Publisher Has Book 'Thru the Years' in Type

CECIL HAGOOD Begins his fifteenth year of merchandising in Floydada.

Mrs. Nellie Witt Spikes and Mrs. Temple Ann Ellis of Lubbock are announcing the forthcoming book, "Through the Years," a history of Crosby county, now in type in galley form. Naylor and Company, San Antonio, publishers will issue the book.

"Through the Years" is a story of Crosby county from its creation in 1876. Incorporated in the book are details of the county's organization, settlements, developments, the buffalo, the Indians and the first white men, who made camp July 8, 1878, on Double Fork in the southwestern corner of the county. The men were Don Pedro Vial and Francisco Frago. Stories of wild mustangs, the Quakers and other stories and incidents are related.

The authors, pioneers of the county, are qualified to bring the story in its authentic and realistic form. They have lived as pioneers, maintained contact with other trail blazers and kept written records of historic incidents.

Resignations Bring Changes At Station KFLD

Management and personnel at Radio Station KFLD is undergoing considerable change this week, as the station makes its plans to do without services of Manager J. E. Stanton, who is now in Big Spring, and Len Sucher, who with his family will leave this week-end to take up their residence in Topeka, Kansas. According to their plans given out last week-end Stanton will go to Topeka as station relations man, while Sucher will be news director. Similarly, Pat Jeter has resigned to go to a station at Big Spring as engineer.

Ed Holmes, secretary of West Texas Broadcasters, owners of the station, said this week that Wayne Robison is manager of the station and Jack Clark is engineer, pending meeting of the owners due to be held this week-end when the affairs of the station will be gone over. Among other things that will be considered is the need for additional quarters for personnel.

Jack Clark succeeds Pat Jeter as the station engineer. Last week-end Grover Smith, jr., was added to the force and this week Bob White went to work for the station.

The changes for the three resigning officials are seen as promotions. Stanton, Sucher to Topeka. J. E. Stanton, manager of the station since its inception in March of last year, together with Len Sucher, staff member, are to report to station KJAY in Topeka, Kansas, this week, where Stanton has been named director of station relations and Sucher will be news director.

They look upon the change as a promotion for both. KJAY is a 5,000-watt station. It is a member of the Liberty net work. Topeka is located 75 miles west of Kansas City. Stanton's work will have to do with the Jayhawk network, a state-wide organization of stations similar to the Texas Quality network in this state.

Stanton and Sucher and their families left this week for their new field.

Hagoods' Department store this week is observing the fifteenth anniversary of its opening in Floydada, in which period it has gained and maintained a strong position in the local merchandising field.

George Bickly, manager of the store, began with the firm less than a year ago coming here from a similar post at Lamesa.

Cecil Hagood, owner, established the store at its present location, Corner of Main and California, in 1937, coming here from Lorenzo after the sale of a business there. His career in the merchandising business began at Tulla where he was reared. He worked for his father there in the gent's furnishing business, hitting out for himself at Lorenzo in 1932.

Irrigation School Attendance Good

Lockney Chamber of Commerce fed 112 guests at the noon-day luncheon and total registration went above the 150-mark.

Experts and specialists discussed the various angles of modern farming practices including problems associated with poisoning for weeds and insects, fertilizers, cultivation methods and new practices which have been introduced due to the pinch of labor shortages.

COACH MURRY VISITS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Murry and children of Canyon were here from Friday night thru Sunday visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Murry.

Mr. Murry is athletic coach at Canyon High school and was here on Friday night when his basketball team played the Floydada high school team.

Judge Frank L. Moore and the Commissioners, J. E. Holmes, Fay Hart, W. C. Plumble and Hugh Counts were present.

Fourteen of the 18 home demonstration clubs were represented at the meeting as well as the study club of Floydada and Lone Star, the Rotary and Lions clubs of Floydada, the Jaycees and the Floydada Chamber of Commerce, the Lockney schools and Floydada schools.

Superintendent Sidney Reeves of the Lockney schools and Superintendent I. T. Graves were detained and were unable to make the first of the meeting but were present at the close of the meeting.

All the groups were enthusiastic over the possibility of the reality of a library, as the room, the shelves and a few books are ready to be used.

Mrs. Barnard told of methods to obtain the finances to start a library of this kind for the county and read to the judge and court the request the budget committee of the Library had recommended to be included in the 1953 county budget. The Commissioners court would have supervision of the county library and would hire the paid librarian, who must be trained in her work, she pointed out. The county treasurer would have charge of the funds as of other funds. The budget committee suggested that 5 cents

Plan For Paving to High School Practically Ready, Says Graves

Belief that a black top type of all-weather paving for Fifth street from Highway 207 at Houston to the gate of the athletic field of Floydada High school grounds is almost a certainty was indicated this week by Superintendent I. T. Graves of the schools. The school board has a plan well-developed, a contract practically ready to sign, if the response from patrons of the school are as liberal as it is hoped they will be in the next two or three days.

