Award of the contract for a complete re-finishing and re-arranging job on the headquarters office of Light House Rural Electric cooperative Tuesday was the signal for preparations by the organization's personnel to move out and turn their building over, lock stock and barrel, to the contractors.

Start Moving Out Today

The rural electric is due to begin moving today to the American Legion auditorium at the corner of Fifth and Virginia which they contracted to lease several weeks ago.

Central Heating, Cooling

The changes to be made on the interior will include the installation of a central-type heating and cooling system throughout and the building of two new offices and a directors room. Changed partitions will make one large accounting office. The seating capacity of the demonstration kitchen will be increased. The main lobby will have a terrazzo floor, asphalt tile and rubber tile to be laid in the remainder of the building. New locker rooms and rest rooms are also provided for.

Public Approval Expected

The lease of the Legion auditorium for the extended term for temporary quarters of REA, is expected to meet the approval of the general public, said Earl Crawford, commander of McDermott post, at the time of signing several weeks ago.

Believed Improving

N. A. Armstrong, who has been ill for the past several weeks and is a patient at Peoples hospital was reported Wednesday as resting well and thought to be slowly improving.

Several hundred persons usually make the tour, and it is anticipated this year will be no exception. The caravan will leave the agricultural building in Floydada at 9:30 o'clock.

Most noticeable change in the building that will meet the eye will be the front, which will be done in terra cotta in modern style. However, basic changes are due throughout the one story building.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

Last week it still seemed questionable, highly so, that the thousands of acres of cotton in the drouth area historically dedicated to cotton but lost to the elements for two years will get into the figures for a total on cotton acreage, farm to farm. The 1952 and 1953 "cotton history" of many plains farms, will be drastically affected by a count of cotton acres only on which cotton was found growing as the reporters carried on their measurements. It is said the state office of the PMA has had instructions from Washington not to include other acreage in the current measurements. People who have been "drouth out" of the cotton business this year think that PMA has ample authority to include acreage: (1) That was planted in cotton but on which cotton did not come up because of inadequate moisture; (2) that was prepared for cotton planting but on which nothing was ever planted because of inadequate moisture, and (3) that was prepared for cotton planting but on which, after waiting made cotton planting unseasonable, cover crops were planted instead to prevent wind erosion. This information should be included because it would not otherwise reflect a fair and equitable situation.

Cool nights that are almost cold are reminders that every farmer and business man in Floyd county ought to get behind the movement to get delayed action on a frost date. We need an October 18 or later frost, would like for it to be November 1, and would settle for October 15. But we can't take it early in October. The weather man seems to be trying for a new early date—in September—if the weather antics of the last 10 days may be taken as pointers. We no likee.

Street signs needed. The need for stop signs on many streets of Floydada which lead into highways can hardly be over-stated. The city council doubtless realizes this fact and have done or are going to do something about it. Seriously lacking also are street intersection signs, many of which have been knocked down or damaged beyond use in a period during which the city had no repair and replacement program, a sort of an enforced condition. Automobiles, trucks, street workers, construction crews and the like, have done a pretty thorough job of spoiling the street marking system. Although it will cost a pretty penny to do so, it would please most of the people of the community considerably, we judge, if the city council would put such a project high on their work sheet for early attention. Street markers, like store fronts and awnings, suffer from the ravages of time and the elements.

Knowledge is a tool for use, but it does not replace man's sense of values.

Drunk driving law. Texas has a new drunk driving law, one provision of which makes it mandatory on judge or jury, in case of conviction to assess a three-day jail sentence. With it also goes a six-month suspension of the driving license of the man found guilty. Other punishment can be assessed in the form of money fines. It will take time to prove whether or not the idea is a good one. There was much pro and con argument in the legislature over the matter before it went on the statute books. It is a good effort in the right direction. It may turn out that juries will cease to convict in too many cases and the law have to be worked over. It has become evident that the danger entailed in drunk driving has been on the increase and some kind of a change from the old law was due at least to try. Drunk driving, like drunk driving, will continue to be an ever-present problem. It may be assumed that successive legislatures will try to do something about it. A mandatory jail sentence and suspension of license to drive will surely bring on more jury trials, fewer pleas of guilty. The new law has been tried out in one case in this county already. In other counties of the state cases have also been filed by the thousands already.

