

MILES PAVING REPORTED FOR CONTRACT TO BEGIN

Property owners in the biggest town in West Texas, critics declare, are preparing to take the record for putting ribbon paving and gutter work on their property. The school district, through the sponsorship of the county, and the city, has had a ribbon paving and gutter installation contract for the high school plant.

For cash at $1.25 per lineal foot would figure at $1.33 instead and curb, figured at $1.59 for cash, would cost $1.69 on the deferred payment plan.

Set Stakes September 1

For that portion of the curb and gutter commitments ready by September 1 the stakes will be set beginning on that date by the engineers, with curb and gutter work projects to be finished by the October 15 frost deadline.

Leases Signed In Northwest Floyd County

Aside from the fact that the Adams discovery well at Lakeview continues to pump on an around the clock schedule, most of the oil news of the week is in the talk stage.

This week leasing activity on a modest scale entered the northwest corner of the county, where there has been no leasing activity at any time except for a few leases taken two years ago. None of these leases had been recorded as late as Tuesday but they are reportedly being taken by Ernest Tibbetts, of Plainview. The reports do not indicate who Tibbetts is taking the leases for.

Since Monday the report has become current that the steel strike will be responsible for a delay of half a month in starting D. E. Vasser's test on Survey 26, A. B. & M., a quarter section belonging to L. L. Jones and Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, something more than a mile west and south of the Adams well. This report says that an extension of 14 days has been given the lessees on their time limit to begin this test. Originally the hole was to have been spudded in by September 2. Vasser is a Mississippi driller, said to head an independent oil concern with headquarters in New Orleans.

Leasing in Northeast Area
Considerable leasing activity has been noticeable in the northeast part of the county and the rumor continues current that a test somewhere in that area is due to be made when and if the current steel shortage is relieved.

So far as known locally there has been no change in the status of drilling outlook for the area immediately north of Floydada since the entrance of Placid Oil Company as a lessee in the territory. Placid took a lease in this month on the Sammann 200-acre tract immediately north of the Floydada airport, and also adjacent to the Stanolind Ella B. Starks lease. This latter lease is being carried along on a 90-day lease extension by Stanolind from an early July date.

Sinclair Biggest Holder
Since a very great percentage of the land in Floyd county is under lease and a large number of oil companies have holdings here, it is interesting to develop the fact that Sinclair is the biggest single holder of leases in the county. Sinclair has leases in practically all parts of the county. Four of their lease areas of considerable extent are located, one each north and south of Lockney, one south of Dougherty and one about the center of the county. However, there is practically no portion of the county in which they do not have some leases.

Phillips, Gulf and Humble are among the major oil companies which have relatively few acres leased in the county. Gulf has extensive lease holdings in Crosby county and Humble is the biggest lease holder in Motley county.

SMALL BLAZE TUESDAY
Floydada Fire department made a run at 8 o'clock Tuesday to the home of Bill Taylor on North Third St. Little damage, just paper burning behind the stove, reported Carl Rogers, fire chief.

Several hundreds acres of cotton in limited portions of Floydada, Starkey, McCoy and Allmon districts were damaged, some severely, by hail and wind that whipped up from the southwest Saturday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock in the wake of a vagrant rain that gave 48-hundredths of an inch of moisture in Floydada and up to two inches or more in the vicinity of McCoy.

Wind damage was not so severe but was more extensive than the hail. Wind whipped up to within a couple of miles of Floydada to damage a barn on Mrs. J. R. Terry's place, also to do damage on the T. J. Heard and the Glad Snodgrass farm operated by T. C. Whittle.

Most severe hail damage was around Starkey, Albert Jones, L. A. Sargent, Brant Tidwell, L. L. Ferguson, E'ford Parrish, Cecil Griggs, O. L. Lawrence, Jr., Rufus Kelley, B. P. Sanderfur, Jr. and W. F. Ferguson all had some loss, as did O. H. Day and J. C. Pierce.

Floydada Business Men Backing Recreational And Cultural Moves For Better and Happier Community

Recognizing that a happy, well balanced community life means a more prosperous community Floydada businessmen continue to back the cultural and recreation activities which local civic clubs and county organizations sponsors through the year.

On the current list is the Floyd County Free Library which will have a branch in Floydada. Local business men feel that the two-branch library will fill a need which the county has had since its founding and will give new opportunities in recreation and education to county residents. The library is also intended to supplement the County school libraries. There are a half dozen or more men on the library committee.

Swimming Pool Very Popular
The Floydada Municipal Swimming pool came from an idea born in the Floydada Lions club. Built by the City of Floydada after a bond election the pool has been used more and more each year and that use continues to grow. The pool furnishes recreation and exercise to countless youngsters and adults from Floydada, Floyd county and surrounding counties. As many as 150 to 200 youngsters have used the pool on special party nights during the summer. Many of these groups were from out of the county.

Community Art Show
In April of this year the Paint Brush Art Club, The Local Art Association, and The Floydada Chamber of Commerce sponsored the Caprock Community Art Show. The show was open to all amateur and professional artists of the Caprock area. There were 105 entries from four counties, and 600 area people saw the exhibit. In order to give area amateur artists an opportunity each year to show their work plans were made to make the Caprock Community Art Show an annual affair.

From Austin this week comes word that Floydada is in line to see one of the traveling art exhibits which the Texas Fine Arts Association sends through the State each year. The exhibit will contain from Twenty to Twenty-five original paintings by the best of the Texas artists who have exhibited their work through the Texas Fine Arts Association. This circuit art show will probably reach Floydada in the Spring but the date for the exhibit has not been set.

Summer Softball Games
The Floydada Junior Chamber of Commerce gave the community residents a chance for some spectator sports by sponsoring the summer softball games at Jaycee Park this year. Local merchants sponsored the teams which brought on spirited competition between teams and community. Currently scheduled at Jaycee park is a pee-wee softball tournament. Pee-wee teams are made up of young west Texas ball players fourteen years old and under.

In areas where no rain has fallen and where irrigation is not used the cotton is continuing to look good for the most part but for some crops are showing the effects of the lack of moisture.

Winter Concert Series

Two years ago a group of young Floyd county business men and women sparked the idea for a winter concert series in Floydada. That organization now covers the county and surrounding counties and is known as the Floydada Community Concerts Association. The local association has contracts with the National organization which has headquarters in New York. During the winter the Association gives its members an opportunity to hear and see at least three nationally known musicians in concert. Association members have found each concert a thrilling and satisfying experience with the added satisfaction of knowing that they did not have to drive hundreds of miles to enjoy music of the highest quality. 1952-53 will be the third season for the Floydada Community Concerts. Membership week has been set for October 27.

play an important part in the life of the community. The drama department of the Floydada High school is recognized with pride as one of the best in west Texas.

The Floydada Rotary Club, The American Legion, and other civic clubs and organizations whose members represent the business interest of the community recently awarded scholarships and other awards and prizes in education to deserving Floyd county students.

The business men and women have not overlooked the fact that when Floydada offers to its citizens the recreation and educational opportunities which every man seeks then Floydada is a happier community. That, in turn, gives a firmer foundation to the business community. Today they feel that there are even greater possibilities for the continued growth of Floydada and Floyd county.

STRIPED TAIL RATTLER!

Black and White Stripes Around Rattler's Tail Mean Good Rain?

Does a rattler snake with the last three inches of his tail alternately black and white have any special significance?

As to the kind of weather the country will have this fall and winter?

Whether it will be a rainy or dry fall?

Whether the snow will be deep and the ice thick in January?

Or of significance, perhaps, in this to be bitterly fought campaign?

