Views and Comment

A good sign, pointing to a better judiciary in Texas, is contained in a recent letter forwarded to the Texas press from the State Bar of Texas, in which the newspapers are apprised of the plans of the lawyers to conduct a referendum or mail vote among their numbers on their choices for the various places on the high benches. In other words they are going to have a secret ballot and publish the results of that ballot so the people of the state may see and know what the composite opinion of the lawyers is of the qualifications of the various candidates for the judiciary. We like the idea, think it will be highly informative and of great value to their fellow-citizens in Texas. For most of these high jobs the ordinary citizen has to grope for what knowledge he obtains, often votes for the wrong man to his later regret. But what we like about it in particular is that the lawyers seem to be abandoning the idea of trying to get people of the state to name their judges through appointment rather than at the ballot box. This has been strongly urged in some quarters. Abstractly it is a good idea, too. But in practice all the people in the long run will choose more wisely than a few or a small segment of the people, or one man. The longer we keep all officialdom close to the will of the people as freely expressed in secret ballot the longer the republic will last. The lawyers will do the people of Texas a great service to give them the benefit of their experience and belief in the choice of their judges and then let the people decide. We can't escape the conclusion that the appointment of judges of the state would be a grave error.

Would you consider it wise or unwise to pave the alleys immediately surrounding the business district before storm sewers are provided? In our opinion the people of the community should make up their minds about how large a town they are going to have and begin planning accordingly. Paving and other civic improvements of the same like and kind are going to force themselves into the limelight whether or not we want to be bothered. Why not have these things occur according to plan? The economy of such over the catch-as-catch-can way would be tremendous.

Sour Puss. Some of these days we're going to make a silly crack about if the people of the community prefer to splat down the streets through the mud and dust in their shiny new automobiles, how would it do to at least take up a collection and buy the American Legion a new piano?

The new safety law has been attacked as unwieldy and unworkable from many, many sources, and the hysteria against the thing is just about in the same proportion as the enthusiasm was for it before it became the law of the land. There is a middle way to follow that would be wiser than either discarding the idea entirely in Texas or trying to enforce it before you have machinery for handling the immense details. Apparently the Department of Safety was given a wide latitude of discretion and will work out something that is acceptable and worthwhile to the state. The legislature is somewhat like a commissioners court or a big committee in the way it works. Extremes one way or the other are a part of the scheme of things. One time the legislature unwittingly did more to promote the sale of shotguns than could have been done with a million dollar advertising appropriation. The price of cotton was low and ruin stared cotton men in the face. Why not reduce acreage and do it quickly was the hue and cry. Responding the legislature passed a law requiring every farmer to plow up every fourth row and delegating some authority—possibly the sheriff—the job of seeing that it was done. Every farmer in the country greased up his artillery ready to meet the plow up crew. The legislature met quickly in a special session that cost the state a quarter of a million and repealed the law they'd passed almost unanimously a few weeks before. Something had to be done, they thought, when they passed the law, something had to be done when they repealed it.

On the political scene now watch for the good news to flow out of Europe. The general has done a good job. He has wrapped up NATO in a neat package. It is working fine. He has finished his assignment and can well turn it over to a successor, a capable man whom he has been training for the job. And he will be back in the United States by the arrival of the Ides of March, on inactive status and therefore in position to speak his piece as a candidate for the Republican nomination. He will be discreet and issue his statement and broadcasts, we suspect, through a "spokesman," the same as is now being done from his headquarters in Paris. All in exact army pattern. And that's one of the reasons we are hoping the people of the United States are not going to have another military chieftain for president.

Trees are the most permanent of all plants used in landscaping and careful planning should precede the actual planting.

"We did it Again!"

That's the jubilant news that comes from Flint to every Buick dealer—and here we pass the thrilling story on to you. It sure is true for '52 that better automobiles are being built—and Buick is building them. Read the good word and you'll agree.

LET'S pare this down to plain statements of fact and let them speak for themselves:

The dynamic darling pictured here is the 1952 ROADMASTER.

It has the mightiest engine in Buick history.

It has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick.

It is the quietest car that Buick ever built.

It has the richest fabrics and smartest tailoring that ever graced a Buick's interior.

It has the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders.

It has the most superb ride in Buick history.

