Weather has slowed down the cotton harvest in Floyd county. All of yesterday was lost when rainfall Tuesday night brought 58-hundredths of an inch of rainfall to the thirsty soil...

Tuesday County Agent Robt. H. Gibson estimated the gins of the county had turned out 25,000 to 26,000 bales of cotton.

Thursday and Friday the cotton pullers were busy, as they were Monday afternoon and most of Tuesday. Showers fell at Floydada Saturday putting 18-hundredths of an inch of moisture in rain gauges here...

Rally of Old Age Pension Clubs Saturday to Hear Deen, LaFont

At a rally of old age pension clubs of Floyd county Saturday afternoon the members will hear Judge Tom W. Deen in a report on the state meeting of pensioners representatives in Waco last week-end...

In the meeting at Waco covering two days last week, the state gathering of pensioners discussed the proposed amendment from every angle and arrived at the conclusion that it would be beneficial and not harmful to old age pensioners as is claimed by some of its opponents.

One of the problems the state organization met was the fact that the conclusions they arrived at are difficult to disseminate among old age pensioners because a list of these persons is not available. Making public old age lists is prohibited by federal law.

'WINDS OPEN CONFERENCE PLAY AT HEREFORD TOMORROW NIGHT

Floydada High school Whirlwinds will open their conference campaign Friday night as they play the Hereford Whitefaces in the first district encounter for both teams.

This will mark the first time these two teams have met in conference play because of the new conference organization, which places them both in District 2-AA.

The team will not be alone in their battle, since they will have the pep squad and the band on hand in full strength when they begin their conference campaign. This week Superintendent I. T. Graves said the band and the pep squad will assemble at the school grounds and depart for Hereford at 5 o'clock Friday evening.

The Whitefaces have had two weeks to prepare for their opening District game and they will be ready to go come tomorrow night. Hereford has a season record of 3 wins to 4 losses but this does not show the true standing of the club as they lost to Phillips 7-0, and to the powerful Levelland Lobos 19-0.

Hereford has back eight lettermen, five of whom were regulars, from last year's team that had a record of seven won and four lost. The Whitefaces have been running off the T formation and the single and double wings with Bill Kelly the big gun in all three attacks.

THREE OUT OF FIVE

The Hesperian believes the people of the state should adopt three out of five of the proposed constitutional amendments on Saturday, November 13. The much-criticized amendment to increase the ceiling for the aged and dependent children and others covered by the proposed change is not as good and clear as it should be, it seems to us, but also it is not the bad amendment that would let the bars down and rob the present recipients of pensions. It should be supported, because there is no other way to adequately meet the obligation the taxpayers took upon themselves years ago for the aid of the aged and infirm. Costs have gone up for the old folks the same as for the rest of us. Should costs go down, it wouldn't hurt for them to be getting a bit more than they are getting anyhow. The background of this pension matter is that the people voted for an amendment that would put all the aged (over 65) on a pension. The present regulations, the whole set-up was adopted after the federal government refused to go along with the state on any more liberal basis than is now followed.

The amendment that would provide for a change in the type of securities in which the permanent university fund may be invested is a wise one in our opinion. The new policy would not be a bad one, does not jeopardize the fund, and will greatly increase the possible income from the permanent university fund.

The amendment that would increase the amount of bonds from $25 million to $75 million that may be issued for the veteran's land fund and making veterans of service since 1945 also eligible for loans, would be a good change. Encouragement for homeownership among veterans is desirable.

We like to be for, not against, but we can't under present conditions support the tax rate ceiling increase from three to 50 cents per $100 valuation for rural fire prevention districts. Maybe this kind of an amendment will be needed at a future date, but not for now in most of Texas.

Our opposition to the amendment that would make possible pensions for county appointive officers and employees is based on the fact that we do not believe a state pension system for government employees and office holders is wise in the first place; and if it be wise a way is already open through the Social Security act for counties and their employees to contribute jointly to such a program.

