Lions Half-Holiday City-Wide Clean Up Declared Success; Citizens Join in Cleanliness Campaign

The Lions club's clean-up campaign was a big success on Wednesday morning. Fourteen pickups and trucks and some 35 or 40 men, members of the club and others gathered at 7 o'clock. They gathered and hauled 110 loads of rubbish and trash to the city dump grounds.

Most of the places of business down town closed to enable their employees to help in the drive and to clean up their own places of abode. Gayle Mayo was chairman of the clean up committee, and his committee, and others are credited with a fine job.

The mayor said that while the Lions covered every sector of the city and hauled trash and unburnable rubbish from all areas, it is possible some piles may have been overlooked. Citizens who know of such should not hesitate to call the city hall and let the fact be known, the mayor said.

Urge For County Fair 'Jells', But First Show Set for 1954

Members of the Floyd County Fair association who met Thursday voted to set September 1954 as the date for their first fair. The short amount of time left in this year to organize and make fair plans made it impractical, they said, for the association to have a fair this year.

Loyce Turner, temporary chairman, presided at the meeting and received the comments and advice of association members present.

Drouth Feed Requisitioned As Committee Begins Task

Although the drouth relief committee in Floyd county had been barely organized and had a first meeting last week-end, it was evident yesterday they are going to do a lot of business with Floyd county farmers and ranchers.

In their organization meeting John K. West was announced as the stockman-farmer member of the board by Buck Sams, chairman of the Floyd county Production and Marketing administration organization, who is automatically chairman of the county committee.

National Farm Safety Week Is July 19 to 25

During the 10 years that National Farm Safety week has been observed, farm accidents have been reduced 20 percent. This reduction is a real achievement, says the Texas Farm and Ranch safety committee, but adds that farming remains a hazardous occupation.

According to the state committee the immediate object of the week is to arouse interest and increase participation in the community approach to the problem of safe living. The long-time objective is to make rural residents so conscious of accidents and their causes that through their own efforts the agricultural industry can be made as safe as other industries of the nation.

Mrs. J. R. Maddox Is Hospitalized

Mrs. J. R. Maddox was reported as slightly improved Tuesday afternoon, by members of her family after suffering a stroke of paralysis on Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock.

The committee has been filing the orders as they come in to the PMA office this week, the committee had telephoned advice from the state office yesterday that they will have the order blanks today with which the farmer-stock owners can obtain his supplies after payment is made to the committee.

John K. West, in the PMA office yesterday, said that practically all of the feed requisitioned had been applied for, including the 200 tons of meal or pellets and three carloads of oats. A half a car of corn also has been asked for.

Meal is being sold to live stock owners at $35 per ton, oats at 50 cents per bushel and corn $1 a bushel.

The committee is composed of PMA chairman Buck Sams, county agent W. D. Rodgers, PMA supervisor Jack Kassarh, banker E. L. Norman, and stockfarmer John K. West.

None of the members of the committee had an idea how the need for filler feeds, including hay, will be met if at all, under the program for the relief of drouth conditions.

A development yesterday indicates the probability that the sorely tried drouth-stricken farmer will get some help in connection with his need for seed for planting. D. W. Pyffe said he had a telegram from Congressman George Mahon, who said that a plan would be formulated in the near future to furnish seed to farmers in the drouth area.

Expect to Get Seed

Better production records should be made this year, largely because the contracting farmers got their seed into the ground early and growing to give a longer growing season. Castor beans begin early and continue to grow and put on fruit until frost.

Hutchins would not be surprised to see the growers, some of them at least, harvest their bottom crop as it matures with manual labor and come back for the top crop later. Loss from shattering will be considerably less following that procedure, it is believed.