It has the finest carburetor that Buick research has ever devised.

And with all its new power, it delivers more miles per gallon.

But that is not all.

For those who wish it, there is a brand-new version of power steering that works like a helping hand—gives you the same sure feel of control you have always known in straight-away driving—yet takes less than one-fifth the effort needed to turn the ordinary wheel standing at curbside.

Sure, we're putting our best foot forward when we talk about ROADMASTER.

But you'll find a host of notable features in SUPERS and SPECIALS too—plenty to make them, as always, the standout buys in their fields—for ride, for comfort, for style, for room, and for power.

Come in—look this triumphant trio over—and you'll know why every Buick dealer from coast to coast is going around with a smile on his face.

Pantry Shelf Desserts

Midwinter is a season that calls for good substantial desserts, yet the pocketbook is apt to be low and fresh fruits—the basis of so many popular desserts—are hard to come by then. This, then, is the time to fall back on a pantry shelf that's well stocked with packaged puddings since, in a matter of minutes, these can be turned into a variety of attractive sweets made especially pleasing by the addition of dried fruits and nuts.

Take a package of vanilla-flavored tapioca pudding, for instance: Served as a creamy pudding it can be garnished with pecans or almonds, stuffed dates, figs or prunes. Chocolate-flavored tapioca pudding may be stuffed with walnut meats; and orange-coconut tapioca pudding combines well with prunes, dates and almonds. The flavor combinations are endless, for the varieties of dried fruits and nuts are many and pleasing.

Fig Tapioca Cream

Prepare 1 package vanilla tapioca pudding according to package directions. Turn into sherbet glasses. Cool and chill. Cut figs into strips and stand around edge of sherbet glasses.

Orange-Coconut Tapioca

Prepare 1 package orange-coconut tapioca pudding according to package directions. Turn into sherbet glasses. Garnish with almond-stuffed prunes.

Chocolate Walnut Tapioca

Prepare 1 package chocolate tapioca pudding according to package directions. Chill and fold in 1/4 cup chopped walnuts. Garnish each serving with prune stuffed with walnut.

Food 1 Key to Right Living

(A report from the Texas Medical Association)

The chances are that those resolutions you are trying so hard to carry out were all aimed at making your life and the lives of those around you a bit more pleasant during the coming year. You may have resolved not to worry so much, not to yell at the children, to really stay within a budget, to try to find more things to laugh at, to do little helpful things for people—in an office existence.

A song is made up of seven tones, those old familiar do, re, mi, fa, so, la, ti's. Whatever key you live in, you still use those do-re-mi's for your living.

And one of the best ways to keep your life a song, is the eating of the essential foods.

It seems a far cry from food to resolutions but without the proper instruments you can't have any kind of a song. You know that if you don't eat enough food, you get dizzy, weak, and your thoughts get rather flighty. You know that when you eat too much food, you get headache, stuffy, heavy, and your poor old mind seems not to function too well.

Eating improper foods does not create as obvious symptoms as under-eating or over-eating but sooner or later the effects will show up somewhere in your system. You yell at the kids, you get highly nervous and worry about yourself and world situations, you take a dim view of things, don't feel good enough to want to help yourself or others—in fact, you make resolutions with the turn of the year to try to overcome your shortcomings.

A proper diet is not a cure-all. It is the first essential in helping you to help yourself, however, mentally and physically. And the first resolution you should go to work on this year is the establishment of a proper diet; your other resolutions might fall into place automatically if you're feeding yourself the instruments which enable your body to tune up in key.

Those seven basic foods fit into those seven basic tones that make up music. Anything else you have to your diet may offer variation in your song of life, but you have to start with the basic seven.

First you have "do", the musical equivalent of bread and cereals which are the first requirement in a diet. You need dough, whole grain cereals, in some quantity every day, no matter whether you're drastically overweight or not. If for some reason of health these "do" ingredients must be eliminated from your diet, your doctor will substitute a food which contains the same substances in a manner in which your body can use properly.

The next note of the scale is "re," which might be translated into food as the fruits, tomatoes or raw cabbage that belongs in your diet. All fruits are included in this bracket and since there is always some fruit on the market, it shouldn't be a hard spot to fill. When you get tired of fruits, you can always switch to tomatoes or an occasional serving of cole slaw or some other raw cabbage dish; but you need some of this "re" group everyday, and it wouldn't hurt to include two servings of "re."

