

C-C Banquet Friday Night

Friday night's annual meeting and banquet for the members of Floydada Chamber of Commerce is scheduled to present a sparkling program and good food to some 300 members, their wives and friends.

The program, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, will be given at the Veterans of Foreign Wars building on North Second street. Members of the Harmony home demonstration club will serve the meal.

Feature address of the evening will be given by Jeff H. Williams, lawyer and humorist of Chickasha, Oklahoma, expounding his philosophy, "our privileges are many, our opportunities are great."

Mr. Williams will be introduced by District Judge Alton B. Chapman. Guests have been invited from Chamber of Commerce organizations at Spur, Plainview, Lubbock, Amarillo, Tulsa, Ralls, Crosbyton, Lockney, Petersburg, Matador and from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The program will not be a long-drawn out affair, although time will be given for all to enjoy the event, said O. M. Watson, Jr., manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Under the head of city beautification the committee is toying with the idea of getting people of the community to adopt a flower or shrub for city-wide planting.

Retailers and Property Owners Alerted to Modernization Need

Floydada business men and property owners, many of them, are store modernization conscious, it was indicated Monday night when a county court room comfortably full of them heard a specialist on modernization problems tell the advantages of re-doing merchandise shops in general and store fronts in particular.

He was C. W. Goldner, southwest-division manager of the Kawneer company. Kawneer specializes in modernization sales and manufacture, operating nation-wide. His talk was informal. He pointed out in particular the need for modernization of stores to meet changing times, changing conditions, to keep newness and merchandising in the store on a par with the newness demanded by the manufacturers of merchandise offered.

The new building foundation "surrounds" the present church edifice on the west and south. It is being laid on ground acquired last year adjoining the original church property. Total area owned by the church on the corner is 235 feet east and west by 150 feet north and south, slightly less than a quarter of a block.

Floydada Independent School district enumerators have practically completed the enumeration in the district, Superintendent I. T. Graves indicated this week, but the enumerators want to be sure not to overlook any scholastics.

Accordingly they are asking every parent who thinks it probable or possible that a scholastic in his household may have been overlooked to advise.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

A good job has been done by Floydada Chamber of Commerce this year. The organization has not been sensational exactly but it has plugged away at vital things, has introduced some new ideas and has been working with single mind toward the development of the town and country.

It is your inclination and mine to resist change, when of all things aside from death and taxes, change is the most certain. The Chamber of Commerce spurs itself to be aware of these changes, present and imminent. Tomorrow night's annual meeting will remind us of achievements of the past 12 months, point to some that we have failed to get done and lay out work that we can strive to achieve by the end of another year.

The spring calendar calls for opening day last Friday, March 20, this year. Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, March 29. On the first of April comes the Jewish Passover. Next Thursday is Maundy (mondi) Thursday, so called in memory of the new command given at the time of the washing of the disciples feet. Then comes Good Friday as aforesaid, and April 5 is Easter Sunday.

The Indian sign of weather to be this year was not too bad and surely not too good. If you were out at sunrise Sunday morning you know the prevailing wind was from the northwest. There'll not be too much rain this year. The crops will be sorter so so, where they are not irrigated. But northwest is only a quarter turn of the compass from northeast so, the Indian lore says, it won't be too bad.

Turn 'em out is the slogan nowadays in federal circles. The announcements every day carry something new along this line. The pressure on the new administration leaders gets more impatient as the head men try to get a grasp of their jobs before they get too busy turning the rascals out and putting patriots in their places. A few glaring errors are likely to be registered among the run of the mine changes. Not only are the usual political jobs being converted but some office holders which bipartisan understanding attempted to put past the realm of politics are being pressured into resigning.

As the weather gets back into the groove note the high winds, principally west and southwest. This is a windy country and to be normal the wind has to move about. This is what will bring us what rain we get this spring. Enough to get planting started, may be not just at the time everybody wants it, but moisture for planting or for relief to the irrigation man just the same.