Occasion for the question is the finding of such a rattler in the yard of the V. C. Rapps on the upper reaches of Blanco canyon near Sand Hill. Mrs. Rapp was hanging out clothes and nearly stepped on the poisonous reptile one day last week. The men folks chopped him in two. They saved the rattles—seven of them—because the first and largest one on the tail is deep black.

Rattles in this part of the world are diamond backs—all of them—except this one. The diamond pattern runs the full length of the body from the head to the tail. They are the kind that were planted here, presumably. None of the old-timers ever tell us of having seen another kind on the high plains.

So this one from the Rapp hacienda must be a new species for

ELECTION PARTY

It will be a short horse and we ought to hurry him quick Saturday night. The election party at The Hesperian office ought to be over and done by 10:30.

County Chairman Ayres expects to set up for business at The Hesperian office at about 7 o'clock to receive returns, and the newspapers of the county will join in helping assemble the figures as they are received from the 22 voting boxes and the "absentee box."

With permission of the city, and the neighbors the street will be roped off at The Hesperian office and unless it rains the figures of the board they'll begin to take form and meaning mighty soon after the election closes.

Forecast is for a light vote in the county, although the percentage is due to be bigger than in any of the neighboring counties in the district.

It is most likely that Floyd county Democrats will poll almost as many, if not as many votes in the second primary as they cast in the first.

Although this is not according to the usual manner of things and is said somewhat with tongue in cheek, the signs that usually tell the story of what the vote will be in advance, point to a vote above 3,000 possibly 3,500.

Among these signs are: The mounting sound and fury over the sheriff's contest Leland A. Hart and Earl Cooper, with supporters on both sides beating the drums and urging an all-out vote;

And the large number of absentee ballots cast. When the absentee voting period ended Tuesday night 150 absentees had cast their ballots and several are out and due to reach the county clerk before 1 o'clock Saturday through the mails.

General Interest Indicated
Margaret Collier said the absentees are fairly well-distributed all over the county, indicating a general interest. Principally those absentees are vacationers, some of whom have taken to the mountains to get away from the heat of the sun. The stay-at-homes are beginning to revel in the heat of the campaign.

Contrary arguments in the contest can be summarized as "we need a change" versus "keep a good man while you've got him."

Justice of the Peace Here
Only other race in the county is in justice precinct 1 and 4, in which O. B. Olson, incumbent, is challenged by P. O. (Pat) Sterling, who emerged as the two high men in the first primary.

Sterling has been incapacitated by illness during the entire period since the first race and some speculation has been going the rounds whether his illness and inability to do any campaigning will help or hurt his chances. Monday morning of this week Sterling had one of his legs amputated above the knee at West Texas hospital in Lubbock. A bad circulatory condition developed several weeks ago on the shin of this leg. Doctors have been advising the amputation for weeks. He had been suffering a great deal before the amputation.

His 75-year-old opponent, O. B. Olson, now in office has been a resident of the county for more than 40 years. He pioneered in business here, and is widely known.

Motley - Dickens Pioneers Meet August 28-29

MATADOR Final plans for the 29th annual reunion of the Old Settlers of Motley and Dickens counties were completed Saturday afternoon. A meeting of directors was held at the pavilion in Pioneer Park, at which time bids for concessions cold drinks and food were received.

Ward Rattan, chairman of the rodeo committee has announced an outstanding rodeo and saddle program for both days (and evenings) August 28-29. Bucking horses and other features of the rodeo added last year received unusual approval of fans in this area. Mr. Rattan and his associates have devoted time, money and experience in improving this year's program.

Two dances are scheduled each night of the reunion and old timers will be provided music for dancing during the afternoons, as has been the custom in previous years.

With the experience of previous years officials of the association are confronted with a minimum of detail in arranging programs. The spirit of the old settlers prevails in meeting and visiting old friends, many of whom returned here especially during the reunion to visit relatives. Almost since its inception the old settlers reunion has been the largest annual gathering in the county and it has grown consistently year by year.

POWER OF PUBLIC OPINION (A contributed editorial)

One of the principal reasons so little is done to improve the deplorable condition of America's highways is that the motorists of the nation are not fully acquainted with the facts.

The average motorist far too often tends to take for granted the highways on which he drives. He sometimes forgets that roads, like cars need care and maintenance, and he is generally unaware of the important role highways play in the national security.

At its recent meeting, the AAA highway committee, emphasized that one of the most effective ways of getting action on highways is through the mobilization of public opinion. In other words, tell America's motorists the facts about roads, and what should be done. Leave the rest to their innate common sense, and action should be forthcoming in short order.

Perhaps, what is needed is a good roads movement, 1952 Version.

The pattern of the manifestations of nature always follows a cycle which runs true to form, but the interpretation and forecast, of this pattern is often missed by people whose living depends on guessing right. As for instance, the insect infestation of the cotton and feed growing season to date. The aphids and the flea hoppers, against which cotton men had made up their minds to wage an all-out battle, so far have been remarkable by the extremely low population on the south plains. Few fields, indeed, which show any probability of needing to be poisoned against them. Only of late has any infestation that might have serious consequences come to notice. This is of boll worms. Some fields have been sprayed, some are to be sprayed. In contrast the warning from people with the best available evidence last fall and winter was to buy poison and make ready. A simple matter of the wrong kind of weather sometime between last November and this June put the insects out of business in a much better and less expensive way than the farmers had any hope.

Sample Ballot, complete with instructions is printed in this issue of The Hesperian. It is of a Floyd county ballot. Note that it goes into detail to tell you how to vote it. Many people in July had the election officials guessing what the voters' intentions were. They "mixed" their ballots for one thing. In some races they checked, some they marked out, some they left wide open. The law requires the election officials to count all ballots which are voted in such a manner that they can tell what the intent of the voter was. That is the part you have to attend to. The election judges are not mind readers. It is for you to read the instructions and then vote one way or the other. We suggest that when you get through the relatively simple business of voting next Saturday you take a second to look over what you have done. If you are in doubt why not ask the presiding judge? He is there to help you. What we mean in particular: vote in one style or the other and then take a second to look over your finished ballot and see if you have done what you intended to do.

Guesses we hear vary considerably on the probable vote Saturday in the second primary. Last week's arrow pointed to a probable two thousand to 2200 votes. This seems quite low to those who are whooping it up in the sheriff's contest. It is less than 50 per cent of the possible vote of the county. This week it has dawned on all hands that this is the last go-round. The bush-beating may add several hundred to the total number of votes cast.

Ideas

There was a saucer on the desk as Henry Ford spoke. He flipped it upside down.

"You know atmospheric pressure is hitting there," he said, "at 14 pounds per square inch. You can't see it and you can't feel it. Yet you know it's happening."

"It's that way with ideas. The air is full of them. They are knocking you on the head. Just suspend in your mind the thought of what it is you want. Go about your business, and suddenly the idea you want will come through. It was there all the time."

H. E. Cannaday has often said that a cow is a mighty good thing to have if she has a home, but a cow without a home is mighty poor property. He means, of course feed and water and range. The kind of times we have right now in the cattle industry rather well illustrates what Mr. Cannaday means.

Only four dangerously poisonous snakes are found in Texas. They are the rattlesnakes, copperheads, cottonmouth moccasins and the deadly little coral snakes. Learn to know them for someday your life may depend upon how quickly and accurately you can identify them.

We read the other day about the Democratic party: "it is made up of tenacious minorities" often "buffeted and betrayed by supposed friends!"

There's one nice thing about babies. They don't go around telling bright things their fathers and mothers have said.

Peaches are delicious when frozen if you select good well ripened ones.