Other Desirable Projects are Being Held Up

Other desirable projects are being held up pending additional income. Among these are enlargements and betterments for the grand stand and for a better and larger press stand.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

We can see no serious fault with the cattle foundation herd saving program which the department of agriculture and the president are said to be hurrying into a state of action. Committees have been named in every county in the area, and presumably are getting into action this week. If they are acting now doubtless it will keep a good many cattle from hurrying to market, put a little more order into the rout of the cattle people. Fully as important are any plans which may be made to save the small farmer who has taken about all he can take, where he is situated in the dry areas. Usually the red tape is too slow unwinding to really take care of an emergency. Whether this will prove true in this case will be seen this week and the first of next, in more than 200 counties of the southwest.

What will live stock men do for filler to go with the concentrated feed that is (presumably) being made available this week? A cow can't live on the concentrates alone. Ruminants have a digestive system that requires hay or hulls or something or other in the way of roughage to make the wheels go round inside. Whether the local committee will be able to give this information or not is to be seen. Another duty the local committee is due to have to perform, one assumes, is to determine who is entitled to the concentrated feed and how much each cattle man can have.

Expect only modestly of the drouth relief program. By the time this one and that are eliminated from getting the cheap feed, and by the time a filler cheap enough to use on cheap cattle is found to go with the lower priced concentrates it will be late enough that a good many more will have solved their problem by taking a loss and going on to town with their live stock. If only we had a magic carpet that would waft West Texas to Italy or Pakistan until after the rains have restored the earth again!

Drouth makes depression. We hear a good many people say "we are in for another depression." The facts do not bear this out. The trouble with Texas at the moment is the serious drouth in about seventy-five per cent of the state and the slump in cattle prices that has been going on for two years, and that slump in a great measure is due to drouth in several cattle states forcing the animals on the market in large numbers, says the Petersburg Journal. If we had plenty of rain in Texas and all crops were good and pasture and ranch land were lush with green grass it would be an entirely different story. We can't blame this condition on the government as we are inclined to do everytime some little reverses in economic conditions occur, the Journal adds.

DRAFT LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Draft Laws and Regulations
(Fourth in a series of 10 on the draft law and its rules and regulations)

How does a local draft board consider a draft registrant's case when it comes before the board in the manner governed by law and regulations?

The members of a board sit around a table—and the file containing the man's paper are placed before it by the clerk.

The board then considers the man from the following standpoints, based on information in the file:

1. Is he on active duty in the military service? (1-C.)
 2. Is he a conscientious objector who has been ordered to a civilian job? (1-W.)
 5. Is he a minister of religion or dilaw? (5-A.)
 4. Can it be determined at the board level whether he is physically, mentally, or morally unfit for service? (4-F.)
 5. Is he a minister of religion or divinity student? (4-D.)
 6. Is he subject to exemption as an alien? (4-C.)
 7. Is he a public official deferred by law? (4-B.)
 8. Is he a World War II veteran as defined by the law? (4-A.)
 9. Is he subject to deferment because of his dependents? (3-A.)
 10. Is he eligible for deferment as a member of the armed forces reserve or a student taking military training? (1-D.)
 11. Is he a student in a college or university deferrable under local board authority? (2-S.)
 12. Does he meet the requirements for farm or other civilian job deferment? (2-C and 2-A, respectively.)
 13. Is he a college or high school student subject to deferment by law for a short period? (1-S.)
 14. Is he one of the two types of conscientious objectors? (1-0 and 1-A-0.)
- If the evidence in the file indicates to the satisfaction of the local board that he is eligible for none of these, then the registrant is considered available for military service. (1-A.)

Missionaries Home Tell Experiences Among Japanese

Returning to Floyd county, on a furlough, are the Reverend and Mrs. Raymond Spence and two children, who have spent four and a half years as missionaries of the Baptist church in Japan.

The Spences will spend their furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Spence at Lockney.

Reverend Spence spoke at the First Baptist church last night and showed films of Japan and his work there. He has spoken at the Lockney Baptist church and at the Lone Star Baptist church since they arrived in Lockney.