While it is well to heed such authorities as the mesquite tree and The Hesperian, warning about the weather this spring, it might not be amiss to use a little precaution about spring garden planting. For instance, it occurs to us next Friday (week) is Good Friday. Planting a few beans and the other usual Good Friday vegetables would be good exercise. After all the mesquite did get caught once with their leaves down (back in the eighties, was it?) and The Hesperian could have read the signs wrong. And if the weather did go ahead and follow through with some tantrums as it normally should you have only cultivated the ground good so the next planting will do better.

From early days of the nation's history the "patronage" idea was followed to some extent. Andrew Jackson really perfected the art of dishing out the political pie when he was elected. The sweep was a clean one from top to bottom of the political pile. The political-minded people really enjoy the game and have done it up in good style every time there is a major change in Washington. Most people do not understand the political mind, the way it works. They speak of politics as "dirty." It is mostly dirty when my side loses.

Here's a puzzle we stole and pass on. Follow it carefully. What is the answer:

A cow and her calf cost a farmer $280. A few months later the farmer sold the cow at a 25% profit and the calf at a 50% profit. He originally paid $200 more for the cow than for the calf. What did the cow cost? The calf? How much did he sell the cow and calf for? What was his dollar profit on the cow? On the calf?

Answer next week.

Long-standing plea of organizations representing automobile clubs of America for the repeal of the federal excise taxes on automobiles should be one of the taxes included in the slated reduction of the tax load. This tax last year run slightly above a billion and a half dollars. This was superimposed on top of other costs of transportation. Before it reaches the ultimate users of automobiles it probably spirals into twice as much money. The automobile tax is unfair and discriminatory in that it selects one type of transportation for general tax purposes. In addition the federal government also exacts a cent a gallon on all gasoline sold. A part of the gas tax, however, is spent on roads. If we are rightly informed the automobile excise tax just goes into the general fund of the federal treasury.

Gasoline 4,800 GVW to 90,000 GVW
Diesel 19,500 GVW to 100,000 GVW

No other light trucks have all this

YOU don't expect polo-pony agility from a truck in traffic—but the new GMC's have it. You'd like to have passenger-car pace and economy on the highway—and you'll get it from the 1953 GMC's. For there are two great advances that step the new GMC's ahead of all previous truck performance:

One: Dual-Range Hydra-Matic Drive—the fully automatic shift with 3 speeds for traffic, 4 for the open road—available on 19 models through the 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton capacity range.

Two: a new line of engines of progressive design, with compression ratios of 7.5 to 1 and 8.0 to 1—the highest of any gasoline truck engine ever built. Here's pile-driver power behind every piston stroke—flashing response and better mileage are squeezed from regular fuel. Many chassis advances, too, add to the extra-value features that make GMC's, point for point, the biggest dollar's worth in the light-truck field as well as in the heavier lines. We confidently tell you—these great new GMC's will do your job better, easier, and at the lowest over-all cost. They have stamina beyond their size, because they're "built like the big ones"—the heavy-duty GMC's that lead the world in sales. That's saying a lot. But just come in—and we'll prove it.

Great new "hump" yards built to speed switching... New roadbed, new rail and new ballast methods—for smoother, safer rides for goods and people.

IN THE PAST YEAR... New freight stations, with new towveyors, at Chicago and San Francisco... Great new construction started to raise Santa Fe rails in Kansas and Missouri above the highest flood stage of recorded history.

IN THIS YEAR... New micro-wave communication system put in service between Galveston and Beaumont, Texas... New freight classification yard will be opened at Belen, New Mexico.

AND IN THE NEXT YEAR... More curves will be clipped, more grades reduced... 119 new diesel units will go to work... New modern diesel shops will be completed... 3600 new freight cars will be placed in service... ## 1. WILL EXERCISE REDUCE WEIGHT?

Exercise alone is futile. While it will reduce weight, because it helps use up water, carbohydrates and fats, exercise also stimulates the appetite. Two exercises help tremendously, (1) pushing one's chair away from the table when dessert is served, (2) turning the head slowly from right to left and back again when second helpings are offered.

2. DO MANY WOMEN HAVE HARDENING OF THE ARTERIES?

Because of their happy faculty of depositing fat in places

Court Rules Jayton Won In Kent Election

HASKELL. — A judgement declaring that the county seat election held in Kent County last March resulted in favor of moving the seat from Clairmont to Jayton was ordered Wednesday by Judge Ben Charlie Chapman in 39th District Court.

