day leave on Friday. Bob and Raymond Reeves met John in Amarillo, and also the Reeves' daughter, Carol, from the seminary at Fort Worth, was home over the week end, and brought a house guest with her. On Sunday they were all together at Sunday school and church. It was a pleasure to see the whole family united, even for so short a while.

Guests in the George West home Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders, and on Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith, of Sterley.

To Celebrate Halloween

Mrs. Dickerson gave a training meeting on making lampshades during the summer. Mrs. Daniel also asked clubs to observe United Nations' day on or near October 24. She announced that Mrs. J. T. Poole of Dougherty is having a tea for Mrs. Aubrey Russell, district agent, from 2:00 to 5:00 Saturday afternoon, October 27, and each club member is invited.

Mrs. John Shipley of Starkey and Mrs. O. G. Shearer of Lakeview acted as hostesses on October 5. It was voted to pay their expenses, as well as the county's share of the expense in setting up the exhibit. Mrs. Carmack reminded presidents that articles for the window exhibit in the REA window should be in the agent's office on or before November 3.

Clubs were urged to renew their subscriptions to The Messenger. This is the official magazine of the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

Mrs. John Hoffman, chairman of the civil defense committee reported on the two classes in home nursing being taught by Mrs. Roy Wilkes. The Floydada class will end October 26. As A Farm Woman Thinks
(By Nellie Will Spikes)

We are going back some years and give you some news of the year 1897 and see what troubled the world at that time.

The Houston Semi-weekly Post: January 11, 1897. Headlines: Work of Vengeance, General Gomez Changes His Method of Treating Prisoners, Has Slaughtered a Hundred. Smallpox Is Raging. Corbett Thrashed His Stange Manager, On Account of Cue Coming Late. Robbed Shot and Placed on Railroad Track. Houston Quotes Middling Cotton at Seven Cents. Bees First Class, 2 1/2 & 2 3/4. Deep Snow Over Panhandle. The Happy Maker's Club.

March 25, 1897: The Outbreaks in Asia Minor, One Hundred Christians Were Massacred While At Church. England Against Blockade in Greece. Fearful Cyclone Through Georgia and Alabama. Floods in Kentucky. Trinity On a Boom. Governor Warns House Finance Committee Economy is Necessary. Mr. Gross Land Bill.

From the Dallas Semi-Weekly News February 26, 1897: Floods Do Great Damage. Ohio is Rising Rapidly. Suffering at Pittsburg. Little Men and Women Page. (Did you ever write to this popular column?)

Well, this bit of news may make many older ones recall memories of that day and time and younger readers will see that this day and age does not have all the troubles.

Turning to Cheerful Moments, January 1895, we will see what the women of that day were doing: Fashion's Fancies, Hunter's green smooth faced chevrot made this natty and stylish looking coat. People would hardly think of giving a canary bird whiskey, but when a bird falls ill and loses its voice, give a few drops of whiskey on rock candy, only a couple of drops or the bird will get tipsy. How long should engagements last? The writer thinks that to be an old benedict or old maid is not the happy way of life. Most people eat too much. Children who skate should be clothed in wool, woolen underwear and a heavy wrap of wool. Girls, don't allow mothers to darn your stockings.

And from the Motley County News Friday, January 29, 1897 we find: The Matador Company are having some of the cattle drifted out of this pasture into the breaks this week. We have only got one mail this week and of course know nothing of what is going on in the outside world as our readers will see from reading these columns. The editor of the Great Motley County tried his hand at working the road Saturday last. The Ed. and 14 other hands worked 15 miles of road in a little more than a half a day, and the editor did not do it all, either. La Grippe is still raging around to the spelling tonight. There was no school Tuesday afternoon. Guess they must have froze out. It seems that our correspondents have given us the dodge.

So, editors of today, you see you do not have all the newspaper troubles. Ad from the paper: When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

New Service Decal For Families of Men in the Service

A newly designed service decal is now available to parents of servicemen or women in the United States army or United States air force. Sgt. Kramer, commanding officer of the Plainview recruiting station has announced. Aspecial decal shield, bearing a gold star, is also available to parents of those who have died in military service since June 25, 1950.

Approximately 4 1/2 by 3 1/2 inches, the decals feature either a solid blue or gold star on a white background. Blue stars with gold borders denote more than one son or daughter in service. The decal bears the words "We Are Serving." Such service stars are appropriate for affixing to windows of automobiles or houses.

Effective immediately, decals will be given to volunteers and inductees at the time of enlistment at the Plainview recruiting station. Sgt. Kramer said. Parents of men or women now in service or of those who have died in the service since June 25, 1950 should contact Sgt. Kramer at the Plainview recruiting station and their service stars will be mailed or presented.

Hon. W. J. Bryan's book Bull Durham. White sewing machine Hood's Pills. Parry Buggy Company.

These are some of the things of interest I found in some old papers kindly loaned me by Mrs. Maude Hollums, which her father, the last Judge Duncan, filed away. Hope you have enjoyed them as I have.

ON Halloween, whether you have a big party with everyone joining in appropriate games and stunts, or just have a few friends in for the evening, do enter into the gay spirit of the evening by using decorations or favors made of brightly colored cardboard cut-outs and crepe paper.

Simple refreshments might consist of cookies with spook faces, to carry out the theme of the evening, and refreshing drinks of pale dry ginger ale. You might serve ginger ale, mixed in equal proportions with tangerine juice or grape juice. Here's a blend of fruit juices that is delicious, pepped up with ginger ale.

Pineapple Salad
1 cup pineapple juice
1 cup syrup from canned red cherries
1/2 cup lemon juice
Pale dry ginger ale

Combine pineapple juice, cherry syrup and lemon juice. Divide among 6 tall glasses. Fill glasses with ice cold pale dry ginger ale. Stir gently to mix.