Business from onions. Illustrating the difference in the business that different crops make in a community, meaning the number of jobs at which more or less people can find employment, reference can be made to the trial onion crops in the county. Harvest has been finished on 100 acres of onions. This hundred acres, with three growers only, made jobs for more than 30 days for more than thirty men, with the machinery that goes with such an operation. The use of water in the high plains for irrigation is due to make people figure ways and means to make more money per acre. And they'll branch off into efforts like the onion experiments of the three or four young Floyd county men. What makes the lure of such crops is the occasional year when the grower hits the jackpot on the market. It gets to be big business in a hurry. It also changes the economic outlook quickly.

Controlling external parasites on sheep and goats will stop damage to wool and mohair and conserve feeds. Animals infested with lice do not feed normally and the feed consumed is not properly utilized. It doesn't pay to feed parasites.

Outbreaks of stinking smut in wheat fields in some sections of the state this year were the worst since 1940. Chemically treating the wheat seed before it is planted will control this disease and help germination.

Well arranged time is the surest test of a well-arranged mind.

SEED TESTING
The next two years was only a few hundred dollars lower than formerly, it means the Department of Agriculture is over the hump in maximum tax money spending and subsequent requests are now expected to decrease with no loss of services to Texas farmers and ranchmen.

Since the seed testing fee is new, farmers and seedmen are reminded they may obtain a complete test of all seed except chaffy grasses, native grasses, mixtures and trashy seed for $2.50. This fee can be broken down to $1.50 for purity analysis, only, or $1 for germination tests.

The charge for tests on the four exceptions is $5. Trashy seed may be rejected for testing when the laboratories at Lubbock and Austin are experiencing a rush season.

Noxious weed seed is examined for $1 per sample. These tests are required by law before offering the seed for sale in Texas.

Battle of Outlaws Opens October 4

HUNTSVILLE.—The annual event that has been headlined by newspapers and magazines throughout the Southwest as "The Battle of the Outlaws" — Texas' 22nd Prison Rodeo will again get underway here at the Prison System's main unit on Sunday afternoon, October 4th.

The prison's rodeo manager Albert Moore has stated that, as always, he is picking only the very best of the performers, from the many prisoners who will try out to compete for the rodeo, and only the widest stock that the prison's herds afford for them to mount when the show opens.

With the pick of the penitentiary's 7,600 inmates doing the riding and only the widest of its more than 12,000 head of cattle and hundreds of horses chosen for the performances, there will be enough action to satisfy even the most critical rodeo fan.

er Wins Sensational Game All-Stars to End Season

(John H. Hutchinson)
The Thomas Jewell team, she won almost all games that she pitched, and went with her team to the state tournament to play for the state championship, going to the finals before state.

Friday night's game was the best pitched game of the season, with Farmer winning 1 to 0. Ashley pitched one of his best games, having only one hit off his pitching that by Earl Cooper. Also Cooper did a fine job of catching for Miss Hobbs.

Ashley struck out 10 batters, and Nina struck out 11. To show how good she pitched, seven letters went out by the pop-up route to Maurice Steen, playing second base for the all-stars. She allowed 3 hits.

Miss Hobbs is 18 years old. The players and fans appreciate very much her sportsmanship in coming over to help out another softball player.

Jim Werd was the umpire behind the plate, and did a fine job, and we bet he is cross-eyed this week from watching the sharp breaks and curves of these two top notch pitchers. The game netted $100.00 which was given Scotty with the best wishes of the fans and players, who wish him a speedy recovery.

Farmer Wins Tournament
Farmer defeated R.E.A. 3 to 0, to win the annual Floyd county softball tournament last Monday night. It was a very good game with Ashley the winning pitcher and Lingle the loser.

