Date Set for Three-Day Event Is September 17, 18 and 19

Tuesday night's county fair meeting crowd voted to undertake to put on a Floyd county fair this fall and set the dates for September 17, 18 and 19.

Opening their session somewhat timidly, in view of the drought conditions and lackadaisical attitude apparent in several communities, the crowd grew more enthusiastic as they discussed possibilities and wound up in optimistic mood, with the expressed belief that what difficulties there may be can be surmounted.

Forty-six persons, representing nine communities were present at the meeting. A large per cent of these were residents of Floydada, but there were reports also from five other communities.

Loyce Turner, temporary chairman, presided at the meeting, called following a first session a week ago when less than 30 persons were present. The meeting was held only after at least one person had been contacted in every major community in the county. Turner's report on the all-over situation dealt with information on county fairs that had been obtained, on the fair housing and location situation and on the support which may be anticipated from various sources in the county.

Robertson Boy Given Life By Jury at Vernon

"My folks are good people, I want to thank them for what they have done for me. I love them both. I don't know what I would have done without them."

Such were the words of convicted killer Earl George Robertson, who received life imprisonment last Friday afternoon late in 46th District court at Vernon, for the slaying of Victor Smith an Amarillo service station operator on January 6.

Earl also said he was "pleased with the verdict" and he thanked George McCarthy, his attorney for "doing a good job." Earl George Robertson was interviewed in Wilbarger county jail after his trial by Bill Cox of the Amarillo Daily News.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robertson, parents of Earl and two of his brothers, Bob and James, were in Vernon most of last week, to attend the trial.

Other Floydada persons who were in attendance at the trial included D. W. Pyffe, Chill McClure, Jess Patterson and Roe Jones, all four of whom testified.

Jailers said that Robertson behaved well during his confinement in county jail at Vernon.

The parents broke into tears as the verdict was read, as did the accused man, who had shown no emotion during the week's trial.

Earl said, "I think I've got it coming." I think some time will do me good. I am not insane. I have been a little mixed up in my mind."

District Attorney Hermon Pipkin said the state will prosecute to the utmost in the second murder charge facing Robertson, the knife slaying of the taxi driver Gibbs on January 8.

Earl is anxious to be transferred to the Potter county jail in Amarillo, as he said it would be more convenient for his family and friends to visit him.

Judge Jesse Owens of the 46th District presided during the trial and read the jury's verdict.

Earl will probably be returned to the Amarillo jail this week, it was said.

Softball Mgrs. Meet Tonight

Their preliminary tournament completed in brilliant fashion Tuesday night, the managers of the softball teams will meet tonight (Thursday) at the American Legion hall to make final plans for organizing the Hi-Plains Softball League, said Edward Wester, secretary, yesterday.

Plans are to start league play on June 8.

Ward Home Run Wins
Joy Ward won the softball tournament for his team, Builders Mart, Tuesday night with a home-run that was a thrilling finish to the tournament. Monday night there were three teams left in the tournament—

Mitchell Hardware of Plainview, Farmer and Builders Mart. The latter was the only undefeated team. Farmer defeated Mitchell hardware in the first Tuesday night game and in the second defeated Builders Mart 10 to 8. This was a thriller after the first inning in which the red-hot Farmers scored nine runs. Builders Mart began to close the gap but were unable to overcome Farmers first-inning lead.

It was in the sugar game Tuesday night that Farmer and Builders Mart put on the thrilling finale and Ward did his heroics. Farmer was leading 2-1 at the top of the fifth, when Winn hit one out of the park to tie the score. In the last of the sixth, Joy Ward, pitching ace for Builders Mart, came in to bat with one on. He hit a low hard drive to right field that got away from Houching at the shoe strings. It would have been the third out. Ward was rounding third before the ball was back in play. He closed Farmer out in the seventh to win the tournament.

Trophies were presented to both Builders Mart and Farmer for their sponsors. Jim Word, manager, and Jimmy Willson, sponsor, of Builders Mart, presented their first place trophy to Joy Ward for winning his own ball game.

