re-converted. The balance that can be applied immediately on the educational unit is $42,000.

The church has planned against the need of parking facilities in the not-too distant future, also. Five lots giving a space of 125 by 150 feet will be used for this purpose after the R. E. L. Muncy home, now the property of the church, has been sold off and the space cleared.

The new unit will have a ground level first floor, with chapel and parlor to seat 300 persons, in addition to class rooms, rest rooms and kitchenette. It will be the assembly room for the Sunday school department for adults 50 years of age and over.

The second floor is planned to accommodate five departments of the school. It will have a complete nursery, kitchenette, rest rooms, reception room, where beginners and primaries will be accommodated.

On the third floor will be the adults, 25 to 35 years, and the young people's department.

Extensive re-modeling will be done to re-adapt the present educational unit and integrate the whole. An elevator off the opening foyer is planned.

The church building and planning committee is composed of A. T. Hull, chairman, Fred Battey, E. P. Nelson, Garland Foster, C. B. McDonald, Mrs. Alton B. Chapman and Mrs. Tate Jones.

Patnell Powell is chairman of the building finance committee.

Big Family of Normans Gather Here for Re-Union July Fourth

Relatives began arriving early Saturday in Floydada for the Norman reunion, which is celebrated yearly. All nine brothers and only sister were present for the occasion.

Visiting taking and showing pictures was the main entertainment. Several attended the Primitive Baptist church Sunday night where Elder Norman has an appointment the first Sunday night in each month.

Forty-six relatives and friends gathered for a picnic supper in the back yard of the E. L. Normans Sunday night.

Those here for the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Norman, Mrs. Beth Crompton and son, and Mrs. Gene Holder of Lubbock, Ann and Scotty Sue Lewis, Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Rogers and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norman and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Norman and son all of Ahileine, Eugene Norman and family Las Cruces, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Norman and children, Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Norman and daughter, and Mrs. Norman Penball and children of Amarillo, Mrs. Wayne Gound and children, Big Springs, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norman and children of Wellington, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Norman of Floydada.

A number of nieces and nephews were unable to attend. Wayne Gound, the only brother-in-law couldn't attend, due to the illness of his father. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Norman were unable to attend due to the distance.

Having lunch with the group were Mr. and Mrs. A. Meredith of Borger, and Tanya Redd, Floydada.

The next reunion is to be on the same date next year and will be held in Amarillo.

1,500 Attend Gathering of Exes Held at Flomot Saturday, Sunday

(By Mrs. J. N. Scrivner)

Large registration was made at the home evening of the Flomot Exes held at the high school gym at Flomot last Saturday and Sunday, July 3 and 4. Registration started at 5 P. M. Saturday.

At 7:30 a program started with the welcome address made by Ralph Stapleton.

All ex-teachers, and superintendents, first students, first graduation class and first trustees were introduced by president Louis Amick.

Miss Francis Jones was crowned queen of the home-coming. Francis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Jones, and granddaughter of the late B. T. Turner and Mrs. Turner, early day settlers of Flomot. Mrs. Turner now lives in Plainview, Texas, with her daughter Roxie.

Mrs. Rose Turner presented the history of Flomot school and projected slides of old time pictures were shown. These pictures stole all the program and the rest of the hours were spent in visiting.

A bountiful dinner was served to 1500 or more people by the ladies of the Flomot community.

Plaque Honors War Heroes

A bronze plaque engraved with the names of seven Flomot men who gave their lives for their country, was unveiled in the Flomot gymnasium at 11 A. M. Sunday morning July 4. Lt. Roy Amick, a graduate of Flomot high school gave the dedication address.

The memorial service opened with a song led by Wilburn Martin. Master of ceremonies was J. L. Spears who introduced Rev. Will Pritchett of Four Square Church of Amarillo, who gave the memorial address.

Announcements were made by Lewis Amick who paid tribute and expressed thanks to all members of the committee who worked so hard to make the first home coming of the Flomot Exes a great success.

The announcement was made that three years from July 4 there would be another such get-together.

At the close of the program the invocation was given by Wilburn Martin.

Arrangements were made on a community scale for the lunch served at 12:30 Sunday. It included barbecued beef and basket lunch served by the wonderful cooks of the Flomot community. The drinks were served and provided by Matador business and professional men.

