IEWS AND COMMENT

School Year Ending. The scholastic year of 1952-53 is at an end, almost literally. This week-end the finals and the first of next week the finale. Which reminds us there may be some disappointments in connection with the school year of 1953-54. It now appears that not only is it unlikely the teachers pay raise bill will be finally resolved in favor of the teaching force but also that some additional working faculty that schools like Floydada have begun to enjoy will be lacking another year. No provision for supervisors and the like is made by the legislature as yet. Leastwise we understand it that way. And if so there'll be a vacancy or two that won't be made up unless it is made up by taxpayers in the district. Meanwhile the youngsters who have enjoyed the advantages of an excellent school this year have the high good wishes of all the community for their good fortune and happiness wheresoever the changing events and the laws of choice and chance shall lead them.

The weather department of The Hesperian did a little better this week, in our book. In fact, the only promise the department made the whole season long has been that it will rain in time to plant a crop. The weather department has been trying to keep people from putting cotton seed in the cold, cold ground. The director of the department has been warning of a late untoward spring. He also said rain in time. Trouble is he hasn't given enough rain to everybody. There are some who claimed Monday they didn't have enough moisture to plant on. Maybe by this date, after the ground soaked a little, the moisture has gone deep enough to fill the immediate need. At that no use to plant unless and until the ground gets warm enough to germinate the seed.

Saturday poppy day. If you have a chance Saturday, join in with the young women representing the veterans of foreign wars and buy one of their poppies. They charge something but do not say how much is the limit. A little extra, if you have it, would not be amiss. They say the money is well spent on men whose futures have been spoiled by shot and shell. Theirs is a sad lot. The fact that you don't see them, that they are tucked away in hospital wards gets them out of your sight and mind. The poppy sales furnish money for the little things that are not provided for by enactments of the congress.

Old Settlers Day. Floyd county pioneers gather today week in Floydada to celebrate the founding of the county. They gather on the 63rd anniversary of that day. The pioneers Re-Union association itself is now celebrating its 25th anniversary. The county was a bit raw 25 years ago. It was raw indeed 63 years ago. Somebody wrought mightily in those formative days. The old timers like to get together and remember it all over again. Well for the community to see that they have a friendly and pleasant atmosphere in which to hold their annual get together. Also well for all of the community that would like to do so to meet with them and enjoy the event. The friendliest people in the world are the old timers when the atmosphere of friendliness is evident.

Misunderstanding last year of what some of the prizes were to be at the old settlers reunion may make this year's number of entries somewhat smaller than usual. However, in fairness to the pioneers it should be said that they gave full publicity to everything in advance, so far as they could in the newspaper and by way of the air waves. It is just one of those things that some felt they had been ill-treated. Old settlers, like many others often have to do, will have to work harder to keep up their relations with the public. None of us like to be unpopular with the neighbors. You can do a fairly good job sometimes and still get considerable criticism. Anybody who works for and with the public will realize as much.

Calls to you. There is not the remotest possibility that the people of the state of Texas or of the United States will contribute too much money to the storm sufferers at Waco. Already they are stirring about and beginning to plan for the future, although they have barely buried their dead and have hardly scratched the surface in their clean up of the debris and rubble of the tornado. They are harrassed, of course, by the curious, who, "want to see," and they have other troubles, too. But basically the need is for food and clothing for the poor people who can't help themselves, who don't even know the banker's name nor have they ever heard of the Reconstruction Finance corporation. Help through your Red Cross or through the newspaper of your choice.

You can't lead someone else any farther than you have gone yourself.

Caution Issued On 'Vaporizing' Killers of Bugs

AUSTIN. — Don't put too much stock in advertised claims for the bug-killing properties of so-called "vaporizers," State Health Officer George W. Cox cautioned Texans today.

He said "indiscriminate use" of the gadgets in homes or sleeping quarters could make the fumes more toxic to humans than to insects.

Vaporizers are familiar as small glass or metal instruments with a conical-shaped insecticide container in the top and a light bulb wired in to the bottom. The insecticide is placed in the cone and vaporized by the heat generated by the bulb underneath.

Widely advertised and sold for "killing bugs the easy way," one brand comes complete with an 8 months supply of chemicals, and makes claims of being "non-toxic, odorless, guaranteed positive extermination of flies, roaches, mosquitoes, all insects — Meets all state and federal requirements."

Dr. Cox called these claims "completely misleading," and pointed to a March 27 statement released by the federal Interdepartmental Committee on Pest Control to back him up. The statement said:

"Because of the health hazard inherent in the misuse of insecticide vaporizers used as fumigators, (the committee) recommends against their use in living quarters."

The committee is composed of representatives of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Departments of Agriculture and Interior; and the army navy, and air force.

The health officer conceded the gadgets might have some beneficial application in commercial or industrial establishments where human exposure will not be continuous and food contamination will not occur.