And here's a recipe for spook-faced cookies.

Halloween Spook Cookies

2 squares chocolate
1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup water
1 egg

Melt chocolate and shortening in top of double boiler over hot water. Cool. Sift together flour, sugar, nonfat dry milk, soda and salt. Add water and egg to cooled chocolate mixture. Stir into flour mixture; beat until smooth. Drop by teaspoonfuls 2 inches apart, on well-greased baking sheet. Bake in moderately hot oven (375°F.) until bottoms are firm and light brown, about 10 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet immediately. Cool. Make a spook face design on the cookies with confectioners' sugar icing, tinted orange.

THE MASTERS CHOICE

Jesus walked in his garden looking his roses over, he paused at the two tiniest rose buds just open the night before. He carried them home to his Father, for they were the sweetest ones there. Then a shadow fell in the garden where it had once been so fair.

We know not why he chose these in preference to some of the rest, but God in his infinite wisdom knows what is needed and best.

In loving memory of Terry and Jerry Payne.

Rheumatic Heart Disease Danger Signals Exposed

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged ten to fifteen, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its spread is not completely understood. No vaccine such as that which prevents typhoid fever, cholera, smallpox and whooping cough has yet been developed. We do know, however, some of the danger signals and with the physician's aid can diagnose some of the damage. Results of the disease may be:

1. Dr. W. Cox, State Health Officer, points out that in general the signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints, ankles, elbows or wrists. Pain is usually felt in one of the centers and spreads to the other. Often times a child will get a fever and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this. He may cry easily or develop habits of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once when a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

2. Frequent chilling, especially to the face, or overworked living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold or other infection by certain streptococcus are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever.

3. According to Dr. Cox the best way to guard against this disease are to have each child and adult examined at least once a year by a physician, to have the right kind of food, to get an adequate diet and to get plenty of rest, when the disease is suspected of being present, a physician should be consulted at once.

Boyce House Says I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

One of Texas' greatest governors, Pat M. Neff, used to make a speech on "Moneyless Millionaires" in which he said:

"The making of money is a laudable ambition. Put money in thy purse' is a wise Shakespearean injunction. Money, rightly employed, is an angel of good bearing untold blessings upon its wings. When man, however, permits his wealth much or little, to become his master, he is poor though he may gather his goods and his gold into a mountain, majestic and massive.

"Some of the finest attributes of life can not be purchased with money. Cash can not be coined into character and brains can not be bought with bonds. The possessor of skyscrapers, oil wells and railroad tracks may be a pauper, measured by every standard except that of gold.

"The worth of manhood forever eludes the dollar mark. No wealth can clothe an empty mind with worthy robes or instill into a shriveled soul the noble impulse of life. A full head is worth more than a fat purse, and a clear conscience is worth more than nuggets of gold. He is richest of the sons of men who lives a cheerful, radiant, overflowing life, rating character higher than coupons and putting duty before dividends.

"A great life is greater than that life's achievements. A genius working in vast laboratory of nature harnesses a spark of electricity that turns the dreary darkness of night into the golden glories of day; he discovers in an exploding drop of gasoline the dynamic power that speeds the wheels of transportation and revolutionizes the affairs of men; he makes the viewless air a sounding board that robs the sea of its ancient solitude and transforms all the world into a whispering gallery.

"While renowned and exalted geniuses have multiplied again and again the wealth of the world and while we would not willingly pluck one leaf from the fadeless wreaths of fame so worthily won and so humbly worn by them; yet the greatness of the accomplishments of genius are but bagatelles compared to the riches of a cultured and abundant life of three score years and ten filled with service and sacrifice, and marked by devotion to all the worthwhile claims of home and church and state. Such a life is humanity's most challenging achievement. He who lives such a life, whether his money be much or little is God's masterpiece."

There are places with such names as Dante's Inferno and Gurga Den and one, with a corner location, is named the Neutral Corner.

The melodramas that were popular in my youth contained lines which would be considered "hi-falutin" today. For instance, the "hero" in one play gazed out of a window in a metropolis at night and said, "Oh, twinkling lights of the great city, how many lives have you lured to their doom!"

"Brother, that rang the bell!"

And when the "hero" after wandering through adventures in the outside world, returned to the farm of his boyhood and his gaze rested upon the peaceful farmhouse in the valley, he sighed and said, "Ah, how the old home place has changed!"

"That would put a lump in your throat."

Of course he might be wearing the same pair of green-and-yellow socks he wore when he took his departure five years before, but gallery gods were never ones to cavil.

Some of the greatest scenes had only a few words; it was the emotion, the pathos which was crowded into them—as when, in "East Lynne" or maybe it was "Way down East," the father drove his crying daughter from home while the weeping mother pleaded, "Father, don't drive Nellie into the storm" and the snowflakes swirled in through the open door, and the piano tremoled and the violin wailed but the father stood, stern and unrelenting, his outpointed hand rigid in the command, "Go!" and the curtain fell for the end of the second act.

One heroine, I think was "Sadie, the Shop-Girl," told the cigaret-smoking, black-mustached villain, "Heaven will protect the working girl." An irreverent comedienne in vaudeville mutilated this noble thought into, "You may tempt the upper classes with your shameful demitasses—but heaven will protect the working girl." We who loved the drama in its purest form felt that there should be a law!

Most sublime of all the lines of the golden days of melodrama was uttered by the pure-hearted country lassie in the city who spurned the advance of Desperate Desmond with, "Rags are royal raiment when worn for virtue's sake!"

"Alack-and alas, they don't write plays that are really plays any more."