Sunday afternoon was spent visiting and saying goodbye to all the old Exes, looking forward to the next meeting to be held July 3 and 4 of 1957.

Joe Spears was elected the new president.

Double Headers Are Scheduled In Softball Friday and Tuesday

The local softball diamond will be the scene of two Hi-Plains League double headers within the next week. On Friday night July 9 it will be Plainview against Builders Mart in the opener, and REA versus McCoy in the night cap.

On Tuesday night July 13 Plainview will tangle with REA in the opener and Builders Mart will play Farmer in the finale.

Interest in Hi-Plains league play is growing with each game. Last Friday night when Builders Mart and McCoy played fans turned out in the largest numbers this season. Most observers believe the teams of the league to be pretty evenly matched. Any club is capable of knocking off its opponent when things are just right for them.

This was demonstrated Friday when Builders Mart downed undefeated McCoy 3-0. Joy Ward pitched for the winners and gave up only two hits to the league leaders. Lewis Reddy was the losing hurler in the match that was close all the way.

In the game at Farmer Friday night it was Plainview 4, Farmer 1. The win gave the Plainview team a tie with McCoy for first place and set the stage for the game between these two leaders Tuesday night at McCoy. Floyd Ashley pitched for the winners and Bobby Little was the losing hurler. K. Davis accounted for the lone run for Farmer when he hit a home run for the losers.

Plainview Takes Lead

Green Machinery of Plainview took the lead in the Hi-Plains softball league Tuesday night when they defeated McCoy 14 to 1. Floyd Ashley was the winning pitcher for Plainview and also led his teammates in the hitting department. Duane Stephens pitched for the (See Plainview Leads, back page)

Abbey Test on Howard Land Seen As Certain

Tax Men Favor Modern Stores

Total tax valuations for 1954 in the City of Floydada showed a gross increase of only $60,750 over the valuations put on the books for last year. Boiled down to dollars and figure compares with last year's total of $2,374,570.

The new rolls reveal that valuations put on the numerous betterments in the business district, as well as the valuations put on residential modernizations, indicate an attitude on the part of the equalization board of rewarding instead of penalizing owners who spend money to keep their properties up-to-date. No increase in values is reflected on the rolls for considerably more than $100,000 spent in the retail district for modernizing and repairs. Valuations effective on the 1953 rolls are repeated practically 100 per cent for 1954 on both non-modernized and modernized properties.

Likewise, while the board did make a number of increases in values in the residential and outlying business property values, it also scaled down some values where property owners had their values "out of line" with current renditions in similar properties. The board is a 25 per cent of the probable value for taxation.

With a city rate of $1.50 per $100 the tax rolls this year carry total assessments at $35,283.30 of which 66-fifths goes to the general fund, 9-fifths to the debt service fund for maturing bonds and interest charges.

The equalization board this year was composed of M. H. Martin, N. W. Williams and R. M. Battey.

Mrs. Ralph Gordon was named deputy to assess the taxes and make up the rolls for collection.

RECORD LEASE EXTENSIONS ON BIG AREA NEAR CEDAR

Local tension over oil test prospects was eased up a lot last week-end when it was announced that Ralph Abbey and others of Dallas had a slush pit dug and a water drilling crew on the ground at their E. B. Howard No. 1, Section 23, G&M survey, three miles north and a mile east of Cedar.

The announcement was made two weeks ago that the Abbey interests would drill a test in the northeast location of this section and a stake was driven at the location.

This section along with several others, is leased by the Howards to Stanolind Oil & Gas Company.

In the meantime it has come to light that the test by Abbey is a farm out from Stanolind.

It has not been indicated when the actual drilling operations will begin, so far as is known locally. Grapevine has it that Abbey and associates are good operators.

Leases Are Extended

Another favorable sign that Stanolind still has faith in their northeast Floyd county project is seen in the fact that they obtained extensions of leases for a year from the Howards on approximately nine and a fourth sections of land in the vicinity where their test is to be made. The lease extensions were filed for record on June 30 by Mrs. Maud E. Hollums, of the Arthur B. Duncan Abstract Company. The leases were to have expired on Section 23, G and M, and an adjacent section on the night of the 30th, as well as on three other surveys.

Consideration for the extension was indicated at "$1 and other valuable considerations."