MOVE TO EASTLAND

A card from the J. C. Gilliams states they have moved from Lubbock to Eastland, Texas.

Mr. Gilliam is with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and has been given a new territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilliam are former Floydada residents.

Littlefield Man Enthusiastic

V. M. Peterman, president of the Lamb county fair, which has been in operation for five years and is now making plans for its sixth show, injected a mood of enthusiasm. He said a county fair is a must and declared that whatever difficulties may appear can be surmounted by management and hard work. Not only difficulties in matters of location, housing and the like but also in matters of finance. He answered numerous questions from the floor.

A motion by Mayor J. A. Patterson that a steering committee of five be named to investigate means of financing a fair, was amended successfully until it became a motion that a steering committee of six be named with E. L. Turner as temporary chairman to obtain the backing of the people of the county, and undertake the fair. The dates set for the fair came first as a suggestion, then as a motion, and there remained nothing to be done but to get to work on the job.

Members of the steering committee are J. A. Patterson, Fred Cardinal, Ed Holmes, E. L. Angus, Jake B. Watson and Earl Crow.

Truck - Pickup Highway Crash Injures Youth

Bobby Green, Floydada high school sophomore, son of Mrs. Herschel Green, was in a near-fatal wreck at the intersection of West Olive street and Highway 207 in southwest Floydada late Thursday.

A tractor-loaded truck struck the light pickup driven by the youth. In the resulting wreck he received numerous cuts, including a long neck gash, a broken arm, cut on right knee and cuts on shoulder and ear.

Bobby was taken to Plainview hospital where he was still a patient Wednesday of this week.

The crash was investigated by a state highway patrolman. His report is not available in Floydada.

The driver of the truck, who gave his name as Shinn, was unhurt. He gave an Oklahoma City address.

The pick-up, a 1950 Ford, appeared to be a total loss.

Not much damage was done to the truck but the tractor was thrown from the truck and broken in two.

Chapman Is RI Committeeman

Judge Alton B. Chapman completed this week being complimented by Rotarians on his appointment to the important committee on membership, constitution and by-laws of Rotary International for the three-year term beginning in July of this year.

A cabled request from President-elect Joaquin Serratos, dated at Paris June 1, asking him to accept the appointment, was received by the judge Tuesday morning. He cabled his acceptance.

Judge Chapman's administration of the affairs of District 183 of Rotary now drawing to a close is said to be piling up an outstanding record, which drew the attention of high officials in the international office.

The new president of Rotary International is a resident of Montevideo, Uruguay. He was elected in the international meeting at Paris last week.

SMU STUDENTS HOME

David Willson, who attended Southern Methodist university this year is home for the summer. David will receive his degree from the university in January. David is with the Willson & Son Lumber company for the summer months.

Highway Department Advertising Bids on Fairview - Lakeview Jobs

This week it seems certain that the six miles of road connecting the farm to market road at Fairview-Rushing Chapel with U. S. Highway 70 east of Floydada will be contracted and completed in this year. Also that the 2 1/2 miles from Lakeview to the Crosby county line will be done at the same time.

Formal notice for bids to be opened on June 16 on these two projects, aggregating about 8 1/2 miles, was issued this week by the resident engineer. The bids will be opened at the State Highway commission office in Austin. There will be federal participation in the Fairview to the highway mileage.

There is a possibility but not a probability that the Lone Star Rock Creek, (Briscoe county) gap of about seven miles, five in Floyd and two in Briscoe, will be included in a letting this summer soon enough to beat the frost date. All the engineering has not been completed and the plans are still on the drawing board.

Also it seems probable that the link in the all-weather road to Crosbyton, south of the Floyd county line, may not get done this year. The road leads across Blanco to the in to paving that stops short of the canyon on the south rim. Plans had not been finalized on this gap the first of this week.

Finishing Floydada Job

The Kerr & Middleton job west from Highway 207 across Blanco at Blanco school site and on west to Harmony and into Hale for a connection with the Petersburg-Plainview highway in that county has been completed and accepted. It includes a good bridge across the upper reaches of the Blanco, sorely needed for a number of years.

