

Another Deep Oil Test Slated To Begin Soon In Cedar Area

The first of the week report was current, apparently authentic, that a wildcat oil venture in northeast Floyd county is due to be got under way by midnight of Tuesday, June 29.

These reports credit Ralph Abbey and others, Dallas operators, with the announcement that they will make a test on Section 23, Block, GM, GC&SF Railway survey. It is projected to 9,500 feet for tests of production in the Mississippian formation, so the report appearing in Tuesday morning dispatches, said.

Exact location is 660 feet from north and east lines of the section. This is three miles north and approximately one mile east of Cedar Hill. It is two miles north and two miles east of the Johnny Lackey ten thousand-foot test made three years ago.

Stake for the location of the well was set Saturday. Records of Floyd county disclose that the oil and gas lease on Section 23, Block, GM, is held by Stanolind Oil & Gas Company, and that the term of the lease is due to expire on Tuesday of next week, June 29.

Also expiring at the same time are the leases on five or six other tracts in the same general vicinity held by Stanolind. However, two sections in the immediate vicinity, one adjoining Section 23 on the south, Section 7 in Block D-2, and the section lying immediately west of 7, which is 1 in GM, still have two or three years to run. A test on 23, therefore, would give Stanolind a line on these two sections without the necessity of a drill test.

The announcement that the Dallas operators will make the test on Section 23 indicates that the operations will be a farm out from Stanolind. No machinery had been moved to the location as late as Wednesday morning. The report said that operations are to get underway immediately.

One report heard locally, from an apparently reliable source, said that the test is to be started "within 90 days" but is more likely to be started immediately. If there is a delay in starting it would require a lease extension. No extension of the lease on Section 23 had been filed for record as late as Wednesday morning.

W. E. Burlison, whose fine new home is on the section lying immediately north of No. 23, will have a grandstand seat in watching the operations, if the rig is moved on and the test made.

E. A. WILLIAMS... will be installed as president at today's session of the Floydada Lions club.

Lions To Install New Officers In Ceremonies at Noon Today

Floydada Lions club will install a new set of officers for the fiscal year 1954-55 in their session at high noon today.

When the current presiding officer Earl Crow lays down the gavel today at noon, the club will have chalked up a year of considerable community and civic activity.

The new president who takes over beginning with next Thursday is E. A. Williams. Crow will officiate at the installation of his successors and the other new officials who take the helm.

Taking office with Williams will be W. O. Baker, who moves up from the second vice-president, to first vice-president, and George Spears, who assumes the role of second vice-president. Kenneth Rimmer succeeds Spears to the task of secretary-treasurer. Gene Collins will be the new Lion tamer succeeding T. L. Holland and Claude Weathersbee takes over as tail twister succeeding Collins.

The new board of directors are James H. Word, Kenneth E. Bain, Jr., Lyndell Roberts, George Allen and J. G. Wood.

Important committee assignments include the attendance committee with T. L. Holland as chairman, and membership, with G. E. Mayo chairman.

The club closes its 1953-54 year with a roster of 33 members.

Entries in Farm Bureau Queen Contest Close With Nine Entries

Nine of Floyd county's lovely daughters are in the Farm Bureau queen contest, winner of which title will be decided at a date, tentatively set for July 23.

Announcing that entries had been closed Mrs. Dorris Jones, county queen contest chairman, said plans are being worked out. Serving with Mrs. Jones on the committee is Mrs. Joe Foster of Lockney.

Among other things Mrs. Jones said a brief essay by each contestant is likely to be a requirement. Other announcements in connection with the contest are due to be made soon.

The night of the judge's decision will see a program which will include local talent from over the county. Out of county judges will choose the winner if the program is carried out as planned.

All contestants must be between the ages of 16 and 22 and must be a daughter or sister of a Farm Bureau member.

County contest winner will represent the county at the district contest, the district winner at the state and the state winner will journey to the national convention there to be crowned queen of the national Farm Bureau federation.

Following are the entries for the contest: Ann Belt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Belt, jr., sponsored by Lockney Lions club;

Barbara Carthel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Carthel, sponsored by Lockney Rotary club.

Joan Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Harris, sponsored by Pleasant Valley home demonstration club;

June Wiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wiley, sponsored by Lockney Business & Professional Women's club;

Gwen Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Richardson sponsored by Dougherty home demonstration club;

Drive For Cancer Crusade in July

Machinery for the Cancer Crusade which hits the first two weeks of July is now being set up and the full roster of workers will be named next week in the Hesperian.

Ernest Carter, Crusade chairman, has been down the past 10 days from an attack of mumps and has been delayed in getting to contact prospective workers for the drive. Report Tuesday was that Mr. Carter would be out and around again by Friday of this week and hoped to make short work of the remaining task.