Deep Subject

Now generally regarded as the greatest known ocean depth is Cape Johnson Deep, northeast off Mindanao in the Philippines. It was accurately measured as 34,440 feet in July, 1950. This figure replaces a 1927 determination of 33,400 feet in the same area, produced with less exact instruments of that day.

Judging of Nylon

Gauge, in nylon hosiery, refers to the number of knitting needles used per inch and a half; the lower the gauge, the coarser the knit. Denier applies to the size of the yarn; the smaller the denier, the finer and more sheer the stocking.

Most every family would be improved if the parents would get back on spanking terms with their children.

In New Orleans, it appears to a tourist as though two-thirds of the men are representatives of sight-seeing buses—and the other one-third are taxi-drivers who offer to take you on a tour of the night life.

In one night spot (so I heard) the master of ceremonies asks, "Anyone here from New York?" When someone says, "Yes," the m.c. turns to the band and says, "Maestro, the state song of New York"—and the band plays the opening bars of "The Eyes of Texas."

"Anyone here from California?" "Yes." "Maestro, the state song of California"—and again the first notes of "The Eyes of Texas."

The Jung Hotel, which is Texas-owned, has ceiling fans with two speeds. If you are like me and the liable to take cold if you sleep under an ordinary fan, you will be delighted with the lacy whirl which just stirs the air like a little breeze.

Near the center of the business district is a Catholic church with Oriental minarets. As I gazed at the temple, two women put kerchiefs over their heads and entered; and a man, on the opposite sidewalk, stopped and made the sign of the cross.

Each evening, standing in front of the hotel, there was a well-dressed, rather impressive-looking man, about 40 years of age. He was by himself; I saw no one speak to him nor him speak to anyone. Was he an international spy? A city detective? A private eye? A tourist? A confidence man on the lookout for someone to whom to sell the city hall? Or just a "columnist" looking for material for his column?

Feeding Gains Noted In Use of Antibiotics

Recent gains in the feeding of livestock and poultry by adding to their feed small quantities of antibiotic drugs and synthetic vitamins have been striking. This new knowledge has led to restudy of some established methods in hope of finding new explanations for favorable results. These might then be adapted for further advances in feeding.

Phenothiazine is a case in point, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. In recent years the Bureau of Animal Industry has been recommending to sheep growers that they keep salt before the flock, and that with every nine pounds of salt they mix a pound of the chemical, phenothiazine. The medicine is an effective and safe worm remover, and experiments show that a flock supplied with this mixture will use just about enough of the medicine to keep roundworms under control.

Sheepmen following this advice have noticed that their treated sheep are likely to make satisfactory gains in weight. Some got the idea that the phenothiazine might be acting as a growth stimulating substance on its own account, in a way similar to the addition of vitamin B-12 in diets for chicks and pigs.

To test this, BAI investigators have made comparison feedings of paired groups of sheep supplying two groups with salt and two other groups with the salt-and-phenothiazine mixture. None of the test lambs were seriously infested with parasites. The paired feedings did not reveal significant differences in gains between the test lot. No toxic or growth stimulating effect could be traced to the drug. Conclusion was that the test confirmed the recommendation of the mixture as a simple, practical and economical way of avoiding the losses caused by internal parasites that prevent the sheep from making good gains. The phenothiazine does not stimulate growth but it does prevent the stunting effect of parasite activity.

Painting Hints

Some house painting hints: (1) Before having the house painted, coat all the windows with a cleaning powder. When the painting is finished, the powder and any paint on the glass can be removed in one operation. (2) When painting a door, grease the knobs and hinges with vaseline before starting to paint. After the paint job is finished, wipe the knobs and hinges with a cloth, and the vaseline and any paint marks will come right off. (3) Paint screens with aluminum paint, and no one can see into the house, but you can see out.

Another Trip, This Time to Room 202

Here we are again in one of the "slave rooms" (that is, a room in which the teacher "slaves" to teach his students something). This week we pay a visit to Mr. Foster's Chemistry Lab. This should be quite a venture as we are going to see tests for oxygen made.

After the usual confusion of roll check, etc., we go to the lab. The first few minutes are devoted to private conferences until Mr. Foster passes out threatening looks.

A search now begins for books—which few find. Mr. Foster says this is a "jewel of a book" and suggests we read it sometimes. After one glance in that direction, the room-wide hunt begins for the equipment. When Mr. Foster has located these we begin the experiment to collect oxygen. Of course, we don't have all we need so the instructor again comes to our aid. Now everyone fills a pan with water. Just to be certain there is enough we spill some on the floor. The idea is to get a bottle of water in the pan without a bubble in it. By the time this is done everyone has had several good splashes.

Next step is lighting the burner. Several matches and burns later this is accomplished and the burner is placed under a test tube containing chemicals. Only one omission—NO CHEMICALS! After a mad dash for the needed chemicals we are now ready to begin.

What, the bell already? The students thoroughly soaked, but undaunted rush to their next class. They leave Mr. Foster amid the confusion wondering if there will be any future chemist. Cheer up, Sir! There are only seven more months to go.

Meet Your Teachers

We are happy to welcome Mrs. Barbara Green Cooper to F.H.S. for her first year. She teaches civics, world history, and is coach of girl's physical education classes. She is also one of the pep squad sponsors.

The Coopers live at 717 W. Tennessee. The Willis M. Cooper's have two sons, Grant who is 11 and Kern who is 8.

Mrs. Cooper says she enjoys sewing. Could it be that some of her attractive clothes are of her own making? She also enjoys watching sports: favorite being football, basketball, and baseball.

She is a graduate of Texas Technological College with a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics.

Mrs. Cooper is very helpful and has a splendid personality. All of F. H. S. Welcomes you, Mrs. Cooper, and hope you enjoy being here as much as we enjoy having you with us.

