Wear Sunglasses In Day Time Only Warning of AAA

AUSTIN — Viewing with concern the staggering prospect of 66 million vacationists in 32 million automobiles traveling night and day during the coming months over crowded, unfamiliar highways, Paul R. Kulp, general manager of the Texas division of the American Automobile association today sounded a word of warning on an item dear to every vacationing motorist—sunglasses.

“Wear them when driving by day,” the AAA official advises, “but take 'em off when you're driving at night.”

Studies reported by AAA safety experts show that exposure to too much bright sunlight by day results in a serious vision loss at night. By wearing sunglasses with a 12 per cent transmission during the day, but not at night, the after-dark loss of vision will be prevented.

But, the AAA contends, claims of some manufacturers that tinted glasses will improve seeing at night are “contrary to all the evidence concerning defective vision.”

Boyce House— I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

Cape Willingham, in 1878, was working for the JA Ranch, operated in the Palo Duro country by Charles Goodnight and Lord Adair of Ireland. The spring roundup was on and one day Goodnight, who was out on the range with a crew of men, sent Willingham to the home ranch headquarters to get the mail.

Cape arrived just at dinner time, to find Mrs. Goodnight and Lord and Lady Adair seated at the table. Mrs. Goodnight went to the cupboard and brought forth a plate, knife and fork and cup, then asked the young cowboy to be seated and join in the meal, which he did.

The Adairs stopped eating. They told Mrs. Goodnight they were not in the habit of eating with servants, to which Mrs. Goodnight replied that she and her husband considered their cowboys good enough to be at any table and in any company. But the Adairs couldn't see it that way and they finished their meal at another table.

Naturally Cape, when he rode away for camp, was mad all over. Here he was—cowboy who could ride anything on four legs—being snubbed by nobility. Well, he would see about that—sometime.

The roundup went on for several weeks, and when the steers were collected and ready to be driven to Dodge City, Lord Adair came out to the range camp to watch the start of the drive—and while he was there a cold rain set in, one that lasted for two days and nights. The cowboys, when they slept, bedded down, of course, around and under the chuck wagon—but not so Lord Adair. He was occupying a tent some distance from the wagon—and the rumor in the camp was that he slept in silk nightwear.

Anyhow, after the camp had retired one night—with the rain coming down in sheets—the cattle became restless and Cape Willingham, who was on night guard, rode in to the wagon to wake the second guard. After he aroused the boys and was starting back with them toward the herd, Cape's eyes took in the shadow of Lord Adair's tent, and that gave him an idea. Taking up his rope, he made a loop, threw it over the top of the tent, touched spurs to his pony and—before you could say “Jack Robinson”—the tent was snatched from over the sleeping lord, who came out of his slumber yelling. Cape drew in his rope, unfastened the loop, and rode on to the herd, leaving the tent lying on the prairie.

Meanwhile, Lord Adair—standing in the cold rain clad only in his scanty nightie—continued to yell so loudly that Charles Goodnight crawled out from his tarp to see what the commotion was all about. Goodnight made inquiries among the men and soon learned that Willingham was the guilty tent wrecker, and he knew that something had to be done to appease the dampened ranch owner.

So Goodnight called Sape in, fired him and handed him the wages he had coming— together with a lecture, for Adair's benefit. But just before Cape rode away toward Tascosa, Goodnight managed to get him aside and secretly inform him that his wages would go on while he was taking a few weeks' vacation in town, and that he could come back to the ranch after Adair's departure for England, which was scheduled for the near future.

Adair died in England, but his widow later returned to the ranch and remained there for many years as the ruling Cow Queen of that portion of the Panhandle. And—say those who knew her well—she was loved and respected by all—and there was no cowboy she wouldn't invite to her own table if he happened to be at headquarters at meal-time.

The SNOWS of KILIMANJARO

HILDEGARDE NEFF LEO G. CARROLL TORIN THATCHER AVA NORING

The management of this theatre is privileged to present Twentieth Century-Fox's magnificent Technicolor production of Ernest Hemingway's "The Snows of Kilimanjaro." One of the year's most important motion pictures, "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" is the dramatic story of a novelist and big game hunter who reviews his life, loves, adventures and frustrations while awaiting possible death near Mt. Kilimanjaro, the highest peak in equatorial Africa. To bring this great Hemingway story to life, Producer Darryl F. Zanuck assigned three of Hollywood's finest stars — Gregory Peck, Susan Hayward and Ava Gardner. To augment their outstanding portrayals he organized an unusual supporting cast headed by Hildegrade Neff, Leo G. Carroll, Torin Thatcher, Ava Noring and Helene Stanley. Directed by Henry King, who gave you "Twelve O'clock High," "Song of Bernadette" and "David and Bathsheba," "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" takes you across the map of Europe to the Spanish bullrings, the French Riviera, Parisian cafes and darkest Africa. "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" is a monumental film achievement you will not want to miss.

Yesterday Was Harmony's Day For Inspection

Wednesday was the big day for the Harmony community. It was the day the Harmony community was judged in the "Better Neighborhood Contest." The day began at 9:30 in the morning with an inspection of the Community center, where shrubs and wind break and cotton were inspected.

Then a tour of homes in the community, with stops at the following homes:

Zant Scott for inspection on improvement of the yard;

Marion Smith for sodding the yard, repairing and repainting of the home;

Sherwood Ramsey for landscaping through 4H-club project;

W. W. Edwards for a new project for Harmony community, weed control with geese (Mr. Edwards had 100 geese for the purpose);

Walter Hanna home for improvement of pastures;

And Everett Miller for inspection of pasture improvement.

Lunch Served at Noon

The group then returned to the Community Center where lunch was served at 12:30. Reverend Krebs giving the invocation.

After lunch, the various committee gave their reports and then more homes were visited which included the David Battey home where improvements have been made; the Milton Evans home for yard and remodeling of residence; Loyce Turner home for inspection of a remodeled home and registered cattle and hogs; The E. W. Turner home to see a new orchard and Hubam clover planted for soil building.

The judges for the day were Miss Mary Grindstaff, county home demonstration agent for Hale county, and Lewis Herron, county agent of Graza county. Also present for the day were the District Extension agents, Mrs. Aubrey Russell and W. H. Jones of Lubbock, Miss Leila Petty, home demonstration agent for Floyd county and Bill Rodgers, county agent for Floyd.

Special guests of the community were people of the Baker and Lakeview communities, who were invited as these two communities are interested in entering the contest next year.

Mrs. Everett Miller was general chairman for the day. The announcement of the winner in the contest will be probably given next week, said Mrs. Miller.

All the community is watching with interest the new project of W. W. Edwards with 100 geese he is using for weed control. This method has been used in South Texas counties and it is hoped that it will be used to advantage in Floyd county.