Pensioners for the Amendment. — Old age pensioners of Texas are practically solid for the amendment which would raise the ceiling of the state's expenditure for assistance from $35 million to $42 million. They say the report that the change in the constitution up for a vote on November 13 will open the flood gates and that the aged persons will get less per person than at present, is incorrect. There is no likelihood that the residence requirement will be abolished nor that the citizenship bars will be let down. At this time it is indicated that no new tax will have to be levied for the increase of $7 million at least for the year 1952, says the state comptroller. The pensioners are up against the same people who have fought the increase of pensions since the plan first broached back in the early thirties, they declare. Representative Harold H. LaFont is in agreement with the pensioners on this score. He says the law that was finally passed is a compromise and not the same as the one introduced. However, he says it was a compromise or no law and so those who favored the additional aid to the pensioners accepted the best they could get. An enabling act will have to be passed by the legislature—a statute which will make the constitutional amendment effective. There is no danger of a general breakdown in the citizenship and the residence requirements. He thinks the change, if adopted, on November 13, will be helpful to those who are now drawing pensions and that it will not let down the bars to unworthy participants.

Squeaked By Again. Another week of non-freezing weather, another week that the frost did not kill all the tomatoes, merely pinched and seared the edges of most of the cotton leaves. All as The Hesperian suggested would be likely. Gradually clamping down until the real thing comes around on November 10. The freeze around this mid-week-end should take a little more bite but that is according to schedule. When the real thing comes in a few days now you won't have to argue about whether it did or didn't kill the vegetation. We're out on a limb and now we're sawing it off. The moon has been on our side—two new moons to full in the month of October—first time since nobody knows when; grasshoppers sluggish but still alive and kicking, mostly other prairie life tapering off also. A sure enough deep freeze would catch them unawares should it occur this week. So we say it won't happen for a little while longer. We'd like to give back a day or two from the 10th but we can't now.

Electric Linesmen To be Recognized at A & M Meeting

In an official memorandum, Governor Allan Shivers has proclaimed November 23, "a day of recognition of the electric linemen of the State of Texas."
The action by the governor was prompted by the 11th annual Texas Job and Safety Training conference for rural electric co-operators of Texas to be held at Texas A&M college on November 23 and 24. Attending the conference from Floyd County Rural Electric cooperative at Floydada, will be Wiley Rogers.
Included on the program is a banquet and several speakers.
The Governor stated in his proclamation: "The electric linemen's profession has never been recognized on a state-wide basis. The electric linemen, for years, has rendered a courageous and faithful service to the citizens of the State of Texas, and often under great handicaps and dangerous situations. These services must be regarded as season or time of day or night."

90% For! 10% Against
Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to

END THIS QUIBBLING

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?
Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week principle, for employees in 37 different jobs. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with what is called "interdivisional service"—rules which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily set a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the union should try to agree on such run and conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered the three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why the three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

Parole System Functioning Economically and Satisfactorily

Secretary of State John Brown, chairman of the Texas voluntary parole board, reported today that the Texas voluntary parole system is functioning economically and satisfactorily.

He reported that when he assumed the duties of Secretary of State in February 1950 there were 11,300 parolees in Texas. The Texas voluntary parole board members for their part have been successful in enabling the state to reduce the number of missing parolees to 60.

The voluntary parole system, he stated, is a positive program designed to reduce the number of inmates in the state penitentiary and to help the citizens of the community.

These men, the secretary of State reported, are supervised at the very low cost of only 4 1/2 cents daily for each parolee while it costs the Texas prison system 82 cents daily for each inmate. This figure, he stated, does not take into consideration the amount spent by the state in caring for the dependents of those incarcerated. The Department of Public Welfare shows in their audit report for 1950 that $212,426.27 was spent in aiding these families.

In comparing the costs of the Texas voluntary parole supervision with that of other states, the secretary of State cited the fact that the state of New York spends $62 for each parolee yearly; Massachusetts $54 yearly; Virginia $60 yearly; Wisconsin $34 yearly, while Texas only spends $15 yearly for each parolee.

Sheppard also praises the work of the members of the voluntary parole board and cited several cases where through their efforts delinquents have been restored from the prison system to daily pursuits of everyday life.

Other members of the Floyd county voluntary parole board are Bert Hobbit, member, Lockney, John Holmes, member, Lockney, Frank Perkins, member and secretary, Lockney, Lon M. Davis, member, Floydada, Texas.