R.E.A. had advanced to the finals by defeating Builders Mart August 27, by a score of 6 to 2. Lingle the winning pitcher and Ward the loser.

This was the best tournament that we have had, as all but two of the games were very close, and two games going extra innings. To show how good the pitching was there was no ball hit over the fence. Farmer won first place, R.E.A. second place, Builders Mart third place and Crosbyton fourth place. Beautiful trophies were given the first three places.

Haney Pitches at Selma
One of the pitchers for the Hi-Plains softball league did all right in big time softball the past week. Weidon Haney, a member of Mitchell Hardware, Plainview, team in our softball league, also pitched for the Lorenzo Lions in the Texas Softball league. He pitched them to the state championship.

In the ISL world's softball tournament at Selma, California, which ended Tuesday the Lorenzo team won third place trophy. Haney won two games and had no losses. The Lorenzo Lions finally were eliminated by Tampico, Illinois, which in turn lost to Long Beach in the final game. Lorenzo had a 4-2 record in the tournament.

Ocean Echoes Signal to Cable Ship of Damage

SEATTLE, Wash.— Echoes from the middle of the Pacific Ocean act as alert signals for the biggest cable ship under the American flag—the Army Transportation Corps' Albert J. Myer.

When indistinct messages come into Seattle cable terminal from Alaska, an Army technician uses special test equipment to locate the damage in the communication line. Damage to the cable causes a rush of sound—or echo—to come through the test equipment, and an experienced line repairman can tell—within two miles—where the damage is. Then the 362-foot ship—with home port here—casts off on a repair mission.

The Myer steams to the approximate location of the damage and drops a grapnel—an "anchor" with claws—attached to a rope.

An instrument on the ship called a dynamometer—indicates when the cable is hooked to the grapnel. The cable then is pulled up on the ship, cut, and the end nearest land is tied to a buoy. The ship then steams forward, rolling up the other part of the cable until Army Signal Corps experts find the damage. They cut the damaged section out and splice a new piece of cable in its place.

After repairs are made, the Army cable engineer aboard ship tests the line. By using portable testing equipment, he sends messages to both the United States mainland and to the terminal at Ketchikan, Alaska.

Damages to cable in deep water—breaks, twists or cuts—often are caused by submarine earthquakes or landslides. Also, decomposition of the cable sometimes exposes its core to damage from currents or rough bottom. In one instance, a whale tangled with the cable and twisted it.

Cable damage in shallow water—where faults usually occur—are the results of pounding surf at the shore line, a ship's anchor, pile-driving activities, dredging operations and swift currents. Fully equipped Army barges are used to make these shallow-water repairs.

Besides complete testing and repair equipment, the Myer also is equipped with special engines for laying cable and instruments which measure the length of cable as it is being picked up or laid. Cable is laid from three huge rollers at the tip of the ship's bow.

Tanks in the hole of the ship carry 1,200 miles of one-inch diameter cable—enough to extend from Seattle to Bakersfield, Calif.

The Myer is able to distill sea water to replenish her supply of drinking water held in tanks aboard ship.

The Myer has a gross tonnage of almost 4,000 and a fuel capacity of 7,000 barrels of oil. She operates at 14 knots with a top speed of 15

What Is a Wife?

Floyd County Hesperian, Floydada, Texas, Thursday, September 10, 1953 that you are working late at the office. At week-ends she has lunch ready just as you have crawled under the car, runs the vacuum cleaner just as you've settled in your easy chair with the paper, asks you to fix something just as you are setting off for a game of golf.

A wife is the girl you married, although fatter or thinner—most certainly older. She might be even a bit dull. But look in the mirror, sir! Are you still the handsome, gay carefree dog you used to be? Honestly now.

A wife understands you, needs you, loves you. In the world of men you may feel like crumbling limestone but the minute you step through your door you are her Rock of Gibraltar. — Mary Bishop in Rotarian Magazine.