A large crowd was present and made the tour of the various homes.

Billy Joe Cantrell Has Broken Hip

He was taken to the Lubbock hospital. His parents visited him on Sunday, and again on Tuesday evening. They report him doing fine, except for bruises and his hip bothering quite a bit.

He will probably return home here in the next few days.

Wedding Date Set

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ross announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Norma, to Donald Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Craig of Floydada.

The date of the wedding has been set for May 16.

We know a woman whose brain must look like the interior of a ten-cent store on Saturday afternoon. Her interests are both democratic and numerous, and her thoughts mill ceaselessly from this one to that. From cook aprons and kitchen ware to cosmetics and costume jewelry, there's no doubt merit in many of them, but they're all so confusingly different. And as for boredom, she doesn't know the meaning of the word.

Many of her more discriminating friends have chosen a much simpler way. As a result they have a lot of time in which to enjoy one thing. They make miles of needlepoint, hammer tons of copper, play thousands of bridge hands, or bake hundreds of meringues, but always with great skill.

But this busy lady likes to do everything. She joins every organization that comes along, takes on some duty, large or small, in each one. She enjoys a career, and for seven hours a weekday gives her all to that. She also loves her home, which absorbs evenings and a part of the week-ends. She adores social activity, and often stays up late and gets up early trying to make twenty-four hours stretch into thirty-six.

She must have some sort of plan, else she'd surely explode. So we liken her life to the crowded but orderly notion counters, with the narrow aisles of time for shopping among all the things she likes. When and if her mind is ever in repose it would be like the dime store after closing time. The activities are still there, each with its value clearly marked. Temporarily, motion is suspended, but the threat of it is never removed.

Although we've never been a snob, when in her presence we do occasionally long for the quiet of a more exclusive shop.

Fords at Mayos

Mrs. Richard Ford of Lockney, sister-in-law of Mrs. E. I. Durham, is in Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota where she had major surgery on Tuesday.

Mr. Ford called his sister Wednesday. He said that they would be there for about 10 days and Mrs. Ford would appreciate cards and letters from her friends. The address is Hotel Kahler, Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. Ford has been ill for several months, suffering from a liver condition.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stansell were in Vernon on Monday and attended the rodeo.

One feature of the program will be showing films of his trip to the holy land last year by Dr. C. M. Thacker.

How to be a Better Cook ... and save money too!
By Mary Blake
Home Service Director
Carnation Company

Try these "smart hints" for smart homemakers:
When boiling hamburgers, give them a deluxe flavor by brushing tops with melted butter with a few drops of Worcestershire sauce added.
To get every bit of honey or syrup out of your measuring cup or spoon, butter the cup or spoon before filling with syrup.
No bread crumbs for bread-ing fish or meat? Use crushed dry cereal! Dip fish or meat in undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk—and then in crushed cereal.
Here's a wonderful combination—when you need to make a soup that's out of the ordinary. Mix 1 can concentrated tomato soup and 1 can concentrated split pea soup with 1 cup of undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk and 1 cup of water. Add 1/2 cup minced green onion tops. Serve hot!
Did you cook something too salty? Use potatoes to rescue it. Just add sliced uncooked potatoes and cook a bit longer. Remove the potatoes. They absorb the extra salt.

COOKING TIPS:

- ★ Season your cooked vegetables with good Cinamon for squash-allspice for tomatoes, chili powder for tomatoes, nutmeg for succotash.
- ★ Diced, sliced, or whole—steam your carrots in 1 cup Carnation Evaporated Milk diluted with 1 cup water, 2 tablespoons honey, 4 tablespoons butter. Serve with chopped parsley. Good for green peas, Brussels sprouts, and broccoli, too!
- ★ Brown dry bread crumbs or crushed dry cereal in a bit of hot fat. Sprinkle over hot asparagus.
- ★ When you use Carnation Evaporated Milk in mashed potatoes, it means extra nourishment and a delicious flavor! Combine 4 to 6 medium cooked potatoes with 1/2 cup heated undiluted Carnation. Boil until creamy.
- ★ Green beans, baked potatoes, asparagus become something special with cheese sauce. For the easiest sauce ever, heat 1/4 cups (large can) undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk with 1/2 teaspoon salt until small bubbles appear around edge of pan. Add 1 cup cubed or grated process-type American cheese, and stir until thickened and smooth.

Iorie Zoelene Vickers, two months old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vickers, has been very ill in Lubbock Memorial hospital since last Friday, with meningitis, as diagnosed by the attending physician.

A report from the family on Tuesday gave the condition of the baby as improved.

Visitors in the A. M. Carmack home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Cook and Mrs. Eula Carmack of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Grady Harris and family of Slaton. Mrs. Eula Carmack is spending the week with her son and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rodgers, of Lubbock, were here Sunday, guests in the home of Mrs. Rodgers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKinney and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snell spent Sunday night and Monday in Lubbock where they were guests of their son B. W. Snell and family and other relatives.

To Arms! To Arms! THE TURNCOATS ARE COMING

Powerful, Heavily Financed Forces Seek to Destroy the Protective Ramparts of U. S. Tariff Laws

Back in that April night, those who awakened to hear the alarm sounded by Paul Revere from horseback "To Arms, to arms, the redcoats are coming" did not stop to discuss theoretical philosophy. All those early Americans knew was that an attempt was underway to take from them those things which belonged to them. That was sufficient reason for immediate action.

Today Immediate Action Is Needed To Protect What Is Yours

Even as you read this, the turncoats of America are working to destroy the U. S. tariff laws, the only protection you have against economic savagery. Why do we say turncoats? Because the promoters of this plan for your ruin have turned their backs on the principle that made America great. This invasion is being promoted both from within and without the borders.

They Do Not Care What Happens To The American Economy

Great interests, who started in America under the full protection of U. S. tariff laws, have now acquired plants and investments in Europe and the rest of the world. While they grew great, they were protected from cheap imported competition. Now they have turned their coats . . . want to flood the U. S. market with goods made by cheap labor in their foreign plants.

Do Not Be Misled By Publicity Shed Crocodile Tears

Both domestic and foreign agents of these interests are asking you to consider "Lo, the poor European. He can't sell what he can make because Americans cannot buy his products without paying a duty. Aren't you as an American ashamed to keep your markets to yourself?"

Let's Discard Emotions And Look At The Hard Facts

America is a rich market. With less than 7% of the world's population, Americans own twice as many automobiles, twice as many telephones, for example, as all the rest of the world put together. But this did not happen because Americans are supermen.