But he emphasized that it is "dangerous and foolhardy to install them in homes, and advertising them for such use is indefensible."

Except for the participation of a minister to speak the invocation and the formalities of presenting awards and diplomas by the school authorities, the program will be given by the class:

- Professional, "War March of the Priests", Mendelssohn, by Ann Deakins.
- Invocation, Gordon Downing, (Minister of City Park Church of Christ).

We Miss Her

(by Mrs. Pearl Childress in memory of Mrs. P. M. Smitherman who passed away April 17.)
When again we meet to chat and have fun
Our hearts will be sad and lonely
Because there will be an absent one.
Silently death came and made his choice
Leaving us longing and waiting
To hear her dear voice.
Gone from us is this smiling face
But not those sweet memories
Which from our hearts will never cease.
Many, many friends she made
Each day
By her smiles and rose buds
Which she gave
To the weary on life's highway.
We miss her, but we would not say come back
To this land of discontent
Where our faith in Jesus often lacks.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(by Nellie Witt Spikes)

The Coin
Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor a thief purloin —
Oh, better than the minting
Of a gold-crowned king,
Is the safe-kept memory
Of a lovely thing.

These lines are by Sars Teasdale. They say in rhyme what I put away in my heart as Ruth Bartley, Mrs. Bish Travis and many others lately have so graciously given me of their thanks for some things I have written in this column. Many times I decide to quit. There are so many demands on my time. The yard calls with its many duties, the house needs more than I give it. But somehow when the time comes to get this column out, I let everything go and write down my thoughts that have been occupying my mind the past weeks. It is so little that I can give words are the riches that have been my small talent. I must give them freely, words of comfort, words of faith, glowing words of praise, thankful words that enrich one's life. I must plant them as the gardener plants his seeds, trying to grow only the finest and the best. Each week I will try to fill this space so kindly given me, and I shall try not to disappoint you many times. You give me courage and help by telling me you read this part of the local newspapers.

Altho the rain was not sufficient in most parts, we are very thankful for it. After the bad sandstorm of last Saturday, the soft drops of rain cleansed our soul as well as watered our earth. The tragedy of the tornadoes made all of us sad. And we shall not be so bitter against our high winds.

We are looking forward to the pioneer reunions of Hale and Floyd counties. To meet the people who knew the hardships, the joys and pleasures we know, make us happy and we feel young and refreshed again.

I watched them tearing a building down,
A gang of men in a busy town,
With a ho-heave-ho and a lusty yell
They swung a beam, and the side-will fell.

I asked the foreman, "Are these men skilled?
And the men you'd hire if you had to build?"
He gave a laugh, and said: "No, indeed!
Just common labor is all I need. I can easily wreck in a day or two what builders have taken a year to do."
And I thought to myself as I went away,
Which of these roles have I tried to play?
Am I a builder who works with care,
Measuring life by the rule and square?
Am I shapping my deeds to a well made plan,
Patiently doing the best I can?
Or am I a wrecker, who walks the town
Content with the labor of tearing down?

Food Sense — Not Nonsense

Science Erases Pellagra

It is difficult to believe that not too long ago, spring and gay spirits were not the one and same thing for all people. To some, spring meant illness, a terrible illness known as pellagra which struck in the spring and fall.

Late in the 1930's, scientists found that those who suffered with pellagra, long known as our chief disease caused by a lack of nutritious food, responded to one of the newly-discovered B vitamins—NIACIN. Today, pellagra has all but been erased from America. This modern miracle has been accomplished by vitamin B enrichment of bread and cereals, teamed with a public health program.

In certain areas where the diet was once exceedingly poor, pellagra was fairly common. Usually it was not recognized except in advanced stages. Such symptoms, linked with serious niacin shortage, included severe irritations of skin exposed to sunlight, intestinal disturbances, and nervous disorders. Some cases resulted in confinement in mental institutions and even death.

Early symptoms of niacin shortage usually do not present a clear-cut picture and need the attention of the physician. Although pellagra was often the heritage of the poor, it may occur in mild forms to rich and poor alike, even today. Those persons who have peculiar food likes and dislikes, or who follow freak food fads, or who limit their diet to foods of low nutritive value are courting trouble.

Pellagra, like diphtheria and smallpox—miseries of a past generation—must be prevented by constant vigilance. Getting your daily niacin need not be left to chance. To get those niacin-sparked foods, eat plenty of meat, dried peas and beans, spinach, and eggs plus generous amounts of enriched or whole grain bread and cereals. Requirements for enrichment are based on Federal regulations. Four average slices of enriched bread furnish about one-fifth of the daily niacin allowance. Prevention of pellagra is a pleasure—good eating the right way.

economy. But a study of resolutions adopted at the Farm Bureau convention in Seattle this month shows that this large farm group has developed a program in which all segments of the economy are given a balanced place.