Sections on which leases were met for a year were on Sections 27, 29, 23 (site of the location line in June) 70, 71 and 111 in Block G-M (G & M survey). Also 25 per cent of the probable value for taxation.

At the same time there were a number of amendments to the leases filed. These amendments, for the most part, give Stanolind permission to sub-lease the lands affected in parcels of not less than quarter sections.

During the past week Stanolind and others have filed releases on lands they have been holding for sometime under lease. Among the companies which released part of their holding is Superior Oil Company.

Cancer Crusade Workers Back on Job After Holidays

Floyd county's Cancer Crusade Fund drive began to roll along again following the fourth of July holidays. The drive which is scheduled to wind up by July 15 got in a few days running before workers found everyone had a week end of visiting planned for their independence day and let up briefly in order to do a more complete job.

Ernest Carter, drive chairman, said yesterday the situation was under control with the complete county wide organization set up to finish the job quickly.

Mrs. Jo Ann Moody and the Lockney Business and Professional Women's club are carrying out the campaign at Lockney. Mrs. R. A. Dyson heads the Floydada organization. Mrs. Dyson will be assisted by the Rainbow girls in addition to the volunteer workers who will contact residents of the city.

Goal for the 1954 drive is $1,035.80.

INSTALLATION POSTPONED

Installation of officers of Floydada Lodge No. 712, A. O. U. M. which was to have been held last Saturday night, was postponed until Saturday July 10.

PROCEDURE IS SIMPLE How To Have Your Precinct Vote Represented in County Convention

Usually in Floyd county Democratic conventions several precincts are not represented and thus cheat themselves of a vote. In naming delegates to the state convention and in the tenor of the politics of the county convention.

Such need not be the case, it is pointed out by Ben P. Ayres, county chairman of the party. There are some things you have to do but the procedure is relatively simple. Here is how the machinery of it operates:

On first Primary Election Day, Saturday, July 24, at 2:30 P. M., the qualified voters of all election precincts of the county who desire to do so will hold their precinct Democratic conventions, at the places fixed for each precinct by the county Democratic Executive committee in its June meeting.

Begins with the Precinct

The purpose of the precinct convention will be to elect delegates to attend the county Democratic convention to be held on the first Saturday following first Primary Election Day, being July 31 at 2:30 P. M., in the district court room in the court house at Floydada.

The county Democratic convention will in turn elect delegates to attend the state Democratic convention to be held on September 14 at an hour and place to be fixed and announced later. The state Democratic convention will declare the nominations of the democratic party for governor and other state offices, and will adopt a party platform.

Each Precinct is entitled to one delegate for each 25 votes, or major fraction thereof, cast in such precinct for the party's candidate for governor in the last general election, and the county is entitled to one delegate to the state convention for each 300 of such votes cast in the County, or 9 delegates in this county. This year, every precinct in the county is entitled to at least one delegate to the county convention.

Procedure in Precincts

The procedure in the precinct conventions is as follows: Only qualified voters in the precinct may attend and participate. The precinct chairman, if he is present, or any qualified voter in the absence of the chairman, calls the meeting to order and makes a list of the qualified voters present. The qualified voters present then elect a chairman and secretary of the convention, and the proper number of delegates to the county convention, selecting alternates to attend if the delegates cannot do so. The convention may adopt any instructions to its delegates, and any resolutions, which it sees fit.

The proceedings of the convention including list of delegates and alternates, are to be put in writing in three copies, all three of which are to be signed by the chairman and secretary of the convention. One copy is to be retained by the chairman, and the others are sealed in an envelope and delivered to the county clerk before time for the county convention. The clerk posts one copy, and delivers the other to the county chairman, and the lists of delegates from the precinct convention comprise the roll of the county convention.

Bayless Jones Rites Held On Monday Morning

William Bayless Jones, 77, who made farming history in southeast Floyd county during and after first World War years, died Saturday at his home on the Matador highway east of Floydada after an illness that extended over a year.

Funeral rites were held Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church, with Dr. R. Earl Allen officiating and Gordon L. Downing, minister of the City Park church of Christ, assisting.

Interment was made in Lakeview cemetery. Pallbearers were Fred Cardinal, John Cardinal, Troy McNeill, Bill Jones, E. R. Melton and Adrain Field.