Meanwhile Mrs. R. A. Dyson, chairman of the executive committee, is working in the Lockney area to organize this, Floyd county's first cancer drive.

Goal for the county is $1,035.80.

Glynnel Armstrong, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Tilden B. Armstrong sponsored by Floydada Chamber of Commerce;

Joyce Dell Hammonds daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dot Hammonds, sponsored by Friendship home demonstration club;

Pat Helms daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Helms, sponsored by Starkey home demonstration club;

Barbara Bullock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bullock, sponsored by Floydada Garden club.

Growers Ready Onion Harvest

Six Floyd county farm operators are readying their equipment to begin harvesting onion crops, totalling about 90 acres.

They will clip the first run this week and it should not be more than a few days before the onions begin to fill up the processing sheds on the Q & P right-of-way.

Growers who are contracting their harvest and processing are L. D. Simpson, W. H. Simpson, Jr., Jim Simpson, Kenneth Probasco, Rafe Ferguson and Orland Miller.

They will sell through Brann and Griffin, the same brokers who handled the crops here last year, when the growers had good financial returns despite a big supply of onions and a poor market. The opening prices at the shed are expected to be better this year. Quotations last week-end were encouraging.

Ten thousand onion sacks were unloaded here last week.

The onions have to be clipped, dug out of the ground and allowed to dry for three or four days before they are ready for the grading and sorting.

Market conditions appear to be better this season because a part of the north Texas crop was lost to wet weather and the south Texas acreage is lower than in former years.

Probasco and the Simpsons had about 60 acres in onions here last year, and part of their crop was processed and marketed from another point. Ferguson and Miller are new onion growers.

The six men plan to process and market all of their crop through the shed here this season. Last year a crew of McKinney men were here for several weeks handling the onions, through the grading and sorting machines.

JUANITA PHILLIPS VISITS PARENTS AT HOME HERE

Miss Juanita Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phillips, visited several days in the home of her parents here recently. Miss Phillips resides in Radford, Virginia, where she is high school librarian. Four other girls from Radford, accompanied Juanita to Floydada and plan to continue an extended tour of the West.

Wheat Harvest Is On Last Lap

The wheat harvest had begun to taper off this week, Wednesday showing a marked drop in the number of fields that were delivering to the elevator.

And with the tapering off came the late wheat, some of which was damaged by the mid-June winds some with green grain and some with weeds. So the quality, generally speaking, is down.

The early wheat that came on to the market showed excellent yields, good tests. Early reported crops gave returns of 20 to 40 bushels. Later yields have been down to 10 and 12 bushels with an occasional field even lower.

In some quarters storage has been the big problem, but most elevators have had ample room for government loan wheat. All the elevators have outlets for bought wheat. A great deal of the late crop will not test as good as No. 2 will go on the market. Most of the early wheat went into storage.

While the acreage of wheat yet to be harvested is extensive, especially in dry land fields, two-thirds of the crop, bushel-wise, has been delivered into channels.

Presenting The Checks. T. C. Richardson, Texas editor of the Farmer-Stockman magazine, presents checks for $100 each to 1954 officers of Harmony Community, Mrs. Marion Tucker, secretary and E. L. Harmony Community Braces for 1955 Neighborhood Betterment Contest as 1954 Prizes are Presented

Before the formalities of presenting the plaques and prizes denoting Harmony community's high rating in the 1954 Rural Neighborhood Improvement contest had been held officers and members of the community had already started plans for the 1955 contest, enthusiastically determined on a try for first place in the state.

A good attendance Tuesday night of last week at the new Harmony center witnessed the presentation of awards won in the Rural Neighborhood contest.

The community held a regular meeting with the president, Roy Hale, calling the meeting to order.

Plans were discussed on the spraying to prevent flies and Mrs. Roy Hale asked that a first aid school be started. A vote was taken which was unanimous, and at least 20 persons plan to take the schooling.

Roy Hale turned the meeting over to the past president, Loyce Turner who told of the community achievements and the appreciation of the helpers who made it possible to win the award.

Guests were introduced by Roy Hale. They included T. C. Richardson, Texas editor of Farmer-Stockman, Mrs. Aubrey Russell, district Home Demonstration agent from Lubbock, Ben Spears from Texas A & M Extension Service, J. B. Pruitt, vice-director of Extension Service, Miss Leila Petty, Floyd county home demonstration agent, and Bill Rodgers, county agent.

T. C. Richardson made a gift of 10 books to be donated to the county library in name of Harmony community.

Following a thirty minute TV program titled "Progress in Texas", Mr. Richardson presented two plaques to the community, the first time a double presentation has ever been

LET'S ALL SHARE IN IT!

(By Tilden B. Armstrong)

TWO OUT OF THREE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD NEVER GET ENOUGH TO EAT TO KEEP THEIR STOMACHS FROM HURTING. BUT FOR THE GRACE OF GOD THIS MIGHT BE TRUE OF YOU AND YOUR FAMILY.