Milk could be the "mi" in the musical scale of living and potatoes might fit into "fa." You have meat as "so", leafy green and yellow vegetables as "la" and fats as "si." All of these notes have to be sung daily, just like a singer will run through the scales to exercise her voice before she starts into her song.

These seven basic foods start your body functioning properly, exercising all the parts of your body, and you can then go into your song and dance with the additions of other foods which you may cherish.

It's not too late to make a resolution to eat a portion of each of these foods every day. It's a safe bet that they will make you feel better, act better, and look better as you go about trying to fulfill those other resolutions you have made.

To the Democratic party goes the distinction of having written the shortest platform of the two major parties, that written in 1890, which consisted of only 350 words.

COOPERATION ESSENTIAL

School activities make school much more interesting and enjoyable. Perhaps activities such as honorary clubs would help morale and create an interest in school work. It is certainly worth a little effort.

One thing we must remember, do all this for us. The student who merely sits back and passes the buck is a great hindrance. Co-operation from the students is an essential item in any school activity. How about it, F. H. S.?

GOING AWAY

We of the Hesperette Staff wish to express our sorrow in losing one of our most efficient staff members, Virginia Presley. Virginia plans to leave F. H. S. and make her home in Crosbyton. Virginia is more deserving of pleasure and happiness as anyone we know. Virginia is the kind of a girl who has a smile for everyone. She has one of the nicest personalities you could find. At school, at home, or at work you'll always find Virginia among the one's on top. We know the Hesperette staff will miss her because she always did more than her share. We of the Hesperette Staff, students, and faculty of F. H. S. wish you all the luck and happiness in the world, Virginia. Come to visit us often.

HOW TO LOSE FRIENDS

The best way to lose friends is being two-faced. There is nothing more disgusting or irritating than to have someone you trust turn out to be two-faced. You can bet that a two-faced girl is sure to lose her friends if she ever has any.

Another way to lose friends is being snobbish and unfriendly. Have you ever been this way toward someone? Of course, you have. If a girl is interested in making more friends and keeping the ones she already has, this is one thing she should eliminate. There is no real cause for snobbishness among girls, except maybe, they think they are just a little better than the next one. Work diligently to eliminate this habit.

I suppose the next best way to lose your friends is jealousy. Jealousy is one of the most irresistible things I know. I mean that something inside us just doesn't have the power to resist it, just as children can not resist candy. This is the way with most people and jealousy.

Tempting Previews of 'Junior Miss'

The F. H. S. student body was fortunate Monday afternoon when Mrs. I. T. Graves presented a few short, tempting previews from her smash hit comedy "Junior Miss."

The previews were very brief not giving away any of the secrets before the presentation of the play.

One to Another

Moe: "I see you have got a new car."
 Abe: "Yes, I had to go to the sales agency to phone and I didn't want to come out without buying something."

Natha: "What's the trouble, officer?"
 Traffic Cop: "You were doing sixty miles an hour; that all."
 Natha: "Ah, that's where I've got you. I've only been out ten minutes."

Dad: "This whipping is going to hurt me more than you, Don."
 Don E.: "Well, don't be too hard on yourself, Pa. I ain't worth it."

A kennel, with dachshund puppies for sale, advertised: "Get a Long Little Doggie."

Carmack (At Prom): "Can't you stretch the music a little-play just one or two more dances for us?"
 Band Leader: "Sorry, this isn't a rubber band."

Did You Know??? WANTADS

A man-eating shark that weighed 2,000 pounds and a mouth big enough for a man to crawl into was landed near Gansbaai, South Africa.

Although awkward in appearance, grizzly bears have been clocked galloping away thirty miles an hour. Alligators reach an age of about 50 years before they begin to breed. The king cobra, the world's largest poisonous snake, has been known to attain a length of 18 1/2 feet.

Although, like all other mammals, whales will drown if they get water in their lungs, these big whoppers of the briny deep can hold their breath for as long as 50 minutes.

Ruling his family with an iron hand the male gorilla sends the members to bed in the branches of a tree he has selected, then fixes himself a sleeping place at the bottom of the tree.