Peel and slice only one quart of peaches at a time so that they will not become discolored. Place peeled, sliced peaches in a bowl and sprinkle over them one tablespoon of lemon juice. Add sugar in the proportion of one part of sugar to four parts peaches. Turn peaches over and over in bowl with wooden spoon. Handle very gently and be sure that sugar is thoroughly dissolved before peaches are packaged. Peaches may be packed in medium syrup if preferred.

Okra freezes nicely either for frying or stewing. When preparing be sure and steam but do not put into the boiling water.

Corn when prepared and frozen according to the recommendation put out by A. & M. College Extension Service tastes just like freshly gathered corn. Here is how they say to do it—

Cut kernels and scrape milk from cob. To 2 cups corn add 1/2 cup hot water. Boil 3 minutes stirring constantly. Chill over chipped ice. Pack and freeze immediately.

AN EFFICIENT PUBLIC OFFICIAL IS A VALUABLE PUBLIC INVESTMENT

Today, more than ever before, an efficient public official is a valuable investment. We can afford to pause that a new man may become acquainted with the job when an experienced, and proven man is waiting to fill it. This is not a time to indulge in extravagance of valuable and money to replace a proven efficient officer.

In considering Leland Hart as a candidate for re-election, we as citizens of the entire county, point to his record during the years he has served as sheriff. He investigates his cases carefully and thoroughly that facts, and facts alone, will determine decisions, thus protecting the innocent and insuring trial of the guilty. As an officer he has been fearless, vigorous and capable. He has proven himself fair and without prejudice.

Leland Hart's record proves that he has done the job well. He has conducted his duties with faithful, conscientious and efficient effort with the single goal of good law enforcement in Floyd County.

Leland Hart is a native West Texan, 30 years a resident of our county. He is one of us. From Floyd County he went to the service during World War II and served overseas, though he was a married man with a family. He is married to a Floyd County girl, and here they have reared a family of four children.

There is no question of Leland Hart's ability, his fairness or his sincerity. He is doing a good job and he is well-trained for it. We as voters and taxpayers believe he has earned the right to re-election. We urge your most sincere consideration. We ask that you consider the good record he has made in the office. We urge you to weigh his work and the results he has obtained.

Each taxpayer has a valuable investment in the training and experience of Leland Hart. investment will not be lost if you re-elect him to office.

ered, 66 per cent of the cancer patients in Dallas county were diagnosed while the disease was still localized. However, when skin cancers are excluded from the total, only half of the remaining cancers were diagnosed while still localized. The importance of early diagnosis in relation to survival is clearly shown by the survey, for 93 per cent of these patients survived one year or longer. When diagnosis was made after regional involvement, 73 per cent survived. Only 35 per cent survived, however, when the disease was discovered after remote metastasis had occurred.

Seventh in a series of ten surveys dealing with the nature and scope of the cancer problem in the United States, the Dallas survey was carried out with the cooperation of the Dallas Medical Society; the Dallas Hospital Council; and city, County and State health departments. Already published are the surveys dealing with the metropolitan areas of Atlanta, Chicago, Denver, New Orleans, Pittsburgh, and San Francisco. Future publications will cover Birmingham, Detroit, and Philadelphia. Comparative data are available, since all of the surveys followed studies made ten years previously. A summary report will be issued after publication of all ten surveys.

As in the previous surveys, the Dallas report notes a relationship between cancer and aging. Cancer occurs 100 times as frequently in persons over 65 as in children under 15. On the other hand, 10 per cent of all cancer patients in Dallas are under 35. Most common in these younger persons are the Leukemias and cancers of the brain and bone. For all ages, the most common cancer among men are skin, 34 per cent; digestive system, 18 per cent; genital organs, 11 per cent; and buccal cavity, 6 per cent. Among women, 25 per cent of all cancers occur in the genital organs, 19 per cent on the skin, and 17 per cent in the breast.

'Mom I'm Fine' Writes Seaman J. A. Johnson

(Below is a portion of a letter Mrs. Zela Johnson received Saturday from her son, James A. Johnson, who was on board the USS Boxer, air craft carrier when the fire aboard destroyed several planes on Wednesday, August 6. — Ed. Note.)

"On board the USS Boxer, at sea heading for port, August 9 — Well, I guess, I had better ease your mind on what happened. I guess you have heard over the radio by now, that we had a fire and a pretty good one at that, too.

"There were a few guys who didn't get out alive, nine to be exact, and a few others that were pretty badly banged up. But I am just as sound as a dollar.

"I was in hopes you would not hear about the fire, until I had a chance to write you, but I knew you would not mail anything until today. We are going into port tomorrow for a few repairs I guess. I guess we will come back out, but I don't know.

That will be decided when we get into port. It sure looks like we are messed up pretty bad, but you know how a fire leaves things, looking really worse than it is.

"We may be back in the States a little early, but I am not counting on it very much."

James goes on to say that he is not getting his mail, and his mother reported she did not receive letters from him regularly. He says, "Don't worry, Mom, I'm fine."

PAT STERLING SAYS--

Don't believe the rumor that is being circulated that I have withdrawn from the race for Justice of the Peace of Precincts 1 & 4. It is not true.

In the July primary, in which three of us were in the race, I was second with 698 votes. This puts me in the run-off primary with my opponent, Mr. Olson, who received 746 votes.

It has been my plan and aim to see each voter in the two precincts before the primary on the 23rd of this month. But due to an infected foot I am having to enter the hospital in Lubbock where I will be a patient until after the primary. For this reason I request that all my friends please remember that I tried to get around, and that I will deeply appreciate, more than I can tell, their vote and influence in my behalf on election day while I am in the hospital.

I promise that if you elect me I will faithfully and efficiently serve as your Justice of the Peace, and that I will dispose of every case that comes before me with equal justice to all and special privileges to none. There will be no cliques or clans who can dictate to me and I will be shackled by no one.

Respectfully,

"All my life I've wanted to own a Buick"

Power Steering now available on Super as well as Roadmaster—optional at extra cost.

It seems that owning a Buick is something that a lot of folks dream about — plan for — and finally do.

We say that because, so many times, they say so in words like those above.

Those words make us happy, of course — happy to know we sell a car which means so much to those who own it.

But they make us feel just a little bit sad as well — sad to realize all the years of fun such folks have been missing for no good reason at all.

For the fact is this: If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

You can afford the thrill of bossing around that big Fireball 8 Engine that purrs forth a mighty flow of power.

You can afford the gas bills — as any owner of a 1952 Buick will tell you — because that high-compression, valve-in-head marvel gets a lot of miles from a gallon of fuel.

You can afford the extra luxury of a real million dollar ride — the silky smoothness of Dynaflo Drive* — the extra room and comfort and style that have put Buick popularity right up at the top of the list, next to the "low-priced three."

So if you want to own a Buick — there's just one thing to do:

Come in — pick the one of your choice — and let us show you how close the figure that goes on the bill of sale comes to what you'd pay elsewhere.

As we've said before, your first car can be a Buick. Why not take the Big Step right away — today?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Plains' Statement Points Out Losses in Wheat Crop Insurance

Material changes this year in wheat crop insurance have been pointed out by the Plains' statement. The statement, issued this week, says that the loss of wheat crops is estimated at $13.07 per acre. It also points out that the loss of wheat crops is estimated at $13.07 per acre. It also points out that the loss of wheat crops is estimated at $13.07 per acre.

When a farmer signs an application it is not necessary to know how many acres of wheat he will plant. He reports the acreage and his interest therein during December of this year. His interest in all of the acreage in which he shares will be insured except that on sorghum land that is not irrigated. The landlord or tenant cannot insure for the other person. Each person who desires insurance on his own interest must make his own application.