A native of Georgia, where he was born on November 7, 1876, Mr. Jones was married to Minnie Lee Bradford in that state on January 19, 1899. To them were born nine children, three of whom have since died, two at an early age, and one a daughter, Mrs. T. J. Cardinal, here in 1937.

Mrs. Jones succumbed in 1934 on July 4, after the family had migrated from Johnson county, Texas to Floyd county in 1912, to rear their large family.

Subsequently in 1940 Mr. Jones married Mrs. Robbs Owen at Olton.

Survivors include the wife, three daughters, Mrs. Bill McNeill, Floydada, Mrs. J. M. Harkins, Crosbyton and Mrs. Lloyd Otten, Clovis, three sons, Roe, Tate and R. T., all of Floydada, also one step-son, Helmon Owen, San Diego, California, 21 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren.

Two brothers also survive - Henry Jones, Big Spring and Lee Jones, Amarillo, and four sisters, Mrs. Anna Hambricht, San Diego, California, Mrs. O. Z. Snythe, Slaton, Mrs. Elmer Lachance and Mrs. Louise Johansen of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Club Annual Picnic Set For July 15

Floydada Country club officials are making plans for the club's annual afternoon and evening picnic at the club grounds on July 15. Lon Davis, Jr., is general chairman of the committee named by the directors to arrange for the picnic.

In the board organization meeting following the beginning of the club's year last week, Aaron Carthel was elected president of the board of directors and B. K. Barker, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board are J. R. King, Billy Brown, Gene Collins, Jr., Carl Minor, Jr., and Lon Davis, Jr.

Fugitive Returned

Darl Linker, indicted three years ago on a charge of theft of plow parts from the L. L. Jones farm southwest of Floydada, is back in Floyd county. He was arrested at Wewoka, Oklahoma by officials there Sheriff Earl Cooper made the trip to return the prisoner.

Linker was still in jail the first of the week pending bail.

He reached home too late to see three of his boys, who left for service with the armed forces while their father was still a fugitive.

Quick Interest Is Evident in Vote

Absentee votes in the Democratic primary July 24 cast Tuesday and until noon Wednesday totaled 18 in number, indicating the possibility that interest in the forthcoming election may be higher than is indicated by the lack of sound and fury that usually accompanies a primary every two years in Floyd county.

In reporting the absentee votes cast Miss Margaret Collier, county clerk, also said that she had forwarded ballots on 17 applications received in the first two days for absentee voting.

Deadline for absentee voters is July 20.

VIEWES AND COMMENT

Marks Another Step. The Hesperian may be, probably is, hipped on the matter of states' rights, the terrible encroachments of the federal government on the rights of the people. We note that most of our neighbors view the decade's current of events with complacency, but we seem not to be able to do so. It was just by a squeak that we missed having the 18-year-old voting age set by the national congress. We should not mind if Texas, like Georgia, should decide that a boy who is old enough to fight for his country ought to have a voice at the ballot box. But for the federal government to say that Texas must willy nilly give its 18-year-olds the franchise is another matter altogether. Surely the matter is one which the people of the sovereign (?) states can decide for themselves.

Now Comes Non-Segregation. More people of the United States think that segregation of the white and the colored races is wrong than think it is right. This is a statement of an evident fact. But the decision of the supreme court, to us, marks another step in the direction of the centralization of power in the federal government. Another move to destroy state autonomy, abolish local government. To us it is another step toward tyranny of centralized government. The federal government now will undertake to disregard prevailing sentiment in the communities where the feeling runs high and force these people to be "good." The high court even passes a law (in their decision) telling the states they will be given a few months in which to rearrange their affairs so as to comply with the court's decision. The high court's determination, regardless of the right or the wrong of the racial issue, is in line with the trend toward the dissolution of the union and its replacement with something else again—something not contemplated by the nation's founders.

The Falcon Dam paid for itself last week. Had the Rio Grande roared on down the valley the damage would have been unimaginable millions on top of the misery done above the dam. But the dam swallowed the flood up in a giant gulp. And the water it impounded will be used to add to the happiness and prosperity of the people below it instead of flooding their homes and cattle and crops. More Falcon dams are coming—on the Rio Grande, the Brazos, the Trinity, the Sabine, San Antonio, Nueces, Guadalupe—all of them. After awhile they'll get out to us—we hope, along with KFLD and the others.