What Makes For Good Teachers?

These are some views concerning teachers and students given by one student.

Most students feel that a teacher is one who can be a friend, as well as an instructor. The teacher has authority without being a stern disciplinarian.

Frequently, teachers succeed in their classrooms by displaying undying patience toward their students. Sympathy and understanding of the students are essential to the ideal teacher.

A friendly smile and a word of encouragement by the teacher often makes the pupil more zealous in his studies, and, the good teacher makes the student feel as if he has a personal interest in each student's welfare, thus, the student assumes an air of responsibility awakened by a glowing interest in his studies.

Substitute Teachers

In the past few weeks we have had changes in faculty members' faces. In place of Mr. Davis, who has left us and we are truly sorry, we find the always smiling face of Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Jones will be with us until our new commercial teacher arrives. During the illness of Mrs. Cooper we had Mrs. Smith who is also a lovely person. This week we find a friendly and helpful substitute for Mr. Foster, Mrs. Armstrong. Welcome to F. H. S.!!

GMC PRESENTS THE FIRST 2½-TON DIESEL

At last—Diesel economy and hill-leveling performance come to thousands of truckers who have never had any choice but gasoline power in the past!

Today America's foremost builder of Diesel trucks smashes the size-weight barrier that up to now has denied the many economies of Diesel power to haulers of medium-weight loads.

Today GMC offers users of equipment in the 19,500 GVW-35,000 GCW range a sensational new Diesel truck-tractor.

It is powered by the first welterweight Diesel truck engine—a smaller, more compact model of the famous General Motors 2-cycle engine that has made GMC America's first-choice Diesel truck.

More Miles per Gallon

Because it is Diesel-powered, this new GMC Model D450-37 will cost you far less to run per mile, far less to maintain per year than any other 2½-tonner you've ever owned. All Diesel experience proves that.

Because it is a 2-cycle Diesel, it is a fast-starting, quick-accelerating, highly responsive truck with plenty of snap in traffic—a truck that will maintain a steady "on time" schedule even on hilly runs.

Fuel economy is automatic thanks to GMC's famous Fuel Modulator. Regardless of throttle pressure this engine never gets more fuel than it needs and makes the most of what it gets. Smooth driving is assured by "easy-turn" recirculating ball-bearing steering—even electric shifting on two-speed axle models.

Nationwide Service

Equally important to the thousands of truckers who can now enjoy the benefits of Diesel power for the first time, this new GMC D450-37 is backed by the nation's largest network of Diesel service stations.

Before you buy another truck, you owe it to yourself to investigate these new GMC welterweight Diesels if you want to cut costs! We will be glad to give you facts and figures that will open your eyes! Why not come in today!

New Procedure Pressure Sauce Pan Is Economy Item

...ment's top division, and the 3-A winners in the lower bracket. Winners in these brackets will play for Texas, Thursday, January 24, 1952

...LARGE STATION, January — housewife will find that cooking with a pressure sauce pan saves work and fuel and insures the work and the products prepared. The pressure sauce pan is a new item in the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says that a pan should be chosen with care because it cooks with steam pressure.

...points should be considered. A pressure sauce pan is to be chosen under pressure. Miss Mason says that pressure sauce pans have construction which automatically holds the pressure and temperature at desired levels. This is done regardless of the high heat is under the pan. Others just have pressure in the pan. In using the latter it is necessary to adjust the heat so as to get the desired pressure.

...features are very important. The pressure pan will conserve fuel under pressure. Miss Mason states that all cookers have a pressure release valve which releases the pressure and the pressure pan is a safety feature. Some of these devices are, a pressure plug which blows out, a pressure plug which melts, or a pressure plug which combines with a pressure gauge combination for protection against opening the pan too soon. Some cookers have flexible lids which snap into the lid of the pan. These can be opened until the pressure is released. Flexible lids do have the disadvantage of dipping down into the food when it is opened and closed. The handles and knobs should be made of material which can be handled comfortably when the pan is hot. Wood handles are resistant but it cracks and when overheated. Some sauce pans have handles of heat resistant plastic.

...Mason says the seal of approval of the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. gives further assurance of the mechanical safety of the pressure sauce pan. Be sure and read this seal before buying. She advises homemakers to use instructions which come with the pan regardless of the kind of pan.