Abernathy Topples Sayings Heard in Halls of F. H. S.

Floydada 26 to 12

The undefeated and united Abernathy Antelopes beat the fighting Floydada Whirlwinds 26-12 in a non-conference game before a capacity crowd of 2,500 fans last Friday night.

The Whirlwinds scored early in the first quarter when John Hinsley, Whirlwind guard, blocked an Abernathy punt and Weldon Hargis recovered. Two plays later, Adrain Helms scored off left tackle. Roy Teague's attempt for extra points was no good.

A fumbled punt set Abernathy's first touchdown up. Harold Cunningham passed to Wayne Rogers for the touchdown. The play covered 15 yards. The extra point was made by a pass.

Late in the second quarter, Cunningham bootlegged the ball 50 yards around his right end to score. The try for extra point was no good.

Early in the third quarter, Cunningham intercepted a Whirlwind pass and raced 55 yards to score. The interception stopped a spirited Whirlwind drive led by halfback Adrain Helms.

Abernathy's final score came in the third quarter when Verlon Barron smashed 8 yards to score. The pass for extra point was good.

Quarterback Jackie Hutchinson passed 65 yards to Franklin Stovall for the Whirlwind's final score. Stovall caught the ball on the Abernathy twenty yard line and ran the remaining distance. He was aided by a key block throw by Dane Clark. Teague's extra attempt was no good and the ball game ended seconds later.

SNOOPER

Well Yes! The trouble-shooter is back again. Very little gossip was contributed by our student body this week—let's have the dope.

Mucho talking is done by Nancy G. and Earl E. in Bookkeeping. Wonder if numbers is all they talk about?

TOGETHER—Jeanie Hines and L. L. Trice!!

Who was D. McGuire with Wednesday night? Could it have been Ann Deakins? Where's Lawrence?

Could the fact that Glynnis sparks sit near him be the reason why G. King is all smiles in American History class?

A conversation overheard among Edwin L. Jerry O., and Bill C. concerning the ideal way of leaving this world, fifty years from now, Edwin suggested a crash in a speeding automobile. Jerry agreed on a speedy end, but thought he'd prefer a jet-plane. "I've got a better idea," said Bill. "I'd rather be shot by a jealous husband."

Who's the "chick" for whom Ronnie E. is carrying the torch?

FLASH!!! New romance Shirley Harper and Jimmy Jones!

Bobby C., are you doing your home work with Pat. H. of the "Eighty" Lessons?

Gary O. has been going to Petersburg lately. Who is it that he is going over there to see? What's wrong with Floydada, Gary?

What was wrong with Scott at noon the other day? Was he sick or ...?

Aurie Belle, didn't you know these three-way-deals won't work? Or will they???

Darlene Darling on garden bench with Percy Parrish: Percy I'm cold! Run inside and get me Glad Norman!!

See a lot of Pauline M. and Richard W. lately.

HOT OFF THE WIRE—Betty B. and Jerry Bob are doing just fine of late.

James Welborn buying lipstick as a gift for his "one and only" was at a loss when asked what shade. Suddenly he whipped out his handkerchief and pointed to a crimson smear. "There," he exclaimed happily, that shade."

Whose class ring does Freida J. wear. What say, G. H.?

SITTING CLOSE—Bobby Stephens and Troy McNeill!!

That's all she wrote for today. Just a warning: BEWARE of the SNOOPER may be there! See you next week

NOTICE: (To all people who talk) BE CAREFUL OF WHAT YOU SAY IN THE HALLS OF F.H.S.

"I wish we would have an assembly."

"When are we going to have class meetings?"

"I wish the freshman would clear the end of the hall at noon, so that the unfortunate seniors may live to graduate."

"I use to wish I could sing, now I wish Gerald could."

"What did you make?" (Report card day)

"When are we going to have a basketball game?"

"Who was elected Queen of your class?"

"Mr. Davis, why did you give me so many demerits?"

CANDID CAMERA

This week our camera focused on a very outstanding member of the Freshman Class. He is Gordon Eugene Joiner, president of the Freshman Class.

Gordon arrived in the city of Hereford, Texas, on December 4, 1936. He has brown hair, weighs one hundred and forty-five pounds, and stands five feet and eight inches tall.

Gordon LIKES cherry pie, pretty girls, friendly people, hunting, and fishing. His DISLIKES are school, any kind of work, and stuck up people. His favorite movie was Sampson and Delilah, and his favorite movie stars are Jerry Lewis and Betty Grable.

Gordon's most embarrassing moment was the time he forgot what to say when he was making a speech.

Gordon's ideal girl would be five feet and four inches high, have blue eyes, and blond hair. (Could it be that you have found her??)

He would like to become a farmer and own lots of land. His favorite song is "TOO YOUNG."

Gordon would spend his perfect day by getting up at 10 o'clock, eating breakfast of ham, eggs, milk, and toast. He would go back to bed after eating breakfast and get up again at 12 o'clock. After Gordon had eaten his lunch, he would go to Coney Island and spend about ten dollars (if he had it). He would leave the fair late that night and head for home. (Gordon are you having all this fun by yourself??)

Gordon, you are a swell guy. Best of luck to you always.

Billy Fulton—"Efficiency and Economy—that's the stuff! Why, on these new, super highways you can now smack up five or six cars at one time!"

Mr. Baker—"I am pretty well convinced that the trouble with many of these smart kids is that they aren't smart in the right places."

Customer to Bert Grimes—"Let me see the manager—maybe he has more sense than you have."

Bert—"He sure has lady—when he saw you coming in he lit out the back door."

Bruce—"Has Boyd changed much in the last five years?"

Carell—"No, I don't think so—he keeps talking about what a jerk he used to be."