CROP is a relief agency for 37 protestant churches. The government thinks so much of the work it has been doing that it has offered to match its giving 20 to 1. That means just this. The government has bulging barns of wheat, cotton, rice, powdered milk, powdered eggs, etc. and for every bushel of wheat you give to CROP, our government will give 20 bushels. The same is true of every other surplus commodity.

Just tell your elevator man how many bushels you want to give to CROP and he will give you a receipt for it. CROP will do the rest.

If you have no wheat, cash will do the same thing. Every dollar you contribute for CROP can be used to buy a bushel of wheat that in turn will be matched with 20 bushels. So you see, this is everybody's program.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if the farmers would contribute a car load of wheat from Floyd county and the rest of us would contribute enough money to buy a second car load! It can be done. This is the time for Christians everywhere to unite in one grand hour of sharing.

Your county committee is as follows: J. A. (Bill) Colston, chairman; Edd Wester, vice-chairman; Randall King, secretary; Charlie Bedford, treasurer. See some of these men and tell them what you are going to do. Don't wait to be asked.

Pay for each of the election holders and clerks was set at $5 and $2 for the member making the returns. The committee, for the first time has had authority in many years of making an assessment of more than $1 against a district candidate, upped the assessments against all district candidates as follows:

For chief justice, court of civil appeals $20;

For congress 19th district, $26;

For state senator and state representative, $10 each;

And for district judge, $100.

For each of these offices there is only one candidate for nomination.

County Candidate Assessments

For county offices $89 each was assessed against two candidates for sheriff.

For assessor-collector $59.33 was assessed against each of three candidates.

For county surveyor $5 against one candidate;

For county clerk $178 against one candidate;

For county judge $89 against two candidates;

For district clerk $117 against one candidate;

For county treasurer $65 each against two candidates;

For county attorney $178 against one candidate.

In the assessments for commissioner the committee put the figure at $123 per precinct. In Precinct One with three candidates, the assessment against each is $41;

In Precincts 2 and 3 there is only one candidate each with $123 assessed against them, and in Precinct Four with two candidates the assessment against each is $61.50.

One justice of the peace candidate in Precinct 1 and 4 was assessed a fee of $76 and one candidate in Precincts 2 and 3 was assessed $38. Members of the committee present for the meeting were Tom Porter, G. L. Fawver, Zant Scott, Cecil Purcell, Bert Bobbitt and John R. Shipley.

Vacancies in the three precincts were filled by appointment of chairmen. In Southwest Floydada W. G. Collins was named to succeed A. G. Goen, deceased; in East Lockney Dee Copeland was named to fill the place of G. R. Day removed from the county; in Southeast Floydada new precinct chairman is Ralph C. Johnston, named to succeed C. C. Huckabee, who is a candidate in the primary. Collins and Copeland being present were seated as representing their precincts.

Ben P. Ayres, county chairman, presided at the session of the committee.

Temporary solution of the problem came Monday when the waterworks men strung 2,200 feet of borrowed (from Harry Morckel) six-inch aluminum pipe from the new well to the settling tank at southwest No. 1. While in operation it puts water into the tank under 25 pounds of pressure. The permanent installation will come later when underground pipe is laid and a 75 horse power motor installed.

VIEWS AND COMMENT

Look Out, Governor! The Saturday Evening Post this week has a story about Governor Shivers and the battle he is waging with the Duke of Duval, George B. Parr. We haven't seen the article but the Curtis Publishing Company's editorial staff is being sure that Texas newspapers get enough about it to intrigue the fancy and get more Texas interest in SEP. Doubtless the SEP will have Mr. Shivers and others talking rather uppity about the matter to make it "more readable." Story writers and magazine fellows of that kind have to make their articles zippy. What we are thinking is that the SEP stories are somewhat of a jinx to most contestants, like in football, and baseball, and have been known to cost popularity in some quarters for politicians as well. This man, Judge Yarborough, is going to make a hard battle to unseat Mr. Shivers this year. He will have the active help of a good many friends. The governor and his friends will have to lay their legs down and won't need any zippy remarks from a free lance writer to spend time explaining.

Houston will become Texas' and the south's first city of a million people, the Houston Chamber of Commerce says. The event will transpire on July 3 and the first youngster to be born there that day will be assumed to be the millionth resident. He or she will have a royal welcome and a multitude of gifts. The report speaks of metropolitan Houston. Metropolitan Houston runs a fur piece out into the country. A tourist comes to a sign to the northwest far out of sight of the big city which indicates its boundary. Presumably the limits extend as far south also, which means that a good many denizens of the deep are within the port city's boundaries. How they caught 'em up and counted them ought to be an interesting story.