In the decree favoring Jayton Judge Chapman ruled that 31 votes cast in favor of retaining the county seat at Clairmont and 32 votes for removal of the courthouse to Jayton were illegal, resulting in a canvass of 57 votes favoring and 277 opposing the county seat change.

In the original canvass of election returns by the Kent County commissioners court, the vote for removal to Jayton was 610 and for retention of the county seat at Clairmont 308 votes. A two thirds majority was required, and on the basis of this tabulation the courthouse was retained at Clairmont.

A contest of the election filed by Jayton parties culminated in a jury hearing in 39th District Court here last week. The jury invalidated six votes cast for Clairmont and two cast for Jayton. Chapman ruled that 25 additional votes for Clairmont and 30 additional votes favoring Jayton had been cast illegally.

Attorneys for Clairmont, Larry and Dallas Scarborough of Abilene and William P. Ratliff of Haskell, have indicated they will appeal the ruling. Attorneys representing Jayton in the dispute are Ralph Logan of San Angelo and Tom Davis of Haskell.

The courthouse will remain at Clairmont until the final determination.

OUR NATURAL RESOURCES

You used to raise the fuel that ran your farms. When you went over from the horse to the tractor, everybody said you are going to help exhaust our natural resources of fuel. So we got 3 or 4 oil companies to make individual studies and we found something like this:

- 96% of all the coal ...
- 95% of all the petroleum ...
- 90% of all the natural gas ...
- 100% of all the shale oil ...
- ... is still in the ground!

Guest day of the 1922 Study club was observed last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. E. P. Stovall was hostess to the club members and their guests at Fellowship hall of the First Christian church. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames E. J. Morehead, Glad Snodgrass, Wilson Kimble, E. L. Angus, and C. A. Caffee.

Guests were served frosted orange punch and white angel squares topped with a tiny Easter chicken, from a table covered with a white silk damask cloth. A crystal service was used. A large Easter rabbit and basket with jonquille and fern formed a center piece. Mesdames Morehead and Angus were at the refreshment table.

Program for the day was on "Friendship," with Mrs. Noel Troutman as leader. Roll call was the introduction of each guest.

Mrs. W. S. Poole told of the origin and appreciation of Friendship day. Friendship day, March 7, in Texas was first proclaimed by the governor of Texas in 1939, through the efforts of Mrs. Breckenridge of San Antonio, a pioneer club woman. Mrs. Poole read two clever poems on friendship, one being Aunt Carrie, which depicted a neighbor woman who always did good deeds in the community. The other poem was entitled "Aunt Lucy," who thought only of "Me, myself and I." There are probably more "Aunt Lucys" in real life than there are "Aunt Carries," said Mrs. Poole.

Sure sign of spring is a new teenage rage. This time, of all things, it's a dog collar! Yes, Spot's brass-studded neckwear — in green, red or tan — now decks the junior high maiden's ankle. If she wears it on the left one, it means she's "hopeful," on the right, she's "going steady."

Although fads among teenage girls may change from year to year there's not much difference in the degree of nonsense involved. Take the "forever" signet ring exchange of thirty or forty years ago. The "ink" friendship bracelets and charm bracelets of more recent years. The sweetheart lockets and the "dog tags," too.

Seems when spring rolls round, the girls just about have to have some kind of a gimmick to express their joy at being alive.

Grown women go for symbols, too, but theirs change little from year to year, and of course they're never silly. But when the fruit blossoms and the daffodils pop out, women get new hair-dos and begin to talk about losing weight.

Women as a rule show great common sense in selection of their spring symbols. They go to a few style shows and exclaim over the fashions that look breath-taking on their slimmer and trimmer sisters. They have a mild outburst of parties, using spring motifs. They haunt the accessories counters and come home with some pretty daring wardrobe pick-me-ups — then wonder why they did it. And occasionally they go gently color-daffy with a riotously decorated hat.

Guess what it boils down to is this: young or old, girls will be girls, especially in the spring.