Adrain to Billy—Jackie tells me that he hasn't yet figured out a way to dodge exams and reports, but it isn't because he hasn't worked on it.

Miss Frazier—"I want a nice piece of meat, very tender, without any bone, gristle, or fat on it."

Butcher—"Very good, madam—a dozen eggs. And what else?"

Mrs. Graves—"You say Mrs. Copeland threatened you with an oak leaf? What harm could that do?"

Mr. Copeland—"You don't understand, Mrs. Graves, it was out of the dining room table."

WORLD'S LARGEST LIVING SIGN: After 13 years, the scene pictured above has become a familiar sight to air travelers over northern Indiana. Occupying an area 250 feet high by one-half mile in length, the 8200 pine trees spelling the name have now reached an average height of 20 feet. Seven rows of trees planted 6 feet apart form the letters. The huge sign is located 10 miles west of South Bend, Indiana on Studebaker's 800-acre proving ground, where the new 120-horsepower Studebaker V-8 engine was test-driven for hundreds of thousands of miles.

GOOD HEALTH

1. WHO GETS STOMACH ULCERS?

2. DOES HEARTBURN AFFECT THE HEART?

3. HAVE COWS HELPED MEDICINE?

Answer to Question No. 1:
1. Stomach ulcers occur most frequently between the ages of 25 and 43, especially in high-strung, emotional individuals who are subject to unusual worries. Authorities believe that interference with the blood supply, nervous changes, and infection are factors.

Answer to Question No. 2:
2. Except for the fact that discomfort is felt in the vicinity of the heart, heartburn has nothing to do with the heart. It is a manifestation of indigestion (frequently nervous) in which acid material rises from the stomach into the esophagus (the tube leading from mouth to stomach) and causes an unpleasant, burning sensation.

Answer to Question No. 3:
3. Years ago they helped in smallpox research. More recently, it was discovered that cows eating rotted sweet clover bled to death because rotting of the clover changed its chemical makeup to form a substance which caused internal bleeding. Scientists found that this substance prevented blood-clotting and it is now used to prevent blood clots after operations and in heart conditions.

Discussing The Constitutional Amendments

Editor's Note—This is the first of a series of articles written to explain the proposed amendments to the constitution of Texas. Voters will decide in an election on November 13 whether these amendments will become parts of the constitution. These articles are provided by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as a public service.

RAISING RURAL FIRE PREVENTION DISTRICT TAX CELLING—Senate Joint Resolution (SJR) No. 10.

In 1948 voters approved a constitutional amendment providing for the creation of Rural Fire Prevention Districts. It also provides that voters might create a tax not to exceed three cents per $100. The amount of this amendment was 153,252 for and 145,298 against.

The amendment to be voted upon November 13 would make only one change in this Rural Fire Prevention District provisions. It would raise the tax ceiling from three to 50 cents per $100.

VETERANS LAND LOANS—House Joint Resolution (HJR) No. 2.

In 1946 Texas voters approved by a majority of 80,022 to 29,935 an amendment to the Constitution known as Section 49-b of Article III.

The amendment authorizes the State to issue up to $25,000,000 of bonds. Those bonds are sold to provide money that is loaned to veterans of World War II to buy farms or ranches. To operate this loan program the Veterans Land Board was created. It consist of the Governor, the State Comptroller and the Attorney General.

The amendment to be voted upon November 13 would make the following changes in the constitution's provisions affecting Veterans' Land Loans.

- Increase from $25,000,000 to $100,000,000 the total amount of bonds the State could issue.
- Make eligible for loans all men who serve in the armed forces as many as 90 days prior to December 31, 1952. The law now applies only to men who served prior to January 1, 1946.
- Extend the life of the loan program from November, 1954 to November, 1959.

The legislature has enacted a law to put this amendment into effect immediately if it is approved on November 13.

To August 31, 1950 approximately one and one-half percent of Texas' 800,000 veterans has obtained these loans. The veterans land fund purchased land for veterans costing $17,000,000 during the first year it operated.

Expense of administering the program is paid from the general revenue fund of the state—from taxes. This expense totaled $106,479 in the year ending August 31, 1950. The legislature has appropriated $150,000 for 1952 and $140,000 for 1953 to meet operating expenses.

Ever stop to think Your First Car can be a Buick!

THIS being a land where it is every man's right to dream of getting ahead—and the pursuit of happiness is guaranteed by the Constitution—it happens that a great many people aspire to own a Buick.

But too often they start with a lesser car first—from a feeling that Buicks are something you have to build up to gradually, as your take-home pay improves. So—if you have any such notion—we'd like to set you straight, right here and now.

You don't have to hope and dream and wait. If you can afford a new car—the first car you buy can be the Buick SPECIAL pictured here.

Its price tag says so. Its low cost of operation says so too.

We know that it looks like a lot of money. That's what makes it such a buy.

We know that it has a long list of features found in costlier cars, and that it rides and handles like cars that sell for a great deal more.

But that simply means that—at its price—you're getting a very big money's worth.

All of which adds up to one conclusion: the smart thing to do is come in and give this neat and nimble new SPECIAL a thorough going-over.

Try out its power—the power of its high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine.

Try out its ride and handling—and you'll discover it has the "big-car feel" that you'd expect from a Buick. Try it out for size—for room—for comfort—for all the things that you've dreamed someday of having in a car—and you'll thank your stars that you found out the facts of life in time.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Series.

Control of diseases by seed treatment gives extra plants and healthier plants.

FOR A BETTER CROP

Control of seed-borne stinking smut or bunt, scab seedling blight, seed decay and root rot can make a lot of difference in the stand and yield of wheat. In the photograph are shown the plants produced from both untreated seed and seed which was properly treated with seed disinfectant to control these diseases.