A wife licks your wounds, bolsters your ego, and has faith and persistence that make you move mountains. She is a safety valve when you must blow off steam at someone she knows you as a small boy at heart who has never grown up, and that when you have a cold it is much worse than when she has a cold.

A wife must have the patience of Job, the wisdom of Solomon, the endurance of Atlas and a sense of humor, but never, never show it when you are in a temper.

A wife spends the afternoon preparing your favorite meal for the night you ring at 6 o'clock to say

LIBRARY NEWS

(by Mrs. Rosita Hollar, Librarian)

The story hour Saturday morning was a sort of farewell and transition for the group. Ann Welborn was present for her last Saturday before she leaves for her school term at Baylor University at Waco, and Myrna Wilson was present before she left Monday for her school year at Texas Tech.

Barbara Perry and Glynell Armstrong will continue the story hour during the school term. They were present on Saturday for practice.

David Kirk was present and made colored pictures of the group, film being furnished by the 1929 Study club, sponsors of the story hour, for a permanent record of the story hour for future showings.

Carl Minor, jr., made a tape recording at the meeting. It was played one time and the club has purchased the tape to use at other programs. It has been suggested that the tape be loaned other counties to show the value of a story hour.

Mrs. C. W. Denison served refreshments to the children after the hour.

Next week the sponsors ask that children bring records and the library would like to borrow a record player to use at the story hour.

Dorothy Duncan joins the staff, replacing Myrna Wilson, and she will work afternoons and on Saturdays.

Citizens of Floydada who want to report prowlers, disturbances and the like at night should make their reports by telephone to the city hall, Number 211.

The information will be relayed to cruising officers by a light signal turned on there. In this manner officers can answer calls promptly.

Missing Chapters in the Schoolbooks

A high school teacher writes us: "Please send me 50 copies of your booklet, Adventures Inside the Atom, for use with my students." Another wants material on new inventions. Or booklets on jet planes.

New things happen in science faster than textbooks can be revised.

New words puzzle our ears and eyes before these words are in dictionaries . . . atomic-pile reactors, silicones, jet engines with "afterburners," UHF television. Some problem for teachers, that.

Last year over 100,000 letters from schools hit our desks at General Electric asking for things in print on "what's new."

Just to give you an idea of how this adds up, one booklet, Adventures Inside the Atom, has been requested to the tune of five million copies since 1948.

Adventures in Jet Power, also handled in comic-book treatment, has since 1946 gone into eight printings.

This may surprise you: a new booklet, Why Study Math?, will run over a million copies this year. (It answers that question Junior is always raising.)

Nobody is happier than we are to know teen-agers have a lively appetite for what's buzzing in the world around them.

After all, whether they know it or not, our young people in school today will be the scientists and engineers of tomorrow. They can't know too much.

The beautiful cream-colored wedding dress of wool cashmere with silk lace and applique trim was on display. Also the white wedding shirt and many other articles of clothing Mrs. Carr, her mother, and Miss Anna Carr made the wedding dress. Perhaps the most unusual garments were two baby dresses, one worn by Mr. Carr and one by Mrs. Carr. Mrs. Carr's was long, made of Irish linen with rows of insertion and tucks horizontally across the front with buttons all the way down the back. It was made by Mrs. Carr's mother Annie, her firstborn, and was worn by all the children. It appears to be strong enough to serve another family if so desired. Mr. Carr's dress is short and tiny enough that the average Christmas doll would find it too small.

Music and Readings

Appropriate music and readings were given throughout the festivities. The first number was a duet by Mrs. Horace Krebs and Mrs. Everett Miller, 'Sweetener as the Years go by' in which the group joined on the chorus. Following this number Rev. Krebs offered prayer. Later, Mrs. Blanche Ramsey Williams and daughters, Mona Ray and Carolyn sang 'May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You.' Mrs. Anna Maud Hopper in a gracious manner read the beloved poem of James Whitcomb Riley, 'That Old Sweetheart of Mine.' Group singing directed by Mrs. Lucille Miller and accompanied by Mrs. M. D. Ramsey followed.