The Farm Bureau fights for many things of particular advantage to farmers; but it does not, for example, demand economy in government except where agriculture is concerned. One resolution states that "No segment of our economy, including agriculture, (should) be spared participation in effort to achieve a balanced (federal) budget."

The AFBF supports a continuation of price support program that will protect the farmer against radical fluctuations in prices. But the resolutions add:

"It is not, however, the responsibility of the government to guarantee profitable prices to any economic group."

And the resolutions state: "In order to encourage high production perman in agriculture, the emphasis in farm programs should continue to be on adequate prices in the market place rather than on income subsidies."

The AFBF, in our estimation, does not demand anything from the government that is not both advantageous to agriculture and the national

Use Hesperian want ads

We read the other day that Movie Actor Edward Arnold thinks men should spend more time in the kitchen. Says they would be closer to their families, understand their wives' problems better, and have a lot of fun learning to whip up delectable dishes.

We know some husbands who would immediately report that the kitchen may be a wonderful place to have a good time, but that it's the last place in the house they'd go expecting to spend more time with their wives. Of course, they'd be joking. Wives do spend a lot of time in the kitchen — especially those whose husbands fancy themselves as first rate male cooks.

In our early married days we used to have dinner occasionally with an interesting older couple. The husband prided himself on making a certain spaghetti dish with meat balls, and his wife confided that the dishwashing on those occasions was something. Said it started shortly after noon and went on until an hour after the guests finally said goodnight. Furthermore, he cooked all over the kitchen. And between running errands for him, she had to clear off a corner somewhere to prepare his favorite German cookies, get together a salad to be served with the super dressing he demanded, make coffee, and generally round out a company dinner.

Our own experience with male cooks has been strictly as an outside observer, but offhand we'd say they are considerably more exacting than the run-of-the-mill husband who doesn't even know which cabinet door to open to find the cracker box. And although we occasionally feel a twing of envy for the woman with kitchen-broke husbands, we then remember that the fellow who doesn't understand culinary secrets is probably a much easier animal to feed.

Plains News

Plains, May 18. — The fine rain which fell last night and early this morning was reported in most sections. The cotton farmers had their cotton bolls open and the rain will mean they will be able to use devices to replant the cotton through the holes in the soil. The rain filled the soil and the cotton plants are busy with their graduation and entertainments. School doors close officially and out of report cards.

Hope for 1000 Registrations at Art Exhibit

With a prospective entry list of a hundred paintings the second annual Caprock Community Art show opens on Monday for a five-day showing. Sponsored by the Paint Brush Art club, the show will be held at the Southwestern Public Service Co.

"We named our art exhibit a community art show because we are trying to stimulate art and art interests in our Plains-Caprock communities," said Mrs. E. J. Barker, chairman of the show. "Within recent years more and more people are finding great satisfaction with art as a hobby. They are not trying to be professionals but paint because they enjoy painting. The Caprock Community Art show gives every artist an opportunity to show his work."

The exhibit this year will be judged by Mrs. Olin Miller of Plainview. First, second and third place ribbons will be awarded by the Floydada Chamber of Commerce. Teachers and professionals are invited to exhibit their work but only the amateur paintings will be judged.

There are three important rules to remember in making an entry, said Mrs. Barker.

An artist may enter two paintings in each medium. All pictures should be framed. All work should have been done since the April, 1952, exhibit. Entries will be accepted at the Southwestern Public Service Co. all day Saturday, May 23 and until noon Monday. The show will open at two on Monday and be open each afternoon from two until five p.m. through Saturday. All paintings should be picked up by the owners after 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 30.

The dates for this year's show were selected to include the annual meeting of the Floyd County pioneers. The show will be open all day on Thursday and the pioneers have a special invitation to see the exhibit at that time.

There were 105 paintings in last year's show with entries from Crosby, Motley, Hale and Floyd counties. Over 500 people signed the registration book. With the Floyd county pioneers seeing the show on Thursday, officials hope that the attendance will hit the 1,000 mark.

Ropers Contest Old Settlers Day

Floydada Roping club will be represented by the Ware brothers, Ras and Bill, and by Bud Pope, in roping matches scheduled for next Thursday, old settlers day in Floydada.

The Ware will rope as a team against John Trimmer and Orville Hicks of Hale Center, in the first match.

In the second match Pope will rope against Smoky Alexander of Silverton.

Each contestant will rope four calves. The ropings will be held immediately after the old settlers parade.

Special Award To the 'Whirl'

AUSTIN, May 9 — The Floydada Whirl, school newspaper of Floydada high school, today was presented an award of achievement in journalism by the University Inaerscholastic League Press conference. The award recognizes the extraordinary achievements of the paper during the 1952-53 school year. It is a special award, given to comparatively few papers each year, and because of the high degree of improvement or achievement on some special fields required if a paper is to qualify for the achievement award, this ranks as one of the highest awards offered by ILPC.