SELECT THE CATEGORY BELOW THAT YOU FALL IN AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHAT ELIMINATION OF TARIFF LAWS MEANS TO YOU

Do You Depend on Wages or a Salary?
Can you compete with goods flooding the country made by labor receiving $5 per day or less? Also bear in mind, you would still have to pay your proportionate share of taxes.

Are You in the Wholesale Business?
Then you know the future of your company depends on the starting of new retail establishments, formed by the savings of people now working on salaries. Yet if the standard of living is forced down, there will be no savings.

Are You a Farmer?
Past experience has shown what unlimited food imports mean to you. Your total collapse could only be prevented by government farm subsidies so huge the imagination is staggered.

Let's Quit Being Ashamed of a Strong and Prosperous America

It's a common tactic today to try and make Americans ashamed of their standard of living as compared to the rest of the world. But remember we have given over 30 billions in tax dollars to the rest of the world in a few short years. A great deal of this has gone directly to European cartels to make them even more powerful. World poverty is shameful, but the shame rests on the heads of those who permit cartels and monopolies to keep other people in economic bonds.

PROTECT YOUR HOME, YOUR JOB, YOUR BUSINESS, YOUR FAMILY; FIGHT FOR A STRONG AND ADEQUATE U. S. TARIFF SYSTEM.

The more than 4,000,000 independent business firms of America who furnish the majority of American employment, invite everyone to join in this battle to protect not only a free and independent business system, but also a free and independent system of farming and labor. Strong tariff laws are the only protection you have against competition from foreign monopolies and cartels producing with cheap labor. Remember they legalize monopolies and cartels. Such promotes Communism.

county on a proposal to stage a county fair this fall.

Idea for revival of the old-fashioned fair, brought up-to-date, has been growing in southwest counties. Area, regional and state fairs have their place and purpose but the home county fair has an aura and a place in community life that cannot be filled by these, is the point of view of those who are espousing the proposal.

Tuesday morning several members of the chamber, together with others interested, met C-C manager O. M. Watson, Jr., at a 7 o'clock breakfast when ideas were tossed about for 40 minutes or more.

The county fair can be made of inestimable value to the community and county, it was agreed. Finding the manpower, the time and the place to stage it are problems which will be attacked in the course of the next several weeks. Among others at the meeting were O. M. Watson, sr., J. M. Willson, sr., Wayne Robinson, W. G. Rodgers, Guy W. Ginn, J. W. Reue, D. T. Mayo, Al R. Fuchs, Ed Wester, E. L. Norman, and Clement B. McDonald, president of the organization, who presided.

The crash occurred about 4:30 in the afternoon. Darlene lived about an hour after reaching the hospital.

Mrs. Fortenberry and her daughter were enroute home from Lockney hospital. They had been there for treatment of an injured foot of the freshman high school miss. Mrs. Fortenberry's injuries consisted of a deep gash on the head and bruises.

Other occupants of the car driven by Mr. Dozier were Mrs. Dozier, who received a broken ankle and left wrist, and O. V. Heald, whose injuries, consisting of bruises and lacerations, were not severe. Mr. Dozier was treated for a broken wrist, facial lacerations and an injured knee.

Darlene was a member of the Lockney Assembly of God church. Rev. J. C. Lewis, the officiating minister, is pastor of that church, and Rev. H. E. Smithee is pastor of the Floydada Assembly of God church.

Surviving members of the family are the parents of the victim, Mr. and Mrs. Robin Fortenberry, and two brothers, Eldon and Darrell, both students of Lockney high school. She was a great granddaughter of the late pioneer couple, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fortenberry. Her maternal grandmother is Mrs. T. J. Gill of Lubbock, a former Floyd county resident. Her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Fortenberry of Cedar Hill.

Tennis Courts Need of Youth, Says Explorers

Explorer Scouts of Floydada—30 boys of ages ranging from 14 to 18—are campaigning this week amongst Floydada home owners for a $1,200 fund with which to construct a tennis court in one of the parks of the city.

With the full approval of the city council the young men propose to construct two courts with back drops, and possibly flood lights. The success of their project all depends on the response they get from the people of the community. The tennis court is their project of the season but it will be for the use of everyone.

The Explorers meet every Monday night, plan their projects, have their recreation, with an adult counselor aiding them, but they make their own decisions and work out their own projects.

This week it was indicated their tennis court campaign plans are unique in one respect. They do not plan a high-pressure campaign in the down-town area although business men's support for the project is ardently hoped for. They plan to carry their plea to the homes of the city. A dollar from every home will give them the $1,200 needed to do the job.

The campaign was started Tuesday. The young men hope to complete it this week, weather permitting. Adding its bit to the campaign of the Explorers the Chamber of Commerce this week pointed to the fact that the young men ask every Floydada family to give $1 or more to the worthwhile project. "A dollar isn't much, but the help of everyone in this manner will make this dream of a tennis court come true."

L. D. Barte and Bob McGuire are counselors of the Explorer scouts. Other scout organizations in the community include two regular scout troops, with Jas. H. Word and Jack Kassahn as their respective scoutmasters, and the cub scouts with G. E. Mayo as scout master.

Widener Rapidly Regaining Strength

D. H. Widener, who had major surgery two weeks ago in Plains hospital, Lubbock, is now much improved and is at the home of his son, E. L. Widener and Mrs. Widener, north east of town.

D. H. and Mrs. Widener are grateful for the thoughtful kindness to them during his illness in the hospital and since that time. They thank everyone for the cards, flowers and visits. Especially their thanks go to Wayne Finley for blood donations.

Mr. Widener thinks he is now well on the road to recovery and hopes to be out and at home in the very near future.

House Will Speak At Lions Today

Boyer House, Texas leading booster, will address the Lions club today (Thursday) at their noon luncheon at the Legion Hall.

Lyndall Roberts, president of the Floydada Lions club, feels that this noted speaker will be well received. He has extended invitations to all of neighboring clubs and to other interested persons to be present for the occasion.

House has a reputation as an after dinner speaker and fills many dates annually. He is well known in Texas and nationally for his books, columns, and articles on the lone star state.

Need of Berlin Refugees Calls To Rotarians

A quick campaign for clothing and funds for the refugees from the Red menace who flood Free Berlin, Germany, by the thousands daily is being sponsored by Floydada Rotary club. Not only funds but clothing as well.

Mayor Ernest Reuter, lord mayor of Berlin, has dramatized the appeal to Americans and his urgent call is being passed on to communities of America through Carl Spaatz, Richard E. Byrd, Leo Cherne and the International Rescue committee. Rotary clubs throughout the nations are being called upon to spearhead the movement in their communities.

Future Holds Little Hope Here is Mayor Reuter's appeal: "Despite our every effort we cannot provide adequate housing, food and clothing—for those refugees from the East who come daily to Free Berlin by the thousands in ever increasing numbers threatening our precarious economic situation, burdened for more than three years with 200,000 unemployed, a ninth of our city's population.