Discussing The Constitutional Amendments

(Editor's Note—This is the second of a series of articles written to explain five proposed amendments to the constitution of Texas. Voters will decide in an election on November 13 whether they shall become parts of the constitution. These articles are provided by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as a public service.)

CHANGING STATE PUBLIC ASSISTANCE LAW—House Joint Resolution (HJR) No. 6:

This amendment would rewrite the Constitution's provisions governing old age assistance, aid to the needy blind and aid to the needy dependent children.

The changes it would make are fundamental. They are:

1. Remove all requirements that those receiving assistance be citizens of Texas.

2. Remove all requirements as to length of residence in Texas for one to be eligible for such assistance.

3. Permit the legislature to provide $7 million more per year for public assistance, raising the limit from $35 million to $42 million.

This amendment would make two other important changes: first, by increasing from $20 to $30 per month the amount of State funds that could be paid to those receiving public assistance and second, by lowering the minimum age of blind people who could receive assistance from 21 to 16 years.

AUTHORIZING A RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY SYSTEM FOR APPOINTIVE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF COUNTIES—House Joint Resolution (HJR) No. 22:

This amendment is similar to the one turned down in 1949 by vote of 20,545 to 95,290 except that it would prohibit any legislative appropriation to pay any benefits. It does not prohibit appropriation of tax funds to pay administrative expenses of proposed System. It does not prohibit a loan of State funds to the System.

State laws now provide several methods by which counties, or citizens thereof, may set up systems to provide such disability and retirement benefits.

In September 1951 a law became effective that has the following provisions: Any Commissioners Court may place the county's officers and employees under the Federal Social Security System on the same terms and with the same contributions as are required of employees and employees in private business. Benefits to officers and employees as covered would include death and survivor provisions but not any disability benefits.

County employees covered by any other retirement system cannot be covered at the same time by Social Security System.

Both the present system that may be administered by counties, and the Social Security System require contributions to the Fund by both employees and counties.

The System proposed in this amendment does not itself call for any specific method of financing. Under it there could be established, but only in a county wide election, a system supported entirely by county funds with no contribution by appointive officers or employees. Any county could adopt the proposed system alone, but its basis could be changed by the legislature at will.

LOST
(One Editorial!!!)
Dreamer? Every

be successful in life, a man has a goal—a mark which he must achieve. In setting his goal he must be careful or he will set himself too high and become discouraged before he has gained his goal. And yet, he must set it high enough that it cannot be gained too easily. For if a man has accomplished what he set out to do, what is there for him? A person who has a goal in life is a dreamer. The world was built by dreamers. They dreamed dreams and dared hope and made them true. Only a few short years ago our skyscrapers were but a pipe dream in some architect's mind; the automobiles, the locomotives, and countless things that we take for granted were the greatest dreamers of the past. The artist dreams of his object; to the rest of the world it is dull, ugly, and lifeless; to him it is a hidden beauty. He paints his point and brushes and to the rest of the world this is just a picture. How well he succeeds depends on the greatness of his work. There is an international language, that knows no barriers, races, or creeds. When we listen to music, we are listening to what was once the hopes and dreams of some man. The tune and melody were once heard only in his idle dreams. The man who can express himself in such a way as to make others feel the same emotions that he feels is very fortunate, for he has one of the greatest gifts that God can give a man.

As long as dreams remains a dream it is of no value to anyone, not even the dreamer. Any man can dream of great and wonderful things, but making them come true often requires the brains of a genius and the work of a real man.
Dream your dreams; set your goal; make them come true. You will find there is a place for you, no matter what it is you do. The world always has room for another expert.

Room Two Oh One

If you happen to look into room 201 some morning you would probably find Coach Gresham patiently trying to explain a problem to the class. The class usually responds with a blank look. When they do catch on everybody is happy and Coach is exhausted.
Then for some unknown reason the conversation wanders around to football. After a brief discussion of the merits of such-and-such a play by such-and-such a team, Coach Gresham reminds the class that there are problems to be worked.
When you ask some member of the class what he likes about the class, he will tell you he likes the general attitude of the teacher best.
This about brings to a close our visit to this fine class. Like most other classes, there is a wild charge for the door when the bell rings.
This just goes to show you how anxious students are to get to their other classes early so they won't miss a trick.