The Press Conference, Texas-wide organization of public school publications, climaxed its 26th annual convention in Austin today by the announcement of the ratings of papers in each of five classifications. The Whirl ranked among only ten in its class receiving this award.

The certificate presented by the Press conference states that the award is "in recognition of outstanding achievements and progress in journalism among high-school papers of the year in Texas."

January 1 became generally accepted as the first day in the year in 1752.

Pioneers Meet Committeemen Complete Plans

At Saturday's meeting of the Pioneers Association committeemen reporting for the 25th annual celebration of the founding of the county appeared to have their assignments all "under control." These committee include:

Registration: Miss Margaret Collier, who is naming a corps of assistants;

Preparation of dance platform, Omer Parrish, who said the big outdoor floor would be laid on the day before the annual re-union;

A. T. Svepston, who has completed arrangements for the dance music;

Lindsey Graham, who sent word to the meeting Saturday that the seating and table arrangements are under control.

For the memorial service Thursday afternoon Mrs. Glad Snodgrass, Mrs. Mattie Hale and Mrs. Sallie Griffith have accepted responsibility. For the names of former residents of the county who have succumbed in the year since the last meeting they are asking the help of pioneers and others who may have names which will not be available to them locally.

Other committeemen reporting included Homer Steen, Glad Snodgrass, Jack Henry, and C. L. Anderson. The latter is active in assembling names of persons born in Floyd county 50 years or more ago who will be eligible to join the National Floyd County club, an informal organization, the eligibility list of which will be determined entirely by the date of birth in Floyd county.

Among other actions taken by the directors in their recent meetings was that of naming Wayne Robison, manager of Radio Station KPLD, as a member of the entertainment committee.

News of Harmony

(Crowded out last week)

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, May 12 — Mmes. J. R. Turner, Monroe Shulz, Everett Miller, Don Finkner and Mather Carr attended the home demonstration meeting at Floydada last Tuesday. Mrs. Harris of Plainview gave the program.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner returned home from Arkansas Tuesday where they had been visiting for several days.

The W.S.C.S. met Wednesday night at the church for their regular monthly program. Mrs. M. D. Ramsey was in charge. This being family week it was voted to have this meeting in connection with the prayer meeting so our families could attend. Mrs. Ramsey spent hours preparing this program and it was wonderful.

On the stage was a scene duplicating our church, windmill, shrubs, Carr's Chapel sign, flowers, lawn and everything that was on the grounds. Mrs. Ramsey was assisted in preparing this beautiful scene by Mrs. Everett Miller, Mrs. Sherwood Ramsey, Charles Mather Carr and others. Each officer, member and others took part in placing the pool, mail box, trees, flowers, stepping stones, etc. It was an awfully good program and others who missed it sure missed something. There were 50 present. Rev. Krebs had charge of the devotional.

Mmes. M. D. Ramsey, Sherwood Ramsey and Marvin Smith attended the W.S.C.S. district meeting at the First Methodist church in Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sherwood of Beatrice, Nebraska, were guests in the M. D. Ramsey home several days last week. The Sherwoods attended the services at the church Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Tipton attended the services at the church at the church Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams of Amarillo were guests in the home of his son, Chloma Williams and family Wednesday. They attended services at the church Wednesday night.

The E. W. Turners had as their guests last week Mrs. C. K. Bryan of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Duncan and daughter of Floydada, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Aiken and Mrs. Charles Watson. Mrs. Bryan is the former Mrs. Cox who was once a resident here. Mrs. Duncan is a daughter of Mrs. Bryan.

Those who attended the funeral of Carl Gunn Saturday at Tullia were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Carr and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Mather Carr and son, Horace. Mr. Gunn passed away Friday in a Tullia hospital where he had been ill for a long time. Services were conducted in the Church of Christ in Tullia and burial was in the Tullia cemetery.

We were so sorry to hear of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Skrabanek's little son at Midland. Mrs. Skrabanek is the former Patsy Jack Parkey. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Parkey attended the funeral of their little grandson Saturday at Midland. On their return home Saturday night they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Skrabanek for a short visit. They have our sympathy in their great loss.

Mrs. Guy Steen of Austin and Mrs. Alvis Bunn of Alpine spent Saturday night with their sister, Mrs. Bill Edwards. They were on their way home after attending the funeral of their brother, Carl Gunn of Tullia.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Baker are the proud parents of a baby son born Sunday morning in Peoples hospital, Floydada. He tipped the scales at 7 lbs. and 12 ounces. He has been named Danny Dale. The Bakers live on the E. W. Turner farm.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pierce and children of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Loyce Turner and son were dinner guests for Mothers day in the E. W. Turner home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary had as their guests for Mothers day dinner Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams and sons of Floydada and Miss Reda Mae Gary of Lubbock.