"There is no work and no hope of a normal life for these refugees. We cannot turn them away because this would be a betrayal of the freedom which we have and they seek.

"We need vast shipments of food and clothing, especially for the children who come to us undernourished.

"In the dark days of the Berlin airlift it was American tenacity and American courage which enabled us Free Berliners to maintain our freedom. These days are equally dark and I call on you friends in America to make one more great effort to help us."

Clothing, Money for Food

The Floydada Rotary club committee, headed by Hollis H. Bond says that any kind of clothes can be used. Especially needed are underwear, socks and baby diapers. The committee is urging people of the community to join in the campaign. They have established headquarters for the collection of clothing at Clark's Cleaners, 109 South Fifth street, and for the collection of funds have drafted C. H. Bedford at the First National bank who will receive and receipt for money offered.

As soon as the collection is completed it will be forwarded to a collection center and thence to Berlin, said Mr. Bond.

Every precaution has been thrown around the collections of funds and clothing to be sure the need is genuine, and that the donations actually reach the needy.

"Our fight will never be lost so long as you and other free men stand with us," said the Berlin official, dramatizing his plea for the helplessness refugees fleeing from the Red scourge.

Rutledge at Home On Business Call

O. P. Rutledge returned home Saturday from Corpus Christi attending to business matters.

He reports Mrs. Rutledge, who is ill in the Memorial hospital there, as being improved. However, she will have to remain there for a few days yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge left Floydada near the first of April for a visit with their son, O. P. Rutledge, Jr., and family in Corpus Christi. They were there a few days when Mrs. Rutledge suffered a heart attack.

Her son, Dr. Randolph Rutledge, of St. Louis, is in Corpus Christi, with his mother and another son, Sam Rutledge of Dallas and a daughter, Mrs. John Mast and husband, Dr. John Mast of Midland have been there also.

Mr. Rutledge will return to Corpus the last of the week.

GOOD HEALTH

Answer to Question No. 1:
 1. Children should have semi-annual physicals and young adults should have them once every year, or once every two years. Adults should be examined once a year, since successful treatment of diseases like cancer and heart disease depends largely upon early diagnosis. This applies to supposedly healthy people.

Answer to Question No. 2:
 2. During World War II every individual in the armed forces had an X-ray examination of the chest. This has been termed the greatest "case-finding program" ever undertaken. There were 12 hospital admissions for tuberculosis per 1,000 service men in World War II as compared to 9.4 in the first World War, largely because of the improved screening process, since in World War II far fewer men were admitted to service who had TB in its early stages. Since the war, similar programs for the X-ray examination of whole communities—even up to 2,000,000 people in Los Angeles—have been shown to be valuable.

Answer to Question No. 3:
 3. Brucellosis is undulant fever, a serious infection usually spread by raw (unpasteurized) milk or raw milk products. Since the discovery of antibiotics, many patients with this disease have been cured. However, stringent health regulations governing the sale of raw milk have reduced the incidence of this disease.

bock Memorial hospital Saturday afternoon.

Wiley and Bob Rogers have a new food freezer at their house. Kathryn and Bud Turner attended the Wilson-Simon Lumber yard party in Levelland Saturday night. Approximately 75 attended this delightful affair.

A delightful addition to our meals of fresh garden vegetables is "Hush-puppies." There are a number of legends as to the origin of the name "Hush-puppies." There is one that connects them to the early fish fries of the south. It seems everyone attended these gatherings, especially the dogs, who made a definite hazard around the deep fish-frying kettles. To quiet their hungry yelps, the cooks would fry big lumps of corn meal batter and toss them to the hounds saying, "Hush, puppies; hush, puppies." This worked so well that the cooks sampled some themselves, and, according to legends, this is the way Hush-puppies were born.

In the April issue of News Notes on Electric Living from the Hotpoint Institute Helen Kirtland, Manager, give us this recipe for Molasses Corn Bread right out of an 1882 cook book:

Two cups of Indian, one cup wheat One cup sour milk, one cup sweet, One good egg that will you beat, Half cup molasses, too. Half cup sugar add thereto. With one spoon of butter new. Salt and soda each a spoon; Mix up quickly and bake it soon; Then you'll have corn bread complete. Beat of all corn bread you meet.

It will make your boy's eyes shine If he's like that boy of mine. If you have a dozen boys To increase your household joys, Double then this rule I should. And you'll have two corn cakes good.

When you've nothing nice for tea, This the very thing will be; All the men that I have seen Say it is of all cakes queen — Good enough for any king That a husband home can bring Warming up the human stove, Cheering up the hearts you love; And only Tyndall can explain The links between corn bread and brain. Get a husband what he likes. And save a hundred household strikes.

This Miss Kirtland says is the recipe we should use for a delicious hot bread to serve in squares with butter as suggested in this poem:

2 cups corn meal, 1 cup sifted flour, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 cup sour milk, 1 cup sweet milk, 1 egg well beaten, 1/2 cup molasses, 1 tablespoon melted butter. Mix dry ingredients together. Combine liquid ingredients and add dry mixture. Stir until just mixed. Pour into 9-inch square pan and bake in 400 degree oven for 30 minutes.

The E. W. Lee family are on vacation in Arizona. A card came yesterday from them in Phoenix, saying they were having a good time.

Speaking of cook books — If you haven't gotten your copy of the Floyd County Rural Electric Cooperative, cook book that was published last year, you should get one before they are all gone, there is still a few left.

We have heard from John Nay and he says:

"I guess you could give a definition of Television as a place where movies go when they die, or you might say television is a piece of furniture that stares back at you."

In speaking of his two grandchildren he says they are growing fast and becoming more like canoes every day, that is, they behave better when paddled from the rear. And this is the poem he sent in this letter:

What a wonderful bird the frog are.

When he stand he sit almost; When he hop, he fly almost; He ain't no sense hardly; He ain't got no tail hardly either; When he sit, he sit on what he ain't got almost."

John and Mrs. Nay are living in Phoenix, Arizona. He has a good job with a construction company as bookkeeper.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

Drouth Emergency water. The governor's committee of 101 citizens of Texas has come up with an idea they think will go a long way toward solving situations such as Texans by the millions have found themselves in the past four years of burning drouth. It is a constitutional amendment which would be put up to the citizens for vote. The amendment would levy a nominal fee on water users to create a state fund to build dams and store waters on Texas streams. The bill was kept alive in the senate through an extended filibuster intended to kill the measure. The committee has given the water problem long study, has done some research and held public hearings throughout the state. We haven't seen the text of the proposed amendment and wouldn't know what our attitude would be when the measure and an explanation of it are available, but we do like the idea. For instance, would it not mean the possibility of two or three or even five dams on the Brazos between the caprock and the New Mexico line? Possibly it means something else. For a good while we have been anxious, as a plainsman, to see the run off water held away out where it falls on the tributaries instead of letting it run wild and play havoc with hundred million dollar installations down-state. Out here is where the water table needs raising.