The plan the board has in mind is to pave a 20-foot ribbon from the highway to the area on which the school grounds front. For this area a 54-foot width is planned to be paved.

The plans made call for the paving to connect at the entrance to the athletic field where the parking triangle will be paved as well as the south entrance of the high school.

An estimate of the total cost of the proposed paving is put at $9,076 if the plan goes through as now set. This is based on a charge of $1.25 per square yard.

Mr. Graves said the figure was closer per square yard than was given property owners in the ribbon-paving programs a year ago.

"Persons who would like to subscribe to the fund to get the school street hard-surfaced may leave donations with Principal A. E. Baker at the high school, or Principal A. D. Pultz at the ward school," Mr. Graves said. Arrangements also have been made for prospective donors to leave funds for the project at the First National bank.

Supper Monday Night Before FB Campaign

Officers, directors and workers of the various communities of Floyd County Farm Bureau will gather at the high school cafeteria here Monday night at 7 o'clock to make plans for their annual membership drive next week.

The meeting will take the form of a "kick off supper," at which it is hoped to have 100 or more present. The meeting is scheduled to be held at the high school cafeteria here. The date is Monday night, February 18. The hour 7 o'clock p.m. Ben Quebe, county president of the Farm Bureau, announces that the principal speaker of the evening will be Floyd Barber, of Iowa Park, a director of the State Farm Bureau Federation.

The Monday night meeting will be followed Tuesday by the campaign for memberships. Tuesday morning's activities will be started off with a seven thirty radio program to be heard over all stations of this area, including KFLD. Fifteen counties of the area will carry on their drives for members simultaneously.

City Gives Up Program

Meanwhile lack of general interest in a city-wide paving project has lagged so long that city officials are abandoning the ambitious project announced some months ago after considerable prodding by property owners. Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the city council it was announced that H. N. Roberts and associates are relieving the city of its obligation under a contract with them for engineering the project. Only cash out of hand to date is being asked of the city for their services, Mr. Roberts said Monday. This figure is something upward of $700.

Paving on Fifth, on South White, in Andrews addition and on other streets in the city numbering more than 20 blocks had been incorporated in the first program announced for laying the paving.

Leadership in financing the show has been assigned to D. T. Mayo, John W. Reue, Walton Hale, Claud Hammond and John Bilyer; and the public address system will be arranged for and handled by George Cavin, W. E. Garrett and Jas. H. Word.

Steer shifting committee this year will be composed of Jack Stansell, Billy Stanforth, Jr., Olin Bryant and Chester Mitchell.

The showmanship committee is composed of Ralph Cogdell, Jack Stansell, Billy Stanforth and Chester Mitchell.

Show veterinarians will be Drs. E. E. Joiner and J. M. Plover. Charlie Spence, Fay Pinner and Olin Bryant will compose the important committee in charge of bids, floor bids committee being James H. Word and M. W. Wylie.

Important Rule Change

The junior exhibitors will find all the rules of the show practically the same as for last year, save and except that rule 3 has been changed affecting entries of groups of three calves. Here is the wording of this new rule as adopted Monday night:

"Each exhibitor will be limited to only two entries in each of the breeding classes and two in each of the fat single classes except beef calves where a member is limited to a total of four calves in the fat single classes. He may show two light or two heavy calves in the fat classes, but not more than a total of four calves in the fat classes. He may show a group of three calves providing two of the calves have shown in the single classes.

Formulating the plans for the show here Monday night were M. L. Brewer, M. W. Wylie and Fay Pinner of Lockney, Roe Jones, Tate Jones, Guy Ginn, H. G. Barber, Robt. H. Gibson, E. L. Angus, Olin Bryant and James H. Word.

Both boys and girls will play, the first whistle to blow at 7:30 at Andrews Ward school gym.

The date is Friday, February 15. Admission will be 10 cents for students and 25 cents for adults.

LAW VIOLATORS KEEP OFFICERS IN PRACTICE

While the year of 1951 will go down in the annals as one of the most peaceful in history on the home front, a summary of the Floyd county court docket reveals there was, at that, quite a bit of law violation going on, more than 65 per cent if it having to do with liquor in this "dry" county. Here is the score of convictions, many on pleas of guilty:

Table with 2 columns: Offense and Count. Includes Possession of liquor for sale (13), Driving while intoxicated (28), Bad checks (9), Licenses revoked for driving while intoxicated (1), Carrying concealed weapon (1), Assault (6), Restituting arrest (1), Reckless driving (1), Total (60).

Organization in preparation for the Floyd County Junior Live Stock show was practically perfected Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce office and the ball started to rolling in the youthful stockfarmer competition by setting the date for March 12.

O. M. Watson, jr., will be show manager and E. L. Angus, veteran of the local live stock show business, was re-named as general superintendent for the eighth consecutive year.