The wheat seed in this test showed a laboratory germination of 74%, but when 100 treated seeds and 100 untreated seeds were planted, the treated seed produced 86 plants and the untreated produced 32 plants.

The effectiveness of seed treatment in reducing losses to seed diseases has resulted in differences in yield of several bushels to the acre in some years. That's why the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Association and state extension services urge farmers to plant only cleaned and treated seed. For information on the locations of cleaning and treating plants, farmers are advised to contact their county agent.

4-H CLUB BOYS

The seventh grade boys 4-H club met at the Andrews Ward school on October 23. Officers were elected at this meeting as follows: president Arbuery K. Terrell, vice-president David Mount, secretary Elmer Dean and reporter, Norman Brent.

Miss Carolyn Kiker, who is attending school in Canyon, spent last week-end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kiker.

Time and Water

Time and fresh water, both precious in combat, are being saved in Korea due to a new Army Signal Corps photo processing method. Use of the recently developed process, known as stabilization, cuts development and printing time to a minimum and saves about 3,000 gallons of water each day in a typical field photographic laboratory. The Army Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories perfected the system through which a stabilizing solution, thiourea, eliminates the necessity for washing. Processing methods, with a specially formulated Amidol developer, make processing ten times as fast for prints without sacrificing photographic quality.

TSUSHIMAS ISLAND GROUP STRATEGICALLY LOCATED

The Tsushimas, an island group lying in 120-mile-wide Korea Strait between Korea and Japan, have a way of turning up in the news when wars are made—or settled—in the Far East.

As truce talks progress, the Republic of Korea is now reported to be showing interest in the possession of these strategic islands under the provisions of the forthcoming Japanese peace treaty.

Whether they press the claim or not, the Koreans have long insisted that the Tsushimas "belong historically" to their country. Japanese sources contend, however, that the islands have been in Japanese hands since the 7th century.

Still another Far East government which has historic links with the Tsushima area is the Soviet Union, notes the National Geographic Society. It was in Tsushima Strait, east of the islands, that Russia's Imperial Fleet met decisive defeat in the Russo-Japanese War of 1904-5.

Students of naval strategy point to the Russo-Japanese battle of May 27-28, 1905, as a classic example of lessons to be learned from relative ship lineup, speed, armor, and the ability to strike hard and fast.

"The battle of Tsushima," wrote one British expert soon after the action, "is by far the greatest and most important naval event since Trafalgar."

Its results were to be of far-reaching significance in determining the future international balance of power in the Far East. For Tsarist Russia's acknowledgement of Japan's sphere of influence in Korea was soon followed by the taking over of the peninsula as a virtual Japanese protectorate, and later by its formal annexation.

Etiquette Hint

On the street, if you stop a moment to speak to someone, you know, you need not introduce your companion, who usually walks ahead a little. You may feel, however, that it is more friendly to make the introduction.

Child's Mental Health Tied to Bodily Health

When you order something from a mail order house, it frequently arrives unassembled and you have to put it together the way it's supposed to be. Let's consider the "pieces" that you have to make mental health with and see how they can be put together.

To get way back to the beginning, you have an egg containing 24 tiny strings of beads, each string known as a gene, surrounded by food material. Then there is a sperm, also containing 24 tiny strings of beads.

When the sperm and the egg meet, each of those genes pair off, making 24 pairs of genes. For the sake of clarity you can imagine that each pair becomes entwined so that they still look like only 24 tiny strings, tied together at one end.

Now that's what you have to work to start on mental and physical health. Everyone is supposed to have those 24 pairs of genes, the gift of ancestors going back we know not how far.

For about nine months those genes develop under the mother's power, with the air the mother breathes and the food she eats creating the power for the genes. Those strings of genes start swinging around like the spokes of a wheel, and as they swing they grow longer, creating characteristics of the body.

You can imagine that the womb is like a frame that permits those genes to grow only so far in each direction, sort of a mold to form the shape of the child.

Then comes birth and the child, the molded strings of genes, starts up his own power plant by breathing drinking and eating.

Suppose some of those genes were reserved strictly for mental activity. They haven't started swinging in a very wide circle yet, but don't forget that all those genes, both mental and physical, have a common beginning; they were all tied at one end when they started out.

So motion of those physical genes reacts upon the knot which ties them to the mental genes. These mental genes, or spokes, start swinging out, too, more or less following the pattern set by the physical spokes. If a physical spoke (you can imagine that is a nerve or a muscle) comes in contact with something pleasant, then the mental spoke "registers" that the thing the physical spoke touches was good. If the physical spoke touches something that hurts, then the mental spoke records that as something to be avoided.

As time goes by, those mental spokes have a recording of many goods and bads, all things that affect the child. But somewhere along the way the child discovers that the things he does also affects other people. So he starts becoming aware of another "wheel" made up of other people who affect him and whom he affects.

So while his physical development goes on, he mentally pictures a new world of other people who have feelings and actions like himself.

Then one day the child runs smack dab into the table. He treats it as if it were another person but gets no reaction. A few instances like that and the child decides his world is made up not only of himself and other people but "things" as well, all of which affect him.

At that point he's all "assembled." But since he has moving parts he also has to "work." They key to his proper action is a kindly guidance that not only shows him how to attain those things that are "good" but also how to avoid those things that are "bad."

KANSAS CAVE MAY HOLD NATIONS DEFENSE STOCKPILES

The last of 16,000,000 pounds of dried eggs (sold to Britain), many carloads of Austrian winter peas and other surplus commodities are on the way out of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's 14-acre subterranean storehouse near Atchison, Kan. With Agricultural abandoning its famous cave—a former limestone quarry 35 feet below the surface—it may be subtle to shelter stockpiles of important defense materials such as rubber. Its capacity is 3,000 carloads.