Lower beef prices have hit the cattlemen a rather severe blow. The country over he numbers in the legions. The thing was not unexpected by the cattlemen who have been to the manor born. To the newcomers it may appear a blow below the belt. The old heads in the business knew it was coming sooner or later. They wanted to see the postwar price not go so high so it wouldn't have so far to come when it headed down. It has been no less difficult from the fact it was not unanticipated. It would have to hit during a drouth when a lot of raisers had to sell. Now that the price is down somewhat the herds that are left have only one way of staying together and that is for the price of concentrated feeds to come down. When that happens to cottonseed and corn it strikes another component of the agricultural industry. Too bad that the survival of one segment calls for reductions, and fast, in what another has for sale.

The recent pronounced reductions in the prices asked for cottonseed meal and for hulls for filler come at a fortunate time in one respect. They come at a time when the mills help bear the brunt of the reduction, sharing the loss with the farmer who will help pay the bill next fall when he goes to sell his cottonseed. It seems to hurt worse to raise a high priced crop that turns cheap at selling time than it does to sell one that turns downward before planting. Many of the cotton oil mills are running now on cottonseed they bought last fall, at a figure that will look sky high by next harvesting season. One mill in the area reportedly has enough seed to run on round the clock until early August. The mills with solvent processed meals are said to be having to sell the bulk of their product to the Commodity Credit corporation. It doesn't "stick" to filler but sifts right on through. The mills also are letting Commodity Credit corporation have most of their oil. That is hearsay report, but probably about right.

Cotton classing office turn down which the plains cotton raisers got when they took their classing problems to the U. S. Department of Agriculture is not being taken without a struggle. In fact farmers still believe their need is serious enough that they will continue to push for relief. In addition to the fact that their cotton was classed somewhat after the whim of some classing office individual the past year in this region, they also think their marketing problems were considerably hampered by delays due to too much volume flowing through one office. The experience of 1952 may not be repeated again in a long time, but it is true that cotton went down considerably between the time a grower wanted to sell and the time he could get classification "green cards." On a down market delay is expensive. Additionally, cotton buyers got to the point early in the season when they wouldn't back their sampling judgment on the kind of a grade and staple they were offered. They couldn't figure out the sampling rules the classing office used. Accordingly the seller would have to produce his green cards before he could sell. Another down market, should there be one, and no additional classing facilities in the area, and the howl heard last year would not be a circumstance.

They brag now, the big foreign insurance companies, about the millions they are investing in Texas. They are going in for everything—municipal, public utility and industrial. One time, history records, they all—everyone of them—left Texas in a huff to fry in the juice of its own folly. Enroute out they cursed the state's homestead law. We are not too glad they have come back to like it all.

Doctors quite sensibly do not argue with the people who tell of deaths from "heart attacks" and "strokes". An attack of illness that is hard enough to claim a life certainly can be called either a heart attack or a stroke, whether or not it is caused by a disease of the heart or pressure in the circulatory system of the brain. A doctor can have a pretty good idea when he arrives on the scene of a death what it was due to, but he doesn't find it profitable to spend his time arguing with the layman that it was or was not a "stroke" or an "attack."

County agent D. F. Bredthauer left Wednesday afternoon for College Station where he will confer with officials on the agriculture conservation program as concerned with the wheat program.

America's first farmer to collect an indemnity for crop failure from the Federal Crop Insurance corporation was John F. Biggs of Floyd county, whose 1939 wheat crop was ruined the combined effects of fall drouth and wind. (A picture shows Mr. Biggs receiving his check from E. R. Duke, Amarillo, State crop insurance supervisor.)

Actual construction began Tuesday upon Floydada's municipal $140,000 light plant, by A. M. Lockett and company, Dallas contractors. As A Farm Woman Thinks

(by Nellie Witt Spikes)

"For memory has painted this perfect day.
With colors that never fade,
And we find at the end of a perfect day
The soul of a friend we've made."
So sang the poet, and looking back, making a list of friends I have made. I found many lovely things to hold in memory, for my real riches are my precious memories, poor I would indeed be without them. And I am thankful as the sun goes ever more towards the west for health, life, and my lingering memories. It is my diary I carry about with me and it gives me joy and comfort to read lines here and there.

Today the wind is blowing, has done so all April. I long to go where "the land where the lemon-trees bloom."

Where the gold orange glows in deep thicket's gloom,
Where a wind ever soft from the blue heaven blows,
And the groves are of laurel and myrtle and rose.

I would see the dogwood with its white flowers of satin, the new leaves on the trees in Tennessee, honey-suckle climbing up tall oak trees and making the air sweet and lovely with perfume. I would love to go back to my youth and see the curly mesquite covered prairies carpeting miles and miles of endless prairie. I want to see blue lakes like precious jewels rippling with golden sunbeams. I want to sit at my desk near the window that looked towards town in Emma and watch for my friends to come to school. Tee's black hair and pink cheeks, as she did sums of algebra on the smooth blackboard. Eula, who was doing cube root just ahead of me, Willie with sunny hair and brown eyes, sitting at my side at the big desk. I want to see them coming down the road with little Bertha, the first grader, all wrapped in warm woolen quilts with their feet on rag-wrapped hot rocks. Lessons of determination and overcoming such obstacles as six miles to school in an open top buggy, cold winds that tugged at the woolen hoods and tacked comforts, winds that fairly blew the school children to town from their country homes, but in the afternoons they had to inch along home if they lived west.

I see Paul Poulson coming down the road to his home, a road laid out by his father as straight and true as the life he lived. Milton Burleson with black hair and blue eyes riding his horse to school. "How cruelly sweet are the echoes that start
When memory plays an old tune on the heart!"

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. Yes, but statistics can fool you. Increase in chronic disease actually means we are getting healthier in our younger years, strange as that seems. Only one half of the people born in 1900 could expect to die of a chronic disease since so many of them were the victims of childhood diseases for which no cure had been found. Today four out of five persons die of a chronic disease, but at a much more advanced age, simply because we now are healthier in our youth and live longer.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. Gingivitis is an inflammation of the gums caused by faulty diet, irritation or infection. While pyorrhea is more serious, since it means that actual pus is present, it is still important to correct gingivitis and thus prevent pyorrhea.

3. There is an old saying, "It takes a lean horse for a long race." If the condition of underweight is not due to illness, such as tuberculosis, thin older people (that is, those over the age of 55 years) live longer than the overweight.