Judges have been tentatively selected but will not be announced until acceptances have been received. An auctioneer for the afternoon sale had not been confirmed as late as this midweek.

Floyd Co. 4-H Club Boy Wins Cotton Banner

Paul Schacht, a Floyd County club boy, won the first prize in the irrigated cotton contest sponsored by the Co-op Oil Mill, Lubbock, by yielding 456 pounds of lint on 52 acres, a yield of 8.75 per acre.

Cotton contest was open to club members in 22 South counties. It was based on the number of pounds of lint produced on five acres. John Schacht is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Schacht northeast of here.

Paul attributes his high yield of cotton to the fact that two crops of alfalfa were grown on and since 1938 and that the soil was not planted to cotton before.

Five acres were watered once and planted and twice after August 3 and August 10. The alfalfa and warm weather caused the after planting to be exactly as the plant them, he said.

Winning of this contest is a great honor to John Paul and the 4-H area of Floyd county.

Norman Brintz, another Floyd boy, placed 12th in 46 acres with 1618 pounds on 4.6 acres, 347 pounds per acre. Norman is son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. East of Floydada. Norman needed a little more water and Mrs. Brintz, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Conkey Agent Robert H. Lee and Lee Trice, one of the mill directors, attended a party at the Plains Co-op Oil Plant, February 8, where the boys were announced.

Views and Comment

Reports on poll tax payments by counties and cities in Texas indicate that the power at the polls in this state has now passed from the crossroads to the big cities. It may be anticipated with fair certainty that the state campaigns which once upon a time started when the candidate handed out his first cards at a crossroads town will now begin down on Main street in Big Town. However, the country folks can take consolation in the thought that though now the warmth of their wooing has cooled they have furnished the cousins and uncles that have swelled the population in Big City. For the most part these kinsmen are going to think and vote largely like they have been accustomed to doing. When Big Town does hit a country boy he is said to be the worst there is, but for the most part it is true that you can take a boy out of the country but you can't take the country out of a boy. And these once-time farmers, small-town artisans, builders and merchandisers will be thinking just like they thought aforesaid. So, after all, the vote solicitor this year is not likely to change his manner and method much. Only the location of his pitch will be changed.

Wheat over Floyd county this mid-February looks about as good as it possibly could, with no insects to bother, good root systems well set—and teeming with live stock. The appearance of plenty of green out in the fields was the signal for the appearance of plenty of cattle and sheep to cover the area. It is said that cattle have been moved into Floyd county in the past forty days by every means of locomotion except by plane. This may be an exaggeration but it does serve as emphasis on the fact that fields are carrying many cattle now. And speaking of grazing cattle, what is your idea of the one thing that has gone up most in Floyd county in 20 years? Would it be steak, pork chops, possibly lettuce, furniture, houses, plow tools or labor? Our guess is it is farm grazing. Remember how they used to "get rich" at 50 cents per head per acre in the lush years? This year the pretty well established rate is a cent a pound a month for calves, seven fifty for cows. What per cent is seven dollars and a half of fifty cents?

Speaking of things going up (and down) reminds us that the wackiest business to get into would be fresh vegetables. Prices jump or fall 100 to 300 per cent over a week-end almost as a matter of course. For instance, lettuce and tomatoes. Only weeks ago the food handler bought these and was careful not to offend the source of supply by asking the price. They're down some now, or were the other day, (maybe they're back up this morning) and lettuce and tomatoes are back in the refrigerators of some homes from which they had recently disappeared.

The wacky campaign for Eisenhower to get the Republican nomination, in which considerable Texans have joined, including numerous of the Big Town newspapers, is due to cool off and the other side begin to be heard soon. The general himself should "have everything in fine shape" in NATO quickly now and be back at home by the time grass greens up good. And then it will begin to become apparent, possibly not soon enough, that in the army it is who you know and not what you know that counts. The general has generated too long to be the type of man we need in the president's office. Why the Republicans hesitate to put up their best man, one who has never lost an election yet, is one of the things we do not comprehend. Mr. Taft has successfully slugged it out with his political foes time and again. Not for us to say, since we're on the other side, but we can at least wonder, and no harm done, why the opposition would want to put up a green hand when they've got a tried and proven one groomed and ready. Surely common sense will prevail when the shouting dies down.

It is a matter of concern that Southwestern Bell Telephone company and the city of Floydada cannot get together on common ground and work out something in the proposed rate change. Apparently each side to the argument has his own idea of what line the conversation should take. The telephone officials want to begin with $9 (plus tax) on business telephones, the council wants to talk about the understanding now three years old, with which they say the telephone should comply before starting a new series of talks on raising the rates. Both company and council have points that can be made, but the company, if it cannot comply with former promises needs to get them out of the way somehow. If it is not correct that there are unfilled promises out then the company needs to dispel this popular belief in the minds of officials and the public.

Homemakers will find that cooking with a pressure sauce pan saves time, work and insures the food value of the products prepared.