Those who had Mothers day dinner in the Mather Carr home were Mr. and Mrs. Sim Burrows of Plainview, Wesley Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Chloma Williams and daughter and Horace Carr.

Rev. Marvin Boyd held the fourth quarterly conference Sunday afternoon at Carrs Chapel at 3:30. Brother Krebs has just one more Sunday at the Chapel before conference. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Cubb Parish of Cone, Mr. and Mrs.

Raymond Williams and daughters and Mrs. Bill Finkner, Mrs. Pinkner, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Everett Miller and Loyce Turner rendered the special music.

The J. B. Shannon children and Buddy Smith had the mums.

Mrs. Wesley Carr and sons spent Mothers day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bailey of Dumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller of Lubbock attended church at the chapel Sunday night. After church with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller they visited in the Mather Carr home. They spent the night with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Zant Scott and children spent Sunday at Boys ranch as guests of Rev. and Mrs. Engholm and sons.

We had a wonderful Mothers day service Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Loyce Turner had their little son baptised.

Santa Fe Will Give 4-H Club Awards in 1953

The Santa Fe Railway will renew its annual educational awards to 4-H Club boys and girls in Texas again in 1953. A total of 69 awards are offered in states served by the Santa Fe, and Texas will receive 15.

The awards are cash sufficient to pay all the winners' expenses to attend the National 4-H club Congress to be held in Chicago next fall.

In addition to these annual prizes, the Santa Fe will offer 18 college scholarships of $250 each to one boy and one girl each in Arizona, California, Colorado, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.

The company also is making a contribution of $1000 to the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

Winners for both the awards and scholarships will be selected by State 4-H Club leaders based on achievement records of the individuals.

While the boys and girls are in Chicago, the Santa Fe will be host to a dinner in honor of its 69 winners and including a number of national leaders in the 4-H Club movement.

THE MAKING OF FRIENDS

(Author Unknown)

If nobody smiled and nobody cheered, and nobody helped us along,

If nobody cared just a little for you, and nobody thought about me,

And we all stood along in the battle of life, what a dreary old world it would be.

Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made and the things in common we share.

We want to live on, not because of ourselves, but because of the people who care.

It's giving and doing else, on that all life depends.

And the joy of the you have summed it all up in making of friends.

Shelf off our coast because the Gulf of Mexico is rather shallow as compared to the ocean itself.

However, some of the Eastern States — Massachusetts in particular — have a much broader Shelf even than our own. Rhode Island, New Jersey and Maine have sections of the Shelf larger than their present limits.

Many Nations — and our own among them — have assumed control of the Continental Shelf off the coast, even though it is underwater.

Due to the huge value of the oil and other reserves under the Continental Shelf, a wise administration of these reserves is vitally important — not only to the Nation — but also to the State. The total value of these reserves has been estimated at 100 billion.

A wasteful use of these Continental Shelf reserves could drain fields within our historic boundaries.

In my next article I will discuss why Texas claims a rightful share in the Continental Shelf off our coast and outside our historic boundaries.

Safer Automobiles for Safer Driving

Safer automobiles for safer driving is the main objective of Continental Oil company's summer advertising program, which begins this week in The Hesperian.

Conoco's advertising will contain a list of safe-driving tips compiled by the National Safety Council. Commenting on the safety-first theme of the company's summer campaign, Paul Jones, National Safety Council director of public information, recently stated:

"The need for spreading the gospel of safety is becoming more urgent year after year, considering that more people were killed in automobile accidents last year than were killed in the Korean War. We feel that Continental Oil company is to be congratulated for undertaking a program of this sort."

Continental's advertisements, which will appear in 1,029 newspapers, will urge car owners to take their cars to Conoco service stations for safety check-ups, in which tires, lights, batteries, cooling systems, and other parts commonly causing unsafe driving conditions will be checked without cost to car owners.

Newspapers will again serve as the main force in Continental's advertising plans, and this program will be supplemented by point-of-purchase advertising as service stations operated by more than 30,000 dealers, it was said.

Mrs. Emma Stanford, Mrs. Ernie Walker and Mrs. Ola Spence of Lufkin, Texas, spent last week here with their sister, Mrs. S. C. Capshaw.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dale Johnson and son, Johnny Lee, of Parks Air Force base, Pleasanton, California, have been here for several days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Johnson and grandfather, N. A. Armstrong.

LAST RESORT:

Hubby sneaked home at 3 a.m. His angry wife met him at the door. "So home is the best place after all!" she snorted.

"I don't know about that," her mate replied. "But it's the only place open."

WILDLIFE HEREDITY

AUSTIN, Texas — A University of Texas zoologist, Dr. W. Frank Blair, will seek basic facts about wildlife heredity by "interviewing" frogs and toads with a tape recorder.

He will transcribe the mating calls of various frogs and toad species in the State to determine if differences in the calls of frog species, for example, are important reasons why several species of frogs can exist in a single swarm apparently without interbreeding.