Hope you are up very, soon, John. Maybe you will have time to read that book you have long wanted to get at, write letters, or whatever you have been putting off for lack of time. Make your days blessings in disguise and the time will be very profitable.

News of Harmony

(by Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, April 27 — The Harmony 4-H club met Monday night, April 20, at the community center at 8 o'clock with the sponsors, Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Bob Hopper, Miss Petty and Mr. Rodgers. Mr. Rodgers showed a picture of electricity in the home. This was enjoyed by all. Those present were Sherry and Melba Jo Ramsey, Tommie Smith, Carol Turner, Jr., Barbara Schultz, Norman and Ronnie Hopper, Charles Mather and Bill Carr.

Mrs. Bill Edwards was called to Tulla Tuesday to the bed side of her brother, Carl Gunn, who has been ill for a long time. He had improved but became worse and was taken to West Texas hospital, Amarillo. Mrs. Edwards returned home Sunday and said her brother was resting some better when she left but he is still a very sick man.

Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass was taken to Lubbock Memorial hospital where she underwent major surgery. There was another working at the church Wednesday when evergreens and shrubs were set out all along the north side of the church and cemetery grounds and along the west fence of the cemetery, with some in front of the church corners. Mrs.

Ruebin Rutherford bought or gave money for crape myrtle for the front of the church which we were very proud of. There were close to 150 of these shrubs put out which we hope will soon improve the looks of these grounds. The windmill and well has been fixed so we can water things once more.

There were 25 out Wednesday night for prayer meeting with Lajunna Sue Williams bringing the devotional. Mrs. Chloma Williams had charge of the song service with Mrs. M. D. Ramsey at the piano. We really do enjoy these mid-week services.

Club met Thurs at the club room with Mrs. Jack Parkey as hostess. Roll call was answered by how I use my vacuum attachments. The program was given by Mrs. Chloma Williams as follows: The story of sweeping and a demonstration of house cleaning. Recreation was directed by Mrs. J. R. Turner. There were 15 members present.

Capt. and Mrs. Dalphus Blogett were dinner guests in the Loyce Turner home Thursday evening. The Blogetts were from Columbus, Ohio. They were enroute to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner left Friday for Arkansas for a visit and rest, especially for Mrs. Turner who has been ill.

We were sorry to hear of the death of our county judge Frank L. Moore.

Clyde Krebs filled the pulpit at the chapel Sunday morning in the absence of his brother, Rev. Horace Krebs who was in a meeting at Sterley. Bro. Krebs made a wonderful talk. He is a layman. Brother Krebs had dinner in the Mather

Carr home. His home is near Muleshoe.

Bill Edwards had a nephew fly up from Sweetwater Sunday morning in his private plane for a visit, but the Edwards' were at Amarillo at the bedside of Mrs. Edwards' brother, so he flew back home without a visit.

Those who attended the meeting at Sterley Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Turner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, Aldine Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carr and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith and children visited Sunday in Vernon as guests of Mr. Smith's cousin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Weldon. Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams and Lajunna Sue and Mr. and Mrs. Mather Carr and son, Horace, visited Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass Sunday afternoon in Lubbock at Lubbock Memorial hospital. Mrs. Snodgrass was feeling much better Sunday. She had been pretty sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Watson spent Friday in Ralls with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Robertson. Mrs. Robertson is a sister of Mr. Watson.

Dennis Wilks in company with his aunt, Mrs. Eugene Wilks and children of Portales, New Mexico, visited over the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilks and sister, Mary Elizabeth.

The San Francisco fire of 1906 was caused by breaking of gas mains following the earthquake.

Dr. and Mrs. Joe Williams visited with her mother, Mrs. E. F. Stovall Sunday afternoon and Monday, enroute to North Carolina for a short visit.

Mrs. H. D. Shoemaker and Mrs. Hart Shoemaker and daughters, Nancy and Becky, all of Abilene, visited over the week-end with Mrs. E. F. Stovall, mother of Mrs. Hart Shoemaker. Also guests in Mrs. Stovall's home was another daughter, Mrs. Marvin Gilbert and son Orland and daughter Sue of Lockney.

The Panama Canal was officially opened on July 12, 1914.

We are deeply grateful for the sympathy during our bereavement. Everything you did was very much appreciated.

Old Fashioned Affection is the Best Mother's Day Gift

By Harry Morckel

This is a hard-boiled, speedy age we live in, but some truths will live forever... and among them is the truth that a kiss and a squeeze will mean more to Mother than anything you can find in the stores (my shop included).

What a Mother appreciates most is something you can't wrap up and deliver in a gift box.

However, if you want to give Mother something extra in the way of affection, I hope you'll keep a PFAFF Sewing Machine in mind. When you give her a PFAFF, you're giving her the best... and she deserves it. For example, she can sew on buttons—embroider quickly and easily without attachments with the exclusive Dial-A-Stitch. (And with a PFAFF, you don't need those gadgets and attachments that most mothers—young and old—find confusing and complicated.)

Doesn't make any difference whether the Mother you have in mind is an expert at sewing or just a beginner. A PFAFF is so simple to operate, all women find it easy to use. Economical wardrobes, thrifty drapes and slip covers, nice little gifts—they're all better made on a PFAFF because a PFAFF is a better machine.

Abilene Woman Gives Review at Annual Club Tea

Approximately one hundred club women from Silvertown, Lockney, Lone Star, Matador, Ralls and Floydada were present Saturday afternoon at a tea in Fellowship hall of the First Christian church to hear Mrs. L. E. Dudley of Abilene, give a review of "40 Odd" a recent book by Mary Bard.

Mrs. Dudley, vice-president of the Federated clubs of Texas, with a charming personality and graciousness all her own kept her audience in smiles and laughs at the humorous book, written by the sister of the author of "The Egg and I."

The story is of a wife and mother who had reached her fortieth birthday and her misgivings of things to happen in her "old age." The wife, whose husband is a doctor, is a member of a club composed of doctor's wives, who call themselves, "the neglected ones."

The federated tea, sponsored by the four federated study clubs of Floydada, is an annual affair. The four presidents of the clubs, Mesdames C. A. Caffee, Kinder Farris, Jack Coffman and Miss Anne Swepston greeted the guests with Mrs. Hollis Bond, general chairman of the organization, assisting in the hospitalities.

Mrs. Lon V. Smith, first president of the 1922 Study club, introduced the speaker for the afternoon.

Mesdames Al Galloway, Lyndel Roberts and W. J. Adams, Jr., presided at the tea table which was laid with a pink linen cloth, having for a centerpiece a pink felt hat filled with double pink tulips. Pink ribbon streamers extended from the hat with the words in gold, "Federated clubs, April 25."