If family living during the coming year is to assure comfort and adequate food, clothing, and shelter, plans must be made to meet the shortages of materials and labor, as well as rising costs.

Seems like every time history repeats itself the price has gone up.

The Teacher Says:

What's that blue flash coming? Is it a bird; is it a plane; No! It's Swebston's hot-rod.
Now, Miss Anne Swebston is an English teacher, always neat in appearance and with a pleasant personality. Miss Swebston has been one of the senior sponsors for the past four years and has been very successful in this capacity.

All the students envy her knowledge of the lock combination to the file cabinet in 206.
The students of F. H. S. recognize Miss Swebston by her friendly smile and the following:
Quote: "Stop acting like freshman!! Just copy these sentences... on the board... Stop talking, Ray!! Pencil and paper... keep your eyes off your neighbors' paper!! Close your books!!... Which one of you broke these windows???"
Chewing gum is strictly outlawed, so girls away with the gum!! Hand over the pocket knives, boys!

Our Principal, Mr. Baker
"Where are you supposed to be?"
There easily recognized words introduce our Principal, Mr. Baker. As the word principal implies, he is your PAL if you're willing.
It seems that he or his wife has excellent taste in clothes for he always looks well-groomed with pastel shirts and hand-painted ties, etc.
In the office, the halls, the classroom, or on the campus you will hear him say: "What did you do this time?? Foot of the line boys!! (Lunchroom rushing).... Just don't let it happen again!! Bend over!!"
All we have to say about the situation is that so long as he leans back in his chair (DANGER: not too far) and smiles that friendly and handsome smile of his... He'll be O. K.

A NOTE OF CAUTION: Other teachers beware! We'll get you sooner or later!!

A KISS
I draw the line at kissing, said the sweet little girl with content.
But he was a football player And over the line he went!!

NANCY NUTTS
Dear Nancy,
The sausages you sent me were meat at one end and bread at the other. How do you explain that?
Indebtedly,
Beuna

Dear Beuna,
I know, but in these hard times it's impossible to make both ends meet.
Brilliantly,
Nancy

Dear Nancy,
What can you push on a wheelbarrow that I can't push?
Interested,
La Faun,

Dear La Faun,
YOU!
The "brain" Nancy

Dear Nancy,
Why didn't you advertise for your dog in the paper?
Questionally,
Kenneth B.

Dear Kenneth,
It wouldn't do any good. He can't read.
Sorryfully,
Nancy

Dear Nancy,
You have two pairs of glasses—

one for reading and one for distance. But why do you need a third pair?

Nosely, Jackie
Dear Jackie,
To look for the other two pair. Know-it-all, Nancy

Dear Nancy,
Why is a game of baseball like a buckwheat cake?
Anxiously,
Pat P.

Dear Pat,
Success depends on the batter. Sweetly,
Nancy

CANDID CAMERA

On October 29, 1934, the weary stork paused over the Clarence Ashton's home, and drew a deep breath. After squaring his round shoulders, he dropped a squawling bundle on the door step and in a relieved manner flew madly away.
The bundle turned out to be our personality for this week, Frances Ashton. Fran has brown hair and hazel eyes-which change shades depending on the colors she wears. With brown and gold they're brown and with other colors they're darker. Her favorite colors are red, green, and yellow. She likes any Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis release and likes the actress June Allyson very much.

Fran likes most all foods. Among her favorites are: Cherry pie a la mode, chocolate cake, porkchops, salads, Mexican food, hamburgers and sandwiches.

Fran's other likes are: Pretty clothes, especially sport and tailored ones, to run around with the "gangs," boys, pretty cars, slumber parties (parties in general) friendly people and Coach Watson.

Among her dislikes are: "smart alecs," to study, to see real dangly earrings worn to school, Nash cars, and Lockney.

Her favorite sports are: football basketball and baseball. She also likes to hear Jo Stafford and Bing Crosby sing, and any Johnny Ray song.

Fran's ambition is to be a secretary and have a very good looking boss.

Frances with your determination to make good we know you will make an excellent secretary. P. S. (We don't guarantee the boss!)

Have you seen a very good-looking guy, 5 ft. and 10 inches tall, brown curly hair, with brown eyes, weighing 158 pounds cruising down the halls of F. H. S. One of the football captains, this Romeo is non other than Keith Dennis Wilks (known by some as Reeves) (Re'vis) Dennis especially likes "That's My Boy," and his favorite actor and actress are Jerry Lewis and Elizabeth Taylor.

He prefers the colors green and yellow (but not together.) Dennis is extremely neat in appearance and always has on a pretty sport shirt.

According to him the best foods are: Steak, mashed potatoes, ice tea, hot buns, (loaded with butter) and strawberry shortcake with whipped cream.

Dennis likes include—horses, girls, football, all other sports, 88 "olds," friendly people, nice clothes, dancing, reading, and hearing popular and semi-classical music.