Approximately 145 4-H boys and girls and their parents attended the annual camp of the 4-Hs at the Plains Baptist assembly grounds in Blanco canyon Tuesday afternoon and night, returning home about 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Summer Coolers for 5 or 25

Are you a one-woman "refreshment committee" who likes to bring out a big pitcher of something cool when family or friends are gathered? Or, are you a member of a bigger refreshment committee for your club or church group, or possibly having a wedding reception for 25 or more, when a refreshing drink with a distinctive flair seems to be called for? In either case, you'll welcome these ideas...

Spiced Tea-Cooler for 5 with "Lemon-ated" Sugar
Pour 5 cups boiling water over 7 tea-spoons black tea and 5 whole cloves. Cover and steep 5 minutes only. Strain tea into pitcher filled with ice cubes and chill. When ready to use, stir in chilled orange juice. Serve in 5 tall, chilled, sugar-rimmed glasses — so easily done by dipping glasses into shallow saucer of water, then into C and H granulated sugar. Garnish glass with straw sippers strung with whole maraschino cherries, chunks of pineapple, thin slices of orange, with more cherries on top to hold all in place. Pass "lemon-ated" sugar and mint sprigs for each to sweeten and garnish his own drink.

Lemon-ated Sugar
Simply mix 1 cup C and H granulated sugar and the grated rind of 1 or 2 lemons (according to your own taste), just before using for the most tantalizing fragrance and full flavor. Garnish serving bowl with thin curls of lemon peel and surround base with fresh sprigs of mint.

Mock Pink Champagne for 25
2 cups C and H granulated sugar
2 cups hot water
2 cups grapefruit juice
1 cup orange juice
1 quart ginger ale
1/2 cup grenadine syrup
Boil sugar and water together in uncovered pan for 5 minutes. Cool. In large bowl, place chilled, strained fruit juices. Add cooled sugar water

Fruited Brown Sugar Nut Loaf
1/2 cup C and H brown sugar
2 tablespoons soft shortening
2 mashed ripe bananas
3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 slightly beaten egg
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup chopped nut meats
Cream together the sugar and shortening until light. Measure and sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder and salt. Alternately add sifted flour with egg mixed with milk. Stir in bananas and nuts and mix well. Pour in 9x5x3 loaf pan. Fill only 3/4 full. Bake in moderate oven 350° about 1 hour, or until done when tested with long broom straw. Or, if you prefer, you can bake in three No. 2 cans that have been lined with heavily greased wax paper extending one inch above can for about 45 minutes, or until done when tested. Note: For best flavor and easy cutting, use bread day after baking.

Women are naturals for public relations. They do it without even knowing what they're about.

Public relations, to most of us, is just a term. We know that high-powered executives have public relations counsel; that some business employ a good-sized staff with no other duties than to build good will a little inclined to poke fun at these for the firm. But by and large, we're "goodwill boys", as we call them.

Punny thing, though. Practically every woman we know is doing public relations for somebody — herself, her husband, her husband, her children or her friends. If she has a reputation for being cold and unfriendly, she'll say to a group, "Jack seems me about being high-hat, but I tell him I have to hold my head high to see through his-focals." If her husband is anti-social, she never admits he doesn't like people. Instead, she says, "Doctor loves to work in his garden after office hours."

If her son is a timid introvert, she explains that "Tommy helps all the kids in the neighborhood with their kites and model airplanes."

One of the highest types of public relations ambassador is the woman who tries to quell gossip about a friend. She knows what "people are saying", she knows her friend is helpless to combat it. So she goes about quietly smoothing out the wrinkles of falsehood in little stories about Mary's activities.

The psychology used by these homespun public relations experts is really quite simple: It's called putting the best foot foremost. Women are like weather vanes, not blown by the wind, but swaying with the times, to keep their loved ones in adjustment with society.

Jones-Hassinger Wedding Rites

Miss LaVerne Hassinger, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hassinger of Boise City, became the bride of William Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tate Jones of Floydada, Texas, in a lovely ceremony Sunday afternoon, August 3, in the West Texas State College Chapel at Canyon. The Rev. Herschel Thurston, Methodist pastor of Canyon, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar centered with a large gold cross and flanked on either side with gold vases of pink gladioli. Large floor standards of pink gladioli were used on either side of the altar.

Cathedral candelabra were lighted by Miss Gladys Roberts of Floydada and Neal Hassinger of the United States Navy. Miss Roberts wore a ballerina length dress of white organdy and a corsage of pink carnations. Hassinger wore his dress whites. Preceding the ceremony, "Always," "Traumerl" and "Indian Love Call" were played by the organist, H. R. Fulton, Jr. of Canyon, and Miss Shirley Lee of Shamrock sang "Till the End of Time." During the ceremony while the young couple knelt at the altar, N. E. Tyler of Herford, Texas, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Ballerina Length Gown
For her wedding the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a white ballerina length wedding gown, fashioned with a bodice of Chantilly lace over satin, which buttoned down the back. The long lace sleeves came to a point over the hands and were fastened with tiny buttons. Over the heavy satin skirt hung nylon tulle net on which were several brocaded roses. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a small white lace hat with seed pearls and she wore white satin shoes.

She carried a small white prayer book centered with a white cattail orchid and garlands of pale blue stephanotis surrounded by white lace and white satin streamers with love knots.

For "something old," she carried a handkerchief which had belonged to her great-grandmother, and wore her silver baby locket. "Something new" was a pair of diamond earrings, a gift to her from the bridegroom. For "something borrowed" she wore a penny borrowed from her brother, in her shoe, and "something blue" was a blue lace garter.

Sister Is Matron of Honor
Mrs. J. F. Goodnight of Springfield, Colo., sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and wore an orchid ballerina length dress of organdy over taffeta, with matching shoes, mitts and headband. Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Crabtree of Boise City, who wore a blue organdy ballerina dress; Miss Velma Seale of Lockney, Texas, who wore a yellow organdy gown; and Miss Reba Robinson of Plainview, Texas, who wore pink organdy. The bridesmaids' dresses were patterned like that of the matron-of-honor. Each attendant wore matching accessories and carried pastel lace fans with clusters of satin ribbon tied with love knots. Travis Jones served his brother as best man. Both wore dark blue suits with white carnation boutonnières. Ushers were Loy Lee Trice, Dan Haggood and Aubrey Guthrie, all of Floydada.

Mrs. Hassinger, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue street length dress with navy and pink accessories and a corsage of deep pink rosebuds. Mrs. Jones, the bridegroom's mother, wore a brown street-length dress with brown and white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Cousin Is Ring Bearer
Larry Don Otten of Clovis, N. M., cousin of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer and carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow trimmed with lace and tiny pink roses. The pillow was made by Mrs. Ralph Hipp of Boise City.

Linda Joseph of Alva, Oklahoma, cousin of the bride, and Olivia Ann Campbell of Dougherty, Tex., friend of the bridegroom, were flower girls and wore green organdy dresses.

with matching baskets of petals.

Reception At Cousins Hall
After the ceremony a reception was held in the lounge of Cousins Hall, where the bride lived last year while a student at West Texas State College.

Miss Nan Buchanan of Floydada was in charge of the guest book and Miss Gerene Baker of Boise City played background music during the reception.

A three-tiered wedding cake decorated in white and pastel roses and tiny silver balls, and topped with a wedding bell in an archway of orange blossom sprigs, centered the lace-covered table. Misses Carol Phillips and Jessie Johnson of Plainview, Tex., presided at the table.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Red River, N. M. For traveling, the bride wore a grey faille suit with white accessories.

They will make their home in Canyon, where both are students at WTSC.