The USDA has used the temperature-controlled cave ten years, pays $20,000 a year rent on a lease which has five years to run. —Pathfinder.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley of Clovis, New Mexico, spent Saturday night with their mother, Mrs. D. D. Shipley, enroute to Dallas.

TO A HARD WORKING WOMAN

Here lies a poor woman who always was tired. She lived in a house where help wasn't hired. The last words she said were: "Dear friends, I am going where washing ain't wated, nor sweeping nor sewing; And everything there is exact to my wishes. For where folks don't eat there's no washing of dishes. In heaven loud anthems forever are ringin'. But having no voice I'll keep clear of the singing. Don't mourn for me now, don't mourn for me ever; I'm going to do nothing—forever and ever." —Anon.

The Pastors Helpers class of the First Methodist Church wish to thank friends who contributed so generously to the auction sale Saturday, October 20, and especially to J. B. Bishop and his force at the Ford Motor company, for the use of their building.

WHILE ARMY STALLS

On July 17 Representative Thomas B. Curtis (R.-Mo.) wrote to the army about a mix-up in the payment of a soldier's allotment to three dependent children. On July 26 the Army wrote it was looking into the matter. On August 11, 13 and twice on August 28, the Army wrote it was looking into the matter. On August 29 it teletyped that it was looking into the matter. On August 30 it sent a copy of the teletype. On September 4 it said it was giving the matter attention. Late last month, the three children were still waiting for the allotment checks.—Pathfinder.

Chemistry

Over a century of agricultural chemistry having its greatest effect in rising uses, according to recent new uses, according to Dr. Robert M. Salter of the Department of Agriculture, still greater efficiency in production. To the National Chemicals Association figures showing how deep the new practice some of the new methods have already worked out, almost all in less than five years, some in less than five.

Help explain our expanding production: U. S. farmers applied weed killers to more than 10 million acres of crops. In Oklahoma, several hundred acres of grassland have been economically of sagebrush by airplane application of DDT in tests, killing sagebrush in pastures has increased production per acre two to three times.

More than 10 million pounds of insecticides were used in the U. S. in 1950.

The use of dithio carbamate on the use of the Northwest has increased production 300,000 boxes of peanut seed with fungicide dust has boosted yields to 25 percent.

Chemists to kill root nematodes has resulted in gains of more than 20 percent on some high-value crops. About 3 million acres of land in the U. S. produces of sufficient value to pay for the expensive fumigation.

Studies of means of controlling virus decay the Department has tested 2,000 new organic compounds, and 50 are promising. Chemical thinning of apples in the Northwest has given a 15 percent increase in yield at a fraction of the cost of hand work. That area chemically thinned 20,000 acres of apples at blossom time last year.

NEW TEST SPEEDS CONTROL OF HUMAN-ANIMAL HEALTH

Nationwide progress in the use of a milk test for bovine brucellosis is helping to speed control of a major animal-human health problem, the American Veterinary Medical Association reported.

Reports coming in from various parts of the country indicate that the test, called the milk ring test, is a valuable ally to the standard brucellosis blood test in locating infected milking herds, the association said.

Consumption of unpasteurized milk from brucellosis-infested cows, and contact with infested farm animals annually results in thousands of human cases of brucellosis (undulant fever).

Brucellosis also is important from an economic standpoint because it costs the livestock industry about $100,000 a year through heavy loss of unborn animals, reproductive failures and lower milk production," the AVMA pointed out.

In conducting the milk ring test, veterinarians have a pooled sample of milk collected from a dairy herd and mixed in a tube with a special substance called antigen, the AVMA explained.

After an hour, if the cream layer at the top of the milk turns blue, while the milk stays white, there is reason to suspect that brucellosis exists in the herd. Blood tests are then run to verify the milk test results and to single out infected animals.

SEEMS IT'S BAD LUCK

TO KILL AN ALBATROSS

This is what happened when a University of Washington oceanographer, like Coleridge's "ancient mariner," shot an albatross at sea last month: The net cables on his research ship fouled three times; the net ripped apart; the main winch shaft snapped; an axle fell down a hatch and broke a rib; the albatross-killer himself grew seasick in a dead calm; the disabled ship had to limp back to port; the cook quit.—Pathfinder.

 Nevada, the Union's sixth largest state in land area but the smallest in population, was built originally on the gold and silver bonanzas found there. Today, it also contributes copper, lead, zinc, mercury, tungsten and magnesium to the nation's industrial might. Most of its old gold centers are ghost towns.

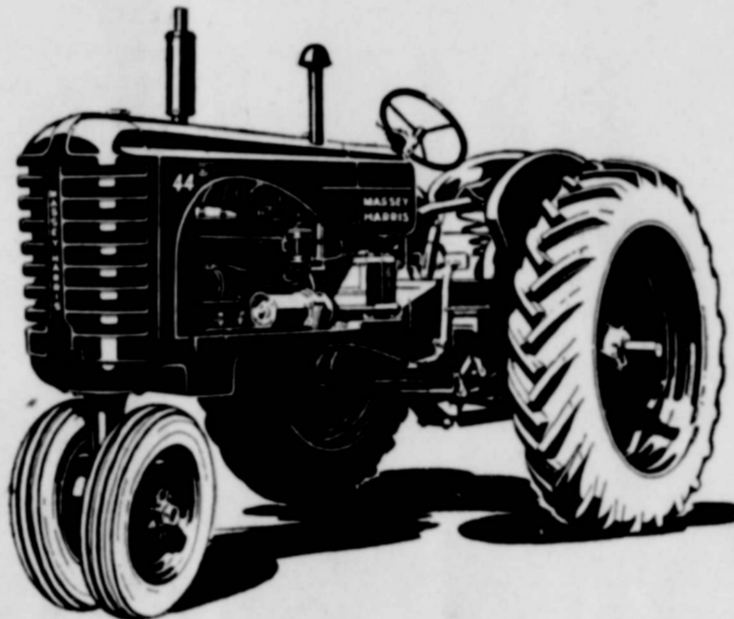

Granted a few minutes warning, casualties could be reduced by over 50 per cent through proper organization and training in civil defense. More important, civil defense could spell the difference between defeat with slavery for our people and victory in a war thrust upon us.