His dislikes are: Lockney, snooty people, and sweet potatoes.
For Dennis that "gal" would be 5 ft. and 1 inch tall, weigh 110 pounds, have a curvaceous figure, blond hair, blue eyes, nice personality, and would definitely like horses and ranching, for ranching is his present ambition.

Dennis with your dependability, and friendliness you will always make good in everything. Good luck to a wonderful guy.

I hope you have enjoyed our interviews with the Senior Class Favorites. See you next week with the Junior favorites.

GROVER to WAYNE celebrating an important event:
"What did the Governor of North Carolina say to the Governor of South Carolina?"
WAYNE: "I don't know."
GROVER: "Excellent notion. It is a long time between drinks."

DAVID: "Do you think it's right to punish folks for what they haven't done?"
MISS JONES: "Of course not!"
DAVID: "Well, I haven't done my homework."

BILLY C.: "What did the big fire-cracker say to the little firecracker?"
ADRAIN: "I don't know. What?"
BILLY C.: "My pop's bigger than you pop!"

COACH GRESHAM: "Why are you running a steam roller over that field?"
FARMER: "I'm trying to raise mashed potatoes."

Said the gentleman to DENNY —
"Sonny, how old are you?"
"Sixteen, Sir," came the answer.
"Then you go to school—natural-ly."
"Well, yes and no!"
"What do you mean yes and no?"
"I go to school—but not natural-ly."

State of Texas requires that many books be covered, but many students of F. H. S. have this task. Regular state inspectors come to check the books. Inspectors merely look at random and see how well the books are. Since the state supplies them you would otherwise have to care for these books. Finding a cover for that

No Excuse To Keep Bedbugs

COLLEGE STATION, January — It's no disgrace to have bedbugs it is a disgrace to keep them. Anytime is the time to make war on these unwelcome visitors says Bernice Clayton, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The common bedbug is reddish brown in color, about one-fifth of an inch long and when mashed has an order all its own. An infestation may begin by bringing the insects home in handbags, luggage and other articles, or it may crawl from one apartment to another or even from a nearby house. It feeds only at night. If you see small specks of blood on the sheets in the morning commence searching for the culprit at once.

The newer chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides have taken the place of old bedbug controls. The Extension entomologists recommend spraying the mattress and the bed with a five per cent DDT household spray. The cracks and the crevices of the woodwork of the room should be treated also.

DORCAS S.S. CLASS HAS SOCIAL MEETING AT CHURCH

On Wednesday, February 13, the Dorcas class of the First Baptist church held their monthly social meeting in the parlor of the church.

A covered dish lunch was had at the noon hour and the afternoon was spent in making a quilt for the orphan's home. Mrs. E. F. Stovall, assistant teacher, gave the invocation, with the president, Mrs. C. M. Meredith in charge of the meeting. Mrs. J. D. McBrien, teacher of the class was absent, due to illness.

Members present were Mesdames Harry Stanley, W. O. McNeeley, E. I. Durham, C. M. Meredith, E. L. Angus, and Mesdames R. C. Henry, E. J. Womack, D. G. Hatley, W. U. Riggle and Mrs. Stovall, and guests, Mrs. R. Earl Allein and daughter Norma.

WITHOUT A HEADLINE

Who, after all, is America's most important man? Isn't he the one who went to work this morning to earn a day's pay? His name may never be seen in the papers. He may not be known to more than a hundred people. But he produces a day's output, performs a day's service, and the tremendous total of America's standard of living chalks up another day of success.

Without a headline even without his name on a list on the inside page, he does what falls to him today. That's the most important matter in America. He and his kind are the most important people.

This is not very spectacular. A sort of reminder that not all the big news gets into the papers.

—From Along the American Way, By Wheeler McMillan, Pathfinder

TUNA IN LUNCH BOX

If Dad likes his tuna "right from the can," why not send one of the individual No. 3 cans along in his lunch box. A small jar of mayonnaise, a tomato cut in wedges, some crisp crackers or potato chips—all go well with the tuna. Don't forget a can opener and a fork!

PROBABLY WIDES TWAINS

A Sunday School class was composed of three-year-olds. The teacher asked the tots: "Do any of you remember who St. Matthew was?" No answer.

"Well, does anyone remember who St. Mark was?" Still no answer. "Surely, some of you must remember who Peter was?" The little faces were full of interest, but the room still remained quiet. Finally, a tiny voice came from the back of the room: "I tink he was a wabbit." —Santa Fe Magazine

Learn to Let Go

If you want to be healthy morally, mentally and physically, just let go. Let go of the little bothers of everyday life, the irritations and the petty vexations that cross your path daily. Don't take them up and nurse them, pet them, and brood over them. They are not worth while. Let them go.

That little hurt you got from a friend, perhaps it wasn't intended, perhaps it was, but never mind, let it go. Refuse to think about it.