Little Bill Carr, a grandson, gave a reading 'My Grandpa's and Grandma's Anniversary' an original composition of his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Carr. Charles Mather Carr, another grandson gave a reading 'Fifty Years Ago,' and the granddaughter, LaJuana Sue Williams read a poem 'Friendship Lasts.'

The highlight of festivities came at 8 o'clock that night when the wedding vows were again said by Mr. and Mrs. Carr at exactly the same hour, the same day of the week and month as it was fifty years ago. The ceremony was performed by their pastor, Rev. H. G. Krebs. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Imboden of Gallup, New Mexico, stood up with the couple. Mrs. Imboden is Mrs. Carr's sister. Mrs. Ramsey played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Lucille Miller sang 'On Her Golden Wedding Day.'

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holmes of KFLD interviewed the honored couple and other guests and many pictures were made by Horace Carr and others.

Witnesses Fifty Years Ago

Three persons who witnessed the wedding fifty years ago were present to witness this one. They were Mrs. Carr's sister, Mrs. Lula Mae Imboden and Mr. Carr's twin sister, Mrs. Mattie Heard and another sister, Miss Anna Carr. Several childhood schoolmates and friends were present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rutherford of Stamford, Texas, Mrs. Lizzie Davis of Levita, W. C. Clubb of Petersburg, Mrs. Mag Mahew of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Winningham of Littlefield.

Guests registered from Harmony, Cone, Lubbock, Floydada, Plainview, Houston, Canyon, Petersburg, McLean, Amarillo, Dimmitt, Tulla, Post, Amarillo, New Mexico, Midland and Lockney.

The guests registered with a unique writing pen, a gift of Mrs. Carr's mother some 64 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Carr were both born in Coryell county, Texas, but moved to Floyd county early in life. They spent the first seven months of their married life in the home of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Carr of Harmony, then moved to their present home, living the first five years in a half dugout. It was in this dugout that their eldest son, Wesley was born. His father made a frantic ride that day on old 'Polly', their first mare, to Lockney to secure the services of Dr. J. L. Guest.

Active in Community Affairs

For half a century the Carrs have served their community faithfully and well. Their pew at church is never vacant except when necessity demands it. When Harmony church was organized in 1904, Mather Carr was elected Sunday school superintendent and served in that capacity for many years. Doubtless he has served in every church office and on every committee of the local church as well as school trustee. At the present time, he is teacher of the adult Sunday school class.

Mrs. Carr has been a Sunday school teacher many years, president of W.S.C.S., president of the home demonstration club and served on various committees. Both are still active and interested in all community projects.

The welcome mat has always been out for friends and neighbors and Mr. and Mrs. Carr have prided themselves on their home being the preacher's home.

Those of us who know them best know that it will ever be thus. With gratitude to these good people we all join in wishing for them many more years of happy and useful living.

This demonstration was worth many hundreds of dollars to me!

I thought only a higher-priced car would suit me. But then I found out how much more Chevrolet offered for how much less!

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel
 Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the rich-looking upholstery and appointments and roomy, comfortable seats. Just turn the ignition key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You get more power on less gas
 Here's all the power and performance you could ever ask for. And along with it comes the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history! That's because of Chevrolet's two great high-compression engines.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*
 Finer performance on less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

Even Power Steering, if you want it
 You ought to try Power Steering to see how easy driving can be. You can spin the wheel with one finger! It's optional, of course, at extra cost, and available on all models.

It's heavier for better roadability
 You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady ride. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than other low-priced cars.

And it's the lowest-priced line
 A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers more in the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

Friends Dined With Barbeque

Billy Stanforth, Jr., and a group of friends enjoyed a barbeque at the South Plains Hotel. The date of the barbeque was the 30th anniversary of the founding of the town. Games were served, and the evening was enjoyed. Those present included Messrs. Stanforth, L. P. Gresham, M. J. McNeill, J. P. Gresham, John Kizner, Jim Word, John Kimble, Fred Coffman, Fred Russell King, Jim Reese and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Pitts of Lubbock. Mrs. Ralph Hammonds were guests.