Shower For Anne Self by Close Friends

Miss Lorraine Fisher was hostess to a group of friends at her home honoring Miss Anne Self, bride-elect of Raymon Hackett of Plainview, last Thursday evening.

The girls later held a slumber party. Those present were Misses Fern Patterson, Jean Porter, June

Payne, Beth Walker, Norma Bell and Carolyn McDonald, and the honor guest and the hostess.

It's Time For A Change In The Sheriff's Office!

We believe that it's time for a change in the Sheriff's office in Floyd County. We believe that a change at this time will be to the interest of all citizens of the county who want the laws enforced fairly and impartially.

DON'T BE FOOLED!

Don't be fooled by all the talk of a clean county. Simply because no arrests are made doesn't mean that there is no reason for arrests. Most of us know that gambling and drinking is going on in public places and that bootleggers are operating in this county and that all these are increasing each week. It is no indication of a clean county because very few arrests are made.

DON'T BE FOOLED!

Don't be fooled by rumors being spread concerning Earl Cooper, candidate for sheriff. There is no truth to the rumor that Mr. Cooper has already made an agreement to hire a deputy. He has made no commitments to anyone. There is no truth to the malicious rumor that Mr. Cooper "might lose his head and hurt someone." Mr. Cooper made 17 arrests one month last fall during the cotton harvest season without one time using or threatening to use any weapon of any kind. In fact in all his 5½ years of service as a peace officer he never drew a gun on anyone.

DON'T BE FOOLED BY LAST-MINUTE RUMORS. For fair and impartial law enforcement, vote for America Is Everybody's Business

(This is the $1,000 prize winning essay in the High school essay contest of 1951-52 sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Written by a 17-year-old, Thalia Hergenroeder, of Ravenna, Ohio, it was announced as of August 7. — Ed. note.)

The old man seated himself at the study desk and thoughtfully dipped his long quill pen into the ornate inkwell. After taking a piece of paper from the drawer, he began to write. Slowly and meticulously he formed the intricate letters, weighing each word with care. This letter must be a sensitive balance of exhortation, zeal, conservatism, and common sense. It must appeal to all classes, all factions of a disunited, sharply discordant people.

The old man was Samuel Adams. On that bleak Boston day in 1772 he began a letter that was to shape the destiny of the world. His words were to be echoed a thousand times in the homes of wealthy merchants and poor farmers. They were to be debated in churches and town meetings and finally, shot out at Lexington and Concord.

Samuel Adams stood before the Boston town meeting and proposed his famous Committees of Correspondence. Smiting action to words, he wrote the letter that incited the colonies against British tyranny. Oh, it didn't happen over night, for the Americans are a people slow to anger. But once their wrath was aroused, the colonists "plugged away" at a war that seemed impossible to win. Yet victory was theirs!

Freedom His Dream
Freedom — that was Samuel Adams' dream. In 1772 that dream was fresh and new. In 1952 have the colors of that dream become faded and tarnished by time? No, the prospect of freedom is just as thrilling, just as worth fighting for as it ever was. Ask the downtrodden, the oppressed of the world. They'll tell you the value of freedom.

Actually, it doesn't take much concentration to decide the worth of America's ideas. The dream of liberty was implanted in the hearts of the people. They rose up, and freedom was theirs. Courage and hard work have preserved that freedom through the years.

Time and time again, on the beachheads and the hillsides of the world, young Americans have died for it. Voters stream to the polls year after year expressing it. Judges preside over jury trials weighing it. Freedom through democracy — the hope of the world.

False Security Ever Present
But have I been painting too rosy a picture, or conveying the idea that everything is perfect here? Condemn me, if I have, for false security is an everpresent evil which we must guard against. There are forces that would destroy what we have built here. Ideologies of jealousy and greed reach out from all directions. The citizens of America must keep this nation strong — a bulwark which can hold back the burrowing evils without and crush the burrowing enemies within.

Therein lies the challenge of America. A duty not just to be fulfilled by the other guy or just by you and me. You see, this challenge must be by everyone if we are to preserve forever what is ours today.

Merely asserting that everyone must help is not enough. Mapping out a plan of action is a forward step, but that too falls short of our goal. Our aim is to preserve democracy and freedom. We will succeed only when every American understands not only his democratic privileges, but also his democratic responsibilities. Understanding is the first step; then comes fulfillment. And with fulfillment comes the realization of our dream.

Individuals In the Pattern
Let us then begin our chart; begin to show each grouping individual how he fits into the scheme of things — this pattern of democracy.

You, there, Mrs. Housewife, did you cast that hard won ballot? Say, Mister, did you know the news page is printed in English too, just like the funnies and the sports section? Why did you falsify your tax returns? Why did you refuse jury duty that time? Young man, why are you faking illness to avoid the draft? Why did you decline to serve on the Council when they asked you?

Each of you shrugs your shoulders and turns away. Do you know your indifference can destroy us if you permit it to?

But these must not be permitted to destroy us! We must convince Mrs. Housewife of her duty to vote. It is the ballot of every citizen that gives us our voice in government.

Duty of Everybody
We must convince the farmer, the businessman, the school boy, that it is their duty to keep well-informed. If they keep a wary eye on the world and particularly on their own little corner of it, no one is going to "pull a shady deal" behind their backs. There can be no undermining of democracy from within.

Again, we have to convince every individual that no matter how small or insignificant he may feel, his words have meaning to someone. His ideas will be heard, weighed, and quite likely, believed by at least a few of his fellow men. His power must be shown him and knowledge given him, so that he may use that power to build America up, not tear her down.

We must point out the importance of paying taxes to support the working laborer that it is his privilege to take time from a harrying schedule to accept his jury duty. Someday he too may appreciate that right to a free trial.

Politics is often scoffed at and said to be "dirty and crooked." All right then, show the masses it is time for them to do more than gripe. Let them run their government the way it should be run!

Finally, we must show our young people that if the need arises, they must go out to the far flung battlefields of the world and fight for our dream.

You can see we have quite a selling job before us, but do not be discouraged. Samuel Adams knew only hope that bleak November afternoon as he began the first of his letters for freedom. His task was perhaps more hopeless than ours, yet he kindled the flame that snatched freedom from tyranny. With similar determination and purpose, we can preserve that freedom unto all generations.

NURSES RESPOND TO RED CROSS APPEAL TO SERVE IN CRITICAL POLIO AREAS

ST. LOUIS, MO.—Answering the Red Cross' urgent appeal for 100 graduate nurses for immediate assignment as polio soared to 2290 new cases last week, nurses Helen and Catherine Lukachick, sisters of Farmington, Mo., receive their plane tickets from Miss Adelle Brielmaler, (right), St. Louis Chapter nursing official, as they leave for Orange, Tex. They picked the polio ward there from six possible assignments when they learned one doctor and a nurse, the sole trained medical help, have been splitting 24 hour daily shifts to care for patients. The father of one iron lung patient comes in daily to relieve them so they can eat. "Let me have that tough one," Helen decided, and her younger sister Catherine agreed. All available registered nurses who can be spared are being asked to contact their local Red Cross chapters for assignment to critical polio areas.

"Swine cannot be shipped interstate unless properly vaccinated for hog cholera. Most states require that dogs come from a rabies-free area, or undergo vaccination for rabies before they can be transported interstate.

"Protecting our animal population from foreign diseases this country has 'port of entry' stations where veterinarians examine all animal newcomers to make sure they aren't disease carriers.

Because animal passports are so vital in helping prevent the spread of animal diseases, Foundation authorities suggested that before owners ship animals interstate, they make sure proper health certificates are made out and certified. A few minutes spent in getting such credentials may save needless expense and weeks of bother, they added.