Covering the widest range of ratings and designed for the greatest economy and driver comfort ever known in a commercial vehicle, the 1953 Ford trucks will be offered in four distinct lines, in 20 new series and in more than 190 models.

All of the new trucks will feature new, one-piece curved windshields—largest in their field—with swept-back pillar posts and 55 percent greater visibility. And the new F-100 Series of light duty trucks are equipped for the first time with Fordomatic fully-automatic transmissions or automatic overdrive as optional equipment.

"Our 1953 truck line represents an investment of more than $50,000,000 in research, development, engineering, testing and dies and tools as well as more than four years of hard work," L. D. Crouse, vice president of Ford Motor Company and general manager of Ford Division, said.

"Every truck in the 1953 line has been completely redesigned with a revolutionary new approach to truck engineering—the driver himself. In our new trucks every component effecting driver fatigue has been designed and engineered not only to do its job better and to last longer, but also to ease the burden on the driver—to make his job simpler and less tiring and to permit him to get his job done faster and with corresponding savings in operating costs."

Farmers Home Administration Has Good Report on 1952 Operations

In the annual farm ownership meeting at the home demonstration room of the court house last Thursday afternoon Farmers Home Administration families reviewed 1952 farm operating business and squared away for the 1953 effort.

Rising cost of conducting a farm operation for the farm family was brought out in clear relief by county supervisor Jack Kassahn. These, along with accomplishments by farm families who are borrowers of farm home funds, were discussed. Further possible rises in costs and ways and means of meeting this threat to the farm family were pointed out.

About 30 persons were in attendance at the meeting from Floyd and Crosby counties.

Meeting with them were district officials of FH administration and local home and farm advisers. District Supervisor Oris R. Bruner gave a report as did Miss Susie Johnson, home demonstration specialist, both in optimistic vein.

Mrs. Harry Morckel, home demonstrator for Floyd County REA, made a short inspiring talk in food conservation and Miss Lella Petty, Floyd county home demonstration agent, showed picture slides of farmstead landscaping. Also shown in picture slides were views of farm ownership loan operations made in Floyd and Crosby counties. Also slides showing operations and progress of operating loan borrowers in the two-county area. Better quality live stock herds, legume crops used for soil building and pasture improvement, pictures of food production and food conservation being carried out by farm woman of the Farmers Home administration, were shown. Reports reviewed included that of one farm family which had a grocery bill of only $2.50 and another a bill of $523 for a family of five for a complete year. A resume of the reports declared that when farm families can produce most of their own food—and conserve it, larger loans will not be needed, and other useful items on the farm can be bought without the use of credit. Alive on the farm program is advocated by the Farmers Home administration as a means toward independence.

Borrowers Meet Their Payments

The Farmers Home administration, since it was merged with the emergency feed and seed loan administration and the rural agricultural credit corporation in 1946, has loaned $3,197,048 in Floyd and Crosby counties of which $2,786,244 has been repaid, together with $195,818 in interest charges. At this time $366,877 is outstanding, most of the amount having three to five years to run before final due date. The report showed a $58,637 gain in Crosby county and $83,066 in Floyd county, total of $151,694 for the two counties, reflecting the fact that the overall operation is not a burden to the taxpayer. The report covers Farmers Home administration operating loans, disaster loans and water facility loans. It shows how disaster struck farm families, given aid through the agency, beat their way back to normalcy and a place of independence in the community.

The agency was created to give sufficient agricultural credit at a cheap rate of interest over a long period of time to help deserving farm families help themselves.

The administration had made nine housing loans and has bought 40 farms in Floyd and Crosby counties since 1939. All but six of these have been paid for in full. In a 33-county area, which the panhandle district covers, the report showed that PHA has bought 321 farms and 194 of these have been paid for by the borrowers.

Keeping Itself New Theme of Santa Fe Ads

AMARILLO — "America's New Railroad — Progress that pays its own way" will be the theme of one of the largest and most powerful advertising campaigns in Santa Fe's history, according to announcement made today by F. G. Gurley, president of the railroad.