Reverend Spence has speaking engagements in a number of places in Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona at schools of missions and churches. Rev. and Mrs. Spence were in Japan by appointment of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission board. Our Terrible Thirst

If your town doesn't have to worry about its water supply, you're lucky. A lot of towns do.

Trouble is, some communities never dreamed that they might double and triple in size, that new industries would come to town, that citizens would use more water than ever before. We've reached the point where we use about 1100 gallons per person a day in the United States.

Yet why should water be short when 25 times our needs falls from the skies every year?

Unhappily, it doesn't always fall when and where we need it most. Many reservoirs were built with no idea that towns would grow so fast. And 75% of our communities rely on water from lakes and streams. Today many of these are polluted and require treatment before use.

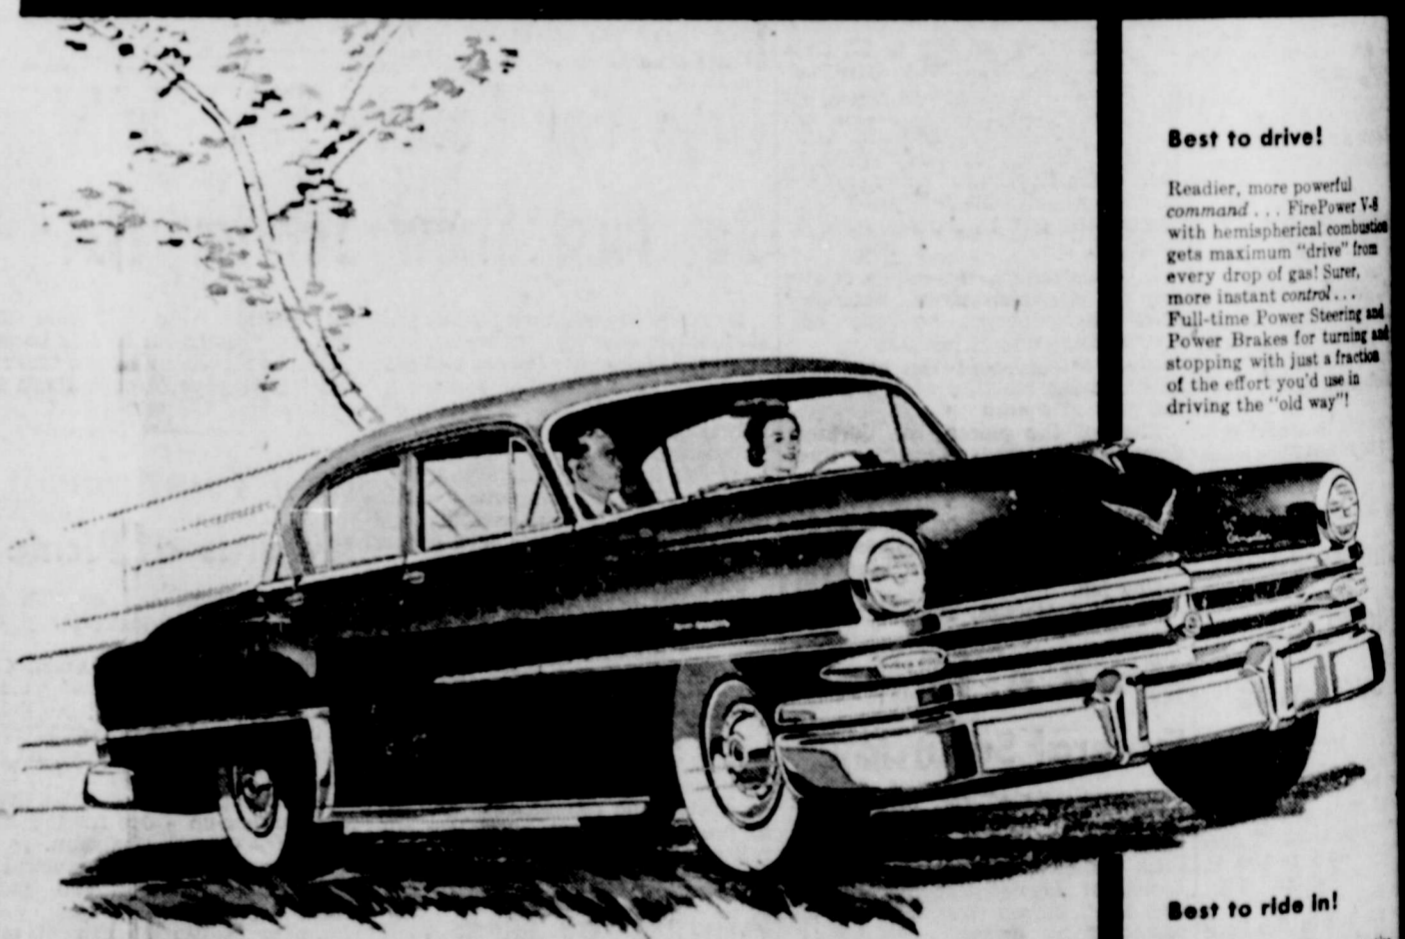

When faced with a shortage, cities suddenly discover to their sorrow that new water sources take time to complete.

For years General Electric has contributed toward development of better and more efficient water-works equipment. This is not so unusual, since motors and other electric equipment are important in water systems, large or small.

Some of the things we've learned about water supply, and the related problem of water pollution, have been put together in motion pictures and booklets, prepared in cooperation with the U. S. Public Health Service. Any town fathers who are interested in what's available can write to General Electric, Room 123-2, Schenectady 5, N. Y.

10-Year-Old Floydada Visitor Qualifies For Radio License

Young Richard Morehead, jr., 10, who is spending this week in Floydada and Plainview, along with his mother and sister, Judy, is an amateur radio enthusiast. In fact he has successfully passed the examination of the Federal Communications Commission for a novice amateur radio operator license and should have a commission and a call letter before too many weeks elapse.