Let go of that feeling of hatred you have for another, the jealousy, the envy, the malice, let go all such thoughts. Sweep them out of your mind, and you will be surprised what a cleaning and rejuvenating effect it will have upon you, both physically and mentally. Let them all go; you house them at deadly risk.

But the big troubles, the bitter disappointments, the deep wrongs and the heart-breaking sorrows, tragedies of life, what about them? Why, just let them go, too. Drop them softly maybe, but surely. Put away all regret and bitterness, and let sorrow be only a softening influence. Yes let them go, too, and make the most of the future.

Then that little pet ailment that you have been hanging on to and talked about, let it go. It will be a good riddance. You have treated it royally, but abandon it; let it go. Talk about health, instead and health will come. Quit nursing that pet ailment, and let go.

A refreshment plate was served to the following: Mesdames Duncan Hollums, Woodrow Wilson, J. N. Advertise for it, Hesperian.

The Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas, Thursday, February 14, 1933

It is not so hard after one gets used to the habit of—letting go of these things. You will find it such an easy way to get rid of things that may mar and embitter life that you will enjoy letting them go. You will find the world such a beautiful place. You will find it beautiful because you will be free to enjoy it—free in mind and body.

Learn to let go. As you value health of body and peace of mind, let go—just simply let go.

HISTORY OF THE MATADOR RANCH

Now on Sale $1.00 Per Copy

Based on the County Records and the actual experience and observation of two former Matador employees, Colquet Warren and John Warren, father and son.

Our employment was simultaneous, however, this is such a vast ranch that we seldom saw one another while we were working there.

John Warren was probably one of the youngest of the thousands of employees whose names have appeared on the Matador payroll during the past 71 years, as he was 12 years of age when he went to work.

After the end of our employment as ranch hands we have had the privilege during the past eight years of preparing many, many abstracts for the Matador Land & Cattle Company on their property in both Motley and Dickens Counties.

Practically all of the men mentioned in this History are men that we were personally acquainted with and worked with.

We think we have answered the following questions:

1. Who founded this ranch, when, where, how and why.
 2. Why this ranch was the the most successful and long lasting of
 3. Why this ranch was the most successful and long lasting of
- As to why it was finally disposed of, we venture a guess.

Power Steering, too!

It looks like a "POWER YEAR"
New Horsepower — new Brake Power — and new Power Steering blossom on Buick's ROADMASTER for 1952

MAYBE you've heard—horsepower has hit a new high on the ROADMASTER. Brake power has done the same. But today, we'd like to concentrate on the third member of the power trio — Buick's own version of Power Steering, available on ROADMASTERS at a moderate extra cost.

What is this Power Steering like? It's something like a helping hand, something like a "hydraulic slave"—that relieves you of all steering strain, but lets you keep command.

What we mean is this: Power Steering is handled by a special hydraulic unit—and engineers can design this unit to take over any amount of steering effort—even to a point where the wheel seems to float in your hand. But in that case, you'd surrender all control to that hydraulic unit—get no steering "feel" from the wheel.

Now suppose you're telling two agile tons of automobile what to do in traffic. We think you'd like to have it know that you're in command.

And—out on the straightaway—we believe that a part of the joy you get from owning a Buick is the sensation of having something alive and eagerly willing beneath your hands.

So we're glad to announce that Buick engineers didn't spoil this thrill. They've kept the fun of driving, and simply eased the effort.

When you're rolling along smooth and straight, it takes almost no effort to keep any Buick on course. It almost steers itself, as every Buick owner knows.

But—when you want to get away from a curb—back into a parking spot—make a turn—Buick's Power Steering comes into action, saves four-fifths of the effort required with ordinary steering. Power Steering does the extra work.

And—in case you wonder what happens if Power Steering gets out of kilter, the answer is nothing. Your Buick steers just as it always has.

That's why we've been saying, "This is Power Steering as it ought to be."

Come in. Try it out. We think you'll agree. Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

Accident Toll Heavy on Farm

COLLEGE STATION, January — Safe living should be the objective of every citizen. The frightful toll of human life taken annually by accidents can be reduced only when safe living is actually practiced by every one. Every day during 1952, funeral services may be held somewhere in Texas for a farm accident victim. The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee headed by J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, and E. C. Martin, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, strongly believe that Texans will do something about the situation.

The committee met in Waco to hear reports and to make additional plans for conducting educational programs that will carry the message of safe living to all Texans. Martin told the group that 15,500 farm people died last year in the United States as a result of accidents. The farm group, as shown by the 1950 census, makes up only 13.6 per cent of the nation's population.

yet more of them died from accidents than did the group working in other industries.

Right now, continued Martin, a great deal of attention is being given to solving the expected labor shortage in agriculture, while little is being done to prevent the accidents that last year caused a loss in man days sufficient to produce and harvest a goodly proportion of some of our major crops. Too little attention is given, he says, by most rural residents to making life safe on the farm.