That Colorado Weather. The reason Colorado has been having that awful streak of heat that has been simmering at 105 degrees at Denver, Colorado Springs and on up nearly to the mountains themselves—the reason for it is punitive. Colorado stole away the Air Force academy from Texas. Everybody knows it should have been located at San Antonio. The gods are dealing them misery for it.

More paving coming up soon. A little that might be mushroomed into a lot if the people would get interested. If the California street people would like for their neighbors to call them blessed and would like for their street to look its best they could initiate a paving program when the city gets going on South Fifth. And Fifth street people, both south and north could easily get in on the deal for three or four blocks and make travel easier, their town look better — and everything. Paving does cost, we admit, but paving is a good thing. If everybody wanted paved streets and pretty lawns and a better looking town generally as bad as they want a good-looking automobile the movement would spread fast.

Let's Have Faith. Floydada Chamber of Commerce in its bulletin to members last week told of eight new and important business additions or betterments in the community—evidence of the faith in the town. And then offers this advice to the members: "Pave that street . . . build that new store front . . . landscape the parks . . . be courteous to Floydada customers . . . clean up those restrooms . . . water those lawns, plant those flowers . . . leave downtown display window lights on at night . . . clean dirt and weeds from streets and alleys . . . modernize selling methods and advertise . . . speak up for Floydada, be proud of Floydada . . . paint and repair those homes . . . when you think of buying, think of Floydada first . . . invest in your town with new buildings, new businesses, new homes . . . Get your out-of-town friends to invest in Floydada . . . give Floydada customers the best selection of quality merchandise and price . . . repair those broken down curbs . . ."

Most of This advise could be taken by all of us, not alone Chamber of Commerce members. A suggestion that may have already come to you but the urge of which you have not taken to heart: The Chamber of Commerce needs to be supported more liberally, not that there has been any holler from that office. If you're not a member, join up. If you are a member and are in doubt increase your contribution beginning this month. It will be a good investment. The Chamber of Commerce is hitting the ball for you. You hit the ball for the Chamber of Commerce.

Research workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station have found that two gallons of spray per acre containing the recommended amount of insecticide controlled boll weevils and bollworms as well as 6 to 14 gallons when measured in terms of yield and insect infestation. Time and labor are saved because of the smaller amount of water needed.

Farm income in the United States for the first five months of 1954 were down 4 percent from the same period last year. Livestock receipts were about the same but crop receipts dropped 10 percent.

FLOODS AND DROUGHT

Two natural disasters loomed over Texas in the closing days of June; one struck with dramatic swiftness the second was paying a return visit. It is a fantastic "joke" that Texas can be plagued with floods and drought at the same time—and often within a few miles of each other. That is what happened last month. The devastating floods at Lamesa, Ozona and along the Rio Grande, resulting in tragic loss of lives and property, captured the newspaper headlines. But at the same time, farmers and ranchers in many parts of Central and West Texas began to feel the now familiar effects of a lack of water. The aftermath of both disasters will linger for a long time.

Despite recent rains in many areas of Texas, drought conditions are approaching the critical stage in a number of central and southern counties. Feed crops and pastures are deteriorating as strong winds and a blazing sun deplete the soil moisture. Typical of these drought-ridden areas is McCulloch county located in the geographic center of the state. A farm and ranch center, its county seat is Brady. Rural residents make up about 50 per cent of the total population and most of its economy is based on Agriculture.

The moisture situation is grave. Less than five inches of rain has fallen in McCulloch so far this year, and only a total of seven inches has been received since last October. This in a county whose normal rainfall is 24.94 annually.

The fields of cotton, grain sorghums, oats, corn, and forage crops along the Colorado River valley, Brady Creek and San Saba valley are suffering. Pastureland which makes up most of the remainder of the county is also in poor shape. As a result an appeal has been made to Austin and the federal government urging that immediate steps be taken to have the government feed program re-instated before more of the county's seriously depleted livestock has to be sacrificed.

Aid has been requested from federal authorities and Texas Agricultural leaders are forming plans of action. From all indications, the drought can be a real problem in the state again this year.

LIBRARY NEWS

(By Mrs. Roy Hollar)

Your county library has now been in operation a full calendar year. During this period a total of 21,000 books have been circulated in the county. Almost 1,900 borrowers have been registered.