After only a day or two in Floydada Richard has found two other radio "hams" here, both local business men with whom he has been having interesting sessions. The residents of Floydada who have license call letters include Al R. Fuchs, whose call letter is WN5YSO, the "N" for novice, which Fuchs will get eliminated from his code soon. Another amateur radio operator is J. E. Cole, an Alabama man, more recently from Lovington, New Mexico. Cole's call letter is W4ROL. He takes the place of Don Steeley as chief engineer at radio station KPLD. Steeley was an amateur operator also, his call being W5YHB. He has moved to Galveston.

Richard will be in the sixth grade at school this fall. He was a page in the last state legislature in Austin, which is his home-town. His father is Austin correspondent for the Dallas Morning News. The family generally spends a mid-summer period on the plains.

One of Richard's interesting experiences while here came Tuesday morning when at 6:30 he joined Mr. Fuchs in a coded radio conversation with a brother of Mr. Fuchs, who lives in western Oklahoma.

Noland Arney went to Lubbock last Tuesday to donate a pint of blood to the blood bank to replace the pint used for Melvin Henry, our manager, following his operation on Saturday morning.

Red and Fay Gregory went to Palo Duro canyon picnicing on the 4th. They also visited Buffalo Lake and spent a short time in Hereford with Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Neff and daughter.

Wanda, Pete and Pat Hickerson visited Melvin Henry at the West Texas hospital in Lubbock Saturday afternoon.

Sandra Assiter of Des Plains, Illinois, is spending the week with Pat Hickerson.

This is a recipe for a man who is tired of the farm and wants to get rid of his land!

Cut one medium sized farm into irregular pieces.

Add several cash crops to remove the humus.

Stir the thick layer of topsoil frequently until the soil particles are ready to be carried off by the next hard rain. Carefully work the land up and down the slope so the furrows will form waterways for rapid disposal of excess water and soil. Keep doing this until the hardpan shows through.