New Procedure Basketball Play Off Plan

Both boys' and girls' regional play-offs to determine the representatives to the tournament in Austin will be held on a slightly different look this year. The boys' play-offs will be held on the 13th and 14th, and the girls' on the 14th and 15th. The addition of a new division in the girls' division has changed both the regional and State Tournament levels. The boys' competition in the State Tournament is divided into five conferences, A through E. In the girls' division, there are three conferences, A through C. The girls' play-offs will be held through bi-district competition. Conferences A-A will play through bi-district competition to determine representatives to the State Tournament. This will reduce teams in each conference to four. The four winners from A-A will be placed in the upper bracket of the State Tournament.

men's top division, and the 3-A winners in the lower bracket. Winners in these brackets will play for the Division I championship. Conferences AA and A in boys' basketball will also play a division championship. Each of the 32 districts in each conference will send a team to one of the four regional tournaments in each conference. Thus, four regional champs from each conference will come to the State Tournament, playing in two brackets and to the Division II championship. Conference B will have eight regions, and each regional tournament will certify a champion to take part in the eight-team State Tournament play-off for this conference. COMPETITION in girls' basketball is being offered in three conferences, B through AA. Conferences AA and A will be merged into one championship race at the regional level, with eight teams from the united conferences coming to the State Tournament. Eight teams will also come from Conference B. The State Tournament for boys will be March 6, 7, and 8; the tournament for girls, March 13, 14, and 15. District championships must be decided two weeks earlier in each case, the boys' deadline date in all conferences being February 23, and the girls' by March 8. Both tournaments will be played in Gregory Gymnasium at the University of Texas, Austin. The regional play-offs will be held through the cooperation of regional colleges, which are offering their facilities and staffs.

Olds Has Major Style Changes In 1952 Model

Major style changes and important mechanical improvements characterize the Oldsmobile 1952 models being introduced today in Oldsmobile dealerships throughout the United States. Innovations in the new models, according to C. E. Fyffe are a more efficient 160-h.p. "Rocket" engine with the high performance Quadri-Jet Carburetor in series "98" and super "98" cars; complete new styling and more luxurious interiors in the super range for increased performance of Hydraulic drive, and G. M. power steering, both available at extra cost.

Oldsmobile presents three lines of cars in 1952. The Classic series "98", powered by the improved 160-h.p. "rocket" engine, is available in three body styles—four-door sedan and convertible coupe. The Super "98" uses the same "Rocket" engine and has five body types—four-door sedan, Holiday coupe, convertible coupe and club coupe. The Deluxe "98" series is offered in the four-door and two door sedan and is powered by a 145-h.p. version of the "Rocket" engine with dual down-draft carburetor.

The overall length of the Classic "98" Series has been increased from 208 to 213 inches. Wheelbase also has been increased two inches to 124 inches. A rear stabilizer bar has been added in the rear, improving car handling and stability and minimizing side sway at high speeds. There is greater rear deck length, making more luggage space available in the spacious trunk.

play for people—and I am happiest when I am at the piano in front of an audience. I think it is great fun! Thus he quickly destroys the oft-held notion that artists are a peculiar breed of people with their heads in the clouds.

Mr. Hambro is an exponent of the proposition that the only difference between the artist and the layman is in the work they do. In sincere modesty Mr. Hambro propounds that the lawyers, doctors, farmers, merchants and housewives are "artists" in their own direction just as he is an artist at the piano. And he is as anxious to hear their interpretations of our daily problems as he is to expound his own thoughts through the medium of music.

Inscribed on the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia are these words "Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land."

Canyon Eagles Win Week-End Tulia Tourney

Floydada High school's cagers sharpened their eyes and learned a lot about basketball in the invitation tournament at Tulia last week-end. They won and lost two.

But while they were winning and losing, the Canyon Eagles, one of the opposing conference teams in Class AA, went through the tournament undefeated and won the championship, Coach Gresham noted. "We'll have to work on that," said the coach. Floydada's team won over the Tulia Hornets in their first consolation game. Hereford was not in the tournament. What competition they will offer is an unknown quantity locally.

The Whirlwinds were taken out of the upper bracket in their first game Thursday night by Tahoka high, 43 to 25, Helms and Stovall led the scoring for the local boys. Tekell of the Tahoka team was sharp in that game.