"RIDICULOUS DAY"

"Ridiculous Day" in Aledo, Ill. (pop. 2,919), served the same purpose. Merchants and clerks dressed in ridiculous costumes, put any business man who didn't into a cage. The local editor set type and twisted copy to make it sary. And prices were ridiculous, too: for example:

"From 2 p.m. to 2.20 p.m., 28 cent boxes of cleansing tissue will sell for 10 cents." Store sales fell in line with the pattern: to the merchants' delight, they were ridiculously high.

Reports Given County Council On Activities

The Floyd county home demonstration council met at 2:30 p.m., May 16, in the council room. Council chairman, Mrs. W. R. Daniel, presided. Nine of the 16 clubs were represented by six officers and three council delegates and Miss Petty, the county agent. Roll call was answered with accomplishments of the clubs ranging from white elephant sales to book reviews. The meetings of all the clubs have been well attended. The minutes of the last meeting were read but since a quorum was not present they were not approved.

Mrs. Howard Drysdale requested that each club send in a suggestion of a book or books to the library committee. The quicker the suggestions are sent in the sooner the orders for the books can be placed.

Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass has the greeting cards but since she was unable to attend the meeting, each club is requested to have someone drop by Miss Petty's office and pick up the cards. Mrs. M. J. McNeill requested that all checks paying for the cards be made to "The Floyd County Home Demonstration Council."

Year Book Suggestions

Mrs. Raymond Teeple asked all clubs to bring suggestions for the year book to the next council meeting. The year book committee wishes to begin work on the year book in June. Miss Petty requested each club to make comments on the demonstrations and programs so she will know if the clubs are pleased or displeased with the things they are doing.

Miss Petty and Mrs. W. R. Daniel expressed their appreciation to the exhibit committee for the very nice floral arrangements and to Mrs.

Weldon Smith and Mrs. L. K. Sherman for the gift trays at the tea given for Mrs. Harris. Miss Petty thanked the program committee for the splendid program and Mrs. Thomas Marr thanked all of the club presidents for their cooperation in helping with the program. A report of the tea was given by Mrs. A. H. Kreis.

Miss Petty reported that Mrs. H. L. Dunn has tomato plants for sale at 2 dozen for 35c. Mrs. Eaves raises fryers to sell. Dressed fryers are $1.00.

Report on Dress Revue

Miss Petty gave a report on the 4-H dress revue. Fifty one girls entered and each received a prize. Miss Margaret Lovell won first in the older group and will go to the district dress review May 30. Mrs. A. H. Kreis commented on the improvements the girls had made since last year. Miss Petty judged in dress reviews in Lubbock and Swisher counties.

Mrs. W. R. Daniel reported on the R.E.A. dinner.

Mrs. C. A. Caffee suggested that a gift be presented to Jodie Brown for the excellent and very amusing readings given at the district meeting held in Lubbock last month.

Miss Petty read some of the program suggestions for the year books on family economics. They include managing the family income, children's part in the family income, records that help, places for keeping records, managing the bank account, property insurance, credit for farm families, securities for farm families, and transfer of property.

The Creative School of Arts will be held in the home ec. building of Texas Tech on July 6-10. The purpose of the school is to teach originality and designing.

The crafts for June will be copper foil. Mrs. Loyce Turner has consented to give the demonstration to the club leaders. Each club has been asked to have the material on hand for as many members as care to participate.

Harmony won first place in the county and district in the rural home progress contest and has been judged by the state committee. They won't know the out come until June 3 or 4.

Mrs. W. R. Daniel announced the state meet had been postponed until September 30 and October 1.

The Council meeting was not very well attended but since everyone had a very good excuse (the rain) we will look forward to seeing them at the next council meeting.