McDonald Hostess

McDonald, assisted by Mrs. C. B. McDonald, friends with a large party at the South Plains Hotel. The party was held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Conversation was recorded favorably. Those present included Misses Jean Porter, Jo Day, Gladys Pearce, Ann Welton, Myrna Wilson, Barbara Perry, Dajana Warren, Alice Ann Gohlighly.

Although we have no teen-agers at our house any more, we could easily imagine the joy of families who do. No teen-agers lying prone in the hall to step over as they talked endlessly about nothing at all. Parents surely felt grim satisfaction that, if they couldn't use the telephone themselves, at least there was peace and quiet to keep them from it, for a change.

The telephone strike taught us two things: that we can hardly get along without a phone; and that we could probably get twice as much done if we didn't have one. In places where local calls still depend on a "Hello, Central," the long silent mornings yielded an unexpected bonus in added time. Household projects, such as cleaning out the pantry, sorting old clothes, answering letters—usually put off till tomorrow—were done with amazing regularity during the strike-bound week.

There was, of course, the offsetting disadvantage of being unable to make a business call, of having to remember a dozen errands every time one left the house. And families in which real emergencies arose were seriously inconvenienced.

But we heard one woman, who admits she is a telephone addict, say she recognized her entire life without one. With a shoulder rest and a long connection, she customarily spends her kitchen hours transacting business for her many outside activities. While her hands are washing dishes or mixing a cake, her mind and tongue are off in twenty different directions—for the family, the club, the church.

Why her cakes didn't come out with a pinch of Shakespeare instead of salt, and club dues instead of baking powder, we'll never know. At any rate, she admits, she was tied to the kitchen by the telephone. During the strike, she got re-acquainted with the rest of her home.

Although we have no teen-agers at our house any more, we could easily imagine the joy of families who do. No teen-agers lying prone in the hall to step over as they talked endlessly about nothing at all. Parents surely felt grim satisfaction that, if they couldn't use the telephone themselves, at least there was peace and quiet to keep them from it, for a change.

Super Gasoline Introduced by Conoco Dealers

HOUSTON, Texas, September 10—A million-dollar advertising campaign to introduce Continental Oil Company's new Conoco Super gasoline with TCP, described as "the biggest improvement in gasoline in 31 years," is being launched this week as Conoco's new premium fuel goes on sale at 3,500 Conoco service stations and other outlets in 23 states. TCP, the additive that gives car engines more power and greater fuel mileage is being added to Conoco's new gasoline by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. It was revealed by Harry J. Kennedy, vice president in charge of marketing.

TCP, the trademark for the power-boosting additive used in the new Conoco Super gasoline, is a special chemical compound originally developed to prevent spark plug failure in the Air Force's giant B-36 bombers, said Mr. Kennedy. He explained that TCP provides better engine performance in two ways. First, it neutralizes spark plug deposits that cause short-circuiting and misfiring. Second, it changes chemically the deposits in combustion chambers that cause "wild-ping" and pre-ignition with resultant power loss. Both conditions are common in both new and old cars.

"Conoco Super is a wholly new kind of gasoline," Mr. Kennedy pointed out. "And Conoco customers will be the first in their vicinities, except for scattered points where both Conoco and Shell market gasoline, to get the benefits of the most important advance in motor fuels since we began adding tetraethyl lead to gasoline back in 1922." "In actual road operation motorists have experienced noticeable improvement in car performance after using as little as two tankfuls of gasoline with TCP. They also have experienced noticeable improvement in car performance after using as little as two tankfuls of gasoline with TCP. They also have obtained as much as a 15 percent boost in useable power, better gasoline mileage and up to 150 percent longer spark plug life."