Lime frosted punch, white angel food squares with pink rose buds was served.

Mrs. John Stapleton was at the guest register.

The table decorations were by Mrs. John Hoffman and Mrs. W. S. Poole. The refreshment committee was composed of Mesdames R. E. Fry, A. H. Kreis, Glen Armstrong, and Lyndel Roberts.

The four federated clubs of Floydada are the 1922 Study club, the 1929 Study club, the 1934 Study club and the 1950 Study club.

ROADMASTER

Custom built by Buick

JUST finger-tip pressure on the steering wheel lets her park and slow-manuever with far less effort.

For Power Steering — standard equipment at no extra cost on every 1953 Buick ROADMASTER — gives her easy turning of the front wheels, even when this two-ton automobile is standing still.

Just a toe-touch on the gas pedal gives her dazzling getaway, or gentle cruising pace, or soaring power to glide easily up the long, steep hills.

For Twin-Turbine Dynaflow and the world's newest V8 Engine give her a combination of quick, quiet getaway and infinite smoothness that no other car in the world can equal.

She can gentle this big, beautiful bundle of high-powered energy to a swift, sure halt with merely light pressure on the brake pedal — for Power Brakes* reduce needed pedal pressure by 50%.

She can replace summer's humid heat with refreshingly cool air by a flip of a switch — for Buick Airconditioning circulates up to 300 cubic feet of cooled, dustless, filtered, draft-free air per minute.

Actually, the wonders — and the thrills — never seem to cease as you drive this superb ROADMASTER — the greatest Buick in fifty great years.

We'd like both the Mr. and the Mrs. to see it, try it, judge it. Why not drop in this week?

Annual Meet Records Saturday

Annual track meet in Lubbock proved to be the most successful in recent years when 22 records were set in the large list of events. In the class B division 12 records were set, 7 new marks were set in class A, and three records in class AA.

The meet was the new one by Orlan's J. Frank who turned in a 9.6 hundred yard dash and a 21.1 in the 100 yard dash. In the 200 yard dash, Lubbock field were set at 1:07.7 on the hundred in the 200 yard dash. San Angelo with twenty in 1950.

Whirlwinds and other teams found the going a good deal harder in some good races than in other years. That was the case in the 400 yard dash. Florida made four records in the 400 yard dash. Tulla each collected 25 points.

Jump Mark was eliminated in the 100 yard dash. A new record was set in the 100 yard dash when McDonaid of Phillips jumped 6 feet 3 1/4 inches. Rankin of Spar was the only man from this district to place when he tried for third.

Kerwin Baxter failed to place in the shot put which was won by Wright of Andrews with a 45'4 1/2".

Stanley Vickers was eliminated in the discus event won by Wharton of Kermit with a distance of 137'5 1/2".

Brooks Chapman who entered the hundred yard dash, and Franklin Stovall in the two-hundred yard dash were eliminated in the preliminaries when the field was narrowed to six contestants.

Jack Womack, Floydada's fine miler, gathered three points for the 'Winds when he finished a close second to Johnson of Muleshoe. Time for the mile run was 4:49.7. Billy Baker of Floydada also ran the mile but failed to place. The Whirlwind sprint relay team picked up the other lone point with a fourth place in their race.

Winning time in the 440 relay was 4:4.3 a new record turned in by Denver City, the local team of Stovall Covington, Chapman and Muncy came in in 44.9, their best time for the season.

Lose by a Step

The mile relay team of Stevens, Clark, Hartline and Stovall failed to place though they posted a time of 3:36 in the event. This was their best mark for the year by over 5 seconds. Phillips won the mile relay with a time of 3:32.5, with Abernathy running them a very close second. The 'Winds were within a step of the Muleshoe and Memphis entries when the three teams finished almost together a new record was set in this race also.

Rogers of Abernathy finished third in the 440 yard dash behind Counts of Phillips and Adams of Memphis. A new record was set in this event with a time of 51.1.

Coach Preston Watson was well pleased with the performance of the team and of the marks posted at the meet. Jack Womack is the only member eligible to enter state competition at Austin, but probably will not go as he is working out for football and in choosing the two decided to shoot at a spot on the team next fall, having already missed two weeks of contact work on the gridiron.

Center News

(by Mrs. J. E. Green)

CENTER, April 27 — We thought for awhile we'd have a real shower Monday afternoon, but it turned out to be a dust storm. Weather is warming in spite of "northers" that hang on.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Dunn and daughter, Glenna Lee, of Alva, Oklahoma, visited over the week-end with his brother and family, the Frank Dunns.

W. L. Hartline, who has been a member of a wheat sowing crew in South Dakota for some three weeks, returned home last week.

Jane Young of Wayland college spent the week-end with Margaret Green.

Bobby Mack Welborn is still on the sick list.

Mr. Robertson, who became ill Saturday was able to be in church services Sunday night.

Our week-end revival was wonderful. Evangelist Paul McCray and song leader Jack Neece of O. B. U., headquarters at the R. C. Ross home held as per schedule the five services at the church plus three over the radio. Our evening crowds were the largest in years. We were so happy to have at these Fairview congregation, also the visitors from town and elsewhere. The time for the baptizing will be announced later.

Saturday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Frizzell were Brother R. S. Hodges, Brother Paul McCray and Mr. Jack Neece. Mrs. Jackson was a Sunday dinner guest.

Sunday dinner guests of the Greens were Bro. and Mrs. Hodges and Jerry, June Hartline, Jane Young, Bro. Paul McCray and Mr. Neece; also Bill Turner of Wayland, Miss Frances Scott of Wayland came in the afternoon and attended with the rest of the Sunday night services.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Judge Frank Moore whose funeral services some of our people attended on Monday.

And our hearts go out to the family of Darlene Fortenberry, the young girl in our neighboring community Cedar Hill, who lost her life in a car wreck Saturday. Her mother was before her marriage a Center girl. The Frank Dunns, Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Mankins were among those attending the funeral services for Darlene in Lockney Monday.

Wayland students and patrons from Center and all over were made sad at the passing of a beloved instructor, Prof. Lake Pylant, who was killed in a plane crash Saturday evening. Our deepest sympathy is with the loved ones.

Today is the W. M. U. day at Plainview. We hope to have our representatives.

We had such a 'delicious' meat demonstration by Miss Petty last Friday.

Come to church Sunday.

Spring Training In Third Week

Hard work and warm weather have cut down the size of the squad working out for football at the high school, but the coaches stated the remaining boys were willing workers and with track out of the way full attention could be given to gridmen.

About fifty boys are still training under the four coaches who are being assisted some by several of the exes from last fall's championship team. Highlights of the spring training season will come on May 12 when the 1953 edition of the Whirlwinds will take on the exes in a night scrimmage that promises to be a thriller.