The program began with Buena Holmes playing the piano. The program ended with a prayer. The refreshments were served at the food laboratory. The evening was enjoyed by every one. F.H.A. Convention Reported (By Darlynn Warren and Winona Hatley) Before we start telling you something about our trip, we would like to say "thank you" to our local P.H.A. chapter for giving us the privilege of representing them at the state P.H.A. convention, also to Mrs. McMillian and her family for showing us such a good time. Wednesday morning, April 29, we left Floydada at 5 a.m. for San Antonio, Texas, where everyone would be going for the state meeting. We surely thought that perhaps the dirt would not follow us, but we were wrong for the dirt accompanied us to San Antonio. Our first stop was in Abilene where we ate our breakfast. One here in West Texas does not realize the beauty of our state flower, the bluebonnet, until they can go farther south and see fields after fields of them, along with the other pretty flowers. Next stop was Mason where we ate our lunch. Journeying on, we soon arrived at San Antonio. After finding a lodge we soon could feel the results of riding all day. That night we went to the Brackenridge Park where we visited the alligator gardens. We saw one alligator that was six hundred years old. Their life span being seven hundred years. Park Scene of Beauty Next morning we went again to the park. The thing we enjoyed most there was the sunken Chinese Tea garden. If one has not seen it, he cannot imagine its beauty. We also went to the Brackenridge zoo, which all of us enjoyed. That afternoon we visited one of the most historic things of San Antonio, the Alamo. It really gives one a different feeling to walk where our Texas heroes gave their lives. Thursday night we went to the Plaza hotel to register. While here we saw two students who formerly went to P.H.S. They were Betty Stewart of Olney and Mildred Contraes of Estelina. We were very glad to see them. That night an informal party was held in the ballroom of the Plaza hotel. Friday morning we began our first general session at the municipal auditorium. The theme of the meeting was preserving our American heritage. After several inspiring speakers, we felt that we understood more clearly ways in which to preserve this great heritage. Several of the men of the education department of San Antonio gave us a hearty welcome. Each minute was packed full of some activity. Dr. Bernice Moore and Dr. John McFarland gave very interesting speeches. That afternoon we began the second general session. Several students representing different chapters entertained us between speeches. That afternoon, we were privileged to hear The Honorable Sarah T. Hughes. She has just recently become a member of President Eisenhower's cabinet. All of us really felt honored to have such a wonderful person speaking to us. That night, tired as we were, we attended the Mardi Gras supper which really tasted good, after having been in a meeting all day. After the supper the ten areas of the Texas association gave us a very interesting talent show. Saturday morning began the third and last general session. This was the business meeting. Marilyn Davis, national secretary, told us of her many trips to New York and everywhere representing the Texas association of Future Homemakers. State and honorary degrees were presented at this meeting; and after the installation of the new officers, Barbara Bradford, the past president, dismissed us. We were at last on that long road toward home. At 11 p.m. five tired and sleepy people drove into Floydada. We had certainly had a wonderful time. Again we would like to say thanks for such a wonderful trip. It would have not been possible had it not been for our fine sponsor and the P.H.A. chapter. We only wish that we could have taken every member of our P.H.A. chapter. After attending this convention we realize more how important the Future Home Makers of America are and what part they play in preserving our American heritage. After this convention we feel that about three-thousand people will go home with a newer idea and outlook on our American privileges and heritage, and every homemaker will begin a better home for the future.

Cash for Road Machine Makes County Record

LOCKNEY—Commissioner Hugh Counts of Precinct 2, Floyd county set some sort of a record last week when he paid cash for a big road maintainer for his precinct. It was reported to be the first time in the history of the county that such a transaction has been made in a cash deal. The caperpillar motorgrader cost $14,700 cash. The usual practice is for the commissioner to issue road bonds to pay for the machine. Had Mr. Counts followed this practice the interest on the bonds would have amounted to around $3,000 making the machine cost more than half again as much. In addition, by making the cash deal, the precinct received a discount and a cheaper price. Mr. Counts is now in his fifth year as Commissioner of this precinct. The big maintainer was delivered recently. Other commissioners in the county are planning to make similar purchases, said Mr. Counts. Pioneer Round-Up For Hale County Set for Saturday Saturday, May 23, the Business and Professional club of Plainview, will sponsor the 25th annual Pioneer Round-Up for old timers of Hale county. The day's activities will start off at 10 o'clock with registration and reception at the city auditorium, where refreshments will be served. An all day varied program will be held near the court house to enable the visitors to greet all their friends, and a colorful parade is scheduled for 2 o'clock. A chuck wagon supper will be served from 6 until 8 p.m. The evening program will begin at 8 o'clock. The program will be followed by square dancing. The supper, program and dancing will be held in the City auditorium.

S. S. Payments Show Increase

Social security payments totaling $121,000 went to 3,954 people in the South Plains area in December 1952, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock Social Security office. This was an increase of 33% over payments at the end of 1951.

The men and women 65 or over who had worked long enough to qualify for old-age insurance benefits made up the largest group of beneficiaries and received larger amounts than dependents and survivors. Numbering 1,621, they received $64,330 for the month, an average of about $40. Most of them were from 65 to 74 and received payments after meeting the test of retirement given in the law; those 75 or over could receive payments even though they were still working.

In the smaller groups, 176 aged widows and dependent widowers received $5,630 and 440 wives and dependent husbands received $9,061.

Not all of the South Plains people entitled to payments were 65 or older. Monthly checks went to 1,612 mothers and children — some of them dependents of retired men, but most of them survivors of those who

New Safety Tire Demonstration

DAYTONA BEACH, FLORIDA—In this spectacular tire test a car was driven at 40 miles an hour over two concrete blocks, and although wheel rims were badly bent, there were no blowouts. The blocks were spaced so that the wheels, after hitting the first block, landed full force on the sharp edge of the second block. The public demonstration was staged before 10,000 spectators by the United States Rubber Company to prove the blowout prevention qualities of its new Lifewall safety feature. In other tests, a car was driven over a 5-inch steel spike, and was also driven around without tires — mounted only on the four inner nylon shields—also without failures. It has been estimated that tire blowouts are contributing factors in nearly 50,000 highway auto accidents each year, and the purpose of the beach tests, before city officials and a large crowd, was to introduce a safety feature offering motorists positive blowout prevention.

had died. The payments to 302 mothers amounted to $9,525 in December, and 1,310 children received $36,460.