Cut into deep, irregular gullies and leave out in the sun to bake. When done season with an unpeeled house, broken down fences, some worn out machinery, a rickety barn, a good sprinkling of unpaid bills, and a pinch of despair.

Garnish with weeds.

Serve with a tax sale and move on.

Electricity is sold by the kilowatt hour just as eggs are sold by the dozen and butter by the pound. A kilowatt is simply a 1000 watts and if used for a period of 60 minutes, becomes a kilowatt hour.

Every piece of electric equipment by a reliable manufacturer carries a wattage rating on it some place. It may be painted on, as is the case with good lamp bulbs, or it may be stamped in the metal tag fastened to the equipment. This wattage rating informs the buyer that the particular item will use a certain number of watts in an hour's time.

Can a meter tell you lies? Yes! But 99.5 percent of the time it is in the consumer's favor. Why? Because they are similar to a watch — after a number of years of use they slow down from dirt and wear in the jewels and bearings. About the only thing that will make it run fast is a short or ground caused by lightning, or a surge of high voltage — which very seldom happens. Usually the fact meters are found to be from the liberal use of appliances and lights, yet one does not realize the kilowatt house used over a 30 day period.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Pate, in the McCoy community, was the setting for a lovely shower honoring Miss Jocelyn Speer, bride-elect of Billy Mac Shipley, Friday, June 26, at 8:30.

In the receiving line with Mrs. Pate were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Arlie Speer of Amarillo, and Mrs. John Shipley, mother of the groom-to-be.

The living room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers in the bride's chosen colors.

The angel squares were iced in white and centered with a tiny yellow rosebud. The lovely hand-painted napkins, featuring wedding bells and the names "Jocelyn and Billy" were painted by Elvira Lowrance.

Miss Bo Dean Pate registered the guests and Miss Nelda Pate played piano music while the guests were arriving. Both girls rendered piano numbers as the guests were being served.

Miss Jean Porter sang "Always" and "Through The Years." Miss Myrna Wilson gave a reading "Husbands." Mrs. Greer Christian gave a toast and a bit of advice to both the bride and groom.

Jolt Halts Phone Service, Damages Lakeview Lines

A terrific jolt of some sort Monday morning tore out three telephone poles on the Lakeview segment of Southwestern Bell Telephone company rural lines, broke and twisted several hundred feet of six-line circuits and disrupted service on 24 telephones for several hours.

The impact threw two of the heavy telephone poles all the way across the right-of-way and onto adjacent lands, a distance of 120 feet or more.

J. E. Blackshear, local manager, got the report of the damage at 10 o'clock and had temporary service at 7 o'clock the same evening. A repair crew was due to put the lines back in place this week. Blackshear said it had not been determined definitely by the company as late as Tuesday who was responsible for the damage and interruption of service.

Mr. and Mrs. George Van Wickel and daughter, Francis, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jenkins returned home Tuesday evening from a 10-day vacation trip, to Yellowstone park, Estes Park and points in Colorado.

Mrs. Cletis Jeffcoat of Lockney, who has been seriously ill for several weeks was thought to be slightly improved Wednesday morning. Mrs. Jeffcoat is owner of the Lockney Dry Goods company.

THE DWINDLING RAINS

Texas' below-average rainfall has had this result:

Feed crops and pastures are deteriorating over most of the state as moisture reserves run out. Dry conditions are now general over Texas.

Temperatures of 100 degrees and above have fired maturing feed and wilted late crops. In the west and northwest, dryland feed and cotton are barely holding on.

Early corn in the north and east has suffered. Late corn desperately needs rain.

Plains area sorghums have been burned by hot dry winds and much of the acreage has been lost to blowing sand. Continued drought has hurt commercial vegetable crops in all areas. Scattered showers have brought only temporary relief. Been surface and subsoil moisture is depleted in a great many areas.