The combination job of highway re-construction and building curb and gutter through Floydada, a distance of 2.3 miles, is being completed rapidly this week. The finishing crew was "shooting" the last blocks on the job yesterday. Some clean up jobs including laying concrete at some intersections and driveways are expected to keep the road builders busy through Saturday. Resident Engineer Potts anticipates that the work will be ready for final inspection by the district engineer Monday.

On the road job leading east from Cedar Hill, coming up in the not too-distant future, a representative of the federal Bureau of Good Roads recently made an inspection trip, preliminary to engineering work. This work is expected to be in the lettings for next spring. It will extend the Cedar farm to market road to a point just under the hill this side of Plomot.

KENNETH KING was at home on leave after completing his boot training at San Diego, California. He reported to Alameda, California, for further duty on June 2. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. King of Floydada.

Promotion For Hollingsworth

PLAINVIEW — Appointment of Lewis Hollingsworth as utilization manager for the plains division of the Southwestern Public Service company, has been announced by J. M. Collins, division manager for the electric and power company.

Hollingsworth succeeds Earl Lewis, who is being transferred to the company's Amarillo office to assume supervision of agricultural activities throughout the company's 45,000 square mile service area.

Hollingsworth started his career with Southwestern Public Service company as a lineman's helper in 1938. After 10 years of work in the line and service fields, and advancement to the post of working foreman, he took his first managerial position in charge of rural communities served from the company's Lubbock office. He became manager at Slaton in 1949 and filled that position, until his new promotion.

While at Slaton, Hollingsworth was president and a director of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Rotary club. He lived many years in Floydada. A graduate of the Floydada high school he is familiar with much of the region he will cover in his new position.

Sgt. Hollums Home

Sgt. Melvin Hollums, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hollums, arrived home on Saturday, May 23, on a 30-day leave.

Sgt. Hollums has been in Korea for the past year. He was wounded three times. He will report to Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, California, at the end of his leave.

Two New Stations On Hiway 70 East

Two new highway stations will grace Highway 70 east soon, both of them resulting from the newly redone highway through the city.

Roy's Independent Service station is re-building on the same site as it has been located, with business conducted in a temporary office on the site, gasoline and oil service as usual. The station is in the 400 block A station of tile masonry is under construction.

S. R. Thornton began work last week-end on a station that will be located in the 500 block, east of Wylie Butane Company. An elaborate layout has been plotted for a complete service station.

COUNTY PIONEERS NAME CLAUD FAWVER PRESIDENT 1953 - 1954 TERM

Adoo and Hereford, state highway commissioner, made the feature address of the day. He was presented by Richard F. Stovall of Floydada.

It was Formby's second open air address to a Floydada audience. His first was 13 years ago when he was seeking the office of state senator from the 30th district.

In the interval Formby has served as state senator, as a soldier of World War II, has finished law school and is in business as co-owner of radio stations. In March he was named state highway commissioner by Governor Allan Shivers.

Mr. Formby was accompanied to Floydada by his wife. The couple were guests of the old timers at their high-noon luncheon.

Mr. Formby recounted the settlement and the establishment of the counties of this vicinity, all within a brief few years, in the late eighties and early nineties and how the first settlers of the country were the men and women who established law and order, started schools and churches. He admonished the generation which has succeeded them to carry on as the supporters of good government and of law and order.

Parade Many Blocks Long

The parade of 1953 was one of the best in the history of the organization. It was nearly a mile long and had some of the best horses on the south plains in the line of march. Floydada high school band and Anderson ward band both marched in the parade, being convened specially after school closing to help the old settlers make their day a full one.

The list of prize winners as chosen by judges in the various groups is given in another column.

The memorial list for the year is a long one. Named as deceased members in the period from May, 1952 to May, 1953, were 78 persons, whose names appear in the memorial list.