The county owns, at this writing, 3,200 books of which about one-third have been gifts. We are adding books steadily. Many of our gifts have been things which met particular needs. A great many have been bought with gifts of cash and the selection made on the basis of the needs of the library. There have been gifts of time and anonymous cash gifts for help as formerly reported.

Our collection of memorial books has just passed the one hundred mark. Recent memorial books are: "Out of my Life and Thought" by Albert Schweitzer given by Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Bond in memory of Mrs. R. E. Fry;

"The Story of the Confederacy" by R. S. Henry given by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ginn in memory of John Wahl;

"Western Words, a dictionary of Western Words and phrases" given by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Daniel in memory of John Wahl;

"Sing in the Dark" by Maud Morgan Thomas given by Miss Erin Gamble in appreciation of Mrs. Emma Robbins;

"The Eternal Voice" by Leslie D. Weatherhead given by Mrs. R. C. Henry in memory of J. L. Heim. Mrs. Howard Drysdale brought us a box of very recent books during the past week.

Story hour was held in the court house with more than 30 children present. Mrs. Gordon Downing brought refreshments and told the stories which she illustrated with her flannel board. There were games and songs also. Mrs. R. C. Henry, chairman of the story hour committee, for the 1929 Study Club was present. New faces at the gathering were Mina Fae McClenon, Dorothy Edmiston and Ann Pawyer.

During the month of June we checked out 2637 books of which 503 were checked out of our Lockney Branch. This is considerably over our average. This month has also shown a good percentage of non-fiction reading. Inspirational reading, poetry, biography and home-making books have been high on the list.

Our circulation at Floydada last Saturday exceeded the one hundred mark and puts July off to a nice start.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Willis and son, Bobby, of Amarillo, were Sunday guests of Mr. Willis' mother, Mrs. R. H. Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn White were among the Floyd county people who attended the home coming of former residents at Bellevue last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Spence were among the numerous Floyd county people who attended one or more days of the Cowboys' reunion in Stamford July 2 to 5.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hawkins and Kirk Edwards of Henrietta, were week-end guests of Mrs. Lon V. Smith. Mr. Hawkins is a brother and Mr. Edwards a nephew of Mrs. Smith.

Canto Chorus to Sing Here Friday Night

The nationally famous Bel Canto Chorus of Boles Orphan Home, Texas, will be presented at the First Church of Christ, located on Tennessee at 8 o'clock, Friday night, July 9.

The Canto Chorus, accompanied by their own orchestra, is currently touring in its fifth national tour, having visited many states and cities in the past year. The Bel Canto Chorus was organized in 1949, and since that time has traveled extensively throughout the year and throughout the country, singing to the hearts of thousands of people.

The program includes songs of praise and devotion, familiar and well loved hymns, and spiritual selections. The Bel Canto Chorus is directed and trained by A. Hugh Graham. The student director is Paul Robert Oler, a 16 year old fellow-student of the chorus. Included in the program will be special selections by several small groups from within the chorus such as a boys' chorus, a girls' sextet, and the Bel Canto male quartet. Tex Williams, manager of the chorus and director of the current tour, will give highlights of the program and purposes of Boles Home.

Boles Home is located approximately 50 miles east of Dallas, Texas, and is now caring for 265 dependent boys and girls.

The City Park Church of Christ extends a very cordial invitation to everyone to attend the concert and to enjoy the inspirational program, said Gordon L. Downing, the minister.

STATEMENTS MADE recently in the House of Representatives by Representative Christi Shivers is 'obnoxious labor' are uncalled for and unjust.

Actually, Governor Shivers has been a friend of the laboring man. He always has been cooperative with the barbers' organizations in helping them to solve their union problems. I want all of Texas to know that the attacks being made on Governor Shivers for his stand on labor do not represent only the views of the labor bosses who do not like Allan Shivers because they can not control him. I want to get rid of Governor Shivers substitute, in his place, a man who will let them run the state and dictate to the people the same way they are dictating to all members of organized labor.

Volunteer Valley Funds Sought For Red Cross Relief

Citizens of Floyd county will undoubtedly want to contribute to the relief of the Rio Grande Valley sufferers through the Red Cross.

N. W. Williams announced this week there would be no fund drive for the purpose but that volunteer funds will be handled through the county chapter and he hopes that donations will be generous in view of the extensive need for rehabilitation and the program being set up.