In order to encourage more participation by individuals and groups, the committee is making plans now to recognize outstanding contributions to farm safety in the state. Agencies and organizations that work with rural people will be asked to expand their programs in safety and to nominate individuals and groups doing the most outstanding work in preventing accidents on the farm or in the home. Awards will be made annually at the State Safety Conference, and will be in the form of certificates citing the winners for their safety achievements.

Youth groups such as the 4-H Clubs, FFA and FHA Chapters are expected to contribute much to the program. Farm and ranch organizations including the home demonstration clubs are also expected to step up their activities in the safety field.

Young and old can do their part in reducing the number of accidents on the highways. Last year more than 35,000 lives were lost from such accidents in the United States. Chances are that several funerals were held during 1951 in your community for traffic accident victims and unless traffic safety rules and regulations are observed here after the next victim may be a member of your family or yourself.

Members of the State Farm and Ranch Safety Committee are convinced that a lot of mighty good teamwork is needed now to whip the problem and they urge every citizen to participate in meetings and demonstrations where safety is discussed. They believe that in this age of mechanization larger attention to safety will make rural living more pleasant and profitable.

Quail From India

MATADOR — Six and one half boxes of Chucker quail from India are on display in the Matador Hardware and Furniture company. They are the property of rancher U. L. Willie who will attempt to adapt them to the climate of West Texas.

The beautiful blue partridges are much larger than the native blue quail, and smaller than the prairie chicken. They are tame and appear as much interested as the people who stop to view them, reports the Matador Tribune.

Mr. Willie is reported to have paid $5.00 each for the 13 birds delivered.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Guthrie and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hagood left Monday for points in Florida and will go to Cuba before their return. They expect to be absent about three weeks.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)
The Mountain and The Squirrel
Ralph Waldo Emerson
The mountain and the squirrel
Had a quarrel,
And the former called the latter,
"Little prig."
Bun replied,
"You are doubtless very big;
But all sorts of things and weather,
Must be taken in together,
To make up a year
And a sphere.
And I think is no disgrace
To occupy my place.
If I'm not so large as you,
You are not so small as I,
And not half so spry,
I'll not deny you make
A very pretty squirrel track;
Talents differ; all is well and wisely put;
If I cannot carry forests on my back,
Neither can you crack a nut."

The above is copied for my friend, Mrs. W. H. Bethel, whom I love and admire very much. She says she gets a great lesson from it and so I am sure all will who read it for the hundredth time or even for the first.

The mild summer-like weather makes even the weather prophets scratch their heads and the old timer tries to recall just such another warm winter. It even has the children wondering as does Bill Potts, my fine young neighbor across the street, "Mother if it is summer, why can't we go in swimming, and if it is winter why is it not cold?"

And speaking of little boys. Just take a look in every pick-up you see, and in many you will find bright-eyed youngster, coming to town with his father or grandfather. I like to see them stand about as the grown-ups talk. They put their hands in their pockets and spit now and then as do the older men. They act so grown-up. Not so if with mother or grandmother. They set up a howl for the variety store or the cold drink counter. They rebel at the drygoods stores, but with the men at the hardware, the lumber yards and the implement companies, they do not give a bit of trouble. There they are men in a man's world.

The clouds squeezed out a few tears of regret as they passed swiftly over this Monday morning as if in sympathy but with no aid of moisture, they were "gone with the Wind." I think so many times of a jingle the children sang in early Eastern New Mexico days:

Oh, Mexico, sweet Mexico
As on the dugout roof I stand,
I look out across the plains
And wonder why it never rains
"Til Gabriel comes
And blows his horn
And says the rain
Has gone around."

In Ralls and Floydada you can hear the hitting of the hammers and the whining of the saws, you can smell the paint and the pine, you can see a new home going up to shelter some family and;

Home's not merely four square walls,
Though with pictures hung and gilded
Home is where affection calls,—
Filled with shrines the heart hath builded.

"I met a Californian who would Talk California—a state so blessed,
He said, in climate none had ever died there
A natural death."

Center News

(By Ms. J. E. Green)
CENTER, February 12. — More warm days with some clouds drifting around, and a few light scattered showers. If the sun had not shown all day February 2, ground hog day we'd be thinking spring is just around the corner.

We had an encouraging crowd at church Sunday at all services, and the usual inspiring messages.

Bro. and Mrs. Hodges and Jerry were Sunday dinner guests of the J. R. Robertson family.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Walls and son, T. W. Jr., arrived last Wednesday from Vera Cruz to visit in the home of her parents, the J. R. Robertsons. Mr. Walls left Sunday night for Dallas on business. We were glad to have them in church services Sunday.

Earl Robertson, James Flavin, and Clarence Taylor of Fort Riley, Kansas, were Sunday dinner guests in the Robertson home.

Mrs. Ada Ayers of Pampa is visiting this week in the J. D. Welborn home.

Guests in the Frank Dunn home for the week-end were Mr. Dunn's mother, Mrs. J. K. Dunn and a brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dunn, all of Alva, Oklahoma.