In the consolation contest Floydada took Nazareth 48 to 21 Friday morning, with Stovall and Teague leading the scoring. Friday afternoon they eliminated Tulia 42 to 27, Stovall and Teague again the high point men, but Saturday afternoon in the consolation finals it was another story. Lockney Longhorns, winners, wiped out the consolation hopes of the "Winds 44 to 34. Kendall was the sharp man for the Longhorns with 19 points. Merriweather second with 9 points. For the Whirlwinds it was Helms and Stovall as high scorers.

The Longhorns caught the "Winds flat-footed in the first quarter and basketed a lead of 15 to 1 before the locals got going. A surge in the third quarter fell short, after the "Winds had regained some of their lost ground.

Mary Jane Ducote, of Bishop, Texas, smiles despite her two leg braces and abdominal support needed after polio attack. January is March of Dimes month.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow, Mr. and Mrs. George Spears, Misses Nell Swinson and Winona Faulkenberry, Lyndel Spears and Jackie Alexander were week-end visitors in Sante Fe, New Mexico. The party left Friday afternoon and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bishop and daughter, Nancy, of Canyon, spent the week-end in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Whistaker, of Snyder, were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney and other relatives recently.

'Junior Miss' Well Received

Patrons and friends of the school were well repaid for their time and price of admission, when they attended the play, "Junior Miss", presented by the speech department, under the Direction of Mrs. I. T. Graves, speech director of the school. The play was presented on successive evenings, Monday and Tuesday, at the high school auditorium.

A large crowd on both nights, greeted the players and were loud in their praise and applause for every member of the cast.

The teen-age sister, about 13 or 14 years old, delightfully portrayed by Ann Welborn, dealt her older sister, Lois, played by Jean Porter, misery and her parents, played by Ray Cook and Myrna Wilson, were often wondering what she would do next.

The "Junior Miss", Ann Welborn and her chum, Puffy Adams, played by a natural comedienne, Barbara Perry, were indeed true to life. At Christmas, each received her first pair of high heel shoes. Learning to wear them kept the audience in laughter.

Grover Smith, as Uncle Willis, the mother's brother, who returned home after an absence of ten years, was a source of wonder to Judy and Puffy. They had been seeing too many movies and decided Uncle Willis had been in prison all that time. Lois and her many boy friends were very much in evidence. Troy McNeil, the singing Western Union boy, proved to be in good voice.

Staff and Cast

The production staff included the following: Director, Mrs. I. T. Graves; stage manager, Bert Grimack; property mistress, Millie Carmack; wardrobe mistress, Ima Jean Noland; publicity, Dane Clark. The ushers were Nancy Goughlight, Roy Nell Hammonds, Beverly Thomas, Glynell Armstrong, Valdonna Pierce and Sammie Copeland.

Curtis — Donnell; Ellen Curtis — Lorraine Fisher; Willis Reynolds — G. Blaze Is Menace

In High West Wind

A high west wind that blew Saturday afternoon brought an alarm from Dempsey Grain company, where fire ignited from steel cutting torches set a blaze in the stack of old tires.

A lot of black smoke made the fire look ominous for a time. The fire department's new fire fighting equipment soon had the high blaze under control. It had threatened damage to adjacent improvements lying to the east on Houston street. Damage was held to a few hundred dollars.

Smallest Diesel Truck by GMC

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 23—A sign of the new era of economy and efficiency in the trucking industry was opened today as the GMC D450-37, a two and one-half ton unit, with five available configurations for either truck or tractor models.

The "first" by GMC, the D450-37 is a two and one-half ton unit, with five available configurations for either truck or tractor models.

The radically redesigned truck was made by Roy Gibson, vice president of General Motors and general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Div., in the 19,500 lb. G. V. W. class.

The GM 2-cycle Diesel engine offered for the first time in the medium-weight haulage class. "The GMC enters a market where there is only high quality used off-the-job and in heavy-duty off-the-job operations, the famed GMC family has in its newest adaptability for many different applications."