One of the features in the mile-long parade was a float carrying members of the Floyd County National club, membership in which is based on Floyd county as the place of birth of a person who has attained the age of 50.

This group elected a set of officers to serve for the ensuing year, composed of Buck Sams president, Jake Griffith, vice-president, Maud E. Hollums secretary, with Clyde Bennett, Stokes Robb, Beulah Swepston, Bailey Byars and Robin Baker directors.

Clyde Bennett, Jake Griffith, Mrs. Minnie Cannon, Mrs. Effie Keller, New Mexico, Roe McCleskey, Lubbock, Mrs. Jeff Smith, Mrs. A. T. Parrish, Mrs. Maud Hollums, Stokes Robb, Dimmitt, Chas. E. Mills, Robb in Baker, Plainview, Buck Sams, Bill Nichols, and one other, rode on the 30-year float in the parade.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

A real battle looms over the proposed cuts in the budget that are aimed at reducing the costs of the Veterans Administration. The president's cut calls for more than a quarter of a billion dollars. We have no idea what should be done. We have heard many complaints charging waste and inefficiency in the operation of the veterans' hospitals. We do not know whether these were complaints from informed persons or whether just the usual type of griping about anything a government agency may do. There are 38 such hospitals in the country. At this time there are 2,393 unused beds in the 38. And 24,834 veterans approved for admission to VA hospitals can't get in because no beds are available. May be the executive department can get the job done more thoroughly with less money. We suspect it can be done. However, if the VA has surrounded itself with rules and regulations in similar fashion to the post office department, whatever the president would try to get done would be sabotaged in that manner. Whatever else may happen people of the nation should put up whatever money is necessary to take care of their veterans. A veteran is a hero when he leaves home in shining armor. He's a heel when he gets back from the wars shot to pieces in mind and body. It is human nature to forget a war as soon as possible and the destruction, physical, mental and material that went with it as well.

Farmers find false thinking has gotten abroad in the land as regards subsidies on farm operations. The fact is that if other groups continue to be subsidized, meaning labor and industry in particular and others as well, then the farmer must have comparable help in order to stay in business. For instance the farmer points out that you hear a lot about the government "guaranteeing a profit" to the farmer, but you don't hear much about the government guaranteeing war materials makers and their employees a profit. Subsidy in one form or another has been practiced for all types of endeavor except for the farmer. Only in recent years has the fact been recognized that if you help one you must help all, if you hope to maintain a balance.

We doubt the wisdom of the proposed policy to restrict wheat production in the United States in view of the millions of hungry people in the world. What probably would be better would be to find a way to expand export trade so that these people can be fed. However, that may be for the long range and not for the immediate present.

Answer to puzzle: There are four sisters and three brothers. Each sister has the same number of brothers as she has sisters. Each brother has twice as many sisters as he has brothers.

We Wouldn't know but we have seen a statement by a student of, and probably an authority as well, on obesity, in which it is declared flatly that it is the greatest problem confronting the medical profession today. We can hardly believe it but the writer continues that doctors recognize it as such. Newspapers and magazines are full of essays, treatises and promotional material dealing with the necessity for dieting for over-weight persons. Many of these recognize the fact that losing fat sometimes is a great personal problem for the patient. The plight of a patient who is put on a distasteful and, at times repulsive diet, is distressing. How to hold the calories down with out sacrificing taste and texture, that is the problem. Doubtless it will be worked out.

A good many peaches on some trees, other limbs bare, with the ends of the tender last year's growth "burned off" by Jack Frost this spring. That few hours of below freezing sure didn't help the peach crop. It hurt even worse than the Hesperian's weather man supposed at the time. Some of the peaches that stayed on the tree at the time have since dried up and fallen off. We record this in connection with our weekly forecast that it is going to begin raining before it is too plant a crop on dry land. We don't exactly mean too late for the kind of a crop that most everybody wants, we mean not too late for the kind of a crop they ought to have. Man proposes, the Lord at times disposes. Too much moisture floating around over the high plains not to get caught in a trap some of these evenings by a cold front.