Starting this month, large ads ranging from approximately 600 to 2000 lines in size, will be scheduled in 250 daily papers and 604 weekly papers. This schedule will include every daily and weekly newspaper published along the Santa Fe Railroad and daily newspapers in the major cities in the eastern section of the country, where Santa Fe traffic offices are located. The plans at present call for one ad per month in each paper for the balance of 1953.

Backing up this powerful newspaper campaign will be ads in a selected list of magazines with mass circulation. Outdoor, television and radio programs now used by the Santa Fe will also be tied into this advertising campaign.

According to Gurley, "every one of our ads in 1953 will talk about

"Santa Fe — America's New Railroad" and will consist of a series of public information messages that will tell people what Santa Fe is doing every year, every month, every week, and every day to keep itself new." In continuing his discussion about this advertising program, Gurley said: "All the ads will point out that although these constant improvements cost Santa Fe millions of dollars, they are being paid for by Santa Fe and not one dime comes out of the pocketbook of the taxpayer; Santa Fe receives no subsidy of any kind." This thought will be emphasized with the phrase "Progress that pays its own way" prominently displayed in every one of the ads.

The advertising schedule has been planned so that the ads will reach practically every person in the United States who can read. Gurley expressed the belief that the ads are going to give people a better understanding of Santa Fe and will make them want to ship on it, ride on it, do business with it, work for it, and invest in it.

He further expressed the hope that this progressive self-financing point of view will be helpful not only to Santa Fe but to the entire railroad industry and to the busness world at large.

"I hear you and your husband getting along well together. Of all the silly vicious rumors true we had an argument shot him — but that's never went."

Continental Oil Credit Checks An Innovation

HOUSTON — "Continental Oil Company is not going into the banking business, but this week we are starting to supply every Conoco credit card holder with a brand new credit book," O. B. Lloyd, general sales manager, said Saturday in introducing Continental's new credit check purchase system.

"We are proud to be the first oil company in the central United States to offer motorists the convenience and safety of credit checks for service station purchases," said Mr. Lloyd. "Motorists will find Conoco Credit Checks an easier, quicker and safer way to buy gasoline, oil and car services."

Like Regular Credit Book
 Conoco's new credit checks operate like regular check books issued by banks, Mr. Lloyd explained. Every check personalized with the customer's printed name, address and charge account number for this protection.

"Credit check books are being mailed to each holder of a Conoco Credit Courtesy Card," Mr. Lloyd said. "Motorists who have not been using one of our credit cards, but would like to use Conoco Credit Checks need only apply to their nearest Conoco service station operators. Customers can have a separate credit check book for each vehicle they operate if they wish."

Credit checks may make service station buying quicker than cash transactions in most cases, Mr. Lloyd pointed out, noting that they eliminate waiting for sales slips to be filled out or for change to be made in busy service stations.

He also said that Conoco Credit Checks can be used for the purchase of tires, batteries and accessories, in addition to the full line of Conoco gasolines, oils and lubricating services at Conoco service stations.

He was one of those tourists who liked to brag about the number of miles covered in a day. As the evening wore on they passed motel after motel with the "NO VACANCY" sign out. Finally, the little woman remarked, "I know we'll find one soon dear — people are starting to get up."

Center News

(by Mrs. J. E. Green)

CENTER, March 24 — This is a lovely morning, tho there was a little ice last night. As I sit in front of the fire, I can look out the window at fruit trees in full bloom. Under these are Mrs. Sim's guineas, come for a visit, preening their feathers and with an occasional "pot-rack." Birds claw above the eaves chattering, consulting with each other, no doubt where to build their nests. Grass and wheat are trying to grow in spite of the "dry."

The pink of peach trees, against a blue sky, makes a picture we would like to preserve for less bright days. Ever so often the hum of a tractor fills the air.

It is spring. So, even with dust storms thrown in, what better country could we live in? Practically speaking, this is a good wash day or a good day to plant grain.

The WMS met Monday afternoon at the church. Those present were Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. H. B. Mankins, Mrs. Goulsby, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Hodges and three Sunbeams. After the lesson of the Bible study, Mesdames Green, Dunn and Goulsby visited with Mrs. Welborn Miller, who is confined to her bed most of the time for the present. Julia Ann Miller is spending some time with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Miller of Plainview.