Poll of Lawyers of the state on the candidates for high court benches is made annually for the purpose of giving the people the lawyer's idea of the best man for the places they seek. This year some supreme court candidates and criminal appeals court judges are among those to be elected. Doubtless the people will pay more attention to these opinions of the lawyers as time goes by, since they represent secret poll results. The lawyers do not pass on the vote-getting abilities of the candidates, the polls representing only the ideas of the legal fraternity as to their preference on the date the poll is taken. You can't always tell what the voters will do any more than you can judge what a jury's verdict will be.

This is chigger season and means a lot of trouble for many people. A five percent toxaphene or chlordane dust applied at the rate of one pound per 1,000 square feet of area will control the pests in the lawn or on other areas where they are a problem.

Ballot Is Short. The shortest ballot in many moons will be voted by Texas Democrats when they go to the polls on July 24. The county and precinct ballot may be about as usual, but on the state list there will be only 26 names in all. There used to be nearly that many for lieutenant governor alone, and sometimes half that many for governor. It is conjectured that the $600 filing fee (instead of $100) may have had something to do with the number of candidates who offered just for the heck of it and to have their names printed on the ballots throughout the state.

Over in Crosby county the fact is being noted that the people of the county finally are attending to their official business, going to court and the like, in a courthouse building that is paid for. Their court house bonds were voted in 1914. Most all of the time counties and cities which have to build or improve have to exceed the funds on hand to get what the public demands. This means borrowing, which is another way of saying the city or county voted bonds. Forty years ago the people could not conceive of all the things that would happen to them in 40 years. One thing they knew that the people would not run out of their publicly acknowledged debts. Wars, pestilence, drouth, depressions and whatnot, the people in the long run will meet their obligations.

Farm exports from the United States were three percent higher for March than for February. Shipments for March amounted to $244 million.

Dual fans, operated in series for the continuous processing of burrs and trash at the gin, have been approved by the USDA as a practical method for handling gin waste and for controlling pink bollworms.

By 1957 REA officials predict that its Texas customers will be using almost 4 billion kilowatt hours of electricity, or three times the present usage.

More than half of all tractor accident fatalities are due to overturning. Side tips are usually caused from excessive speeds. Backward tipping results chiefly from forcing tractors out of ditches or improper hitching of equipment.

Tests conducted at the USDA's Southwestern Bee Culture Laboratory at Tucson, Arizona, show that honey bees can increase the yield of irrigated cotton by 22 percent.

Potatoes are now one of the best food buys. The supply is plentiful and prices are far below those of a year ago.

TEXAS COTTON INDUSTRY

A four hundred million dollar industry is thriving in the nation today, built on a raw material that was discarded as "waste" a century ago.

This "waste material" is cottonseed, a commodity that now creates an annual farm income of some $400 million. At one time, these precious pellets were considered worthless. Except for a small quantity needed for planting the new cotton crop, cottonseed were dumped in nearby bodies of water or left to rot near the gin.

For each 100 pounds of cotton, the plant yields about 180 pounds of seed. Not more than 18 pounds of this seed are needed to plant the next year's crop. The rest goes into hundreds of different products ranging from food to gunpowder.

We actually eat a large portion of this seed. Nearly 100 percent of the oil extracted from cottonseed is used in edible products such as vegetable shortening, margarine, salad and cooking oils, salad dressing and mayonnaise. Some cottonseed oil is used in manufacturing washing powder, paints, linoleum, oil-cloth and similar products.

The seed is just a part of the picture, however. In Texas, the largest cotton producing state, the total crop value amounts to some $812,345,000 annually. It is grown on 153,177 farms, or 46 per cent of the total farms in the state. We produced approximately 4,350,000 bales of cotton and 1,803,000 tons of cottonseed last year.

Cotton and its byproducts accounted for 38 percent of the total farm marketings. They brought income to some 1,793 gins, 113 warehouses, 87 oil mills and 53 textile mills in the state—and to thousands more who are benefited by their payrolls.

That's why keeping Texas cotton prosperous is everybody's business.

Seeking Election in District

George Mahon has announced this as a candidate for re-election to Congress. His application is on file with the Democratic chairman. go my whole limit to do a good job. I want to contribute everything within my power to the cause of decency and good government and to the cause of peace and security. I am not unaware of the fact that there are scores of important matters in which the people of our district are interested. It is the duty of a member of Congress when questions arise to do what he can in the public interest. He cannot foresee what the future developments may be. "Congress is now wrestling with such issues as the new farm program, an effective policy of water and soil conservation, methods of encouraging economic well being and prosperity, how far to go in military preparedness, how to keep out of another war, and numerous other vital matters. "Thousands of people write me each year for personal services of one kind or another having to do with the federal government. I welcome a continuation of these requests. Most of them are not of a legislative nature, but they are important to the people, and it is my duty and pleasure to perform any service, however small at any time for the people I have the honor to represent in congress."