Changes made by the 1950 and 1952 Amendments to the Social Security Act accounted for a considerable part of the increases, both in the number of people receiving benefits and in the amounts of their payments. In 1950 the law was changed to include millions of people not covered before, and to make it easier for them to qualify for payments. Among those newly covered were self-employed people and regularly employed household and farm workers.

The 1952 changes, effective in September, raised the amounts of practically all benefits, gave social security credits for military service after the end of World War II, and provided that a person can be considered "retired" even though he is earning as much as $75.00 per month.

Notary Public Appointments Near Deadline

A second reminder from Secretary of State Howard Carney has been issued, reminding prospective applicants that this is the season and the year for the appointment of notaries public.

The secretary of state announces that all persons now holding notary public commissions will be reappointed without the necessity of making application. However he points out:

"All such persons must qualify by filing an oath and bond with the county clerk of their residence between June 1 and June 10." He adds further that the law specifically requires the county clerk to approve notary bonds. Individuals should not send money or requests for commissions direct to the secretary of state. All notary matters can only be received by the secretary of state after the county clerk acts thereon.

In case you are not a notary and want to obtain a commission as one you should apply to the county clerk not later than Saturday of this week, May 23, if you desire to have your application get prompt attention. Requirements for a commission as a notary public are that the person applying must be at least 21 years of age, and a resident of the county for which he is appointed.

HALF OF GOLD AT FORT KNOX

The steel and concrete U. S. Bullion Depository at Fort Knox, Ky., military reservation was completed in 1936. In 1937 the first shipments of gold bullion were moved there from various U. S. mints. At present about $12,500,000,000 in gold, in custody of the Treasury Department, is stored there, in bars weighing approximately 27½ pounds. This is about half the total stored gold, the rest being in U. S. mints and assay offices. — EX.

been offered is a guarantee of a fair price for farm products.

This "guarantee" is the parity program — and it has many ups and downs on the popularity scale of public opinion. Most of those who understand the workings of the program realize its value in maintaining a sound farm price structure. The majority of its opponents have a distorted picture as to its operation and costs.

When a farmer plants his crops, he starts production on goods which will not be ready for market for months or even years. In the meantime, economy or military events can send the sales price of crops soaring or crashing. The price of cotton, for example, will be more affected this fall by talks now going on in Korea than by any other single factor.

Parity price, then, is merely the farmer's equivalent of the laborer's minimum wage law. It helps assure him of a fair price for his time and labor, materials and money, utilized in making a crop.

If market conditions are favorable he can sell for a profit. But if the market is temporarily gutted and the going price is below his profit margin, he can "sell" to the government at the parity price. As conditions improve and demand increases, the government places these products on the market and redeems the money paid to the farmer.

Opponents often say the program is too expensive. Actually, the cost of the parity program during the last 11 years was $14 million. This may seem high, but it includes the absorption of the $90 million loss on the potato program some years ago. Profits on sale of cotton and wheat and other parity products would have shown a net profit of more than $60 million if it were not for that one disastrous crop.

The $14 million is not a tremendous price to pay for stabilizing this nation's largest industry. In time, it will pay its own way. A realistic and practical parity program should and must be continued to prevent a re-occurrence of the economic collapse of the 1930's.

Want to make a quick getaway?

THE nearest we can come to word-picturing for you how it feels to drive a 1953 Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflo* is this:

When you toe the gas treadle, you can get away like silken lightning in a silent hurry.

More specifically, you can sweep your speedometer needle from zero to a legal 30 mph in the time you normally take two breaths.

Equally important, you get this dazzling getaway with whisper quiet — and with one smooth, progressive build-up of velvety power.

The literal truth is — no other car in all the world can get away with the combined quickness, quiet and utter smoothness of a 1953 Buick with TT Dynaflo.

It takes more than the advanced new engineering of this fully automatic transmission to produce such thrilling performance, of course.

It takes power, too.

And that's here in full measure — the highest horsepower and compression ratios, Series for Series, in Buick's fifty great years — with the world's most advanced V8 engine powering the SUPER and ROADMASTER.

There's a lot more you get in any 1953 Buick in generous and hard-to-match measure — room, comfort, ride steadiness, visibility — and, above all, value.

But these are things you must discover for yourself — as you must the greatest Buick performance in history.

Why not drop in on us real soon? We'll be happy to put you at the wheel of a new Buick and let our points prove themselves.