What has been our rainfall this year which has caused such a dismal picture?

The state's average rainfall is 45.37 inches. The last "good year" was in 1950 when the average was 40.22 of rain evenly distributed.

In 1951, the first onset of the present drought, only 27.23 inches of rain fell. The following year, 37.06 inches were received but it was poorly placed — most of it soaked East Texas and left other areas dry.

The most recent 1953 report revealed that we had received some 10.21 inches of poorly distributed rain. At the same time last year an average of 10.32 had fallen. The normal at this period of the year is 12.03 inches.

With the exception of one month, the Upper South High Plains area has gone some 33 months without receiving the normal amount of moisture. Some South Texas and Western Plateau states have been below average for 24 months.

Weather experts estimate it would take two months of "very wet weather" to restore some of these counties to normal crop and pasture conditions.

There is little, if anything, that we can do to remedy the situation. The farmer and rancher can only keep his eye on weather developments and make his plans accordingly.

Now! Power Steering for as low as $134⁴⁰

Ford brings you the lowest priced power steering in its field . . . and the finest in power steering at that!

We all know the advantages of power steering. Most of us would like it. And now many more of us can afford it! By spending testing time and development money, Ford brings you Master-Guide power steering for nearly three quarters the price of any other system in its field. For the facts, read the captions on this page. For a thrill, Test Drive Master-Guide power steering in the Ford!

So simple . . . So safe!
 Blowouts become less risky with Ford Master-Guide power steering. It helps you steer to a safe straight-line stop. And power steering helps you park easier, too . . . does up to 75% of the work for you!

No radical change in driving habits! Unlike many other systems, Ford's system gives you much the same "feel" of handling that you get without power steering. Then, too, you always turn the wheel the same amount as you would with regular steering.

And, because Ford's Master-Guide power steering has a more natural "feel" than many others, you don't have to change your driving habits radically. The steering gear ratio is the same as without power steering and the hydraulic system gives you the right assistance when you need it.

Worth more when you buy it . . . Worth more when you sell it!

ARRESTS, FINES FOLLOW RAID ON ANTELOPE HERD

AUSTIN, July — Thriving antelope herds up in the Texas Panhandle are causing itchy trigger fingers with resultant penalties, according to the Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission.

He had particular reference to disclosure that two antelope, shot on the Matador Ranch in Motley County, brought a $422 fine and cost against a Dickens County cotton gin operator.

Warden W. V. Riddle of Lubbock who with Warden Cecil Fox of Spur handled the case, said others apparently were implicated but that the suspect said he wanted "to take the blame."

The gin manager was arrested after the wardens, armed with a search warrant, found two antelope heads and hides and four feet in the incinerator.

Riddle said the man was "pretty unhappy because of the heavy fine and because, after all, the meat hadn't been any good and had been fed to his dogs."

Not Planning Any Changes in Rural Line Phone Rates

J. C. Oakley, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone company Plainview, in Floydada the first of this week took note of a report that the company has plans to ask for an increase in rates on its rural lines out of Floydada.

Such report is incorrect, he said. The company is not planning any change.

Meanwhile it was learned that rural telephone exchange patrons were being organized to resist any increase. At this time the telephone company has a petition before the city council in Floydada in which a material increase in rates for telephone service within the city limits is being sought. Mr. Oakley said that authorities of the company would present figures to the city council Monday night supporting the claim for need for the increase in the rates.

Onion Crops Turn Out Fair Return

Some of the younger farmers of Floyd county went in for onions this season. Two of these are W. H. Simpson, Jr., and Kenneth Probasco, who farm southwest and west of town respectively.

W. H. Simpson planted about 25 acres. This week he pulled the crop, which netted about 600 bags per acre. He hauled the crop to New Deal, nearest onion market.

He was very well pleased with the outcome of his venture.

Kenneth Probasco had about 30 acres. He also hauled to New Deal. It was more or less an experiment with the boys. Insects damaged the Probasco crop, and he did not make as many bags to the acre as expected.