LIBRARY NEWS

(By Mrs. Roy Hollar)

This column comes to you "by recording" so to speak. When you read this your librarian will be on vacation in south Texas. The work of the library will go ahead as scheduled and story hour will be accomplished just as usual on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Clyde Harmon, Mrs. Ivy Pearl Reber and Dorothy Duncan will be carrying on the circulation routine in the central library.

Miss Barbara Perry told stories and Mrs. C. W. Dennison sponsored for the 1929 Study club, about forty were present including a visitor Ellen Stone from Fort Worth.

It has been a pleasure to note the continuing registration of borrowers in both Lockney and Floydada. We hope that the summer will prove a time of pleasant reading experiences for all our borrowers. Historical fiction has proved very popular with many of our readers.

The Civil War period is particularly in demand. "Gone With the Wind" is still the most sought after book in the category of historical fiction. The books by Gwen Bristow are also in constant use.

Other favorites include "Lorna Doone" which has lived some three-quarters of a century and has appeared in a variety of editions. There is still demand for Scott's novels and the spirit of Charles Dickens should be delighted to see how the cinema has used his books and how they are still read for the atmosphere of an age that Dickens painted with an honest, if not a complimentary brush.

The Southwest has furnished an ever-growing theme for historical novels. "The Comancheros" by Paul Wellman is set in the Palo Duro canyon. We suggest that you read it to check the authenticity of the description.

There is room for argument as to whether Cleveland's "No Life For a Lady" is local history or biography. We do not intend to settle the question but we do suggest that you read the book when you are in a mood for historical fiction this one factual but you will enjoy it as much as fiction.

What Was This Call Worth?

"My, can I stay at grandmother's tonight?" That was little's very first telephone call—a real thrill that can hardly be measured in dollars and cents. Yet, Mrs. Caroline Niemeyer, grandmother, can tell you what that call cost. She is a group of customers who kept day-by-day records of calls made for a week—a total of 30 calls covering 133 miles. She broke her telephone bill down into the actual cost of each call. "I was amazed," she reported, "at how little my telephone service cost for all the convenience and happiness it gives." Marshall Says Home Storage Need for Milo

I wish to say a few words to my farmer friends. It is difficult for me to believe that grain storage is as scarce as some would have us believe. What I wish to say to you farmers is if you do not have sufficient storage for your grain, build it and fast.

As I see it, here is the present situation. The big grain dealers resent the government loan idea, because they could make more money to buy the grain than to just rent their storage out for government storage. To illustrate what I am trying to say, suppose you owned a million bushel storage, would you rent that storage out for government loan grain or would you rather fill it with grain of your own? (If storage is not available it would have to go on the market as distress grain at 40 to 50 cents per bushel less than it is worth) you would then get the storage also.

Our government realizes that if the farmer does not get a fair price for his grain he can not buy the other goods needed and the farmer is the biggest buyer in the nation. Every merchant who has something to sell is affected, percentage speaking. That is the foundation idea back of the government loan on grain. It is to protect the economy of our nation. In the same proportion that the farmer is broke, our nation is broke and every merchant in the nation is in the same proportion.

It distresses me to think what is going to happen to our farmers on this big milo crop coming up. There is not but one answer, store it at home.

There is not in sight at present, a market as a fair price that can consume this milo crop including live-stock feeding, beer making and a few other minor uses. Livestock feeding on your farm would be my answer.

I have a plan on how to put ventilators through your granary that

May Be Reason For No Closing On Pick-up Day

In answer to article of Lions Club, explaining about the business men's failing to close up on Cleanup Day.

I have not talked to anyone about this, but I imagine they feel as I do. The pickup boys never have picked up anything on my place, for I have my own trailer, and I haul off myself.

With due respect to the labor: There was a pile of trash my neighbor piled in the alley, that he cleaned up on a vacant lot that he and I have kept clean four or five years. And they passed that pile four or five times. I was in the alley when they passed it up. And a meter reader came along. I asked him why they passed it up. He said he did not know. They finally picked it up.

It might have been that they (the business men) are afraid that some power politician might tell the city council what to do, like what happened about a permit to build a filling station on South Wall Street and Highway 70.

So, being a tax payer, let's have a little more labor with the truck might save your crop of grain. It is very cheap and allows air to circulate entirely through your granary. I will give a brief description of it.

Build a box shape trough out of a 3 by 6 rough. Place these troughs up-side-down through your granary about two feet from the floor and about every six feet. These troughs are to run entirely through the granary and out past the studs, at least four inches so that a one-by-four can be nailed on top of the troughs outside of the studs. Cover the ends of the trough that sticks out of the granary with fly screens, place a strip of tin of trough outside of granary to keep out water. Remove troughs when emptying granary.