We wish they'd quit talking that way. We mean like a considerable brochure from the DuPonts we read a few days ago. Rather elaborate arrangement of pleasant words said about a tremendous industrial organization, which branched out from powder making in the revolutionary days. Study of explosives and how to make them more powerful carried the organization into the area of plastics, rayons and the like made from synthetics. Now they've branched out into economics and have begun to talk about the wonders of technology. The present buying power of the average U. S. family can be doubled in 30 years, says the brochure in one paragraph. The answer: new industrial technology is the real key, it says. You like to read it like the generation before enjoyed reading Mr. Hoover's talk of two cars in every garage. But wealth is out where the folks are, not in the charting rooms.

Next time you're overwhelmed with the number of people who drink, and get to thinking maybe it is the thing to do, remember that there are at least 64 million Americans who are total abstainers. —Concern

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

SOCIETY

Vows Unite Norma Miss Clendening,
Jo Teeple, Chas. Joe T. Smith, to
Payne, of Matador Marry on June 25

Miss Norma Jo Teeple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Teeple, of Lone Star became the bride of Charles Payne, son of Mrs. Ethel Payne of Matador, in a double ring ceremony performed at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, May 27, in the home of the bride's parents.

Reverend P. P. Graham, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lone Star, read the service before a nuptial space, flanked by large floor baskets of white lilies marked with bows of blue satin ribbon and lighted tapers in candelabra.

A piano prelude to the ceremony, played by Mrs. Robert McPherson, included "Indian Love Call," "Bells of St. Mary's," "Because" and the traditional Bridal chorus from Wagner's Lohengrin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beige shantung street length suit dress with brown accessories. She carried a white bible topped with Tulliaman rose buds circled with white carnations and tied with black and white knotted satin streamers.

The bride carried out the traditional bridal custom of wearing "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue." For something old she wore a cameo brooch belonging to her late maternal grandmother, Mrs. R. C. Covington; something new was her wedding attire and something borrowed was a ring belonging to a friend, Beth Beene. For something blue, she wore a blue garter, given her by Mrs. Tony Burson of Silverton. Sentiment was given further consideration with a six-pence in her shoe.

Miss Beth Beene, Amarillo, was the bride's attendant and was attired in a frock of rose taffeta shantung accented by black patent accessories and a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

J. D. Payne, of Matador, attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. Teeple, mother of the bride chose for her daughters wedding a grey silk shantung with black accessories, while Mrs. Payne, the groom's mother, wore a printed nylon with black patent accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride's table was covered with a white and blue cut-work cloth with net ruffle, floor length. At each corner was a colonial nosegay of sweet-peas, tied with the bride's chosen colors, blue and white satin streamers.

Tall white tapers in crystal candelabra adorned the center of the table. A two-tiered wedding cake crested with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing under an arch and crystal service was placed at opposite ends of the table.

After the bride and bridegroom out and served the first piece of cake, Mrs. Robert McPherson, friend of the bride, and Mrs. Ray Teeple, sister-in-law of the bride, served the guests, who were relatives and close friends of the couple.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of West Texas State college. The bride having received a bachelor's degree in business administration with the class of May graduates. She was a member of Delta Zeta Chi sorority.

The bridegroom received a bachelor's degree in physical education in May last year and will receive a master's degree in education in August.

The couple will reside in Canyon until the end of the summer, when Mr. Payne will complete his school term.

Mrs. Ella Johnson has returned home from a visit with relatives in Graham.

A pretty young bride-to-be spec a copy of Emily Post's book in etiquette in a friend's bookshelves. Thinking to brush up on wedding procedure, she borrowed it.

Somewhat nonplussed at the outset to find that any former suitor never speak to her again, she weighed her own experience and concluded that casual daters didn't count. The next blow was on proper dress for the groom; pin-striped trousers, top hat and gray suede gloves. Knowing her western-born man would give up the whole idea before he'd submit to such treatment, she turned to the fly-leaf of the book. To her relief, the edition was out of date by several decades.