Boyce House Says I Give You Texas

Memories of old-time fiddling are stirred by this article which appeared in the Frost Enterprise back in 1942 when Mike Campbell was editor:

When we were a lad of a boy, a fiddler taught us to "Second" on a mandolin and many an evening we sat on Jim's front porch and played with him. He was a tenant farmer but he made more money playing for square dances than he did farming. We slipped away from home several times and went with Jim over to the fork of the creek to play for dances. He would place his chair in the corner of the room, (he exclaimed it was the safest place, "in case of any shootin'") unbutton his shirt, resin his bow, and was ready. Jim apparently was tireless, for he could play all night. Of course, his specialty was breakdowns, but included in his repertoire were waltzes for "Round" dancing.

As the dance got into full swing,

NEW POWER AND ECONOMY WITH MM MODEL U AND LP GAS

Farm Leases Need Revision

COLLEGE STATION — Tenant operations are still an important part of Texas agriculture. Some 33 per cent of all Texas farms are operated by tenants. Like most other farming practices, says C. H. Bates, farm management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension service many leasing arrangements are out-of-date.

He points out that lease arrangements set up for cash-crop systems of farming do not fit the situations brought about by the shifts to livestock production. Therefore, new rental agreements are needed between the tenants and the landlords that clearly define the part each is to play in this livestock-crop system of farming.

During the past several years management specialists from the southern states, cooperating with those from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, have been studying the existing rental arrangements have found that both tenants and landlords improved their lot when leases are used that really cover present day farming and livestock production. The use of up-to-date leasing arrangements meant more income to both tenants and landowners as well as better soil maintenance and improvement programs.

The latest findings of the cooperating economists are reported in the publication "Rental Arrangements for Progressive Farming" which is available at your local county agent's office. Other material on the subject of rental agreements, prepared by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service, are also available.

Bates says the specialists, through studies and actual experience, "have come to the conclusion that a good rental agreement should always be written. It should cover more than a single year or contain an automatic renewal clause. It should specify how the expenses, upkeep and labor as well as income are to be shared. It should encourage the tenant to produce livestock as well as crops for permanent improvements on the land and in the home.

Bates believes the use of rental agreement containing the above items will improve landlord-tenant relations and add stability to the agricultural economy in the areas where farms are operated by tenants.

Restoration Gives Historic Mansion New Lease on Life
When a home or a mansion is to be rescued from the onslaughts of time, paint is always one of the first protective forces to be called into action. Consequently, the plans for refinishing weatherworn surfaces of the famous structure at the corner of Bank and Freeman streets in Norfolk, Virginia, include careful attention to exterior and interior coatings. The sturdy, beautiful construction of the 17-room mansion bears mute witness to the wisdom of its builder, Moses Myers, prominent Norfolk ship owner and merchant in 1780. The plans for its current rejuvenation testify to the sagacity of the Norfolk Museum of Arts and Sciences, under whose auspices the house is being restored. Rescued by the public-spirited citizens of Norfolk, who financed its purchase, it has been turned over to the city and will serve as a treasured museum, reflecting a colorful era of the city's past.

All of the interior surfaces of the house have been recently repainted. Every effort has been made to match the original color schemes, applied in 1791. To do this, careful scrapings of old paint coatings have been made so that the paint applied has the same color as the original. The restoration of the interior is being finished in 4-inch oak paneling. The refinishing work will furnish it with many pieces of furniture which reveal elegance. There is a set of mahogany chairs and a set of chairs from China and was made years in the accounting shipping firm's office are graceful Marie Antoinette French Empire style white sofa and a set of chairs. Valuable portraits of the Myers family, Thomas Sully and others are being kept in New York restoration is completed.

GMC engineering brings you this great new Model 470 highway tractor that hauls up to 1,195 pounds more cargo than any other vehicle in the 45,000 gross weight class.

Here are the reasons why. It will pay you to study them carefully.

Sensational new engine. Model 470 is powered by GMC's new 145 h. p. valve-in-head "302" engine — the most powerful gasoline engine for its weight in truck history.

Maximum power-to-weight ratio. The "302" engine weighs as much as 500 pounds less than other engines of comparable power, due to new high efficiency design.

Highest Compression — 7.2 to 1 — exceeds any other standard gasoline truck engine, accelerates faster. Delivers full power at an easy-stroking 3,200 r. p. m.

More ton-miles per gallon — less dead weight in engine and chassis means more profit in every mile.

Highest payload capacity — upwards of one-half ton greater than any other tractor of the same GCW rating.

Price — the biggest surprise of all. Compare the price you have to pay for this pace-setting GMC against the field. Nowhere else will so little buy so much in a 3- to 4 1/2-ton tractor.

Possibilities in Use of Cover Crops in Hailed Areas Related

(by L. D. Barte, Conservationist)
If you are one of the unfortunate individuals the hail hit last Saturday, we would like for you to consider this way to help compensate for your loss.

It is pretty well a proved experience by farmers who have used cover crops that they will increase yield on most crops from 1/3 to 1/2 the normal production of a piece of land.

In discussing this possibility with Mr. Sams, a conservation farmer of the Lockney area, he stated that although vetch would not give you the increase in yield, which is received in following alfalfa, it definitely is a booster of yields.

In 1948 Arlon Miller, a cooperator and a good conservation farmer had hegar on land following hegar and on land following one year of vetch. The results were: Hegar after Hegar — 2000 pounds per acre. Hegar after Vetch — 3500 pounds per acre. There are many other farmers who have had similar experiences with cover crops.

Some of the things which are accomplished by the use of cover crops are that they cut down on wind and water losses of soil, add organic matter which helps in keeping soil from forming a plow sole and when this organic matter decays this increases the fertility of the soil. As a result of these things, there is an increased production in cotton and grain sorghums which follow.

Mr. Sams also pointed out that vetch is a very good grazing crop in the fall and early spring.

Haynes Scouts Rate High At Council Swim

Boy Scouts of Floydada, Lockney, and Matador represented Haynes district in the Council Swim meet at MacKenzie Park pool, Lubbock, Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m.

Troop 64 of Floydada had the following members competing: Don Norman, Robert Stovall, Dale Redd, Frank Potts, Weldon Bailey, Rex Jones, and George Chapman. Jerry Chapman of Troop 57, Floydada, also entered several events. These boys had previously won first place at the district meet at Roaring Springs which qualified them to enter the South Plains Council contest.

Other districts in the competition were Plainsman District, Texas District, Yellowhouse District, and MacKenzie Trail District and Central Plains District.

The Floydada group had more representatives in the Haynes District by having won the most first places in the district contest.
The Haynes district won second place having disheartening luck. Don Norman and Robert Stovall won three individual contests but both boys were disqualified. Central Plains district took the first place honors with a score of 101 points. Haynes had 95 points and Yellowhouse district won third, scoring 73 points.

The troop made a good showing by winning the intermediate free style relay and second in the intermediate medley relay. The relay team consisted of Frank Potts, Robert Stovall, Weldon Bailey, and Dale Redd. Don Norman tied for first place in two contests as did Robert Stovall. George Chapman won first place in the Explorers swim dive.
"The boys did a very good job and represented Floydada in a very good manner," Jack Kassahn reported.

Season Tickets Still Available

If you forgot Wednesday morning and didn't get in line for your season high school football tickets you still are not out of luck, despite the fact that nearly 400 tickets were sold. Coach Preston Watson and Principal A. E. Baker of the High school conducted the Wednesday morning sale at the county court room. They did a rushing business. Baker said yesterday afternoon that there are some good seats left — on the 32 to 40-yard line — in Section A. You can get them from Mrs. Leibfried at the school secretary's office. The cost is $2.50 for the reserved seat.
General admission charge for football games will be uniformly $1 for adults all over the district.