Any farmer wishing to have his grain by ventilating the granary who does not fully understand the above pattern please come by 602 South Wall street in Floydada and I will be happy to explain every detail. I have tried these ventilators and know their value.

My father was a grain man when I was born in Fannin county and a gin man and farmer until I was grown and married. I ran an elevator here in Floydada for over 30 years. I am for the farmers regardless. Anything I might do or say that will help him to make money, I will do.

602 South Wall street,
Floydada, Texas.

Recalls Other Families Left Out of Article

To The Hesperian:

Thank you so much for publishing my pioneer piece in your paper. I am enjoying my Hesperian very much these days, but sorry to see the names of so many of our friends gone on to rest, yet our loss is heaven's gain in most deaths, I believe.

When reading my story in print, I find that I have left out a page or two of old friends and relatives. To all of those good people an apology.

The ones I wrote about (but failed to send in by accident, I assure you) were the Fortenberrys, Bourlands, Draces, Lal Lewis, Sam Pool and Uncle Milledge Taylor and families who came there before 1900.

The Bullards, Randolps, Botelers and Lemons may have all been there before 1900. I cannot remember for sure. But I do know all of them were church working people and mighty good neighbors, though part of them lived from 10 to 15 miles from us.

What I told of my oldest brother, Arthur and family failed to get published too. Minnie and Arthur live in Colton, California. Their two sons and family also live in California. Their only daughter and family live in Missouri.

I'm still living in Abilene, but am spending the summer with my son-in-law and daughter Clyde and Alba White at Stanton. My other daughter and her family, the Clyde Lathems of Abilene, and also my only son and family of Donner, Louisiana, are to visit us next week.

Margie (Nickell) Cozby, and help we have. With respect and best wishes to all,

Center News

(By Mrs. J. E. Green)

(Crowded out last week)

CENTER, June 15 — Today is pleasant with a few clouds floating around. An agreeable change from the hard winds of the last few days. We had good crowds at both services Sunday.

The Fairview-Center vacation bible school held in Center church last week closed Friday night with an excellent program. We thank the Fairview teachers and children for helping make it such a success.

June Hartline, who is working with Wayland college nursery children this summer, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hartline.

Bro. and Mrs. Hodges and Jerry were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross.

Nancy and Lane Graham of Lubbock attended church services Sunday morning and were Sunday dinner guests in the J. R. Robertson home. Jimmy Dunn also was a dinner guest in the home.

In spite of the sunburns, no doubt everyone of the 30 or 40 people who attended the Center church annual picnic at the Youth camp grounds Saturday had a good time. Such good eats, the fellowship and the swimming, games, etc and the weather left nothing to be desired.

Carleta Reeves spent the week-end with Margaret Dunn and attended the picnic and Sunday services.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lide of Dougherty visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Welborn and daughters visited Sunday afternoon in the Doyle Sandifur and Frank Dunn homes.

Mrs. May Easterling of San Bernardino, California, arrived Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter Sims. She visited other relatives in and around Floydada and Lockney. Mr. and Mrs. Sandefur of Lockney were also dinner guests Friday in the Sims home. Mrs. Easterling left Tuesday for home via Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers and her sister and small brother all of Amarillo visited Sunday afternoon in the Green home. Mrs. Rogers and Margaret Ryman were friends at Wayland.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cox and children of Levelland were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Cox's brother and family, the W. L. Hartlines. Mrs. Charlie Hartline of Cameron who has been visiting her son's family and other relatives here returned home with her daughters family, the Cox's, for several days visit. They all made a short stop at the J. E. Green home on their way home.

Last Thursday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Rymon, Don Clark and Mrs. J. E. Green accompanied by Mrs. Charlie Hartline made a trip to Olton to visit relatives, the H. V. Grays. Mrs. Hartline had not seen them in more than 25 years. On the way back they called in the Victor Green home in Plainview.

W. M. U. met Monday afternoon at the church. Afterward, Mrs. Green called in the Morris home. Grandmother Morris who is ill seems somewhat improved and is able to be up a short time each day now.

Mrs. J. A. Hartsell entered the Crosbyton hospital Monday for a few days check-up. Club members remember to send her a card.

Imogene Noland of Wayland visited home folks, the T. R. Noland over the weekend.

Mrs. Maude E. Hollums and J. S. Hale returned Friday from Sanderson, Texas where they spent a week as guests of their brother, Mark Duncan, and his family. Mr. Duncan is in the pharmacy business at Sanderson.

A 3-C David Visage, son of Mrs. Norene Visage, Lockney, is being trained as an air force pilot at Warren Air Force base.

CUSTOM NOTE: Twin-Turbine Dynaflo and Safety Power Steering are standard equipment on every Buick ROADMASTER of no extra cost.

It makes you feel like the man you are

YOU must know, of course, that a fine car is more than merely a means of fine travel.

It is, as the psychologists tell us, an extension of a man's own personality.