The new utility room of the Earl Huckabee home is nearing completion.

Congratulations to Patsy Robertson who was a prize winner on her essay on "Democracy."

On March 13, the H. B. Mankins' went to Tucumcari, New Mexico, to spend the week-end with their daughter and family, Mrs. Grady McAda, formerly of this community. The son and grandson, Bobby McAda, of the US army, was home on furlough.

The D. W. Burkes of Floydada were Sunday dinner guests. Bobby left March 16, for his station at Camp Dix, New Jersey. He missed being at home a few days with his brother, Jimmy of the US Navy, who is stationed at San Diego, California. Jimmy arrived home on furlough on Friday, March 20. Jimmy McAda is expected to visit his grandparents, the Mankins, at an early date.

Friends of the McAda family will be glad to know that they are building a new home in Tucumcari.

The Home Demonstration club is scheduled to meet with Mrs. J. S. Green on the Silvertown highway on Friday, March 27.

Soon we can meet again in the school house and play dominoes. Watch for the date.

Dental Treatment and Examination For Korean Vets

"Cases are being encountered in which Korean veterans are losing out on a presumptive dental rating because dental examination is not made within one year after discharge," said D. G. Ayers, County Service officer this week. "These cases should be carefully followed so that the year does not expire without some available evidence."

If the year is about to expire—and a VA Examination has not been authorized, Ayers explained, the veteran should be advised to go to his dentist for an examination at his own expense—so that the dentist can prepare an examination report of each tooth found to be defective within the year. A small investment by the veteran may mean a large amount of money in dental care or work in the future, he pointed out.

Herbicide Law Proposals

These farmers who have felt the sting of crop ruined or damaged by accidental doings of chemicals will find a piece of legislation under consideration in Austin. A revised law dealing with the use of herbicides is being considered. The most widely used herbicide is 2, 4-D. It is used to control weeds and other plants. The plant mechanism is to literally "grow them to death."

It is frequently, when these are sprayed in an area to control weeds or mosquito, the vapor drifts into adjacent fields where susceptible crops are growing. The result is twisted and mutilated field crops which either die or suffer a considerable drop in yielding qualities.

Texas Department of Agriculture administers a law which seeks to protect farmers from such damage. Unfortunately, the current controls are not as practical as they should be, considering the evergrowing demand for use of these chemicals. Another law now being studied by the Legislature, is aimed at correcting these difficulties.

Briefly, the law would expand the scope of present regulated areas to include more counties where susceptible crops are grown. It is designed to regulate the sale and transportation of the chemicals and provide for inspections and better license provisions.

This new law is not, by any means meant to hamstring so large and important an operation as the control of undesirable plants. But it does afford more protection to farmers from damages by careless or accidental mis-use of the herbicides.

Like a swinging door, the protection works both ways, however. The commercial sellers, handlers and applicators are provided assurances against unfair or mistaken claims of chemical damage during their operations.

No part of the law gives the Department of Agriculture or the Commissioner undue or excessively restrictive powers. Much of the working policies of the law are left in the hands of the persons affected through local court action. The department is merely attempting to serve as a most alert watchdog for the interests of Texas farmers and ranchers.

Story of Texas Prison System Is Heartening

(By Senator Andy Rogers)

Ever hear of a Prison operating without iron bars, guns, guards, bloodhounds, or walls and fences. Of a Penitentiary where 7,140 inmates had television, orchestras, a half pound of fresh meat per day and more than they could eat of other good foods? Where they had a bath and clean clothes every day and competed like kids to see which farm could present the warden with the first tomato of the season?

Well, there are such things in the 13 different units of the Texas prison system. How this came to be and the full tale of what happened to your Prison System in the past five years is truly a great story, and a story only half finished.

In 1948 a new prison board brought one O. B. Ellis from Tennessee to Texas to take over one of the most costly, brutal, hopeless and hopelessly run-down prison systems then operating in the United States.

In 1949, the daring new board and the new system manager talked the legislature out of $4,196,975 to try some new ideas. A new kind of merit system was put into operation by Ellis and things began to happen.

Technique Gets Results
Ellis has been accused of "cooing" his wards. Others say he is being practical, humane and returning scarred individuals to a useful place in society.