Petersburg Soldier Sees Scenic Beauty of the Alpine Mts.

STUTTGART, Germany — Army PFC Travis H. Groham, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Groham, Petersburg, Texas, had the opportunity recently to view some of the scenic points of the Alpine area in southern Germany.

During the trip Groham met Princess Carola, daughter of the late Duke of Urach-Wuerttemberg, who escorted him and his friends through her medieval castle. The tour also included a visit to the university city of Tuebingen and a stop at Bear cave where the group saw relics of the Ice age some 25,000 years ago.

Groham entered the army in September 1951.

He is a member of the adjutant general section of Seventh army headquarters at Stuttgart.

The occasion was a tour sponsored by a local German-American group to bring the U. S. soldiers closer to the German people who live around them.

Packing Fatty Beef Around?

AUSTIN. — Are you packing too much fatty beef for the size of your frame? If so, you're probably one of the 100,000 or so Texans contributing to what State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox calls a "significant public health problem."

The number of obese (dangerously overweight) people in the state is growing, the doctor says, and they are laying themselves wide open to trouble.

For instance, if you are carrying too much fatty tissue you're twice as apt to get diabetes, and three times as likely to have heart trouble. Furthermore, if you get arthritis it will hurt you a good deal more because of your obese condition.

Many other conditions are made worse by a person's being too fat.

"Obesity is just as serious a form of malnutrition as starvation in the long run," the health officer will tell you the plain and simple reason is that usually the fat ones eat more than their systems need or want.

"Obesity is exactly the opposite of starvation. Overweight people eat too much. Emaciated people don't get enough. Both types are malnourished."

But why do they eat too much? There may be many causes. The glands may not be working just right. They may be having emotional trouble.

"Dietary habits perhaps established in childhood. Part of the reason might be that an overly full stomach gives them a sense of emotional relief. They might be trying to satisfy an emotional hunger as well as a physical one."

The best way to fight obesity is to cut down the caloric intake, he says. But to do this you've got to have a real desire to have normal weight.

"This means," he explains, "the underlying emotional factors which created the obesity must be corrected by a greater urge, such as avoiding an early death."

When you get this desire you'll be willing to have your doctor prescribe a reducing diet and medicine and you will follow his advice.

"If you don't," Dr. Cox cautioned, "you'll probably find an early grave."

Fat people should get a good physical examination by their doctor before they start on a rigid reducing diet.

CONCENTRATION CAMP IS ONLY BAD RECOLLECTION

Mrs. Ann Januta, new lab technician at the Plainview Hospital & Clinic Foundation, might have been born in Hale Center or Halfway. She's a farmer's daughter and looks just about like a girl born on the Plains. But Ann happens to have been born in Poland. Her life, therefore, has been a little different.

In 1943 the Germans came to Rowono, Poland, and took Ann away from her family. Then aged 15, Ann was put in a concentration camp with her fate very uncertain. But being a healthy girl, she was transferred to a labor camp and put to work doing manual labor on the railroad. Children from 13 years up worked together, males and females mixed, doing back-breaking work under the supervision of sadistic guards.

But in 1945, the Americans liberated the camp that Ann was in. She remained in the camp, having no other place to go. Return to her native Poland was impossible as the Russians had by now taken over.

Now Ann finished high school in camp, where schools and hospitals were opened. Also at the camp, which was located at Ingotstadt, Germany, a Polish University, the S. Konarski College, was opened. Here she trained as lab technician while studying other courses too.

A Catholic refuge organization gave Ann her chance. She was given a choice of emigrating to Australia, Canada or the United States. Ann chose America. In 1949, she came to Columbus, Ohio.

In 1950, Ann's sister who lives in San Antonio, became sick. Ann went to see her, and while there, met and married her husband, Mike, also a Pole, who had been a prisoner of the Germans for five years before coming to this country after liberation.

Mike is by trade a cabinet maker, but is working for the Santa Fe Railroad, as he has not been able to find employment in his field here in Plainview.

Beside her native Polish, Ann also speaks Russian, German and English, the latter with a constant improvement as she stays in this country longer. Her one desire now is to become an American citizen, which she may be living in the United States for five years. Under a new act of Congress, she no longer has to take out first papers, declaring her intention to become a citizen.

The couple live at 308 W. 10th St. Ann's mother and a brother are still in the German camp. Another sister and brother live in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgie Shaw spent the past week in Oklahoma City as the guests of her brother, John Gamble and Mrs. Gamble.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Simpson and family, of Los Alamos, New Mexico, were here last week-end for a brief stay with Mr. Simpson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mose Simpson. The latter returned to Los Alamos with the New Mexico couple to spend a week vacationing and resting.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Hamilton returned home last week from a vacation spent in New Mexico and Colorado, seeing Sante Fe, Ruidosa, Red River and going on into Colorado.

Vets Benefits Under New Law

Legislation recently passed by the 82nd Congress provides certain benefits to veterans not heretofore granted, as well as increased compensation rates.

Identified as Public Law 427, a specific monetary amount is provided for eligible veterans who have arrested tuberculosis. Those veterans not receiving statutory awards for arrested tuberculosis and those veterans who are not receiving compensation for arrested tuberculosis must file a claim to receive this benefit.

The effective date of the increase in rates for those veterans receiving statutory awards or compensation was August 1, 1952, and such increase will be reflected in checks received September 1st.

For those veterans who must file a claim, and are proved eligible to receive compensation for arrested tuberculosis, the effective date of this new veterans' benefit will be the date the claim is received by the Veterans Administration.

Public Law 427 also authorizes to eligible veterans a specific amount of compensation for the anatomical loss of or loss of use of a creative organ.

Claim for either of these veterans' benefits may be filed by the veteran or his authorized representative and should be submitted to the Veterans Administration Regional Office, Lubbock, Texas.

Lockney Newtons Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary Day

Approximately 58 relatives were present at the 50th wedding anniversary celebration, which Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Newton of Lockney celebrated recently with their family and friends at their home there, where they have lived for the past 18 years. All members of the immediate family, ten children, were present for the occasion with the exception of one son, Pfc. Vern R. Newton, who is with the armed forces in Germany.

The children present were Allen Newton and Mrs. Clara McClure of Roosevelt, Oklahoma; Mrs. Ewell Fox of Sulphur Springs, Mrs. T. B. Foster of Odessa, Dewey Newton of Amarillo, Mrs. W. C. Singer, Arvie Newton, Dalton Newton, all of Lockney and Mrs. John A. Munselle of Lubbock.

Many friends called during the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Newton were married on August 8, 1902 in Brook, Oklahoma, near Ardmore.

A buffet dinner was served members of the family at the noon hour and making pictures and visiting was enjoyed during the afternoon.

Another Case Where Consumer Pays

HIGHER and higher casualty insurance rates, paid by motorists, have caused uneasiness, not only among those who buy insurance but those who sell it.

The insurance companies are just as anxious to keep rates low as the consumer. Low rates mean more business. If the rates get unbearably high, some motorists are likely to think they can do without insurance, and that would be bad for everybody. Such a course would probably ruin many car-owners, for juries in some parts of the country are now sticking the defendant for as much as $125,000 for loss of a leg, which other damages in proportion. The average motorist, considering the high damage awards, is jumping from the frying pan into the fire if he decides to "carry his own insurance." It would be the worst kind of folly, in view of what's happening.