It reflects what you feel, what you like, what you are.

So we ask you to take the wheel of a Buick ROADMASTER like the one shown here—for it is, we have found, the automobile chosen more and more by those who are definitely moving ahead in the world.

You will find it a car that fairly breathes success.

From its size and its breadth and the magnificent modernity of its styling, you know it is a car of custom stature — and so does the watching world.

The wondrous windshield is a pride in itself. You don't just see the view — you command it.

You will find it, too, a car of luxurious obedience.

From the moment you ease your foot down on the pedal, you take immediate mastery of the road and of distance.

And you know it—in the silken whip of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo, the might of Buick's greatest horsepower, the magic cushioning of coil springs on all four wheels, the exhilarating ease of Buick Safety Power Steering at your hand.

But with all this, you buy with prudence when you buy a ROADMASTER.

For—though it is, and looks, custom production—it sells for the lowest price-per-pound in the fine-car field. And so wise an investment makes you feel even more like the man you are.

Drop in, or phone us this week, and we'll gladly arrange a demonstration.

BUICK SALES ARE SOARING!

Latest figures for the first four months of 1954 show Buick now outselling every other car in America except two of the so-called "low-price three." Better look into Buick if you want the beauty and the buy of the year.

Fashion Flair For The Family

This is the uncluttered look in furniture. It is ideal for young marrieds. This grouping is part of an extensive line of correlated bedroom, dining room and occasional living room pieces.

Note particularly the banking of the single and double dresser pieces. This arrangement supplies nine drawers of utility. The bed features sculptured panels at the head and foot.

The night stand can double throughout the house. It's easily adaptable as a lamp or end table in the living room. It also provides an added bit of valued storage wherever it's wanted.

Called "Flair," this group is finished in a warm toast tone.

South Plains News

(By Mrs. Murray Julian)

SOUTH PLAINS, June 21—The daily vacation bible school closed Friday with commencement exercises at 8 o'clock that night. Sixty-five children and teachers were registered for the school, and everyone enjoyed the program thoroughly. Many useful things for the home and church were made during the school, among them small stands for each teacher to use in the class rooms, to hold the bibles. During the last few days those who served refreshments to the pupils and teachers each morning were Mmes. Ben Kearns, Sterling Cummings, L. T. Wood, Eulan Bradshaw, Sylvia Kinnibrugh, and Early Pritchett. The teachers are to be commended for a wonderful school.

Mrs. Johnny Wilson was in the wash house last Wednesday morning when she noticed the burner had gone out on the gasoline water heater. As she lighted the burner, an explosion knocked her to the floor. She put out the flames in her hair, and was very badly burned about the right hand and arm. She was taken immediately to the Pitts hospital in Floydada, and is there at this time. The burns are healing on her face and one arm, but due to the deep burns on the other hand, she will still have to stay at the hospital for a few days. We are thankful that her clothes did not ignite, and we hope she is soon able to come home.

News of Harmony

(By Mrs. Mather Carr)

HARMONY, June 21—We just learned Friday night about Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bairds new daughter who is about two months old. She is a pretty baby with long black hair. The Bairds have another daughter Dixie who is four years of age.

Everett Miller returned home last Monday from the hospital where he had been for more than a week suffering from burns he received when his work shop was destroyed by fire. He has been back several times since for dressings and the doctors say he is doing fine.

Niece of Lockney Publisher Killed In Crossing Crash

A 15-year old Lubbock girl, Winona Sue Hays, was instantly killed and two young companions injured last Thursday when a heavily loaded Santa Fe diesel locomotive crashed into their car about a mile north of Lubbock.

The victim was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Hays of Lubbock and a niece of Edgar Hays editor of the Lockney Beacon.

The train was traveling between 20-25 miles an hour and the car about 10 or 15 miles an hour. The occupants of the car only caught a glimpse of the train before it hit and the train, because of the heavy load, couldn't be stopped in time.

The engine struck the car squarely in the right front door, with the coupling crashing in about two feet. The girl was sitting on the top side.

Funeral services for the young victim were conducted June 19, in the Tabernacle Baptist church in Lubbock.

Jackie Hutchinson Hospitalized From Injuries in Navy

Mrs. J. A. Hutchinson had the pleasure of talking to her son Jackie, by phone Saturday from Virginia.

Jackie was painfully injured several weeks ago in an 8-foot fall from a gun mount, aboard his ship the U. S. S. Stribling.

The Stribling had just left port in Norfolk, Virginia, on a cruise to the Carolines when the accident happened. Jackie was brought back to the hospital in Portsmouth, Virginia where his injuries were diagnosed as muscular fractures of the neck and back.

Jackie told his mother it would probably be some time before the full extent of his injuries were known but he now had weights on his neck and on each of his legs and he would be put in a back brace before too long.