A PROCLAMATION

By The Mayor of the City of Floydada

WHEREAS, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is composed of men who have served overseas in the Armed Forces in time of war in defense of American institutions; and

WHEREAS, the principals of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary reflect the highest ideals and aspirations of the patriotic citizens of this country; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars exemplify loyalty to the community in their many community service activities; and

WHEREAS, all members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, throughout the United States and elsewhere, will observe the period of January 24 to 31, 1952, as National V.F.W. Week and as an opportunity to rededicate their labors to the national welfare, and the welfare of all disabled and needy veterans and their dependents;

THEREFORE, I, J. A. Patterson, Mayor of the City of Floydada, Texas, by the authority vested in me, proclaim and designate the period January 24-31, 1952 as National V.F.W. Week in this city, and I call upon all citizens to join with me in saluting the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and in expressing our grateful appreciation for the patriotic and unselfish contributions which this organization is constantly making to our national welfare and security.

Done at the City Hall of Floydada, this 22 day of January, 1952.

ing passages from the bible. Mrs. Pinkner brought a very good lesson. Mrs. Chloma Williams gave the closing prayer. Mrs. Ramsey served refreshments to eight members, three guests and two children. The guests were Mrs. R. B. Gary, Mrs. Loyce Turner and Mrs. Ted Ruth-erford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey are remodeling their home, making a modern home with six rooms, bath and large service porch and a vestibule. They will have a very nice home when they get it finished.

There was a farewell party at the community center January 15 for the Roy Hollums family, who will leave this week, if weather permits, for their new home in Castro County, near Dimmitt. Dominos and 42 were played, a refreshment plate was served to all. We wish the best of luck to these good people, who have been with us the past four years. Their new community's gain. We know they will enjoy them as much as we have.

We have quite a few who have been ill and are still ill with flu and colds. Those are the Bill Tucker family, the Parkey family, the Floyd Trowbridge family and Mrs. Glen Pool.

The regular community center meeting was held Friday night with Everett Miller in charge. Mrs. Everett Miller, vice-chairman presided in the absence of the chairman, Bill Tucker. A short business session was held and the program was given by three men of Floydada. Fire chief Carl Rodgers, gave a talk on fire hazards and their preventions. Mr. Gibson, the Floyd county agent, showed slides of land scaping. John Nay gave some comical readings. Refreshments of cookies, doughnuts, coffee and cocoa were served to 45 people by Everett Miller, Mather Carr, Mrs. E. W. Turner and Mrs. G. L. Snodgrass. Folks, we sure miss you when you are not present to do your part. This is your project as well as ours and we need your help to make a go of it. We enjoy having these men from Floydada to help us out.

There were 30 present for prayer service and choir practice. You would enjoy these meetings if you would come out. We don't like to miss one. Mrs. M. D. Ramsey brought the devotional. This was very interesting, as is all the religious work Mrs. Ramsey does. Mrs. Ramsey had some questions that she asked to some she chose to answer them. If they could not answer them, they could call on someone else in the congregation to answer. We all enjoyed it so much and it helps you to remember some things in the Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Watson attended the funeral of Lem Tucker, son of Vernon, Wednesday of last week. This young man was not quite 17 years old.

Miss Doris Elvane Snodgrass, who is attending McMurray college in Abilene, spent the week-end with home folks.

Carrick Snodgrass returned home from Washington D. C. last week. He attended an R. E. A. meeting in Washington. We think Carrick felt pretty big, getting to go to Washington.

The Roy Hollums' attended a dinner in Floydada Sunday given by relatives. There was a farewell dinner honoring the Hollums' before their departure for their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams and LaJuana Sue were hostesses Sunday honoring Chloma's mother's birthday and also his little niece's birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Freeman of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Aldine Williams and little daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs.

Raymond Williams and daughters of near Floydada and Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams and LaJuana Sue. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pierce and children of Lubbock spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Turner.

First Meeting County Council of H. D. Clubs

The Floyd County Home Demonstration Council got off to a wonderful start in its first meeting of the year Saturday at the council room in the court house. Fifteen clubs were represented with some thirty women present. Mrs. Ruth Daniel presided over the meeting.