THE public is prone to think of an insurance company as it does a big corporation like a railroad. So many jurors say, as they do in many rail damage cases, "let's stick 'em." This psychology is made of the same cloth as that which causes people to think the federal government is all-powerful, and can finance anything from potato-growing to the building of an automobile factory, or it can pour out endless money by way of pork-barrels.

What the federal government does, of course is to "stick the taxpayer. The ultimate consumer always pays.

It is the same with automobile casualty insurance. The public to blame for the increasing death and injury lists on the highways because the public doesn't insist upon stronger law enforcement. Like the federal government, all the insurance company can do is to pass the burden on to the customer. It has no magic box from which to pull out endless cash. So it has to raise rates as accidents increase and as juries impose higher and higher damages upon the defendants.

A vendetta is a feud.

LELAND A. HART

for GOOD LAW ENFORCEMENT

We would like to talk to you a few minutes in the interest of the candidacy of Leland A. Hart for Sheriff of Floyd County. You have cooperated with him wonderfully during the time he has served you and have indicated confidence in him by a handsome vote in the first primary.

LELAND A. HART HAS LIVED IN FLOYD COUNTY FOR MORE THAN 30 YEARS.

He married a Floyd County girl and they have reared a family of four children here. He went to the Army from Floyd County in World War II and served two years, one year in the European Theatre. They had three children at the time he went to the army. His oldest son, Kenneth, known to his acquaintances as "Pecos", is now in the armed forces and is stationed at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

as your sheriff he has had no other business, devoting his full time to the duties of the office. In handling this full-time job he has made a good record, a record which is offered to the people of Floyd County as his best recommendation. We urge that any of you who are not familiar with this record that he has made as your sheriff, make any investigation that you see fit. This record, we believe, will compare favorably with the record of any other sheriff in this part of the country.

In the five and a half years he has served

THE EXPERIENCE HE HAS HAD BETTER QUALIFIES HIM TO SERVE YOU IN THE FUTURE.

We just don't believe that there is anything that compares with experience when it comes to making a good law enforcement officer. He has tried at all times to keep a good Staff of Deputies, men of good record, whose reputation is above reproach, all levelheaded, honest citizens, who believe in the enforcement of the law and at the same time are courteous.

State and Federal Men, which includes officers of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He works in perfect harmony with these area officials, which helps in carrying on the duties of the sheriff's office.

Citizens of Floyd County should particularly bear in mind that Floyd County has the Distinction of being one of the Cleanest Counties in the State of Texas as far as crime is concerned. Citizens of the county are proud of that distinction and we are sure that you want it kept that way. We believe that Leland A. Hart will do his dead level best to keep it that way.

Since serving you in the office of Sheriff he has become acquainted with all the Law Enforcement Officers in the Southwest, which, of course, includes local officers in all the counties, and the

WE ASK THAT YOU GIVE YOUR EARNEST CONSIDERATION TO THESE FACTS WHEN YOU GO TO VOTE.

Leland A. Hart has done his best to make you a good Sheriff. We think he has done so and sincerely trust that his record will meet with your approval and that you will return him to office when you

Merchandisers Plan Far Ahead In Lively, Aggressive Bid For Favor of Shoppers in Area

Floydada is a town of merchandisers who are ambitious to be recognized as a lively, aggressive business community.

This group is solid and substantial but also forward looking. Many of them have already spent days and days in merchandise marts and gift shows of the southwest buying for the Fall, Winter and even Spring needs of the wide area they aspire to serve. Today Floydada merchants know exactly what they will offer area shoppers during the Christmas season and are looking to the biggest Fall business in history.

Floydada is a Style center of this Caprock community area. Styles and Nationally advertised merchandise from New York to Hollywood to Dallas are featured. Women of the Area have had the opportunity to choose Paris fashions presented by famous designers. Floydada's nine department stores and speciality shops continue to lead the way in style, selection and quality of merchandising, and with prices which compare favorably with every other shopping center in this west Texas Area.

In Floydada there are eight downtown groceries and numerous neighborhood stores which are looking for more ways in which to serve their customers. Floydada food stores, large and small, offer the best in selection of foods and give their customers quality and service which they have grown to expect. West Texas dinner tables have the foods of the world to pick from through their local grocery.

In the building trade Floydada's three lumber yards represent two of west Texas' largest lumber firms. One of these firms has its home office in Floydada. Floydada has long been a distributing point for building materials and supplies for Floyd county and surrounding counties.

Nearly every nationally known Automobile is represented by Floydada automobile dealers and automotive supply firms. Every named brand of Farm machinery and irrigation and farm supplies is distributed by Floydada Farm Machinery houses. Floydada Druggists offer the best in famous-name drugs, gifts and toiletries. Some cosmetics are handled exclusively for this West Texas area.

Floydada is a furniture and Hardware center for this region and gives the buyer a selection all the way from pots and pans to bed room suits and pianos and other musical instruments.

Floydada offers Banking and numerous professional services to area citizens.

The three theatres are continuing their campaign to improve the quality, interest and selection of every film shown and are constantly working for the increased comfort of the theatre patron.

In a cooperative effort Floydada merchants have established three outstanding shopping days in each month. The first Monday of each month is dollar day on which dollar day special offers give savings to the thrifty shopper. The third Friday and Saturday of each month are "Floydada Days." Values of every kind are on sale during those days. These special sales are planned months ahead in order that the customer may receive full value for his dollar. Each day is given wide publicity through the press and radio.

There is a slow but sure trend for improvements in the business plants of Floydada merchants. New store fronts and modernized business establishments will continue to increase and make Floydada a more attractive shopping center.

Curb, Gutter Help With Appearances

CROSBYTON—With little fanfare or public recognition, a civic improvement has been going on for the past several months that is beginning to make a showing in the general appearance of the city. It is the building of curb and gutter on many Crosbyton streets.

At present workmen are busy on Crosby avenue between Third and Fourth streets. Practically all the west side of the street is being run and the east side which belongs to the county, will probably also be included.

Other work in recent months includes a block of curb and gutter on Crosby avenue between Sixth and Seventh streets, much of Harrison avenue south of Third street, a block of Third street between Harrison and Ivy avenues.

Mt. Zion Church Building Fund Is Exhausted

The congregation of the Mt. Zion Baptist church, corner East Jackson and 10th street, have a new church home under way, a structure 30 by 60 feet. They have financed it through the construction of the foundation, the sub-floor, the studs and rafters, but have about reached the end of their financial ability.

Rev. A. F. Douglas, of Hamlin, who is the minister of the church, last week said they had paid for what they had put into the building to date. Of the amount spent the membership raised $709.40, Fairview Baptist church donated $75 and other friends have given a total of $45.

Rev. Douglas, who is a carpenter, is supervising the work. They would like to go ahead and finish the building before the harvest begins, and have been encouraged by the authorities to ask the public for help in the good cause, he said. He was soliciting last week-end and will spend some more time soon seeing others.

The statement from the city and the Chamber of Commerce says these organizations find the church building affairs in order.

Since the minister will be spending some of his time building the church and also will be gone to his home at Hamlin part of the time he has asked The Hesperian to accept donations for the building fund from those who are unable to locate him. Checks may be made to the Mt. Zion Baptist Church building funds. Any donations received through this office will be accounted for.

Moss Is Favored For Court Post

Joe S. Moss, the Post lawyer, is the favorite for Associate Justice of the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals, according to those who know him best, the lawyers of the 46 county district. Moss, the small town lawyer, who has practiced civil law in Post for nearly twenty years, is married and has one child. He served over three years in the army in the late war.

In the first primary his home county gave him more than a six to one majority over three worthy opponents. He has served in various official positions throughout his career, but this is his first venture in a district race.