Jackie is due for a discharge in August and it was reported that as soon as he was able to travel, he would be home on sick leave. In the mean time he is wishing for letters from his friends.

His address is Ward "A", Portsmouth Naval Hospital, Portsmouth Virginia.

Judy Cook, of Amarillo, and Gay Lynn Edmondson, of Borger, are here spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Battey.

Rattler Makes News as Spring Sun Warms Area

It is reported that the Montgomery ranch in the canyon is having trouble, snake trouble, that is.

At least 30 rattlers varying in size have been killed at the ranch since the beginning of spring.

Ronnie Downing, son of Gordon P. Downing, Floydada, and Q. D. Williams of the ranch, killed a 3 1/2 foot rattler Wednesday of last week. It was sporting 12 rattlers. It is said Ronnie is making a real cowboy, and snake killer, too.

It has been noted that most of these snakes are raiding rabbit dens, and eating the small rabbits. The one killed Wednesday was reported to have swallowed a grown one, so it must have been a monster.

Not all of the snakes are in the canyon tho. On the same day last week the 16-month-old son of Lt. and Mrs. F. M. Kinnier, was playing in the yard of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Norman of Dougherty, when he stepped in some mud His mother brought him in to clean the mud off his shoes. A few minutes later his grandfather walked across the yard where the child had been playing and found a four-foot diamond back taking his sun bath and displaying nine rattlers. Mr. Norman located a hoe and proceeded to destroy the reptile.

A prairie snake last week, in search for food, got tangled in the circuit at Lighthouse Electric's four-mile substation east of Floydada and interrupted service on the line east and southeast for more than an hour. This reptile, however, was of the prairie or garden variety, which does not pack the wallop that the rattlers do.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

(By Nellie Witt Spikes)

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea; though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble with its tumult. (Psalm 46:1-3 R. S. V.)

"Fear is as old as man. Yet at times we think it is something affecting only this period. On the street, in the shop, in all walks of life, we hear people talking about fear — fear of health, fear of war, financial fears, and many more. We can find all modern fears recorded in the bible from Genesis through revelation. We also find in God's Word the answer for every need.

"The world has living examples of Christian courage today. It needs millions more of them — in your life and in mine, in the lives of all people of all races and all nations on the face of the earth. If we only open our eyes and look around us, we realize that the Lord is truly near us. By His abiding presence God is ever seeking to answer our fears. In faith that He will deliver us from all fears, we need to bring them to Him. He cares for us."

The above is copied from the June number of The Upper Room and is written by Raymond W. Burch, a merchant in Idaho. And he ends by a prayer and a thought for the day:

"Fear is absence of faith in God's power."

I find much for thought and inspiration in the above. I look back and recall the fears that beset the older ones when I was a child and how God sustained and comforted His people through droughts and the Payne, Jamice and her twin brothers, Larry Dean and Barry Gene children of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Payne. The parents all came out Tuesday night for a visit and to get their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Helms went to Clovis for the week-end to visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Giles and other relatives and to get their daughters Bonnie and Judy who have been in Clovis for a week.

Ann Hopper of Lubbock visited over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hopper.

Sunday visitors in the Gene Hopper home were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Taylor and family of Lone Star and Mr. and Mrs. James Sowell of south of Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Burton and children visited in Floydada Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burton.

many hardships and problems of that day. I take courage and find I can find the same comfort and help in the perplexities I meet from day to day.

My sister, Lois, her husband Henry Tubbs, Mr. Spikes and myself went to Knox City yesterday to visit Monch Spikes, who is in the hospital there. We found his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones very patient and attentive to her father who is a cousin of Jeff's and Henry's. We visited a short time in their home which is beautiful and homelike and we were charmed with the friendliness of the owners. We hope to go back some day.

Along the road we found much beauty from the rains. The purple Sweet Sultans were on every hand, marching along the highway and on into the pastures. Then we would find the white satiny thistles holding several miles. And the blossoms of the wild china swayed from many a tree. Gallardias, the Indian blanket flower had their place and for miles they brightened the road. The mesquite trees were heavy with green lace and some had golden curls tossed about. In Knox City there were many tall, beautiful mesquite and oh, how I wanted one like them in our own yard to make black lace on the grass and sway with every passing breeze.

This is a poem my friend, Flora Smith Dean wrote for me, knowing my love of mesquites:

To A Mesquite Tree

Gnarled and twisted branches Growing from the prairie grass, Near the cactus and the bear grass Where the snakes and lizards pass.

Your roots that grow so deeply They are gnarled and twisted, too, But your blossoms in the springtime They are curls of golden hue.

And your leaves are pale green laces Blowing softly in the breeze. Oh, mesquite! you are as faithful As the fairest forest tree.

You have braved the heat of summers When the rains but seldom fall Holding fast through wind and sandstorm You, a faithful tale could tell.