Hale To Re-Open in New Location

When Hale's Department store closed its doors on west side square Friday night of last week for the 4th of July holidays it was for a period of several days, probably the latter part of the month, for re-opening in a new location at 104 East California street.

Walton Hale, owner and manager, said this week and next will be the busy ones, making ready for the grand opening they are planning as a big merchandising event on a date to be announced for the latter part of this month.

Nine-year-old David hurried off to school one morning before his mother inspected his wash job. So, when he sat down in the classroom, breakfast was still visible on his face.

The teacher frowned and said reprovingly: "David, you didn't wash your face. What would you say if I came to school one morning with egg and jam around my mouth?"

"Nothing," he reported smugly. "Nothing at all. I'd be too polite."

Martin and Lewis Cavort on Screen Here Next Week

A breezy, bustling bonanza of film entertainment is coming our way next week when Hal Wallis' brand new Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis comedy sensation, "Scared Stiff," makes its bow at the Palace theatre on July 12, 13, 14 and 15. In this Paramount release Dean and Jerry merrily cavort through a story totally unlike anything they have done before. "Scared Stiff" finds Dean and Jerry uproariously involved with a haunted castle, ghosts, zombies and an irate gangster out to get them.

As anyone who has seen their previous screen comedies knows, anything can happen when Martin and Lewis get before the cameras. Dignity goes by the boards, hilarity reigns and the spectator is treated to many rollicking reels of merry mayhem. Advance reports herald "Scared Stiff" as just this kind of picture.

Lizabeth Scott and Carmen Miranda are co-starred in "Scared Stiff."

As A Farm Woman Thinks

THE UNSEEN BRIDGE

There is a bridge, where of the span
Is rooted in the hearts of man,
And reaches, without pile or rod,
Unto the Great White Throne of God.

Its traffic is in human sighs
Frequently wafted to the skies;
Tis the one pathway from despair;
And it is called The Bridge of Prayer.

— Gilbert Thomas

The above poem is very fitting, this fifth day of July, a day of prayer for rain for the drouth-stricken southwest. And when we pray let us pray for the right way of using the rich bounties our Lord so freely gives to us and sometimes we so foolishly waste.

If the crops were growing and shading the ground, we would not think so much about the excessive heat we have had for so long. We would say it is good crop growing weather. The skies are of brass, the white clouds like wrung-out sponges hung in the sky to bleach. We shudder as we look and see the trees and shrubs and flowers dying, the gardens drying up. I recall the Master said His harvest was white and the laborers few. Have we been too busy with our own crops to work in the Master's fields?

Our hearts have been grieved this year by the passing of so many of our friends. We know they are at rest, their labors over, we miss them so, and the ones who are left behind to carry on are sore troubled over their leaving. We were so happy to live near Eula and Delmer Parrish. We reviewed the days of old and enjoyed the present together. It always made us happy to even see them go by on their way to town or anywhere as they passed us and waved us a greeting we knew was from their hearts. With a wave of a hand, Delmer went on before, leaving us memories of his friendly spirit. We will remember his laugh, his warm welcomes to his home.

I Shall See Them Again

I shall see them again in the light of the morning,
When the night has passed by
With its tears and its mourning;
When the light of God's love is
The sun ever shining
In the Land where the weary ones rest.

I shall know them again, though
Ten thousand surround them;
I shall hear their dear voices
'Midst the blessed ones around them;

And the love that was theirs on
The earth shall detect them
In the Land where the weary ones rest.

Would I wish for them back from
Their bright home in Heaven?
No! in patience I'll wait till
The veil shall be riven,
And the Saviour restores me the Friends He has given—
In the Land where the weary ones rest.

— Reverend E. Husband

So to my dear friend, Eula, I quote the beautiful, inspiring poem.
Also to his daughter and her family and the ones who loved Delmer.