But whatever one thinks of his unused techniques, here are some of the astounding facts concerning his administration.

1. Reduced escapes from 126 in 1947 to 29 in 1952 (none this year). People for miles around the prison system no longer live in constant fear of desperate men in areas where housewives once feared to go outside to hang the family wash.

2. Killings by guards in 1947 - 9; in 1952 - 0. Of inmates by inmates in 1947 - 5; last year - 2.

3. Mutilations in 1947 - 87; men mutilated themselves in 1952 - only 1.

4. Has greatly reduced the financial burden. Note these statistics:

In 1946 Texas spent $1.25 per inmate of your tax-money - in 1949 only 99c - in 1951 - 49c - yet a cleaner, more orderly prison system cannot be found. The more than four millions we gave Ellis in 1949 has been more than made up through savings besides a $10,000,000 increase in value of prison facilities and buildings as a result of prison labor and management.

5. The prison system is the only state agency which is not now asking for and needing more money to operate on.

6. Your prison system now costs only 22c as much per man to operate as the national average for state prisons - only 14c as much per man as the average for federal prisons.

7. Riots - 32 major riots over the nation last year; none in Texas.

This is only a small part of the amazing story but Ellis feels the job is only half done. He points to Eastham farm as the worst of his unfinished projects. "Anything can happen," he says. "Physical facilities there are intolerable."

Therefore he is asking for $3,500,000 for new buildings. If he used it as he did the first monies received in 1949, it would repay Texas many times in dollars and cents - not to mention human values.

C of C Banquet

Beginning to get more attention is the need for tourist promotion in the community. A committee assigned to this job will urge best standards of food, motels, courtesy and service. Welcome signs, picture postcards and souvenirs of Floydada are on their agenda for the coming year.

Business Getting Campaigns
The retail trades committee has the job of re-vitalizing business getting campaigns, modernization of the business district, holidays for uniform closing, Santa Claus and Christmas activities, and publicity for the business community's merchandise of quality, selection and price.

The chamber of commerce has 166 active members. It's opportunities for 1953 are limited only by the willingness of the members to grasp them, declare the officials.

Officers and directors to be presented at tomorrow night's meeting will be:

President, Clement B. McDonald; vice-president, L. L. Clark; treasurer, E. L. Norman; manager, O. M. Watson, Jr.; directors, D. T. Mayo, L. L. Jones, Aaron Carthel, Guy W. Ginn, Herschel Swegston, W. E. Garret, Edward Wester, John W. Reue, J. M. Wilson, Sr., Robert Gibson, O. M. Watson, Sr., Al R. Puchs, and Judge Frank L. Moore.

PRINCESS of the Junior Live Stock show at Lubbock last week was this 15-year-old miss, Brooksy Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander, Plainview, and granddaughter of Mrs. R. F. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. C. Alexander, Floydada.

Reigns at Stock Show as Princess

Two Hale county young women both of Plainview reigned over the 1953 South Plains junior fat stock show at Lubbock last week as the first Princesses ever selected for the annual event.

They were Brooksy Alexander, 15, entry of the Ash street Hale county 4-H club, and Kay Robinson, 17, entry of the Plainview high school PFA chapter. They were chosen 4H princesses during the Saturday morning contest.

Miss Alexander was selected by a judging committee composed of five PFA chapter presidents. Miss Robinson was selected by five 4H presidents picked at random and representing clubs or chapters from 10 different counties.

Miss Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Alexander of Route One, Plainview, is a sophomore at the Plainview high school. She has auburn hair and brown eyes. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Alexander and of Mrs. R. F. Hall, of Floydada.

The princesses served as official hostesses for the stock show Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in that capacity, they presented all awards to 4H and PFA boys who exhibit prize winning animals during the three day show.

More than 75 friends and relatives of the contestants overflowed the meeting room at the Chamber of Commerce, Saturday during the judging, which began at 10 a.m. and was finished before noon.

After the judging the contestants and judges were luncheon guests at the Caprock hotel and were taken on a shopping tour, where they both were outfitted in truly western clothes including slacks, hats, shirts and belts.