After consulting some more up-to-date wedding suggestions, however, she still thinks that a little common sense comes in mighty handy. If the bride wants a kiss as a part of the wedding ceremony, a more recent printed source explains, she says to her prospective husband: "I promise not to get lipstick on your face, will you kiss me at the altar?" Or, to remind him of his obligations with regard to flowers: "Don't you think pink corsages would be nice for our mothers?"

"Never does explain why you can't just come right out and talk things over like old friends," the young woman commented wryly.

The only real live wedding consultant we ever heard talk seemed to us to have some foolproof answers. She was editor of a national women's magazine, and her formula was simply: For good taste, stay within the means of your own family budget, and observe the customs of your own section of the country.

Our personal philosophy has always been that rules have to fit to be binding. Still, all the talk about wedding niceties does reinforce us to the fact that our only daughter is a son.

ONE STAR Agriculture

Released by The Texas Department of Agriculture

POULTRY POINTERS

Few farms are complete without at least some chickens — both fryers and layers. Even though commercial flocks may not be practical, the few extra pennies earned in egg production or the money saved in raising meat for the frying pan really add up in a year's time.

In order to successfully raise chickens for home consumption, or for the market, it is important to look after the "little things" as well as the bigger problems. It may pay dividends to spend a few minutes checking on these profit leaks:

Hang up those empty feed sacks or pile them neatly on a rack. This is the best way to keep used bags in good condition. A few pairs in opening sacks so as not to tear them will pay off.

Don't allow birds to waste feed. Use feeders that prevent waste and fill them only 1/2 to 2/3 full.

Make a practice to wipe off light bulbs and reflectors in the pens every so often. It is surprising how much light is lost simply because bulbs and reflectors are filmed over.

Check up on the favorite laying haunts of your chickens. Eggs are lost because birds don't lay them in the nests. Dark corners, under the nests and roosts, should be wired off so birds just can't lay in those hard to get at places where eggs are either broken or get dirty.

Work out a plan to cull and sell loafers if you are trying for good egg production. Non-laying birds are lost to the market because the farmer didn't get rid of them while they were in good condition.

A good poultryman is first of all a good manager. No matter how big or how small an operation he has, mass production can never substitute for good management.

The Texas Department of Agriculture publishes a poultry and egg bulletin each day in Austin. A written request will bring this service to you free of charge. The request should be addressed to: Market News Service, Texas Department of Agriculture, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

Interest Continental Is Shown

A series of three articles in the Hesperian, Attorney Shepperd, Attorney Texas, discussing the land disposition of the land mass beyond the Continental Shelf as the Continental Shelf I have discussed of the great underwater plain and why Texas and other coastal states claim a share in its development. In this final article your interest in this offshore land will be shown.

I know that many of our citizens have told me that they sometimes get a little tired of the tidelands discussion, but I do not think that any citizen of Texas can afford to get tired of the problem. If you owned property worth thousands of dollars, and it was in jeopardy you would be concerned about it until you finally learned that it was safe.

That is just the case with our tidelands and with our interest in the Continental Shelf.

We can not forget that the value of the resources of the Continental Shelf is even greater than that of the so-called "tidelands" just quit-claimed to us by the federal government. Experts have estimated the underground resources off the United States coast line at $100 billion. Resources off the coast of Texas have been conservatively estimated at $3 billion.

This means that every man, woman and child in Texas has at least $400 in prospective benefits from the underwater lands. The Continental Shelf is many times larger than the historic boundaries of the States.

Since all of the monies received from leases of this land go to the Permanent School Fund, you can see what a modern and remarkable school system we could build in this State could we secure a fair share of the revenues from submerged lands off our coast.

Traditionally the federal government has refunded 37 1/2 % of all income from public lands to the States in which such lands are located. If the national government will give Texas and the other coastal states the same treatment as regards the Continental Shelf, our Texas school children would have schools which would be the envy of the world.

As the recognized leader of the Nation in oil and gas production, Texas can contribute an enormous amount of know-how to the administration of the off-shore lands. Further, Texas' conservation laws, if applied to these lands, would eliminate waste and result in decades of maximum production.