Lineups for the two squads will be available by next week and the faithful fans will all be on hand for the big scrimmage to see who will be filling the big shoes vacated by this year's graduating class, and how the younger boys stack up against the upper classmen.

Of course the conditioning and timing of the future Whirlwinds may be at a finer pitch than that of the exes who will rely mostly on experience and weight in the conflict.

Reports coming in from the exes state that they will be ready to go and promise to make their little brothers say uncle before bowing out of the high school football picture.

But I have never been able to find out who this is. In fact, most Americans will get mad and fight if you try calling them common.

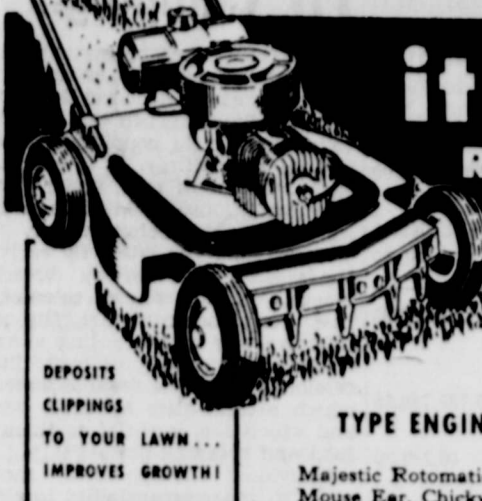

It's a curious fact that when you get sick you want an uncommon doctor; if your car breaks down you want an uncommon mechanic; when we get into a war we want an uncommon admiral and an uncommon general.

I have never met a father or mother who did not want their children to grow up to be uncommon men and women.

May it be always so. For the future of America rests not in mediocrity, but in the constant renewal of leadership in every phase of our national life. — Herbert Hoover.

Spring Is Best Time to Start Fly Campaign

AUSTIN—Early spring is the best time for a community to start a fly control program, declared Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer. That is before the fly population has a chance to multiply. It is estimated that one pair of flies, under favorable conditions, could have countless descendants before winter.

Every time you kill a fly early in the season, and destroy breeding places, you stop whole colonies of flies before they can start. The most effective way of preventing swarms of flies is to destroy or make inaccessible to flies the organic material which attract flies by their odors, and which are essential to them as food and breeding places.

Individual householders should make it their responsibility to clean up their own back yards. Garbage cans should have a tight fitting lid and they should be leak-proof. Inadequate facilities for storage of garbage and refuse usually result in widespread fly breeding. Uncovered or partially covered garbage containers produce odors that attract a large number of flies. Good window screens will do a lot to keep flies out of buildings, thereby protecting food from contamination by fly-borne disease organisms.

There is no substitute for good sanitation in fly control. Every spot in town must be cleaned of garbage and trash. If a few dirty places are left, swarms of flies will breed. A neglected stable on the edge of town will furnish a plague of flies for the entire neighborhood. After garbage and trash have been removed, insecticides will help to reduce fly population in local spots. It is a temporary protection, however, and should be regarded only as a supplemental or emergency means of control. Insecticide spraying will be effective only if sanitary conditions

Another Motley Pioneer Passes

MATADOR — Motley's oldest pioneer is dead, Robert J. (Uncle Dick) Seay 93, died early Wednesday morning at his home in the Teepee Flat community which adjoins a piece of land he homesteaded 63 years ago. He came to Motley county in 1890 and had spent the remainder of his life here.

Mr. Seay is survived by his three sons, Richard and John Watson Seay, of Matador, Robert J. Seay of Roaring Springs, and two daughters, Mrs. Florence Burdine of San Antonio, Mrs. J. T. Persons of Quitaque, and his widow, Mrs. R. J. Seay, and by eight grandchildren.

Funeral service was held Thursday afternoon in the Matador Methodist church with Rev. R. L. Jameson officiating assisted by the pastor, Rev. W. V. O'Kelly. Interment was in the East Mound cemetery, Matador.

Conservation District News

Farmers in cooperation with the Soil Conservation district and assistance of Soil Conservation Service technicians are field leveling their land for more efficient use of irrigation water and natural rainfall.

Lon M. Davis, a cooperater in the Harmony community, has just leveled 54 acres of flat irrigated land. This area contained a shallow lake covering about eight acres which drowned out crops. The area surrounding the lake was very uneven caused by plow corners, old ditch lines and fence rows. Mr. Davis said that yields had been low on this area because irrigation water could not be applied uniformly. Some spots were partially drowned out and other spots did not get enough water. He stated a land float was used each year but helped very little. Mr. Davis not only eliminated the lake but made the whole area uniform without stripping the topsoil from the area surrounding the lake.

I. C. Franks, a cooperater farming in the Cedar Hill community, has just leveled twenty acres. This area also contained a shallow lake. Mr. Franks plans to plant this area to row crops. He plans to use small temporary borders which he can install himself if he plants it to a broadcast crop in order to control his irrigation water.

Field leveling is suited to flat land. No borders are required unless broadcast crops are to be irrigated. Large areas are leveled in one block. It cannot be used on steep land because this sloping land cannot be leveled in one block. The practice is to fit the leveling to the land. Bench leveling or leveling in narrow strips with permanent borders is used on sloping land. As the slope flattens out the strips leveled are made wider thus decreasing the number of permanent borders. If a broadcast crop is to be irrigated on these wide strips temporary borders are installed between the permanent borders to fit the strip to the size of the irrigation well. Leveling improves the gation water, natural rainfall stops water erosion. Hajji is a title conferred on hammedans who have gone to Mecca. An omnivorous animal and vegetable food. MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN FLASH!

FORD BEATS ALL IN ECONOMY!

MILEAGE MAKER "6" WINS SWEEPSTAKES

Score a blazing victory for Ford's dollar-saving gas economy! Ford's high-compression Mileage Maker "6" with Overdrive beat every car entered in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, regardless of size or weight, to sweep the sweepstakes! Ford's winning average was 56.70 ton-miles per gallon.* And Ford's high-compression 110-h.p. Strato-Star V-8 with Overdrive was right up there in economy, too, with a record of 48.55 ton-miles per gallon!

The winning Ford was a regular production car, just like thousands of other '53 Fords you see on the road today. This 1,206-mile trip from Los Angeles to Sun Valley covered all types of driving conditions. The route threaded through city traffic, where stop-and-go driving tests an engine's fuel economy under the toughest conditions . . . and out along the highways of four western states.

The Ford Mileage Maker "6" took all this in stride, maintaining a speed above the required 44.25 m.p.h. minimum, to finish 1st in the sweepstakes! What better proof is there that Ford is the thriftiest car of all? What better way to show why Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!