Improvement Shown by Girls In Loss to Rall 38-19

The Whirlwinds sextet from Floydada High school opened their season with a 38-19 loss to a strong Ralls sextet. The girls team showed much improvement from their season last year.
Composing the starting team for Floydada were guards Clara Jones, Joyce Webb, and Patsy Patterson. The forwards were Dorothy Holmes, Wanda Poole, and Jeanie Hines.
The freshman girls team took an early lead to beat the Ralls freshmen 28-16.

Assembly Program

We had a very unusual and enjoyable assembly last Wednesday. Mr. Graves introduced Mr. Paul Leonard who gave us an interesting program of various bird calls and the explanation of them. He played a record and whistled like a bird with it. He then gave a demonstration of an unusual machine, the Therman, which reproduced and transmitted sound. The machine was very complicated but he could change the sound of the pitch by simply moving away from it or toward it. He said the Hammond Organ was based on the idea of this machine. Fern Patterson assisted Mr. Leonard and she also played us a little tune on the Therman.
We all enjoyed the assembly because it was so different and we hope to have many more amusing and educational assemblies.

Know Your Teacher

This week we turn our teacher spot light on a new member of our faculty whom everyone knows by her bright smile and friendly manner. She is our librarian, Miss Vi Jones, who lives at 519 West Missouri Street.
Born at Honey Grove, Texas, January 15, 1931, Miss Jones, was graduated from High School there in 1947.
Since this is her first year as a teacher, she came to us from East Texas State at Commerce, Texas where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. She is now working toward a Master of Science degree in Social Science.
Miss Jones pays us a compliment by saying that she likes the people of Floydada and the students of F.H.S. very much. In fact, she says, "I'm extremely happy here and am looking forward to much more of the same."
Miss Jones likes music and people with nice personalities. Her "pet peeve" is ill-mannered people, especially students!
Miss Jones we are very happy to have you on our faculty. And we feel quite certain that you will always be an inspiration wherever you may go.

Borer Control in Fruit Trees Is Easy Task

Many fruit trees are badly infested with borers, especially peach, apricot and cherry trees, states Bob Gibson, County Agent. He said that the infestations of these borers can be easily recognized by the presence of a corky gall like appearance of the tree trunk at or just below the ground line. These borers work into the tree at the ground line and destroy the growing tissue just under the bark. If this white sappy layer is destroyed completely around the tree it will kill the tree. Partial destruction causes limbs to die and a very poor fruit crop.

Every peach, plum, apricot, or cherry tree should be treated during the next two months even though the presence of the borers is not observed at first inspection. To treat these trees clear the grass and weeds from around the tree trunk. Build up the soil around the tree well above where the worms are working, usually 8 to 10 inches high. Apply 1-2 pint of ethylene dichloride emulsion on the ground around the tree for mature trees. For trees 2 to 4 years of age use 1-4 pint per tree. Cover the liquid with a few shovels of dirt. This material can be applied any time after the leaves fall until early April. Best results will be obtained during late October and November. The mounds of dirt do not have to be removed. The ethylene dichloride emulsion can be obtained from some drug stores and from most fertilizer dealers. The cost is very little per tree and if applied annually will prolong the life of a vigorous tree indefinitely, says Mr. Gibson.

Classes Finish Home Nursing

Final classes in Red Cross home nursing were taught in Floydada and Lockney last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Roy Wilkes of Pleasant Valley was instructor for the classes and has announced that the following people will receive certificates: Mesdames C. L. King, Lone Star; Ross Cooper, Lockney; Wesley Hay, Sterley; E. M. Quebe, Providence; Weldon Smith and W. C. Wisdom, L. K. Sherman, Raymond Wisdom, Pleasant Valley; Claude Hammitt, Lockney; Carl Daniels, South Plains; Roy Hale, Harmony. Earl Edwards, Sr., and O. G. Shearer, Lakeview; Thurmon Perry, Fairview; F. O. Conner, Friendship; Woodrow Wilson, Center; C. L. Catlin, Homebuilders; J. W. Day, Jr., Starkey; and C. W. Denison, Sunnyside.