Volunteers may leave funds at either the First National Bank at Floydada or the First National Bank at Lockney, ear-marked for Red Cross Rio Grande Valley disaster relief and the same will have prompt attention.

Large quantities of used clothing have already been supplied the sufferers and there is no need at this time for clothing of any kind. Mr. Williams was advised by the Midwestern Area office at St. Louis.

SECOND SUNDAY SINGING

Petrified Logs Make Up Giant 'Forest' Area

Extending south from the Santa Fe Railway main transcontinental in eastern Arizona lies the greatest concentration of petrified wood in the world. It is also literally the most colorful. Containing 85,000 acres, Petrified Forest National Monument comprises six separate "forests" where giant logs of agate lie on the ground and numerous other broken sections and smaller chips and fragments lie about.

The region is formed of banded rocks of many colors carved by wind and rain into a landscape which is fantastic as to color and form. Here are beds of shale containing perfectly preserved fossil leaves of plants of unknown age. Occasionally the bones of giant reptiles and amphibians are washed from burial places in the rocks.

If the Spanish explorers, who first visited the area of the Southwest in 1940 and there after, encountered evidence of petrified remains of ancient trees they left no record. Apparently a U. S. Army officer was the first man to report the finding of "stone trees." That was in 1881, soon after Arizona was acquired by the United States. The petrified forests were still largely unknown, however, until the railroad, which is now the Santa Fe, penetrated the area in 1883. The area then began to attract attention.

Some of the notice accorded the area came near to being its undoing. Rings were built of blocks of petrified wood, gem collectors, and others, and one organization established a stamping mill to crush the petrified wood for use as an abrasive. Aroused Arizona petitioned the national Congress through their territorial legislature to make the area a national park so that its beauty might be preserved for future generations. As a result the Petrified Forest National Monument was established by Theodore Roosevelt in 1906.

Green Blue Books Are Time Savers

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company this week is distributing the July, 1934, directories for Floydada exchange.

Likewise they are suggesting to customers a highly valuable time-saver for use in long distance calls. They call it a Blue Book. In it you list the most used numbers you are likely to have occasion to call. Giving the operator the number you need in the distant town cuts time lost in half or more than half.

The Blue Book being distributed by Joyce Porter at the business office of the company, you'll find it green, when you call for it. It answers the same purpose.

artist had brushed the sands with myriad colors blending with the most skilled hands the reds, browns, blues, purples and yellows to bring out tones ranging from pale to brilliant.

In the Rainbow Forest Museum are to be found exhibits of polished petrified wood, fossils, minerals, charts and a diorama explaining the formation of the petrified forest and the bad lands.

In addition to the Santa Fe Railway which passes through the Petrified Forest National Monument, access is also by highway. There is a small campground at the Rainbow Forest which is available for free use of campers. Meals, gasoline, curios and other supplies may be obtained at the Fred Harvey-operated Painted Desert Inn on the Painted Desert rim drive, and at the Rainbow Forest Lodge near the south entrance to the monument.

Rangers of the National Park System are on hand to answer questions and assist visitors to the area.

"Old-fashioned ice cream is, thank goodness, still with us. But like many good things to eat, it has undergone some streamlining. For one thing it's easy to buy, in many different flavors.

Some people hang to the belief that it's better made at home, but even for them the process can be simplified. Canned milk, a ready-packaged freeze mixture and the electric refrigerator will turn out homemade ice cream, so-called, in a matter of minutes.

A few die-hards hold out for cooking custard, trotting out the hand freezer and doing it the long way round. Until two years ago, we held to that tradition, then the spouse gave in to science and bought half-interest in an electric freezer.

When this contraption is running, and the signs are right, you simply can't beat it. But like air travel, it's usually a last-minute proposition and if the motor sticks you're already too late by bus or train. The other night we had invited in some extra-special company, and to honor the occasion whipped up an extra special ice cream concoction: green sage plums, extra heavy cream -- it was sumptuous.

Or it would have been. For thirty minutes, as we fumed and fussed, the stubborn motor gave out only a sick little hum. So off went spouse and freezer to the repair shop and back into the refrigerator popped the fancy mixture.