"As usual, newspapers are carrying the heaviest load in Continental's intensified advertising campaign to help launch our new Conoco Super gasoline," Mr. Kennedy said. Conoco is using ads in more than 1,000 weekly and daily newspapers with a combined circulation of 11,500,000 in addition to spot radio announcements on 98 stations in 56 cities; television commercials on 21 TV stations in 14 cities, and 5,350 outdoor posters in 1,217 communities.

Conoco Super gasoline is now available at Conoco service stations and other retail outlets in Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Conservation District News

Floyd Jackson, who farms in the Lone Star community, has been following a better than average cropping system on a 160-acre farm. His cropping consists of alfalfa, wheat, grain sorghum and cotton with an occasional crop like barley or oats.

One of the best ways to point out the benefit in farming with a rotation like this, is to look at his yields.

When the most recent field of alfalfa was plowed up, it was followed by barley for two years which averaged about 80 bushels per acre. It was then farmed to cotton which produced 373 bales on about 20 acres.

This year he has this field in cotton again and it has a very good crop on it again.

With a cropping system like this, Floyd can keep a high production record on this farm with crops like wheat, barley and grain sorghum in his system of farming he can maintain a good supply of organic matter in his soil, which will protect his land from blowing and maintain a good physical condition of his land.

This organic material will enable him to make most efficient use of his rainfall and irrigation water.

some much needed waterways established. Carl Lemon of the Cedar Hill community has a wonderful stand of Weeping Lovegrass in a large flat waterway which two diversions will divert the water from several acres of land. Milton Evans, of the Harmony community has a waterway established which will allow him to cut outside water off a steep slope which is being damaged by erosion. This waterway has been established with Weeping Lovegrass and Western wheatgrass. It is very encouraging to see waterways established in adverse years like this. If you need a waterway before you can accomplish a job on your farm, it would probably be good to discuss the job with one of these men. They seem to have the right idea to get the job done.

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

New Conoco Super Gasoline

with TCP*

Boosts power as much as 15%! Increases spark-plug life up to 150%! Gives you extra gas mileage, too!

Here's the most revolutionary advance in motor fuels since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922—new Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP, brought to you by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. TCP is Shell's trademark for the remarkable additive originally developed for aviation fuels.

Now you can actually enjoy the benefits of an engine tune-up—just by changing to new Conoco Super Gasoline. Chances are, by the time you've finished your second tankful, you'll feel the increase in power. And you'll keep that extra power just as long as you use Conoco Super.

For Conoco Super with TCP is a new kind of gasoline. It overcomes the greatest single cause of power loss affecting most of the cars on the road today. Now, you can enjoy all the power that was built into your car.

Why you need Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP

In the average automobile, the by-products of fuel combustion constantly build up deposits on spark plugs and in combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power in two ways. First, they actually short-circuit your spark plugs. This causes mis-firing. Second, deposits in the combustion chamber get red hot and cause the fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The effect of fouled spark plugs and pre-ignition is a loss in power and a waste of gasoline.

© Patent applied for by Shell Oil Co.

CROSS SECTION OF TYPICAL SPARK PLUG

Combustion deposits form here, causing mis-firing and loss of power. TCP neutralizes these deposits, giving top power and performance.

How TCP works

TCP is a special chemical additive which is added to Conoco Super Gasoline. It was specifically developed to overcome the loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs—your plugs spark as they should. It prevents deposits in the combustion chambers from causing pre-ignition—"wild ping" is controlled. Thus, every time you fill up with new Conoco Super, it's like getting your spark plugs cleaned and your engine tuned-up.

TCP helps your car, whether new or old

If you are driving a new car, with a high-compression engine, you need Conoco Super Gasoline to keep your car delivering all the power that was built into it. It will actually increase spark-plug life up to 150%. If you drive an older car, with tens of thousands of miles on the speedometer, Conoco Super can restore much of the "new car" performance and power you've been missing.

Yes, a great new era in motoring is here for you. Drive into your Conoco station today and fill your tank with new Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP! You'll feel the difference by the second tankful!