Each class had visitors or observers. They, as well as the regular students are enthusiastic over Mrs. Wilkes' teaching. The class in home nursing is part of the activities planned by the Civil Defense committee of the Floyd county home demonstration council. Mrs. John Hoffman of Harmony is chairman of this committee which will also sponsor a first aid course during November. Mrs. Roy Wilkes will also teach the first aid course, according to Mrs. Hoffman. Classes will be held in the home demonstration council room in Floydada. The classes will be open to non-club members as well as members of home demonstration clubs. The first class has tentatively been set for Monday, November 5. Classes will be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of that week and the next week.

Give Salesman Chance to Help Your Shopping

COLLEGE STATION — Many shoppers consider their experiences with sales people distasteful and often they come away from the store without having made the purchase they came for. Mrs. Florence Low, Home Management Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extensions Service, points out that pleasant relationships in buying not only make shopping enjoyable but they add up to good business. Remember this, says the specialist, that the sales person is only responsible for one-half of the transaction. He or she may prove a valuable assistant in your buying or else cost you money!

State your wishes clearly to the salesman and ask for intelligent, reliable information. Don't be antagonistic about the price, says Mrs. Low. Instead decide for yourself whether it's worth that much in relation to other things. Handling merchandise with care is a good way to make a favorable impression on the sales person. Although careful inspection of the goods is justifiable, soiling or damaging it is not. A good customer will carry her small packages with her rather than ask that they be delivered. Mrs. Low adds. If the purchase turns out to be defective or unsatisfactory, the customer should be free to return it for an exchange or her money back. The buyer is at fault, she says, if goods are returned because a change of fancy after the purchase was made. People used to marry for better or worse. Today it's for more or less.

GOOD HEALTH
I. WILL BEEFSTEAK HELP A BLACK EYE?
2. WHAT IS ACNE?
3. HOW SAFE IS BRAIN SURGERY?

Answer to Question No. 1:
1. Cold water is the best first aid treatment for bruises, including black eyes. Despite popular belief, raw beefsteak is no treatment for a "shiner."
Answer to Question No. 2:
2. Acne, a chronic infection of the sebaceous (oil) glands, usually occurs between the ages of 12 and 25. An oversecretion of oil blocks the opening of the gland, thus causing the secretion to accumulate. This condition can usually be treated successfully by your physician.
Answer to Question No. 3:
3. Brain operations formerly ended in death in most cases. However, the advances made by American surgeons in the field of brain surgery have been so remarkable that the skull is opened with safety, tumors are removed and other conditions are treated with a very high percentage of cures.

Sheriffs Posse And Heart Ailment Brings Dorrell Home From Coast

The Sheriff's posse were hosts at a barbecue with their families and friends last Thursday night in the American Legion hall. Over 100 persons were present. A fine meal was enjoyed. District Attorney John Stapleton was the guest speaker for the evening. A dance was enjoyed after the meal and the Shepherders of Floydada, a musical organization made up of Floydada boys, played for the dance and for the program at the dinner. The club has a membership of 54 and 30 members were present with their families. Kenneth Crouch, secretary of the organization, said it was a big success.

An anticipated stay of several weeks on the gulf coast, at Aransas Pass fishing, was spoiled for Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dorrell when Mr. Dorrell suffered a heart attack shortly after taking up their quarters there. The couple returned home Monday of this week and Mr. Dorrell will be confined to his home, much of the time in bed for an indefinite time. Before their return home Mr. Dorrell was hospitalized at Corpus Christi after suffering a second attack on October 24, when his daughter, Mrs. Glen Jarnigan and Mr. Jarnigan, and son, Layton Dorrell, were called, and aided in getting the stricken man back to his own bedside.

Murder Trial

fair and impartial trial in Lubbock county. State's questioning of the jurors Monday and Monday night indicated that a verdict of death would be sought. In addition to his plea of temporary insanity Farmer's attorneys filed an application for suspended sentence in case the jury finds him guilty.