We do mean popped. No sooner was the refrigerator door closed than a disturbing gurgle began inside. One horrified peek at the thick, sticky mass, oozing over salads, butter, eggs and vegetables, and we hastened to the telephone to call the spouse.

"Never mind the freezer," we reported grimly; "just get some ice cream."

Like we said, it's easy to buy, in many different flavors.

Mrs. Ludi Robl, sister of Mrs. Walter Baxter, who has been a patient in Peoples hospital for the past week, was transferred to the Methodist hospital in Lubbock Tuesday.

Dale Lawson was admitted to Peoples hospital Monday night for medical treatment.

GOVERNOR SHIVERS has had the best interest of our public schools at heart throughout his distinguished career of public service. The Governor and I have, at times, disagreed over the details involved in bringing about the improvements we both were seeking in the public school system; but I have never doubted, for one moment, his sincerity, his integrity or his ability.

The special session of the Legislature he called early this year to give our teachers a pay increase demonstrated once again his fine, statesman-like leadership, of which all Texans should be proud. We are going to need Governor Shivers' leadership more than ever during the next two years and I am proud to give him my whole-hearted support.

—Statement of Sen. A. M. Aiken, Jr., of Paris, Texas.

Thirty Million Boosters

Thirty million chiropractic patients can't be wrong in their praise because they and they alone are responsible for chiropractic's position today as the second largest healing profession in the world.

Ask the man or woman who has visited a chiropractor and he will tell you that these men in white are blazing a new trail in restoring the sick to good health.

Why?

Because chiropractic disregards the symptoms of disease and deals with its cause — a cause traced directly to improper functioning of the glands and other organs of the body.

Because chiropractic operates on the undisputed theory that all function is directed and controlled by the nervous system—the brain directing center, the spinal cord the main cable.

Like a telephone system, the nerves reach out to every part of the body and it must be obvious even to the lay person that these delicate nerves must not be disturbed.

Chiropractors locate disturbed nerves quickly, without pain and minimum expense to the sick.

Visit your chiropractor and join the parade to good health.

Piggly Wiggly Is Introducing A Hybrid Chicken

A new hybrid fowl, that is a cross between pheasant and chicken, is making its bow in Floydada. Called the "Barrel-Breasted Northwest", the hybrid is the creation of James H. Knowles, Centralia, Washington, breeder-geneticist, who worked 16 years to perfect this species cross. Distribution will be handled by Piggly Wiggly.

The hybrid is said to have a richer, more succulent flavor than ordinary chicken. Consumers say it has a pheasant tang, which is understandable in view of its 1/16th pheasant ancestry. In addition it has inherited the small bone structure of its pheasant forebears, which means the housewife will find more meat and less bone on this new type of fowl.

Crossing the species has produced another distinctive advantage. The bird is about 85% light meat. Even the drumsticks of the new fowl have a broad strip of white meat! The breast is thick and broad.

Producing this new fowl involves nine consecutive matings of pheasants and chickens. Five of these involve crosses between strains of pheasants or chickens, and one is the difficult species cross that is accomplished by artificial insemination.

Since the end result, the Northwest, is incapable of commercial reproduction, this involved mating process must be repeated every year. However, Breeder Knowles has his production problem well under control, and more than fifty million will be marketed next year.

Mrs. Margenia Nelson, accompanied by H. H. Nelson, left Sunday for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson in Dumas.

Patterson Family Wade Down Flood Waters to Safety

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Patterson of Ozona, former residents of Floydada, arrived here last Monday night with their three small sons and related to relatives the story of their narrow escape in the flood stricken city. Awakened near dawn Monday morning by the sounding of a fire alarm, Mrs. Patterson arose. Seeing no sign of fire or other danger, she returned to bed to be awakened again by the noise of furniture turning over as flood waters invaded their home.

The onrush of the water was so sudden that when she stepped on to the porch, the water reached to her arm-pits. Assisted by her husband, who carried the 1-year old child, she made her way to the clothes line. Taking the baby so her husband could return for the other two, she held to the line and waded to higher ground. Patterson, wading shoulder-deep water carried the other two boys to safety.

The Pattersons reported that their home was still standing, but that they saw other houses being carried away by the waters.

Allan Shivers knows the importance of good roads. Whether trade-routes that speed goods to market or modern super-highways that make your driving pleasure, good roads save you time and money.