Farm Scrap Iron and Steel Will Help Our Defense Effort

Have you turned your farm scrap into cash? Move it out of the fields now. Take a load to town and sell it on your next trip. It's needed to make steel for the defense program. It is a vital material and must not be allowed to go away.

Many farmers have responded to that appeal recently, says the Committee on Iron and Steel. Those farmers have made a little money and gained more in their fields. The scrap is being put to use instead of being abandoned to rust and ruin.

But more farm scrap is needed. Steel output can't be increased without a big supply of scrap. This winter coming on, when scrap is more difficult to find, the steel industry truly critical. More scrap must be obtained from farms in order to make more steel.

Old tools, wornout parts of tractors, trucks, cultivators and other implements; broken and discarded pieces of metal and other scrap should be taken to town and sold right away to the local scrap dealer. Every pound of scrap which comes back to steel mills helps to make two pounds of new steel, on the average.

If the scrap is unusually bulky, preventing its easy transportation by the farmer, the scrap dealer can be called or the local farm agent can be asked to work out an arrangement.

"Farms are one of the big sources of scrap," says the Committee. "Never have farmers had a greater stake in the nation's steel output."

Harvest your iron and steel scrap right away. Turn it into cash. Do your part to aid the defense program.

Antelopes Stampede Whirlwinds 26-12: Costly Fumbles Contribute

The undefeated, united Abernathy continued their winning ways in Abernathy last Friday night at the expense of the Floydada High school Whirlwinds. The difference of the game was in the Antelope's 202 pound quarterback, Harold Cunningham, as he personally accounted for 19 of Abernathy's points. He ran, kicked, and passed the Antelopes to their seventh straight win of the season.

Floydada scored first, with Adrian Helms charging across from the one yard line, in the first quarter; but Abernathy came back and took a 7-6 lead in the second quarter, a lead, which they never relinquished. They scored again late in the second quarter and built the lead to 13-6. Then two fast scores in the third to make it 26-6. However Floydada scored in the fourth to end the game with a 26-12 final score.

The game opened with the Winds kicking off to the Antelopes over the goal, the ball being brought out to the twenty. From here they moved the ball to the midfield stripe before they fumbled, Hubert Ring coming up with the ball for the Winds.

Floydada was unable to gain and lost the ball on downs to Abernathy on the 48, where the Antelopes fumbled again with Franklin Stovall recovering for the Winds. Then Floydada sent Jackie Hutchinson around right end for eight, then were penalized fifteen yards to their own 46. From here the Winds threw two incomplete passes and then punted to the Abernathy 8. The Antelopes picked up eight in three plays and were going to punt out only to have the punt blocked, the ball coming to rest on the two-yard line.

Adrain Helms hit left guard twice for the touchdown. Roy Teague's kick was wide and the Winds led 6-0, a lead that was short lived, as the Antelopes bounded back early in the second quarter after recovering a Floydada fumble on the eight yard line. They moved to the six of two plays and from here Cunningham hit Rogers, who went over standing up for 6 points. He then passed to Goldston for the extra point, as Abernathy led 7-6.

Late in the second period Cunningham ran a quarterback sneak, came right up the center, cut to the right and moved all the way, fifty yards for another score. He then was unsuccessful in trying to run the extra point and the Antelopes led 13-6. The half ended with Floydada beginning what looked to be a sustained drive.

The second half began with Abernathy scoring early by recovering a Floydada fumble on the 11. From here it took them three plays to score with Verlon Barron scoring from the four. Here again Cunningham failed to make the extra point this time by throwing an incomplete pass, and Abernathy led 19-6.

After this neither team was able to move the ball and distance unit toward the last of the third period when Floydada started a drive, after recovering another Antelope fumble on their own 18. From here Helms hit around right end, left end, off right tackle, through left guard, and around right end in five successive plays for 39 yards and down to the Antelopes 43. Here Cunningham intercepted a Floydada pass and raced it 74 yards for the Antelope last score. Here Hammond hit right guard for the extra point and Abernathy had a 26-6 lead.

Whirlwinds Score Again
The teams moved the ball up and down the field, with neither able to keep a drive going long enough to tally. However the Winds gained possession of the ball on the Antelopes 47 due to a short punt.

From the 47 Hutchinson threw an incomplete pass, sent Dane Clark around right end for four to the 43, threw another incomplete pass, then faded back and hit Franklin Stovall with a high pass that Stovall ran under, caught, circled to his right and outran the Antelope defenders for the last score of the game. Teague's kick was again wide and that was the story as Abernathy walked off with a 26-12 victory.

The game actually was much closer than the score sounds, even though the Winds turned in one of their best games of the season. Abernathy played a good game and they had the team that capitalized on the Winds' miscues. They got two whirlwind fumbles around the ten-yard line and were able to use these for T.D.'s. They also took a whirlwind aerial and returned it for another. However these can't be all classed as breaks as these are part of the game.

One thing the Winds learned was that they can't lose the ball that many times so deep in their own territory and still come up on the long end of the score, especially if they are playing a team like Abernathy that takes advantage of every break given them.