It has been suggested that the federal government allow coastal States like Texas to apply our normal servance tax on the minerals taken from under the Shelf. This would greatly assist us.

Farmers in the State will be interested to learn that many scientists believe that the next great farming frontier will be this ocean bed, where large crops of all types will be systematically farmed and harvested.

Experiments have indicated that terrific yields at small expense may be expected.

From every standpoint — economics, international law, domestic law, and geography — Texas should share in the development of the Continental Shelf off her coast.

I urge you to write your individual Congressman or United States Senator and encourage him to keep up his relentless fight for our rightful share in the Continental Shelf.

T. J. Cardinal of Viewfield, South Dakota, was here Pioneer day visiting his son Fred Cardinal and family and old friends. Also visiting with old-time friends was, Louis Cardinal of Kenafic, Oklahoma.

Both brothers are former Floyd county residents.

Then there was the one about the man who entered a neighborhood pool hall with a piece of paper in his hand and said: "This is a list of all the men I can whip." "Is my name on there?" asked a husky, broadshouldered truck driver.

"Yes." "Well, you can't whip me." "Are you sure?" "Damn right I'm sure." "Very well," replied the man, "I'll take your name off the list."

We are always glad when the dealers bring their home economist our way to show the features of their particular appliance. We do not recommend any one make or kind of appliances — what is true of one good standard appliance is basically true of all good standard appliances. We do recommend that appliances be bought from reliable dealers so when service is needed they will be able to get it done.

Mrs. Albert King of Lockney was a welcome visitor on Thursday afternoon.

News of Harmony

(by Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, June 1. — Club met Wednesday, May 27 instead of Thursday on account of old settlers reunion. Mrs. Zant Scott was hostess. The chairman, Mrs. Carrick Snodgrass called the house to order. Mrs. Ted Rutherford, secretary, called the roll and it was answered by Mrs. Monroe Shultz and Mrs. Glenn Pool; Why go to church, by Mrs. D. S. Battey; Poem, the gospel according to you, Mrs. Everett Miller and Mrs. Chloma Williams.

Mrs. J. R. Turner had charge of recreation. There were 15 members present. Also several children. Refreshments were served to all.

A rather painful accident happened to M. D. Ramsey on Thursday morning. He had his fingers cut by an electric saw, one of them quite badly. He was taken to Lubbock for treatment and has been going every two or three days since to have them dressed. The doctor says they are doing fine so far.

Midweek services were held at the chapel with a good attendance. Marvin Smith brought the devotional. Mrs. Everett Miller had charge of the song service and Mrs. Chloma Williams was at the piano. Come out and worship with us, folks. It will do you good.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Joyce Davis' father who passed away Wednesday. He was buried Thursday at Cone.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pool were ill last week with flu.

Most of the community attended the Old Settlers reunion Thursday, May 28, at Floydada. We were glad to know our community float won first place and I won first place in the old time dress, which, of course, I was proud. That is the way we dressed 50 years ago. As I told the folks we wore our mother hubbards to church and were not ashamed of them.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Williams, Mrs. J.T. Freeman and little daughter, Ladeina Fay, of Amarillo, were guests in the Chloma Williams home Friday after attending the old settlers reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Forester of Lubbock were guests of their daughter and family, Mrs. Monroe Schultz, Thursday night.

As most of you know, Harmony won 5th place and we will receive our reward tonight at the community center. We are very proud of this even tho we did not get first.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr from Betheny, Oklahoma, attended services at the chapel Sunday. They are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Carr of Floydada.

Bill Sanders of Sterley was a guest at the service at the chapel Sunday. He is a brother of Mrs. Morris.

The Wesleyan bible class had their birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner Sunday. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Spence of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gary, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Loyce Turner and son, Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Mather Carr and son, Horace and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Turner. We all enjoyed a good dinner and after dinner a nice visit. The next dinner will be the 4th Sunday in June in the M. D. Ramsey home.