Lloyd H. Jones Complete Recovery Seen as Certain

Friends here have received the reassuring news that the Reverend Lloyd H. Jones, of Dallas, former pastor of the First Methodist church here, is rallying satisfactorily at Mayo hospital in Rochester, Minnesota.

Reverend Jones had major surgery at the Mayo clinic for the removal of an abscess on the larynx.

In a letter to Reverend and Mrs. Tilden B. Armstrong, Mrs. Jones writes that her husband was operated on last Wednesday. Recovery will be shown but definite. She stated that he would have to be in absolute silence for six weeks, then gradually speaking. He will receive treatment possibly for a year, when they hope for complete recovery.

Reverend and Mrs. Jones and family moved from Floydada to Perryton and then to Dallas. He is pastor of the Greenland Hills Methodist church, at 5835 Penrose avenue.

President's Lady Coming April 5

"The President's Lady," featuring Susan Hayward and Charlton Heston, Twentieth Century-Fox's historical romantic drama, is coming to the Capada Drive-In on Easter Sunday, April 5.

This story of the most slandered couple in American history, Rachel and Andrew Jackson, was taken from Irving Stone's best-selling book of the same title and has been given elaborate production by Producer Sol C. Siegel and Director Henry Levin.

Milk for human consumption is obtained from the cow, goat, reindeer, yak, zebu, buffalo, camel, llama, and sheep.

Paying Soldiers in The Field Gigantic Task

WASHINGTON - The soldier's personal banker—the Army Finance Corps—often literally drops in on them to deliver the cash.

Army paymasters travel by foot, jeep, rickshaw, airplane, helicopter, ship and submarine and they even "hit the silk" to get 'em paid.

The gigantic task of paying soldiers stationed in the United States, security forces serving in Europe and the Far East, troops stationed at remote outposts throughout the world or serving with military missions aboard, and fighting in Korea is not always an easy one.

Wherever they are, the Army Finance Corps gets 'em paid—whether it is in dollars, pounds, francs, marks, rupees, yen, won or some other medium of exchange.

Indicative of the scope of the operation is the fact that during World War II the Army Finance Corps made more than 437,000,000 (M) payments to soldiers and civilians engaged in military activities.

Billions of dollars were disbursed by the Army's paymaster. Tons of currency and coin were shipped secretly to all parts of the world via water and air transport.

To supply American forces with French invasion currency, shortly after "D-day," 46 tons—3,387,136,000 (B) French francs valued at more than $68,000,000 (M) — made the monetary invasion.

On the other side of the world—at Calcutta, India—a miniature mint with $58,000,000 (M) United States dollars, more than $40,000,000 (M) in gold, $2,000,000 (M) in Indian rupees, and trillions of Chinese dollars took care of the financial needs of the troops in that area.

Altogether, a total of 21,873 finance men and women—4,140 officers, 593 warrant officers and 17,140 enlisted finance specialists—helped deliver the cash during World War II.

Although our Army today does not require a department as large as the World War II organization, finance men and women are serving our troops virtually all over the world.

Latin Magazine

Recently an editorial writer commented on the fact that a new magazine, written in Latin, had been begun and that between 600 and 700 Americans had subscribed to it. A number of these subscribers even accompanied their checks with letters written in Latin.

It has been hundreds of years since Latin was a spoken tongue in the educated world and it has now been some years since it was required study in most colleges and universities. Though there is much to be learned from Latin, Greek and other languages which have gone out of use, a majority has concluded that the modern-day student can gain more practical information, and more beneficial knowledge, from other studies with the same amount of application.

The new Latin magazine has received a surprising response in the United States and we wonder if the hundreds of those who have subscribed will actually spend much time reading it. Being of the barbaric type ourselves, we can think of little less entertaining than attempting to wade through a Latin or Greek publication. Nor do we rate the hobby of writing letters in Latin highly.

Despite our lack of appreciation a number of Americans expect to enjoy the new publication considerably. We believe that in another 20, or 50 years, such a magazine would find fewer subscribers in the United States than it finds today. As a standard part of the curriculum, Latin and Greek and other ancient languages have steadily been going out of vogue and most students are in favor of the trend.