Defense attorneys, appointed by the courts, are Kenneth E. Bain, Jr., of Floydada, Lawrence Melcher and Clifford Brown, of Lubbock. District Attorney John B. Stapleton, of the 110th district, is assisting District Attorney Travis D. Shelton of Lubbock county and Bill D. Tucker, assistant, from Lubbock, in the prosecution of the case.

The jury which is hearing the testimony is composed of C. N. Walding, T. C. Hollums, Malvin Jarboe, W. M. Hambricht, Ernest Lee Thomas, Fred Reeves, Greer Christian, Earl Crawford, all of Floydada, L. L. Scott of Lockney, J. L. Pierson of South Plains, Connie O'Brien of Aiken, and Lindsey Lackey of Cedar. They were chosen from a special venire of 108 men. Lackey, the last man selected at Monday night's session, was the 74th man on the list. Court recessed at 10:30 Monday night.

It was not indicated how long Wednesday night's session might be. Rebuttal testimony of state's witnesses was being presented. Whether the defense would seek to present further testimony in rebuttal was not indicated. Thirty-seven witnesses in all were summoned as witnesses in the case.

District Judge Alton B. Chapman is presiding in the trial.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ADDED

Formal approval by court order is expected at the next meeting of the Commissioners court for the appointment of A. L. (Pat) Murphy as deputy sheriff at Lockney. The new deputy was named in mid-October by Sheriff Leland A. Hart.

Mr. Murphy, a resident of Lockney, is named in addition to A. K. May, who has been serving as the Lockney deputy for the past year.

Ras Ware Winner in Match Roping

In the matched roping at Floydada Redeo grounds last Sunday afternoon, Ras Ware won over Harold Phillips of Paducah by 50 seconds on ten calves. The Crosbyton matched roping contest was rained out there, so the boys brought their calves here and there was two matched contests. Crosbyton had Red Whatley and Billy Kirk and they won over Odell Blackwell and Rusty Bradley of Electra. Jack Johnson reports there will be no roping this week-end, account of the rains. He said the grounds last Sunday were almost too wet for a good contest. The dates of later roping matches will be given later.

POSTAL ROUTE ONE MUCH IMPROVED, REPORTS POWELL

Some good work has been done on Route One by Commissioner Holmes and his crewmen during October. Especially needed was the grading of those low places where water would stay in the road. I might add that the job was well done, too. Good grades were made so the water could get away.

Along with this grading several metal culverts were put in and they will add much to the life of the road. I just wish more of our people had to get out on our dirt roads in all kinds of weather like the rural carriers do so they could see the difference in a well graded road and one that is allowed to become flat with the bar ditches blocked with dirt and weeds and Johnson grass.

Time after time we carriers have noticed that where a piece of road is well graded, that road stays smoother after most of our rains and is dry in a short time after the rain. Not so with the other kind. And this flat road is the one needing most maintaining. By flat I mean one that is too flat so the water stays on the road and won't run into the bar ditches or still worse is for the shoulders to be higher than the middle. An ideal condition is for the center to be just a little higher than the shoulders. I believe a well graded road will easily cut the cost of maintenance in half not to mention the savings to the general public in having better roads.

The above work is appreciated by me and it will be a help in giving my patrons better service. I hope to see more done in the near future. I am still thinking of those snows this winter.

Mrs. Bill Holliday At Amarillo With Mother in Hospital

Mrs. Everett Goad, of Amarillo, mother of Mrs. Bill Holliday of Floydada, is in a critical condition in St. Anthony hospital in Amarillo, after being critically injured in an automobile wreck last Thursday, near Groom.

She with her husband, Everett Goad, and two neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Holleman were enroute to Oklahoma to visit relatives when their car and the car being driven by a navy couple, Mr. and Mrs. Madison Davis enroute to Brementon, Washington, collided, 12 miles east of Groom.

Mrs. Davis was carried to the Groom hospital, where she died six hours after the wreck. Mrs. Holleman was killed instantly. Mr. Goad was carried to the Groom Osteopathic hospital, where he passed on Monday night. Mrs. Goad was removed to the St. Anthony hospital. Mrs. Holliday has been in attendance at her mother's bedside since the accident. Mrs. Goad is reported to have both legs, one arm and nose broken with cuts about the face, and is in a critical condition.