Several committees reported on progress made on the resolutions. Mrs. George Stiles gave a report on corsage making. Some of the interesting highlights of this year's program that were adopted were the following:

To stimulate a wider knowledge of world affairs and to broaden the interest of club women; the reading program will be continued on the same plan as last year; to make good books available for all home demonstration families; each club to cooperate in the establishment of a county library; each club to study institutions in their district or other and offer their help when needed; To study the effects of alcohol and narcotics on our young people and have some program on family life during the year; one meeting in each club to be held at which time non-club members will be guests in order to acquaint them with home demonstration work.

Report on Library
Mrs. Howard Drysdale gave a report on the proposed library and it seems much interest is being shown. Recently a meeting was held in Floydada in connection with this movement. Miss Jo Battle of Panhandle and Miss Alice Green of Amarillo spoke. Their advice was to get funds before you start work and that a town the size of Floydada with no nucleus to start from should have possibly $10,000 to start.

Mrs. R. L. Nichols gave the financial report. She recommended we sell greeting cards to add to the treasury.

Mrs. C. A. Caffee spoke on next year's year books.

Mrs. George Stiles gave a report on exhibit and recommended all clubs cooperate with Lubbock fair this fall.

Mrs. Sam Lide gave an interesting report on 4-H club work.

Mrs. S. J. LaTita gave the THDA report. A meeting will be held in Lubbock January 30 to discuss 4-H encampment and girls 4-H scholarships. Please bring your THDA funds to council, February 16. The fund is 25c per member, year books are 25c each.

The district meeting will be held at Dimmitt May 7.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(by Nellie Witt Spikes)

The centipede was happy quite until a toad in fun said, "Pray, which leg goes after which?"

That worked her mind to such a pitch she lay distracted in a ditch considering how to carry on.

—By Mrs. Edward Craster.

The new flower catalogs brighten the days and make one want to garden. I recall when I was a young woman with my years of gardening ahead how thrilling the new colored flower catalogs were to me. One winter I helped dehorn some cane bundles. Cold it was, too. I stood in the wagon on a big heated iron, which had lain on top of the cook stove while I prepared breakfast and would hold some heat for hours. I lifted the long, sharp blade fastened to the side of the wagon and brought it sharply down on the bundle my husband had placed to be cut and smack, the grained heads would fall in the wagon. I threw them back with a pitchfork or grain fork. I would shiver after this was done and before another bundle was ready.

When we got to the long stack of heads where another load was to be put, I sat down on the sunny side and took out my flower catalog. Soon the bitter cold and discomfort of stinging grain was forgotten. The sun shone warm and the stack cut off the wind and I was in a world of perpetual summer and roses and lilies and bountiful vegetable gardens.

If all the things I then selected and had grown, it would have taken some acres of the farm to grow them. The sour-sweet smell of the cane, the patches of unmelted snow, the rattle of the wagons on the frozen ground, the rushing sound of many wings in the blue heavens above, the scurrying of a gray field mouse taking her young to another shelter of standing shocks, the sight of white smoke coming from the horse's noses as they caught at the heads of grain, all this comes clear and very tender and sweet to me as I look in at the red roses, the blue lilies and the white daisies which have never lost their appeal and thrill and thank God never will.

And this was a time of year we got ready for the new year's work. Most of the hog killing had been done, the big hams and lean hams were cured and ready to take out of the salt and hung. Maybe one more would be killed so sausage, ribs and backbone would be had.

Mr. Spikes was getting rope lines in readiness for the harness, new strings were put in, plows and wagons greased. Just only think, a box of axle grease, new lines and harness patched up, maybe a new horse collar or so, plow shares sharpened or replaced, some new bolts, and the spring work was getting ready to be done.

No income tax return to worry over, were those the good old days? But there might have been a drouth the year before, maize would have to be bought to feed the work team or the plowing would go slow. "Plowing on the grass," the horses would not be able to do as much work. We did not have electric lights, or butane or radios, the Semi-Weekly News told us the news of the then peaceful world, or at least America was out of the wars. Now that we have many luxuries I am reminded of the lines, "we can do without any article of luxury we have never had; but when we once obtain, it is not in human nature to surrender it voluntarily."

And "In sorrow he learned this truth—One may return to the place of his birth, He cannot go back to his youth."

I may have used this poem before but it is as new as the year 1952 Mary Brainard wrote: "I see not a step before me as I tread on another year; But I've left the past in God's keeping—the future His mercy shall clear; And what looks dark in the distance may brighten as I draw near."