June Hartline spent the week-end with Mrs. Peggy Hinsley of South Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Green of Plainview visited the J. E. Greens Sunday afternoon.

Dub and Jimmy Hartline visited Jimmy Dunn Sunday after R. A.'s. The pie supper at the school house last Thursday night was fine. There were 50 people or more present. Lots of pies and a substantial sum was made to go to the repairs and expense fund.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jordan, long time Centerites, now of Floydada, attended the pie supper Thursday night.

Mrs. C. W. Denison has been sick with flu.

The club meeting at Mrs. Audie Noland's was attended by 12 women. The meeting was a delightful one. The meeting will be at Mrs. Jordans February 22.

Come to the party at the school-house Friday evening, February 15, and bring tables and dominoes.

And there is church every Sunday and Sunday night, R. A.'s and G. A.'s meet Sunday afternoon. All the boys and girls are invited to come for all services.

The Greens are attending Workers conference at Pansy today.

MRS. W. A. LOVELL HOSTESS FOR SUNNYSIDE H. D. CLUB

The Sunnyside Home Demonstration club met on February first with Mrs. W. A. Lovell, for a lesson on "Gardening."

Mrs. S. J. Latta told how to take samples for soil analysis.

Mrs. Fred Brown told of fruit varieties for Floyd county and said many things have to be done differently now than in early days, because of the many insects and fruit disease.

Mrs. Lovell talked on work in the flower garden.

Home nursing techniques were discussed by Mrs. C. W. Denison. In her talk, Mrs. Denison stressed the thought of using what was at hand, illustrating by saying a good bed jacket could be made by folding a towel.

A refreshment plate was served to the following members: Mesdames W. H. Hilton, C. W. Denison, D. W. Burke, Claude Price, S. J. Latta, R. Fred Brown, Charlie Probasco, Robert Day, W. A. Lovell, and a visitor, Mrs. Earl Baker.

Hereford Lads Best Floydada Hi Basketeers

The luckless Whirlwind cagers got the skids put under them again Tuesday night at Hereford where they were taken into by the High School Whitefaces 49 to 40. It was their final conference try against that team. In their first conference contest the "Winds bested the Hereford players with ease.

Chapman led the Whirlwind scoring with 13 points with Teague a close second at 12. Mathers and Graham for Hereford each had a slightly better record with 16 and 13 points respectively.

The Whirlwinds now have three losses chalked up against them in the conference competition, against one win.

The B string of the Whirlwind team also lost their try against the Hereford B boys, Hereford 39, Floydada 24.

Canyon Eagles Are Good

Despite the fact the Whirlwinds played a bang up good game the Canyon Eagles took the first conference tilt between the two teams with ease Friday night, as indicated by the score of 61 to 28. "If the Canyon boys play that kind of a game consistently the remainder of the season somebody is going to have to beat them out for state honors," said Coach Gresham Saturday. "My boys were playing a good game themselves."

Chapman, with eight points, and Ashton, with six, led the Whirlwinds in scoring. For Canyon Ratliff was credited with 15 points and Burrows 14.

The B squad also lost their game to the Eagles, score 49-25. Miller, and McDonald led the attack for the Canyon team, McPeak and Harrison for Floydada.

Eakin Says Dakota Bad Lands Scenic

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Eakin returned last week-end from the Black Hills country of South Dakota, singing the scenic praises of the area in the vicinity of Rapid City, and that pretty little city.

They spent five days in the area. Mr. Eakin said. He declares the Black Hills country has something new for every trip you make into the area. The mid-winter trip was without discomfort, he said. Either because it was new to them or different, it out-awed any of the scenic wonders they had seen in Colorado. Eighty head of buffalo grazing, bargains in ranch lands, prairie hay in great quantities, were among the things that raised interest in Eakin's opinion of the country, he said.

"The cold, of course, is what keeps the country from filling up and may be the reason for the ranch bargains," Rapid City is one of the prettiest little cities in the country, he declared.

Eakin operates an irrigated live stock farm near McCoy.

That's Telling Him!

An impoverished artist walked in to a cheap restaurant and was astonished to see a friend of his student days working there.

"Good heavens, man, what are you doing in a place like this? he asked.

"Oh, I just work here," replied the other, "but I don't eat here."

A Good Case

The judge looked at the man who was seeking a divorce. "You claim false pretense?" he asked. "Misrepresentation. Isn't that a rather curious reason to want a divorce? You will have to explain more fully."

"Oh, I can do that, Your Honor," said the man readily. "When I asked this woman to marry me she said she was agreeable. She wasn't! John A. Ferrall, Volta Review."

Trees are the most important and most permanent of all plants used in the landscaping. Even though they require the most room and crowd out more plants and shrubs, they more than pay for themselves in shade and beauty.

With good care, which includes watering and fertilizing, trees will grow and be a pleasure forever.