Mr. Goad's burial was in Hollis, Oklahoma, his former home. Mr. Goad's death makes the third in the accident.

Center News

(By Mrs. J. E. Green) CENTER, October 30 — Weather continues threatening. Where people have hands cotton is being harvested in a hurry. People are of two minds—they would like to have rain on the wheat, but don't want it on their cotton.

Brother Hodges was sick Sunday and was unable to be with us so Brother Raby and family came a-gain instead. They dined in the R. C. Ross home. The J. R. Robertsons visited in the Hodges home in Plainview Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. R. Robertson arrived home Saturday from Houston where she attended the wedding of her son, Bob, Thursday night. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Robertson who went on to Amarillo to visit relatives there. They returned Sunday and attended church services here Sunday night.

Margaret Green came down Sunday with the Rabys and spent the rest of the day with home folks attending church here.

Jerry Hodges dined Sunday with the Robertson boys.

Noland Arney of Fort Hood spent the week-end with his wife and the Veborn family.

Mrs. Marvin Jackson was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzei and attended church here with them Sunday morning.

Phil and Bruce Horton of Floydada spent the week-end visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sims.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Green and Margaret accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Victor Green of Plainview to Amarillo Monday night. They went to visit Mrs. Green's nephew, Jerry Massingill, who is in the northwest Texas Hospital because of injuries received in a car wreck Sunday afternoon. Jerry and a friend, Wayland students, were returning from a week-end at home and were run into by a drunken driver several miles north of Amarillo. Jerry, who has visited here many times, suffered a broken right arm and a broken left ankle, but is doing as well as possible.

The Center Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. Frank Dunn last Friday afternoon. Roll call was answered with "Some Christmas presents I'd like to have." After business session, the election of officers for 1952, the time was spent in viewing suitable made-at-home Christmas gifts. Many beautiful articles, aprons, dollies, pillow cases, table clothes and toys were shown and admired. Refreshments were taken. Refreshments were served to a dozen women.

The officers elected for the next year were Mrs. Lee Goughlightly, president, Mrs. W. B. Jordan, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Tom Noland, vice-president, and Mrs. Flora McNeil, council representative.

Sunday afternoon several Centrites were among the throng who gathered at the First Baptist church, Floydada, for the last rites of Rev. R. E. L. Muncy. It was a beautiful service with a glimpse into the past at the happy early days and at the hardships and sacrifices made by a pioneer pastor. Truly he could say with Paul—another pioneer preacher, "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith and henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

Come to church Sunday. Remember next Tuesday night, November 6, Rev. Joe Motesbaker of Idalou will be at Center with his parents and lecture of the Holy and. Let us all be there.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes.)
"If Jesus built a ship
It would travel trim;
If Jesus roofed a barn,
No leaks would be left by Him;
If Jesus planted a garden,
He would make it like paradise;
If Jesus did my day's work,
It would delight His Father's eyes."

—Author Unknown
The Methodist evangelistic hour is at hand, and many are praying for its success. May we all read again the little verse above and try to do our work so well it will delight "our" Father's eyes.

We were so happy as were others to attend the golden wedding celebration of the John McKinneys Sunday afternoon. Everything was so lovely, so fitting for a lovely woman and her fine husband who have had fifty years of golden sunshine along with dark shadows, but they have triumphed over all difficulties and take pleasure in their remaining years among the members of their children who are upstanding citizens of this country and the many, many friends who were on hand to wish them "well."

I should have listened to Mr. Stein. From many years past I know he has hit the frost on the spot. But the radio announcer kept on telling what the official weatherman said, and I would go out and gather a few green tomatoes. It would not frost. Another announcement and I got scared and gathered more green tomatoes. New this Monday morning it looks as if there might be several days of warm weather and my tomatoes should have been on the vines to ripen.

From an old Newspaper of 1895, The Western Star, successor to the Mayview zephyr:
A JOURNAL OF SELF-culture, devoted to Higher Education of the People of the West. Development is our motto, and Progress, our Watchword.

Mayshaw, Floyd County, Texas, Saturday, Jan. 5, 1895:
G. W. Grammer, Editor. Our Motto: Fearless and Peerless, Progressive, and Aggressive, Scientific and Sincere. Our Ticket: Truth rather than fiction, Honesty before policy. Higher education, prohibition, Salvation by grace. Free coinage of silver. Science, self-culture, literature. Phrenology, Music, Art, Magnetism, Electricity, Hydropathy, Chromopathy, Graphomania, Psychometry, Hygeotherapy, Body culture, Man culture, Invention, Discovery, Prosperity, Labor, Capital, Enlightenment, Cleanliness, Decency, Etiquette, Law and Order. The Good, the True, the Beautiful, Sound and Clear Minds, healthy Bodies and Happy Homes.
Among the list of new subscribers from Floydada we find the following: M. F. Permenter, H. Snodgrass, Fred From Mayshaw, R. E. Muncy, E. C. Henry, W. Byars.)
Once upon a time a certain man got offended at the editor of the paper and had his name stricken from the subscription list. The next week he sold his cotton several cents below the market value. Then his property was sold for taxes simply because he did not read the sheriff's sales. He was arrested for hunting on Sunday because he did not know the county had created a law forbidding it, and was fined $8 for so-doing. He paid $14 for a lot of forged notes that had been advertised for two weeks, and the people cautioned not to negotiate them. He then paid a man with a foot like a sledge-hammer to kick him to the newspaper office, where he paid four years in advance, and made the editor sign an agreement to knock him down and rob him, if he ever stopped his county paper again as long as he lived.—Ex.

It takes 400 bales of cotton to pay the salary and trimmings of the average congressman, or the work of 67 average one-horse farmers. In 1896 it only took sixty, or the work of one average one-horse farmer. Times do change.
$75 Difference.—Twenty years ago a bale of cotton would pay a $100 debt. Now it takes nearly four bales to do it. And they call this honest money.—Ex.

The Star is the only paper in these parts that takes any special interest in musical matters. The music department, alone, is worth more than the price of the subscription.
If the editor of the Times doesn't hush up his pretty mouth, we won't exactly go down there and shoot him, but we'll put a "millstone" about his neck and drown him in the great sea of science.

WANTED—A second hand coffin to bury the Times in.
We are needing wood. Will some kind brother who has promised to furnish us some, take the hint.

The Times said last issue of the Star was "odious." We wouldn't be surprised if he finds this one odiferous to him. Would you?

To the Times: No, you don't squeal, but you'll bellow before we are through with you.

The Times says he will have us "herding sheep" before the flowers bloom again. Now we don't like to shoot cannon balls at snow birds; but if we are pressed into it, we will only leave a greasy spot where it struck him. It won't be very greasy, either, he's too lean.

Latest sayings: W-e-a-l-l... Sht ye mouth... Land Ogoshen... Now don't sass my word!... Sht the door, it'll suck the light out... Good gra...
Ads: Send $1.10 to the Floyd County Times for the Times and Gazette both one year. The Times is independent in politics; fearless in denunciation of wrong; and the only county paper on the Plains with the nerve and the backbone to condemn the wrong wherever found. Address, Times, Floydada, Texas. (The above copied from the Mayshaw Newspaper in 1895 seems very funny to us now, but we recall that editors lambasted other editors with vigor and we have enjoyed this old paper which belongs to Maude Hollums.)
(We find Mr. Grammer taught music, was a phrenologist, poet, sold musical instruments and edited the paper, truly a Big Job for one man. Thus the Wonderful Plains Country, was started with a big send-off.)

Why and Who Should Come to This Country: Persons suffering from incipient consumption, asthma, catarrh and nervous debility. Persons wishing to build themselves into big business from small beginnings with but limited means. Persons who prefer to mingle with people who are striving to push themselves ahead in the business world. Persons who are in search of a healthful climate, superior soil and educational facilities. Persons who love a semi-tropical section, with all that Northern climates produce. Persons wishing to secure a first class investment, and wonderfully remunerative returns.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chapman were here last week for the day from their home at Goodland, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman have recently bought a general merchandise store at Goodland.

C. L. Berry, Jr., and wife of Crosbyton spent Friday night in the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Berry, sr., here.

Miss Bobby Stevens of Portland, Oregon, is here visiting her brother, Cleo Stevens and family and Stevens, for a few days.
